CITY COUNCIL AUTHORIZES PURCHASE OF 104 ACRES FOR PARK

AGED ARITHMETIC GIVES PROBLEMS MOST PECULIAR

Faded Text Book Used in Lesson Contains Numerous "Folish Queries"

"Readin' and 'ritin' and 'rithmetic, taught by the aid of the hickory stick." Mayor Spencer Robinson while rummaging around his home yesterday came across a musty, dog-eared, well worn, faded text book of 1820. The original owner of this book, John Wilson Spencer, was an island, Ill. The Blackhawk war. The school first judge in Rock Federal Academy's Arithmetic or N. H., and "ountant" was written to show Adams of Mont-Vernon, book the first published in 1802. The popularity of the book in the author casually mentioned that 40,000 more editions, "more particularly the introduction in this revised edition," he asserts, "is a curious production to the rule of current where the pupil is made acquainted with the different varieties of the several states." A chapter is devoted to "Federal money with rules for all the operations in it to reduce old to old lawful and old law to federal." The table of contents also announces "demonstrations by engravings of the reason and nature of the various steps in the extraction of the square and the roots not to be found in any other treatise on arithmetic." "Arithmetic is the art or science which treats of numbers, and claims the first bit of wisdom. It is of two kinds, theoretical and practical." "Directions to the scholar" follow shortly: "Deeply impress your mind with a sense of the importance of arithmetical knowledge. The great concerns of life can in no way be conducted without it. Do not, therefore, think any pains too great to be bestowed for its acquisition." (Continued on Page 12)

Pints and Quarts, Morality Clauses In This Old Book

Funny thing about Spencer Robinson's old arithmetic. Pints and quarts are terms that have almost been antiquated since 1917. One problem has never changed, however. Two and two make four. "Morality" clauses were included in old contracts. Apprentices were released with two suits of clothes. Now if an apprentice has a bathing suit and his own B. V. D.'s and loses his job the credit clothing store takes the rest of his clothes.

HIGH SCHOOL SITE FOR WEST SIDE BEING SOUGHT

Foothill Association Objects to Exceeding Voted Bonds Until Action Taken

The Foothill Improvement association last night went on record against the sale of the present high school property and the expenditure of any money in excess of the $600,000 voted in bonds on the east side site until it shall have provided an adequate west side site. Civic matters affecting the northwest portion of the city were discussed at an enthusiastic and well-attended meeting in the Central school. Pleasura was expressed at the prospect of having a branch library in this section of the city. Olin Spencer, chairman of the library board, announced that $5000 was being set aside for this purpose. A committee was appointed to confer with the library board in regard to a suitable site. Those appointed were O. M. Newby, 802 North Pacific avenue; Mrs. Myrtle Buckman, 1141 Winchester Road; Mrs. E. H. Botsford, 1031 Glenwood Road; Mrs. Alexander Mitchell, 2001 Kenneth Road and Mrs. A. R. Goodale, 535 Patterson avenue.

HOTEL PROJECT IS RECEIVING HELP OF FINANCIERS

Real Need for Right Kind of Institution Here Is Declared Apparent

By ART SHERBORNE "There is no question but that there is a real need for the right kind of a hotel in Glendale," yesterday stated George A. Whitney, representative of the W. Ross Campbell company which is financing the new hotel. "I don't see any reason why such a house couldn't be made successful," he continued. "Our intentions are to come in here and help you put over a good clean, straight legitimate proposition and to assist the citizens of Glendale to put over a successful conclusion a commercially profitable and creditable institution. This proposition must be a commercial success. If plans can be adopted, which will make it a show place and one of the most artistic in the country from an aesthetic or architectural standpoint, well and good but, if it is necessary to sacrifice the commercial success of the institution, it is folly to consider it for a moment." "The money will be so handled that the interests of the second mortgage bond holders will be protected in every possible manner. All profits will be applied toward the reduction of the second mortgage bonds before any person or persons receive any share in the profits of the hotel. The holders of the second mortgage bonds will be protected in every possible manner. Chance to Laugh, Three of 'Em, So Scan These Lines

An Alredale, old enough to know better, checked up the Glendale Music Company's Victor dog in front of its store last night.

Ralph Allan, manager of the T. D. & L. theatre, locked his key in the playhouse last night and then started to look for her all over town. What she told him doesn't need to be published. He found her in ten minutes—just about nine too many, she says.

Jesse E. Smith and family have returned from Yosemite where they enjoyed the scenery, but didn't do as much climbing as Peter L. Ferry and party. The Ford dealer still is cheering for the flivver that won the automobile rodeo at Camp Curry last week.

E. F. Sanders, assistant secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, came jumping into the office at noon today—all jazzed up, as it were, over the fact that between 9 and 11 a. m. he had obtained five new members, new lines of business and newcomers to the city. Ho-ho-ho! we say.

50TH ANNIVERSARY OF WEDDING DAY CELEBRATED

Mr. and Mrs. Nickolas Palmer Receives Congratulations at Big Reception

The home of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Palmer of 1108 East Colorado boulevard was the setting last night of a reception at which the guests of honor were the parents of Mr. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Nickolas Palmer of 1136 East Elk avenue, who were celebrating their fiftieth wedding anniversary, and their grandson and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Walters, whose marriage took place recently. A color scheme of white and gold was carried out in floral decorations of Shasta daisies and yellow pansies. In the rose garden, prettily decorated with shaded lights, refreshments were served from a table on which were two beautiful cakes, one bearing the words "Golden Wedding" and the other the names of the newly married couple. These were served with dainty refreshments.

LARGE DELEGATION OF BOYS GOES TO Y CAMP

Glendale, Eagle Rock and Burbank Send Lads on Outing at Catalina

Seventy-two boys from this district of the Y. M. C. A., with ten leaders, left early this morning by special Pacific Electric train for Wilmington, where they took the "Avallon" to Catalina Island. The party was under the general supervision of Rex C. Kelley, secretary for this district, and included boys from Glendale, Eagle Rock, Burbank and Annandale. At Wilmington the local delegation was joined by a party of boys from Azusa, accompanied by three leaders. Arriving at Avalon at noon, they were met by a chartered launch and taken to Camp Shaw, near Moonstone Beach, in time for a late dinner. They were then to be assigned to tents, seven boys and one leader to each tent.

Lots of Entertainment A number of books, musical instruments, records, a Victrola, fishing tackle, galore, and other articles which the boys will use were taken by Secretary Kelley, in addition to the things each boy took. Mr. Kelley has several specially-made monograms, consisting of a blue "Y" with a red triangle, which are to be awarded to those who make a certain average in the camp sports, contests and activities.

On next Tuesday, says Secretary Kelley, the parents of the boys are invited to celebrate Parents' Day at the camp. Those who wish to see their boys enjoying the freedom of camp life will take the boat to Avalon, where they will meet them there and take them to camp, arriving about the middle of the afternoon. Sports, a delicious barbecue, and other entertainment will be provided for the parents.

Fun Stunt Night It happened, according to the schedule of camp, that that evening, July 18, is "Stunt Night." (Continued on Page 9)

Girl Scouts Receive Awards of Merit

The Girl Scouts of America, Troop No. 1, who held their regular meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Chase, 400 Riverside Drive, entertained as special invited guests, the members of two newly-organized troops.

Troop No. 1 assembled at 2 o'clock and held a mock initiation followed by the formal investiture of Vivian Nay as Tenderfoot Scout.

The guests arrived at 2:30 and witnessed the Scout ceremony, when the merit badges were presented, as follows: Lucile Allen, citizen; Alexandria Bagley, health winner; Amy Bathbridge, interpreter and hostess; Cecil Chase, beekeeper; Bertha Brown, health winner.

Frances Betz and Bertha Brown were invested as second-class Scouts. Mary Stanley and Lucile Beach as first-class Scouts.

Following the ceremony, Alexandria Bagley presided at the business session, when a deciding vote was taken to leave on the annual camping trip the third week of August. This is to be a real outing, with the girls taking tents and sleeping bags and spending the week in the woods as genuine campers. Following this meeting, the Scouts and their guests repaired to the pleasant veranda and enjoyed a social hour, with light refreshments, served by the hospitality committee, of which Lucile Allen was chairman, assisted by Marjorie Hart, Carolyn Ayars, Sarah Chandler and Fredrika Brown.

Invited guests were Mrs. R. C. Horner, Miss Vera Sinclair and Miss Margaret Sharpe, leaders of the new troops; Dorothea Humans, Mabel Horner, Margaret Allwell, Ruth Rames, Virginia Cribbs, Leona Hunt, Evelyn Edwards, Stella Roberts, Jean Ingram, Mabel Todd, Marjorie Joffe, Ruth Vogel, Florence Knight, Theodora Peterson, Helen Hone, Zaida Koehler, Alice Garber. Scouts of Troop No. 1 present, in addition to those previously mentioned, were: Winifred Parker, Alice Carpenter, Beryl Goodale, Lina Borthick, Evelyn Hunt, Dorothy Houston, Lois Naudain, Katherine Stofft, Margaret Longley and the captain, Miss Gladys Sharpe.

WOODED LAND IN VERDUGO WILL BE SECURED FOR $60,000; PLAN AUTO HIGHWAY, OUTING PLACES

Municipal Authorities Invite Public To Visit Property; Swimming Pool and Picnic Spots Are Proposed

Glendale is to have a new park! The city council last night definitely authorized the purchase of 104 acres of wooded land in Verdugo canyon.

The consideration is $60,000, which is regarded as very reasonable by members of the real estate profession, it is declared.

The deal had to be put over at once or never, according to City Manager W. H. Reeves, on account of the fact that a Long Beach syndicate was in the market for the tract and had negotiations on foot to procure it.

The new property has a frontage of a quarter of a mile on the east side of Verdugo road at the end of Alpha street. It is somewhat hexagonal in shape and its depth is over twice its width. It adjoins the tract of over sixty acres on the northeast which is already owned by the city and the two plots are to be combined into one large park.

The new purchase composes part of lot one and all of lot two of the Verdugo estate. It is being deeded to the city by Mrs. Elizabeth Jones of 1445 Genesee street, Los Angeles, who took special pleasure in selling it to Glendale.

