24 ¶ ^lAnd from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet:

26 The woman was a ^lGreek, a Syro-phœnician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

27 But Jēsus said unto her, ^mLet the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, she found ⁿthe devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 ¶ ^oAnd again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Dê-căp'ō-lis.

36 And ^uhe charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it;

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Four thousand fed. 10 Pharisees seek a sign. 22 The blind restored to sight. 27 Christ foretells his passion.

IN those days ^athe multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jēsus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2 I have ^bcompassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.

4 And his disciples answered him, From whence ^ccan a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5 ^dAnd he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and ^egave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and ^fhe blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

10 ¶ And ^gstraightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dāl-mā-nū'thā.

11 ^hAnd the Phār'i-seeṣ came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

13 And he left them, and entering into the ship again departed to the other side.

14 ¶ ⁱNow the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 ^jAnd he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Phār'i-sees, and of the leaven of Hēr'od.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is ^kbecause we have no bread.

17 And when Jē'sus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? ^lperceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened?

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

19 ^mWhen I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 And ⁿwhen the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said unto them, How is it that ^oye do not understand?

22 ¶ And he cometh to Bēth-sā'ī-dā; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when ^phe had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.

25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, ^qnor tell it to any in the town.

27 ¶ ^rAnd Jē'sus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Çæs-a-rē'ā Phī-līp'pī: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, ^sJōhn the Bāp'tist: but some say, Ē-lī'as; and others, One of the prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Pē'tēr answereth and saith unto him, ^tThou art the Christ.

30 And ^uhe charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 And ^vhe began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 And he spake that saying openly. And Pē'tēr took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Pē'tēr, saying, Get thee behind me, Sā'tan: ^wfor thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 ¶ And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, ^xWhosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

35 For ^ywhosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.

CHAPTER 9.

² The transfiguration. ¹¹ Instruction concerning Elias. ³⁰ Christ foretells his death.

AND he said unto them, ^aVerily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen ^bthe kingdom of God come with power.

2 ¶ ^cAnd after six days Jē'sus taketh with him Pē'tēr, and Jāmeş, and Jōhn, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding ^dwhite as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them.

4 And there appeared unto them Ē-lī'as with Mō'seş; and they were talking with Jē'sus.

5 And Pē'tēr answered and said to Jē'sus, Master, it is good for us to be herē: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Mō'seş, and one for Ē-lī'as.

6 For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid.

7 And there was ^ea cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: ^fhear him.

8 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jē'sus only with themselves.

9 ^gAnd as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.

11 ¶ And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes ^hthat Ē-lī'as must first come?

12 And he answered and told them, Ē-lī'as verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and ⁱhow it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and ^jbe set at nought.

13 But I say unto you, That ^kĒ-lī'as is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 ¶ ^lAnd when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye ¹with them?

17 And ^mone of the multitude answered and said,

Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit ;

18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he ²teareth him : and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away : and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out ; and they could not.

19 He answereth him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you ? how long shall I suffer you ? bring him unto me.

20 And they brought him unto him : and ⁿwhen he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him ; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming.

21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him ? And he said, Of a child.

22 And oftentimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him : but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23 Jē'sus said unto him, ^oIf thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe ; ^phelp thou mine unbelief.

25 When Jē'sus saw that the people came running together, he ^qrebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him : and he was as one dead ; insomuch that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jē'sus took him by the hand, and lifted him up ; and he arose.

28 ^rAnd when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out ?

29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.

30 ¶ And they departed thence, and passed through Gāl'ī-lee ; and he would not that any man should know it.

31 ^sFor he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him ; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33 ¶ ^tAnd he came to Cā-pēr'na-üm : and being in the house he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way ?

34 But they held their peace : ^ufor by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.

35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, ^vIf any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.

36 And ^whe took a child, and set him in the midst of them : and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them, 37 Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me : and ^xwhosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

38 ¶ ^yAnd Jōhn answered him, saying, Master, we

CHAPTER 10.

² Christ speaks of divorce. ¹³ Blesses little children. ¹⁷ How to obtain eternal life. ³⁵ Request of Zebedee's sons. ⁴⁶ Restores Bartimæus' sight.

AND ^ahe arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Jū-dæ'a by the farther side of Jōr'-dan : and the people resort unto him again ; and, as he was wont, he taught them again.

2 ¶ ^bAnd the Phār'ī-sees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife ? tempting him.

3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Mō'ses command you ?

4 And they said, ^cMō'ses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.

5 And Jē'sus answered and said unto them, ^dFor the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept.

6 But from the beginning of the creation ^eGod made them male and female.

7 ^fFor this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife ;

8 And they twain shall be one flesh : so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

10 And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter.

11 And he saith unto them, ^oWhosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

13 ¶ ^hAnd they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when Jē'sus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for ⁱof such is the kingdom of God.

15 Verily I say unto you, ^jWhosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

16 ^kAnd he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

17 ¶ ^lAnd when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?

18 And Jē'sus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God.

19 Thou knowest the commandments, ^mDo not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother.

20 And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth.

21 Then Jē'sus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, ⁿsell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have ^otreasure in heaven: and come, take up ^pthe cross, and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ ^qAnd Jē'sus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jē'sus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them ^rthat trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

27 And Jē'sus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for ^swith God all things are possible.

28 ¶ ^tThen Pē'tēr began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

29 And Jē'sus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's,

30 ^uBut he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with ^vpersecutions; and in the world to come eternal life.

31 ^wBut many that are first shall be last; and the last first.

32 ¶ ^xAnd they were in the way going up to Jē-ru'sā-lēm; and Jē'sus went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. ^yAnd he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him,

33 Saying, Behold, we go up to Jē-ru'sā-lēm; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Ĝen'tileş:

34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again.

35 ¶ ^zAnd Jāmeş and Jōhn, the sons of Zēb'e-dee, come unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldst do for us whatsoever we shall desire.

36 And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you?

37 They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.

38 But Jē'sus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?

39 And they said unto him, We can. And Jē'sus said unto them, Ye ^ashall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized:

40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be ^bgiven to them for whom it is prepared.

41 ^cAnd when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with Jāmeş and Jōhn.

42 But Jē'sus called them to him, and saith unto them, ^dYe know that they which ¹are accounted to rule over the Ĝen'tileş exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 ^eBut so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 For even ^fthe Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and ^gto give his life a ransom for many.

46 ¶ ^hAnd they came to Jēr'i-chō: and as he went out of Jēr'i-chō with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bār-ti-mæ'us, the son of Tī-mæ'us, sat by the highway side begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jē'sus of Nāz'-a-rēth, he began to cry out, and say, Jē'sus, thou ⁱson of Dā'vid, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou son of Dā'vid, have mercy on me.

49 And Jē'sus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee.

50 And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jē'sus.

51 And Jē'sus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

52 And Jē'sus said unto him, Go thy way; ^jthy faith hath ²made thee whole. And immediately ^khe received his sight, and followed Jē'sus in the way.

CHAPTER 11.

¹ Christ enters Jerusalem. ¹⁵ Cleansing the temple. ²⁰ An exhortation to faith.

AND ^awhen they came nigh to Jē-ru'sā-lēm, unto Bēth'pha-ḡē and Bēth'ā-nỹ, at the mount of ^bŌl'iveš, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,

2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that ^cthe Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt?

6 And they said unto them even as Jē'sus had commanded: and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt to Jē'sus, and cast their garments on him; ^dand he sat upon him.

8 ^eAnd many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, ^fsaying, Hō-šān'nā; Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord:

10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father Dā'vid, that cometh in the name of the Lord: ^gHō-šān'nā in the highest.

11 ^hAnd Jē'sus entered into Jē-ru'sā-lēm, and into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bēth'ā-nỹ with the twelve.

12 ¶ And ⁱon the morrow, when they were come frōm Bēth'ā-nỹ, he was hungry:

13 ^jAnd seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

14 And Jē'sus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

15 ¶ ^kAnd they come to Jē-ru'sā-lēm: and Jē'sus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves;

16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.

22 And Jē'sus answering saith unto them, ²Have faith in God.

28 And say unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

33 And they answered and said unto Jē'sus, We cannot tell. And Jē'sus answering saith unto them, ^wNeither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

CHAPTER 12.

¹ Parable of the vineyard. ¹³ The tribute money. ²⁸ First of all commandments. ⁴¹ The widow's mites.

AND he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted ^aa vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged ^aplace for the winefat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again he sent unto them another servant ; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again he sent another ; and him they killed, and many others ; beating some, and ^b killing some.

6 Having yet therefore one son, his ^c wellbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.

7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is ^d the heir ; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 And they took him, and ^e killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do ? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will ^f give the vineyard unto others.

10 And have ye not read this scripture ; ^g The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner :

11 This was the Lord's doing, and ^h it is marvellous in our eyes ?

12 And ⁱ they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people : for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them : and they left him, and went their way.

13 ¶ ^j And they send unto him certain of the Phār'-ī-seeṣ and of the Hē-rō'dī-anṣ, to catch him in his words.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man : for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth : Is it lawful to give tribute to Çæ'ṣar, or not ?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give ? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me ? bring me ^l a penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription ? And they said unto him, Çæ'ṣar's.

17 And Jē'ṣus answering said unto them, Render to Çæ'ṣar the things that are Çæ'ṣar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

18 ¶ ^k Then come unto him the Sād'du-çeeṣ, ^l which say there is no resurrection ; and they asked him, saying, 19 Master, ^m Mō'ṣeṣ wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren : and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed : and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed : last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them ? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jē'ṣus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, ⁿ because ye know not the scriptures, neither ^o the power of God ?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage ; but ^p are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise : have ye not read in the book of Mō'ṣeṣ, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, ^q I am the God of Ā'brā-hām, and the God of Ī'ṣaac, and the God of Jā'cob ?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living : ye therefore do greatly err.

28 ¶ ^r And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all ?

29 And Jē'ṣus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, ^s Hear, O Īṣ'ra-el ; the Lord our God is one Lord :

30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength : this is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, namely this, ^t Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth : for there is one God ; ^u and there is none other but he :

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, ^v is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jē'ṣus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. ^w And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 ¶ ^x And Jē'ṣus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the son of Dā'vid ?

36 For Dā'vid himself said ^y by the Hō'lŷ Ghōst, ^z The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 Dā'vid therefore himself calleth him Lord ; and ^a whence is he then his son ? And the common people heard him gladly.

38 ¶ And ^b he said unto them in his doctrine, ^c Beware of the scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and ^d love salutations in the marketplaces,

39 And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts :

40 ^e Which devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers : these shall receive greater damnation.

41 ¶ ^f And Jē'ṣus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast ^g money ^h into the treasury : and many that were rich cast in much.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two ⁱ mites, which make a farthing.

43 And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ^j this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury :

44 For all they did cast in of their abundance ; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, ⁱ even all her living.

CHAPTER 13.

¹ The temple to be destroyed. ⁹ Signs of Christ's coming. ³² Exhortation to watch.

AND ^a as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here !

2 And Jē'sus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings ? ^b there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Ōl'iveš over against the temple, Pē'tēr and Jāmeš and Jōhn and Ān'drew asked him privately,

4 ^c Tell us, when shall these things be ? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled ?

5 And Jē'sus answering them began to say, ^d Take heed lest any man deceive you :

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ ; and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled : for such things must needs be ; but the ^e end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom : and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles : these are the beginnings of ¹ sorrows.

9 ¶ But ^f take heed to yourselves : for they shall deliver you up to councils ; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten : and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.

10 And ^g the gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 ^h But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate : but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye : for it is not ye that speak, ⁱ but the Hō'l'ý Ghōst.

12 Now ^j the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son ; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake : but ^k he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 ¶ ^l But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, ^m spoken of by Dān'ijel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then ⁿ let them that be in Jū-dæ'á flee to the mountains :

15 And let him that is on the house top not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house :

16 And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment.

17 ^o But woe to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days !

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 ^v For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved : but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

21 ^w And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ ; or, lo, he is there ; believe him not :

22 For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, ^r if it were possible, even the elect.

23 But ^s take ye heed : behold, I have foretold you all things.

24 ¶ ^t But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, 25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

26 ^u And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

27 And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 Now learn a parable of the fig tree ; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near :

29 So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors.

30 Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done.

31 Heaven and earth shall pass away : but ^v my words shall not pass away.

32 ¶ But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.

33 ^w Take ye heed, watch and pray : for ye know not when the time is.

34 ^x For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

35 ^y Watch ye therefore : for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning :

36 Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping.

37 And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

CHAPTER 14.

¹ The rulers conspire against Christ. ¹⁰ Judas sells Jesus. ²² Institution of the Lord's supper. ³⁴ The agony. ⁴³ Judas betrays Jesus. ⁶⁶ Peter's denial.

AFTER ^a two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread : and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 ¶ ^b And being in Bēth'ā-ný in the house of Sī'mon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of ¹spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred ^epence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 And Jē'sus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

7 ^dFor ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

10 ¶ ^eAnd Jū'das Īs-cār'ī-ot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him ^fmoney. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 ¶ ^gAnd the first day of unleavened bread, when they ²killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall ^heat the passover with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

17 ⁱAnd in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 And as they sat and did eat, Jē'sus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish.

21 ^jThe Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 ¶ ^kAnd as they did eat, Jē'sus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, This is ¹my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.

25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 ¶ ^mAnd when they had sung an ³hymn, they went out into the mount of Ōl'īveṣ.

27 ⁿAnd Jē'sus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, ^oI will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

28 But ^pafter that I am risen, I will go before you into Gāl'ī-lee.

29 But ^qPē'tēr said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.

30 And Jē'sus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

32 ^rAnd they came to a place which was named Ĝēth-sēm'a-nē: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while ^sI shall pray.

33 And he taketh with him Pē'tēr and Jāmeṣ and Jōhn, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy;

34 And saith unto them, ^tMy soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

36 And he said, ^uĀb'ba, Father, ^vall things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: ^wnevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Pē'tēr, Sī'mon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?

38 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. ^xThe spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, ^ythe hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 ^zRise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 ¶ ^aAnd immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Jū'das, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely.

45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, ^{4b}Master, master; and ^ckissed him.

46 ¶ And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 ^aAnd Jē'sus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but the ^escriptures must be fulfilled.

50 ^fAnd they all forsook him, and fled.

51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him:

52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 ¶ ^gAnd they led Jē'sus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.

54 And Pē'tēr followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

55 ^hAnd the chief priests and all the council sought for witness against Jē'sus to put him to death; and ⁱfound none.

56 For many bare ^jfalse witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

57 And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying, 58 We heard him say, ^kI will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.

59 But neither so did their witness agree together.

60 ^lAnd the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jē'sus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

61 But ^mhe held his peace, and answered nothing.

ⁿAgain the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?

62 And Jē'sus said, I am: ^oand ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses?

64 Ye have heard the ^pblasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

65 And some began to ^qspit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophecy: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

66 ¶ ^rAnd as Pē'tēr was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest:

67 And when she saw Pē'tēr warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jē'sus of Nāz'a-rēth.

68 But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch; and the cock crew.

69 ^sAnd a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

70 And he denied it again. ^tAnd a little after,

CHAPTER 15.

1 Christ before Pilate. 15 The trial. 27 The crucifixion. 43 Burial by Joseph.

AND ^astraightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jē'sus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pī'lāte.

2 ^bAnd Pī'lāte asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, ^cThou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but ^dhe answered nothing.

4 ^eAnd Pī'lāte asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

5 ^fBut Jē'sus yet answered nothing; so that Pī'lāte marvelled.

6 Now ^gat that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

7 And there was one named Bā-rāb'bas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pī'lāte answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him ^hfor envy.

11 But ⁱthe chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Bā-rāb'bas unto them.

12 And Pī'lāte answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call ^jthe King of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14 Then Pī'lāte said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15 ¶ ^kAnd so Pī'lāte, willing to content the people, released Bā-rāb'bas unto them, and delivered Jē'sus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

16 And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Præ-tō'rī-um; and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head, 18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 ^lAnd they compel one Si'mon a Çy-rē'nī-an, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Āl-ēx-ān'dēr and ^mRu'fus, to bear his cross.

22 ⁿAnd they bring him unto the place Gōl'gō-thá, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull.

23 ^oAnd they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh : but he received it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, ^pthey parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

25 And ^qit was the third hour, and they crucified him.

26 And ^rthe superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 And with him they crucify two thieves ; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.

28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, ^sAnd he was numbered with the transgressors.

29 And ^tthey that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou ^uthat destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, 30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross.

31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others ; himself he cannot save.

32 Let Christ the King of Īs'ra-el descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And ^vthey that were crucified with him reviled him.

33 And ^wwhen the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

34 And at the ninth hour Jē'sus cried with a loud voice, saying, ^xĒ-lō'ī, Ē-lō'ī, lā'mā sā-bach-thā'nī? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me ?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Ē-lī'as.

36 And ^yone ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and ^zgave him to drink, saying, Let alone ; let us see whether Ē-lī'as will come to take him down.

37 ^aAnd Jē'sus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.

38 And ^bthe veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.

39 ¶ And ^cwhen the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.

40 ^dThere were also women looking on ^eafar off : among whom was Mā'rŷ Māg-da-lē'nē, and Mā'rŷ the mother of Jāmeš the less and of Jō'sēs, and Sā-lō'mē ;

41 (Who also, when he was in Gāl'ī-lee, ^ffollowed him, and ministered unto him ;) and many other women which came up with him unto Jē-ru'sā-lēm.

42 ¶ ^gAnd now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, 43 Jō'sēph of Ār-ī-mā-thæ'á, an honourable counsellor, which also ^hwaited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pī'lāte, and craved the body of Jē'sus.

44 And Pī'lāte marvelled if he were already dead :

and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.

45 And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Jō'sēph.

46 ⁱAnd he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.

47 And Mā'rŷ Māg-da-lē'nē and Mā'rŷ the mother of Jō'sēs beheld where he was laid.

CHAPTER 16.

1 The resurrection. 9 Christ's appearance. 15 The disciples sent forth. 19 The ascension.

AND ^awhen the sabbath was past, Mā'rŷ Māg-da-lē'nē, and Mā'rŷ the mother of Jāmeš, and Sā-lō'mē, ^bhad bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

2 ^cAnd very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre ?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away : for it was very great.

5 ^dAnd entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment ; and they were affrighted.

6 ^eAnd he saith unto them, Be not affrighted : Ye seek Jē'sus of Nāz'a-rēth, which was crucified : he is ^frisen ; he is not here : behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go your way, tell his disciples and Pē'tēr that he goeth before you into Gāl'ī-lee : there shall ye see him, ^gas he said unto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre ; for they trembled and were amazed : ^hneither said they any thing to any man ; for they were afraid.

9 ¶ Now when Jē'sus was risen early the first day of the week, ⁱhe appeared first to Mā'rŷ Māg-da-lē'nē, ^jout of whom he had cast seven devils.

10 And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 ^kAnd they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not.

12 ¶ After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.

13 And they went and told it unto the residue : neither believed they them.

14 ¶ ^lAfterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat ¹at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

15 ^mAnd he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, ⁿand preach the gospel to every creature.

16 ^oHe that believeth and is baptized shall be saved ; ^pbut he that believeth not shall be damned.

17 And these signs shall follow them that believe ; ^qIn my name shall they cast out devils ; ^rthey shall speak with new tongues ;

18 ^sThey shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; ^tthey shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

CHAPTER 1.

¹ Preface. ⁵ Birth of John and Jesus foretold. ⁵⁷ John the Baptist born. ⁶⁷ Prophecy of Zacharias.

FORASMUCH as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of ^athose things which are most surely believed among us,

2 ^bEven as they delivered them unto us, which ^cfrom the beginning were eyewitnesses, and ministers of the word;

3 ^dIt seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee ^ein order, ^fmost excellent Thē-ōph'ī-lūs,

4 ^gThat thou mightest know the certainty of those things, wherein thou hast been instructed.

5 ¶ THERE was ^hin the days of Hēr'od, the king of Jū-dæ'ā, a certain priest named Zäch-a-rī'as, ⁱof the course of Ā-bī'ā: and his wife was of the daughters of Aār'ōn, and her name was Ē-līš'a-bēth.

6 And they were both ^jrighteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

7 And they had no child, because that Ē-līš'a-bēth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

8 And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God ^kin the order of his course, 9 According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was ^lto burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 ^mAnd the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

12 And when Zäch-a-rī'as saw him, ⁿhe was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zäch-a-rī'as: for ^othy prayer is heard; and thy wife Ē-līš'a-bēth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name Jōhn.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth.

15 For he shall be ^pgreat in the sight of the Lord, and ^qshall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Hō'lý Ghōst, ^reven from his mother's womb.

16 ^sAnd many of the children of Īš'ra-el shall he turn to the Lord their God.

17 ^tAnd he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Ē-lī'as, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient ¹to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the ^vLord.

18 And Zäch-a-rī'as said unto the angel, ^vWhereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am ^wGā'brī-el, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 And, behold, ^xthou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people ^ywaited for Zäch-a-rī'as, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as ^zthe days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife Ē-līš'a-bēth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying, 25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to ^atake away my reproach among men.

26 And in the sixth month the angel Gā'brī-el was sent from God unto a city of Gāl'ī-lee, named Nāz'-a-rēth, 27 To a virgin ^bespoused to a man whose name was Jō'seph, of the house of Dā'vid; and the virgin's name was Mā'rý.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art ²highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mā'rý: for thou hast found favour with God.

31 ^cAnd, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JĒ'-SUS.

32 He shall be ^dgreat, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and ^ethe Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father Dā'vid:

33 ^fAnd he shall reign over the house of Jā'cōb for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mā'rý unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her, The Hō'lŷ Ghōst shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee : therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called ^othe Son of God.

36 And, behold, thy cousin Ē-līṣ'a-bēth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age : and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.

37 For ^hwith God nothing shall be impossible.

38 And Mā'rŷ said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord ; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

39 And Mā'rŷ arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, ⁱinto a city of Jū'dā ;

40 And entered into the house of Zāch-a-rī'as, and saluted Ē-līṣ'a-bēth.

41 And it came to pass, that, when Ē-līṣ'a-bēth heard the salutation of Mā'rŷ, the babe leaped in her womb ; and Ē-līṣ'a-bēth was filled ^jwith the Hō'lŷ Ghōst :

42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, ^kBlessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me ?

44 For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And blessed is she ^lthat believed : for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

46 And Mā'rŷ said, 'My soul doth magnify the Lord,

47 And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

48 For ^mhe hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden : for, behold, from henceforth ⁿall generations shall call me blessed.

49 For he that is mighty hath done to me great things ; and holy is his name.

50 And ^ohis mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation.

51 ^pHe hath shewed strength with his arm ; ^qhe hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 ^rHe hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

53 ^sHe hath filled the hungry with good things ; and the rich he hath sent empty away.

54 He hath holpen his servant Īṣ'ra-el, ^tin remembrance of his mercy ;

55 ^uAs he spake to our fathers, to Ā'brā-hām, and to his seed for ever.

56 And Mā'rŷ abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57 Now Ē-līṣ'a-bēth's full time came that she should be delivered ; and she brought forth a son.

58 And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her ; and they rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to pass, that ^von the eighth day they came to circumcise the child ; and they called him Zāch-a-rī'as, after the name of his father.

63 And he asked for a writing table, and wrote, saying, His name is Jōhn. And they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and praised God.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them : and all these ⁴sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Jū-dæ'ā.

66 And all they that heard ^wthem laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be ! And ^xthe hand of the Lord was with him.

CHAPTER 2.

1 The Roman taxation. 6 Christ is born. 21 He is circumcised. 40 His growth. 46 Jesus in the temple.

AND it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Çæ'sar Au-gūs'tus, that all the world should be ¹taxed.

2 (^aAnd this taxing was first made when Çŷ-rē-nī-us was governor of Sŷr'i-ā.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And Jō'seph also went up from Gāl'i-lee, out of the city of Nāz'a-rēth, into Jū-dæ'ā, unto ^bthe city of Dā'vid, which is called Bēth'lē-hēm ; (^cbecause he was of the house and lineage of Dā'vid :)

5 To be taxed with Mā'rŷ his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And ^ashe brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a ^emanger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping ²watch over their flock by night.

9 And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, ^fwhich shall be to all people.

11 ^gFor unto you is born this day in the city of Dā'vid a Saviour, ^hwhich is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 ⁱAnd suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, 14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth ^jpeace, ^kgood will toward men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, ³the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bēth'lē-hēm, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mā'rŷ, and Jō'sēph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 But Mā'rŷ kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 ^lAnd when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called ^mJĒ'SUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when ⁿthe days of her purification according to the law of Mō'sēs were accomplished, they brought him to Jē-ru'sā-lēm, to present him to the Lord;

23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, ^oEvery male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;)

24 And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.

25 And, behold, there was a man in Jē-ru'sā-lēm, whose name was Sīm'e-on; and the same man was just and devout, ^pwaiting for the consolation of Īs'ra-el: and the Hō'lŷ Ghōst was upon him.

26 And it was revealed unto him by the Hō'lŷ

37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers ^knight and day.

40 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

41 Now his parents went to Jē-ru'sā-lēm ⁿevery year at the feast of the passover.

42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jē-ru'sā-lēm after the custom of the feast.

43 And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jē'sus tarried behind in Jē-ru'sā-lēm; and Jō'sēph and his mother knew not of it.

44 But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

45 And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jē-ru'sā-lēm, seeking him.

46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, ^oboth hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And ^pall that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.

48 And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.

49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about ^fmy Father's business?

50 And ^gthey understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

51 And he went down with them, and came to Nāz'a-rēth, and was subject unto them: but his mother ^hkept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Jē'sus ⁱincreased in wisdom and ^bstature, and in favour with God and man.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Preaching of John. 20 He is imprisoned. 21 Baptism of Christ. 23 His genealogy.

NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tī-bē'-rī-us Çæ'sar, Pōn'ti-us Pi'lāte being governor of Jū-dæ'ā, and Hēr'od being tetrarch of Gāl'i-lee, and his brother Phil'ip tetrarch of Ī-tu-ræ'ā and of the region of Trāch-ō-nī'tis, and Lŷ-sā'nī-as the tetrarch of Āb-ī-lē'nē,

2 ^aĀn'nas and Cā'ja-phās being the high priests, the word of God came unto Jōhn the son of Zäch-a-rī'as in the wilderness.

3 ^bAnd he came into all the country about Jōr'dan, preaching the baptism of repentance ^cfor the remission of sins;

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Ē-sā'jas the prophet, saying, ^dThe voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

6 And ^eall flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, ^fO generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 ^gBring forth therefore fruits ¹worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Ā'brā-hām to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Ā'brā-hām.

9 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: ^hevery tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, ⁱWhat shall we do then?

11 He answereth and saith unto them, ^jHe that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then ^kcame also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?

13 And he said unto them, ^lExact no more than that which is appointed you.

14 And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, ^mDo violence to no man, ⁿneither accuse any falsely; and be content with your ³wages.

15 And as the people were ⁴in expectation, and all men ⁵mused in their hearts of Jōhn, whether he were the Christ, or not;

16 Jōhn answered, saying unto them all, ^oI indeed

20 Added yet this above all, that he shut up Jōhn in prison.

21 Now when all the people were baptized, ^rit came to pass, that Jē'sus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened,

22 And the Hō'lŷ Ghōst descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice ^scame from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Christ's temptation. 14 His ministry begun. 33 Working of miracles. 43 Preaching in other cities.

AND ^a Jē'sus being full of the Hō'lŷ Ghōst returned from Jōr'dān, and ^b was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,

2 Being forty days ^c tempted of the devil. And ^d in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered.

3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

4 And Jē'sus answered him, saying, ^e It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.

5 And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for ^f that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it.

7 If thou therefore wilt ¹ worship me, all shall be thine.

8 And Jē'sus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Sā'tan: for ^g it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

9 ^h And he brought him to Jē-ru'sā-lēm, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, ⁱ cast thyself down from hence:

10 For ^j it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee:

11 And in ^k their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Jē'sus answering said unto him, ^l It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he ^m departed from him for a season.

14 ¶ ⁿ And Jē'sus returned in the power of the Spirit into ^o Gāl'ī-lee: and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.

15 And he taught in their synagogues, being ^p glorified of all.

16 ¶ ^q And he came to ^r Nāz'a-rēth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, ^s he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read.

17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Ē-šā'ias. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

18 ^s The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, 19 To preach the 'acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bare him witness, and ^v wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, ^w Is not this Jō'seph's son?

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in ^x Cā-pēr'na-ūm, do also here in ^y thy country.

24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, No ^y prophet is accepted in his own country.

25 But I tell you of a truth, ^z many widows were in Īs'ra-el in the days of Ē-lī'as, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;

26 But unto none of them was Ē-lī'as sent, save unto Sā-rēp'tā, a city of Sī'dōn, unto a woman that was a widow.

27 ^a And many lepers were in Īs'ra-el in the time of Ē-l-ī-sē'us the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Nā'a-man the Sŷr'i-an.

28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath, 29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the ² brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong.

30 But he ^b passing through the midst of them went his way, 31 And ^c came down to Cā-pēr'na-ūm, a city of Gāl'ī-lee, and taught them on the sabbath days.

32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: ^d for his word was with power.

33 ¶ ^e And in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice, 34 Saying, ³ Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jē'sus of Nāz'a-rēth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; ^f the Holy One of God.

35 And Jē'sus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 ^g And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

38 ¶ ^h And he arose out of the synagogues, and entered into Si'mon's house. And Si'mon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.

39 And he stood over her, ⁱ and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

40 ¶ ^j Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 ^k And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And ^l he rebuking them suffered them not ⁴ to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.

42 ^m And when it was day, he departed and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.

43 And he said unto them, ⁿ I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent.

44 ^o And he preached in the synagogues of Gāl'i-lee.

CHAPTER 5.

¹ Teaching from the ship. ⁴ Draught of fishes and other miracles. ¹⁶ Prays in the wilderness. ²⁷ Matthew called.

AND ^a it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gēn-nēs'a-rēt,

2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Si'mon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Si'mon, ^b Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Si'mon answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.

7 And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Si'mon Pē'tēr saw it, he fell down at Jē'sus' knees, saying, ^c Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also Jāmeš, and Jōhn, the sons of Zēb'e-dee, which were partners with Si'mon. And Jē'sus said unto Si'mon, Fear not; ^d from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, ^e they forsook all, and followed him.

city, behold a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jē'sus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst ^o make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 ^h And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, ⁱ according as Mō'seš commanded, for a testimony unto them.

15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: ^j and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 ¶ ^k And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Phār'i-seeš and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Gāl'i-lee, and Jū-dæ'a, and Jē-ru'sā-lēm: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 ¶ ^l And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the house top, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jē'sus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, ^m thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 ⁿ And the scribes and the Phār'i-seeš began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? ^o Who can forgive sins, but God alone?

22 But when Jē'sus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the ^p Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, ^q glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

27 ¶ ^r And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Lē'vī, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 ^s And Lē'vī made him a great feast in his own house: and ^t there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.

30 But their scribes and Phār'i-seeš murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 And Jē'sus answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick.

32 "I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ And they said unto him, "Why do the disciples of Jōhn fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Phār'i-seeṣ; but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bridechamber fast, while the "bridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall "be taken away from them, and then shall they "fast in those days.

36 ¶ ^z And he spake also a parable unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Pharisees reproved. 13 The apostles called. 20 Christ preaches to his disciples. 27 On love and good works.

AND ^a it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Phār'i-seeṣ said unto them, ^b Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days?

3 And Jē'sus answering them said, Have ye not read so much as this, ^c what Dā'vid did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him;

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him; ^d which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone?

5 And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

6 ^e And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the scribes and Phār'i-seeṣ watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him.

8 But he ^f knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

9 Then said Jē'sus unto them, I will ask you one thing; ^g Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jē'sus.

12 ^h And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.

13 ¶ And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: ⁱ and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles;

14 Sī'mon, (ⁱ whom he also named Pē'tēr,) and Ān'drew his brother, Jāmeṣ and Jōhn, Phīl'ip and Bār-thōl'ō-mew, 15 Māt'thew and Thōm'as, Jāmeṣ the son of Āl-phā'e'us, and Sī'mon called Zē-lō'tēṣ, 16 And Jū'das ^h the brother of Jāmeṣ, and Jū'das Īs-cār'i-ot, which also was the traitor.

17 ¶ And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, ⁱ and a great multitude of people out of all Jū-dæ'ā and Jē-ru'sā-lēm, and from the sea coast of Tÿre and Sī'dōn, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude ^m sought to touch him: for ⁿ there went virtue out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶ And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, ^o Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God.

21 ^p Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. ^a Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.

22 ^r Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they ^s shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

23 ^t Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for ^u in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

24 ^v But woe unto you that are rich! for ^w ye have received your consolation.

25 ^x Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. ^y Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.

26 ^z Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 ¶ ^a But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you, 28 Bless them that curse you, and ^b pray for them which despitefully use you.

29 ^c And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; ^d and him that taketh away thy cloke forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 ^e Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

31 ^f And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

32 ^g For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

34 ^h And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and ⁱ lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ^j ye shall be the children of the Highest: for ^k he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

36 ^l Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

37 ^m Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven:

38 ⁿ Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your ^o bosom. For ^p with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.

39 And he spake a parable unto them, ^q Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch?

40 The ^r disciple is not above his master: but every one ¹ that is perfect shall be as his master.

41 ^s And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, ^t cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

43 ^u For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

44 For ^v every tree is known by his own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they ² grapes.

45 ^w A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

46 ¶ ^x And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

47 ^y Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like:

48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when ^z the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon ^a a rock.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and ^b the ruin of that house was great.

CHAPTER 7.

1 The centurion's servant healed. 11 Widow's son at Nain raised from the dead.
19 John's messengers. 36 The sinning woman's faith.

NOW when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Căpěr'na-ũm.

2 And ^a a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jē'sus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jē'sus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6 Then Jē'sus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof:

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto ¹ one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Jē'sus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in ^b Īs'ra-el.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

11 ¶ And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nā'in; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he ^c had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the ² bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, ^d Arise.

15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother.

16 ^e And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, ^f That a great prophet is risen up among us; and, ^g That God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Jū-dæ'ā, and throughout all the region round about.

18 ^h And the disciples of Jōhn shewed him of all these things.

19 ¶ And Jōhn calling unto him two of his disciples sent them to Jē'sus, saying, Art thou ⁱ he that should come? or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, Jōhn Băp'tist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight.

22 ^jThen Jē'sus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell Jōhn what things ye have seen and heard; ^khow that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, ^lto the poor the gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

24 ¶ And ^mwhen the messengers of Jōhn were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning Jōhn, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he, of whom it is written, ⁿBehold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than Jōhn the Bāp'tist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, ^obeing baptized with the baptism of Jōhn.

30 But the Phār'ī-sees and lawyers ³rejected ^pthe counsel of God ⁴against themselves, being not baptized of him.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, ^qWhereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For ^rJōhn the Bāp'tist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil.

34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!

35 ^sBut wisdom is justified of all her children.

36 ¶ ^tAnd one of the Phār'ī-sees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Phār'ī-see's house, and sat down to meat.

37 And, behold, a ^uwoman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jē'sus sat at meat in the Phār'ī-see's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment, 38 And stood at his feet behind him ^vweeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Phār'ī-see which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, ^wThis man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Jē'sus answering said unto him, Si'mon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred ^xpence, and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly ^yforgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Si'mon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Si'mon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no ^zwater for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

48 And he said unto her, ^dThy sins are forgiven.

49 And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves, ^eWho is this that forgiveth sins also?

50 And he said to the woman, ^fThy faith hath saved thee; go in peace.

CHAPTER 8.

4 Parable of the sower. 16 The candle. 22 The winds rebuked. 26 Legion of devils cast out. 37 The Gadarenes reject Christ. 49 Jairus' daughter raised.

AND it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him,

2 And ^acertain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mā'r'y called Māg-dā-lē'nē, ^bout of whom went seven devils,

3 And Jō-ān'nā the wife of Chū'zā Hēr'od's steward, and Sū-šān'nā, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.

4 ¶ ^cAnd when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 ^dAnd his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God : but to others in parables ; ^e that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

11 ^f Now the parable is this : The ^g seed is the word of God.

12 Those by ^h the way side are they that hear ; then cometh ⁱ the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy ; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares ^j and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and ^k bring forth fruit with patience.

16 ¶ ^l No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed ; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 ^m For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest ; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear : ⁿ for whosoever hath, to him shall be given ; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he ¹ seemeth to have.

19 ¶ ^o Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.

20 And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

22 ¶ ^p Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples : and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep : and there came down a storm of wind on the lake ; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he ^q arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water : and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith ? And they being ^r afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this ! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 ¶ ^s And they arrived at the country of the Gād'-a-rēneş, which is over against Gāl'i-lee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jē'sus, he ^t cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jē'sus, thou Son of God most high ? I beseech thee, torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him : and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters ; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jē'sus asked him, saying, What is thy name ? And he said, Legion : because many devils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out ^u into the deep.

32 And there was there an ^v herd of many swine feeding on the mountain : and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And ^w he suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine : and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done ; and came to Jē'sus, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jē'sus, clothed, and in his right mind : and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed.

37 ¶ ^x Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gād'a-rēneş round about ^y besought him to depart from them ; for they were taken with great fear : and he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38 Now ^z the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him : but Jē'sus sent him away, saying, 39 Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jē'sus had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass, that, when Jē'sus was returned, the people gladly received him : for they were all waiting for him.

41 ¶ ^a And, behold, there came a man named Jā-ī'rus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue : and he fell down at Jē'sus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house :

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him.

43 ¶ ^b And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and ^c touched the border of his garment : and immediately her issue of blood stanchd.

45 And Jē'sus said, Who touched me ? When all denied, Pē'tēr and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jē'sus said, Somebody hath touched me : for I perceive that ^dvirtue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort : thy faith hath made thee whole ; go in peace.

49 ¶ ^eWhile he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead ; trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jē'sus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not : ^fbelieve only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Pē'tēr, and Jāmeš, and Jōhn, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and bewailed her : but he said, Weep not ; she is not dead, ^gbut sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, ^harise.

55 ⁱAnd her spirit came again, and she arose straightway : and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished : but ^jhe charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

CHAPTER 9.

¹ The apostles sent out. ¹⁷ Five thousand fed. ²⁸ The transfiguration. ⁴³ Christ foretells his passion. ⁴⁶ A lesson on humility. ⁵¹ James and John reproved.

THEN ^ahe called his twelve disciples together, and ^bgave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

2 And ^che sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 ^dAnd he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money ; neither have two coats apiece.

4 ^eAnd whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 ^fAnd whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, ^gshake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

6 And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

7 ¶ ^hNow Hēr'od the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him : and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that Jōhn was risen from the dead ;

8 And of some, that Ē-lī'as had appeared ; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9 And Hēr'od said, Jōhn have I beheaded : but who is this, of whom I hear such things ? ⁱAnd he desired to see him.

10 ¶ ^jAnd the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. ^kAnd he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bēth-sā'ī-dā.

11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him : and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.

12 ¹And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals : for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said unto them, ^mGive ye them to eat. And they said, ⁿWe have no more but five loaves and two fishes ; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they ^odid eat, and were all filled : and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

18 ¶ ^pAnd it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him : and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am ?

19 They answering said, ^qJōhn the Bāp'tist ; but some say, Ē-lī'as ; and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am ? ^rPē'tēr answering said, The Christ of God.

21 ^sAnd he straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing ;

22 Saying, ^tThe Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

23 ¶ ^uAnd he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it : but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

25 ^vFor what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away ?

26 ^wFor whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.

27 ^xBut I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 ¶ ^yAnd it came to pass about an eight days after these ¹sayings, he took Pē'tēr and Jōhn and Jāmeš, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, ^zthe fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistening.

30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Mō'seš and ^aĒ-lī'as :

31 Who appeared in ^bglory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jē-ru'sā-lēm.

32 But Pē'tēr and they that were with him ^cwere heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Pē'tēr said unto Jē'sus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Mō'ses, and one for Ē-lī'as: not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, ^dThis is my beloved Son: ^ehear him.

36 And when the voice was past, Jē'sus was found alone. ^fAnd they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 ¶ ^gAnd it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son: for he is mine only child.

39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not.

41 And Jē'sus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jē'sus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

43 ¶ And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jē'sus did, he said unto his disciples, 44 ^hLet these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 ⁱBut they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46 ¶ ^jThen there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jē'sus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him, 48 And said unto them, ^kWhosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: ^lfor he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 ¶ ^mAnd Jōhn answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbid him, because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jē'sus said unto him, Forbid him not: for ⁿhe that is not against us is for us.

51 ¶ And it came to pass, when the time was come that ^ohe should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jē-ru'sā-lēm,

52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Sā-mār'i-tan, to make ready for him.

53 And ^rthey did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jē-ru'sā-lēm.

54 And when his disciples Jāmeṣ and Jōhn saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as ^sĒ-lī'as did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what ^tmanner of spirit ye are of.

56 For ^uthe Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 ¶ ^vAnd it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

61 And another also said, Lord, ^xI will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.

62 And Jē'sus said unto him, ^yNo man, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

CHAPTER 10.

¹ The seventy sent out. ¹⁷ The seventy return. ²⁵ The lawyer taught how to obtain eternal life. ³⁰ The good Samaritan. ³⁸ Mary and Martha.

AFTER these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and ^asent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.

2 Therefore said he unto them, ^bThe harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: ^cpray ye therefore the ^dLord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

3 Go your ways: ^ebehold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

4 ^fCarry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and ^gsalute no man by the way.

5 ^hAnd into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

6 And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.

7 ⁱAnd in the same house remain, ^jeating and drinking such things as they give: for ^kthe labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not ^lfrom house to house.

8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you:

9 ^mAnd heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, ⁿThe kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say, 11 °Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you : notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

12 But I say unto you, that °it shall be more tolerable in that day for Söd'om, than for that city.

13 °Woe unto thee, Chô-rā'zin ! woe unto thee, Bēth-sā'ī-dā ! °for if the mighty works had been done in Tÿre and Sī'dōn, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago °repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tÿre and Sī'dōn at the judgment, than for you.

15 °And thou, Cā-pēr'na-ūm, which art °exalted to heaven, °shalt be thrust down to hell.

16 °He that heareth you heareth me ; and °he that despiseth you despiseth me ; °and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me.

17 ¶ And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.

18 And he said unto them, °I beheld Sā'tan as lightning fall from heaven.

19 Behold, °I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy : and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you ; but rather rejoice, because °your names are written in heaven.

21 ¶ °In that hour Jē'sus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from °the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes : even so, Father ; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 °All things are delivered to me of my Father : and °no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father ; and who the Father is, but the Son, and °he to whom the Son will reveal °him.

23 ¶ And he turned him unto °his disciples, and said privately, °Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see :

24 For I tell you, °that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen °them ; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard °them.

25 ¶ And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, °Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life ?

26 He said unto him, What is written in the law ? how readest thou ?

27 And he answering said, °Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind ; and °thy neighbour as thyself.

28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right : this do, and °thou shalt live.

29 But he, willing to °justify himself, said unto Jē'sus, And who is my neighbour ?

30 And Jē'sus answering said, A certain man went down from Jē-ru'sā-lēm to Jēr'ī-chō, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, 34 And went to °him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave °them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him ; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves ?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jē'sus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

38 ¶ Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village : and a certain woman named Mär'thā received him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Mā'rÿ, which also sat at Jē'sus' feet, and heard his word.

40 But Mär'thā was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone ? bid her therefore that she help me.

41 And Jē'sus answered and said unto her, Mär'thā, Mär'thā, thou art careful and troubled about many things :

42 But one thing is needful : and Mā'rÿ hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

CHAPTER 11.

1 The Lord's prayer. 11 On asking and giving. 29 Sermon to the people. 37 Denunciation of the Pharisees.

AND it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, °teach us to pray, as Jōhn also taught his disciples.

2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, °Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. °Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

3 Give us °day by day our daily bread.

4 And forgive us our sins ; for °we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. °And lead us not into temptation ; but deliver us from evil.

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves ;

6 For a friend of mine °in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him ?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not : the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed ; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, ^fThough he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9 ^gAnd I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you ; seek, and ye shall find ; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10 For every one that asketh receiveth ; and he that seeketh findeth ; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

11 ^hIf a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone ? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent ?

12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he ³offer him a scorpion ?

13 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children : how much more shall your heavenly Father give the ⁱHō'ly Spīr'it to them that ask him ?

14 ¶ ^jAnd he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake ; and the people wondered.

15 But some of them said, ^kHe casteth out devils through ⁴Bē-ēl'zē-būb the chief of the devils.

16 And others, tempting him, 'sought of him a sign from heaven.

17 ^mBut he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation ; and a house divided against a house falleth.

18 If Sā'tan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand ? because ye say that I cast out devils through Bē-ēl'zē-būb.

19 And if I by Bē-ēl'zē-būb cast out devils, by whom do ⁿyour sons cast them out ? therefore shall they be your judges.

20 But if I ^owith the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

21 ^pWhen a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace :

22 But ^qwhen a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

23 ^rHe that is not with me is against me : and he that gathereth not with me scattereth.

24 ^sWhen the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest ; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself ; and they enter in, and dwell there : and ^tthe last state of that man is worse than the first.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, ^uBlessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

28 But he said, Yea ^vrather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

29 ¶ ^wAnd when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation : they seek a sign ; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jō'nas the prophet.

30 For as ^xJō'nas was a sign unto the Nīn'ē-vītes, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.

31 ^yThe queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them : for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Sōl'o-mon ; and, behold, a ^zgreater than Sōl'o-mon is here.

32 The men of Nīn'ē-ve shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it : for ^athey repented at the preaching of Jō'nas ; and, behold, a greater than Jō'nas is here.

33 ^bNo man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a ^cbushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

34 ^dThe light of the body is the eye : therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light ; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when ^ethe bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

37 ¶ And as he spake, a certain Phār'ī-see besought him to dine with him : and he went in, and sat down to meat.

38 And when the Phār'ī-see saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner.

39 ^eAnd the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Phār'-ī-seeṣ make clean the outside of the cup and the platter ; but ^fyour inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.

40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also ?

41 ^gBut rather give alms ⁶of such things as ye have ; and, behold, all things are clean unto you.

42 ^hBut woe unto you, Phār'ī-seeṣ ! for ⁱye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God : these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

43 ^jWoe unto you, Phār'ī-seeṣ ! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 ^kWoe unto you, scribes and Phār'ī-seeṣ, hypocrites ! ^lfor ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

45 ¶ Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also.

46 And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers ! ^mfor ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 ⁿ Woe unto you ! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers : °for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore also said the ⁿ wisdom of God, °I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute :

50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation ;

51 ^rFrom the blood of Ā'bēl unto the blood of Zāch-a-rī'as, which perished between the altar and the temple : verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation.

52 ^sWoe unto you, lawyers ! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge : ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye ^thindered.

53 And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Phār'ī-sees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things :

54 Laying wait for him, and ^tseeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

CHAPTER 12.

1 A discourse to disciples on hypocrisy. 13 Warning against covetousness. 22 Against carefulness of earthly things. 33 General instruction to disciples.

IN ^athe mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, ^bBeware ye of the leaven of the Phār'ī-sees, which is hypocrisy.

2 ^cFor there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed ; neither hid, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light ; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the house tops.

4 ^dAnd I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

5 But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear : Fear him, which after he hath killed hath ^epower to cast into hell ; yea, I say unto you, Fear him.

6 Are not five sparrows sold for two ^ffarthings, and ^gnot one of them is ^hforgotten before God ?

7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore : ye are of more value than many sparrows.

8 ⁱAlso I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God :

9 But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God.

10 And ^jwhosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him : but unto him that blasphemeth against the Hō'l'y Ghōst it shall not be forgiven.

and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say :

12 ^kFor the Hō'l'y Ghōst shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.

13 ¶ And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

14 And he said unto him, ^lMan, who made me a judge or a divider over you ?

15 And he said unto them, ^mTake heed, and beware of covetousness : for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully :

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits ?

18 And he said, This will I do : I will pull down my barns, and build greater ; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, ⁿSoul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years ; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20 But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night ^othy soul shall be required of thee : °then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided ?

21 So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, ^pand is not rich toward God.

22 ¶ And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, ^qTake no thought for your life, what ye shall eat ; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

24 Consider the ravens : for they neither sow nor reap ; which neither have storehouse nor barn ; and ^rGod feedeth them : how much more are ye better than the fowls ?

25 And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit ?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest ?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow : they toil not, they spin not ; and yet I say unto you, that Sōl'o-mon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven ; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith ?

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, ²neither be ye of doubtful mind.

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after : and your Father ^sknoweth that ye have need of these things.

31 ¶ ^tBut rather seek ye the kingdom of God ; and ^uall these things shall be added unto you.

32 Fear not, little flock ; for ^vit is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

33 ^w Sell that ye have, and give alms; ^x provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35 ^y Let your loins be girded about, and ^z your lights burning;

36 And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

37 ^a Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.

38 And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

39 ^b And this know, that if the goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.

40 ^c Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.

41 ¶ Then Pē'tēr said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all?

42 And the Lord said, ^d Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?

43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

44 Of a truth I say unto you, that ^e he will make him ruler over all that he hath.

45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;

46 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will ³ cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.

47 And ^f that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

48 ^g But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

49 ¶ I am come to send fire on the earth; and what will I, if it be already kindled?

50 But ^h I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I ⁴ straitened till it be accomplished!

51 ⁱ Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; ^j but rather division:

52 ^k For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.

53 The father shall be divided against the son,

CHAPTER 13.

¹ On repentance. ⁶ The fruitless fig tree. ¹¹ Of healing on the sabbath. ¹⁸ The kingdom of God. ²⁴ The strait gate. ³¹ A lament for Jerusalem.

THERE were present at that season some that told him ^a of the Gāl-ī-læ'anṣ, whose blood Pī-lāte had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jē'sus answering said unto them, ^b Suppose ye that these Gāl-ī-læ'anṣ were sinners above all the Gāl-ī-læ'anṣ, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Sī-lō'am fell, and slew them, think ye that they were ¹ sinners above all men that dwelt in Jē-ru'sā-lēm?

5 I tell you, Nay: but, ^c except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable; ^d A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these ^e three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, ^f let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

11 ¶ And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself.

12 And when Jē'sus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

13 ^g And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the synagogue ^h answered with indignation, because that Jē'ṣus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, ⁱThere are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and ^jnot on the sabbath day.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, ^kdoth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman, ^lbeing a daughter of Ā'brā'hām, whom Sā'tan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 ¶ ^mThen said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three ⁿmeasures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

22 ^oAnd he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jē-ru'sā-lēm.

23 Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, 24 ¶ ²Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for ^pmany, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 ^qWhen once the master of the house is risen up, and ^rhath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, ^sLord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, ^tI know you not whence ye are:

26 Then shall ye begin to say, ^uWe have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

27 ^vBut he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; ^wdepart from me, all ye workers of iniquity.

28 ^xThere shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, ^ywhen ye shall see Ā'brā'hām, and Ī'saac, and Jā'cōb, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out.

29 ^zAnd they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.

30 ^aAnd, behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.

31 ¶ The same day there came certain of the Phār'i-sees, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence: for Hēr'od will kill thee.

CHAPTER 14.

1 On sabbath observance. 7 On humility. 15 Parable of the great supper. 25 Who cannot be disciples.

AND it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Phār'i-sees to eat bread on the sabbath day, that they watched him.

2 And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy.

3 And Jē'ṣus answering spake unto the lawyers and Phār'i-sees, saying, ^aIs it lawful to heal on the sabbath day?

4 An they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go;

5 And answered them, saying, ^bWhich of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath day?

6 And they could not answer him again to these things.

7 ¶ And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them,

8 When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him;

9 And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

10 ^cBut when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

11 ^dFor whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12 ¶ Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call ^ethe poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:

14 And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be ^frecompensed at the resurrection of the just.

15 ¶ And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, ^gBlessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

16 ^hThen said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many:

17 And ⁱsent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come ; for all things are now ready.

18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, ^jI have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it : I pray thee have me excused.

19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them : I pray thee have me excused.

20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, ^kGo out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

23 And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, ^land compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

24 For I say unto you, ^mThat none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

25 ¶ And there went great multitudes with him : and he turned, and said unto them, 26 ⁿIf any man come to me, ^oand hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, ^pyea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.

27 And ^qwhosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

28 For ^rwhich of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it ?

29 Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, 30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.

31 Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand ?

32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth ^san ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, whosoever ^the be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

34 ¶ ^uSalt is good : but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned ?

35 It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill ; but men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

ing, This man receiveth sinners, ^eand eateth with them.

3 ¶ And he spake this parable unto them, saying, ⁴What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he ^elose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it ?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me ; for I have found my sheep ^fwhich was lost.

7 I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, ^gmore than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.

8 ¶ Either what woman having ten ¹pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it ?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me ; for I have found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

11 ¶ And he said, A certain man had two sons :

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them ^h*his* living.

13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into ^aa far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land ; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country ; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat : and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger !

18 I will ^jarise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, ^kI have sinned against heaven, and before thee, 19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son : make me as one of thy hired servants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But ^lwhen he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, ^mand in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth ⁿthe best robe, and put it on him ; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet :

23 And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry :

24 °For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. °And they began to be merry.

25 Now his elder son was in the field : and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick and dancing.

26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.

27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come ; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.

28 And he was angry, and would not go in : therefore came his father out, and intreated him.

29 And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment : and °yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends :

30 But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.

31 And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.

32 °It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad : for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again ; and was lost, and is found.

CHAPTER 16.

1 The unjust steward. 14 Reproof of the Pharisees. 19 The rich man and Lazarus.

AND he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an °account of thy stewardship ; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship : I cannot dig ; to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred ¹measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred ²measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely : for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than ^bthe children of light.

9 And I say unto you, °Make to yourselves friends of the ³mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 °He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much : and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous ⁴mammon, who will commit to your trust the °true riches?

12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 ¶ No ^fservant can serve two masters : for either he will hate the one, and love the other ; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

14 And the Phār'i-sees also, °who were covetous, heard all these things : and they derided him.

15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which ^hjustify yourselves before men ; but ⁱGod knoweth your hearts : for ^jthat which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.

16 ^kThe law and the prophets were until Jōhn : since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

17 ^lAnd it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.

18 ^mWhosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery : and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery.

19 ¶ There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day :

20 And there was a certain beggar named Lăz'a-rus, which was laid at his gate, °full of sores, 21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table : moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and °was carried by the angels into ^pĀ'bră-hăm's bosom : the rich man also died, and was buried ;

23 And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Ā'bră-hăm afar off, and Lăz'a-rus in his bosom.

24 And he cried and said, Father Ā'bră-hăm, have mercy on me, and send Lăz'a-rus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and °cool my tongue ; for I °am tormented in this flame.

25 But Ā'bră-hăm said, Son, °remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lăz'a-rus evil things : but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 And beside all this, between us and you there is a °great gulf fixed : so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot ; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house :

28 For I have five brethren ; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Ā'bră-hăm saith unto him, °They have Mō'ses and the prophets ; let them hear them.

30 And he said, Nay, father Ā'bră-hăm : but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Mō'sēs and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

CHAPTER 17.

1 A lesson on faith. 11 Ten lepers healed. 20 Christ's second coming.

THEN said he unto the disciples, ^aIt is impossible but that offences will come: but ^bwoe unto him, through whom they come!

2 It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

3 ¶ Take heed to yourselves: ^cIf thy brother trespass against thee, ^drebuke him; and if he repent, ^eforgive him.

4 And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.

6 ^fAnd the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

7 But which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?

8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, ^gand serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?

9 Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are ^hunprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, ⁱas he went to Jē-ru'sā-lēm, that he passed through the midst of Sā-mā'rī-ā and Gāl'ī-lee.

12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, ^jwhich stood afar off:

13 And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jē'sus, Master, have mercy on us.

14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, ^kGo shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice ^lglorified God, 16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was ^ma Sā-mār'ī-tan.

17 And Jē'sus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?

18 There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.

19 ⁿAnd he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 ¶ And when he was demanded of the Phār'ī-sees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not ¹with observation:

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, ^othe kingdom of God is ²within you.

22 And he said unto the disciples, ^pThe days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 ^qAnd they shall say to you, See here; or, see there: ^rgo not after them, nor follow them.

24 For as the lightning, that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also ^sthe Son of man be in his day.

25 ^tBut first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation.

26 ^uAnd as it was in the days of Nō'e, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.

27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Nō'e entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

28 ^vLikewise also as it was in the days of Lōt; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded;

29 But the same day ^wthat Lōt went out of Sōd'om it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man ^xis revealed.

31 In that day, he ^ywhich shall be upon the house top, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

32 ^zRemember Lōt's wife.

33 ^aWhosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it.

34 ^bI tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

35 Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

36 ³Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

37 And they answered and said unto him, ^bWhere, Lord? And he said unto them, Wheresoever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together.

CHAPTER 18.

3 The importunate widow. 9 Of the Pharisee and publican. 15 Of little children.
18 The danger of riches. 31 The passion foretold. 35 Blind man's sight restored.

AND he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought ^aalways to pray, and not to faint;

2 Saying, There was ¹in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man:

3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.

4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;

A fterward came also the other virgins saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

5 ^b Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

7 And ^c shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you ^d that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

9 And he spake this parable unto certain ^e which trusted in themselves ² that they were righteous, and despised others :

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray ; the one a Phār'ī-see, and the other a publican.

11 The Phār'ī-see ^f stood and prayed thus with himself, ^g God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

13 And the publican, ^h standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other : ⁱ for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased ; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15 ^j And they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them : but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jē'ṣus called them unto him, and said, ^k Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not : for ^l of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein.

18 ^m And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jē'ṣus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God.

20 Thou knowest the commandments, ⁿ Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, ^o Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jē'ṣus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing : ^p sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven : and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful : for he was very rich.

24 And when Jē'ṣus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, ^q How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, ^r The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.

28 ^s Then Pē'tēr said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, ^t There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, 30 ^u Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and ^v in the world to come life everlasting.

31 ¶ ^w Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jē-ru'sā-lēm, and all things ^x that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

32 For ^y he shall be delivered unto the Gēn'tiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on :

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death : and the third day he shall rise again.

34 ^z And they understood none of these things : and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

35 ¶ ^{aa} And it came to pass, that as he was come nigh unto Jēr'ī-chō, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging :

36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they told him, that Jē'ṣus of Nāz'a-rēth passeth by.

38 And he cried, saying, Jē'ṣus, thou son of Dā'vid, have mercy on me.

39 And they which went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace : but he cried so much the more, Thou son of Dā'vid, have mercy on me.

40 And Jē'ṣus ^b stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him : and when he was come near, he asked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.

42 And Jē'ṣus said unto him, Receive thy sight : ^c thy faith hath saved thee.

43 And immediately ^d he received his sight, and followed him, ^e glorifying God : and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

CHAPTER 19.

1 Of Zacchæus the publican. 11 Parable of the pounds. 28 Christ enters Jerusalem.
45 Cleansing of the temple.

AND Jē'ṣus entered and passed through ^a Jēr'ī-chō.

2 And, behold, there was a man named Zāc-chæ'us, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Jē'ṣus who he was ; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him : for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jē'sus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zāc-chæ'us, make haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, ^bThat he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zāc-chæ'us stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by ^cfalse accusation, ^dI restore him fourfold.

9 And Jē'sus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as ^ehe also is a son of Ā'brā-hām.

10 ^fFor the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jē-ru'sā-lēm, and because ^gthey thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12 ^hHe said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten ¹pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.

14 ⁱBut his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the ²money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been ^jfaithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin:

21 ^kFor I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith unto him, 'Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. ^mThou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow:

23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, ^ohe went before, ascending up to Jē-ru'sā-lēm.

29 ^pAnd it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bēth'pha-gē and Bēth'ā-nŷ, at the mount called the mount of Ōl'iveṣ, he sent two of his disciples, 30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, ^qBecause the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jē'sus: ^rand they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jē'sus thereon.

36 ^sAnd as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Ōl'iveṣ, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen;

38 Saying, 'Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: ^tpeace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 And some of the Phār'i-seeṣ from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, ^vthe stones would immediately cry out.

41 ¶ And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and ^wwept over it, 42 Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall ^xcast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, 44 And ^yshall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and ^zthey shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because ^athou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

45 ^bAnd he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought;

46 Saying unto them, ^cIt is written, My house is the house of prayer: but ^dye have made it a den of thieves.

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But ^ethe chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him, 48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people ³ were very attentive to hear him.

CHAPTER 20.

¹ Christ avouches his authority by a question of John's baptism. ⁹ Parable of the vineyard. ¹⁹ The tribute money. ²⁷ The resurrection. ⁴⁵ Warning the disciples against the scribes.

AND ^a it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders,

2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, ^b by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me:

4 The baptism of Jōhn, was it from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: ^c for they be persuaded that Jōhn was a prophet.

7 And they answered, ^d that they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jē'sus said unto them, ^e Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable; ^f A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.

10 And at the season ^g he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 ^h And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send ⁱ my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is ^j the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and ^k killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, ^l The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

18 Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; but ^m on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 ¶ And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 ⁿ And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they asked him, saying, ^o Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God ¹ truly:

22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Cæ'sar, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a ^p penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cæ'sar's.

25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Cæ'sar the things which be Cæ'sar's, and unto God the things which be God's.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ¶ ^q Then came to him certain of the Sād'ducees, ^r which deny that there is any resurrection: and they asked him, 28 Saying, Master, ^s Mō'ses wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jē'sus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But they which shall be ^t accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

36 Neither can they die any more: for ^u they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, ^v being the children of the resurrection.

37 Now that the dead are raised, ^w even Mō'ses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Ā'brā'hām, and the God of Ī'saac, and the God of Jā'cob.

38 ^x For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for ^y all live unto him.

39 ¶ Then certain of the scribes answering said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And after that they durst not ask him any question at all.

41 And he said unto them, ^z How say they that Chrīst is Dā'vid's son?

42 And Dā'vid himself saith in the book of Psalms, ^aThe LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 43 Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

44 Dā'vid therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son?

45 ¶ ^bThen in the audience of all the people he said unto his disciples,

46 ^cBeware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and ^dlove greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts;

47 ^eWhich devour widows' houses, and for a shew make long prayers: the same ^fshall receive greater damnation.

CHAPTER 21.

¹ The poor widow's gift. ⁵ Destruction of the temple and of Jerusalem foretold. ²⁵ Signs of Christ's coming. ³⁴ On watchfulness.

AND he looked up, ^aand saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury.

2 And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites.

3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, ^bthat this poor widow hath cast in more than they all:

4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.

5 ¶ ^cAnd as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said,

6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which ^dthere shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?

8 And he said, ^eTake heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; ¹and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them.

9 But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by.

10 ^fThen said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:

11 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven.

12 ^gBut before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and ^hinto prisons, ⁱbeing brought before kings and rulers ^jfor my name's sake.

13 And ^kit shall turn to you for a testimony.

14 ^lSettle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer:

15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, ^mwhich all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist.

16 ⁿAnd ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; ^oand some of you shall they cause to be put to death.

17 ^pAnd ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake.

18 But there shall not an hair of your head perish.

19 In your patience possess ye your souls.

20 ^aAnd when ye shall see Jē-ryū'sā-lēm compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

21 Then let them which are in Jū-dæ'á flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.

22 For these be the days of vengeance, that ^aall things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jē-ryū'sā-lēm shall be trodden down of the Ĝěn'tileş, ^suntil the times of the Ĝěn'tileş be fulfilled.

25 ¶ ^tAnd there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;

26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: ^ufor the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Son of man ^vcoming in a cloud with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.

29 ^wAnd he spake to them a parable; Behold the fig tree, and all the trees;

30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand.

31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.

32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.

33 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

34 ¶ And ^xtake heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

35 For ^yas a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 ^zWatch ye therefore, and ^apray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and ^bto stand before the Son of man.

37 And ^cin the day time he was teaching in the temple; and ^dat night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Öl'iveş.

38 And all the people came early in the morning to him ^ein the temple, for to hear him.

CHAPTER 22.

¹ Judas' agreement. ¹⁹ Lord's supper instituted. ³⁹ The agony and arrest. ⁵⁰ Malchus' ear is healed. ⁵⁴ Peter's denial.

NOW ^athe feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

2 And ^bthe chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him ; for they feared the people.

3 ¶ ^cThen entered Sā'tan into Jū'das surnamed Īs-cār'ī-ot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and ^dcovenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them ¹in the absence of the multitude.

7 ¶ ^eThen came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

8 And he sent Pē'tēr and Jōhn, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water ; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

12 And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished : there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them : and they made ready the passover.

14 And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, ²With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer :

16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, ^funtil it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves :

18 For ^gI say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

19 ¶ And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you : ^hthis do in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, ⁱThis cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 ¶ ^jBut, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.

22 And truly the Son of man goeth, ^kas it was determined : but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed !

23 And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

24 ¶ ^lAnd there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

25 ^mAnd he said unto them, The kings of the Ĝēn'tīlēs exercise lordship over them ; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.

26 ⁿBut ye shall not be so : ^obut he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger ; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth ? is not he that sitteth at meat ? but ^pI am among you as he that serveth.

28 Ye are they which have continued with me in ^qmy temptations.

29 And ^rI appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me ;

30 That ^sye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, ^tand sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Īṣ'ra-el.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Si'mon, Si'mon, behold, ^uSā'tan hath desired to have you, that he may ^vsift you as wheat :

32 But ^wI have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not : ^xand when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.

34 ^yAnd he said, I tell thee, Pē'tēr, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 ^zAnd he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing ? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip : and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

37 For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, ^aAnd he was reckoned among the transgressors : for the things concerning me have an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 ¶ And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Ōl'īveṣ ; and his disciples also followed him.

40 ^bAnd when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou be ³willing, remove this cup from me : nevertheless ^cnot my will, but thine, be done.

43 And there appeared ^dan angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44 ^eAnd being in an agony he prayed more earnestly : and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, 46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye ? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Jū'das, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jē'ṣus ^fto kiss him.

48 But Jē'ṣus said unto him, Jū'das, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss ?

49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword ?

50 ¶ And ^gone of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jē'sus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 Then Jē'sus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: ^hbut this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 ¶ ⁱThen took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. ^jAnd Pē'tēr followed afar off.

55 ^kAnd when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Pē'tēr sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 ^lAnd after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Pē'tēr said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Gāl-ī-læ'an.

60 And Pē'tēr said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.

61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Pē'tēr. ^mAnd Pē'tēr remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, ⁿBefore the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And Pē'tēr went out, and ^owept bitterly.

63 ¶ And ^pthe men that held Jē'sus mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophecy, who is it that smote thee?

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 ¶ ^qAnd as soon as it was day, ^rthe elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying,

67 ^sArt thou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe:

68 And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go.

69 ^tHereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am.

71 And they said, What need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard of his own mouth.

this fellow ^bperverting the nation, and ^cforbidding to give tribute to Cæ'sar, saying ^dthat he himself is Christ a King.

3 ^eAnd Pī'lāte asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jew's? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pī'lāte to the chief priests and to the people, ^fI find no fault in this man.

5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jew'r'y, beginning from Gāl'ī-lee to this place.

6 When Pī'lāte heard of Gāl'ī-lee, he asked whether the man were a Gāl-ī-læ'an.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto ^gHēr'od's jurisdiction, he sent him to Hēr'od, who himself also was at Jē-ru'sā-lēm at that time.

8 ¶ And when Hēr'od saw Jē'sus, he was exceeding glad: for ^hhe was desirous to see him of a long season, because ⁱhe had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11 ^jAnd Hēr'od with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pī'lāte.

12 ¶ And the same day ^kPī'lāte and Hēr'od were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 ¶ ^lAnd Pī'lāte, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,

14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, I, having examined him before you, have ^mfound no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him:

15 No, nor yet Hēr'od: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.

16 ⁿI will therefore chastise him, and release him.

17 ^o(For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.)

18 And ^pthey cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Bā-rāb'bas:

19 (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison.)

20 Pī'lāte therefore, willing to release Jē'sus, spake again to them.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him.

22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed.

24 And Pī'lāte ¹gave sentence that it should be as they required.

25 ^aAnd he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jē'sus to their will.

26 ^rAnd as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Si'mon, a Çy-rē'nī-an, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jē'sus.

27 ¶ And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Jē'sus turning unto them said, Daughters of Jē-ru'sā-lēm, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

29 ^sFor, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

30 ^tThen shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

31 ^uFor if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

32 ^vAnd there were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

33 And ^wwhen they were come to the place, which is called ²Cāl'vā-rŷ, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

34 ¶ Then said Jē'sus, Father, ^xforgive them; for ^ythey know not what they do. And ^zthey parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And ^athe people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be Chrīst, the chosen of God.

36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, 37 And saying, If thou be the king of the Jewŷ, save thyself.

38 ^bAnd a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Lāt'in, and Hē'brew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWŷ.

39 ¶ ^cAnd one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Chrīst, save thyself and us.

40 But the other answering ^drebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.

42 And he said unto Jē'sus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into ^ethy kingdom.

43 And Jē'sus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in ^fparadise.

44 ^gAnd it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the ³earth until the ninth hour.

45 And the sun was darkened, and ^hthe veil of the temple was rent in the midst.

46 ¶ And when Jē'sus had cried with a loud voice, he said, ⁱFather, into thy hands I commend my spirit: ^jand having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

47 ^kNow when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

49 ^lAnd all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Gāl'i-lee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

50 ¶ ^mAnd, behold, there was a man named Jō'seph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and a just:

51 (The same ⁿhad not consented to the counsel and deed of them;) he was of Ār-ī-mā-thæ'á, a city of the Jewŷ: ^owho also himself waited for the kingdom of God.

52 This man went unto Pī'lāte, and begged the body of Jē'sus.

53 ^pAnd he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in ^qa sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

55 And the women also, ^rwhich came with him from Gāl'i-lee, followed after, and ^sbeheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and ^tprepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath day ^uaccording to the commandment.

CHAPTER 24.

¹ Resurrection of Christ. ¹³ The walk to Emmaus. ³⁶ Christ appears to the apostles. ⁴⁹ Promise of the Holy Ghost. ⁵¹ The ascension.

NOW ^aupon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, ^bbringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 ^cAnd they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jē'sus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, ^dbehold, two men stood by them in shining garments:

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye ¹the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: ^eremember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Gāl'i-lee,

7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And ^fthey remembered his words,

9 ^gAnd returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

10 It was Mā'rŷ Māg-da-lē'nē, and ^hJō-ān'nā, and Mā'rŷ the mother of Jāmeŷ, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.

11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

12 ⁱThen arose Pē'tēr, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

13 ¶ And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Ēm'ma-us, which was from Jē-ru'sā-lēm about threescore furlongs.

14 And they ^jtalked together of all these things which had happened.

15 And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, ^kJē'šus himself drew near, and went with them.

16 But ^ltheir eyes were holden that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?

18 And the one of them, ^mwhose name was Clē'-q-pas, answering said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jē-ru'sā-lēm, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jē'šus of Nāz'a-rēth, ⁿwhich was a prophet ^omighty in deed and word before God and all the people:

20 And ^phow the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we trusted ^qthat it had been he which should have redeemed Īs'ra-el: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre;

23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

24 And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.

25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:

26 ^rOught not Chrīst to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And beginning at ^sMō'šeš and ^tall the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and ^uhe made as though he would have gone further.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.

31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he ^vvanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jē-ru'sā-lēm, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and ^vhath appeared to Sī'mon.

35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And as they thus spake, Jē'šus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet.

41 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?

42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb.

44 And he said unto them, ^xThese are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Mō'šeš, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me.

45 Then ^yopened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures,

46 And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Chrīst to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day:

47 And that repentance and ^zremission of sins should be preached in his name ^aamong all nations, beginning at Jē-ru'sā-lēm.

48 And ^bye are witnesses of these things.

49 ¶ ^cAnd, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jē-ru'sā-lēm, until ye be endued with power from on high.

50 ¶ And he led them out as far as to Bēth'ā-nŷ, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them.

51 ^dAnd it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.

52 And they worshipped him, and returned to Jē-ru'sā-lēm with great joy:

53 And were continually ^ein the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

ST. JOHN.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Christ the Light. 15 John's testimony. 39 Call of Andrew and others.

IN the beginning ^a was the Word, and the Word was with God, and ^b the Word was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

5 And ^c the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 ¶ ^d There was a man sent from God, whose name was Jōhn.

7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 ^e He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

9 ^f That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and ^g the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 ^h He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But ⁱ as many as received him, to them gave he ¹ power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, ^j but of God.

14 ^k And the Word ^l was made ^m flesh, and dwelt among us, (and ⁿ we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) ^o full of grace and truth.

15 ¶ Jōhn bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: ^p for he was before me.

16 And of his ^q fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For ^r the law was given by Mō'se's, but ^s grace and ^t truth came by Jē'sus Chrīst.

18 ^u No man hath seen God at any time; ^v the only begotten Son, which is in ^w the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 ¶ And this is the record of Jōhn, when the Jews sent priests and Lē'vītes from Jē-ru'sā-lēm to ask him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Chrīst.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou ^{ē-lī'as}? And he saith, ^y I am not. Art thou ² that prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as ^z said the prophet Ē-sā'ias.

24 And they which were sent were of the Phār'ī-sees.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Chrīst, nor Ē-lī'as, neither that prophet?

26 Jōhn answered them, saying, I baptize with water: ^a but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

27 He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done in Bēth-āb'ā-rā beyond Jōr'dān, where Jōhn was baptizing.

29 ¶ The next day Jōhn seeth Jē'sus coming unto him, and saith, Behold ^b the Lamb of God, ^c which ³ taketh away the sin of the world.

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Ī's̄'rā-el, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 And Jōhn bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, ^d the same is he which baptizeth with the Hō'lŷ Ghōst.

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

35 ¶ Again the next day after Jōhn stood, and two of his disciples;

36 And looking upon Jē'sus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jē'sus.

38 Then Jē'sus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rāb'bī, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where ⁴ dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was ⁵ about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two which heard Jōhn speak, and followed him, was Ān'drew, Sī'mon Pē'tēr's brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother ^e Sī'mon, and saith unto him, We have found the Mēs-sī'as, which is, being interpreted, ⁶ the Chrīst.

42 And he brought him to Jē'sus. And when Jē'sus beheld him, he said, Thou art Sī'mon the son of Jō'nā: thou shalt be called Çē'phas, which is by interpretation, ⁷ A stone.

43 ¶ The day following Jē'sus would go forth into Gāl'i-lee, and findeth Phīl'ip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now ^f Phīl'ip was of Bēth-sā'ī-dā, the city of Ān'drew and Pē'tēr.

45 Phīl'ip findeth ^g Nā-thān'a-el, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom ^h Mō'seş in the law, and the ⁱ prophets, did write, Jē'şus of Nāz'a-rēth, the son of Jō'seph.

46 And Nā-thān'a-el said unto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nāz'a-rēth? Phīl'ip saith unto him, Come and see.

47 Jē'şus saw Nā-thān'a-el coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Īş'ra-el-īte indeed, in whom is no guile!

48 Nā-thān'a-el saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jē'şus answered and said unto him, Before that Phīl'ip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee.

49 Nā-thān'a-el answered and saith unto him, Rāb'bī, thou art the Son of God; thou art ^j the King of Īş'ra-el.

50 Jē'şus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^k Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon ^l the Son of man.

CHAPTER 2.

1 The marriage in Cana. 14 The temple cleansed. 19 Christ foretells his passion. 23 Many believe.

AND the third day there was a marriage in Cā'nā of Gāl'ī-lee; and the mother of Jē'şus was there:

2 And both Jē'şus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jē'şus saith unto him, They have no wine.

4 Jē'şus saith unto her, ^a Woman, what ^b have I to do with thee? ^c mine hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6 And there were set there six waterpots of stone, ^d after the manner of the purifying of the Jewş, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7 Jē'şus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted ^e the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Jē'şus in ^f Cā'nā of Gāl'ī-lee, ^g and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

12 ¶ After this he went down to Cā-pēr'nā-ūm, he, and his mother, and ^h his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

13 ¶ ⁱ And the Jewş' passover was at hand, and Jē'şus went up to Jē-ru'sā-lēm, 14 ^j And found in the temple those that sold oxen

18 ¶ Then answered the Jewş and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

19 Jē'şus answered and said unto them, ^m Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jewş, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

21 But he spake ⁿ of the temple of his body.

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, ^o his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jē'şus had said.

23 ¶ Now when he was in Jē-ru'sā-lēm at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

24 But Jē'şus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men, 25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for ^p he knew what was in man.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Nicodemus taught. 3 On regeneration. 16 Love of God. 25 John's further testimony.

THERE was a man of the Phār'ī-seeş, named Nīc-o-dē'mus, a ruler of the Jewş:

2 The same came to Jē'şus by night, and said unto him, Rāb'bī, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for ^a no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except ^b God be with him.

3 Jē'şus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, ^c Except a man be born ¹ again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nīc-o-dē'mus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jē'şus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, ^d Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born ² again.

8 ^e The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nīc-o-dē'mus answered and said unto him, ^f How can these things be?

10 Jē'şus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Īş'ra-el, and knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen ; and ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 And ^g no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

14 ¶ ^h And as Mō'seſ lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up :

15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

16 ¶ ⁱ For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 ^j For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world ; but that the world through him might be saved.

18 ¶ ^k He that believeth on him is not condemned : but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, ^l that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be ³reproved.

21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22 ¶ After these things came Jē'sus and his disciples into the land of Jū-dæ'a ; and there he tarried with them, ^m and baptized.

23 ¶ And Jōhn also was baptizing in Æ'nōn near to ⁿ Sā'lim, because there was much water there : and they came, and were baptized.

24 For ^o Jōhn was not yet cast into prison.

25 ¶ Then there arose a question between some of Jōhn's disciples and the Jewſ about purifying.

26 And they came unto Jōhn, and said unto him, Rāb'bī, he that was with thee beyond Jōr'dān, ^p to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 Jōhn answered and said, ^q A man can ⁴ receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Chrīst, but ^r that I am sent before him.

29 ^s He that hath the bride is the bridegroom : but ^t the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice : this my joy therefore is fulfilled.

30 ^u He must increase, ^v but I must decrease.

31 ^w He that cometh from above ^x is above all : ^y he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth : ^z he that cometh from heaven is above all.

32 And ^a what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth ; and no man receiveth his testimony.

33 He that hath received his testimony ^b hath set to his seal that God is true.

34 ^c For he whom God hath sent speaketh the

CHAPTER 4.

1 The Samaritan woman. 25 Christ the Messiah. 39 Many Samaritans believe. 46 The nobleman's son healed.

WHEN therefore the Lord knew how the Phār'i-seeſ had heard that Jē'sus made and baptized more disciples than Jōhn,

2 (Though Jē'sus himself baptized not, but his disciples,)

3 He left Jū-dæ'a, and departed again into Gāl'i-lee.

4 And he must needs go through Sā-mā'rī-ā.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Sā-mā'rī-ā, which is called Sŷ'char, near to the parcel of ground ^a that Jā'cōb gave to his son Jō'seph.

6 Now Jā'cōb's well was there. Jē'sus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well : and it was about the sixth hour.

7 There cometh a woman of Sā-mā'rī-ā to draw water : Jē'sus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)

9 Then saith the woman of Sā-mā'rī-ā unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Sā-mā'rī-ā? for ^b the Jewſ have no dealings with the Sā-mār'i-tanſ.

10 Jē'sus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest ^c the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink ; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee ^d living water.

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep : from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 Art thou greater than our father Jā'cōb, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

13 Jē'sus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again :

14 But ^e whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst ; but the water that I shall give him ^f shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

15 ^g The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16 Jē'sus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jē'sus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband :

18 For thou hast had five husbands ; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband : in that saidst thou truly.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, ^h I perceive that thou art a prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped ⁱin this mountain; and ye say, that in ^jJē-ru'sā-lēm is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Jē'sus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, ^kwhen ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jē-ru'sā-lēm, worship the Father.

22 Ye worship ^lye know not what: we know what we worship: for ^msalvation is of the Jew̄.

23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in ⁿspirit ^oand in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 ^pGod is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

25 The woman saith unto him, I know that ^qMēs-sī'as cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26 Jē'sus saith unto her, ^rI that speak unto thee am he.

27 ¶ And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men, 29 Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 ¶ In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?

34 Jē'sus saith unto them, ^sMy meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; ^tfor they are white already to harvest.

36 ^uAnd he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

37 And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: ^vother men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

39 ¶ ^wAnd many of the Sā-mār'ī-tan̄ of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 ^xSo when the Sā-mār'ī-tan̄ were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

41 ^yAnd many more believed because of his own word;

42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for ^zwe have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, ^athe Saviour of the world.

43 ¶ Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Gāl'i-lee.

44 For ^bJē'sus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.

45 Then when he was come into Gāl'i-lee, the Gāl-i-læ'an̄ received him, ^chaving seen all the things that he did at Jē-ru'sā-lēm at the feast: ^dfor they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jē'sus came again into Cā'ná of Gāl'i-lee, ^ewhere he made the water wine. And there was a certain ¹nobleman, whose son was sick at Cā-pēr'-nā-ūm.

47 When he heard that Jē'sus was come out of Jū-dæ'à into Gāl'i-lee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jē'sus unto him, ^fExcept ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.

49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.

50 Jē'sus saith unto him, ^gGo thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jē'sus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jē'sus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself ^hbelieved, and his whole house.

54 This is again the second miracle that Jē'sus did, when he was come out of Jū-dæ'à into Gāl'i-lee.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Healing on the sabbath. 10 The cavillers reprieved. 17 Jesus answers for himself.
32 John's testimony. 36 Christ tells who he is.

AFTER ^athis there was a feast of the Jew̄; and Jē'sus went up to Jē-ru'sā-lēm.

2 Now there is at Jē-ru'sā-lēm ^bby the sheep ¹market a pool, which is called in the Hē'brew tongue ²Bē-thēs'dá, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jē'sus saw him lie, ^cand knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, ^dWilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jē'sus saith unto him, ^eRise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on ^fthe same day was the sabbath.

10 ¶ The Jew̄ therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day : ^git is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk ?

13 And he that was healed wist not who it was : for Jē'sus had conveyed himself away, ³a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jē'sus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole : ^hsin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jew^s that it was Jē'sus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jew^s persecute Jē'sus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

17 ¶ But Jē'sus answered them, ⁱMy Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jew^s ^jsought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, ^kmaking himself equal with God.

19 Then answered Jē'sus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^lThe Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do : for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For ^mthe Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth : and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them ; ⁿeven so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but ^ohath committed all judgment unto the Son :

23 That all men should ^phonour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation ; ^qbut is passed from death unto life.

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when ^rthe dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God : and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Father hath ^slife in himself ; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself ;

27 And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, ^tbecause he is the Son of man.

28 Marvel not at this : for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, 29 ^uAnd shall come forth ; ^vthey that have done good, unto the resurrection of life ; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

30 I can of mine own self do nothing : as I hear, I judge : and my judgment is just ; because ^wI seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

32 ¶ There is another that beareth witness of me ; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

33 Ye sent unto Jōhn, ^band he bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receive not testimony from man : but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a burning and ^ca shining light : and ^aye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 ¶ But ^bI have greater witness than that of Jōhn : for ^cthe works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, ^dhath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, ^enor seen his shape.

38 And ye have not his word abiding in you : for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

39 ¶ Search the scriptures ; for in them ye think ye have eternal life : and ^fthey are they which testify of me.

40 And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

41 ^hI receive not honour from men.

42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.

43 I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not : if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.

44 How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not ⁱthe honour that cometh from God only ?

45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father : ^jthere is one that accuseth you, even Mō'sēs, in whom ye trust.

46 For had ye believed Mō'sēs, ye would have believed me : ^kfor he wrote of me.

47 But if ^lye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words ?

CHAPTER 6.

¹ Five thousand fed. ¹⁶ Christ walks on the sea. ³² The bread of life. ⁶⁶ Many disciples depart from Christ. ⁶⁸ Peter's confession. ⁷⁰ Judas is a devil.

AFTER ^athese things Jē'sus went over the sea of Gāl'i-lee, which is the sea of Tī-bē'rī-as.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

3 And Jē'sus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

4 ^bAnd the passover, a feast of the Jew^s, was nigh.

5 ¶ ^cWhen Jē'sus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Phīl'ip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat ?

6 And this he said to prove him : for he himself knew what he would do.

7 Phīl'ip answered him, ^dTwo hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

8 One of his disciples, Ān'drew, Sī'mon Pē'tēr's brother, saith unto him, 9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes : ^ebut what are they among so many?

10 And Jē'sus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 And Jē'sus took the loaves ; and when he had ^fgiven thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down ; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jē'sus did, said, This is of a truth ^gthat prophet that should come into the world.

15 ¶ When Jē'sus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

16 ^hAnd when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea, 17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Cā-pēr'na-ūm. And it was now dark, and Jē'sus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jē'sus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship : and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, It is I ; be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ship : and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jē'sus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone ;

23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tī-bē'rī-as nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks :)

24 When the people therefore saw that Jē'sus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Cā-pēr'na-ūm, seeking for Jē'sus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rāb'bi, when camest thou hither ?

26 Jē'sus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 ¹Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but ⁱfor that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you : ^jfor him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God ?

29 Jē'sus answered and said unto them, ^kThis is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore unto him, ^lWhat sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee ? what dost thou work ?

31 ^mOur fathers did eat manna in the desert ; as it is written, ⁿHe gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jē'sus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Mō'se's gave you not that bread from heaven ; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jē'sus said unto them, I am the bread of life : ^ohe that cometh to me shall never hunger ; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

36 But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 All that the Father giveth me shall come to me ; and ^phim that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

38 For I came down from heaven, ^qnot to do mine own will, ^rbut the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, ^sthat of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, ^tthat every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life : and I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, Is not this Jē'sus, the son of Jō'seph, whose father and mother we know ? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven ?

43 Jē'sus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him : and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 ^uIt is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 ^vNot that any man hath seen the Father, save ^whe which is of God, he hath seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^xHe that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 I am that bread of life.

49 Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven : if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever : and ^uthe bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52 The Jew^s therefore ^zstrove among themselves, saying, ^aHow can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 Then Jē'sus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ^bye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life ; and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, ^cdwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father : so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 This is that bread which came down from heaven : not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead : he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Că-pēr'na-ŭm.

60 ^dMany therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying ; who can hear it ?

61 When Jē'sus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you ?

62 ^eWhat and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before ?

63 ^fIt is the spirit that quickeneth ; the flesh profiteth nothing : the words that I speak unto you, they ^gare spirit, and they are life.

64 But there are some of you that believe not. For ^hJē'sus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

66 ¶ From that time many of his disciples ⁱwent back, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jē'sus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away ?

68 Then Sī'mon Pē'tēr answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go ? thou hast the words of eternal life.

69 And we believe and are sure that thou art that Chrīst, the Son of the living God.

70 Jē'sus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil ?

71 He spake of Jū'das Īs-cār'i-ot the son of Sī'mon : for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

hence, and go into Jū-dæ'ā, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world.

5 For ^dneither did his brethren believe in him.

6 Then Jē'sus said unto them, ^eMy time is not yet come : but your time is alway ready.

7 ^fThe world cannot hate you ; but me it hateth, ^gbecause I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast : I go not up yet unto this feast ; ^hfor my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Găl'i-lee.

10 ¶ But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then ⁱthe Jew^s sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he ?

12 And ^jthere was much murmuring among the people concerning him : for ^ksome said, He is a good man : others said, Nay ; but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jew^s.

14 ¶ Now about the midst of the feast Jē'sus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 ^lAnd the Jew^s marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man ^mletters, having never learned ?

16 Jē'sus answered them, and said, ⁿMy doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 ^oIf any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

18 ^pHe that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory : but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

19 ^qDid not Mō'se's give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law ? ^rWhy go ye about to kill me ?

20 The people answered and said, ^sThou hast a devil : who goeth about to kill thee ?

21 Jē'sus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 ^tMō'se's therefore gave unto you circumcision ; (not because it is of Mō'se's, ^ubut of the fathers ;) and ye on the sabbath day circumsise a man.

23 If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, ^vthat the law of Mō'se's should not be broken ; are ye angry at me, because ^wI have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day ?

24 ^xJudge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

25 Then said some of them of Jē-ru'sā-lēm, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill ?

26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Chrīst ?

27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is : but when Chrīst cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jē'sus in the temple as he taught, saying, ^wYe both know me, and ye know whence I am: and ^xI am not come of myself, but he that sent me ^yis true, whom ye ^zknow not.

29 But ^aI know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Chrīst cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?

32 ¶ The Phār'ī-seeṣ heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Phār'ī-seeṣ and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Jē'ṣus unto them, ^bYet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.

34 Ye ^cshall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then said the Jewṣ among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto ^dthe dispersed among the ³Gēn'tīleṣ, and teach the Gēn'tīleṣ?

36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jē'ṣus stood and cried, saying, ^eIf any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

38 ^fHe that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, ^gout of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

39 (^hBut this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Hō'lŷ Ghōst was not yet given; because that Jē'ṣus was not yet ⁱglorified.)

40 ¶ Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is ^jthe Prophet.

41 Others said, ^kThis is the Chrīst. But some said, Shall Chrīst come out of Gāl'ī-lee?

42 ^lHath not the scripture said, That Chrīst cometh of the seed of Dā'vid, and out of the town of Bēth'lě-hēm, ^mwhere Dā'vid was?

43 So there was a division among the people because of him.

44 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 ¶ Then came the officers to the chief priests and Phār'ī-seeṣ; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Phār'ī-seeṣ, Are ye also deceived?

48 ⁿHave any of the rulers or of the Phār'ī-seeṣ believed on him?

49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.

50 Nīc-ō-dē'mus saith unto them, (^ohe that came ⁴to Jē'ṣus by night, being one of them,)

51 ^pDoth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth?

52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou

CHAPTER 8.

JĒ'ṢUS went unto the mount of Ōl'īveṣ.

2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Phār'ī-seeṣ brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst, 4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 ^aNow Mō'ṣeṣ in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jē'ṣus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, ^bHe that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, ^cbeing convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jē'ṣus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jē'ṣus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jē'ṣus said unto her, ^dNeither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

12 ¶ Then spake Jē'ṣus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 The Phār'ī-seeṣ therefore said unto him, ^eThou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

14 Jē'ṣus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ^fye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 ^gYe judge after the flesh; ^hI judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for ⁱI am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 ^jIt is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witness of myself, and ^kthe Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jē'ṣus answered, ^lYe neither know me, nor my Father: ^mif ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jē'ṣus in ⁿthe treasury, as he taught in the temple: and ^ono man laid hands on him; for ^phis hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jē'sus again unto them, I go my way, and ^qye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins : whither I go, ye cannot come.

22 Then said the Jewſ, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, ^rYe are from beneath ; I am from above : ^sye are of this world ; I am not of this world.

24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins : ^tfor if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jē'sus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say and to judge of you : but ^uhe that sent me is true ; and ^vI speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jē'sus unto them, When ye have ^wlifted up the Son of man, ^xthen shall ye know that I am he, and ^ythat I do nothing of myself ; but ^zas my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And ^ahe that sent me is with me : the Father hath not left me alone ; ^bfor I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these words, many believed on him.

31 Then said Jē'sus to those Jewſ which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed ;

32 And ye shall know the truth, and ^cthe truth shall make you free.

33 ¶ They answered him, ^dWe be Ā'brā-hām's seed, and were never in bondage to any man : how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jē'sus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^eWhosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.

35 And ^fthe servant abideth not in the house for ever : but the Son abideth ever.

36 ^gIf the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are Ā'brā-hām's seed ; but ^hye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father : and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

39 They answered and said unto him, ⁱĀ'brā-hām is our father. Jē'sus saith unto them, ^jIf ye were Ā'brā-hām's children, ye would do the works of Ā'brā-hām.

40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God : this did not Ā'brā-hām.

41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication ; ^kwe have one Father, even God.

42 Jē'sus said unto them, ^lIf God were your Father, ye would love me : ^mfor I proceeded forth and came from God ; ⁿ neither came I of myself, but he sent me.

43 ^oWhy do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

44 ^pYe are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and ^qabode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own : for he is a liar, and the father of it.

45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

47 ^rHe that is of God heareth God's words : ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Jewſ, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Sā-mār'ī-tan, and hast a devil?

49 Jē'sus answered, I have not a devil ; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

50 And ^sI seek not mine own glory : there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^tIf a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.

52 Then said the Jewſ unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. ^uĀ'brā-hām is dead, and the prophets ; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

53 Art thou greater than our father Ā'brā-hām, which is dead? and the prophets are dead : whom makest thou thyself?

54 Jē'sus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing : ^vit is my Father that honoureth me ; of whom ye say, that he is your God :

55 Yet ^wye have not known him ; but I know him : and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you : but I know him, and keep his saying.

56 Your father Ā'brā-hām ^xrejoiced to see my day : ^yand he saw it, and was glad.

57 Then said the Jewſ unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Ā'brā-hām?

58 Jē'sus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Ā'brā-hām was, ^zI am.

59 Then took they up stones to cast at him : but Jē'sus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

CHAPTER 9.

¹ The light of the world. ⁷ Sight restored to a blind man. ¹³ Pharisees cast him out. ³⁵ He confesses Jesus. ³⁹ Those whom Christ enlightens.

AND as Je'sus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, ^awho did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

3 Jē'sus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents : ^bbut that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4 ^cI must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day : the night cometh, when no man can work.

5 As long as I am in the world, ^d I am the light of the world.

6 When he had thus spoken, ^e he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he ¹anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,

7 And said unto him, Go, wash ^fin the pool of Sī-lō'am, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) ^g He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

8 ¶ The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jē'sus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Sī-lō'am, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13 ¶ They brought to the Phār'i-seeş him that aforetime was blind.

14 And it was the sabbath day when Jē'sus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the Phār'i-seeş also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Phār'i-seeş, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, ^hHow can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And ⁱthere was a division among them.

17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, ^jHe is a prophet.

18 But the Jewş did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22 These words spake his parents, because ^kthey feared the Jewş: for the Jewş had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Chrīst, he ^lshould be put out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, ^mGive God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

26 Then said they to him again, What did he do to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

29 We know that God spake unto Mō'seş: as for this fellow, ⁿwe know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered and said unto them, ^oWhy herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that ^pGod heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they ²cast him out.

35 Jē'sus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on ^qthe Son of God?

41 Jē'sus said unto them, ^vIf ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Christ is the door. 11 The good shepherd. 30 Unity with the Father. 31 Jews seek to stone Christ.

VERILY, verily, I say unto you, ^aHe that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But he that entereth in by the ^bdoor is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 To him ^cthe porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5 ^dAnd a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This parable spake Jē'sus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7 Then said Jē'sus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am ^ethe door of the sheep.

8 ^fAll that ever came before me are thieves and robbers : but the sheep did not hear them.

9 I am the door : by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

10 ^gThe thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy : I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

11 ^hI am the good shepherd : the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and ⁱleaveth the sheep, and fleeth : and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd, and ^jknow my sheep, and ^kam known of mine.

15 As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father : and I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And ^lother sheep I have, which are not of this fold : them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice ; ^mand there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

17 Therefore doth my Father love me, ⁿbecause I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. ^oThis commandment have I received of my Father.

19 ¶ There was a division therefore again among the Jew^s for these sayings.

20 And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad ; why hear ye him ?

21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. ^pCan a devil open the eyes of the blind ?

22 ¶ And it was at Jē-ru'sā-lēm the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Jē'sus walked in the temple ^qin Sōl'o-mon's porch.

24 Then came the Jew^s round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou ^rmake us to doubt ? If thou be the Chrīst, tell us plainly.

25 Jē'sus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not : the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.

26 But ^sye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me :

28 And I give unto them eternal life ; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.

29 ^tMy Father, ^uwhich gave them me, is greater than all ; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.

30 ^vI and my Father are one.

31 Then the Jew^s took up stones again to stone him.

32 Jē'sus answered them, Many good works have

CHAPTER 11.

¹ Illness and death of Lazarus. ¹⁹ Faith of Mary and Martha. ⁴³ Christ raises Lazarus. ⁴⁷ Pharisees in council. ⁴⁹ Prophecy of Caiaphas. ⁵⁵ At the passover the Jews lay in wait for Christ.

NOW a certain man was sick, named Lāz'a-rus, of Bēth'ā-n'y, the town of ^aMā'r'y and her sister Mār'thā.

2 (^bIt was that Mā'r'y which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lāz'a-rus was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jē'sus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but ^cfor the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jē'sus loved Mār'thā, and her sister, and Lāz'a-rus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, ^dhe abode two days still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Jū-dæ'ā again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, ^ethe Jew^s of late sought to stone thee ; and goest thou thither again ?

9 Jē'sus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day ? ^fIf any man walk in the day, he stumblēth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But ^gif a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he : and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lāz'a-rus ^hsleepeth ; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit Jē'sus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jē'sus unto them plainly, Lāz'a-rus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

16 Then said Thōm'as, which is called Dīd'ŷ-mus, unto his fellowdisciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Jē'sus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.

18 Now Bēth'ā-nŷ was nigh unto Jē-ry'sā-lēm, ¹about fifteen furlongs off:

19 And many of the Jewŷ came to Mār'thā and Mā'rŷ, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Mār'thā, as soon as she heard that Jē'sus was coming, went and met him: but Mā'rŷ sat still in the house.

21 Then said Mār'thā unto Jē'sus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 But I know, that even now, ⁱwhatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

23 Jē'sus saith unto her, Thy brother shall ^jrise again.

24 Mār'thā saith unto him, ^kI know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Jē'sus said unto her, I am ^lthe resurrection, and the ^mlife: ⁿhe that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: ^oI believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mā'rŷ her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jē'sus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Mār'thā met him.

31 The Jewŷ then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mā'rŷ, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

32 Then when Mā'rŷ was come where Jē'sus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jē'sus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jewŷ also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and ²was troubled, 34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 ³Jē'sus wept.

36 Then said the Jewŷ, Behold how he loved him!

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, ⁴which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jē'sus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

39 Jē'sus said, Take ye away the stone. Mār'thā, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.

40 Jē'sus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jē'sus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but ^rbecause of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lāz'a-rus, ^scome forth.

44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and ^this face was bound about with a napkin. Jē'sus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then many of the Jewŷ which came to Mā'rŷ, ^uand had seen the things which Jē'sus did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went their ways to the Phār'i-seeŷ, and told them what things Jē'sus had done.

47 ¶ ^vThen gathered the chief priests and the Phār'i-seeŷ a council, and said, ^wWhat do we? for this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and ^xthe Rō'manŷ shall come and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them, named ^yCā'īa-phās, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 ^zNor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jē'sus should die for that nation;

52 And ^anot for that nation only, ^bbut that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jē'sus ^ctherefore walked no more openly among the Jewŷ; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called ^dE'phrā-īm, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ ^eAnd the Jewŷ' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jē-ry'sā-lēm before the passover, to ^fpurify themselves.

56 ^gThen sought they for Jē'sus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, ^hWhat think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chief priests and the Phār'i-seeŷ had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Mary anoints the feet of Jesus. 12 Christ enters Jerusalem. 28 A voice from heaven.
37 Unbelief of the Jews. 41 On confession of faith.

THEN Jē'sus six days before the passover came to Bēth'ā-n'y, ^a where Lāz'a-rus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 ^b There they made him a supper; and Mār'thā served: but Lāz'a-rus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then took ^c Mār'ry a pound of ointment of spike-nard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jē'sus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Jū'das Īs-cār'ī-ot, Sī'mon's son, which should betray him, 5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and ^d had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jē'sus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For ^e the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

9 Much people of the Jewš therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jē'sus' sake only, but that they might see Lāz'a-rus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 ¶ ^f But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lāz'a-rus also to death;

11 ^g Because that by reason of him many of the Jewš went away, and believed on Jē'sus.

12 ¶ ^h On the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jē'sus was coming to Jē-ru'sā-lēm, 13 Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, ⁱ Hō-šān'nā: Blessed is the King of Īs'ra-el that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And Jē'sus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written, 15 ^j Fear not, daughter of Sī'ōn: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 These things ^k understood not his disciples at the first: ^l but when Jē'sus was glorified, ^m then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lāz'a-rus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Phār'ī-seeš therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

20 ¶ And there ⁿ were certain Greeks among them, ^o that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Phīl'ip, which was of Bēth-sā'ī-dā of Gāl'ī-lee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jē'sus.

22 Phīl'ip cometh and telleth Ān'drew: and again Ān'drew and Phīl'ip tell Jē'sus.

23 ¶ And Jē'sus answered them, saying, ^r The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^s Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 ^t He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and ^u where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 ^v Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: ^w but for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorify thy name. ^x Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jē'sus answered and said, ^y This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall ^z the prince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw ^{aa} all men unto me.

33 This he said, signifying what death he should die.

34 The people answered him, ^{ab} We have heard out of the law that Chrīst abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jē'sus said unto them, Yet a little while ^{ac} is the light with you. ^{ad} Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for ^{ae} he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the ^{af} children of light. These things spake Jē'sus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

37 ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:

38 That the saying of Ē-šā'ias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, ^{ag} Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Ē-šā'ias said again, 40 ^{ah} He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 ^{ai} These things said Ē-šā'ias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 ¶ Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Phār'ī-seeš they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

43 ^{aj} For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 ¶ Jē'sus cried and said, ^{ak} He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.

45 And ^jhe that seeth me seeth him that sent me.

46 ^kI am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, ^lI judge him not : for ^mI came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 ⁿHe that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him : ^othe word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.

49 For ^pI have not spoken of myself ; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting : whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

CHAPTER 13.

¹ Washing the disciples' feet. ¹⁸ Judas the betrayer. ³¹ Commandment to love one another. ³⁶ Peter's denial foretold.

NOW before the feast of the passover, when Jē'sus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

2 And supper being ended, ^athe devil having now put into the heart of Jū'das Īs-cār'ī-ot, Sī'mon's son, to betray him ;

3 Jē'sus knowing ^bthat the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God ;

4 ^cHe riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments ; and took a towel, and girded himself.

5 After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

6 Then cometh he to Sī'mon Pē'tēr : and ¹Pē'tēr saith unto him, Lord, ^ddost thou wash my feet ?

7 Jē'sus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now ; but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Pē'tēr saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jē'sus answered him, ^eIf I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Sī'mon Pē'tēr saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.

10 Jē'sus saith to him, ^fHe that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit : and ^gye are clean, but not all.

11 For he knew who should betray him ; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you ?

13 ^hYe call me Master and Lord : and ye say well ; for so I am.

14 ⁱIf I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet ; ^jye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 For ^kI have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16 ^lVerily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord ; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

17 ^mIf ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

18 ¶ I speak not of you all : ⁿI know whom I have chosen : but that the scripture may be fulfilled, ^oHe that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.

19 ²Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.

20 ^pVerily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me ; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

21 ^qWhen Jē'sus had thus said, ^rhe was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that ^sone of you shall betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now ^tthere was leaning on Jē'sus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jē'sus loved.

24 Sī'mon Pē'tēr therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then lying on Jē'sus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it ?

26 Jē'sus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a ³sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Jū'das Īs-cār'ī-ot, the son of Sī'mon.

27 And ^uafter the sop Sā'tan entered into him. Then said Jē'sus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, because ^vJū'das had the bag, that Jē'sus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast ; or, that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then having received the sop went immediately out : and it was night.

31 ¶ Therefore, when he was gone out, Jē'sus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and ^wGod is glorified in him.

32 ^xIf God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.

33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me : and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come ; so now I say to you.

34 ^yA new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another ; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have ^zlove one to another.

36 ¶ Sī'mon Pē'tēr said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou ? Jē'sus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now ; but ^athou shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Pē'tēr said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now ? I will ^blay down my life for thy sake.

38 Jē'sus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

CHAPTER 14.

¹ The disciples comforted. ¹⁶ The Holy Ghost shall teach. ²⁷ Peace to all.

LET not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

² In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. ^b I go to prepare a place for you.

³ And if I go and prepare a place for you, ^c I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that ^d where I am, there ye may be also.

⁴ And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

⁵ Thōm'as saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

⁶ Jē'sus saith unto him, I am ^e the way, ^f the truth, and ^g the life: ^h no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

⁷ If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

⁸ Phīl'ip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

⁹ Jē'sus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Phīl'ip? ⁱ he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?

¹⁰ Believest thou not that ^k I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you ^l I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

¹¹ Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.

¹² Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

¹³ ^m And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

¹⁴ If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

¹⁵ ¶ ⁿ If ye love me, keep my commandments.

¹⁶ And I will pray the Father, and ^o he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

¹⁷ Even the Spirit of truth; ^p whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, ^q and shall be in you.

¹⁸ I will not leave you ^r comfortless: I will come to you.

¹⁹ Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ^s ye see me: ^t because I live, ye shall live also.

²⁰ At that day ye shall know that ^u I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

²¹ ^v He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

²² Jū'das saith unto him, not Īs-cār'ī-ot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

²³ Jē'sus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, ^v and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

²⁴ He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and ^w the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.

²⁵ These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

²⁶ But ^x the Comforter, which is the Hō'l'y Ghōst, whom the Father will send in my name, ^y he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

²⁷ ^z Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

²⁸ Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for ^a my Father is greater than I.

²⁹ And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe.

³⁰ Hereafter I will not talk much with you: ^b for the prince of this world cometh, and ^c hath nothing in me.

³¹ But that the world may know that I love the Father; and ^d as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

CHAPTER 15.

¹ The true vine. ¹² Love one another. ²⁶ When the Holy Ghost comes.

I AM the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

² ^a Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

³ ^b Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

⁴ ^c Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

⁵ I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much ^d fruit: for ¹ without me ye can do nothing.

⁶ ^e If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

⁷ If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

⁸ ^f Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

⁹ As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

¹⁰ If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and ^othat your joy might be full.

12 ^hThis is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 ⁱGreater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; ^jfor all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

16 ^kYe have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ^lordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

17 These things I command you, that ye love one another.

18 ^mIf the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

19 ⁿIf ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but ^obecause ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; ^pif they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.

21 But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.

22 ^qIf I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: ^rbut now they have no ²cloke for their sin.

23 ^sHe that hateth me hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

25 But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, ^tThey hated me without a cause.

26 ^uBut when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, ^vhe shall testify of me:

27 And ^wye also shall bear witness, because ^xye have been with me from the beginning.

CHAPTER 16.

¹ Christ further comforts his disciples. ²⁰ Sorrow shall be turned to gladness. ²³ Acceptable prayer. ³³ Peace.

THESSE things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, ^athat whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.

3 And ^bthese things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

4 But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but ^eif I depart, I will send him unto you.

8 And when he is come, he will ¹reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

9 ^dOf sin, because they believe not on me;

10 ^eOf righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

11 ^fOf judgment, because ^othe prince of this world is judged.

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.

13 Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, ^hhe will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will ⁱshew you things to come.

14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

15 ^jAll things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.

19 Now Jēsus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21 A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and ^kyour heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. ^lVerily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

THE DEATH OF STEPHEN.

PAUL MENACED BY THE JEWS.—ACTS XXI. 27-30.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in ²proverbs : but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in ³proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

26 At that day ye shall ask in my name : and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you :

27 ^mFor the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and ⁿhave believed that I came out from God.

28 ^oI came forth from the Father, and am come into the world : again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no ⁴proverb.

30 Now are we sure that ^pthou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee : by this ^qwe believe that thou camest forth from God.

31 Jē'sus answered them, Do ye now believe?

32 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to ⁵his own, and shall leave me alone : and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that ^rin me ye might have peace. ^sIn the world ye shall have tribulation : but be of good cheer ; ^tI have overcome the world.

CHAPTER 17.

¹ Christ's prayer to be glorified. ⁶ Prayer for the apostles. ²⁰ He prays for all believers.

THESSE words spake Jē'sus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come ; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee :

2 ^aAs thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many ^bas thou hast given him.

3 And ^cthis is life eternal, that they might know thee ^dthe only true God, and Jē'sus Chrīst whom thou hast sent.

4 I have glorified thee on the earth : I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory ^ewhich I had with thee before the world was.

6 ^fI have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world : thine they were, and thou gavest them me ; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

8 For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me ; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 I pray for them : ^gI pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me ; for they are thine.

10 ^hAnd all mine are thine, and thine are mine ; and I am glorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father,

CHAPTER 18.

¹ The betrayal. ¹² The arrest. ¹⁵ Peter's denial. ²⁸ Christ before Pilate. ³⁶ His kingdom. ⁴⁰ Plea for Barabbos.

WHEN Jē'sus had spoken these words, he ^awent forth with his disciples over the ^bbrook Çē-drōn, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Jū'das also, which betrayed him, knew the place : ^cfor Jē'sus oftentimes resorted thither with his disciples.

3 ^dJū'das then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Phār'i-seeş, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

4 Jē'sus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jē'sus of Nāz'a-rēth. Jē'sus saith unto them, I am he. And Jū'das also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jē'sus of Nāz'a-rēth.

8 Jē'sus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:

9 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, ^eOf them which thou gavest me have I lost none.

10 ^fThen Sī'mon Pē'tēr having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Māl'chus.

11 Then said Jē'sus unto Pē'tēr, Put up thy sword into the sheath: ^gthe cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jewš took Jē'sus, and bound him,

13 And ^hled him away to ⁱĀn'nas first; for he was father in law to Cā'ja-phās, which was the high priest that same year.¹

14 ^jNow Cā'ja-phās was he, which gave counsel to the Jewš, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 ^kAnd Sī'mon Pē'tēr followed Jē'sus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jē'sus into the palace of the high priest.

16 But Pē'tēr stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Pē'tēr.

17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Pē'tēr, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Pē'tēr stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 ^lThe high priest then asked Jē'sus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jē'sus answered him, ^mI spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jewš always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by ⁿstruck Jē'sus ^owith the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jē'sus answered him, ^pIf I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 Now Ān'nas had sent him bound unto Cā'ja-phās the high priest.

25 And Sī'mon Pē'tēr stood and warmed himself.

^qThey said therefore unto him, Art not thou also 26 One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Pē'tēr cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Pē'tēr then denied again: and ^oimmediately the cock crew.

28 ^pThen led they Jē'sus from Cā'ja-phās unto ^qthe hall of judgment: and it was early; ^rand they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat ^sthe passover.

29 Pī'late then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pī'late unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jewš therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 ^tThat the saying of Jē'sus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 Then Pī'late entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jē'sus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jewš?

34 Jē'sus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pī'late answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

36 ^uJē'sus answered, ^vMy kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jewš: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pī'late therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jē'sus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should ^wbear witness unto the truth. Every one that ^xis of the truth heareth my voice.

38 Pī'late saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jewš, and saith unto them, ^yI find in him no fault at all.

39 But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jewš?

40 ^zThen cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Bā-rāb'bas. ^aNow Bā-rāb'bas was a robber.

CHAPTER 19.

1 Jesus is scourged, crowned, and beaten. 4 Pilate's doubt and weakness. 16 The crucifixion. 30 Death of Christ. 38 Joseph places his body in the tomb.

THEN ^aPī'late therefore took Jē'sus, and scourged ^bhim.

2 And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe,

3 And said, Hail, King of the Jewš! and they smote him with their hands.

4 Pī'lāte therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, ^bthat ye may know that I find no fault in him.

5 Then came Jē'sus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pī'lāte saith unto them, Behold the man!

6 ^cWhen the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pī'lāte saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Jewṣ answered him, ^dWe have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because ^ehe made himself the Son of God.

8 ¶ When Pī'lāte therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;

9 And went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jē'sus, Whence art thou? ^fBut Jē'sus gave him no answer.

10 Then saith Pī'lāte unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jē'sus answered, ^gThou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pī'lāte sought to release him: but the Jewṣ cried out, saying, ^hIf thou let this man go, thou art not Çæ'sar's friend: ⁱwhosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Çæ'sar.

13 ¶ When Pī'lāte therefore heard that saying, he brought Jē'sus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hē'brew, ¹Gāb'ba-thā.

14 And ^jit was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jewṣ, Behold your King!

15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pī'lāte saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, ^kWe have no king but Çæ'sar.

16 ^lThen delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jē'sus, and led him away.

17 And he bearing his cross ^mwent forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hē'brew Gōl'gō-thā:

18 ⁿWhere they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jē'sus in the midst.

19 ¶ And Pī'lāte wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JĒ'SUS OF NĀZ'Ā-RĒTH THE KING OF THE JEWṢ.

20 This title then read many of the Jewṣ: for the place where Jē'sus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hē'brew, and Greek, and Lāt'in.

21 Then said the chief priests of the Jewṣ to Pī'lāte, Write not, The King of the Jewṣ; but that he said, I am King of the Jewṣ.

22 Pī'lāte answered, What I have written I have written.

23 ¶ Then the soldiers, when they had crucified

Jē'sus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, ²woven from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, ^oThey parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

25 ¶ Now there stood by the cross of Jē'sus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mā'rŷ the wife of ³Clē'o-phas, and Mā'rŷ Māg-da-lē'nē.

26 When Jē'sus therefore saw his mother, and ^pthe disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, ^qWoman, behold thy son!

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her ^runto his own home.

28 ¶ After this, Jē'sus knowing that all things were now accomplished, ^sthat the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jē'sus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, ^tIt is finished: and he bowed his head, and ^ugave up the ghost.

31 The Jewṣ therefore, ^vbecause it was the preparation, ^wthat the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was ^xan high day,) besought Pī'lāte that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jē'sus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:

34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith ^ycame there out blood and water.

35 ^zAnd he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done, ^athat the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.

37 And again another scripture saith, ^bThey shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 ¶ ^cAnd after this Jō'seph of Ār-ī-mā-thæ'à, being a disciple of Jē'sus, but secretly ^dfor fear of the Jewṣ, besought Pī'lāte that he might take away the body of Jē'sus: and Pī'lāte gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jē'sus.

39 And there came also ^eNīc-o-dē'mus, which at the first came to Jē'sus by night, and brought ^fa mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jē'sus, and ^gwound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jewṣ is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden ; and in the garden a ^h new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

42 ⁱ There laid they Jē'sus therefore because of the Jews' preparation day ; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

CHAPTER 20.

1 Christ's resurrection. 11 He appears to Mary Magdalene. 19 Jesus in the midst of the disciples. 24 Thomas' doubt.

THE ^a first day of the week cometh Mā'rŷ Māg-da-lē'nē early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Sī'mon Pē'tēr, and to the ^b other disciple, whom Jē'sus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 ^c Pē'tēr therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together : and the other disciple did outrun Pē'tēr, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw ^d the linen clothes lying ; yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh Sī'mon Pē'tēr following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie,

7 And ^e the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the ^f scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 ¶ ^g But Mā'rŷ stood without at the sepulchre weeping : and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre, 12 And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jē'sus had lain.

13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou ? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

14 ^h And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jē'sus standing, and ⁱ knew not that it was Jē'sus.

15 Jē'sus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou ? whom seekest thou ? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Jē'sus saith unto her, Mā'rŷ. She turned herself, and saith unto him, ^j Rāb-bō'nī ; which is to say, Master.

17 Jē'sus saith unto her, Touch me not ; for I am not yet ascended to my Father : but go to ^k my brethren, and say unto them, ^l I ascend unto my Father, and your Father ; and to ^m my God, and your God.

18 ⁿ Mā'rŷ Māg-da-lē'nē came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 ¶ ^o Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jē'sus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he ^p shewed unto them his hands and his side. ^q Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord.

21 Then said Jē'sus to them again, Peace be unto you : ^r as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Hō'lŷ Ghōst :

23 ^s Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them ; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

24 ¶ But Thōm'as, one of the twelve, ^t called Dīd'ŷ-mus, was not with them when Jē'sus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 ¶ And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thōm'as with them : then came Jē'sus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, ^u Peace be unto you.

27 Then saith he to Thōm'as, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands ; and ^v reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side : and be not faithless, but believing.

28 And Thōm'as answered and said unto him, ^w My Lord and my God.

29 Jē'sus saith unto him, Thōm'as, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed : ^x blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

30 ¶ ^y And many other signs truly did Jē'sus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book :

31 ^z But these are written, that ye might believe that Jē'sus is the Chrīst, the Son of God ; ^a and that believing ye might have life through his name.

CHAPTER 21.

