 Quartermaster, Headquarters and Service Command

1. Reference:

Special Regulation 711-45-1, 1950, as amended by change No. 4.

2. It is desired that Initial Inventory and Allowance Lists for Quartermaster items, as required by Special Regulations 711-45-1, amended by change 4, be accomplished by your unit or activity and that two (2) copies of the list be submitted to reach this Headquarters, (Attn: Quartermaster), on or before 1700 hours, 5 December 1950. Lists will be prepared to reflect the equipment status in your unit or activity as of 1 December 1950. Lists submitted by units will be prepared on DA AGO Form R-5612 (1 April 1950). Lists submitted by Accountable Supply Officers will be prepared on DA AGO Form R-5612 (1 April 1950). A supply of these forms is available in the Adjutant General's Office, this Headquarters. Lists will be classified as "RESTRICTED". Negative reports, if applicable, will be rendered.

3. Special attention is directed to SR 711-45-1 which contains detailed instructions covering the preparation of these reports and to change 4 which contains a complete list of Quartermaster items. The basic objective in the preparation of this report is to arrive at the total number of Quartermaster items in this Command. Care must be taken to avoid duplication in reporting items. The general rule established is that items will be reported only by the unit or activity that holds accountability for them. Items that are held on Memorandum Receipt from an Accountable Officer or another unit or activity will not be reported. Units will report all items other than those held on Memorandum Receipt.

Ltr fr Hq, Hq & Sv Comd, File HC 140.2 (GPGD), subject: "Submission of Initial Inventory and Allowances Lists for Army Medical Service and Corps of Engineers Items", dated 15 September 1950, (cont'd)

3. Special attention is directed to SR 711-45-1 which contains detailed instructions covering the preparation of these reports and changes 2 and 3 thereof which contain a complete list of Engineer and Medical Service items, respectively together with nomenclature, stock numbers, and line item numbers. The basic objective in the preparation of this report is to arrive at the total number of each Engineer and Medical Service item within this Command. Care must be exercised to avoid duplication in the reporting of items. The general rule established is that items will be reported only by the unit or activity that holds accountability for them. Items that are held on memorandum receipt from an accountable officer or another unit or activity will not be reported. Accountable supply officers will report all items that they have issued on memorandum receipt together with items in warehouse stocks. Units will report all items other than those held on memorandum receipt.