A special invitation was extended by City Manager W. H. Reeves to the public to inspect the new park at once. It is thickly wooded with live oaks and sycamore trees and has several flowing springs and a well with abundant water supply. There is a field for a baseball diamond, a picnic grove, adequate space for a large swimming pool, and plenty of room for outdoor sports.

Automobile Highway The first thing to be done by the city is the grading and widening of Alpha street so that it will provide a first class automobile highway from Canada boulevard to the new park. The estimated cost of this improvement ranges between $3000 and $5000.

Meanwhile, picnic benches and other improvements are to be made on the property itself. Three thousand dollars was spent recently by the private owners to clear away the underbrush. "Any man who will go up there and look it over and say that isn't worth the money is crazy," remarked Mr. Reeves enthusiastically this morning. "It will be worth double the money inside of five years at least."

Of this amount $20,000 will go toward the payment of the new park; about $5,000 will be paid for improvement; and at least $5,000 for the maintenance of the present park at Patterson avenue.

Helen Heyser Weds Chauncey G. Kolts

A number of local friends attended the wedding ceremony last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Heyser of 5226 South Normandie avenue when their daughter, Miss Helen Margaret Heyser, became the bride of Chauncey G. Kolts, former resident and high school student of this city. The ceremony, which took place promptly at eight o'clock, was performed by Rev. L. C. Dodelan, former United States army chaplain and present chaplain of Victory Post No. 54 of the American Legion. The beautiful Heyser home was elaborately decorated for the occasion with artistic and appropriate groupings of white and pink household treasures, with an abundance of greenery strewn about the rooms and centering them into a veritable flowery paradise. The bridal procession marched to the improvised altar in a tastefully and impressively arranged path of flowers, the surrounding embankments being made of numerous festoons of ferns and daisies.

Prior to the wedding the groom's mother, Mrs. Greeley C. Kolts, delighted the audience of friends and relatives with two beautifully rendered vocal solos. Following the ceremony Rev. Dodelan also sang several appropriate numbers.

"Well, don't raise so much rumpus about it," said G. A. Grismer of Burbank to his wife Monday after their Ford car had collided with a Maxwell driven by William Marsh of Pasadena, at the corner of Central and Colorado, Eagle Rock.
"If no one else is going to raise a rumpus, I am," retorted Mrs. Grismer, and she proceeded to explain to Mr. Marsh that it was all his fault.
Damage to the two cars was slight, the Maxwell suffering a bent fender and the Ford a bent fender and radius rod.
The occupants of the two cars parted, uninjured, but in gloomy spirits.

GERMANY'S TRIALS IN WAR TOLD BY WOMAN

Mrs. F. G. Kiene Returns to America From Ruined Realm of Kaiser

By TED JOHNSON
Some 200 members of the Woman's Twentieth Century Club of Eagle Rock are working this summer toward the raising of a thousand-dollar fund to help liquidate the debt incurred when the club recently purchased a lot adjoining the clubhouse, at the corner of Kenilworth avenue and Colorado boulevard.

At the last meeting of the year, on June 22, the club was divided into ten sections of twenty members each. These sections are to raise $100 each before the first meeting of the next club year, early in October. Some of these sections have not met as yet to elect their chairmen and to plan their own way of raising the quota.

Each Donates $5
At least one of the sections Mrs. Archibald Fisk's has decided that each member shall donate $5, thus raising the necessary $100, rather than hold a bazaar, card parties, or kindred forms of getting the money.

Mrs. Alice Winters is in charge of the summer's work, and each section electing its chairman. The ladies who have elected Mrs. C. A. Tinkham as their chairman are to furnish the dinner for the Eagle Rock Booster Banquet on Friday evening at the Twentieth Century club house. They are preparing for an attendance of between 200 and 250, and expect to make their quota in this manner.

Another activity which is being carried over the summer is the preparation for the Dahlia show next fall. This month, says Mrs. C. W. Young, chairman of the Dahlia committee, is the proper time to plant dahlias to mature for the show.

Dubbed 'Dahlia City'
"Let us all have at least one beautiful Dahlia for the exhibition," says Mrs. Young, "and make it a display that will attract visitors from all over southern California and thus make known our name 'The Dahlia City'."

Mrs. Young and her committee have been working industriously to get residents of Eagle Rock to plant and raise Dahlias. Prizes are being offered, it is understood, for the best specimen, $50 by the city council, $25 by the club, a number of valuable bulbs by J. J. Broomal, local grower, and other prizes by other individuals and organizations. Mr. Broomal is now planting the Dahlias which will mature and be put on display at the time of the exhibition.

Plans for Winter
Many activities are planned for next winter, according to Mrs. M. T. Lee of 241 North Paloma, president of the club. A dance is to be given once a month for the young people of the valley, she says. The choral club, also, is to give a series of concerts under the able direction of Mrs. W. D. Hume.

The officers of the Twentieth Century club for the next club year are: President, Mrs. M. T. Lee; first vice president, Mrs. R. W. Stephens; second vice president, Mrs. Archibald Fisk; third vice president, Mrs. C. M. Hensley; recording secretary, Mrs. J. H. Mosher; corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. W. Hunt; treasurer, Mrs. J. C. Clausen; auditor, Mrs. Arthur Buehler.

The board of directors is composed of: President, Mrs. Lee; vice president, Mrs. Alice Winters; Mrs. P. H. Ducker, Mrs. A. Tinkham, Mrs. A. G. Reilly, Mrs. R. L. McNeil and Mrs. H. Baly.

Miss Katherine Whorton of Louisville, Ky., is entertaining for her sister, Miss Irene Whorton, with a matinee party Thursday at the Metropole. Mrs. Whorton's Irish Rose, "Abie's Irish Rose," holds the boards for a record run. The Misses Lois and Margaret Garrett are among those invited from Eagle Rock.

Some 200 members of the Woman's Twentieth Century Club of Eagle Rock are working this summer toward the raising of a thousand-dollar fund to help liquidate the debt incurred when the club recently purchased a lot adjoining the clubhouse, at the corner of Kenilworth avenue and Colorado boulevard.

At the last meeting of the year, on June 22, the club was divided into ten sections of twenty members each. These sections are to raise $100 each before the first meeting of the next club year, early in October. Some of these sections have not met as yet to elect their chairmen and to plan their own way of raising the quota.

Each Donates $5
At least one of the sections Mrs. Archibald Fisk's has decided that each member shall donate $5, thus raising the necessary $100, rather than hold a bazaar, card parties, or kindred forms of getting the money.

Mrs. Alice Winters is in charge of the summer's work, and each section electing its chairman. The ladies who have elected Mrs. C. A. Tinkham as their chairman are to furnish the dinner for the Eagle Rock Booster Banquet on Friday evening at the Twentieth Century club house. They are preparing for an attendance of between 200 and 250, and expect to make their quota in this manner.

Another activity which is being carried over the summer is the preparation for the Dahlia show next fall. This month, says Mrs. C. W. Young, chairman of the Dahlia committee, is the proper time to plant dahlias to mature for the show.

Dubbed 'Dahlia City'
"Let us all have at least one beautiful Dahlia for the exhibition," says Mrs. Young, "and make it a display that will attract visitors from all over southern California and thus make known our name 'The Dahlia City'."

Mrs. Young and her committee have been working industriously to get residents of Eagle Rock to plant and raise Dahlias. Prizes are being offered, it is understood, for the best specimen, $50 by the city council, $25 by the club, a number of valuable bulbs by J. J. Broomal, local grower, and other prizes by other individuals and organizations. Mr. Broomal is now planting the Dahlias which will mature and be put on display at the time of the exhibition.

Plans for Winter
Many activities are planned for next winter, according to Mrs. M. T. Lee of 241 North Paloma, president of the club. A dance is to be given once a month for the young people of the valley, she says. The choral club, also, is to give a series of concerts under the able direction of Mrs. W. D. Hume.

The officers of the Twentieth Century club for the next club year are: President, Mrs. M. T. Lee; first vice president, Mrs. R. W. Stephens; second vice president, Mrs. Archibald Fisk; third vice president, Mrs. C. M. Hensley; recording secretary, Mrs. J. H. Mosher; corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. W. Hunt; treasurer, Mrs. J. C. Clausen; auditor, Mrs. Arthur Buehler.

The board of directors is composed of: President, Mrs. Lee; vice president, Mrs. Alice Winters; Mrs. P. H. Ducker, Mrs. A. Tinkham, Mrs. A. G. Reilly, Mrs. R. L. McNeil and Mrs. H. Baly.

Miss Katherine Whorton of Louisville, Ky., is entertaining for her sister, Miss Irene Whorton, with a matinee party Thursday at the Metropole. Mrs. Whorton's Irish Rose, "Abie's Irish Rose," holds the boards for a record run. The Misses Lois and Margaret Garrett are among those invited from Eagle Rock.

Mrs. Fred Chase of 609 South College View spent yesterday at Laguna Beach.
Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Overholzer of 239 East Park avenue expect to spend Sunday at Long Beach.
Mrs. Anna M. Harmon of Hollywood spent Tuesday with Mrs. Jennie Brayton, 117 West Hill avenue.
Mrs. A. Putnam and daughter Marjory, of 355 East Hill avenue are spending the summer at Laguna beach.
Glenn Gardner of 355 East Hill avenue is spending the week at Catalina with Mrs. R. G. Stephens and son Joe and daughter Iola.
R. C. Clark of the Clark & White realty firm, residing at 420 Stanley avenue, is driving his new sedan that was delivered yesterday.
Mrs. Nellie Slawson and her sister, Mrs. Jenny Kitchell, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lawry, 513 West Colorado boulevard, on Monday evening.
Mrs. J. W. Rigby and small daughter of North Acacia street are guests at Eagle Rock Lodge for a few days before moving to the northern part of the state.
Miss Adelaide Baker, formerly of Eagle Rock, was a house guest at Eagle Rock Lodge for a few days. Miss Phyllis Baker, her sister, formerly of Eagle Rock is visiting in Nova Scotia for the summer.