1 Christ appears to his disciples again. 12 He eats with them. 15 His charge to Peter. 25 The conclusion.

AFTER these things Jē'sus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tī-bē'rī-as ; and on this wise shewed he himself.

2 There were together Sī'mon Pē'tēr, and Thōm'as called Dīd'ŷ-mus, and ^a Nā-thān'a-el of Cā'nā in Gāl'ī-lee, and ^b the sons of Zēb'e-dee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Sī'mon Pē'tēr saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately ; and that night they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Jē'sus stood on the shore : but the disciples ^cknew not that it was Jē'sus.

5 Then ^dJē'sus saith unto them, ¹Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 And he said unto them, ^eCast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore ^fthat disciple whom Jē'sus loved saith unto Pē'tēr, It is the Lord. Now when Sī'mon Pē'tēr heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and ^gdid cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship ; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they ^hsaw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jē'sus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Sī'mon Pē'tēr went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three : and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jē'sus saith unto them, ⁱCome and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jē'sus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now ^jthe third time that Jē'sus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Jē'sus saith to Sī'mon Pē'tēr, Sī'mon, son of Jō'nas, ^klovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord ; ^lthou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, ^mFeed my lambs.

18 ^qVerily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest : but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 This spake he, signifying ^rby what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

20 Then Pē'tēr, turning about, seeth the disciple ^swhom Jē'sus loved following ; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

23 Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die : yet Jē'sus said not unto him, He shall not die ; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

24 This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things : and ^vwe know that his testimony is true.

25 And there are also many other things which Jē'sus did, the which, if they should be written every one, ^wI suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time ^arestore again the kingdom to Īs'ra-el?

7 And he said unto them, ^bIt is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

8 But ye shall receive ²power, after that the Hō'l'ŷ Ghōst is come upon you : and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jē-ru'sā-lēm, and in all Jū-dæ'a, and in Sā-mā-rī-ā, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 ⁱAnd when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up ; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them ^jin white apparel ;

11 Which also said, Ye men of Gāl'ī-lee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jē'sus, which is taken up from you into heaven, ^k shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12 Then returned they unto Jē-ru'sā-lēm from the ^l mount called Ōl'i-vēt, which is from Jē-ru'sā-lēm a ^m sabbath day's journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went up ⁿ into an upper room, where abode both Pē'tēr, and Jāmeṣ, and Jōhn, and Ān'drew, Phīl'ip, and Thōm'as, Bār-thōl'ō-mew, and Māt'thew, Jāmeṣ the son of Āl-phæ'us, and ^o Sī'mon Zē-lō'tēs, and ^p Jū'das the brother of Jāmeṣ.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with ^q the women, and Mār'ry the mother of Jē'sus, and with ^r his brethren.

15 ¶ And in those days Pē'tēr stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number ^s of names together were about an hundred and twenty,) 16 Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, ^t which the Hō'l'y Ghōst by the mouth of Dā'vid spake before concerning Jū'das, ^u which was guide to them that took Jē'sus.

17 For ^v he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of ^w this ministry.

18 ^x Now this man purchased a field with ^y the reward of iniquity; and ^z falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jē-ru'sā-lēm; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Ā-çēl'da-mā, that is to say, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, ^a Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and his ^b bishoprick let another take.

21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jē'sus went in and out among us, 22 Beginning from the baptism of Jōhn, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained ^c to be a witness with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Jō'seph called Bār'sa-bās, who was surnamed Jūs'tus, and Māt-thī'as.

24 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, ^d which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, 25 That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Jū'das by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

26 And they gave forth their ^e lots; and the lot fell upon Māt-thī'as; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Day of Pentecost. 2 Descent of the Holy Ghost. 14 Peter's sermon. 41 Many are converted. 43 Miracles performed by the apostles.

AND when ^a the day of Pēn'te-cōst was fully come, ^b they were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and ^c it filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

4 And ^a they were all filled with the Hō'l'y Ghōst, and began ^e to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were ^f dwelling at Jē-ru'sā-lēm Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now ¹ when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were ² confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Gāl-i-læ'anṣ?

8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?

9 Pār'thī-anṣ, and Mēdeṣ, and Ē'lām-ītes, and the dwellers in Mēs-o-pō-tā'mī-ā, and in Jū-dæ'ā, and ^o Cāp-pa-dō'çī-ā, in Pōn'tus, and Ā'ṣiā,

10 Phr'yg'i-ā, and Pam-phyl'i-ā, in Ē'gypt, and in the parts of Līb'y-ā about Çy-rē'nē, and strangers of Rōme, Jewṣ and ^h proselytes, 11 Crētes and Ā-rā'bī-anṣ, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

13 ⁱ Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

14 ¶ But Pē'tēr, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Jū-dæ'ā, and all ye that dwell at Jē-ru'sā-lēm, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.

16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Jō'el;

17 ^j And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, ^k I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and ^l your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; ^m and they shall prophesy:

19 ⁿ And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:

20 ^o The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:

21 And it shall come to pass, that ^p whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Īs'rā-el, hear these words; Jē'sus of Nāz'a-rēth, a man approved of God among you ^q by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

23 Him, ^r being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

24 ^s Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

25 For Dā'vid speaketh concerning him, ^t I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved :

26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad ; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope :

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine ^uHoly One to see corruption.

28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life ; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, ³let me freely speak unto you ^vof the patriarch Dā'vid, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day.

30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of ^wthe fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne ;

31 He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, ^xthat his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.

32 This Jē'sus hath God raised up, ^ywhereof we all are witnesses.

33 Therefore ^zbeing by the right hand of God exalted, and ^ahaving received of the Father the promise of the Hō'l'y Ghōst, he hath ^bshed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

34 For Dā'vid is not ascended into the heavens : but he saith himself, ^cThe LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Īs'ra-el know assuredly, that God ^dhath made that same Jē'sus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

37 ¶ Now when they heard this, ^ethey were pricked in their heart, and said unto Pē'tēr and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do ?

38 Then Pē'tēr said unto them, ^fRepent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jē'sus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Hō'l'y Ghōst.

39 For the ^gpromise is unto you, and ^hto your children, and ⁱto all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.

41 ¶ Then they that gladly received his word were baptized : and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

42 ^jAnd they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

43 And fear came upon every soul : and ^kmany wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

44 And all that believed were together, and ^lhad all things common ;

45 And sold their possessions and goods, and ^mparted them to all men, as every man had need.

46 And they, continuing daily with one accord ⁿin

CHAPTER 3.

1 A lame man healed. 12 Sermon to the people. 19 Peter exhorts to repentance.

NOW Pē'tēr and Jōhn went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour.

2 And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, ^ato ask alms of them that entered into the temple ;

3 Who seeing Pē'tēr and Jōhn about to go into the temple asked an alms.

4 And Pē'tēr, fastening his eyes upon him with Jōhn, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

6 Then Pē'tēr said, ^bSilver and gold have I none ; but such as I have give I thee : ^cIn the name of Jē'sus Christ of Nāz'a-rēth rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up : and immediately his feet and ancle bones received strength.

8 And he ^dleaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 ^eAnd all the people saw him walking and praising God :

10 And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple : and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And as the lame man which was healed held Pē'tēr and Jōhn, all the people ran together unto them in the porch ^fthat is called Sōl'o-mon's, greatly wondering.

12 ¶ And when Pē'tēr saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Īs'ra-el, why marvel ye at this ? or why look ye so earnestly on us, ^gas though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk ?

13 ^hThe God of Ā'brā-hām, and of Ī'saac, and of Jā'cob, the God of our fathers, ⁱhath glorified his Son Jē'sus ; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pī'lāte, when he was determined to let him go.

14 But ye denied ^jthe Holy One ^kand the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you ;

15 And killed the ^lPrince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead ; whereof we are witnesses.

16 ^lAnd his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know : yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 And now, brethren, I wot that ^mthrough ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.

18 But those things, which God before had shewed ⁿby the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 ¶ Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord ;

20 And he shall send Jē'sus Christ, which before was preached unto you :

21 ^oWhom the heaven must receive until the times of ^prestitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

22 For Mō'se's truly said unto the fathers, ^qA prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, ^rlike unto me ; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

23 And it shall come to pass, that every ^ssoul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

24 Yea, and all the prophets from Sām'u-el and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

25 ^tYe are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Ā'brā'hām, ^uAnd in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

26 Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jē'sus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Jewish rulers imprison Peter and John. 5 Session of the council. 21 The apostles are warned and dismissed. 23 The church prays to God.

AND as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the ¹captain of the temple, and the Sād'du-çees, came upon them,

2 ^aBeing grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jē'sus the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day : for it was now eventide.

4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed ; and the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes,

6 And ^bĀ'n'as the high priest, and Cā'ja-phās, and Jōhn, and Āl-ēx-ān'dēr, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jē-ru'sā-lēm.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, ^cBy what power, or by what name, have ye done this ?

8 ^dThen Pē'tēr, filled with the Hō'l'y Ghōst, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Īs'ra-el,

9 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole ;

10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Īs'ra-el, ^ethat by the name of Jē'sus Christ of Nāz'ā-rēth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

11 ^fThis is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 ^gNeither is there salvation in any other : for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

13 ¶ Now when they saw the boldness of Pē'tēr and Jōhn, ^hand perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled ; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jē'sus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, 16 Saying, ⁱWhat shall we do to these men ? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is ^jmanifest to all them that dwell in Jē-ru'-sā-lēm ; and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jē'sus.

19 But Pē'tēr and Jōhn answered and said unto them, ^kWhether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

20 ^lFor we cannot but speak the things which ^mwe have seen and heard.

21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, ⁿbecause of the people : for all men glorified God for ^othat which was done.

22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 ¶ And being let go, ^pthey went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

24 And when they heard that, they ^qlifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, ^rthou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is :

25 Who by the mouth of thy servant Dā'vid hast said, ^sWhy did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things ?

26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For of a truth against ^tthy holy child Jē'sus, ^uwhom thou hast anointed, both Hēr'od, and Pōn'ti-us Pī'lāte, with the Gēn'tiles, and the people of Īs'ra-el, were gathered together, 28 ^vFor to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.

29 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings : and grant unto thy servants, ^wthat with all boldness they may speak thy word, 30 By stretching forth thine hand to heal ; ^xand that signs and wonders may be done ^yby the name of thy holy child Jē'sus.

31 ¶ And when they had prayed, ^zthe place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Hō'lŷ Ghōst, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 And the multitude of them that believed ^awere of one heart and of one soul: ^bneither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.

33 And with ^cgreat power gave the apostles ^dwitness of the resurrection of the Lord Jē'sus: and ^egreat grace was upon them all.

34 ^fNeither was there any among them that lacked: ^gfor as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,

35 And laid them down at the apostles' feet: ^hand distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

36 And Jō'sēs, who by the apostles was surnamed Bār'na-bās, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Lē'vite, and of the country of Çŷ'prus, 37 ⁱHaving land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

CHAPTER 5.

¹ Ananias and Sapphira. ¹⁴ Increase of faith. ¹⁷ Apostles again imprisoned. ¹⁹ Delivered by an angel. ²⁷ Trial and dismissal.

BUT a certain man named Ān-ā-nī'as, with Sāp-phī'rā his wife, sold a possession, 2 ^aAnd kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

3 ^bBut Pē'tēr said, Ān-ā-nī'as, why hath ^cSā'tan filled thine heart ¹to lie to the Hō'lŷ Ghōst, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And Ān-ā-nī'as hearing these words ^dfell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, ^ewound him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Pē'tēr answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Pē'tēr said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together ^fto tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 ¶ And ^gby the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (^hand they were all with one accord in Sōl'o-mon's porch.

13 And ⁱof the rest durst no man join himself to them: ^jbut the people magnified them.

14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)

15 Insomuch that they brought forth the sick ²into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, ^kthat at the least the shadow of Pē'tēr passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jē-ru'sā-lēm, bringing ^lsick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 ¶ ^mThen the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sād'-du-çees,) and were filled with ³indignation, 18 ⁿAnd laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But ^othe angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people ^pall the words of this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. ^qBut the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Īş'ra-el, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest and ^rthe captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: ^sfor they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them, 28 Saying, ^tDid not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jē-ru'sā-lēm with your doctrine, ^uand intend to bring this man's ^vblood upon us.

29 ¶ Then Pē'tēr and the other apostles answered and said, ^wWe ought to obey God rather than men.

30 The God of our fathers raised up Jē'sus, whom ye slew and ^xhanged on a tree.

31 ^yHim hath God exalted with his right hand to be ^za Prince and ^aa Saviour, ^bfor to give repentance to Īş'ra-el, and forgiveness of sins.

32 And ^cwe are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Hō'lŷ Ghōst, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 ¶ When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Phār'ī-see; named ^aGā-mā'lī-el, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Iṣ'ra-el, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these days rose up Theū'das, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as ⁴obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Jū'das of Gāl'ī-lee in the ^edays of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: ^ffor if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought:

39 ^gBut if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even ^hto fight against God.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, ⁱand beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jē'sus, and let them go.

41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the council, ^jrejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.

42 And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jē'sus Chrīst.

CHAPTER 6.

¹ The apostles choose helpers. ⁵ Stephen's zeal and courage. ¹² He is accused of blasphemy.

AND in those days, ^awhen the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the ^bGrē'çianṣ against the Hē'brewṣ, because their widows were neglected ^cin the daily ministration.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, ^dIt is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, ^elook ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Hō'l'y Ghōst and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we ^fwill give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 ¶ And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stē'phen, ^ga man full of faith and of the Hō'l'y Ghōst, and ^hPhil'ip, and Prōch'q-rus, and Ni-cā'nor, and Tī'mon, and Pār'me-nās, and Nīc'q-lās a proselyte of Ān'tī-ōch:

6 Whom they set before the apostles: and ⁱwhen they had prayed, ^jthey laid their hands on them.

7 And ^kthe word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jē-ru'sā-lēm greatly; and a great company ^lof the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 And Stē'phen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

CHAPTER 7.

¹ Stephen before the council. ⁵¹ Reprehends the murdering of Christ. ⁵⁴ He is stoned to death.

THEN said the high priest, Are these things so? 2 And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Ā'brā-hām, when he was in Mēs-q-pō-tā'mī-ā, before he dwelt in Chār'ran,

3 And said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land ^awhich I shall shew thee.

4 Then ^bcame he out of the land of the Chāl-dæ'-anṣ, and dwelt in Chār'ran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: ^cyet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.

6 And God spake on this wise, ^dThat his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil ^efour hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and ^fserve me in this place.

8 ^gAnd he gave him the covenant of circumcision: ^hand so Ā'brā-hām begat I'ṣaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; ⁱand I'ṣaac begat Jā'cqb; and ^jJā'cqb begat the twelve patriarchs.

9 ^kAnd the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Jō'-ṣeph into Ē'ggypt: ^lbut God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, ^mand gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Phā'-raōh king of Ē'ggypt; and he made him governor over Ē'ggypt and all his house.

11 Now there came a dearth over all the land of Ē'ggypt and Chā'nāan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But when Jā'cqb heard that there was corn in Ē'ggypt, he sent out our fathers first.

13 And at the second time Jō'sēph was made known to his brethren; and Jō'sēph's kindred was made known unto Phā'raōh.

14 ⁿThen sent Jō'sēph, and called his father Jā'cōb to him, and all his kindred, ^othreescore and fifteen souls.

15 So Jā'cōb went down into Ē'gŷpt, ⁿand died, he, and our fathers, 16 And ^awere carried over into Sŷ'chem, and laid in ^rthe sepulchre that Ā'brā-hām bought for a sum of money of the sons of Ēm'mōr the father of Sŷ'chem.

17 But when ^sthe time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Ā'brā-hām, the people grew and multiplied in Ē'gŷpt, 18 Till another king arose, which knew not Jō'sēph.

19 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.

20 ^tIn which time Mō'sēš was born, and ^uwas ¹exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months:

21 And when he was cast out, Phā'raōh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son.

22 And Mō'sēš was learned in all the wisdom of the Ē-gŷp'tians, and was ^vmighty in words and in deeds.

23 ^wAnd when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Īš'ra-el.

24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Ē-gŷp'tian:

25 ²For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.

26 And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, ^zWho made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Ē-gŷp'tian yesterday?

29 ^aThen fled Mō'sēš at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Mā'dī-an, where he ^bbegat two sons.

30 And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sī'nā ^aan angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.

31 When Mō'sēš saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, 32 Saying, ^bI am the God of thy fathers, the God of Ā'brā-hām, and the God of Ī'saac, and the God of Jā'cōb. Then Mō'sēš trembled, and durst not behold.

33 ^cThen said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Ē'gŷpt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Ē'gŷpt.

35 This Mō'sēš whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer ^aby the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.

36 ^eHe brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land of Ē'gŷpt, and in the Red sea, ^fand in the wilderness forty years.

37 ¶ This is that Mō'sēš, which said unto the children of Īš'ra-el, ^gA prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, ³like unto me; ^hhim shall ye hear.

38 ⁱThis is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with ^jthe angel which spake to him in the mount Sī'nā, and with our fathers: ^kwho received the lively ^loracles to give unto us:

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Ē'gŷpt, 40 ^mSaying unto Aār'ōn, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Mō'sēš, which brought us out of the land of Ē'gŷpt, we wot not what is become of him.

41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then ⁿGod turned, and gave them up to worship ^othe host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, ^pO ye house of Īš'ra-el, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness?

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Mō'lōch, and the star of your god Rēm'phan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Bāb'ŷ-lon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, ⁴speaking unto Mō'sēš, ^athat he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen.

45 ^rWhich also our fathers ⁵that came after brought in with ⁶Jē'sus into the possession of the Ġēn'tiles, whom God drave out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of Dā'vid;

46 ^sWho found favour before God, and ^tdesired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jā'cōb.

47 But Sōl'o-mon built him an house.

48 Howbeit ^uthe most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet, 49 ^vHeaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest?

50 Hath not my hand made all these things?

51 ¶ Ye ^wstiffnecked and ^xuncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Hō'lŷ Ghōst: as your fathers did, so do ye.

52 ^yWhich of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of ^zthe Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers:

53 ^aWho have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it.

54 ¶ When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth.

55 But he, being full of the Hō'lŷ Ghōst, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jē'sus standing on the right hand of God, 56 And said, Behold, ^bI see the heavens opened, and the ^cSon of man standing on the right hand of God.

57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, 58 And ^dcast him out of the city, ^eand stoned him: and ^fthe witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Sāul.

59 And they stoned Stē'phēn, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jē'sus, ^greceive my spirit.

60 And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, ^hLord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he ⁱfell asleep.

CHAPTER 8.

¹ Persecution of the church in Jerusalem. ⁵ Philip preaches in Samaria. ¹⁴ Peter and John sent out. ^{9, 18} Simon the sorcerer. ³⁷ The Ethiopian is baptized.

AND ^aSāul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jē-ru'sā-lēm; and ^bthey were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Jū-dæ'ā and Sā-mā'rī-ā, except the apostles.

2 And devout men carried Stē'phēn to his burial, and ^cmade great lamentation over him.

3 As for Sāul, ^dhe made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison.

4 Therefore ^ethey that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word.

5 Then ^fPhīl'ip went down to the city of Sā-mā'rī-ā, and preached Christ unto them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Phīl'ip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For ^gunclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, called Sī'mon, which beforetime in the same city ^hused sorcery, and bewitched the people of Sā-mā'rī-ā, ⁱgiving out that himself was some great one:

10 To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But when they believed Phīl'ip preaching the things ^jconcerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jē'sus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Sī'mon himself ^kbelieved also: and when

18 And when Sī'mon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Hō'lŷ Ghōst was given, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Hō'lŷ Ghōst.

20 But Pē'tēr said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because ^qthou hast thought that ^rthe gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy ^sheart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, ^tif perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in ^uthe gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Sī'mon, and said, ^vPray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jē-ru'sā-lēm, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Sā-mār'i-tanŷ.

26 ^wAnd the angel of the Lord spake unto Phīl'ip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jē-ru'sā-lēm unto Gā'zā, which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and, behold, ^xa man of Ē-thī-ō'pī-ā, an eunuch of great authority under Cān'dā-çē queen of the Ē-thī-ō'pī-anŷ, who had the charge of all her treasure, and ^yhad come to Jē-ru'sā-lēm for to worship, 28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Ē-šā'ias the prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said unto Phīl'ip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

30 And Phīl'ip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Ē-šā'ias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Phīl'ip that he would come up and sit with him.

32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, ^zHe was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Phīl'ip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Phīl'ip opened his mouth, "and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jē'sus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; ^b what doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Phīl'ip said, "If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, "I believe that Jē'sus Chrīst is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Phīl'ip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, "the Spirit of the Lord caught away Phīl'ip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Phīl'ip was found ^fat Ā-zō'tus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Çæs-a-rē'ā.

CHAPTER 9.

¹ The conversion of Saul. ⁴ His call. ¹⁸ Baptized by Ananias. ²⁰ He preaches boldly. ²³ Conspiracy to kill him. ³¹ Peter's miracles.

AND ^a Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Dā-mās'cus to the synagogues, that if he found any ¹ of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jē-ru'sā-lēm.

3 And ^b as he journeyed, he came near Dā-mās'cus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven:

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, "why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, ^d Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jē'sus whom thou persecutest: ^e it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, ^f what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And ^g the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Dā-mās'cus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 ¶ And there was a certain disciple at Dā-mās'cus, named Ān-a-nī'as; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ān-a-nī'as. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Jū'das for one called Saul, ^h of Tār'sus: for, behold, he prayeth, 12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ān-a-nī'as coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ān-a-nī'as answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jē-ru'sā-lēm:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all ⁱ that call on thy name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for ^j he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before ^k the Gēn'tiles, and ^l kings, and the children of Īs'ra-el:

16 For ^m I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

17 ⁿ And Ān-a-nī'as went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jē'sus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and ^o be filled with the Hō'l'y Ghōst.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. ^p Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Dā-mās'cus.

20 And straightway he preached Chrīst in the synagogues, ^q that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said; ^r Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jē-ru'sā-lēm, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, ^s and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Dā-mās'cus, proving that this is very Chrīst.

23 ¶ And after that many days were fulfilled, ^t the Jews took counsel to kill him:

24 But their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and ^u let him down by the wall in a basket.

26 And ^v when Saul was come to Jē-ru'sā-lēm, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 ^w But Bār'na-bās took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Dā-mās'cus in the name of Jē'sus.

28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jē-ru'sā-lēm.

29 And he spake ^x boldly in the name of the Lord Jē'sus, and disputed against the ^y Grē'çianş: ^z but they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Çæs-a-rē'ā, and sent him forth to Tār'sus.

31 ^a Then had the churches rest throughout all Jū-dæ'ā and Gāl'i-lee and Sā-mā'rī-ā, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Hō'l'y Ghōst, were multiplied.

32 ¶ And it came to pass, as Pē'tēr passed ^b through-out all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lỳd'dā.

33 And there he found a certain man named Æ'ne-ās, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.

34 And Pē'tēr said unto him, Æ'ne-ās, 'Jē'sus Chrīst maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at Lŷd'dá and 'Sā'ron saw him, and 'turned to the Lord.

36 ¶ Now there was at Jōp'pá a certain disciple named Táb'i-thá, which by interpretation is called 'Dô'r'cas: this woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in an upper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lŷd'dá was nigh to Jōp'pá, and the disciples had heard that Pē'tēr was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.

39 Then Pē'tēr arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dô'r'cas made, while she was with them.

40 But Pē'tēr put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body said, Táb'i-thá, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Pē'tēr, she sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up, and when he had called the saints and widows, presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Jōp'pá; and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Jōp'pá with one Sī'mon a tanner.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Cornelius sends for Peter. 11 Peter's vision. 23 He goes to Cornelius. 34 His sermon at Cæsarea. 44 The Holy Ghost descends.

THERE was a certain man in Cæs-a-rē'á called Cōr-nē'lĭus, a centurion of the band called the Ī-tāl'jan band,

2 A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway.

3 He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of the day an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cōr-nē'lĭus.

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.

5 And now send men to Jōp'pá, and call for one Sī'mon, whose surname is Pē'tēr:

6 He lodgeth with one Sī'mon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the angel which spake unto Cōr-nē'lĭus was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Jōp'pá.

9 ¶ On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Pē'tēr went up upon the house top to pray about the sixth hour:

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance,

11 And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth:

12 Wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Pē'tēr; kill, and eat.

14 But Pē'tēr said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

17 Now while Pē'tēr doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cōr-nē'lĭus had made enquiry for Sī'mon's house, and stood before the gate, 18 And called, and asked whether Sī'mon, which was surnamed Pē'tēr, were lodged there.

19 ¶ While Pē'tēr thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

21 Then Pē'tēr went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cōr-nē'lĭus; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cōr-nē'lĭus the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Pē'tēr went away with them, and certain brethren from Jōp'pá accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entered into Cæs-a-rē'á. And Cōr-nē'lĭus waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 And as Pē'tēr was coming in, Cōr-nē'lĭus met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Pē'tēr took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?

30 And Cōr-nē'lĭus said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour ; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, ^ra man stood before me ^sin bright clothing, 31 And said, Côt-nē'lijus, ^tthy prayer is heard, ^uand thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Jöp'pâ, and call hither Sî'mon, whose surname is Pē'tēr ; he is lodged in the house of one Sî'mon a tanner by the sea side : who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee ; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 ¶ Then Pē'tēr opened his mouth, and said, ^vOf a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons :

35 But ^win every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

36 The word which God sent unto the children of Iş'ra-el, ^xpreaching peace by Jē'şus Chrīst : (^yhe is Lord of all :)

37 That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Jū-dæ'â, and began from Gäl'i-lee, after the baptism which Jōhn preached ;

38 How ^zGod anointed Jē'şus of Năz'a-rēth with the Hō'lŷ Ghōst and with power : who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil ; ^afor God was with him.

39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jē-ru'sā-lēm ; whom they slew and hanged on a tree :

40 Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly ;

41 ^bNot to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, ^cwho did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

42 And ^dhe commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify ^ethat it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge ^fof quick and dead.

43 ^gTo him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

44 ¶ While Pē'tēr yet spake these words, the Hō'lŷ Ghōst fell on all them which heard the word.

45 And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Pē'tēr, because that on the Gēn'tileş also was poured out the gift of the Hō'lŷ Ghōst.

46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Pē'tēr, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Hō'lŷ Ghōst as well as we ?

48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

2 And when Pē'tēr was come up to Jē-ru'sā-lēm, ^bthey that were of the circumcision contended with him,

4 But Pē'tēr rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it ^dby order unto them, saying,

5 ^eI was in the city of Jöp'pâ praying : and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners ; and it came even to me :

6 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Pē'tēr ; slay and eat.

8 But I said, ^fNot so, Lord : for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times : and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Çæs-a-rē'â unto me.

12 And ^gthe spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover ^hthese six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house :

13 ⁱAnd he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Jöp'pâ, and call for Sî'mon, whose surname is Pē'tēr ;

14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the Hō'lŷ Ghōst fell on them, ^jas on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, ^kJōhn indeed baptized with water ; but ^lye shall be baptized with the Hō'lŷ Ghōst.

17 ^mForasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jē'şus Chrīst ; ⁿwhat was I, that I could withstand God ?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, ^oThen hath God also to the Gēn'tileş granted repentance unto life.

19 ¶ ^pNow they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stē'phen travelled as far as Phē-nī'çê, and Çŷ'prus, and Ān'ti-öch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Çŷ'prus and Çŷ-rē'nê, which, when they were come to Ān'ti-öch, spake unto ^qthe Grē'çians, ^rpreaching the Lord Jē'şus.

21 And ^sthe hand of the Lord was with them : and a great number believed, and ^tturned unto the Lord.

22 ¶ Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jē-ru'sā-lēm : and they sent forth ^uBăr'nā-bās, that he should go as far as Ān'ti-öch.

23 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and ^vexhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would ^wcleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the Hō'ly Ghōst and of faith: ^xand much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Bār'na-bās to ^vTār'sus, for to seek Sāul:

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Ān'tī-ōch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves ¹with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Chrīs'tians first in Ān'tī-ōch.

27 ¶ And in these days came ^zprophets from Jē-ru'sā-lēm unto Ān'tī-ōch.

28 And there stood up one of them named ^aĀg'ā-būs, and signified by the spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Clāu'dī-us Çæ'sar.

29 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send ^brelief unto the brethren which dwelt in Jū-dæ'ā:

30 Which also they did, and sent it to the ^celders by the hands of Bār'na-bās and Sāul.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Herod kills James. 4 Peter imprisoned. 7 His escape. 23 Herod's death. 24 Growth of God's word.

NOW about that time Hēr'od the king ¹stretched forth his hands ^ato vex certain of the church.

2 And he killed Jāmeş ^bthe brother of Jōhn with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the Jewş, he proceeded further to take Pē'tēr also. (Then were ^cthe days of unleavened bread.)

4 And ^dwhen he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Pē'tēr therefore was kept in prison: but ²prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Hēr'od would have brought him forth, the same night Pē'tēr was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And, behold, ^ethe angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Pē'tēr on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him; and ^fwist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought ^ghe saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; ^hwhich opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Pē'tēr was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that ⁱthe Lord hath sent his angel, and ^jhath delivered me out of the hand of Hēr'od, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jewş.

12 And when he had considered the thing, ^khe came to the house of Mār'y the mother of ^lJōhn, whose surname was Mārķ; where many were gathered together praying.

13 And as Pē'tēr knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came ³to hearken, named Rhō'dā.

14 And when she knew Pē'tēr's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Pē'tēr stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, ^mIt is his angel.

16 But Pē'tēr continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto Jāmeş, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Pē'tēr.

19 And when Hēr'od had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Jū-dæ'ā to Çæs-a-rē'ā, and there abode.

20 ¶ And Hēr'od ⁴was highly displeased with them of Tÿre and Sī'dōn: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blās'tus ⁵the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because ⁿtheir country was nourished by the king's country.

21 And upon a set day Hēr'od, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, ^oIt is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the angel of the Lord ^psmote him, because ^qhe gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 ¶ But ^rthe word of God grew and multiplied.

25 And Bār'na-bās and Sāul returned from Jē-ru'sā-lēm, when they had fulfilled their ⁶ministry, and ^stook with them Jōhn, whose surname was Mārķ.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Tour of Paul and Barnabas. 8 Elymas the sorcerer. 14 Paul's sermon at Antioch. 42 Gentiles believe. 45 Envy of the Jews.

NOW there were ^ain the church that was at Ān'tī-ōch certain prophets and teachers; as ^bBār'na-bās, and Sīm'e-on that was called Nī'ger, and ^cLu'cĭus of Çÿ-rē'nē, and Mān'a-ēn, ¹which had been brought up with Hēr'od the tetrarch, and Sāul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Hō'ly Ghōst said, ^dSeparate me Bār'na-bās and Sāul for the work ^ewhereunto I have called them.

3 And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 ¶ So they, being sent forth by the Hō'lŷ Ghōst, departed unto Sē-leū'çī-ā; and from thence they sailed to Çŷ'prus.

5 And when they were at Sāl'a-mis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jewš; and they had also Jōhn to their minister.

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Pā'phos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bār-jē'sus:

7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sēr-ğī-us Paū'lus, a prudent man; who called for Bār-na-bās and Saūl, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But ^hĒl'ŷ-mās the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then ²Saūl, (who also is called ³Paūl,) filled with the Hō'lŷ Ghōst, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

11 And now, behold, ^jthe hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paūl and his company loosed from Pā'phos, they came to Pēr'gā in Pam-phŷl'ī-ā: and ^kJōhn departing from them returned to Jē-ru'sā-lēm.

14 ¶ But when they departed from Pēr'gā, they came to Ān'tī-ōch in Pī-sīd'ī-ā, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down.

15 And ^lafter the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have ^many word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paūl stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, Men of Īš'ra-el, and ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Īš'ra-el chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Ē'ğŷpt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

18 And about the time of forty years ⁿsuffered he their manners in the wilderness.

19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chā'nāan, he divided their land to them by lot.

20 And after that he gave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Sām'u-el the prophet.

21 And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saūl the son of Çīs, a man of the tribe of Bēn'ja-min, by the space of forty years.

22 And ^owhen he had removed him, he raised up unto them Dā'vid to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found Dā'vid the son of Jēs'se, a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

23 ^oOf this man's seed hath God according ⁿto his promise raised unto Īš'ra-el ^qa Saviour, Jē'sus:

24 When Jōhn had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Īš'ra-el.

25 And as Jōhn fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.

26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Ā'brā-hām, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent.

27 For they that dwell at Jē-ru'sā-lēm, and their rulers, ^rbecause they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pī'lāte that he should be slain.

29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.

30 ^sBut God raised him from the dead:

31 And ^the was seen many days of them which came up with him from Gāl'ī-lee to Jē-ru'sā-lēm, who are his witnesses unto the people.

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that ^uthe promise which was made unto the fathers, 33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jē'sus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, ^vThou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure ⁵mercies of Dā'vid.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, ^wThou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

36 For Dā'vid, ⁶after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:

37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

38 ¶ Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that ^xthrough this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins:

39 And ^yby him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Mō'seš.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in ^zthe prophets;

41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 And when the Jewš were gone out of the synagogue, the Ġēn'tileš besought that these words might be preached to them the ⁷next sabbath.

43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jewz and religious proselytes followed Paul and Bär'nā-bās : who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in ^athe grace of God.

44 ¶ And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

45 But when the Jewz saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and ^bspake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

46 Then Paul and Bär'nā-bās waxed bold, and said, ^cIt was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you : but ^dseeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Ĝen'tilez.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, ^eI have set thee to be a light of the Ĝen'tilez, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the Ĝen'tilez heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord : ^fand as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

50 But the Jewz stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and ^graised persecution against Paul and Bär'nā-bās, and expelled them out of their coasts.

51 ^hBut they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Ī-cō'nī-um.

52 And the disciples ⁱwere filled with joy, and with the Hō'lý Ghōst.

CHAPTER 14.

¹ Persecution of Paul and Barnabas. ⁸ Paul heals a cripple. ¹⁹ Paul is stoned at Lystra. ²⁶ Return to Antioch.

AND it came to pass in Ī-cō'nī-um, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jewz, and so spake, that ^aa great multitude both of the Jewz and also of the Greeks believed.

2 But the unbelieving Jewz stirred up the Ĝen'tilez, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, ^bwhich gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided : and part held with the Jewz, and part with the apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Ĝen'tilez, and also of the Jewz with their rulers, ^cto use them despitefully, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and ^dfled unto Lýs'trà and Dēr'bē, cities of Lýt-a-ō'nī-à, and unto the region that lieth round about :

7 And there they preached the gospel.

8 ¶ ^eAnd there sat a certain man at Lýs'trà, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked :

9 The same heard Paul speak : who stedfastly beholding him, and ^fperceiving that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, ^gStand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lýt-a-ō'nī-à, ^hThe gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Bär'nā-bās, Jū'pī-tēr ; and Paul, Mēr-cū'rī-us, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jū'pī-tēr, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, ⁱand would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the apostles, Bär'nā-bās and Paul, heard of, ^jthey rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? ^kWe also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from ^lthese vanities ^munto the living God, ⁿwhich made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein :

16 ^oWho in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 ^pNevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and ^qgave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 ¶ ^rAnd there came thither certain Jewz from Ān'tī-ōch and Ī-cō'nī-um, who persuaded the people, ^sand, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he ^thad been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city : and the next day he departed with Bär'nā-bās to Dēr'bē.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and ^lhad taught many, they returned again to Lýt'trà, and to Ī-cō'nī-um, and Ān'tī-ōch, 22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that ^uwe must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had ^vordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pī-sīd'i-à, they came to Pam-phýl'i-à.

26 And thence sailed to Ān'tī-ōch, ^wfrom whence they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had ^xopened the door of faith unto the Ĝen'tilez.

28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

¹ A dispute about circumcision. ⁶ The council at Jerusalem. ²³ Letters to the Gentiles. ³⁶ Paul and Barnabas separate.

AND ^acertain men which came down from Jū-dæ'á taught the brethren, and said, ^bExcept ye be circumcised ^cafter the manner of Mō'seş, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paŭl and Bär'na-bäs had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that ^aPaŭl and Bär'na-bäs, and certain other of them, should go up to Jê-ru'sâ-lêm unto the apostles and elders about this question.

3 And ^ebeing brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phê-nî'çê and Sâ-mâ-rî-â, ^fdeclaring the conversion of the Ğën'tileş : and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jê-ru'sâ-lêm, they were received of the church, and ^{of} the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there ¹rose up certain of the sect of the Phâr'i-seeş which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Mō'seş.

6 ¶ And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Pê'têr rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Ğën'tileş by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

8 And God, ^gwhich knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, ^hgiving them the Hō'lŷ Ghōst, even as he did unto us ;

9 ⁱAnd put no difference between us and them, ^jpurifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, ^kto put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear ?

11 But ^lwe believe that through the grace of the Lord Jê'sus Chrīst we shall be saved, even as they.

12 ¶ Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Bär'na-bäs and Paŭl, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Ğën'tileş by them.

13 ¶ And after they had held their peace, ^mJāmeş answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me :

14 Sīm'ê-on hath declared how God at the first did visit the Ğën'tileş, to take out of them a people for his name.

15 And to this agree the ⁿwords of the prophets ; as it is written,

16 ^oAfter this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of Dā'vid, which is fallen down ; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up :

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Ğën'tileş, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things.

18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Ğën'tileş ^pare turned to God :

20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain ^qfrom pollutions of idols, and ^rfrom fornication, and ^sfrom things strangled, ^tand ^ufrom blood.

21 For Mō'seş of old time hath in every city them that preach him, 'being read in the synagogues every sabbath day.

22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Ān'ti-ōch with Paŭl and Bär'na-bäs ; namely, Jū'das surnamed ^vBär'sa-bäs, and Sī'las, chief men among the brethren :

23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner ; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Ğën'tileş in Ān'ti-ōch and Sŷr'i-â and Çi-lî'çia :

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that ^vcertain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law : to whom we gave no such commandment :

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Bär'na-bäs and Paŭl, 26 ^wMen that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jê'sus Chrīst.

27 We have sent therefore Jū'das and Sī'las, who shall also tell you the same things by ²mouth.

28 For it seemed good to ^xthe Hō'lŷ Ghōst, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things ;

29 ^yThat ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and ^zfrom blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication : from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Ān'ti-ōch : and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle :

31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the ³consolation.

32 And Jū'das and Sī'las, being ^aprophets also themselves, ^bexhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let ^cgo in peace from the brethren unto the apostles.

34 Notwithstanding it pleased Sī'las to abide there still.

35 ^aPaŭl also and Bär'na-bäs continued in Ān'ti-ōch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 ¶ And some days after Paŭl said unto Bär'na-bäs, Let us go again and visit our brethren ^ein every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Bär'na-bäs determined to take with them ^fJōhn, whose surname was Märk.

38 But Paŭl thought not good to take him with them, ^gwho departed from them from Pam-phŷl'i-â, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other : and so Bär'na-bäs took Märk, and sailed unto Çŷ'prus ;

40 And Paŭl chose Sī'las, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Sŷr'i-á and Çi-lí'çjà, confirming the churches.

CHAPTER 16.

THEN came he to ^aDēr'bē and Lŷs'trà: and, behold, a certain disciple was there, ^bnamed Tīmō'the-ūs, the son of a certain woman, which was a Jew'ess, and believed; but his father was a Greek:

2 Which ^cwas well reported of by the brethren that were at Lŷs'trà and Ī-cō'nī-um.

3 Him would Paḷ have to go forth with him; and ^dtook and circumcised him because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, ^ethat were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jē-ru'sā-lēm.

5 And ^fso were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrŷg'i-á and the region of Gā-lā'tjā, and were forbidden of the Hō'lŷ Ghōst to preach the word in Ā'šjā, 7 After they were come to Mŷs'jā, they assayed to go into Bī-thŷn'i-á: but the Spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing by Mŷs'jā came down to ^gTrō'ās.

9 And a ^hvision appeared to Paḷ in the night; There stood a man of Māç-ē-dō'nī-á, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Māç-ē-dō'nī-á, and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go ⁱinto Māç-ē-dō'nī-á, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Therefore loosing from Trō'ās, we came with a straight course to Sām-q-thrā'çjà, and the next day to Nē-āp'q-lis;

12 And from thence to ^jPhī-līp'pī, which is ¹the chief city of that part of Māç-ē-dō'nī-á, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And on the ²sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 ¶ And a certain woman named Lŷd'i-á, a seller of purple, of the city of ^kThŷ-ā-tī'rā, which worshipped God, heard us: whose ^lheart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paḷ.

15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be ^mfaithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And ⁿshe constrained us.

16 ¶ And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel ^opossessed with a spirit ³of divination met us, which brought her masters ^pmuch gain by soothsaying:

17 The same followed Paḷ and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days. But Paḷ, ^abeing grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jē'şus Chrīst to come out of her. ^rAnd he came out the same hour.

19 ¶ And ^swhen her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, ^tthey caught Paḷ and Sī'las, and ^udrew them into the ⁴marketplace unto the rulers,

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, ^vdo exceedingly trouble our city, 21 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Rō'manş.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, ^wand commanded to beat them.

23 ^xAnd when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely:

24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the ^ystocks.

25 ¶ And at midnight Paḷ and Sī'las prayed, and ^zsang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 ^aAnd suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately ^ball the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

28 But Paḷ cried with a loud voice, saying, ^cDo thyself no harm: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paḷ and Sī'las, 30 And brought them out, and said, ^dSirs, what must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, ^eBelieve on the Lord Jē'şus Chrīst, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, ^fhe set meat before them, and ^grejoiced, believing in God with all his house.

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the serjeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paḷ, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paḷ said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, ^hbeing Rō'manş, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

38 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Rō'manş.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lŷd'i-à: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAPTER 17.

¹ Paul's preaching at Thessalonica. ⁵ The Jews persecute him. ¹⁰ He is sent to Berea. ¹⁵ At Athens he preaches unknown.

NOW when they had passed through Ām-phīp'olis and Āp-ōl-lō-nī-à, they came to Thēs-sa-lō-nī'cā, where was a synagogue of the Jewş :

2 And Paŷul, as his manner was, went ^a in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures,

3 Opening and alleging, ^b that Chrīst must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jē'şus, ¹ whom I preach unto you, is Chrīst.

4 ^c And some of them believed, and consorted with Paŷul and ^d Sī'las; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 ¶ But the Jewş which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of ^e Jā'son, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jā'son and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, ^f These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also;

7 Whom Jā'son hath received: and these all ^g do contrary to the decrees of Çæ'şar, ^h saying that there is another king, one Jē'şus.

8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jā'son, and of the other, they let them go.

10 ¶ And ⁱ the brethren immediately sent away Paŷul and Sī'las by night unto Bē-rē'ā: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jewş.

11 These were more noble than those in Thēs-sa-lō-nī'cā, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and ^j searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

13 But when the Jewş of Thēs-sa-lō-nī'cā had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paŷul at Bē-rē'ā, ^k they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 ^l And then immediately the brethren sent away Paŷul to go as it were to the sea: but Sī'las and Tī-mō'the-ūs abode there still.

15 And they that conducted Paŷul brought him unto Āth'ēnş: and ^m receiving a commandment unto Sī'las and Tī-mō'the-ūs for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paŷul waited for them at Āth'ēnş, ⁿ his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city ² wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jewş, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Ēp-ī-cū-rē'anş, and of the Stō'icks, encountered him. And some said, What will this ³ babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jē'şus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him unto ⁴ Ār-ē-ōp'a-gus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 (For all the Āth-ē'nī-anş and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

22 ¶ Then Paŷul stood in the midst of ⁵ Mārş' hill, and said, Ye men of Āth'ēnş, I perceive that in all things ye are ^o too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your ⁶ devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, ^v TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 ^a God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is ^v Lord of heaven and earth, ^s dwelleth not in temples made with hands;

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, ^t as though he needed any thing, seeing ^u he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;

26 And ^v hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and ^w the bounds of their habitation;

27 ^x That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, ^y though he be not far from every one of us:

28 For ^z in him we live, and move, and have our being; ^a as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, ^b we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

30 And ^c the times of this ignorance God winked at; but ^d now commandeth all men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which ^e he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath ^f given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

32 ¶ And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

33 So Paŷul departed from among them.

34 ^f Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dī-ō-nŷs'ius the Ār-ē-ōp'a-gēite, and a woman named Dām'a-ris, and others with them.

CHAPTER 18.

¹ Paul goes to Corinth. ³ His occupation. ⁴ He preaches to the Gentiles. ⁹ His vision. ¹² The judgment of Gallio. ²⁴ Preaching of Apollos.

AFTER these things Paul departed from Ath'ens, and came to Cör'inth;

2 And found a certain Jew named ^a Ä'quĩ-lá, born in Pön'tus, lately come from It'a-ly, with his wife Prĩs-çil'lá; (because that Cläu'dĩ-us had commanded all Jewš to depart from Rōme:) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, ^b and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers.

4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jewš and the Greeks.

5 And ^c when Sĩ'las and Tĩ-mō'the-ũs were come from Măç-e-dō'nĩ-á, Paul was ^d pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jewš that Jē'şus was ¹ Chrĩst.

6 And ^e when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, ^f he shook his raiment, and said unto them, ^g Your blood be upon your own heads; ^h I am clean: ⁱ from henceforth I will go unto the Gẽn'tileš.

7 ¶ And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Jũs'tus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

8 ^j And Crĩs'pus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Cō-rĩn'thĩ-anš hearing believed, and were baptized.

9 Then ^k spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10 ^l For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city.

11 And he ^m continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 ¶ And when Găl'lĩ-ō was the deputy of Ä-chā'já, the Jewš made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat, 13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Găl'lĩ-ō said unto the Jewš, ⁿ If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jewš, reason would that I should bear with you:

15 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.

16 And he drave them from the judgment seat.

17 Then all the Greeks took ^o Søs'the-nēs, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Găl'lĩ-ō cared for none of those things.

18 ¶ And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Sýr'ĩ-á, and with him Prĩs-çil'lá and Ä'quĩ-lá; having ^p shorn his head in ^q Çẽn'-chrě-á: for he had a vow.

19 And he came to Ēph'ě-sũs, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jewš.

20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not;

21 But bade them farewell, saying, ^a I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jē-ru'sā-lēm: but I will return again unto you, ^b if God will. And he sailed from Ēph'ě-sũs.

22 And when he had landed at Çăes-ă-rē-á, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to Ān'tĩ-ōch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of ^s Gă-lā'tiá and Phryġ'ĩ-á in order, ^t strengthening all the disciples.

24 ¶ ^u And a certain Jew named Ä-pōl'los, born at Āl-ěx-ān'drĩ-á, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ēph'ě-sũs.

25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being ^v fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, ^w knowing only the baptism of Jōhn.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Ä'quĩ-lá and Prĩs-çil'lá had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into Ä-chā'já, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, ^x helped them much which had believed through grace:

28 For he mightily convinced the Jewš, and that publickly, ^y shewing by the scriptures that Jē'şus ^z was Chrĩst.

CHAPTER 19.

¹ Paul at Ephesus. ⁶ Gift of the Holy Ghost. ¹¹ Special miracles. ²⁴ Uproof of the craftsmen. ³⁵ Address of the town clerk.

AND it came to pass, that, while ^a Ä-pōl'los was at Cör'inth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ēph'ě-sũs: and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Hō'lý Ghōst since ye believed? And they said unto him, ^b We have not so much as heard whether there be any Hō'lý Ghōst.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, ^c Unto Jōhn's baptism.

4 Then said Paul, ^d Jōhn verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Chrĩst Jē'şus.

5 When they heard this, they were baptized ^e in the name of the Lord Jē'şus.

6 And when Paul had ^f laid his hands upon them, the Hō'lý Ghōst came on them; and ^g they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 ^h And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things ⁱ concerning the kingdom of God.

9 But ^j when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil ^k of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tý-răn'nus.

10 And ¹this continued by the space of two years ; so that all they which dwelt in ²Ā'šjā heard the word of the Lord ³Jē'šus, both Jewš and Greeks.

11 And ⁴God wrought special miracles by the hands of ⁵Paḷ :

12 ⁶So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 ¶ ⁷Then certain of the vagabond Jewš, exorcists, ⁸took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord ⁹Jē'šus, saying, We adjure you by ¹⁰Jē'šus whom ¹¹Paḷ preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of ¹²one ¹³Sçē'vā, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, ¹⁴'Jē'šus I know, and ¹⁵Paḷ I know ; but who are ye ?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jewš and Greeks also dwelling at ¹⁶Ēph'ě-sūs ; and ¹⁷'fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord ¹⁸Jē'šus was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and ¹⁹'confessed, and shewed their deeds.

19 Many of them also which ²⁰'used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all ²¹men : and they counted the price of them, and found ²²it fifty thousand ²³pieces of silver.

20 ²⁴So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.

21 ¶ ²⁵After these things were ended, ²⁶Paḷ ²⁷purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through ²⁸Māç-ę-dō'nī-ā and ²⁹Ā-chā'jā, to go to ³⁰Jē-ru'sā-lēm, saying, After I have been there, ³¹'I must also see ³²Rōme.

22 So he sent into ³³Māç-ę-dō'nī-ā two of ³⁴them that ministered unto him, ³⁵Tī-mō'the-ūs and ³⁶'Ē-rās'tūs ; but he himself stayed in ³⁷Ā'šjā for a season.

23 And ³⁸the same time there arose no small stir about ³⁹that way.

24 For a certain ⁴⁰man named ⁴¹Dē-mē'trī-us, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for ⁴²Dī-ān'ā, brought ⁴³no small gain unto the craftsmen ;

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, ⁴⁴Sirs, ye know that by this craft ⁴⁵we have our wealth.

26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at ⁴⁶Ēph'ě-sūs, but almost throughout all ⁴⁷Ā'šjā, this ⁴⁸Paḷ hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that ⁴⁹they be no gods, which are made with hands :

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought ; but also that the temple of the great goddess ⁵⁰Dī-ān'ā should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all ⁵¹Ā'šjā and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard ⁵²these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, ⁵³'Great is ⁵⁴Dī-ān'ā of the ⁵⁵Ē-phē'šjānš.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion :

and having caught ¹Gā'jus and ²Ār-īs-tār'chus, men of ³Māç-ę-dō'nī-ā, ⁴Paḷ's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when ⁵Paḷ would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the chief of ⁶Ā'šjā, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring ⁷him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another : for the assembly was confused ; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew ⁸Āl-ěx-ān'dēr out of the multitude, the Jewš putting him forward. And ⁹Āl-ěx-ān'dēr beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, ¹⁰Great is ¹¹Dī-ān'ā of the ¹²Ē-phē'šjānš.

35 And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, ¹³Ye men of ¹⁴Ēph'ě-sūs, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the ¹⁵Ē-phē'šjānš is ¹⁶'a worshipper of the great goddess ¹⁷Dī-ān'ā, and of the ¹⁸image which fell down from ¹⁹Jū'pī-tēr ?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

38 Wherefore if ²⁰Dē-mē'trī-us, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, ²¹the law is open, and there are deputies : let them implead one another.

39 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a ²²lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

41 ²³And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

CHAPTER 20.

¹ Paul's further journeys. ⁷ Celebration of the Lord's supper. ¹⁰ Eutychus brought to life. ¹⁷ Charge to elders at Miletus. ²⁹ They are warned of false teachers.

AND after the uproar was ceased, ¹Paḷ called unto ²him the disciples, and embraced ³them, and departed for to go into ⁴Māç-ę-dō'nī-ā.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece,

3 And ⁵there abode three months. And ⁶when the Jewš laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into ⁷Sŷr'i-ā, he purposed to return through ⁸Māç-ę-dō'nī-ā.

4 And there accompanied him into ⁹Ā'šjā ¹⁰Sōp'a-tēr of ¹¹Bē-rē'ā ; and of the ¹²Thēs-sa-lō'nī-anš, ¹³Ār-īs-tār'-chus and ¹⁴Sē-cūn'dus ; and ¹⁵Gā'jus of ¹⁶Dēr'bē, and ¹⁷Tī-mō'the-ūs ; and of ¹⁸Ā'šjā, ¹⁹Tŷch'ī-cūs and ²⁰Trōph'-ī-mūs.

5 These going before tarried for us at ²¹Trō'ās.

6 And we sailed away from ²²Phī-līp'pī after ²³the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them ²⁴to ²⁵Trō'ās in five days ; where we abode seven days.

7 And upon ^jthe first day of the week, when the disciples came together ^kto break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights ^lin the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eū'ty-chus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and ^mfell on him, and embracing him said, ⁿ"Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Ās'sōs, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at Ās'sōs, we took him in, and came to Mīt-ŷ-lē'nē.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chī'os; and the next day we arrived at Sā'mos, and tarried at Trō-gŷ'lī-um; and the next day we came to Mi-lē'tus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ēph'ē-sūs, because he would not spend the time in Ā'šjā: for ^ohe hastid, if it were possible for him, ^pto be at Jē-ru'sā-lēm ^qthe day of Pēn'te-cōst.

17 ¶ And from Mi-lē'tus he sent to Ēph'ē-sūs, and ^rcalled the elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, ^sfrom the first day that I came into Ā'šjā, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews:

20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable ^tunto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house, 21 ^uTestifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, ^vrepentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

22 And now, behold, ^wI go bound in the spirit unto Jē-ru'sā-lēm, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

23 Save that ^xthe Hō'lŷ Ghōst witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions ^yabide me.

24 But ^znone of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, ^aso that I might finish my course with joy, ^band the ministry, ^cwhich I have received of the Lord Jē'sus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now, behold, ^dI know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am ^epure from the blood of all men.

31 Therefore watch, and remember, that ^kby the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and ^lto the word of his grace, which is able ^mto build you up, and to give you ⁿan inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

33 ^oI have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

36 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and ^sfell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, 38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

CHAPTER 21.

1 The journey to Jerusalem. 17 Paul's reception. 27 His arrest. 31 He is rescued by the chief captain.

AND it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Cō'ōs, and the day following unto Rhōdes, and from thence unto Pāt'a-rā:

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phē-nī'cjā, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered Çŷ'prus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Sŷr'ī-ā, and landed at Tŷre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: ^awho said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jē-ru'sā-lēm.

5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and ^bwe kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned ^chome again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tŷre, we came to Ptōl-ē-mā'is, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Çæs-a-rē'á: and we entered into the house of Phil'ip ^dthe evangelist, ^ewhich was one of the seven; and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, ^fwhich did prophesy.

10 And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Jū-dæ'á a certain prophet, named ^gĀg'-ā-būs.

11 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Hō'l'ý Ghōst, ^hSo shall the Jewš at Jē-ru'sā-lēm bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Ĝen'tileš.

12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jē-ru'sā-lēm.

13 Then Paul answered, ⁱWhat mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? ^jfor I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jē-ru'sā-lēm for the name of the Lord Jē'šus.

14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, ^kThe will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those days we took up our carriages, and went up to Jē-ru'sā-lēm.

16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Çæs-a-rē'á, and brought with them one Mnā'son of Çý'prus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 ^lAnd when we were come to Jē-ru'sā-lēm, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto ^mJāmeš; and all the elders were present.

19 And when he had saluted them, ⁿhe declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Ĝen'tileš ^oby his ministry.

20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jewš there are which believe; and they are all ^pzealous of the law:

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou ^qteachest all the Jewš which are among the Ĝen'tileš to forsake Mō'seš, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them;

24 Them take, and purify thyselves with them, and be at charges with them, that they may ^rshave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyselves also walkest orderly, and ^skeepest the law.

25 As touching the Ĝen'tileš which believe, ^twe have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them" entered into the temple, ^vto signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jewš which were of Ā'šjā, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and ^wlaid hands on him, 28 Crying out, Men of Īš'ra-el, help: This is the man, that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city ^uTrōph'ī-mūs an Ē-phē'sjān, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.

31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jē-ru'sā-lēm was in an uproar.

32 ^zWho immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and ^acommanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, ^bAway with him.

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 Art not thou that ¹Ē-gýp'tjān, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

39 But Paul said, ^cI am a man which am a Jew of Tār'sus, a city in Çi-lī'çjā, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, ^dsuffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hē'brew tongue, saying,

CHAPTER 22.

MEN, ^abrethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hē'brew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith,)

3 ^bI am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tār'sus, a city in Çi-lī'çjā, yet brought up in this city ^cat the feet of ^dGā-mā'lī-el, and taught ^eaccording to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and ^fwas zealous toward God, ^gas ye all are this day.

4 ^hAnd I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and ⁱall the estate of the elders: ^jfrom whom also I received letters unto ^kthe brethren, and went to Dā-mās'cus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jē-ru'sā-lēm, for to be punished.

6 And ^lit came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Dā-mās'cus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saḷ, Saḷ, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jē'şus of Nāz'a-rēth, whom thou persecutest.

9 And ^mthey that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Dā-mās'cus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Dā-mās'cus.

12 And ⁿone Ān-ā-nī'as, a devout man according to the law, ^ohaving a good report of all the ^pJews which dwelt there, 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saḷ, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, ^qThe God of our fathers ^rhath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and ^ssee ^tthat Just One, and ^ushouldest hear the voice of his mouth.

15 ^vFor thou shalt be his witness unto all men of ^wwhat thou hast seen and heard.

16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, ^xand wash away thy sins, ^ycalling on the name of the Lord.

17 And ^zit came to pass, that, when I was come again to Jē-ru'sā-lēm, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance;

18 And saw him saying unto me, ^aMake haste, and get thee quickly out of Jē-ru'sā-lēm: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: ^ffor I will send thee far hence unto the Ĝen'tīleş.

22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, ^gAway with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that ^hhe should live.

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air, 24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, ⁱIs it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Rō'man, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Rō'man.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Rō'man? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have ^lexamined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Rō'man, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and ^jcommanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

CHAPTER 23.

1 Paul before the council. 2 Ananias commands him to be smitten. 12 The conspiracy against Paul. 27 He is sent to Felix.

AND Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, ^aI have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the high priest Ān-ā-nī'as commanded them that stood by him ^bto smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and ^ccommandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, ^dI wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, ^eThou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sād'du-çeeş, and the other Phār'ī-seeş, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, ^fI am a Phār'ī-see, the son of a Phār'ī-see: ^gof the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Phār'ī-seeş and the Sād'du-çeeş: and the multitude was divided.

8 ^hFor the Sād'du-çeeş say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Phār'i-seeş confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Phār'i-seeş' part arose, and strove, saying, 'We find no evil in this man: but ^jif a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, ^klet us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And ^lthe night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jē-ru'sā-lēm, so must thou bear witness also at Rōme.

12 And when it was day, ^mcertain of the Jewş banded together, and bound themselves ⁿunder a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And ^owhen Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then ^pPaul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, ^qThe Jewş have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there ^rlie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Çæs-ā-rē'ā, and horsemen threescore and ten, and ^sspearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set

Paul on, and bring him safe unto Fē'līx the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Clāu'dī-us Lys'ias unto the most excellent governor Fē'līx sendeth greeting.

27 ^cThis man was taken of the Jewş, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Rō'man.

28 ^tAnd when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused ^uof questions of their law, ^vbut to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me how that the Jewş laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and ^wgave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Ān-tīp'ā-trīs.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:

33 Who, when they came to ^xÇæs-ā-rē'ā, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of ^yÇī-lī'çīā;

35 I ^zwill hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in ^aHēr'od's judgment hall.

CHAPTER 24.

¹ The charge of Tertullus. ¹⁰ Paul's defence. ²⁴ Felix and his wife hear of Christ. ²⁷ Judgment deferred.

AND after ^afive days ^bĀn-ā-nī'as the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tēr-tūl'lus, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tēr-tūl'lus began to accuse him, saying, 'Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Fē'līx, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 ^dFor we have found this man ¹a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jewş throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nāz'ā-rēneş:

6 ^eWho also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would ^fhave judged according to our law.

7 ^gBut the chief captain Lys'ias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 ^hCommanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years ²a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jê-ru'sâ-lêm ⁱfor to worship.

12 ^jAnd they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess unto thee, that after ^kthe way which they call heresy, so worship I the ^lGod of my fathers, believing all things which are written in ^mthe law and in the prophets:

15 And ⁿhave hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, ^othat there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And ^pherein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after many years ^qI came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 ^rWhereupon certain Jews from Ā'shîa found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

19 ^sWho ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council, 21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, ^tTouching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

22 And when Fê'lîx heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lÿs'jas the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and ^uthat he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Fê'lîx came with his wife Dru-sîl'lâ, which was a Jew'ess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Fê'lîx trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that ^vmoney should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 But after two years Pôr'cî-us Fês'tus came into Fê'lîx' room: and Fê'lîx, ^wwilling to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

CHAPTER 25.

² Paul before Festus. ⁸ His defence. ¹¹ He appeals to Cæsar. ²³ Sent to Agrippa.

NOW when Fês'tus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Çæs-a-rê'à to Jê-ru'sâ-lêm.

² Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him, ³ And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jê-ru'sâ-lêm, ^blaying wait in the way to kill him.

⁴ But Fês'tus answered, that Paul should be kept at Çæs-a-rê'à, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

⁵ Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, ^cif there be any wickedness in him.

⁶ And when he had tarried among them ¹more than ten days, he went down unto Çæs-a-rê'à; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.

⁷ And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jê-ru'sâ-lêm stood round about, ^dand laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove.

⁸ While he answered for himself, ^eNeither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Çæ'sar, have I offended any thing at all.

⁹ But Fês'tus, ^fwilling to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jê-ru'sâ-lêm, and there be judged of these things before me?

¹⁰ Then said Paul, I stand at Çæ'sar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

¹¹ For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. ^hI appeal unto Çæ'sar.

¹² Then Fês'tus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Çæ'sar? unto Çæ'sar shalt thou go.

¹³ And after certain days king Ā-grip'pâ and Bêr-nî'çê came unto Çæs-a-rê'à to salute Fês'tus.

¹⁴ And when they had been there many days, Fês'tus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, ⁱThere is a certain man left in bonds by Fê'lîx:

¹⁵ About whom, when I was at Jê-ru'sâ-lêm, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

¹⁶ To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Rô'mans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

¹⁷ Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

¹⁸ Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 ^jBut had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jē'sus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because ²I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jē-ru'sā-lēm, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the ³hearing of Au-gūs'tus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Çæ'sar.

22 Then ^kĀ-grīp'pā said unto Fēs'tus, I would also hear the man myself. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow, when Ā-grīp'pā was come, and Bēr-ni'çë, with ^l'great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Fēs'tus' commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Fēs'tus said, King Ā-grīp'pā, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jē-ru'sā-lēm, and also here, crying that he ought ^mnot to live any longer.

25 But when I found that ⁿhe had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Au-gūs'tus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Ā-grīp'pā, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

CHAPTER 26.

² Paul's defence before Agrippa. ¹² Tells of his conversion. ²⁴ Festus declares him to be mad. ³¹ Appeal to Rome granted.

THEN Ā-grīp'pā said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself :

2 I think myself happy, king Ā-grīp'pā, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews :

3 Especially because I know thee to be ^{1a}expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews : wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jē-ru'sā-lēm, know all the Jews ;

5 Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after ^bthe most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Phār'i-see.

6 And now I stand and am judged for the hope of ^cthe promise made of God unto our fathers :

7 Unto which promise ^dour twelve tribes, instantly serving God ²day and ^enight, ^ehope to come. For which hope's sake, king Ā-grīp'pā, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should ^fraise the dead ?

9 ^oI verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jē'sus of Nāz'a-rēth.

10 ^hWhich thing I also did in Jē-ru'sā-lēm : and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority ⁱfrom the chief priests ; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 ^jAnd I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme ; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 ^kWhereupon as I went to Dā-mās'cus with authority and commission from the chief priests, 13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hē'brew tongue, Saūl, Saūl, why persecutest thou me ? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord ? And he said, I am Jē'sus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet : for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, ^tto make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee ;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Ġēn'tiles, ^munto whom now I send thee, 18 ⁿTo open their eyes, and ^oto turn them from darkness to light, and ^pfrom the power of Sā'tan unto God, ^qthat they may receive forgiveness of sins, and ^rinheritance among them which are ^ssanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O king Ā-grīp'pā, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision :

20 But ^tshewed first unto them of Dā-mās'cus, and at Jē-ru'sā-lēm, and throughout all the coasts of Jū-dæ'a, and then to the Ġēn'tiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do ^wworks meet for repentance.

21 For these causes ^vthe Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those ^wwhich the prophets and ^xMō'se's did say should come :

23 ^yThat Christ should suffer, and ^zthat he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and ^ashould shew light unto the people, and to the Ġēn'tiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Fēs'tus said with a loud voice, Paul, ^bthou art beside thyself ; much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Fēs'tus ; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely : for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him ; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Ā-grīp'pā, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Ā-grīp'pā said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Chrīst'jan.

29 And Paul said, ^eI would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bēr-nī'çē, and they that sat with them;

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, ^dThis man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

32 Then said Ā-grīp'pā unto Fēs'tus, This man might have been set at liberty, ^eif he had not appealed unto Çæ'şar.

CHAPTER 27.

¹ Paul's voyage to Rome. ⁴¹ The shipwreck. ⁴⁴ The escape to Melita.

AND when ^ait was determined that we should sail into Īt'a-lŷ, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Jū'līus, a centurion of Āu-gūs'tus' band.

2 And entering into a ship of Ād-ra-mŷt'tī-um, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Ā'şjā; one ^bĀr-īs-tār'chus, a Măç-ę-dō'nī-an of Thēs-sa-lō-nī'cā, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sī'dōn. And Jū'līus ^ccourteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Çŷ'prus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Çī-lī'çjā and Pam-phŷl'ī-ā, we came to Mŷ'rā, a city of Lŷ'çjā.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Āl-ęx-ān'drī-ā sailing into Īt'a-lŷ; and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnī'dus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under ¹Crēte, over against Sāl-mō'nę;

8 And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lā-sē'ā.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because ²the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with ³hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain ⁴to Phē-nī'çē, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crēte, and lieth toward the south west and north west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crēte.

14 But not long after there ⁵arose against it a tempestuous wind, called ⁶Eū-rōc'lŷ-don.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Clāu'dā, we had much work to come by the boat:

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And the third day ^ewe cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crēte, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

23 ^fFor there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and ^gwhom I serve, 24 Saying, ^hFear not, Paul; thou must be brought ⁱbefore Çæ'şar: and, lo, God hath ^jgiven thee all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, sir, be of good cheer: ^kfor I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit ^lwe must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Ā'drī-ā, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship, 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat: for this is for your health: for ^mthere shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and ⁿgave thanks to God in presence of them all : and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen ^osouls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and ^pcast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land : but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had ^rtaken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, ^qthey ran the ship aground ; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel ^rwas to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, ^swilling to save Paul, kept them from their purpose ; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land :

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped ^tall safe to land.

CHAPTER 28.

1 Events at Melita. 16 The arrival at Rome. 23 Paul preaches there. 30 Continues through two years.

AND when they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called ^{1a}Mēl'i-tā.

2 And the ^bbarbarous people shewed us no little kindness : for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No ^cdoubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and ^dfelt no harm.

6 Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly : but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and ^esaid that he was a god.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Pūb'lī-us ; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Pūb'lī-us lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux : to whom Paul entered in, and ^fprayed, and ^glaid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed :

10 Who also honoured us with many ^bhonours ; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

11 And after three months we departed in a ship of Āl-ēx-ān'drī-ā, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Cās'tōr and Pōl'lux.

12 And landing at Sŷr'a-cūse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhē'gī-um : and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Pū-tē'o-lī :

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days : and so we went toward Rōme.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Āp'pī-i fō'rūm, and The three taverns : whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rōme, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard : but ⁱPaul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jewŷ together : and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, ^jthough I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet was I ^kdelivered prisoner from Jē-ru'sā-lēm into the hands of the Rō'manŷ.

18 Who, ^lwhen they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jewŷ spake against it, ^mI was constrained to appeal unto Cæ'sar ; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you : because that ⁿfor the hope of Īŷ'ra-el I am bound with ^othis chain.

21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Jū-dæ'ā concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee.

22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest : for as concerning this sect, we know that every where ^pit is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging ; ^qto whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jē'sus, ^rboth out of the law of Mō'seŷ, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And ^ssome believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Hō'lŷ Ghōst by Ē-ŷā'ias the prophet unto our fathers,

26 Saying, ^tGo unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand ; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive :

27 ^uFor the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent ^vunto the Gēn'tiles, and that they will hear it.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE ROMANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul's interest in the Romans. 10 His desire to visit them. 18 God angry with sin. 21 Sins of the Gentiles.

PAUL, a servant of Jē'sus Chrīst, ^acalled to be an apostle, ^bseparated unto the gospel of God,

2 (^cWhich he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)

3 Concerning his Son Jē'sus Chrīst our Lord, which was made of the seed of Dā'vid according to the flesh;

4 And ¹declared to be the Son of God with power, according ^dto the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead:

5 By whom ^ewe have received grace and apostleship, ²for obedience to the faith among all nations, ^ffor his name:

6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jē'sus Chrīst:

7 To all that be in Rōme, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

8 First, ^gI thank my God through Jē'sus Chrīst for you all, that ^hyour faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

9 For God is my witness, whom I serve ³with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;

10 Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey ⁱby the will of God to come unto you.

11 For I long to see you, that ^jI may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;

12 That is, that I may be comforted together ⁴with you by the mutual faith both of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that ^koftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but ^lwas let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit ⁵among you also, even as among other Gēn'tiles.

14 ^mI am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Bār-bā'rī-ānš; both to the wise, and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rōme also.

16 For ⁿI am not ashamed of the gospel of Chrīst: for ^oit is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 For ^ptherein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, ^qThe just shall live by faith.

18 ^rFor the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, ^swho hold the truth in unrighteousness;

19 Because ^tthat which may be known of God is manifest ⁶in them; for ^uGod hath shewed it unto them.

20 For ^vthe invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; ⁷so that they are without excuse:

21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, ^wneither were thankful; but ^xbecame vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 ^yProfessing themselves to be wise, they became fools,

23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible ^zGod into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

24 ^aWherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, ^bto dishonour their own bodies ^cbetween themselves:

25 Who changed ^dthe truth of God ^einto a lie, and worshipped and served the creature ⁸more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto ^fvile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

28 And even as they did not like ⁹to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to ¹⁰a reprobate mind, to do those things ^gwhich are not convenient;

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, spiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 Without understanding, covenantbreakers,
¹¹without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful :
 32 Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but ¹²have pleasure in them that do them.

CHAPTER 2.

1 God's judgment is impartial. 9 The law is for Jew and Gentile.

THEREFORE thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest : for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself ; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is ^aaccording to truth against them which commit such things.

3 And ^bthinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God ?

4 Or despisest thou ^cthe riches of his goodness and forbearance and ^dlongsuffering ; ^enot knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance ?

5 But after thy hardness and impenitent heart ^ftreasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God ;

6 ^gWho will render to every man according to his deeds :

7 ^hTo them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life :

8 But ⁱunto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath,

9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew ^jfirst, and also of the ¹Gēn'tile ;

10 ^kBut glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the ²Gēn'tile :

11 For there is ^lno respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law : and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law ;

13 (For ^mnot the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

14 For when the Gēn'tiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves :

15 Which shew the work of the law written in 'which hast the form of knowledge and of the 21 ^uThou therefore which teachest another, teach-est thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, ^vdost thou commit sacrilege?

23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gēn'tiles through you, as it is ^wwritten.

25 ^zFor circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law : but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

26 Therefore ^yif the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, ^zjudge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?

28 For ^ahe is not a Jew, which is one outwardly ; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh :

29 But he is a Jew, ^bwhich is one inwardly ; and ^ccircumcision is that of the heart, ^din the spirit, and not in the letter ; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

CHAPTER 3.

1 The Jews' prerogative. 20 Flesh not justified by law. 28 All justified by faith.

WHAT advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

2 Much every way : chiefly, because that ^aunto them were committed the oracles of God.

3 For what if ^bsome did not believe? ^cshall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?

4 ^dGod forbid : yea, let ^eGod be true, but ^fevery man a liar ; as it is written, ^gThat thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

5 But if our unrighteousness commend the right-ousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (^hI speak as a man)

6 God forbid : for then ⁱhow shall God judge the world?

7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory ; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) ^jLet us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

9 What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise : for we have before ^{1k}proved both Jews and Gēn'tiles, that ^lthey are all under sin ;

10 As it is written, ^mThere is none righteous, no, not one :

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable : there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

13 ⁿTheir throat is an open sepulchre ; with their tongues they have used deceit ; ^othe poison of asps is under their lips :

14 ^pWhose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness :

15 ^qTheir feet are swift to shed blood :

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways :

17 And the way of peace have they not known :

18 ^rThere is no fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law : that ^severy mouth may be stopped, and ^tall the world may become ²guilty before God.

20 Therefore ^uby the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight : for ^vby the law is the knowledge of sin.

21 But now ^wthe righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law ^xand the prophets ;

22 Even the righteousness of God which is ^yby faith of Jē'sus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe : for ^zthere is no difference :

23 For ^aall have sinned, and come short of the glory of God ;

24 Being justified freely ^bby his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jē'sus :

25 Whom God hath ³set forth ^cto be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the ⁴remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God ;

26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness : that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jē'sus.

27 ^dWhere is boasting then ? It is excluded. By what law ? of works ? Nay : but by the law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude ^ethat a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

29 Is he the God of the Jews only ? is he not also of the Gēn'tileš ? Yes, of the Gēn'tileš also :

30 Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make void the law through faith ? God forbid : yea, we establish the law.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Abraham justified by faith. 13 The promise made through faith. 24 Our faith shall be imputed to us for righteousness.

WHAT shall we say then that Ā'brā-hām our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found ?

2 For if Ā'brā-hām were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory ; but not before God.

3 For what saith the scripture ? ^aĀ'brā-hām believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

4 Now ^bto him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth ^cthe ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Even as Dā'vid also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God ^aimputeth righteousness without works, 7 Saying, ^eBlessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also ? for we say that faith was reckoned to Ā'brā-hām for righteousness.

10 How was it then reckoned ? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision ? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And ^fhe received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised : that ^ghe might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised ; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also :

12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Ā'brā-hām, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise, that he should be the ^hheir of the world, was not to Ā'brā-hām, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For ⁱif they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect :

15 Because the law worketh wrath : for where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be ^jby grace ; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed ; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Ā'brā-hām ; ^kwho is the father of us all,

17 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) ^lbefore him whom he believed, even God, ^lwho quickeneth the dead, and calleth those ^mthings which be not as though they were.

18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, ⁿSo shall thy seed be.

19 And being not weak in faith, ^ohe considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sā'rah's womb :

20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief ; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God ;

21 And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now ^pit was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him ;

24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe ^qon him that raised up Jē'sus our Lord from the dead ;

25 ^rWho was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Justification by faith. 12 Sin through Adam. 17 Life through Christ.

THEREFORE being justified by faith, we have ^apeace with God through our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst :

2 ^bBy whom also we have access by faith into this grace ^cwherein we stand, ^dand rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only so, but ^ewe glory in tribulations also : knowing that tribulation worketh patience ;

4 And patience, experience ; and experience, hope :

5 ^fAnd hope maketh not ashamed ; ^gbecause the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Hō'ly Ghōst which is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, ^hin due time Chrīst died for the ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die : yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But ⁱGod commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Chrīst died for us.

9 Much more then, being now justified ^jby his blood, we shall be saved ^kfrom wrath through him.

10 For if, when we were enemies, ^lwe were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved ^mby his life.

11 And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, by whom we have now received the ⁿatonement.

12 Wherefore, as ^oby one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin ; and so death passed upon all men, ^pfor that all have sinned :

13 (For until the law sin was in the world : but ^qsin is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless death reigned from Ād'ām to Mō'ses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Ād'ām's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.

15 But not as the offence, so also ^ris the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, ^swhich is by one man, Jē'sus Chrīst, hath abounded ^tunto many.

16 And not as ^uit was by one that sinned, so ^vis the gift : for the judgment ^wwas by one to condemnation, but the free gift ^xis of many offences unto justification.

17 For if ^yby one man's offence death reigned by one ; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jē'sus Chrīst.)

18 Therefore as ^zby the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation ; even so ^{aa}by the righteousness of one the free gift came ^{ab}upon all men unto justification of life.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

20 Moreover ^{ac}the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much ^{ad}more abound :

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jē'sus Chrīst our Lord.

CHAPTER 6.

1 We may not live in sin. 12 Let not sin reign. 23 Death the wages of sin.

WHAT shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid. How shall we, that are ^adead to sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that ^bso many of us as ^cwere baptized into Jē'sus Chrīst ^dwere baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we are ^eburied with him by baptism into death : that ^flike as Chrīst was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, ^geven so we also should walk in newness of life.

5 ^hFor if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also ⁱin the likeness of his resurrection :

6 Knowing this, that ^jour old man is crucified with him, that ^kthe body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For he that is dead is ^lfreed from sin.

8 Now ^mif we be dead with Chrīst, we believe that we shall also live with him :

9 Knowing that ⁿChrīst being raised from the dead dieth no more ; death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, he died unto sin once : but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but ^oalive unto God through Jē'sus Chrīst our Lord.

12 ^pLet not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yield ye your members ^qas instruments of unrighteousness unto sin : but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members ^ras instruments of righteousness unto God.

14 For ^ssin shall not have dominion over you : for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? shall we sin, ^tbecause we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey ; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine ^uwhich was delivered you.

18 Being then ^vmade free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

19 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh : for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity ; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free ^wfrom righteousness.

21 What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things ^xis death.

22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

23 For ^athe wages of sin is death; but ^rthe gift of God is eternal life through Jē'sus Chrīst our Lord.

CHAPTER 7.

¹ Limit of the law. ¹² It is holy and just.

KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For ^athe woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then ^bif, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become ^cdead to the law by the body of Chrīst; that ye should be ^dmarried to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the ¹motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members ^eto bring forth fruit unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, ²that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve ^fin newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, ^gI had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known ³lust, except the law had said, ^hThou shalt not covet.

8 But ⁱsin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For ^jwithout the law sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment, ^kwhich was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore ^lthe law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, ^msold under sin.

15 For that which I do I ⁴allow not: for ⁿwhat I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that ^oin me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

19 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For I ^pdelight in the law of God after ^athe inward man:

23 But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from ⁵the body of this death?

25 I thank God through Jē'sus Chrīst our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

CHAPTER 8.

¹ The law of the Spirit. ¹⁷ God's children. ²⁶ The Spirit helps infirmity. ²⁸ The Christian's hope.

THERE is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Chrīst Jē'sus, who ^awalk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For ^bthe law of ^cthe Spirit of life in Chrīst Jē'sus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 For ^dwhat the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and ¹for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit ^ethe things of the Spirit.

6 For ²to be carnally minded is death; but ³to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

7 Because ⁴the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that ^fthe Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not ^athe Spirit of Chrīst, he is none of his.

10 And if Chrīst be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jē'sus from the dead dwell in you, ^hhe that raised up Chrīst from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies ⁵by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For ⁱif ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For ^jye have not received the spirit of bondage again ^kto fear ; but ye have received the ^lSpirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Āb'ba, Father.

16 ^mThe Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God :

17 And if children, then heirs ; ⁿheirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon that ^othe sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For ^pthe earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the ^qmanifestation of the sons of God.

20 For ^rthe creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope, 21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that ^sthe whole creation ^tgroaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have ^uthe firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, ^vwaiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

24 For we are saved by hope : but ^whope that is seen is not hope : for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for ?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities : for ^xwe know not what we should pray for as we ought : but ^ythe Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And ^zhe that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, ^abecause he maketh intercession for the saints ^baccording to the will of God.

28 And we know that ^call things work together for good to them that love God, to them ^dwho are the called according to his purpose.

29 For whom ^ehe did foreknow, ^fhe also did predestinate ^gto be conformed to the image of his Son, ^hthat he might be the firstborn among many brethren.

30 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also ⁱcalled : and whom he called, them he also justified : ^jand whom he justified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things ? If God be for us, who can be against us ?

32 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things ?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect ? ^k*It is* God that justifieth.

34 Who is he that condemneth ? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, ^lwho also maketh intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword ?

CHAPTER 9.

1 Paul's sorrow for the Jews. 14 The sovereignty of God. 18 Mercy upon whom he will. 24 On the calling of Jew and Gentile.

I SAY the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Hō'l'y Ghōst,

2 That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

3 For ^aI could wish that myself were ^laccursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh :

4 ^bWho are Īs'ra-el-ītes ; ^cto whom pertaineth the adoption, and ^dthe glory, and the ^ecovenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and ^fthe promises ;

5 Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, ^gwho is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

6 Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For ^hthey are not all Īs'ra-el, which are of Īs'ra-el :

7 ⁱNeither, because they are the seed of Ā'brā'hām, are they all children : but, In ^jĪ'saac shall thy seed be called.

8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God : but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

9 For this is the word of promise, ^kAt this time will I come, and Sā'rah shall have a son.

10 And not only this ; but when ^lRē-bēc'cā also had conceived by one, even by our father Ī'saac ;

11 (For the children being ^mnot yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth ;)

12 It was said unto her, The ⁿelder shall serve the ^oyounger.

13 As it is written, ^pJā'cōb have I loved, but Ē'sāu have I hated.

14 What shall we say then ? ^q*Is there* unrighteousness with God ? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Mō'sēs, ^rI will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

16 ^sSo then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

17 For the scripture saith unto Phā'raōh, ^tEven for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For ^rwho hath resisted his will?

20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that ^sreplieth against God? ^tShall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the ^upotter power over the clay; of the same lump to make ^vone vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering ^wthe vessels of wrath ⁶fitted to destruction:

23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory,

24 Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gēn'tileš?

25 As he saith also in Ō'sēe, ^xI will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.

26 ^yAnd it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God.

27 Ē-šā'ias also crieth concerning Īš'ra-el, ^zThough the number of the children of Īš'ra-el be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:

28 For he will finish ⁷the work, and cut it short in righteousness: ^abecause a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

29 And as Ē-šā'ias said before, ^bExcept the Lord of Sāb'a-ōth had left us a seed, ^cwe had been as Sōd'om-ā, and been made like unto Gō-mōr'rhā.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gēn'tileš, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith.

31 But Īš'ra-el, which followed after the law of righteousness, ^dhath not attained to the law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For ^ethey stumbled at that stumblingstone;

33 As it is written, ^fBehold, I lay in Sī'ōn a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ⁸ashamed.

CHAPTER 10.

⁵ Of the law and faith. ¹¹ Salvation is open to all believers.

BRETHREN, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Īš'ra-el is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record ^athat they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of ^bGod's righteousness, and going about to establish their own ^crighteousness, have not ^dsubmitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

4 For ^eChrist is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

5 For Mō'seš describeth the righteousness which is of the law, ^fThat the man which doeth those things shall live by them.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, ⁹Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring ^hChrist down from above:)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)

8 But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;

9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jē'sus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the scripture saith, ⁱWhosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

12 For ^kthere is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for ^lthe same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 ⁿFor whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without ^oa preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, ^pHow beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But ^qthey have not all obeyed the gospel. For Ē-šā'ias saith, ^rLord, who hath believed ¹our ²report?

17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes ^rerily, ^stheir sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Īš'ra-el know? First Mō'seš saith, ^tI will provoke you to jealousy by ^t in that are no people, and by a ^ufoolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Ē-šā'ias is very bold, and saith. ^vI was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after ^v.

21 But to Īš'ra-el he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

CHAPTER 11.

¹ Israel not cast off. ¹⁸ Gentiles may not boast. ²⁶ Hope of Israel's conversion. ³³ God's judgments.

I SAY then, ^aHath God cast away his people? God forbid. For ^bI also am an Īš'ra-el-ite, of the seed of Ā'brā-hām, of the tribe of Bēn'ja-min.

2 God hath not cast away his people which ^che foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith ¹of Ē-lī'as? how he maketh intercession to God against Īš'ra-el, saying,

3 ^dLord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Bā'al.

5 ^eEven so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And ^fif by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? ^gĪṣ'ra-el hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the ^helection hath obtained it, and the rest were ²ⁱblinded

8 (According as it is written, ⁱGod hath given them the spirit of ³slumber, ^keyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day.

9 And Dā'vid saith, ^lLet their table be made a snare and a trap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompence unto them:

¹⁰Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they could fall? God forbid: but rather ⁿthrough their fall salvation is come unto the Ĝen'tileṣ, for to provoke them to jealousy.

Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the ⁴diminishing of them the riches of the Ĝen'tileṣ; how much more their ^ofulness?

13 For I speak to you Ĝen'tileṣ, inasmuch as ^pI am the ^hapostle of the Ĝen'tileṣ, I magnify mine office:

14 ^qIf by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and ^amight save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For if ^rthe firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

17 And if ^ssome of the branches be broken off, ^tand they, being a wild olive tree, wert grafted in ⁵among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree;

18 ^uBoast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 ^vThou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that ⁶might be grafted in.

20 Well; ^wbecause of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. ⁷Be not highminded, but ^wfear:

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, ^xif thou continue in his goodness: otherwise ^ythou also shalt be cut off.

23 And they also, ^zif they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again.

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that ⁶blindness in part is happened to Īṣ'ra-el, ^auntil the fulness of the Ĝen'tileṣ be come in.

26 And so ^ball Īṣ'ra-el shall be saved: as it is written, ^cThere shall come out of Sī'ōn the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jā'qob:

27 ^dFor this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are ^ebeloved for the fathers' sakes.

29 For the gifts and calling of God are ^fwithout repentance.

30 For as ye in times past have not ⁷believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:

31 Even so have these also now not ⁸believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

32 For God hath ⁹concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

34 ⁹For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?

35 Or ^hwho hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

36 For ⁱof him, and through him, and to him, are all things: ^jto ¹⁰whom be glory for ever. Amen.

1 Of God's mercies. 6 Attention to one's calling. 9 On love and other duties. 19 Revenge forbidden.

I BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye ^apresent your bodies ^ba living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

2 And ^cbe not conformed to this world: but ^dbe ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may ^eprove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think ¹soberly, according as God hath dealt ^fto every man the measure of faith.

4 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

5 So ⁹we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

6 ^hHaving then gifts differing ⁱaccording to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or ^jhe that teacheth, on teaching;

8 Or ^khe that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that ²giveth, let him do it ³with simplicity; ^lhe that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

9 Let love be without dissimulation. ^m Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

10 Be kindly affectioned one to another ⁴ with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another;

11 Not slothful in business; ⁿ fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

12 ^o Rejoicing in hope; ^p patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer;

13 ^q Distributing to the necessity of saints; ^r given to hospitality.

14 ^s Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.

15 Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

16 Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but ⁵ condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

17 Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

19 Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, ^t Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 ^u Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

21 ^v Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Of duties to rulers. 8 Love the fulfilment of the law. 11 Works of darkness.

LET every soul ^a be subject unto the higher powers. For ^b there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ¹ ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 ^c For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? ^d do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore ^e ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

6 For for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 ^f Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; ^g fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for ^h he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, ⁱ Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time ^j to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and ^k let us put on the armour of light.

13 ^l Let us walk ² honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, ^m not in strife and envying.

14 But ⁿ put ye on the Lord Jē'sus Christ, and ^o make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

CHAPTER 14.

1 On judging one another. 13 Take heed against giving offence.

HIM that ^a is weak in the faith receive ye, but ¹ not to doubtful disputations.

2 For one believeth that he ^b may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and ^c let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.

4 ^d Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.

5 ^e One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be ² fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that ³ regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for ^f he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For ^g none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For ^h to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be ⁱ Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for ^j we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, ^k As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

12 So then ^l every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that ^m no man put a stumbling-block or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jē'sus, ⁿ that there is nothing ⁴ unclean of itself: but ^o to him that esteemeth any thing to be ⁵ unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not ⁶ charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

16 ^p Let not then your good be evil spoken of :

17 ^q For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink ; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Hō'lŷ Ghōst.

18 For he that in these things serveth Chrīst ^r is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

19 ^s Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith ^t one may edify another.

20 For meat destroy not the work of God. ^u All things indeed are pure ; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 Hast thou faith ? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 And he that ^v doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith : for ^w whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

CHAPTER 15.

¹ Patience with one another. ³ Christ the exemplar. ²⁸ A promise to visit Spain.

WE ^a then that are strong ought to bear the ^b infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 ^c Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good ^d to edification.

3 For even Chrīst pleased not himself ; but, as it is written, ^e The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

4 For ^f whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

5 ^g Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another ^h according to Chrīst Jē'sus :

6 That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

7 Wherefore receive ye one another, ⁱ as Chrīst also received us to the glory of God.

8 Now I say that ^j Jē'sus Chrīst was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, ^k to confirm the promises made unto the fathers :

9 And ^l that the Ĝen'tileŷ might glorify God for his mercy ; as it is written, ^m For this cause I will confess to thee among the Ĝen'tileŷ, and sing unto thy name.

10 And again he saith, ⁿ Rejoice, ye Ĝen'tileŷ, with his people.

11 And again, ^o Praise the Lord, all ye Ĝen'tileŷ ; and laud him, all ye people.

12 And again, Ē-ŷā'ias saith, ^p There shall be a root of Jēs'se, and he that shall rise to reign over the Ĝen'tileŷ ; in him shall the Ĝen'tileŷ trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Hō'lŷ Ghōst.

brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, ^a filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, ^b because of the grace that is given to me of God,

16 That ^c I should be the minister of Jē'sus Chrīst to the Ĝen'tileŷ, ministering the gospel of God, that the ^d offering up of the Ĝen'tileŷ might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Hō'lŷ Ghōst.

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jē'sus Chrīst in ^e those things which pertain to God.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things ^f which Chrīst hath not wrought by me, ^g to make the Ĝen'tileŷ obedient, by word and deed, 19 ^h Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God ; so that from Jē-ru'sā-lēm, and round about unto Īl-lŷr'i-cūm, I have fully preached the gospel of Chrīst.

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Chrīst was named, ⁱ lest I should build upon another man's foundation :

21 But as it is written, ^j To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see : and they that have not heard shall understand.

22 For which cause also ^k I have been ^l much hindered from coming to you.

23 But now having no more place in these parts, and ^m having a great desire these many years to come unto you ;

24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spāin, I will come to you : for I trust to see you in my journey, ⁿ and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled ^o with your company.

25 But now ^p I go unto Jē-ru'sā-lēm to minister unto the saints.

26 For ^q it hath pleased them of Māç-ę-dō'nī-ā and Ā-chā'ia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jē-ru'sā-lēm.

27 It hath pleased them verily ; and their debtors they are. For if the Ĝen'tileŷ have been made partakers of their spiritual things, ^r their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them ^s this fruit, I will come by you into Spāin.

29 ^t And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the ^u fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Chrīst.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst's sake, and ^v for the love of the Spirit, ^w that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me ;

31 ^x That I may be delivered from them that ^y do not believe in Jū-dæ'ā ; and that my service which I have for Jē-ru'sā-lēm may be accepted of the saints ;

32 That I may come unto you with joy ^z by the will of God, and may with you be ^{aa} refreshed.

33 Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

CHAPTER 16.

1 Paul's concluding advice. 3 Salutations. 17 Exhortation to unity.

I COMMEND unto you Phē'bē our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at ^aÇēn'chrē-ā :

2 ^bThat ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you : for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also.

3 Greet ^cPrīs-çil'lā and ^dĀ'quī-lā my helpers in Christ Jē'sus :

4 Who have for my life laid down their own necks : unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Ġēn'tileş.

5 Likewise greet ^dthe church that is in their house. Salute my wellbeloved ^eĒ-pæn'ē-tus, who is ^ethe firstfruits of ^fĀ-chā'jā unto Christ.

6 Greet Mā'rŷ, who ^fbestowed much labour on us.

7 Salute ^gĀn-drō-nī'cus and ^gJū'njā, my kinsmen, and my fellowprisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also ^gwere in Christ before me.

8 Greet ^hĀm'plī-as my beloved in the Lord.

9 Salute ^hŪr'bane, our helper in Christ, and ^hStā'-chŷs my beloved.

10 Salute ⁱĀ-pēl'lēş approved in Christ. Salute them which are of ⁱĀr-īs-tō-bū'lus' ⁱhousehold.

11 Salute ^jHē-rō'dī-on my kinsman. Greet them that be of the ^jhousehold of ^jNār-çis'sus, which are in the Lord.

12 Salute ^kTrŷ-phē'nā and ^kTrŷ-phō'sā, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved ^kPēr'sis, which laboured much in the Lord.

13 Salute ^lRŷ'fus ^lchosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

14 Salute ^mĀ-sŷn'crī-tus, ^mPhlē'gon, ^mHēr'mas, ^mPāt'-rō-bās, ^mHēr'mēş, and the brethren which are with them.

CHAPTER 1.

1 The greeting. 10 Exhortation to unity. 18 On preaching of the cross.

PAUL, called to be an apostle of Jē'sus Christ through the will of God, and ^aSōs'the-nēş our brother,

2 Unto the church of God which is at Cōr'inth, to them that ^bare sanctified in Christ Jē'sus, ^ccalled to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jē'sus Christ ^dour Lord, ^eboth theirs and ours :

3 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'sus Christ.

4 I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jē'sus Christ ;

5 That in every thing ye are enriched by him, ^fin all utterance, and ^fin all knowledge ;

6 Even as ^gthe testimony of Christ was confirmed in you :

7 So that ye come behind in no gift ; waiting for the ^hcoming of our Lord Jē'sus Christ :

8 ^hWho shall also confirm you unto the end, ⁱthat ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jē'sus Christ.

9 ^jGod is faithful, by whom ye were called unto ^kthe fellowship of his Son Jē'sus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jē'sus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and ^lthat there be no ^ldivisions among you ; but ^lthat ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them ^mwhich are of the house of Chlō'ē, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, ⁿthat every one of you saith, I am of Paul ; and I of ⁿĀ-pōl'lōs ; and I of ⁿÇē'-phas ; and I of Christ.

13 ^oIs Christ divided ? was Paul crucified for you ? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul ?

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but ^pCrīs'pus ^pand Gā'ŷus ;

15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household of ^rStēph'a-nās: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 ^sFor Chrīst sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of ³words, lest the cross of Chrīst should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is to ^tthem that perish ^ufoolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the ^vpower of God.

19 For it is written, ^wI will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 ^xWhere is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath ^ynot God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

21 ^zFor after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 For the ^aJew̄s require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

23 But we preach Chrīst crucified, ^bunto the Jew̄s a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness;

24 But unto them which are called, both Jew̄s and Greeks, Chrīst ^cthe power of God, and ^dthe wisdom of God.

25 ^eBecause the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that ^fnot many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:

27 But ^gGod hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, ^hyea, and ⁱthings which are not, ^jto bring to nought things that are:

29 That no flesh should glory in his presence.

30 But of him are ye in Chrīst Jē̄sus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

31 That, according as it is written, ^kHe that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

3 And ^cI was with you ^din weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

5 That your faith should not ^gstand in the wisdom of men, but ^hin the power of God.

are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, ^hwhich God ordained before the world unto our glory:

8 ⁱWhich none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, ^jEye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But ^kGod hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, ^lsave the spirit of man which is in him? ^meven so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but ⁿthe spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 ^oWhich things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Hō'lŷ Ghōst teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 ^pBut the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: ^qneither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 ^rBut he that is spiritual ³judgeth all things, yet he himself is ⁴judged of no man.

16 ^sFor who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he ⁵may instruct him? ^tBut we have the mind of Chrīst.

CHAPTER 3.

² Milk is fit for children. ¹¹ Christ the only foundation. ¹⁶ Men are the temples of God.

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Chrīst.

2 I have fed you with ^amilk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and ¹divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk ²as men?

4 For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of ^Āpōl'lōs; are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul, and who is ^Āpōl'lōs, but ministers by whom ye believed, ^beven as the Lord gave to every man?

6 ^cI have planted, ^d^Āpōl'lōs watered; but God ^egave the increase.

7 So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: ^fand every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

9 For ^gwe are labourers together with God: ye are God's ³husbandry, ye are ^hGod's building.

10 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid ⁱthe foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But ^jlet every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

11 For other foundation can no man lay than ^kthat is laid, which is Jē'sus Chrīst.

12 Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble ;

13 Every man's work shall be made manifest : for the day ^lshall declare it, because it ⁴shall be revealed by fire ; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss : but he himself shall be saved ; ^myet so as by fire.

16 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you ?

17 If any man ⁵defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy ; for the ⁿtemple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, ^oHe taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again, ^pThe Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therefore let no man glory in men. For ^qall things are yours ;

22 Whether Paul, or Ā-pōl'lōs, or Çē'phas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come ; all are yours ;

23 And ^rye are Chrīst's ; ^sand Chrīst is God's.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Of ministers and stewards. 10 Hardships of the apostles.

LET a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Chrīst, ^aand stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's ¹judgment : yea, I judge not mine own self.

4 For I know nothing by myself ; yet am I not hereby justified : but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 ^bTherefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts : and ^cthen shall every man have praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Ā-pōl'lōs for your sakes ; ^dthat ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who ²maketh thee to differ from another ?

15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Chrīst, yet have ye not many fathers : for ⁿin Chrīst Jē'sus I have begotten you through the gospel.

16 Wherefore I beseech you, ^obe ye followers of me.

17 For this cause have I sent unto you Ti-mō'-the-ūs, ^pwho is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Chrīst, as I teach every where in every church.

18 Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

19 ^qBut I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

20 For ^rthe kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What will ye ? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness ?

CHAPTER 5.

1 The shame of fornication. 7 The old leaven to be purged out.

IT is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as ^anamed among the Gēn'tīleſ, ^bthat one should have his ^cfather's wife.

2 And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

3 ^dFor I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have ¹judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed,

4 In the name of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, ^ewith the power of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst,

5 ^fTo deliver such an one unto Sā'tan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jē'sus.

6 Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that ^aa little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even ^hChrist our ⁱpassover ²is sacrificed for us:

8 Therefore ^jlet us keep ³the feast, ^knot with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle ^lnot to company with fornicators:

10 Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go ^mout of the world.

11 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, ⁿif any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one ^ono not to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge ^pthem also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within?

13 But them that are without God ^qjudgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

CHAPTER 6.

¹ Against going to law. ⁹ Against sensuality. ¹⁹ Our bodies are temples of the Holy Ghost.

DARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?

2 Do ye not know that ^athe saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall ^bjudge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?

4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. ^cWhy do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, ^dand that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that ^ethe unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, 10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were some of you: ^fbut ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jē'sus, and by the Spirit of our God.

13 Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but ^hfor the Lord; ⁱand the Lord for the body.

14 And ^jGod hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us ^kby his own power.

15 Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.

16 What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for ^ltwo, saith he, shall be one flesh.

17 ^mBut he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

18 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth ⁿagainst his own body.

19 What? ^oknow ye not that your body is the temple of the Hō'ly Ghōst which is in you, which ye have of God, ^pand ye are not your own?

20 For ^qye are bought with a price: therefore ^rglorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

CHAPTER 7.

² Of marriage. ³ Husband and wife. ³⁵ Marrying and abstaining.

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, ^ato avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 ^bLet the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that ^cSā'tan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this by permission, ^dand not of commandment.

7 For ^eI would that all men were ^feven as I myself. But ^gevery man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, ^hIt is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But ⁱif they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, ^jLet not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else ^kwere your children unclean; but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us ^lto peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt ^lsave thy husband? or ²how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And ^mso ordain I in all churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? ⁿlet him not be circumcised.

19 ^oCircumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but ^pthe keeping of the commandments of God.

20 ^qLet every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 ^rArt thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be ^smade free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's ³freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is ^tChrist's servant.

23 ^uYe are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins ^vI have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one ^wthat hath obtained mercy of the Lord ^xto be faithful.

26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present ⁴distress, I say, that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But ^ythis I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

31 And they that use this world, as not ^zabusing it: for ^athe fashion of this world passeth away.

32 But I would have you without carefulness. ^bHe that is unmarried careth for the things ⁵that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman ^ccareth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

38 ^dSo then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.

39 ^eThe wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Of idolatrous meats. 8 On Christian liberty.

NOW ^aas touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have ^bknowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

2 And ^cif any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, ^dthe same is known of him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that ^ean idol is nothing in the world, ^fand that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that are ^gcalled gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,)

6 But ^hto us there is but one God, the Father, ⁱof whom are all things, and we ¹in him; and ^jone Lord Jē'sus Christ, ^kby whom are all things, and we by him.

7 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.

8 But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, ²are we the better; neither, if we eat not, ³are we the worse.

9 But take heed lest by any means this ⁴liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be ⁵emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

12 But 'when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

13 Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

CHAPTER 9.

¹ Paul's individual liberty. ¹⁷ His recompence for ministry.

^a AM I not an apostle? am I not free? have ^b I not seen Jē'sus Christ our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord?

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for ^c the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine answer to them that do examine me is this,

4 ^d Have we not power to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a ¹ wife, as well as other apostles, and as ^e the brethren of the Lord, and ^f Cē'phas?

6 Or I only and Bār'na-bās, ^g have not we power to forbear working?

7 Who ^h goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who ⁱ planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who ^j feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

9 For it is written in the law of Mō'seš, ^k Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that ^l he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.

11 ^m If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? ⁿ Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 ^o Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things ² live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

14 Even so ^p hath the Lord ordained ^q that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

15 But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.

16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, ^r a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

18 What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

22 ^x To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? ^y So run, that ye may obtain.

25 And every man that ^z striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we ^a an incorruptible.

26 I therefore so run, ^b not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

27 But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be ^c a castaway.

CHAPTER 10.

¹ Against lust and idolatry. ²⁴ Of regard for brethren. ³¹ Do all for God's glory.

MOREOVER, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under ^a the cloud, and all passed through ^b the sea;

2 And were all baptized unto Mō'seš in the cloud and in the sea;

3 And did all eat the same ^c spiritual meat;

4 And did all drink the same ^d spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that ¹ followed them: and that Rock was Christ.

5 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these things were ² our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.

7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, ^e The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and ^f fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

9 Neither let us tempt Christ, as ^g some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents.

10 Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened unto them for ³ ensamples: and ^h they are written for our admonition, ⁱ upon whom the ends of the world are come.

12 Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

13 There hath no temptation taken you but such as is ⁴ common to man: but God is faithful, ^j who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able ; but will with the temptation also ^k make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.

15 I speak as to wise men ; judge ye what I say.

16 ^lThe cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ ? ^mThe bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ ?

17 For ⁿwe being many are one bread, and one body : for we are all partakers of that one bread.

18 Behold ^oĪs'ra-el after the flesh : ^pare not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar ?

19 What say I then ? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing ?

20 But I say, that the things which the Ĝën'tiles ^qsacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God : and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

21 ^rYe cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and ^sthe cup of devils : ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.

22 Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy ? ^tare we stronger than he ?

23 All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient : all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.

24 ^uLet no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.

25 ^vWhatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake :

26 For the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

27 If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go ; ^wwhatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not ^xfor his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake : for ^ythe earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof :

29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other : for ^zwhy is my liberty judged of another man's conscience ?

30 For if I by ⁵grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks ?

31 ^aWhether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

32 Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the ⁶Ĝën'tiles, nor to the church of God :

33 Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

BE ^aye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.

3 But I would have you know, that ^cthe head of every man is Christ ; and ^dthe head of the woman is the man ; and ^ethe head of Christ is God.

4 Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.

5 But ^fevery woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head : for that is even all one as if she were ^gshaven.

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn : but if it be ^ha shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as ⁱhe is the image and glory of God : but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 For ^jthe man is not of the woman ; but the woman of the man.

9 Neither was the man created for the woman ; but the woman for the man.

10 For this cause ought the woman ^kto have ²power on her head ^lbecause of the angels.

11 Nevertheless ^mneither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman ; ⁿbut all things of God.

13 Judge in yourselves : is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered ?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him ?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her : for her hair is given her for a ³covering.

16 But ^oif any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

17 Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, ^pI hear that there be ⁴divisions among you ; and I partly believe it.

19 For ^qthere must be also ⁵heresies among you, ^rthat they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, ⁶*this* is not to eat the Lord's supper.

21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper : and one is hungry, and ^sanother is drunken.

22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or ^tdespise ye the church of God, and shame ⁷them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For ^uI have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jē'sus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread :

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat : this is my body, which is broken for you : this do ⁸in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is ^vthe new testament in my blood : this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ⁹ye do shew the Lord's death ^wtill he come.

27 ^xWherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But ^vlet a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh ¹⁰damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

31 For ^zif we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged ^awe are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home ; that ye come not together unto ¹¹condemnation. And the rest ^bwill I set in order when ^cI come.

CHAPTER 12.

¹ Of spiritual gifts. ⁷ Their profit. ¹² The actual and spiritual body.

NOW ^aconcerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know ^bthat ye were Ĝĕn'tileş, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, ^cthat no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jē'sus ¹accursed : and ^dthat no man can say that Jē'sus is the Lord, but by the Hō'lŷ Ghōst.

4 Now ^ethere are diversities of gifts, but ^fthe same Spirit.

5 And there are differences of ²administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God ^gwhich worketh all in all.

7 ^hBut the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit ⁱthe word of wisdom ; to another ^jthe word of knowledge by the same Spirit ;

9 ^kTo another faith by the same Spirit ; to another ^lthe gifts of healing by the same Spirit ;

10 ^mTo another the working of miracles ; to another ⁿprophecy ; ^oto another discerning of spirits ; to another ^pdivers kinds of tongues ; to another the interpretation of tongues :

11 But all these worketh that one and the self-same Spirit, ^qdividing to every man severally ^ras he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body : ^sso also is Chrīst.

13 For ^tby one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, ^uwhether we be Jewş or Ĝĕn'tileş, whether we be bond or free ; and ^vhave been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

I am not of the body ; is it therefore not of the body ?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body ; is it therefore not of the body ?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing ? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling ?

18 But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body ?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee : nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary :

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we ⁴bestow more abundant honour ; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need : but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked :

25 That there should be no ⁵schism in the body ; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it ; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now ^wye are the body of Chrīst, and members in particular.

28 And ^xGod hath set some in the church, first ^vapostles, secondarily ^zprophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, ^ahelps, ^bgovernments, ⁶diversities of tongues.

29 Are all apostles ? are all prophets ? are all teachers ? are all ⁷workers of miracles ?

30 Have all the gifts of healing ? do all speak with tongues ? do all interpret ?

31 But ^ccovet earnestly the best gifts : and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

CHAPTER 13.

THOUGH I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not ^acharity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift ^bof prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge ; and though I have all faith, ^cso that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And ^dthough I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 ^eCharity suffereth long, and is kind ; charity envieth not ; charity ¹vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

5 ^fDoth not behave itself unseemly, ^gseeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh not evil ;

6 ^h Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but ⁱ rejoiceth ² in the truth ;

7 ^j Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never faileth : but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail ; whether there be tongues, they shall cease ; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 ^k For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But ^l when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I ³ thought as a child : but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For ^m now we see through a glass, ⁴ darkly ; but then ⁿ face to face : now I know in part ; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three ; ^o but the greatest of these is charity.

CHAPTER 14.

¹ Prophecy preferable to speaking in tongues. ¹² Both must be referred to edification. ³⁴ Women forbidden to preach.

FOLLOW after ^a charity, ^b and desire spiritual gifts, ^c but rather that ye may prophesy.

2 For he that ^d speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God ; for no man ¹ understandeth him ; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh ^e mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth ^f speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself ; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied : for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine ?

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether ^g pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the ² sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped ?

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle ?

9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words ³ easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken ? for ye shall ^h speak into the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous ⁴ of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that ⁱ he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What is it then ? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also : ^j I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing ^k with the understanding also.

16 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen ^l at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest ?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all :

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, ^m be not children in understanding : howbeit in malice ⁿ be ye children, but in understanding be ⁵ men.

21 ^o In the law it is ^p written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people ; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not : but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, ^q will they not say that ye are mad ?

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all :

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest ; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report ^r that God is in you of a truth.

26 How is it then, brethren ? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, ^s hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. ^t Let all things be done unto edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course ; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church ; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, ^u let the first hold his peace.

31 ^v For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

32 And ^w the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of ⁶ confusion, but of peace, ^x as in all churches of the saints.

34 ^y Let your women keep silence in the churches : for it is not permitted unto them to speak ; but ^zthey are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the ^alaw.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home : for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

36 What ? came the word of God ^bout from you ? or came it unto you only ?

37 ^cIf any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.

38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, brethren, ^dcovet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

40 Let all things be done decently and in order.

CHAPTER 15.

³ Christ's resurrection. ¹² The resurrection of all. ³⁵ Certainty and manner thereof.

MOREOVER, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and ^awherein ye stand ;

2 ^bBy which also ye are saved, if ye ¹keep in memory ²what I preached unto you, unless ^cye have believed in vain.

3 For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins ^daccording to the scriptures ;

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day ^eaccording to the scriptures :

5 ^fAnd that he was seen of Cē'phas, then ^gof the twelve :

6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once ; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that, he was seen of Jāmeṣ ; then ^hof all the apostles.

8 ⁱAnd last of all he was seen of me also, as of ³one born out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because ^jI persecuted the church of God.

10 But ^kby the grace of God I am what I am : and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain ; but ^lI laboured more abundantly than they all : ^myet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead ?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, ⁿthen is Christ not risen :

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God ; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ : whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised :

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain ; ^oye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 If ^pin this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now ^qis Christ risen from the dead, and become ^rthe firstfruits of them that slept.

21 For ^ssince by man came death, by ^tman came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Ād'ām all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But ^uevery man in his own order : Christ the firstfruits ; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up ^vthe kingdom to God, even the Father ; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign, ^wtill he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 ^xThe last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For he ^yhath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.

28 ^zAnd when all things shall be subdued unto him, then ^ashall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all ? why are they then baptized for the dead ?

30 And ^bwhy stand we in jeopardy every hour ?

31 I protest by ^cyour rejoicing which I have in Christ Jē'sus our Lord, ^eI die daily.

32 If ^dafter the manner of men ^dI have fought with beasts at Ēph'ē-sūs, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not ? ^elet us eat and drink ; for to morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived : evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 ^fAwake to righteousness, and sin not ; ^gfor some have not the knowledge of God : I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, ^hHow are the dead raised up ? and with what body do they come ?

36 Thou fool, ⁱthat which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die :

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain :

38 But ^jGod giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh : but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial : but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars : for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 ^kSo also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption : it is raised in incorruption :

43 ^lIt is sown in dishonour ; it is raised in glory : it is sown in weakness ; it is raised in power :

44 It is sown a natural body ; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Ād'ām ^m was made a living soul ; ⁿthe last Ād'ām was made ^oa quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural ; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 ^pThe first man is of the earth, ^qearthy : the second man is the Lord ^rfrom heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy : ^sand as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And ^tas we have borne the image of the earthy, ^uwe shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that ^vflesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God ; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery ; ^wWe shall not all sleep, ^xbut we shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump : ^yfor the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and ^zthis mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, ^aDeath is swallowed up in victory.

55 ^bO death, where is thy sting ? ^cO grave, where is thy victory ?

56 The sting of death is sin ; and ^ethe strength of sin is the law.

57 ^dBut thanks be to God, which giveth us ^ethe victory through our Lord Jē'şus Chrīst.

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, ^fbe ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know ^gthat your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

14 Let all your things be done with charity.

15 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stēph'a-nās, that it is the firstfruits of Ā-chā'jā, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,)

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

PAUL, an apostle of Jē'sus Chrīst by the will of God, and Tīm'o-thy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Cōr'inth, ^awith all the saints which are in all Ā-chā'jā :

² ^bGrace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

³ ^cBlessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, ^dthe Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort ;

⁴ ^eWho comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

⁵ For as ^fthe sufferings of Chrīst abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Chrīst.

⁶ And whether we be afflicted, ^g*it is* for your consolation and salvation, which ¹is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer : or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

⁷ And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that ^has ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

⁸ For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of ⁱour trouble which came to us in Ā'sjā, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, inso-much that we despaired even of life :

⁹ But we had the ²sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not ^jtrust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead :

¹⁰ ^kWho delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver : in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us ;

¹¹ Ye also ^lhelping together by prayer for us, that ^mfor the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

¹² For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and ⁿgodly sincerity, ^onot with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

¹³ For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge ; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end ;

¹⁴ As also ye have acknowledged us in part, ^pthat we are your rejoicing, even as ^qye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jē'sus.

¹⁵ And in this confidence ^rI was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have ^sa second ³benefit ;

¹⁶ And to pass by you into Măç-ę-dō'nī-ā, and ^tto come again out of Măç-ę-dō'nī-ā unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Jū-dæ'ā.

¹⁷ When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness ? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose ^uaccording to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay ?

¹⁸ But as God is true, our ⁴word toward you was not yea and nay.

¹⁹ For ^vthe Son of God, Jē'sus Chrīst, who was preached among you by us, even by me and ^wSil-vā'-nus and Tī-mō'the-ūs, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.

²⁰ ^xFor all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

²¹ Now he which stablisheth us with you in Chrīst, and ^yhath anointed us, is God ;

²² Who ^zhath also sealed us, and ^agiven the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

²³ Moreover I call God for a record upon my soul, ^bthat to spare you I came not as yet unto Cōr'inth.

²⁴ Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy : for ^cby faith ye stand.

CHAPTER 2.

¹ Paul's reasons for writing. ¹² Why he went to Macedonia. ¹⁴ Happy success of Paul's preaching in all places.

BUT I determined this with myself, ^athat I would not come again to you in heaviness.

² For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me ?

³ And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice ; ^bhaving confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

⁴ For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears ; not ^cthat ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

⁵ But ^dif any have caused grief, he hath not ^egrieved me, but in part : that I may not overcharge you all.

⁶ Sufficient to such a man is this ¹punishment, which was inflicted ^fof many.

⁷ ^gSo that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

⁸ Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.

⁹ For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.

¹⁰ To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also : for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it ²in the person of Chrīst ;

¹¹ Lest ^hSā'tan should get an advantage of us : for we are not ignorant of his devices.

¹² Furthermore, ⁱwhen I came to Trō'ās to preach Chrīst's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord, ¹³ I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Tītus my brother : but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Măç-ę-dō'nī-ā.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish :

16 To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things ?

17 For we are not as many, which ³corrupt the word of God : but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak ⁴we in Christ.

CHAPTER 3.

¹ On Paul's sufficiency. ¹² The gospel of life and liberty.

DO ^awe begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, ^bepistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 ^cYe are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men :

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ^dministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God ; not ^ein tables of stone, but ^fin fleshy tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ to Godward :

5 ^gNot that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves ; but ^hour sufficiency is of God ;

6 Who also hath made us able ministers of ⁱthe new testament ; not ^jof the letter, but of the spirit : for ^kthe letter killeth, ^lbut the spirit ¹giveth life.

7 But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of ^mIs'ra-el could not stedfastly behold the face of ⁿMō'se's for the glory of his countenance ; which glory was to be done away :

8 How shall not ^othe ministration of the spirit be rather glorious ?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration ^pof righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great ^qplainness of speech :

13 And not as ^rMō'se's, ^swhich put a veil over his face, that the children of ^tIs'ra-el could not stedfastly look to ^uthe end of that which is abolished :

14 But ^vtheir minds were blinded : for until this day remaineth the same veil untaken away in the reading of the old testament ; which veil is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when ^wMō'se's is read, the veil is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless ^xwhen it shall turn to the Lord, ^ythe veil shall be taken away.

17 Now the Lord is that Spirit : and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all, with open face beholding ^zas in a glass the glory of the Lord, ^uare changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as ^vby the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAPTER 4.

¹ Of Paul's sincerity and faithfulness. ⁷ Daily troubles and persecutions.

THEREFORE seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not ;

2 But have renounced the hidden things of ¹dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, ^anor handling the word of God deceitfully ; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 But if our gospel be hid, ^bit is hid to them that are lost :

4 In whom ^cthe god of this world ^dhath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, ^ewho is the image of God, should shine unto them.

5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ ^fJē'sus the Lord ; and ^gourselves your servants for ^hJē'sus' sake.

