There is too little pianoforte music comparable with this put forward at the time present. These twelve duets are full of idea, humour, and capital science—wrought out cautiously, yet without fear of consequences—vide the Fugal Waltz, No. 6, and the Canon alla Tarantella, No. 12. Both contain problems to be solved, but in neither is the solution of the problem pedantically obtruded. Prof. Moscheles never writes unless he has something to say; and the least important of these twelve duets, which cannot be too strongly commended to duet-players of all ages and capacities, has some phrase of unborrowed melody—some happy touch of artful science—to remind us that we have to do with a new work by one who has been from first to last an original thinker and (in his day) an incomparable exhibitor of the pianoforte, with its modern effects and wonders.—Athenæum, October 26th, 1867.