OCCIDENTAL WILL TRAIN TEACHERS FOR STATE

State Board of Education Approves Local College Preparatory Course

Announcement is made in the July-September bulletin of Occidental college to the effect that teachers will be trained by that institution in which practically everyone in Eagle Rock and vicinity has a personal interest. Following is the statement made in the bulletin:
"At the meeting of the state board of education held Monday, June 26, Occidental college applied for the privilege of preparing candidates to teach in the high schools of California, and also in the elementary and junior high schools. The request was granted without delay. The members of the board expressed themselves as highly gratified that Occidental was entering this new field and prophesied that it would mean much to the state and to the college. The majority of the board had been at considerable pains to familiarize themselves with Occidental's work and standing. They were ready, therefore, to pass upon her claims at once, and their approval was unqualified."

SHERLOCK HOLMES COULDN'T GUESS HANCOCK'S STORY

Son of Disc Plow Inventor Conducts Music Store in Eagle Rock

By GEORGE VAN SANDS
It is claimed that Sherlock Holmes had the ability to judge a man's profession by the jewelry he wore, but Milton T. Hancock of the Hancock Music company at 112 East Colorado boulevard, Eagle Rock, is at least one business man who Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's famous detective would have a most difficult time in guessing his profession by the jewelry he happens to wear.

About the only noticeable adornment that Mr. Hancock has about his person is a little gold circlet disc attached to his watch chain.
No, folks, you are all wrong! Even Sherlock Holmes would have guessed it a little gold talking machine record, but as it happens this little ornament bears no relation whatever to the music business.

Miniature Plow Disc
Close examination reveals it to be a miniature in gold of the disc in a modern plow.
Very few know the great attachments which Mr. Hancock has for this little golden disc that he constantly wears. Only after much questioning did he tell the story. His father was the inventor of the steel disc plow and before his death in an automobile accident in Los Angeles a few years ago was the head of mammoth organization to which every manufacturer of plows throughout the United States and Europe pays royalty on every disc turned out of their factories.

Losses in Litigation
The older Mr. Hancock was a man who did not bother much with written contracts. A man's word was good with him and his tragic death left a million dollar organization without a head. As time went on royalties did not flow in so fast, litigation started, one court action followed another; one firm of attorneys in Fort Worth, Tex., being paid a single fee of $65,000; but a dead man who had trusted others and who had not bothered with contracts did not have much showing in court.
Legal talent was all for naught, however, and the little gold disc dangling on the watch chain of his son is about all that remains except the memory.

Reputation Built
"In certain lines, very much to her credit, Occidental has always been conservative. Confining herself to the field of liberal arts and at the same time limiting her attention to the study of education for thorough work. This is shown to be well founded by the marked success of her alumni in competing for fellowships against all comers in the post-graduate ranks of the great universities. It is further confirmed by the fact that for several years Occidental has been on the accredited list of the Association of American Universities, and has now been admitted to membership in the Association of American Universities, Women."

The advent of President Remson Dubois Bird, whose inauguration occurred some days ago, signifies a new era for the college. His familiarity with educational problems, his enthusiasm and faculty of leadership, are already bringing results.
Building Programs
The new library will be a worthy memorial of Mrs. E. P. Clapp, known and loved in Occidental circles. Construction is to be under way before the return of the students from their summer vacation, and when finished it will be a splendid addition to the resources of a growing institution. The Women's Gymnasium and the president's house among the oaks of the campus are other signs of a building program which has only begun. A large increase of endowment has reached the stage of assured success. The revision of the curriculum indicates a determination to maintain the standard of graduation at top notch. We believe the state board has done well in approving Occidental as a trainer of teachers for the schools of California.

The registrar's office now has open and courses of study are outlined in the bulletin for prospective students.

Los Angeles Prepares to Welcome Dentists

LOS ANGELES, July 12.—For the first time in the history of the Southern California Association of the State of California will be host to that body when the 26th annual convention is held in Los Angeles July 17 to 21.
Arrangements for the entertainment of 5000 members of the national association are being worked out by a special committee of 300 Southern California dentists. Dr. Charles M. Bennett of Los Angeles, is general convention chairman.
The co-operation of every section of the state is being sought by Los Angeles dentists in arranging a hospitable western welcome for the eastern dentists. It is pointed out that the last few years have seen old rivalries between the dental fraternity of the east and west wiped out. The bringing of this year's convention to California is regarded as a further cementing of friendship and affiliation between the groups.
The dentists of San Francisco and other cities in the northern part of the state are arranging a motor caravan for the transportation to Los Angeles of all eastern dentists who go to the convention by way of the Bay City. The dentists of the north have extended a special invitation to all the visitors to stop in their city and join in the 400-mile auto ride over the picturesque state highway to Los Angeles.
To further celebrate the holding of the convention in the west the Salt Lake City dentists also are arranging a program for all who stop over there.
Entertainment features of the convention proper include numerous automobile rides to points of interest in Southern California, a Spanish barbecue at Hollywood Bowl, and golf tournament in which nearly 500 dentists will participate.
Regular sessions will be held at the Ambassador Hotel. A big clinic will be held on the hotel grounds. Speakers of national fame will address the meetings on topics of public interest.

Court Awards Royalty to Dumas' Assistant

PARIS.—"By Alexandre Dumas" will remain the only indication of authorship on the title page of "The Three Musketeers" and companion romances. Decision was announced by the local civil court following trial of the suit brought by Auguste Maquet, member of Dumas' famous "fiction factory," for the right to appear as co-creator of Athos, Porthos and Aramis.
Maquet was awarded royalty rights until 1928, in accordance with his contract with Dumas.

Find Former Judge Guilty Wife Slaying

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, July 12.—Omer R. Woods, native of Knoxville, Tenn., former probate judge and prosecuting attorney for Idaho City, Idaho, today was awaiting with the same stoical calm he has maintained since his arrest the result of an appeal to the state supreme court—all that stands between him and execution by shooting.
Woods stands convicted of the gruesome murder of his wife, Marietta Woods, childhood playmate and first sweetheart of the condemned man, whose charred body was found in the Woods apartment here on January 9, last. Woods stumbled from the blazing apartment and told a story of two bandits whom he blamed for the killing. The state's theory was that Woods killed his wife to secure $16,000 insurance. He was convicted on circumstantial evidence.
Neither Woods nor his daughter, Tee Lee Woods, who has stood by her father throughout his trial, displayed emotion when a motion for a new trial was denied. Judge Hanson called the defendant before the bench. When asked if he had any reason to advance why sentence should not be pronounced, Woods answered in a low, but unshaken voice:
"I don't believe I have."
It was then explained that under the verdict the death penalty was the only sentence that could be pronounced and Woods was asked to name his preference for shooting or hanging. He answered:
"Shooting."
"I sentence you to be shot until you are dead some time between sunrise and sunset, September 1, 1922, within the walled walls of the state penitentiary," Judge Hanson replied.
Woods was then led away by his guards. Defense attorneys served notice of appeal to the state supreme court, which action automatically defers the execution until the appeal is disposed of.

SHIP SUBSIDY BILL FACES DEFEAT BY DRY FORCES
WASHINGTON, July 12.—A warning that the Harding-Lasker ship subsidy bill would be defeated unless shipping board "bars" were closed was issued by "dry" leaders. Voiced by Senator Willis, Republican, Ohio, the warning was delivered on the eve of a decision by the department of justice on the legality of liquor sales on shipping board vessels. Willis declared the shipping board has as much right to deal in slaves as it had to sell liquor. Closely following a "straw vote" taken by senate leaders, which showed a preponderance of opinion that the bill should not be enacted at the present session, it appeared the measure may be postponed until the December "short session."

A full report on the strike situation was expected from State Labor Commissioner Walter J. Mathewson, who was at Roseville at the time of the occurrence and an eye-witness of the shooting. It is understood.

BEEFSTEAK DINNER TO ASSIST CLUB BIG SUCCESS
 More Than $100 Realized for Building Fund; Musical Program Enjoyed
 With a total of 175 members and their friends present the Tuesday Afternoon club realized more than $100 toward its building fund last night at the novel beefsteak dinner and entertainment given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Campbell in North Glendale. This was the announcement made this morning by Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, first vice-president of the organization and chairman of the ways and means committee, which was in charge of the affair.
 The dinner, which was served by a group of the members of the club, was begun promptly at 6:30 o'clock, and was followed by a special entertainment of speeches and musical numbers. The menu consisted of individual broiled steaks, baked potatoes, combination salad, coffee, rolls and butter, and home-made pie-a-la-mode. Mr. Campbell was assisted in broiling the steaks by his son, Daniel, Jr., and Carl Osborn. J. C. Huntley prepared the coffee, which was donated by Mr. and Mrs. Perry of North Glendale. Kathleen Campbell, Doris Packer and Virginia Huntley assisted in the catering.
Musical Program
 During the dinner the guests were entertained with a number of inspiring selections by the Gaiety Four, a local string quartet consisting of Myrtle Bland, Phil Dillinger, Eddie Moniot and Miss Marion Jones. The program, which followed the meal, included a vocal solo by Mrs. Helen Graham Cole, accompanied by Miss Gertrude Champlain; a violin selection by Miss Hazel Linkogel, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Pearl Curran, and a vocal solo, "Believe Me, If All Those Endeavoring Young Champs," by Mayor Spencer Robinson. Mr. Robinson was accompanied by his wife.
 Mrs. Montgomery opened the "after dinner" meeting with the following toast to Mrs. Daniel Campbell, president of the Tuesday Afternoon club: "When the T. A. C. put on their fighting clothes—Look Out, Everybody's going to wave their hats and shout; Every man and woman in this old town today. Just hear them say, 'Hip, Hip, Hooryay.'"
 What's the use of worrying about a little debt or two? Campbell's got them trained to come right through. For when they come to fight Debts will vanish out of sight. For when the T. A. C. put on their fighting clothes—Look Out!"
Writers Give Talks
 Jerome Reynolds, writer, of Los Angeles, made a brief talk, as did his wife, who is known to the literary world as Alma Whitaker. They were followed on the program by speeches by several members of the club.
 Mrs. Montgomery extended a special offering of appreciation to the following women who helped to make the affair a success: Mesdames J. E. Sargent, E. L. Young, Alexander Mitchell, Hallet, H. L. Baker, Walter Stamp, S. L. Holbrook, E. M. Brown, G. O. Holbrook, Thomas D. Watson, S. C. Packer; also to the ladies of the First Presbyterian church and St. Mark's Episcopal church, of this city.
 Special thanks were voted to Fisher Variety store, Spoor Drug company, Schuck Music company, James Conner and the Glendale Club for the delivery of next winter. It suddenly made the paper rubber good, since you could pay paper rubles for food seven months ahead; it cut the price of flour and forced the speculators to unload. The bread loan shows every sign of being over-subscribed, which is quite a mark of confidence of the people in the financial power of their government.
 But how can the Russians themselves pay the high prices charged for everything? Germany has to keep her railroads bankrupt, because if she charged enough to run them the Germans could not afford to ride. All countries whose money is worth little in the world market have this problem.
 But Russia can dare do things which other countries cannot, because all her essential workers are on government rations and have practically free lodgings and free transportation when on public business. They should worry about rising prices. Let foreigners and speculators make money and pay money; there is another and a safer standard in Russia, along with this money standard.
 "A girl I know works as government stenographer; she got nine dollars last month in wages. She refused an offer of five times that sum to work for a private concern; she preferred the security of rations and lodging, incidentally, she believed in her job."