6 For God, ⁱwho commanded the light to shine out of darkness, ^jhath ^kshined in our hearts, to give ^lthe light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of ^mJē'sus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in ⁿearthen vessels, ^othat the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed ; we are perplexed, but ^pnot in despair ;

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken ; cast down, but not destroyed ;

10 ^qAlways bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord ^rJē'sus, ^sthat the life also of ^tJē'sus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live are always delivered unto death for ^uJē'sus' sake, that the life also of ^vJē'sus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, ^wI believed, and therefore have I spoken ; we also believe, and therefore speak ;

14 Knowing that he which raised up the Lord ^xJē'sus shall raise up us also by ^yJē'sus, and shall present us with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not ; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory ;

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen : for the things which are seen are temporal ; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAPTER 5.

FOR we know that if ^aour earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have ^ba building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven :

3 If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened : not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord :

7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight :)

8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men ; but we are made manifest unto God ; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God : or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For the love of Christ constraineth us ; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead :

15 And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh : yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature : old things are passed away ; behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation ;

19 To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them ; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us : we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin ; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Proofs of Paul's faithfulness. 14 Idolaters to be shunned.

WE then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee : behold, now is the accepted time ; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

3 Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed :

4 But in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings ;

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,

7 By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report : as deceivers, and yet true ;

9 As unknown, and yet well known ; as dying, and, behold, we live ; as chastened, and not killed ;

10 As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing ; as poor, yet making many rich ; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels.

13 Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.

14 Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers : for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness ? and what communion hath light with darkness ?

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial ? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel ?

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols ? for ye are the temple of the living God ; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them ; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing : and I will receive you,

18 And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

CHAPTER 7.

1 Exhortation to purity of life. 3 Paul's comfort amid sorrow. 7 Of Titus' mission.

HAVING therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us ; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you : for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, ^bgreat is my glorying of you: ^cI am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For, ^dwhen we were come into Măç-ę-dō'nī-ă, our flesh had no rest, but we ^ewere troubled on every side; ^fwithout were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless ^gGod, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Ti'tus;

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, ^hthough I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry ¹after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For ⁱgodly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: ^jbut the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold this selfsame thing, that ye ^ksorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Ti'tus, because his spirit ^lwas refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Ti'tus, is found a truth.

15 And his ^minward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth ⁿthe obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoice therefore that ^oI have confidence in you in all things.

1 Exhortation to give to the poor saints at Jerusalem. 8 The duty of giving. 16 Commendation of Titus.

MOREOVER, brethren, ¹we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Măç-ę-dō'nī-ă; receive the gift, and take upon us ^bthe fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first ^cgave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

6 Insomuch that ^dwe desired Ti'tus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same ³grace also.

7 Therefore, as ^eye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see ^fthat ye abound in this grace also.

8 ^gI speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jē'sus Christ, ^hthat, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein ⁱI give my advice: for ^jthis is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be ⁴forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

12 For ^kif there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened:

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, ^lHe that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Ti'tus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him ^mthe brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

19 And not that only, but who was also ⁿchosen of the churches to travel with us with this ⁵grace, which is administered by us ^oto the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

20 ^pAvoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

21 ^qProviding for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which ⁶*I have* in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Ti'tus, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are ^rthe messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

CHAPTER 9.

¹ Why the brethren were sent. ⁶ Bountiful alms urged.

FOR as touching ^a the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you :

2 For I know ^b the forwardness of your mind, ^c for which I boast of you to them of Măç-ę-dō'nī-â, that ^d Ā-chā'jā was ready a year ago ; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 ^e Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf ; that, as I said, ye may be ready :

4 Lest haply if they of Măç-ę-dō'nī-â come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your ¹ bounty, ² whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

6 ^f But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly ; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give ; ^g not grudgingly, or of necessity : for ^h God loveth a cheerful giver.

8 ⁱ And God is able to make all grace abound toward you ; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work :

9 (As it is written, ^j He hath dispersed abroad ; he hath given to the poor : his righteousness remaineth for ever.

10 Now he that ^k ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your ^l righteousness ;)

11 Being enriched in every thing to all ³ bountifulness, ^m which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

12 For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God ;

13 Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they ⁿ glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal ^o distribution unto them, and unto all men ;

14 And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you.

15 Thanks be unto God ^p for his unspeakable gift.

6 ^f And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when ^g your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? ^h If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are ⁱ we Christ's.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed :

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For his letters, ⁵ say they, are weighty and powerful ; but ^j his bodily presence is weak, and his ^k speech contemptible.

11 Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

12 ^l For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves ; but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, ⁶ are not wise.

13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the ⁷ rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you : ^m for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ :

15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, ⁿ of other men's labours ; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be ⁸ enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly,

16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's ⁹ line of things made ready to our hand.

17 ^o But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 For ^p not he that commendeth himself is approved, but ^q whom the Lord commendeth.

CHAPTER 11.

WOULD to God ye could bear with me a little in ^a my folly : and indeed ¹ bear with me.

2 For I am ^b jealous over you with godly jealousy : for ^c I have espoused you to one husband, ^d that I may present you ^e as a chaste virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as ^f the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds ^g should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jē'sus, whom we have not preached, or ^h if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or ^h another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear ² with him.

5 For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not ⁱ in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence ^j in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, ^k I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me ^l the brethren which came from Măc-ge-dō'nī-ā supplied: and in all things I have kept myself ^m from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 ⁿ As the truth of Chrīst is in me, ³ no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Ā-chā'jā.

11 Wherefore? ^o because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, ^p that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Chrīst.

14 And no marvel; for Sā'tan himself is transformed into ^q an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; ^r whose end shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool ⁴ receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which I speak, ^s I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, ^t in this confidence of boasting.

18 ^u Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise.

20 For ye suffer, ^v if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speak as concerning reproach, ^w as though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

22 Are they Hē'brews? ^x so am I. Are they Īs'ra-el-ites? so am I. Are they the seed of Ā'brā-hām? so am I.

23 Are they ministers of Chrīst? (I speak as a fool) I am more; ^y in labours more abundant, ^z in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft.

24 Of the Jews five times received I ^a forty stripes save one.

25 Thrice was I ^b beaten with rods, ^c once was I stoned, thrice I ^d suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;

27 In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, ^g in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

28 Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, ^h the care of all the churches.

29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?

30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 The God and Father of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, ⁱ which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 ^j In Dă-măs'cus the governor under Ār'e-tas the king kept the city of the Dăm'as-çēneș with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAPTER 12.

IT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. ¹ I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man ^a in Chrīst above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one ^b caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

4 How that he was caught up into ^c paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not ² lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one will I glory: ^d yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For ^e though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a ^f thorn in the flesh, ^g the messenger of Sā'tan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 ^h For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, ⁱ My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, ^j that the power of Chrīst may rest upon me.

10 Therefore ^k I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Chrīst's sake: ^l for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for ^m in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.

12 ⁿ Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 ^o For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that ^p I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

14 ^q Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for ^r I seek not yours, but you: ^s for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And ^t I will very gladly spend and be spent for ^u you; though ^v the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But be it so, ^w I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 ^x Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 ^y I desired Ti'tus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Ti'tus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 ^z Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? ^a we speak before God in Christ: ^b but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that ^c I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

21 And lest, when I come again, my God ^d will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and ^e fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

CHAPTER 13.

¹ Paul threatens obstinate sinners. ¹¹ Exhortation and prayer.

THIS is ^a the third time I am coming to you. ^b In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ ^e speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty ^f in you.

4 ^g For though he was crucified through weakness, yet ^h he liveth by the power of God. For ⁱ we also are weak ^j in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

5 ^k Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, ^l how that Jē'sus Christ is in you, except ye be ^m reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though ⁿ we be as reprobates.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad, ^o when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, ^p even your perfection.

10 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present ^q I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.

11 Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, ^r be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love ^s and peace shall be with you.

12 Greet one another with an holy kiss.

13 All the saints salute you.

5 To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

8 But though ⁱ we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you ^j than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

10 For ^k do I now ^l persuade men, or God? or ^m do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

11 ⁿ But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.

12 For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but ^o by the revelation of Jē'sus Christ.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that ^p beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and ^qwasted it:

14 And profited in the Jewſ' religion above many my ¹ equals in mine own nation, ^r being more exceedingly zealous ^s of the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, ^t who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,

16 ^u To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with ^v flesh and blood:

17 Neither went I up to Jē-ru'sā-lēm to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Ā-rā'bī-ā, and returned again unto Dā-mās'cus.

18 Then after three years I ² went up to Jē-ru'sā-lēm to see Pē'tēr, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 But ^w other of the apostles saw I none, save ^x Jāmeſ the Lord's brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.

21 ^y Afterwards I came into the regions of Sŷr'ī-ā and Ćī-lī'çĭā;

22 And was unknown by face unto the churches of Jū-dæ'ā which were in Chrīst:

23 But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.

24 And they glorified God in me.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Why Paul went to Jerusalem. 16 Of justification by faith.

THEN fourteen years after ^a I went up again to Jē-ru'sā-lēm with Bār'na-bās, and took Tī'tus with me also.

2 And I went up by revelation, ^b and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Ĝen'tileſ, but ¹ privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means ^c I should run, or had run, in vain.

3 But neither Tī'tus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our ^d liberty which we have in Christ Jē'ſus, ^e that they might bring us into bondage:

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But of these ^f who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: ^g God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat in ^h conference added nothing to me:

7 But contrariwise, ⁱ when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision ^j was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Pē'tēr;

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Pē'tēr to the apostleship of the circumcision, ^k the same was mighty in me toward the Ĝen'tileſ:)

9 And when Jāmeſ, Ćē'phas, and Jōhn, who seemed to be ^l pillars, perceived ^m the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Bār'na-bās the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; ⁿ the same which I also was forward to do.

11 ^o But when Pē'tēr was come to Ān'tī-ōch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from Jāmeſ, ^p he did eat with the Ĝen'tileſ: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jewſ dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Bār'na-bās also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to ^q the truth of the gospel, I said unto Pē'tēr before them all, ^r If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Ĝen'tileſ, and not as do the Jewſ, why compellest thou the Ĝen'tileſ to live as do the Jewſ?

15 ^s We who are Jewſ by nature, and not ^t sinners of the Ĝen'tileſ, 16 ^u Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but ^v by the faith of Jē'ſus Chrīst, even we have believed in Jē'ſus Chrīst, that we might be justified by the faith of Chrīst, and not by the works of the law: for ^w by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Chrīst, we ourselves also are found ^x sinners, is therefore Chrīst the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I ^y through the law ^z am dead to the law, that I might ^a live unto God.

20 I am ^b crucified with Chrīst: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Chrīst liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh ^c I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for ^d if righteousness come by the law, then Chrīst is dead in vain.

CHAPTER 3.

Of justification by faith.

O FOOLISH Ĝā-lā'tĭans, ^a who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, ^b before whose eyes Jē'ſus Chrīst hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye ^c the Spirit by the works of the law, ^d or by the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? ^e having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by ^f the flesh?

4 ^g Have ye suffered ¹ so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore ^h that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as Ā'brā-hām believed God, and it was ² accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore that ⁱ they which are of faith, the same are the children of Ā'brā-hām.

8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Ā'brā-hām, saying, ^jIn thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Ā'brā-hām.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, ^kCursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, ^lThe just shall live by faith.

12 And ^mthe law is not of faith: but, ⁿThe man that doeth them shall live in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, ^oCursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 ^pThat the blessing of Ā'brā-hām might come on the Gēn'tileš through Jē'sus Christ; that we might receive ^qthe promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; ^rThough it be but a man's ^scovenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now to Ā'brā-hām and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is ^sChrist.

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, ^twhich was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, ^uthat it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if ^vthe inheritance be of the law, ^w*it is* no more of promise: but God gave it to Ā'brā-hām by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? ^xIt was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ^yordained by angels in the hand ^zof a mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, ^abut God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jē'sus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore ^bthe law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, ^cthat we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

26 For ye ^dare all the children of God by faith in Christ Jē'sus.

27 For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

28 ^eThere is neither Jew nor Greek, there is

CHAPTER 4.

1 Freedom from the law through Christ. 24 Allegory of Agar and Sara.

NOW I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, ^awere in bondage under the ¹elements of the world:

4 But ^bwhen the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, ^cmade of a woman, ^dmade under the law,

5 ^eTo redeem them that were under the law, ^fthat we might receive the adoption of sons.

6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Ā'b'ba, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; ^gand if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

8 Howbeit then, ^hwhen ye knew not God, ⁱye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now, ^jafter that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, ^khow turn ye ²again to ^lthe weak and beggarly ³elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

10 ^mYe observe days, and months, and times, and years.

11 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as ⁿI am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how ^othrough infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you ^pat the first.

14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me ^qas an angel of God, ^reven as Christ Jē'sus.

15 ⁴Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 They ^szealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude ⁵you, that ye might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 My ^tlittle children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you, 20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for ⁶I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

22 For it is written, that Ā'brā-hām had two sons, ^uthe one by a bondmaid, ^vthe other by a freewoman.

23 But he who was of the bondwoman ^wwas born after the flesh; * but he of the freewoman was by promise.

24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two ⁷ covenants; the one from the mount ⁸ Sī'nāi, which gendereth to bondage, which is ⁹ Ā'gār.

25 For this ¹⁰ Ā'gār is mount Sī'nāi in ¹¹ Ā-rā'bī-ā, and ¹² answereth to Jē-ryū'sā-lēm which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But ¹³ Jē-ryū'sā-lēm which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, ¹⁴ Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

28 Now we, brethren, as ¹⁵ Ī'saac was, are ¹⁶ the children of promise.

29 But as then ¹⁷ he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless what saith ¹⁸ the scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for ¹⁹ the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.

CHAPTER 5.

¹ Of the circumcision. ¹³ Love the sum of the law. ²² Fruit of the Spirit.

STAND fast therefore in ² the liberty wherewith ³ Chrīst hath made us free, and be not entangled again ⁴ with the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I ⁵ Paul say unto you, that ⁶ if ye be circumcised, ⁷ Chrīst shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, ⁸ that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 ⁹ Chrīst is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ¹⁰ ye are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit ¹¹ wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

6 For ¹² in Jē'sus Chrīst neither circumcision avail-eth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but ¹³ faith which worketh by love.

7 Ye ¹⁴ did run well; ¹⁵ who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?

8 This persuasion ¹⁶ cometh not of him that calleth you.

9 A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 ¹⁷ I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but ¹⁸ he that troubleth you ¹⁹ shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.

11 ²⁰ And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, ²¹ why do I yet suffer persecution? then is ²² the offence of the cross ceased.

12 ²³ I would they were even cut off ²⁴ which trouble you.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only ²⁵ use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, ²⁶ even in this; ²⁷ Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, ¹⁷ Walk in the Spirit, and ¹⁸ ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

17 For ¹⁹ the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: ²⁰ so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But ²¹ if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now ²² the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that ²³ they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But ²⁴ the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, ²⁵ gentleness, goodness, ²⁶ faith, 23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

24 And they that are Chrīst's ²⁷ have crucified the flesh with the ²⁸ affections and lusts.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAPTER 6.

¹ Mild dealings with brethren. ² Mutual bearing of burdens. ¹⁴ Paul's glory in Christ.

BRETHREN, ¹ if a man be overtaken in a fault, ² ye ³ which are spiritual, restore such an one ⁴ in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, ⁵ lest thou also be tempted.

2 ⁶ Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil ⁷ the law of Chrīst.

3 For ⁸ if a man think himself to be something, when ⁹ he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But ¹⁰ let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and ¹¹ not in another.

5 For ¹² every man shall bear his own burden.

6 ¹³ Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.

7 ¹⁴ Be not deceived; ¹⁵ God is not mocked: for ¹⁶ whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8 For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to ¹⁷ the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

9 And ¹⁸ let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, ¹⁹ if we faint not.

10 ²⁰ As we have therefore opportunity, ²¹ let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of ²² the household of faith.

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should ²³ suffer persecution for the cross of Chrīst.

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law ; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, ²by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

15 For in Chrīst Jē'sus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but ^va new creature.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Salutation and thanksgiving. 4 Of election and adoption. 16 Prayer for a full knowledge of Christ.

PAUL, an apostle of Jē'sus Chrīst by the will of God, to the saints which are at Ēph'ē-sūs, ^aand to the faithful in Chrīst Jē'sus :

2 ^bGrace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

3 ^cBlessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly ¹places in Chrīst :

4 According as ^dhe hath chosen us in him ^ebefore the foundation of the world, that we should ^fbe holy and without blame before him in love :

5 ^gHaving predestinated us unto ^hthe adoption of children by Jē'sus Chrīst to himself, ⁱaccording to the good pleasure of his will,

6 ^jTo the praise of the glory of his grace, ^kwherein he hath made us accepted in ^lthe beloved.

7 ^mIn whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to ⁿthe riches of his grace ;

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence ;

9 ^oHaving made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure ^pwhich he hath purposed in himself :

10 That in the dispensation of ^qthe fulness of times ^rhe might gather together in one ^sall things in Chrīst, both which are in ²heaven, and which are on earth ; even in him :

11 ^tIn whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to ^uthe purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will :

12 ^vThat we should be to the praise of his glory, ^wwho first ³trusted in Chrīst.

13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation : in whom also after that ye believed, ^xye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, 14 ^yWhich is the earnest of our inheritance ^zuntil the redemption of ^athe purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

15 Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jē'sus, and love unto all the saints,

16 Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers ;

19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, ^daccording to the working ⁵of his mighty power,

20 Which he wrought in Chrīst, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

21 ^eFar above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come :

22 And ^fhath put all things under his feet, and gave him ^gto be the head over all things to the church, 23 ^hWhich is his body, the fulness of him ⁱthat filleth all in all.

CHAPTER 2.

1 The natural state. 5 State of grace. 10 Man made for good works.

AND ^ayou hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins ;

2 ^bWherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in ^cthe children of disobedience :

3 ^dAmong whom also we all had our conversation in times past in ^ethe lusts of our flesh, fulfilling ¹the desires of the flesh and of the mind ; and ^fwere by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

4 But God, ^gwho is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 ^hEven when we were dead in sins, hath ⁱquickened us together with Chrīst, (²by grace ye are saved ;)

6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Chrīst Jē'sus :

7 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Chrīst Jē'sus.

8 For by grace are ye saved ^jthrough faith ; and that not of yourselves : ^k*it is* the gift of God :

9 ^lNot of works, lest any man should boast.

10 For we are his workmanship, created in Chrīst Jē'sus unto good works, ^mwhich God hath before ³ordained that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gēn'tileš in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands ;

12 That at that time ye were without Chrīst, being aliens from the commonwealth of Īš'ra-el, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world :

13 But now in Chrīst Jē'sus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Chrīst.

14 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us ;

15 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances ; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace ;

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby :

17 And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

18 For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God ;

20 And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jē'sus Chrīst himself being the chief corner stone ;

21 In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord :

22 In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Of Gentile salvation. 3 The mystery made known by revelation. 14 Prayer that the great love of Christ may be perceived.

FOR this cause I Paul, the prisoner of Jē'sus Chrīst for you Gēn'tileš,

2 If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me to you-ward :

3 How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery ; (as I wrote afore in few words,

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Chrīst)

5 Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit ;

6 That the Gēn'tileš should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Chrīst by the gospel :

7 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power.

8 Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gēn'tileš the unsearchable riches of Chrīst ;

9 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jē'sus Chrīst :

CHAPTER 4.

1 Paul exhorts to unity. 24 Putting on the new man. 29 Casting aside corrupt communication.

I THEREFORE, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation where-with ye are called,

2 With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love ;

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

4 There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling ;

5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

6 One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

7 But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Chrīst.

8 Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

9 (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth ?

10 He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.)

11 And he gave some, apostles ; and some, prophets ; and some, evangelists ; and some, pastors and teachers ;

12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Chrīst :

13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the ⁵stature of the fulness of Christ:

14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every ^awind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

15 But ⁶speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:

16 ^rFrom whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gēn'tileš walk, in the vanity of their mind,

18 Having the understanding darkened, ^sbeing alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the ⁷blindness of their heart:

19 ^tWho being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ;

21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jē'sus:

22 That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

23 And ^ube renewed in the spirit of your mind;

24 And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and ⁸true holiness.

25 Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.

26 Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:

27 ^vNeither give place to the devil.

28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have ⁹to give to him that needeth.

29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good ¹⁰to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

30 And ^wgrieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:

32 And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints;

4 Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, ^dwhich are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.

5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, ^ehath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

6 ^fLet no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of ¹disobedience.

7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them.

8 ^gFor ye were sometimes darkness, but now ^hare ye light in the Lord: walk as ⁱchildren of light:

9 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;)

10 ^jProving what is acceptable unto the Lord.

11 And ^khave no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather ^lreprove them.

12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

13 But ^mall things that are ²reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.

14 Wherefore ³he saith, ⁿAwake thou that sleepest, and ^oarise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

15 See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, 16 Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

17 ^pWherefore be ye not unwise, but ^qunderstanding ^rwhat the will of the Lord is.

18 And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;

19 Speaking to yourselves ^sin psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord;

20 ^tGiving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jē'sus Christ;

21 ^uSubmitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

22 ^vWives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body.

24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;

26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it ^wwith the washing of water ^xby the word, 27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh ; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church :

30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

32 This is a great mystery : but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

33 Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself ; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Of parents and children. 5 Of servants and masters. 13 The complete armour of a Christian to be put on. 21 Commendation of Tychicus.

CHILDREN, ^aobey your parents in the Lord : for this is right.

2 ^bHonour thy father and mother ; which is the first commandment with promise ;

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

4 And, ^cye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath : but ^dbring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

5 Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ ;

6 Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers ; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart ;

7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men :

8 ^eKnowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

9 And, ye ^fmasters, do the same things unto them, ¹forbearing threatening : knowing that ²your Master also is in heaven ; ^gneither is there respect of persons with him.

13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and ⁶having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and ^khaving on the breastplate of righteousness ;

19 And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel, 20 For which I am an ambassador ⁷in bonds : that ⁸therein ^pI may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

21 But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, ^qTych'i-cūs, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things :

PAUL and Tī-mō'the-ūs, the servants of Jē'sus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jē'sus which are at Phī-lip'pī, with the ¹bishops and deacons :

2 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'sus Christ.

3 ^aI thank my God upon every ²remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because ⁴I have you in my heart ; inasmuch as both in ^dmy bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ^eye all are ⁵partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jē'sus Christ.

9 And this I pray, ^fthat your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all ⁶judgment ;

10 That ^gye may ⁷approve things that ⁸are excellent ; ^hthat ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ ;

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, ⁱwhich are by Jē'sus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel ;

13 So that my bonds ⁹in Chrīst are manifest ⁷in all ¹⁰the palace, and ¹¹in all other places ;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Chrīst even of envy and ^kstrife ; and some also of good will :

16 The one preach Chrīst of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds :

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

18 What then ? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Chrīst is preached ; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation ¹through your prayer, and the supply of ^mthe Spirit of Jē'sus Chrīst, 20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that ⁿin nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Chrīst shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

21 For to me to live is Chrīst, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour : yet what I shall choose I wot not.

23 For ^oI am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to ^pdepart, and to be with Chrīst ; which is far better :

24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith ;

26 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jē'sus Chrīst for me by my coming to you again.

27 Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Chrīst : that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel ;

28 And in nothing terrified by your ^qadversaries : which is to them an evident token of perdition, ^rbut to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Chrīst, ^snot only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake ;

30. ^tHaving the same conflict ^uwhich ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAPTER 2.

Exhortation to humility through Christ's example.

IF there be therefore any consolation in Chrīst, if any comfort of love, ^aif any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies,

2 ^bFulfil ye my joy, ^cthat ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

4 ^fLook not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 ^gLet this mind be in you, which was also in Chrīst Jē'sus :

6 Who, ^hbeing in the form of God, ⁱthought it not robbery to be equal with God :

7 ^jBut made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form ^kof a servant, and ^lwas made in the ¹likeness of men :

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became ^mobedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also ⁿhath highly exalted him, and ^ogiven him a name which is above every name :

10 ^pThat at the name of Jē'sus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth ;

11 And ^qthat every tongue should confess that Jē'sus Chrīst is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

13 For ^rit is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings :

15 That ye may be blameless and ²harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ³ye shine as lights in the world ;

16 Holding forth the word of life ; that I may rejoice in the day of Chrīst, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 Yea, and if I be ⁴offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.

18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

19 ⁵But I trust in the Lord Jē'sus to send Tī-mō'-the-ūs shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I have no man ⁶likeminded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 For all seek their own, not the things which are Jē'sus Chrīst's.

22 But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you ^sĒ-pāph-ro-dī'tus, my brother, and companion in labour, and fellowsoldier, ^tbut your messenger, and ^uhe that ministered to my wants.

26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death : but God had mercy on him ; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such in reputation:

30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me.

CHAPTER 3.

¹ Paul warns against false teachers and Christ's enemies. ¹⁵ Exhortation to decline the ways of carnal Christians.

FINALLY, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision.

3 For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee;

6 Concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

11 If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, 14 I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

17 Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark

CHAPTER 4.

¹ Paul exhorts the brethren generally. ¹⁰ His joy at their liberality.

THEREFORE, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Eubodas, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

3 And I intreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow-labourers, whose names are in the book of life.

4 Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

7 And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.

12 I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding ye have well done, that ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Măç-e-dō'nī-ā, ^mno church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

16 ⁿFor even in Thēs-sā-lō-nī'cā ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire ^ofruit that may abound to your account.

18 But ³I have all, and abound: I am full, having received ^pof Ē-pāph-ro-dī'tus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, ^qa sacrifice acceptable, well pleasing to God.

CHAPTER 1.

¹ Salutation. ¹⁴ The true Christ described. ²³ Paul's own ministry.

PAUL, an apostle of Jē'sus Christ by the will of God, and Tī-mō'the-ūs our brother,

2 To the saints ^aand faithful brethren in Christ which are at Cō-lōs'sē: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jē'sus Christ.

3 We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jē'sus Christ, praying always for you,

4 ^bSince we heard of your faith in Christ Jē'sus, and of ^cthe love which ye have to all the saints,

5 For the hope ^dwhich is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;

6 Which is come unto you, ^eas it is in all the world; and ^fbringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard ^gof it, and knew ^hthe grace of God in truth:

7 As ye also learned of ⁱĒp'ā-phrās our dear fellow-servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ;

8 Who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit.

9 ⁱFor this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the ^jknowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;

10 ^kThat ye might walk worthy of the Lord ^lunto all pleasing, ^mbeing fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;

11 Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering ⁿwith joyfulness;

12 ^oGiving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of ^pthe inheritance of the saints in light:

13 Who hath delivered us from ^qthe power of darkness, ^rand hath translated us into the kingdom of ^shis dear Son:

14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:

15 Who is ^tthe image of the invisible God, ^uthe firstborn of every creature:

16 For ^vby him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created ^wby him, and for him:

18 And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, ^xthe firstborn from the dead; that ^yin all things he might have the preeminence.

19 For it pleased the Father that ^zin him should all fulness dwell;

20 And, ³having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

21 And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies ⁴in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled

22 In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unproveable in his sight:

23 If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister;

24 Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up ⁵that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for ^ahis body's sake, which is the church:

25 Whereof I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, ⁵to fulfil the word of God;

26 Even ^bthe mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints:

27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gēn'tīlēſ; which is Christ ⁶in you, the hope of glory:

28 Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jē'sus:

29 Whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

CHAPTER 2.

¹ Paul exhorts them to be constant in Christ. ¹⁸ Of worshipping angels.

FOR I would that ye knew what great ¹conflict I have for you, and for them at Lā-ōd-ī-çē'ā, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

2 ^aThat their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all ^briches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;

3 ²In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

4 And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.

5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 As ye have therefore received Christ Jē'sus the Lord, so walk ye in him:

7 Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

8 ^cBeware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after ^dthe tradition of men, after the ³rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

9 For ^ein him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.

10 ^fAnd ye are complete in him, ^gwhich is the head of all principality and power:

11 In whom also ye are ^hcircumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:

12 ⁱBuried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with ^jhim through ^kthe faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead.

13 And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;

14 Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;

15 And ^lhaving spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them ⁴in it.

16 Let no man therefore ^mjudge you ⁿin meat, or in drink, or ^oin respect ^pof an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath ^{days}:

17 ^qWhich are a shadow of things to come; but the body ^ris of Christ.

18 Let no man ^sbeguile you of your reward ^tin a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind,

19 And not holding the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the ^urudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances,

21 (Touch not; taste not; handle not;

22 Which all are to perish with the using;) after the commandments and doctrines of men?

1 Christ should be sought. 10 Exhortation to put off the old man and put on Christ. 12 Of charity and other duties.

IF ye then ^abe risen with Christ, ^bseek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your ¹affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 ^cFor ye are dead, ^dand your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 ^eWhen Christ, who is ^four life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him ^gin glory.

5 Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry:

6 For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience:

7 In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.

8 ^hBut now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

9 ⁱLie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

10 And have put on the new man, which ^jis renewed in knowledge after the image of him that ^kcreated him:

11 Where there is neither ^lGreek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Bār-bā'rī-an, Scȳth'ī-an, bond nor free: ^mbut Christ is all, and in all.

12 Put on therefore, ⁿas the elect of God, holy and beloved, ^obowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering;

13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a ²quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

14 And above all these things ^pput on charity, which is the bond of perfectness.

15 And let ^qthe peace of God rule in your hearts, ^rto the which also ye are called ^sin one body; and be ye thankful.

16 ^tLet the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing ^uwith grace ^vin your hearts to the Lord.

17 And ^wwhatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jē'sus, giving ^xthanks to God and the Father by him.

18 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

19 Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

20 Children, obey your ^yparents in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.

21 ^zFathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 Servants, obey in all things your masters

according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God:

23 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;

24 Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.

25 But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

CHAPTER 4.

¹ Paul exhorts them to be fervent in prayer. ¹⁰ Salutation and wishes.

^a MASTERS, give unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

2 ^b Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving;

3 ^c Withal praying also for us, that God would ^d open unto us a door of utterance, to speak ^e the mystery of Christ, ^f for which I am also in bonds:

4 That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.

5 ^g Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time.

6 Let your speech be always ^h with grace, ⁱ seasoned with salt, ^j that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

7 All my state shall Tÿch'i-cÿs declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellowservant in the Lord:

PAUL, and ^a Sīl-vā'nus, and Tī-mō'the-ūs, unto the church of the Thēs-sā-lō'nī-anş which is ^b in God the Father and in the Lord Jē'sus Christ: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jē'sus Christ.

CHAPTER 2.

¹ How Paul preached. ¹³ How the word was received.

FOR yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at ^a Pñ-lip'pī, we were bold in our God ^b to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.

3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

4 But as ^c we were allowed of God ^d to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, ^e which trieth our hearts.

5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness; God is witness:

6 ^f Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have ¹ been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.

7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children :

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing ^g to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our ^h own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail : for labouring night and day, ⁱ because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe :

11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children, 12 ^j That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it ^k not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers ^l of the churches of God which in Jū-dæ'ā are in Christ Jē'sus : for ^m ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, ⁿ even as they have of the Jews :

15 Who both killed the Lord Jē'sus, and ^o their own prophets, and have ² persecuted us ; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men :

16 ^p Forbidding us to speak to the Gēn'tiles that they might be saved, ^q to fill up their sins alway : ^r for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again ; but ^s Sā'tan hindered us.

19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of ³ rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jē'sus Christ ^t at his coming?

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAPTER 3.

¹ Paul testifies his love by sending Timothy. ¹⁰ Also by prayer.

WHEREFORE when we could no longer forbear, ^a we thought it good to be left at Ath'ēns alone ;

2 And sent ^b Ti-mō'the-ūs, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith :

3 ^c That no man should be moved by these afflictions : for yourselves know that ^d we are appointed thereunto.

4 ^e For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation ; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith :

8 For now we live, if ye ^j stand fast in the Lord.

CHAPTER 4.

¹ Exhortation to various duties. ¹⁵ Of the resurrection and second coming of Christ.

FURTHERMORE then we ¹ beseech you, brethren, and ² exhort you by the Lord Jē'sus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and ^a to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jē'sus.

3 For this is ^b the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication :

4 ^c That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour ;

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gēn'tiles ^d which know not God :

6 ^e That no man go beyond and ³ defraud his brother ⁴ in any matter : because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, ^f but unto holiness.

8 ^g He therefore that ⁵ despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, ^h who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love ye need not that I write unto you : for ⁱ ye yourselves are taught of God ^j to love one another.

10 And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Māç-ē-dō'nī-ā : but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more ;

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you ;

12 That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack ⁶ of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, ^keven as others which have no hope.

14 For ^lif we believe that Jē'sus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jē'sus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you ^mby the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For ⁿthe Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God : and the dead in Christ shall rise first :

17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them ^oin the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air : and so ^pshall we ever be with the Lord.

18 Wherefore ^qcomfort one another with these words.

CHAPTER 5.

¹ On Christ's second coming. ⁶ Divers precepts. ²³ Conclusion.

BUT of ^athe times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourselves know perfectly that ^bthe day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety ; then ^csudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child ; and they shall not escape.

4 ^dBut ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all ^ethe children of light, and the children of the day : we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 Therefore let us not sleep, as do others ; but let us watch and be sober.

7 For ^fthey that sleep sleep in the night ; and they that be drunken ^gare drunken in the night.

8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, ^hputting on the breastplate of faith and love ; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.

PAUL, ^aand Sil-vā'nus, and Ti-mō'the-ūs, unto the church of the Thēs-sā-lō'nī-anſ ^bin God our Father and the Lord Jē'sus Christ :

2 Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jē'sus Christ.

3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith ^cgroweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth ;

4 So that ^dwe ourselves glory in you in the churches of God ^efor your patience and faith ^fin all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure :

CHAPTER 2.

1 Exhortation to steadfastness. 7 Warning against the wicked one.

NOW we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, ^a and by our gathering together unto him,

2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Chrīst is at hand.

3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, ^b except there come a falling away first, and ^c that man of sin be revealed, ^d the son of perdition;

4 Who opposeth and ^e exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what ¹ withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For ^f the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, ^g whom the Lord shall consume ^h with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy ⁱ with the brightness of his coming:

9 Even him, whose coming is ^j after the working of Sā'tan with all power and ^k signs and lying wonders,

10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in ^l them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And ^m for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, ⁿ that they should believe a lie:

12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:

14 Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold ^o the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Paul asks their prayers. 6 Gives divers precepts. 16 Conclusion.

FINALLY, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord ¹ may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you:

2 And that we may be delivered from ² unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith.

3 But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and ^a keep you from evil.

4 And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.

5 And ^b the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and ³ into the patient waiting for Chrīst.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, ^c that ye withdraw yourselves ^d from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.

7 For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;

8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but ^e wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:

9 ^f Not because we have not power, but to make ^g ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, ^h that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

11 For we hear that there are some which walk among you ⁱ disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies.

12 Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, ^j that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

13 But ye, brethren, ⁴ be not weary in well doing.

14 And if any man obey not our word ⁵ by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

15 ^k Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

16 Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.

17 The salutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write.

18 The grace of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst be with you all. Amen.

The second epistle to the Thēs-sā-lō'nī-an̄s was written from Āth'ēn̄s.

TIMOTHY.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul's charge to Timothy. 5 Use and end of law. 11 Paul's call.

PAUL, an apostle of Jē'sus Chrīst ^aby the commandment ^bof God our Saviour, and Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, ^cwhich is our hope ;

2 Unto ^dTīm'o-thy, my own son in the faith : Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jē'sus Chrīst our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ēph'ē-sūs, ^ewhen I went into Māç-ē-dō'nī-ā, that thou mightest charge some ^fthat they teach no other doctrine,

4 Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith : so do.

5 Now ^gthe end of the commandment is charity ^hout of a pure heart, and ⁱof a good conscience, and ^jof faith unfeigned :

6 From which some ^khaving swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling ;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law ; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that ^lthe law is good, if a man use it lawfully ;

9 ^mKnowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for ⁿthe lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine ;

11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Chrīst Jē'sus our Lord, who hath enabled me, ^ofor that he counted me faithful, ^pputting me into the ministry ;

13 ^qWho was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious : but I obtained mercy, because ^rI did it ignorantly in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith ^sand love which is in Chrīst Jē'sus.

15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that ^tChrīst Jē'sus came into the world to save sinners ; of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jē'sus Chrīst might shew forth all long-suffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto ^uthe King eternal, immortal, ^vinvisible, the only wise God, ^wbe honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Tīm'o-thy, ^xaccording to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare ;

19 Holding faith, and a good conscience ; which

CHAPTER 2.

1 Of prayer and thanks for all. 9 Woman's attire and conduct.

I ¹EXHORT therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men ;

2 ^aFor kings, and ^bfor all that are in ²authority ; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

3 For this is ^cgood and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour ;

4 ^dWho will have all men to be saved, ^eand to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Chrīst Jē'sus ;

6 Who gave himself a ransom for all, ³to be testified ^fin due time.

7 Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Chrīst, and lie not ;) a teacher of the Ġēn'tiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray ^gevery where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety ; not with ⁴broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array ;

10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 For Ād'ām was first formed, then Ēve.

14 And Ād'ām was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

15 Notwithstanding she shall be ^hsaved in child-bearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

CHAPTER 3.

2 Of the qualifications of bishops, deacons, and their wives. 15 Of the church and the blessed truth therein taught and professed.

THIS is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a ^abishop, he desireth a good work.

2 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, ¹of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach ;

3 ²Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre ; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous ;

4 ^bOne that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity ;

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

6 Not ³a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.

13 For they that have ⁴used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jē'sus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ⁵ground of the truth.

16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: ⁶God was ⁶manifest in the flesh, ^djustified in the Spirit, ^eseen of angels, preached unto the Gēn'tiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

CHAPTER 4.

How Timothy shall meet false teaching.

NOW the Spirit ^aspeaketh expressly, that ^bin the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed ^cto seducing spirits, ^dand doctrines of devils;

2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; ^ehaving their conscience seared with a hot iron;

3 ^fForbidding to marry, ^gand commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created ^hto be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 For ⁱevery creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jē'sus Christ, ^jnourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth ¹little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, ^khaving promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance.

10 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, ^lwho is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

11 These things command and teach.

16 Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both ^qsave thyself, and them that hear thee.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Rules for reproofs. 3 Of widows. 17 Of elders. 23 Of Timothy's own health.

REBUKE ^anot an elder, but intreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren;

2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 Honour widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew ¹piety at home, and ^bto requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she that liveth ²in pleasure is dead while she liveth.

7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own ³house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be ⁴taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man,

10 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have ^clodged strangers, if she have ^dwashed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry;

12 ^eHaving damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

13 ^fAnd withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 ^gI will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, ^hgive none occasion to the adversary ⁵to speak reproachfully.

15 For some are already turned aside after Sā'tan.

16 ⁱIf any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

17 ^jLet the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the scripture saith, ^kThou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, ^lThe labourer is worthy of his reward.

19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but ⁶before two or three witnesses.

20 ^mThem that sin rebuke before all, ⁿthat others also may fear.

21 I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things ⁷without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

22 ^oLay hands suddenly on no man, ^pneither be partaker of other men's sins : keep thyself pure.

23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities.

24 Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment ; and some men they follow after.

25 Likewise also ^qthe good works of some are manifest beforehand ; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Of servants. 6 The gain of godliness. 10 On love of money. 11 Advice to Timothy.

LET as many ^aservants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, ^bthat the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed.

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, ^cbecause they are brethren ; but rather do them service, because they are ¹faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness ;

4 He is ²proud, ^dknowing nothing, but ³doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings,

5 ⁴Perverse disputings of ^emen of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, ^fsupposing that gain is godliness : ^gfrom such withdraw thyself.

6 But ^hgodliness with contentment is great gain.

7 For ⁱwe brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

16 Who ^vonly hath immortality, dwelling in ^wthe light which no man can approach unto ; ^xwhom no man hath seen, nor can see : ^yto whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in ⁷uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy ;

18 That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, ⁸willing to communicate ;

19 Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

20 O Tīm'o-thy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called :

21 Which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

The first to Tīm'o-thy was written from Lā-ōd-y-çē'á, which is the chiefest city of Phryg'í-á Pā-cá-tí-ā'ná.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO

TIMOTHY.

CHAPTER 1.

Timothy exhorted to stir up the gift of God in him.

PAUL, an apostle of Jē'sus Chrīst by the will of God, according to ^athe promise of life which is in Chrīst Jē'sus,

2 To Tīm'o-thy, my dearly beloved son : Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Chrīst Jē'sus our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day ;

4 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy ;

5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lō'is, and ^bthy mother Eū'nice ; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance ^cthat thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

7 For ^dGod hath not given us the spirit of fear ; ^ebut of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

8 ^fBe not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner : but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God ;

9 Who hath saved us, and ^gcalled us with an holy calling, ^hnot according to our works, but ⁱaccording to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jē'sus ^jbefore the world began,

10 But ^kis now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jē'sus Christ, ^lwho hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel :

11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Ĝen'tiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things : nevertheless I am not ashamed : for I know whom I have ^mbelieved, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed ⁿunto him against that day.

13 ^oHold fast ^pthe form of sound words, ^qwhich thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jē'sus.

14 That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Hō'l'y Ghōst which dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Ā'siā be turned away from me ; of whom are Phy-ğē'l'us and Hēr-mōğ'e-nēs.

16 The Lord ^rgive mercy unto the house of Ōn-e-siph'ō-rus ; ^sfor he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain :

17 But, when he was in Rōme, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant unto him ^tthat he may find mercy of the Lord ^uin that day : and in how many things he ^vministered unto me at Ēph'ē-sūs, thou knowest very well.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Timothy exhorted to endurance. 19 The foundation of the Lord is sure. 22 What to shun and what to follow.

THOU therefore, my son, ^abe strong in the grace that is in Christ Jē'sus.

2 And the things that thou hast heard of me ^bamong many witnesses, ^cthe same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

3 Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jē'sus Christ.

4 ^dNo man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life ; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And if a man also strive for masteries, ^eyet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 ^fThe husbandman that laboreth must be first partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say ; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jē'sus Christ ^gof the seed of Dā'vid ^hwas raised from the dead ⁱaccording to my gospel :

9 Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, ^jeven unto bonds ; but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, ^gthat they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jē'sus with eternal glory.

11 ^hIt is a faithful saying : For ⁱif we be dead with him, we shall also live with him :

12 ^jIf we suffer, we shall also reign with him : ^kif we deny him, he also will deny us :

13 ^lIf we believe not, ^myet he abideth faithful : ⁿhe cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, ^ocharging them before the Lord ^pthat they strive not about words to no profit, ^qbut to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 But ^rshun profane and vain babblings : for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

17 And their word will eat as doth a ^scanker : of whom is ^tHy-mē-næ'us and Phī-lē'tus ;

18 Who concerning the truth have erred, ^usaying that the resurrection is past already ; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless ^vthe foundation of God standeth ^wsure, having this seal, The Lord ^xknoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth ; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.

22 Flee also youthful lusts : but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

23 But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And the servant of the Lord must not strive ; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, ^ypatient,

25 In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves ; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth ;

26 And ^zthat they may ^{aa}recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are ^{ab}taken captive by him at his will.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Wickedness of the last days foretold. 16 Timothy to stand by the scriptures.

THIS know also, that ^ain the last days perilous times shall come.

2 For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, ^bdisobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 Without natural affection, trucebreakers, ^cfalse accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

4 Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God ;

5 Having a form of godliness, but ^ddenying the power thereof : from such turn away.

6 For ^eof this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts, 7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 Now as Jăn'nêş and Jăm'brêş withstood Mō'şes, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as theirs also was.

10 But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience, 11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at Ān'ti-ōch, at Ī-cō'nī-um, at Lys'trā; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me.

12 Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jē'sus shall suffer persecution.

13 But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;

15 And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jē'sus.

16 All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

17 That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Paul further exhorts and warns Timothy. 6 Nearness of his death. 9 Instructions to Timothy.

I CHARGE thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jē'sus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;

2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.

3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

4 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

9 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me:

10 For Dē'mas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thēs-sa-lō-nī'cā; Crēs'cens to Gā-lā'tiā, Tī'tus unto Dāl-mā'ti-ā.

11 Only Lūke is with me. Take Mār'k, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry.

12 And Tych'i-cūs have I sent to Ēph'ē-sūs.

13 The cloke that I left at Trō'ās with Cār'pus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments.

14 Al-ēx-ān'dēr the coppersmith did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his works:

15 Of whom be thou ware also; for he hath greatly withstood our words.

16 At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge.

17 Notwithstanding the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gēn'tiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion.

18 And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

19 Salute Prīs'cā and Ā'quī-lā, and the household of Ōn-e-siph'ō-rus.

20 Ē-rās'tūs abode at Cōr'inth: but Trōph'i-mūs have I left at Mī-lē'tum sick.

21 Do thy diligence to come before winter. Eū-bū'lus greeteth thee, and Pū'dens, and Li'nus, and Clāu'di-ā, and all the brethren.

22 The Lord Jē'sus Christ be with thy spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

4 To Tī'tus, mine own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jē'sus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Crēte, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:

6 If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly.

7 For a bishop must be blameless, as ^hthe steward of God; not selfwilled, not soon angry, ⁱnot given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;

8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of ³good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

9 Holding fast the faithful word ⁴as he hath been taught, that he may be able ^jby sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

10 For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, ^kspecially they of the circumcision:

11 Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert ^lwhole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

12 ^mOne of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Crē'tī-anſ are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

14 Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and ⁿcommandments of men, that turn from the truth.

15 ^oUnto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 ^pThey profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work ⁵reprobate.

CHAPTER 2.

2 That the aged men be ¹sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience.

3 ^bThe aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh ²holiness, not ³false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may teach the young women to be ⁴sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, ^cobedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be ⁵sober minded.

7 ^dIn all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, ^esincerity,

8 ^fSound speech, that cannot be condemned; ^gthat he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

9 Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not ⁶answering again;

10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, ^kand purify unto himself ^la peculiar people, zealous of good works.

15 These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

CHAPTER 3.

Titus further directed how and what to teach, and what not.

PUT them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, ^ato be ready to every good work,

2 To ^bspeak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.

3 For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But after that the kindness and ¹love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 ^cNot by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by ^dthe washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Hō'ly Ghōst;

6 ^eWhich he shed on us ²abundantly through Jē'sus Christ our Saviour;

7 That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

8 This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.

9 But ^favoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

10 A man that is an heretick ^gafter the first and second admonition ^hreject;

11 Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, ⁱbeing condemned of himself.

12 When I shall send Ä'r'te-mās unto thee, or ^jTÿch'i-cūs, be diligent to come unto me to Nī-cōp'-q-līs: for I have determined there to winter.

13 Bring Zē'nas the lawyer and ^kÄ-pōl'lōs on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.

14 And let ours also learn to ³maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be ^lnot unfruitful.

15 All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

It was written to Ti'tus, ordained the first bishop of the church of the Crē'tj-anſ, from Nī-cōp'q-līs of Māç-g-dō'nī-ā.

Christ, in person and office, preferred to angels.

ners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

2 Hath ^bin these last days ^cspoken unto us by his Son, ^dwhom he hath appointed heir of all things, thee ? And again, ^kI will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son ?

tion ?

CHAPTER 2.

¹ We ought to be obedient to Jesus Christ. ¹⁴ Why Christ assumed human nature.

THEREFORE we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should ¹let them slip.

² For if the word spoken by angels was stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward ;

³ How shall we escape, if we neglect so great ^asalvation ; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him ;

⁴ God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and ²gifts of the Hō'ly Ghōst, according to his own will ?

⁵ For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak.

⁶ But one in a certain place testified, saying, ^bWhat is man, that thou art mindful of him ? or the son of man, that thou visitest him ?

⁷ Thou madest him ³a little lower than the angels ; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands :

⁸ Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him.

⁹ But we see Jē'sus, who was made a little lower than the angels ⁴for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour ; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.

¹⁰ ^cFor it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation ^dperfect through sufferings.

¹¹ For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one : for which cause ^ehe is not ashamed to call them brethren, ¹² Saying, ^fI will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

¹³ And again, ^gI will put my trust in him. And again, ^hBehold I and the children which God hath given me.

¹⁴ Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he ⁱalso himself likewise took part of the same ; ^jthat through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil ;

¹⁵ And deliver them who ^kthrough fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

¹⁶ For verily ^lhe took not on him the nature of angels ; but he took on him the seed of Ā'brā'hām.

¹⁷ Wherefore in all things it behoved him ^mto be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things *pertain-*ing to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

¹⁸ ⁿFor in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAPTER 3.

¹ Christ is more worthy than Moses. ⁷ He ought so to be more regarded.

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider ^athe Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Chrīst Jē'sus ;

² Who was faithful to him that ^{1b}appointed him, as also ^cMō'se's was faithful in all his house.

³ For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Mō'se's, inasmuch as ^dhe who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.

⁴ For every house is builded by some man ; but ^ehe that built all things is God.

⁵ And Mō'se's verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, ^ffor a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after ;

⁶ But Chrīst as a son over his own house ; ^gwhose house are we, ^hif we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.

⁷ Wherefore (as ⁱthe Hō'ly Ghōst saith, ^jTo day if ye will hear his voice,

⁸ Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness :

⁹ When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

¹⁰ Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart ; and they have not known my ways.

¹¹ So I sware in my wrath, ²They shall not enter into my rest.)

¹² Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

¹³ But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day ; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

¹⁴ For we are made partakers of Chrīst, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end ;

¹⁵ While it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

¹⁶ ^kFor some, when they had heard, did provoke : howbeit not all that came out of Ē'gypt by Mō'se's.

¹⁷ But with whom was he grieved forty years ? was it not with them that had sinned, ^lwhose carcasses fell in the wilderness ?

¹⁸ And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not ?

¹⁹ So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

CHAPTER 4.

¹ The rest of believers is attained by faith. ¹² Power of God's word. ¹⁶ We must go boldly to the throne of grace.

LET us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

² For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them : but ¹the word preached did not profit them, ²not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

³ For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, ^aAs I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest : although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, ^bAnd God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, ^cand they to whom ³it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief :

7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in Dā'vid, To day, after so long a time ; as it is said, ^dTo day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if ⁴Jē'sus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a ⁵rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of ⁶unbelief.

12 For the word of God is ^equick, and powerful, and sharper than any ^ftwoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is ^ga discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight : but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jē'sus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.

15 For ^hwe have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities ; but ⁱwas in all points tempted like as we are, ^jyet without sin.

16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

CHAPTER 5.

Authority and honour of Christ's priesthood.

FOR every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, ^athat he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins :

2 Who ¹can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way ; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

3 And ^bby reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

4 ^cAnd no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as ^dwas Aār'ōn.

5 ^eSo also Chrīst glorified not himself to be made an high priest ; but he that said unto him, ^fThou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, ^gThou art a priest for ever after the order of Mēl-chīš'e-dēc.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had ^hoffered up prayers and supplications ⁱwith strong cry-

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are ⁴of full age, even those who by reason ⁵of use have their senses exercised ⁿto discern both good and evil.

CHAPTER 6.

¹ Paul exhorts not to fall away from faith. ¹³ God is sure in his promise.

THEREFORE leaving ¹the principles of the doctrine of Chrīst, let us go on unto perfection ; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 ^aOf the doctrine of baptisms, ^band of laying on of hands, ^cand of resurrection of the dead, ^dand of eternal judgment.

3 And this will we do, ^eif God permit.

4 For ^fit is impossible for those ^gwho were once enlightened, and have tasted of ^hthe heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Hō'lŷ Ghōst,

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,

6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance ; ⁱseeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them ²by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God :

8 But that which beareth thorns and briars is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing ; whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 For ^jGod is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence ^kto the full assurance of hope unto the end :

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience ^linherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Ā'bră'hăm, because he could swear by no greater, ^mhe sware by himself, 14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater : and ⁿan oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto ^othe heirs of promise ^pthe immutability of his counsel, ^qconfirmed it by an oath :

18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope ^rset before us :

19 Which ^shope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, ^tand which entereth into that within the veil ;

20 ^uWhither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jē'sus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Mēl-chiṣ'e-dēc.

CHAPTER 7.

¹ Christ is a priest after the order of Melchisedec. ¹¹ More excellent than Aaron's priesthood.

FOR this ^aMēl-chiṣ'e-dēc, king of Sā'lem, priest of the most high God, who met ^bĀ'brā-hām returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him ;

2 To whom also ^cĀ'brā-hām gave a tenth part of all ; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Sā'lem, which is, King of peace ;

3 Without father, without mother, ¹without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life ; but made like unto the Son of God ; abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, ^bunto whom even the patriarch ^cĀ'brā-hām gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily ^ethey that are of the sons of Lē'vī, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of ^dĀ'brā-hām :

6 But he whose ²descent is not counted from them received tithes of ^eĀ'brā-hām, and blessed ^dhim that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes ; but there he receiveth them, ^eof whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Lē'vī also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in ^fĀ'brā-hām.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Mēl-chiṣ'e-dēc met him.

11 ^fIf therefore perfection were by the Lē-vīt'ī-cal priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Mēl-chiṣ'e-dēc, and not be called after the order of Aâr'ōn ?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that ^oour Lord sprang out of Jū'dā ; of which tribe ^pMō'seṣ spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident : for that after the similitude of Mēl-chiṣ'e-dēc there ariseth another priest, 16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

17 For he testifieth, ^hThou art a priest for ever after the order of Mēl-chiṣ'e-dēc.

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for ⁱthe weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

19 For ^jthe law made nothing perfect, ³but the bringing in of ^ka better hope did ; by the which ^lwe draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest :

21 (For those priests were made ⁴without an oath ; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, ^mThe Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Mēl-chiṣ'e-dēc :)

22 By so much was Jē'sus made a surety of a better testament.

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death :

24 But this man, because he ⁿcontinueth ever, hath ⁵an unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them to ⁶the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth ^oto make intercession for them.

26 For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, ^pand made higher than the heavens ;

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, ^qfirst for his own sins, ^rand then for the people's : for ^sthis he did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh ^tmen high priests which have infirmity ; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, ^uwho is ⁷consecrated for evermore.

CHAPTER 8.

The new and better covenant supersedes the old.

NOW of the things which we have spoken this ^{is} the sum : We have such an high priest, ^awho is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens ;

2 A minister ¹of the sanctuary, and of ^bthe true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices : wherefore ^cit is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that ²there are priests that offer gifts according to the law :

5 Who serve unto the example and ^dshadow of heavenly things, as Mō'seṣ was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle : ^efor, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now ^fhath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better ^gcovenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, ^hBehold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Īs'ra-el and with the house of Jū'dah :

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Ē'g'gypt ; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Īs'ra-el after those days, saith the Lord ; I will ⁱput my laws into their mind, and write them ^jin their hearts : and ^kI will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people :

11 And ^lthey shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord : for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Description of the rites and bloody sacrifices of the law. 11 Their inferiority to the sacrifice of Christ.

THEN verily the first covenant had also ¹ordinances of divine service, and a ^aworldly sanctuary.

2 ^bFor there was a tabernacle made ; the first, wherein was the candlestick, and ^cthe table, and the shewbread ; which is called ²the sanctuary.

3 ^dAnd after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all ;

4 Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was ^ethe golden pot that had manna, and ^fAâr'on's rod that budded, and ^gthe tables of the covenant ;

5 And ^hover it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercyseat ; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, ⁱthe priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

7 But into the second went the high priest alone ^jonce every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people :

8 ^kThe Hō'l'y Ghōst this signifying, that ^lthe way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing :

9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, ^mthat could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience ;

10 Which stood only in ⁿmeats and drinks, and ^odivers washings, ^pand carnal ³ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an high priest ^qof good things to come, ^rby a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building ;

12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but ^sby his own blood he entered in ^tonce into the holy place, ^uhaving obtained eternal redemption for us.

13 For if ^vthe blood of bulls and of goats, and ^wthe ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh :

14 How much more ^xshall the blood of Christ, ^ywho through the eternal Spirit ^zoffered himself without ⁴spot to God, ^apurge your conscience from ^bdead works ^cto serve the living God ?

15 ^dAnd for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, ^ethat by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, ^fthey which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity ⁵be the death of the testator.

17 For ^ga testament is of force after men are dead : otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

18 ^hWhereupon neither the first testament was ⁶dedicated without blood.

19 For when Mō'se's had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, ⁱwith water, and ⁷scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, 20 Saying, ^jThis is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

21 Moreover ^khe sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood ; and ^lwithout shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that ^mthe patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these ; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For ⁿChrist is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true ; but into heaven itself, now ^oto appear in the presence of God for us :

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others ;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world : but now once ^pin the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 ^qAnd as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment :

28 So ^rChrist was once ^soffered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

CHAPTER 10.

¹ Sacrifices of the law ineffective. ¹⁰ Christ's sacrifice all-effective. ¹⁹ Exhortation to hold fast the faith.

FOR the law having ^a a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.

2 For then ¹ would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 ^b But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

4 For ^c it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, ^a Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body ² hast thou prepared me:

6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law;

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 ^e By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jē'sus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest standeth ^f daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

12 ^g But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting ^h till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 ⁱ Whereof the Hō'lý Ghōst also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 ^j This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 ^k And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, ^l boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jē'sus,

20 By ^m a new and living way, which he hath ⁿ consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

23 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for ^o he is faithful that promised;)

24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:

25 ^p Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and ^q so much the more, as ye see ^r the day approaching.

26 For ^s if we sin wilfully ^t after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, 27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and ^u fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

28 He that despised Mō'se's law died without mercy under two or three witnesses:

29 Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and ^v hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, ^w and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?

30 For we know him that hath said, ^x Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, ^y The Lord shall judge his people.

31 ^z It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But ^a call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured ^b a great fight of afflictions;

33 Partly, whilst ye were made a gazingstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, whilst ^c ye became companions of them that were so used.

34 For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and ^d took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing ^e in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward.

36 ^f For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ^g ye might receive the promise.

37 For ^h yet a little while, and ⁱ he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

38 Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

CHAPTER 11.

¹ Of faith. ⁶ Without faith, God is not pleased. ⁷ Fruits thereof.

NOW faith is the ¹ substance of things hoped for, the evidence ^a of things not seen.

2 For by it the elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that ^b the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith ^cĀ'bēl offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cāin, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead ²yet speaketh.

5 By faith ^dĒ'nōch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 But ^ewithout faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith ^fNō'ah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, ³moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of ^gthe righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith ^hĀ'brā-hām, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, ^hdwelling in tabernacles with ⁱĪ'saac and ^jJā'cob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

10 For he looked for a city which hath foundations, ⁱwhose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith also ^jSā'rā herself received strength to conceive seed, and ^kwas delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and ^lhim as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

13 These all died ⁴in faith, not having received the promises, but ^mhaving seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and ⁿconfessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things ^odeclare plainly that they seek a country.

15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.

16 But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed ^pto be called their God: for ^qhe hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith ^rĀ'brā-hām, when he was tried, offered up ⁱĪ'saac: and he that had received the promises ^soffered up his only begotten son,

18 ⁵Of whom it was said, ^tThat in ⁱĪ'saac shall thy seed be called:

19 Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.

20 By faith ^uĪ'saac blessed ^{jā'cob} and ^{ē'sau} concerning things to come.

21 By faith ^vJā'cob, when he was a dying, ^wblessed both the sons of ^{jō'seph}; and ^wworshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

22 By faith ²Jō'seph, when he died, ⁶made mention of the departing of the children of ^{ī's}ra-el; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith ^uMō'ses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's ^zcommandment.

24 By faith ^{mō'ses}, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Phā'raōh's daughter;

25 ^aChoosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

26 Esteeming the reproach ⁷of Christ greater riches than the treasures in ^{ē'g}gypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward.

27 By faith ^bhe forsook ^{ē'g}gypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.

28 Through faith ^che kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the first-born should touch them.

29 By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the ^{ē-g}gyptians assaying to do were drowned.

30 By faith ^dthe walls of ^{jēr'ī}-chō fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

31 By faith ^ethe harlot ^{rā'hāb} perished not with them ⁸that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of ^fGēd'e-on, and of ^gBā'rak, and of ^hSām'son, and of ⁱJēph'thā-ē; of ^jDā'vid also, and ^kSām'u-el, and of the prophets:

33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, ^lstopped the mouths of lions, 34 ^mQuenched the violence of fire, ⁿescaped the edge of the sword, ^oout of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, ^pturned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 ^qWomen received their dead raised to life again: and others were ^rtortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:

36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover ^sof bonds and imprisonment:

37 ^tThey were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: ^uthey wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

38 (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and ^vin dens and caves of the earth.

39 And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:

40 God having ⁹provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be ^wmade perfect.

CHAPTER 12.

1 An exhortation to faith, patience, and godliness. 5 The Lord's chastenings. 27 What this word signifies.

WHEREFORE seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

2 ^aLooking unto Jē'sus the ¹author and finisher of our faith; ^bwho for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and ^cis set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 ^dFor consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, ^elest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, ^fMy son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

6 For ^gwhom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, ^hwhereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us ²after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, ⁱthat we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth ^jthe peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore ^klift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

13 And make ^lstraight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; ^mbut let it rather be healed.

14 Follow peace with all men, and holiness, ⁿwithout which no man shall see the Lord:

15 Looking diligently lest any man ^ofail of the grace of God; ^plest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

16 Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as ^qE'sau, ^rwho for one morsel of meat sold his birth-right.

17 For ye know how that afterward, ^swhen he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no ^tplace of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 For ye are not come unto ^uthe mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which ^vvoice they that heard ^wintreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:

20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:

LET brotherly love continue.

2 ^aBe not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby ^bsome have entertained angels unawares.

3 ^cRemember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

4 Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

5 Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, ^dI will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

6 So that we may boldly say, ^eThe Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

7 Remember them which ¹have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation.

8 Jē'sus Chrīst ^fthe same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

9 Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

10 ^gWe have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.

11 For ^hthe bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp.

12 Wherefore Jē'sus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, ⁱsuffered without the gate.

13 Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing ^jhis reproach.

14 ^kFor here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

15 By him therefore let us offer ^lthe sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips ²giving thanks to his name.

16 But to do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

17 Obey them that ³have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for ^mthey watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF

JAMES.

CHAPTER 1.

¹ Rejoicing under the cross. ⁵ Of patience. ¹⁹ On hearkening to and doing the word.

JAMES, ^aa servant of God and of the Lord Jē'sus Christ, ^bto the twelve tribes ^cwhich are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations;

3 Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

5 ^aIf any of you lack wisdom, ^elet him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and ^fit shall be given him.

6 ^gBut let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree ¹rejoice in that he is exalted:

10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

12 ^hBlessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive ⁱthe crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with ²evil, neither tempteth he any man:

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, ^jwith whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

18 ^kOf his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of ^lfirstfruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath:

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, ^mwhich is able to save your souls.

22 But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For ⁿif any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But ^owhoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, ^pthis man shall be blessed in his ³deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, ^qTo visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, ^rand to keep himself unspotted from the world.

CHAPTER 2.

¹ Respect rich and poor alike. ¹⁴ Of faith without works.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jē'sus Christ, ^athe Lord of glory, with ^brespect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your ¹assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here ²in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Harken, my beloved brethren, ^cHath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of ³the kingdom ^dwhich he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, ^eThou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, ^fhe is guilty of all.

11 For ⁴he that said, ^gDo not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

13 For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy ⁵rejoiceth against judgment.

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being ⁶alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith ⁷without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: ^hthe devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that ⁱfaith without works is dead?

21 Was not Ā'brā-hām our father justified by works, ^jwhen he had offered Ī'saac his son upon the altar?

22 ⁸Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith,

25 Likewise also ^mwas not Rā'hāb the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the ⁹spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAPTER 3.

¹ On rash reproof. ⁵ The tongue to be bridled. ¹³ Wisdom of mildness.

MY brethren, ^abe not many masters, ^bknowing that we shall receive the greater ¹condemnation.

2 For ^cin many things we offend all. ^dIf any man offend not in word, ^ethe same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great ²a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that ^fit defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the ³course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For every ⁴kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of ⁵mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, ^gwhich are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same ⁶place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

13 ^hWho is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom.

14 But if ye have ⁱbitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15 ^jThis wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, ⁷sensual, devilish.

16 For ^kwhere envying and strife is, there is ⁸confusion and every evil work.

17 But ^lthe wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, ⁹without partiality, ^mand without hypocrisy.

18 ^aAnd the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

CHAPTER 4.

¹ On strife against the passions. ¹³ Being mindful of life's uncertainty, commit all to God.

FROM whence come wars and ¹fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your ²lusts that war in your members?

² Ye lust, and have not: ye ³kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ^aye ask not.

³ ^bYe ask, and receive not, ^cbecause ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your ⁴lusts.

⁴ Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that ^dthe friendship of the world is enmity with God? ^ewhosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

⁵ Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, ^fThe spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth ⁵to envy?

⁶ But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, ^gGod resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

⁷ Submit yourselves therefore to God. ^hResist the devil, and he will flee from you.

⁸ ⁱDraw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded.

⁹ Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

¹⁰ Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

¹¹ Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

¹² There is one lawgiver, ^jwho is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?

¹³ Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:

¹⁴ Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? ^kIt is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

¹⁵ For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

¹⁶ But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil.

¹⁷ Therefore ^lto him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

CHAPTER 5.

¹ Oppressions of the rich. ⁷ Patience under afflictions. ¹³ Prayer in adversity.

GO to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

³ Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. ^aYe have heaped treasure together for the last days.

⁵ Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

⁶ Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.

⁷ ¹Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive ^dthe early and latter rain.

⁸ Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: ^efor the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

⁹ ²Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge ^fstandeth before the door.

¹⁰ ^gTake, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

¹¹ Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of ^hthe patience of Jōb, and have seen ⁱthe end of the Lord; that ^jthe Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

¹² But above all things, my brethren, ^kswear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.

¹³ Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms.

¹⁴ Is any sick among you? let him call for the ^lelders of the church; and let them pray over him, ^manointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

¹⁵ And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; ⁿand if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

¹⁶ Confess your faults to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. ^oThe effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man avail-eth much.

¹⁸ And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

¹⁹ Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him;

²⁰ Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way ^qshall save a soul from death, and ^rshall hide a multitude of sins.

CHAPTER 1.

¹ Blessing for spiritual graces. ¹³ Exhortation to godliness.

PĒ'TĒR, an apostle of Jē'sus Chrīst, to the strangers ^ascattered throughout Pōn'tus, Gā-lā'tiā, Căp-pă-dō'çî-ă, Ā'siā, and Bî-thŷn'i-ă, ² Elect ^baccording to the foreknowledge of God the Father, ^cthrough sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling ^dof the blood of Jē'sus Chrīst: Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied.

³ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, which according to his ¹abundant mercy ^ehath begotten us again unto a lively hope ^fby the resurrection of Jē'sus Chrīst from the dead,

⁴ To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven ²for you,

⁵ ^gWho are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

⁶ ^hWherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:

⁷ That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though ⁱit be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jē'sus Chrīst:

⁸ ^jWhom having not seen, ye love; ^kin whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

⁹ Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

¹⁰ ^lOf which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:

¹¹ Searching what, or what manner of time ^mthe Spirit of Chrīst which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand ⁿthe sufferings of Chrīst, and the glory that should follow.

¹² ^oUnto whom it was revealed, that ^pnot unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with ^qthe Hō'lŷ Ghōst sent down from heaven; ^rwhich things the angels desire to look into.

¹³ Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope ^sto the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you ^tat the revelation of Jē'sus Chrīst;

¹⁴ As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance:

¹⁵ But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation;

¹⁶ Because it is written, 'Be ye holy; for I am holy.

¹⁷ And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your ^usojourning here in fear:

²³ ^bBeing born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, ^cby the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.

²⁴ ⁴For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:

²⁵ ^dBut the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

CHAPTER 2.

⁶ Christ the chief corner stone. ¹³ An exhortation to obedience. ¹⁸ Duty of servants. ²¹ Christ our example.

WHEREFORE laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings,

² ^aAs newborn babes, desire the sincere ^bmilk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

³ If so be ye have ^ctasted that the Lord is gracious.

⁴ To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,

⁵ ^dYe also, as lively stones, ¹are built up a spiritual house, ^ean holy priesthood, to offer up ^fspiritual sacrifices, ^gacceptable to God by Jē'sus Chrīst.

⁶ Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, ^hBehold, I lay in Si'ōn a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

⁷ Unto you therefore which believe he is ²precious: but unto them which be disobedient, ⁱthe stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

⁸ ^jAnd a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: ^kwhereunto also they were appointed.

⁹ But ye are ^la chosen generation, ^ma royal priesthood, ⁿan holy nation, ³a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the ⁴praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:

¹⁰ ^oWhich in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God : which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul ;

12 Having your conversation honest among the Gēn'tiles : that, ⁵ whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God ⁶ in the day of visitation.

13 Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake : whether it be to the king, as supreme ;

14 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well.

15 For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men :

16 As free, and not ⁶ using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.

17 ⁷ Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.

18 Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear ; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

19 For this is ⁸ thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently ? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is ⁹ acceptable with God.

21 For even hereunto were ye called : because Christ also suffered ¹⁰ for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps :

22 ⁹ Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth :

23 ^r Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again ; when he suffered, he threatened not ; but ¹¹ committed himself to him that judgeth righteously :

24 Who his own self bare our sins in his own body ¹² on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness : ^s by whose stripes ye were healed.

25 For ^t ye were as sheep going astray ; but are now returned ^u unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

CHAPTER 3.

¹ Duties of husbands and wives. ⁸ Of unity and love. ¹⁹ Benefits of Christ toward the old world.

LIKEWISE, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands ; that, if any obey not the word, ^a they also may without the word ^b be won by the conversation of the wives ;

2 While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

3 ^c Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorn- ing of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel ;

4 But let it be ^d the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands :

6 Even as Sā'rá obeyed Ā'brā-hām, ^e calling him lord : whose ¹ daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life ; ^f that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, ² love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous :

9 Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing : but contrariwise blessing ; knowing that ye are thereunto called, ^g that ye should inherit a blessing.

10 For ^h he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile :

11 Let him eschew evil, and do good ; let him seek peace, and ensue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, ⁱ and his ears are open unto their prayers : but the face of the Lord is ³ against them that do evil.

13 ^j And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good ?

14 ^k But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye : and ^l be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled ;

15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts : and ^m be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and ⁴ fear :

16 Having a good conscience ; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye ⁿ suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.

18 For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death ^o in the flesh, but ^p quickened by the Spirit :

19 By ^q which also he went and preached unto the spirits ^r in prison ;

20 Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Nō'ah, while ^s the ark was a preparing, ^t wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.

21 ^u The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jē'sus Christ :

22 Who is gone into heaven, and ^v is on the right hand of God ; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

CHAPTER 4.

FORASMUCH then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for ^ahe that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin;

2 That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.

3 For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gēn'tiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:

4 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you:

5 Who shall give account to him that is ready ^bto judge the quick and the dead.

6 For for this cause ^cwas the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But ^dthe end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

8 And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for ^echarity ¹shall cover the multitude of sins.

9 Use hospitality one to another ^fwithout grudging.

10 As ^gevery man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

11 ^hIf any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that ⁱGod in all things may be glorified through Jē'sus Chrīst, ^jto whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you:

13 But rejoice, inasmuch as ^kye are partakers of Chrīst's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14 ^lIf ye be reproached for the name of Chrīst, happy are ye; for the ^mspirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

15 But ⁿlet none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters.

16 Yet if any man suffer as a Chrīst'ian, let him not be ashamed; ^obut let him glorify God on this behalf.

17 For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and ^pif it first begin at

THE elders which are among you I exhort, whom I am also ^aan elder, and ^ba witness of the sufferings of Chrīst, and also ^ca partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:

2 ^dFeed the flock of God ¹which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

3 Neither as ²being lords over ^eGod's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock.

4 And when ^fthe chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, ^gall of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and ^hgiveth grace to the humble.

6 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:

7 ⁱCasting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

8 Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

9 Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

10 But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Chrīst Jē'sus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you.

11 To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 ^jBy Sil-vā'nus, a faithful brother unto you, as I suppose, I have written ^kbriefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand.

13 The church that is at Bāb'ŷ-lon, elected together with you, saluteth you; and so doth ^mMār'cus my son.

14 Greet ye one another with a kiss of charity. Peace be with you all that are in Chrīst Jē'sus. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

CHAPTER 1.

⁵ Exhortation to faith and good works. ¹⁶ The promises of the gospel.

SĪMON Pē'tēr, a servant and an apostle of Jē'sus Chrīst, to them that have obtained ^alike precious faith with us through the righteousness ¹of God and our Saviour Jē'sus Chrīst:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jē'sus our Lord,

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, ^bthrough the knowledge of him ^cthat hath called us ²to glory and virtue:

4 ^dWhereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be ^epartakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue ; and to virtue ^fknowledge ;

6 And to knowledge temperance ; and to temperance patience ; and to patience godliness ;

7 And to godliness brotherly kindness ; and ^gto brotherly kindness charity.

8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be ^hbarren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

9 But he that lacketh these things ^his blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was ⁱpurged from his old sins.

10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence ^jto make your calling and election sure : for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall :

11 ^kFor so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jē'sus Chrīst.

12 Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance ;

14 ^lKnowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as ^mour Lord Jē'sus Chrīst hath shewed me.

15 Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, but were eye-witnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, ⁿThis is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in ^othe holy mount.

19 We have also a more ^psure word of prophecy ; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and ^qthe day star arise in your hearts :

20 Knowing this first, that ^rno prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

21 For ^sthe prophecy came not ^tin old time by the will of man : ^tbut holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Hō'lŷ Ghōst.

2 And many shall follow their ¹pernicious ways ; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you : whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not ^dthe angels ^ethat sinned, but ^fcast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment ;

5 And spared not the old world, but saved Nō'ah ^gthe eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly ;

6 And ^hturning the cities of Sōd'om and Gō-mōr'-rhā into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly ;

7 And delivered just Lōt, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked :

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds ;)

9 ⁱThe Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished :

10 But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise ²government. Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.

11 Whereas ^jangels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation ³against them before the Lord.

12 But these, ^kas natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not ; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption ;

13 ^lAnd shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure ^mto riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while ⁿthey feast with you ;

14 Having eyes full of ⁴adultery, and that cannot cease from sin ; beguiling unstable souls : an heart they have exercised with covetous practices ; cursed children :

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of ^oBā'lqam the son of Bō'sōr, who loved the wages of unrighteousness ;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity : the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet.

17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest ; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that ^pwere ⁵clean escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise them ^qliberty, they themselves are ^rthe servants of corruption : for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For ^sif after they ^thave escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jē'sus Chrīst, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For ^uit had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, ^vThe dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

CHAPTER 3.

¹ Certainty of Christ's coming. ⁸ Final warning to the godly. ¹⁰ Last day described.

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which ^aI stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, ^band of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3 ^cKnowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, ^dwalking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, ^eWhere is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that ^fby the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth ¹standing out of the water and in the water:

6 ^gWhereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

7 But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto ^hfire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and ⁱa thousand years as one day.

10 But ⁿthe day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which ^othe heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, 12 Looking for and ²hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall ^pbe dissolved, and the elements shall ^qmelt with fervent heat?

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for ^rnew heavens and a new earth, wherein dwell-eth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

15 And account that ^sthe longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you;

16 As also in all his epistles, ^tspeaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, ^ubeware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jē'sus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

¹ Of fellowship and communion with God. ⁵ Walking in the light.

THAT ^awhich was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, ^bwhich we have looked upon, and ^cour hands have handled, of the ^dWord of life;

2 (For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life, ^ewhich was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;)

3 That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly ^four fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jē'sus Christ.

4 And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that ^gGod is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jē'sus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

8 ^hIf we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

9 ⁱIf we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAPTER 2.

¹ Christ the propitiation for sins. ¹⁸ Warning against seducers.

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, ^awe have an advocate with the Father, Jē'sus Christ the righteous:

2 And ^bhe is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but ^calso for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But ^dwhoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

6 ^eHe that saith he abideth in him ^fought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

7 Brethren, ^gI write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment ^hwhich ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, ⁱa new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: ^jbecause the darkness is past, and ^kthe true light now shineth.

9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

10 He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and ^lthere is none ¹occasion of stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and ^mwalketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because ⁿyour sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him ^othat is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ^pye are strong, and ^qthe word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. ^rIf any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, ^sand the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God ^tabideth for ever.

18 Little children, ^uit is the last time: and as ye have heard that ^vantichrist shall come, ^weven now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for ^xif they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that ^ythey might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

20 But ^zye have an unction ^afrom the Holy One, and ^bye know all things.

not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jē'sus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] ^ehe that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

24 Let that therefore abide in you, ^dwhich ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ^eye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 ^fAnd this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

26 These things have I written unto you concerning them that seduce you.

27 But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ^gye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing ^hteacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in ²him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 ⁱIf ye know that he is righteous, ³ye know that every one that doeth righteousness is born of him.

CHAPTER 3.

1 The love of God toward us. 11 Exhortation to brotherly love.

BEHOLD, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that ^awe should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, ^bbecause it knew him not.

2 Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and ^cit doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, ^dwe shall be like him; for ^ewe shall see him as he is.

3 And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.

5 And ye know that he was manifested ^fto take away our sins; and ^gin him is no sin.

6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you: ^hhe that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.

8 ⁱHe that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, ^jthat he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 ^kWhosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for ^lhis seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For this is the ¹message that ye heard from the beginning, ^mthat we should love one another.

12 Not as ⁿCāin, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

15 ^oWhosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that ^pno murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 ^qHereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But ^rwhoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?

18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.

19 And hereby we know ^sthat we are of the truth, and shall ²assure our hearts before him.

20 For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 ^tBeloved, if our heart condemn us not, ^uthen have we confidence toward God.

22 And ^vwhatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, ^wand do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jē'sus Chrīst, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.

24 And he that keepeth his commandments ^xdwelleth in him, and he in him. And ^yhereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

CHAPTER 4.

¹ Make test of the spirits. ⁷ Love of God and one another.

BELOVED, ^abelieve not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because ^bmany false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: ^cEvery spirit that confesseth that Jē'sus Chrīst is come in the flesh is of God:

3 And ^devery spirit that confesseth not that Jē'sus Chrīst is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.

4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than ^ehe that is in the world.

5 ^fThey are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, ^gand the world heareth them.

6 We are of God: ^hhe that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we ⁱthe spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not knoweth not God; for ^jGod is love.

9 In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, ^knot that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 ^lNo man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

13 ^mHereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And ⁿwe have seen and do testify that ^othe Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 ^pWhosoever shall confess that Jē'sus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is ¹our love made perfect, that ^awe may have boldness in the day of judgment: ^rbecause as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

21 And ^sthis commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

CHAPTER 5.

¹ Love of God is to keep his commandments. ⁷ The three Spirits of witness. ¹⁴ God will hear prayer.

WHOSOEVER ^abelieveth that ^bJē'sus is the Chrīst is born of God: ^cand every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3 ^dFor this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and ^ehis commandments are not grievous.

4 For ^fwhatsoever is born of God overcome the world: and this is the victory that overcome the world, even our faith.

5 Who is he that overcome the world, but ^ghe that believeth that Jē'sus is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came ^hby water and blood, even Jē'sus Chrīst; not by water only, but by water and blood. ⁱAnd it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 ^jFor there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, ^kthe Word, and the Hō'lŷ Ghōst: ^land these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood : and these three agree in one.

9 If we receive ^mthe witness of men, the witness of God is greater: ⁿfor this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that believeth on the Son of God ^ohath the witness in himself : he that believeth not God ^phath made him a liar ; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and ^qthis life is in his Son.

12 ^rHe that hath the Son hath life ; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

13 ^sThese things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God ; ^tthat ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have ^uin him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us :

17 All unrighteousness is sin : and there is a sin not unto death.

18 We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not ; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.

20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jē'sus Chrīst. ^{ab}This is the true God, and eternal life.

JOHN.

An exhortation to the elect lady and her children.

THE ^aelder unto the elect lady and her children, ^bwhom I love in the truth ; and not I only, but also all they that have known ^cthe truth ;

2 For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever.

3 Grace ^dbe with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children ^ewalking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee, lady, ^fnot as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, ^gthat we love one another.

6 And ^hthis is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, ⁱas ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

9 Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Chrīst, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Chrīst, he hath both the Father and the Son.

10 If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, ^kneither bid him God speed :

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF

JUDE.

Exhortation to earnestly contend for the faith.

JUDE, the servant of Jē'sus Christ, and ^abrother of Jāmes, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and ^bpreserved in Jē'sus Christ, and ^ccalled:

2 Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you ^dof the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 For there are certain men crept in unawares, ^ewho were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning ^fthe grace of our God into lasciviousness, and ^gdenying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jē'sus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of E'gypt, afterward ^hdestroyed them that believed not.

6 And ⁱthe angels which kept not their ¹first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness ^junto the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as ^kSōd'om and Gō-mōr'rhā, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after ²strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and ^lspeak evil of dignities.

9 Yet ^mMī'chaēl the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the ⁿbody of Mō'šeš, ^odurst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, ^pThe Lord rebuke thee.

10 But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way ^qof Cāin, and ^rran greedily after the error of Bā'laam for reward, and perished ^sin the gainsaying of Cō'rē.

14 And E'nōch also, ^wthe seventh from Ād'ām, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, ^xthe Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, 15 To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

17 But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jē'sus Christ;

18 How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

19 These be they ^zwho separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit.

20 But ye, beloved, ^abuilding up yourselves on your most holy faith, ^bpraying in the Hō'l'y Ghōst, 21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jē'sus Christ unto eternal life.

THE REVELATION OF ST. JOHN THE DIVINE.

CHAPTER 1.

THE Revelation of Jē'sus Chrīst, ^a which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and ^b he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant Jōhn :

2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jē'sus Chrīst, and of all things ^c that he saw.

3 ^d Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein : for the time is at hand.

4 JŌHN to the seven churches which are in ^e Ā'siā : Grace be unto you, and peace, from him ^f which is, and ^g which was, and which is to come; and ^h from the seven Spirits which are before his throne ;

5 And from Jē'sus Chrīst, ⁱ who is the faithful witness, and the ^j first begotten of the dead, and ^k the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him ^l that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

6 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father ; ^m to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

7 ⁿ Behold, he cometh with clouds ; and every eye shall see him, and ^o they also which pierced him : and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

8 ^p I am Ā'phā and Ō'me-gā, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

9 I Jōhn, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and ^q in the kingdom and patience of Jē'sus Chrīst, was in the isle that is called Pāt'mos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jē'sus Chrīst.

10 ^r I was in the Spirit on ^s the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am Ā'phā and Ō'me-gā, the first and the last : and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Ā'siā ; unto Ēph'ē-sūs, and unto Smȳr'nā, and unto Pēr'gamōs, and unto Thȳ-ā-tī'rā, and unto Sār'dis, and unto Phīl-ā-dēl'phī-ā, and unto Lā-ōd-ī-çē'ā.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, ^t I saw seven golden candlesticks ;

13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks ^u one like unto the Son of man, ^v clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head and ^w his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow ; and ^x his eyes were as a flame of fire ;

15 ^y And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace ; and ^z his voice as the sound of many waters.

2 ^c I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil : and ^d thou hast tried them ^e which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars :

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works ; ^g or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nīc-q-lā'i-taneş, which I also hate.

7 ^h He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches ; To him that overcometh will I give ⁱ to eat of ^j the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smȳr'nā write ; These things saith ^k the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive ;

9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art ^l rich) and I know the blasphemy of ^m them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Sā'tan.

10 ⁿ Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer : behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried ; and ye shall have tribulation ten days : ^o be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee ^p a crown of life.

11 ^q He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches ; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of ^r the second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pēr'ga-mōs write ; These things saith ^she which hath ^tthe sharp sword with two edges ;

13 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Sā'tan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Ān'tī-pās was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, ^uwhere Sā'tan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of ^vBā'laam, who taught Bā'lāc to cast a stumbling-block before the children of Īs'ra-el, ^wto eat things sacrificed unto idols, ^xand to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nīc-q-lā'i-taneš, which thing I hate.

16 Repent ; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and ^ywill fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches ; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone ^za new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the angel of the church in Thȳ-ā-tī'rā write ; These things saith the Son of God, ^awho hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass ;

19 I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works ; and the last to be more than the first.

20 Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman ^bJēz'ē-bēl, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space ^cto repent of her fornication ; and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death ; and all the churches shall know that ^dI am he which searcheth the reins and hearts : and ^eI will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thȳ-ā-tī'rā, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not ^fknown the depths of Sā'tan, as they speak ; ^gI will put upon you none other burden.

25 But that which ye have already hold fast till I come.

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth ^hmy works unto the end, ⁱto him will I give power over the nations :

27 ^jAnd he shall rule them with a rod of iron ; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers : even as I received of my Father.

28 And I will give him ^kthe morning star.

29 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Messages to the angels of the churches of Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea. 20 Christ stands at the door and knocks.

AND unto the angel of the church in Sār'dis write ; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars ; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, ^aand art dead.

2 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die : for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. ^bIf therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast ^ca few names even in Sār'dis which have not ^ddefiled their garments ; and they shall walk with me ^ein white : for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment ; and I will not ^fblot out his name out of the ^gbook of life, but ^hI will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Phīl-a-dēl'-phī-ā write ; These things saith ⁱhe that is holy, ^jhe that is true, he that hath ^kthe key of Dā'vid, ^lhe that openeth, and no man shutteth ; and ^mshutteth, and no man openeth ;

8 I know thy works : behold, I have set before thee ⁿan open door, and no man can shut it : for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Sā'tan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie ; behold, ^oI will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, ^pI also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

11 Behold, I come quickly : hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh will I make ^qa pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out : and ^rI will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is ^snew Jē-ru'sā-lēm, ^twhich cometh down out of heaven from my God : ^uand I will write upon him my new name.

13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

14 And unto the angel of the church ¹of the Lā-ōd-ī-ḡē'anš write ; These things saith the ^vAmen, the faithful and true ^wwitness, the ^xbeginning of the creation of God ;

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot : I would thou wert cold or hot.

16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

17 Because thou sayest, ^yI am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing ; and know-est not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked :

18 I counsel thee ^yto buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich ; and ^zwhite raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear ; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.

19 ^aAs many as I love, I rebuke and chasten : be zealous therefore, and repent.

20 Behold, ^bI stand at the door, and knock : ^cif any man hear my voice, and open the door, ^dI will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

21 To him that overcometh ^ewill I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

22 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAPTER 4.

² John sees the throne of God in heaven. ⁴ Four and twenty elders. ⁶ The four beasts. ¹⁰ The elders worship him that sat upon the throne.

AFTER this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven : and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me ; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately I ^awas in the spirit : and, behold, ^ba throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.

3 And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone : ^cand there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats : and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment ; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices : ^dand there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was ^ea sea of glass like unto crystal : ^fand in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before and behind.

7 ^gAnd the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the four beasts had each of them ^hsix wings about him ; and they were full of eyes within : and ⁱthey rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever,

10 The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

11 Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and

CHAPTER 5.

The sealed book which only the Lamb is worthy to open.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne ^aa book written within and on the backside, ^bsealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof ?

3 And ^cno man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not : behold, ^dthe Lion of the tribe of Jū'dā, ^ethe Root of Dā'vid, hath ^fprevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne, and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood ^ga Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and ^hseven eyes, which are ⁱthe seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them ^jharps, and golden vials full of ^kodours, ^lwhich are the prayers of saints.

9 And ^mthey sung a new song, saying, ⁿThou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof : for thou wast slain, and ^ohast redeemed us to God by thy blood ^pout of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation ;

10 ^qAnd hast made us unto our God kings and priests : and we shall reign on the earth.

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders : and the number of them was ^rten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands ;

12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And ^severy creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, ^tBlessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, ^uand unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

14 And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

CHAPTER 6.

The opening of the seals in order.

AND I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see.

2 And I saw, and behold ^aa white horse: ^band he that sat on him had a bow; ^cand a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 ^dAnd there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo ^ea black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, ¹A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and ^fsee thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given ²unto them over the fourth part of the earth, ^gto kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and ^hwith the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under ⁱthe altar ^jthe souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for ^kthe testimony which they held:

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, ^lHow long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, ^mthat they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, ⁿand, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the ^osun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;

13 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her ³untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

14 ^pAnd the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and ^qevery mountain and island were moved out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, ^rhid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 ^sFor the great day of his wrath is come; ^tand who shall be able to stand?

CHAPTER 7.

¹ Sealing of the servants of God. ⁹ The number sealed. ¹⁴ Their robes were washed in the blood of the Lamb.

AND after these things I saw four ^aangels standing on the four corners of the earth, ^bholding the four winds of the earth, ^cthat the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, ^dHurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have ^esealed the servants of our God ^fin their foreheads.

4 ^gAnd I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed ^han hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Is'ra-el.

5 Of the tribe of Jū'dā were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reu'ben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gād were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Ā'sēr were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nēp'tha-līm were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Mā-nās'sēs were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Sīm'e-on were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Lē'vī were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Is'sa-char were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zāb'u-lon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Jō'seph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Bēn'jā-min were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and, lo, ⁱa great multitude, which no man could number, ^jof all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, ^kclothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, ^lSalvation to our God ^mwhich sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 ⁿAnd all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,

12 ^oSaying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, ^pThese are they which came out of great tribulation, and have ^qwashed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall ^rdwell among them.

16 ^sThey shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

17 For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Opening the seventh seal. 2 The angels and their trumpets. 6 What followed the soundings.

AND when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

2 And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets.

3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood;

9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters;

11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!

CHAPTER 9.

1 After the fifth angel sounds, a star falls from heaven. 12 Sounding of the sixth trumpet. 14 Four angels let loose from their bonds.

AND the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.

1 Cor. 10. 20.

2 And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.

11 And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Ā-bād'don, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Ā-pöll'yon.

12 One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Eū-phrā'tēs.

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils,

^x and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood : which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk :

21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

CHAPTER 10.

AND I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud : ^a and a rainbow was upon his head, and ^b his face was as it were the sun, and ^c his feet as pillars of fire :

2 And he had in his hand a little book open : ^d and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,

3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth : and when he had cried, ^e seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write : and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, ^f Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him that ^g liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, ^h that there should be time no longer :

7 But ⁱ in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, ^j Take it, and eat it up ; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up ; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey : and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

CHAPTER 11.

³ The two witnesses prophesy. ¹⁵ Sounding of the seventh trumpet.

AND there was given me ^a a reed like unto a rod : and the angel stood, saying, ^b Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But ^c the court which is without the temple ¹ leave out, and measure it not ; ^d for it is given unto the Gēn'tiles : and the holy city shall they ^e tread under foot ^f forty and two months.

3 And ² I will give power unto my two ^g witnesses, ^h and they shall prophesy ⁱ a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are the ^j two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, ^k fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies : ^l and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6 These ^m have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy : and ⁿ have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they ^o shall have finished their testimony, ^p the beast that ascendeth ^o out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of ^r the great city, which spiritually is called Sōd'om and E'g'gypt, ^s where also our Lord was crucified.

9 ^t And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, ^u and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 ^v And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another ; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

11 And after three days and an half ^w the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet ; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. ^x And they ascended up to heaven ^y in a cloud ; and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the same hour was there a great earthquake, ^z and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain ³ of men seven thousand : and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 The second woe is past ; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

15 And the seventh angel sounded ; ^a and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ ; ^b and he shall reign for ever and ever.

16 And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God, 17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come ; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned.

18 And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, ^c and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great ; and shouldest destroy them which ^d destroy the earth.

19 And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple ^d the ark of his testament ; and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.

CHAPTER 12.

AND there appeared a great ¹wonder in heaven; a ^awoman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

2 And she being with child cried, ^btravailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

3 And there appeared another ²wonder in heaven; and behold a ^cgreat red dragon, ^dhaving seven heads and ten horns, ^eand seven crowns upon his heads.

4 And ^fhis tail drew the third part ^gof the stars of heaven, ^hand did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, ⁱfor to devour her child as soon as it was born.

5 And she brought forth a man child, ^jwho was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there ^ka thousand two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was war in heaven: ^lMī'chaël and his angels fought ^magainst the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And ⁿthe great dragon was cast out, ^othat old serpent, called the Dēv'il, and Sā'tan, which deceiveth the whole world: ^phe was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, ^qNow is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Chrīst: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, ^rwhich accused them before our God day and night.

11 And ^sthey overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; ^tand they loved not their lives unto the death.

12 Therefore rejoice, ^uye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. ^vWoe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, ^wbecause he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child.

14 ^xAnd to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly ^yinto the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished ^zfor a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

15 And the serpent ^acast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, ^band went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have ^cthe testimony of Jē'sus Chrīst.

CHAPTER 13.

¹ The beast to which the dragon gives his power. ¹⁸ The number of the beast.

AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw ^aa beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the ¹name of blasphemy.

2 ^bAnd the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and ^cthe dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads as it were ²wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and ^dall the world wondered after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, ^eWho is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

5 And there was given unto him ^fa mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him ³to continue ^gforty and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, ^hand his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him ⁱto make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, ^jwhose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain ^kfrom the foundation of the world.

9 If any man have an ear, let him hear.

10 ^lHe that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: ^mhe that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. ⁿHere is the patience and the faith of the saints.

11 And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And ^ohe doeth great wonders, ^pso that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men, 14 And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth, by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and ^qdid live.

15 And he had power to give ⁴life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, ^rand cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, ⁵to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or ^sthe name of the beast, ^tor the number of his name.

18 "Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.

CHAPTER 14.

¹ The Lamb and his company. ⁸ Fall of Babylon. ²⁰ Vintage and winepress of God's wrath.

AND I looked, and, lo, a ^a Lamb stood on the mount Sī'ōn, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, ^bhaving his Father's name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps:

3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they which were not defiled with women; ^cfor they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These ¹were redeemed from among men, ^dbeing the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.

5 And ^ein their mouth was found no guile: for ^fthey are without fault before the throne of God.

6 And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, ^ghaving the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,

7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: ^hand worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

8 And there followed another angel, saying, ⁱBāb'ŷlon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same ^jshall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11 And ^kthe smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 ^lHere is the patience of the saints: ^mhere are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jē'ŷus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, ⁿBlessed are the dead ^owhich die in the Lord ²from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, ^pthat they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat ^qlike unto the Son of man, 16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, ^twhich had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, ^uThrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into ^vthe great winepress of the wrath of God.

20 And ^wthe winepress was trodden ^xwithout the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAPTER 15.

¹ The seven angels with the seven last plagues. ³ Song of the victors. ⁷ The seven viols of wrath.

AND I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, ^aseven angels having the seven last plagues; ^bfor in them is filled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were ^ca sea of glass ^dmingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, ^eand over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.

3 And they sing ^fthe song of Mō'ŷeŷ the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, ^gGreat and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; ^hjust and true are thy ways, thou King of ¹saints.

4 ⁱWho shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for ^jall nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and, behold, ^kthe temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

6 And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, ^lclothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 ^mAnd one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And ⁿthe temple was filled with smoke ^ofrom the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

CHAPTER 16.

¹ The angel pours out the viols of wrath. ¹⁵ Christ comes as a thief.

AND I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial ^aupon the earth; and ^bthere fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men ^cwhich had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and ^dit became as the blood of a dead man: ^eand every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, ^fThou art righteous, O Lord, ^gwhich art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus.

6 For ^hthey have shed the blood of saints and prophets, ⁱand thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, ^jtrue and righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were ^kscorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: ^land they repented not to give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial ^mupon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

11 And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial ⁿupon the great river Eū-phrā'tēs; ^oand the water thereof was dried up, ^pthat the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three ^qunclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of ^rthe dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 ^sFor they are the spirits of devils, ^tworking miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth ^uand of the whole world, to gather them to ^vthe battle of that great day of God Almighty.

15 ^wBehold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, ^xlest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

16 And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hē'brew tongue Ār-mā-gēd'don.

17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, ^yIt is done.

18 And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, ^zsuch as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

19 And ^{aa}the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Bāb'ŷ-lon ^{ab}came in remembrance before God, ^{ac}to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

CHAPTER 17.

3 The woman arrayed in purple and scarlet. 14 Victory of the Lamb.

AND there came ^aone of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of ^bthe great whore ^cthat sitteth upon many waters:

2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and ^dthe inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the spirit ^einto the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit ^fupon a scarlet coloured beast, full of ^gnames of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman ^hwas arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and ⁱdecked with gold and precious stones and pearls, ^jhaving a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, ^kMYSTERY, BĀB'ŷ-LON ^lTHE GREAT, ^mTHE MOTHER OF ⁿHARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of ^othe martyrs of Jē'sus: and when I saw her; I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and ^pshall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they beheld the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And ^qhere is the mind which hath wisdom. ^rThe seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 And ^sthe ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have ^tone mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 ^uThese shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: ^vfor he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: ^wand they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he saith unto me, ^vThe waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, ^ware peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, ^xthese shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate ^yand naked, ^zand shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

17 ^aFor God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, ^buntil the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest ^cis that great city, ^dwhich reigneth over the kings of the earth.

CHAPTER 18.

2 Babylon is fallen. 9 Lamentations. 20 Rejoicings of the saints.

AND after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; ^aand the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, ^bBāb'ŷ-lon the great is fallen, is fallen, and ^cis become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and ^da cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the ¹abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, ^eCome out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 ^fFor her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 ^gReward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.

7 ^hHow much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a ⁱqueen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: ^jfor strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

9 And ^kthe kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, ^lshall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, ^mAlas, alas that great city Bāb'ŷ-lon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

11 And ⁿthe merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:

12 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all ²thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

13 And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and 15 The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

17 For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And ^pevery shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, 18 ^qAnd cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city!

19 And ^rthey cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 ^sRejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for ^tGod hath avenged you on her.

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, ^uThus with violence shall that great city Bāb'ŷ-lon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

22 ^vAnd the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee;

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; ^wand the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: ^xfor thy merchants were the great men of the earth; ^yfor by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

24 And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that ^zwere slain upon the earth.

CHAPTER 19.

¹ God is praised in heaven for his judgments. ⁷ Marriage of the Lamb.

AND after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Āl-le-lū'jā; ^aSalvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:

2 For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and ^bhath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Āl-le-lū'jā. And ^cher smoke rose up for ever and ever.

4 And ^dthe four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, ^eAmen; Āl-le-lū'jā.

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

6 ^oAnd I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Āl-le-lū'jā: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

7 Let us be ^h glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for ⁱ the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

8 And ^j to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and ^l white: ^k for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, ^l Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.

10 And ^m I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, ⁿ See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren ^o that have the testimony of Jē'sus: worship God: for the testimony of Jē'sus is the spirit of prophecy.

11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called ^p Faithful and True, and ^q in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; ^r and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.

13 ^s And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called ^t The Word of God.

14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, ^u clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And ^v out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and ^w he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and ^x he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

16 And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, ^y KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, ^z Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 ^a And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. ^b These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

CHAPTER 20.

2 Satan bound for a thousand years. 6 The first resurrection. 12 The last.

AND I saw an angel come down from heaven, ^a having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on ^b the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Dēv'il, and Sā'tan, and bound him a thousand years,

3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and ^c set a seal upon him, ^d that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw ^e thrones, and they sat upon them, and ^f judgment was given unto them: and I saw ^g the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jē'sus, and for the word of God, and ^h which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and ⁱ reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such ^j the second death hath no power, but they shall be ^k priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, Sā'tan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall go out ^l to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, ^m Gōg and Mā'gōg, ⁿ to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 ^o And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven and devoured them.

10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face ^p the earth and the heaven fled away; ^q and there was found no place for them.

12 And ^r I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; ^s and the books were opened: and another ^t book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, ^u according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and ^v hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And ^w death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAPTER 21.

1 A new heaven and earth. 10 The heavenly Jerusalem.

AND ^aI saw a new heaven and a new earth : for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away ; and there was no more ^bsea.

2 And I Jōhn saw ^cthe holy city, new Jĕ-ry'sā-lēm, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared ^das a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, ^ethe tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 ^fAnd God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes ; and ^gthere shall be no more death, ^hneither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain : for the former things are passed away.

5 And ⁱhe that sat upon the throne said, ^jBehold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write : for these words are true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Āl'phā and Ō'me-gā, the beginning and the end. ^kI will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7 He that ^lovercometh shall inherit ^mall things ; and ⁿI will be his God, and he shall be my son.

8 ^oBut the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone : which is the second death.

9 And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me ^othat great city, the holy Jĕ-ry'sā-lēm, descending out of heaven from God,

11 Having the glory of God : and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal ;

12 And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Īs'rā-el :

13 On the east three gates ; on the north three gates ; on the south three gates ; and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and ^pin them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me ^qhad a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth : and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

THE END OF THE NEW TESTAMENT.

A CHRONOLOGICAL INDEX TO THE HOLY BIBLE.

ACCORDING TO REVISIONS OF RECENT CHRISTIAN CHRONOLOGISTS.

POINTING TO THE YEAR OF THE WORLD, AND THE YEAR BEFORE AND AFTER CHRIST, IN WHICH THE MOST REMARKABLE EVENTS RELATED IN THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS OCCURRED, AND WHEREIN RECORDED.

Before Christ.

PERIOD I.

Creation of the world to Noah's age, B. C. 2349.

4004	Genesis I. & II. III.	IN the beginning God created the heaven and the earth, &c., and last of all man after his own image. Man falls from his first state, but is promised a Saviour of the seed of the woman.
4003	IV. 1,	The world first peopled after Adam and Eve had left paradise.
3875	8.	About this time Cain and Abel offer sacrifice, and Abel is murdered.
	V. 3,	Seth born.
3874	6,	Enos born.
3679	9,	Cainan born.
3609	12,	Mahalaleel born.
3544	15,	Jared born.
3382	18,	Enoch, the seventh from Adam, born.
3317	21,	Methuselah born.
3130	25,	Lamech, the father of Noah, born.
3074	5,	Adam dieth, aged 930 years.
3017	23, 24,	Enoch, in the 365th year of his age, taken up to God.
2962	8,	Seth dieth, aged 912 years.
2948	28,	Noah, the father and patriarch of the new world after the flood, born.
2864	11,	Enos, the third from Adam, dieth, aged 905 years.
2769	14,	Cainan dieth, aged 910 years.
2714	17,	Mahalaleel, the fifth from Adam, dieth, aged 895 years.
2582	20,	Jared, the sixth from Adam, dieth, aged 962 years.
2448		To Noah, aged 500 years, is born Japheth, and two years after, Shem. Lamech, the ninth from Adam, dieth, aged 777 years. He is the first man whom the Scriptures mention to have died a natural death before his father.
2353	32.	Methuselah dieth a little before the flood, in the 969th year of his age. He was the oldest man.
	X. 21.
	V. 31, 27.	The flood comes upon the earth in the 600th year of Noah's age.
6348	VII. 11.

PERIOD II.

From Noah's age to Terah's dwelling at Haran, B. C. 1922.

8	Genesis VIII. 18,	THE flood ceaseth, and Noah, with his family, and the creatures he carried in with him, comes out of the ark, and offers a burnt-offering. At the same time God makes a covenant with Noah and his seed, promising never more to destroy the world by water; as a token whereof he placeth the rainbow in the cloud. The same year Noah begins to plant vines, and is drunk.
	20.
	IX. 9,	Arphaxad born.
	20.	Salah born.
346	XI. 10,	Eber born.
2311	12,	Peleg born: so called, because in his days the earth was divided.
2281	14,	About this time Nimrod begins to exalt himself, by laying the first foundation of the Assyrian monarchy.
2247	16,	Nineveh, the metropolis of Assyria, built.
2234	X. 8,	About this time the posterity of Nimrod begin to build the city and tower of Babel, so called from the confusion of languages which God sent among the workmen.
	11.	Reu born.
2233	XI. 4, 6,	Mizraim, the grandson of Ham, leads colonies into Egypt, and layeth the foundation of a kingdom, which lasted 1663 years: whence Egypt is called the land of Ham, and the Egyptian Pharaohs boasted themselves to be the sons of ancient kings.
	8, 9,
2217	18.
2188	Ps. CV.
	23.
	Is. XIX.
	11.
2185	Gen. XI. 20,	Serug born.
2155	22,	Nahor born.
2120	24,	Terah, Abram's father, born.
2008	19,	Peleg, the sixth from Noah, dieth.
2007	25,	Nahor, the ninth from Noah, dieth.
1998	IX. 28, 29,	Noah dieth, aged 950 years, 350 years after the flood.
1996	XI. 32,	Abram born: he was 75 years of age when his father Terah died, aged 205 years: so that Terah begat not Abram in the 70th year of his age, but Nahor and Haran, and in the 130th year of his age begat Abram. See Acts vii. 4.
	26,	Sarai Abram's wife (called also Iscah), Haran, Abram's brother's daughter, born ten years after her husband.
1986	29, 30.	Reu, the seventh from Noah, dieth.
1978	XVII. 17.	Serug, the eighth from Noah, dieth.
1955	XI. 21,	Terah with his family leaveth Ur of the Chaldeans, and dwells at Haran.
1922	23.
	XI. 31.

PERIOD III.

From Abram to the Ten Plagues, B. C. 1491.

921	Genesis XII. 1, 2,	ABRAM, after his father's decease, in the 75th year of his age, is commanded by God to enter upon the land of Canaan, which God promiseth to give unto his seed, and that in his seed (viz. Christ Jesus our Lord) all the families of the earth should be blessed.
	3,
	10.	In the year following, a famine in the land of Canaan forceth Abram with his family to go into Egypt. From his first coming into Egypt to the departure of the children of Israel out of it, are reckoned 430 years.
	Gal. III.	Abram and Lot in this same year return into Canaan; but the land not being sufficient for both their flocks, they part asunder. Lot goeth to Sodom. God reneweth his promise to Abram; he removeth to Hebron, and there buildeth an altar.
	17.	Abram complaineth for want of an heir: God promiseth him a son, and a multiplying of his seed. Canaan is promised again, and confirmed by a sign. Sarai, being barren, giveth Hagar her handmaid to Abram.
	Exodus XII. 40.	Ishmael, Hagar's son, born.
	Genesis XIII.	Arphaxad, the third from Noah, dieth.
	XIII.	God maketh a covenant with Abram, and in token of a greater blessing changeth his name into Abraham. As a seal of this covenant, circumcision is ordained. Sarai her name is also changed into Sarah, and she is blessed. God promiseth them a son, and commandeth that his name be called Isaac: in him God promiseth to establish his covenant.

CV.

Abraham entertaineth three angels, who renew the promise to him of having a son. God revealeth to Abraham the destruction of Sodom, with whom Abraham intercedes for Lot and his family. See Gen. xix. 29.

Lot is commanded, for the preservation of himself and his family, to get out of Sodom, and to flee to the mountain; but by much entreaty he obtaineth leave to go into Zoar. Sodom, Gomorrah, and all the cities in the vale of Siddim, with all the inhabitants of them, are, for the most horrible sins, destroyed by fire and brimstone from heaven. The Dead Sea remains a monument thereof unto this day. Lot's wife, for looking back upon Sodom, contrary to God's command, is turned into a pillar of salt; and Lot himself, fearing to continue at Zoar, leaves the plain country, and betakes himself to the mountain, carrying his two daughters with him.

Isaac born in the 100th year of Abraham's age. Not long after, to Lot are born Moab and Ammon, his sons at the same time, and his grandsons. Hagar and Ishmael, at Sarah's request are cast forth.

Salah, the fourth from Noah, dieth.

God tempteth Abraham to offer Isaac. Abraham giveth proof of his faith and obedience.

Sarah dieth at Hebron in Canaan, in the 127th year of her age.

Isaac marrieth Rebekah the daughter of Bethuel, the son of Nahor, in the 40th year of his age.

Shem, the son of Noah, dieth.

Jacob and Esau born in the 60th year of their father Isaac's age.

Abraham dieth, aged 175 years.

Heber, the fifth from Noah, dieth: from him Abraham and his posterity were called Hebrews. Gen. xiv. 13.

Esau, aged 40 years, marrieth Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Bashemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite.

Ishmael dieth, aged 137 years.

Rachel, having been long barren, at length beareth Joseph. Jacob, desiring to depart, is persuaded by Laban to serve six years more for some part of his flock.

Jacob, after he had been twenty years in Mesopotamia, sets forward on his journey homewards, without acquainting his father or his brothers-in-law. Rachel stealeth her father's gods, and is pursued by Laban.

Jacob by his prudence is reconciled to his brother Esau. He wrestleth with an angel at Peniel, and is called Israel.

About this time, Dinah, Jacob's daughter, is deflowered by Sicheem the son of Hamor. Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, revenge their sister's quarrel by putting all the males of Sicheem to the sword; for which thing Jacob reproveth them.

Rachel is delivered of Benjamin on the way betwixt Beth-el, or Beth-lehem, and Ephrath, and dies in childbed. Some think that Job lived about this time.

Judah lieth with Tamar his daughter-in-law in disguise.

Joseph is hated by his brethren, and is sold to merchantmen, Ishmaelites and Midianites, who carry him into Egypt, where he is sold to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, and by him made overseer of his house.

Joseph resisteth the temptations of his master's wife; he is falsely accused by her, and cast into prison. He interpreteth the dreams of Pharaoh's butler and baker, which come to pass according to his interpretation.

Isaac dieth, aged 180 years, and is buried by his sons, Jacob and Esau.

Joseph interpreteth Pharaoh's two dreams; he giveth Pharaoh counsel, and is made governor of the whole land of Egypt.

Here begin the seven years of plenty in the land of Egypt. About this time Manasseh and Ephraim, Joseph's two sons, are born of Asenath, the daughter of Potipherah, priest of On.

Here begin the seven years of famine.

Jacob sendeth his ten sons to buy corn in Egypt; they are imprisoned by Joseph for spies; but are set at liberty on condition of bringing Benjamin, and Simeon is kept as a pledge.

Jacob is with much difficulty persuaded to send Benjamin. Joseph maketh himself known to his brethren, and sendeth for his father by command from Pharaoh.

Jacob, having offered sacrifice to God for that his son Joseph is yet alive, goes with all his family into Egypt in the third year of the famine, and 130th year of his age. He is seated in the land of Goshen.

Joseph getteth all the money, lands, and cattle of the Egyptians for bread; only the lands belonging to the priests he buyeth not.

Jacob adopteth Ephraim and Manasseh, and blesseth them, and all his sons; prophesieth the descent of the Messiah from Judah, and dieth, aged 147 years; seventeen whereof he lived in Egypt. He is, with great pomp, carried into Canaan, and buried in the sepulchre of his father.

Joseph on his death-bed prophesieth unto his brethren their return to Canaan; takes an oath of them to carry his bones out of Egypt, and dieth, aged 110 years.

The book of Genesis endeth in the death of Joseph, containing the history of 2369 years: next to which in order of time the book of Job follows, written (as it is generally believed) by Moses.

Levi dieth in Egypt, aged 137 years; he was grandfather to Moses and Aaron.

Here begins the bondage of the children of Israel, when a king rose up in Egypt, who knew not Joseph.

Aaron born three years before his brother Moses, 83 years before the departure of the children of Israel out of Egypt.

Pharaoh having in vain commanded the Hebrew midwives to destroy all the males of the Israelites, sets forth an edict, charging that they be all cast into the river.

Moses is born, who, being hid in the flags by the river's side, is found by Pharaoh's daughter, and becomes her adopted son.

Moses, in the 40th year of his age, having slain an Egyptian whom he saw contending with a Hebrew, fleeth into Midian, where he marrieth Zipporah the daughter of Reuel, or Jethro, a priest, and liveth with him forty years.

Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, born.

Whilst Moses keeps his father-in-law's sheep at mount Horeb, God appeareth to him in a burning bush, and sendeth him to deliver Israel.

Moses and Aaron having declared to Pharaoh the message on which they are sent unto him from God, are charged by him as heads of a mutiny, and sent away with many bad words; and more grievous labours are forthwith laid upon the Israelites.

Moses being now 80, and Aaron 83 years of age, urged thereunto by God, return again unto Pharaoh, where the magicians by their sorcery imitating the miracles of Aaron's rod turned into a serpent, make Pharaoh more obstinate than he was before. Wherefor God by the hand of Moses lays ten plagues upon the Egyptians.

Numbers XXXI. XVI.

UPON the fourteenth day of the first month (which was May the 4th, upon Monday with us), in the evening, the passover is instituted.

Upon the fifteenth of the same month, at midnight, the first-born of Egypt being all slain, Pharaoh and his servants make haste to send away the Israelites; and they, the self-same day wherein they were let go out of bondage, being the complete term of 430 years from the first pilgrimage of their ancestors, reckoning from Abraham's departure out of Charran, take their journey and march away, being 600,000 men, besides children, and come to Rameses, from whence by several encampments they come to the Red sea, the Lord conducting them in a pillar of a cloud by day, and in a pillar of fire by night. They carry Joseph's bones with them.

At the Red sea Pharaoh with his host overtakes them; Moses divides the waters with his rod, and the children of Israel pass through on dry ground into the desert of Etham; whom, when Pharaoh and his army would needs follow, they are all overwhelmed by the waters coming together at the dawning of the day, whereby the Israelites are wholly freed from the bondage of the Egyptians; whose carcasses when they see floating all the sea over, and cast upon the shore, they sing a song of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

Upon the fifteenth of the second month (our June the 4th, being Thursday), the Israelites come to the wilderness of Zin, which lieth between Elyma and Sinai, where, for want of food, they murmur against God and their leaders: about the even-tide God sends them quails, and the next morning rains upon them manna from heaven; and upon that kind of bread they lived afterward by the space of forty years, even till they came to the borders of the land of promise. An omer of it is preserved for a memorial.

God publisheth his Law, contained in the Ten Commandments, with a terrible voice from mount Sinai.

The people being in great fear, God gives them sundry other laws, all which being written in the book of the covenant, Moses proposeth them to the people: which done, rising early in the morning, he builds an altar at the foot of the mountain, and sets up twelve statues, according to the twelve tribes of Israel, and sends twelve young men of the first-born (whom the Lord hath consecrated to himself as ministers of those holy things, before the Levitical priesthood was ordained), which offer sacrifice, first for sin, and then for thanksgiving, to the Lord: and when Moses had read the book of the covenant, he takes the blood of the calves and goats so offered, and with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop, sprinkles the book therewith, and all the people, or those twelve statues representing them; and so performs a solemn covenant between God and his people.

Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy men of the elders of Israel, go up into the mount, and there behold the glory of God: the rest returning, Moses with his servant Joshua abides there still, and waits six days, and upon the seventh day God speaks unto him, and there he continues forty days and forty nights (reckoning those six days which he waited for the appearance of the Lord), eating no meat all that while, nor drinking water (Deut. ix. 6); where he receives God's command touching the frame of the tabernacle, the priests' garments, their consecration, sacrifices, and other things comprised in this and the six following chapters.

At the end of forty days God gives Moses the two tables of the Law in stone, made by God's own hand, and written with his own finger; bidding him withal quickly to get him down, for that the people had already made to themselves a molten calf to worship. Moses by prayer pacifieth God, and goes down from the mount, and seeing the people keeping a festival in honour of their idol in the camp, he breaks the tables of the law at the foot of the mount: for which the Jews keep a solemn fast unto this day.

Moses having burnt and defaced the idol, puts 3000 of the idolaters to death by the hands of the Levites.

God commands Moses to frame new tables of stone, and to bring them with him into the mount: Moses brings them the next morning, and while he stands in the cleft of a rock, God passeth by, and showeth him a glimpse of his glory.

God renews his covenant with his people, and upon certain conditions gives them his laws again.

In the first six months of this year, the tabernacle, the ark of the covenant, the altar, the table of show-bread, the priests' garments, the holy ointments, the candlestick, and other utensils and vessels belonging to the sacrifices, are finished in the desert at mount Sinai, and are brought unto Moses.

The tabernacle is set up and anointed with holy oil. Aaron and his sons are consecrated for the priesthood.

Nadab and Abihu, for offering strange fire, are struck dead in the place by fire from heaven.

The princes of the tribes present their offerings towards the dedication of the tabernacle. God speaketh to Moses from the mercy-seat.

The second passover is instituted. Jethro, who is also called Hobab, brings his daughter Zipporah, with her two sons, Gershom and Eliezer, which were left with him, to his son-in-law Moses: and having congratulated his and the whole people of Israel's deliverance out of bondage, he openly declares his faith and devotion towards the true God. By his advice Moses imparts the government of the people to some others, and ordains magistrates for the deciding of lesser causes.

