DEF LOC # 274

Testament

Though retired, I, who for years held important military positions, feel utterly overawed for having led the Empire to today's unprecedented state of near ruin. I can only atone for my sin by dying ten thousand deaths.

The railway explosion at the height of the anti-Japanese movement led to the Manchurian Incident and the Kwantung Army had no choice except to take action from the standpoint of self-defense. No instructions of any sort were received from the Government or the Military High Command. I, then commander of the Kwantung Army, am solely responsible for the action.

In leaving this world bearing full responsibility, I, hereby, pray from the bottom of my heart for the health and longevity of the Emperor, for the protection of our national constitution and for the restoration of the Empire.