By Davis J. Walsh

NEW YORK, July 12.—Paddy Mullins, manager of Harry Wills, negro heavyweight, yesterday signed the agreement drawn up by Jack Kearns, manager of Champion Jack Dempsey calling for a meeting between the two fighters. Kearns signed the agreement last Saturday.

The agreement carries the stipulation that both fighters may engage in any other bout they desire during the continuance of the agreement.

"Now we'll see how quick the bout is held," Mullins said, as he signed.

NEW YORK, July 12.—Add the name of Joe Lynch, New York bantam, to the long list of champions who regained their titles after being painstakingly beaten out of them.

Stanley Ketchel, a victim of had training, was knocked stiff by Billy Papke, but after a return engagement they carried Papke out first.

Jack Britton lost his crown on a decision to Ted Lewis but subsequently was goaded. Like-wise Pete Herman, the bantam, Pete Fichte had second to this same Lynch in December, 1920, and then came back about six months later to make Lynch look like a terrible mistake. Herman wasted little time in losing the title to Johnny Buff on a decision. Which brings us up to date.

Joe Lynch returned to the paths of the fistic elite at the New York velodrome Monday night when he scored a technical knockout over Buff after six seconds of fighting. Another ex-champion had come back.

The end came with the tossing of a towel into the ring, mute acceptance of defeat, after Lynch crossed the ring in three strides with the sound of a boot before Buff was aware of what it was all about, a left hook to the jaw deposited him on the floor in his own corner.

He was beaten as thoroughly as any man has a right to be. Not a round had the champion been able to earn. Hardly a solid blow was he able to land.

Out of the game for six months, through illness and injuries, he was a shining target for Lynch's left and at the end his face looked like an order of beefsteak a gratin.

Of the fourteen rounds only the second might be scored as an even break.

Another case of overworking a promising athlete with the chance of spoiling all chances for the future seems to be in operation. In this case the athlete is little 12-year-old Hilda Curtis, of Alameda, California. Competent judges of swimming who have seen this little girl in the water are one in stating that she has all the earmarks of becoming one of the greatest women swimmers in the world if she is properly coached.

Hilda recently won both the 440 and 880 yard Pacific association championships in very creditable time, there being sufficient opposition to her to force her to extend herself. Every opponent in the field was at least three or four years older than Miss Curtis. This is her first year of competition and she already has set coast swimming circles talking.

Criticism is made that her handler is making a grave mistake in allowing her to compete in two races in one day, particularly at such grueling distances as the quarter and half mile. There is every possibility, and probably, if this pace is continued that she will be worn out by the time she reaches that time when she ought to be at her best. The fact that so much interest is being taken in her case is the best evidence that she is a young star of the first magnitude. No such solicitation would be wasted on a mediocre performer.

Athletic history is dotted all along the way with instances in every line of sport where promising performers were worked to death when they should have been carefully nursed for the future. Track and field, swimming and boxing are particularly vulnerable in the matter of being overdone.

One such case in the boxing game comes to mind in connection with Eddie Haney, one time considered sure to win his way to the world's lightweight championship. His handlers, imbued with the idea that they could make quick money put Green, then an inexperienced youngster, still in his teens, against men much older and who had a world of experience. Green was pitched against such boxers as Jimmie Britt, Young Corbett and other men of the same calibre with the result that they took the life out of Green and he suddenly dropped into the drab class of mediocrity.

Promising school track and field athletes have run themselves out so that by the time they reached the universities they never were able to shine as they were expected to. Much of the fault for this lies in the trainer in fact all of the coaches should be theirs. As a rule these men are anxious to "point with pride" to the product of their genius. When they ruin the young athlete, little or nothing is said as to who the responsible person is, so they are comparatively safe.

'MONTE CRISTO' IS TRUE TO STORY

Glendale Film Feature Has Excellent Cast for the Count's Escapades

"Monte Cristo," screen version of the Dumas' famous story, is the offering at the Glendale Theatre which packed the house yesterday afternoon and evening. Undoubtedly the author would be pleased with the production, for it is superb. Everything is just as you who have read the book imagined it would be and the picture has lost none of the vitality of the written word.

You cannot describe a story such as is unfolded without a column and space does not permit, so it is much better for you to go and see this film feature and drink of its depth. The cast is excellent, the photography is beautiful, as possible without colors. Jack Gilbert as the thrilling Count of Monte Cristo, shares honors with Emmett Flynn, who directed the picture.

Coming direct from a successful run in New York, the offering at the Glendale Theatre at regular prices is a treat, indeed. You will be more than pleased with the entertainment.

Sues Man Who Keeps His Wife Under Spell

DETROIT.—John Capler was granted a permanent injunction restraining John Swaide from exercising a baneful influence over Capler's wife, Catherine. Capler testified his wife has been in the habit of leaving him for three, four, or five months at a time. She returns for a day or two, he said, begging him not to reveal her whereabouts to Swaide. "She is not responsible for what she does," said Capler. "I want an injunction to prevent this man from exercising his strange spell over her. He has threatened to kill her if she leaves him." Capler has a $21,000 alienation suit pending against Swaide.

TEX RICKARD TO PROMOTE FIGHT?

Looks Like Wise Man Has Mind Made Up to Get Wills-Dempsey Go

By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service.

NEW YORK, July 12.—That close confidant of Jack Kearns and Tex Rickard already has begun calculations on the Wills-Dempsey extravaganza before the ink on the agreement becomes dry. They sat at the side of the Madison Square Garden pool, last night and with a pad and pencil engaged in a series of computations that may have meant everything—or nothing.

After the conference both admitted they were talking about the promotion of a bout, but whether the shadow of Harry Wills was cast across the discussion was not made known. Indeed, Rickard immediately launched into another dissertation upon what he considers the outright futility of putting on the big bout before next summer.

"Any promoter who attempts to stage the bout this year will either go broke or crazy," he said. "There is going to be a lot of money in that fight, but a venture of such magnitude cannot be put over in a month or two."

It may be significant that, at last reports, Jack Dempsey had left Saranac lake to its own devices and was headed toward Montreal. Kearns expects to join him there in a day or two and it may be that they will look over the ground with an eye to its possibilities as a setting for the fistic venture. They might sound out local sentiment on that question also before they take the situation in their hands and go elsewhere.

Tagging All Bases

Urban Shocker had plenty of luck, but it was all bad. He pitched fine ball against the Yanks but Williams staked Ward to a homer in the second when the ball bounded out of his glove into the bleachers and Tobin then tried to fly in the sixth and going all the way home. The two mishaps gave the Yanks a 2 to 1 decision over the Browns and now the teams are separated by exactly a half game.

The Dodgers dropped their sixth straight when Pinelli smote a homer in the eighth off Reuther with two on, the Reds winning, 6 to 4.

Earl Smith, sent up to hit for Moggridge in the seventh, culled a single from Blankenship's delivery, scoring two runs, and the Senators headed the White Sox by a 3 to 2 margin.

The Cubs were shut out completely by Jess Barnes' legendarily pitching while the Giants combed four runs from the combined labors of Cheever and Osborne.

Guy Morton enjoyed one of his good days, holding the Red Sox to four hits, while the Indians went on to win, 3 to 0.

Eighty per cent of the 1,800,000 inhabitants of the Far Eastern Republic are peasants. The area of this republic equals the combined areas of the new republics of central Europe—Germany, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Austria and Hungary.

CUBS MAY LOSE ALEXANDER

Big Rain Halts Golf Title Play

As a result of the visit of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, it is rumored that the baseball world will lose one of its greatest players to England. Sir Arthur gave out a statement recently that he believed that England would soon become a nation of baseball fans. It is rumored here that Sir Arthur held several conferences with Grover Cleveland Alexander of the Chicago Cubs while he was in Chicago, and it is believed that he has Alexander's promise to visit England at the end of the present season. It is a known fact that the two sons of Conan Doyle never missed an opportunity to visit ball parks when they could see Alexander.

Ernest Ort, the professional bicycle rider, who has been making a tour of Europe and now is racing in France, writes to friends in this country that sports along all lines are booming in Europe. He says that cycling is growing in popular favor and that it is not unusual to see a crowd of 50,000 persons at a Sunday at the races in Berlin, Paris and Milan. There is also much interest in balloon racing.

Incidentally, Ort is going to do some racing in Morocco and Algeria and he writes that it is his intention to organize a troupe of Algerian bicycle riders and bring them on with him to New York next January to compete in the six-day bicycle races at Madison Square Garden. He adds: "Sending a team from the Sahara desert to compete against international champions would be an all-star attraction in jaded old New York."

There is one it is we mention Pitcher Blueholder of the Salt Lake club of the Pacific coast league, who has played in twenty-two games, been at bat twenty-three times and has yet to sully his score with a base hit. REID SCORES IN 'THE DICTATOR'

T. D. L. Offering Proves One Of Best In Many Moons; Drives Away Blues

What proves to be one of the best motion pictures that has been shown in Glendale in moons is Wally Reid's "The Dictator," at the T. D. & L. Theatre today.

Wallace Reid scored an artistic triumph. The scenes of the photoplay are located in Latin-America and deal with a revolution in which Mr. Reid as the hero takes an active and not inglorious part, rising from stoker to commander and winning the heart of an excellent young woman, portrayed by Lila Lee.