Moses complains to God of the overgreat burden of his government; God, to ease him of his charge, gives him for assistance the court of seventy elders. The people lust for flesh. God gives them quails in wrath; and sends withal a most grievous plague among them.

God rebukes the sedition of Miriam and Aaron, and maintains Moses' right.

From the wilderness of Paran, near Kadesh-barnea, twelve men are sent (among whom are Caleb and Joshua) to discover the land of Canaan. Returning, they bring with them a branch of a vine, with a cluster of grapes upon it; ten of the twelve so sent speak ill of the country, declare it barren, and magnify the cities for their strength, and the giantly stature of the inhabitants.

The people, terrified with this relation, are about to return into Egypt, from which Caleb and Joshua endeavoring to dissuade them are like to be stoned. At this God is so provoked, that he threatens to destroy them; but is prevailed upon by Moses through his prayers to spare them. Nevertheless he denounceth that all who are now twenty years old and upward (except Caleb and Joshua) shall die in the wilderness. The men who raised the evil report are all destroyed by sudden death. Some endeavouring to enter upon the promised land, contrary to the command of God, are smitten by the Amalekites and Canaanites.

In this place, viz. Kadesh-barnea, the Israelites continue many days; but that in some places they continued many years appeareth, for that in the space of 37 years there are but 17 encampings mentioned.

To their long continuance in Kadesh, and the encampings from thence, all that we find delivered in the xvth and four next ensuing chapters of Numbers, seems to refer; as how Korah, Dathan and Abiram, for raising a mutiny against Moses and Aaron, were swallowed alive into the earth, and 250 of their associates; and how the people murmuring against Moses and Aaron for the calamity which had befallen their brethren, were destroyed by God, to the number of 14,700 men; and how twelve rods being brought by twelve princes, and laid in the sanctuary, Aaron's rod only budded, and brought forth almonds, and was laid up before the ark, for a memorial to those who should afterwards be given to rebellion.

In these 37 years the Israelites, by 17 encampings, having compassed the hill country of Seir and Edom, they come to the wilderness of Zin, in the first month of the fortieth year after their departure out of Egypt.

Here Miriam, the sister of Moses and Aaron, dieth.

The people again for want of water murmur against Moses and Aaron, whom when God had commanded to call water out of the rock only by speaking to it, Moses, being moved in his mind through impatience and diffidence of the thing, speaks something, whatever it was, unadvisedly with his lips, and strikes the rock thrice with Aaron's rod, and thereby draws water from it; but for transgressing God's command, they are so debarred from entering into the land of Canaan.

In the fifth month of this year Aaron dieth at Mosera, on the top mount Hor, at the age of 123 years, leaving his son Eleazar his successor in the high priesthood.

The people murmuring are plagued with fiery serpents, whereof man die; upon their repentance God commands that a brazen serpent be made and lifted up upon a pole, that as many as look on it may live.

About the latter end of this year, all those who at Kadesh-barnea mutinied against God being wholly extinct and dead, the Israelites pass over Zared, and come to the borders of Moab at Ar, and at length they arrive at Bamoth, a valley in the country of the Moabites, and pitch at mount Pisgah.

Sihon, king of the Amorites, refusing them passage through his country, is slain, and the Israelites possess his land.

Og, the king of Bashan, coming out against Israel, is destroyed with all his people, not one left alive, and his country possessed by the Israelites.

After these victories the Israelites set forward, and encamp in the plains of Moab.

Balak, king of Moab, considering what the Israelites had done to the Amorites, fears, lest under pretence of passing through his country, they should possess themselves of his whole kingdom, takes counsel with the princes of the Midianites his neighbours, and sends for Balaam, a soothsayer out of Mesopotamia, to come and curse the Israelites, promising him great rewards for his labour; purposing afterward to make war upon them.

Balaam, forewarned of God, refuseth at first to come; but being sent for a second time, he importuneth God to let him go, and goes with a purpose indeed to curse Israel; but God, offended therat, makes the dumb ass of this wizard, on which he rode, speaking in a man's voice, to reprove his folly.

Balaam twice offers sacrifice, and would fain have cursed Israel, to gratify Balak therein; but being forced thereto by the Spirit of God, instead of cursing, he blesseth them altogether; foretelling what felicity attended them, and what calamities should befall their enemies.

By his advice the women of Moab and Midian are set on work to turn the Israelites away to idolatry. Wherefore God commands Moses first to take all the ringleaders of this disorder, and to hang them up before the sun, and then gives order to the judges to put to death all such as had joined themselves to Baal-peor. Last of all, God sends a plague upon the people, whereof die 23,000 men in one day; which added to them which were hanged and killed with the sword, amount in all to 24,000.

Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, by killing Zimri, the chief of his father's family, and Cozbi, the daughter of Zur, a prince of the Midianites, appeaseth the wrath of God, and the plague ceaseth. God therefore setteth the high priesthood for ever upon the house of Phinehas, and commands that war be made upon the Midianites.

Moses and Eleazar, by God's command, in the plain of Moab, near unto Jordan, over against Jericho, number the people from twenty years old and upwards, and find them to be 601,730 men, besides the Levites, whose number, reckoning them from one month old and upwards, comes to 23,000; and then Moses receives command for the parting the land of promise among the Israelites.

God signifies to Moses that he shall die, and Joshua is thereupon declared to be his successor; upon whom Moses lays his hands, and gives him instructions. Several laws are made.

Twelve thousand of the Israelites under the command of Phinehas, vanquish the Midianites, and put to the sword all the males among them, with their five princes, and among them Zur, the father of Cozbi, and Balaam the wizard; but they save the women alive; at which Moses is wroth, and commands that every male child, and all the women, except such as be virgins, be killed.

The lands which belonged to Sihon and Og, namely, all from the river Arnon to mount Hermon, Moses divides and gives to the tribes of Reuben and Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh; so that their possessions lay on this side Jordan; nevertheless, they assist the rest of the tribes in all their wars, till they have subdued the Canaanites, and possessed the promised land.

Moses commands the people, that in their passage over Jordan they shall set up great stones, and engrave the Ten Commandments on them, with the form of blessing upon mount Gerizim, and of cursing on mount Ebal, exhorting them to observe the law of God, by setting before their eyes the benefits that would ensue thereon.

He also renews the covenant made by God with them and their children on mount Horeb, and again persuades them to keep that covenant by all the blessings and curses which would undoubtedly follow the keepers or breakers of it; yet with a promise of pardon and deliverance, if at any time, having broken it, they shall repent them of their sin; and tells them farther, that God had therefore thus declared his will unto them, to the end that none hereafter offending shall pretend ignorance.

Moses, having written this law, delivers it to the priests, the sons of Levi, and the elders of the people, to be kept; the same day also he writes his most excellent song, and teaches the same to the children of Israel to be sung; and having finished the book of the law, he takes order to have it laid up in the side of the ark.

Moses now drawing near to his end, blesseth every tribe in particular, by way of prophecy, save only the tribe of Simeon.

In the 12th month of this year he goes up to mount Nebo, and from thence beholds the land of promise, and there dieth, aged 120 years; the body of Moses God translates out of the place where he died into a valley of the land of Moab, over against Beth-peor, and there burieh it; nor doth any man know the place of it unto this day. The Israelites mourn for him 30 days.

Here ends the Pentateuch, or five books of Moses, containing the history of 2552 years and a half, from the beginning of the world; and the book of Joshua begins with the forty-first year after the departure of the children of Israel out of Egypt.

Joshua being confirmed in his government by God, sends forth spies from Shittim to the city of Jericho, who, being harboured by Rahab, are privily sent away, when search is made for them.

Upon the tenth day of the first month (April 30), to wit, the same day that the Paschal Lamb was to be chosen out of the flock, the Israelites under the conduct of Joshua, a type of Jesus Christ, go up out of the river Jordan into the promised land of Canaan, a type of a more heavenly country. They pass through the river on dry ground, the waters being for the present divided; for a memorial of which miraculous passage, Joshua sets up twelve stones in the very channel of Jordan, and taking twelve other stones out of the midst thereof sets them up at Gilgal, the place where they next encamp.

Upon the 14th day of the same month, in the evening, the Israelites celebrate their first passover in the land of Canaan.

Before Christ.	Scripture	Event	Before Christ.	Scripture	Event
1445	Josh. VI.	Jericho, the ark of the Lord having been carried round about it, is taken the seventh day, the walls thereof falling down at the sound of the priests' trumpets; all the inhabitants are put to the sword, except Rahab and her family.	1187	Judges X. 15.	monites; which fifth thraldom lasteth eighteen years. Upon their repentance, and abandoning their idols, at length they obtain mercy.
	VII.	The Israelites besiege Ai, and are smitten by their enemies, God having abandoned them for sacrilege committed by Achan: Achan's sin being discovered by the casting of lots, and himself found guilty, he is stoned to death, and, together with his children and cattle, burned with fire. God being pacified hereby, Ai is taken by ambushment and utterly destroyed.		XI.	Jephthah the Gileadite, being made captain of the host of Israel, subdues the Ammonites: before the battle he vows his daughter unawares to be offered in sacrifice, and afterward performs it. He puts to the sword 42,000 Ephraimites, who had behaved themselves insolently against him, and judgeth Israel six years.
	VIII.	On mount Ebal, according to the law made, is an altar erected, and the Ten Commandments engraven on it; the blessings and cursings are repeated on mount Ebal and mount Gerizim, and the book of the law read in the ears of the people.	1182	XII. 6,	Ibzan the Bethlehemite succeeds Jephthah, and judgeth Israel 7 years.
30, 35.		On mount Ebal, according to the law made, is an altar erected, and the Ten Commandments engraven on it; the blessings and cursings are repeated on mount Ebal and mount Gerizim, and the book of the law read in the ears of the people.	1175	8,	Elon the Zebulonite succeeds Ibzan, and judgeth Israel ten years.
	IX.	The kings of Canaan combine against Israel: only the Gibeonites craftily find a way to save their own lives by making a league with them; but are afterwards deputed to the servile offices of the house of God.	1164	11,	Abdon the Ephraimite succeeds Elon, and judgeth Israel eight years.
	X.	Adoni-zedek, king of Jerusalem, with the kings of Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon, hearing that Gibeon is fallen off from them, join their forces together and besiege it; but Joshua raiseth the siege, pursueth those five kings, and smiteth them as far as Azekah, the Lord in the meanwhile killing more with hailstones from heaven, than the Israelites with their swords. Joshua commands the sun to stand still over Gibeon, and the moon over the valley of Ajalon, by the space almost of one whole day, until the Israelites are fully avenged of their enemies. The five kings hide themselves in a cave at Makkedah; from whence they are brought forth, scornfully used, and hanged.	1156	13,	Eli the high priest (in whom the high priesthood was translated from the family of Eleazar to Ithamar's) succeeds Abdon, and judgeth Israel forty years. The Israelites again provoke the Lord to anger, and he delivers them into the hands of the Philistines. This sixth thraldom begins seven months after Eli's entering upon the government, and lasteth forty years, even till seven months after his death, when the ark was brought back again.
1450	Ex. XXIII.	From the autumn of this year, wherein, after the failing of manna, they began to till the ground, the rise of the sabbatical years is to be taken.	1155	1 Sam. IV. 18.	Samson the Nazarene, as an angel had foretold, is born at Zorah.
1445	Josh. XXIII.	Joshua, now grown old, is commanded by God to divide all the land on the west of Jordan among the nine tribes remaining, and the other half-tribe of Manasseh. The Lord and his sacrifices are the inheritance of Levi.	1137	Judges XIII.	Whilst Eli the high priest executeth the office of a judge in civil causes under the Philistines, Samson takes an occasion to quarrel with them, by marrying a woman of Timnath; for having on the day of his betrothing propounded a riddle to the Philistines, and laid a wager, his wife tells them the meaning of it: enraged hereat, he goes and slays thirty men of Askalon, and gives them the suits of raiment which he had stripped off their bodies, in performance of the wager which he had lost, and returns home to his father.
	XI.	The rest of the kings, with whom Joshua had waged war for six years, resolve to set upon him with united forces: but Joshua comes upon them unawares, slays them, and possesseth their countries.		1, 2,	Samson again in harvest-time goes to present his wife with a kid at her father's house, but finds her given away in marriage to another man; Samson resolves to be avenged; he catches 300 foxes, and tying fire-brands to their tails, turns them all into the corn-fields of the Philistines, and into their vineyards, and olive-gardens, and sets them all on fire. The Philistines take Samson's wife and father-in-law, and burn them; Samson in revenge slays a great multitude of them, and sits down upon the rock Etam, from whence being taken by 3000 of the Jews, and by them delivered into the hands of the Philistines, he slays of them a thousand men with the jaw-bone of an ass; in which place he is miraculously refreshed, when thirsty and ready to faint.
	21.	Joshua now roots out those giants, the Anakims, with their cities, out of the hill-countries, out of Hebron, Debir, and Anab, and generally out of all the mountains of Judah and all Israel. And having gotten the whole land into his hands, he divides it among the children of Israel according to their tribes; and the land rested from war.	1136	XIV. 4.	Samson is betrayed by Delilah his concubine, bereaved of the hair of his Nazariteship, and delivered to the Philistines; who put out his eyes, and bind him with chains of brass. The Philistines gather together to offer sacrifice to Dagon their god, and Samson is brought to make them sport; whose hair being grown, and his strength in a great measure restored, he takes hold of the two chief pillars whereon the house stood (wherein were the princes of the Philistines, and a great multitude of people) and pulls down the house, killing more men at his death than he did in all his lifetime. So he died, having judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.
1444	XIV.	Joshua now roots out those giants, the Anakims, with their cities, out of the hill-countries, out of Hebron, Debir, and Anab, and generally out of all the mountains of Judah and all Israel. And having gotten the whole land into his hands, he divides it among the children of Israel according to their tribes; and the land rested from war.	1117	XV.	The Israelites take up arms against the Philistines, but with very ill success, for they lose 4000 men in one battle. Then they send for the ark of the covenant from Shiloh, and cause it to be brought into the camp. The Philistines, seeing now all lie at stake, encourage one another to behave themselves like men that day; and so falling on, they slay of the Israelites 30,000 men. The ark of God is taken, and Hophni and Phinehas, priests, and sons of Eli, are slain. Of all which when tidings are brought to old Eli, frighted thereat, he falls from his chair and breaks his neck, in the 98th year of his age.
	XV.	The first sabbatical year, or year of rest; from hence the year of Jubilee, or every fifty years' space is to be reckoned.		XVI.	The Philistines, having brought the ark into Ashdod, set it in the house of Dagon their god. But when Dagon had been found two several times fallen grovelling before it, and broken in pieces, and the inhabitants of the place sorely plagued, they remove it from thence to Gath, and from thence to Ekron. But the same plagues and judgments following wherever it went, after seven months, by the advice of their priests, they send home the ark again with presents and gifts into the land of the Israelites, and it is brought to Bethshemesh, where 50,070 men are smitten for looking into the ark. From hence it is carried to the house of Abinadab, in Kirjath-jearim, who sanctifieth his son Eleazar to keep it.
	XVIII.	The tabernacle is set up at Shiloh (thought to be the same with Salem), where it continued 328 years.	1116	1 Sam. IV.	After twenty years the Israelites, by Samuel's persuasion, solemnly repent at Mizpeh, and, upon their conversion, God by thunder from heaven delivers them from the invasion of the Philistines, who are subdued, the hand of the Lord being against them all the days of Samuel.
1443	XXII.	The Reubenites, Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, with a blessing, are sent home to their possessions on the other side of Jordan.		VI.	Samuel, being grown old, takes for his assistance in the government his sons; by whose ill management of affairs, the Israelites require a king to be given them: whereupon God gives them a king in his wrath, to wit, Saul, the son of Kish, after Samuel had judged Israel twenty-one years. Saul is privately anointed by Samuel, and afterward publicly proclaimed king at Mizpeh. About a month after Jabesh-gilead is besieged by Nabal king of the Ammonites, and the siege raised by Saul: whereupon the whole congregation of Israel, coming together at Gilgal, again proclaim Saul king.
1443	XXIII.	Joshua gathers together all Israel, exhorts them to obedience, briefly recites God's benefits to them, reneweth the covenant between them and God, and dieth, 110 years old.		VII.	David the son of Jesse the Ephrathite, born at Beth-lehem-judah 30 years before he succeeded Saul in the kingdom. He was his father's youngest son. God rejects Saul, and sends Samuel to Beth-lehem, there to anoint David king, whom Saul ever after extremely persecuteth.
1443	XXIV.	Joshua gathers together all Israel, exhorts them to obedience, briefly recites God's benefits to them, reneweth the covenant between them and God, and dieth, 110 years old.		VIII.	Yet Jonathan, Saul's son, loveth him, and oftentimes rescueth him from Saul's cruelty.
1443	XXIV.	Joshua gathers together all Israel, exhorts them to obedience, briefly recites God's benefits to them, reneweth the covenant between them and God, and dieth, 110 years old.		IX.	David, having Saul twice in his power, forbears to hurt him. David, fearing he may some time or other fall into the hands of Saul, flies to Gath unto king Achish, carrying with him 600 men; and having obtained of him the town of Ziklag to dwell in, he continueth one year and four months in the land of the Philistines: from whence he invadeth the countries of the Geshurites, Gezrites, and Amalekites, and puts to the sword all, both men and women, not leaving one alive to carry the news thereof to king Achish.
1443	XXIV.	Joshua gathers together all Israel, exhorts them to obedience, briefly recites God's benefits to them, reneweth the covenant between them and God, and dieth, 110 years old.	1096	X.	Achish, proposing to make war upon the Israelites, takes David along with him in that expedition, to whom, whilst he is upon his march with his 600 men, repair a great many others of the tribe of Manasseh, and join with him.
1443	XXIV.	Joshua gathers together all Israel, exhorts them to obedience, briefly recites God's benefits to them, reneweth the covenant between them and God, and dieth, 110 years old.	1095	XI.	Saul, seeing the army of the Philistines, is in great fear, and (Samuel being now dead) goes to En-dor to consult with a witch there; the woman raiseth an apparition of Samuel, and Saul receives from it that dreadful doom, The Lord will deliver Israel, together with thyself, into the hands of the Philistines.
1443	XXIV.	Joshua gathers together all Israel, exhorts them to obedience, briefly recites God's benefits to them, reneweth the covenant between them and God, and dieth, 110 years old.	1085	XII.	The princes of the Philistines growing jealous of David, he and his company early the next morning leave the army, and return to Ziklag.
1443	XXIV.	Joshua gathers together all Israel, exhorts them to obedience, briefly recites God's benefits to them, reneweth the covenant between them and God, and dieth, 110 years old.	1063	XIII.	The armies join battle; and the Israelites are defeated; the three sons of Saul are slain, and he himself falls on his own sword.
1443	XXIV.	Joshua gathers together all Israel, exhorts them to obedience, briefly recites God's benefits to them, reneweth the covenant between them and God, and dieth, 110 years old.	1060	XIV.	Three days after, an Amalekite brings Saul's crown, and the bracelet that was upon his arm, and presents them to David, professing that, finding him fallen upon his sword, he had killed him outright, and taken the crown from off his head: whereupon David causeth him to be put to death for stretching forth his hand to slay the Lord's anointed, and lamenteth the death of Saul and Jonathan his son in a funeral song. David, having asked counsel of God, goes up to Hebron with those that are about him, where he is anointed king by the men of Judah, his own tribe, in the 30th year of his age; and there he reigns seven years and six months.
1443	XXIV.	Joshua gathers together all Israel, exhorts them to obedience, briefly recites God's benefits to them, reneweth the covenant between them and God, and dieth, 110 years old.	1056	XV.	Abner, affronted by Ishbosheth, revolteth to David, and deals with the chief men of Israel to transfer the whole kingdom unto him, and this in the hearing of the Benjamites.
1443	XXIV.	Joshua gathers together all Israel, exhorts them to obedience, briefly recites God's benefits to them, reneweth the covenant between them and God, and dieth, 110 years old.	1055	XVI.	He comes to David, and is kindly received; returning, he is treacherously murdered by Joab. David much laments his untimely death, and buries him at Hebron.
1443	XXIV.	Joshua gathers together all Israel, exhorts them to obedience, briefly recites God's benefits to them, reneweth the covenant between them and God, and dieth, 110 years old.	1048	XVII. David now dwelling in his house of cedar which he had built, and living in a full and perfect peace, imparteth to Nathan the prophet his purpose of building a house for God; but is answered from God, that this was a work which should be done, not by him, because he was a man of blood, and trained up in war; but by his son Solomon, a man of peace, which should be born unto him. The time which passeth from hence till the birth of Solomon is spent in wars; wherein David subdues the Philistines, Edomites, Amalekites, Moabites, Ammonites, and Syrians, and extends his kingdom to the utmost bound of that land which had been promised to the seed of Abraham, and never possessed by any of them, save only by David and his son Solomon. At the end of this year Joab, going with the army against the Ammonites, besiegeth Rabbah, the metropolis of Ammon, whilst David takes his ease at Jerusalem, and there commits adultery with Bathsheba the wife of Uriah the Hittite, who was then in the army, whom he also procures to be slain. The child so gotten in adultery is born. David is convicted by Nathan the prophet of his sin, and he repents; in testimony whereof he composeth the 51st Psalm. The child dieth. Bathsheba becomes now David's wife, and beareth him a son, unto whom, as unto one who should prove a man of peace, God gives the name of Solomon; and, as to one beloved of the Lord, the name of Jedidiah. Absalom avengeth his sister Tamar, and killeth his brother Amnon; for which thing he fleeth to Geshur in Syria, where he continues three years with king Talmai, his grandfather by the mother's side. After three years' exile he returns to Jerusalem, where he continues two years, before the king his father admits him into his presence, and is reconciled to him. This rebel son having got chariots and horses, and a guard to attend him, insinuates himself into the favour of the people, and steals away their hearts from his father David. The next year following, under pretence of a vow, he obtaineth leave to go to Hebron, where, by Ahithophel's counsel, he breaks out into open rebellion, and forceth his father to fly from Jerusalem. Ahithophel, because his counsel in all matters is not followed by Absalom, hangs himself. Absalom having lost 20,000 men, fleeth, and a bough of an oak catching hold of him, he there hangs, and is run through by Joab. David, tempted by Satan, commandeth Joab to number the people: God, offended thereat, sends a prophet to put three plagues to his choice, viz., the famine, sword, or pestilence. David chooseth to fall into the hands of a merciful God, rather than into the hands of men. So God sends a pestilence; whereof 70,000 men die in one day. The angel being about to destroy Jerusalem, God bids him hold his hand: for he beholds David repenting in sackcloth, and entreating him to spare the innocent people, and to turn his hand upon himself, and upon his father's house. Rehoboam is born unto Solomon by Naamah, an Ammonitish woman. David being now 70 years of age, and broken with continual cares and wars, grows so weak and feeble, that clothes can no longer preserve heat in him. Therefore Abishag, a young virgin, is appointed to keep him warm. Adonijah, seeing his father thus declining, by the assistance of Joab and Abiathar, makes himself king; which David understanding, he presently commands Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, with other great men, to anoint Solomon king. Adonijah hearing this, betakes himself to the sanctuary, and is pardoned. David, having given instruction to his son Solomon, dieth; after he had reigned in Hebron seven years and six months, and 33 years in Jerusalem over all Israel. Pharaoh, king of Egypt, gives his daughter in marriage to Solomon. The Lord appears to Solomon in a dream, and bids him ask what he will, and it shall be given him. Solomon asketh wisdom; God gives him wisdom from above, and adds thereunto riches and honour. Of this divine wisdom Solomon makes an eminent manifestation in judging between two harlots. PERIOD V. From Foundation of First Temple to Obadiah's Denouncement of God's Judgment, B. C. 588. SOLOMON layeth the foundation of the temple in the 480th year after the departure of the children of Israel out of Egypt. Solomon's temple finished in the eleventh year of his reign; having been seven years and a half in building. Solomon this year (being the 9th Jubilee, and opening the fourth Millennium of the world) with great magnificence celebrates the dedication of the temple; at which time God giveth a visible sign of his favour. Solomon having, as it is with reason believed, forsaken his lusts and vanities, to which he had been too intemperately addicted, and written, as a testimony of his repentance, his book called the Preacher, dieth. He reigned 40 years. The Israelites assemble at Shechem to crown Rehoboam, Solomon's son, king over all Israel. The people by Jeroboam sue unto him for a removal of some grievances; to whom Rehoboam, by the advice of young men, returning a harsh answer, alienates the hearts of ten tribes from him, who make Jeroboam king over them, and fall at the same time from the house of David, and from the true worship of God. Jeroboam, in the beginning of his reign, repairs Shechem, destroyed by Abimelech 258 years before, and there dwells; afterward going over Jordan he builds Penuel, and at length makes Tirzah the seat of his kingdom. But fearing lest his new subjects by going to Jerusalem to worship, may be induced to revolt from him, he deviseth a new form of religion, setting up two golden calves, the one at Beth-el, the other at Dan, for the seduced people to bow down unto. From the time of this dismal rent Rehoboam reigneth over Judah and Benjamin 17 years, and Jeroboam over Israel, or the other ten tribes, 22 years. The Priests and Levites, and other Israelites who feared God, stick to Rehoboam, and maintain the kingdom of Judah three years; after which time Rehoboam falls to idolatry, and walketh no more in the ways of David and Solomon. Jeroboam sacrificing to his calf at Beth-el, a prophet is sent unto him from God, who foretells the judgment which should one day be executed upon that altar, and the Priests (viz. those whom Jeroboam had made of the lowest of the people) that served at it. Which prophecy then and there is confirmed by signs and wonders upon the king himself, and upon the altar. Shishak king of Egypt spoileth Jerusalem and the temple; but the king and the princes repenting at the preaching of Shemaiah the prophet, God gives them not over to utter destruction. Abijam the son of Rehoboam succeeds his father in the kingdom of Judah, and reigns three years. He obtains a great victory over Jeroboam, killeth 500,000 men in one battle, and taketh Beth-el. Asa in the twentieth year of Jeroboam succeeds his father Abijam, and reigns 41 years. Nadab in the second year of Asa succeedeth his father Jeroboam in the kingdom of Israel, and reigneth not full two years. Nadab at the siege of Gibbethon (a town of the Philistines), is slain by Baasha of the tribe of Issachar in the third year of Asa; and the same year having made himself king over Israel, he utterly destroyeth the whole race of Jeroboam, and reigneth 24 years. In this time lived the prophets Jebu, Hanani, and Azarias. Asa destroyeth idolatry, and enjoying ten years of peace, strengthens his kingdom with forts and a standing army. Zerah the Ethiopian with an innumerable army invadeth Judah: Asa overcomes him, sacrificeth to God of the spoil, and maketh a solemn covenant with God. He also deposes Maachah his grandmother, a great patroness of idolatry; bringeth into the temple those things which his father and himself had consecrated unto God, and enjoys a long peace. Elah the son of Baasha succeeds his father in the kingdom of Israel. In the second year of his reign, and the twenty-seventh of Asa's, Zim one of his captains, conspires against him, kills him, and reigneth in his stead. As soon as he sits in the throne, he destroyeth the whole family of Baasha; but the army which then lay before Gibbethon makes Om then king, who presently besiegeth Tirzah, and taketh it; which Zim seeing he sets on fire the king's palace, and perisheth in the flames. The people of Israel are now divided into two factions; one follow Tib the son of Ginath, and endeavour to make him king; the other adheres Omri; but Tibni dying, Omri reigns alone in the 31st year of Asa. Omri having reigned six years in Tirzah, removes the seat of his kingdom to Samaria, a place which he himself had built. Ahab succeeds his father in the kingdom of Israel, and reigneth 22 years in Samaria. He did evil in the sight of the Lord above all that were before him. Jehoshaphat succeedeth his father Asa in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel, and reigneth 25 years in Jerusalem. Jehoshaphat being settled in his kingdom, and having demolished the high places and groves, in the third year of his reign he sends Levites with the princes to instruct the people in the law. God in the meantime subdueth his enemies under him. Ben-hadad king of Syria layeth siege to Samaria, who by the direction of a prophet is beaten off, and a vast number of the Syrians slain. Ahab not being able to persuade Naboth to sell him his vineyard, falls sick upon it; Jezebel his wife, suborning false witnesses to accuse him of blasphemy, causeth Naboth to be stoned, and puts the king in possession of the vineyard. Whereupon the prophet Elijah denounceth judgments against Ahab and Jezebel; wicked Ahab repenting, God defers the judgment. Ahab in the seventeenth year of the reign of Jehoshaphat maketh his son Ahaziah his associate in the government of his kingdom. Jehoshaphat also maketh Jehoram his son copartner with him; whence it is, that Jehoram the son of Ahab, who succeeded his brother Ahaziah in the kingdom of Israel, in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, is said to have begun his reign in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat. Ahab having got Jehoshaphat to assist him in the siege of Ramoth-gilead, before he goes, he asketh counsel of 400 false prophets, who promise him victory and success; but by Jehoshaphat's advice Micaiah, a true prophet of God, is consulted, who foretells his overthrow, and according to his word Ahab is slain at Ramoth-gilead, and buried at Samaria. Ahaziah king of Israel, lying ill of a fall, sends to consult Baalzebub the god of Ekron concerning his recovery. Elijah the prophet meeteth the messenger, and telleth him Ahaziah shall surely die; whereupon two captains with over fifty men apiece are sent to apprehend him, and bring him before the king; Elijah calleth for fire from heaven, and destroyeth both them and their companies. A third captain with his fifty men being sent, and behaving himself submissively, Elijah goes along with him; the prophet certifies the king that he shall not come down from his bed alive. So Ahaziah dieth, having governed (partly by himself, and partly together with his father) two years. Jehoram succeedeth his brother Ahaziah in the kingdom of Israel in the latter end of the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat, and reigneth twelve years. Elijah is taken up into heaven in a fiery chariot. Jehoshaphat grown old gives to his sons many gifts with fenced cities in Judea; but his eldest son Jehoram he now more absolutely investeth with the throne of the kingdom in the fifth year of Jehoram king of Israel. Jehoram now, by the death of his father, has the kingdom of Judah to himself, which he holds for years. He is no sooner settled in his throne, but he puts all his brethren to the sword, with many of the princes of Israel. At this time the Edomites, who ever since king David's time had lived in subjection to Judah, revolt, and (as it was foretold by Isaac) they for ever shake off his yoke; Libnah also, a city of the priests in the tribe of Judah, falls off from him about this time. Jehoram following the counsel of his wicked wife Athaliah, the daughter of Ahab king of Israel, sets up in Judah, and even in Jerusalem itself, the idolatrous worship of Baal, and compels his subjects thereto; a letter which was left for him by Elijah the prophet comes to his hands, which reproves him, and denounces all those calamities and punishments which afterward befell him. Ahaziah succeeds his father in the kingdom of Judah (having had part of the government bestowed upon him the year before) in the 12th year of Jehoram king of Israel, and reigneth one year in Jerusalem. Jehoram king of Israel, and Ahaziah king of Judah, lead their armies to Ramoth-gilead against Hazael, who had newly succeeded Ben-hadad in the kingdom of Syria: Jehoram is dangerously wounded, and retires himself to Jezreel to be cured. In the meantime Elisha sendeth a young prophet with instructions to anoint Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, at Ramoth-gilead, king over Israel, and to open to him the will of God for the rooting out of the house of Ahab; who, being proclaimed king by the soldiers, marcheth straight to Jezreel, killeth Jehoram in the field of Naboth, and causeth Jezebel to be cast out at a window, where she is eaten by dogs. He despatcheth letters also to Samaria, and causeth seventy of Ahab's children to be beheaded. Then taking with him Jehonadab the son of Rechab, he comes himself to Samaria, and destroys the whole family of Ahab, and all the priests of Baal. Nevertheless, having put down the worship of Baal, he departs not from the worship of Jeroboam's golden calves, but maintains that idolatry all the time of his reign, which was 28 years. Jehu proceeds farther, and executes the divine vengeance upon the idolatrous house of Judah; he pursues Ahaziah, who fled towards Megiddo, and overtaking him at Gur, causeth him to be killed in his chariot. Going also to Samaria, he meeteth with 42 of Ahaziah's kinsmen, whom he causeth to be slain. Athaliah the daughter of Ahab, seeing her son Ahaziah dead, usurps the kingdom, destroying those that had right to the succession; but Jehoshaba the daughter of king Jehoram, and wife to Jehoiaada the high priest, takes Jehoash, being then an infant, and son to her brother Ahaziah, and hides him in the temple, and so saves him from that massacre which was made of the rest of the blood royal. Jehoiaada the high priest brings out Jehoash, now seven years old, and anoints him king; causeth Athaliah to be slain, and restoreth the worship of the true God, destroying the house of Baal, and commanding the idolatrous priest Mattan to be killed before his altars. Jehoash now beginning his reign in the seventh year of Jehu, reigneth 40 years in Jerusalem. Jehoash, in the 23d year of his reign, giveth order for the repair of the temple, committing the charge thereof to Jehoiaada the high priest. Jehoahaz succeedeth his father Jehu in the kingdom of Israel, and reigneth 17 years; during all which time Hazael king of Syria oppresses him, and exerciseth all those cruelties upon the Israelites, which Elisha the prophet had foretold. Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, is taken into the consorship of that kingdom by his father in the 27th year of Jehoash king of Judah, and reigneth 16 years. Judah that fall to idolatry after the decease of Jehoiada, is stoned to death in the court of the house of the Lord by the commandment of king Jehoash, who the next year after is murdered by some of his servants, as he lay in his bed; and Amaziah his son succeedeth him. Jehoahaz dieth, and Jehoash his son succeedeth in the kingdom of Israel. Not long after his father's funeral he visits Elisha the prophet then lying sick, and with many tears asketh counsel of him, who promiseth him victory over the Syrians. A dead man is brought to life by being laid in Elisha's grave. 836 XV. 1. Jeroboam the second in this year taken into the consortship of the kingdom of Israel by his father Jehoash, going to war against the Syrians. This is gathered from Azariah king of Judah's beginning to reign in the 27th year of this Jeroboam. XIV. 2 Chron. XXV. Amaziah king of Judah, growing proud upon a victory obtained against the Edomites this 14th year of his reign, provoketh Jehoash king of Israel to battle. Jehoash overcomes him, and takes him prisoner, breaks down 400 cubits of the wall of Jerusalem, and having spoiled the temple and the king's house of a vast treasure, returns to Samaria. 825 2 Kings XIV. 23. Jehoash dies fifteen years before Amaziah, and Jeroboam the second, his son, reigneth in Samaria 41 years. 810 XIV. 2 Chron. XXV. Amaziah, finding a conspiracy against him at Jerusalem, flies to Lachish, where he is murdered; after whom comes his son Uzziah, or Azariah, in the 27th year of Jeroboam the second, and reigneth 52 years in Jerusalem. 808 2 Kings XV. 25. Now is held the 13th Jubilee under the two most flourishing kings; in whose times live sundry great prophets in both kingdoms; in Isaiah and Joel in Judah; Jonas, Hosea, and Amos, in Israel. IX. 1. Jonas of Gath-hepher, a town belonging to the tribe of Zebulon in Galilee of the Gentiles, (observe here the blindness of the Pharisees, John vii. 52,) was afterward sent into Nineveh, the metropolis of Assyria, where both king and people at his preaching repented. 784 2 Kings XIV. 29. Jeroboam king of Israel (under whom that kingdom came to its full height of glory) dieth; after his death all things fall into confusion, and the state is reduced to a plain anarchy, which lasteth 11 years and a half; for such an interregnum or vacancy the synchronism of Kings requires, that the six months of Zachariah the son of Jeroboam may answer the 38 years and one month of Shallum, who murdered him in the 39th year of Azariah, or Uzziah, king of Judah. 773 XV. 8. Zachariah the son of Jeroboam, the 4th and last of the race of Jehu, (as was foretold,) begins his reign over Israel in the 38th year of Azariah, or Uzziah, king of Judah, and reigneth six months. 772 10. Shallum the son of Jabesh, at the end of six months, murders him in the sight of the people, and reigns one month, in the 39th year of Uzziah king of Judah. After Zachariah's death follow those direful calamities foretold by Amos the prophet. Amos VII. 9. Menahem the son of Gadi going from Tirzah to Samaria, killeth Shallum, wasteth Tiphshah and the borders thereof, and because the town would not open to him, he takes it, and rips up all the women with child. 771 19. While Menahem in these broils labours to get the possession of the kingdom, Paul king of Assyria invadeth his country, to whom Menahem giveth 1000 talents of silver, and afterward reigneth quietly 10 years. 761 23. Pekahiah succeedeth his father Menahem in the 50th year of Uzziah king of Judah, and reigneth 2 years. 759 25, 27. Pekah, one of his captains, kills him in his own palace at Samaria, and reigneth 20 years. 758 32. Jotham succeedeth his father Uzziah in the kingdom of Judah at the age of 25 years, and reigneth 16 years in Jerusalem. 2 Chron. XXVII. 5. Jotham subdues the Ammonites, and makes them tributary for 3 years. Under him and his two successors the prophets Micah and Hosea execute their prophetic office. About this time lived the prophet Nahum, and prophesied the destruction of Nineveh. Mic. I. 1. Ahaz succeedeth his father Jotham in the 17th year of Pekah king of Israel, and reigneth 16 years. 2 Kings XVI. 1. This year Rezin king of Syria, and Pekah king of Israel are confederate against Judah, which strikes a great terror into that nation; but unto Ahaz, God, by the prophet Isaiah, sends a gracious message, with a promise of deliverance; for a sign whereof (when the incredulous king, being bid to ask a sign, refused to do it) God gives him the promise of Immanuel to be born of a virgin. Rezin and Pekah now lay siege to Jerusalem, and therein to Abaz, but are beaten off; Ahab is no sooner delivered from his enemies, but he forsakes God his deliverer, and falls to idolatry. Wherefore God gives him over into the hands of the king of Israel, who slays of the men of Judah 120,000 in one day, with a great many of the nobility, and carrieth away 200,000 captives; but these, by the advice of the prophet Obed, are released and sent home. 741 Hoshea the son of Elah murders Pekah king of Israel, and gets the kingdom into his own hands; it is said in the 20th year of Jotham, that is from the time that Jotham first began to reign, which is the same with the 4th of Ahaz his son. Hoshea, by reason of the tumults and disorders which ensued, cannot be said to have reigned till 9 years after, the state continuing all that time in great confusion, without any form of government. 739 2 Kings XV. 30. Shalmaneser, king of Assyria, comes up against Hoshea, and makes him to serve him, and pay him tribute. 730 Hoshea succeedeth his father Ahaz in the kingdom of Judah: he destroyeth idolatry, and prospers; he also celebrates a solemn passover, and reigneth 29 years in Jerusalem; his father had made him in the last year of his reign, his assistant in the government. 728 XVII. 8. Hoshea king of Israel, having consulted with So king of Egypt, refuseth to pay tribute to Shalmaneser: provoked hereby, and jealous of some farther design in that confederacy of Hoshea with the king of Egypt, Shalmaneser layeth siege to Samaria, and towards the latter end of the third year he taketh it, and carrieth away the Israelites captive into his own country. This was the end of the kingdom of Israel, when it had stood divided from the kingdom of Judah 254 years. 726 XVIII. 1. Sennacherib king of Assyria, coming up against Judah, besiegeth their fenced cities, and taketh many of them, but is pacified by a tribute. 2 Chron. XXXIX. XXX. About this time Hezekiah falls sick, and is told by Isaiah that he shall die, but pouring out his tears and prayers unto God, he recovereth his health, and obtaineth a prolongation of his life and kingdom for 15 years. For a sign whereof the sun goes ten degrees backward. 725 XXXI. Hoshea king of Israel, having consulted with So king of Egypt, refuseth to pay tribute to Shalmaneser: provoked hereby, and jealous of some farther design in that confederacy of Hoshea with the king of Egypt, Shalmaneser layeth siege to Samaria, and towards the latter end of the third year he taketh it, and carrieth away the Israelites captive into his own country. This was the end of the kingdom of Israel, when it had stood divided from the kingdom of Judah 254 years. 724 XVII. 4. Sennacherib, not observing the articles of peace, layeth siege to Jerusalem, and sendeth a blasphemous letter to Hezekiah; which he opening, and spreading before the Lord in the temple with many tears, craves assistance from God against the Assyrians. Whereupon the prophet Isaiah assures him that God will deliver him and defend that city. The self-same night an angel of the Lord slays 185,000 men in the Assyrian army; and the next morning Sennacherib departeth, and returns to Nineveh; where not long after, whilst he is worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, he is slain by his own sons. 721 XVIII. XX. Manasseh at 12 years of age succeedeth his father Hezekiah, and reigneth 58 years. He setteth up idolatry, and sheddeth much innocent blood. Wherefore God delivers him up into the hands of the Assyrians, who in the 22d year of his reign carry him away captive to Babylon: but upon his repentance God restores him to his liberty and kingdom. 710 XIX. XXXVII. This year Nebuchodonosor king of Assyria, purposing to make himself universal monarch, sends Holofernes his general against Judea, who layeth siege to Bethulia, and there hath his head taken off by Judith, a woman of the tribe of Simeon. 698 2 Kings XXI. 19. Amon, aged 22 years, succeedeth his father Manasseh, and reigneth two years. An idolater indeed, as his father, but no penitent: he is murdered by his own servants. 677 2 Chron. XXXIII. Josiah, a child of 8 years old, succeedeth his father Amon, and reigneth 31 years. In his time lived Jeremiah and Zephaniah the prophets, and Huldah the prophetess. 663 2 Kings XXI. 19. Josiah, a child of 8 years old, succeedeth his father Amon, and reigneth 31 years. In his time lived Jeremiah and Zephaniah the prophets, and Huldah the prophetess.

Before Christ. 630 2 Chron. XXXIV. 624. In the 12th year of his reign, he begins a reformation in Judah and Jerusalem and carries it on successfully. 610 2 Kings XXXIII. 9. This year he giveth order for the repair of the temple. Hilkiah the high priest, having found a book of the law, sends it to the king, who hears it read all over to him; and thereupon asketh counsel of Huldah the prophetess, who prophesieth the destruction of Jerusalem, but not in his days. Josiah calling to him the elders of Judah and Jerusalem, with the priests and prophets, causeth the book of the law to be read over before all the people, and reneweth the covenant between God and his people; he burneth also dead men's bones upon the altar at Beth-el, as was foretold; and keepeth a most solemn passover. Zechar. XII. 11. At this time a war breaks out between the king of Egypt and the king of Assyria. Josiah unadvisedly engageth in this war against Necho king of Egypt, and is slain in the valley of Megiddo. The good king being thus taken out of the world, whose life only kept off the Babylonish captivity from that nation, not only the people then living bewailed his death, but even in after time a public mourning for him was kept. The prophet Jeremiah also in remembrance thereof composeth his Lamentations; wherein bewailing the calamities which were shortly to befall that people, as present before his eyes, in a most compassionate manner he points, as it were with his finger, at the death of Josiah as the source and original of all those ensuing miseries. 609 5. Jerem. XXXVI. After the death of Josiah, the people anoint Shallum, one of his younger sons, to be their king. After three months' reign, he is deposed by Pharaoh Necho, who makes Eliakim, his elder brother, king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changes his name into Jehoiakim; but Jehoahaz he carries along with him captive into Egypt, where he ends his days. 607 XXV. 1. Jehoiakim, at 25 years of age, begins to reign, and he reigneth 11 years. 606 2 Chron. XXXVI. 6. Uriah and Jeremiah prophesy against Jerusalem; the former is put to death, the latter is acquitted, and set at liberty. About this time Habakkuk also prophesieth. Daniel I. 3, 7. Isaiah XXXIX. 7. This year is Nebuchadnezzar the Great made by his father Nebopolazar his associate in the kingdom of Assyria and Babylon; into whose hands God delivers up Jehoiakim, who is put in chains to be carried to Babylon; but upon his submission and promises of obedience is left in his own house, where he lives a servant to Nebuchadnezzar 3 years. Nebuchadnezzar gives order to Ashpenaz, master of the eunuchs, that he shall carry from thence of the children of Israel, both of the blood-royal (as was foretold by the prophet Isaiah to Hezekiah) and also of the nobility, the choicest youths both for beauty and wit that he can find; who being educated 3 years in the language and sciences of the Chaldeans, may afterward be fit to serve the king in his palace; among whom, of the tribe of Judah, are Daniel, called Belteshazzar; Hananiah, called Shadrach; Mishael, called Meshach; and Azariah, called Abed-nego. 605 Dan. I. 2. Whilst Nebuchadnezzar pursues his victories over the king of Egypt, his father dies; which coming to his knowledge, he gives order for the bringing away of the captives, and posts with a small company the nearest way to Babylon, where he is received as the lawful successor to his father's dominions. He brought to Babylon what he thinks fit of the vessels and furniture of the temple, and placeth them in the house of his god, Belus. 603 2 Kings XXIV. 1. Jehoiakim, having lived 3 years in subjection to the king of Babylon, falls off, and rebels against him. Dan. II. This year (being the second of Nebuchadnezzar's reign, taking it as if begun at his father's death,) Daniel recovers Nebuchadnezzar's dream, and interprets it to betoken the four chief monarchies; whereupon he and his companions are highly advanced. 600 2 Kings XXIV. 2. Nebuchadnezzar sends an army, consisting of Chaldeans, Syrians, Moabites, and Ammonites, against Jehoiakim; these waste the whole country of Judea, and carry away from thence 3023 captives. Jehoiakim also is taken prisoner, whom they put to death, cause his carcass to be drawn out at the gate of Jerusalem (as was foretold by the prophet Jeremiah) and leave it without the walls unburied. 599 Jerem. XXII. 18. XXXVI. 30. Jehoiachin (called also Conias and Jeconias) at 18 years of age succeeds his father Jehoiakim, and reigns three months in Jerusalem. 2 Kings XXIV. 8. Against him Nebuchadnezzar leads an army, and besiegeth Jerusalem; Jehoiachin with all his kindred and courtiers come out to meet him. Nebuchadnezzar makes them all prisoners, enters Jerusalem, and takes all the treasure he can find in the temple and the king's palace, breaking in pieces all the vessels of gold and furniture which Solomon had made for the temple; he carrieth away captive to Babylon the king, his mother, wives, courtiers, magistrates, and 10,000 able men out of Jerusalem, leaving none behind but the poorer sort of people; and out of the country round about he carried also away 8000 artificers; among the captives are Mordecai, and Ezekiel, the priest; Ezekiel therefore in his prophecy reckons the time all along from the beginning of this captivity. 588 2 Kings XXIV. 17. Nebuchadnezzar before his departure from Jerusalem, makes Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's father's brother, king, changing his name into Zedekiah. 2 Chron. XXXVI. Zedekiah, beginning his reign at 21 years of age, reigneth 11 years; he, by rebelling against Nebuchadnezzar, or rather by continuing in open rebellion (as his fathers had done) against God, brought upon Jerusalem and the whole nation of the Jews those long-deserved calamities which God had so often forewarned them of by his prophets; for, in the latter end of the year of Zedekiah, Jerusalem, after a long siege, is taken by Nebuchadnezzar, and his Chaldeans enter it. Zedekiah flees away by night, but being pursued, is taken, and brought prisoner to Riblah, Nebuchadnezzar's head-quarters; there having first seen his children slaughtered before his eyes, he has afterward those eyes put out, and being laden with chains, is carried away captive to Babylon. About a month after the taking of the city, Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, sent by Nebuchadnezzar, makes his entry into it, sets fire to the temple, the king's palace, and some noblemen's houses, and so layeth the whole city in ashes; the walls of Jerusalem being razed to the ground; all that were left in the city, and those that a little before had fallen to the Chaldeans, with what treasure he can find, doth Nebuzar-adan carry with him into Babylon. 26. And thus was Judah carried out of her own land, 468 years after David began to reign over it, 388 years after the falling off of the ten tribes, and 134 years after the destruction of the kingdom of Israel. Jerem. I. 3. Obadiah the prophet denounceth God's judgments against the Edomites who now insult over the calamity of the Jews. The same do Jeremy and Ezekiel, and the author of the 97th and 137th Psalms, who wrote all about the same time. LII. XXXIX. LII. XXXV. 12.

PERIOD VI.

From Nebuchadnezzar to Birth of John the Baptist, B. C. 4.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR, proud of his victories over Egypt, and his conquest of Judea and other countries, and boasting the magnificence of his buildings, falls distracted, and is driven from the society of men. After seven years spent among the beasts of the field, his understanding returning to him, he humbly acknowledgeth the power of God, and his goodness towards him; and is restored to his kingdom. A few days after he dies, having reigned about 20 months together with his father, and 43 years by himself. Evil-merodach his son succeeds him in the 37th year of the captivity of Jehoiachin or Jeconiah, who presently gives order for the enlargement of Jehoiachin, and two days after changeth his prison-clothes, sets him above all the princes of his court, and causeth him to eat at his own table. Jehoiachin dies about two years after.

555	Daniel VII. 1.	Belshazzar, having removed some persons who had murdered his father Evil-merodach, and usurped his throne, succeeds in the kingdom of Babylon. In the first year of this king's reign Daniel has the vision of the four beasts, signifying the four great monarchies of the world, and of God delivering over all power and sovereignty to the Son of Man.	467	Ezra VII.	Ezra the priest, a man skilled in the law of Moses, obtains a large commission from king Artaxerxes, to settle the Jewish commonwealth, and to reform the church at Jerusalem.
553	VIII. 1.	In the third year of Belshazzar, Daniel receives the vision of the ram and the he-goat, betokening the destruction of the Persian monarchy, and the great misery which Antiochus should bring upon the people of God.	442	Neh. II.	In the twentieth year of king Artaxerxes, Nehemiah a Jew, one of his cup-bearers, being made governor of Judea, obtains leave to build the wall of Jerusalem, and finish that great work. Here begins Daniel's 70 weeks to be fulfilled before the passion of our Saviour.
538	V. Jerem. XXVII. 7.	This year Belshazzar makes a great feast for all the nobles, and causeth to be brought forth all the vessels of the house of the Lord, which Nebuchadnezzar his grandfather had brought away from Jerusalem, to the glory of his idols, and dishonour of the true God. In the midst of all this jollity a hand appears writing on the wall of the room in which the king and his numerous guests sit drinking. The king, greatly terrified hereat, sends for his Chaldean astrologers and wizards, and commands them to read the writing, and give him the interpretation of it; but they not being able to do either, Daniel is sent for, who reads the writing, and gives the king the interpretation of it: whereupon Daniel is publicly proclaimed the third man in the kingdom. This same night Belshazzar is slain, Babylon is taken by Cyrus, and the empire translated to the Medes and Persians, as had been sundry times foretold by the prophets.	415	Dan. IX. 24.	Nehemiah having governed Judea 12 years, returns to the king of Persia.
	Dan. V.	Cyrus having given the kingdom of Babylon to Darius the Mede, reserving some palaces in the city for himself, he returns through Media into Persia.		Neh. V. 14.	This year is the 21st Jubilee, the last that ever the prophets of the Old Testament saw; for that place in Nehemiah, chap. xii. 22, is not to be understood of the last Darius, but of Darius Nothus, who now reigns in Persia; the full history of Nehemiah ending with the time of Artaxerxes Longinus, father of this Darius Nothus.
	Isa. XIII. Hab. II. Jerem. XXV. 12. L. LI. Dan. V. 31. VI. 6.	Daniel's greatness raising envy in some principal courtiers and officers, these contrive his ruin; but finding nothing in his management of affairs whereof to accuse him, they resolve to order matters so, that Daniel's piety towards God shall become an offence worthy of death. They move the king to make a decree, that for 30 days no petition shall be made to any god or man, but to himself only. Which decree Daniel breaks by making supplication to his God, and is for so doing cast into a den of lions; but being found to have received no hurt there, Darius commands his conspirators to be cast into the same den, who are presently devoured; and the king publisheth a decree, that all persons throughout his dominions shall reverence and fear the God of Daniel.		XIII. 6.	Hitherto (saith Eusebius in his chronicle, to the 32d year of Artaxerxes) the Divine Scriptures of the Hebrews contains the annals of the times. But those things which were done among them afterward we must deliver out of the books of the Maccabees, and out of the writings of Joseph who have delivered a general history of the Jewish affairs from thence down to the times of the Romans.
537	IX. Jerem. XIX. 10. Dan. IX.	Towards the end of the first year of the reign of Darius the Mede, to be reckoned from the subversion of the Babylonish empire, begins the 70th year of the captivity of the Jews, which, by Jeremiah's prophecy, was to be the last year of their calamity. Upon consideration of which time so near at hand, Daniel pours out his most fervent prayers to God for the remission of his own sins, and those of his people; and for that promised deliverance out of their captivity. To whom the angel Gabriel brings an answer not only of this, but also of the spiritual deliverance of the church by the death of the Messiah; uttering that memorable prophecy of the seventy weeks.	335	XIII.	That Malachi, the last of the prophets, was contemporary with Nehemiah, appears from hence, that he nowhere exhorts the people to the building of the temple, as Haggai and Zachary did; but the temple being now built, he reproves those disorders, which Nehemiah at his second return with a new commission from Babylon saith he found in his absence to have crept in among the Jews; as marriage with strange women, withholding of tithes, and abuse in the worship of God. And because a succession of prophets was not to be expected, as before, he exhorteth the people constantly to adhere to the law of Moses, till Christ the chief prophet should appear; whose forerunner John the Baptist should come in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers unto their children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just. See 1 Mac. iv. 46, and ix. 17.
536	The Persian Empire.	Cyrus, his father Cambyses and his father-in-law Cyaxares both dying, Persia falls to him by inheritance, and Media by contract of marriage; and so he is possessed of the whole eastern empire; from which time both Xenophon (Inst. lib. 8.) reckons the 7 years of his reign, and the Holy Scripture out of the records of the Medes and Persians, reckons this his first year; for it teacheth us, that in this year came forth that renowned edict of his, Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The Lord God of Heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and hath charged me to build him a house at Jerusalem which is in Judah, &c. At which time the 70 years of the Babylonish captivity being expired, (as was foretold by Isaiah and Jeremiah, the former making mention of Cyrus by name,) he gives leave to all the Jews, dwelling in all parts of his dominions, to return into their own country, and commands them immediately to fall in hand with rebuilding of the temple.	332	Malachi IV. 4. Luke I. 17. Matt. XI. 14. XVII. 12.	ALEXANDER the Great, king of Macedonia, passeth out of Europe into Asia, and begins to lay waste the Persian empire.
	Ezra I. 2.	He restoreth also all the vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought from thence; and contributes towards the building.	330	Jos. Ant. I. 11. c. 8. Id. Ibid.	Manasses, brother to Jaddus the high priest, refusing to put away his strange wife, is driven from the sacrifice: Sanaballath his father-in-law, governor of Samaria, revolteth from Darius, obtains leave of Alexander to build a temple on mount Gerizim, and makes Manasses high priest thereof, to which resort all such as are entangled in unlawful marriage, with all such offenders as think themselves not safe at Jerusalem. This was the rise of that schismatical conventicle of the Samaritans. See John iv. 20.
	Isaiah XLIV. 28. XLV. 1, 13.	The Jews therefore return into their own country; the poorer sort having allowance made them to defray their charges upon the way. The number of the children of the province, or Hebrews born in Chaldea, which with their captain Zerubbabel, and their high priest Jeshua, return out of captivity, is 42,360, besides proselytes, men-servants, and maid-servants, to the number of 7,337. Now the particular sums of Ezra's catalogue being cast up amount only to 29,818; and those in Nehemiah's account make but 31,031, both which come far short of that general sum of 42,360, which at the bottom of each catalogue is said to be the number of the whole congregation. Wherefore the Hebrews in the xxixth chapter of their great chronicle tell us, that to complete the full sum of 42,360, we must cast in those of the other ten tribes of Israel, who came up out of the captivity with the Jews. For even till the last extirpation of the Jewish state there remained some relics of the other ten tribes, not only in the dispersion, and at Jerusalem, and other cities of Judah; but also of those who kept still in their own seats; for Shalmaneser swept not away all out of the whole ten tribes, but left a remnant of them in their own country, who were afterward, together with the Jews, Benjamites, and Levites, carried away by Nebuchadnezzar into Babylon, and are now dismissed and sent back again by Cyrus.		Jos. Ant. I. 11. c. 8.	Alexander marcheth toward Jerusalem, intending to besiege it. Jaddus the high priest, hearing of it, putteth on his priestly ornaments, and accompanied with the people all in white, goeth out to meet him. Alexander, seeing his habit, falls prostrate before him, saying "hat, whilst he was in Macedonia, a man appeared unto him in the very same habit, who invited him to come into Asia, and promised to deliver the Persian empire into his hands. After this he goes to the temple, and offers sacrifice according to the high priest's direction. They show him the prophecy of Daniel, That a Grecian should come and destroy the Persians; whereby he is mightily confirmed in his persuasion that he himself is the man. Lastly he bestoweth on the Jews whatever favours desired, and departeth. The Persians are overcome, Darius slain, and Alexander remains universal monarch of the eastern world.
	Ezra II. 5, 6. Nehem. VII.	In the second year after their return from Babylon, in the second month, they appoint Levites to oversee the work of the house of God, and lay the foundation of the temple; the old men lamenting, who 53 years before had seen the old temple standing, and the younger sort rejoicing to see the new one going up.	323	Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 1. 1 Mac. I.	Alexander having reigned six years and ten months dieth; his army and dominions are divided among his captains. Antigonus makes himself governor of Asia, Seleucus of Babylon and the bordering nations; Lysimachus hath the Hellespont; Cassander, Macedon; and Ptolemaeus, the son of Lagus, gets Egypt.
	Acts XXVI. 7. Lam. I. 1. Luke II. 36.	The Samaritans by the means of certain courtiers about Cyrus, whom they had bribed for that purpose, disturb the Jews in their work of the temple. In the beginning of the reign of Artaxerxes (called in profane story Cambyses) the Samaritans, who, whilst Cyrus lived, had secretly undermined the Jews, now openly frame a direct accusation in writing against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem, and present it to the king, who presently forbids the Jews to proceed in the building.	320	Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 1.	Ptolemaeus, surnamed Soter, makes himself master of Jerusalem by stratagem; for he enters the city on a sabbath-day under pretence of offering sacrifice; and whilst the Jews suspect nothing, but spend the day in ease and idleness, he surpriseth the city without resistance, and maketh the citizens captives. He sendeth several colonies of Jews into Egypt, and puts great confidence in them.
520	V. 1.	In the second year of king Darius Hystaspes (the same with Ahasuerus) Zerubbabel and Jeshua, incited by the prophets Haggai and Zechariah, set forward the building of the temple.	277	I. 12. c. 2.	Ptolemaeus Philadelphus, son of Ptolemaeus Soter, being a great favourer of learning, builds a most magnificent library at Alexandria. Demetrius Phalerius, to whom he had committed the care of procuring all sorts of books and out of all countries, persuades him to employ 72 Jews in translating the Holy Scriptures out of the original Hebrew into the Greek tongue, which was done in the seventh year of his reign. The king also dismisseth many captive Jews, and dedicates many presents to the temple of God at Jerusalem.
	Hag. II. 1, 9.	Haggai prophesieth that the glory of this second temple shall be greater than that of the former; not as being a more magnificent structure, but in regard the blessed Messiah shall one day honour it with his presence, and from thence propagate peace to all nations.	177	2 Mac. III.	One Simon, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, governor of the temple, falling out with Onias the high priest, goes to Apollonius the governor of Celosyria, and informs him that there is a vast treasure in the temple; Apollonius acquaints king Seleucus his master with it, who presently sends his treasurer Heliodorus to Jerusalem, to bring this money away. Heliodorus entering the temple, is by angels struck down in the very place, and carried from thence half dead; but by the prayers of Onias he is soon after restored to his health. Returning to Seleucus that sent him, he magnifies the holiness of the temple, and the power of God dwelling in it.
518	Est. I. II.	Ahasuerus puts away queen Vashti his wife, and not long after espouseth Esther, the niece of Mordecai the Jew.	176	1 Mac. I. 10.	Antiochus Epiphanes succeeds Seleucus in the kingdom of Syria, and reigneth 11 years and some months.
515	Ezra VI.	In the sixth year of Darius, or Ahasuerus, the temple is finished; the dedication whereof is celebrated with great joy and abundance of sacrifices, the priests and Levites, every one in his place, standing on the ministry of the temple. The passover also is celebrated.	175	2 Mac. IV. 7, 3, 24.	Jason, by corrupting king Antiochus, obtaineth the office of high priest. Menelaus, brother to Simon the traitor, being employed by Jason to carry the money to the king, promiseth 300 talents of silver above what Jason had sent, and getteth the priesthood to himself.
510	Est. III. Deut. XXV. 19.	Haman, an Agagite, of the race of the Amalekites, a great favorite of king Ahasuerus, offended at Mordecai, because he falls not down and adores him, as others do, resolves to be revenged of the whole nation of the Jews, (which was ever averse to his,) and to root it out; for the executing of which purpose, that he may find a successful time, he causeth Pur, that is, the lot, to be cast before him, for to know the day and month wherein the Jews shall be destroyed, and the lot falls on the 12th month Adar.	172	27.	Menelaus, not paying the money he had promised the king at his admission, is summoned to appear before Antiochus; he substituteth Lysimachus his brother in his place.
	Est. IV.	Haman obtains an edict from the king, that all Jews, without respect to sex or age, upon the thirteenth day of the month Adar, be put to death in all the provinces of the king's dominions. Hereupon Mordecai, Esther, and all the Jews, humble themselves before the Lord by fasting and prayer.	170	1 Mac. I. 21, 22. 2 Mac. V. Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 7. Daniel XI. 28. 1 Mac. VIII. 5.	Antiochus taketh Jerusalem, and sacking it, pillageth the temple, destroyeth 40,000 of the inhabitants, and selleth as many more. He endeavoureth also to abolish the worship of God, and forceth many Jews to forsake their religion. The Samaritans now disown their relation to the Jews, to whom in prosperity they pretended alliance, and consecrate the temple on mount Gerizim to Jupiter.
	VI.	Ahasuerus, hearing it read in the chronicles that a conspiracy had been discovered to him by Mordecai, commandeth that he be publicly honoured and that by Haman himself, his deadly enemy.	168	I. 45.	Perseus, having made war upon the Romans, is this year overcome by them, and the kingdom of the Macedonians ends, when from Caranus it had stood 626 years. Nevertheless the relics of the Macedonian empire, while that of the Roman was rising, did yet survive in the Ptolemies of Egypt, and the kings of Syria.
	VII.	Esther, entertaining the king and Haman at a banquet, maketh suit for her own life, and her people's, and accuseth Haman. The king, understanding that Haman had provided a gallows for Mordecai, causeth him to be hanged thereon. In memory of this great deliverance the two days of Purim are made festival.	167	1 Mac. II. 2 Mac. VI. Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 8. 1 Mac. III. 2 Mac. VIII. Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 9. 1 Mac. III.	King Antiochus, by a public edict, commands all nations that are subject unto him to observe the same way of divine worship, and laying aside their peculiar customs, to profess the same religion with the Grecians; the punishment of death being threatened unto such as shall be disobedient; and he appoints overseers over every people and nation who shall compel them hereunto. Of the Jews many choose rather to undergo the most cruel torments, than to offer sacrifice unto idols; all which martyrdoms, with those glorious sufferings of the seven Maccabean brethren, are recorded in the two books of Maccabees.
	IX.		166		Mattathias, a priest, with his five sons, slay those that are sent by king Antiochus to compel them to offer abominable sacrifices, and after betake themselves to the desert. They are followed by many others, of whom a great number are stifled in their caves, because they would not defend themselves on the sabbath-day. Mattathias abolisheth that superstition, and exhorts his sons to assert their privileges, and deliver their country from bondage.

 88 Luke II. 37.

Apollonius, governor of Samaria, having raised an army among the Gentiles and Samaritans, falls upon the Jews; but is discomfited and slain by Judas Maccabeus.
 Seron also, governor of the lower Syria, musters up all the forces under his command, and invades Judea; him Judas Maccabeus encounters, slays 800 of his men on the place, and puts the rest to flight.
 Judas Maccabeus defeats a great army, which Antiochus sent against the Jews. Lysias returns with a greater power; Judas kills 5000 of his men, and causeth him to retreat. He purifieth the temple, and setteth it in order, after it had lain desolate three years; and buildeth a wall about Zion.
 Antiochus is taken with a violent pain in his bowels, and such a rottenness seizeth his flesh, that worms breed in it; he confesseth that he is plagued for the wrong done to Jerusalem, and dieth in the 149th year of the kingdom of the Grecians. His son Antiochus Eupator, a child about nine years old, succeeds him. He maketh peace with the Jews, but quickly breaketh it; he puts to death Menelaus the high priest, and confers that honour upon Alcimus, or Jacimus.
 Onias, the son of Onias III., retires into Egypt, where Ptolemy Philometor, and Cleopatra his wife, permit him to build a temple at Heliopolis in imitation of that at Jerusalem, and they constitute him high priest there.
 Demetrius Soter, the son of Seleucus, escapes from Rome, and comes into Syria, where he causeth himself to be crowned king, and putteth to death Antiochus and Lysias.
 Demetrius, at the instance of Alcimus, sends Nicanor with a great army against Judas Maccabeus, whom he endeavours to surpris. They join battle, and Nicanor is slain.
 Here ends the continued history of the second book of Maccabees, being an abstract and breviary of the five books of Jason, a Jew of Cyrene.
 King Demetrius sends Bacchides with a new army, consisting of 20,000 men, against Judas Maccabeus; Judas, having with him but 800 men, ventures to engage him, and is slain. His brother Jonathan is chosen general in his stead.
 Jonathan enters into an alliance with the Romans. Josephus observes, that this was the first league that ever was known to be between the Jews and the Romans.
 Whilst Alcimus commands the wall of the inner court of the temple to be pulled down, God strikes him suddenly with a palsy, so that without speaking a word he dies in great torment.
 Jonathan, having wearied Bacchides by war, compelleth him to make a league and draw off his army.
 Alexander Balas, the son of king Antiochus Epiphanes, enters with an army into Syria: the garrison of Ptolemais set open their gates to him, by reason of their hatred to king Demetrius; who prepares himself for war.
 Demetrius desireth an alliance with Jonathan, who makes use of this occasion to repair the fortifications of Jerusalem.
 Alexander Balas is no less careful to obtain the friendship of Jonathan, and, to oblige him, confers on him the high priesthood.
 Jonathan puts on the holy vestment on the seventh month of the 160th year of the kingdom of the Grecians, at the feast of tabernacles. He was the first high priest of the Hasmonean family.
 Demetrius and Alexander come to battle, and Demetrius is slain.
 Alexander Balas, finding himself in the peaceable possession of the kingdom of Syria, espouseth Cleopatra, the daughter of Ptolemy Philometor king of Egypt. Alexander highly honours Jonathan the high priest at his nuptials.
 Demetrius Nicanor, eldest son of Demetrius Soter, enters into Cilicia with an army. King Alexander Balas gives the command of Syria to Apollonius, who sets upon Jonathan the high priest; Jonathan defeats him, and takes Joppe and Azotus, and burns the temple of Dagon.
 Ptolemy Philometor, king of Egypt, comes to the relief of king Alexander his son-in-law; Alexander ungratefully sets Ammonius to lie in ambush to kill him. The treachery being discovered, Ptolemy takes away his daughter from Alexander, and marrieth her to Demetrius. Alexander having been driven from Antioch, the inhabitants of that place make offer of the kingdom to Ptolemy; but he refuseth it, and persuadeth them to accept of Demetrius for their king.
 Alexander returns with a great army. Ptolemy and Demetrius unite their forces, and overcome him in a pitched battle; but Ptolemy dies of the wounds which he received, after he had seen the head of Alexander sent to him by Zabdiel, an Arabian prince. Jonathan besiegeth the citadel at Jerusalem, held by a garrison of Macedonians. Complaint hereof being made to Demetrius, Jonathan appeaseth him by presents, and obtaineth new favours for the Jews. Demetrius incurth the hatred of his soldiers by abridging their pay in time of peace.
 Tryphon, with some soldiers that revolted from Demetrius, undertakes to establish Antiochus, the son of Alexander Balas, in the kingdom of Syria.
 Demetrius is vanquished by young Antiochus, and made to fly into Seleucia. Great honours are by Antiochus conferred on Jonathan, who assists him against Demetrius.
 Jonathan renews his alliance with the Romans and Lacedemonians, and fortifies Jerusalem.
 Tryphon contrives how he may quit himself of Antiochus, and reign in his stead: but fearing Jonathan's opposition, he invites him to come to Ptolemais, and bring with him some few of his soldiers, promising to deliver that city into his hands. Jonathan, suspecting no treachery, comes only with 1000 men to Tryphon at Ptolemais; but as soon as he is entered the city, Tryphon commands the gates to be shut. Jonathan is taken prisoner, and all his men put to the sword.
 The Jews hereupon make choice of Simon Maccabeus for their general in the place of his brother Jonathan. Tryphon leads an army against Simon. He promiseth for 100 talents of silver to release Jonathan; the money being paid him, he breaks his promise, and puts Jonathan to death. Simon erects a stately monument for his father and his brethren.
 Tryphon murders the young king Antiochus, and puts the crown on his own head.
 The Romans and Lacedemonians renew their leagues with Simon and write them in tables of brass.
 Simon has the government and high priesthood settled on him and his heirs: the Jews are by his means discharged from all manner of tribute to any foreign prince. He takes Sion, the fortress of Jerusalem, drives out of the city all idolaters, clears the houses of their idols, and placeth in the city such as are true worshippers of God.
 Tryphon's vices render him so odious to his soldiers, that they submit themselves to Cleopatra, Demetrius's relict. She marrieth Antiochus Soter, Demetrius's brother, and causeth him to be crowned king. Antiochus drives Tryphon out of Syria, besiegeth him in Dora, whence he flies to Apamea, where he is taken and slain.
 Simon the high priest traversing the cities of Judea, and taking care for their orderly government, comes down with his two sons, Mattathias and Judas to Jericho; Ptolemy the son of Abubus, Simon's son-in-law, invites them to a castle which he had fortified, called Dochus, and there, whilst he entertains them at a banquet, barbarously murders them. John Hircanus succeeds his father in the high priesthood.
 Here ends the first book of Maccabees, containing the history of forty years.
 John Hircanus takes Shechem, and demolisheth the temple on mount Gerizim, 200 years after it had been built by Sanballat.
 Judas, eldest son of Hircanus, otherwise called Aristobulus, and surnamed Philellen, succeeds his father in the government and the high priesthood; he was the first of any, that, after the return from the captivity of Babylon, set a crown upon his head, and changed the state into a monarchy.

prisoner becoming a widow, departs not from the temple, but serveth God with fasting and prayer night and day, for 84 years together, until such time as she sees Christ in the temple.
 Jerusalem is this year taken by Pompey; who meddles not with any of the treasure which was in the temple, but makes the Jews tributary to the Romans.
 Here begins the empire of the Roman Cesars, when Julius Cesar, having overthrown Pompey at the battle of Pharsalia, was made perpetual dictator.
 Herod, the son of Antipas, or Antipater, an Idumean, is this year by the Romans declared king of Judea.
 Herod, assisted by Sosius the Roman general, lays siege to Jerusalem, and takes it: the soldiers fill all corners of the city with blood, rapine and cruelty. Antigonus, the prince and high priest, is by Sosius carried away prisoner to Rome, and Herod put in full possession of the kingdom.
 Cesar Octavianus, nephew to Julius Cesar, assumes the title of emperor; at which time the government among the Romans was legally changed from a republic into a monarchy. The next year following he is by the senate surnamed Augustus.
 Herod this year begins to enlarge, or rather to rebuild, the temple at Jerusalem, 46 years before the first passover of the ministry of Christ.
 The angel Gabriel appears to Zachary the priest, as he is offering incense in the temple, telling him that a son shall be born unto him, whom he shall call John.
 In the sixth month after John was conceived, the same angel Gabriel is sent by God to Nazareth in Galilee, to the most blessed Virgin Mary (espoused to Joseph, a person of the house and lineage of David); the angel declares unto her, that she shall conceive by the overshadowing of the Holy Ghost, and bring forth a son, and call his name JESUS.
 John the Baptist born six months before Christ.

PERIOD VII.

From the Birth of Christ to St. John's Return to Ephesus, A. D. 96.

CHRIST our Lord and Saviour in the fulness of time is born of the blessed Virgin Mary at Bethlehem, and laid in a manger.
 On the eighth day after his nativity he is circumcised, and named JESUS. The wise men of the east bring presents to the new-born king of the Jews. Joseph flees into Egypt with the child Jesus, and Mary his mother. Herod commands the infants in and about Bethlehem to be slain. Herod dieth, and his son Archelaus is by Cesar made tetrarch of Judea other dominions, which belonged to Herod, are divided among his sons. Christ, by God's appointment, is brought back out of Egypt into Nazareth.
 The first year of the vulgar Christian Era begins here.
 By occasion of the passover our Lord goes up with his parents to Jerusalem, and there disputes with the doctors in the temple.
 Augustus dies, and Tiberius succeeds him.
 Josephus, called Caiaphas, is made high priest of the Jews by the favour of Valerius Gratus, the Roman governor.
 Towards the end of this year Pontius Pilate is sent to be procurator of Judea in the place of Valerius Gratus.
 John the Baptist begins to preach and to baptize in the desert of Judea, thereby preparing the way of the Lord, and doing his endeavour that Christ coming after him may be made known unto Israel. Unto John God gives a sign whereby he may know the Lord's Christ, that upon whom he shall see the Spirit descending and remaining on him, the same is he which shall baptize with the Holy Ghost.
 Jesus entering upon the thirtieth year of his age, comes from Galilee to Jordan, and is baptized of John; at which time a most illustrious manifestation is made of the blessed Trinity: for the Son of God ascending out of the water, and praying, the heavens are opened, and the Spirit of God in the shape of a dove descends upon him: and the voice of the Father is heard from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.
 John sees it, and bears record that this is the Son of God.
 Jesus full of the Holy Ghost returns from Jordan, and is led by the Spirit into the wilderness, where he fasteth forty days and forty nights, and is tempted by the devil.
 John gives testimony to our Saviour passing by him: Andrew, Peter, Philip, and Nathanael, acknowledge him to be the Messiah and become his disciples.
 Christ, at a marriage in Cana of Galilee, turneth water into wine.

The first passover of Christ's public ministry, from which the first year of the seventieth and last of Daniel's week begins. In which the covenant is confirmed with many, Dan. ix. 27, compared with Matt. xxvi. 28. JESUS cometh to Jerusalem at the time of the passover, and entering into the temple, scourgeth out those that bought and sold there. The Jews require a sign of his authority: Christ bids them destroy that temple (understanding the temple of his body), and in three days he will raise it up, and build it again. Herod the tetrarch casteth John the baptist into prison for reprehending his incest with his brother Philip's wife, and other evils done by him. Christ discovers himself to the woman of Samaria. He goes throughout all Galilee, teaching in the synagogues, and working miracles. Matthew called to be a disciple.

The second passover of Christ's ministry, John v. 1, compared with iv. 3, 5, from which the second year of the seventieth week of Daniel begins. JESUS comes up to Jerusalem at the time of the feast, and heals on the sabbath-day a man that had an infirmity 38 years, lying at the pool of Bethesda. He makes a most divine apology to the Jews that sought to kill him, because he said that God was his father. Christ out of the multitude of his disciples chooseth 12, whom he calleth Apostles: namely, Peter, Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Simon called Zelotes, Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot. To these our Saviour chiefly directs his discourse in that glorious, full, and admirable sermon on the mount. Jesus sends his 12 apostles by two and two to preach, and heal the sick. John the Baptist is beheaded in prison by Herod's command. Jesus feeds 5000 men, besides women and children, with five barley loaves and two little fishes. He refuses to be made a king.

The third passover of Christ's ministry, John iv. 4, from which the third year of the seventieth week of Daniel begins. JESUS is transfigured on the mount; Moses and Elias are seen to talk with him; and a voice from heaven is heard a second time, saying, This is my beloved son; hear him. Christ payeth tribute to Cesar. A certain village of the Samaritans refuseth our Saviour entertainment in his way to Jerusalem: the disciples, desiring to call fire from heaven to consume them, are severely reprehended. The seventy disciples are sent out by two and two to work miracles and to preach.

After Christ. 33 Luke XI. 1. Christ teacheth his disciples to pray. John XI. 1. Christ raiseth Lazarus, that had been buried four days. Caiaphas, high priest of the Jews, prophesieth concerning the death of Christ. Luke XIX. 1. Zaccheus a publican converted. Mark X. 46. Christ restoreth to blind Bartimeus his sight. John XII. 3. Mary the sister of Lazarus anoints our Saviour's feet with costly spikenard, and wipeth them with the hair of her head. Matt. XXI. Christ rideth in triumph into Jerusalem: the multitude spread their garments in the way, and cry, Hosanna to the Son of David. Luke XIX. Coming near the city he weeps over it, and foretells its destruction. He enters the temple, and casteth out those that bought and sold there; and heals the blind and lame. John XII. He curseth the fruitless fig-tree, and the next morning it is found dried up and withered. Thence he takes occasion to show the power of faith. Zech. IX. 9. The fourth passover, in which Christ our passover is sacrificed, 1 Cor. v. 7, and so an end is put to all legal sacrifices prefiguring this great expiation. The fourth or middle year of Daniel's last week begins, Dan. ix. 27. XXI. 19. ON the first day of unleavened bread, when the passover of the Jews was to be slain (April 2), in the evening, Jesus eateth the passover with his disciples, and institutes the sacrament of his body and blood in bread and wine. XXVI. Christ washeth his disciples' feet, and exhorteth them to humility and charity. Mark XIV. In the self-same night Christ is betrayed by Judas, mocked, buffeted, and spit upon by the soldiers. Luke XXII. Next day he is condemned by Pilate, and crucified; the sun during the crucifixion is darkened, and the veil of the temple rent in the midst. Christ praying for his enemies gives up the Ghost. Joseph of Arimathea begs the body, and lays it in a new sepulchre. John XIII. On the third day, the next after the Jewish sabbath (April 5), Christ riseth from the dead; his resurrection is declared by angels to the women that came to the sepulchre. Christ first appeareth to Mary Magdalene, and afterward to his disciples, and dineth with them. XXVII. Christ bringeth his apostles to mount Olivet; commandeth them to expect in Jerusalem the sending down of the Holy Ghost: sends them to teach and baptize all nations, and blesses them; and while they behold, he is taken up, and a cloud receives him out of their sight. After his ascension the disciples are warned by two angels to depart, and to set their minds upon his second coming; they accordingly return, and giving themselves to prayer, choose Matthias to be an apostle in the place of Judas. Mark XV. On the day of Pentecost (May 24), the Holy Ghost descendeth on the apostles in the form of cloven tongues, like as of fire, and enableth them to speak all languages. Peter the same day preacheth Christ and the resurrection, and about 3000 believers are added to the church. Luke XXIII. The rulers of the Jews, offended at Peter's sermon, and his miraculous cure of the lame man, cast both him and John into prison: upon their examination they boldly avouch the lame man to be healed by the name of Jesus, and that by the same Jesus we must be eternally saved. The Jews forbid them to speak any more in that name. The apostles answer, that it is fit they should obey God rather than men. They are threatened and let go. John XX. Ananias and his wife Sapphira for their hypocrisy are struck dead. Acts I. The apostles are again cast into prison by the high priest; but an angel sets them at liberty, and bids them preach the gospel to the people without fear: being taken again teaching in the temple, they are brought before the council; where, by the advice of Gamaliel, they are delivered. Matt. XXVIII. The number of believers increasing at Jerusalem, the apostles ordain seven deacons, who should distribute the alms of the whole church to the widows and poorer sort of believers. Stephen, one of these deacons, having confounded some that disputed with him, is by them falsely accused of blasphemy, and brought before the council, where he reprehends their rebellion, and murdering of Christ. Whereupon they cast him out of the city, and stone him; he in the mean time praying for them. Acts II. A great persecution of the Church at Jerusalem follows after the death of the first martyr Stephen. V. 1, 17. Philip, one of the seven deacons, preacheth at Samaria, and converteth many; worketh miracles, and healeth the sick. Simon the sorcerer, seeing the wonders that are done by Philip, believeth, and is baptized. VI. The apostles at Jerusalem, hearing that Samaria had received the faith, send thither Peter and John to confirm and enlarge the Church. The apostles by prayer and imposition of hands confer the Holy Ghost on all believers. Simon Magus offers them money, that he may receive the power of conferring the same, whose impiety is sharply reproved by Peter. Having completed their ministry in those parts, they return to Jerusalem. VII. An angel sendeth Philip to teach and baptize the Ethiopian eunuch. VIII. Saul, a violent persecutor of all that call on the name of Jesus, and one who consented to the death of Stephen, goes now towards Damascus with commission from the high priest and the council to apprehend all Christians in those parts, and to bring them bound to Jerusalem; on the way he is miraculously converted by a voice from heaven; and three days after baptized by Ananias at Damascus, where he preached the gospel of Christ with great boldness. IX. Saul having preached the gospel at Damascus a long time, the Jews lay wait to kill him, but he escapeth from thence, and comes to Jerusalem; there he sees Peter, and James the brother of our Lord, and abides with them fifteen days. Here he speaks boldly in the name of Jesus, and disputes with the Grecians, or rather Jews that used the Greek tongue. These also consult how they may kill him. Acts 5. While Saul prays in the temple, he is in a trance, and the Lord appears unto him, and bids him to depart from Jerusalem, because they will not receive his testimony; adding, that he will send him to the Gentiles. 15. Saul leaving Jerusalem goes to his own country Tarsus, and from thence travels into Syria and Cilicia. 34 VI. Peter visits the churches of Judea, Galilee, Samaria, &c. At Lydda he cureth Eneas of the palsy; and at Joppa restoreth Tabitha to life. VII. At Cesarea, Cornelius, a centurion, by prayers and alms finds favour in the sight of God, and is commanded by an angel to send for Peter, now at Joppa. God by a vision teacheth Peter not to despise the Gentiles. Peter being sent for by Cornelius, goes and preacheth Christ to him and a great company that were met at his house; while Peter preacheth, the Holy Ghost falls upon them all; and immediately the apostle baptizeth them. VIII. Peter, at his return to Jerusalem, is accused by those of the circumcision for conversing with the Gentiles; but he declares to them his vision, and the whole matter concerning Cornelius; and they glorify God for granting to the Gentiles also repentance unto life. IX. The believers, who ever since the martyrdom of Stephen and the persecution thereupon ensuing, had been dispersed throughout all Phenice and Cyprus, come now to Antioch, and preach the gospel to the Greeks there, having before preached to none but the Jews. The church at Jerusalem, understanding this, and that the number of believers increased exceedingly, sends Barnabas thither to confirm them: he goes to Tarsus, and takes Saul along with him to Antioch, where they continue a whole year, converting multitudes to the faith. Here the disciples were first called Christians. 38 23. About this time James the brother of John is beheaded by the command of Herod Agrippa. He also imprisoneth Peter, whom an angel delivers upon the prayers of the church. This same Herod, not long after, speaking to the people at Cesarea, some of them cry out, It is the voice of God, and not of man; and immediately an angel of the Lord smites him, because he gave not the glory to God: and he is eaten of worms, and dieth.

After Christ. 45 Acts XIII. Barnabas and Saul set forward in their preaching of the gospel. They plant the Christian faith in Seleucia, Cyprus, and other places. At Paphos they preach the gospel to Sergius Paulus, governor of that country; Elymas a sorcerer, withstanding them, and endeavouring to turn away Sergius from the faith, is at Saul's rebuke struck blind. From this time Saul is always called by his new name Paul; he preacheth to Antioch, the Gentiles believe, but the Jews gainsay and blaspheme. Whereupon he and his assistants turn to the Gentiles, and come to Iconium. XIV. At Iconium they are persecuted and ready to be stoned. From hence they fly to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia. At Lystra, Paul healing a cripple, the multitude cry out, that the gods are come down, and call Barnabas Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius; and would have sacrificed to them, had not the apostles with clothes rent run in among them, and assured them that they were men like themselves. Soon after there come Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who excite the people against them. Paul is by the furious multitude stoned, and drawn out of the city as dead; but whilst the disciples stand about him, he riseth up, and the next day departs with Barnabas to Derbe. 2 Cor. XI. 25. In this year Paul was caught up into the third heaven, and heard unspeakable words. XII. 2. About this time Timothy, though a child, with his mother Eunice, and his grandmother Lois, embrace the Christian faith preached by Paul. 2 Tim. I. 2, 5. Certain Judaizing Christians come from Judea to Antioch, and teach that the Gentiles ought to be circumcised, and observe the law of Moses; these Paul and Barnabas oppose, and a council is held by the apostles and others at Jerusalem to determine this controversy. 52 Acts XV. Paul and Barnabas, thinking to visit the churches together, fall at strife, and part asunder: Barnabas and Mark go into Cyprus; Paul and Silas into Syria and Cilicia. 53 36. Paul coming to Derbe finds there Timothy, whom (because his mother was a believing Jew, though his father a Gentile,) he causeth to be circumcised, and takes him along with him. He is by a vision admonished to go into Macedonia: coming to Philippi, the chief city of that part of Macedonia, he converts Lydia; casteth out of a certain maid-servant a spirit of divination, whose master losing a considerable gain thereby, brings Paul and Silas before the magistrates: these cause them to be whipped and imprisoned; but at midnight, Paul and Silas praying and singing psalms, the doors of the prison fly open, and their bonds are loosed: the jailer, ready to kill himself, is converted to the faith, and baptized the same night with his whole family. Next day the magistrates come themselves, and pray them to depart the city. XVI. From Philippi Paul takes his journey through Amphipolis and Apollonia, and comes to Thessalonica, where he finds a synagogue of the Jews; there he preached three sabbath-days; some believe, others persecute him. Leaving Thessalonica he comes to Berea, and soon after arrives at Athens, disputes with the philosophers, and declares unto them that UNKNOWN GOD whom they had ignorantly worshipped. He converts Dionysius the Areopagite, and thence passeth to Corinth. XVII. Paul at Corinth meets with Aquila and Priscilla, not long before banished from Rome by the decree of Claudius. Here he continues a year and six months, and thence writes to the Thessalonians. XVIII. Paul is accused by the Jews, and brought before Gallio, proconsul of Achaia, who refuseth to be judge in a controversy about religion, and so drives them away from the judgment-seat. XIX. Paul departs from Corinth, and passeth to Ephesus, thence he sets out towards Jerusalem, that he may be at the feast; he lands at Cesarea, goes down to Antioch, and comes into the regions of Galatia and Phrygia, confirming the disciples in all those places. XX. Paul returns to Ephesus, disputes daily in the school of Tyrannus, and continues preaching there, and the parts thereof. He writes his epistle to the Galatians. XXI. At Ephesus, Demetrius a silversmith, jealous of his gain, raiseth tumult against Paul, which is appeased by the town-clerk. XXII. About this time a schism ariseth in the church at Corinth, which causeth Paul (now in or about Ephesus) to write his first epistle to the Corinthians. XXIII. Paul departs from Ephesus, and comes into Macedonia, and gathers a contribution for the relief of the saints at Jerusalem. XXIV. The apostle, having learnt from Titus the success of his first, writes now his second epistle to the Corinthians. Out of Macedonia he goes into Greece, and comes to Corinth, where he writes his epistle to the Romans. XXV. Paul purposing to go thence into Syria, to carry the collections to Jerusalem, the Jews lay wait for him; understanding this, he returns into Macedonia the same way he came, and thence passes into Asia. XXVI. After the days of unleavened bread Paul sails from Philippi, and comes to Troas: there he restores Eutyclus to life. Having passed through several cities of Greece, he arrives at Miletus; from thence he sends to call the elders of the Church of Ephesus, whom he earnestly exhorts to the performance of their duty. XXVII. Paul comes to Jerusalem, is apprehended in the temple, and secured in the castle; he claimeth the privilege of a Roman, and escapeth scourging. XXVIII. Paul pleadeth his cause before Ananias the high priest. The chief captain, understanding that above forty Jews had bound themselves under a curse neither to eat nor drink till they have killed him, sends him to Felix the governor of the province, by whom he is imprisoned at Cesarea. XXIX. Paul is accused before Felix by Tertullus the orator: Felix goes out of his office, and to gratify the Jews, leaves Paul in prison. Portius Festus succeeds him in the government. XXX. The Jews come to Cesarea, and accuse Paul before Festus. He answereth for himself, and appeals unto Cesar. King Agrippa comes to Cesarea, and Festus opens the whole matter to him. XXXI. Paul makes his defence in the presence of Agrippa; who thereby is almost persuaded to be a Christian, and the whole company pronounce him innocent. XXXII. Paul comes to Rome, is a prisoner at large, and preacheth there two years. XXXIII. Here ends the History of the Acts of the Apostles, written by St. Luke, St. Paul's beloved companion in his travels. XXXIV. St. Paul from Rome writes his epistles, To the Philippians. To Philemon. To the Colossians. To the Ephesians. XXXV. About the latter end of this year Paul is set at liberty; and a little before his departure out of Italy into Asia he writes his epistle to the Hebrews. XXXVI. He preacheth the gospel in the isle of Crete, and leaves Titus there set things in order, and ordain elders in every city. XXXVII. St. Paul writes his epistles, To Timothy I. To Titus. To Timothy II. XXXVIII. About this time the epistles of St. Peter, St. John, and St. Jude seem to be written. XXXIX. St. Peter and St. Paul are said to have suffered martyrdom at Rome towards the latter end of Nero's reign. XL. This year Jerusalem (according to Christ's prophecy) is besieged, taken, sacked, and burnt, by Titus, 1,100,000 of the Jews perish, 97,000 are taken prisoners; besides an innumerable company that in other places of Judea kill themselves, or perish through famine, banishment, or other miseries. XLI. St. John is banished into the isle of Patmos by Domitian, and there receives and writes his Revelation. XLII. After the death of Domitian, St. John returns to Ephesus, and at the request of the Church writes his Gospel.

THE FALL. (Gen. 2, 3.)

1. Where did God place man when he had created him?—In the garden of Eden, near the river Euphrates. Gen. 2: 8.

2. What is a garden?—A piece of ground enclosed and planted for the production of trees and flowers, of fruits and other food.

3. What description have we given to us of this garden?—That God made to grow in it the tree of life, the tree of knowledge of good and evil, and every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food. Gen. 2: 9.

4. How was it watered?—By a river, that flowed afterward in four rivers or channels to the sea. Gen. 2: 10-14.

5. Can any of those rivers be now traced?—The Euphrates only.

6. Was man idle in the garden of Eden, or did God employ him there?—He was put into the garden to dress it and keep it (Gen. 2: 15); so that it was a duty and a blessing, even in Paradise, to be employed.

7. How was the garden refreshed before man was placed there to tend it?—By a mist from the earth. Gen. 2: 6.

8. Did God permit man to pluck and eat the fruit of this garden?—He was allowed freely to eat of every tree. Gen. 2: 16.

9. Were there any restrictions to this permission?—An exception was made of the tree of knowledge of good and evil, under the penalty of death. Gen. 2: 17. Thus was a trial made of obedience and love, and a gracious warning given.

10. Were they forbidden to eat of the tree of life?—They were not.

11. What do we conclude from this?—That they were intended to live for ever.

12. Did man obey God's command?—He did not.

13. What did he do?—He ate the forbidden fruit.

14. Who was the first transgressor?—Eve.

15. How came it about?—The devil, in the form of a serpent, deceived her by a lie. Gen. 3: 1-6.

16. What did the devil promise Eve?—That they should not surely die, but be as gods, knowing good and evil. Gen. 3: 4, 5.

17. Was she disappointed?—Satan's words proved false, for there is no truth in him. They fell under sentence of death; and Satan showed himself a liar and a murderer from the beginning. John 8: 44.

18. What foolish plan did they adopt to hide their shame?—They hid themselves amongst the trees of the garden, knowing the evil they had done.

19. Can any place conceal us from God's eye?—None.

O Lord, thou hast searched me, and known me. Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off. Thou compassedst my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways. For there is not a word in my tongue, hut, lo, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether. Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it. Whither shall I go from thy Spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence? If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there; if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there. If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea; even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me. If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me. Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee: but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee. Ps. 139: 1-12.

20. What is it that makes us fear to meet God?—The consciousness that we have sinned, and that he knows it.

21. What do we do when we commit sin?—We generally try to hide our wrong-doings even from ourselves.

22. What ought we to do?—To confess and be truly sorry for our sin; to come to God, through Christ, for the pardon of it, and to forsake it.

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: and he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. 1 John 1: 8-2: 2.

He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whose confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy. Prov. 28: 13.

23. Can we provide a covering for our sin?—No: for our very best deeds are imperfect and defiled. We are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags. Isa. 64: 6.

24. Has God taken pity on us and given us a robe of righteousness?—I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels. Isa. 61: 10. Where is this further spoken of?—Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all, and upon all them that believe. Rom. 3: 22.

25. How was it made known to our first parents?—It was included in the intimation of a Saviour, conveyed in the promise that the seed of the woman should bruise the serpent's head. Gen. 3: 15; and see No. 26.

26. How did God clothe their bodies?—In coats of skin. Gen. 3: 21.

27. What is it supposed was done with the bodies of the animals thus slain?—That they were offered in sacrifice to God, as types or representations of the future sacrifice of Christ. Gen. 4: 4.

28. How did this represent the great atonement that Jesus afterward accomplished?—By the shedding of blood, without which there is no remission of sins. Heb. 9: 22.

29. Did God give them any direct promise of this blessed Person? See No. 25.

30. Was the devil disappointed?—Yes, he failed in ruining man for ever.

31. Who got the curse?—Satan, whose head or power was to be bruised or crushed. Gen. 3: 15. Man also suffered, in a less degree, by being driven out of Eden, and condemned to laborious toil, and at last to bodily death. Gen. 3: 17-19, 23, 24.

32. For whose sake was the ground cursed?—For man's sake. Gen. 3: 17.

33. How was man to feel this?—By the weeds it brought forth, and the labor it required.

34. Was there any special punishment to the woman for being first in the transgression?—In personal suffering.

35. Was there not also a special mercy granted to her?—That she should be the ancestress of Christ. Gen. 3: 15.

36. Did they continue in the garden of Eden?—No.

37. Why not?—Lest they should eat of the tree of life, and live for ever upon earth. Gen. 3: 22.

38. Is the tree of life ever mentioned again in Scrip- ture? Where?—In Rev. 22: 1, 2, as standing by the river of the water of life, in the heavenly Jerusalem; Rev. 21: 2, in the midst of the paradise of God. Rev. 2: 7.

39. Who will again eat of it?—They that do God's commandments, and that overcome in the battle with Satan and with sin. Rev. 22: 14; 2: 7.

40. How did God guard the gate of Eden?—By cherubim or angels and a flaming sword. Gen. 3: 24.

41. Are the cherubim again mentioned in Scripture? Where?—In the vision of Ezekiel, chapters 1 and 10, and in the account of the tabernacle and the temple, etc., twenty-one places altogether.

42. Why did Adam name his wife Eve?—Because she was the mother of all living, and the word means "living." Gen. 3: 20.

CAIN AND ABEL. (Gen. 4.)

1. What was the name of Adam's first child?—Cain. Gen. 4: 1.

2. What is the meaning of the name?—Got or obtained.

3. Whom did Eve suppose him to be?—The seed or child or Saviour promised.

4. Was she disappointed?—Yes; he became a wicked man and a murderer.

5. What name did she give her second son?—Abel, or Vanity.

6. What did this show?—That her expectations had declined.

7. Did he prove as bad as his brother?—No; his works were righteous. 1 John 3: 12.

8. What difference do we observe in the offerings of the two brothers?—Cain offered of the fruit of the ground, and Abel the firstlings of his flock. Gen. 4: 3, 4.

9. How does this give us their characters?—Cain showed indifference or self-will, and Abel obedience and faith.

By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh. Heb. 11: 4.

10. Will God receive us in any other way than the way he has appointed?—He will not.

11. How is that?—Jesus saith, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. John 14: 6.

12. How did the slain lamb represent Jesus?—In being without blemish and without spot (1 Pet. 1: 19), and in having its blood shed; for without shedding of blood is no remission of sin. Heb. 9: 22.

13. What did John the Baptist say of Jesus?—Behold! the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. John 1: 29.

14. What proof did God give that the sacrifice was accepted?—Probably the consuming it by fire from heaven, as Elijah's was consumed on Carmel. 1 Kings 18: 38.

15. How did Cain act when he found that his own way did not please God?—He was very angry. Gen. 4: 5.

16. How should he have acted?—He should have offered, in penitence and faith, the sacrifice that God required. Gen. 4: 7.

17. Did not sin lie at his own door, then, seeing God had provided a way to remove it?—It did (Gen. 4: 7), and led to greater guilt and sin.

18. What awful act did Cain's jealousy of his brother lead to?—The murder of his brother, his only brother.

19. What fearful lie did he tell?—He told the all-seeing God that he knew not where his murdered brother was.

20. What did God say had cried to him?—His brother's blood.

21. In John 8:44 the devil is called a murderer. What is said of Cain in 1 John 3:10-12?—In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother. For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

22. Did Cain procure for himself Satan's portion—a curse?—See Gen. 4:11, 12.

23. What did Cain feel when God's curse lighted on him?—That his punishment was greater than he could bear, as any one might kill him.

24. Did God in mercy mitigate Cain's punishment?—He set a mark upon him to prevent his being killed.

25. What is meant by Cain's going from God's presence?—He perhaps never heard him again, or saw him in the form he used to take, or felt his Spirit within him. He left the place where his worship was held, and the place where his glory may have appeared. Gen. 3:24.

26. When God takes vengeance into his own hand, will he let any one else perform it?—God, to whom vengeance belongeth, says, Vengeance is mine; I will repay. Rom. 12:19; Ps. 94:1.

27. Is there a day of reckoning coming?—It is appointed unto men once to die, and after that the judgment. Heb. 9:27.

THE ANTEDILUVIAN PATRIARCHS. (Gen. 5.)

1. What is the allotted age of man now?—Three-score years and ten. Ps. 90:10.

2. Could we then have imagined it possible for men to have lived so long as the patriarchs, if the Bible had not informed us?—We could not.

3. Place all these lives in a row, in long lines measured by 100 years, and say which lived the longest.

	100	200	300	400	500	600	700	800	900
Adam
Seth
Enos Cainan
Mahalaleel
Jared
Enoch Methuselah
Lamech
Noah

4. How is it that Enoch's is so much shorter than the others?—Because God took him to himself before he had lived half the usual time. It is a blessing to us, in life and in death, to live near unto God.

5. What does the apostle, in Heb. 11:5, say of Enoch?—By faith Enoch was translated, that he should not see death.

6. What remarkable prophecy of Enoch's does the apostle Jude repeat?—Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints.

7. To which coming of the Lord does it refer? To the first or second?—The second.

8. Is that second coming spoken of in other parts of the Bible? If so, where?—In 1 Thess 4:16, 17, and fifty other places at least.

9. When Jesus came the first time, was it to execute vengeance? If not, what was the object?—God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. John 3:17.

10. What will be the design of the Lord's second coming?—To judge the world.

11. What remarkable likeness is there between the prophecy of God's first prophet and God's last prophet?—Each foretold the coming of our Lord.

12. What did John say?—Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen. Rev. 1:7.

13. Who guided those who wrote the Bible?—The Holy Ghost.

For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 2 Pet. 1:21.

14. Do we know when the Lord Jesus is coming?—Watch, therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come. Matt. 24:42.

15. What effect should this uncertainty as to our know- ledge have upon us?—The day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night. Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot and blameless. 2 Pet. 3:10, 14.

16. Was Enoch ready when he was caught up?—Yes, quite.

17. With whom was he walking in communion?—With God. "Oh for a closer walk with God!"

18. What is said in Amos 3:3?—Can two walk together, except they be agreed?

19. Who are our companions?—We should choose, as often as we can, those whom we believe to be walking with God and who can help us to do so.

20. Do we delight in being alone with him, or do we shrink from him?—We must be alone with him in death; and it is our wisdom and comfort to be much alone with him in life.

21. What solemn warning does God give in Heb. 3:7, 8?—As the Holy Ghost saith, To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

THE FLOOD. (Gen. 5, 6.)

1. What do we read of Cain's descendants in Gen. 4:17-23?—That Cain had a son Enoch, and built a city, etc.

2. Were they as good as they were skillful?—No, they shared the general corruption, and would probably be worse, from their ancestor's separation from the people of God and the presence of the Lord. Gen. 4:16; 6:5.

3. What was the name of the son that God gave Adam in the place of Abel, whom Cain slew?—Seth. Gen. 4:25.

4. Did the children of Seth keep themselves separate from Cain's children?—Yes. They called themselves by the name of the Lord. Gen. 4:26, margin.

5. When God looked down from heaven, what did he see?—The great wickedness of man. Gen. 6:5.

6. What did he resolve to do?—To destroy both man and beast. Gen. 6:7.

7. Did he find one faithful family?—Yes. Gen. 6:8, 18.

8. Whose was that?—Noah's.

9. What is Noah said to be in 2 Pet. 2:5?—A preacher of righteousness.

10. When did Noah preach to these wicked people?—While the ark was preparing. 1 Pet. 3:20.

11. What does the book of Jonah show us?—That if man had repented, God would have spared.

God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way: and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not. Jonah 3:10.

12. Did these sinners repent at the preaching of Noah?—No.

13. What was the consequence?—The flood came, and took them all away. Matt. 24:39; Gen. 7:21-23.

14. How were Noah and his family preserved?—In the ark, which Noah built at God's command.

15. What is a type?—A thing that represents another thing, or has some points of resemblance to it, or is intended to foreshow it.

16. Of whom was the ark, in which Noah and his family were saved, a type?—Of Christ.

17. How?—As an appointed means of saving man from destruction.

18. Of what was the flood a type?—Of the future destruction of the world.

The world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished: but the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. 2 Pet. 3:6, 7.

19. Does this concern us at all?—Yes; as both living and dead will need a Saviour at that day.

20. What opportunity does God give us of fleeing into a place of safety?—He spares our lives, and gives us Bibles and preachers and teachers, to show us the way of salvation.

21. Has he provided a secure place of dependence? What is it?—God himself, in Christ, is our refuge.

A man shall be as an hiding-place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land. Isa. 32:2.

For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him. Thou art my hiding-place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Ps. 32:6, 7.

Thou art my hiding-place and my shield: I hope in thy word. Ps. 119:114.

22. What does the Holy Spirit say to us in 2 Cor. 6:2?—That now is the accepted time; now is the day of salvation.

23. Can there be a time when even God shall forget to be gracious?—Yes; as when, in the parable of the ten virgins, the door was shut. Matt. 25:10.

NOAH. (Gen. 7, 8, 9.)

1. How long was the ark building?—Perhaps a great part of the time that Noah was preaching, or of the one hundred and twenty years mentioned in Gen. 6:3.

2. How old were Noah and his sons when they went into the ark?—Noah, six hundred years (Gen. 7:6), and his sons about one hundred. Gen. 5:32; 11:10.

3. Who shut them in?—God himself. Gen. 7:16.

4. What went into the ark with them?—(Besides their wives) seven, or two, of every living creature. Gen. 7:2, 3, 7-9, 13-16.

5. How long did it continue raining?—Forty days and nights. Gen. 7:12.

6. How long did the waters continue?—One hundred and fifty days. Gen. 7:24.

7. How did Noah ascertain when the waters had abated?—By sending out a dove, which returned with an olive-leaf in its mouth; and which, when sent out again, did not return at all. Gen. 8:10-12.

8. Why did not the raven return to the ark?—It probably often went forth and returned, as the words "to and fro" are explained in the margin to mean. Gen. 8:7. But if it met with floating carcasses, it might not come in for food.

9. Of what is that an emblem?—Perhaps of the carnal heart, content with the corrupt enjoyments of the world.

10. And is there anything to be learnt from the opposite conduct of the dove?—The privilege of the soul, unsatisfied with the world, returning to Christ Jesus as its rest.

11. What does the Lord Jesus say in Matt. 11:28-30?—Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

12. What was Noah's first act when he came forth from the ark?—He built an altar, and offered a sacrifice. Gen. 8:20.

13. What was the burnt-offering?—A bullock, sheep, goat, turtle-dove or young pigeon. Lev. 1.

14. Did God accept it?—It pleased him, as a sweet savor or smell. Gen. 8:21.

15. What promise did God give Noah at that time?—That he would not again curse the ground any more for man's sake, etc. Gen. 8:21-23; 9:2.

16, 17. Did God condescend to give him a token? What was it?—He said that the rainbow should be a token or remembrance of his covenant or promise. Gen. 9:8-17.

18. Does it remain?—Yes.

19. When does it appear?—Whenever the sun shines upon rain.

20. Did God make any change in man's food at that time?—He gave him animal food, in addition to his former vegetable food. Gen. 9:3.

21. Under what restriction?—That the blood should not be used with the flesh. Gen. 9:4.

22. Why was not blood to be eaten?—Because it was a type of the blood of Christ; and to restrain blood-thirsty cruelty to man or beast. Gen. 5:6.

23. What evil use did Noah afterward make of the fruits of the earth?—He once became drunk with wine. Gen. 9:21.

24. Does the Bible cover up and hide the sins of God's people?—No, it mentions them whenever it seemed to the wisdom of God to be desirable to do so.

25. What does the Psalmist say of God's word in Ps. 119:140?—That it is "very pure." Many books and magazines and newspapers in our days are very impure, and are written to please the impure.

26. Which of Noah's sons brought a curse on his posterity by his conduct to his father on this occasion?—Ham.

27. Do the effects of this curse continue to the present time? Where?—Yes: in Africa, which was people' by the descendants of Ham, and is the chief scene of the horrible traffic in slaves.

28. Show the fulfillment of Shem's blessing?—God's people, the Jews, and Christ himself descended from Shem.

29. Describe how Japheth has been enlarged?—By his descendants, the Greeks and Romans, and by many Gentile nations sprung from him.

30. How old was Noah when he died?—Nine hundred and fifty years. Gen. 9: 29.

THE TOWER OF BABEL. (Gen. 10, 11.)

1. What mighty nations have their origin given in these chapters?—The Chaldeans, Assyrians, and Canaanites.

2. Were the genealogies and histories of all these nations continued in the Bible?—No.

3. Why was one family singled out for this special honor?—Because out of it came Jesus Christ.

4. What great event happened in the days of Peleg?—The scattering of mankind over all the earth. Gen. 11: 9. Unto Eber were born two sons: the name of the one was Peleg—i. e., division (margin), because in his days the earth was divided. 1 Chron. 1: 19.

5. Why did God thus divide or scatter men?—To restrain them from building the tower of Babel.

6. What motive had these men in building the tower?—To form a conspicuous gathering-point, in defiance of the divine intention.

7. Of what did they compose it?—Of bricks, joined together with mortar of slime or mud that dried hard.

8. Are there any remains of the materials of which it was built yet in existence? Where?—Yes, in the ruins of Babylon.

9. Where did Shem's family remove to?—Some of them from Upper and Middle Asia to Canaan.

10. Which of Abraham's ancestors were alive when he was born?—Nahor and Terah.

11. How old was Shem when Abram was born?—Four hundred and fifty-two years [B. C. 2448-1996]. Gen. 5: 32; 11: 27.

12. How many years did Shem live after Abram was born?—One hundred and forty-nine years [B. C. 1996-1847]. Gen. 11: 10, 11.

13. What was the name of Abram's father?—Terah. Gen. 11: 26.

14. How many years had he lived with Noah?—One hundred and twenty-eight years. Gen. 5: 29; 11: 24.

15. Was Noah alive when Abram was born?—No; he died two years before. Gen. 9: 29.

16. Was Adam alive when Noah was born?—No; he died one hundred and twenty-six years before.

17. Was Adam alive when Lamech was born?—Yes.

18. How many years did they live together?—Fifty-six.

19. How many years before Noah did Adam die?—One hundred and twenty-six years before Noah was born.

20. Do we not see by this how nearly Adam and Abram were contemporaries, although the world was nearly twenty hundred years old when Abram was born?—There were only Lamech, Noah and Terah between them.

ABRAHAM. (Gen. 11-22.)

1. What was the name of Abram's father?—Terah. Gen. 11: 26.

2. Where was Abram born?—In Ur of the Chaldees. Gen. 11: 28.

3. Did his father die there?—No.

4. To what land did his father remove?—To Haran, on the way to Canaan.

5. Which of Abram's brothers died before they left their native land?—Haran. Gen. 11: 28.

6. Did he leave a son, and what was his name?—Lot. Gen. 11: 27.

7. Did this grandson accompany Terah and Abram to Haran?—Yes. Gen. 11: 31.

8. Where did Terah die?—In Haran. Gen. 11: 32.

CHAPTER 12.

9. After his father's death, did Abram stay in Haran?—No.

10. Why did he remove?—Because God told him so to do.

11. Who went with him?—Sarai his wife, and Lot and their servants.

12. What relation was Lot to Abram?—His nephew.

13. Where are Ur, Haran and Canaan?—Ur is in Chaldea, to the south-east of Babylon; Haran is in Mesopotamia, between Nineveh and Tarsus; and Canaan is on the eastern shore of the Mediterranean Sea, and is now called Palestine or the Holy Land.

14. Where did Abram first settle, and what was his first act in the land of Canaan?—At Sichem, in the plain of Moreh, near Samaria, where he built an altar to God, who appeared to him.

15. What remarkable circumstance in the history of Jacob happened there?—Jacob buried under an oak the idols and earrings taken from his household. Gen. 35: 4.

16. What acts of Joshua's again distinguished this spot when he first subdued Canaan?—His assembling of the tribes of Israel to renew their covenant with God; his appointing Shechem one of the cities of refuge; his reading the law between Mounts Gerizim and Ebal. Josh. 24: 1, 25, 26; 20: 7; 8: 33.

17. At what place did he rear the tabernacle, and at his death make a covenant with Israel?—At Shiloh, near Sichem. Josh. 18: 1. At Shechem. See No. 16.

18. What event in the New Testament yet further endears the spot to us?—Our Lord's conversation at Sychar with the woman of Samaria as he sat wearied upon Jacob's well. John 4: 5-42.

19. Did Abram continue to live at Sichem? Why?—He removed to the neighborhood of Bethel, being doubtless directed by God to enter farther into the land. Gen. 12: 8, 9; 13: 17.

20. What sin was Abram guilty of in Egypt?—Of want of truthfulness and faith respecting Sarai his wife. Gen. 12: 11-20.

21. What does this teach us?—We have before proved, both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin; as it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one. Rom. 3: 9, 10.

CHAPTER 13.

22. Was Abram a rich or poor man?—He was very rich. Gen. 13: 2.

23. How had Lot prospered?—Very much. Gen. 13: 5.

24. What was the result?—A quarrel between the herdmen of the two. Gen. 13: 6, 7.

25. How did Abram behave on this occasion?—He proposed that they should part, and gave Lot the choice of the land. Gen. 13: 8, 9.

26. Do you think Lot behaved as well as Abram in this affair?—He made no liberal offer in return, and thought more of the goodness of the pasture than of the character of the people. When choosing a family or place to reside in, we should know whether God is feared in it, and his truth faithfully taught.

27. Had Lot cause to repent his choice?—He suffered constant distress of mind, and at length narrowly escaped with his life, with the loss of his wife and of many of his family, and of most or all of his substance. Gen. 19: 15-29.

Delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked; for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds. 2 Pet. 2: 7, 8.

28. Why? What kind of people did he go to sojourn amongst?—Exceedingly wicked. Gen. 13: 13.

29. After this separation how did God manifest himself to Abram?—He repeated to him his promises. Gen. 13: 14-17.

CHAPTER 14.

30. What doleful news did Abram soon hear of Lot?—That Lot and his goods had been carried away in a war with Sodom and Gomorrah. Gen. 14: 12, 13.

31. How did Abram act?—He armed his men and went in pursuit. Gen. 14: 14.

32. Was he successful? Give an account of the expedition?—He divided his men, and attacked the enemy by night on several sides at once, routing them and recovering the prisoners and their goods. Gen. 14: 15, 16.

33. Who met Abram on his return?—Melchizedek, king of Salem. Gen. 14: 18.

34. Where must Melchizedek have lived? Trace Abram's resting-place and the field of battle, and see what spot is between the two.—At the present Jerusalem, which is between Dan and Mamre. Gen. 13: 18.

35. Is this mysterious person ever alluded to again in Scripture? Where?—Heb. 6: 20; 7: 1-3.

36. Of whom was he a type?—Of Christ, in being both King and Priest; and also in his eternity, nothing being told us of his birth and death.

37. What is a type?—See page 2. Gen. 4: 4.

38. How did Abram behave after the battle, when urged by the king of Sodom to take part of the spoil?—He declined taking anything but some food for his men. Gen. 14: 21-24.

CHAPTER 15.

39. What wonderful prophecy does this chapter record?—That Abram's seed or descendants should be in number as the stars. Gen. 15: 5.

40. Had Abram at this time any children?—No. Gen. 15: 3.

41. To what did God compare the number of his seed?—See No. 39.

42. Did Abram believe the Lord?—Yes.

43. What was his faith accounted or reckoned?—For righteousness. Gen. 15: 6.

44. Is faith, then, very precious in the estimation of God?—Yes, for his Son's sake.

45. What is faith?—That belief in Christ, as our own Saviour, which unites us to him, and makes us righteous before God in and through him.

46. Does this account concern us?—Now, it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him; but for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on Him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead; who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification. Rom. 4: 23-25.

47. How much land did God promise to Abram?—From a river in or near Egypt to the Euphrates. Gen. 15: 18-21.

CHAPTER 16.

48. Who was Hagar?—One of Sarai's waiting-maids. Gen. 16: 1.

49. Why did Abram take her to be his wife?—That Sarai might, by her, have children that would be reckoned as her own, and from whom the Messiah might come. Gen. 16: 2.

50. Did Sarai use her kindly?—Hagar, when likely to have children, despised her mistress, and Sarai dealt hardly with her. Gen. 16: 4-6.

51. What did Hagar do?—She ran away.

52. Did the Lord approve of Hagar running away from her mistress?—No; he ordered her to return and submit herself. Gen. 16: 9.

Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the forward. For this is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully. For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God. 1 Pet. 2: 18-20.

53. What did God promise her?—That he would multiply her seed exceedingly; and the Arabians have sprung from her. Gen. 16: 10.

54. After she returned what event happened?—She had a son.

55. What name was given to Hagar's son?—Abram called him Ishmael.

56. How old was Abram when Ishmael was born?—Eighty-six.

CHAPTER 17.

57. When Abram was ninety-nine years of age, what further covenant did God enter into with him?—He renewed his promise that he should have a great posterity, and covenanted to be his God, and to be their God. Gen. 17: 1-8.

58. How did Abram show his love to Ishmael?—He prayed that he might live before God, or be favored by him. Gen. 17: 18.

59. Did God accept Abram's prayer?—He blessed Ishmael, and promised to make him a great nation. Gen. 17: 20.

60. Who was to be the promised seed?—Isaac, who was not yet born, and with whom God established his covenant. Gen. 17: 19.

61. How long did God fix for the fulfillment of his promise to Abram and his wife?—A whole year. Gen. 17: 21.

62. How did the Lord alter their names?—From Abram, or "high father," to Abraham, or, "multitude of nations;" and from Sarai, "my princess," to Sarah, or "princess of a multitude."

63. What does the name Abraham signify?—See No. 62.

64. What does Sarah's name express?—See No. 62.

65. How old was Ishmael when he was circumcised?—Thirteen.

CHAPTER 18.

66. Where was Mamre?—Near Hebron, in Judah. Gen. 13: 18.

67. What remarkable event happened to Abraham there?—Three angels or heavenly visitors appeared to him in the form of men.

68. What is said of this visit in Heb. 13: 2?—Be not forgetful to entertain strangers; for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.

69. Did Abraham at first know whom he was entertaining? How did he find it out?—He took them at first for ordinary travelers, but found out, by what one of them said, that they were angels and the Son of God. Gen. 18 : 10, 14.

70. What is Abraham called in Isa. 41 : 8?—The friend of God. James 2 : 23.

71. How did Sarah displease the Lord at this time?—By laughing within herself at the unlikelihood of what he said.

72. What was she tempted to do when the Lord expressed his displeasure?—To deny that she had laughed.

73. When the three heavenly visitors had eaten with Abraham, did they all depart from him together?—The Angel, Son of God, remained, and the other two angels went toward Sodom. Gen. 18 : 22.

