NOTE.

1.—In the present edition of the Chinese Tariff of 1858 for the trade under the cognizance of the Inspectorate General of Customs, the Import and Export divisions of the original Tariff, and the Lists of Duty-free, of Exceptional, and of Contraband Goods, based on Rules 2, 3, and 5 of the "Rules appended to the Tariff," have been amalgamated and arranged alphabetically; but the articles, originally Duty free, which were made liable to duty on importation under the International Protocol of 1901 have been omitted.

2.—The decisions of the Chinese Government affecting the original Tariff which have come into operation since it was first published have been entered in their proper order.

3.—The following typographical arrangement has been adopted in this edition:—

- 1°. Dutiable articles taken over from the original Tariff are printed in ordinary type.
- 2°. Duty-free articles are printed in italics.
- 3°. Exceptional and contraband articles specified in the "Rules appended to the Tariff" are printed in black type.
- 4°. Entries based on decisions given since the publication of the original Tariff are printed in SMALL CAPITALS.

4.—Of the decisions given since the issue of the original Tariff, the present volume comprises only those which affect Customs practice at all the Treaty Ports, local rulings not having been included.

5.—This Tariff is now applied to the Export trade at all ports.

N.B.

(a.) This volume is solely for the use and guidance of the Customs Staff, and its aim is to secure uniformity in practice. While it is a Service explanation of Customs procedure in applying the Tariff, it is not itself the Tariff, and it cannot be quoted or appealed to as being more than it is, viz., a reproduction where the Treaty Tariff is reproduced and a statement of Customs practice for the time being in respect of various commodities not specifically provided for in Treaty or Tariff.

(b.) Articles now exempted do not become dutiable till after notice given. Similarly, articles now paying any specific Duty cannot be charged another rate till after notice.