The picture was admirably produced and the cast generally is of the best. It is a picture that does credit to James Cruze the director, and all concerned. There isn't a dull moment in the picture and it is well worth seeing.

Fair Tent Biggest In History of California

POMONA.—"The largest tent ever put up in Southern California." City Councilman Jack Afflerbaugh, vice president of the Los Angeles County Fair association, thus described the immense canvas that is to be stretched here for the Los Angeles county fair, to be held from October 17 to 21. This main tent is 150 feet long and 130 feet wide.

The agricultural and horticultural exhibits will be housed near the front, the industrial exhibits in the center and the automobile show in the rear section.

Police Chief Warns About Traffic Rules

After your "Lizzie" has gotten a drink, how does she act? Col. J. D. Fraser, chief of police, this morning called attention to a habit motorists have of making left turns in the middle of the block when pulling out from gasoline filling stations. He stated that those who do so are liable to arrest for violation of the traffic ordinances. He says that the proper thing for them to do is to make a right turn and proceed to the nearest street intersection where they may turn and come back on the other side of the street. Chief Fraser stated several of the filling station managers are considering posting signs to this effect.

CHICAGO.—Chicago today discovered the stamp widow to take her place with the golf widow.

FAIRMONT, W. Va.—Rev. M. J. Pritchard, a Methodist Episcopal minister, temporarily without a charge, has been appointed, at his own request, a member of the Fairmont police force. He is now serving successfully as a traffic officer. His first day's duty resulted in the arrest of seven traffic violators.

IRISH IRREGULARS CONTINUE FIGHT ON FRONTIER

Regular Forces Fall Into Ambush, but Win Every Strategic Position

BULLETIN
LONDON, July 12.—Republican irregulars in County Donegal, Ireland, have kidnaped twelve girls, using them as servants, according to a Central News dispatch from there this afternoon. Many young women are reported in flight from County Donegal, fearing seizure.

LONDON, July 12.—Reports from Dublin say that regulars have been ambushed by irregulars twice within the last twenty-four hours.

A sharp engagement was fought between regulars and republican rebels at Loughrea. The regulars were victorious.

Fresh disorders are reported from the Ulster frontier, but the regulars hold the chief strategic positions and control practically all the border on the southern side.

Clonmel has been isolated and the real situation there is in doubt.

Irregulars are again active in the Dundalk region, where they destroyed a number of railroad bridges Monday.

Proclaim Republic
BELFAST, July 12.—Irish irregulars at Cork were reported as having proclaimed a republic. After the defeat of the rebels in Dublin they made Cork their headquarters for operations in southern and western Ireland.

Frequent Clashes
BELFAST, July 12.—Guerrilla warfare between irregular bands and "mopping up" outfits of the Irish free state army raged in Donegal, Sligo and Leitrim counties.

Deluge of Rain At Chicago; All Traffic Hampered

CHICAGO, July 12.—Traffic here was seriously hampered by flooded streets today when the deluge of rain kept up a steady downpour, after the forty-second day drought. Surface cars were blocked and many trucks and automobiles were stalled in flooded streets where the water rose over the curbstones.

Hundreds of basements in business and residential sections also were flooded as a result of the unusual downpour. Scores of calls were made upon the fire department for assistance in pumping out the water which rose steadily in basements of buildings.

In sections of the Illinois Central tracks water rose to a height of three feet, hampering traffic.

Mrs. A. M. Fenton to Take Extensive Trip

Mrs. A. M. Fenton of 1231 East California avenue leaves Monday morning for an extensive two months' tour which will take her through many cities and towns throughout the eastern part of the United States and Canada. From Glendale she will go directly to Detroit, Mich., where, after spending several days with relatives and friends, she will be joined by her daughter, Georgia, for the remainder of the journey.

From Detroit Mrs. Fenton and her daughter will go to Ashtabula, Ohio, where she will spend a fortnight renewing acquaintances of school girl days, that being the town of her birth and early girlhood. They will then go to Fayette, Ohio, and after a short visit in that city, they will go up into Canada. The return trip will probably be made via New York, Philadelphia and other large eastern cities.

Mrs. Fenton expects to get back to Glendale about the middle of September.

CHAOS IN GERMANY NEARLY 200 SHOTS SEEMS STEADILY APPROACHING BY MILITIA

Impending Cataclysm Can Be Averted by Miracle Only, Says Writer

BULLETIN
LONDON, July 12.—An international conference that will virtually amount to a meeting of the supreme council will be held in London next week to discuss the German financial and indemnity situation, according to today's plans of the British government.

By S. D. WEYER
For International News Service.

BERLIN, July 12.—Today's session of the reichstag was one of the most fateful in the history of the young German republic. Unless an eleventh-hour compromise is reached, it was regarded as virtually certain that parliament would be dissolved and new elections ordered.

On account of the bitter feeling between the political factions many persons predict violence and bloodshed in the event of a general election and some even forecast civil war.

Very Close to Ruin
Germany is skidding perilously to the edge of an abyss from which yawns the crumbling of national entity and chaos. The plunge of the German mark, disorders in various cities, stormy scenes in parliament, assassination, the strike of the Berlin printers and the threatened general strike in the Ruhr mining fields are mere symptoms of the impending cataclysm which only a miracle seems capable of averting.

A dangerous new development is the fact that the government has no money with which to pay the miners in the Ruhr district on Saturday, because the strike of the printers stopped the money presses. The government is planning to get out, if possible, some kind of emergency currency.

Governor Small Urged to Make Inquiry; Non-Union Workers Protected

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., July 12.—Amid jeers from an aroused community, ninety-seven non-union workers were brought into the shops of the Chicago and Alton railroad here today under the protection of state troops.

Shortly before their arrival a committee of citizens had telegraphed a petition to Governor Len Small urging him to make an immediate investigation of the mysterious shooting which started in Bloomington early this morning. Nearly 200 shots were fired.

"These shots were fired by members of the militia beyond question," the telegram to Governor Small asserted.

Interference With Mails
WASHINGTON, July 12.—Interference with railway mail attributed to the railroad strike put out of operation today 3000 miles of railway mail service on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas today, according to telegrams received by the postoffice department from H. Ciesler, superintendent of railway mail service at St. Louis.

Ciesler reported the announcement from President J. E. Tansig of the M. K. & T. No statement was made as to what trains will be withdrawn.

Railroad Clerks Strike
KENOVA, Wis., July 12.—Norfolk and Western railroad clerks struck today. Sixty men walked out.

Leaders declared it was not a sympathetic strike. The walkout occurred during the night by abandoning his position at Whampoa, which had become untenable.

Stand of Brotherhood
CLEVELAND, July 12.—Declaring "we do not go out on sympathetic strikes" and branding as "unauthorized" printed reports that the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers was preparing to file protests with the interstate commerce commission against imposing upon members of the brotherhood duties heretofore performed by members of the striking shop crafts union, Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the brotherhood, told International News Service today that the situation so far as his organization was concerned remained in the same position as when the strike order became effective July 1.

"Naturally, we sympathize with the striking workmen," Stone said. "But we are working under clearly defined rules and these we intend to obey."

Holds Picketing Illegal
EAST ST. LOUIS, July 12.—Illegal picketing by striking railroad shopmen was placed under restraint in an order issued here by Federal Judge George W. English of the southern Illinois district. The ruling was made on behalf of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad company and is similar to injunctions issued the past few days for other roads.

Railroad Gets Injunction
LITTLE ROCK, July 12.—A temporary injunction favoring the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad in Arkansas restraining members of the striking shop crafts, local, state and national officers from illegally picketing railroad shops, was issued by Judge Jacob Trieber in federal district court.

Deputies Authorized
ST. LOUIS, July 12.—United States District Attorney Charles E. Carroll has received a telegram from Federal Judge Walter H. Sanborn at St. Paul, Minn., requesting Carroll appoint as many deputy marshals as are necessary to cope with the rail situation in this federal circuit.

Mrs. H. A. Williams Recent Visitor Here
Mrs. H. A. Williams and her grand-daughter, Miss Audrey Crisp, who are spending the summer vacation visiting with friends and relatives along the Pacific coast, returned to Los Angeles this morning, after having enjoyed a three days' sojourn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Brice of 304 North Kenwood street. The women have been friends of the Brice family for a number of years, having been their former neighbors in Little Rock, Arkansas, more than a decade ago.

Mrs. Williams and Miss Crisp will remain in Los Angeles until the latter part of the month, when they will leave for San Francisco and Berkeley. They expect to return to Little Rock about September 1.

LOS ANGELES, July 12.—Married three times to the same woman, divorced twice, and now seeking a third divorce, was the experience of Harvey James, who was before Judge McLucas. The wife, Elizabeth James, was not in court, but before deciding the case Judge McLucas wanted to hear her version of the unusual situation and ordered her subpoenaed to appear next Friday.

BRITISH, AMERICAN GUNBOATS READY FOR ACTIVITY

Stripped for Action When Chinese Cruisers Begin Bombing Macao

By EDNA LEE BOOKER
For International News Service.

CANTON, China, July 12.—British and American gunboats in Pearl river were stripped for action today when three Chinese cruisers, under command of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, former president of the republic of South China, began bombarding Macao (a Portuguese dependency) in the mouth of the Canton river, off the city of Canton.

It had been reported that Sun was in flight towards Hong Kong, but this proved untrue. Instead of fleeing he executed a surprise movement during the night by abandoning his position at Whampoa, which had become untenable.

Forts Being Shelled
Taking all his troops on board the three cruisers, Sun went to the Canton harbor. Just at dawn the gunners on the cruisers began throwing shells into the forts on Macao island. Under cover of the cannonading Sun's soldiers landed. It was then that the British and American war craft were prepared for action, in the event their services were needed for protection of foreign lives and property.

During the bombardment some Russian and American warehouses were damaged.

Reinforcements are arriving for Dr. Sun and there are indications that an effort will be made to capture the city of Canton, former capital of Southern China.