74. Who stayed, and who went?—See No. 73.

75. To what place did those who departed go?—See No. 73.

76. Why did they visit Sodom?—To destroy it and to rescue Lot.

77. How came Abraham to know the purpose of their visit to Sodom?—From what the Lord said to him. Gen. 18 : 20, 21.

78. Did Abraham venture to plead for the city? How?—By six times asking the Lord to spare it if there were fifty, forty-five, forty, thirty, twenty, and even ten, righteous persons in it. Gen. 18 : 23-32.

79. Did God permit him to go on as long as he would? How did the Lord reply?—The Lord put no check upon his intercession, and consented to do all that he asked.

80. What should this teach us?—To persevere in prayer. Men ought always to pray, and not to faint. Luke 18 : 1.

Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not? And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way : and God repented of the evil that he had said that he would do unto them ; and he did it not. But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry. And he prayed unto the Lord, and said, I pray thee, O Lord, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish : for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil. Jonah 3 : 9, 10-4 : 1, 2.

81. Who has turned away the righteous anger of God from us, and yet pleads our cause?—If any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous : and he is the propitiation for our sins : and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. 1 John 2 : 1, 2.

CHAPTER 19.

82. Where did Lot dwell?—In Sodom.

83. What is said of him in 2 Pet. 2 : 9?—The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished.

84. What happened to him one evening as he sat in the gate of the city?—Two angels came to him. Gen. 18 : 22 ; 19 : 1.

85. Who did those persons prove to be?—See No. 84.

86. For what did they visit Sodom?—To destroy it and to rescue Lot.

87. Did they find it as wicked as they expected?—It could hardly be worse than it was. Gen. 18 : 21.

88. In what way did they punish the men who wished to get into Lot's house?—They struck them blind. Gen. 19 : 11.

89. How many of Lot's family believed the warning and fled with him?—His wife and two daughters. Gen. 19 : 16.

90. Did all these eventually escape? Describe the circumstances of Lot's wife.—The daughters escaped, but his wife looked back and became a pillar of salt. Gen. 19 : 26.

91. How are we reminded of this in the New Testament?—In the days of Lot they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded ; but the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all. Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed. In that day, he which shall be on the housetop, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away : and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back. Remember Lot's wife. Luke 17 : 23-32.

92. Does there remain any relic of this awful event at the present day?—The Dead Sea, with its deadly waters.

93. Of what is the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah a type?—Of the future destruction of the world by fire.

94. What did the angel say to Lot when he pleaded for Zoar?—That he would not overthrow it. Gen. 19 : 20-22.

95. What does that teach us?—The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness ; but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 2 Pet. 3 : 9.

CHAPTER 20.

96. Into what disgraceful fault were Abraham and Sarah again betrayed at Gerar?—Untruthfulness and distrust, in concealing that they were man and wife.

97. How did God preserve them?—By warning Abimelech in a dream.

98. How did Abimelech behave?—He immediately restored to Abraham his wife (whom he had intended to marry) and made him a handsome present.

99. Did not Sarah deserve the reproof which Abimelech gave her?—She needed the reproof that her husband was her proper protector.

100. How did the Lord put honor on Abraham?—He heard his prayer for Abimelech and his family.

CHAPTER 21.

101. When did God perform his promise to Sarah?—At the end of the year, the time fixed. Gen. 21 : 2.

102. By what name was this child of promise called?—Isaac, meaning "laughter" or "joy."

103. What circumstance occurred on the day Isaac was weaned?—Abraham made a great feast. Gen. 21 : 8.

104. What did Sarah wish Abraham to do?—To send away Hagar and Ishmael. Gen. 21 : 9, 10.

105. Who confirmed Sarah's wish?—God himself, to carry out his purposes as to both Isaac and Ishmael. Gen. 21 : 12, 13.

106. How did Abraham act?—He sent them away provided with bread and water, and doubtless commended to the care of God. Gen. 21 : 14.

107. What became of Hagar and Ishmael?—They lived at last in the wilderness of Paran, in Arabia Petræa. Gen. 21 : 14-21.

108. Who at the present day are the descendants of Ishmael?—The Arabs.

109. Who was Abraham's rightful heir and child of promise?—Isaac. Gen. 21 : 1-3, 12.

110. What testimony to Abraham's God, by a stranger, does this chapter record?—King Abimelech said that God was with Abraham in all that he did. Gen. 21 : 22.

111. What is the meaning of the word Beersheba?—The "well of the oath." Gen. 21 : 31.

112. Where was Abraham sojourning at this time?—In the land of the Philistines. Gen. 21 : 34.

113. Were the Philistines always friendly with Abraham's posterity, or the reverse? Is there any instance in Scripture?—They were frequently at war with each other, as in the days of Samson and of David and Goliath.

CHAPTER 22.

114. What was the greatest trial that Abraham's faith experienced?—The command of God to make a burnt-offering of his only son Isaac, whom he loved.

115. What is said of this act in Heb. 11 : 17-19?—By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac ; and he that had received the promises offered up his only begotten son, of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called : accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead ; from whence also he received him in a figure.

116. What proof did Abraham give of his prompt obedience?—He arose early in the morning and set out.

117. Did he tell his son what he was about to do with him?—No.

118. When Isaac inquired for the lamb, what was Abraham's reply?—That God would provide one. Gen. 22 : 8.

119. To whom did Abraham allude?—To Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sins of the world. "Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day ; he saw it, and was glad."—John 1 : 29 ; 8 : 56.

120. When Isaac knew his father's intention, did he resist it?—No.

121. Was he able to have done so? How old was he at this time?—Yes, as he was twenty-five years old.

122. What is said of the Lord Jesus Christ when he was offered a sacrifice for sin?—That he did it of himself.

Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again. No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father.—Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus : who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God : but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men : and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name : that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth. John 10 : 17, 18 ; Phil. 2 : 5-10.

123. Does the ram caught in the thicket and offered as a substitute for Isaac present a type?—The ram would be without blemish, and Christ was without sin. He hath made Him to be sin for us who knew no sin, that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Cor. 5 : 21.

124. By what name did Abraham call the place where this occurred? And what was the meaning of it?—Jehovah-jireh, "the Lord will see or provide."

125. Is Mount Moriah mentioned again in Scripture?—Yes, in 2 Chron. 3 : 1. Then Solomon began to build the house of the Lord at Jerusalem in Mount Moriah, where the Lord appeared unto David, his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite. [But this is not now considered to be the same mountain.]

126. What magnificent building stood on that mount?—Solomon's temple.

127. Give the account why this place was chosen for that building.—See 125.

128. What beautiful edifice now stands there?—The mosque of Omar, a Mohammedan place of worship.

129. What do the Jews feel when they see this?—Doubtless deep grief, as they often visit a place near it called "the place of wailing."

130. What special covenant did the Lord renew with Abraham at this time?—That in Abraham's seed should all the nations of the earth be blessed. Gen. 22 : 15-18.

131. Why is Nahor's posterity mentioned here?—Because one of them was Rebekah, Isaac's future wife.

ISAAC AND REBEKAH. (Gen. 23, 24.)

1. How old was Sarah when she died?—One hundred and twenty-seven years.

2. Where did Abraham bury her?—In the cave of Machpelah, near Mamre, Hebron or Kirjath-arba. Gen. 23 : 2, 19.

3. How did he obtain possession of this burying-place?—By purchase from Ephron the Hittite. Gen. 23 : 3-18.

4. What did that show?—That Abraham had no land of his own. Gen. 23 : 4.

5. How old was Isaac when his mother died?—About thirty-seven.

6. How many years did he live solitary and alone before he married?—Forty years from his birth, and latterly near the well Lahai-roi, in the south country. Gen. 23 : 62.

7. How did his father obtain a wife for him?—He sent his steward to his own kindred in Mesopotamia for the purpose, after pledging him not to seek for one among the heathen around him. Gen. 24 : 2, 3, 4, 10. Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers. Only in the Lord. 2 Cor. 6 : 14 ; 1 Cor. 7 : 39.

8. Whom did Abraham send on this important mission?—See No. 7.

9. What was the name of this "eldest servant" of Abraham's house?—Eliezer of Damascus. Gen. 15 : 2.

10. How did this servant act?—With prudence, prayerfulness, diligence and courtesy. Gen. 24 : 5-26.

11. Did he succeed in his mission?—He was led by God's providence to the house of Abraham's nephew, Bethuel, and obtained his daughter, Rebekah. Gen. 24 : 15, 51.

12. Whom did he bring?—See No. 11.

13. What did he give to his young master's intended bride?—Golden earrings, bracelets, jewels of silver and gold, and raiment, according to the custom of those lands and times. Gen. 24 : 22, 30, 53.

14. How did he describe his master's possessions?—That the Lord had greatly blessed him, and given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, etc. Gen. 24 : 35.

15. Was she willing to leave her home on his report?—She was. Gen. 24 : 58.

16. Did she find it all true?—Doubtless she did. Gen. 13 : 2.

17. Who came out to meet her?—Isaac himself. Gen. 24: 62, 63.

18. Where did he take her, and how did he feel toward her?—To his mother's tent, and she became his wife, and he loved her. Gen. 24: 67.

19. Is this interesting account a type of spiritual things?—Now all these things happened unto them for examples; and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come. For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. 1 Cor. 10: 11: Rom. 15: 4.

20. Of whom is Abraham the type here?—Of God the Father.

21. Of whom is Rebekah the type?—Of his Church and people.

22. Of whom is Eliezer the type?—Of God's Spirit, who finds those who are far from him, and brings them to him.

23. Of whom is Isaac the type?—Of Christ, the Bridegroom of the Church.

24. And of what great event is the closing scene the type?—Of the Church, the bride of Christ, being presented to him spotless at the last day.

25. How are we interested in this?—We must each of us be found by him, and given to him, and adorned and sanctified by him, if we seek to live with him eternally.

JACOB AND ESAU. (Gen. 25, 26, 27.)

1. Whom did Abraham marry after Sarah's death? Keturah. Gen. 25: 1.

2. How many children had she?—Six.

3. How did he portion them?—He made them gifts.

4. To whom did he leave his great riches?—To Isaac.

5. How old was Abraham when he died?—One hundred and seventy-five years.

6. Who buried him?—Isaac and Ishmael.

7. By what title are Ishmael's twelve sons called?—Princes.

8. What was Isaac's occupation, although his father's heir?—That of a herdsman and shepherd.

9. Of whom is he a type in this?—Of Christ, who humbled himself, though Lord of all.

10. How many sons had Isaac?—Two—Esau and Jacob. Gen. 25: 26.

11. Were they born before Abraham's death?—Yes, fifteen years. Is there not a proof of this in the New Testament?

By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went. By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise. Heb. 11: 8, 9.

12. What was the difference personally between those two boys?—Esau was red or hairy, and Jacob smooth. Gen. 25: 25; 27: 11.

13. Did they grow up alike? Describe them?—Esau was a skillful hunter, and Jacob a quiet man, fond of home. Gen. 25: 27.

14. Which was the first born?—Esau.

15. Did he value his birthright? The proof.—He sold it, when hungry and faint, to Jacob for a dish of potted beans or other food. So thousands, for present pleasure, will risk or lose their souls.

16. To whom did he sell it, and for what?—See No. 15.

CHAPTER 26.

17. What was Isaac's character?—His conduct in this chapter entitles him to the character of a peacemaker. Gen. 26: 14-31.

Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God. Matt. 5: 9.

18. What covenant did God renew with Isaac?—The covenant he had made with Abraham. Gen. 26: 2-5.

19. What direction did God give Isaac as to his place of sojourn?—That he should not go down into Egypt, but dwell among the Philistines at Gerar. Gen. 26: 1, 2, 6.

20. How did he act there?—He was guilty of the same weakness and sin about his wife as Abraham was. Gen. 26: 7-11.

21. How did the Philistines behave toward Isaac?—They envied his prosperity, and maliciously stopped up his old wells and claimed possession of his new ones. Gen. 26: 14-21.

22. Did he return evil for evil?—No; he removed more than once out of their way.

23. Whom did Esau choose as his wives?—Judith and Bashemath, Hittites. Gen. 26: 34.

24. Did his parents approve his choice?—No; they were grieved by it.

CHAPTER 27.

25. What was it the custom of the ancient patriarchs to do before their death?—To bless their children.

26. Which son did Isaac consider his first-born?—Esau. Gen. 27: 1-4.

27. How had he forfeited that honor?—By selling it to his brother. Gen. 25: 29-34.

28. Did Jacob allow Esau to obtain the blessing of the birthright?—No; he pretended to be Esau, to prevent it.

29. Did he go the right way to work?—No; he should have left it to God to secure him the blessing in his own time and way.

30. Who shared his sin with him?—His mother told him how to act.

31. How did Esau feel when he found that he had lost his blessing?—He was in great distress of mind.

32. Had he not voluntarily sold it to Jacob some years before?—Yes; about forty-five years before.

33. Whom had he then to blame?—Chiefly himself.

34. Whom shall we have to blame if we, like Esau, despise God's blessing now?—Ourselves alone.

35. What lesson should Esau's bitter grief teach us?—To earnestly seek God's blessing, and to carefully cherish it.

JACOB. (Gen. 28-35.)

1. What was Jacob's general character?—One of artifice and deceit.

2. Did God then choose him for his natural goodness?—No; there is no one whom he can choose on this account.

I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion. So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that showeth mercy. Rom. 9: 15, 16.

3. What should this teach us?—That, as we all have sinned, it is only by the faith that unites us to Christ that we can be righteous before God.

For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus; whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Rom. 4: 23-25; 5: 1.

4. How did Esau treat Jacob after Jacob had obtained the blessing?—He hated him and determined to kill him. Gen. 27: 41.

5. What did Jacob's parents resolve to do?—To send him to Haran out of Esau's way, and to get a wife among the daughters of Laban. Gen. 27: 42-28: 2.

6. What remarkable thing occurred to Jacob on his way to Syria?—He had a vision by night, and a renewal of God's promise and blessing. Gen. 28: 10-15.

7. Did he fully understand it? Can you explain his feelings?—He could not fully understand what he saw, but seems to have felt that fear and awe which sinners must feel in the presence of a holy God.

8. Can we see the meaning?—We, happily, are taught to see Christ as the ladder of communication between heaven and earth.

Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man. John 1: 51.

9. Whom did the latter typify?—See No. 8.

10. How did Jesus unite heaven and earth?—By his birth, death, resurrection and ascension, as God and man in one.

11. What promise did Jacob make at this place?—That the Lord should be his God, and that he would devote to him a tenth of all that he should give him. Gen. 28: 20-22.

CHAPTERS 29, 30, 31.

12. Whom did Jacob first see when he got to Syria?—The servants of Laban, and then Rachel his daughter. Gen. 29: 3-5, 9.

13. How did his uncle Laban receive him?—With kindness and affection. Gen. 29: 13, 14.

14. What did he promise him?—That he should have Rachel for his wife, in return for seven years' service.

15. Did Laban afterward fulfill his promise?—No; he gave him Leah instead.

16. How many wives had Jacob?—Both Rachel and Leah; and afterward their handmaids Bilhah and Zilpah by their mistresses' desire, and according to the custom of the time. See Gen. 16: 2.

17. How many years did Jacob serve Laban before he allowed him to have any cattle for his wages?—Fourteen years. Gen. 30: 26-30.

18. Did Jacob succeed in obtaining large possessions of flocks and herds?—Yes. Gen. 30: 43.

19. How did the sons of Laban feel when they observed this?—They were displeased at the success of his plan.

20. What did Jacob and his wives resolve to do?—Jacob, at the command of God, resolved to return to Canaan, and Rachel and Leah resolved to go with him. Gen. 31: 3, 14-16.

21. What wicked act was Rachel guilty of?—Of stealing her father's images. Gen. 31: 19.

22. What did it prove?—That she and her father still worshiped heathen gods as well as the true God.

Joshua said unto all the people, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Your fathers dwelt on the other side of the flood in old time, even Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor: and they served other gods. Josh. 24: 2.

23. What did Laban do when he found Jacob had left him?—He pursued him.

24. How did God protect Jacob from Laban's anger?—By warning Laban in a dream.

25. How did the interview between Laban and Jacob terminate?—It ended peacefully and well. Gen. 31: 44, 55.

CHAPTER 32.

26. What is the meaning of the word Mahanaim?—Two hosts or camps. Gen. 32: 1, 2.

27. Why was the place so called?—Because a company of angels met Jacob there.

28. How ought Jacob to have felt when he saw this angelic guard?—That he was secure against all harm.

The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them. Ps. 34: 7.

29. How did he feel when he heard his brother Esau was coming to meet him?—He was greatly afraid and distressed. Gen. 32: 7.

30. How did Jacob act?—He divided his people and flocks into two bands. Gen. 32: 7, 8.

31. What occurred to Jacob before he went over the brook?—A heavenly Being wrestled with him during the night.

32. How long did the Angel wrestle with Jacob?—Until break of day.

33. What name did Jacob give to the place where this occurred?—Peniel, or "the face of God."

34. Why did he so call it?—Because he had seen God face to face. Gen. 32: 30.

35. Whom, then, may we suppose that wondrous Person to be with whom he wrestled?—The Son of God; as no man hath seen God himself, who is a Spirit, at any time. John 4: 24; 1 John 4: 12.

36. What spiritual act does this typify?—Prayer, in which, if real, we have communion or intercourse of spirit with God.

37. Are we interested in it?—It encourages earnest perseverance in prayer.

He spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint; saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man; and there was a widow in that city, and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary. And he would not for a while; but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man; yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me. And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith. And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them? I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Luke 18: 1-8.

So run, that ye may obtain. 1 Cor. 9: 24.

CHAPTERS 33, 34, 35.

38. How did Jacob and Esau meet?—In brotherly affection and peace, in answer to Jacob's prayer.

39. Where did Jacob pitch his tent and make booths for his cattle when he got into Canaan?—At Succoth. Gen. 33: 17.

40. Name the two instances in Scripture where this purchase is afterward referred to?—His purchase at Shalem, a city of Shechem, is referred to in John 4: 5, 6, and Acts 7: 15, 16. Gen. 33: 18, 19.

Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. Now Jacob's well was there. So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he and our fathers, and were carried over into Sychem, and laid in the sepulchre that [he, like] Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emrah the father of Sychem.

41. What two mountains was Shechem situate between?—Gerizim and Ebal.

42. Where was the tabernacle first reared in the land of Canaan?—At Gilgal on the Jordan. (Not the Gilgal in Shechem.)

43. Where did Joshua make his solemn covenant with Israel before his death?—Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented themselves before God. Josh. 24: 1.

44. Where was the first idol temple built in Israel?—In Shechem. 1 Kings 12: 25-33.

45. What act of treachery was Simeon and Levi guilty of to Shechem, the founder of this city?—They slew him when, through their own contrivance, he was unprepared to resist them. Gen. 34: 13, 25, 26.

46. What did God at this time desire Jacob to do?—To go and live at Bethel. Gen. 35: 1.

47. How did Jacob prepare for this journey?—By calling upon his people to put away their idols, and be clean and change their garments.

48. How did God preserve him from the anger of the inhabitants of the land? What proof is there that God's care of his people is the same now as then?—By making the inhabitants afraid of him and of his God. He preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked. Gen. 35: 5; Ps. 97: 10.

49. What sorrowful event happened at Bethel?—The death of Rebekah's nurse. Gen. 35: 8.

50. What peculiar name did God confirm, and what special blessing did he give, to Jacob at this place?—The name of Israel and the gift of the land of Canaan. Gen. 35: 9-12.

51. What great loss did Jacob sustain when near Bethlehem?—The death of Rachel. Gen. 35: 19.

52. How many children had Jacob at this time?—Twelve. Gen. 35: 22-26.

53. How far south did Jacob travel?—To Mamre, near Hebron.

54. Who resided there?—Isaac.

55. How many years did Jacob live with his father before his father died?—About three years.

56. Who united together to bury Isaac?—Esau and Jacob.

JACOB AND HIS SONS. (Gen. 37.)

1. To which son did Jacob show a great partiality?—To Joseph. Gen. 37: 3.

2. Why did Jacob feel this, and how did he show it?—Because he was the son of his old age. By making him a coat of many colors.

3. What character did the other sons of Jacob display?—An envious and malicious one.

4. Why did they hate Joseph?—Because of their father's special love to him.

5. Did he deserve it? Had his dreams anything to do with it? What were they?—No. Yes. That his brothers' sheaves made obeisance to his, and that the sun, moon and eleven stars did the same to him.

6. How did Joseph's father feel when he heard one of the dreams?—He was surprised at the dream, but doubtless felt it was from God. Gen. 37: 11.

7. How did Joseph get into his brethren's power?—On Jacob sending him to them to see if they were well. Gen. 37: 14.

8. What did they do with him?—They threw him into a pit. Gen. 37: 24.

9. How old was Joseph at this time?—Sixteen.

10. What story did they make up to their father?—That they had found his coat bloody, and that he had been killed by a wild beast.

11. What difference was there in Reuben's behavior toward Joseph to the rest of his brethren?—He dissuaded them from killing him. Gen. 37: 21, 22.

12. How did Jacob receive the news?—He mourned and refused to be comforted.

13. How did the Midianites dispose of Joseph?—They took him out of the pit and sold him to some Ishmaelites. Gen. 37: 28.

14. What connection was there between Abraham and the Midianites?—Midian was a son of Keturah, his second wife. Gen. 25: 1, 2.

15. What connection was there between Moses and the Midianites?—He lived among them and took his wife thence. Ex. 2: 15, 21.

16. What connection was there between Balaam and the Midianites?—He lived among them and was killed in battle by the Israelites.

17. What event in Gideon's history was connected with the Midianites?—The appearance to him of the angel

Son of God before he fought against and overthrew them. Judg. 6, 7.

JOSEPH IN EGYPT. (Gen. 39, 40, 41.)

1. To whom did the Ishmaelites sell Joseph?—To Potiphar, captain of Pharaoh's guard. Gen. 39: 1.

2. What office did Potiphar appoint Joseph to fill?—Overseer of his house. Gen. 39: 4.

3. How was God's favor manifested to Joseph in this situation?—By everything prospering under his care. Gen. 39: 2-5.

4. Was he not deprived of his situation by false accusation?—Yes, through the wickedness of his master's wife, who was embittered against him by his virtue and his fear of God. Gen. 39: 7-18.

5. What unjust punishment was suffered by Joseph?—He was put in prison.

6. Did the Lord forsake him?—He was with him and showed him mercy.

7. How did the keeper of the prison behave to Joseph?—He gave him the entire charge of the prison.

8. What kind of prison was this? Who were principally confined there?—A prison connected with Potiphar's house, and in which state prisoners were kept.

9. What remarkable circumstance occurred to two of those prisoners?—They had dreams which troubled them.

10. How did Joseph assist them in their perplexity?—He interpreted their dreams. Gen. 40.

11. Were his words found true? Name the result.—The chief butler was restored, and the chief baker was hanged, as Joseph had foretold.

12. How did Pharaoh's butler behave to Joseph?—He forgot his promise to get Joseph released.

13. What brought his dream again to his mind?—A dream which Pharaoh had. Gen. 41: 1-13.

14. Could the magicians of Egypt interpret Pharaoh's dream?—They could not. Gen. 41: 8.

15. For whom did he send?—For Joseph, whom the butler had named.

16. Did Joseph take the honor of interpretation to himself, or confess God's power before the king?—He said, It is not in me; God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace. Gen. 41: 16.

17. None a king who was smitten with worms and died because he gave not God the glory?—Herod Agrippa, king of Judea. Acts 12: 23.

18. Name another king who was driven from men, and was for seven years like a beast, because he gave not glory to God?—Nebuchadnezzar, who said, Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honor of my majesty? While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O King Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken, The kingdom is departed from thee. And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will. Dan. 4: 30-32.

19. How was the latter part of verse 30 in 1 Sam. 2 fulfilled in Joseph's case?—By his being made ruler over all Egypt. He had honored God by his resistance of temptation and his faithfulness to his duties, and now God honored him. Them that honor me I will honor. Gen. 41: 43.

20. How old was Joseph at this time?—Thirty. Gen. 41: 46.

21. What name did Pharaoh give Joseph, and what is the meaning of it?—Zaphnath-paaneah, a "revealer of secrets," or "the man to whom secrets are revealed."

22. What were the names of Joseph's wife and his two sons?—Asenath, Manasseh and Ephraim. 41: 45, 51, 52.

23. What did Joseph do during the seven years of plenty?—He laid up the food in the cities. Gen. 41: 48.

24. When the people cried to Pharaoh for bread, to whom did he send them?—To Joseph. Gen. 41: 55.

25. Was this great famine confined to the land of Egypt?—It was over all the face of the earth, or all that part of it. Gen. 41: 56, 57.

JACOB AND HIS SONS IN EGYPT. (Gen. 42-50.)

1. Where was Jacob living at this time?—In Canaan. Gen. 42: 5.

2. Did the famine extend to the land of Canaan?—Yes. Gen. 42: 5.

3. How did they procure bread?—Ten of Jacob's sons went to buy corn in Egypt. Gen. 42: 3.

4. How did Joseph behave to his brethren when he saw them?—He made himself strange to them and spoke roughly to them, but not from a spirit of revenge. Gen. 42: 7.

5. Did they recognize him?—No. Gen. 42: 8.

6. How did Jacob feel when they returned and told him the news?—He felt that all things were against him, and that he should lose Benjamin also. But all things work together for good to them that love God. Gen. 42: 36, 38; Rom. 8: 28.

7. Whom did they take with them on their second journey?—Benjamin. Gen. 43: 15.

8. What proof have we in this chapter of the truth of Num. 13: 21-27?—The fruits, honey and spices they took with them. Gen. 43: 11.

They went up and searched the land. And they ascended by the south, and came unto Hebron. And they came unto the brook of Eschol, and cut down from thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it between two upon a staff; and they brought of the pomegranates and of the figs. And they went and came to Moses and to Aaron; and brought back word unto them and unto all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land. And they told him and said, We came unto the land whither thou sentest us, and surely it floweth with milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it.

9. How did Joseph feel when he saw Benjamin stand among his brethren?—His love was greatly excited, and he retired to weep. Gen. 43: 30, 31.

10. What closer relationship was there between Joseph and Benjamin than between Joseph and his other brothers?—They had the same mother, Rachel. Gen. 30: 22-24; 35: 16-18.

11. What effect did Joseph's kindness have on them?—They wondered at it. Gen. 43: 33.

12. What was Joseph's intention in all this treatment?—To make them conscious of their sin and sorry for it, and to better carry out his plans.

13. Did it have the effect he desired?—It had. Gen. 42: 21; 44: 16.

14. How did Judah behave at this trying time?—He begged that Benjamin might be allowed to go back with the rest, and offered to remain himself behind as surety for his return. Gen. 44: 18, 33.

15. Of whom was he a type in this?—Of Jesus Christ, our Substitute, who suffered in our stead.

16. How was Joseph's tender heart affected by all this?—He could bear it no longer, but wept aloud, and told them he was Joseph their brother. Gen. 45: 1-4.

17. How did they feel when they knew this mighty prince was their own brother?—They could not answer him for fear. Gen. 45: 3.

18. What proofs did he give them of it?—He gave proofs of his love and power by the rich presents he made them and the promise of a home and plenty in Egypt. Gen. 45: 17-23.

19. Did Joseph and his father ever meet again?—They met in Egypt, whither Jacob and all his family had come. Gen. 46: 29.

20. How?—See No. 19.

21. What proof have we in this of the truth of Rom. 8: 28?—What Jacob thought to be against him proved to be for his good. (See No. 6.)

22. Where in the land of Egypt did Jacob and his family dwell?—In the land of Goshen. Gen. 47: 1.

23. Had the Egyptians any particular antipathy to shepherds?—They disliked shepherds and cattle-dealers from foreign lands for slaughtering their sacred animals, or from having formerly invaded and plundered their country.

24. Why?—See No. 23.

25. Was Jacob introduced to Pharaoh?—Yes, and gave him his blessing. Gen. 47: 7.

26. What proof have we in Jacob's remark to Pharaoh of the truth of Ps. 90?—The longest life is but short to look back on.

For all our days are passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years as a tale that is told. The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labor and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away. Ps. 90: 9, 10.

27. What peculiar blessing did Jacob give to the sons of Joseph?—He placed his right hand on the younger instead of the elder. Gen. 48: 17-19.

28. In his prophetic blessing of his twelve sons, to whom did he give the birthright?—Gen. 48: 8.

Now the sons of Reuben the first-born of Israel (for he was the first-born; but, forasmuch as he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given unto the sons of Joseph the son of Israel: and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright. For Judah prevailed above his brethren, and of him came the chief ruler; but the birthright was Joseph's. 1 Chron. 5: 1, 2.

29. What was the special blessing of Judah?—That out of his family the Messiah should come. Gen. 49: 10.

30. How was this fulfilled?—Our Lord sprang out of Juda. Heb. 7: 14.

The book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham. Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren; and Judas begat Phares. Matt. 1: 1-3.

31. To whom is allusion made in chap. 49, verse 24, in Joseph's blessing? Compare Num. 13: 8, 16 with Num. 27: 15-23.—To Joshua.

Of the tribe of Ephraim, Oshea the son of Nun. And Moses called Oshea the son of Nun Jehoshua. And Moses spake unto the Lord, saying, Let the Lord, the God of the spirits of all flesh, set a man over the congregation, which may go out before them, and which may go in before them, and which may lead them out, and which may bring them in; that the congregation of the Lord be not as sheep which have no shepherd. And the Lord said unto Moses, Take thee Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the spirit, and lay thine hand upon him; and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation; and give him a charge in their sight. And thou shalt put some of thine honor upon him, that all the congregation of the children of Israel may be obedient. And he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall ask counsel for him after the judgment of Urim before the Lord: at his word shall they go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he and all the children of Israel with him, even all the congregation. And Moses did as the Lord commanded him; and he took Joshua, and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation; and he laid his hands upon him, and gave him a charge, as the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses.

32. How was Joshua in this a type of Jesus?—As Joshua led the Israelites in the wilderness and into the promised land, so Jesus is the guide of his people upon earth and the means of their entrance into heaven.

Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers; but the sheep did not hear them. I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. John 10: 7-9, 27.

33. What other Joshua was a type of Jesus under the double figure of a branch and a stone?—And he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the Lord. And the angel of the Lord protested unto Joshua, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts; If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my charge, then thou shalt also judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee three places to walk among these that stand by. Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou, and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men wondered at; for, behold, I will bring forth my servant the BRANCH. For behold the stone that I have laid before Joshua; upon one stone shall be seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the Lord of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. Zech. 3: 1, 6-9.

34. What does Isaiah prophesy of this stone?—Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation. Isa. 28: 16.

35. Give the texts in which the Lord Jesus speaks of himself under this figure?—Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the Scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: and whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder. Matt. 21: 42, 44; Mark 12: 10; Luke 20: 17, 18.

36. Find the text in which the apostle Peter speaks of the Lord Jesus under this figure?—To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious, ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. Wherefore also it is contained in the Scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief cornerstone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded. Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner, and a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed. 1 Pet. 2: 4-8.

37. Where was Jacob buried?—In the cave of Machpelah. Gen. 50: 13.

38. What fears had Joseph's brethren after their father's death?—That Joseph would ill-treat them and punish them. Gen. 50: 15.

39. How did Joseph behave to them?—He comforted them and spoke kindly to them.

40. Of whom were Joseph and his brethren types in this transaction?—Of Christ and his forgiving love.

41. When was Joseph buried?—Not until the Israelites reached Canaan, above two hundred years after his death. Gen. 50: 26.

And the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem, in a parcel of ground which Jacob bought of the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem, for an hundred pieces of silver. Josh. 24: 32.

JOSEPH'S HISTORY.

1. What great peculiarity marks the Bible histories?—Their reference to our Lord Jesus Christ.

2. Of whose history can this pre-eminently be said?—Of Joseph's.

3. To whom must we look to enlighten our minds when studying God's word?—To God the Holy Spirit; saying, Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law. Ps. 119: 18; 2 Pet. 1: 20, 21.

4. What did Jesus say in John 5: 39?—Search the Scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

5. And how did he upbraid the two disciples whom he overtook going to Emmaus?—O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! Luke 24: 26.

6. Is it not, then, our duty to seek for Jesus even so far back as the writings of Moses?—They drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them; and that Rock was Christ. 1 Cor. 10: 4.

7. Who wrote Genesis?—Moses.

8. How was Joseph a type of Jesus, when he was at home, clothed in a beautiful robe, the darling of his father?—In that Jesus shared his Father's glory and enjoyed his love.

Thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world. John 17: 24.

9. How was Joseph a type in going out to see after the welfare of his brethren?—In Jesus graciously visiting his brethren in human nature.

The Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost. Luke 19: 10.

10. How in their treatment of him?—In being sold by Judas and delivered to death by the Jews.

He came unto his own, and his own received him not. John 1: 11.

When the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance. Matt. 21: 38.

11. How in his dreams?—In his prophecies of his future kingdom and glory. Matt. 25: 31, 32.

12. How in the false accusations brought against him?—In his freedom from blame. Matt. 26: 59, 60.

13. How in being committed to prison?—They laid hands on Jesus, and took him. Matt. 26: 50.

14. How in leaving that prison and being exalted?—God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ. Acts 2: 36.

15. How in his feeding and blessing his brethren and all who came to him?—In being the Bread of life.

16. How in Pharaoh transferring all his power to him?—The Father committed all judgment unto the Son. John 5: 22.

17. How in his returning good for evil?—Jesus died for his persecutors, and prayed for them to the last.

JOB.

1. Who was Job?—A very rich man in the north of Arabia who worshipped the true God. Job 1: 3.

2. When was he supposed to live?—Probably about the time of Isaac.

3. Why? Do we gather anything from his not mentioning God's wonders in Egypt and the Red Sea?—From the age to which he lived, said to be two hundred years; from the very early customs alluded to in the book, as the worship of the sun, moon and stars, the use of engraving for writing, and the reckoning of riches by cattle, that they had not then occurred, or Job would certainly have heard of them and spoken of them. Job 21: 26-28; 19: 23, 24; 1: 3.

4. Can you give any proof from the fact that as head of the family he offered sacrifices?—After God's appointment of priests he would not have done this.

5. How is he supposed to have obtained his knowledge of the true God?—By tradition, or knowledge passed down by word of mouth from one generation to another, and perhaps by direct revelation from God, like Adam and Moses.

6. What proof of the truth of 1 Pet. 5: 8 does the history of Job supply?—Satan's plots against Job. Your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour. Job 1: 6-12; 2: 1-7.

7. Where is Satan called "the accuser of the brethren"?—Rev. 12: 10.

8. What high terms of praise did the Lord use when speaking of Job to Satan?—Job 1: 8.

9. And how did the Lord afterward, to Ezekiel, mention him?—He classed him with Noah and Daniel.

Though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, saith the Lord God. Ezek. 14: 14.

10. In what way did the Lord first try this good man?—By suffering him to be deprived in one day of his children, servants and goods. Job 1.

11. Did he fail?—He submitted to God's will, and blessed him in memorable words. Job 1: 21.

12. Did Satan again have permission to hurt him?—Yes, by bodily suffering. Job 2: 4-8.

13. Did he continue steadfast?—He seems to have uttered no complaint against God. Job 2: 8.

14. How did his wife afflict him?—By tempting him to curse God, that he might die. Job 2: 9.

15. Did this prove too much for him?—No; he again expressed his submission to the will of God. Job 2: 10.

16. Who came to comfort him?—His three principal friends. Job 2: 11.

17. What relation is Eliphaz supposed to have been to Esau?—These are the names of Esau's sons; Eliphaz the son of Adah the wife of Esau. . . . And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho and Gatam, and Kenaz. Gen. 36: 10, 11. Eliphaz seems to have been an Idumean or Arabian name.

18. In what way did Job fail?—He cursed his birth, though not his God, and sometimes showed a self-righteous spirit. Job 3.

My face is foul with weeping, and on my eyelids is the shadow of death; not for any injustice in mine hands; also my prayer is pure. Job 16: 16, 17.

19. Did not his friends suppose that all his misfortunes had come upon him in consequence of sin?—They did. Job 4: 7, 8.

20. If Job, instead of justifying himself, had appealed unto God, would it not have shown a better knowledge?—Yes, for it is easy to form a too favorable judgment of our own selves.

21. How did the Lord Jesus Christ act when he was wrongfully accused?—He answered not a word. Matt. 27: 12-14.

22. Who is the only perfect man that ever lived?—The man Christ Jesus.

23. How did Job feel when God himself spoke to him at last?—Deeply humbled. What did Job say?—Then Job answered the Lord, and said, Behold I am vile; what shall I answer thee? I will lay my hand upon my mouth. Job 40: 3, 4.

24. Did the Lord condemn him?—No; he accepted or forgave him. Job 42: 9.

25. How did the Lord pass over the error of Job's three friends in their condemnation of Job?—In consideration of their sacrifice and of Job's prayer. Job 42: 7-9.

26. How did the Lord disappoint Satan and bless Job's latter end?—He gave him a family again, and twice as much substance as he had before. Job 42: 10, 12, 13.

27. How old was Job when he died?—About two hundred years. Job 42: 16.

PHARAOH AND MOSES. (Ex. 1: 2.)

1. How did the Egyptians behave to the children of Israel after the death of Joseph?—They enslaved and oppressed them. Ex. 1: 8-14.

2. Did the children of Israel multiply and increase very rapidly?—They did. Ex. 1: 12.

3. Why should this have made the Egyptians afraid?—Lest they should join their enemies. Ex. 1: 10.

4. How were the children of Israel envied by the Egyptians?—In making bricks and other field-service. Ex. 1: 14.

5. What cruel device did Pharaoh resolve on to destroy the male children of Israel?—To employ the Hebrew nurses to do so. Ex. 1: 16.

6. Who was Moses?—The second son of Amram and Jochebed of the tribe of Levi. Ex. 2: 1; 6: 20.

7. What plan did his mother adopt to spare his life?—She hid him in a floating basket among the flags growing by a river-side. Ex. 2: 2, 3.

8. How did her design succeed?—The child was found by Pharaoh's daughter, who took charge of it. Ex. 2: 5-10.

9. Whom had his mother set to watch the little ark?—His sister Miriam. Ex. 2: 4; 15: 20.

10. When the princess sought a nurse for the child, whom did Miriam fetch?—His mother. Ex. 2: 7-9.

11. What blessing did this ensure to Moses?—The tenderest care, and perhaps also the knowledge of the true God.

12. What proof does this give us of the truth of Isa. 46: 10?—My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure.

There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the Lord. Prov. 21: 30.

13. With whom did Moses join himself—with the Egyptians or the Hebrews?—By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God. Heb. 11: 24, 25.

14. Did they receive him graciously?—Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us? Wilt thou kill me as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday? Acts 7: 27, 28.

15. What was Moses obliged to do?—To leave Egypt. Ex. 2: 11-15.

16. To what land did he flee?—To Midian.

17. What occurred to him there?—He married a daughter of the priest or prince of Midian. Ex. 2: 16-21.

18. How long did he stay there?—Forty years. Acts 7: 30.

19. How many sons had he? What were their names and his wife's name?—Two—Gershom and Eliezer; Zipporah. Ex. 2: 22; 18: 3, 4; 2: 21.

THE BURNING BUSH. (Ex. 3, 4.)

1. How was Moses employed when the Lord appeared to him?—In keeping his father-in-law's flock. Ex. 3: 1.

2. What wondrous sight attracted the attention of Moses?—A burning bush unconsumed. Ex. 3: 2.

3. Whose voice addressed him from the midst of the fire?—The voice of the Son of God, God's messenger, and yet God himself. Ex. 3: 2, 4.

4. What commission did the Lord give to Moses?—To go to Pharaoh and bring the Israelites out of Egypt. Ex. 3: 10.

5. Was Moses willing to undertake it?—He said they would not believe that God had appeared to him. Ex. 4: 1.

6. What excuses did he make?—See No. 5.

7. How did the Lord show him that it was not his own might or power in which he was to go to Pharaoh?—He changed Moses' rod into a serpent and made his hand leprous, and restored them again. Ex. 4: 2-8.

8. Did this remove his scruples?—He then objected that he was too poor a speaker to deliver God's message. Ex. 4: 10.

9. How did the Lord graciously meet his weakness?—He promised to teach him what to say. Ex. 4: 12.

10. Whom did the Lord appoint his helper?—His brother Aaron, who could speak well. Ex. 4: 14-16.

11. What solemn rite had Moses neglected to perform on his sons in the land of Midian?—Circumcision. Ex. 4: 24.

12. What punishment had God enjoined on those who neglected it?—The uncircumcised man-child shall be cut off from his people; he hath broken my covenant (by loss of privileges or by death). Gen. 17: 14.

13. Did not the sons of Moses narrowly escape?—They were doubtless in imminent danger of punishment, with Moses himself. Ex. 4: 24-26.

14. Who met Moses on his return to Egypt?—Aaron, by command of God. Ex. 4: 27.

15. How did the poor afflicted Israelites receive the message?—They believed it, and worshiped God. Ex. 4: 31.

THE PLAGUES OF EGYPT. (Ex. 5-11.)

1. Who was the king of Egypt now?—Pharaoh.

2. Was it the same Pharaoh who had ordered the little children to be killed?—No; it was one who lived one hundred and forty years later.

3. Did he treat the children of Israel more mercifully than the former king?—Though he did not order their male offspring to death like the former king, he was very cruel to them.

4. How did he receive Moses and Aaron when they went in to him?—He abused them for interfering with the people's work. Ex. 5: 2-4.

5. What was the result?—Heavier work was laid upon them. Ex. 5: 6-9.

6. Whom did the children of Israel blame for this?—Moses and Aaron. Ex. 5: 20, 21.

7. Of whom was Pharaoh, in his daring rebellion, a type?—Of the great rebel Satan. Jude 6.

8. What was the first plague?—The river Nile turned into blood. Ex. 7.

9. In what respect was this a peculiar trial to the Egyptians?—Because the yearly overflowing of the Nile was most valuable for their land, and they worshipped the river as a god, and much of their food was fish.

10. What were the second and third plagues?—Frogs and lice. Ex. 8.

11. How far were the magicians permitted to follow Moses and Aaron?—So far as to turn water into blood and to bring frogs. Ex. 7, 8.

12. What did they say when they could go no farther?—That the miracles of Moses were the finger of God. Ex. 8: 19.

13. What was the next plague?—Swarms of flies or hurtful insects. Ex. 7: 24.

14. How did God mark the distinction between the Egyptians and Israelites in this?—He suffered none in the land of Goshen, where the Israelites dwelt.

15. Did this influence Pharaoh to let the Israelites go?—No (Ex. 8: 32), though he gave way a little at first. Ex. 8: 28.

16. What was the fifth plague?—A murrain upon cattle, horses, asses, camels and sheep. Ex. 9.

17. What painful attack on man and beast did God send next?—Boils and blains, or sores. Ex. 9: 9.

18. Did any of these move the haughty king?—No. Ex. 9: 7, 12.

19. What merciful provision did God make in the seventh plague for those who believed in his word?—He warned them to remove their cattle to a place of shelter. Ex. 9: 19.

20. Why was this plague peculiarly terrible to the Egyptians?—Because they were not accustomed to either hail or rain. Deut. 11: 10, 11.

21. Why was it that all these judgments had no effect on Pharaoh?—Because his heart was hardened, or he hardened his own heart, as it is expressed in Ex. 8: 15, 32; 9: 34, 35, so that God gave him up to his own wicked heart, as he is said in Rom. 1: 28, 21, 20 to have given up the Gentiles to a reprobate mind, their foolish heart being darkened, and they themselves without excuse.

Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man. James 1: 13.

22. Is it not an awful thing when God gives a man over to his own hardened heart?—If we sin willfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, but a certain fearful looking-for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries. Heb. 10: 26, 27.

23. What was the eighth plague?—Locusts. Ex. 10.

24. What appearance must the land of Egypt have presented at this time?—The land was darkened by them, and every green thing eaten up. Ex. 10: 15.

25. What was the ninth plague?—Thick darkness for three days. Ex. 10: 21-23.

26. What solemn interview had Moses with Pharaoh during this awful darkness?—When Pharaoh bade Moses see his face no more. Ex. 10: 28.

27. What was the last plague?—The destruction of first-born.

THE PASSOVER. (Ex. 12-14.)

1. What did God command the Israelites to do before he brought the last plague on the Egyptians?—To have the passover sacrifice and feast. Ex. 12.

2. Of whom was the lamb a type?—Of Christ the Lamb of God, slain from the foundation of the world. John 1: 29; Rev. 13: 8.

3. In how many ways was the paschal lamb a type of Him whom it prefigured?—In its gentleness and unblemished innocence, and in its being slain without a bone being broken; and in other respects besides.

4. What divine ordinance in the Christian Church still commemorates the Passover?—The Lord's Supper.

5. When was it instituted?—The evening before our blessed Saviour suffered.

6. What does it set forth?—The sacrifice of the death of Christ, and the benefits we receive thereby.

7. Wherein does "the mass" of the Romish Church differ from "the Lord's Supper" in the Protestant churches?—In the mass the priest professes every time to offer Christ himself as a sacrifice for sin, while the Lord's Supper is a remembrance of his perfect sacrifice made once for all.

8. Which is most in harmony with the word of God?—We are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. Heb. 10: 10, 14.

9. What is the meaning of the word Passover?—It refers to the destroying angel passing over the blood-sprinkled doorposts of the children of Israel. Ex. 12: 23.

10. How were the Israelites preserved from the destroying angel?—By striking the lintels and doorposts of their houses with the blood of the slain lamb. Ex. 12: 22.

11. Why was not the blood sprinkled on the doorway?—Lest any should trample on so sacred a thing.

Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace! Heb. 10: 29.

12. How was the bread to be prepared?—Without leaven (or yeast or sour paste) to raise it. Ex. 12: 15.

13. What does the apostle Paul declare this to be a type of, in 1 Cor. 5: 7, 8?—Of purity and sincerity.

14. What did the bitter herbs signify?—The bitterness of Egyptian bondage, of true sorrow for sin and of Christ's cup of suffering. Ps. 69: 20, 21.

15. If any Israelite had despised the means of safety, what would have been the consequence?—He would have lost his first-born child.

16. And what will be our state if we despise the hiding-place which God has provided for us?—We shall be destroyed by the storm of God's just wrath.

17. Is God's salvation merely a safety from his wrath, or does he provide ample blessing for the soul that trusts in him?—He provides not only escape from hell, but a home in heaven—eternal life begun below and perfected above.

18. What part of this type is a proof of this?—The feast upon the slaughtered lamb.

19. Give some other parts of Scripture where the gospel provision is compared to a feast.—Isa. 25: 6; Rev. 19: 9.

20. How did Pharaoh act when he found the threatened vengeance of God had descended on him?—He ordered the Israelites to depart. Ex. 12: 31, 32.

21. How did God recompense the Israelites for all that they had suffered at the hands of the Egyptians?—By disposing the Egyptians to give them gold and silver and raiment. Ex. 12: 35, 36; Rom. 12: 17-21.

22. In what way did the Israelites obey the king's mandate?—They hurried away with their flocks and herds and hastily-prepared food. Ex. 12: 37-39.

23. Did they remember Joseph's wish at this time?—They took his bones with them. Ex. 13: 19.

24. Did Pharaoh quietly allow them to go?—He pursued them to bring them back. Ex. 14: 5-9.

25. How did the children of Israel feel when they heard that Pharaoh was pursuing them?—They were terribly afraid. Ex. 14: 10.

26. What had the Israelites to guide them as to the way they should take?—A pillar of cloud and of fire. Ex. 14: 19, 20, 24.

27. What speech did Israel make to Moses when they saw the sea before them and the host of Pharaoh behind?—That they had better have remained in Egypt. Ex. 14: 11, 12.

28. Did God reward them as they deserved for this wicked speech? What did he do?—He made a way for them through the sea. Ex. 14: 16.

29. Which got on the fastest—Pharaoh in his chariots or Israel on foot?—Israel on foot, as God took off the chariot-wheels. Ex. 14: 25.

30. How did the Lord hinder the Egyptians?—See No. 29.

31. How did God keep the hosts separate all the night?

—By the pillar of cloud, which kept the Egyptians in darkness and prevented them from moving on. Ex. 14: 20.

32. Ought we ever to doubt a God who can help his people in any difficulty?—If God be for us, who can be against us? Rom. 8: 31.

33. What happened as soon as Israel was safely over the sea?—The Egyptians were overwhelmed by the returning waters. Ex. 14: 27, 28.

THE SONG OF MOSES. (Ex. 15: 1-21.)

1. What is the passage through the Red Sea a type of?—The introduction of believers by baptism into covenant with God. 1 Cor. 10: 1-4.

2. What is baptism a type of?—Of having done with sin on being given to God. Rom. 6: 1-4.

3. What did Jesus call his death?—A baptism. I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished! Luke 12: 50.

4. Is the song of Moses ever again mentioned in Scripture?—Rev. 15: 2, 3.

5. Of whom is Pharaoh a type in these verses?—Of the enemies of God.

6. What is said of Pharaoh in Rom. 9: 17?—Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might show my power in thee.

7. What will be the end of all God's enemies?—To be subdued by Christ.

For David saith, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, until I make thy foes thy footstool. Acts 2: 34, 35.

8. Which is the last enemy that is to be destroyed?—Death. 1 Cor. 15: 26.

9. What song may the Christian sing even now in prospect of that victory?—Death is swallowed up in victory. 1 Cor. 15: 54-57.

10. Through whom is the conquest obtained?—Heb. 2: 14, 15; 1 Cor. 15: 57.

THEIR JOURNEY BEGUN. (Ex. 15: 22-27.)

1. How many days did Israel travel in the wilderness before they found water?—Three. Ex. 15: 22.

2. And when they found water, of what kind was it?—Bitter. Ex. 15: 23.

3. How did the children of Israel bear this disappointment?—They murmured against Moses. Ex. 15: 24.

4. What is this world compared to?—A wilderness.

5. Are the journeyings of the children of Israel calculated to teach us any useful lessons?—Not to expect perfect comfort in our pilgrimage here below—to follow God's guidance, and to cheerfully submit to all his dealings with us on our heavenward way.

6. Are not young people apt to think that this world is a resting-place?—They forget that youth and health may not last them long.

7. What does God's word say in Mic. 2: 10?—Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction.

8. There is one thing that can turn the bitter waters of earthly sorrow into sweetness; what is it?—Seeing a Father's hand overruling all our affairs.

9. Where did Israel next encamp?—At Elim. Ex. 15: 27.

10. What blessing had the Lord in store for them there?—Plenty of water.

11. Is it not God's way ever to bring good out of evil?—Who fed thee in the wilderness with manna, which thy fathers knew not, that he might humble thee, and that he might prove thee, to do thee good at thy latter end. Deut. 8: 16.

THE MANNA. (Ex. 16.)

1. How were the Israelites fed in the wilderness?—With manna.

2. What was manna?—A small round thing, like a frozen drop of dew, miraculously sent by God, and able to be made into bread. Ex. 16: 14, 15, 23, 31.

3. How often were they to gather it?—Every day except the Sabbath-day.

4. What provision did the Lord make for sanctifying the Sabbath-day, and resting on it?—A double quantity of manna the day before. Ex. 16: 22-30.

5. Were the children of Israel obedient to the Lord in this arrangement? How did they act?—Some of them went out to gather on the Sabbath-day. Ex. 16: 27.

6. Who was it that declared himself to be the true bread that came down from heaven?—I am the living bread which came down from heaven. John 6: 51.

7. Were the Israelites satisfied with God's provision?—Our soul loatheth this light bread. Num. 21: 5.

8. What is said in 2 Tim. 3: 16?—All Scripture is given by inspiration of God.

9. What instruction ought we to gain from reading about the sins of Israel?—To watch against falling into the same sins ourselves.

As in water face answereth to face, so the heart of man to man. Prov. 27: 19.

10. What provision has God made for the life of our souls?—His Son, his Spirit and his word.

11. Are we satisfied with this, or do we prefer earthly pleasures?—We are prone to love this present world.

12. Compare Matt. 7: 1, 2 and 1 Cor. 10: 11, 12.—Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. All these things are written for our admonition. Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth, take heed lest he fall.

THE SMITTEN ROCK. (Ex. 17: 1-7.)

1. What are those who travel in deserts constantly liable to?—The want of water.

2. How were the Israelites supplied?—From a stream that flowed from a rock in Horeb on Moses striking it with his rod. Ex. 17: 6.

3. Of whom is the smitten rock a beautiful type?—That rock was Christ. 1 Cor. 10: 4.

4. What did Jesus say to the woman of Samaria?—But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life. John 4: 14.

5. At the feast of tabernacles, which was a feast commemorative of the sojourn of Israel in the desert, they used to pour out water in remembrance of the smitten rock; when Jesus was present at this ceremony, what did he cry aloud?—If any man thirst, let him come unto me and drink. John 7: 37.

6. Have you obeyed that command?—Let the conscience of each reply. If you have not yet come, come now.

7. What excuse will you have to offer if you refuse to obey?—None at all. Prov. 1: 20-31; Rev. 22: 17.

THE BATTLE WITH AMALEK. (Ex. 17: 8-16.)

1. What is prayer?—Prayer is the simplest words of the mouth and the earnest desire of the heart, taught by the Holy Spirit and presented through Jesus Christ.

2. Why do we pray to God?—Because he is willing to help us, and no one else can.

3. How did God teach Israel this at Rephidim?—By giving them victory over the Amalekites in answer to Moses' prayer. Ex. 17: 8-11.

4. Who were the Amalekites?—Descendants of Esau, to the south of Palestine.

5. Was it not very cruel to come out and fight Israel when they were so weak?—They thought now was their opportunity, but they forgot that God was on Israel's side.

6. Was not God angry with them for this?—God sentenced them to constant war, and at last to destruction. Ex. 17: 14, 16.

7. Which army obtained victory?—The Israelites'.

8. How was this?—By Moses' continued prayer. Ex. 17: 12.

9. Of whom was Moses a type when he thus interceded for Israel?—Of Christ, who ever lives to make intercession for us in heaven.

10. Of whom was Joshua a type while leading on the battle?—Of the great Captain of our salvation.

11. What foes has the Christian to contend with?—The temptations of his own evil heart, of Satan and of sinners around him.

12. How can he overcome?—In the strength of the Lord God.

13. What is the meaning of Jehovah-nissi?—"The Lord, my banner." Ex. 17: 15.

14. If this be the banner of the Christian, what is his armor?—Eph. 6: 10-18.

Be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. Eph. 6: 10, 11.

THE COVENANT OF WORKS. (Ex. 19-24.)

1. What is the human heart most prone to?—Sin.

2. What does this show?—The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? Jer. 17: 9.

3. How did God teach this to Israel, and through them to us?—By practical lessons which showed them their weakness and wickedness, and their need of a better righteousness than their own, and of a greater sacrifice than the blood of bulls and goats. Gal. 3: 24.

4. What is the law?—The term here refers to the Ten Commandments, and to others that immediately follow.

5. Under what circumstances did God give the law?—From the top of Mount Sinai, amidst thunder and lightning, clouds and darkness, trumpet-blast and earthquake. Ex. 19.

6. Where is Sinai?—In the wilderness, near the Red Sea.

7. Could Israel bear the presence of God?—They could not endure the light of God's presence in their consciences. Our God is a consuming fire. Heb. 12: 20, 21, 29.

8. Why not?—See No. 7.

9. Who went up into the thick darkness where God was?—Moses. Ex. 19: 20; 20: 21.

10. When he came forth with God's message to them, what did they promise to do?—All the words which God had said. Ex. 24: 3.

11. Were they able to perform their promise?—No.

12. Why?—From the sinfulness of their own hearts.

13. Are we able to keep God's holy law now?—No.

14. What refuge, then, have we from God's wrath?—Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us. Gal. 3: 13.

THE COVENANT BROKEN. (Ex. 32.)

1. How long was Moses upon the mount with God?—Forty days and nights. Ex. 24: 18.

2. What awful proof did Israel give of their inability to keep the law, of their forgetfulness of God, and of their own evil hearts while Moses was on the mount?—They made and worshiped a golden calf, probably after some idol in Egypt. Ex. 32: 1-6.

3. When was Moses made acquainted with their sin?—God told him while he was on the mount. Ex. 32: 7, 8.

4. Did he plead for them with God?—Yes, and his prayer was heard. Ex. 32: 11-14.

5. Who was waiting on the side of the mount for Moses when he came down?—Joshua. Ex. 32: 17.

6. What sight did they see?—The calf, and the people dancing about it. Ex. 32: 19.

7. What did Moses do?—He broke the stone tables, as they had broken the law, and he destroyed the golden calf. Ex. 32: 19, 20.

8. Although Joshua was not in the transgression of making the calf, which of Israel's leaders was?—Aaron. Ex. 32: 2-5.

9. Was not his excuse a vain one?—Yes; and sinners now by silly falsehoods strive in vain to hide their sins.

10. Why was this painful history recorded?—For our instruction; see 1 Cor. 10: 1-12.

THE SECOND GIVING OF THE LAW. (Ex. 32: 30-55; 33 and 34.)

1. Who interceded for Israel at this awful time?—Moses. Ex. 32: 30-32.

2. What testimony did Moses bear against them?—That they had sinned a great sin. Ex. 32: 30.

3. Whom did Moses associate with himself in this act?—Joshua, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Ex. 24: 13; 32: 13.

4. What proof did the Lord give to Moses that he had accepted him?—Allowing him to see something of his glory and proclaiming to him his name. Ex. 33: 16; 34: 7.

5. How was the law given the second time?—By Moses taking two fresh tables of stone up the mount, and God's writing upon them the Ten Commandments. Ex. 34: 1, 4, 28.

6. How long was Moses in the mount this time?—Forty days and forty nights. Deut. 10: 10.

7. What wonderful manifestation was there on the face of Moses that he been with God, and had spoken to him face to face?—His face shone brightly. Ex. 33: 11; 34: 29, 30.

And there arose not a prophet since in Israel like unto Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face. Deut. 34: 10.

8. How did the children of Israel feel when they saw this?—They were afraid to come near him. Ex. 34: 30.

9. What was this a type of?—Of the blindness of their minds, which prevented them from seeing the truth then, and which prevents them still.

Their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same veil untaken away in the reading of the Old Testament; which veil is done away in Christ. 2 Cor. 3:14.

THE TABERNACLE. (Ex. 35-40.)

1. How did Moses obtain the instruction to make the tabernacle?—From God himself and a pattern shown him on the mount. Ex. 25:9, 40.

2. What is a tabernacle?—A tent.

3. Whom did God specially endow with skill to perform this work?—Bezaleel and Aholiab and other wise-hearted men. Ex. 36:1.

4. Where did Moses get the materials?—From the free offerings of the people. Ex. 35:21; 36:3-7.

5. Did the women assist? In what?—Yes. In spinning. Ex. 35:22, 25, 26.

6. What solemn injunction did Moses receive?—To make the tabernacle and its furniture according to the patterns God had shown him. Ex. 25:40; 26:30; Heb. 8:5.

7. What expression, used eight times in the fortieth chapter of Exodus, shows that Moses fulfilled the work that God gave him to do?—As the Lord commanded Moses.

8. When was the tabernacle reared?—On the first day (of the first month) of the second year of the sojourn in the wilderness. Ex. 40:17.

9. Of whom is the tabernacle a type?—Of Jesus Christ, the "true" and "perfect tabernacle." John 2:19-21; Heb. 8:2; 9:11.

10. Are our bodies compared to a tabernacle and temple?—Yes; to a tabernacle, to be taken down, in 2 Cor. 5:1, and to a temple of the Holy Ghost, to be kept holy, in 1 Cor. 6:19.

11. In what respect was the tabernacle in the wilderness a type of Jesus?—As the way to the Father's presence. Heb. 9:8, 9, 11, 12.

12. What was its outward appearance?—Plain, from its badger-skins covering. Ex. 26:14. As Christ had no outward beauty. Isa. 53:2, 3.

His visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men. Isa. 52:14.

13. How was the inside different? How was this a type of Jesus?—Yes; it was richly adorned with gold and silver and embroidery. Ex. 31 and 36. So He who was "altogether lovely" (Song of Sol. 5:16) pleased his heavenly Father.

Lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Matt. 3:17.

A cloud overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him. Mark 9:7.

The centurion said, Truly this man was the Son of God. Mark 15:39.

The officers answered, Never man spake like this man. John 7:46.

14. To what did Jesus compare himself in John 10 and 14:6?—To the door of the sheepfold and to a road or way. (See No. 11.)

I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

15. How was the brazen altar a type of Jesus?—Because it bore the sacrificial fires which consumed the victims.

16. Who first kindled the fire on this altar?—God himself. Lev. 9:24.

17. What is fire a type of?—It is the element of purification Ezek. 21:31, 32; 22:31; Heb. 12:29.

18. What do we deserve?—We cannot possibly conceive the exceeding sinfulness of our estrangement from our Father.

19. Who was the Sin-bearer in our stead?—Christ Jesus.

He was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. Isa. 53:5.

Even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come. 1 Thess. 1:10.

20. Suppose any Israelite had refused to bring his offering to this altar, what would have been the consequence?—He would have remained unclean and deprived of the privilege of worshiping.

21. Suppose we refuse to lay our sins on Jesus, what will be the consequence?—They will remain upon ourselves, and the wrath of God will abide upon us.

22. What stood next to the brazen altar in the outer court?—The laver. Ex. 38:8.

23. What was its use?—For the priests to wash their feet. Ex. 30:18-21.

24. What was the laver a type of?—Of the word and Spirit of God, which cleanse and restore our souls.

25. Of what was the laver made?—Of brass, taken from the looking-glasses, or plates of polished metal, which the women used.

26. How does the apostle James allude to this in the first chapter of his Epistle?—Whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

27. Is the word of God ever compared to water?—Christ also loved the Church, and gave himself for it, that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word. Eph. 5:25, 26.

28. Where else is the word of God alluded to as a cleansing process?—Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost. Tit. 3:5. Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. John 3:5. Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits of his creatures. James 1:18.

29. How did Jesus (the Word of God) declare we must be cleansed?—By himself.

If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. John 13:8.

30. What objects presented themselves when the doorway curtain of the tabernacle was drawn aside?—The altar of incense, the table of shewbread, the golden candlestick and the curtain or veil of the holy of holies.

31. What did Jesus say of himself in John 9:5?—As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

32. What is said of the Lord's people in Matt. 5:14-16?—Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid.

33. Under what figure is prayer represented in Rev. 8:3, 4?—The smoke of burning incense.

34. What did the Lord Jesus style himself in John 6:35?—I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

35. Who were permitted to go in and minister in this holy place?—The priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God. Heb. 9:6.

36. Who alone might go into the most holy place?—But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself and for the errors of the people. Heb. 9:7.

37. How often might he go in?—See No. 36.

38. Of what is the most holy place a type?—Of the immediate presence of God.

39. Who has entered there?—Seeing then that we have a great High Priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. Heb. 4:14.

40. What happened to the beautiful veil of the temple when the Lord Jesus was crucified?—It was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.

41. If man had rent it, would it have been done in the same way? How?—It would have been rent from the bottom.

42. What did this show?—The rending of the veil showed that the way into heaven was now open. Heb. 10:19-22.

43. What stood in the most holy place?—The ark of the covenant.

44. Of what was the ark composed?—Of shittim-wood, overlaid with gold. Ex. 25:10, 11.

45. How did it represent the glory of Jesus?—By the mercy-seat and cherubim above it. Ex. 25:17-22.

46. What was preserved in the ark?—The golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant. Heb. 9:4.

47. What was the budding rod a type of?—The resurrection of the dead. 1 Cor. 15:42.

48. What was this incorruptible manna a type of?—Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever. 1 Pet. 1:23; Acts 2:31, 32.

49. Where in the Revelation is this incorruptible manna alluded to?—To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna. Rev. 2:17.

50. What proof have we that Jesus has gone into heaven with a human body?—Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones as ye see me have. And when he had thus spoken, he showed them his hands and his feet. And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat? And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb. And he took it, and did eat before them. And he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them. And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven. Luke 24:39-43, 50, 51.

51. What hope have we to rest on that we shall share that glory with him?—To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne. Rev. 3:21.

THE SACRIFICES AND OFFERINGS. (Lev. and Num. 19.)

1. What is the principal thing treated of in the book of Leviticus?—Access to God by a purified worshiper.

2. Name the four principal offerings.—The burnt-offering, the sin-offering, the trespass-offering and the peace-offering.

3. What characterized the burnt-offering?—It was a male without blemish from the herd or the flock, or a turtle-dove or young pigeon; the blood of the beast being sprinkled about, and its body cut up and burnt on the altar. Lev. 1.

4. In what did the sin-offering and the trespass-offering differ from the burnt-offering?—In the sin-offering having the blood sprinkled and poured out on and under the altar, and having the fat, and not the whole animal, burnt upon it; and in the trespass-offering being allowed to be of the female sex, and being on account of special rather than general sin. The sin-offering referred rather to atonement, and the burnt-offering to self-dedication. Lev. 4, 5, 6.

5. What was there different to both these in the peace-offering?—The peace-offering, whether from the herd or the flock, was an expression of thankfulness to God for his gifts. Lev. 3; 7:11-38.

6. What difference was there between the meat- (or food-) and the burnt-offering?—The meat-offering, of flour, oil and wine, was also a sacrifice of thanksgiving. Lev. 2.

7. Who was prefigured by all these sacrifices?—Jesus Christ, the great Atonement and the great self-devoted Sacrifice.

8. What is said in Heb. 10:1-18?—The sacrifice of Christ's body, once offered, hath for ever taken away sins.

9. Where was Moses when God gave him the instruction about sacrifices?—On Mount Sinai. Ex. 24:18; 32:15.

10. What special type of Jesus was there in the cleansing of the leper?—Christ brings near those who were far off, as the leper was obliged to be kept; and Christ was slain for us, like the one bird, and rose to heaven for us like the other. Lev. 14.

But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. Eph. 2:13.

Who was delivered for our offences, and raised again for our justification. Rom. 4:25.

11. What was the leprosy in the house a type of?—Corruption. Lev. 14.

Flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. 1 Cor. 15:50.

12. Name some of the ceremonies which took place on the great day of atonement.—Aaron the high priest made sin-offerings for himself and for the people, and sprinkled the blood upon the mercy-seat in the most holy place; confessed the sins of the people over the scapegoat, and sent it away into the wilderness; and offered burnt-offerings for himself and for the people. Lev. 16.

13. What is the meaning of the word "atonement"?—Reconciliation, or setting at one again, by a sacrifice in another's stead.

14. Who atoned for our sins?—Jesus Christ, who suffered in our place the punishment of our sins.

15. How did the scapegoat set this forth?—It bore the sins of Israel, as Christ bears ours.

16. Have not you and I committed sin?—Every day of our lives.

17. Should we not ask ourselves where is our sin?—It is the most important question we can ask ourselves.

18. Where must it be—either by faith laid on Jesus, or where?—Still resting on ourselves, with all its burden and its curse.

19. What was the ceremony connected with the red heifer?—The heifer was slain and burnt, and its blood was sprinkled before the tabernacle.

20. What was the appointed use of the ashes of the red heifer?—They were mixed with water and sprinkled upon persons who in various ways had become unclean, and as a token of purification for sin.

21. Who was again prefigured in this type?—How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God! Heb. 9:14.

THE FEASTS. (Lev. 23.)

1. What is a type?—A thing that represents another thing, or has some points of resemblance to it, or is intended to foreshow it.

2. Why did God teach us so much truth in this way?—To make it clearer to our minds.

3. How do we teach little children?—By pictures, imitations, comparisons and tales.

4. What is God's way of pardoning sin?—Accepting on behalf of every one who believes the punishment which Jesus bore in his stead.

5. How has he shown this to us?—By his accepting the sacrifices which referred to Christ.

6. What is faith?—Trusting in Christ as our own Saviour.

7. How is faith in the Lord Jesus shown us in the typical sacrifices of the Old Testament?—Because they could have no value in themselves, but only as referring to Him that was to come.

8. What does this chapter especially describe to us?—The Jewish feasts.

9. Which is the first "feast" spoken of?—The Sabbath.

10. How often was it to be kept?—Every seventh day.

11. When was the keeping of the Sabbath first enjoined?—In the garden of Eden, when God first sanctified it or set it apart for holy use. (See also Ex. 16 and 20.)

God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made. Gen. 2:3.

12. Why is it here called a "feast?"—Because it is a day of sacred rest. (And see No. 14.)

13. Does the word "feast" in this chapter mean a time of eating and drinking?—No; but of meeting together for a holy, happy purpose. Lev. 23:4.

14. What is the meaning of the word "festival?"—A time of joyful worship.

15. Does not God always unite happiness or joy with religion?—He does.

If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honorable; and shalt honor him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words: then shalt thou delight thyself in the Lord; and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it. Isa. 58:13, 14.

16. If it be not so to us, what is the cause?—We have either no religion at all, or not enough to make us happy.

17. Of what was the Jewish Sabbath a type?—Of the rest of heaven. Heb. 4:8-11.

18. How can our souls, even in this world, "enter into rest?"—We may enjoy the rest of a steadfast faith, an anchored hope and an abiding peace.

19. Which was the second feast or festival spoken of?—The feast of the Passover or of unleavened bread. Lev. 23:5, 6.

20. When was that kept? How often?—It began on the fifteenth day of the first month, about our March or April. Once a year.

21. How was it kept?—By the sacrifice of a lamb, the use of unleavened bread and offering the first-fruits of the early harvest. (But see No. 24.)

22. When was this instituted?—When the Israelites came out of Egypt.

23. What did the Passover teach them, and what must it teach us?—To remember their deliverance by blood, and to look for our own deliverance by the same means.

24. What feast or festival came next?—The offering of the first-fruits of the harvest at Pentecost.

25. What ceremony were they to perform with the first sheaf?—The priest was to wave it before the Lord. Lev. 23:10, 11.

26. What did "waving" it mean?—An act of worship of the Lord of the whole earth.

27. Whom did that first sheaf represent?—Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept. 1 Cor. 15:20.

28. Did Jesus compare himself to wheat when speaking of his death?—The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

29. What were the Israelites to do fifty days after they had brought in the first-fruits?—To offer a new meat-offering to the Lord. Lev. 15:15-21.

30. Of what was this a type?—This feast was a type of the outpouring of the Holy Ghost, fifty days after Christ our Passover was sacrificed for us, when the apostles received the first-fruits of the Spirit, and presented to God the first-fruit converts of the Christian Church. Acts 2.

31. What festival was held on the first day of the seventh month?—The feast of trumpets. Lev. 15:23-25.

32. Of what was this a type?—Of the call to repentance and of the preaching of the gospel.

Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and show my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins. Isa. 58:1.

Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. Mark 16:15.

33. How many days after this festival of trumpets was the great day of atonement kept?—Nine days.

34. What remarkable ceremonies took place on this day?—Aaron the high priest made sin-offerings for himself and for the people, and sprinkled the blood upon the mercy-seat in the most holy place; confessed the sins of the people over the scapegoat, and sent it away into the wilderness; and offered burnt-offerings for himself and for the people. Lev. 16.

35. Are we not very prone to excuse ourselves when looking into our own sinful hearts?—The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? Jer. 17:9.

36. Where shall we best discover God's estimate of sin?—In those parts of Scripture which contain his denunciations against it, his punishments of it, and (above all) his provision, in both the Old and New Testaments, for the pardon and removal of it.

37. What other ceremony took place on this day, mentioned in this chapter and not in the sixteenth chapter?—The blowing of a trumpet on the first day of the month. Lev. 23:24.

38. Where is this more fully described?—Lev. 25:9.

39. Of what were the trumpets made?—Of silver. Num. 10:2.

40. Of what was the jubilee a type?—It was typical of our redemption by Christ from the slavery of sin and Satan, and of our restoration to the glorious liberty of the children of God.

41. How are we interested in it?—See No. 40.

42. How many days after the day of atonement did the feast of tabernacles occur?—Five days. Lev. 23:34.

43. What ceremonies marked this festival?—The offering of sacrifices and the dwelling in booths.

44. How many days did they keep it?—Eight days.

45. What is this festival a type of?—Of heaven. Rev. 21:3, 4.

46. What does the twenty-ninth chapter of Numbers tell of?—Of the offerings at the feasts of trumpets and tabernacles and on the day of atonement.

47. Is the feast of tabernacles ever mentioned in the New Testament?—Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand. In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me and drink. John 7:2, 37.

48. At what time of the year was King Solomon's temple dedicated?—Solomon kept the feast seven days in the seventh month, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt. 2 Chron. 7:8, 10.

49. And when was the second temple dedicated?—The children of the Captivity kept the Passover upon the fourteenth day of the first month. Ezra 6:19.

50. Of what were those buildings a type?—Of the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb, who are the temple of heaven. Rev. 21:22. (And see Rev. 21:3, 4, above—No. 45.)

THE NUMBERING OF THE ISRAELITES AND DEPARTURE FROM SINAI. (Num. 1-4, 7-10.)

1. What do these chapters describe?—The numbering of the people, the duties of the priests and Levites, the offerings for the tabernacle, the marchings of the Israelites, etc.

2. How long had the children of Israel remained at Sinai?—About eleven months.

3. Tell me some of the most remarkable events that had occurred there?—The giving of the law, the worship of the golden calf, the making of the tabernacle, and the punishment of Nadab and Abihu.

4. How long was it after they left Egypt that the tabernacle was first set up?—About ten months. Ex. 40:2.

5. What rite did they celebrate on the fourteenth of the first month?—The Passover. Num. 9:1-5.

6. What did God command Moses to do on the first of the second month?—To number the people. Num. 1:1-3.

7. Whom did God accept for his service instead of the first-born?—The Levites. Num. 3:12; 8:16.

8. Did the numbers tell out exactly the same?—The first-born were two hundred and seventy-three more. Num. 3:46.

9. How was the difference arranged?—Five shekels (or about $2.75) each was paid to Aaron for them. Num. 8.

10. How were the children of Israel to encamp and to march on their journey?—Each tribe was to march and encamp by itself, in a fixed order and place, the Levites in the midst. Num. 2.

11. Who provided the wagons to carry the tabernacle?—The princes or heads of the tribes. Num. 7:2, 3.

12. Why had not the sons of Kohath any wagons allotted to them?—Because their burdens were carried on their shoulders.

13. What part of the tabernacle did they carry?—The holy things of the tabernacle. Num. 4:2-15.

14. What did each of the princes of Israel offer as a gift to the service of the tabernacle?—Gold and silver vessels and animals for sacrifice. Num. 7.

15. What direction did the Lord give Moses as to making trumpets?—That they should be of silver, and be used for assembling and for marching in journeys or in war. Num. 10:1-10.

16. On which day did the cloud move?—On the twentieth day of the second month of the second year. Num. 10:11.

17. Of what was the moving of the cloud to inform the Israelites?—That they were to proceed on their journey. Num. 9:17.

18. When the first alarm of the trumpets was given, which tribes marched first?—Judah, Issachar and Zebulun.

19. How many encamped on the east of the tabernacle?—The above three. Num. 2:3-9.

20. What immediately followed these three tribes?—The tabernacle. Num. 10:17; 7:7, 8.

21. Which three tribes followed these wagons?—Reuben, Simeon and Gad. Num. 10:18-20.

22. What part of the tabernacle went next?—The sanctuary. Num. 10:21.

23. Name the six tribes that followed.—Ephraim, Manassch and Benjamin; Dan, Asher and Naphtali.

24. Whom did Moses entreat to accompany them?—Hobab, his father-in-law. Num. 10:29.

25. Did he not at first refuse?—He did. Num. 10:30.

26. What proofs have we afterward that he changed his mind and went with the Israelites into the promised land?—The children of the Kenite, Moses' father-in-law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which lieth in the south of Arad; and they went and dwelt among the people. Judg. 1:16. Now Heber the Kenite, which was of the children of Hobab the father-in-law of Moses, had severed himself from the Kenites, and pitched his tent unto the plain of Zaanaim, which is by Kedesh. Judg. 4:11.

27. To what family did Jonadab, mentioned in 2 Kings 10 and Jer. 35, belong?—To the Kenites, that came of Hemath, the father of Rechab. 1 Chron. 2:55; 2 Kings 10:15.

28. When all was ready for marching what beautiful prayer did Moses offer?—Rise up, Lord, and let thine enemies be scattered; and let them that hate thee flee before thee. Num. 10:35.

29. And what when the ark rested again?—Return, O Lord, unto the many thousands of Israel. Num. 10:36.

TRANSGRESSIONS. (Num. 11.)

1. By what were the children of Israel in the wilderness chiefly distinguished?—By their repeated rebellions against God. Heb. 3:8-12; Ps. 106:7, 8, 13-46.

2. Of what should their sad history warn us?—Of the sad consequences of sin.

3. On what did the Lord feed Israel while at Sinai?—On manna.

4. Ought they not, then, to have trusted God on their journey? Did they?—They ungratefully and discontentedly desired a change of food. Num. 11:1-6.

5. How were they punished?—Many of them were destroyed by fire; and others were diseased by the quails that were sent in answer to their demand for flesh to eat.

6. Did not Moses feel their continual provocation too much for him?—He complained to God of the burden it was to him. Num. 11: 11-15.

7. How did the Lord assist him?—He appointed seventy elders to assist him. Num. 11: 16, 17.

8. How did Joshua show his affection for his master and zeal for his honor?—By telling him of two men who seemed to be unlawfully exercising the authority of Moses in the camp. Num. 11: 26-28.

9. What was Moses' beautiful reply?—Enviest thou for my sake? Would God that all the Lord's people were prophets (or true teachers), and that the Lord would put his Spirit upon them!

10. How did the people behave when they had got the food they coveted?—They probably indulged in it to excess, forgetting the warning in Num. 11: 20.

11. How did the Lord punish them for their sin?—The quails produced a disease or plague among them. Num. 11: 19, 20, 33. See No. 5.

12. What lessons should we reap from their transgressions?—With many of them God was not well pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. 1 Cor. 10: 5, 6.

MIRIAM'S SIN AND PUNISHMENT. (Num. 12.)

1. What affecting proof have we here that Rom. 3: 10 is true?—The sin of Miriam and Aaron shows that there is none righteous, no, not one.

2. What was the sin of Miriam and Aaron?—They claimed equal authority with Moses himself. Num. 12: 2.

3. What special favor had God given to Moses?—More friendly conversation with himself and a near view of his glory. Num. 12: 8.

4. Ought any one aspire to a station in which God has not placed him?—St. Paul said: I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content; and, Godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and raiment, let us be therewith content. 1 Tim. 6: 6-8.

5. What special proof did God give of his displeasure?—He made Miriam a leper. Num. 12: 10.

6. Who pleaded for Miriam?—Aaron with Moses, and Moses with God. Num. 12: 11, 13.

7. How did the Lord mitigate her punishment?—By removing her disease in seven days. Num. 12: 14, 15.

8. Of what was her punishment the type?—Of the loathsomeness of sin in the eyes of God.

9. In what way did the Lord permit the whole camp to sympathize with Miriam?—By not requiring them to go on their way until she was restored.

THE REPORT OF THE SPIES.

1. Where were the children of Israel at this time?—In the wilderness of Paran. Ex. 12: 16; 13: 3.

2. Was it far from the land of Canaan?—One end of it was near to Judah.

3. What did God command Moses to do?—To send men to search the land of Canaan. Num. 13: 2.

4. Whom did Moses select for this errand?—Heads of the tribes.

5. What change did he make in the name of one of them?—He called Oshea, the son of Nun, Jehoshua or Joshua. Num. 13: 16.

6. Give the meaning of the name before and after the change, and then say of whom he was the type.—"Help" before, and "help of Jehovah" or "Saviour" after—a type of Christ the Saviour.

7. To whom did Jacob refer in Gen. 49: 24?—To Joseph, another type of Christ.

8. How long were they in searching the land?—Forty days.

9. What report did they bring?—That the land flowed with milk and honey, but that the inhabitants were giants and the cities great and walled. Num. 13: 26-28, 31-33.

10. Did all the twelve join in the cowardly report?—All but Caleb and Joshua. Num. 13: 30; 14: 6-9.

11. What effect did this have on the people?—They were in great distress, and proposed returning to Egypt. Num. 14: 1-4.

12. How did Moses and Aaron act?—They fell on their faces in humiliation and intercessory prayer. Num. 14: 5.

13. What did Caleb and Joshua say?—That the Lord was with Israel, and that they had nothing to fear from the inhabitants of the land. Num. 14: 6-9.

14. Who appeared at the moment when they were about to be stoned?—God himself in his glory. Num. 14: 10.

15. What did he propose to Moses?—To disinherit Israel, and to make of Moses a mightier nation than theirs. Num. 14: 11, 12.

16. Did Moses accept this great honor?—No; he pleaded for their pardon instead.

17. What special mercy did the Lord promise to Caleb and Joshua?—That they alone should enter the land of Canaan. Num. 14: 30.

18. How did he punish the ten rebels?—They died of the plague. Num. 14: 37.

19. What punishment did the Lord lay on the whole congregation?—To wander forty years in the wilderness till they died. Num. 14: 33.

20. Of what foolish act were they guilty next day?—They entered the land before the time.

21. How were they punished?—They were attacked and driven back. Num. 14: 40-45.

THE SABBATH-BREAKER, THE SIN OF KORAH, AND THE BUDDING ROD. (Num. 15, 16, 17.)

1. Of what sin was a man found guilty about this time?—Of gathering sticks upon the Sabbath-day. Num. 15: 32.

2. What did they do with him?—They brought him to Moses. Num. 15: 33.

3. How was he punished?—He was stoned to death by God's command. Num. 15: 35, 36.

4. Had not God already declared his mind about this sin?—Ye shall keep the sabbath therefore; for it is holy unto you: every one that defileth it shall surely be put to death; for whosoever doeth any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people. Ex. 31: 14.

5. Had he here said how the man was to be put to death?—He had not.

6. Does this not show us that Moses acted in everything immediately under the Lord's direction?—It does. Num. 15: 34, 35.

7. What did the Lord order the people to make, that they might keep in remembrance his commandments?—A blue fringed ribbon on the borders of their garments. Num. 15: 38-40.

8. Who was Korah?—A Levite. Num. 16: 8.

9. Who were Dathan and Abiram, On and Peleth?—Of the tribe of Reuben. Num. 16: 1.

10. What sin did they commit?—They rebelled against the authority of Moses and Aaron. Num. 16: 3.

11. Had they not lately had a warning of this very sin in Miriam's case?—The very same. Num. 12.

12. What did Moses propose for these men to do, to prove whether God accepted them as priests or not?—That they should come to the tabernacle, burning incense, to see if God would accept them. Num. 16: 7, 18.

13. In what way did God at once manifest his displeasure?—By commanding Moses and Aaron and the congregation to keep away from the rebellious company and their habitations (Num. 16: 20-24), when the earth opened and swallowed them up. Num. 16: 31-33.

14. How did the two hundred and fifty men who had thus transgressed die?—A fire from the Lord consumed them. Num. 16: 35.

15. Did this still the murmurings of the people?—The people then charged Moses and Aaron with killing the people of the Lord. Num. 16: 41.

16. What happened the next day?—See No. 15.

17. How did God again appear to vindicate the honor of his own appointed priesthood?—Above fourteen thousand were struck dead by the plague. Num. 16: 49.

18. What did Moses command Aaron to do to avert the judgment he felt was about to fall on the people?—To burn incense and make an atonement. Num. 16: 46.

19. Did God accept the service and own the act?—He immediately stopped the plague. Num. 16: 47, 48.

20. Of whom was Aaron the type?—Of Christ, our ever-living Intercessor.

21. And of what was incense the type?—The prayers of saints. Rev. 5: 8.

22. What was done with the censers of the rebels?—They were beaten into plates to cover the altar, as a memorial of their sin. Num. 16: 38-40.

23. How did the Lord himself show whom he had chosen?—By causing Aaron's rod to bud. Ex. 17: 1-10.

24. And what proof has he given to us that Jesus "is able to save to the uttermost" all that put their trust in him?—By raising him from the dead. Acts 17: 31.

25. Of what was the budding rod a type?—Of the resurrection and eternal life of Christ.

26. Why is resurrection a proof that Jesus is the Son of God?—Because he laid down his life and took it again by his divine power. Acts 2.

27. Could any one less than God atone for sin?—No, for sin is against God. "Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift!"

THE SIN OF MOSES AND AARON; AARON AND MIRIAM'S DEATH. (Num. 20.)

1. Where did Miriam die?—At Kadesh, in the desert of Zin. Num. 20: 1.

2. What trial of their faith did the children of Israel have here?—The want of water. Num. 20: 2.

3. How did they behave?—They reproached Moses for it. Num. 20: 2-5.

4. What did the Lord command Moses to do?—To speak to the rock before the people, and it should give forth water.

5. How did Moses in this matter dishonor the Lord?—He spoke as if he and Aaron, by their own power, would bring the water out; and he also struck the rock. Num. 20: 10, 11.

6. What punishment did he and Aaron bring upon themselves for this sin?—They were not allowed to enter the promised land. Num. 20: 12.

7. How many times did Moses mention this in his after writings?—Five times: Num. 27: 14; Deut. 1: 37; 3: 26; 31: 2; 32: 51.

8. Did the Lord alter his purpose?—No.

9. How did the Edomites behave at this time to the children of Israel?—They ungraciously refused them a passage through their land. Num. 20: 14-21.

10. From whom had the Edomites descended?—From "Esau, who was Edom." Gen. 36: 1.

11. Why were they called by this name?—Esau was called Edom, or "red," from the red pottage he got from Jacob. Gen. 25: 30.

12. What event happened at Mount Hor?—The death of Aaron. Num. 20: 22-29.

13. What solemnity attended it?—The removal, first, of his priestly robes, and putting them on Eleazar his son.

14. What mark of respect did the children of Israel pay to the memory of Aaron?—They mourned for him thirty days.

15. Of whom was Aaron a type?—Of Jesus our great High Priest.

16. What is the meaning of consecrated?—Set apart for the service of God.

17. How was Aaron a type of Jesus in this?—Jesus was anointed by the Holy Ghost, sanctified or set apart for his atoning and interceding work.

18. What is the meaning of the name Christ?—Anointed.

19. Where is Jesus spoken of as Intercessor?—Jesus, . . . because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood. Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. Heb. 7: 22, 24, 25.

20. Which of the apostles had a vision of Jesus dressed in priestly garments?—John, in Rev. 1: 12, 13.

21. How is the Lord Jesus described in Heb. 4: 14 16?—As a great High Priest. Seeing, then, that we have a great High Priest that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God.

22. Read Ps. 89: 15 and 119: 103, and say what part of Aaron's robe set these forth?—The "golden bells and the pomegranates" "upon the hem" of it. Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound! they shall walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance. How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth. Ex. 28: 34.

23. Is the perfume of Aaron's garments ever spoken of in connection with the Lord Jesus?—All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad. Ps. 45: 8.

24. In how many respects does the priesthood of the Lord Jesus excel the priesthood of Aaron?—In its divinity and duration, Christ being God and a Priest for ever.

25. What higher order of priesthood is compared to the priesthood of the Lord Jesus Christ?—The priesthood of Melchizedek, which seemed to be everlasting, nothing being said in Scripture of his birth and death. Heb. 5, 6, 7.

THE BRAZEN SERPENT. (Num. 21 : 1-9.)

1. Who came and fought with Israel?—King Arad, the Canaanite.
2. Which army was victorious?—The Israelites'.
3. How came it about?—Because they made a vow unto God to destroy the Canaanites if he gave them the victory.
4. Why were the people obliged to take such a long way round?—To avoid the land of Edom. Num. 20 : 21.
5. How did they meet this trouble?—They were much discouraged, and complained of the want of bread and water.
6. How did the Lord punish them?—By means of fiery serpents—fiery in their color or their bite.
7. What remedy was Moses commanded to prepare?—A serpent of brass upon a pole, that the people might look upon it and live.
8. Of whom was this a type?—Of Christ.
9. How?—As the sinner may look upon him crucified, and live.
10. Of what wicked spirit are the serpents a type?—Of that old serpent, the devil.
11. Are we all in the same danger?—We are.
12. What is our remedy?—To look unto Christ by faith.
13. What is faith?—Faith in Christ is looking to him, fleeing to him, coming to him, apprehending or laying hold on him, trusting in him, leaning upon him.

BALAAH. (Num. 21 : 10-35; 22-26; and 31 : 1-8.)

1. How far had the children of Israel got on their journey?—To the wilderness before Moab.
2. Where was Moab?—On the east side on the Jordan.
3. What interesting event had occurred at Beer?—A supply of water, followed by a song of praise.
4. What two mighty kings did the children of Israel conquer and slay at this time?—Sihon, king of the Amorites, and Og, king of Bashan. Num. 21 : 23, 24, 33-35.
5. What description is given of Og in Deuteronomy? That he was a giant.
For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of giants; behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; is it not in Rabbath of the children of Ammon? nine cubits was the length thereof, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man. Deut. 3 : 11.
6. How many times in the Psalms are these conquests spoken of?—Twice: Ps. 135 : 11 and 136 : 19, 20.
7. What was the name of the king of Moab?—Balak. Num. 22 : 4.
8. How did he feel when he saw the host of Israel?—He was greatly alarmed. Num. 22 : 2-6.
9. Who was Balaam?—A noted heathen soothsayer, or pretended prophet, who lived by the Euphrates in Mesopotamia, and who sometimes received revelations from God. Num. 22 : 5; 24 : 1, 2.
10. Why did Balak desire so much to see him?—To get him to curse the Israelites, so that he might overcome them. Num. 22 : 6.
11. Did Balaam desire to go?—Yes, as the rewards that were offered him tempted his covetousness.
12. What hindered him?—The command of God. Num. 22 : 12.
13. Did God permit him to have his own way?—Yes. Num. 22 : 20.
14. Did that show that God was pleased with the errand?—No; but it gave him an opportunity of showing his power over him in a more public and striking manner. Num. 23 : 7-12.
15. How did God show his disapprobation?—By sending his angel to stop him on his way. Num. 22 : 22.
16. Did God send Balaam back, or permit him to go on?—He let him go on. Num. 22 : 35.
17. Had Balaam any power when he got there?—Only to say what God told him. Num. 22 : 38.
18. Did he try by divination to accomplish Balak's wish?—Yes, while Balak offered sacrifice. Num. 23 : 3, 15, 23; 24 : 1.
19. Did it succeed?—No; God made him utter a blessing instead of a curse. Num. 23 : 8-10, 20-24; 24 : 2-9.
20. How did Balak feel when he found he had brought a blessing instead of a curse on his enemies?—He was angry with Balaam. Num. 24 : 10.
21. When Balaam found that he could not prevail by enchantment, did he yield himself to the power of God?—Yes. Num. 24 : 13, 14.

22. What beautiful prophecy did he utter of the glory of the Lord Jesus?—I see him, but not now (not as already come); I behold him, etc. Num. 24 : 17.
23. How did he show he was a bad man?—By his infamous advice to Balak to tempt the children of Israel to sin.
24. What was his end?—He was killed by the Israelites in battle with the Midianites. Num. 31 : 8.
25. Of whom is he a type?—Of the enemies of God.
26. Is he mentioned in the New Testament?—Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and run greedily after the error of Balaam for reward. Jude 11.

THE CITIES OF REFUGE. (Num. 26 and 27 ; 31-35.)

1. What does chap. 26 record?—The numbering of the Israelites.
2. After the numbering how many men were left of those who came out of Egypt with Moses?—Only two, Caleb and Joshua. Num. 26 : 65.
3. How was this?—God had said that all the rest should die in the wilderness. Num. 26 : 65.
4. What lesson should it teach us?—To beware of unbelief. Heb. 3 : 7-19.
5. What kind arrangement did the Lord make for one family when all the men of it were dead?—That the property of the father should go to his daughters. Num. 27 : 1-11.
6. What petition did Moses present to the Lord at the end of chap. 27?—That he would provide him a successor. Num. 27 : 15-17.
7. Whom did the Lord appoint?—Joshua.
8. Of which tribe was Joshua?—Ephraim. 1 Chron. 7 : 22-27.
9. How does Jacob allude to him and to the Lord Jesus (of whom Joshua was a type) in Gen. 49 : 24?—His bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the mighty God of Jacob (from thence is the shepherd, the stone of Israel).
10. What does chap. 31 describe?—The defeat of the Midianites.
11. How was the spoil to be purified?—By fire or by water.
12. To what is the judgment of the last day compared?—1 Cor. 3 : 13-15.
13. Which of the children of Israel had their inheritance on the east of the Jordan?—Reuben, Gad and half the tribe of Manassch. Num. 32.
14. What do chaps. 33 and 34 describe?—The forty-two stages of the journey through the wilderness, and the boundaries of Canaan, and the officers appointed to divide it.
15. How many cities out of the tribes of Israel were to be given to the Levites?—Forty-eight. Num. 35 : 7.
16. For what purpose were six of these cities to be separated?—For cities of refuge. Num. 35 : 6.
17. Who had the privilege of fleeing thither?—Any one who had accidentally killed another. Num. 35 : 11, 12, 24-28.
18. Was there any protection to be afforded to the murderer?—No. Num. 35 : 16-21.
19. In what relationship did the "revenger of blood" stand to the slain person?—Next of kin.
20. How many witnesses were necessary to prove the wicked deed?—Two.
21. What event released the manslayer from the city of refuge, and permitted him to go at large again without fear of death?—The death of the high priest. Num. 35 : 25.
22. Of whom were those cities of refuge a type?—Of Christ, the sinner's refuge from Satan and the wrath to come.
23. Can you describe where those cities of refuge stood?—Three on the east of Jordan, in the tribes of Reuben, Gad and Manassch; and three on the west, in Galilee, Samaria and Judah. Deut. 4 : 41-43.
And they appointed Kedesh in Galilee in Mount Naphtali, and Shechem in Mount Ephraim, and Kirjath-arba, which is Hebron, in the mountain of Judah. Josh. 20 : 7.
24. Were they in valleys or on hills?—On hills.
25. Why was this?—So as to be more easily seen.
26. Of whom is the manslayer a type?—Of Satan, the great enemy of souls.
27. How can we be said to be manslayers?—By the self-destruction of sin.
O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself; but in me is thine help. Hos. 13 : 9.

28. Who is represented by the way to those cities?—Jesus Christ.

- I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. John 14 : 6.
By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh. Heb. 10 : 20.
29. Of what is the avenger a type?—Of the law, which requires us to do or die. Rom. 3 : 9-19; Gal. 3 : 22-24.
 30. Are we all conscious of our danger?—Sinners are dead in sin, and both wise and foolish often slumber and sleep.
 31. Who must arouse us?—Christ, by his awakening and enlightening Spirit. John 16 : 7-9; Eph. 5 : 13, 14.
 32. Are there any hinderances in the way?—None from Christ himself.
Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Matt. 11 : 28.
 33. To what is allusion made in Ps. 9 : 9; 57 : 1; 59 : 16; 61 : 4; 62 : 7, 8; 71 : 7; 91 : 1, 2; 142 : 4, 5?
—To the refuge we have in God, through Christ.
The Lord also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble. Ps. 9 : 9.
Be merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me: for my soul trusteth in thee: yea, in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, until these calamities be overpast. Ps. 57 : 1.

DEUTERONOMY. (Deuteronomy.)

1. When was the book of Deuteronomy written?—A little before Moses' death. Deut. 1 : 3.
2. Where were Moses and the children of Israel at this time?—In the land of Moab, on the east of Jordan. Deut. 1 : 1, 4, 5.
3. Of what is the book of Deuteronomy a summary?—Of much of the history and the laws contained in the three foregoing books.
4. Of whom does Moses speak in Deut. 18 : 15-19 as "the prophet"?—Of Jesus Christ. Acts 3 : 20-22.

17. How old was Moses when he died?—One hundred and twenty years. Deut. 34 : 7.
18. What special power was manifested in the preservation of his bodily strength?—The power of God, who prolonged his life and strength so much beyond the usual seventy years.

JOSHUA. (Josh. 1-4.)

1. Who was Joshua?—The son of Nun, of the tribe of Ephraim.
2. Of whom is he a type?—Of Christ, the Leader and the Conqueror.
3. Of what is Canaan a type?—Of heaven.
4. Of what is the wilderness a type?—Of the world.

5. Of what is the river Jordan a type?—Of death.
6. Of what was the ark a type?—Of Christ, by whom we pass safely through the Jordan of death.
7. Of what were the stones that they took from the river a type?—Of memories in heaven, of mercies and deliverances on earth.
8. When Jesus was born in Bethlehem, did he come as a warrior?—No.
9. To what coming, then, does this type refer?—His coming to judgment.
10. Where is the Lord's second coming spoken of as a day of terror to his enemies?—Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Rev. 1:7.
11. To what glorious prospect have the followers of Jesus to look forward?—The final triumph of Christ over all his and our enemies. Rev. 19:19-21.

THE TAKING OF JERICHO—THE SCARLET LINE. (Josh. 2, 5 and 6.)

1. Where did the city of Jericho stand?—Near the west side of the Jordan.
2. How did Joshua endeavor to ascertain the strength of the city?—By sending two spies.
3. How were these men treated in Jericho?—They were sheltered in the house of Rahab from the king of Jericho's messengers.
4. What promise did they make to the woman who had sheltered them?—To save the lives and property of her family on the taking of the city. Josh. 2:12-14.
5. Did she avail herself of the token they gave?—She did. Josh. 2:17-21.
6. What effect had their report on the people?—They were doubtless much encouraged.
7. What remarkable events happened on the plains of Jericho?—The keeping of the Passover, the ceasing of the manna, the appearance of a heavenly Being to Joshua.
8. Who appeared to Joshua when he was under the walls of Jericho?—The Son of God.
9. Did Joshua perceive, at first, who it was?—No; he merely saw an armed man.
10. How did he find it out?—By his saying he was Captain of the Lord's host.
11. What directions did the Lord give him as to the taking of the city?—To march round it with the ark and blowing of trumpets, and at last with a shout. Josh. 6:3-5.
12. Did he and Israel obey the Lord?—Yes. Josh. 6:8-16, 20.
13. What was the result?—The wall fell down flat, and the city was taken and destroyed. Josh. 6:20, 21, 24.
14. Did Rahab perish with the slain?—She was brought away safely. Josh. 6:23.
15. What was her preservation?—Her faith and the scarlet-cord token that she had been directed to use.
By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace. Heb. 11:31.
16. Of what is the destruction of Jericho a type?—Of the destruction of all the enemies of God.
17. Are we interested in this?—Yes, as sinners.
18. How?—We are exposed to God's wrath, and deeply interested to know how we may be saved.
19. What does the Bible tell us must be our safeguard in the day of wrath. Rev. 7:13, 14.
20. Can we trust that word?—He is faithful that promised. Heb. 10:23.
21. Had Rahab any reason to regret her faith in the word of the spies?—No.
22. Are there many ways of escape, or only one?—There is none other Name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved. Acts 4:12.
23. Perhaps Rahab had been scoffed at for her scarlet line; did that deter her from trusting in it?—No.
24. Should the laugh and jeer of the world hinder us from trusting to the blood of Jesus for safety?—The believer will enter into eternal joy, when the laughter ends in weeping and gnashing of teeth.
25. Was Rahab alone saved?—Her near relatives and her goods were saved with her. Josh. 6:22, 23.
26. If we know a place of safety, should not we tell others of the same?—It is our duty and privilege to do so.
27. How can we do so?—By telling them of Jesus Christ, and getting them to read and hear about him; and by living ourselves as those should do who know him and love him and enjoy him.

ACHAN'S SIN, AND THE TAKING OF AI. (Josh. 7 and 8.)

1. What special command was given to Israel at the destruction of Jericho?—To bring the silver and the gold into the treasury of the Lord. Josh. 6:18, 19.
2. Who transgressed this command?—Achan.
3. What punishment did this sin bring on all Israel?—A defeat by the men of Ai. Josh. 7.
4. How was the offender discovered?—By drawing lots under the guidance of God. Josh. 7:16-18.
5. To what honored tribe did he belong?—Judah. Josh. 7:1.
6. Did this preserve him?—No; honor and privilege often increase guilt.
7. What awful punishment was necessary to cleanse Israel from the sin Achan had brought on them?—The destruction of himself and his family and goods by stoning and by fire. Josh. 7:24, 25.
8. What view of God's character does this history give us?—His hatred of sin especially of "covetousness, which is idolatry;" and his severity to the impenitent sinner: "our God is a consuming fire." Heb. 12:29.
9. Will the riches of the sinner avail when God brings him into judgment?—Nothing at all.
10. Can we hide our sins from God?—O Lord, thou hast searched me, and know me. Thou knowest my down-sitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off. Thou compassed my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways. Ps. 139:1-3.
11. When Achan's sin was wiped away, did God again give victory to Israel?—The city of Ai was taken and destroyed. Josh. 8.
12. Who bore the wrath of God and the punishment due to our sin?—Our Lord Jesus Christ.
13. Can God again smile on us?—Yes, in Christ Jesus, in whom he is "well pleased."
14. After the destruction of Ai what solemn act of obedience did Joshua perform?—He wrote the law upon stone, and read its blessings and its curses on Mounts Gerizim and Ebal. Josh. 8:30-35.
15. Where in the land of Canaan were those two mountains situated?—Near Samaria.
16. For what was Joshua remarkable as well as courage?—For obedience to the will of God.
17. Of whom was he a type in this?—Of Christ. Heb. 10:7.

THE GIBEONITES. (Josh. 9.)

1. How did the Gibeonites act when they saw the victories of the Israelites?—They sent to Joshua messengers, who pretended that the Gibeonites did not live in Canaan, so that Joshua might be at liberty to spare them.
2. Did they deceive Joshua and the elders of Israel?—Yes. Josh. 9:15.
3. How came Joshua to fail in this particular?—Because he had not asked God's direction. Josh. 9:14.
4. Who was the only Person who never failed?—Christ, who knew the hearts of men.
5. Were the Gibeonites spared?—Yes.
6. Why?—Because of the league made with them, confirmed by oath. Josh. 9:16, 19.
7. Was the Lord jealous when an oath was made in his name?—Yes, very. Num. 30:2.
8. What proof have we of this in the case of the Gibeonites in the after-history of Israel?—2 Sam. 21:1, 2.
9. To what service were the Gibeonites appointed?—To be hewers of wood and drawers of water. Josh. 9:21.

THE BATTLE OF THE FIVE KINGS. (Josh. 10.)

1. What did the rest of the kings of Canaan do when they found that the Gibeonites had made peace with Israel?—Five of them joined in war against Gibeon.
2. To whom did the Gibeonites appeal?—To Joshua. Josh. 10:6.
3. Who fought for and with Israel?—God did. Josh. 10:10, 11.
4. What signal proofs did the Lord give of this in the battle with those kings?—Showering heavy hailstones upon their enemies, and miraculously prolonging the light of the sun and of the moon upon the scene of battle and pursuit. Josh. 10:11-14.
5. Is this ever after referred to in Scripture?—The sun and moon stood still in their habitation: at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear. Hab. 3:11.
6. Of what battle is this the type?—Of the spiritual warfare in every converted heart.

THE FINAL BATTLE WITH THE KINGS OF CANAAN. (Josh. 11.)

1. What commandment had the Lord given relative to the destruction of the Canaanites?—Ex. 34:11-13; Deut. 7:1, 2.
2. Why did the Lord thus deal with these nations?—Their wickedness had reached its height.
The iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full. Gen. 15:16.
Thou shalt not learn to do after the abominations of those nations. Deut. 18:9.
3. How is the host that mustered against Joshua described?—As being numerous as the sand upon the seashore. Josh. 11:4.
4. What great advantage had they over Israel?—The possession of chariots and horses.
5. And yet which conquered?—The Israelites, completely. Josh. 11:8.
6. How was this?—If God be for us, who can be against us? Rom. 8:31.
The Lord is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me? Ps. 118:6-9.
7. What did Joshua do with the city of Hazor?—He burnt it with fire.
8. Why Hazor in particular?—Because it was the head of all the kingdoms he had fought with.
9. Was this the last battle that Joshua fought?—No; he had a long war afterward, till he took the whole land. Josh. 11:15-23.

DIVIDING THE LAND, AND DEATH OF JOSHUA. (Josh. 12-24.)

1. What did Joshua begin so soon as the land had rest from war?—To divide it among the tribes.
2. Where was the tabernacle set up?—At Shiloh. Josh. 18:1.
3. In which tribe was this?—Ephraim.
4. How many men did Joshua appoint to survey the land?—Three men from each of the last seven tribes. Josh. 18:4.
5. How was it divided?—By lot before the Lord. Josh. 18:6.
6. How were their portions registered?—In a book. Josh. 18:9.
7. Describe the position of all the tribes on the map.—Asher, half-Manasseh, Ephraim and Dan down the west coast, but Ephraim reaching to the Jordan; Naphtali, Zebulun, Issachar, Benjamin and Judah by the west border of the sea of Chinnereth, the Jordan and the Dead Sea; and Simeon below; half-Manasseh, Gad and Reuben on the east borders.
8. In which tribe had Joshua his inheritance?—Ephraim.
9. Why?—Because of his own choice. Josh. 19:49, 50.
10. What portion had Caleb?—Hebron. Josh. 14:12-14.
11. Why?—Because he chose it; and as he had wholly followed the Lord, Joshua confirmed his choice.
12. What was the next thing they did after dividing the land?—They appointed the cities of refuge.
13. Which tribe was it that had no portion of the land set apart for them?—Levi.
14. How were they provided for?—Forty-eight cities were assigned to them by the tribes.
15. How many tribes had their inheritance on the east of Jordan?—Reuben, Gad and half-Manasseh. Num. 32:33.
16. What part of these tribes passed over Jordan with their brethren?—The armed men. Josh. 1:14.
17. When did they return home to their families again?—After the end of the war and the division of the land. Josh. 22.
18. What unexpected act did they do which alarmed their brethren?—They built an altar of their own to the Lord. Josh. 22:10.
19. How did they explain it?—They had not built it for burnt-offering or sacrifice, but to remind them, and their children after them, of their connection with the true altar. Josh. 22:26, 27.
20. Was it satisfactory?—Quite. Josh. 22:30-33.
21. To what age had Joshua lived?—About one hundred and nine years.
22. What was the last act he performed?—He gave the elders of Israel (Josh. 23) a short history of their nation, and a solemn exhortation to renew their covenant with God. Josh. 24.
23. What solemn covenant did Israel enter into with him?—That they would serve idols no more. (Josh. 24:16-24.)

24. Where did they make this covenant?—At Shechem. Josh. 24 : 1.

25. Where was Shechem?—In Ephraim, or Samaria.

26. What token of remembrance did Joshua set up there?—A stone of witness. Josh. 24 : 26, 27.

27. How old was Joshua when he died?—One hundred and ten years.

28. Where was he buried?—In Mount Ephraim. Josh. 24 : 30.

29. What other illustrious person was buried in Mount Ephraim?—Eleazar. Josh. 24 : 33.

THE JUDGES.—BOCHIM, OR ISRAEL'S FAILURE. (Judg. 1, 2.)

1. What is the meaning of the word Bochim?—"Weepers." Judg. 2 : 5, marg.

2. Why was the place so called?—Because the Israelites wept there.

3. What caused the weeping of Israel?—Sorrow for the sin for which an angel had rebuked them. Judg. 2 : 1-4.

4. How had they transgressed?—By neglecting their covenant to make no league with the Canaanites, but to throw down their altars.

5. Ought not the affecting history of Israel to lead us to look into our own hearts?—That is what we should do whenever we read or hear of the sins or the faults of others.

6. If we do, what shall we see there?—The seeds of the same sins.

7. Does God kindly admonish us as he did them?—Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. But exhort one another daily, while it is called to-day, lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. Heb. 3 : 12, 13.

8. Where?—See No. 7.

9. When we try ourselves by God's standard are we justly condemned?—We know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

10. To whom must we look for deliverance when the sins of our hearts, like the foes in Canaan, rise against us?—To Christ our Saviour, whose blood and Spirit can remove the guilt and power of sin.

OTHNIEL, EHUD, SHAMGAR, DEBORAH AND BARAK. (Judg. 3-5.)

1. Whom did the Lord first raise up as Israel's deliverer?—Othniel. Judg. 3 : 9.

2. To what great warrior was he related?—To Caleb, who was probably his brother.

3. How many years had the land rest?—Forty. Judg. 3 : 11.

4. When the children of Israel did evil again, to whom did the Lord deliver them?—To Eglon, king of Moab, for eighteen years. Judg. 3 : 12-14.

5. When they again repented, did God hear their prayer?—Yes.

6. Whom did he raise up to save them?—Ehud, a Benjamite. Judg. 3 : 15.

7. What was there remarkable about him?—He was left-handed.

8. How did this bring about the king of Moab's death?—It enabled Ehud to stab him in an unexpected manner. Judg. 3 : 21.

9. Did Israel avail themselves of his death to go against the Moabites?—Yes. Judg. 3 : 27, 28.

10. How many did they slay?—About ten thousand men. Judg. 3 : 29.

11. Who was Israel's third deliverer?—Shamgar. Judg. 3 : 31.

12. What marvelous feat of strength is recorded of him?—He slew six hundred Philistines with an ox-goad.

13. What city was it in the north of Canaan that Joshua utterly destroyed?—Hazor. Josh. 11 : 10, 11.

14. By whom was it rebuilt?—By Solomon. 1 Kings 9 : 15.

15. Of what is this a proof?—Of its importance as a fortress, and of disregard of the will of God.

16. Who was judge at this time, and prophetess also?—Deborah. Judg. 4 : 4.

17. Who was Barak?—A leader of the tribes of Zebulun and Naphtali. Judg. 4 : 6, 10.

18. Which appeared to have the most courage, Deborah or Barak?—Deborah, as Barak would not venture to fight without her. Judg. 4 : 8.

19. How was Barak reproved for his faint-heartedness?

—By being told that the enemy's general would be given into the hands of a woman. Judg. 4 : 9.

20. What kind of army did the Canaanitish general muster?—Nine hundred chariots of iron formed part of it. Judg. 4 : 13.

21. What was that general's name?—Sisera. Judg. 4 : 7.

22. How came it that Israel conquered such a host?—The power of God was with them. Judg. 4 : 14, 15.

23. Who was Jael?—The wife of Heber. Judg. 4 : 17.

24. From what family had Heber, Jael's husband, descended?—The Kenites and Hobab. Judg. 4 : 11.

25. Was that an Israelitish family?—No; the Kenites were one of the families or nations promised to Abraham's seed, but Hobab's family was settled in Israel.

26. Was this why Sisera took shelter in their tent?—He took shelter with them because they were at peace with Jabin his master. Judg. 4 : 17.

27. Which side of the battle did Heber favor?—The Israelites'. Judg. 4 : 11.

28. What proof did his wife give of this?—She killed Sisera. Judg. 4 : 21.

29. Which side did the Lord take?—The Israelites'. Judg. 4 : 14, 15. (No. 22.)

30. As this battle is a type of the spiritual warfare that goes on in the soul, what should we do with an enemy to God that we may find hiding in our bosoms?—Overcome and destroy it.

31. Who delivered Sisera into Jael's hand?—The Lord himself. Judg. 4 : 9.

32. Who helps us if we desire to conquer our evil passions?—The grace of God is sufficient for us.

33. To what evil in our hearts can we compare Sisera with his nine hundred chariots of iron?—To our chief evil passion or temptation, whatever it may be.

34. To whom did Deborah and Barak give the glory of the victory in their beautiful song?—To God. Judg. 5 : 2.

35. What fearful curse did they pronounce on those who would not assist in this battle?—Read Judg. 5 : 23.

36. And what will be our condemnation if we are indifferent to those momentous concerns?—We shall suffer with the enemies of God, as those who are not with him are against him.

GIDEON. (Judg. 6-8.)

1. How came it after this that Israel got into trouble again?—They did evil in the sight of the Lord. Judg. 6 : 1.

2. Whom did the Lord permit to be their scourge at this time?—The Midianites and the Amalekites. Judg. 6 : 3.

3. To what miserable plight were the Israelites reduced?—They were left without food. Judg. 6 : 4.

4. On which side of Israel did these two nations lie?—The Midianites on the south-east, and the Amalekites on the south-west.

5. Where was Gaza?—In the land of the Philistines.

6. What means did the children of Israel at last use to free themselves from their great affliction?—They cried unto the Lord. Judg. 6 : 7.

7. Did the Lord hear them?—He sent a prophet to them, and afterward a deliverer, Gideon. Judg. 6 : 7-12.

8. Who was Gideon? Of what tribe and family?—A warrior, of the tribe of Manasseh and family of the Abiezrites.

9. Who appeared to him?—An angel (Judg. 6 : 11), or, rather, the Angel Son of God. Judg. 6 : 14.

10. What was he doing?—Threshing wheat.

11. Did he at first know who addressed him?—No; he did not address his visitor at first as God. Judg. 6 : 13, 17.

12. How did he find it out?—By the divine Angel's causing fire out of the rock to consume the food set before him (Judg. 6 : 21), and also by the language he used. Judg. 6 : 16.

13. What were his feelings?—Those of deep humility and conscious sinfulness. Judg. 6 : 22.

14. Had he any cause for fear?—Doubtless he was an Israelite indeed in whom was no guile, and as such he had nothing to fear.

15. What makes man in general afraid of God?—The consciousness of unrepented sin. Gen. 3 : 9, 10.

16. What has the Lord provided to remove our fear, of which Gideon's offering was a type?—The accepted sacrifice of Christ.

17. Who has power to speak "peace" to the soul?—

He who said to the sick of the palsy, "Thy sins be forgiven thee."

18. What was Gideon's first act of faith?—To throw down the altar of Baal. Judg. 6 : 25-30.

19. Did he get killed for fulfilling God's will?—No; Joash his father prevented it by wisely saying that if Baal were a god he could punish him himself. Judg. 6 : 31, 32.

20. How was his own father's heart influenced by the act?—See No. 19.

21. How does God reward those who honor his word?—He says, "Them that honor me I will honor."

22. What name of honor did Gideon get for this act?—Jerubbaal, or "let Baal plead" against him. Judg. 6 : 32.

23. Describe the army that was at this time gathered against Israel?—The Midianites, Amalekites and other eastern nations. Judg. 6 : 33.

24. What mighty power rested on Gideon at this time?—The Spirit of the Lord. Judg. 6 : 34.

25. Was he entirely without fear?—No, for he asked God to give him a private token of his power. Judg. 6 : 36-40.

26. How did he prove that God was a hearer and answerer of prayer?—By the sign of the wet fleece on the dry ground, and of the dry fleece on the wet ground.

27. Does God change, or is he as near to us and as ready to hear us as he was near to Gideon and ready and willing to hear him?—Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. James 1 : 17. Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, and to-day, and for ever. Heb. 13 : 8.

28. When Gideon blew his trumpet, how many came after him?—Thirty-two thousand. Judg. 6 : 34 ; 7 : 3.

29. Did the Lord intend to use so many to destroy the enemy?—No, not even ten thousand.

30. What sign did the Lord give to Gideon whereby he should know how many and which he had chosen?—Their two different ways of taking or drinking water on a particular occasion. Judg. 7 : 4, 5.

31. How many remained with Gideon after this selection?—Three hundred men, who took the water in the quicker manner.

32. How many were sent to their homes again?—Nine thousand seven hundred.

33. Must this not have been a great trial to Gideon's faith?—No doubt it was. 1 Pet. 1 : 7.

34. Did it fail?—No, for God strengthened it. Judg. 7 : 7, 9, 14 ; Heb. 11 : 32-34.

35. What great encouragement did the Lord give Gideon just before he and his three hundred men went down to battle?—A dream of one of the soldiers. Judg. 7 : 13, 14.

36. What effect had this man's dream on Gideon?—He praised God, and immediately prepared his men. Judg. 7 : 15, 16.

37. What effect did it have on his own people?—The same as on Gideon himself. Judg. 7 : 14, 20.

38. Is the Lord ever at a loss for means to effect his purpose?—Never.

39. What plan was adopted to surprise the enemy?—The unusual one of suddenly blowing trumpets and exposing a line of lights all round the enemy's camp in the middle of the night. Judg. 7 : 16-20.

40. Did it answer? Why?—Yes, because God was trusted in, and God blessed it.

41. Of what were the lamps and pitchers a type?—Of God's faithful ministers, and the light of truth they possess and hold forth.

We have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us. 2 Cor. 4 : 7.

42. Does God always work by means?—He does, and we in our difficulties should use both prayer and means.

43. Who tells us that he is "the light of the world"?—Jesus Christ, in John 8 : 12.

44. Whom does God appoint to hold up that light?—His ministers especially, by their preaching and their example.

45. Are not all Christians charged to do it?—They are in Christ's sermon on the mount.

Ye are the light of the world. Matt. 5 : 14.

46. Whose mighty power is it that must accompany the word for it to be effectual?—The Spirit of truth. John 16 : 13.

47. Why had Gideon's trumpets and his lamps such a wonderful effect on the enemy?—Because God worked with them and by them, and made the Midianites slay each other. Judg. 7 : 22.

48. On whom must we depend if we are to overcome and conquer our spiritual foes?—On the same almighty power.

49. Was Gideon conqueror?—Yes, completely. Judg. 7: 22-25.

50. Shall we be?—We certainly shall.

If God be for us, who can be against us? Rom. 8: 31. I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me. Phil. 4: 13.

51. How was Gideon treated after this victory by his fellow-countrymen when he was faint and weary?—They refused food to him and his men. Judg. 8: 4-6.

52. Did they afterward desire to honor him?—They wished him to be their king. Judg. 8: 22.

53. Would he accept the kingly office?—He declined it, as God had not yet appointed that form of government for Israel. Judg. 8: 23.

54. Yet what did he desire of them?—The golden earrings taken from their enemies. Judg. 8: 24-26.

55. What effect did this have on his family?—Gideon made the earrings into an ephod (an important part of the dress of the high priest as an intercessor with God. Ex. 28), and kept it in his city of Ophrah, where the people paid it some idolatrous worship, and brought temptation and punishment upon his family. Judg. 8: 27.

ABIMELECH, OR THE CONTRAST. (Judg. 9.)

1. Who was Abimelech?—A son of Gideon. Judg. 9: 1.

2. Was his course an honorable one, like that of his father?—No; he basely plotted to be made king. Judg. 9: 2.

3. Of what awful crime was he guilty?—He slew his brethren. Judg. 9: 5.

4. Did either escape?—Jotham alone.

5. What parable did Jotham utter?—He spoke of the useful trees, as the olive, the fig and the vine, refusing to be placed over the rest; and of the worthless bramble, as the only one that desired it. Judg. 9: 8-15.

6. Can you explain the meaning of this simile as it respects Abimelech?—That part of it which speaks of the bramble represents the character and end of Abimelech. Judg. 9: 52-57.

7. Of what are the olive, vine and fig tree types?—Together they are types of useful, amiable, wise and humble-minded men.

8. Was it fulfilled? How?—The parable was fulfilled in the foolish choice of Abimelech by the Shechemites, in the violent quarrels between them, and the destruction of both. Judg. 9: 15, 20, 23, 49, 52, 54.

9. Where did all this shameful scene take place?—At Shechem.

10. What remarkable events had rendered this spot peculiarly hallowed?—The visit of Abraham on reaching Canaan, the reading of the law (Josh. 9), and the renewal of the covenant. Josh. 24.

11. How did it stand with regard to the two mountains of blessing and cursing spoken of in Deut. 27 and in Josh. 8?—In a narrow plain between them.

12. How near was it to Shiloh, where the tabernacle was pitched?—About twenty miles.

13. What must an idol temple built on this spot be a proof of?—That the Israelites had not yet conquered the whole country and destroyed its idols. Judg. 9: 4-6.

14. Has Jotham's parable anything to do with us?—Yes, for all Scripture is given by inspiration of God. Tim. 3: 16.

15. Who in Scripture are compared to fruit trees?—God's own people.

I am the vine, ye are the branches. John 15: 5.

16. Who are represented by the bramble?—The wicked.

17. What is expected of fruit trees?—That they should bring forth fruit.

18. What has the bramble or thorn to expect?—To be burned. Isa. 30: 12; 2 Sam. 23: 6, 7.

19. How is the hypocrite known from the true Christian?—Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Matt. 7: 16.

20. What should our prayer be?—Search me, O God, and know my heart. Ps. 139: 23.

TOLA, JAIR, JEPHTHAH, IBZAN, ELON AND ABDON. (Judg. 10-12.)

1. Give me the name of the next judge of Israel.—Tola. Judg. 10: 1.

2. How long did he judge Israel?—Twenty-three years.

3. Who succeeded him?—Jair.

4. How is his family described?—As riding on asscolts as deputy-judges. Judg. 5: 10; 10: 4.

5. From whom did he get this inheritance?—The children of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead and took it, and dispossessed the Amorite which was in it. And Moses gave Gilead unto Machir the son of Manasseh; and he dwelt therein. And Jair the son of Manasseh went and took the small towns thereof, and called them Havoth-jair. Num. 32: 39-41.

6. How long did he judge Israel?—Twenty-two years.

7. How many idols are enumerated here which Israel at this time worshiped?—Baalim and Ashtaroth, and the gods of five nations besides. Judg. 10: 6.

8. What had God commanded Israel with respect to this awful sin?—Ye shall make you no idols nor graven image, neither rear you up a standing image, neither shall ye set up any image of stone in your land, to bow down unto it: for I am the Lord your God. Lev. 26: 1, 14, 17.

9. How did he punish them?—By delivering them into the hands of the Philistines and Ammonites for eighteen years. Judg. 10: 7, 8.

10. When they prayed to the Lord did he hear them?—No; he charged them with their ingratitude and idolatry. Judg. 10: 10-14.

11. Did he at once deliver them?—See No. 10.

12. Did he convince them of their sin?—Yes; they confessed their guilt. Judg. 10: 15.

13. When God had convinced them of their sin, and they were humbled on account of it, did they forsake it?—Yes; they put away their strange gods.

14. How?—See No. 13.

15. What did the Lord then feel for them?—His soul was grieved for their misery.

16. Who was Jephthah?—A great warrior of Gilead. Judg. 11: 1.

17. On which side of the land of Israel was the land of the Ammonites?—On the east.

18. Where was Gilead?—In the neighboring tribe of Gad.

19. Why did the men of Gilead choose Jephthah to be their captain?—Because he was likely to lead them to victory.

20. On what conditions did Jephthah accept the office?—That he should be their head on his return. Judg. 11: 9.

21. What vow did Jephthah make before he went to battle?—That if he were victorious, whoever came forth first out of his house to meet him on his return should be given up (like Samuel) to God's service for life, and that he would offer to the Lord a burnt-offering besides. Judg. 11: 30, 31.

22. Who came out first to meet him?—His daughter and only child. Judg. 11: 34.

23. What did Jephthah feel and say when he saw his only child?—He was deeply distressed, and told her of his vow. Judg. 11: 35.

24. What was her beautiful answer?—That as God had given him victory he must do to her according to his vow. Judg. 11: 36.

25. What law of God was there to regulate what Jephthah said under these circumstances?—That the subject of the vow might be redeemed by a payment in money. Lev. 27: 2-5.

26. What difference was there between "a vow" and a "devoted thing"?—A thing devoted by some more solemn consecration than a vow could not be redeemed.

27. For how much did Jephthah redeem his daughter if he did not slay her for an offering?—About $5 or $15, according to her age.

28. Why do we think he redeemed her?—Because her friends went every year to lament her separation from them or to talk with her. Judg. 11: 40, margin.

29. Why was it a great grief for any woman in Israel to be childless?—Because she might be the mother or ancestress of the Messiah, the promised seed of the woman that was to bruise the serpent's head. Gen. 3: 15.

30. Do you think that Jephthah valued the honor which he had sought, of being the head of his tribe, after this mournful event?—Probably not, as it had cost him the society of his only child; but he would still value the office of judge conferred on him by God.

31. Can any honor or pleasure in this world give satisfaction in itself?—No; nothing in the world that is passing away.

32. What proof did Jephthah give of his knowledge of the Scripture history when he met the king of Ammon before the battle?—He told him how it was that the Israelites became possessed of the land that the king was unlawfully claiming from them. Judg. 11: 12-28.

33. Where must our strength lie when we go against our spiritual foes?—In the Lord and the power of his might. Eph. 6: 10.

34. What weapons did the Lord Jesus Christ use when he met Satan?—The sword of the Spirit, the word of God. Eph. 6: 17. It is written. Matt. 4: 4, 7, 10.

35. What is "the word of God" called in Heb. 4: 12?—Quick (or living) and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword.

36. By what shall we be judged at the last day?—The word that Christ has spoken.

37. What painful circumstance arose from the jealousy of the Ephraimites?—A quarrel with Jephthah, whom they had before unkindly treated, and a consequent defeat by him in battle with great slaughter. Judg. 12: 1, 6.

38. How long did Jephthah hold his honors?—Six years.

39. Who judged Israel after Jephthah?—Ibzan.

40. For how long?—Seven years.

41. Who succeeded Ibzan?—Elon.

42. How long did he judge Israel?—Ten years.

43. Who followed Elon?—Abdon.

44. How many sons and nephews had he?—Seventy sons and nephews or grandsons.

45. Was not this considered a great honor in Israel?—Yes, as increasing the likelihood of being the ancestor of the Messiah.

46. Why?—See No. 45.

47. What higher honor had Jephthah than even being the ancestor of the Messiah?—The honor of being named with David and Samuel and the prophets in the roll of heroes and martyrs in the cause of God. Heb. 11: 32.

SAMSON. (Judg. 13-17.)

1. Who was Samson?—One of the tribe of Dan. Judg. 13: 1.

2. What remarkable circumstance took place before his birth?—The angel of the Lord appearing to his mother, and telling her that she should have a son, who should be a Nazarite unto God, and deliver Israel from the Philistines. Judg. 13: 2-5.

3. What was the name of Samson's father?—Manoah. Judg. 13: 2.

4. Did he not seem to have some doubts lest his wife had been mistaken?—Perhaps so, as he desired some further instruction. Judg. 13: 8.

5. Did the angel appear a second time?—He did.

6. Did he alter anything he had said before?—He did not.

7. What should this teach us?—The truth: I am the Lord, I change not. Mal. 3: 6.

8. Which seemed to have the greatest faith, Manoah or his wife?—His wife.

9. How do you prove this?—By Judg. 13: 22, 23.

10. How did Manoah and his wife know that their visitor was an angel?—By the words he spoke, and by his ascending in the flame. Judg. 13: 18-20.

11. Did the angel ever appear to them again after the birth of Samson?—No.

12. What was there remarkable about Samson?—His very great strength.

13. What was a Nazarite?—A person "separated unto the Lord." Num. 6: 2-21.

14. What special gift rested on Samson?—The Spirit of the Lord. Judg. 13: 25; 14: 6.

15. Where did Samson's strength lie? was it in his hair?—No.

16. Was it in his limbs?—No.

17. What was it that made the lamp and pitchers in Gideon's hand so effective?—The power of God.

18. What power rested on Deborah and Barak?—See No. 17.

19. What gave Jephthah the victory?—See No. 17.

20. Did the same power rest on Samson?—Yes.

21. Was Samson ever restored to the possession of his strength again?—Yes, just before his death. Judg. 16: 30.

22. Name all his wonderful feats of strength, and say which was the greatest.—He tore a young lion like a kid (Judg. 14: 5, 6); he slew thirty Philistines (Judg. 14: 19), and afterward one thousand (Judg. 15: 15); he carried away the gates of Gaza (Judg. 16: 3); he broke the green withs and new ropes with which he had been bound (Judg. 16: 9); he carried away the beam of a weaving-machine to which his hair had been secured (Judg. 16: 14); he pulled down a large building by its two pillars on the heads of the Philistines (Judg. 16 : 29, 30), the last and greatest feat of all.

23. Does God still hear and answer prayer?—He does, as every true Christian can bear witness.

24. Of whom was Samson a type?—Of Christ, in some of the special circumstances of his birth, and in his being devoted to God's service.

25. In what respect particularly?—As Christ triumphed in his death over Satan and his hosts.

26. How did Samson, in type, show the resurrection of Jesus?—In the recovery of his strength in spite of his enemies.

27. Whom did the Lord Jesus meet single-handed? and who is called in Scripture a "roaring lion"?—The devil. Matt. 4 and 1 Pet. 5-8.

28. By what name is the Lord Jesus called in Isa. 9 : 6?—"The mighty God."

29. Where is the Lord Jesus, in prophecy, described as treading the wine-press of the wrath of God alone?—In Isa. 63 : 3.

30. Who is spoken of as bringing salvation alone?—Jesus Christ.

He saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him. Isa. 59 : 16.

31. On whom must we then depend for salvation?—Jesus Christ.

Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other Name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. Acts 4 : 12.

THE STORY OF MICAH, AND THE CLOSE OF THE JUDGES. (Judg. 17-21.)

1. When a man does "that which is right in his own eyes" what is he sure to do?—Wrong, for there is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death. Prov. 16 : 25; Judg. 17 : 6.

2. What standard has God given us by which we may judge ourselves?—His holy word.

To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. Isa. 8 : 20.

3. What proof do Micah and his mother give that by doing "that which was right in their own eyes" they did wrong?—They both committed idolatry, and Micah committed theft. Judg. 17 : 2, 3, 5.

4. Which commandments of God's law did Micah break?—The second and the eighth.

5. Why was it wrong to take a Levite for his priest?—The duties of the Levites were at the tabernacle in Shiloh; and none of them could be priests but those called by God.

He hath brought thee near to him, and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee; and seek ye the priesthood also? Num. 16 : 10.

6. Were Micah and his mother the only idolaters in Israel?—No; the Danites also. Judg. 18 : 30.

7. What relation had these Danites to Samson?—Some of them came from Zorah and Eshtaol, where Samson had been. Judg. 13 : 25.

8. To what part of Israel did they remove and settle?—To Laish, in the tribe of Naphtali.

9. Of what crimes were they guilty?—Of robbery, murder and idolatry. Judg. 18 : 17, 27, 30.

10. Do you think if you had lived in their days you would have done better?—Probably not.

Are we better than they? No, in no wise. Rom. 3 : 9.

11. Have we the same law to be our guide as they had?—The same law, and the teaching of the prophets, of our Lord and of his apostles besides.

12. What is the word of God compared to in Heb. 4 : 12?—A "two-edged sword;" so thoroughly does it pierce our hearts and expose our sin.

13. By what shall we be judged at the last day?—"The word that" Christ has "spoken," including the whole Bible spoken by his Spirit.

14. Is the Scripture our appointed rule, and is it sufficient?—Yes; it thoroughly furnishes all the instruction we need. 2 Tim. 3 : 16, 17.

15. What will be our condemnation if we neglect it?—Eternal punishment. Luke 16 : 20-31.

BOAZ, OR THE REDEEMER. (Ruth.)

1. Who was Elimelech?—A man of Bethlehem-judah. Ruth 1 : 1, 2.

2. What were the names of his wife and of his two sons?—Naomi, and Mahlon and Chilion.

3. Where did this family live?—In the country of Moab. Ruth 1 : 1, 2.

4. At what time did they live?—In the days of the judges. Ruth 1 : 1.

5. What event happened in Israel that drove them to sojourn in Moab?—A famine.

6. Of what was this a proof?—Of the disobedience and idolatry of the people. Deut. 28 : 15-18.

7. Whom did the sons marry?—Orpah and Ruth, women of Moab. Ruth 1 : 4.

8. Did they prosper and have long life?—Both the sons soon died. Ruth 1 : 5.

9. What became of Naomi after the death of her husband and sons?—She returned to Judah, as the famine had ceased. Ruth 1 : 6, 7.

10. What difference was there in the behavior of her daughters-in-law toward her?—Both were distressed at the idea of parting with her, and said they would go with her, but only Ruth went.

11. Did God accept this stranger who determined to forsake her people and her gods and trust in him?—He did, and showed her much favor.

12. And is God the same now as he was then?—Yes; he receives all who receive Christ.

Peter said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons. Acts 10 : 34.

13. What is the meaning of the name Naomi?—"Pleasant." Ruth 1 : 20, margin.

14. To what name did Naomi wish hers changed, and why?—To Mara, or "bitter," because of the sorrows she had suffered.

15. What rich and noble relative had the poor widow Naomi in her native place?—Boaz. Ruth 2 : 1.

16. Whose field did Ruth happen to glean in?—His field. Ruth 2 : 2.

17. Did Boaz notice Ruth? In what manner?—He told her to glean his fields until the end of harvest, and gave orders for her refreshment and protection, and for a plentiful gleaning. Ruth 2 : 4-17, 21.

18. What description can you give of Boaz, besides that he was rich and noble?—He was a kind-hearted and a good man who honored God. Ruth 2 : 8-12.

19. What effect did his kindness have on Naomi when she heard of it?—She blessed God for his goodness, and told Ruth how to claim Boaz as her kinsman in the manner which the custom of the country allowed. Ruth 2 : 19, 20; 3 : 1-4.

20. Did Ruth do as her mother-in-law bade her?—She did. Ruth 2 : 5-7.

Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Honor thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise; that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth. Eph. 6 : 1-3.

21. What did this prove?—That she knew the privileges of filial obedience.

22. Did Boaz answer the high expectation that Naomi had of him?—Yes; he behaved both well and kindly to his virtuous relation, and promised to do a kinsman's duty to her according to the law. Ruth 2 : 8-17.

23. Was he the nearest relative that Naomi had?—He was not. Ruth 2 : 12; 4 : 1.

24. On whom did the duty of kinsman or redeemer fall?—If brethren dwell together, and one of them die, and have no child, the wife of the dead shall not marry without unto a stranger: her husband's brother shall go in unto her, and take her to him to wife, and perform the duty of an husband's brother unto her. And it shall be that the first-born which she beareth shall succeed in the name of his brother which is dead, that his name be not put out of Israel. And if the man like not to take his brother's wife, then let his brother's wife go up to the gate unto the elders, and say, My husband's brother refuseth to raise up to his brother a name in Israel, he will not perform the duty of my husband's brother. Then the elders of his city shall call him, and speak unto him: and if he stand to it, and say, I like not to take her; then shall his brother's wife come unto him in the presence of the elders, and loose his shoe from off his foot, and spit in his face, and shall answer and say, So shall it be done unto that man that will not build up his brother's house. And his name shall be called in Israel, The house of him that hath his shoe loosed. Dent. 25 : 5-10.

25. Did the nearest kinsman perform his duty to Naomi?—No; he declined doing it. Ruth 4 : 1-6.

26. What was the custom in such cases?—For the person who gave up his right to hand his shoe, as a token of such giving up, to the person who took his place. Ruth 4 : 7.

27. Who stepped in and took his place?—Boaz. Ruth 4 : 9, 10.

28. What blessing did the elders of Israel pronounce upon Ruth when she became the wife of Boaz?—They prayed that God would bless her with many children, that she might be an ancestress of the Messiah. Ruth 4 : 11, 12.

29. Do you think Naomi wished her name changed to Mara now?—Certainly not.

30. What should this teach us?—To trust God that all will at length be well.

Oh taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him. Many are the afflictions of the righteous; but the Lord delivereth him out of them all. Ps. 34 : 8, 19.

31. What was the name of the son whom God gave to Ruth?—Obed. Ruth 4 : 17.

32. What were the names of his son and of his grandson?—Jesse and David.

33. What relation, then, was Ruth to David?—Great-grandmother.

34. Of what glorious Person was Ruth, then, the ancestress?—Of Christ.

35. What is the meaning of the name Boaz?—"Strength" or "Swiftness."

36. Of whom was Boaz a type?—Of Christ.

37. In what particular character was Boaz the type of the Lord Jesus?—In that of brother, kinsman and redeemer.

38. Refer to some texts to show the Lord Jesus as a Redeemer.—

1st. As being of the human family :

When the fullness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, to redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. Gal. 4 : 4, 5.

2d. That he is not ashamed to call us brethren :

Both He that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one; for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren. Heb. 2 : 11.

3d. The price paid for our redemption :

Ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 1 Pet. 1 : 18, 19.

4th. Give a proof of our poverty :

Thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked: I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed. Rev. 3 : 17, 18.

5th. Give a proof of the Lord's riches :

The unsearchable riches of Christ. Eph. 3 : 8.

6th. Give a proof that he is heir of all things :

God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things. Heb. 1 : 1, 2.

7th. That he hath taken the Church to be his Bride :

Christ loved the church, and gave himself for it: that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing. Eph. 5 : 26, 27.

8th. That he has not only purchased her to himself, but that he is Lord of all creation :

Jesus Christ: he is Lord of all. Acts 10 : 36.

9th. That though now his people are poor and weak and despised, the great Redeemer will come and claim his and their rightful inheritance :

I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. John 14 : 2, 3.

39. Was the "Redeemer" also the "revenger of blood"?—It was the nearest relation in both cases.

40. Will the Lord Jesus, when he comes again, fulfill that double character?—The Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ; who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power; when he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe. 2 Thess. 1 : 7-10.

41. On whom will he execute justice?—See No. 40.

42. What effect should this solemn truth have on our minds?—It should stir us up to flee at once to Jesus, our Redeemer, from the wrath to come.

43. In Rev. 5 : 5 the Lord Jesus is called "the root of David;" to whom could that refer?—As God, Christ was David's root or source; as man, he was his son.

In Boaz, his type, he may also have been David's Redeemer or root.

44. Why is the Lord Jesus called "the root of David," or Redeemer, in the same chapter as he is represented as the slain lamb?—Because he redeemed us, not only as our kinsman in the human nature, but as the sacrificed Lamb of God.

Thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation. Rev. 5:9.

45. Compare Acts 20:28; Eph. 1:7; Heb. 9:11-14; 1 Pet. 1:18-25, and say if there be any excuse for those who neglect this great salvation.—No, for redemption through the blood of Jesus is now plainly revealed and preached to us.

ELI AND SAMUEL. (1 Sam. 1-3.)

1. Who was Eli?—The priest—i. e. high priest. 1 Sam. 1:9.

2. By whom was the priesthood in Israel appointed?—By God himself.

This is the thing that thou shalt do unto them to hallow them, to minister unto me in the priest's office: Take one bullock, and two rams without blemish, etc. Ex. 29:1.

3. Who was the first high priest?—Aaron.

4. Who ought to have succeeded him in the high priesthood?—His sons Nadab and Abihu. Lev. 10.

5. Which of Aaron's sons was high priest at his father's death?—Eleazar.

Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up unto Mount Hor; and strip Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son; and Aaron shall be gathered unto his people, and shall die there. Num. 20:25, 26.

6. From whom had Eli descended?—From Ithamar, Aaron's younger son.

7. Did his sons walk in the way of their father Eli?—No; they were very wicked. 1 Sam. 2:12-17.

8. What sin was Eli guilty of that brought upon him God's anger?—Only mildly reproving his wicked sons when he should have restrained them with the authority of a father. 1 Sam. 2:23, 24; 3:13, 14.

9. Who was Elkanah?—A Levite of Mount Ephraim. 1 Sam. 1:1.

10. What were the names of his wives?—Hannah and Peninnah.

11. Which did he love the most?—Hannah. 1 Sam. 1:5.

12. What great trial had Hannah?—Not having any child. 1 Sam. 1:10, 11.

13. To whom did she tell her sorrow?—To God in prayer.

14. What did Eli suppose when he saw her lips moving in silent prayer?—That she was drunken. 1 Sam. 1:13.

15. When he found that he was mistaken, what did he say?—Read 1 Sam. 1:17.

16. Did this comfort Hannah's heart? and had she her desire?—Her countenance was no more sad, and a child was born to her. 1 Sam. 1:18, 20.

17. What name did she give the child?—Samuel.

18. What is the meaning of that name?—"Asked of God."

19. Why did she not go up with her husband to worship the next year?—She preferred waiting until her child was old enough to remain altogether in the house of the Lord to be his servant, according to her vow. 1 Sam. 1:22, 11.

20. By whose command used the children of Israel to go up to Shiloh to worship?—By God's command.

21. How many times a year were all the men to appear before the Lord?—Three times. Ex. 23:17.

22. Which feast must this have been when the women met as well?—The Passover, to which women sometimes went.

Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover. Luke 2:41.

23. At what time of the year was this feast held?—About the end of March or beginning of April.

24. Did Hannah do with the child as she had promised?—She did. 1 Sam. 1:24-28.

25. How old was he when his mother took him up and dedicated him to the Lord?—He "was young," perhaps six years old. 1 Sam. 1:24, margin.

26. Why was it wrong of Eli's sons to take any part of the sacrifice they liked? Which part had God appointed for the priest's use?—Because God had assigned them a particular part, the breast and the right shoulder. Lev. 7:31-34.

27. What had God commanded relative to the fat of his sacrifices?—Read Lev. 3:14-17.

28. What condemnation did Eli's sons bring on them- selves by eating the fat of the sacrifices?—Whoever eateth the fat of the beast, of which men offer an offering made by fire unto the Lord, even the soul that eateth it shall be cut off from his people. Lev. 7:25.

29. Did the Lord send any messenger to warn Eli of the sin his sons were committing?—He sent a man of God, a prophet. 1 Sam. 2:27-36.

30. Is there any rule by which we may know if we are doing the will of God or not? What is it?—Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path. Ps. 119:105.

31. Did Eli regard this awful message?—Perhaps not sufficiently, as another awful message was sent to him some years afterward; or it may have been too late and his sons become thoroughly hardened in sin. 1 Sam. 2:25.

32. What manifest token did the Lord give that he had accepted the gift of Hannah and chosen her son as a prophet of his own?—God gave him a special call and message. 1 Sam. 3:4-14, 20, 21.

33. How old was Samuel when this occurred?—About twelve, but some think he was much older.

34. Had Eli instructed Samuel in the knowledge of God before this time?—No doubt Eli had made him acquainted with God's law, and explained to him the tabernacle service; but Samuel had no experience yet of God's special way of making himself and his word or will known to his prophets. 1 Sam. 3:7.

35. Are there any children now who, though often seen in God's house, yet know him not?—It is to be feared there are but very few of them who know God, so as to love and obey him, as Samuel did.

36. When God called to Samuel, what did he answer?—Speak, for thy servant heareth. 1 Sam. 3:10.

37. Have you answered God's call to you?—If not, he is calling to you now as you listen to his word—calling you to be his child, and to give him your heart. Ask him, for his dear Son's sake, to help you to obey the call. Give yourself to him now.

38. What solemn message did the Lord give Samuel concerning Eli's house?—That he would punish it for ever. 1 Sam. 3:11-14.

39. Did the Lord continue to manifest himself to Samuel rather than to Eli?—He did. 1 Sam. 3:19-21.

40. What did this show?—That God honors those who honor him, dishonors those who dishonor him. 1 Sam. 2:30.

THE TAKING OF THE ARK. (1 Sam. 4-7.)

1. Who were Israel's greatest enemies at this time?—The Philistines.

2. What sinful act did Israel resort to when they found themselves smitten before the enemy?—They brought the ark from its place at Shiloh. 1 Sam. 4:3-5.

3. What effect did it have on the Philistines?—They were afraid at first, but roused each other to a great effort. 1 Sam. 4:7-9.

4. Of what was this a proof?—That God was not with Israel, though the ark was.

Go not up, for the Lord is not among you; that ye be not smitten before your enemies. Num. 14:42.

5. What was the fate of the ark, and of those who carried it?—The ark was taken, and Eli's sons were slain. 1 Sam. 4:11.

6. How did Eli bear the tidings?—He fell back and died. 1 Sam. 4:18.

7. What sorrowful event happened to the wife of Phinehas?—She died in childbirth. 1 Sam. 4:19-22.

8. What name did she give her son ere she died?—Ichabod.

9. What is the meaning of that name?—"No glory."

10. Why did she choose it?—Because the glory had departed from Israel, the ark being taken.

11. What did the Philistines do with the ark?—They set it beside their idol Dagon. 1 Sam. 5:1, 2.

12. What happened to their idol?—It fell on its face before the ark. 1 Sam. 5:3, 4.

13. Did this convince them of the sin of idolatry?—Not at all.

14. Whose office is it to open our minds to receive the truth?—The Holy Spirit, who convicts of sin.

When he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth. John 16:13.

15. Had they not full opportunity, living actually within the land of Israel, to know about the true God?—Yes, but like thousands among ourselves now, they did not take advantage of it, and so they perished in their sins.

I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me in vain: I the Lord speak righteousness, I declare things that are right. Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else. Isa. 45:19, 22.

16. What does David say about idols in Ps. 115?—Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands. They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they, but they see not: they have ears, but they hear not: noses have they, but they smell not: they have hands, but they handle not: feet have they, but they walk not: neither speak they through their throat. They that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them.

17. What proof did Dagon give of this in this history?—He could not take care of himself. 1 Sam. 5:3, 4.

18. What calamities did God's presence bring on his enemies?—A painful disease and a plague of mice, and a deadly destruction besides. 1 Sam. 5:6, 9, 11, 12; 6:4, 5.

19. What did they resolve to do?—To send back the ark with a trespass-offering. 1 Sam. 6:2, 3.

20. What test did they employ to ascertain if indeed the God of Israel had brought on them all these miseries?—They yoked to the cart that carried the ark two cows, to see if they would go to the land of Israel without their calves. 1 Sam. 6:7-12.

21. Who had power over the affections of these kine in making them go opposite to their natural feelings?—God alone.

For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills. Ps. 50:10.

22. How was the ark received?—With joy (1 Sam. 6:13) and a sacrifice of thanksgiving to God. 1 Sam. 6:14, 15.

23. Of what act of impiety were the men of Beth-shemesh guilty?—Of looking into the ark (1 Sam. 6:19), which caused God to slay fifty thousand and seventy men.

24. Why was this act of theirs inexcusable?—They shall not go in to see when the holy things are covered, lest they die. Num. 4:20.

25. Was the ark taken back again to Shiloh? If not, where was it taken?—To Kirjath-jearim. 1 Sam. 7:1.

26. How long did it remain there?—Twenty years (1 Sam. 7:2), until the repentance of Israel.

27. Who afterward removed it? and where did it go?—David removed it to Mount Zion. 2 Sam. 6:2-17.

28. Did Israel repent of their sins?—They did, at the call of Samuel. 1 Sam. 7:3-6.

29. To whom did they apply?—To Samuel, to pray for their delivery from the Philistines. 1 Sam. 7:8.

30. What did he do for them?—He offered a sacrifice and cried unto the Lord.

31. What proof did the Lord give that he accepted their sacrifice and heard their prayer?—He caused a great thunder-storm and a defeat of the Philistines. 1 Sam. 7:10.

32. Of what use could the offering of that lamb be to them?—Because it typified or referred to Jesus, "the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." John 1:29.

33. Is Samuel mentioned among those who had faith in Him who was to come?—Yes, in Heb. 11:32.

34. Why is the Lord Jesus said (Rev. 13:8) to be "the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world?"—Because we are redeemed with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you. 1 Pet. 1:19, 20.

35. Are there many ways by which we can be saved?—There is one God, and one Mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time. 1 Tim. 2:5, 6. Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other Name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. Acts 4:12.

36. What memorial did Samuel set up in remembrance of this deliverance?—A stone called Eben-ezer, or "the stone of help." 1 Sam. 7:12.

37. What three characters did Samuel unite in his person?—Priest, prophet or teacher, and judge.

38. Of whom was he thus a type?—Of our Lord Jesus Christ. Deut. 18:18, 19; 1 Sam. 2:35; Gen. 18:25; Rev. 19:11; 20:11, 12; Matt. 25:31, etc.

39. If we believe that Jesus will ere long be our Judge, as he was the Priest to atone for us and the Prophet and Advocate to pray for and instruct us, what ought we to do?—Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. Isa. 55: 6, 7.

SAUL. (1 Sam. 9-31.)

1. Who was Saul?—Son of Kish. 1 Sam. 9.
2. Of which tribe was he?—Benjamin.
3. What was there remarkable about his person?—He was very tall and very handsome. 1 Sam. 9: 2.
4. What power did God allow to rest upon him?—His Spirit, as he did to Balaam—in his gifts, but not his graces; in his enlightening, but not his converting power. 1 Sam. 10: 10.
5. Are there not some characters more difficult to understand than others?—There are, as the tares of the East resemble the wheat, and the sheep the goats.
6. What contradictions do there appear in Saul's character?—In many things he honored Samuel and honored God, but he mixed his religion with superstition, and was proud, disobedient and self-willed.
7. How can we come to a conclusion in so judging?—No man can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Matt. 6: 24.
8. What made the children of Israel first think of having a king?—Because Samuel was old, and his sons were unfit to help him or succeed him. 1 Sam. 8: 5, 20.
9. How did Samuel feel about it?—He was displeased with their so dishonoring and disobeying God. 1 Sam. 8: 6.
10. How was he comforted?—By prayer, and direction from God. 1 Sam. 8: 6, 7.
11. In what spirit did the Lord give them a king?—In anger: "I gave thee a king in mine anger." Hos. 13: 11.
12. How did God establish the kingdom in his hand?—By a victory over the Ammonites. 1 Sam. 11: 11-15.
13. Did Saul follow up this victory?—He next attacked the Philistines. 1 Sam. 13.
14. Who was Jonathan?—Saul's son.
15. What marked difference was there between him and his father?—He was of a modest and affectionate disposition, and loved David.
16. Who obtained the victory recorded in 1 Sam. 13: 3?—Jonathan.
17. Who reaped the honor of it?—Saul. 1 Sam. 13: 3, 4.
18. Was it not unworthy of Saul to take the glory that did not belong to him?—It was.
19. How did Saul again show his mean spirit in this same chapter?—By retiring to Gilgal, leaving Jonathan and his men exposed to the enemy. 1 Sam. 13: 2, 4.
20. What did Samuel say to Saul when he came?—He reproved him for offering a sacrifice to God without the high priest. 1 Sam. 13: 13.
21. What proof does this chapter give us of the degraded state into which Israel had fallen?—The Philistines did not allow them arms, or even a smith to sharpen their tools. 1 Sam. 13: 19, 20.
22. What glorious victory does 1 Sam. 14: 4-23, 31 record?—Over the Philistines between Michmash and Aijalon.
23. Who was the brave warrior here?—Jonathan. 1 Sam. 14: 4-14.
24. How did Saul nearly spoil the victory of that day?—By pledging his people to eat nothing all day until the battle was won. 1 Sam. 14: 24.
25. Was not an oath a very sacred thing?—When thou shalt vow a vow unto the Lord thy God, thou shalt not be slack to pay it: for the Lord thy God will surely require it of thee; and it would be sin in thee. But if thou shalt forbear to vow, it shall be no sin in thee. Deut. 23: 21, 22.
26. What proof can you give of this in 2 Sam. 21: 7?—King David spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul because of the Lord's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.
27. Was not that transaction another proof of Saul's cowardly disposition? Who were the Gibeonites?—It was cowardly of Saul to kill those who trusted to the Israelites' oath, and were not prepared to defend themselves. 2 Sam. 21: 2. They were Amorites who had deceived the Israelites, but whom they had promised not to kill. Josh. 9.
28. What great touchstone has God given to try man by?—Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Matt. 7: 21.

29. What test of obedience did God require from Saul?—That in fighting with the Amalekites he should destroy their sheep and oxen also. 1 Sam. 15: 3.
 30. How did he act?—He spared the best of them. 1 Sam. 15: 9.
 31. How did Samuel feel?—He was grieved. 1 Sam. 15: 11.
 32. How did Samuel act?—He told Saul that he should be no longer king. 1 Sam. 15: 23.
 33. How did Saul's real character come out in this transaction?—He showed himself more anxious to please his people for his own honor than for the honor of God. 1 Sam. 15: 30.
 34. What accident happened to Samuel's garment as he turned away from Saul?—It was rent. 1 Sam. 15: 27.
 35. What prophecy did Samuel utter in connection with it?—That God had rent his kingdom from him, and had given it to a better man. 1 Sam. 15: 28.
 36. When did Saul next see Samuel?—When Saul prophesied before him in Ramah, whither Saul had gone to see him (1 Sam. 19: 24), and afterward when Samuel came and appeared to Saul, by God's permission, at the summons of the witch of Endor. 1 Sam. 28: 3-20.
 37. What proof does that transaction give us that God never alters the word that he has once spoken?—Because Samuel repeated and confirmed God's former judgment against him. 1 Sam. 28: 17.
 38. Was not the woman surprised at what she herself had been permitted to do?—She cried out from fear. 1 Sam. 28: 12.
 39. In whose keeping are the spirits of the departed dead?—They are all in the keeping of God—the blessed in paradise with Christ, and the wicked with Satan in their own place.
 40. Suppose any could return to us again, could they add to the testimony of Scripture?—They could only confirm it.
- If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead. Luke 16: 31.
- DAVID. (1 Sam. 16.)
1. Who was David?—The youngest son of Jesse, a Bethlehemite. 1 Sam. 16: 1.
 2. What prophecy was spoken of the tribe of Judah by Jacob?—Judah, thou art he whom thy brethren shall praise: thy hand shall be in the neck of thine enemies; thy father's children shall bow down before thee. Gen. 49: 8.
 3. Why did the Lord reject Saul from being king?—Because he had not obeyed his commands. 1 Sam. 15: 11, 23.
 4. Whom did he choose in his place?—David. 1 Sam. 16: 1, 11-13.
 5. Who was appointed to anoint David?—Samuel. 1 Sam. 16: 1.
 6. Why had the Lord chosen Saul?—On account merely of his being a tall and a noble-looking man; God being displeased with the Israelites' asking for a king. 1 Sam. 9: 2.
 7. Did the same rule apply to David?—No; he was chosen rather on account of his qualities of mind and heart. 1 Sam. 16: 6, 7.
 8. How was Samuel taught this?—By being told to reject Jesse's elder sons.
 9. What occupation was David following at this time?—Keeping sheep. 1 Sam. 16: 11.
 10. What deplorable loss did Saul sustain when the Spirit of the Lord rested upon David?—The Spirit departed from himself. 1 Sam. 16: 14.
 11. What evil power took possession of Saul?—An evil spirit, by permission of God.
 12. In what way did he obtain comfort?—By having some one to play to him on the harp. 1 Sam. 16: 16.
 13. Who was selected as his minstrel?—David. 1 Sam. 16: 18-23.
 14. What did this prove?—The guiding providence of God.
 15. As David was then a shepherd, what psalm may we suppose he sang on his harp to the king?—Perhaps the twenty-third.
 16. What effect did David's sweet harp have on the king?—He was soothed and refreshed, but Jesus Christ and his Spirit, alone, can give our troubled conscience peace.

DAVID AND GOLIATH. (1 Sam. 17.)

1. Did David continue to live with Saul?—No; he returned to his father's sheep. 1 Sam. 17: 15.
 2. Did his intercourse with Saul's court unfit him for a shepherd's life?—By the grace of God, it seems not to have done so.
 3. Where were David's brothers at this time?—The three eldest went with Saul to battle. 1 Sam. 17: 13.
 4. What did Jesse desire David to do?—To take his brothers a present, and see how they fared. 1 Sam. 17: 17, 18.
 5. Who were Israel's greatest enemies at this time?—The Philistines.
 6. What had these enemies particularly to encourage them to fight at this time?—The giant Goliath was on their side. 1 Sam. 17: 4-11.
 7. What did David do when he got to the camp?—He asked who Goliath was, and what was to be the reward for killing him. 1 Sam. 17: 26.
 8. What effect did David's questions have on his brothers?—Eliab thought him proud and presumptuous, and was angry with him. 1 Sam. 17: 28.
 9. How did David answer them?—Meekly and calmly. 1 Sam. 17: 29.
 10. For what pleasing traits of character was David always remarkable?—Gentleness, patience and forbearance.
 11. What was he called?—A man after God's own heart. Acts 13: 22.
 12. Give some texts in which God commends a meek and gentle spirit?—I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, with all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love. Eph. 4: 1, 2. Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long-suffering; forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. Col. 3: 12, 13.
 13. What is said to be "of great price" in the Lord's estimation?—The ornament of a meek and quiet spirit. 1 Pet. 3: 4.
 14. Who was the most meek and gentle Being who ever lived?—Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps: who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth: who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to Him that judgeth righteously. 1 Pet. 2: 21-23.
 15. Of whom are we commanded to "learn"?—Of Jesus Christ.
- Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart. Matt. 11: 29.
16. Did David gain the information that he sought?—He did. 1 Sam. 17: 25-27.
 17. What was the result?—David undertook to fight with the Philistine. 1 Sam. 17: 32.
 18. How did Saul wish to prepare David?—With Saul's own armor. 1 Sam. 17: 38.
 19. Did he use the armor?—No, because he was unaccustomed to it.
 20. What preparation did David make?—He only took his staff and sling and five stones in a bag. 1 Sam. 17: 40.
 21. What was the result of the engagement?—The giant was killed by the first stone slung. 1 Sam. 17: 49.
 22. Was only the giant slain?—The Philistines fled, and many of them were slain.
 23. What did David do with the head and armor of Goliath?—He brought the head to Saul and to Jerusalem, and put the armor in his tent.
 24. How was it that David had such power?—Because he trusted in the Lord his God.
 25. Is his act of faith mentioned in Heb. 11?—Yes, in verse 32.
- DAVID AND JONATHAN. (1 Sam. 17: 55-58; 18, 19, 20.)
1. What remarkable question did Saul ask Abner when David went to fight the giant?—Whose son David was. 1 Sam. 17: 55.
 2. Was Abner able to answer Saul's question?—He was not.
 3. How did they ascertain who the young conqueror was?—Saul ascertained it from David's own mouth.
 4. Which of Saul's sons standing by felt his soul knit to David?—Jonathan. 1 Sam. 18: 1.
 5. What touching proof did he give of his love?—He gave him his robes and some of his arms, though the scarceness of arms had made them especially valuable. Compare 1 Sam. 18 : 4 with 1 Sam. 13 : 22.

6. What joyful song did the women sing when they went to meet the conquerors after the battle?—Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands. 1 Sam. 18 : 7.

7. What effect did this have on Saul?—It made him jealous and angry.

8. How did David behave himself?—Wisely. 1 Sam. 18 : 14.

9. Did Saul remember his promise to give his daughter in marriage to the man who should slay Goliath?—No; he gave her to another man. 1 Sam. 18 : 17-19.

10. What artful design did he form to get David slain?—He required him to kill one hundred Philistines as the price of his daughter Michal, hoping he would have been killed himself. 1 Sam. 18 : 25.

11. Did it succeed?—No; David slew two hundred, and was unhurt.

12. What was Saul obliged to do?—To give him his daughter Michal for his wife. 1 Sam. 18 : 27.

13. Did Saul's daughter love David?—Yes. 1 Sam. 18 : 20, 28.

14. How did she prove this?—By letting him down from a window, that he might escape her father's rage. 1 Sam. 19 : 12-17.

15. Why was David obliged to flee?—Because Saul designed to kill him. 1 Sam. 19 : 1, 15.

16. Would Jonathan believe this?—No. 1 Sam. 20 : 1, 2; 19 : 4-7.

17. Where did David first escape to?—To Samuel, in Ramah. 1 Sam. 19 : 18.

18. What wonderful power did God exercise over the messengers sent to take David?—The power of his Spirit, causing them to prophesy like Samuel's prophets. 1 Sam. 19 : 20, 21.

19. Did David venture into Saul's presence again?—He seems to have done so at Naioth in Ramah. 1 Sam. 19 : 22-24; 20 : 5.

20. How did Jonathan assure himself that his father desired David's death?—By what David said. 1 Sam. 20 : 3.

21. When he discovered it, what course did he take?—He promised to tell David of Saul's designs. 1 Sam. 20 : 9.

22. What beautiful covenant did they make together?—That Jonathan should warn David, and that David should be kind to Jonathan and his children. 1 Sam. 19 : 12-17, 23.

23. Where did they each go afterward?—David to his former hiding-place, and Jonathan to his father. 1 Sam. 20 : 19; 19 : 2.

DAVID A FUGITIVE. (1 Sam. 21-31.)

1. Whither did David flee?—To Nob.

2. What did he obtain there?—Some bread.

3. Did he do this honorably?—No; he pretended he was on the king's business. 1 Sam. 21 : 2.

4. What made him tell a lie?—Want of food, and fear that the priest would not give it him.

5. Did not this show a want of faith in the living God, who had hitherto so wonderfully preserved him?—It did.

6. To what place did he next proceed?—To Gath. 1 Sam. 21 : 10.

7. Did he act more consistently there?—No; he pretended to be mad, that he might escape being imprisoned. 1 Sam. 21 : 11-13.

8. What does this show us?—That even the best men often fall into weakness and sin through their forgetfulness of God.

9. Where did he go when he left Achish?—To the cave Adullam. 1 Sam. 22 : 1.

10. Who came to him there?—Every one that was discontented or in debt or distress. 1 Sam. 22 : 2.

11. What kind care did he take of his father and his mother?—He got the king of Moab to receive and protect them. 1 Sam. 22 : 3, 4.

12. Why were they obliged to leave their native place, Bethlehem?—Because the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem. 2 Sam. 23 : 14; 1 Chron. 11 : 15, 16.

13. Who joined David here?—Jonathan, in the wilderness of Ziph. 1 Sam. 23 : 15, 16.

14. Is there any description given of his men?—Three mighty chiefs are there mentioned who slew great numbers of the Philistines; and thirty other valiant men, among whom Abishai and Benaiah are especially noted for their exploits. 2 Sam. 23; 1 Chron. 11.

15. What proof of love did his men give him at this time?—Three of them broke through the host of the Philistines to fetch him water from a favorite well. 2 Sam. 23 : 16; 1 Chron. 11 : 18.

16. How did he show the tenderness of his heart in return?—By declining to drink what had been obtained at so great a risk of his men's lives, and by pouring out the water in thankfulness to God.

17. What are courage and tenderness, united, a proof of?—Of a truly manly character.

18. What cowardly act was Saul again guilty of toward the priests who had helped David?—He ordered them to be slain. 1 Sam. 22 : 17.

19. How did David and his noble little band of warriors employ themselves?—In fighting with the Philistines, and rescuing the inhabitants of Keilah. 1 Sam. 23 : 1-5.

20. When Saul heard it, what did he resolve to do?—To besiege Keilah and take David prisoner. 1 Sam. 23 : 7, 8.

21. How did the Lord deliver David when Saul had nearly taken him?—By causing the Philistines to invade the land, David having first prayed for direction, and Jonathan having given him encouragement from God. 1 Sam. 23 : 27, 28, 10, 16.

22. Did Saul again go after David?—Yes, in the wilderness of Engedi. 1 Sam. 24 : 1, 2.

23. How did David behave when the Lord put Saul in his power?—He would not kill him nor allow his men to do so. 1 Sam. 24 : 4-7.

24. What effect did this have on Saul?—He wept and spoke kindly to David. 1 Sam. 24 : 8-22.

25. What treatment did David at this time meet with from Nabal?—He refused to give food to David and his men, though they had taken nothing from him all the time they had been hiding and in want of provisions near him. 1 Sam. 25 : 1-13.

26. How did Nabal's wife act?—She went to him with a supply of food. 1 Sam. 25 : 14-31.

27. What proof did she give of the high honor in which she held David (though an exile) at her husband's death?—She became his wife. 1 Sam. 25 : 39-42.

28. Did Saul again seek after David?—Yes, in the wilderness of Ziph. 1 Sam. 26 : 1, 2.

29. How did David revenge himself?—By again sparing Saul's life. 1 Sam. 26 : 7-12.

Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord. Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good. Rom. 12 : 19-21.

30. With what heathen did David again join himself?—With Achish, king of Gath. 1 Sam. 27.

31. Was this right?—No; it was contrary to God's commandments to Moses and Joshua.

32. What difficulties did David bring upon himself by this unholy alliance?—He was invited by Achish to join him in fighting against the Israelites. 1 Sam. 28 : 1, 2.

33. Where was David when the last decisive battle between Saul and the Philistines was fought?—At Ziklag.

34. To which side did David offer himself and his men?—To Achish. 1 Sam. 29 : 8.

35. Is it not likely he would have gone over to the side of Israel?—No doubt.

36. How did God preserve him from so very dangerous a position?—By inducing the Philistine leaders to object to his being with them. 1 Sam. 29 : 4, 5.

37. What event happened to him and his men while they were absent from Ziklag?—The Amalekites burnt the city, and carried away the women and children captive. 1 Sam. 30 : 1, 2.

38. Did they recover their treasures?—Yes.

39. How?—They pursued and slew the Amalekites, and recovered all, after David had laid his trouble before God and obtained direction from him. 1 Sam. 30 : 6-20.

40. What did he do with the spoil that they won?—He divided it among all his men who had taken part in the pursuit or fight. 1 Sam. 30 : 21-25.

41. What tremendous battle was happening in Israel while David and his men were thus employed?—A battle with the Philistines in Mount Gilboa. 1 Sam. 31 : 1.

DAVID KING IN HEBRON. (2 Sam. 1-4.)

1. How was David employed when the news came to him of the death of Saul and Jonathan?—He was returned to Ziklag. 2 Sam. 1 : 1.

2. What effect did the death of Saul have on David?—He mourned for him and wept. 2 Sam. 1 : 12.

3. How did Saul die?—By his own hand, after being wounded by the Philistines. 1 Sam. 31 : 3, 4.

4. What did David do to the young man who by his own confession had killed Saul?—He ordered one of his soldiers to kill him. 2 Sam. 1 : 14-16.

5. What touching record did David leave of his love to Saul and Jonathan?—A song of lamentation. 2 Sam. 1 : 17-27.

6. Did David at once go and possess the kingdom? How did he act?—Yes; after seeking direction from God, he went up to Hebron, and was there anointed king. 2 Sam. 2 : 1-4.

7. Which tribe first acknowledged David's claim?—Judah.

8. What act of unnecessary bloodshed took place at Gibeon?—A battle between the men of Judah and the men of Israel, who had Ishbosheth, a son of Saul, for their king. 2 Sam. 2 : 8-17.

9. Which were victorious, Joab's men or Abner's?—Joab's.

10. What happened to Asahel, Joab's brother?—He was killed by Abner. 2 Sam. 2 : 18-23.

11. How long did the war continue between the houses of Saul and David?—About two years. 2 Sam. 2 : 10, 3 : 1.

12. What event turned the scale on David's side?—Abner's deserting Israel on account of a quarrel with Ishbosheth, and offering to make terms with David. 2 Sam. 3 : 6-20.

13. Did David receive Abner?—Yes, with hospitality and honor. 2 Sam. 3 : 20.

14. How did Joab like this?—He blamed David for it. 2 Sam. 3 : 24, 25.

15. What did Joab do?—He killed Abner in revenge for the death of Asahel. 2 Sam. 3 : 27.

16. What course did David take when he heard this?—He called upon all the people to mourn with him for Abner. 2 Sam. 3 : 31.

17. What traits of character does David's conduct display?—Tenderness of heart and readiness to forgive.

18. Did David approve of Joab's conduct?—No; as Abner was no longer a rebel, and as Joab had killed him deceitfully and revengefully in time of peace.

19. Why did he not punish him?—Because he had not the power. 2 Sam. 3 : 39.

20. Who was Zeruah?—The mother of Abishai, Joab and Asahel.

21. Of what act of treachery were the servants of Ishbosheth guilty?—They killed their master. 2 Sam. 4 : 2, 5-8.

22. Did not the death of Ishbosheth clear the way to David's ascent to the throne of Israel?—It did, as no one else was seeking to be king.

23. Did David on this account reward the murderers? How did he act toward them?—So far from rewarding them for their treachery and infidelity, he ordered them to be slain.

DAVID AND THE ARK OF GOD. (2 Sam. 5 and 6, and 1 Chron. 14, 15, 16.)

1. How old was David when all Israel came to anoint him king?—Thirty. 2 Sam. 5 : 4.

2. What was David's first conquest?—The stronghold of Zion. Sam. 2 : 5, 7.

4. What king made presents to David?—Hiram, king of Tyre. 2 Sam. 5 : 11.

5. Where was Tyre?—To the north of Canaan, on the borders of the Mediterranean Sea.

6. For what was Tyre remarkable?—For its manufacture of purple dresses and for its commerce.

7. Did the Philistines treat David as Hiram had? How did they act when they heard he was king?—No; they went to fight against him. 2 Sam. 5 : 18.

8. What did the Philistines take with them to battle?—Images of their gods. 2 Sam. 5 : 21.

9. How was David guided?—By God, whose direction he had sought. 2 Sam. 5 : 19.

10. Which host conquered?—David's. 2 Sam. 5 : 20.

11. What became of the gods of the Philistines?—David burnt them. 2 Sam. 5 : 21.

12. What was David's next act?—To bring the ark from Kirjath-jearim. 2 Sam. 6 : 2, 3.

13. How came the ark to be at Kirjath-jearim?—Because God had not yet directed it to be removed thence.

14. Where was the tabernacle at this time?—In Gibeon. Scott on 2 Sam. 6: 17.

15. In whose house had the ark been kept?—In the house of Abinadab. 1 Sam. 7: 1.

16. In what way did they bring it?—In a new cart. 2 Sam. 6: 3.

17. What happened to Uzzah?—He died by the hand of God for thoughtlessly and rashly taking hold of so sacred a thing as the ark when it seemed about to fall. 2 Sam. 6: 6, 7.

18. How did David feel?—He was displeased, and afraid to go farther. 2 Sam. 6: 8-10.

19. What did he do with the ark then?—He placed it in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. 2 Sam. 6: 10.

20. How ought the ark to have been brought?—By hand, with staves. Num. 4: 15.

21. How many months had elapsed before David had courage to fetch the ark?—Three. 2 Sam. 6: 11.

22. What induced him then to do it?—The blessing that rested upon those who had the charge of it. 2 Sam. 6: 12.

23. How was it accomplished this time?—The Levites bore the ark with staves upon their shoulders. 1 Chron. 15: 2, 15.

24. Why was Michal, David's wife, offended with David?—Because of his dancing to the music before the ark. 2 Sam. 6: 20.

25. What did David's manner really express?—Religious joy and humble thankfulness.

26. Of whom in his humility was David a type?—Of Christ, the lowly one of heart.

27. Where did David place the ark?—In a tent on Mount Zion, in the city of David. 1 Sam. 7: 1, 3; 16: 1.

28. Was he satisfied with this? What did he desire to do?—No; he desired to build for the ark a house of cedar. 1 Sam. 17: 1.

29. Did the Lord permit him to do it?—No.

30. How did the Lord make his will known to David?—By Nathan the prophet. 1 Sam. 7: 3-15.

31. What did David feel? and what did he say?—He felt deeply humble and very unworthy of God's promised blessings, and prayed to God to confirm his word. 1 Sam. 7: 16-27.

32. In whom was David's house to be confirmed for ever?—In Jesus Christ, as Zacharias declared in Luke 1: 68-70.

33. Was the claim of Jesus as "son of David" acknowledged when he was on earth? When?—Yes, when he rode into Jerusalem.

And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the son of David! Matt. 21: 9.

34. When does Jesus call himself "the offspring of David"?—In Rev. 22: 16.

35. Has he yet sat on David's throne?—No; we see not yet all things put under him. Heb. 2: 8.

36. Where is it said "I will give to him the throne of his father David"?—The Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: and he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. Luke 1: 32, 33.

37. When will this be fulfilled?—When Christ returns to judge and reign.

DAVID'S CONQUEST—HIS SIN. (2 Sam. 8-12; 1 Chron. 18-20.)

1. What had God's promise been of the boundary of Israel's possession?—"From the river of Egypt unto the river Euphrates."

2. What conquests did David make which fulfilled this?—The conquest of the Philistines, Moabites, Ammonites and Syrians. 2 Sam. 8: 1, 2, 6, 12, 14; 10: 19.

3. What splendid armor had the Syrians?—Golden shields. 2 Sam. 8: 7.

4. What did David do with the spoil that he took in battle?—He gave the gold and silver and brass for the ornament and service of the tabernacle. 2 Sam. 8: 10, 11.

5. How did he arrange his kingdom?—He made Joab commander-in-chief; Jehoshaphat, historian; Zadok and Ahimelech, priests; and his own sons and others, judges and officers. 2 Sam. 8: 15-18.

6. Did he forget his friend Jonathan in this his prosperity? What proof did he give?—No; he inquired after the family of Saul, and gave Saul's land and a place at his own table to Mephibosheth, son of Jonathan. 2 Sam. 9.

7. How often was it customary for kings to go forth to battle?—"At the return of the year," or in spring.

8. Whom did David send to besiege Rabbah?—Joab. 2 Sam. 11: 1.

9. Where was David?—At Jerusalem.

10. Why did David send Uriah with a letter to Joab, telling him to put him in the front of the battle?—In order that he might be killed. 2 Sam. 11: 15.

11. Why did David wish the brave Uriah to die?—That he might get possession of his wife, with whom he had committed adultery.

12. Was not this a very awful sin?—Yes; it was adding murder to his other shocking sin.

13. Whom did the Lord send to convince David of his sin?—Nathan the prophet. 2 Sam. 12: 1.

14. How did he do it?—By a parable.

15. Did the Lord pardon David?—Yes, and said he should not die. 2 Sam. 12: 13.

16. Did he not say also that in his feelings as a father he would chastise him for it?—Yes, by the death of his child; and he was also punished by Absalom's rebellion. 2 Sam. 12: 14.

17. How did David feel?—It is believed that his deep sorrow for his sin is expressed in the fifty-first Psalm.

18. Did the Israelites conquer Rabbah?—Yes. 2 Sam. 12: 26.

19. What message did Joab send to David?—That he should come and have the honor of completing the conquest of the city himself. 2 Sam. 12: 27, 28.

20. Although David got the honor of conquering Rabbah, and had the crown placed on his head, do you think he felt happy in it when the brave Uriah had died under the walls?—No; he said his sin was ever before him. Ps. 51: 3.

21. What signal proof did the Lord give to David of his full and free forgiveness?—By giving him another child. 2 Sam. 12: 24.

22. What was the name of this child?—Solomon.

23. What was the meaning of the name?—"Peaceable."

24. What name did Nathan the prophet add to this? and what did it mean?—Jedidiah, "Beloved of the Lord." 2 Sam. 12: 25.

25. Through whom must we obtain forgiveness of our sins?—Through Jesus Christ.

26. Is there any limit to God's forgiving grace?—No; he will abundantly pardon. Isa. 55: 7.

27. What did Jesus say to the woman whom he forgave when on earth?—"Neither do I condemn thee: go and sin no more." John 8: 11.

DAVID AND ABSALOM. (2 Sam. 13-22.)

1. Who was Absalom?—A son of David. 2 Sam. 13: 1.

2. Why did he flee away to Geshur?—Because he had killed his half-brother Amnon for outraging his sister Tamar. 2 Sam. 13: 28, 32, 37.

3. How long did he stay there?—Three years.

4. Who brought him back again?—Joab, who by a kind contrivance had gotten David's leave. 2 Sam. 14: 23.

5. How did he repay his father's kindness?—By making a conspiracy against him. 2 Sam. 15.

6. What punishment had the Lord said should spring from David's own house?—The sword and other evils. 2 Sam. 12: 10, 11.

7. Why?—Because of his taking Uriah's wife.

8. How did Absalom steal away the people's affections from David?—By artful speeches and promises and civilities. 2 Sam. 15: 2-6.

9. When David heard of the conspiracy, what did he do?—He fled from Jerusalem. 2 Sam. 15: 13-16.

10. Who went with him?—All his household and six hundred men from Gath. 2 Sam. 15: 16-18.

11. What famous counselor followed Absalom?—Ahithophel. 2 Sam. 15: 31.

12. Who managed by an artifice to set his counsel aside?—Hushai, David's friend. 2 Sam. 15: 32-37; 17: 1-14.

13. Whose advice did Absalom follow?—Hushai's. 2 Sam. 17: 14.

14. What effect did this have on Ahithophel?—He hanged himself. 2 Sam. 17: 23.

15. Why did Hushai give this advice?—That he might secure David's escape.

16. Who slew Absalom?—Joab.

17. How was it done?—As Absalom hung from an oak tree by his hair, which had become entangled as he rode under it. 2 Sam. 18: 9-15.

18. What command had David given about Absalom to his captains?—That they should deal gently with him for his sake. 2 Sam. 18: 5.

19. Did Joab seem to care for this?—Not at all. 2 Sam. 18: 11, 14.

20. How did David feel, and what did he say, when Absalom was slain?—He was deeply distressed, and said, "Would God I had died for thee, O Absalom, my son, my son!" 2 Sam. 18: 33; 19: 1-4.

21. Of what sin was Absalom guilty?—Rebellion against his father and against his king.

22. Of whom, in both these particulars, was he a type?—Of Satan, the rebel against God, and the angel of light.

23. Describe Absalom's person?—He was the handsomest man in the country, and was remarkable for his long, flowing hair. 2 Sam. 14: 25, 26.

24. What does the Lord say about pride in Proverbs?—Pride, and arrogance, and the evil way, and the forward mouth, do I hate. 8: 13. When pride cometh, then cometh shame: but with the lowly is wisdom. 11: 2. Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall. 16: 18.

25. Was peace at once again restored to Israel?—It was. 2 Sam. 19: 9, 14.

26. Whom had David appointed captain of his host instead of Joab?—Amasa. 2 Sam. 19: 13.

27. How did Joab act on hearing this?—He killed him. 2 Sam. 20: 9, 10.

28. What relation was Amasa to David?—Nephew, as son of his sister Abigail.

29. Did David again spare Joab from punishment?—Yes; he continued to be commander-in-chief. 2 Sam. 20: 23.

30. Who quelled the insurrection?—Joab. 2 Sam. 28: 14.

31. What was a famine in Israel a sign of?—National guilt. Deut. 28.

Heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee. 1 Kings 8: 35.

32. What were David's feelings when a famine of three years visited Israel?—Doubtless he felt compassion for his suffering people, and believed that the famine was a visitation of God. 2 Sam. 21.

33. Of whom did he inquire?—Of the Lord. 2 Sam. 21: 1.

34. What was the Lord's reply?—That the famine was in consequence of the guilt incurred by the nation when Saul and his people slew the Gibeonites. 2 Sam. 21: 1, 2.

35. What expiation did the Gibeonites require?—The death of seven of Saul's sons. 2 Sam. 21: 6.

36. What touching proof of a mother's love did Rizpah give?—She watched the bodies of her sons night and day, to prevent their being torn by birds or beasts. 2 Sam. 21: 10.

37. What old enemies of David's again showed themselves?—The Philistines. 2 Sam. 21: 15.

38. What proof have we of David's declining strength and of the faithful love of his followers?—He was faint in battle, and Abishai preserved his life, and his people said he should no longer go out with them to battle. 2 Sam. 21: 15-17.

39. What is the twenty-second chapter of 2 Samuel about?—It is David's psalm of thanksgiving for deliverance from his enemies.

DAVID'S TRANSGRESSION, HIS LAST ARRANGEMENTS, AND DEATH. (2 Sam. 24; 1 Chron. 21-29; 1 Kings 1, 2.)

1. By whom was David tempted to number Israel?—Satan. 1 Chron. 21: 1.

2. What is Satan called in 1 Pet. 5: 8?—A roaring lion, walking about seeking whom he may devour.

3. Who remonstrated with David?—Joab. 2 Sam. 24: 3.

4. Did not David's heart smite him after he had done it?—Yes; he said he had sinned greatly and done very foolishly. 2 Sam. 24: 10.

5. What was God's promise to Abraham as to the number of Israel?—That it should be very great, like the number of the stars.

6. Whom did the Lord commission to reprove David?—The prophet Gad. 2 Sam. 24: 11.

7. What did he offer him?—The choice of one of three punishments.

8. Which did David choose? and why?—Famine or pestilence, rather than war; the immediate hand of God, rather than the hand of man.

9. At what spot did the destroying angel stop?—The threshing-floor of Arannah. 2 Sam. 24: 16.

10. What event had occurred on that hill about eight hundred years before?—The offering up of Isaac (in the opinion of some).

11. Of what was that circumstance a type?—Of the sacrifice of Christ as the atonement for sin.
12. How did David know that the Lord had accepted his offering?—By the plague being stayed. 2 Sam. 24: 25.
13. By whose authority did he consecrate the threshing-floor of Araunah?—By the authority of the prophet Gad. 2 Sam. 24: 18.
14. Why did he not go up to the tabernacle at Gibeon?—Because he was afraid of meeting the angel again at the place of God's special presence. 1 Chron. 21: 29, 30.
15. What preparations did he make for the future building of the temple?—Hewn stone, gold, silver, iron, brass and cedar. 1 Chron. 22: 2-5, 14-16.
16. What solemn charge did David give to Solomon concerning the temple?—To build it, as David himself had desired to do. 1 Chron. 22: 6-16.
17. What other arrangements did David make?—He divided the priests and Levites and other officers into orders, and fixed their duties. 1 Chron. 23: 23-27.
18. Who showed David the pattern of the future temple?—God himself, by his Spirit. 1 Chron. 28: 12, 19.
19. Did any one besides David contribute toward the future glory of the temple?—The chiefs and the people. 1 Chron. 29: 6-9.
20. Whom did David make king over Israel before he died?—Solomon. 1 Chron. 23: 1.
21. Who had aspired to be king?—Adonijah, one of David's sons. 1 Kings 1: 5, 6.
22. What charge did David give to Solomon concerning Joab and Shimei?—That they should receive the punishment due to their guilt. 1 Kings 2: 5, 6, 8, 9.
23. What were the last words of David?—Now bless the Lord your God. 1 Chron. 29: 20.
24. How old was David when he died?—Seventy.
25. How many years had he reigned in Hebron? how many over all Israel?—David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years. In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months; and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-and-three years over all Israel and Judah. 2 Sam. 5: 4, 5.
26. In what respect was David a man after God's own heart?—In the general character of his life, and in his being a type of Christ, his own beloved Son.

DAVID A TYPE OF CHRIST.

1. What is the meaning of the name Christ?—"Anointed."
2. Was David made king at the time he was anointed?—He was not at the time of his first anointing by Samuel.
3. Tell how this circumstance is typical of the Lord Jesus Christ?—Because, though Christ's kingdom began when he was anointed with the Holy Ghost and commenced his ministry on earth, his great universal reign has not yet taken place.
4. What was David before he was called from his father's house?—A keeper of sheep.
5. What wild beasts did he fight with and kill?—A lion and a bear.
6. Of whom are those beasts a type?—Of Satan the roaring lion. 1 Pet. 5: 8.
7. Who is "the Good Shepherd" who gives "his life for the sheep"?—Jesus Christ. John 10: 11.
8. What was David's conduct to his father?—That of a faithful, devoted and obedient son. 1 Sam. 17: 20, 34, 35.
9. Of whom is it recorded, "This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased"?—Of Jesus Christ. Matt. 3: 17.
10. In what relative position did David stand to Saul?—In that of servant to a master.
11. What ought a servant to be?—Honest, diligent, faithful and zealous, as serving God as well as man.
12. How did David behave himself while serving Saul?—Faithfully in duty and forbearing under provocation.
13. Of whom is it recorded "I delight to do thy will, O my God"?—Of Christ in the name of David. Ps. 40: 8.
14. Did David bear any other characters? Was he a prophet?—Many. Yes.
15. Did he speak of Jesus in the Psalms?—Constantly, but especially in Psalms 22 and 110.
- All things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me. Luke 24: 44.
16. When did the Lord Jesus quote from the Psalms?—Jesus saith unto them, Yea, have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise? (Matt. 21: 16; Ps. 8: 2); Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama Sabachani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? (Matt. 27: 46; Ps. 22: 1); and in other places.

17. Of whom, then, as Psalmist, is David a type?—Of Christ.
18. Was not David a warrior, a captain and a leader?—He was.
19. What Scriptures show that the Lord Jesus was all these?—Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people. Isa. 55: 4; Rev. 19: 13-15. The Captain of . . . salvation. Heb. 2: 10.
20. Where was David born?—Doubtless at Bethlehem, where Jesse his father lived. 1 Sam. 17: 12-15.
21. Where was Jesus born?—At Bethlehem. Matt. 2: 1.
22. Was the kingship of David acknowledged at once?—No; Saul and his son Ishbosheth opposed or rebelled against him.
23. Were there not a few who did recognize David as the anointed of God, even in his adversity? Name them.—Samuel, Jonathan, Ahimelech, Gad, the Adullamites, Abiathar, Abigail, Joab, Abishai, Asahel and others.
24. Were there any who owned the glory of Jesus when he was here in abasement?—There were his apostles and disciples, and many women who ministered unto him.
25. Did not the followers of David dearly love him?—They did.
26. Did they not even risk their lives for his sake?—Many of them did in battle, and three of them to only get him some water for his thirst.
27. And what is the feeling of those who own Jesus as their Lord and Master?—A feeling, more or less warm and strong, of devoted, self-denying love.
28. What did David feel toward them?—A tender and grateful love.
29. How did Jesus testify his estimation of love shown to him?—Whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward. Matt. 10: 42. Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. Matt. 25: 40.
30. Did David conquer other nations, and rule beyond the limits of the twelve tribes of Israel?—He conquered the Syrians, Ammonites and others.
31. By what name is Jesus called in Rev. 19: 16?—KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.
32. What earthly throne is said to be everlasting?—David's.
- Thine house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever. 2 Sam. 7: 16.
33. Of whom must that be spoken?—Of Christ, the King.
34. To whom does the parable in Luke 19: 12-27 refer?—The parable of the returned nobieman calling his servants to account refers to Christ coming again in his kingdom.
35. Ought we not, then, to examine our hearts to see who is reigning there?—Yes; for if he is not ruling over our affections now, we shall not be partakers of his kingdom hereafter.
36. Have we not each some talent we shall be called to an account for?—Yes; we all have time and influence, and more or less of means and abilities, to use for God's glory.
37. Will you not have to give an account of even this lesson?—Yes, and of every sermon we hear.
38. What should you, then, strive to do?—To remember what we hear, and, by the grace of God, to live and act according to it.
39. Was David's reign a type of the peaceful reign of the Lord Jesus?—No; he had been a man of war.
40. Which king's reign is a type of it?—Solomon's.
41. What is the meaning of the name Solomon?—"Peaceable."

SOLOMON. (1 Kings 1-11; 1 Chron. 21-29; 2 Chron. 1-9.)

1. Of whom was Solomon a type?—Of Christ, his peaceful reign being like the final kingdom of the Prince of Peace.
2. Whose son was he?—David's.
3. What did the children cry of Jesus in the temple when he was on earth?—Hosanna to the son of David! Matt. 21: 15.

4. Read John 6: 15, and say what temporal honor the people wished to force upon Jesus?—Jesus perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king.

5. Was the Lord Jesus rightful heir to David's throne on earth?—Yes.
6. Would he consent to take it from their hands?—No.
7. From whom will the Lord Jesus receive his kingdom?—From God the Father in the appointed time.
8. What did these same people do to the Lord Jesus very soon afterward?—They derided his claim to be king and clamored for his crucifixion.
9. When will Jesus take to himself his great power and reign?—At the day of judgment. Rev. 11: 15-18.
10. Is this coming glory prophesied of in Scripture?—In 2 Thess. 1: 7-10, and other places.
11. What was the first thing that Solomon did when he came to the throne—that is, after his father's death?—He put Joab and Shimei (among others) to death. 1 Kings 2: 28-46.
12. Who had previously condemned them?—David. 1 Kings 2: 5, 6, 8, 9.
13. How will our final award be settled?—He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. Mark 16: 16. Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward. 2 John 8.
14. Who will be our Judge?—God, in Christ.
15. How does the Lord judge?—Man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart. 1 Sam. 16: 7.
16. By what standard shall we be judged?—He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day. John 12: 48.
17. Did Jesus judge men when he was on earth?—No. If any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. John 12: 47.
18. To what time does the Lord Jesus defer the judgment?—To the last day. John 12: 48.
19. Were not David in deferring the judgment, and Solomon in executing it, great types of this?—Yes.
20. Have sinners any hope from the circumstance that God delays judgment?—None at all, if they remain impenitent.
21. Say what merciful reason the apostle Peter gives for delay in the last chapter of his Second Epistle?—The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.
22. Can you give some texts where the certainty of the judgment-day is spoken of?—Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all. Jude 14, 15. When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory; and before him shall be gathered all nations; and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats; and he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. And these shall go away into everlasting punishment; but the righteous into life eternal. Matt. 25: 31-36, 46. Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him; and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Rev. 1: 7.
23. Can you give a description of it?—I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened; and another book was opened, which is the book of life; and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them; and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire. Rev. 20: 11-15.
24. Will it be of any use for us to run to "the altar" (as Joab did) then?—No; the day of salvation will have past, there will remain no more sacrifice for sin, and the mountains and rocks will be no shelter from the wrath of the Lamb.
25. Of whom is the altar a type?—Of Christ, the refuge now from the wrath to come.

26. When should we flee to Jesus and lay hold of his righteousness?—"Now is the accepted time." 2 Cor. 5:2.

27. Who was Solomon's queen?—Pharaoh's daughter. 1 Kings 3:1.

28. Had Egypt been a friend or enemy to Israel in former time?—An enemy and oppressor for a long time after Joseph's death.

29. Was it not remarkable that Solomon should choose a bride from Egypt?—Yes, but she is supposed to have embraced the Jewish religion.

30. Of whom was Solomon's bride a type?—Of the Church, the bride of Christ. Rev. 19:7, 8.

31. For whom did the Lord Jesus die? Was it for angels?—Forasmuch, then, as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same. Heb. 2:14.

32. By taking on himself our nature, to what place of dignity has he raised his people?—To be "heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ" (Rom. 8:17), and "to sit with" him "in" his "throne." Rev. 3:21.

33. By whose command did Solomon build the temple?—By command of God. 1 Kings 5:5.

34. Who had prepared greatly for this before him?—David. 1 Chron. 22.

35. Why was not David permitted to build the temple?—Because he had "been a man of war." 1 Chron. 28:3.

36. To whom had the pattern been shown?—To David "by the Spirit" of God. 1 Chron. 28:11, 12.

37. Who selected the place on which the temple was to be built?—David. 1 Chron. 21:28-22:2.

38. On what mountain was it built?—Moriah. 2 Chron. 3:1.

39. What wondrous act of faith had taken place on that mountain about eight hundred years before?—It has been supposed that Abraham offered up Isaac on this spot.

40. What is on that mountain now?—The Turkish mosque or church of Omar.

41. Who provided Solomon with timber, etc.?—Hiram, king of Tyre. 1 Kings 5:1, 8-10.

42. Was this a gift to Solomon, or did he pay for it?—Solomon paid wages and supplied food to Hiram's men (1 Kings 5:6, 9), and gave him twenty cities in Galilee. 1 Kings 9:11.

43. Was anything done in Lebanon besides felling the trees?—Stone was hewn from the quarries. 1 Kings 5:17.

44. Was the stone also prepared before it came to the temple?—Yes. 1 Kings 5:18.

45. Of what was this a type?—Of the preparation of God's people to be "the temple of the living God" (2 Cor. 6:16), built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner-stone. Eph. 2:20.

46. What is said in Matt. 25:10 about being ready?—While they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage; and the door was shut.

47. Can you see any resemblance between the state of these virgins in the parable and the trees of Lebanon in the time of Solomon?—Both were fit and ready for the service for which they were required.

48. What tree does the woodman select when he seeks timber?—A tree of the proper kind of wood, straight, sound and of sufficient size.

49. What becomes of small wood, brambles, brushwood, etc.?—They are burned.

50. What warning word should we allow to have influence over us?—Be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh. Matt. 24:44.

51. How was Solomon's temple dedicated?—There was a solemn feast, the bringing in of the ark, Solomon's prayer and blessing, and a sacrifice of peace-offerings. 1 Kings 8.

52. Who was raised up above all the people?—Solomon.

53. Who blessed them?—Solomon.

54. Of whom was he a type in this?—Of Christ.

55. Who will be gathered together when God's spiritual temple, formed of living stones, is reared?—God's holy people.

If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are. 1 Cor. 3:17.

Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 1 Pet. 2:5.

56. Who is the foundation and chief corner-stone of that glorious building?—"Jesus Christ himself." Eph. 2:20.

57. Will it do to build good works or human merit on this foundation?—We cannot add to or extend the foundation; we can only build upon it the spiritual house, the . . . holy temple.

58. What are all such vain things compared to in 1 Cor. 3:11-17?—To "wood, hay and stubble."

59. What remarkable dream did Solomon have immediately after his father's death?—That God asked him what he should give him. 1 Kings 3:5.

60. What did he ask for?—Wisdom to govern his people well. 1 Kings 3:9.

61. What did God promise to give him that he did not ask for?—Riches and honor. 1 Kings 3:13.

62. Describe Solomon's grandeur?—He had an immense daily provision for his household, and thousands of chariot-horses and riders. 1 Kings 4:22, 23, 26.

63. What queen, having heard of it from afar, came to visit Solomon?—The queen of Sheba in Arabia. 1 Kings 10.

64. Was she disappointed?—No; she said that half had not been told her. 1 Kings 10:7.

65. What testimony did she leave behind her?—She testified to the blessedness of those who served the living God.

66. Has the glory of the Lord Jesus been exaggerated?—No; it exceeds all that is revealed to us on earth.

Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath revealed for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit. 1 Cor. 2:9, 10.

67. When the Lord Jesus compared himself with Solomon, and spoke about the queen of Sheba, what did he say?—The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it; for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here. Matt. 12:42.

68. How and by what means may we hope to share that glory by and by?—By giving him our faith and love and service now.

69. What is the best proof we can give that we believe the Bible to be true?—Believing in the Saviour it reveals to us, obeying the commands it gives us, and making it known, as far as we can, to every creature.

PROVERBS.

1. Who wrote the book of Proverbs?—Solomon. Prov. 1:1.

2. To whom is the book addressed?—To his son Rehoboam.

3. How many chapters does Solomon take in addressing his son before the Proverbs begin?—Nine.

CHAPTER 1.

4. What does Solomon say is the beginning of wisdom?—The fear of the Lord. Prov. 1:7.

5. What does he say is an ornament of grace to the neck of a child?—Obedience to the instructions of his father and mother. Prov. 1:8, 9.

6. How does he warn his son against sinners?—To keep out of their way. Prov. 1:10-19.

7. Whom does Solomon mean when he says, "Wisdom crieth without"?—Jesus Christ.

Of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. 1 Cor. 1:30.

The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. But wisdom is justified of her children. Matt. 11:19.

8. Which is the only book that can be said to be "wisdom"?—The Book, the Bible.

Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute. Luke 11:49.

9. What has the Lord Jesus promised to "pour out" on those who "turn at his reproof"?—He has said that our heavenly Father will give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him. Luke 11:13.

10. And what has he said will be the condemnation of those who refuse when he calls?—To be judged by his word at the last day. John 12:48.

11. What is written in 2 Cor. 6:2?—Behold, now is the day of salvation.

CHAPTER 2.

12. What reward is promised those who seek diligently after the Lord Jesus, the true "Wisdom"?—That they shall find him.

13. What blessings will they enjoy?—Pardon, peace, grace, hope, joy.

14. From what will it preserve them?—True wisdom preserves from the ways and society of the wicked, from all folly and sin, and from all real evil.

15. Who rejoices to do evil?—The ungodly man. Prov. 2:12-14.

16. Who has promised to be the "guide of youth"?—God, who thus invites the young to come unto him:

Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My Father, thou art the guide of my youth? Jer. 2:4.

17. What great contrast is there in this chapter between the upright and the wicked?—The upright shall dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it. But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the transgressors shall be rooted out of it. Prov. 2:21, 22.

CHAPTER 3.

18. How can we write anything on the tablets of our heart?—By fixing it in our memory and our affections.

19. How can we hope that God will direct our path?—If we seek and trust his guidance rather than our own. Prov. 3:5, 6.

20. Why should we not be weary of God's correction?—Because it is a sure token of his wisdom and love. Prov. 3:11, 12.

21. Can you tell me some of the ways in which God corrects us?—By sickness, losses, disappointments, and many things that are called accidents or misfortunes.

22. Which does it make us, "happy" or "unhappy," to find Jesus (the true "Wisdom")?—Happy, as we have then a treasure we can never lose.

23. How did Solomon estimate wisdom?—Above riches and honor.

24. What does the apostle Peter say about the value of the blood shed by the Lord Jesus?—That it is "precious." 1 Pet. 1:19.

25. What is the Lord Jesus to those who believe in him?—"Precious." 1 Pet. 2:7.

26. What is the Lord Jesus called in Matt. 13:44-46?—A treasure and a pearl of great price.

27. What are "wisdom's" ways called?—"Ways of pleasantness and peace." Prov. 3:17.

28. What does the Lord Jesus himself say of those in Matt. 11:28-30?—Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

29. Who is here spoken of as "the tree of life"?—Jesus Christ, the true Wisdom. Prov. 3:18.

30. Where was that tree first planted?—In the garden of Eden. Gen. 2:8, 9.

31. Will any one have a right to taste it again?—Yes.

Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. Rev. 22:14.

To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God. Rev. 2:7.

32. By whom did the Lord create the heaven and the earth?—By Jesus Christ.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. John 1:1, 3.

Who is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of every creature; for by him were all things created that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him. Col. 1:15, 16.

33. Have those anything to fear who put their trust in the Lord? Why not?—No. Because God has promised it. Prov. 3:21-26, 5, 6.

34. Is there any charge in this chapter to be benevolent?—Prov. 3:9, 10, 27, 28.

35. Who is an abomination to the Lord?—The forward or self-willed. Prov. 3:32.

36. What will be the glorious destiny of "the wise"?—To inherit glory. Prov. 3:35.

37. Does this mean earthly or heavenly wisdom?—Heavenly, as much of the wisdom of this world is really folly and ends in shame.

CHAPTER 4.

38. What description does Solomon give of his father and mother in this chapter?—That his father wisely instructed him, and his mother tenderly loved him. Prov. 4:3, 4.

39. Who was Solomon's father?—David.

40. What was his mother's name?—Bathsheba.

41. What instructions did David give him?—Prov. 4: 4-19.

42. What great contrast is there in the eighteenth and nineteenth verses between "the just" and "the wicked"?—The way of the just is light, and of the wicked dark.

43. Can you give any examples from the New Testament where wickedness is compared to darkness?—This is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. John 3: 19. Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. Eph. 5: 11. The night is far spent, the day is at hand; let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light. Rom. 13: 12.

44. What does the Lord Jesus call himself in John 8: 12?—The light of the world.

45. What does Jesus command in Matt. 5: 16?—Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

46. What does Solomon say of "wisdom" in the seventh and two following verses?—(Read them.)

47. Who is intended by wisdom? Who is it that shall give us the promised "crown of glory"?—Jesus Christ.

Blessed is the man that endureth temptation; for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him. James 1: 12.

When the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away. 1 Pet. 5: 4.

Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith. Heb. 12: 2.

Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. 2 Tim. 4: 8.

48. What does Solomon say about the heart in this chapter at the twenty-third verse?—(Read it.)

49. What does the prophet Jeremiah say about the heart?—The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? Jer. 17: 9.

50. What did the Lord Jesus say about the heart when he was on earth?—Out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies. Matt. 15: 19.

51. Repeat David's prayer respecting his heart.—Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me. Ps. 51: 10.

52. Whose office alone is it to search the heart?—I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings. Jer. 17: 10. The Lord seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart. 1 Sam. 16: 7. Shall not God search this out? for he knoweth the secrets of the heart. Ps. 44: 21. If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works? Ps. 24: 12. O Lord of hosts, that triest the righteous, and seest the reins and the heart. Jer. 20: 12.

53. Who promises to renew the heart?—I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh. Ezek. 11: 19. A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you; and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh. Ezek. 36: 26.

CHAPTERS 5, 6, 7.

54. By what endearing title does Solomon address the youth in these chapters?—The title of "son."

55. What encouragement have we to regard God as our Father in Heb. 12: 5-7?—Because he there speaks tenderly to his afflicted people as children.

Ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him; for whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

56. To what little insect are we referred as an example in Prov. 6: 6-8?—To the ant.

57. What has a lazy person to expect?—Poverty and want. Prov. 6: 9-11.

58. Name the seven things that the Lord hates?—See Prov. 6: 16-19.

59. How can we bind a thing continually on our heart?—By thinking earnestly or affectionately upon it. Prov. 6: 20, 27; 7: 2, 3.

60. Is there any blessing attached to a child who is obedient to his parents?—Guidance in life and preservation from sin and harm are here promised. Prov. 6: 20, etc.

61. Which is the only commandment among the Ten Commandments which has a promise joined with it?—The fifth.

62. To what are a parent's instructions compared in Prov. 6: 23?—To a lamp or light.

63. Where else is the word of God compared, as in this sense, to a lamp?—In Ps. 119: 105.

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

CHAPTERS 8, 9.

64. Whom does Solomon mean when he says, "Wisdom cries, she standeth"?—Christ Jesus, who is wisdom for us and in us.

Of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. 1 Cor. 1: 30.

65. What does "Wisdom" say in chap. 8: 6?—Hear.

66. What did the Lord Jesus say, when on earth, in Matt. 11: 15; 13: 9?—He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

67. What does "Wisdom" say in chap. 8: 7?—"My mouth shall speak truth."

68. What does the Lord Jesus say in John 14: 6?—"I am the truth."

69. To what does Solomon compare "wisdom"?—To gold and rubies. Prov. 8: 11, 19.

70. What did St. Paul, in his letter to the Philippians, consider all things when compared with Christ Jesus?—I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord; for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ. Phil. 3: 8.

71. Does "the fear of the Lord" (Prov. 8: 13) mean hating God, or hating what he disapproves of?—It means hating what he disapproves of through love to him, and consequent fear of offending him.

72. What does the Lord hate?—Pride and all other sin. Prov. 8: 13.

73. If God hates pride, how ought we to feel toward that sin in ourselves?—We should hate it too.

74. By whom do kings and princes rule?—By the KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS. Rev. 19: 16.

75. What encouragement does Jesus give to the young to seek him?—Prov. 8: 32, 33. Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them. Mark 10: 14, 16.

76. What blessings are promised to those who choose him for their portion?—Constant guidance upon earth and a lasting treasure in heaven.

77. Where was the Lord Jesus when God created the world?—With God, as being God himself. Prov. 8: 27-31.

78. Had the Lord Jesus existed before that time?—Yes, from everlasting. Prov. 8: 22-26.

79. Did Jesus even then take pleasure in his people?—He did.

We love him, because he first loved us. 1 John 4: 19.

80. How does Jesus invite us to him?—Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Matt. 11: 28.

81. What remarkable comparison is there between Prov. 9: 1-5 and Matt. 22: 1-14?—The sameness of the feast or provision of religious truth then and now, and of the welcome to it.

82. Who spreads the feast? and who are invited to come?—Christ in each case spreads the feast, and all the needy are invited to come.

83. Is not religion a personal thing?—Yes; the words in the singular number here betoken this. Prov. 8: 34, 35; 9: 12. No mere union, by sacraments or profession, with a Christian Church will save our souls. We should be able to say with St. Paul in Gal. 2: 20, he "loved me and gave himself for me."

84. Whose fault will it be if those who are thus invited, warned and counseled are lost at last?—Their own; and this consciousness of willful folly, as well as sin, will be a gnawing worm of anguish that will never die.

ECCLESIASTES.

1. By whom was Ecclesiastes written?—By Solomon.

2. What is the meaning of the term Ecclesiastes?—The "Preacher."

3. Had Solomon any means of knowing the subject on which he wrote? How?—He had personal experience and divine teaching.

4. What was the result of his great knowledge?—That all is vanity under the sun. Eccles. 1: 2, 3.

5. Was there anything that Solomon found under the sun sufficient to satisfy his soul?—Nothing.

6. What is the meaning of that term, "under the sun"?—Things that relate to this world alone.

7. Where, then, must we look for solid happiness?—To the world to come.

8. What will be the end of "everything under the sun"?—The day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. 2 Pet. 3: 10. All the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree. Isa. 34: 4. And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. Rev. 6: 14.

9. Where should we then lay up our treasure?—Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal; for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. Matt. 6: 20, 21.

10. Did Solomon wish to impress this truth on us?—He did.

11. What arguments does he use in Eccles. 12 to urge this in early life?—The approach of old age and of death. Eccles. 12: 1-7.

12. What does he say is the conclusion of the whole matter?—Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. Eccles. 12: 13, 14.

13. Which, then, is the wisest and happiest person—he who lives in pleasure or he who lives to God?—He who lives to God.

14. What was the apostle Paul's estimate of present things and things to come?—I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. Rom. 8: 18. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory; while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal. 2 Cor. 4: 17, 18.

15. What does Luke 16: 19-25 teach us?—The parable of the rich man and Lazarus shows us the sad end of those who have only earthly riches when they come to die.

16. Can we venture to have a little of this world first, and hope for heaven after?—No. Luke 12: 16-21.

17. What was the apostle James's estimate of all that might be enjoyed "under the sun"?—Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you. Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten. Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days. James 5: 1-3.

18. Was it not the prospect of resurrection and the coming of the Lord that also sustained the apostle Paul?—It was.

I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we die. 1 Cor. 15: 31, 32.

19. Seeing life is uncertain, and death sure, what ought we to do?—Forsake our wicked way, and "seek the Lord while he may be found." Isa. 55: 6, 7.

REHOBAM. (1 Kings 11 and 12.)

1. What great sin was Solomon guilty of in his latter days?—Idolatry, through the influence of his wives. 1 Kings 11: 4.

2. What did the Lord say to Solomon about this?—

That he would take away the greater part of his kingdom from his family. 1 Kings 11: 11-13.

3. To what "covenant" did the Lord refer?—When thy days be fulfilled, and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom. He shall build an house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom for ever. I will be his father, and he shall be my son. 2 Sam. 7: 12-14.

4. Had Solomon broken this covenant?—Yes, by his idolatry.

5. What were the consequences?—The stirring up of enemies after a long reign of peace.

6. How many adversaries did the Lord raise up against Solomon?—Hadad the Edomite, Rezon the Syrian, and Jeroboam his servant.

7. Whom had Solomon to blame for this?—Himself alone, for his folly and sin.

8. Whom have we to blame for punishment if we sin against God?—Ourselves alone.

9. How long did Solomon reign?—Forty years.

10. Who succeeded him?—Rehoboam his son.

11. Was he a wise or a foolish king?—A foolish one. 1 Kings 12.

12. What is the proof?—His following the advice of young men instead of old and experienced ones. 1 Kings 12: 6-14.

13. What opinion do young people often form of their elders?—They often and foolishly think that their elders are behind the times, and are not so wise as they are themselves.

14. What ought Rehoboam's history teach us?—To value and follow the advice of older and wiser relations and friends.

THE KINGS OF ISRAEL—JEROBOAM'S DYNASTY. (1 Kings 11: 26-43; 12-16.)

1. Who was Jeroboam?—Son of Nebat and servant of Solomon. 1 Kings 11: 26.

2. What was the name of the prophet who foretold his honors?—Ahijah. 1 Kings 11: 29.

3. How did he do this?—By tearing Jeroboam's outer garment into twelve pieces and giving him ten.

4. When was this prophecy fulfilled?—At the revolt of the ten tribes. 1 Kings 12: 16.

5. How was it brought about?—Through Rehoboam's refusing to listen to his people's complaint, by the advice of his young and ignorant companions. 1 Kings 12: 16.

6. How much of Israel did Jeroboam reign over?—Ten tribes. 1 Kings 12: 21.

7. What wicked means did he use to keep the ten tribes under his rule?—Setting up idol-worship in Bethel and Dan. 1 Kings 12: 28, 29.

8. Where was Bethel?—In the tribe of Benjamin.

9. What remarkable circumstance happened to Jacob there before he went to Syria?—His dream of the ladder between earth and heaven.

10. How did Jacob distinguish the place when he returned from Syria? Who was buried there?—He built there an altar. Gen. 35: 7. Deborah, Rebekah's nurse. Gen. 25: 8.

11. Is Bethel mentioned before Jacob's time?—Abraham is said, in Gen. 12: 8, to have encamped near Bethel.

12. Was not Jeroboam very wickedly wise to choose a place of such interest for his idol?—He was.

13. What state must Israel have been in that Jeroboam could so easily turn them to idolatry?—In a very ungodly state.

14. How is it that Satan's temptations so easily prevail over us?—Because we do not sufficiently "watch and pray."

15. Had God's law forbidden idolatry?—Repeatedly.

16. Have we any excuse for sin?—No, as we have the word of God to go to, and the voice of conscience and the striving of the Spirit within us.

17. Is there any point on which God has left us in doubt of his mind and will?—None at all, as, besides particular directions, we have general ones that include all cases.

18. Where must we go to learn God's will?—To his holy word.

19. What will be our condemnation if we do not?—Eternal punishment if we willfully and habitually neglect it.

20. Had the Israelites any excuse for idolatry, even though their king commanded it, when they had God's written law?—They had no excuse at all.

21. There was one of Jeroboam's family, though young in years, who feared the Lord; who was he?—Abijah. 1 Kings 14: 13.

22. What did his parents do when they feared he would die?—His mother went to Ahijah the prophet to have him cured. 1 Kings 14: 1-4.

23. Why did they not go to the calf at Bethel to save the child?—Because they had no real confidence in their idol-god.

24. Was it of any use that Jeroboam's wife disguised herself to the prophet?—No; God knew it, and made it known to him. 1 Kings 14: 5.

25. Can we hide anything from God?—There is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether. Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me. Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence? Ps. 139: 4, 5, 7, etc.

26. What promises has God given to encourage little children to love him?—I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me. Prov. 8: 17.

27. Does not this show that even a little child in a wicked family who tries to serve God is not unnoticed by him?—God's noticing Abijah shows this.

28. How many of Jeroboam's race came to the crown of Israel?—Only Nadab his son. 1 Kings 15: 25-30.

29. In what disgraceful state was Elah (the last of Jeroboam's family) when he was slain?—He was drunk. 1 Kings 16: 9.

30. By whom was he slain?—By his servant Zimri.

THE DISOBEDIENT PROPHET. (1 Kings 13 and 2 Kings 23: 15-18.)

1. Did God suffer the sinful idolatry of Israel to go unrebuked?—No.

2. Whom did the Lord send to them?—A prophet. 1 Kings 13: 2, 3.

3. How far did he go, obediently to the Lord?—To Bethel only. 1 Kings 13: 1, 9, 10.

4. Who was standing by the altar at Bethel when he got there?—Jeroboam.

5. Was the prophet afraid to deliver his message?—No. 1 Kings 13: 2, 3.

6. When the king heard it, what did he do?—He put out his hand to seize the prophet. 1 Kings 13: 4.

7. Was not this a very daring act? How was it punished?—It was defying God. His arm was stiffened and dried up.

8. How was the king's arm recovered?—By the prophet's prayer.

9. Did the man of God go home with the king and take refreshment with him?—No, for God had told him not to do so. 1 Kings 13: 7-9.

10. Who tempted the man of God to turn aside?—An old prophet. 1 Kings 13: 11-19.

11. Ought he to have rested on God's word spoken to him, or believed this old prophet's word?—If there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and giveth thee a sign or a wonder, and the sign or the wonder come to pass, whereof he spake unto thee, saying, Let us go after other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them; thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams: for the Lord your God proveth you, to know whether ye love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul. Deut. 13: 1-3.

12. Did God use the lips of the old prophet again to really speak his word?—Yes. 1 Kings 13: 20-22.

13. Must not this have been heavy tidings to the disobedient one?—It must indeed. How careful should we be to exactly obey!

14. How was the prophecy fulfilled?—He was killed by a lion. 1 Kings 13: 24.

15. Did God quite cast off the man of God for this act of disobedience?—No; he preserved his body for burial, and took care that his prophecy was fulfilled.

16. How did the old prophet feel toward him?—He mourned for him and buried him, and wished to be laid beside him. 1 Kings 13: 29-31.

17. What mark of respect also did Josiah, the king of Judah, pay to his memory in after years?—He "let no man move his bones." 2 Kings 23: 18.

THE KINGS OF ISRAEL—ZIMRI, OMRI AND AHAB. (1 Kings 16-22.)

1. Who was Zimri?—One of the captains of Elah, son of Baasha. 1 Kings 16: 8, 9.

2. What vengeance did he execute on the wicked family of Jeroboam?—He killed Elah, the third successor of Jeroboam.

3. How long did Zimri reign?—About seven days. 1 Kings 16: 15-19.

4. What was his end?—He burnt himself in his house when surrounded by his enemies.

5. Who reigned over Israel next?—Omri. 1 Kings 16: 16.

6. Who was he? and how long did he reign?—He was commander of the army, and reigned twelve years. 1 Kings 16: 23.

7. What city did he purchase and make the chief city of Israel?—Samaria. 1 Kings 16: 24.

8. What was the name of his son?—Ahab.

9. How was Ahab distinguished above the kings that went before him?—In wickedness. 1 Kings 16: 30.

10. What was the name of his wife? and whose daughter was she?—Jezebel, daughter of the king of Zidon. 1 Kings 16: 31.

11. What new idol-worship was she the means of bringing in?—The worship of Baal.

12. What is recorded of Jericho in his reign?—That it was rebuilt by Hiel. 1 Kings 16: 34.

13. Of what prophecy was this the fulfillment?—Joshua adjured them at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before the Lord that riseth up and buildeth this city Jericho: he shall lay the foundation thereof in his first-born, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it (Josh. 6: 26)—i. e., he should lose all his children during the building of it.

14. Can God's word ever fall to the ground?—No; all must come to pass.

15. Are there any prophecies yet to be fulfilled?—Many in the book of Revelation and elsewhere as to the conversion and restoration of the Jews, the second coming and kingdom of Christ, the last judgment and other events.

16. Are we interested in them?—We are eternally in many of them.

17. In what state should we at all times be found?—Watching and ready, as we "know not what hour" our "Lord doth come." Matt. 24: 42, 44.

ELIJAH DURING FAMINE. (1 Kings 17.)

1. Who was Elijah?—A prophet of Gilcad.

2. Where was Gilcad?—On the east of Jordan.

3. What was Elijah commissioned to tell Ahab?—That there should be neither dew nor rain.

4. Why did God send a famine on the land?—It shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day; that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee: cursed shalt thou be in the city, and cursed shalt thou be in the field. Cursed shall be thy basket and thy store. Cursed shall be the fruit of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep. Deut. 28: 15-18.

5. Where did God promise to provide for Elijah? and how?—By the brook Cherith, and by means of ravens.

6. When the brook dried up, where did the Lord command Elijah to go?—To Zarephath (1 Kings 17: 9), where a widow would sustain him.

7. In what sorrowful employment did Elijah find the woman engaged?—In gathering sticks to dress her last meal.

8. Did she seem aware of the wonderful miracle that was wrought day by day?—No.

9. What should this teach us?—To beware of not observing and not being thankful for the good providence of God.

10. How did the Lord convince her that he was the living God?—By Elijah's restoring her dead child to life.

11. Did she confess it at last?—Yes. 1 Kings 17: 24.

12. What proof have we that God is the living God?—His word by St. Paul that "he giveth to all life and breath and all things," and that "in him we live and move and have our being."

13. Is not the written word of God to us now what the spoken word was by the prophets then?—Yes; "we have a more sure word of prophecy," to which we should "take heed." 2 Pet. 1: 19.

ELIJAH ON CARMEL. (1 Kings 18.)

1. Were Israel at this time idolaters, or worshipers of the true God?—Idolaters—worshipers of Baal.

2. Were all Israel worshipers of Baal?—No; seven thousand of them were not.

3. Who was Obadiah?—Governor or steward of Ahab's house.

4. What kind act had he performed when Jezebel, the wicked queen, slew the Lord's prophets?—He had hid and fed them.

5. How many years had the famine lasted when Elijah stood before Ahab?—Above two years. 1 Kings 18:1.

6. What did Ahab accuse Elijah of doing?—Of being the cause of Israel's trouble.

7. Who was really to blame?—Ahab himself and the other idolaters.

8. How did Elijah propose to decide the point as to who was the living God?—By observing upon whose sacrifice the fire came down from heaven. 1 Kings 18:24.

9. How does Isaiah describe idols?—He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak: he burneth part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied: yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire: and the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it, and worshipeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me; for thou art my god. Isa. 44:14, 16, 17.

10. How does the Psalmist describe them?—Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands. They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they, but they see not: they have ears, but they hear not: noses have they, but they smell not: they have hands, but they handle not: feet have they, but they walk not: neither speak they through their throat. They that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them. Ps. 115:4-8.

11. Was it of any use for Baal's priests to cry to him?—None at all.

12. How did Elijah mock them?—By telling them to cry aloud, as their god might be asleep. 1 Kings 18:27.

13. Did he give them time enough to make a fair trial?—Yes, from morning till evening. 1 Kings 18:26, 29.

14. About what time in the day was it when Elijah built his altar to the true God?—About evening. 1 Kings 18:29, 30.

15. Of what use was the trench he had made round the altar?—That the water might not escape.

16. Why did he drench the sacrifice with water?—To show the power of the fire.

17. How was the power of God manifested?—By the fire drying up the water and burning the wet bullock and wood and stone.

18. What effect did it have on the people?—They fell on their faces and cried out that Jehovah was the true God. 1 Kings 18:39.

19. What became of Baal's priests?—They were taken and slain.

20. What did Elijah venture to promise Ahab even before there was any appearance of it?—Abundance of rain.

21. On what did Elijah's faith rest?—On the promise of God. 1 Kings 18:1.

22. What is faith?—"The substance" or realizing "of things hoped for," "the evidence" or assurance "of things not seen." Heb. 11:1.

23. How many times had Elijah to ask ere the promised blessing came?—Seven or eight times.

24. What should this teach us?—Always to pray, and not to faint. Luke 18:1-7.

25. How was the Lord's power again manifested on Elijah, although he had had a day of such extraordinary energy?—In enabling him to run before Ahab's chariot.

26. Was Elijah like one of us, or was he a supernatural being?—Elias was a man subject to like passions (or infirmities) as we are (a human being like ourselves), and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain; and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months. And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit. James 5:17, 18.

27. Is God as much the hearer and answerer of prayer now as he was then?—He is always the same.

ELIJAH IN THE DESERT. (1 Kings 19.)

1. What proof did Elijah give that he was "a man subject to like passions with us"?—In his weakness of body and mind he requested that he might die. 1 Kings 19:4.

2. To what place did he flee for fear of Jezebel?—To Beersheba. 1 Kings 19:3.

3. What kind care did the Lord take of him there?—An angel brought him bread and water.

4. Was he more than once invited to eat?—Yes, twice. 1 Kings 19:7.

5. For how long did that food sustain him?—Forty days.

6. When he was revived, to what place did he go?—To Mount Horeb.

7. Is it the Lord's will that his servants should be idle?—No; he has always work for every one to do.

8. What did the Lord say to Elijah?—What doest thou here, Elijah?

9. Is this not a striking proof that it is not the Lord's will that people should live shut up in monasteries or live as lonely hermits?—It is.

10. Can any former work excuse them from future service?—Not while the means are in their power.

11. What is God's way of speaking to his people? Is it in the fire, wind and earthquake, or how?—He sometimes speaks in the louder voice of suffering and distress, but more frequently in the gentler one of his Spirit's whisper to the heart.

12. Where can we hear his "still small voice"?—All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works. 2 Tim. 3:16, 17. God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son. Heb. 1:1, 2. We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place. 2 Pet. 1:19.

13. What effect should it have on us?—It should dispose us to say, with Eli, "Speak, Lord, for thy servant heareth." 1 Sam. 3:9.

14. Can any supposed mystery in the dealings of God be an excuse for neglect of duty?—No; we must do our part, and leave God to explain in his own time.

15. What further work did the Lord give Elijah to do?—To anoint two kings and a prophet. 1 Kings 19:15, 16.

16. What effect did the casting of Elijah's mantle on Elisha have?—It made him leave his work and his home for the service to which God had called him.

17. Did Elisha wait till Elijah was taken up? or did he follow him at once?—He followed him at once.

18. What does the Lord say in Prov. 8:17 to encourage young people to follow him?—"Those that seek me early shall find me."

AHAB'S PUBLIC AND PRIVATE CHARACTER. (1 Kings 20 and 21.)

1. What was Ahab's character in the sight of God?—He did more to provoke him than all the kings of Israel before him. 1 Kings 16:33.

2. Had God at this time given up Israel?—No; he still warned them by his prophets.

3. Were there other prophets at this time in Israel besides Elijah?—Yes, there were false prophets, as well as true.

4. Who were Israel's greatest enemies at this time?—The Syrians.

5. What was the capital city of Syria?—Damascus.

6. Who was king of Syria at this time?—Benhadad.

7. What did he purpose to do to Israel?—To destroy Samaria. 1 Kings 20:10.

8. How did the Lord frustrate his design?—By means of the household servants of Ahab's princes when Benhadad and his royal allies were drunk.

9. Was Ahab grateful for this?—Probably not.

10. How did the Lord show his displeasure?—By bringing the Syrians to attack him again. 1 Kings 20:26, 42.

11. Who was Naboth?—The owner of a vineyard near Ahab's palace in Jezreel. 1 Kings 21.

12. Why did he not like to let Ahab have his vineyard?—Because he was forbidden by the law to part with what had come to him from his fathers.

The land shall not be sold for ever; for the land is mine; for ye are strangers and sojourners with me. And in all the land of your possession ye shall grant a redemption for the land. Lev. 25:23, 24.

13. What wicked act did Jezebel stir Ahab up to do?—To kill Naboth and take his vineyard.

14. Did God suffer this to go unpunished?—No.

15. Who was sent to Ahab?—Elijah.

16. How did Ahab salute him?—As his enemy who had found him out, for his conscience pricked him. 1 Kings 21:20.

17. What fearful prediction did he utter?—That God would destroy Ahab's family, and that the dogs should eat the flesh of Jezebel and lick his own blood.

18. How did Ahab receive the tidings?—He showed the outward signs of repentance and humbled himself before God.

19. What proof is there in this place of the truth of Jonah 4:2?—God delayed the punishment.

I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.

THE KINGS OF JUDAH—ABIJAH, ASA AND JEHOSEPHAT. (2 Chron. 13-17.)

1. Who succeeded Rehoboam as king of Judah?—Abijah his son. 2 Chron. 12:16.

2. What was his mother's name? and whose daughter was she?—Michaiah, daughter of Uriel.

3. What beautiful testimony did he bear against Israel's idolatry?—That they had forsaken God and his altars, and made themselves golden calves. 2 Chron. 13:8-11.

4. To whom did the army of Judah cry when they were in danger?—To God. 2 Chron. 13:14.

5. What was the result?—They gained the battle, because they relied upon God.

6. Who followed Abijah on the throne of Judah?—Asa his son. 2 Chron. 14:1.

7. What was Asa's character in God's estimation?—He did what was good and right.

8. What proof did he give of his heart being right with God when he first came to the throne?—He destroyed the idols and their places of worship.

9. Was his early reign prosperous?—Yes, his land was at peace.

10. How did he behave when the vast army from Ethiopia came up against him?—He prayed to God and fought in his name.

11. What was the result?—The Ethiopians fled.

12. Is God the same as he was then?—The same now and for ever.

13. Does he hear and answer prayer now as he did then?—Yes, as every one, whether young or old, can testify who really prays.

14. What encouragement did the Lord give Asa by the mouth of Azariah the prophet?—That God would be with him as long as he was with God, or obedient to him. 2 Chron. 15:1-7.

15. What similar promise is given to us in Prov. 8?—"I love them that love me." Prov. 8:17.

16. What effect did it have on the king and people?—He put down idolatry, and the people made a covenant to seek the Lord with all their heart (2 Chron. 15:8-15), and God gave them peace.

17. Did this happy state of things continue to the end of Asa's reign? How did he behave when Baasha king of Israel came against him?—It continued to the thirty-fifth year of his reign, when, instead of going for help to God, he sent to the king of Syria. 2 Chron. 16:1-4.

18. Did the Lord suffer this to go unnoticed?—No; he sent Hanani to reprove him.

19. What did the prophet say to Asa?—He reminded him of God's readiness to help his people, and told him that henceforth he should have wars.

20. How did Asa receive the reproof?—He was enraged, and put the prophet in prison.

21. How was he punished?—He suffered and died of a painful disease.

22. Are any of our actions hidden from God?—The ways of man are before the eyes of the Lord, and he pondereth all his goings. Prov. 5:21. The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good. Prov. 15:3. Mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes. Jer. 16:17. If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me. Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee. Ps. 139:11, 12.

23. Who succeeded Asa on the throne of Judah?—Jehoshaphat his son. 2 Chron. 17:1.

24. What character did he bear?—He sought the God of his father and walked in his commandments.

25. What beautiful testimony is continually given to David?—That he was a pattern in his general conduct for others to imitate.

26. Was Jehoshaphat's a prosperous reign?—Yes, he was long without war, and became a very great king, and had riches and honor in abundance.

27. Describe his army.—(Read 2 Chron. 17:14-19.)

MICAHIAH. (2 Chron. 18 and 1 Kings 22.)

1. What was the great error of Jehoshaphat's life?—Making an alliance with Ahab.

2. Was Ahab glad to make the compact?—Yes; he made a feast for Jehoshaphat and his servants.

3. Who were the enemies that still fought against Israel?—The Syrians.

4. What place had they taken?—Ramothe-gilead.

5. Where was it?—In the tribe of Gad on the east of Jordan.

6. What did Jehoshaphat require before he would go up to fight?—That the will of God should be known.

7. What did all Ahab's prophets say?—That he might go, and God would be with him. 2 Chron. 18 : 5.

8. Was the king of Judah satisfied?—No.

9. Whom did he wish to consult?—Micaiah.

10. Why did not Ahab like Micaiah?—Because he always prophesied evil unto him.

11. Was it not very foolish of Ahab to be satisfied with lies?—Very.

12. When are we like Ahab in this?—When we let our own ignorant, selfish and sinful wishes influence our conduct and our prayers.

13. What is the only sure test of truth?—God's word.

14. What does the Psalmist say in Ps. 119 : 105, 140?—"Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path" . . . "is very pure."

15. What did Jehoshaphat's love of truth prove him to be?—A true servant of God.

16. What wonderful vision did Micaiah describe?—Of God upon his throne, and the host of heaven around him, and of an evil spirit going forth to entice Ahab to his fall.

17. Is there in Scripture any other display of what occurs in the unseen world?—In Job 1 and Isa. 6, etc.

18. How did Ahab reward the faithful prophet?—He put him in prison.

19. What did Ahab do to prevent his prediction from coming true?—He disguised himself, that he might not be known.

20. What narrow escape had Jehoshaphat in the battle?—The Syrians mistook him for Ahab, and surrounded him.

21. By whom was he delivered?—By God, who caused them to leave him.

22. Can any circumstances be too difficult for the Lord to overrule?—None.

23. How was Ahab killed?—By an arrow shot at random.

24. How was Elijah's prediction in 1 Kings 21 : 19 fulfilled?—The dogs licked up his blood in his chariot.

25. Was it of any use that Ahab disguised himself in the battle?—None at all.

26. Can we hide ourselves from God?—We cannot.

27. What during his life did Ahab build?—Some cities, an ivory house and a sepulchre.

28. Have these works rendered his name honorable?—No.

29. What alone is true honor?—That which comes from God.

ELIJAH AND THE LIVING GOD. (2 Kings 1 and 2.)

1. Which of Ahab's sons succeeded his father?—Ahaziah. 1 Kings 22 : 40.

2. What character did he bear?—He was wicked and idolatrous. 1 Kings 22 : 52, 53.

3. What accident befell him?—He fell from an upper room. 2 Kings 1 : 2.

4. What means did he take for his recovery?—He sent to an idol-god. 2 Kings 1 : 2.

5. What testimony did Elijah bear to this impiety?—He said that he should not recover.

6. What course did Ahaziah take?—He sent soldiers to take him.

7. What befell his messengers?—They were consumed by fire from heaven.

8. Did all share alike?—The last party was spared in answer to their leader's prayer.

9. Was Elijah induced to alter his denunciation against the king?—No.

10. Who reigned in Israel after Ahaziah? and what relation was he to that king?—Jehoram. His brother. 2 Kings 1 : 17 ; 3 : 1.

11. What peculiar testimony did Elijah bear all through his life?—Against idolatry and for the honor of God.

12. Was not Elijah privileged to manifest this in his departure from this world?—God's glory was shown in the miracle wrought and in the translation to heaven.

13. How did that event take place?—In a whirlwind, by a chariot and horses of fire. 2 Kings 2 : 11.

14. Who was permitted to witness it?—Elisha.

15. What favor was Elijah permitted to grant Elisha ere he was parted from him?—To ask what he should do for him.

16. What did Elisha request?—A double portion of Elijah's spirit.

17. How often in Elijah's history is his mantle mentioned?—Three times. 1 Kings 19 : 13, 19 and 2 Kings 2 : 8.

18. Of what is Elijah's mantle a type?—Of the Holy Spirit.

19. How did Elisha use it?—To divide the waters of Jordan.

20. Of what is the parting of Jordan a type?—Of the opening of the way to heaven.

21. How many times before this had Jordan been miraculously divided?—Twice—when Israel entered Canaan, and when Elijah crossed before his death.

22. How did the other prophets recognize the superiority of Elisha?—By the spirit of Elijah resting upon him. 2 Kings 2 : 15.

23. How did they manifest their unbelief?—By proposing to send men to search for Elijah.

24. Did Elisha yield?—He did, at last.

25. What proof did Elisha at once give that he, like Elijah, was the prophet of the living God?—By healing the unwholesome water.

26. What proof of Israel's impiety did the little children give?—They mocked Elisha.

27. What did they mean by "Go up"?—Go up to heaven, like Elijah.

28. How were they punished?—They were killed by bears.

29. Does this not show that even the faults of little children are noticed by God?—It does. He sees and hates all sin.

30. How did Jesus when on earth manifest his love for little children?—By calling them to him and blessing them.

31. And what does the Lord say in Prov. 8 : 17?—Those that seek me early shall find me.

JEHOSHAPHAT. (2 Kings 3 ; 2 Chron. 19, 20.)

1. Did the Lord suffer the evil confederacy which Jehoshaphat had made with Ahab to go unnoticed?—No.

2. Whom did the Lord send to warn the king?—Hanani the seer.

3. How did the Lord show his displeasure when Jehoshaphat joined affinity with Ahaziah, Ahab's son, in sending ships to go to Tarshish?—The ships were wrecked. 1 Kings 22 : 48.

4. When Ahaziah afterward wished his servants to go with Jehoshaphat's, what was his conduct?—He refused. 1 Kings 22 : 49.

5. Was Joram (son of Ahab) a better man than either his brother Ahaziah or his father?—He was better in putting away the image of Baal, but in other respects he was very wicked. 2 Kings 3 : 2, 3.

6. Did Jehoshaphat consent to go to battle with him?—He did. 2 Kings 3 : 7.

7. Whom did they go to fight?—The Moabites.

8. What other king went with them?—The king of Edom. 2 Kings 3 : 9.

9. What signal honor did the prophet Elisha put upon Jehoshaphat?—He told Jehoram that he would not have noticed him but for Jehoshaphat's sake. 2 Kings 3 : 14.

10. Why had Elisha been sent for?—To know from him whether the Moabites would be defeated or not.

11. How did the Lord appear for them?—He deceived the Moabites, by the miraculous appearance of reddened water, with the belief that the armies of the three kings had destroyed one another. 2 Kings 3 : 16, 20-23.

12. What frightful sacrifice did the king of Moab offer to propitiate his gods?—His eldest son as a burnt-offering. 2 Kings 3 : 27.

13. How did the king of Moab soon after try to revenge this defeat?—By making war against Jehoshaphat. 2 Chron. 20 : 1.

14. What kings joined with him?—The Ammonites and others.

15. How did Jehoshaphat feel?—He was afraid. 2 Chron. 20 : 3.

16. What did he do?—He proclaimed a fast and prayed to God before the people.

17. Who was Jahaziel?—A Levite.

18. What gracious message did the Lord send by him?—That he would destroy their enemies without a battle.

19. Did Jehoshaphat and his people believe the message that thus came to them from God?—Yes, and united together in praising God.

20. Does not God always honor faith in himself?—He does.

21. What is said of faith in Heb. 11 : 1?—That it "is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen."

22. What is the message that God has given us of his Son which it is necessary for us to believe if we would be saved?—That "the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin." 1 John 1 : 7.

23. Did Jehoshaphat and his people wait till after the victory before they began to praise, or did they begin before the fight?—They praised God as soon as his promise was given.

24. How did this prove their faith in God's word?—It showed that they realized what would come to pass. Heb. 11 : 1.

25. What is said of praise in Ps. 50 : 23?—That it honors God.

Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me; and to him that ordereth his conversation aright will I show the salvation of God.

26. What spoils did they gain?—Abundance of riches and jewels. 2 Chron. 20 : 25.

27. Of what is this a type?—Of the treasure in heaven of those who conquer on earth in the victory of faith.

28. What effect did this great conquest have on the nations around?—The fear of God was upon them, and they troubled Jehoshaphat no more. 2 Chron. 20 : 29, 30.

29. With whom is Jehoshaphat compared as to goodness?—With Asa his father.

30. What great abomination did he, notwithstanding all his excellence, leave in the land?—The high places of the heathen gods.

31. Which of his sons did Jehoshaphat make king during his own life?—Jehoram.

32. How long did Jehoram enjoy this honor before his father's death?—About a year. Compare 2 Kings 1 : 17 with 2 Kings 3 : 1 ; 8 : 16 ; and 2 Chron. 20 : 31.