ESTIMATES ON CROPS
WASHINGTON, July 12.—The crop reporting bureau of the department of agriculture made public the following estimates based on July 1 reports of its correspondents: Winter wheat—Production, 569,000,000 bushels; yield per acre, 14.9 bushels, compared with December estimate of 13.7 bushels; total acreage, 38,131,000; condition, 77, compared with a ten-year estimate of 81. Spring wheat—Production, 248,000,000 bushels; yield per acre, 13.3 bushels, compared with a December estimate of 10.5.

ADDICTS' BLUE BOOK
LOS ANGELES, July 12.—A "blue book" containing the names of at least 1000 Los Angeles dope addicts and dealers, reported to be in existence by a girl informer who is aiding the government narcotic bureau, was today the subject of an investigation by local narcotic agents. Dr. C. W. Montgomery, of the government narcotic board, who is heading the search for the book, declared that if found it would be the most effective weapon yet obtained by the authorities who are fighting the "dope traffic."

CHARLES MALLET, 91, HAS WAY TO KEEP YOUNG

Mile Walk Every Day Is Great Help to Health, Says Glendale Man

"A mile a day keeps the doctor away" is the greeting Charles Mallet, 91-year-old Glendale resident, gives any of the rising generation he happens to meet when he's out jaunting along for his mile or more of daily exercise.

Born in Bridgewater, Conn., in 1831, when Andrew Jackson was president of the United States, Mr. Mallet grew to manhood in his native town.

As a boy he attended a nearby school and when school days were over he worked on his brother's farm and at the carpenter trade and one of his interesting recollections is how the work day used to be measured by sunrise and sunset.

Kept Warm by Exercise
Although in those days overcoats and heavy underwear were not included in a boy's wardrobe and Mr. Mallet was wont to walk two and three miles along the river's bank in work shirt and light outside coat to school, no matter what the weather, he is nevertheless in splendid health today and is as active as a man of sixty-five, according to his relatives and friends.

Mr. Mallet makes his home with his daughter, Mrs. R. Davis of 111 East Lexington Drive. He also has two sons, three grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

An interesting fact regarding Mr. Mallet's life is that he does not smoke. However, a merry little twinkle shows in his eye when he admits that he "savored" for thirty years and then "swore off."

Votes First for Pierce
Franklin Pierce was the first president Mr. Mallet voted for and this is how he says it happened. It was in 1852 and he had reached the age of 21 and wanted to become a voter. The place to vote was thirty miles away and one of the neighbors told him that he could have his horse to ride if he would promise to vote the Democratic ticket.

True to his word, young Charles Mallet galloped on on the borrowed horse to become a voter and help elect the Democratic president.

The Evening News has now listed:

Charles Bock, aged 92, of 122 North Castle avenue, Eagle Rock.

Charles Mallet, 91, of 111 East Lexington Drive, Glendale.

Who else is past 90 years of age?

GLENDALE EVENING NEWS Story Contest for Children

First Prize: $5.00 Cash, given by The Glendale Evening News; Second Prize: $3.50 2-A Brownie Kodak, given by Roberts & Echols; Third Prize: $1.50 Fancy Box of Kaighin's Quality Chocolates by Kaighin's Candy Factory; Fourth Prize: $1.00 Worth of Tickets to T. D & L. Theatre.

Here's your opportunity to see whether you have in the family an embryonic Mark Twain, a Frances Hodgson Burnett or an advertising man or woman. Through the generosity of a number of Glendale business men, several prizes have been offered on "Why I Like My Home"—and it gives the children a chance to tell in their own words just why they like their home surroundings. We don't want to make too many suggestions about the essays, for it tends to limit the imagination of the child; but we want to emphasize the fact if there is a romping dog, or a friend of the child's, he might very well find a place in the story. Same way with the cat—the child's garden—play-room—dad's garage—the family auto—the interior of the house, papa, mamma, aunts, grandparents—all are proper subjects for partial discussion.

In other words, have your child or child friend write on why he loves his home, why his home is dear to him—all of us grown-ups know what "Home, Sweet Home" means—but few know the child's idea of it. The best stories of 600 words or less will be paid for with prizes enumerated in the heading. Contest open to every boy and girl in Glendale under 16—every child has a chance—for the age of the kiddie will be taken into consideration. The best stories will be published in The Evening News. All stories must be mailed or brought to

The News office by Tuesday noon, July 18. The names of winners will be published in this paper next Wednesday.

ENGLAND OPPOSED TO SHIP SUBSIDY BILL OF U. S.

Eyes of British Officials Are Turned to Senate Awaiting Action

By DAVID M. CHURCH
For International News Service.

LONDON, July 12.—Great Britain has her eyes upon the United States senate once again. Not since the League of Nations rumormongers were in full swing in the United States senate has Britain paid so much attention to this "greatest deliberative body." The present causes for Britain's interest in the senate are the tariff bill and the proposed ship subsidy bill.

For some reason Great Britain does not pay attention to the house of representatives, but looks to the senate as the barometer of American affairs, and there is the greatest interest in official circles here concerning the senate deliberations upon the tariff bill and the ship subsidy bill. Both of these legislative measures are matters of vital concern to Britain, for they affect British trade, and British trade is British life.

There have been opened and veiled threats of retaliation by British commercial leaders if either or both of these bills are finally passed and enacted into law, but the attitude of the government has been one that is apparently passive. Occasionally there have been utterances from Lord Derby and other leaders to the effect that British interests must be protected, but there have been no open statements regarding the action the British government might take.

Lord George Opposes Bill

It is generally believed here, however, that Lloyd George and his cabinet are inclined to do all in their power to prevent any action over the American tariff which might lead to any unpleasantness between the two nations.

Cordial Anglo-American relations are most necessary to the present British government, Lloyd George, it is understood, still has hopes that the policy of the United States toward Europe will change and that eventually he will find himself working with President Harding and Secretary of State Hughes toward European reconstruction. The present government realizes that it needs America and needs it badly, and it has no intention of letting any undue excitement upon the part of business men interfere with its plans for a cordial entente with the United States.

War Debt Is Thorn

Then there is the question of the British war debt to America. This is a thorn in the side of Great Britain—and a gloomy cloud that hangs over the heads of the government. The budget of the British government for the present year has brought about a tax reduction which has been pleasing to the general public and which has won strength for Lloyd George. An urgent demand from the United States for an early payment of the British war debt would mean that British taxes in the next budget would have to be increased, and this is not a pleasant prospect for men who depend on the ballot to maintain their power to look forward to.

The United States senate may pass both the tariff and the ship subsidy bill, and it is doubtful whether there will be any strenuous official protest from Great Britain, but, in meantime, there is a furor and clamor from business interests that has to be heeded, and the government finds itself between the Scylla of pressure at home and the Charybdis of necessary Anglo-American cordiality. It is a difficult situation, but undoubtedly it will be met by the clever little Welshman from Cricieth—the little man who has surmounted far bigger difficulties than this for the past sixteen years.

An supervisor of women's service for the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad, Miss D. Ogden's duty will be that of making travel more attractive for women.

Exiled Egyptian Leader's Wife to Fight for Husband

Asserts Present Situation in Egypt One Wholly of Martial Law

CAIRO, July 12.—"A. Saad Pasha Zaghoul has sacrificed his all for Egypt's sake, so will I sacrifice even to the last drop of my blood." This was the dramatic statement made to the International News Service by Madame Zaghoul, wife of the exiled liberal leader of Egypt.

The interview was granted the International News Service on one of the Ramadan nights, Ramadan is the Moslem month during which all Mohammedans fast from morning until night. At sunset they break their fast and eat and drink with revelry. Mme. Zaghoul was receiving her lady friends in one of the Ramadan night receptions when she met the representative of the International News Service. As the correspondent was of her own sex, Mme. Zaghoul dropped the veil which usually curtains her face.

Giving a graphic description of the manner in which her husband was spirited away into exile, Mme. Zaghoul declared that she feels that the movement for his return from exile will eventually prevail. "It is quite natural that the Egyptian nation should claim by every cent means the return of their father and should not cease to protest against his exile," she said. "Ultimately the nation, I am convinced, shall triumph."

Though she had requested that she be permitted to accompany her husband into exile she was refused and Mme. Zaghoul stated that for days she waited for the desired permission to be granted. Then one day she declared, "A sudden inspiration came to me: 'You must not leave the country; your first duty is to remain and fight for the cause of independence like your husband.'"

Questioned concerning the present situation in Egypt, Mme. Zaghoul said: "I cannot understand a so-called independence which keeps the land under martial law. The liberty of the press is an empty word.

"I am of the opinion, as all the nation is, that the framing of the constitution ought to have been entrusted to a national assembly, and not to a government. In all civilized countries national assemblies are convoked to form a national constitution.

"The policy of Sarwat Pasha has failed to win the sympathy of the nation.

"As Saad Pasha Zaghoul has sacrificed his all for Egypt's sake, so will I sacrifice to the last drop of my blood."

Progressive Club Is Meeting at Luncheon

The Glendale Progressive Business Club, which recently voted to affiliate with the National Exchange Club, this noon is having its regular weekly luncheon in the Broadway Inn, 637 East Broadway.

A. Gelmor, whose tailor shops are located at 138 South Brand boulevard and 212 North Brand boulevard, is a strong booster for this organization.

"I see in this club," declared Mr. Gelmor recently, "one of the factors that will make Glendale realize her fondest hopes as the Wonder City, the city beautiful, the city of real homes. I see for Glendale a tremendous growth in the next few years—a growth far beyond present expectations and I believe that those plans we formulate or assist in carrying out will amply care for the Greater Glendale. We all know the lad who grows so fast that his shirt sleeves strike his elbows and his trousers flirt with his knees. Let us plan big enough so that Glendale may care for the thousands to come."

Miss Grace Jackson Hostess on Birthday

Miss Grace Anna Jackson at her home, 1800 South Brand boulevard, yesterday afternoon was hostess at a birthday party. Eleven candles were lighted upon the birthday cake served in her honor. Games were played on the lawn and supper was served in the breakfast room. Decorations were in red and white.

Mr. and Mrs. Ripley D. Jackson, Mrs. J. D. Fraser and Miss Ruth Waterman helped to make the party a success. The guests included Dorothy Brown, Alma Louise Abelle, Ethel West, Murial Poorman, Martha Silberberg, Katherine Girard, Doris Pittenger, Adella Laran, William Shaffner, Paul Eddinger, Everett Poorman, Nicholas Jurgochian, and Harry Girard, Jurgochian.