33. How old was Jehoshaphat when he died? and how long had he reigned?—Sixty years old, having reigned twenty-five.

ELISHA'S MIRACLES—THE WATERS OF JERICHO. (2 Kings 2.)

1. Which was the last city Elijah and Elisha visited ere Elijah ascended to heaven?—Jericho. 2 Kings 2 : 4.

2. Did Elijah ascend near this place?—Yes, by Jordan.

3. By whom was Jericho chiefly inhabited at this time?—By students in the schools of the prophets.

4. Did Elisha return there?—Yes. 2 Kings 2 : 18.

5. How long did he stay there?—Only a short time. 2 Kings 2 : 23, 25.

6. What caused the waters of this place to be barren?—The curse of God.

7. By whom, and when, had the curse on Jericho been pronounced?—By Joshua, after the taking of the city.

8. What was Elisha permitted to do?—To make the water good.

9. How did he do it?—By casting a little salt into it, accompanied by the healing power of God.

10. Of what was salt a type in Scripture?—Of divine grace in the heart and life. "Ye are the salt of the earth." Matt. 5 : 13.

11. What peculiar quality has salt besides its being savory?—Of preserving things from corruption.

12. Of what, then, is it a symbol?—Of divine grace.

13. Were not the children of Israel commanded to use salt with their sacrifices?—Every oblation of thy meat-offering shalt thou season with salt; neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meat-offering; with all thine offerings thou shalt offer salt. Lev. 2 : 13.

14. How was this salt, thus used in the sacrifice, a type of the Lord Jesus Christ?—See 1 Tim. 3 : 16 ; Phil. 2 : 5-8.

15. By whom must the curse pronounced on this earth be removed?—Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us; for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree. Gal. 3 : 13.

THE WIDOW'S OIL. (2 Kings 4 : 1-7.)

1. Who cried to Elisha?—The wife of one of the sons of the prophets.

2. Why did she cry to him?—Because he was the chief of the prophets.

3. What was her trouble?—That a creditor of her late husband had taken her two sons for bondmen for the debt.

4. What plea had she to offer?—That her husband had been a servant of God.

5. What did he command her to do?—To borrow several empty vessels and fill them from her pot of oil.

6. When did the oil stop running?—Only when there were no more vessels to fill.

7. Of what is oil in the Scripture a type?—Of the Holy Spirit.

8. What does the Lord promise us if we ask for this blessed gift?—If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him! Luke 11: 13.

9. Is there any limit to God's supply? or can we receive this heavenly gift according to the empty vessel we bring to receive it?—There is no limit in God, but only in ourselves. He says, "Open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it." Ps. 81: 10.

10. How must our debt be paid?—By Jesus Christ, wholly and alone.

11. After our "debt" is paid on whom must we depend for the life of our souls?—On Jesus still.

12. Where was Shunem?—In the tribe of Issachar.

13. How was Elisha entertained by a rich woman there?—She and her husband set apart a room, to be for his use whenever he came that way, because she knew him to be a holy man of God. 2 Kings 4: 8-10.

14. What kind gift did the Lord bestow upon her for Elisha's sake?—A child when she had none.

15. What happened to this child?—He died by a sun-stroke.

16. Where was Elisha at the time?—At Mount Carmel. 2 Kings 4: 25.

17. How did the poor mother act?—She set off quickly to Elisha.

18. What was her reply when Elisha inquired after the welfare of her household?—"It is well." 2 Kings 4: 26.

19. What did this prove?—Her resignation to God's will and her assurance of her child being in heaven.

20. What means did Elisha at first use to recover the child?—His servant laid Elisha's staff upon the child. 2 Kings 4: 31.

21. Did the Lord permit it to be effectual?—No.

22. What did Elisha then do?—Elisha prayed, and then stretched himself upon the child, and he revived.

23. Can God work as well without means as with them?—He can.

24. How does the Lord usually act?—By means.

25. What did the restoration of this child prove Elisha to have been?—A true prophet and servant of God.

THE MEAL AND THE CORN. (2 Kings 4: 38-44.)

1. What was the Lord Jesus manifested to destroy?—"The works of the devil." 1 John 3: 8.

2. What was Satan's first great work?—Bringing sin and death into the world by Adam's fall.

3. By what means did the Lord Jesus destroy it?—By his own death.

As the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. Heb. 2: 14, 15.

4. In what respect were the miracles Elisha was allowed to perform similar to the mission of the Lord Jesus?—In restoring or creating health and life.

5. How did the miracle of the meal thrown into the pot of wild gourds show this?—It was an instance of a cause of death being taken away.

6. What great distinction was there between the idols Israel at this time worshiped and Jehovah?—They were without power and without life, and were worshiped with unholy rites, and by the sacrifice, instead of the service, of human lives.

7. Is not death Satan's greatest triumph?—Yes, the death or ruin of the soul.

The wages of sin is death. Rom. 6: 23.

In Adam all die. 1 Cor. 15: 22.

8. In what, then, will the power of the Lord Jesus be the most manifestly seen?—In triumphing over death.

Death is swallowed up in victory. Thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ! 1 Cor. 15: 54, 57.

9. What other alone attribute of Jehovah is ascribed to the Lord Jesus?—Creation.

Who is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of every creature: for by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: and he is before all things, and by him all things consist. Col. 1: 15-17.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. John 1: 1-3.

When he prepared the heavens, I was there: when he set a compass upon the face of the depth: when he established the clouds above: when he strengthened the fountains of the deep: when he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment: when he appointed the foundations of the earth. Prov. 8: 27-29.

By the word of the Lord were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth. Ps. 33: 6.

God . . . created all things by Jesus Christ. Eph. 3: 9.

10. How did Elisha attempt to teach Israel, by using this power given to him, that he was the prophet of the living God?—By doing miracles connected with the preservation or restoration of life, and by praying to God as the living God.

11. Were there any of the miracles that the Lord Jesus wrought when on earth similar to this?—The turning the water into wine and healing various diseases.

12. Had the miracles of Elisha the effect of winning Israel back from their fearful idolatry?—No.

13. What was the Lord's merciful design in sending Elisha with such signs and wonders to his people?—To bring them back to himself, and save them from the punishment due to their guilt.

14. Did the miracles of the Lord Jesus convince the children of Israel in his day that he was "God manifest in the flesh"?—No; their hearts were so hardened in willful ignorance, self-righteousness and sin that they would not believe.

15. Should not this check the feeling that may arise in our hearts that if we had seen a miracle we should certainly have believed?—Yes; it should make us deeply thankful if God has given us to believe.

Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay, Father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead they will repent. And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead. Luke 16: 29-31.

16. What does the apostle Peter call the word of God?—"A more sure word of prophecy, . . . that came not in old time by the will of man; but" was spoken by "holy men of God, . . . moved by the Holy Ghost." 2 Pet. 1: 16-21.

NAAMAN. (2 Kings 5.)

1. With what loathsome disease was Naaman afflicted?—Leprosy.

2. Who was he?—Commander of the army of the king of Syria.

3. What did the little captive maid recommend her master to do?—She wished he was with Elisha, as he would cure him. 2 Kings 5: 3.

4. Did he go?—Yes.

5. How did Elisha receive him?—He sent a message to him to wash in Jordan and be clean. 2 Kings 5: 10.

6. What had Naaman expected?—That Elisha would come to him and in a solemn manner call upon God to heal him.

7. Was he induced to try the remedy?—Yes; his pride and anger yielded to the wise advice of those about him.

8. What was the result?—He was perfectly cured.

9. Is there any lesson to be gained by us in this history?—Yes, humbleness of mind.

10. Of what is leprosy a type in Scripture?—Of sin.

11. How must sin be put away?—There shall be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for uncleanness (Zech. 13: 1)—the fountain of the cleansing blood of Christ, sprinkled on the heart by faith.

12. To whom does the prophet in that verse refer?—To Jesus Christ, who "washed us from our sins in his own blood." Rev. 1: 5.

These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Rev. 7: 14.

How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God! Heb. 9: 14.

13. How do we get this good news?—By the gospel.

14. Are we, like Naaman, desiring some other way than God's appointed way?—By nature we expect and try to wholly or partly save ourselves.

15. If so, in what state must we still remain?—Dis-eased and dead.

16. Will God say any more to us than he has said—"Wash and be clean"?—No; the gospel invitation is the same. Come, and rest. Believe, and live.

17. If so, why do we hesitate?—From unbelief, pride, sloth and love of sin and the world.

18. What was the blessed result of Naaman's falling in with God's simple plan?—A perfect cure.

19. What will be the thrice-blessed result to us if we are washed and cleansed in the blood of Jesus?—Complete salvation.

20. Ought each of us to tell what we know of the efficacy of this precious fountain?—We ought to do so, for the glory of God and the good of man.

21. If a little captive maid could be the means of such blessing to an earthly master, is there not something that each of us can do to spread the knowledge of a Saviour's worth among the heathen of our day?—Some can give themselves, and all a portion of their money and their time, their influence and their prayers.

GEHAZI. (2 Kings 5: 20-27.)

1. What dreadful sins did covetousness lead Elisha's servant to commit?—Lying and tempting God's Spirit.

2. What is said of covetousness in 1 Tim. 6: 9, 10?—They that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is the root of all evil; which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

3. What proof does Gehazi's example afford us of the truth of Rom. 2: 28, 29; Gal. 6: 15?—He was evidently, amidst all his religious privileges, an unconverted man.

He is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh: but he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God. Rom. 2: 28, 29.

For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature. Gal. 6: 15.

4. Can any outward rite or ceremony, any family connection or outward recognition by the people of God, make us indeed and of a truth "a member of Christ, a child of God and an inheritor of the kingdom of heaven"?—It cannot.

5. What is necessary?—Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. John 3: 3.

6. How is this new birth described in 2 Cor. 5: 17?—If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature; old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

7. What is it called in James 1: 18?—Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits of his creatures.

8. What was Gehazi compelled from this day and forward to do?—To live apart.

The leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be rent, and his head bare, and he shall put a covering upon his upper lip, and shall cry, Unclean, unclean! All the days wherein the plague shall be in him he shall be defiled; he is unclean; he shall dwell alone; without the camp shall his habitation be. Lev. 13: 45, 46.

9. What blessed contrast to this had Naaman experienced?—The being brought near.

At that time ye were without Christ, having no hope, and without God in the world: but now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. Eph. 2: 12, 13.

10. Ought we not to examine ourselves, lest we should be deceived in so momentous a question?—Yes, both as to our hearts and lives.

11. How did David do this in Ps. 51: 10; 139: 23, 24?—He prayed for "a clean heart;" and said, "Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting."

12. Can we do better than follow his example, seeing our Master is omniscient, and can see our most secret actions, even as Elisha was permitted to know Gehazi's secret sin?—We cannot; and we should do it at once, before our heart gets hard.

13. Why is God's estimate of us so much more correct than the estimate man forms of us?—The Lord seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart. 1 Sam. 16: 7.

ELISHA MANIFESTING THE LORD'S ATTRIBUTES. (2 Kings 6, 7, 8: 1-6.)

1. What signal proof did Elisha give of God's omnipotent power? What is the meaning of "omnipotent"?—Making an iron axe-head to swim. 2 Kings 6. All-powerful, or able to do everything.

2. Why was it remarkable that iron should swim?—Because when not hollow it is much heavier than water.

3. What proof did Elisha next give of God's omniscient power?—By knowing from God and telling the king of Syria's designs. 2 Kings 6: 9.

4. What is the meaning of "omniscience"?—Knowing everything.

5. How was the king of Syria affected by this?—He was much troubled, and suspected his own people of betraying him.

6. What means did he use to prevent it?—He sent a host of men to take him.

7. Who was king of Israel at this time?—Jehoram. 2 Kings 3: 1.

8. How did Elisha's servant feel when he saw the host of Syrians?—He was greatly afraid.

9. Why was not Elisha equally frightened?—Because he had confidence in God.

10. Are not the people of God always as safe as Elisha was, whether they see it or not?—They are safe from all harm that God does not permit.

The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them. Ps. 34: 7.

The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels: the Lord is among them, as in Sinai, in the holy place. Ps. 68: 17.

11. How did this wonderful circumstance manifest God's omnipresence?—Without that attribute he would not have known of Elisha's danger, or been ready to help him.

12. By what means did Elisha lead this host from Dothan to Samaria?—By blinding them.

13. Did it quite baffle the Syrians at that time?—Yes; they came no more.

14. Was the king of Israel (Joram) taught by this the wondrous power that rested on his favored land? What course did he take toward Elisha when the Syrians came against him and besieged Samaria?—It seems not. He threatened to kill him.

15. How did Elisha receive the king's messenger?—He ordered him to be shut out.

16. Did Joram himself go down with the executioner?—He did.

17. How did Elisha receive the king? and what did he promise him?—He called upon him to hear the word of the Lord, and promised him plenty.

18. Who accompanied the king?—One of his lords.

19. What unbelieving speech did he make?—That unless God were to make windows in heaven the promise could not be fulfilled.

20. Was not this a very fearful famine?—Yes, for a woman fed upon her own child. 2 Kings 6: 29.

21. Was that any reason why God could not do what he had promised?—None at all.

22. How was the wondrous change of events brought about?—By making the Syrians fancy they heard the noise of a great host, God caused them to fly for their lives and leave all their provisions behind.

23. Have we not here a proof of God's faithfulness and mercy?—Yes—of his faithfulness to his promise, and of his mercy to his people.

24. How was the prediction respecting the nobleman fulfilled?—He was trodden to death by the crowd as they rushed out of the city for food.

25. Have we not here a display of God's justice?—We have—a striking one.

26. How many attributes of God has this Scripture lesson displayed?—Five—his omnipotence, omniscience, faithfulness, mercy and justice.

27. How does the remaining history of the Shunammite woman show God's providence?—She had the land that she had left restored to her on her return. 2 Kings 8: 6.

JEHU. (2 Kings 8: 7-15; 9, 10.)

1. Of whom is it said, "He putteth down one and setteth up another" king?—Of God. Ps. 77: 7.

2. Whom did Elisha anoint king of Syria?—Elisha told Hazael that he should be king. 2 Kings 8: 13.

3. Was he chosen by God for his goodness?—No.

4. Was he not greatly shocked when Elisha told him what he would do?—He was. 2 Kings 8: 13.

5. Ought not this exhibition of the evil of man's nature make us cry out as in Ps. 2: 10, 11?—It should.

Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy Holy Spirit from me.

6. Whom had the Lord already appointed king of Israel?—Jehu. 1 Kings 19: 16.

7. Who anointed him?—A young prophet sent by Elisha. 1 Kings 9: 1-6.

8. Who was Jehu? and where was he at this time?—A captain in the army, at Ramoth-gilead.

9. Where was Joram (king of Israel) at this time?—At Jezreel. 1 Kings 9: 15.

10. Who was visiting Joram?—Ahaziah, king of Judah. 1 Kings 9: 16.

11. Was Jehu long in executing God's vengeance?—No; he set about it instantly.

12. Had not the time arrived to which God had postponed it?—It had.

Seest thou how Ahab humbleth himself before me? because he humbleth himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days; but in his son's days will I bring the evil upon his house. 1 Kings 21: 29.

13. What now delays God's threatened vengeance on this apostate earth?—The long-suffering of God.

The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long-suffering to usward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 2 Pet. 3: 9.

14. Did Jezebel (Joram's mother), Ahab's wicked wife, escape? How was she slain?—No. She was thrown down from a window and killed. 2 Kings 9: 33.

15. What had been predicted of her? and by whom?—Elijah had prophesied (1 Kings 21: 23) that the dogs should eat her flesh in Jezreel.

16. Of whom is Jezebel the type?—Of any wicked Church or people that has cast off the true love and worship of God. Rev. 2: 20-22; 17, 18, 19: 1-3.

17. What did Ahaziah king of Judah get by being found in such company?—He was killed also. 2 Kings 9: 27.

18. What warning does the Lord give his people now in Rev. 18: 4?—Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

19. What was Jehu's character?—He showed great zeal for the outward worship of God, but was in other respects a wicked man.

20. Having executed God's vengeance on the king and his mother, how did he act toward the rest of Ahab's family?—He had them all beheaded.

21. What family relationship did there exist at this time between the royal families of Judah and Israel?—Jehoram was Ahaziah's uncle.

22. In what calamity did this involve the former?—Ahaziah's family were slain. 2 Kings 10: 13, 14.

23. How did Jehu treat Baal's worshippers?—He had them all slain. 2 Kings 10: 23-25.

24. Whom did he meet on the way?—Jehonadab, son of Rechab. 2 Kings 10: 15.

25. To what family did this man belong?—The Kenites.

26. Is he ever mentioned in Scripture again?—In Jer. 35, where is also mentioned his command to his family and descendants to drink no wine.

27. Did Jehu thoroughly destroy Baal-worship in Israel?—Yes. 2 Kings 10: 28.

28. What promise did the Lord make to him for thus fulfilling his will?—That his children for four generations should sit on the throne of Israel. 2 Kings 10: 30.

29. Did he destroy the calves of Bethel as well as Baal, or leave that cursed idolatry in the land?—He left that idolatry still.

30. Then Jehu, after all, fell short of the worship of the true God?—Very far short.

31. What fearful lesson does this teach us?—To be thoroughly sound in our Christian profession, lest, like the fig tree with leaves but no fruit, we be discovered and destroyed at the last. Mark 11: 13, 20.

32. What does the Lord find on us? Are we bearing fruit, or is there nothing on us but the leaves of an empty profession?—Let the conscience of each answer as in the sight of God.

33. How long did Jehu reign? and who succeeded him?—Twenty-eight years. 2 Kings 10: 36. Jehoahaz, his son. 2 Kings 13: 1.

JEHU'S DYNASTY; ELISHA'S DEATH. (2 Kings 13, 14, 15: 1-12.)

1. What character did Jehoahaz bear?—He was a wicked man. 2 Kings 13: 2.

2. How did the Lord punish Israel?—By delivering them into the hands of the king of Syria.

3. What effect did this have upon the king?—He prayed to God for relief, and was heard, but idolatry still continued in the land.

4. How long did he reign? and who succeeded him?—Seventeen years. Joash, his son.

5. Was he a better king? Describe him.—He was no better, but walked, like his father, in Jeroboam's sins.

6. What sorrowful event happened in this reign?—The death of Elisha.

7. When Joash heard of the prophet's illness, what did he do?—He came and wept over him, and praised him.

8. What symbolical prophecy did the prophet cause the king to act at this interview?—Shooting, and striking the ground with arrows, as a token of success against the Syrians.

9. What miraculous event took place in connection with Elisha's remains?—A dead man revived when his body touched them.

10. Where was Moab situated?—On the south-east of the Dead Sea.

11. Where was Elisha's grave, supposing he was buried in the inheritance of his fathers?—At Abel-meholah in Simeon, where his father lived.

12. Was Elisha's prophecy fulfilled in the days of Joash (called also Jehoash)?—Joash defeated the Syrians thrice, as Elisha had said.

13. How came Israel and Judah to go to war in this reign?—Because the king of Judah challenged the king of Israel to do so. 2 Kings 14: 8.

14. What insolent message did Joash send to Amaziah?—He proudly replied that he would crush him as a wild beast does a thistle.

15. On which side did victory turn?—On Israel's side.

16. How long did Joash (or Jehoash) reign?—Sixteen years. 2 Kings 13: 10.

17. Who succeeded Joash on the throne of Israel?—Jeroboam his son. 2 Kings 14: 16.

18. How many years did he reign?—Forty-one. 2 Kings 14: 23.

19. Of what character was he, morally?—He did evil in the sight of the Lord.

20. What kind of king and warrior was he?—He was successful in war, and recovered some border-lands which Israel had lost.

21. How came it that Jeroboam was so victorious?—Because of God's pity and promise. 2 Kings 14: 25-27.

22. How many prophets besides Jonah prophesied in this reign?—Four—Isaiah, Hosea, Joel and Amos.

23. Who succeeded Jeroboam II.?—Zachariah his son.

24. Was his a long or short reign?—Only six months. 2 Kings 15: 8.

25. How did he come by his death?—He was killed by Shallum. 2 Kings 15: 10.

26. What promise had the Lord given Jehu?—That his sons should be kings of Israel for four generations.

27. How was this fulfilled?—In the succession of Jehoahaz, Joash, Jeroboam and Zachariah.

28. What is said in Isa. 46: 9, 10?—I am God, and there is none like me, declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure.

JONAH, HOSEA AND AMOS.

JONAH.

1. Is there any prophesying of Jonah's recorded besides the book called by his name?—The prophecy of the reconquest by Jeroboam. 2 Kings 14: 25.

2. Why is he generally styled "the disobedient prophet"?—Because he fled away when ordered by God to go to Nineveh.

3. Against whom was he commanded to prophesy?—Against the Ninevites.

4. How is Nineveh described in Scripture?—An exceeding great city, of three days' journey (or sixty miles) round.

5. Do the vast ruins lately discovered confirm or contradict this Scripture testimony?—They strongly confirm it.

6. Why did Jonah shrink from his errand?—From fear of being killed, or of seeming to be a false prophet if God's threatenings were mercifully unfulfilled, or from a dislike to prophesy to a mere heathen nation.

7. Is it of any use for man to refuse to fulfill the will of God?—None.

Woe unto him that striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands? Isa. 45:9.

That saith of Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure. Isa. 44:28.

8. How did the Lord overtake Jonah in his rebellion?—By a storm at Sea.

9. What did the mariners strive to do?—To save their lives by calling on their gods and lightening the ship, and rowing hard to reach the land.

10. Was it of any use?—No.

11. How did Jonah own God's righteous dealing?—By telling them of his flight, and that the storm was on his account.

12. When thrown overboard, how did God preserve him?—By means of a great fish he had prepared.

13. Is Jehovah God ever at a loss to fulfill his purposes?—Never.

14. How did Jonah feel when in the fish's belly?—Cast out of God's sight.

15. How was Jonah's case a fulfillment of Ps. 139?—He found it impossible to flee from God's presence.

If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea; even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me. Ps. 139:9, 10.

16. If the Lord could hear Jonah from the depths of the sea, can we be in any circumstances beyond the reach of his arm to save?—Never.

17. When the Lord again commanded Jonah to go to Nineveh, did he obey?—He did. Jonah 3.

18. What was the result of his preaching?—The king and people believed God, and repented and turned from their evil way.

19. How did Jonah like this?—He was very angry that his threatening was not fulfilled, fearing, perhaps, that he would not be considered a true prophet, and that the Israelites would not repent when they saw that Nineveh was spared.

20. How did the Lord comfort and reprove Jonah?—By giving him a shade from the heat, and by rebuking his anger at its loss.

21. Is not God's mercy to the Ninevites a pledge to us of his mercy and his grace?—It is, if our repentance is as deep and sincere.

22. How may it be that these poor heathen may rise in condemnation against us at the last day?—If we do not repent under the teaching and preaching of God's word.

23. But how much are our privileges greater than theirs?—God hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son. Heb. 1:2. Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip. Heb. 2:1.

24. Where is Nineveh?—On the river Tigris, in the ancient Assyria, and near the modern towns of Mosul and Bagdad.

25. What attribute of the Lord's glorious character does his conduct toward Nineveh display?—His wonderful mercy.

26. Where is Nineveh first mentioned in Scripture?—In Gen. 10:11, where Asshur is said to have built it.

27. How old must this great city have been when Jonah prophesied against it?—About fifteen hundred years.

HOSEA.

28. Who was Hosea?—A prophet, son of Beeri.

29. In whose reigns did he prophesy?—In the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the reign of Jeroboam, son of Joash, king of Israel.

30. What touching expostulation does the Lord address to Israel in Hos. 11:8?—How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

31. Who is meant by Ephraim?—Israel.

32. Why is the name of Ephraim given to Israel?—Because the tribe of Ephraim was the chief part of the kingdom of Israel.

33. What idolatries of Israel are alluded to in Hos. 13?—The worship of Baal and the golden calves.

34. What beautiful invitation is given in Hos. 14:1, 2?—O Israel, return unto the Lord thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity. Take with you words, and turn to the Lord: say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously.

35. Does the Lord only address such gracious words to Israel as a nation, or may we believe them spoken to us?—"For our sakes, no doubt, this is written," as sinners in every age and of every country need the same mercy and the same invitation. 1 Cor. 9:9, 10.

AMOS.

36. Who was Amos?—A native of Tekoah in Judah, and a prophet.

37. What was his occupation when the Lord called him to be a prophet?—That of a herdsman or shepherd.

38. Against how many nations does he prophesy before he utters his denunciations against Israel?—Against six—Syria, Philistia, Tyre, Edom, Ammon and Moab.

39. Into what two sins of Israel does Amos 2:12 give us an insight?—Drunkenness and rejection of God's word and prophets.

40. How does Amos 3:12 show us that according to our privileges so will our punishment be?—You only have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities.

41. Point out our Lord's parables that more fully explain this.—The wicked husbandmen (Matt. 21:33), the marriage-feast (Matt. 22), and our Lord's denunciation against Capernaum. Matt. 11:23.

42. What prophecy against the altar of Bethel does Amos 3 also contain?—In the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel upon him I will also visit the altars of Bethel; and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.

43. When was this fulfilled? and by whom?—About one hundred and sixty years after, by Josiah.

The altar that was at Bethel, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he brake down, and burned the high place, and stamped it small to powder, and burned the grove. 2 Kings 23:15.

44. What great similarity is there between Amos 4 and Deut. 28?—Amos 4 seems to be a fulfillment of the curses of drought, famine and pestilence pronounced in Deut. 28 upon their national sins.

45. What prophecy is there in the lamentation of Amos (chap. 5) that Stephen quotes in Acts 7?—Vs. 25-27; Acts 7:42, 43.

46. What proofs of Israel's luxury at this time (in the reign of Jeroboam II.) does Amos 6 give us?—(Read vs. 4-6.)

47. What did Amaziah the priest of Bethel send and say to Jeroboam when Amos had uttered these prophecies?—That Amos was conspiring against him. Amos 7:10.

48. What did he advise Amos to do? and why?—To go into Judah to live and to prophesy, as Bethel was the king's court.

49. What sins of Israel does Amos 8 set forth?—Dishonesty, oppression and neglect of God's word. Vs. 5, 6, 11, 12.

50. After the fearful denunciations of chaps. 8 and 9, what predictions of after glory does the last chapter close with?—The restoration of Israel to their own land in plenty and peace.

51. By whom must "the fallen tabernacle of David" be reared?—By Jesus Christ.

He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: and he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. Luke 1:32, 33.

THE LAST KINGS OF ISRAEL. (2 Kings 15-17.)

1. Who slew Zachariah, the last of Jehu's dynasty?—Shallum. 2 Kings 15:10.

10. How long did Pekah reign?—Twenty years.

11. Which was the last king of Israel?—Hoshea.

12. How long did he reign?—Nine years. 2 Kings 17:1.

13. Which of the kings of Assyria came against him?—Shalmaneser.

14. Did Israel conquer, or the Assyrians?—The Assyrians.

15. How was this?—The Lord shall bring thee, and thy king which thou shalt set over thee, unto a nation which neither thou nor thy fathers have known; and there shalt thou serve other gods, wood and stone. Moreover, all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee, and overtake thee, till thou be destroyed; because thou hearkenedst not unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded thee. Deut. 28:36, 45.

16. Had not God often warned them of their danger?—Yes, by his prophets.

17. Will not all God's threatenings be fulfilled, as well as his promises?—They will.

18. What has God said in his word shall be the punishment of impenitent sinners?—"Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." Luke 3:13.

19. If we slight the word of God as Israel did of old, what must we expect?—Punishment—as a nation, here; and as individuals, here and hereafter, now and for ever.

20. Have we a remedy? What is it?—To "return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon" us. Isa. 55:6, 7.

21. To what places was Israel carried captive?—To places in Media and Mesopotamia.

22. Who were brought in to fill the depopulated cities?—People from Babylon and the regions around it. 2 Kings 17:24.

3. Whose daughter was Joram's wife?—Ahab's. 2 Chron. 21:6.

4. What effect did this unholy alliance have on the king?—It led him into the sins of Ahab's house. 2 Chron. 21:6.

5. How many years did Joram reign jointly with his father?—About two. 2 Kings 8:16.

6. What was the first wicked thing he did after his father was dead and he reigned alone?—He killed his brothers. 2 Chron. 21:4.

7. What kingdom revolted from under the sway of Judah in this reign?—Edom, and the city of Libnah.

8. What message came to him from God by the hand of Elijah the prophet?—Of a great plague or affliction for his family and people, and a mortal disease for himself.

9. By what death did he die?—By a long and painful illness.

10. How long had he reigned?—Eight years.

11. Who succeeded him?—Ahaziah his son.

12. By what three names is this king called?—Ahaziah, Jehoahaz and Azariah. 2 Chron. 21:17; 22:1, 6.

13. By which is he more generally called?—Ahaziah. 2 Kings 9.

14. Which of Joram's sons was he?—The youngest.

15. Why did not Joram's eldest son reign?—Because he had been killed with his brothers.

16. What did this prove?—That Elijah's message had come true.

17. To what untimely end did this king of Judah come?—He was killed, with Joram, by order of Jehu.

18. How did it happen?—He had gone under the guidance of God to visit Joram. 2 Kings 8:29; 2 Chron. 22:7.

19. What was the name of Ahaziah's mother?—Athaliah.

20. When she saw her son was dead, what cruel act did she exercise toward his children, her own grandchildren?—She had them all but one destroyed.

21. Name her father and mother.—Ahab and Jezebel.

22. When we see how much evil the good Jehoshaphat brought on his family by his alliance with Ahab, should it not make us most careful as to the company we keep?—It should indeed.

Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners. 1 Cor. 15:33.

Be not deceived: God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that scoweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. Gal. 6:7, 8.

23. How was one grandchild unexpectedly preserved?—He was hid by Jehoshabeath. 2 Chron. 22:11.
24. What relation was the good Jehoshabeath to the little boy?—His aunt.
25. How long did the wicked Athaliah keep the throne?—Six years. 2 Chron. 22:12.
26. What was her end?—She was slain when Joash, the lawful king, was raised to the throne.
27. How old was the young king when he began to reign?—Seven.
28. How long did he continue to do well?—During the life of Jehoiada the priest, about twenty-eight years.
29. What good service did he do the temple of God during Jehoiada's life?—He repaired and refitted it. 2 Chron. 24:4-14.
30. To what commandment by Moses did the king refer as to the contribution to the Lord's service?—And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, When thou takest the sum of the children of Israel after their number, then shall they give every man a ransom for his soul unto the Lord, when thou numberest them: that there be no plague among them, when thou numberest them. This they shall give, every one that passeth among them that are numbered, half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary (a shekel is twenty gerahs): an half shekel shall be the offering of the Lord. Every one that passeth among them that are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering unto the Lord. The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, when they give an offering unto the Lord, to make an atonement for your souls. And thou shalt take the atonement money of the children of Israel, and shalt appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; that it may be a memorial unto the children of Israel before the Lord, to make an atonement for your souls. Ex. 30:11-16.
31. How old was the good Jehoiada when he died?—One hundred and thirty years. 2 Chron. 24:15.
32. What honor did they show his remains?—They buried him among the kings.
33. How did Joash behave after his uncle's death?—He worshiped idols.
34. Whom did the Lord send to warn him of his sins?—Zechariah the son of Jehoiada.
35. What did Joash cause to be done to him?—To be stoned to death.
36. What did Zechariah say in dying?—"The Lord look upon it, and require it."
37. Is his death alluded to in the New Testament?—That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar. Matt. 23:35.
38. How did the Lord punish Judah for their idolatry?—By the Syrian army.
39. How did he punish this wicked king?—By great diseases.
40. In what way did he die?—He was killed by his own servants.
41. How long did he reign?—Forty years. 2 Chron. 24:1.
42. Who succeeded him?—Amaziah his son.
43. Was Amaziah a better man than his father?—Probably not, as his heart was not right toward God, and as, after reigning well for some time, he fell into idolatry.
44. How did God try his faith?—By telling him to trust him to replace the loss of one hundred talents which he had paid for the hire of an Israelitish army. 2 Chron. 25:6-10.
45. Did he continue to serve the Lord?—No. 2 Chron. 25:14, 27.
46. What new idolatry did he introduce?—The gods of Edom. 2 Chron. 25:14, 20.
47. How was he punished for this?—By defeat in war and by conspiracy at home.
48. How did he die?—He was killed by his own people.
49. How long did he reign?—Twenty-nine years.
50. Which king of Israel reigned at the same time?—Joash or Jehoash.
51. What battle did these two kings fight?—The battle of Bethshemesh.
52. Which was victorious? Why?—Joash, because of Amaziah's idolatry.
53. Does not this show us that all our actions are no- ticed by God?—Yes, and that he punishes idolatry, boasting and all other sin.

UZZIAH, JOTHAM AND AHAZ, KINGS OF JUDAH. (2 Chron. 26-32.)

1. Who was Uzziah?—Amaziah's son.
2. How old was he when he began to reign?—Sixteen.
3. By what other name is he called?—Azariah. 2 Kings 15:1.
4. What king was reigning in Israel at this time?—Jeroboam II.
5. How many prophets prophesied in the reign of Uzziah?—Five—Isaiah, Hosea, Joel, Amos and Jonah.
6. What is said of Uzziah in 2 Chron. 26:5?—That while he sought the Lord he prospered.
7. How was this manifested in the early part of his reign?—By great success in war. 2 Chron. 26:6-15.
8. By whose influence was he kept in the right way?—By the influence of Zechariah, a man of God.
9. What effect did prosperity have on him?—It lifted up his heart.
10. What does it mean by his heart being lifted up?—That he was proud and presumptuous.
11. What does the Lord say about pride in the Scripture?—That it "goeth before destruction." Prov. 16:18.
12. To what act of impiety did Uzziah's pride prompt him?—To burn incense like a priest.
13. How was it punished?—By being smitten with leprosy.
14. What effect did his punishment have on him?—It made him go and live alone.
15. Of what was leprosy a type?—Of sin.
16. How was leprosy under the Mosaic law cleansed?—The priest shall go forth out of the camp; and the priest shall look, and behold, if the plague of leprosy be healed in the leper, then shall the priest command to take for him that is to be cleansed two birds alive and clean, and cedar-wood, and scarlet, and hyssop; and the priest shall command that one of the birds be killed in an earthen vessel over running water: as for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar-wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water; and he shall sprinkle upon him that is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven times, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird loose into the open field. Lev. 14:3-7.
17. Who was typified by the bird that was slain, and by the living bird?—The Saviour and the sinner.
18. How many instances are recorded in Scripture of persons being punished by leprosy?—Three—those of Miriam, Gehazi and Uzziah.
19. What great deprivations did Uzziah suffer in consequence of this molady?—He was cut off from the house of the Lord, from the honours of a king and from all human society.
20. How had Uzziah occupied himself?—In war, in building cities and towers, in digging wells, and in keeping much cattle; also in cultivating fruitful fields. How many years did he reign?—Fifty-two years.
21. Who shared the government with him when he was laid aside, and succeeded him on the throne of Judah?—Jotham his son.
22. How old was Jotham when he began to reign?—Twenty-five. 2 Chron. 27:1.
23. How is his character described?—"He did that which was right in the sight of the Lord."
24. How does 2 Chron. 27:6 give us the secret of his prosperity?—It says that "he prepared (or established) his ways before God." So Joshua and David had a fixed purpose or plan to serve the Lord.
25. How long did he reign?—Sixteen years.
26. Who followed Jotham?—Ahaz his son.
27. Was he not a very different king?—Yes; "he did not right in the sight of the Lord."
28. In whose ways did he walk?—In those of the kings of Israel.
29. Who was king of Israel at this time?—Pekah.
30. Did Ahaz go on in this sad career without warning?—No; he was warned by the prophets.
31. Which of the prophets prophesied in his reign?—Isaiah, Hosea and Micah.
32. How does Isaiah, in his first chapter, describe the state of Israel and Judah at this time?—Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the Lord, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.
33. How are the daughters of Judah described in the end of his third chapter?—The daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched-forth necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet.

34. What idol-worship did Ahaz again introduce?—Of Baal and of the gods of Syria. 2 Chron. 28:2, 23

35. What cruel heathen practice did he exercise on his son?—He burnt his children in sacrifice. 2 Chron. 28:3.

36. What enemies came against Judah as a punishment for their sins?—Pekah and Rezin.

37. Who was Pekah?—King of Israel.

38. Who was Rezin?—King of Syria.

39. What encouragement did the Lord give by his prophet Isaiah concerning these kings?—Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, neither be faint-hearted for the two tails of these smoking fire-brands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah. Isa. 7:4.

40. When Ahaz declared he would not ask a sign of God, was that from reverence or disregard?—From disregard.

41. How did his seeking aid from the king of Assyria against his foes, and not from the Lord, decide this?—It showed he was determined to take his own course.

42. What was the consequence of his seeking to the Assyrians?—Embarrassment instead of support. 2 Chron. 28:20.

43. How did he strip the temple of God to pay the Assyrian king?—He took away much of its brass (or copper) work. 2 Kings 16:17, 18.

44. Did he, after all, obtain the help he desired?—He did not.

45. Which were the most prosperous kings, those who served the Lord, or those who forsook him?—Those who served the Lord.

46. What effect had chastisement on him?—He sinned yet more against the Lord. 2 Chron. 28:23.

47. What did this prove him not to be?—It proved him not to be a son of God, or he would have profited by his fatherly chastisement.

If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not? Heb. 12:7.

48. How many years did he reign?—Sixteen years.

49. Was he buried among the good kings of Judah?—No. 2 Chron. 28:27.

ISAIAH, MICAH AND NAHUM.

1. Who was Isaiah?—A prophet, the son of Amoz.

2. In whose reigns did he prophesy?—In those of "Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah."

3. Is any part of his book historical? how much?—Yes, about four chapters, chaps. 36-39.

4. What great and glorious Person was he privileged to announce?—The Messiah.

Unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. Isa. 9:6, 7.

5. What prophecy of Isaiah's is quoted in Matt. 1:23?—Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign: Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. Isa. 7:14.

6. How many titles does Isaiah attribute to the Lord Jesus in Isa. 9:6, 7?—Five.

7. To whom does Isaiah attribute the term "Wonderful" in Isa. 28:29?—To Jehovah himself.

The Lord of hosts, which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working.

8. Who, then, must the Lord Jesus Christ be?—God.

9. Are there any other texts of Scripture that plainly show him forth to be "the Mighty God"?—"The great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ." Tit. 2:13.

I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty. Rev. 1:8.

10. How does John 10:30 prove that the Lord Jesus is "the Everlasting Father"?—God is called "the everlasting God" in Rom. 16:26, and Jesus says in John 10:30, "I and my Father are one."

11. To which character of the Lord Jesus does the apostle Paul allude in Eph. 2:14?—"He is our peace"—"The Prince of Peace."

12. When will the "government be on the shoulder" of the Lord Jesus?—When his reign of one thousand years begins. Rev. 19:11-16.

13. Is there any earthly throne which he is promised?—“The throne of David.”

14. What power does the Lord Jesus exercise now?—The power which, as God, he exercises by the Holy Spirit. Matt. 28:18.

15. Where is the Lord Jesus now?—On the throne of God in heaven.

David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, until I make thy foes thy footstool. Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ. Acts 2:34-36.

Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. Acts 7:56.

To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne. Rev. 3:21.

16. Under what name is the Lord Jesus spoken of in Isa. 11:1?—“A Rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch . . . out of his roots.”

17. Who was Jesse?—The father of David.

18. Who was the root of Jesse (that is, his forefather)?—Christ, as David's Lord.

19. From what “stem of Jesse” did the Lord Jesus spring?—From David, whose father was Jesse and great-grandfather Boaz. Ruth 4:16, 17.

20. Where does the Lord Jesus call himself “the root and offspring of David”?—Rev. 22:16.

21. What is the Lord Jesus called in Rev. 5:5?—The Lion of the tribe of Juda, the root of David.

22. Of what is the lion expressive?—Of strength.

23. What is the meaning of the name Boaz?—“In strength.”

24. What connection have all these passages together?—They all unite in describing Christ.

25. How does Isaiah describe the kingly power of the Lord Jesus in Isa. 32:1?—“Behold, a King shall reign in righteousness.”

26. Under what character does he represent the Lord Jesus in the second verse of that chapter?—A man shall be as an hiding-place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

27. Can his kingly glory be a joy to us unless we know him first as a “hiding-place”?—No.

28. What part of Isaiah did the Lord Jesus read when he was on earth, when “the eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened on him”?—Isa. 61:1, 2. The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord. Luke 4:18, 19.

29. What did he say when he closed the book?—This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears. Luke 4:21.

30. How often does the Lord (that is, Jehovah) call himself by the name of Jesus (that is, Saviour) in the book of Isaiah?—Four times or more—as, “I am the Lord thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour” (Isa. 43:3); “a just God and a Saviour.” Isa. 45:21.

31. How often does he speak of himself as “Redeemer”?—Directly and indirectly, nine times or more—as, “I will help thee, saith the Lord, and thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel” (Isa. 41:14); “And all flesh shall know that I the Lord am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.” Isa. 49:26.

32. What part of Isaiah's prophecy was the eunuch reading when Philip overtook him?—Isa. 53:7, 8. The place of the scripture which he read was this, He was led as a lamb to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearers, so opened he not his mouth: in his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth. Acts 8:32, 33.

33. Who was intended by the term “lamb”?—Jesus Christ.

John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. John 1:29.

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain. Rev. 5:12.

The Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. Rev. 13:8.

A Lamb stood on the Mount Zion. Rev. 14:1.

The song of the Lamb. Rev. 15:3.

34. Give the fulfillment of the prophecy (Isa. 53) in each particular.—

Verse 1:

Though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him. John 12:37.

Verse 2:

He made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men. Phil. 2:7.

Verse 3:

Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary? Mark 6:3.

Out of Galilee ariseth no prophet. John 7:52.

Thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil. John 8:48.

He came unto his own, and his own received him not. John 1:11.

Verse 4:

He cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick. Matt. 8:16.

Verses 5 and 6:

Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures. 1 Cor. 15:3.

Verse 7:

When he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing. Matt. 27:12.

Verse 8:

And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified. Matt. 27:2, 26.

Verse 9:

There were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

There came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph: he went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered. Matt. 27:57, 58.

Verses 10 and 11:

Lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Zion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads. These were redeemed from among men, being the first-fruits unto God and to the Lamb. And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God. Rev. 14:1, 4, 5.

Verse 12:

Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same: that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil. Heb. 2:14.

And with him they crucify two thieves: the one on his right hand, and the other on his left. And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors. Mark 15:27, 28.

35. Compare Isa. 63:1-3 with Rev. 19:13, 15, and tell of whom the prophecies speak.—He was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God. And he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

36. Are we concerned in this?—Yes, for as sinners we are enemies of God.

37. Then what should we do now?—We should come at once by faith to Christ our Saviour, and be cleansed by his atoning blood.

38. Are there not many gracious invitations to sinners throughout the book of Isaiah?—Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. Isa. 1:18. Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Isa. 55:1.

39. Were there not many special promises to the Gentiles?—Yes, as in chaps. 9, 11, 35, 42, 49, 60, 65.

40. Who are the Gentiles?—All who are not Jews.

41. To whom are the principal prophecies in this book addressed?—To the Jews.

42. How are the sins of Israel described in Isa. 1 and elsewhere?—Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves; every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them. Isa. 1:23. The vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but behold oppression; for righteousness, but behold a cry. Isa. 5:7.

43. What glorious promises are addressed to God's favored people?—As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the Lord; My spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the Lord, from henceforth and for ever. Isa. 59:21. The Lord shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the Lord. Isa. 51:3. Awake, awake; put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean. Isa. 52:1.

44. How does Isaiah describe their idolatry in Isa. 44?—He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it. Then shall it be for a man to burn: for he will take thereof, and warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread; yea, he maketh a god, and worshipeth it; he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto. He burneth part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied: yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire: and the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it, and worshipeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith Deliver me; for thou art my god.

45. Under what beautiful symbol does he describe God's care of Israel in chap. 5?—A husbandman's care of his vineyard.

What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

46. What touching images does he use to portray God's love to his people in chaps. 49:14, 16; 54:5-8; 66:13?—As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you.

47. Are there not many fearful denunciations against the wicked in this prophecy?—There are, as in 1:28:

The destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the Lord shall be consumed. And the strong shall be as tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them.

48. What nations then flourishing did Isaiah specially prophesy against by name?—Assyria, Babylon, Palestine, Moab, Israel, Ethiopia, Egypt, Arabia, Tyre, Jerusalem, the Jews.

49. Take each in succession, and tell us as nearly as you can their present state.—Assyria is now in a very low state, under Turkish rule.

Babylon is so utterly destroyed that travelers have passed over its place without knowing it.

Palestine, generally, is in an uncultivated, thinly-peopled, oppressed and half-barbarous state.

Moab is in the same condition.

Israel is described under Palestine, above.

Ethiopia is in the same condition.

Egypt is in an improving state, but probably far less populous and less richly cultivated than of old.

Arabia is still chiefly inhabited by wandering tribes, whose hand is against every man.

Tyre is reduced to a mere fishing-village.

Jerusalem is in the hands of Mohammedans, and shares the fate of Judah and Israel and Palestine at large.

50. To what period does this wonderful prophecy extend?—To the end of time.

Behold, I create new heavens and a new earth; and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind. Isa. 65:17.

51. What glorious vision did Isaiah see which prepared him to do the Lord's service?—In the year that King Uzziah died I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple. Above it stood the seraphims. Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar: and he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged. Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Isa. 6:1, 2, 6-8.

52. In whose reign did he see that vision?—In Uzziah's.

53. Do you find anything similar to it in the book of Revelation?—I was in the spirit: and, behold, a throne was set in heaven, and One sat on the throne. Rev. 4:2.

54. What effect did the sight of God's glory have on Isaiah?—He deeply felt his sinfulness.

Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts. Isa. 6:5.

55. What was Job's expression when God spoke to him?—I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear: but now mine eye seeth thee. Wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes. Job 42:5, 6.

56. What alone can remove the terror which all men as sinners must feel in the presence of God?—"The blood of Jesus Christ his Son, that cleanseth us from all sin." 1 John 1:7.

57. What removed Isaiah's terror?—The live coal touching his lips.

58. How could a coal touching his lips remove sin?—As a token of God's grace.

59. What does "an altar" imply?—A sacrifice.

60. In the vision of the apostle John, Rev. 6 (which corresponds with Isaiah's), who is seen there as the slain sacrifice on the altar?—Jesus Christ, the "Lamb as it had been slain." Rev. 5:6.

61. What preparation, then, do we require ere we can dare to meet Jehovah's presence and glory?—To be cleansed by the blood of Christ, and made one with him by a living faith.

62. Is there any hinderance to our obtaining it?—None whatever.

Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. Isa. 55:1, 6, 7.

The Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. Rev. 22:17.

MICAH.

63. In whose reigns did Micah prophesy?—In the reigns of Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

64. What prophecy of his is referred to in Jer. 26:18?—Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts: Zion shall be ploughed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.

65. Where is it found in his book? and how has it been fulfilled?—Mic. 3:12. The site of the temple was really ploughed over by a Roman emperor; and Jerusalem has at different times been made heaps in the various sieges it has sustained.

66. In what state does he declare Samaria will be?—"As an heap of the field." Mic. 1:6.

67. What sins of Israel are enumerated in Mic. 3, 6, 7?—Cruelty, oppression and idolatry.

68. What promises for the latter days does Mic. 4:1-4 record?—The restoration of Zion and the reign of peace.

69. What glorious Person is prophesied of in Mic. 5:2?—Jesus Christ.

70. Where was Jesus born?—At Bethlehem.

71. Where is Bethlehem first mentioned in the Bible?—In Gen. 35:19: "Rachel died, and was buried in the way to Ephrath, which is Bethlehem."

72. Where did Rahab (who was saved in Jericho) live?—At Bethlehem after her marriage.

73. Whose wife was she?—Salmon's.

74. Whose mother was she?—Boaz's.

75. Where did Ruth live?—At Bethlehem. Ruth 1:1, 2, 19, 22.

76. Where was David born?—At Bethlehem.

77. What striking proof of love did three of his mighty men give when David desired a draught of water from the well at Bethlehem?—The three mighty men brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David. 2 Sam. 23:16.

78. To what glorious event did the prophet allude when he spoke of Bethlehem's glory?—To the birth of Jesus.

79. Read Prov. 8:22, 23; John 1:1; Col. 1:17, and say to whom they refer.—The Lord possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old. I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was. Prov. 8:23, 23. In the beginning was the Word. John 1:1. And he is before all things, and by him all things consist (Col. 1:17): viz., Jesus Christ.

80. Of whom alone can it be said in the words of Micah, "Whose goings forth have been from of old, even from everlasting"?—Of God.

81. Who, then, must the Lord Jesus be?—God.

NAHUM.

82. Against whom did Nahum utter his prophecy?—Against the inhabitants of Nineveh.

83. Josephus says Nahum prophesied in the reign of Jotham king of Judah; how long was this after Jonah's prophecy?—About sixty years.

84. In which reign of the kings of Israel did Jonah preach at Nineveh?—Jeroboam II.'s.

85. In which tribe did Nahum live?—Simeon, as some think.

86. How long after Nahum's prophecy was his prediction fulfilled?—About one hundred years.

HEZEKIAH, KING OF JUDAH. (2 Chron. 29-32.)

1. Who reigned after Ahaz?—Hezekiah.

2. How old was Hezekiah when he began to reign?—Twenty-five.

3. Into what state of neglect does 2 Chron. 29:3, 7 show that the temple of God had fallen?—Into even a filthy state. 2 Chron. 29:5.

4. What did Hezekiah do to set up the worship of God again?—He called upon the priests and Levites to assist.

5. Did the priests, Levites and people respond to the call?—Yes, very heartily. 2 Chron. 29:12-17, 28-35.

6. What proof does the end of 2 Chron. 29 give that it was so?—The abundance of the sacrifices and offerings that were made.

7. Was his reformation confined to Judah, or did he desire to extend it to all Israel?—He invited all Israel and Judah to join in a solemn Passover.

8. In what state was the kingdom of Israel at this time?—In a sad and idolatrous state under the reign of Hoshea. 2 Kings 17.

9. How were Hezekiah's messengers received?—They were laughed at and mocked. 2 Chron. 30:10.

10. Were there any who responded to his appeal?—Several came from Asher, Manasseh and Zebulun.

11. What beautiful prayer did Hezekiah offer for these?—That the good Lord would pardon every one who had prepared his heart to seek him, though he was not clean according to the temple laws.

12. Did the Lord accept it?—He did. 2 Chron. 30:20.

13. What proof does 2 Chron. 30:23 give us that the service of God, when sincerely engaged in, and not as an empty form, is pleasant?—They kept the holy feast a second week.

14. How long had it been since there had been such a Passover as this?—Not since the time of Solomon, three hundred years before.

15. How does David describe his pleasure in the Lord's service?—How amiable are thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts! My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God. Ps. 84:1, 2. I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord. Ps. 122:1.

16. What effect did this joy in the Lord have on the people with regard to the idols of the land?—They destroyed them all. 2 Chron. 31.

17. What is said in Prov. 27:19?—As in water face answereth to face, so the heart of man to man.

18. Can we not, then, try our hearts, and ascertain their state by knowing if the service of God is our joy?—We can do so, and ought to do so.

19. If not, in what condition are we?—In a state of condemnation and death.

20. What was the next proof the people gave that their hearts were right with God?—The abundance of their offerings for the service of God. 2 Chron. 31:5-7.

21. How did Zaccheus manifest the same feeling?—Zaccheus said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold. Luke 19:8.

22. How can we show our love to his service?—By giving to it, as far as we can, our money and our time.

23. Read Prov. 23:26, and say how Hezekiah, in the twenty-first verse of this chapter, fulfilled this.—"My son, give me thine heart." He did every work for God with all his heart.

24. Who was Hezekiah's father?—Ahaz.

25. What foolish compact had he made with the king of Assyria?—He bought his help against his enemies by robbing God's house.

26. Did it prosper?—No; he was distressed by him, and not helped. 2 Chron. 28:19-21.

27. How was Hezekiah made to feel this?—Sennacherib, the succeeding king, was tempted to attack him.

28. What did Hezekiah do when the king of Assyria came against him?—He fortified Jerusalem and cut off the water from the enemy's camp.

29. On whom did he depend for succor?—On God alone. 2 Chron. 32:8.

30. How did the people feel when Hezekiah cheered them?—They rested on his words.

31. What did Sennacherib do to endeavor to shake their confidence in God?—He boasted of his victories in other lands.

32. Did he succeed?—No; the people held their peace. 2 Kings 18:36.

33. Who was the exalted prophet of Israel at this time?—Isaiah.

34. To whom did Hezekiah send? and what did he himself do?—He sent to Isaiah, and went into the temple for prayer to God. 2 Kings 19:1, 2.

35. How did the Lord appear for his people at this time?—He promised them the departure and death of Sennacherib. 2 Kings 19:6, 7.

36. Was the king of Assyria aware that God was fighting against him? or did he make another attempt on Jerusalem?—He made another attempt.

37. Did he address Hezekiah by word of mouth, as before, or send a letter to him?—He sent a letter.

38. What did Hezekiah do with the letter?—He spread it before the Lord in prayer.

39. Where should we go when in trouble?—Direct to God.

40. Is God now the hearer and answerer of prayer, as he was then?—He is, as every true child of God can testify.

41. What was Hezekiah's prayer?—That God would save them for his own glory. 2 Kings 19:15-19.

42. By whom did the Lord answer his prayer?—Isaiah.

43. How was this wonderful deliverance effected?—By means of an angel of God, who struck the Assyrian army with death.

44. What was Sennacherib's miserable end?—He was killed by his own sons.

45. What mighty city was the capital of the Assyrian empire?—Nineveh.

46. Are there any proofs in the present day of this Assyrian king's conquests and final defeat?—The ruins of Nineveh have lately been exposed to view, and letters and figures been met with, carved upon slabs of stone, which thoroughly confirm the Bible account.

47. What is next recorded of Hezekiah?—That he was "sick unto death." 2 Kings 20:1.

48. Did he die of this illness? or was he restored? and how?—He was restored to health in answer to prayer and by God's blessing on the means which Isaiah ordered to be used. 2 Kings 20:3-7.

49. Was there any part of Hezekiah's history that was dishonorable to him?—Yes; he made a display to the king of Babylon's messengers of all his treasures.

50. Of what sin was he guilty?—Of pride. "A proud heart is sin." Prov. 21:4.

51. How does the Lord estimate pride of heart?—Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the Lord; though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished. Prov. 16:5. Him that hath an high look and a proud heart will not I suffer. Ps. 101:5.

52. What fearful prediction was Isaiah commissioned to take to him?—That all his treasures should in a future age be carried away to Babylon. 2 Kings 20:17, 18.

53. How did Hezekiah receive the reproof?—He humbly submitted to the will of God.

54. What did this prove him to be?—A true son of God.

Ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him: for whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not? Heb. 12:5-7.

55. Name the benefits in a domestic way that Hezekiah conferred on Jerusalem?—He erected various public buildings and brought water from a distance.

56. How much of Hezekiah's history is written in the book of Isaiah?—Nearly the whole.

57. How long did he reign?—Twenty-nine years. 2 Kings 18:2.

58. Where did they bury him?—In the chief sepulchre of the kings.

MANASSEH AND AMON, KINGS OF JUDAH. (2 Chron. 33.)

1. Whose son was Manasseh?—Hezekiah's.

2. Was he a good king like his father? Describe his character as given in the first seven verses of this chapter.—No; he restored idolatry and witchcraft, and set up idols even in the temple itself.

3. How was he punished by the Lord for this?—He was carried captive to Babylon.

4. What effect did captivity have on him?—It brought him, by the grace of God, to penitence and prayer.

5. Did the Lord hear and answer his prayer?—Yes; he restored him to his kingdom.

6. How did Manasseh act on his return to his kingdom?—He put away idolatry throughout all Judah.

7. What encouragement does his history give to us?—That if we confess and forsake our sins, he will abundantly pardon.

8. Is God as compassionate now as he was then?—Yes, as thousands of true penitents can thankfully declare.

9. Are we to dare to sin because God is merciful?—Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein? Rom. 6:1, 2.

10. Are we to dare to postpone repentance because God is merciful?—No.

Now is the accepted time; now is the day of salvation. 2 Cor. 6:2.

11. How does the apostle Paul say that he obtained mercy?—Through the free grace of Christ.

I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry; who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious; but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. 1 Tim. 1:12, 13.

12. Does the apostle give any other reason for this favor?—That he might be a pattern for the encouragement of penitent sinners in all time.

This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief. Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might show forth all long-suffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting. 1 Tim. 1:15, 16.

13. Is not the invitation so free that none need doubt?—It is to "every one"—"whosoever will."

Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Isa. 55:1.

And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. Rev. 22:17.

14. Will not Manasseh rise up in the judgment and condemn us if we should plead that we are too great sinners for God to save us?—He may do so.

15. How long did Manasseh reign?—Fifty-five years.

16. Who succeeded him?—Amon his son.

17. Did Amon follow his father's steps in the end or the beginning of his reign?—He followed, throughout his reign, his father's steps in the beginning of his reign.

18. How long did Amon reign?—Two years.

19. What was his melancholy end?—He was killed by his own servants.

JOEL, HABAKKUK AND ZEPHANIAH.

JOEL.

1. Is it known when Joel prophesied by his own writings?—No, not at all distinctly.

2. How do we gather from his prophecy that he wrote it in a time of famine?—He speaks of the devourings by locusts and of the want of pasture, corn, wine and figs. Joel 1:4-20.

3. Of what was a famine in Israel ever a proof?—Of God's anger against sin.

4. What does he call on the people to do?—To fast, repent and pray.

5. To what solemn event does he call attention in his second chapter?—To the day of judgment.

6. What does the apostle Peter say about "the day of the Lord"?—The day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness? 2 Pet. 3:10, 11.

7. Is this important "day" ever mentioned elsewhere in Scripture?—As in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so also shall the coming of the Son of man be. Matt. 24:38, 39.

8. To what period does it refer?—To the day of judgment.

9. Are we at all interested in that solemn event?—Yes.

10. How?—Because we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of Christ.

11. Ought we not to be prepared for it?—We ought indeed.

12. How can we be?—By being in Christ, and clothed with his righteousness by faith. Phil. 3:7-11.

13. In what part of the book of the Acts does the apostle Peter quote this prophecy in reference to the miraculous gift of tongues?—In Acts 2:16-21 he quotes Joel 2:28-32.

14. What proof does Joel 3 give us that this prophet wrote after the days of Jehoshaphat, and probably very near the Captivity?—Because he mentions the valley of Jehoshaphat, and because his referring to the captivity of Judah only (in v. 1) makes it probable that his prophecy was written after the captivity of Israel.

15. With what glorious and consoling promises does the prophecy close?—Those of the future glory of Jerusalem and of the Church in 3:16-21.

HABAKKUK.

16. What proof does Hab. 1:6 give us that Habakkuk wrote before the Captivity?—Because he there prophesies its coming.

17. Who were the Chaldeans?—The inhabitants of Babylon and the surrounding country.

18. What threatenings respecting them had Isaiah given to Hezekiah?—That they would come and carry away all his treasures.

19. What prediction does Habakkuk record in Hab. 2?—That in due time God would destroy the Chaldean power.

20. What promise is given in verse 14 of this chapter?—The earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

21. Which verse in this prophecy answers the important question, "How can man be justified before God"?—Hab. 2:4. "The just shall live by his faith."

22. How many times, and where, is this emphatic verse quoted in the New Testament?—Three times—Rom. 1:17; Gal. 3:11; Heb. 10:38.

23. Can you tell me what great Reformer was converted to God by it?—Martin Luther.

24. What contrast is displayed in verses 18-20 of this chapter?—Between dumb idols and the true God.

25. To what great event in past history does the opening of Hab. 3 refer?—To the giving of the law on Mount Sinai.

26. To what event is reference made in verses 8 and 15?—To the passing of the Red Sea.

27. To what event in verse 11?—To Joshua's victory at Gibeon.

28. How does the prophet express his confidence in God?—In the beautiful words of verses 17, 18.

ZEPHANIAH.

29. In whose reign did Zephaniah prophesy?—Josiah's.

30. How does the first chapter show the abominations of the land before Josiah's reformation?—It speaks of the idolatry and indifference to God that prevailed. Zeph. 1:5, 12.

31. Against how many nations besides Judah is this prophecy uttered?—Five others—Philistia, Moab, Ammon, Ethiopia and Assyria.

32. What proof is there in this book that Nahum's prophecy against Nineveh had not been fulfilled in the early part of Josiah's reign?—Its desolation is spoken of as yet to come. Zeph. 2:13.

33. With what glorious promises of Israel's restoration does the prophecy close?—With those of Zeph. 3:8-20, and especially verses 10-13, and the expression of God's joy and love in verse 17.

JOSIAH, KING OF JUDAH. (2 Chron. 34, 35, and 2 Kings 22, 23.)

1. How old was Josiah when he ascended the throne of Judah?—Eight.

2. Whose son was he?—Amon's.

3. What character did he bear?—He did that which was right in the sight of the Lord.

4. How soon did he begin to manifest his piety?—At the age of fifteen. 2 Chron. 34:3.

5. What was the first reformation he effected?—The removal of everything connected with idol-worship.

6. What wonderful discovery was made in cleansing the temple?—A book of the law.

7. What did this prove?—That it had been neglected and despised.

8. What effect did the reading of God's word have on the young king?—He was shocked and alarmed by the national guilt and danger.

9. To whom did he send to inquire the will of God concerning his people?—To Huldah the prophetess.

10. Did God alter the word that had gone forth out of his mouth?—No. 2 Chron. 24:24, 25.

11. How did he comfort Josiah notwithstanding?—By promising that his judgments should not take place during Josiah's life.

12. What effect did this message have on Josiah?—He caused the book of the law to be publicly read, and induced the people to renew their covenant with God.

13. How does 2 Chron. 35:3 show us that the ark had been taken out of the temple?—By relating Josiah's order that it should be put in again.

14. What multiplied idolatries does 2 Kings 23 show had gained footing in Judah at this time?—The worship of Baal and the abominations of Sidon, Moab and Ammon.

15. How did Josiah deal with them all?—He destroyed and defiled them.

16. What remarkable prophecy had gone before of this young king?—And, behold, there came a man of God out of Judah by the word of the Lord unto Bethel: and Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense. And he cried against the altar in the word of the Lord, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the Lord; Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of David, Josiah by name; and upon thee shall he offer the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and men's bones shall be burnt upon thee. 1 Kings 13:1, 2.

17. Did he fulfill it?—Yes, exactly. 2 Chron. 34:5.

18. Could all Josiah's goodness turn away God's wrath from Judah?—No. 2 Kings 24:3, 4.

19. What was Josiah's end?—He was killed in battle.

20. How did this come about?—He had attacked the king of Egypt as he was going against the king of Assyria.

21. Was not this the only failure recorded of this good and pious king?—It was.

22. Must not their transgressions have reached a fearful height, seeing even Josiah's reformation could not purge the land?—They must indeed.

23. How was the news of his death received by his people?—With deep and universal mourning.

24. Which famous prophet is named as mourning for him?—Jeremiah. 2 Chron. 35:25.

The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the Lord, was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen. Lam. 4:20.

25. Where was Josiah slain?—At Megiddo.

26. How does Zechariah the prophet, who lived above seventy years after this, refer to this grievous lamentation over Josiah?—In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon. Zech. 12:11.

27. How long had this good king reigned?—Thirty-one years.

JEREMIAH AND THE LAST KINGS OF JUDAH. (Jer., 2 Kings 23 to 25 and 2 Chron. 36.)

1. In whose reign is Jeremiah first mentioned?—Josiah's.

2. In which year of his reign did this prophecy commence?—The thirteenth. Jer. 1:2.

3. Was this before or after Josiah's reformation?—The fifth year after.

4. How did Jeremiah at first feel when he found the Lord had appointed him to the prophet's office?—Timid and unfitted, like a child.

5. By what promises did the Lord comfort him?—That he would be with him to deliver him. Jer. 1:8, 19.

6. What office did Jeremiah hold by birthright? and which was his native city?—A priest. Anathoth, in Benjamin. Jer. 1:1.

7. How does Jer. 2 display Judah's sin at this time?—It shows their worship of Baal and other gods. Jer. 2:20-28.

8. How does the prophet beautifully describe the contrast between God's service and idolatry in chap. 2:13?—My people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

9. May we not ask ourselves here, On which are we resting?—Yes, for our deceitful hearts may have many idols.

10. Although there may be no open idolatry in the land, what objects can the heart set up and do homage to rather than God?—Riches, pleasures, fame and many more.

11. What is the result of this heart-idolatry?—"Evil and bitter" in the end. Jer. 2:19.

12. Compare Jer. 2:21 with Isa. 5 and Ps. 80, and describe God's people under this figure.—Like a vineyard, or a vine, they are tenderly sheltered, nourished, and trained, are wisely instructed and restrained, and bear rich and abundant fruit.

13. Who has revealed himself to us as the only "true Vine"?—Jesus Christ.

I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. John 15:1.

14. Have we any hope of participation in its blessings?—We are all invited to partake; and if we have a true faith in Christ, we do partake now.

15. How does chap. 3:22 describe the reformation under Josiah? also chap. 4:1-4?—They speak of the return of the Jews from their evil ways.

16. Name some of the sins of Judah set forth in chap. 5; also chap. 6:13.—Adultery, covetousness, fraud, corruption and oppression, and general rebellion against God.

17. What coming judgment is foretold in chap. 6:1-9?—War and siege.

18. Why?—Because of their wickedness. Jer. 6:7.

19. Where did the Lord command Jeremiah to stand when he uttered this prophecy?—In the gates or principal places of assembly. Jer. 17:19.

20. Was Jeremiah the only prophet whom the Lord had sent to warn Israel?—No; they had constantly had warning prophets in time past. Jer. 7:25, 26.

21. Did the Lord at this time (the reign of Josiah) give the people any encouragement to obey him?—Yes; another invitation was given, with promises of blessing. Jer. 17:19-27.

22. Which of Josiah's sons succeeded him on the throne?—Jehoahaz. 2 Chron. 36.

23. How old was he when he began to reign? and how long did he reign?—Twenty-three. Three months.

24. How was it that his reign was so short? and where did he die?—He was put down from his throne by the king of Egypt, and carried away into Egypt, and died there. Jer. 22:11, 12.

25. Who reigned next?—Eliakim.

26. What relation was he to Josiah?—Son.

27. To what name did the king of Egypt change Eliakim's?—Jehoiakim.

28. How old was he when he began to reign? and how long did he reign?—Twenty-five. Eleven years.

29. What tax had he to pay Pharaoh-Necho?—Silver and gold. 2 Kings 23:35.

30. What prophecy against Egypt and this king did Jeremiah utter (Jer. 46)? and when was it fulfilled?—Their conquest, by Nebuchadnezzar (2 Kings 24:7). About eight years after.

31. What prophecy was Jeremiah commanded to utter in this (Jehoiakim's) reign?—That the Jews should be punished for their guilt if they did not repent. Jer. 26:7, 9.

32. What special charge was given to the prophet as to where he was to stand and how he was to perform the mission?—He was to stand in the court of the Lord's house, and to speak to all who came thither from all parts of Judah to worship. Jer. 26.

33. How did the people receive the message?—They gathered together against Jeremiah.

34. What did they wish to do to Jeremiah?—To put him to death.

35. How was he rescued from them?—By Ahikam.

36. What wicked act of Jehoiakim's does the sixteenth chapter record?—He killed the prophet Urijah.

37. What pleasing contrast is given to this in Hezekiah's history?—Hezekiah hearkened to the prophecy of Micah, and besought the Lord.

38. Read Jer. 7, 8, 9, 10, and say where Jeremiah uttered the prophecies recorded in them.—In the gateway of the temple.

39. What sins of Israel do they reveal?—Robbery, murder, adultery, false-swearing and idolatry.

40. What coming judgments do they record?—The captivity of the people and desolation of the land.

41. How does the Lord plead with them?—With tender reproach.

42. To what does he compare them?—To a horse rushing headlong into battle. Jer. 8:6.

43. What bitter lamentation does the prophet utter in chap. 8:20?—"The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved."

44. Has that word any warning to us?—It solemnly applies to many of us year after year.

45. How does the prophet bewail the state of things in chap. 9:1, 2?—In most pathetic words. Read them.

46. Of what event which is not recorded either in the Kings or Chronicles does chap. 14 complain?—Of dearth.

47. Of what was a dearth in Israel always a sign?—Of national guilt. Deut. 28.

48. What honorable testimony does the Lord give to Moses and Samuel in chap. 15?—That they were holy men of prayer.

49. When was Moses intercessor for Israel?—After they had made the golden calf.

50. When was Samuel intercessor for Israel?—When the Philistines were going to attack them. 1 Sam. 7:9.

51. How did the Lord comfort Jeremiah in chap. 15?—By promising him kind treatment and deliverance. Vs. 11, 21.

52. How does the Lord describe the sin of Judah in chap. 17:1?—As graven deeply on their hearts.

53. To what does the Lord in chap. 17 compare the man who trusts for salvation in his fellow-men?—To the heath in the desert, that cannot thrive.

54. What blessed contrast does the Lord give of the man who rests alone on Christ for salvation?—He is like a tree by the water-side, fruitful and ever green. Jer. 17:7, 8.

55. Should we not ask ourselves, On what is our hope resting?—We should, if we would be safe for a single hour.

Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other Name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. Acts 4:12.

56. Is not the same simile used in Ps. 1:1-4?—Yes.

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

57. Does not chap. 17 also supply a beautiful prayer for us to utter?—"Heal me, O Lord, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved." V. 14.

58. To what does the Lord compare himself and Israel in chap. 18?—To a potter moulding clay, and dealing with it as he wills.

59. What sign did the Lord bid Jeremiah show them? and what was the meaning of it?—The breaking of a potter's vessel as a token of the ruin of Israel. Chap. 19.

60. What misery did Jeremiah bring on himself by thus faithfully proclaiming God's word?—He was put in the stocks. Jer. 20.

61. What did Pashur bring upon himself by this?—Captivity in Babylon.

62. Was not the good Jeremiah sometimes tempted to keep back God's word?—Yes, when he saw it was so badly received. Jer. 20:8, 9.

63. Was there not a mighty power over him that he could not withstand?—Yes; God was stronger than he. Jer. 20:7.

64. How did Jeremiah comfort himself in the Lord?—By remembering that God was with him. Jer. 20:11-13.

65. Of whom does Jeremiah speak in chap. 23:5, 6?—Of Jesus Christ.

66. How many other prophets spoke of Christ as a "Branch"?—Two.

There shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots. Isa. 11:1.

Thus speaketh the Lord of hosts, saying, Behold the man whose name is The BRANCH; and he shall grow up out of his place, and he shall build the temple of the Lord. Zech. 6:12.

67. Where, besides this place, is Jesus spoken of as "King"?—

Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion. I will declare the decree: the Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son: this day have I begotten thee. Ps. 2:6, 7.

All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, Tell ye the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee. Matt. 21:4, 5.

These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is the Lord of lords, and King of kings. Rev. 17:14.

68. By what name will Jesus be called when he comes again as King of Israel?—"The Lord our Righteousness." Jer. 23:6.

69. What does St. Paul say in 1 Cor. 1:31 and in Phil. 3:8?—He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. "Christ Jesus my Lord."

70. Read Jer. 35, and say what Jeremiah was commanded to do.—To give the Rechabites wine.

71. Who were the Rechabites?—Descendants of Rechab.

When he (Jehu) was departed thence, he lighted on Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him. 2 Kings 10:15.

These are the Kenites that came of Hemath, the father of the house of Rechab. 1 Chron. 2:55.

72. Who were the Kenites?—The children of the Kenite, Moses' father-in-law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which lieth in the south of Arad; and they went and dwelt among the people. Judg. 1:16.

73. Is not this a proof that Moses's father-in-law did go with him after all?—It is.

74. How was this tribe distinguished from Israel?—By separate origin and abode.

75. What excellent virtue had they practiced?—Abstinence from wine.

76. What is said of drunkards in the Bible?—

They shall say unto the elders of his city, This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton, and a drunkard. And all the men of his city shall stone him with stones, that he die. Deut. 21:20, 21.

Hear thou, my son, and be wise, and guide thine heart in the way. Be not among winebibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh: for the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty. Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes? they that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek mixed wine. Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his color in the cup, when it moveth itself aright. At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder. Prov. 23:19-21, 29-32.

Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, shall inherit the kingdom of God. 1 Cor. 6:10.

77. What great honor did the Lord set on temperance and obedience in chap. 35?—The preservation of the family of the Rechabites when others were cut off.

78. Who was the strongest man?—Samson.

79. Did he ever taste wine and strong drink?—No.

80. What was a Nazarite?—One who devoted himself to the service of God, and also abstained from wine.

81. What command did the Lord give to Aaron and his sons after the death of Nadab and Abihu?—Do not drink wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations. Lev. 10:9.

82. Is it not therefore supposed that Nadab and Abihu were drunk when they offered the strange fire?—Yes.

83. What does the apostle Paul say about drunkenness in Rom. 13:13; Gal. 5:21; Eph. 5:18?—Let us walk honestly as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, envyings, murders, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. Be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess.

84. Read Jer. 25:9, and tell me who was to come up against Judah and take it.—Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon.

85. How long was the Captivity to last?—Seventy years. Jer. 25:12.

86. What was to happen at the end of it?—Babylon was to be destroyed. Jer. 25:12-14.

87. How long was this special prophecy uttered before it was fulfilled? In which year of Jehoiakim was it uttered?—About eighteen years. The fourth.

88. After Jeremiah had spoken these words, what did the Lord command him to do?—To write them in a roll or book. Jer. 36.

89. Whom did Jeremiah employ to write it?—Baruch.

90. Who read it to the people?—Baruch.

91. To whom did Michaiah desire the roll to be read?—The princes.

92. When the princes heard it, to whom did they wish it to be read?—The king.

93. Why did they tell Jeremiah and Baruch to go and hide themselves?—Lest the king should seize them.

94. How did King Jehoiakim receive the message? Did he allow it all to be read to him?—With anger and contempt. Only three or four leaves.

95. What did he do with it?—He cut it and burnt it.

96. Could he by this destroy the word of God?—Certainly not.

97. What was Jeremiah commanded to do?—To write the words in another roll.

98. What punishment did the king bring on himself by this act?—His dead body was cast out unburied, and his family ceased to reign on the throne of Judah. Jer. 36 : 30 ; 22.

99. Did his determination not to hear God's word hinder it from being fulfilled?—No, not at all.

100. Who was in that roll predicted, and who did come up against Judah and carry Jehoiakim's son captive to Babylon? And how was Jehoiakim himself to be disgraced?—Nebuchadrezzar. Jer. 36 : 2 ; 22 : 25 ; 39 : 1. By being left without burial. Jer. 22 : 18, 19.

101. What kind promise did the Lord give Baruch at this time of trouble because he had done the Lord's work?—That he would save his life in the desolation of the land. Jer. 45.

102. Who succeeded Jehoiakim?—His son.

103. By how many names is this king called?—Jehoiachin (2 Kings 24 : 8), Jeconiah (1 Chron. 3 : 16) and Coniah. Jer. 22 : 24.

104. How old was he when his father died?—Eight years.

105. How soon after was he carried to Babylon?—About three months. 2 Chron. 36 : 9, 10.

106. Had not the Lord foretold this in Jer. 36 : 30?—Yes. Jer. 22 : 25.

107. When Nebuchadrezzar carried this young prince captive to Babylon, whom did he make king over the remnant of Judah? and how did he change his name?—His uncle, Mattaniah. Zedekiah.

108. What relation was Zedekiah to the good Josiah?—Brother.

109. What did Nebuchadrezzar carry away with the young prince and his mother from Jerusalem?—The treasures and ornaments of the temple.

110. What character did he bear in the Lord's sight?—He did evil in God's sight. 2 Chron. 36 : 12.

111. What prediction did Jeremiah utter to King Zedekiah of the complete and entire destruction of Jerusalem?—That by sword, famine and pestilence its people should be consumed. Jer. 24.

112. How do chaps. 11 and 12 show the sins of Judah at this time?—By describing their idolatry and their persecution of the prophet.

113. Which was Jeremiah's native city?—Anathoth.

114. How was he treated there?—They plotted to kill him.

115. Read Jer. 24, and say to what the captives now in Babylon were compared, and to what Zedekiah and those left in Judah were compared, and why?—The former to good figs, and the latter to bad, the one being penitent, and the other not.

116. What comforting letter was Jeremiah commanded to write to the former?—That they should seek God and find him, and be restored to their own land. Jer. 29.

117. Who withstood Jeremiah's words?—Shemaiah.

118. How did the Lord punish him?—By shortening his life and cutting off his seed.

119. Read Jer. 27, and say by what beautiful simile did the Lord show that he had given the nations to the king of Babylon.—By bonds and yokes upon the prophet's neck.

120. Who prophesied in opposition to Jeremiah?—Hananiah. Jer. 28.

121. What symbol did he make with the yoke which was on the neck of Jeremiah?—He broke it, as if God would break Nebuchadrezzar's yoke.

122. Did the Lord suffer such impiety to pass? What message did he send to Hananiah by Jeremiah?—No. That he should die the same year.

123. When was it accomplished?—In the seventh month.

124. What should this teach us?—All flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away : but the word of the Lord endureth for ever. 1 Pet. 1 : 24, 25.

125. Did Zedekiah believe that it was God's will to bow Judah beneath the yoke of the king of Babylon?—He sent to Jeremiah to know.

126. What message did the Lord send to Zedekiah on this subject?—That those who escaped the pestilence and famine should fall by the king of Babylon's sword. Jer. 21.

127. Read Jer. 34, and say what transgression the people of Judah again fell into, which brought wrath upon them.—They again enslaved their released bond-servants, contrary to the law.

128. What special prophecy against Zedekiah was there in chap. 34?—That he should be carried captive to Babylon.

129. What army did Zedekiah get to help him against the Chaldeans?—The Egyptians. Jer. 37.

130. Did it prosper, or was it only for a time that the Chaldeans withdrew?—Only for a time.

131. While they were away, what did Jeremiah desire to do?—To return to his own land. Jer. 37 : 12.

132. Why was he persecuted? and what did the princes do with him?—Because they thought he was deserting to the Chaldeans. They put him into prison.

133. Who released Jeremiah?—Zedekiah.

134. Did the kindness of the king tempt Jeremiah to alter God's word to him?—No. Jer. 38 : 1, 3.

135. How did the king permit the princes to treat the prophet?—He allowed them to imprison him again.

136. Who stood up and spoke for Jeremiah?—Ebed-melech.

137. How did he rescue him?—He raised him by cords from the dungeon-pit.

138. Did the king's kindness again to Jeremiah tempt him to swerve from the truth? What did he tell the king?—No. That if he stayed in the city it would be taken and burnt. Jer. 38 : 18.

139. Did the king believe him and obey the word of the Lord?—No; he stayed till it was too late. Jer. 39 : 2, 4, 8.

140. Where was Jeremiah when the city was taken?—In the court of the prison. Jer. 38 : 28.

141. What kind deliverance did the Lord grant to Ebed-melech in remembrance of his kindness to Jeremiah in the pit?—From the Chaldeans. Jer. 39 : 16-18.

142. What should this teach us?—To always show special kindness to God's own people. Matt. 25 : 34-36.

He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth Him that sent me. And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward. Matt. 10 : 40, 42.

143. How did Nebuchadrezzar treat Zedekiah?—He put out his eyes, after killing his sons in his sight, and imprisoned him in Babylon for life. Jer. 52 : 10, 11.

144. How was the loss of Zedekiah's eyesight foretold by the prophet Ezekiel?—This burden concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them. They shall remove and go into captivity. And the prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall go forth : he shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes. And I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there. Ezek. 12 : 10-13.

145. How did the Chaldeans treat Jeremiah?—By order of the king he was kindly sent back, according to his wish, to his own land. Jer. 39, 40.

146. What comforting promises did the Lord give his people ere they were carried away captive?—Of return to their own land, and of the coming of the Messiah, the Lord our Righteousness. Jer. 32, 33.

147. When were these uttered?—About five hundred and ninety years before Christ.

148. Whom did the king of Babylon leave as governor in Judah?—Gedaliah. 2 Kings 25 ; Jer. 40.

149. What happened to him?—He was killed by Ishmael and others. Jer. 40, 41.

150. What was the sad result of his death?—The carrying away as prisoners those under his charge. Jer. 41 : 10.

151. Whither did the people purpose to bend their steps for fear the Chaldeans should revenge his death?—Toward Egypt. Jer. 41 : 17, 18.

152. What did the people pretend to desire after they had made up their minds to go down into Egypt?—Direction from God. Jer. 42 : 2, 3 ; 43 : 1-7.

153. Did they not prove this by their conduct?—Yes, they showed their hypocrisy by going into Egypt, notwithstanding Jeremiah's warning against it.

154. Did they take Jeremiah and Baruch with them, or leave them behind?—They took them with them. Jer. 43 : 6, 7.

155. Had Jeremiah any message from the Lord to his rebellious people in Egypt?—He threatened them with destruction for their idolatry. Jer. 44.

156. What abominable idolatry does this chapter reveal?—Burning incense to the queen of heaven and to other gods. Jer. 44.

157. Were the people better off in Egypt than in Judah?—No, as its conquest by Nebuchadrezzar was foretold. Jer. 46.

158. Against how many foreign countries did Jeremiah prophesy?—Against ten or more, as Egypt, Philistia, Moab, Ammon, Edom, Damascus, Kedar, Hazor, Elam and Babylon. Jer. 50, 51.

159. What other book did Jeremiah write besides his prophecy?—The Lamentations.

160. Where is it supposed Jeremiah died?—In Egypt, by the hands of the Jews.

EZEKIEL.

1. Who was Ezekiel?—A priest and prophet.

2. Where was he when he saw the wonderful vision his first chapter records?—By the river Chebar.

3. How came he there?—With the Jews carried captive to Babylon.

4. How old was he at this time?—In his thirtieth year, according to some. Ezek. 1 : 1.

5. How long had he been in captivity?—Above four years. Ezek. 1 : 2.

6. Who was the Jehoiachin whose captivity is here spoken of?—King of Judah.

7. Who had carried them captive?—Nebuchadrezzar.

8. Where was the river Chebar?—In Mesopotamia.

9. Where are the cherubim first spoken of in the Bible?—In Gen. 3, in Eden.

10. For what were they placed in Eden?—To guard the tree of life.

11. What was always associated with the cherubim?—The glory of God. Ezek. 1 : 28 ; 3 : 23 ; 43 : 2.

12. Where is God said to dwell in Ps. 80 : 1 ; 99 : 1?—Between the cherubim.

13. Mention other texts to show that the cherubim are always symbols of God's promise?—"He rode upon a cherub, and did fly." Ps. 18 : 10.

14. When it was said (Gen. 4 : 16) "Cain went out from the presence of the Lord," from what symbol of his presence is it supposed he departed?—From the cherubim.

15. How were the carved cherubim in the tabernacle and Solomon's temple connected with the glory of the Lord?—Because they were over the mercy-seat, where the glory of the Lord was seen.

16. Where did God say he would meet his people?—"Above the mercy-seat between the cherubim." Ezek. 25 : 22.

17. Have we any record of this?—When Moses was gone into the tabernacle of the congregation to speak with him, then he heard the voice of one speaking unto him from off the mercy-seat that was upon the ark of testimony, from between the two cherubim : and he spake unto him. Num. 7 : 89.

18. Are the cherubim ever spoken of in the New Testament?—Not by that name.

19. Are not the seraphim seen by Isaiah (chap. 6) the same in appearance as the cherubim?—Very much the same.

20. In how many respects are the "cherubim" of Ezekiel, the "seraphim" of Isaiah and the "living creatures" (translated "beasts") in Rev. 4, alike?—In having wings.

21. Do we not learn by Isa. 6 : 3 and Rev. 4 : 8 that in God's presence all is holiness?—Yes, as these winged beings are there described as saying, "Holy, holy, holy . . . Lord of hosts, . . . Lord God Almighty." "God sitteth upon the throne of his holiness." Ps. 47 : 8.

22. What is said in Heb. 12 : 14 and Rev. 21 : 27?—"Without" "holiness" "no man shall see the Lord." "There shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth."

23. How, then, can guilty sinners hope to be admitted there?—By having their robes washed and made "white in the blood of the Lamb." Rev. 7 : 9-17.

24. Ought we not to be very anxious to know if we have on that spotless robe?—We ought indeed.

25. What became of that man who ventured into the feast without the wedding-garment?—He was cast "into darkness," to "weeping and gnashing of teeth." Matt. 22.

26. What was that garment meant to represent?—"The righteousness of saints." Rev. 19:7, 8.

27. How does the Lord in Ezek. 2 describe the children of Israel to whom he sent Ezekiel to prophesy?—As "most rebellious."

28. How did the Lord prepare the prophet for his mission?—By encouraging and warning him not to fear. Ezek. 3.

29. How was the destruction of Jerusalem (which had not then taken place) described by Ezekiel?—Under the figure of a siege, with tokens of severe famine. Ezek. 4.

30. How long after Jehoiachin's captivity was Jerusalem taken by Nebuchadnezzar?—About eleven years. 2 Kings 25.

31. How was the utter dispersion of Israel described in Ezek. 5, 6, 7?—God said they should be scattered "into all the winds."

32. How was Ezekiel transported to Jerusalem?—In a vision by the Spirit of God. Ezek. 8:3.

33. What abominations did the Lord reveal to him there?—Those of the vilest idolatry. Ezek. 8-11.

34. Whose captivity is predicted in Ezek. 12? and how is the loss of his eyesight foretold?—Zedekiah's. When it is said that he should die at Babylon without seeing it.

35. What great honor does the Lord put on Noah, Daniel and Job in Ezek. 14? and which of these three was living at this time?—By distinguishing them as eminently righteous men. Daniel.

36. To what does the Lord compare the inhabitants of Jerusalem in Ezek. 15 and 16?—To a useless vine-branch and to a neglected infant.

37. To what is Nebuchadnezzar compared in Ezek. 17?—To a great eagle.

38. How does God show in Ezek. 18:19, 20 that the son shall not be punished for his father's sins?—"The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father."

39. Which of the kings of Judah are spoken of under the figures of the young lions?—Jehoahaz and Jehoiakim. Ezek. 19; 2 Chron. 36.

40. To what animal did Jacob, in blessing his sons, compare the tribe of Judah?—"A lion's whelp." Gen. 49:9.

41. Is the Lord Jesus ever spoken of under this symbol?—Yes, as the Lion of the tribe of Judah. Rev. 5:5.

42. How does Ezek. 21:21, 22 show us the manner in which the ancient Chaldeans divined?—By casting lots with arrows bearing the names of their enemies' cities to be attacked, and by observing the appearances of the entrails of their sacrifices.

43. Against how many nations besides Israel did Ezekiel prophesy?—Eight—Ammon, Moab, Edom, Philistia, Tyre, Zidon, Egypt and Assyria.

44. Read Ezek. 33:8, and say what is the "watchman's" duty.—To warn the wicked to turn from his evil way.

45. What is the duty of those who have the alarm sounded in their ears?—To turn at once from their evil ways.

46. Does this concern us?—Quite as much as it concerned them.

47. What will be our condemnation if warned to flee from the wrath to come, and we disregard it?—The worm of remorse that never dies, and the fire that is never quenched.

48. Against whom is the prophecy in Ezek. 34 uttered?—Against the priests, prophets or religious teachers.

49. Who is the Good Shepherd?—Jesus Christ. Ezek. 34:23.

50. By what name is that glorious Person spoken of in chap. 34:29?—A plant of renown.

51. Are there any promises of future blessing in Ezekiel's prophecy?—Yes, of the restoration of Israel to their own land, and of great spiritual blessings, like a resurrection of the dead. Ezek. 36:37.

52. What remarkable vision did the prophet see?—A valley of dry bones revived into an army of living men.

53. In what state are our souls by nature?—Dead in sin. Eph. 2:1.

54. By what means is life imparted to them?—By being born again "of the Spirit." John 3:1-8.

55. What means was the prophet to use to waken these dry bones?—To prophesy or preach and pray.

56. And what means are constantly being used to rouse us?—The teaching and preaching of God's word and prayer for his blessing upon it.

57. If "dry bones" can live, are we not without excuse?—Yes, for our blessed Lord says, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. Luke 11:9, 10.

58. What vision did Ezekiel see in the twenty-fifth year of the captivity of Judah?—Of a glorious temple, and of healing waters issuing from it. Ezek. 40-48.

59. To what place was he in vision transported to see it?—To a mountain in the land of Israel.

60. As Jerusalem has never been built by this pattern, to what must it refer?—To the future spiritual glory of Israel and the Church.

61. What great similarity is there between Ezek. 47 and Rev. 22?—The waters issuing from the temple are like the pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. And as in Ezekiel's vision there were on the bank of the river fruitful and healing trees, so in John's vision.

62. When and why was the "tree of life" prohibited?—At Adam's fall and spiritual death, lest he should live again without the atoning and restoring blood of Christ.

63. Will it ever be tasted again?—It will.

64. By whom?—By "him that overcometh." Rev. 2:7.

65. How can we "overcome"?—"By the blood of the Lamb." Rev. 12:11.

66. What beautiful ceremony ere the children of Israel left Egypt teaches us the value of the blood of Christ?—The sprinkling about their doors of the blood of a lamb, to preserve them from the destroying angel's hand.

67. Of what was the "scarlet line" which Rahab hung out from her window, when Jericho was taken and she was spared, a type?—Of the saving blood of Christ.

68. Shall not we be without excuse if we neglect to take refuge in Jesus?—We shall indeed.

If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them. John 13:17.

DANIEL DURING THE BABYLONIAN DYNASTY. (Dan. 1-4, 5, 7, 8.)

1. When was Daniel taken to Babylon?—With Jehoiakim, king of Judah.

2. Where was Babylon?—On the Euphrates, in Chaldea.

3. What relationship did Jehoiakim bear to the good Josiah?—He was his son.

4. Was Daniel also of the royal family of Judah?—He was. Dan 1:3.

5. How came he to Babylon?—With the captives Nebuchadnezzar made.

6. Who was Nebuchadnezzar?—King of Babylon.

7. What commandment did he give respecting the royal captives of Judah?—That some of the choicest and cleverest of them should be specially prepared for the king's service.

8. Why did Daniel object to eat the king's food?—It shall be a perpetual statute for your generations throughout all your dwellings that ye eat neither fat nor blood. Lev. 3:17.

9. What was the result of the experiment that David requested might be tried on them?—They looked better than those who ate the king's food. Dan. 1:15.

10. How does this prove the truth of 1 Sam. 2:28-30?—It shows that God "will honor" those who obey and "honor" him.

11. What astonishing proof did Daniel give Nebuchadnezzar in Dan. 2 that God had endowed him with divine knowledge?—By telling him the dream that he had forgotten.

12. What was the dream?—That he had seen a great image, with a golden head, struck and destroyed by a stone, which became a great mountain. Dan. 2:31.

13. Did Daniel take the honor to himself, or give it to God?—He gave it to God. Dan. 2:19-23, 28.

14. How did Daniel interpret this dream?—Who did he say was the "head of gold"?—Nebuchadnezzar himself. Dan. 2:38.

15. In what position did Nebuchadnezzar stand to the other kingdoms of the earth at this time?—He was a king of kings in glory and power. Dan. 2:37.

16. What kingdom was represented by the "breast and arms of silver"?—The kingdom of the Medes and Persians.

17. In what respect were the two arms of the image a graphic representation of this kingdom?—They showed their united power.

18. What kingdom did "the belly and thighs" (or "sides," see margin) "of brass" represent?—The Macedonian or Grecian kingdom.

19. In what respect was "brass" an appropriate symbol for this power?—It was gained and held by force of arms, and was less splendid than the other kingdoms before it in outward show.

20. How did the fourth kingdom differ from the former ones?—In strength.

21. When might this kingdom be said to be an "iron" power?—When it conquered the kingdom of Greece and other lands.

22. When was it in an enfeebled state?—When it joined the conquered nations to maintain its power.

23. What power was to be greater than all these kingdoms, and crumble them into atoms?—The kingdom of Christ.

24. What does it mean when it says it was "cut out without hands"?—Because it was formed by the power of God, without the help of man. Isa. 63:1-6.

25. When was this kingdom to be set up?—In the days of one of these kingdoms or kings. Dan. 2:44.

26. At what time, as represented in this image, was Jesus born?—Under the iron or Roman kingdom.

27. What effect did the wonderful interpretation of this dream have on Nebuchadnezzar?—He worshiped Daniel as the messenger of God.

28. To what was Daniel promoted?—To be ruler over the whole province of Babylon.

29. About whom did he make request when himself in power?—About Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, that they should have a share in the government of the province.

30. How was the faith of these three friends of Daniel tried? What did the king command them to do?—By Nebuchadnezzar's setting up a great image of gold, to be worshiped by all his people. Dan. 3. To fall down and worship with the rest.

31. Were they able to do this? Why not?—No. Because they could worship only the one true God.

32. What was the consequence?—They were cast into a burning fiery furnace.

33. Who walked with them in the furnace?—The Son of God.

34. What happened to the men that threw them in?—They were killed by the flames.

35. Were the three servants of God injured?—Not at all, nor even their clothes touched.

36. What effect did this wonderful deliverance have on Nebuchadnezzar?—He blessed and honored God, and promoted his three faithful servants.

37. What had been God's promise, by the mouth of his servant the prophet Jeremiah, to those who went down into Babylon?—Seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray unto the Lord for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace. Jer. 29:7.

38. Was not this the fulfillment of it?—Doubtless it was.

39. And is not God as faithful to his word now as he was then?—He is, as every day's experience of his people proves.

40. Can God see into man's heart?—Yes; "the Lord looketh on the heart." 1 Sam. 16:7.

41. Did the Lord see the heart of Nebuchadnezzar humbled by what he had beheld of the true God, or still proud?—He saw the pride within.

42. What dream did he give the king to warn him?—A vision of a lofty and flourishing tree hewn down, with its stump left for seven years among the grass and beasts of the field. Dan. 4.

43. Who interpreted this dream to Nebuchadnezzar?—Daniel.

44. Did the king take warning? How was his pride humbled?—No. Dan. 4:30. By his being deprived of reason and made a companion of beasts. Dan. 4:38.

45. What was the effect of this on the king?—At the end of seven years his reason returned, and he acknowledged and praised God.

46. Is there any account given in the book of Daniel of Evil-merodach, Nebuchadnezzar's son?—No.

47. Where must we turn to read about him?—It came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon in the first year of his reign lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison, and spake kindly unto him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon. Jer. 52:31, 32.

48. Who was this Jehoiachin? and when was he carried captive? Give his other names.—King of Judah. In the first year of his reign. Jeconiah and Co-niah.

49. What wonderful vision does Dan. 7 record?—Of four great beasts that came up from the sea.

50. In which year of Belshazzar's reign did this happen?—The first.

51. Who was Belshazzar?—King of Babylon.

52. What kingdom was represented by the first of these four beasts?—The kingdom of Babylon.

53. Do we see anything similar to this on the Nineveh sculptures lately discovered?—Yes; many winged lions are there portrayed.

54. What was the second beast like?—A bear.

55. What kingdom did that symbolize?—The kingdom of the Medes and Persians.

56. What was the third beast like?—A leopard.

57. How did the "four wings" symbolize this power?—Because the Grecian conquests were rapid as a bird's flight.

58. Who were represented by these four wings?—The kings of the four parts into which the Grecian kingdom was divided.

59. What was the fourth beast like?—It was terrible and strong, and had iron teeth and ten horns.

60. In what respect was this kingdom "diverse" from the others?—In having horns.

61. Who is the representative of that fourth or final power now? What "wears out the saints of the Most High"?—The pope of Rome. The popish system, as far as it has any remaining power.

62. How long is it to continue?—Till about the time when our Lord returns.

63. Who is meant by "the Ancient of Days"?—The eternal God.

64. When will his throne of judgment be set?—When the millennium begins and God puts down his enemies' power.

65. What glorious Person, under the name "Son of man," is introduced in this chapter?—Jesus Christ.

66. What "kingdom" is spoken of that "the saints of God" are to take and possess for ever and for ever?—The kingdom of Christ to the end of time.

67. When the Lord Jesus came on the earth the first time, did he come as a conqueror?—No, as a servant.

68. When will he come to reign?—When the number of his people is complete, and the time has come "which the Father has put in his own power." Acts 1:7.

69. What vision of Daniel's does Dan. 8 set forth?—Of the ram and he-goat.

70. In what year of Belshazzar's reign did this take place?—The third.

71. Do these two beasts represent any of the kingdoms of the former visions?—Yes—the ram the Median and Persian, and the goat the Grecian.

72. Whom do the two horns of the first of these two beasts symbolize?—The separate Median and Persian powers.

73. Do not the four horns of the second beast in this vision mean the same as the four wings of the fowl in the third beast of the former vision? In what respect are they similar?—Yes. They both correspond in numbers to the four kingdoms into which the Grecian was divided.

74. Is the "little horn" of this vision the same as "the little horn" of the former vision?—No.

75. What erroneous form of religion does "the little horn" of the first vision symbolize?—The popish one.

76. What other great error or false religion does "the little horn" of the second vision symbolize?—The Mohammedan one.

77. Is there any limit put to the rule of these false religions?—Yes; in periods obscurely expressed, but which seem likely to end together about the present time. Dan. 7:25; 8:14.

78. Has not God purposely hidden the time when they shall come to an end?—He has, in order that all may watch in every age.

Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away. But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only. Matt. 24:35, 36.

79. What effect did these visions have on Daniel?—He fainted and was greatly distressed.

80. How soon after this were they fulfilled?—They began to be fulfilled by the overthrow of Babylon by the Medes and Persians in about sixteen years.

81. What impious act of profanity was King Belshazzar guilty of the very night in which his kingdom was taken?—Drinking out of the gold and silver vessels of the temple. Dan. 5.

82. How was it that he did not know that destruction was so near?—He was bent on sinful pleasure, and probably refused to know and understand.

83. Who took the city? and how?—Darius, the king of the Medes. By turning the river into another channel, and so entering the city by surprise through the open gates.

84. Which of the beasts of Daniel's visions, and what part of Nebuchanezzar's image, were symbols of this conquering power?—The bear and ram and the silver breast and arms.

85. How did God reveal to Belshazzar his impending fate just before it fell on him?—By an awful handwriting on the wall.

86. Who came in and reminded the king of Daniel?—The queen.

87. What did the mystic handwriting on the wall predict? Mene? Tekel? Peres?—MENE: God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it. TEKEL: Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting. PERES: Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians. Dan. 5:26-28.

88. And if "Tekel" were said to us, what would be our hope, our refuge?—Jesus Christ alone, in whom his people are complete.

89. Who has satisfied God's justice, and whose righteousness must avail for us?—Christ has fully paid our debt, and his righteousness is sufficient for us.

90. Of whom alone can it be said, "Thou art weighed in the balances and not found wanting"?—He "who did no sin" (1 Pet. 2:22), but "is holy, harmless, undefiled." Heb. 7:36.

91. How will his righteousness avail for us?—As perfect in itself, and performed and offered in our stead.

As by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous. Rom. 5:19.

The wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom. 6:23.

There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. Rom. 8:1.

92. What empty honor did Belshazzar put upon Daniel when he had interpreted the handwriting?—A chain of gold and higher rank.

93. How soon after it was Belshazzar slain?—The same night.

94. Who was associated with Darius in taking Babylon?—Cyrus, his nephew and son-in-law.

95. How long before this had his name been mentioned by the prophet Isaiah?—About one hundred and seventy years.

That saith to the deep, Be dry, and I will dry up thy rivers. That saith of Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure. Thus saith the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two-leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut. Isa. 44:27, 28; 45:1.

96. How does this prophecy describe the manner of taking Babylon?—Compare No. 83 with Isa. 44:27, 28; 45:1.

97. Of what spiritual power is Babylon the type?—Of the popish or any other apostate, false and persecuting Church. Rev. 17, 18.

98. By what majestic figure is the destruction of that spiritual power represented?—A mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all. Rev. 18.

99. Did not the prophet Jeremiah use a similar symbol when he predicted the fall of the natural Babylon?—It shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the middle of the Euphrates; and thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her. Jer. 51:63, 64.

100. What is the present state of the natural Babylon?—A huge mass of brick and stone and earth, so mingled together that travelers have passed over the site without knowing it.

101. Are we not sure that God's word will be fulfilled on the spiritual Babylon as it has on the natural?—We are, for Christ says, Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away. Matt. 24:35.

102. What command, then, should those who are in error take heed to?—Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. Rev. 18:4.

103. And how can we be preserved from error?—Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path. Psa. 119:105. From a child thou hast known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. 2 Tim. 3:15.

DANIEL UNDER THE MEDO-PERSIAN DYNASTY. (Dan. 6, 9-12.)

1. What relationship was there between Darius and Cyrus?—Cyrus was nephew and son-in-law to Darius.

2. How are these two kings described in Daniel's vision, chap. 8?—As the ram with two horns. Dan. 8:3, 20.

3. Which was the most powerful king?—Cyrus the Persian.

4. Which reigned over Babylon first?—Darius. Dan. 5:31; 6:28.

5. What feelings did Daniel's prosperity excite in the minds of the king's other princes?—Jealousy, envy and malice.

6. How did they try first to find an occasion against him?—Out of his manner of performing the duties of his office.

7. What unwilling testimony did they bear to his excellence of character and uprightness?—That they could find in him no error or fault.

8. What trap did they lay for him?—They obtained a royal decree that no one should offer a petition or prayer for thirty days to any one but the king.

9. Did he forsake the worship of his God when he knew the consequences?—No.

10. Why did Daniel pray so publicly, when Jesus said, "Enter thy closet and shut the door"?—He desired in this case to show that he was not ashamed of his duty to God.

If they return to thee with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, whither they have carried them captives, and pray toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, and toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house which I have built for thy name: then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling-place, their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their cause, and forgive thy people which have sinned against thee. 2 Chron. 6:33, 39.

11. Had Daniel heard these words of the Lord Jesus?—No; he lived many years before the Christian era.

12. Under what dispensation did Daniel live?—The old and strict one of the law.

13. What was his act, then?—was it ostentation or devout prayer?—Devout prayer.

14. How did the king feel when he found what his edict had involved?—He was much displeased with himself.

15. Why would not the king alter the decree?—Because of a foolish law of the Medes that no decree of the king could be changed.

16. What became of Daniel in the den?—He was unhurt.

17. Was it because the lions were not hungry?—No.

18. How do you prove this?—By the fury with which they devoured those who immediately after were cast into the den.

19. How were Daniel's enemies punished by the king?—With the same dreadful punishment they had intended for him.

20. What effect had this wonderful deliverance on the king?—He ordered reverence to be paid to the God of Daniel throughout his kingdom.

21. Was not all this overruled of God for the benefit of the poor captive Jews in Babylon?—It was.

22. What was God's promise to those who went into captivity?—That he would "bring" them "again into the place whence" he had "caused" them "to be carried away captive." Jer. 29:14; 28.

23. How long had the Lord declared the captivity in Babylon should last?—"Seventy years." Dan. 29:10.

24. How did Daniel feel as he found the time drawing near for the return of the people to the land of their fathers?—Anxious, probably, to hasten it on. Dan. 9.

25. How did Daniel seek to obtain the Lord's mind?—By prayer and fasting and confession of sin. Dan. 9.

26. How soon was his prayer answered?—Before it was finished. Dan. 9:20.

27. What remarkable contrast is there between the time of the answer to these petitions and the one recorded in Dan. 10?—The one in Dan. 10 was not answered until twenty-one days after, though God had heard and accepted it. Ver. 2, 12, 13.

28. In what gracious way does the Lord allude to Daniel's prayers in Ezekiel's prophecy?—Son of man, when the land sinneth against me by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out mine hand upon it, and will break the staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it: though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, saith the Lord God. Ezek. 14: 13, 14.

29. Which three principal prophets were contemporaries?—Jeremiah, Ezekiel and Daniel, for about ten years.

30. It was at "the time of the evening sacrifice" that God answered Daniel's prayer. What other signal answer to prayer did God give at the same hour in Ahab's reign?—The fire to consume Elijah's sacrifice. 1 Kings 18: 29, 38.

31. What revelation of God's future will concerning Israel does chap. 9 give?—The end of the Jewish sacrifices and the destruction of their city and temple. Ver. 24-27.

32. Of what glorious Person does this chapter speak?—Of the Messiah.

33. Reckoning a day for a year, how soon might the Jews of that day anticipate his coming?—In rather less than four hundred and ninety years.

34. Did Jesus come exactly when he was by Daniel's prophecy expected?—Yes, when Simeon and others were looking for him.

35. What is the meaning of the name Messiah?—"Anointed."

36. How is the death of Christ set forth in this prophecy?—He was to be cut off, but not for himself. Dan. 9: 26.

37. If he was to be "cut off," but "not for himself," for whom did he die?—Instead of fallen men, that they might not die for ever.

38. Who was sent to Daniel to give him this revelation?—Gabriel. Dan. 9: 21.

39. In how many other places in Scripture is this angel spoken of?—In Dan. 8: 16, and in Luke 1: 19, 26 as appearing to Zacharias and Mary.

40. What is said of angels in Heb. 1: 13, 14 and in Ps. 103: 20?—To which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool? Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?—Bless the Lord, ye his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.

41. How was Daniel employed when the next heavenly messenger was sent to him?—In fasting, humiliation and prayer. Dan. 10: 2, 3, 12.

42. Is the Lord always the hearer and answerer of prayer?—Always, but in his own good time and way.

43. How long was Daniel kept without an answer to this prayer?—Twenty-one days.

44. Was it because God had not heard him?—No, but because he had reason for delay. Dan. 10: 12.

45. Who is said to be "the prince of the power of the air"?—"The spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience." Eph. 2: 2.

46. Whom are we to resist?—Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Eph. 6: 11, 12.

47. Does not this chapter (Dan. 10) reveal to us the conflict that goes on unseen by us?—Yes, in verse 13.

48. What do Job 2, 1 Kings 22 and Rev. 12: 7-9 also show?—They show, by expressions about Job and Ahab and their tempters, and about Michael and Satan, that there is a perpetual conflict between the powers of good and evil for dominion over the soul of man.

49. How do we also get a sight of angelic agency, good and bad, in Jude 9?—Michael the archangel, when, contending with the devil, he disputed about the body of Moses.

50. Who may we suppose was the glorious Being who appeared to Daniel, and strengthened him to receive this final revelation?—The glorious Being who appeared to Daniel in chap. 10: 5 was doubtless the Son of God, and his hand, or that of an angel, afterward gave him strength. Dan. 10: 10.

51. To what extended period did it reach?—Until the second coming of Christ. Dan. 12.

52. What blessed promise is given in Dan. 12: 3?—They that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever.

53. Although much of this prophecy is to be understood by history, may we not join with the prophet, chap. 12: 8?—We may indeed exclaim or humbly inquire, "What shall be the end of these things?"

54. Where is Daniel supposed to have died?—At Susa, in Persia, after having been previously governor of Judæa. Compare Dan. 10: 1, 4 with Ezra 1.

55. What solemn announcement does Dan. 12: 2 give?—Many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

56. Will it not in the present life be decided on which side we shall stand?—It will.

If the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be. Eccles. 11: 3.

57. What, then, ought we to do?—We ought to come to Christ now, that we may be his in the hour of death and at the day of judgment.

EZRA, HAGGAI, ZECHARIAH AND ESTHER.

1. In whose reign did the Jews return from their seventy years' captivity?—In the reign of Cyrus, king of Persia.

2. By which prophet had this captivity been foretold?—By Jeremiah (chap. 25: 11): "These nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years."

3. Why had that exact time been fixed?—See 2 Chron. 36: 20, 21; Lev. 26: 33-35.

Them that had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon: where they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia: to fulfill the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate she kept sabbath to fulfill threescore and ten years.

I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste. Then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths. As long as it lieth desolate it shall rest: because it did not rest in your sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it.

4. How often ought Israel, according to God's command, to have put aside a year for rest to the land?—Every seventh year.

In the seventh year shall be a sabbath of rest unto the land, a sabbath for the Lord: thou shalt neither sow thy field, nor prune thy vineyard. Lev. 25: 4.

5. Of how many sabbatical years, or years of rest, had Israel robbed the Lord?—About one hundred and twenty-three—from the entry into Canaan to the removal to Babylon.

6. Which attribute of God does this display?—His exact and unfailling justice.

7. Ought the unerring justice of God (Eccles. 12: 14) to make us afraid?—Yes, for God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

8. What remedy is there for this fear?—Refuge in Christ.

As it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment: so Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many. Heb. 9: 27, 28.

9. If Israel was judged by God's law, by what shall we be judged?—This is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, but men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day. John 12: 48.

10. Ought we not, then, to study God's word, that we may know and do his will?—Yes; it is as needful for us as our food, and happily always within our reach.

For this commandment which I command thee this day, it is not hidden from thee, neither is it far off. It is not in heaven, that thou shouldst say, Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it? Neither is it beyond the sea, that thou shouldst say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it? But the word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it. Deut. 30: 11-14.

11. How did David esteem God's word?—I rejoice at thy word, as one that findeth great spoil. How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth! Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path. Therefore I love thy commandments above gold; yea, above fine gold. Mine eyes prevent the night watches, that I might meditate in thy word. Ps. 119: 162, 103, 105, 127, 148.

12. What proof was there in King Josiah's reign that the cause of Israel's apostasy was disregard of God's word?—Great is the wrath of the Lord that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the Lord, to do after all that is written in this book. 2 Chron. 34: 21.

13. What "books" did Daniel study (Dan. 9) when he found out God's will concerning Israel?—Probably the books of Jeremiah, Chronicles, Deuteronomy etc.

14. What proof is there in Ezra 1: 1 that God puts honor on his own word?—The proclamation by Cyrus is there said to be owing to God's word by Jeremiah.

15. Who was Cyrus?—King of the Persians.

16. Which prophet had prophesied of this king by name?—Isaiah.

Thus saith the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him. Isa. 45: 1.

17. How long had that been uttered before the event?—About one hundred and seventy years before the taking of Babylon.

18. What edict concerning the captive Jews did Cyrus issue?—That they should return to Judæa and rebuild the temple.

19. Who was at this time prince of Judah?—Shez-bazzar.

20. Who was the head of the tribe of Levi, and by birth high priest?—Jeshua, or Joshua. Ez. 2: 40; 3: 2.

21. How many returned to Judæa when this decree was published?—42,360, besides 7337 servants. Ez. 2: 1, 64, 65.

22. What did they bring with them?—The gold and silver vessels of the temple. Ez. 1: 9-11.

23. In which month of the year did they return?—The seventh. Ez. 3: 1.

24. What feast fell on the fifteenth day of that month?—The feast of tabernacles.

25. Did they keep it?—Yes. Ez. 3: 4.

26. What was there remarkable about this feast?—The living in booths.

Ye shall take you on the first day the boughs of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and the boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook; and ye shall rejoice before the Lord your God seven days. Lev. 23: 40.

27. How far did they get in building the temple before they were interrupted?—The foundation was laid. Ez. 3: 11; 4: 4.

28. Who were their enemies?—The Samaritans.

29. By what means did the Lord rouse them to their duty?—By Haggai and Zechariah, the prophets. Ez. 5.

30. Who was Haggai?—A prophet.

31. How does his first chapter show us that the Jews were more anxious to build their own houses than the temple of the Lord?—Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your coiled houses, and this house lie waste? Hag. 1: 4.

32. Is not worldly ease our besetting sin also?—It is.

33. What effect ought the word of the Lord to have on us?—To make us diligent and obedient.

34. What effect had it on Zerubbabel the prince of Judah, and Joshua the high priest?—The Lord stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and did work in the house of the Lord of hosts, their God. Hag. 1: 14.

35. To whom did the prophet refer in Hag. 2: 6, 7?—To Christ, as "the desire of all nations."

36. When the foundation of this new temple was laid, the people who had seen the former temple wept, yet the Lord says (Hag. 2: 9) that the glory of the latter house shall exceed the former. How was this to be?—Because Christ would glorify it by his presence.

37. What promises did the Lord give to the Jews in connection with the building of his house?—That he would be with them, and give them glory and peace. Hag. 2: 4, 9.

38. And what blessing may we expect if we too work for him?—Grace, mercy and peace, and as many other blessings as he sees good.

39. To whom does the silver and the gold belong?—To God, to give and to take away.

40. What must we say if we offer of our substance to the Lord?—Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty; for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all. Both riches and honor come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thine hand is power and might: and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all. Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name. But whom am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and of thine own have we given thee. 1 Chron. 29: 11-14.

41. By what other prophet were they stirred up?—By Zechariah.

42. In which king's reign did these prophets utter their message?—Darius's.

43. Was this the same Darius who put Daniel into the den of lions?—No.

44. Whom does chap. 3 of this book (Zechariah) reveal to us as the hidden adversary of Israel?—Satan.

45. What does the apostle Paul tell us of this wily foe in Eph. 6: 11-17?—That he is a wicked spirit, ruling "the darkness of this world," working by "wiles" and casting "fiery darts."

46. What is Satan called in Rev. 12: 9, 10?—The great dragon, that old serpent, called the devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: the accuser of our brethren, which accused them before our God day and night.

47. What glorious Person did the Lord speak of to comfort his people under the name of "the Branch"?—Jesus Christ. Zech. 3: 8; 6: 12.

48. Who was destined to crush the head of "the old serpent"?—The seed of Eve. Gen. 3: 15.

49. What special promises to Zerubbabel does Zech. 4 contain?—The grace and help of the Holy Spirit and the providential care of God.

50. What further prophecy of the Lord Jesus is there in Zech. 9: 9?—Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee; he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

51. When was this fulfilled?—When Jesus entered Jerusalem riding on an ass.

52. To what fountain does Zech. 13 refer?—To the blood of Jesus Christ, that cleanseth from all sin.

53. To what does the Lord Jesus compare himself in John 10: 11, etc.?—To a good shepherd.

54. Of whom does "the Lord of hosts" speak when he says (Zech. 13: 7), "Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, against the man that is my fellow"?—Of Jesus Christ.

55. How was "the man" Christ Jesus God's fellow or equal?—As himself also almighty and eternal God.

56. When was this prophecy of the smitten shepherd and the scattered sheep fulfilled?—When Jesus was crucified and his disciples fled.

57. What prophecy is there in Zech. 14: 4 of the second coming of the Lord Jesus?—"His feet shall stand in that day upon the Mount of Olives."

58. From what part of Judea did the Lord Jesus ascend to heaven?—"From the mount called Olivet." Acts 1: 12.

59. What did the angels say to his disciples who had seen him go into heaven?—This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven. Acts 1: 11.

60. In verse 8 of this chapter (Zech. 14) living waters are spoken of; where else in Scripture are these described?—In Ezek. 47: 1-12, as issuing "out of the sanctuary;" in Joel 3: 18, as coming "forth of the house of the Lord;" in Rev. 22: 1, as "proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb."

61. What glorious promises does this prophecy contain of future blessings in store for Israel?—That God would bring them again to their own land (Zech. 10: 6-12), and would dwell among them (Zech. 2: 10-12), and pour his Spirit upon them (Zech. 12: 6-14), and that they should be holiness unto the Lord (Zech. 14: 16-21), and be a blessing. Zech. 8: 3-23.

62. Must not these have been peculiarly comforting to the poor Jews in their impoverished state?—They must indeed.

63. What effect did it have on them?—They began to build the house of God, and prospered and finished it. Ez. 5: 2; 6: 14.

64. How did they withstand their adversaries?—Through "the eye of their God" upon them. Ez. 5: 5.

65. What new edict did they obtain from the king?—That the Persian governors should furnish them supplies for the building and the sacrifices. Zech. 6: 6-12.

66. How had this been brought about?—Through the discovery of the former decree of Cyrus. Ez. 5: 3; 6: 5.

67. When was the temple finished?—In the sixth year of King Darius, and about the year 515. B. C.

68. How was it dedicated?—With special sacrifices and the keeping of the Passover. Ez. 6: 16-22.

69. Who is the Artaxerxes mentioned in Ez. 6: 14, and again in Ez. 7: 1?—Artaxerxes Longimanus, son of Xerxes.

70. By what other name is he called in the book of Esther?—Xerxes, or Artaxerxes; a previous one, of Ez. 4: 7, is in Esther called Ahasuerus.