O. E. Countryman Is Made Local Manager

O. E. Countryman has been appointed Glendale manager for the J. F. Lasley interests who are offering an opportunity to investors in the Signal Hill oilfields.

It is stated that the Shell Company is drilling on the land in which royalty shares are being sold by the Lasley interests. Royalties are expected by September 19, it is said, and the city of Long Beach already is drawing a big income from city owned land on which oil wells are located.

Mr. Countryman states his firm's first well is now down about 2400 feet and they expect to start six more derricks immediately on the 20 acres they control in the midst of great oil production on the hill. The opportunity here will last only 30 days, if that long, it is stated, for many are protecting themselves by getting an interest in the Lasley developments.

Bible School Draws Large Attendance

Miss Anita Fletcher, principal of the daily vacation Bible school now in session at the Presbyterian church, reports an enrollment of nearly 125 pupils and a daily attendance approximating the enrollment.

One of the outstanding features of the work is the instruction in singing and music under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Mottern, who is emphasizing the old hymns, which she is encouraging the children to learn. There is no charge for attendance at the school.

Women's Union Will Hold All-Day Meet

The Women's Union of the First Baptist church of this city will hold their regular monthly all-day social and business meeting at the church building Thursday, according to an announcement made today by Mrs. E. E. Ford, president of the union. All members and their friends are urged to be present and are also requested to bring their children, as the afternoon program has been specially arranged for the entertainment of the little tots.

The morning will be devoted to sewing articles to be donated to the White Cross society. Following the luncheon, which will be served at noon, a brief business session will be conducted, after which the program will be presented. Miss Marjorie Judson of Pasadena, who recently returned to the United States after having spent several years in missionary work in China, will be the principal speaker of the afternoon. Her subject will be "China." Several novel features, including the appearance of children in Oriental costumes, will be included in the entertainment.

Yankees Attempt to Reach First Place

NEW YORK, July 12.—With first place just within their reach the Yankees were out today to duplicate their victory of yesterday over the St. Louis Browns. The Yankees are only half a game behind the Browns and a victory today would put them in the lead.

Another large crowd was on hand and it was estimated that 29,000 were in the ball park when the game started.

Waite Hoyt was the pitching choice for the locals. Pruett started for St. Louis.

WOMEN TO PARTICIPATE IN HAWAIIAN POLITICS
HONOLULU, T. H.—Nineteen women have been chosen as delegates to the coming republican convention which will draw up a platform for the party in Hawaii. This is a considerable increase over the number of women ever sent to a previous convention, and is taken by politicians here to indicate rapidly increasing strength in the female vote.
Changes in the organic act to permit women to hold political office in the territory are now pending in congress, and the likelihood of a woman being sent to Washington as delegate to congress in 1923 is now seriously considered.
Mrs. Elsie Mahony, chief stewardess on the liner Aquitania, has made over 1200 round trips across the Atlantic ocean, she having been on every voyage since that steamship was put in commission.

Russian Maids Beat U. S. Flappers, Said
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich.—H. G. Smith, agriculturist, who has been working with the Y. M. C. A. in Russia for the past two years, has returned to his home here with the declaration he found Russian girls are far superior to Yankee flappers as conversationalists.
This applies, he specifies, to the Russian girls of the intelligentsia. Smith explains that Russian schools, particularly in the larger cities, such as Petrograd and Vladivostok, are more thorough in their instruction than are American schools.
He points out that all students who graduate from the high schools must have read, in the original language, the best Russian, French, Italian, English and German books. It is necessary to have read several hundred of these.
Under the czar's instruction practical economics and sociology were not permitted, and, consequently, the intelligence of the people has been developed along dreamy, emotional lines, Smith explains.
Although one of the best engineering schools in the world is in Petrograd, the graduates are not able to apply their thorough theoretical knowledge as well as are engineers of the more practical races.
Smith declares young Russians are quick to learn American games.
Wedding Festivities Cause Two Divorces
NEW YORK—Festivities at a wedding have just resulted in two divorces in Orange county. The second decree was filed for Mrs. Elizabeth Conner of Newburgh from John Conner.
The wedding was that of friends of the defendants. Mrs. Conner named Mrs. Veronica Holden, whose husband, M. I. Holden, obtained a decree from her.
It was alleged that in the course of a wedding celebration Mrs. Holden and Conner disappeared. The testimony that won Holden a decree was successful also for Mrs. Conner.

OTTAWA, Ont.—The empire settlement bill recently passed by the British house of commons makes available 15,000,000 pounds sterling annually for 15 years for the purposes of financing British colonists who desire to settle in overseas dominions of the empire. The bill, it is believed, will prove a great impetus to immigration to Canada from the British Isles.

noble an end. Drive far from you idleness and sloth; they are great enemies to improvement. Remember that youth, like the morning, will soon be past and that opportunities once neglected can never be regained. First of all things there must be implanted in your mind a fixed delight in study.

Different Contracts

The back of the book is occupied with forms for contracts and other legal document closing with a form for a will. Included among them is a form of an indenture for an apprentice. The father agrees that his son shall serve his master well and faithfully, keep his secrets, and obey his lawful commands; do no damage to his master; nor waste the goods of his master; nor lend them unlawfully to any. The apprentice is not to play cards, shoot dice or engage in any unlawful game. He is not to become involved in matrimony and must remain away from taverns, ale houses, and places of gaming. The master agrees to provide the apprentice with suitable food and clothing and have him instructed through the Rule of Three—provided the apprentice is capable of learning. When the apprentice is ready to be released with two suits of clothing.

Among the problems of the book are several which have caused much worry during the past 125 years.

Can You Do This?

"Three jealous husbands with their wives being ready to pass by night over a river, says one do find at water side a boat which can carry but two persons at once. The question is how those six persons shall pass two and two so that none of the three wives may be found in the company of one or two men unless her husband be present."

"Two merry companions are to have equal shares of five gallons of wine which are in a vessel containing exactly eight gallons," asserts another problem. "Now to divide it equally between them they have only two other empty vessels of which one contains five gallons and the other three."

"A countryman having a fox, a goose and a peck of corn came to a river where it so happened that he could carry but one over at a time. The question is: How must he carry them over so that they may not devour each other."

"There was a well ninety feet deep. A frog at the bottom could jump up six feet every day, but he would fall back two feet every night. How long did it take the frog to jump out?"

How to Keep Young? Facts About Business Over Million on Strike Something to Interest You

By Gil A. Cowan

How to keep young? That is the eternal question with all of us, and when we read a story about Charles Mallett, aged 91 years, who was born when Andrew Jackson was president, we wonder "How do they do it?"

Glendale has a number of people who are nearing the century mark in life and the longer they live the more they enjoy this old world of ours, it seems.

To them everything is passive, peaceful and perhaps a bit monotonous. Yet they are pleased with things well done and take a lively interest in the doings of others.

From the days when I used to sit by the hour and hear my grandfather tell tales of old Scotland I have enjoyed conversing with older people than we find in the every day walks of life.

If you love to listen there is more experience to be gained in one hour's talk with a venerable sage than can be learned in a year or more mixing with the world.

You people who like to learn the facts about business will enjoy reading the following report reprinted from the "Investors' Guide" of New York:

"All of the leading industries are now shown to be in a flourishing condition. The iron and steel output for June has made further substantial gains and orders now on the books of the United States Steel corporation and other big steel companies are being swelled to still larger proportions daily.

"Automotive vehicle production has established new high records within the last two months. The rubber manufacturing trade is sharing in the great activity of the automobile industry.

"The building trade is becoming more active hourly and the cement, lumber and brick industries are meeting with considerable difficulty in satisfying the demands for all these building materials. The distribution of agricultural implements continues very active, although this industry is still somewhat affected by the curtailing purchasing power of the farmer.

"The chain stores and mail order houses are reporting a steadily growing volume of sales and profits and the cereal crops give promise of 'bumper' yields.

"The June estimate on the wheat crop is for a much larger yield than the average for the five preceding years, offering promise of a big improvement in conditions in these areas where wheat is the leading crop. Large yields of oats, barley and rye and a heavy hay crop are also forecasted and the pastures are regarded excellent. Weather conditions for corn and cotton have not been quite as satisfactory as in some previous years but, although these crops will probably be late, they are suggestive of good-sized yields.

HOTEL PROJECT IS RECEIVING HELP OF FINANCIERS

gage bonds will be paid in full before H. J. Tremaine will share in the profits. He will not receive a penny of profit for his investment until after all the second mortgage bonds have been repaid and the first mortgage bonds repaid to the ordinary banking basis.

"Mr. Tremaine, of course, will draw a salary to be determined by the bondholders as managing director of the hotel.

Should Worst Come

"If this hotel should not be a success, the owner of the second mortgage bonds will not be liable for any assessments. The worst that could happen to him would be that he might lose what he has put into the project. He cannot be held liable for any of his debts. On the other hand he does not share in the profits as he would if he were holding stock."

Mr. Whitney made it plain that he was convinced that there was no reason why the hotel should fail.

During a two hour interview he spoke with the utmost frankness and it is evident that his organization has nothing to conceal and is more than willing that publicity should be given to every phase of the enterprise. He feels that his personal reputation for integrity is beyond price. Members of the local hotel committee are convinced that they are dealing with a man of the highest character.

The W. Ross Campbell company which is operating in Glendale by Mr. Whitney, is an organization of leasing brokers controlled by W. Ross Campbell who has been prominent in Los Angeles real estate circles for about nine years. After spending three years with Wright-Caldwell and Andrews, who had offices in the Wright-Caldwell building at Third and Hill streets, Mr. Campbell went into business for himself.

Prominent in Realty

"I can safely say that Mr. Campbell is one of the most progressive real estate and leasing operators in Los Angeles today," asserted Mr. Whitney. "He is not only very progressive, but also very aggressive. His mind works just like a trip hammer."

Mr. Campbell has been a member of the Los Angeles Realty Board for a number of years and is reported to have been one of its founders. From time to time he has been on its board of directors. Until March, 1921, his offices were in the Realty Board building, 621 South Spring street. He now occupies his own building at 712 South Spring street where he maintains a large establishment devoted exclusively to handling business property.

R. C. Willis of the W. Ross Campbell company is now treasurer of the Los Angeles Realty board.

"Mr. Campbell is more than a real estate man," declared Mr. Whitney. "He is a leasing broker. He has built not only the real estate but the buildings on the land and their leaseholds. He is not in any sense of the word a promoter. He is simply a middle man for the development of transactions between the owners of land and persons or firms who desire the erection of business buildings upon that property. He also deals with the financial institutions or organizations that are in a position to provide finances for the same.

Ten Story Building

The nerve of Mr. Campbell was much admired during the early days of the war when, in spite of high prices and difficulty of obtaining building materials, he started construction of the ten-story modern Connell building at 742 South Los Angeles street. This houses a large number of garment manufacturers and for some time was the home of the Brownstein-Louis company. They were so pleased with their relations with Mr. Campbell that they selected him to take charge of the erection of their new building at Eighth street and Figueroa street.

"This is acknowledged to be one of the most attractive industrial buildings in the west," remarked Mr. Whitney. "Mr. Campbell also has built a number of other buildings in Los Angeles such as the Grayco building, 752 South Los Angeles street, the Lancé building, 738 South Los Angeles street, and the Ariga building, 751 South Los Angeles street."

Confidence in H. J. Tremaine is demonstrated by the fact that the W. Ross Campbell company is financing a large 1100 room hotel for him in Los Angeles and another for him in Hollywood.

"Mr. Tremaine is one of the best men that we know of from all standpoints to stand behind this proposition both as to the preliminary work and during the construction and operation of the hotel," remarked Mr. Whitney. "Those who have talked with him say that he is the best versed man in the hotel business they have ever met."

ISSUE ORDERS TO FEDERAL TROOPS TO BE READY

President Harding and His Cabinet Determined to Protect U. S. Mails

By GEORGE R. HOLMES For International News Service. WASHINGTON, July 12.—Orders to federal troops at strategic points to hold themselves in readiness for duty in carrying out the terms of President Harding's proclamation in the rail strike crisis are understood to have gone forward from Washington early today.

The use of troops—if needed—is regarded as the next step after the presidential proclamation that United States mails shall not be interfered with and interstate commerce shall be unhampered.

President Harding and his cabinet advisers are not certain that the use of federal troops would be necessary to compel respect for the proclamation, but in the situation which the White House itself described as acute the government desires to have everything in readiness for coping with any emergency.

Calls for Action

President Harding's proclamation puts the duty of insuring mail deliveries and uninterrupted interstate commerce first of all up to the governors of state and other authorities, it was said today. The proclamation calls upon "all public authorities, state and municipal, to uphold the laws and preserve the public peace."

As interpreted today, the presidential proclamation virtually prohibits the strike of railway shopmen as a strike against the government.

In the very first paragraph, President Harding called attention to the fact that the railway labor board is "an agency of the government, charged by law with adjusting the disputes between railroad operators and employees engaged in interstate commerce."

Offers Guarantee

"Therefore, it follows the shop crafts have refused to abide by the board's decision, and maintained operation of the railways in interstate commerce and transportation of the United States mails have necessitated the employment of men who choose to accept employment under the terms of the decision, and who have the same indisputable right to work as others have to decline to work."

Gloria Swanson Aids Mother's Love Affair

LOS ANGELES, July 12.—Further details of the love affair and subsequent marriage life of the late Mathew P. Burns and his wife, Mrs. Adeline Lou Burns, and the role taken by Gloria Swanson, film star, and daughter of Mrs. Burns, will be spun in Superior Judge Rives' court when the $100,000 will contest case of Burns is resumed today. Two brothers, a sister and brother-in-law, and a nephew of Burns are endeavoring to have the will in which Burns left the bulk of his estate to the film star's mother, set aside.

How the beautiful Gloria sat on the lap of her prospective stepfather, loved and hugged him, and then would always ask for a check was revealed by Miss Ida Morris, cashier in Burns' store, and his confidante. On one occasion, Miss Morris said, Miss Swanson wired Burns from New York for $500—and got it. She also said that the film star and her mother were frequent visitors to Burns' store and that many times when Burns was not in Miss Swanson would wait for him.

Miss Morris also testified that three days before his marriage in November, 1918, Burns asked her if she thought Mrs. Swanson was marrying him for money. At that time, the witness said, Burns declared he had put off the wedding twice and that Mrs. Swanson had threatened to sue him if he did not go through with the ceremony.

Further testimony concerning the irrationality of Burns will be offered today, it was learned.

Holy See and Italy Soon to Be Reconciled

ROME.—"The holy father will officially announce the reconciliation between the Holy See and the Italian government before the end of the summer," is the announcement made to the International News Service by one of the chief dignitaries of the Vatican.

According to this authority the latest date at which the proclamation will be made is September 29, the anniversary of the fall of the pope's temporal power in 1870, and the chief reason for the step is the necessity of church and state joining together against the bolshevist and communist menace.

The delay in the publication of the pope's first encyclical is due to this coming step.

The pope now is fighting a hard battle against the opposition of the conservative and "intransigent" members of the Sacred college, and has to deal with the determined hostility of France.

On the other hand, it appears that all preliminary approaches between the Vatican and the Italian government have succeeded without difficulty in laying the foundations of a mutually satisfactory arrangement. The "Law of Guarantees," which the Holy See never officially recognized, will undergo substantial changes and the Vatican will consent to accept part of the sums which Italy has placed at its disposal, but which it hitherto has persistently refused, preferring to live on the charity of the faithful of the whole world.

It is expected that this epoch-making event, the effects of which will be of incalculable importance, will be solemnly announced by Pope Pius XI in the first encyclical of his pontificate, which was to have been published on June 23, feast of the Apostles Peter and Paul, but which has been delayed owing to the remonstrances of recalcitrant cardinals, led by Cardinal Merry del Val, and to the determined opposition of French diplomacy.

The present pope is an ardent patriot, as he has amply proved during the war, and the firmness of his character is not far removed from obstinacy. It is therefore regarded as a foregone conclusion in Vatican circles that he will end by having his own way in spite of all difficulties, which would be "a consummation devoutly to be wished."

Japan Worried Over Decline in Shipping

HONOLULU, T. H.—Officials of Japanese steamship lines operating between the United States and points in the Orient are worried about a recent falling off in passenger traffic, which they attribute to sharp competition now being offered by American-owned lines, according to a report in Nippon Jiji, a leading Japanese language newspaper of Honolulu.

One American line particularly, operating ships for the United States shipping board, has greatly increased its passenger carrying facilities in the past two years, and is said to have cut into the business of the Japanese lines very heavily.

Epworth League Has Patriotic Ceremony

Conducting their first Independence Day ceremonies, the intermediate department of the Epworth League of the First Methodist Episcopal church last Sunday night presented an especially arranged program in honor of Rev. C. R. Norton, pastor emeritus of the First Methodist church, and chaplain of the local organization of the Grand Army of the Republic, and Robert Taylor, officer of the day of the Grand Legion, was introduced as the main speaker of the evening. Mr. Taylor's timely and appropriate remarks were highly fitting the occasion and were well received by his enthusiastic audiences. He paid special tribute to the Grand Army veterans and to the Stars and Stripes.

Before closing the "Boys in Blue" were called upon for impromptu speeches, which were given in a most impressive manner.

'Dead Woman' Sits Up in Her Casket

NEW YORK CITY.—Weeping neighbors and relatives crowded the apartment of Mrs. Rebecca Sentf, 70, of 28 Lewis street. She had been ill for some time. At 4:30 she apparently fell dead.

She was stretched out in the front room after friends and her daughter, Rika, Groman, had vainly tried to revive her. Men from a nearby undertaking shop were sent for to prepare the body.

These were Harry Sherman and Samuel Danner. As it was the Jewish Sabbath, it was necessary to keep the body until the next day. The body was lifted into the box which the two men had brought and ice was placed around it.

Suddenly there was a movement and Mrs. Sentf sat up in the box, screaming as she saw the lights and the men at work. There was a panic. A few of those who had entered the room blocked the door in getting from the room.

Dr. Bernard Vaglin of 272 Livingston street was summoned. He found Mrs. Sentf had suffered a paralytic stroke.

Motorcycle Exhaust Blisters Man's Legs

BELLAIRE, Ohio.—William Youcum is suffering severe blisters on his legs. Between doses he is wondering why someone doesn't invent an automatic fire alarm system for use in notifying motorcycle riders when their trousers ignite.

He would even carry a can of water that would spray the pedal extremities when their temperature reaches a certain point, just as do the sprinkler systems in buildings.

While riding his motorcycle along Guernsey street, Youcum discovered that the exhaust had set his trousers on fire. Oil and gasoline had ignited.

Abandoning the machine, he ran to a garage, where he was "extinguished" by a car washer's hose. Drs. F. S. Wright and F. L. Ring dressed the burns. The motorcycle was completely ruined.

Baby Whistler Is Puzzle to Doctors

SAN FRANCISCO.—Why, sure, a girl can whistle. Whenever her mother, Mrs. Bodard, up at her home in Portland, has fear of missing a street car, she says: "Whistle, Virginia."

And little Virginia puckers up her baby lips and emits a blast that halts street cars two blocks away.

But volume of noise is not all that comes from this child whistler. She loves birds and can imitate the call of the whip-poor-will, the meadow lark or the mockingbird, to such perfection that even the birds themselves are deceived. Little Virginia's accomplishment has long puzzled medical minds and educators of Portland. None has been able to explain her strange ability to whistle forcefully or to carry tunes. Her mother, however, explains it as a gift of nature. The child, she added, learned to whistle almost as soon as she learned to walk.

And, as for walking, little Virginia has learned to execute a Russian spring dance that occasions young ladies six times her age to gaze with envy.

Authentic History of Hawaii Being Written

HONOLULU, T. H.—Work on the compilation of the first complete and absolutely authentic history of Hawaii will be inaugurated within the next few months, it is announced by the Hawaiian Historical Commission, which has the work in charge.

Ralph S. Kuykendall, formerly connected with Leland Stanford University, will be in direct charge of the work of assembling and compiling data for the new history. The work will present many difficulties, owing to the fact that prior to 100 years ago the Hawaiian people had no written language, and much data must be gathered from stories and legends handed down by word of mouth.