71. How came a Jewish damsel to be his wife?—Ahasuerus's former wife had been divorced, and Esther had been chosen in her place from many who had been taken to the king by his command. Esth. 1: 9; 2: 1-17.

72. What was the name of Esther's uncle?—Mordecai.

73. What kind of relationship had he sustained toward her?—That of father since her parents' death.

74. Where was the Persian court held at this time?—At Shushan (or Susa) in Persia.

75. Who was the Jews' great enemy at this time?—Haman.

76. From whom had he descended?—From Agag, king of Amalek.

77. Would not this account for his great antipathy to the Jews?—Yes, as his ancestors had been almost destroyed by them. 1 Sam. 15.

78. What had the Lord decreed concerning Amalek?—The Lord said unto Moses, Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua; for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven. And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it Jehovah-nissi: for he said, Because the Lord hath sworn that the Lord will have war with Amalek from generation to generation. Ex. 17: 14-16.

79. Would this not account for Mordecai refusing to bow down to him?—It would, as he was thus numbered among the enemies of God.

80. How did Haman attempt to wreak his vengeance on the Jews?—By destroying all of them throughout the kingdom.

81. How did the Lord prevent this?—By means of Esther, the Jewish queen. Esth. 4.

82. What did the king command to be read before him to amuse his waking hours?—The history of his reign. Esth. 6: 1.

83. Must not Haman have been woefully disappointed when the honor he intended for himself was placed on Mordecai?—Yes; such is often the mortification of malice and pride.

84. How did Esther obtain the deliverance of her kindred?—By petitioning the king.

85. Was it not likely that she was raised to the throne of Persia with this intent?—Yes, extremely likely. Esth. 4: 14.

86. Is the Lord ever at a loss for means to accomplish his purposes?—Never.

87. What feast was ever after celebrated among the Jews to commemorate this deliverance?—The feast of Purim. Esth. 9: 26.

88. Why was it so called?—Because their enemies had cast Pur, or the lot, as to the time of destroying them. Esth. 9: 24: 3: 6, 7.

89. To what dignity was Mordecai raised in the Persian court?—The highest dignity under the king. Esth. 10: 3.

90. Will not this account for the great favor shown to the Jews at Jerusalem by the Persian king?—It will.

91. Who was Ezra?—A priestly descendant of Aaron and a writer of the law. Ez. 7: 1-5, 11.

92. Is it supposed that he went up to Jerusalem in the reign of Cyrus, or not till that of Artaxerxes (Longimanus)?—In that of Artaxerxes Longimanus.

93. What was his object in going to Jerusalem?—To carry back the treasures of the temple (Ez. 7: 19) and royal gifts for the temple service.

94. What kind letter and munificent gift was he the bearer of from the Persian king?—A letter empowering the Jews to return to Jerusalem, and exempting many of them from tribute and custom; and a gift of silver and gold and other needful things. Ez. 7: 11-26; 8: 26, 27.

95. Whose unseen Hand is beheld here, and whom did Ezra acknowledge in the last verses of this chapter (Ez. 7)?—The hand of God, God having put it into the king's heart.

96. How does Ezra describe his journey from Babylon to Judea?—That they set out with fasting and prayer, and arrived in safety. Ez. 8: 21-23, 31, 32.

97. What proof have we in Ez. 8: 23 of the truth of 1 Kings 8: 46-49; 9: 3?—The prayer of the penitent captives was heard.

98. What did Ezra and his company take up with them?—The royal gifts for the service of the temple.

99. What act of worship did they perform when they arrived in Judæa?—They offered a burnt-offering. Ez. 8: 35.

100. What sinful act was Ezra made acquainted with by the princes of Judah?—Of the Jews intermarrying with the people of the land. Ez. 9.

101. How did Ezra receive this mournful information?—He was greatly distressed.

102. Did he justify these acts before the Lord, or confess the sin to him?—He confessed it with the deepest humiliation.

103. What effect did his faithfulness have on the people?—They were truly penitent and distressed, and put away their wives. Ez. 10: 1, 19.

104. How did they bring about the desired reformation?—They made a covenant with God and with each other, and a public proclamation.

105. Were there many in this trespass?—Many. Ez. 10: 13.

106. Were the priests included in the number?—Yes. Ez. 10: 18.

107. What had been the Lord's special command on this point?—(See Ex. 34: 12-16.)

Take heed to thyself, lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land whither thou goest, lest it be for a snare in the midst of thee: but ye shall destroy their altars, break their images, and cut down their groves: for thou shalt worship no other god: for the Lord, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God: lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they go a-whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice unto their gods, and one call thee, and thou eat of his sacrifice; and thou take of their daughters unto thy sons, and their daughters go a-whoring after their gods, and make thy sons go a-whoring after their gods.

NEHEMIAH AND MALACHI.

1. Was Ezra left alone to reform the people, or did he soon obtain a companion in the good work?—God sent him a fellow-worker. Neh. 8: 9.

2. Who was this?—Nehemiah. Neh. 1.

3. What office had he held in the Persian court?—That of king's cupbearer. Neh. 1: 11.

4. Why did he wish to give up so high an appointment?—That he might return to Judæa to assist in the rebuilding of the temple.

5. What means did he adopt to obtain his desire?—Prayer to God. Neh. 1: 11; 2: 4.

6. Can God, then, hear the desire of the heart, as well as the words of the mouth?—He can, for he is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of Him with whom we have to do. Heb. 4: 12, 13. When Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts? Luke 5: 22; 6: 8; 9: 47; 11: 17.

7. Did the king grant his request?—He did. Neh. 2: 6.

8. Had Nehemiah gone unprepared into the king's presence, or had he sought the Lord by prayer?—He had offered humble and earnest prayer.

9. What promise had he pleaded in prayer?—God's promise to his people by Moses, that if they returned in penitence and obedience to him, he would restore them to their land. Neh. 1: 8, 9.

10. May not we too depend on God, that what he has promised to us he will perform?—We always and confidently may, for "He is faithful that promised."

11. What does Nehemiah's example encourage us to do?—To be "instant in prayer."

12. What king was this before whom Nehemiah was so "sore afraid"?—Artaxerxes Longimanus.

13. What was the name of his queen?—Uncertain—not Vashti or Esther.

14. What was Nehemiah's particular request to the king?—That he would send him into Judæa to rebuild his city. Neh. 2: 5.

15. Whom had the king sent with Nehemiah?—Ezra. Ez. 7: 12, 13.

16. How did the Jews' enemies feel when they understood Nehemiah's errand?—They were much displeased. Neh. 2: 10, 19; 4: 1, 7.

17. What was Nehemiah's first act after he got to Jerusalem?—He privately examined the ruins by night. Neh. 2: 12-15.

18. In what state did he find the wall?—Everywhere broken down.

19. Who assisted him in repairing it?—The high priest, the priests and many of the rulers, merchants and others. Neh. 3.

20. Were they all regular masons and builders?—No; some were goldsmiths (ver. 32) and apothecaries (ver. 8).

21. Who are spoken of in Neh. 3: 12?—The daughters of a ruler, as giving their help.

22. Should not this teach us that in the Lord's work all can assist?—Yes, and that all should feel glad and honored to do so.

23. What did Paul say in Acts 9:6?—"Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?"

24. What honorable mention is made of a "ruler" and "his daughters" assisting in the good work, contrasted with what is said of "the nobles of Tekoah" in Neh. 5:5?—The "nobles put not their necks to the work of their Lord." (See No. 21, ver. 12.)

25. Is it not so in the present day?—"Not many noble are called." 1 Cor. 1:26.

26. When the enemies of the Jews saw the wall of Jerusalem progressing, what did they wish to do?—To stop the work. Neh. 4:11.

27. What reproachful thing did they say of the work?—"If a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall." Neh. 4:3.

28. Did they succeed in hindering the work?—No.

29. How did Nehemiah meet the danger?—By prayer and faith, and by being armed and watchful. Neh. 4:9-23.

30. What great zeal and self-denial does Neh. 23 record?—Their not putting off their clothes at night.

31. What great abuse did Nehemiah set himself to rectify?—The requiring usury, or excessive interest, for the loan of money to the famished and distressed. Neh. 5.

32. Were the people willing to do as he said?—Yes, and did it at once. Neh. 5:12, 13.

33. What example did Nehemiah himself set them?—He declined receiving his own allowance, to spare the poor.

34. How was it that he was so disinterested?—From "fear of God." Neh. 5:15.

35. To whom did he look for recompense?—From God. Neh. 5:19.

36. Was not the eye of Moses fixed on the same blessed object?—It was.

By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward. Heb. 11:24-26.

37. What was the sustaining power that upheld the apostle Paul in his arduous course?—His expectation of "a crown of righteousness" to be given him "at that day." 2 Tim. 4:6-8.

38. Does not the apostle Peter remind us that it is that same blessed period to which we must look?—When the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away. 1 Pet. 5:4.

39. What does Matt. 25 tell us about that time?—That those who serve God and his people upon earth, shall, when Christ returns in his glory, enter into eternal life and the joy of their Lord. Vs. 19-23, 31-40, 46.

40. Ought we not, then, to examine ourselves, to see whether we are getting our reward here or waiting for it hereafter?—Yes, as it is of hypocrites that it is said (Matt. 6:2, 5, 16), "They have their reward," and have no other and better to come.

41. What wicked device did Sanballat and his companions next try to put the good Nehemiah in fear?—They invited him to a meeting in order to get him into their hands, and they sent him a false prophet to induce him to leave his work. Neh. 6.

42. Did they succeed?—No.

43. On whom did Nehemiah depend?—Upon God. Neh. 6:9.

44. Was any one ever disappointed who put his trust in God?—Never.

45. How long was the wall building?—Fifty-two days. Neh. 6:15.

46. What prophecy of Daniel was connected with the building of this wall?—Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times. Dan. 9:25.

47. Whom did Nehemiah appoint to the charge of Jerusalem, and why?—I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many. Neh. 7:2.

48. What did God put into the heart of Nehemiah to do after this?—To make a register of the families that returned from Babylon. Neh. 7:5.

49. Why was the preservation of the genealogies of the children of Israel so important?—To show the fulfillment in Christ of the promise to Abraham, that in his seed should all the nations of the earth be blessed (Dan. 22:18) and of the promise to David, that God would raise up a king to sit for ever on his throne. Acts 2:29, 30; Luke 1:30-33.

50. What further arrangement was completed by the seventh month?—The settling of the Israelites in their cities. Neh. 7:73.

51. What special feast was to be kept in that month?—The feast of tabernacles. Neh. 8:14-18.

52. Of what was it symbolical?—The booths were in remembrance of the tents in the wilderness. Luke 23:43.

Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the feast of tabernacles for seven days unto the Lord. On the first day shall be an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein. Seven days ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the Lord: on the eighth day shall be an holy convocation unto you: and ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the Lord: it is a solemn assembly; and ye shall do no servile work therein. Ye shall dwell in booths seven days. Lev. 23:34-36, 42.

53. When will be its great antitype?—I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. Rev. 21:1-3.

54. Who read the law to Israel at this solemn feast?—Ezra himself.

55. Does not Neh. 8:8 show that their seventy years' residence in a foreign land had made them forget their mother-tongue, Hebrew?—Yes, as distinct reading and explanation were required.

56. What effect did the reading of the law have on the people?—They wept, from mingled feelings of sorrow and of joy. Neh. 8:9.

57. How did Ezra encourage the people?—He said the joy of the Lord was their strength. Neh. 8:10.

58. What does Neh. 9 record?—A solemn fast, with reading of the law and confession of sin.

59. What further arrangements do Neh. 10 and 11 set forth?—The entering into a covenant with God for obedience to his law and as to the offerings for his service, and the selecting the inhabitants of the city and country.

60. How was the wall dedicated?—With music and thanksgiving and great joy. Neh. 12:27-43.

61. How long did this reformation last?—During the days of Zerubbabel and Nehemiah. Neh. 12:47.

62. When had Nehemiah returned to the king of Persia, his master? (Neh. 13).—In the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes' reign. Neh. 5:14.

63. When he returned to Jerusalem again, did he find the government going on prosperously?—No.

64. What evils did he discover?—Abuse and neglect of the house of God, Sabbath-breaking and heathen marriages.

65. How did he correct them?—He cleansed the temple and made new treasurers of its funds, and closed the city gates against Sabbath traffic, and put an end to marriage of heathen wives.

66. Had not the Sabbath-day been the great token of the covenant between the Lord and Israel?—It had. Isa. 58:13, 14; Ezek. 20:12-20.

Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying, Verily, my sabbaths ye shall keep: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that ye may know that I am the Lord that doth sanctify you. It is a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever: for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed. Ex. 31:13, 17.

67. Will God suffer his laws to be trampled on without punishment?—No, as we see in the case of the Jews' neglect to keep their seventh years of rest.

Thom that had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon; to fulfill the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths; for as long as she lay desolate she kept sabbath, to fulfill threescore and ten years. 2 Chron. 36:20, 21.

68. What command did the Lord give about marrying heathen wives?—Thou shalt smite them, and utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor show mercy unto them; neither shalt thou make marriages with them: thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son. For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods. Deut. 7:2-4.

69. Did not Nehemiah vigorously root out this evil?—He did. Neh. 13:25, 28, 30.

70. Where is Nehemiah supposed to have ended his days?—At Babylon, as euphearer to the king. Neh. 1:11; 13:6.

71. After his death, what further evils does the prophecy of Malachi record?—Scanty and mean sacrifices and offerings to God. Mal. 1.

72. Does not chap. 2:1-11 of this prophecy show us that the sin which Nehemiah had with such zeal cleansed away a few years before, the priests had fallen into again?—Yes; they seemed to have married heathen wives. Mal. 1:1-11.

73. Had they not made it an excuse for putting away their wives?—Yes. Mal. 2:14-16.

74. Would God wink at this sin?—No, for he hateth putting away.

75. Of whom does Mal. 3:1 speak?—Of John the Baptist.

76. How is he described?—As God's messenger, to prepare his way.

77. Does not this chapter reveal yet further Israel's sin at that time?—Yes, it speaks of their adultery, false swearing, oppression of the poor and robbery of God. Mal. 3:5-9.

78. Were there any faithful ones left among this general corruption?—Yes, some that feared God, and met together to speak about him for their mutual comfort and help, and who were all written down in his book of remembrance. Mal. 3:16, 17.

79. What awful day does the prophet speak of in Mal. 4:1, 5?—The great and dreadful day of judgment.

80. Is this "day" mentioned in any other part of Scripture?—Yes, in Joel 2:31 as "the great and terrible day of the Lord."

81. Who have need to fear the terror of "that day"?—"Scoffers" who walk "after their own lust." 2 Pet. 3:3.

And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains; and said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of Him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb. Rev. 6:15, 16.

For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?

82. With what feelings may those who "fear the Lord" look forward to it?—With solemn awe, with humble hope, with calm peace and thankful joy.

83. Who is spoken of under the figure of the "Sun of Righteousness"?—Our Lord Jesus Christ.

84. To whom does Deborah allude in her song in Judg. 5:31?—To Jesus Christ, "the sun" going "forth in his might."

85. Did not David look forward to the same blessed Person in his "last words"?—Yes, as the light of the morning, when the sun riseth. 2 Sam. 23:4.

86. Should we not ask ourselves, Are we ready for his appearing?—Yes, day by day, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed. The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light. Rom. 13:11, 12.

87. How can we know that we are ready?—By knowing that we are in Christ by faith; for as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment: so Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation. Heb. 9:27, 28.

88. What in Rev. 19:8 is the bride's dress said to be in which she appears to meet the Lord?—To her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white; for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints (even the righteousness of Christ).

89. Whose righteousness must we be clothed in if we sit down at the marriage-supper of the Lamb?—"Not" our "own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith." Phil. 3:9.

90. How can we procure this?—"Through Jesus Christ our Saviour." Tit. 3:5-7.

91. What right have we to obtain it?—A perfect right through Christ by faith. "And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And whosoever will" may come. Rev. 22:17.

THE NEW TESTAMENT.

LUKE 1.

1. Who was the evangelist Luke?—The writer of a Gospel and of the Acts of the Apostles, a physician, and said to have been born at Antioch in Syria.

2. Was he a personal disciple of our Lord?—This is not known.

3. Who was Theophilus?—A Gentile of rather high rank, and a Christian. Acts 1:1.

4. How much of Palestine was under Herod's jurisdiction?—Judæa. Luke 1:5.

5. What is meant by the courses of the priests?—They were "divided by lot" "in the service of the house of the Lord." 1 Chron. 24:1-19.

6. Does not the word "temple" in verse 9 signify rather the holy place?—It does, for God says to Moses, "Thou shalt make an altar to burn incense upon," "and thou shalt put it" "before the mercy-seat." Ex. 30:1, 6-8.

7. What was our Lord's testimony to John the Baptist at a later period?—That "he was a burning and a shining light." John 5:35.

8. What prophecy agrees with verse 17?—Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord: and he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse. Mal. 4:5, 6.

9. How much older was John the Baptist than our Lord?—About six months. V. 36.

10. Is there not a connection between verses 28 and 38?—The angel said to Mary, "The Lord is with thee," and Mary replied, "Behold the handmaid of the Lord."

11. Whom does Mary speak of as God my Saviour?—Of God the Father, who designed the salvation of man, and sent his Son to execute it.

12. What was the oath unto Abraham?—The angel of the Lord called unto Abraham out of heaven, and said, By myself, have I sworn, saith the Lord, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son: that in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea-shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies: and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice. Gen. 22:15-18.

13. To what do we owe the remission of our sins?—To the righteousness and death of Christ, "through the tender mercy of our God." Vs. 77, 78.

14. How do we know that the way of life is light and peace?—By the word of God (v. 79), and by the experience of our own minds and hearts.

MATTHEW 1:18-25.

15. How do we know it was the same angel as appeared to Mary?—Because he is spoken of in v. 20 as "the angel of the Lord."

16. What is the meaning of being saved from our sins?—Being saved from the power and guilt and punishment of them, and made "holy and unblamable and unprovable in" God's "sight." Col. 1:22.

LUKE 2.

17. Who was Cæsar Augustus?—The first emperor of Rome.

18. What does the term "all the world" include?—The Roman empire, which then included nearly all the known or civilized world.

19. How do the angels speak of Jesus to the shepherds?—As "a Saviour," "Christ the Lord." V. 11.

20. Is there not a sign of the poverty of Joseph and Mary in the offering they presented?—There is.

When the days of her purifying are fulfilled, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb of the first year for a burnt-offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtledove, for a sin-offering, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest: who shall offer it before the Lord, and make an atonement for her; and she shall be cleansed from the issue of her blood. This is the law for her that hath borne a male or a female. And if she be not able to bring a lamb, then she shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons; the one for the burnt-offering, and the other for a sin-offering: and the priest shall make an atonement for her, and she shall be clean. Lev. 12:6-8.

21. Is Simeon of verse 25 the same person as in Acts 15:14?—No; the Simeon of the Acts was Simon Peter.

22. Who are the Gentiles?—All nations but the Jews.

23. How does the compulsory taxation of Luke 2:1 agree with the boast of the Jews in John 8:33?—It does not agree at all, but shows the falseness of their boast.

24. What was the feast of the Passover?—Observe the month of Abib, and keep the passover unto the Lord thy God: for in the month of Abib the Lord thy God brought thee forth out of Egypt by night. Thou shalt therefore sacrifice the passover unto the Lord thy God, of the flock and the herd, in the place which the Lord shall choose to place his name there. Thou shalt eat no leavened bread with it. Deut. 16:1-3.

MATTHEW 2:1-12.

25. Who were the wise men?—Some Magi from the East, who studied the stars and the supposed influence of the stars on human affairs.

26. Why was all Jerusalem troubled, instead of welcoming their promised King?—Many were afraid lest he should overthrow the reigning king.

He came unto his own, and his own received him not. John 1:11.

27. What proof of the overruling providence of God is there in verse 12?—The special warning by a dream.

28. Why was the term "Nazarene" a reproach?—Because of the contempt in which Nazareth was held by the educated Jews.

LUKE 3 (MATTHEW 3, MARK 1).

29. Who was Tiberius Cæsar?—The second emperor of Rome.

30. What was the Roman title of Pontius Pilate?—Governor. Luke 3:1.

31. What was the special feature of John's preaching?—Repentance for remission or pardon of sin through the coming Messiah, and baptism as the outward sign and public profession.

32. What is repentance?—Not only sorrow for sin, but a total change of mind and heart.

33. Who is addressed in Mark 1:2; Mal. 3:1; Isa. 40:3?—Jesus Christ is addressed in Mark 1:2, and referred to in Mal. 3:1: "Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me;" and in Isa. 40:3: "The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord."

34. Was John's preaching successful?—Yes; people from all parts of Judæa confessed and were baptized. Matt. 3:5; Mark 1:5.

35. Whither should we flee from the wrath to come?—To Christ, our perfect and only Shield.

36. What is the fruit of true repentance?—Ceasing "to do evil," willfully and habitually, any more. Isa. 1:16.

37. What solemn warning is contained in Luke 3:9?—Now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down and cast into the fire.

38. How does John's reply in Luke 3:11 illustrate the second great commandment?—By teaching kindness and self-denial for each other's good.

39. What were the publicans?—Jewish collectors of Roman taxes.

40. Why were they so odious to their countrymen?—Because they farmed the taxes, and made as much out of them as possible for their own benefit.

41. What is the meaning of the word Christ?—"Anointed." Luke 4:18.

42. What was the difference between John's baptism and the Lord's?—The baptism ordained by our Lord was "into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost," and was accompanied by the grace of the Holy Spirit to those who believed. "John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence." Acts 1:5. As took place at Pentecost and in the house of Cornelius. Acts 2:2-4; 11:15.

43. What is the meaning of baptism with fire?—The purifying fire of the Holy Spirit, or some searching and exposing power.

Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire: and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. 1 Cor. 3:13.

44. What is the allusion to the use of the fan?—The final separation by Christ of the righteous and the wicked, as the winnowing-fan divides the chaff from the wheat.

45. What proof of our Lord having no need of repentance is found in Luke 3:22?—The approving voice of the holy and omniscient God.

LUKE 4 (MATTHEW 4, MARK 1).

46. How did the Lord Jesus ascertain the will of God concerning himself from day to day?—By constant filial communion with the Father.

47. What is the devil called in Mark 1:13?—Satan.

48. What is the meaning of the two terms?—Satan means "adversary" or "enemy," and devil, "accuser."

49. What proof of the divine authority of the Pentateuch is in Luke 4:4?—Its being quoted by Christ.

50. What does "living by every word of God" signify?—Trusting his promises and keeping his commands.

51. What is the meaning of the word "tempt" in Luke 4:12?—Presumptuously try or provoke.

52. Was it an empty boast of the devil in Luke 4:6?—Not altogether, as he is called "the god of this world" (Eph. 2:2) and "the prince of the power of the air." 2 Cor. 4:4.

53. What relation is there between our Lord's temptation and John 2:16?—They both show that there can be no fellowship between Christ and Satan, and between God's service and the world's.

JOHN 1.

54. Why is our Lord called the Word?—Because he is the revelation of God. V. 18.

55. What proof of his divinity is there in verse 1, and again in verse 2, and again in verse 3?—He is stated to be "God," and to have been "in the beginning," and to have "made" "all things."

56. What is the glad hope of eternal life called in verse 4?—"The light of men" in Christ.

57. How do we know the gospel is free to all?—Because Christ, like the light, reaches all, "that all through him might believe." Vs. 7, 9.

58. Who are meant by "his own"?—The Jews. V. 11.

59. What great change takes place in us when we truly believe?—We become new creatures in Christ, even "sons of God."

60. Who effects this change?—"God" himself through Christ, by the Holy Spirit. V. 13.

61. Out of whose fullness do we receive every grace?—Out of the fullness of Christ.

62. Trace the connection between verses 18 and 1?—Christ, as the word of God, declares him or makes him known.

63. What was the difference between priests and Levites?—The priests were descendants of Aaron, and the chief officers of the temple; the Levites, of other families of the tribe, and the assistants of the priests.

64. Who was Elias?—"Elijah the prophet."

65. Why was he expected to reappear?—Because Malachi prophesied that he should come. Mal. 4:5.

66. Who was meant by "that prophet"?—Christ, who, like Moses, was a mediator and teacher.

The Lord thy God will raise up unto thee a prophet from the midst of thee of thy brethren; like unto me. Deut. 18:15.

67. Why did John call Jesus the "Lamb of God"?—Because he was the spotless sacrifice and gift of God.

68. What further proof of the freeness of the gospel is there in verse 29?—He "taketh away the sin of the world."

69. What language is the word "rabbi"?—Hebrew.

70. In what estimation was Nazareth commonly held?—It was much despised—more even than Galilee in general, whose inhabitants were looked down upon by the more civilized Jews.

71. Can we too often use Philip's invitation?—No. Having seen and known Jesus ourselves, we should say unto all who inquire, and all who doubt, and all who pass by, "Come and see."

72. What is an "Israelite indeed"?—One who sincerely inquires or believes.

Truly, God is good to Israel, even to such as are of a clean heart. Ps. 73:1.

For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: but he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God. Rom. 2:28, 29.

73. What proof of our Lord's divinity does verse 48 contain?—He saw Nathanael, by his all-seeing power, when he thought he was alone in prayer.

74. What is the meaning of the word "Israel"?—"A prince of God." Gen. 32: 28, margin.

Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed.

75. Compare verse 51 with Gen. 28: 12 and Heb. 1: 14.—Christ is the ladder of communication between heaven and earth, between earth and heaven; and angels were messengers and servants to Jacob of old and to Christ upon earth, and are "ministering spirits" "to the heirs of salvation" now.

JOHN 2.

76. Is not the Passover generally called the Lord's Passover?—It is, in many parts of the Old Testament.

77. For what purpose were the animals brought to the temple?—To be sold as offerings and sacrifices to God, and for the food of the priests and people.

78. What temple did our Lord refer to in verse 19?—The temple of his own body.

79. How does this verse illustrate John 10: 18?—Each verse shows his "power to take again" the body or life he had laid down.

80. Who built the temple that was then standing?—Ezra and Nehemiah.

81. What proof of the omniscience of Jesus is in verse 25?—"He knew what was in man."

JOHN 3.

82. Who were the Pharisees?—A sect of the Jews who "trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others." Luke 18: 9, 10.

83. What recent miracles does Nicodemus refer to?—Those related or referred to in John 2: 2, 7-11, 23.

84. Is there any exception to the necessity for the new birth?—None.

85. By whom are we born again?—By the Holy Spirit.

86. Who are the "we" of verse 11?—Jesus and the Father.

87. What fresh proof of the freeness of the gospel is there in verses 15 and 16?—Jesus saying, that "whosoever believeth in him" shall "have everlasting life."

88. What proof of salvation being a present blessing is there in verse 18?—The saying of Jesus, that "He that believeth on him is not condemned," but (v. 30) "hath everlasting life."

89. Why do we reject the Light of life?—Because we love sin, or darkness, better.

90. Who is the great Example of verse 21?—Jesus himself.

91. Who is the "bride" of verse 29?—The Church or people of Christ.

92. What is the meaning of the expression "set to his seal"?—Shown his belief.

93. What are the terrible consequences of unbelief?—Being "condemned already" and under the abiding "wrath of God." Vs. 18, 36.

MARK 6 (MATTHEW 14, LUKE 3).

94. Why was John imprisoned?—Because of his faithful boldness in respect to Herod's unlawful marriage with his brother's wife. Mark 6: 17, 18.

95. Did not Herod's respect for John greatly add to his criminality?—It did, as it showed that his conscience told him John was right.

JOHN 4.

96. Why must Jesus "needs go through Samaria"?—Because it lay between. Vs. 3, 4.

97. When was the parcel of ground sold to Jacob?—Jacob bought it on his return from Laban, and probably gave it to Joseph as part of his dying blessing. Josh. 24: 32.

98. Why had the Jews no dealings with the Samaritans?—Because they did not come to Jerusalem to worship. V. 20.

99. Who were the Samaritans?—Colonists from Assyria who worshipped God, but not like the Jews.

100. Is not the freeness of the gospel again brought out in verse 10?—Yes; the Samaritan woman, living in open sin, was welcome to the living water of the Spirit if she asked.

101. What are the soul-satisfying effects of faith?—The grace and comfort of the Holy Spirit. Vs. 13, 14.

102. What proof of omniscience is there in this narrative?—Jesus knowing the history of the woman's life. V. 18.

103. What is the true worship which alone is acceptable to God?—The worship of the heart. Vs. 23, 24.

104. Compare verses 31-34 with Matt. 4: 4.—God's word is the food of the soul.

105. What simple act of faith is recorded in verse 50?—The nobleman's instant belief that Jesus had cured his child.

LUKE 4 (MATTHEW 4, MARK 1).

106. Who are the "broken-hearted," verse 18?—Those whose hearts are broken or crushed under godly sorrow for sin.

107. What is the captivity referred to?—To Satan, who leads his victims captive at his will.

108. What is it to be blind to the truth?—To be unwilling, and so unable, to see and receive it.

109. Why is it called "the acceptable year of the Lord"?—The time of grace (compared to the jubilee year), when God is ready to hear and to forgive. Isa. 1: 18, etc.

110. Why did our Lord not read the remainder of the verse?—Because "the day of vengeance" was not yet come.

111. Will not the time come when the rest of the sentence will be fulfilled?—The day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night: in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God? 2 Pet. 3: 10-12.

112. Why did they wonder in verse 22?—Because they knew him only as a Nazarene carpenter's son.

113. Why did our Lord's declaration in verses 24-27 so excite their wrath?—Because of their Jewish pride and contempt for all other people.

114. Was Sarepta a Jewish town?—No, a city of Sidon, in Phœnicia.

115. Was Naaman a Jew?—No, a Syrian.

LUKE 5 (MATTHEW 4, MARK 1).

116. What proof of the power of Jesus does the draught of fishes show?—By bringing the fish in great numbers where there were none the night before.

117. Did not Peter's exclamation show how much he realized the divinity of our Lord?—Yes; it made him deeply feel his own sinfulness in the presence of Christ's holiness and power.

118. In what sense was Peter henceforth to catch men?—By drawing them out of the world to Christ in the gospel net.

119. What act of faith is recorded of the disciples?—Their letting down their net, after a night of fruitless toil, at Jesus' word.

MARK 1: 29 (MATTHEW 8, LUKE 4).

120. How do we see the completeness of the cure of Peter's wife's mother?—She was able to wait upon them immediately.

121. Why did they wait for sunset?—Because it was the Sabbath-day. Mark 1: 32.

122. Why did not Jesus allow the devils to speak?—Perhaps because (as in the case of Paul and the female soothsayer) they might make it appear he was in league with them. Acts 16: 16-18.

123. Who is the great Example of fervent prayer?—Jesus, whose long and earnest prayers by day or night, and especially before great duties and events, are often named.

124. What is meant by "all Syria" in Matt. 4: 24?—That part of it which adjoined the Holy Land.

125. Was there any need for the "if" in the leper's appeal, Mark 1: 40?—No; and Christ is as willing now, as he is able now, to cleanse us from all sin.

126. How could Jesus touch the leper without being himself rendered unclean?—By his divine purity.

Command the children of Israel, that they put out of the camp every leper; that they defile not their camps, in the midst whereof I dwell. Num. 5: 2, 3.

127. Is it not a proof of the immaculate purity of our Lord?—Yes; we may conclude that, as he could not be defiled without, he must have been equally undefiled within.

128. What offering was required by the law?—Two lambs, doves or pigeons, with flour and oil. Lev. 14: 10, 21, 22.

MARK 2 (LUKE 5, MATTHEW 9).

129. What proof of the connection between sin and suf- fering is there in Mark 2: 5?—Jesus saying to the sick of the palsy, "Thy sins be forgiven thee."

130. Why was not our Lord's forgiveness of sins blasphemy?—Because he was God himself. Isa. 43: 25.

131. What other proof of his Godhead does Mark 2: 8 contain?—His knowledge of the people's thoughts.

132. Why does Matthew, in chap. 9, verse 9, call himself by his common name, while in Mark and Luke he is called Levi?—He calls himself Matthew from humility: he is called by his new name of Levi from respect.

JOHN 5.

133. What proof of the connection between sin and suffering is there in verse 14?—The warning of Jesus to the sick man to sin no more, lest a worse disease or thing should happen unto him.

134. Does not verse 17 show that God cannot rest until redemption is accomplished?—Yes; all his works, in providence and grace, show him to have that end in view.

135. Compare verse 18 with Phil. 2: 6.—Christ Jesus is there said to be "in the form of God" and "to be equal with God."

136. Who is to be the Judge of all? and why?—Christ is to be the Judge, that he may have equal honor with God. V. 23.

137. Why is the verb in the present tense before "everlasting life," and in the future tense before "condemnation"?—Because the everlasting life of believers is already begun, while condemnation is reserved for those who will not believe.

138. What is the terrible alternative of resurrection unto life?—Resurrection to damnation, to "shame and everlasting contempt." Dan. 12: 2.

139. What is a fatal stumbling-block to faith?—The preference of honor from men to honor from God.

140. What confirmation of the inspiration of the Pentateuch is there in verse 46?—Jesus quoting it as written of himself.

141. What is the abiding testimony against the Jews' unbelief?—The writings of Moses and the prophets, which testify of Christ.

MATTHEW 12 (MARK 2, LUKE 6).

142. Were the disciples justified in taking the growing corn?—They were.

When thou comest into the standing corn of thy neighbor, then thou mayest pluck the ears with thine hand; but thou shalt not move a sickle unto thy neighbor's standing corn. Deut. 23.

143. How did the priests profane the Sabbath and remain blameless?—They appeared to do so by killing the sacrifices on that day as on other days.

In the first day shall be an holy convocation; ye shall do no manner of servile work therein: but ye shall offer a sacrifice made by fire for a burnt-offering unto the Lord; two young bullocks, and one ram, and seven lambs. Num. 28: 13, 19.

144. What is taught of the nature of the Sabbath in Mark 2: 27?—That "the sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath;" the day being appointed, even in Paradise, as a day of rest; and being now a blessed season of rest of body and mind from earthly care and pleasure and toil—a time of special regard to the interests of our immortal souls, and of kind offices to the souls and bodies of our fellow-men.

145. What was the shew-bread?—An important offering.

Thou shalt take fine flour, and bake twelve cakes thereof. And thou shalt set them in two rows, six on a row, upon the pure table before the Lord. And thou shalt put pure frankincense upon each row, that it may be on the bread for a memorial, even an offering made by fire unto the Lord. Every sabbath he shall set it in order before the Lord continually, being taken from the children of Israel by an everlasting covenant. And it shall be Aaron's and his sons'; and they shall eat it in the holy place: for it is most holy unto him of the offerings of the Lord made by fire by a perpetual statute. Lev. 24: 5-9.

146. What is meant by a "bruised reed" and "smoking flax"?—The conscience-stricken and spiritually distressed and the weak in faith.

MATTHEW 5 (LUKE 6).

147. To whom was the sermon on the mount addressed?—To the disciples of Jesus.

148. Who are "the poor in spirit"?—The humble-minded.

149. What is the "mourning" referred to?—Mourning for sin and for the low state of the Church. Isa. 61: 2, 3.

150. What is meekness?—Patience under provocation, after the example of Christ, “who, when he was reviled, reviled not again.” 1 Pet. 2: 23.

151. What is it to hunger and thirst after anything?—To greatly long for it and to seek and strive to obtain it.

152. Who are the “merciful”?—Those who are kind to the poor, the “hungry” and the “afflicted.” Isa. 58: 10, 11.

153. What is it to be “pure in heart”?—To have that “holiness without which no man shall see the Lord.” Heb. 12: 14.

154. Why are the “peacemakers” so distinguished?—Because of the difficulty of making and keeping peace, and as Christ is the Prince of peace.

If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men. Rom. 12: 18.

155. How does our Lord connect his disciples with himself in Matt. 5: 11?—By promising them a blessing upon all that they endured for his sake.

156. What great lesson of mutual forgiveness does Matt. 5: 23-26 contain?—That we should come to the worship and service of God in peace and reconciliation with our fellow-men.

157. What rule against trifling with evil is contained in Matt. 5: 29, 30?—That we should make any sacrifice to be free from sin.

158. What lesson against procrastination is there in Matt. 5: 25?—We may learn, if we are living in enmity toward God, our Judge, to be earnest in seeking reconciliation with him, through Christ, while we have time.

159. What lesson of the largeness of the love of God have we in Matt. 5: 45 and Luke 6: 35?—“He is kind” to “the unthankful” and “evil,” and pours his daily blessings alike upon the wicked and the good.

160. Compare Matt. 5: 48 with Luke 6: 36.—We should strive to be like our heavenly Father in holiness and mercy.

MATTHEW 6.

161. Does not the first precept commend itself to our consciences?—It does, or should do. The eye and favor of God should be our chief thought and aim.

162. Compare the reward of verse 2 with that of verse 4.—The hypocrite’s reward is the present and fleeting one of honor from men, while the true Christian’s reward (besides peace and blessing upon earth) is the eternal one of glory in heaven.

163. What encouragement for our imperfect petitions is there in verse 8?—That our heavenly Father knows what we have need of before we ask.

164. How do the first words of the Lord’s Prayer adapt it to the whole family of man?—They show that we have “all one Father.”

165. What is it to “hallow” anything?—To treat it as holy.

166. How are we taught that we must render practical obedience to the will of God?—By the standard of the obedience of the angels in heaven. V. 10.

167. Does not verse 11 refer to the daily supply of manna?—It does, and teaches us not to be over-thoughtful about to-morrow’s supply.

168. What striking condition is added to the petition for forgiveness of our trespasses?—That we should forgive those who have trespassed against us.

169. Give an example of the sort of temptation intended here.—The tempting or trying of the faith of Abraham by requiring Isaac’s life. Gen. 22: 1.

170. How can we judge whether we love God?—By thinking where our chief treasure is, whether on earth or in heaven. V. 21.

171. Who takes care of our lives?—Our heavenly Father. Vs. 26, 30, 32, 33.

MATTHEW 7 (LUKE 6).

172. What lesson of self-examination do the first five verses convey?—Lest we should condemn our neighbor, while we are worse ourselves.

173. What is the meaning of the strait gate?—The narrow entrance into heaven, which, “though wide enough for any sinner, is too strait for any sin.”

174. Is there any immediate sign of danger in the broad road?—No, not to the eye of the thoughtless worldly man.

175. Should not our Lord’s declaration in Matt. 7: 14 excite us to make diligent search?—Yes, that we are among the few in the narrow way.

176. What lesson do we learn about our conduct in Matt. 7: 16 and following verses?—That we shall be judged by our conduct, rather than our profession—by our fruits rather than our leaves.

LUKE 7 (MATTHEW 8).

177. What was the particular feature of the centurion’s faith?—It was humble and strong, and was the faith of a Gentile, and not of a Jew.

178. What practical answer did Jesus give to John the Baptist’s messengers?—That they were to conclude he was the Messiah from the miracles he did and the prophecies he fulfilled. Luke 7: 21.

179. How does our Lord sum up his reference to the greatness of John the Baptist?—By saying that the least of those in the kingdom of Christ were greater even than John.

180. What does Luke 7: 35 refer to?—To the wisdom of God, as shown in the conduct of Christ and of John, being seen and acknowledged by all God’s people.

MATTHEW 11: 20.

181. May we not apply these woes to our own country and time?—Yes, with still greater truth.

182. What state of heart is specially inculcated in verses 25-30?—Humility, teachableness and meekness.

183. What blessing is vouchsafed to those who take Christ’s yoke upon them?—The blessing of rest in Christ from self-righteous and worldly labors and cares.

LUKE 7: 36.

184. In what manner did they sit at table?—They reclined on sofas round it.

185. What was the reason for the omission of providing water for his feet?—Abraham offered water for his visitors’ feet (Gen. 18: 4), but Simon had invited Jesus from curiosity alone, and did not care to show him respect.

LUKE 12: 14 (MATTHEW 12, MARK 3).

186. What was Beelzebub?—The fly-god of Ekron, in Philistia. 2 Kings 1: 2.

187. What proof of our Lord’s omniscience is there in Luke 11: 17-20?—His knowing the people’s thoughts.

MATTHEW 12: 31-37 (MARK 3).

188. Who will judge our words?—Christ, at the day of judgment, even every idle word.

189. How do we see that the closest family relationships are subordinate to discipleship?—By Christ’s saying that those who did his Father’s will were to him as brother and sister and mother. Matt. 12: 46-50.

LUKE 11: 37.

190. Who were the scribes and lawyers?—Persons who copied and explained the law.

LUKE 12: 1.

191. What is “the leaven” of the Pharisees?—Their bad principles and influence and hypocrisy. Matt. 16: 6.

192. Whom does Christ advise us to fear? and why?—God, who has power to cast into hell. Luke 12: 5.

193. What proof of God’s overruling providence have we in verse 6?—Even sparrows not being forgotten by him.

194. What blessing is promised to the confession of Christ?—Those who are not afraid or ashamed to acknowledge Christ upon earth will be acknowledged by him before all the angels at the last day.

195. Against what are we warned in verses 17-20?—Against the love of the riches and pleasures of the world.

196. What does the soul’s “being required” mean?—Being called away from earth to its great account.

197. What is it to be “rich toward God”?—To be full of love to him and of good works for his sake.

198. What is it to have a treasure in the heavens?—To have Christ there as our own Saviour, and all his riches as our own through him.

199. What great event is involved in the exhortation to “watch”?—The sudden coming of our Lord.

200. What responsibility is attached to knowing the Lord’s will?—The doing it.

201. What is the meaning of verse 49?—It may refer to the “fire” of “the Holy Ghost,” “the spirit of burning” (Isa. 4: 4), and to the gospel of peace being made an occasion of burning hatred among the families and nations of men. Matt. 3: 11.

LUKE 13.

202. What is the call to repentance in verses 1-9?—The sudden death of others and the gracious sparing of our own lives are solemn calls upon us to repent, lest we likewise perish.

MATTHEW 13 (MARK 4, LUKE 8).

203. Who are they that receive the gospel?—Those who truly receive it are those who receive it into their hearts, as seed into good ground, and show its effects in their lives. V. 8.

204. What is the fate of the tares?—To be burned.

205. What is meant by the harvest?—The judgment-day. V. 30.

206. What is meant by the barn?—The heavenly treasure-house and home.

207. Who are the reapers?—The angels.

208. How are the tares described?—As the children of the wicked one. V. 38.

MATTHEW 8 (MARK 4, LUKE 8).

209. What proof have we in Matt 8: 20 of the poverty of our Lord?—He had not where to lay his head.

210. What do we learn from our Lord’s calling the conduct of the disciples before the stilling of the tempest an act of little faith?—That we ought to have strong faith at all times in his goodness and power.

MARK 5 (MATTHEW 8, LUKE 8).

211. Was it lawful for the Jews to trade in swine?—It was not.

212. How does Mark 5: 17 illustrate John 3: 19?—It shows that they did not wish their evil deeds to be brought to light.

LUKE 5: 29 (MATTHEW 9, MARK 2).

213. Compare Luke 5: 30 with 1 Tim 1: 15.—Jesus ate and drank with “sinners,” because he came into the world to “seek” and “save” them.

214. Of what material were the wine-bottles made?—Of skins or leather.

MARK 5: 22 (MATTHEW 9, LUKE 8).

215. What was the reason of the poor woman’s timid and almost stealthy manner of approaching Christ?—Because a person with her disease was ordered to be kept separate, and was considered unclean.

216. What was the difference between the touch of the thronging multitude and that of the woman?—Hers was the touch of faith.

217. Ought the death of the little girl to have made them give up hope after having applied to Jesus?—No, for Jesus was coming, and He who could cure could also restore to life.

218. What is death called in Mark 5: 39?—A “sleep,” from which Jesus could “awake.” John 11: 11.

219. Was the life thus miraculously restored independent of natural circumstances for its preservation?—No; Jesus ordered her something to eat.

MATTHEW 9: 27.

220. What was the proof of the faith of the blind men?—They acknowledged Jesus to be Christ, the Son of David; and they prayed and persevered.

221. May we not secure the same blessing if we use the same means?—We may.

MARK 6 (MATTHEW 13).

222. Why did Jesus refrain from doing his mighty works?—Because of their obstinate unbelief.

223. What ought to be the effect of our Lord’s miracles on us?—To strengthen our faith. Mark 6: 6.

224. To what are sheep having no shepherd exposed?—To be “scattered” and destroyed: and we, who are by nature as “sheep going astray,” should be deeply thankful to Him who came to seek and to save. Matt. 9: 36; Isa. 53: 6.

225. Is the harvest yet all gathered in?—No; the invitation of the gospel is still, “Whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.”

MATTHEW 10 (MARK 6, LUKE 9).

226. Compare Matt. 10: 8 with Acts 20: 33-35.—The words, “Freely ye have received, freely give,” and “It is more blessed to give than to receive,” convey the same truth.

227. Who would provide for the destitute disciples?—Christ undertook to provide for them.

228. Why are Sodom and Gomorrah used to point the terrors of the Lord’s denunciation?—Because the privileges and opportunities of Sodom and Gomorrah were not so great as those of cities of our Lord’s time and of our own.

229. What is the end spoken of in Matt. 10 : 22?—The end of life.

230. Compare Matt. 10 : 36 with Mic. 7 : 6.—The words are almost exactly the same, showing the hostility to true religion in every age.

231. Is taking the cross only the endurance of petty vexations, or does it represent the preliminary of ignominy and death?—It includes every trial, small or great, that God appoints.

232. What is the meaning of finding life in Matt. 10 : 39?—Saving one's earthly life by giving up Christ.

233. What encouragement have we for active love to the Lord's people?—Christ's assurance that the giver of even a cup of cold water to one of his disciples shall not lose his reward.

MARK 6 : 14 (MATTHEW 14, LUKE 9).

234. What was the testimony of Herod's conscience when he heard of our Lord's miracles?—That they were done by John, whom he had beheaded, and who (he believed) had risen from the dead.

235. Who was Herodias?—His brother Philip's wife.

236. Why does Herodias say "by and by"?—Because she knew that John's prison was at some distance.

237. Was John imprisoned at the place where these festivities were held?—No—at Machærus, on the Dead Sea.

238. Ought the disciples to have been so surprised at our Lord's walking on the water?—No; they ought to have remembered his former miracles. Mark 6 : 52.

239. What was the power that enabled Peter to walk on the water?—The power of Christ, that gave him faith and help. Matt. 14 : 28-31.

240. What was Peter's cause of failure?—His faith being weak and giving way. Matt. 14 : 31.

241. Was Jesus ready to save?—Yes, immediately. Matt. 14 : 31.

JOHN 6 : 22.

242. How did our Lord rebuke the insincerity of those who came seeking him?—By telling them that they came for the sake of the loaves he had fed them with.

243. What is the meaning of the "meat which perisheth"?—Worldly comforts and riches.

244. What is the meaning of the word "sealed" in verse 27?—Stamped or approved as his own by the miracles he wrought.

245. Does not verse 28 show how ready we are to bring our works before God?—In verse 28 they asked what they should do.

246. Does not verse 29 show the true simplicity of the way of life?—Yes; it is only to "repent and believe" (Mark 1 : 15), when all good works will follow.

247. What was the nature of the Jews' demand in verse 30 after beholding his mighty miracles?—A dissatisfied and unbelieving one.

248. What bread were the Jews willing to accept?—Bread from heaven.

249. Is there not in Jesus what will completely satisfy the soul?—Yes; he is the bread of life, that satisfies all hunger and thirst. V. 35.

250. What gracious assurance of acceptance have we in coming to Christ?—That he "will in no wise cast out." V. 37.

251. How many times does our Lord repeat the promise of the resurrection in this chapter?—Four times. Vs. 39, 40, 44, 54.

252. How do we know that everlasting life may be our present possession?—From Jesus saying that "he that believeth on" him "hath everlasting life." Vs. 47-51.

253. Do not many now fall into the same mistake as the Jews of old in supposing the Lord's literal body was intended?—Yes; papists and their imitators believe that the consecrated bread they eat is the body of Christ, who is in heaven. The true Protestant feeds daily and hourly upon Christ himself, but only by faith. V. 53.

254. What antidote have we to this error in verse 63?—The lesson that it is the Spirit only that gives life to what is written.

MARK 7 (MATTHEW 15).

255. Did the traditions of the elders always correspond with the law of God?—No; they made it of no effect. Mark 7 : 7-13.

256. What lesson of the necessity of sincerity in dealing with God do verses 6 and 7 contain?—The warning that he knows the heart, and that all hypocritical worship is "vain."

257. What is the sentence passed upon false teachers in Matt. 15 : 14?—That they and their followers would perish together.

258. Do we really believe that our hearts are the abodes of all these terrible evils?—If we did, we should keep our hearts with more diligence than we do. Mark 7 : 21-23.

259. Were Tyre and Sidon Jewish cities?—No; they were on the sea-coast, to the north-west.

260. Who were meant by the "children" in Mark 7 : 27?—The Jews. Matt. 15 : 24, 26.

261. Is there any limit to the power of faith?—No; it takes hold of the power of God. Mark 7 : 29.

262. Why did Jesus sigh?—He was oppressed with their unbelief. Mark 7 : 34.

263. What does the word "Ephphatha" show us of the dialect in which our Lord usually conversed?—That it was Syriac he spoke. Mark 5 : 41.

MARK 8 (MATTHEW 15 AND 16).

264. Were not the doubts of the disciples wonderful after their experience of the previous miracles?—They were indeed, but we do just the same.

265. May we not learn a lesson from their unbelief?—Yes, to trust God, at all times, to give us whatever is good for us.

266. Compare Matt. 16 : 18, 19; 1 Cor. 3 : 11; Acts 4 : 11, 12; and Eph. 2 : 20.—The true Church is built, not on Peter himself, as the papists suppose, but on the truth contained in what he had said about Christ, even upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner-stone. Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other Name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. For other foundation can no man lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

267. What remarkable rebuke was addressed to Peter soon after his noble confession?—"Get thee behind me, Satan!"

268. What is the meaning of the word "savoorest"?—Likest or mindest.

269. What explanation of Mark 8 : 36 is found in Luke 5 : 25?—What is a man advantaged if he gain the whole world, and lose himself or be cast away.

MARK 9 (MATTHEW 17, LUKE 9).

270. Is there any other testimony to Jesus as the "beloved Son," Mark 9 : 7?—Yes, at his baptism. Matt. 3 : 17.

271. What are we enjoined to do in Mark 9 : 7?—To hear him.

272. Whom did our Lord mean when he said, "Elias is indeed come"?—John the Baptist.

273. Why were the people amazed?—Because of the remaining glory of his appearance. V. 15; compare v. 3.

274. Why could not the disciples cure the demoniac?—From want of faith and prayer. Mark 9 : 18, 19, 23, 24, 29.

275. Compare Mark 9 : 19 with Num. 14 : 11, 27.—They contain the same complaint of unbelief, notwithstanding "all the signs which" God had "showed among them."

276. Did not the poor father's faith almost fail?—Yes; he doubted Jesus' power. Mark 9 : 22.

277. How did Jesus strengthen it?—By telling him that "all things were possible to him that believeth."

278. Where does Jesus foretell his death and resurrection besides Mark 9 : 31?—In John 2 : 19, 21, when he spoke of raising up the temple of his body in three days.

MATTHEW 17 : 24 (MARK 9).

279. What was this tribute-money?—"Half a shekel," or about thirty cents, "for the offering of the Lord" or the service of the temple. Ex. 30 : 13; 2 Chron. 24 : 9.

280. What is the meaning of "prevented"?—"Anticipated" what Peter was going to say.

281. What lesson of considerateness does the Lord of all teach us?—Not to give needless offence, especially in little matters.

282. What do we learn from the "piece of money" being the exact amount claimed for Peter and our Lord?—Perhaps that Jesus had miraculously brought the exact coin required into the fish's mouth.

MARK 9 : 33 (MATTHEW 18, LUKE 9).

283. What lesson did our Lord teach in Mark 9 : 35-37?—Humility.

284. What great reward is promised to those who learn this lesson?—All the blessings that follow from receiving Christ and being his.

285. Is not all intolerance discouraged in Mark 9 : 39?—Yes; when we feel assured of any one that he is a true servant of Christ, we should not disown him because he does not agree on all religious subjects with ourselves.

286. Are great deeds done for Christ the only ones accepted by him?—No; even the giving of a cup of water for Christ's sake shall have its reward.

287. What further lesson have we against all persecution?—That any one who willfully injures a young, weak or lowly believer in Jesus is liable to a greater punishment than even loss of life. Mark 9 : 42.

288. How are we to deal with our sins?—To give them up, and every help or temptation to them, at any cost.

289. Are any of them to be tenderly dealt with?—No; all of them firmly, promptly and decidedly.

MATTHEW 18 : 10.

290. How do we see the care of our Lord over the least of his disciples?—By his appointing angels to watch over them.

291. Are there any exceptions to verse 11?—No; all are lost, and all may be saved.

292. What condition of the sheep led to the exercise of the Shepherd's love?—Their being gone astray.

293. How does our Lord inculcate the duty of mutual forbearance and forgiveness?—By calling upon the injured to strive to gain over the offender by a quiet appeal to him when alone.

294. To whom in another Gospel was the promise in verse 18 given?—To the disciples generally, and not to Peter only. John 20 : 23; Matt. 16 : 19.

295. Is there any limitation to the two blessed promises in verses 19, 20?—Only that what we ask of God must be "according to his will." 1 John 5 : 14.

296. What was the utmost extent of forgiveness that seemed possible to Peter?—Forgiving seven times.

297. Did the estimate of Jesus agree with him?—No; he ordered us to forgive seventy times seven.

298. In the parable, verse 23, what was the amount of the debt, at £187 10 each talent?—Nearly ten million dollars.

299. Does not this show the incalculable claims that God has upon us for breaches of only the first commandment?—It may well do so.

300. Do we not also see the entire freeness of the divine forgiveness?—Yes, as compassion alone forgave the debt.

301. Are we not called upon to imitate the long-suffering of God?—We are indeed; and if we know ourselves forgiven by him, we shall certainly do so.

302. Where do we learn that the merciful God is also a God of judgment?—In the same parable, by his sentence on the ungrateful and unforgiving servant. V. 34.

JOHN 7.

303. What was the "feast of tabernacles"?—In the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when ye have gathered in the fruit of the land, ye shall keep a feast unto the Lord seven days; and ye shall take you on the first day the boughs of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and the boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook; and ye shall rejoice before the Lord your God seven days. Lev. 23 : 39, 40.

304. What hidden motives influenced the relatives of Jesus in their advice to our Lord?—To bring him into danger and expose him if he were a deceiver, and to cause him to proclaim himself as king for their worldly benefit if he were really the Messiah.

LUKE 9 : 51.

305. Why is the term "steadfastly" used?—Because Jesus knew all the sufferings that would come upon him.

306. What example of meekness did our Lord show?—By not punishing the Samaritans for their inhospitable conduct.

307. Who are the dead that are to bury their dead?—The dead in sin.

308. Why is it particularly hurtful to look back while ploughing?—Because you may lose the right course.

LUKE 10.

309. Do not the directions to the Seventy show the daily and hourly care of the Master?—Yes, for their bodily comfort as well as for their ministerial success.

310. How was Capernaum exalted to heaven?—As a prosperous city, that had enjoyed the privilege of Christ's preaching.

311. What proof have we in verse 16 of the union between Christ and his people?—His saying that the hearing or despising of his ministers was the hearing or despising of himself.

LUKE 17:11.

312. Why did the lepers stand "afar off"?—Because they were obliged by law to keep separate from others.

313. Why were they to show themselves to the priests?—First, to know if they were lepers; and afterward, to know if they were healed. Lev. 13:2.

314. Was their cleansing previous to or after they had acted in faith?—After they had showed their faith by calling upon Jesus for mercy.

315. Did the ingratitude of the nine hinder their blessing?—It did not make Jesus recall their cure.

JOHN 7:11.

316. Why were the people afraid of the Jews?—"Lest they should be put out of the synagogue," or excommunicated, if they confessed themselves followers of Christ. Acts 5:13.

317. What remarkable connection is there between obedience and the knowledge of right doctrine?—The man who really desires to do God's will shall understand the truth and meaning of his word. V. 17.

318. Whom did the people mean by the "very Christ"?—The true Messiah.

319. What was the hinderance of verse 34?—Insincerity and worldly motives.

320. Who are the "dispersed"?—The scattered Israelites. V. 35.

321. Could the Jews bear to think that the gospel was to be preached to the Gentiles?—No; they were too jealous, selfish and proud to think it.

322. What is it to come to Jesus and drink?—To receive him as our Saviour, and so to satisfy all the longings of the thirsty soul.

323. Who was referred to as "the prophet"?—The one that Moses said God would "raise up" like unto himself. Deut. 18:15, 18.

324. What is meant by "the law" in verse 49?—The law of Moses and the writings of the prophets.

325. Had not the interview with Jesus strengthened the faith of Nicodemus?—Yes, for he took Jesus' part. Vs. 50, 51.

326. Was Galilee held in honor by the Jews?—No; it was despised.

327. Where was the search to be made?—In the Scriptures, which spoke (Isa. 9:1, 2) of "Galilee" as a land of "darkness." V. 52.

JOHN 8.

328. What striking instance of the power of conscience when under the eye of the Judge of all the earth is there in verse 9?—The sinful accusers of the adulterous woman going out of his presence, every one.

329. In what condition are they who walk without the Light of life?—In darkness now, and in the way to "blackness of darkness for ever."

330. What is it to "judge after the flesh"?—To judge by outward appearances and worldly notions.

331. How are we to know God the Father?—In and through Jesus Christ. V. 19.

332. What does our Lord mean by being "lifted up"?—Being raised on the cross.

333. How is verse 29 full of blessing?—It shows how completely our blessed Saviour is accepted by God, and what grace and help his people may have through him.

334. How did verse 33 agree with the payment to the Roman emperor?—Not at all, being an idle boast of the Jews.

335. What were the works of Abraham?—The "obedience of faith," which should have led the Jews to believe and obey Christ.

336. Who alone can say, "Who convinceth me of sin"?—Jesus only.

337. What example of grace is there in verse 49?—The gentleness of Jesus' reply to so shameful an accusation.

338. Is death of the body referred to in verse 51?—No—the death or ruin of the soul, "the second or everlasting death."

339. How did Abraham see the "day of Christ"?—By the far-seeing eye of faith, looking at the promises of God.

340. Why did the Jews say "fifty years old"?—Because "his visage was so marred" by privation and suffering that he looked older than he was. Isa. 52:14.

341. What does our Lord mean by "I am"?—That he was always in being, from all eternity; as God called himself to Moses, "I AM." Ex. 3:14.

342. Why did he not say "I was"?—Because "I am" is a stronger expression of eternal being, and also made him equal with God.

LUKE 10:20.

343. Is anything to be reserved in obeying the two great commandments?—No; they require the love of the whole heart.

344. What is the lesson taught by the parable?—How to reduce to practice God's commands, and how far we must always fall short of entire obedience to his will. We shall never do and live; we must believe and live.

345. What is the "one thing needful"?—To come to Christ for salvation of the soul. V. 42.

346. What is the true cause of rejoicing?—That we have found Christ, and have our names written in heaven. V. 20.

347. What was the cause of our Lord's joy?—The bringing of his humble disciples to the saving knowledge of the truth.

LUKE 11.

348. Compare verses 2-4 with Matt. 6:9-13?—We may use our Lord's Prayer, or pray in our own words after its manner, placing the concerns of God before our own.

349. How should we use importunity in prayer?—By feeling and speaking earnestly and perseveringly, as those who will not be denied whatever it may be God's will to grant.

JOHN 9.

350. What did our Lord mean by verse 3?—That the blindness gave an opportunity of showing the power of God.

351. What does our Lord mean by day and night?—Life as the time of working for God, and death as the rest from our labor.

352. What is meant by expulsion from the synagogue?—Not allowing attendance at the chief place of religious meeting, and so bringing disgrace and distress, and some social privations besides.

353. What proof of our Lord's divine nature is there in verses 36-38?—His allowing himself to be worshiped as the Son of God.

JOHN 10.

354. What sort of sheepfolds were in use in Palestine?—Uncovered enclosures in the pasture-grounds for the protection of the sheep at night.

355. What is promised to those who enter in by the door?—Those ministers and teachers who are called and qualified by the Holy Spirit may expect a blessing on their work.

356. What was our Lord's solemn object in coming into the world?—To lay down his life in order to give life. Vs. 15, 10.

357. How is the atonement taught in verses 11, 15-18?—By Jesus saying that he laid down his "life for the sheep," or in their stead, that they might live.

358. What was the feast of the dedication?—It was kept in memory of God's delivery of the temple from King Antiochus. 1 Mac. 4:52-59; 2 Mac. 10:5-8.

359. What is the security of the Lord's true people?—His own assurance that they shall never perish. Vs. 27, 28.

360. Why cannot the Scripture be broken?—Because it is the word of God.

361. What is the special use of miracles?—To prove a commission from God, and to give divine authority to what is spoken in his name. Vs. 22-42.

JOHN 11.

362. What interesting fact about sickness do we learn in verse 4?—That the sickness of God's people is for his glory.

363. What is taught us about the right use of opportunity in verses 9, 10?—That time and opportunity will soon be at an end.

364. How is death spoken of?—As a sleep in the ease of the people of God, as they will awake and arise to a new and spiritual life.

365. What does Thomas mean in verse 16?—That he expected Jesus would be killed by the Jews.

366. How was Jesus himself the resurrection and the life?—Because his people, by their union with him, have a glorious resurrection to eternal life.

367. Who are the dead spoken of in verse 25?—"The dead in Christ." 1 Thess. 4:16.

368. Who are the living who shall never die?—Those who "are alive" at "the coming of the Lord." 1 Thess. 4:17.

369. What proof of our Lord's true humanity is there in verse 35?—His weeping at the grave.

370. Are not Caiaphas and Balaam examples of unbelieving prophets?—Yes; God merely "put a word in Balaam's mouth," for he "loved the wages of unrighteousness," and he afterward died in battle among the enemies of God. Num. 33:5, 16; 2 Pet. 2:15.

LUKE 13:10.

371. Does not the readiness of the poor woman to glorify God after being healed account for the omission of any mention of her previous faith?—No doubt it does.

372. Who is said to be the author of such affliction?—Satan. V. 16.

373. What constitutes the inability of verse 24?—No want of power or will on the part of God, but a want of will in man from long indulgence in sin—an inability from not casting off all sin or from coming too late.

374. Is there not a limit to the day of grace?—Yes; "now is the accepted time." Every day's continuance in an unconverted state, every day's indulgence in a sinful world, only makes the heart more hard.

375. Who are they that will be rejected?—Those who neglect or refuse to be received and saved.

376. What is the meaning of verse 30?—The Jews, who were the first to receive the light of the truth, give place to the Gentiles, who were the last.

377. What does our Lord mean in verse 33?—That he would be safe for the short time he remained in Galilee.

378. Compare verse 35 with Luke 19:38.—The disciples used these words as Jesus afterward entered into Jerusalem. The whole verse (35) may also be a prophecy of the present unbelief and future conversion of the Jews.

LUKE 14.

379. What might be lawfully done on the Sabbath-day?—Works of necessity and mercy.

380. How do we know that this lesson of humility may be applied to ourselves?—By our consciousness of the natural pride of our own hearts. V. 11.

381. Who are meant by the invited guests? and to whom was the offer of mercy conveyed on their rejection of it?—The Jews. The Gentiles. Vs. 16-24.

382. Were not the excuses made by the guests very hollow?—Yes; they showed their worldly minds.

383. What comforting assurance is there in verse 22?—There is always room at the gospel feast and in the heavenly mansions for all who will come.

384. Is it an easy thing to be a disciple of Jesus?—No; it requires a readiness to sacrifice not only our sins, but our affections and our lives, to the love of God and the salvation of our souls. Vs. 26, 27.

LUKE 15.

385. What important truth does verse 2 contain?—That it is the blessed character of Christ that he receives sinners coming to him with the burden of their sins.

386. How do we learn our preciousness in the sight of God?—By the joy in heaven that a repenting sinner creates. Vs. 7, 10.

387. To what extremity was the prodigal son reduced in the service of sin and Satan?—He had spent all, and was perishing with hunger, and no man gave unto him.

388. Can we be said to be in our right mind when we are afar off from God?—No; our hearts and minds are willfully blinded and deceived, and the grace of God alone can bring us to ourselves. V. 17.

389. What difference is there between what the prodigal intended to say and what he actually said?—He intended, in the deep penitence of his heart, to have asked to be one of his father's servants.

390. Did the father's love give him time to say the rest?—No; and so ready is our heavenly Father to welcome his repenting and returning sons.

391. How is the sinner returning to God described?—As dead and lost, and then alive and found. V. 32.

LUKE 16.

392. What principle did the unjust steward act upon?—Upon the worldly and sinful one of making friends by any means, whether good or bad.

393. What is meant by serving mammon?—Seeking riches or the favor of the world.

394. Does God's judgment of human affairs correspond with our judgment of them?—No, for he judges by the heart. V. 15.

395. What is the lesson to be learned from the parable of the rich man and Lazarus?—To take care, if we are rich, to make a good use of our riches, and, whether rich or poor, to have a treasure in heaven.

396. What responsibility is connected with the possession of the Scriptures?—To "search" them, "receive" them and obey them, as "able to save" our "souls." V. 31.

LUKE 17.

397. What measure of faith was required to do the mighty works mentioned in verse 6?—A very small measure, as it takes hold of the omnipotence of God.

398. Does obedience warrant self-exaltation?—No; at the best we can but do our duty, and can never repay God's mercy. Vs. 9, 10.

399. What is the meaning of the kingdom of God being "within" us?—It means God's rule in the hearts of his people, producing "righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Ghost." Rom. 14: 17.

400. Will there be any remarkable difference in the state of society at the time of the coming judgment?—It will be still the same as in former judgments, though a larger proportion of persons (vs. 34-36) may now be in the number of the saved. Vs. 26, etc.

401. What is the lesson of Lot's wife?—To escape for our lives, and not to look back to the world.

LUKE 18.

402. What does the parable of the importunate widow teach?—That we should continue to pray and never faint.

403. Notice the solemn observation at the end of verse 8.—There will be such "a falling away first" that faith in Christ as a Saviour, or the faith that looks for his coming, will scarcely be found.

404. What should we learn from the parable of the Pharisee and the publican?—To be penitently humble, instead of self-righteously proud.

405. What state of the heart is acceptable in God's sight?—The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise. Ps. 51: 17. For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones. Isa. 57: 15. The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit. Ps. 34: 18.

406. What is the teaching in verse 17?—To humbly accept God's way of salvation by faith, however lowering to human pride.

407. Was not our Lord's question in verse 19 put with the hope of eliciting a confession of his personal Godhead?—Yes, as the ruler does not seem to have looked upon Jesus as more than man.

408. Is the possession of wealth always a blessing?—No; it is always a temptation and snare, often our ruin, and very seldom a blessing. Vs. 22, 23.

409. How do we learn the deep-rooted nature of covetousness?—By our Lord's description of the extreme difficulty of a rich man's entering into the kingdom of God. Vs. 25, 26.

410. What is to be understood by the "world to come"?—The state or time after death. V. 30.

MATTHEW 20 (MARK 10, LUKE 18).

411. What does the parable of the householder teach as to God's sovereignty?—"That God is debtor unto no man," and gives to all as he thinks fit.

412. What is true humility?—Being ready to be last of all and servant of all. Matt. 20: 26.

413. How did the blind men prove the sincerity of their faith?—By their persevering prayers to Jesus as the Christ, the son of David. Matt. 20: 31.

LUKE 19.

414. How did our Lord respond to the faith of Zaccheus?—By noticing him and making himself a guest at his house. V. 5.

415. What do we learn of the practices of the tax-gatherers?—That they were in the habit of taking more than was due. V. 8.

416. For what did Jesus come into the world?—To seek and to save the lost. V. 10.

417. What is the object of the parable of the nobleman?—To impress upon us the duty of using our time and talents and opportunities to God's glory and in remembrance of our final account.

418. How did our Lord assert his divine authority?—By telling his disciples to say, concerning the colt, that the Lord had need of it. V. 31.

419. What special miracle was the occasion of the exultation of the people?—Vs. 37, 38. The people that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record. For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle. John 12: 17, 18.

420. How may we learn the convincing nature of the miracles of our Lord?—By our Lord's assertion that if men did not acknowledge them, the very stones would cry out. V. 40.

421. How was our Lord's prophecy about Jerusalem fulfilled?—In its destruction by the Romans within forty years after.

422. What remarkable act of authority is recorded in verse 45 and in Mark 11: 15, 16?—Jesus sending the buyers and sellers and money-changers out of the temple.

MARK 11: 20 (MATTHEW 21).

MARK 12 (MATTHEW 21, LUKE 20).

425. Who are the husbandmen, who are the servants, and who the son in this parable?—The Jews generally, and especially their rulers and teachers; the prophets; and Christ himself.

426. What was the snare laid for Jesus in Mark 12: 14, 15?—A question designed to bring an answer that would almost certainly offend against either the Jewish law or the Roman.

427. Upon what single word in Mark 12: 26 does the Lord's argument depend?—The word "am," which signified that though dead they were still existing as departed spirits when he spoke.

428. Who was the living example of the fulfillment of these two great commandments?—Jesus himself. Mark 12: 30, 31.

429. What testimony to the inspiration of the Scriptures is in Mark 12: 36?—It is said that David spoke "by the Holy Ghost." Ps. 110: 1.

MATTHEW 23 (MARK 12, LUKE 20).

430. How does our Lord distinguish between profession and practice?—By saying of the scribes and Pharisees, "they say, and do not."

431. What are phylacteries?—Slips of parchment, with texts of Scripture upon them, which the Pharisees wore as charms, or "preservatives," as the word means; probably taking the idea from Ex. 13: 15, 16; Num. 15: 38, 39.

432. What is the difference between the long prayers of the Pharisees and the "pray without ceasing" of the apostle?—The long prayers of the Pharisees were made for a pretence, to obtain the character of being holy men, while the injunction of the apostle was to encourage and maintain a constant spirit of prayer.

433. What feature in the character of the scribes and Pharisees is most prominent in our Lord's denunciations?—Their woeful hypocrisy.

MARK 12: 41.

434. How is the truth that the Lord looks on the heart illustrated by the widow's mite?—Because he would not have commended the gift if he had not known the motive with which it was given.

JOHN 12: 20.

435. Who were the Greeks?—Persons from Greece who had embraced the Jewish faith.

436. What connection is there between their wish to see Jesus and his declaration in verse 23?—Jesus meant that they must be prepared for his death and for any trials which that event might bring upon his followers.

437. Why must a grain of wheat die before it can be fruitful?—Because it contains the germ of life of the new plant, which it must yield up.

438. For what cause did our Lord come to the hour of his self-sacrifice?—Because he had willingly given himself up to die for the salvation of men and his own final glory. Vs. 27, 28; compare verses 24, 32.

439. What is meant by "all men" in verse 32?—People of all kinds and of all nations.

I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands. Rev. 7: 9.

440. What is the great sin of the human race?—Not believing on Christ, and obstinately rejecting him. Vs. 37, etc.

MATTHEW 24 (MARK 13, LUKE 21).

441. Who built the temple then standing?—The Jews, under Ezra and Nehemiah.

442. When was it destroyed?—About forty years after Christ's death.

443. By whom?—By the Romans, under Titus.

444. Is the universal success of the gospel promised in Matt. 24: 14?—No; only its universal preaching as a testimony of Christ; and this seems to be now nearly fulfilled.

445. What was the "abomination of desolation"?—The banners of the desolating and destroying Roman armies surrounding Jerusalem. Luke 21: 20.

446. Would not many who heard this prophecy be alive at its accomplishment thirty-seven years later?—They would. Matt. 24: 34.

447. What are we enjoined to do while prophecy is fulfilling?—To watch. Matt. 24: 42, etc.; Mark 13: 37.

MATTHEW 25.

448. Is there any special lesson to be learnt from verse 5?—That even the Lord's own people may slumber and sleep.

449. Also from the time at which the cry breaks forth, "Behold, the Bridegroom cometh!"—That our Lord, instead of being faithfully and lovingly looked for, will be generally unexpected when he comes.

450. What is the lesson taught by the parable of the talents?—To impress upon us the duty of using our time and talents and opportunities to God's glory and in remembrance of our final account.

451. Will any people be exempted from the final judgment?—No; all nations will be assembled and judged. V. 32.

452. What oneness of Christ and his disciples is there in verses 35, 40?—His regarding what is done or undone to one of his least disciples as done or undone to himself.

453. How may we judge whether we are serving Christ?—By our feeling and conduct toward his humble disciples. V. 45.

MATTHEW 26 (MARK 14, LUKE 22).

454. Where do we learn that the Jews at first proposed the private assassination of Jesus?—From Matt. 26: 4.

455. What remarkable act of living faith is recorded in Matt. 26: 7?—The woman's pouring a box of precious ointment upon Jesus' head in anticipation, by faith, of his burial.

456. Who was this woman?—Mary, the sister of Lazarus. John 12: 3.

457. What is to be understood by Mary's "doing this for the burial of Jesus"?—It was usual to anoint the dead, and Mary wished perhaps to do now what she might not be able to do after.

458. Did not Judas show his estimate of his Master by the price he demanded for his betrayal?—Yes; it was the compensation-money for a servant killed by an ox. Ex. 21: 32.

459. What had the disciples to prepare for the Passover?—The lamb, with unleavened bread, bitter herbs, wine, and a sauce made of dates, raisins, and other things, from which Judas received the sop.

460. What lesson of true humility do we learn from Luke 22: 26-28 and John 13: 1, etc.?—To be as willing to serve as to rule, and to be ready to render any offices of kindness to our brethren and sisters in Christ.

JOHN 13 (MATTHEW 26, MARK 14, LUKE 22).

461. What all-important declaration does Jesus make in John 13: 8?—He said to Peter, "If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me."

462. From what must we be washed before we can have part with Jesus?—From all our sins in his own blood.

463. Is not the reality of our complete forgiveness shown in John 13: 10?—Yes; all past guilt is washed away by a look of living faith, and our robes are clean and white.

464. What is the meaning of leaning on Jesus' bosom?—Being the nearest to him in the order of reclining at the feast.

465. Did John ask Jesus so as to be heard by the rest or in a whisper?—In a whisper.

466. Compare John 13, verses 34 and 35, with verse 1.—And learn to love as Christ did, and to love unto the end.

467. What is the true test of discipleship?—Love one to another. John 13 : 35.

468. Was there not a wide difference between Peter's profession and his practice?—Yes, a sad difference when he denied him in his hour of utmost need; but he repented under his Lord's forgiving look, and long afterward he died a martyr for his sake. John 13 : 38.

LUKE 22 : 19 (MATTHEW 26, MARK 14, 1 CORINTHIANS 11).

469. What is the object of the Lord's Supper?—That we may remember our Lord's death till he come, and that our souls may be strengthened and refreshed as we feed together upon him in loving fellowship and faith.

JOHN 14.

470. What is meant by the Father's house?—Our home in heaven.

471. How must we come to the Father?—By Christ, the only way.

472. How do we know that our Lord was a perfect manifestation of the Father?—By Christ's assertion to Philip that whoever had seen him had seen the Father. Vs. 7, etc.

473. Who will answer our petitions?—Our heavenly Father if we ask in Jesus' name. V. 14.

474. Who was the promised Comforter?—The Holy Ghost. V. 26.

475. Was the Holy Ghost a temporary gift?—No; to abide with us for ever.

476. Why cannot the world receive him?—Because it knows him not, nor Christ, through whom he comes.

477. How can we judge whether we love Christ?—By our prevailing obedience to his commands, by the witness of the Spirit within us that we love Him who first loved us. Vs. 21, 23.

478. What enabled the evangelists to remember the sayings and doings of the Lord?—The teaching of the Holy Ghost. V. 26.

479. Does Christ mean that his disciples shall have peace on earth when he gave them his peace?—No; he told them they should have tribulation without, but peace within. John 16 : 33.

480. Who only could say with truth that he had yielded no allegiance to the prince of this world?—Jesus Christ. V. 30.

481. Who is the prince of this world?—Satan, who rules over the evil spirits of the air and in the hearts of men.

JOHN 15.

482. In what condition only can we bring forth fruit?—By being united to Christ and abiding in him by a living faith. V. 5.

483. What will be the consequence of our not bearing fruit?—Eternal misery in separation from God and Christ, as dead leaves are cast forth and burned. V. 6.

484. What is the token of being Christ's friends?—The doing whatsoever he commands. V. 14.

485. Are we to be surprised by the hatred of the world?—No, for it first hated our Lord, who was perfect goodness and perfect love.

486. Is love of the world compatible with love to our Lord?—No; there can be no true love for a holy Saviour and an unholy world. V. 19.

487. What sin is referred to in verses 22 and 24?—The sin of seeing Christ's miracles and hearing his words, and yet rejecting both God and him.

JOHN 16.

488. Compare verse 2 with Acts 26 : 9-11.—Saul thought when in his unconverted state that he ought to persecute the followers of Christ.

489. What was the "little while" in verse 16?—Jesus was separated a little while from his disciples by his death, and was with them again a little while after his resurrection.

490. What was the proof that satisfied the unbelieving disciples?—Jesus knowing their wish or thought, and telling them plainly that he was going back to his Father. Vs. 19, 30.

491. What is our consolation in trouble?—That Christ has overcome the world, and that in him we may have peace. V. 33.

JOHN 17.

492. What "hour" did Jesus refer to in verse 11?—The time of his death upon the cross.

493. What is "life eternal"?—To truly know God as our reconciled Father in Jesus Christ. Union with Christ is life eternal already begun.

494. Can we at the end of our life use the words of our Lord in verse 4?—No; we all of us fall short of doing the work for God, and so of bringing him the glory that we might.

495. Must we not rather use the words of Isa. 53 : 6?—Yes; we have indeed too much "turned every one to his own way."

496. Who was the son of perdition?—Judas, who was fast falling into ruin and perdition.

497. How do we know that believers of the present day were included in the Lord's petition?—Because they believe through the word of the apostles handed down in the New Testament, and through the preaching and teaching of a succession of Christ's people from that day to this. V. 20.

JOHN 18 : 19 (MATTHEW 26, MARK 14, LUKE 22).

498. Why did the high priest question Jesus as to his disciples?—To know the number and rank of his followers.

499. Does not John 18 : 28 contain an illustration of the parable of the mote and beam?—Yes; the people shrunk from entering a heathen court, as they thought it would defile them, and so unfit them to eat the Passover; and yet they did not shrink from the far greater guilt of causing Jesus' death. Matt. 7 : 5.

500. Does John 18 : 30 show the hollowness of the accusations of the Jews?—Yes, as they did not dare to bring any particular charge against him.

501. How did John 18, verses 31 and 32, show in what manner our Lord would be put to death?—The Jews put to death by stoning, but as they were now under Roman government, Jesus would suffer by the Roman form of crucifixion.

502. To whom did our Lord appear first after his resurrection?—To Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of James. Matt. 28 : 1, 5; 27 : 56.

503. To whom was his second appearance?—To Mary Magdalene. John 20 : 11-18.

504. To whom was his third appearance?—To Peter. 1 Cor. 15 : 5.

505. To whom was Jesus' fourth appearance?—To two disciples on the way to Emmaus. Luke 24 : 13.

506. To whom was the fifth appearance?—To an evening assembly of the apostles or disciples. John 20 : 19; 1 Cor. 15 : 5.

507. What were the circumstances of the sixth?—Jesus appeared again to the disciples, and made himself especially known to Thomas. John 20 : 24.

508. To whom was the seventh manifestation?—To some of the disciples and to Nathanael at the Sea of Tiberias. John 21 : 1.

509. How many saw the Lord upon his eighth appearance?—The apostles and about five hundred brethren at once.

510. Where?—On a mountain in Galilee.

511. To whom was our Lord's ninth appearance?—To James. 1 Cor. 15 : 7.

512. Who witnessed the final appearance?—"All the apostles," by whom he had been "seen forty days." 1 Cor. 15 : 7; Acts 1 : 4.

513. What was our Lord's last act upon earth?—To give the disciples his blessing. Luke 24 : 50, 51.

ACTS 1.

514. Who wrote the Acts?—St. Luke.

515. What is the meaning of "passion"?—Suffering.

516. What were some of the infallible proofs?—The wounds in his hands and his side, which he allowed Thomas to feel. John 20 : 26-28.

517. What were the "things pertaining to the kingdom of God"?—The prophecies concerning himself, and the preaching the Gospel "among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem." Luke 24 : 45-49.

518. Find an example of baptism with the Holy Ghost.—His descent upon the assembly in the house of Cornelius. Acts 11 : 15.

519. How did the disciples understand the kingdom of God?—The restoring the kingdom to Israel, with Christ as king. Vs. 3, 6.

520. What proof have we in verse 11 that Jesus is the "same yesterday, to-day and for ever"?—The testimony of the angels that he would come again "in like manner as" the disciples had seen him go.

521. How far was the Mount of Olives from Jerusalem?—About a mile.

522. What proof of the inspiration of the Psalms is there in verse 16?—The assertion of Peter that the Holy Ghost spake by David.

523. Compare verse 17 with Matt. 7 : 22, 23.—"Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? and then will I profess unto them, I never knew you; depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

524. What was this "reward of iniquity"?—Thirty pieces of silver. Matt. 26 : 15.

525. Who are "these men" of verse 21?—The seventy disciples. Luke 10 : 1.

526. Compare verse 14 with the selection of David.—David was chosen by "the Lord," who "looketh on the heart."

527. What awful illustration of Ps. 17 is there in verse 15?—The doom of Judas.

The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God.

ACTS 2.

528. What was the day of Pentecost?—"Seven Sabbaths," or "fifty days," from the Passover. Luke 18 : 15, 16.

529. How was it that there were Jews "out of every nation"?—Because they were scattered "among all people," as God had said they should be, for their sins. Deut. 28 : 64.

530. Compare verse 7 with chap. 1 : 11.—In both verses the disciples are called Galileans.

531. At what time was the "third hour of the day"?—At nine A. M. V. 15.

532. What is probably the "day" referred to in verse 20?—The destruction of Jerusalem.

533. Why is it not likely to be the day of final judgment?—Because at that day it will be too late to call and be saved. V. 21.

534. Why was it not possible Jesus should be holden of death?—Because of his divine power, and of the necessity of his body's rising again to prove his Godhead and complete his work.

535. What blessed hope in connection with our Lord's resurrection is there in 1 Cor. 6 : 14?—That "God" will also raise up us by his own power."

536. Can we learn anything of the pious dead from verse 34?—That they are not yet "ascended into the heavens."

537. What is the meaning of "pricked in their heart"?—Having the conscience convinced of sin, and being brought to say with the jailer, "What must I do to be saved?" Acts 16 : 30.

538. What does "had all things common" mean?—Voluntarily brought all their goods into one common stock. V. 44.

539. What is "singleness of heart"?—Sincerity.

ACTS 3.

540. What time was the ninth hour?—Three P. M.

541. Compare verse 12 with John 15 : 5; 2 Cor. 3 : 5.—Peter knew that "without" Christ he could "do nothing," and that his "sufficiency" was "of God."

542. Refer to Pilate's efforts to save Jesus.—Pilate said more than once that he found no fault in Jesus. Luke 23 : 4, 14, 16, 20, 22; John 19 : 4, 6, 12, 15.

543. Compare verse 15 with 2 Tim. 1 : 10.—Christ, "the Prince of Life," "brought life and immortality to light."

544. Was the "ignorance" excusable?—No; it was willful ignorance that made them guilty. V. 17.

545. How does verse 19 prove this?—By showing that they had sin which needed to be blotted out.

546. Who was the prophet predicted by Moses?—Jesus Christ, to despise whom would be to despise God who sent him. Vs. 22, 23; Luke 10 : 16.

ACTS 4.

547. Why were the Sadducees particularly grieved?—Because they believed there was "no resurrection." Acts 23 : 8.

548. How does verse 8 fulfill the promise in Luke 12 : 11, 12?—Because Christ had promised that when brought before rulers "the Holy Ghost" should teach his disciples what to say.

549. Compare verse 12 with 1 John 5 : 11, 12.—This is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

550. How does verse 13 explain 1 Cor. 1 : 27?—It is an instance of God's choosing the "weak" and seemingly "foolish" things of the world to confound the "mighty" and "the wise."

551. What general principle is laid down in verse 19?—That "we ought to obey God, rather than men." Acts 5:29.

552. How did Hezekiah act when he was overwhelmed with threatenings?—Like the apostles (vs. 23-30), he brought his trouble before the Lord in prayer. Isa. 37:14-17.

ACTS 5.

553. What was the heinousness of the sin of Ananias?—His lying not only unto men, but unto God.

554. What is the devil called in John 8:44?—"A liar and the father of" lies.

555. How did they tempt the Holy Spirit?—By trying his knowledge, as if he might not know, and as if he were "altogether such an one as" themselves. Ps. 50:21.

556. Compare verse 28 with Matt. 27:25.—Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us and on our children.

557. What examples of the principles laid down in verse 29 are there?—When Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego refused to worship the image, and when Daniel persevered in prayer to God. Dan. 3:18; 6:10.

558. Who was one of Gamaliel's pupils?—Paul. Acts 22:3.

ACTS 6.

559. What was the meaning of "serving tables"?—Attending to the distribution of food.

560. What did the laying on of the apostles' hands signify?—The setting apart of the chosen men for their work.

561. Compare verse 7 with Isa. 55:10, 11.—In the latter place we read:

As the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater: so shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

562. What promise was fulfilled in verse 10?—I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist. Luke 21:15.

ACTS 8.

563. Who was Saul?—A young Jew and bigoted Pharisee.

564. To whose death was he consenting?—Stephen's.

565. Did the apostles leave Jerusalem at that time in consequence of the persecution?—No; while others were scattered they remained.

566. How did the persecution defeat its own object?—The scattered ones everywhere preached the word. V. 4.

567. What was Simon's intention in offering Peter money?—That he might have the power of giving the Holy Ghost. V. 19.

568. In what did Peter declare that Simon had no part?—In the religion of Christ, which he professed to believe.

ACTS 9.

569. What proof of the oneness of Christ and his disciples is there in verse 4?—Christ's treating the persecution of his disciples as the persecution of himself.

570. What proof of Saul's immediate conversion is there in verses 5, 6?—His addressing Jesus as his Lord, and asking what he would have him to do.

571. What was the most striking proof of the great change that had taken place in Saul?—His praying.

572. How did Ananias, in obedience to the vision, immediately address the persecutor Saul?—As "Brother Saul."

573. Where did Saul obtain the ability to preach with the power of verse 22?—"By the revelation of Jesus Christ." Gal. 1:11, 12.

574. Why had the churches rest at that time?—The loss of the leadership of Saul had checked persecution for a while.

ACTS 10.

575. What is a centurion?—An officer in the Roman army.

576. What assurance that God notices our actions and keeps account of them is there in verse 4?—Cornelius' prayers and alms were remembered by God.

577. What proof is there in verse 6 that the Lord knows where all his disciples are dwelling?—The angel told Cornelius where Peter lodged.

578. Why was the housetop convenient for prayer?—The houses there have flat roofs surrounded by a parapet wall.

579. What did the variety mentioned in verse 12 signify?—The "redeemed" unto God "out of every kindred and tongue and people and nation." Rev. 5:9.

580. What did Peter mean by "unclean"?—Forbidden to be eaten by the law.

581. Compare verse 15 with Eph. 2:14.—Showing Christ, "our peace," making Jew and Gentile "one."

582. Why was the vision thrice repeated?—Because, like the subject of Pharaoh's dream, "the thing" referred to was "established by God," who would "shortly bring it to pass." Gen. 41:32.

583. What proof of an overruling Providence is there in verse 20?—The men who came to Peter were sent by God.

584. Were not the Jews very slow to realize the calling in of the Gentiles?—Yes; even believers in Jesus "were astonished" to find that "God also to the Gentiles" had "granted repentance unto life." V. 45, and Acts 11:18.

ACTS 11.

585. What name was given to the disciples at Antioch?—Christians. V. 26.

ACTS 12.

586. Which was strongest—the prison or the prayer of the Church?—Prayer. V. 5.

587. Was there any sign of hurry in Peter's deliverance?—No; he had time to dress. V. 8.

588. What other remarkable instance of the same deliverance is there in John 10:7?—Our Lord's grave-clothes being neatly folded up.

589. Ought not the fact recorded in verse 12 to have prevented the unbelief of verse 15?—Yes, but we are always slow in expecting answers to our prayers.

590. What is the meaning of the word "examined" in verse 19?—Scourged them to make them confess the truth. Acts 22:24.

591. What example of pride is there in verses 21-23?—Herod's being pleased with the gross flattery of his people, and being instantly and dreadfully punished by God.

592. Compare verse 23 with Dan. 4:37.—I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honor the King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

593. What is the usual result of persecution?—To defeat its own purpose. V. 24.

ACTS 13.

594. What illustration of the custom of the synagogue have we in verse 15?—It was the custom for any one present to be allowed to read or speak, as Jesus did at Nazareth and Paul at Antioch. Luke 4:16.

595. What is the gospel message called in verses 26, 32, 38?—"The word" of "salvation," "glad tidings" and "forgiveness of sins."

596. Was the gospel at this time preached only to the Jews?—Yes; hitherto only to the Jews. Vs. 42-48.

597. What should be the result of the reception of the gospel?—The being "filled with joy and with the Holy Ghost." V. 52.

ACTS 14.

598. What was the condition of healing?—The sufferer's faith, as Jesus elsewhere "did not many mighty works" "because of their unbelief." V. 9; Matt. 13:58.

599. Should Christians expect to escape trouble?—No; it is only "through much tribulation" that we can "enter into the kingdom of God." V. 22.

600. How do we as Gentiles enter the family of God?—By the door of faith. V. 27.

ACTS 15.

601. What was the effect upon Paul and Barnabas by the corruption of the gospel mentioned in verses 1, 5?—They firmly withstood it. V. 2.

602. What was the witness of God to the disciples?—The giving them the Holy Ghost. V. 8.

603. How is the Jewish ceremonial law spoken of?—As "a yoke" that it was difficult "to bear." V. 10.

604. Why did they so strenuously resist the rite of circumcision?—For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. Gal. 3:10. For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. James 2:10.

605. Who was Simeon?—Simon Peter. Vs. 14, 7.

606. What conclusion did the apostles come to?—To lay upon the disciples no greater burden of Jewish ceremonial law than the abstaining from some things that were chiefly connected with polluted idol-worship. V. 20.

ACTS 16.

607. Are our hearts naturally inclined to receive the gospel?—No; God must open our hearts. V. 14.

608. What is the meaning of "divination" and "sooth-saying"?—Pretended knowledge of future events and fortune-telling.

609. Compare verse 17 with Luke 4:33, 34.—There was a man which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice, saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; the Holy One of God.

610. How does verse 19 show that the deliverance from the evil spirit was a reality?—The "masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone."

611. What did the keeper of the prison fear?—Death, which Peter's keepers had suffered. V. 27; Acts 12:19.

612. What was the privilege of being a Roman?—Not to be bound or punished without a regular trial.

613. Compare verse 40 with 2 Cor. 1:3-6.—In the latter place we read:

Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort: who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God. For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ. And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

ACTS 17.

614. What is the supreme authority in religious controversies?—"The Scriptures." Vs. 2, 3, 11; Acts 18:28.

615. What proof is there in verse 7 of the subjection of the Jews to the Gentile power?—Their being under the decrees of the Roman emperor, Claudius Caesar.

616. And does not this same verse illustrate John 1:11?—Yes; here, as in his native land, Christ's own people, the Jews, "received him not."

617. What was it that distinguished the Bereans?—Their readiness to receive the word preached, and their daily searching of the Scriptures respecting it.

618. What was Athens remarkable for at that time?—All the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else but either to tell or to hear some new thing.

619. Who is to be the final Judge of all men?—God, by Jesus Christ. V. 31.

620. Who appoints the day of judgment?—God himself.

621. Did the Athenians believe in a future life?—Very few of them did.

ACTS 18.

622. Were the Jews in favor with the Romans?—No; they had been expelled from Rome. V. 2.

623. Is manual labor necessarily undignified?—No; Paul was obliged to work as a tentmaker for the support of himself and those that were with him. Acts 20:34.

624. Was there not a limit to the apostle's forbearance?—Yes; he was not bound to cast "pearls before swine." Vs. 5, 6.

625. Why did the Greeks beat Sosthenes rather than Paul?—Because Paul was a Roman citizen.

626. Was the Mosaic economy superseded at this time?—Yes, but Paul might have had reasons that are not mentioned for complying with the custom at that time. V. 21.

627. What is the meaning of "mighty in the Scriptures," as distinguished from "eloquence"?—Well acquainted with them, and enabled to understand them and to teach from them by the Holy Ghost.

ACTS 19.

628. What example of practical repentance do verses 18, 19 show?—The fortune-tellers and others burning the books that were the means of their profits and of their sin.

629. Was the worship of Diana a costly service?—Yes; her temple was filled with ornaments and gifts, and sin and error are usually more costly than holiness and truth. V. 27.

630. Why did the disciples hinder Paul?—Lest he should be injured by the crowd. V. 30.

631. Were the Jews held in honor at Ephesus?—No, as they despised all idolatry. V. 34.

632. Was not the testimony of the Jews to the one God the cause of the uproar?—Yes.

633. What were the deputies?—Judges appointed by the Romans. V. 38.

634. By whom were the assembly in danger of being called to account?—The Roman governor.

ACTS 20.

635. How far was Miletus from Ephesus?—Thirty-six miles.

636. What country is meant by Asia?—A part of Asia Minor or Turkey in Asia, about Ionia and Smyrna, was so called. V. 18.

637. Notice the holy fortitude of verse 14.—So Jesus steadfastly set his face to go up to Jerusalem. Acts 21:13.

638. What did Paul mean by being "pure from the blood of all men"?—That as he had faithfully taught the whole truth of God, his hearers had only themselves to blame if they rejected it and were lost. V. 27.

When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand. Ezek. 3:18.

639. Who appoints the ministry of the Church?—Whatever human means are used, true ministers are made by the Holy Ghost alone. V. 28.

640. Compare verse 33 with 1 Sam. 12:3.—In the latter place we read:

Behold, here I am; witness against me before the Lord, and before his anointed: whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I received any bribe to blind mine eyes therewith? and I will restore it you.

ACTS 21.

641. What is the meaning of "took up our carriages"?—Took our baggage or things carried. V. 15.

642. Of what nation were the soldiers who rescued Paul?—They were Romans.

643. What was the nature of the double chain put upon Paul?—Being chained to "two soldiers," as Peter was. Acts 12:6.

ACTS 22.

644. What was it that so provoked the Jews?—Paul's speaking of being sent to the Gentiles. Vs. 21, 22.

645. How were the thongs used when not employed for binding prisoners?—In scourging them to extort the truth. V. 24.

ACTS 23.

646. What form of unbelief were Sadducees subject to?—Denying the resurrection.

647. Was the danger from the bigotry of the Jews unimportant?—No; it was thought prudent to give Paul nearly five hundred soldiers as a guard. V. 23.

648. How far was Cesarea from Jerusalem?—About sixty miles.

ACTS 24.

649. Which address to Felix was the most truthful?—The simpler words of Paul, as Felix's government was "a mean, cruel and profligate" one.

650. Did Paul spare the conscience of Felix?—No; he touched it till he trembled. V. 25.

651. How does the effect of Paul's reasoning upon Felix illustrate Heb. 4:12?—It shows that the word of God is quick and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

652. What mercenary motive influenced Felix?—The hope of a bribe from Paul to release him.

653. In what did the two governors agree?—In desiring to please the Jews, and so to keep them at peace. V. 27; Acts 25:9.

ACTS 25.

654. To what privilege of Roman citizenship did Paul appeal?—That of having his cause heard by Cæsar.

655. Who was the Cæsar referred to?—The Roman emperor Nero.

656. Who was King Agrippa?—The second Herod Agrippa, and Jewish king or viceroy of the country to the north and east of Galilee.

657. What invaluable modern privilege does verse 27 foreshadow?—The habeas corpus act, which prevents a long imprisonment without trial.

ACTS 26.

658. What great results are to follow the preaching of the gospel?—The turning the Gentiles "from darkness to light." V. 18.

659. What must be added to repentance and turning to God?—Works consistent with it. V. 20.

660. Why did Festus accuse Paul of insanity?—Because he had spoken of a resurrection of the dead.

ACTS 27.

661. Why did the soldiers advise the killing of the prisoners?—Lest, like Peter's keepers, they should be put to death if they escaped. V. 42; Acts 12:19.

ACTS 28.

662. What is the meaning of the term "barbarous"?—Strange.

663. To what did the barbarians refer when they said, "Vengeance suffereth him not to live"?—Vengeance is here a sort of proper name of a mythological deity.

664. In what way did the soldier "keep" Paul?—By a chain to himself. Vs. 16, 20.

EVANGELISTS AND DEACONS.

MARK, LUKE, PHILIP, NICHOLAS, TITUS AND TIMOTHEUS.

In their office of laying the foundations of the Church some of the apostles used the pen as well as the tongue; and two of them, MATTHEW and JOHN, undertook the special function of placing on permanent record those facts concerning the life and death and resurrection of Christ of which they were his own chosen witnesses. This would seem to be a distinctive part of the apostolic office; nor is this view at variance with the fact that it was undertaken also by two others who were not apostles. For it may now be received as an established fact that the Gospels of MARK and LUKE were written under the supervision of Peter and Paul. These two writers, therefore, may well claim a place next to the apostles. But, in speaking of them as evangelists, we must distinguish this use of the word from its proper New Testament signification, as describing a class of teachers next in rank to apostles and prophets, the evangelizers of the world. It was at a later age that the writer of a Gospel (εὐαγγέλιον) was called an evangelist (εὐαγγελιστής), not only as a matter of etymology, but the natural process of thought, which is thus stated by Eusebius: "Men do the work of evangelists, leaving their homes to proclaim Christ and deliver the written Gospels to those who were ignorant of the faith." If the Gospel was a written book, and the office of the evangelists was to read or distribute it, then the writers of such books were κατ' ἐξοχήν, THE EVANGELISTS. It is thus, accordingly, that Eusebius speaks of them; and this meaning soon overshadowed the old one. Of the Gospels we shall speak presently, and frequent occasions have occurred to notice points in that personal history of Mark and Luke which we have now to collect into one view.

Mark the Evangelist is probably the same as "JOHN whose surname was MARK." John was the Jewish name, and Mark, a name of frequent use among the Romans, was adopted afterward and gradually superseded the other. The places in the New Testament enable us to trace the process. The John Mark of Acts 12:12, 25 and the John of Acts 13:5, 13 become Mark only in Acts 15:39; Col. 4:10; 2 Tim. 4:11; Phil. 24. The change of John to Mark is analogous to that of Saul to Paul; and we cannot doubt that the disuse of the Jewish name in favor of the other is intentional, and has reference to the putting away of his former life and his entrance upon a new ministry. No inconsistency arises from the accounts of his ministering to two apostles.

John Mark was the son of a certain Mary who dwelt at Jerusalem, and he was therefore probably born in that city. He was the cousin of Barnabas. It was to Mary's house, as to a familiar haunt, that Peter came after his deliverance from prison, and there found "many gathered together praying;" and John Mark was probably converted by Peter from meeting him in his mother's house, for he speaks of "Marcus my son." Mary, the mother of Mark, seems to have been a person of some means and influence, and her house a rallying-point for Christians in those dangerous days. Her son, already an inquirer, would soon become more. Anxious to work for Christ, he went with Paul and Barnabas as their "minister" on their return from Jerusalem and on their first journey. On the second journey Paul would not accept him again as a companion, but Barnabas his kinsman was more indulgent; and thus he became the cause of the memorable "sharp contention" between them. Whatever was the cause of Mark's vacillation, it did not separate him for ever from Paul, for we find him by the side of that apostle in his first imprisonment at Rome. In the former place a journey of Mark to Asia is contemplated. Somewhat later he is with Peter at Babylon. Some consider Babylon to be a name here given to Rome in a mystical sense; surely without reason, since the date of a letter is not the place to look for a figure of speech. Of the causes of this visit to Babylon there is no evidence. It may be conjectured that he made the journey to Asia Minor, and thence went on to join Peter at Babylon. Returning to Proconsular Asia, he seems to have been with Timothy at Ephesus when Paul wrote to him during his second imprisonment, and Paul was anxious for his company and ministry at Rome. The relation of Mark to Peter is of great importance for our view of his Gospel. Ancient writers with one consent make the evangelist the interpreter (ἐρμηνευτής) of the apostle Peter. Some explain this word to mean that the office of Mark was to translate into the Greek tongue the Aramaic discourses of the apostle, while others adopt the more probable view, that Mark wrote a Gospel which conformed more exactly than the others to Peter's preaching, and thus "interpreted" it to the Church at large. The report that Mark was the companion of Peter at Rome is no doubt of great antiquity. Clement of Alexandria is quoted by Eusebius as giving it for "a tradition which he had received of the elders from the first." But the force of this is invalidated by the suspicion that it rests on a misunderstanding of 1 Pet. 5:13, Babylon being wrongly taken for a typical name of Rome. Another tradition is, that Mark, sent on a mission to Egypt by Peter, founded the church of Alexandria, and having preached in various places, then returned to Alexandria, of which church he was bishop, and there suffered a martyr's death. But none of these later details rest on sound authority.

Luke (Λουκᾶς) is an abbreviated form of Lucanus or of Lucilius. It is not to be confounded with Lucius, which belongs to a different person. The name of Luke occurs three times in the New Testament, and doubtless in all three the third evangelist is the person spoken of. To the Colossians he is described as "the beloved physician," probably because he had been known to them in that faculty. Timothy needs no additional mark for identification; to him the words are, "only Luke is with me." To Philemon, Luke sends his salutation in common with other "fellow-laborers" of St. Paul. As there is every reason to believe that the Luke of these passages is the author of the Acts of the Apostles, as well as of the Gospel which bears his name, it is natural to seek in the former book for some traces of that connection with St. Paul which these passages assume to exist; and although the name of St. Luke does not occur in the Acts, we have seen ample reason to believe that under the pronoun "we" several references to the evangelist are to be added to the three places just quoted. He was born at Antioch in Syria, in what condition of life is uncertain. That he was taught the science of medicine does not prove that he was of higher birth than the rest of the disciples. He was not born a Jew, for he is not reckoned among them "of the circumcision" by St. Paul.

The first ray of historical light falls on the evangelist when he joins St. Paul at Troas and shares his journey into Macedonia. The sudden transition to the first person plural in Acts 16:9 is most naturally explained, after all the objections that have been urged, by supposing that Luke, the writer of the Acts, formed one of St. Paul's company from this point. His conversion had taken place before, since he silently assumes his place among the great apostle's followers without any hint that this was his first admission to the knowledge and ministry of Christ. He may have found his way to Troas to preach the gospel, sent possibly by St. Paul himself. As far as Philippi the evangelist journeyed with the apostle. The resumption of the third person on Paul's departure from that place would show that Luke was now left behind. During the rest of St. Paul's second missionary journey we hear of Luke no more. But on the third journey the same indication reminds us that Luke is again of the company, having joined it apparently at Philippi, where he had been left. With the apostle he passed through Miletus, Tyre and Caesarea to Jerusalem. Between the two visits of Paul to Philippi seven years had elapsed (A. D. 51 to A. D. 58), which the evangelist may have spent in Philippi and its neighborhood, preaching the gospel.

There remains one passage which, if it refers to St. Luke, must belong to this period. "We have sent with him" (i. e. Titus) "the brother whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches." The subscription of the Epistle sets out that it was "written from Philippi, a city of Macedonia, by Titus and Lucas;" and it is an old opinion that Luke was the companion of Titus, although he is not named in the body of the Epistle. If this be so, we are to suppose that during the "three months" of Paul's sojourn at Philippi, Luke was sent from that place to Corinth on this errand; and the words "whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches" enable us to form an estimate of his activity during the interval in which he has not been otherwise mentioned. It is needless to add that the praise lay in the activity with which he preached the gospel, and not, as Jerome understands the passage, in his being the author of a written Gospel. The narrative warrants the inference that Luke was with Paul during his two years' imprisonment at Caesarea; and this is the most probable time for the composition of his Gospel.

He again appears in the company of Paul in the memorable voyage to Rome. He remained at his side during his imprisonment; and, assuming that the Second Epistle to Timothy was written during the second imprisonment, the testimony of that Epistle (4:11) shows that he continued faithful to the apostle to the end of his afflictions.

After the death of St. Paul the acts of his faithful companion are hopelessly obscure to us. It is as perhaps the evangelist wished it to be; we only know him while he stands by the side of his beloved Paul; when the master departs, the history of the follower becomes confusion and fable. As to the age and death of the evangelist, there is the utmost uncertainty. It seems probable that he died in advanced life, but whether he suffered martyrdom or died a natural death, whether Bithynia or Achaia or some other country witnessed his end, it is impossible to determine amid contradictory voices. That he died a martyr between A. D. 75 and A. D. 100 would seem to have the balance of suffrages in its favor. It is enough for us, so far as regards the Gospel of St. Luke, to know that the writer was the tried and constant friend of the apostle Paul, who shared his labors and was not driven from his side by danger.

Next in order to the apostles in the sacred history stand those "seven men of good report" who are commonly called DEACONS; and this class derives special celebrity from the martyrdom of STEPHEN and the evangelizing labors of PHILIP. After what has been said of Stephen in the Lives of the Apostles, it only remains to add some further notices of the latter. He was, like the rest of his colleagues, in all probability a Hellenist. His place in the confidence of the Church is shown by his standing in the list of the seven next to Stephen; and we should expect the man who was thus worthy of being Stephen's companion and fellow-worker to go on with the work which he left unfinished, and to break through the barriers of national Judaism. Accordingly, foremost among those whom the persecution that ensued on the death of the first deacon drove from Jerusalem, we find the second carrying the gospel to the outcasts of Samaria and the proselyte of Ethiopia; and thus Philip became the precursor of St. Paul in his work, as Stephen had been in his teaching. It falls to his lot, rather than to that of an apostle, to take the first step in the victory over Jewish prejudice and in the expansion of the Church according to its Lord's command. For this we may perhaps find a deeper reason than the mere fact that the apostles had not yet left Jerusalem. As the Samaritans had already shown themselves, on our Lord's first visit, more alive to spiritual views of the Messiah than the Jews, so would a Hellenist probably be better prepared than a Jew to satisfy their hopes. From Azotus, where he reappeared after his miraculous separation from the Ethiopian eunuch, he made his way to Caesarea, preaching in all the cities he passed through; and we may be permitted to conjecture that his ministry at Caesarea was one of the causes that awakened the holy curiosity of Cornelius.

Whether the seven to whom Philip belonged are rightly or not identified with the order of deacons, these labors of his go far beyond what are described as their special functions, and entitle him, before any other who was not an apostle, to the designation under which he reappears in the Acts, as PHILIP THE EVANGELIST, though still described as "one of the seven." He is still residing at Caesarea, which he had doubtless made the centre of his labors as an evangelist in preaching the gospel; and his four virgin daughters possess the gift of prophecy. He receives Paul and his company on their way to Jerusalem, and he is visited by prophets and elders from that city. At such a place as Caesarea the work of such a man must have helped to bridge over the ever-widening gap which threatened to separate the Jewish and Gentile churches. One who had preached Christ to the hated Samaritan, the swarthy African, the despised Philistine, the men of all nations who passed through the seaport of Palestine, was a fit host to welcome the arrival of the apostle of the Gentiles. The house in which he and his daughters had lived was pointed out to travelers in the time of Jerome. He is said to have died bishop of Tralles in Lydia. In other traditions he is more or less confounded with Philip the Apostle.

The remaining deacons are not again mentioned in the New Testament. PROCHORUS is said by tradition to have been consecrated by St. Peter bishop of Nicomedia in Bithynia; NICANOR is placed among the seventy or seventy-two disciples (a mere congeries of New Testament names) by the pseudo-Hippolytus, who adds that he died at the time of the martyrdom of Stephen; TIMON is also made one of the seventy-two and bishop of Bostra, where he suffered martyrdom by fire; and PARMENAS is said to have been martyred at Philippi in the reign of Trajan.

The last of the seven, NICHOLAS, a proselyte of Antioch, has obtained a greater celebrity, but there is no reason except the similarity of name for identifying Nicholas with the sect of Nicolaitanes mentioned in Rev. 2: 6, 14, 15.

Titus is not mentioned in the Acts, and our materials for his biography must be drawn entirely from the notices of him in the Second Epistle to the Corinthians, the Epistle to the Galatians, and the Epistle to Titus himself, combined with the Second Epistle to Timothy. Taking the passages in the Epistles in the chronological order of the events referred to, we turn first to Gal. 2: 1, 3. We conceive the journey mentioned here to be identical with that recorded in Acts 15, in which Paul and Barnabas went from Antioch to Jerusalem, to the conference which was to decide the question of the necessity of circumcision to the Gentiles. Here we see Titus in close association with Paul and Barnabas at Antioch. He goes with them to Jerusalem. He is in fact one of the πρεσβυτεροι of Acts 15: 2 who were deputed to accompany them from Antioch. His circumcision was either not insisted on at Jerusalem or, if demanded, was firmly resisted. He is very emphatically spoken of as a Gentile, by which is most probably meant that both his parents were Gentiles. Here is a double contrast with Timothy, who was circumcised by St. Paul's own directions, and one of whose parents was Jewish. Titus would seem, on the occasion of the council, to have been specially a representative of the Church of the uncircumcision.

It is to our purpose to remark that in the passage cited above Titus is so mentioned as apparently to imply that he had become personally known to the Galatian Christians. This, again, we combine with two other circumstances—namely, that the Epistle to the Galatians and the Second Epistle to the Corinthians were probably written within a few months of each other, and both during the same journey. From the latter of these two Epistles we obtain fuller notices of Titus in connection with St. Paul.

After leaving Galatia, and spending a long time at Ephesus, the apostle proceeded to Macedonia by way of Troas. Here he expected to meet Titus, who had been sent on a mission to Corinth. In this hope he was disappointed, but in Macedonia, Titus joined him. Here we begin to see not only the above-mentioned fact of the mission of this disciple to Corinth, and the strong personal affection which subsisted between him and St. Paul, but also some part of the purport of the mission itself, which has been fully explained in the history. But if we proceed further we discern another part of the mission with which he was entrusted. This had reference to the collection at that time in progress for the poor Christians of Judæa. Thus we are prepared for what the apostle now proceeds to do after his encouraging conversations with Titus regarding the Corinthian church. He sends him back from Macedonia to Corinth, in company with two other trustworthy Christians, Trophimus and Tychicus (or, as some think, Luke), bearing the Second Epistle, and with an earnest request that he would see to the completion of the collection, which he had zealously promoted on his late visit.

All that has preceded is drawn from direct statements in the Epistles, but by indirect though fair inference we can arrive at something further, which gives coherence to the rest, with additional elucidations of the close connection of Titus with St. Paul and the Corinthian church. It has generally been considered doubtful who the brethren were that took the First Epistle to Corinth, but there can be little doubt that the messengers who took that first letter were Titus and his companion, whoever that might be, who is mentioned with him in the second letter.

A considerable interval now elapses before we come upon the next notices of this disciple. St. Paul's first imprisonment is concluded, and his last trial is impending. In the interval between the two he and Titus were together in Crete. We see Titus remaining in the island when St. Paul left it, and receiving there a letter written to him by the apostle. From this letter we gather the following biographical details: In the first place, we learn that he was originally converted through St. Paul's instrumentality. Next we learn the various particulars of the responsible duties which he had to discharge in Crete. He is to complete what St. Paul had been obliged to leave unfinished, and he is to organize the Church throughout the island by appointing presbyters in every city. Instructions are given as to the suitable character of such presbyters, and we learn further that we have here the repetition of instructions previously furnished by word of mouth. Next, he is to control and bridle the restless and mischievous Judaizers, and he is to be peremptory in so doing. Injunctions in the same spirit are reiterated. He is to urge the duties of a decorous and Christian life upon the women, some of whom possibly had something of an official character. He is to be watchful over his own conduct; he is to impress upon the slaves the peculiar duties of their position; he is to check all social and political turbulence and also all wild theological speculations, and to exercise discipline on the heretical. When we consider all these particulars of his duties, we see not only the confidence reposed in him by the apostle, but the need there was of determination and strength of purpose, and therefore the probability that this was his character; and all this is enhanced if we bear in mind his isolated and unsupported position in Crete, and the lawless and immoral character of the Cretans themselves, as testified by their own writers.

Titus is to look for the arrival in Crete of Artemas and Tychicus, and then he is to hasten to join St. Paul at Nicopolis, where the apostle is proposing to pass the winter. Zenas and Apollos are in Crete, or expected there, for Titus is to send them on their journey and supply them with whatever they need for it. It is observable that Titus and Apollos are brought into juxtaposition here, as they were before in the discussion of the mission from Ephesus to Corinth.

We may observe here that there would be great difficulty in inserting the visits to Crete and Nicopolis in any of the journeys recorded in the Acts, to say nothing of the other objections to giving the Epistle any date anterior to the voyage to Rome. On the other hand, there is no difficulty in arranging these circumstances if we suppose St. Paul to have traveled and written after being liberated from Rome, while thus we gain the further advantage of an explanation of what Paley has well called the affinity of this Epistle and the first to Timothy. Whether Titus did join the apostle at Nicopolis we cannot tell. But we naturally connect the mention of this place with what St. Paul wrote at no great interval of time afterward, in the last of the Pastoral Epistles, for Dalmatia lay to the north of Nicopolis, at no great distance. From the form of the whole sentence it seems probable that this disciple had been with St. Paul in Rome during his final imprisonment. Tradition connects Titus with Crete, though here again we cannot be certain of the facts. He is said to have been permanent bishop in the island, and to have died there at an advanced age. The modern capital, Candia, appears to claim the honor of being his burial-place.

Timotheus, or, as his name is expressed in the familiar English abbreviation, TIMOTHY, was born at Lystra in Lycaonia, the son of one of those mixed marriages between a Gentile father and a Jewish mother which, though condemned by stricter Jewish opinion, and placing their offspring on all but the lowest step in the Jewish scale of precedence, were yet not uncommon in the later periods of Jewish history. The knowledge of the Scriptures which Timothy owed to the care of his grandmother Lois and his mother Eunice may have helped to overcome the natural prejudice of his bigoted Jewish neighbors. The fruit of that pious education prepared Timothy to receive, while still a boy, the gospel brought by Paul to his native city; and after gaining honor among the brethren at Lystra, Iconium, and even Antioch, he was chosen by Paul, on his second visit to Lycaonia, to share that fellowship of labor and of love which only ceased with the apostle's death. Their companionship begins with the second missionary journey, when Timothy may be regarded as supplying the void caused by the difference with Barnabas. If Barnabas had been to Paul as the brother and friend of early days, he had now found one whom he could claim as his own true son by a spiritual parentage. That Timothy had now (A. D. 49 or 53) only just reached manhood is evident from St. Paul's addressing him in the First Epistle as still young. Following Paul through Asia Minor into Europe, he came to Philippi, and though his tender youth was spared the sufferings of Paul and Silas, the apostle calls the Philippians to witness how zealously he shared their work: "Ye know the proof of him, that as a son with his father he hath served with me in the gospel." His name does not appear in the account of St. Paul's work at Thessalonica, and it is possible that he remained some time at Philippi, and then acted as the messenger by whom the members of that church sent what they were able to give for the apostle's wants. He appears, however, at Berea, and remains there when Paul and Silas are obliged to leave, going on afterward to join his master at Athens. From Athens he is sent back to Thessalonica, as having special gifts for comforting and teaching. He returns from Thessalonica, not to Athens, but to Corinth, and his name appears united with St. Paul's in the opening words of both the letters written from that city to the Thessalonians. Here also he was apparently active as an evangelist, and on him probably, with some exceptions, devolved the duty of baptizing the new converts.

Of the next five years of his life we have no record, and we can infer nothing beyond a continuance of his active service as St. Paul's companion. When we next meet with him it is as being sent on in advance when the apostle was contemplating the long journey which was to include Macedonia, Achaia, Jerusalem and Rome. He was sent to "bring the churches into remembrance of the ways" of the apostle. We trace in the words of the "father" an anxious desire to guard the son from the perils which, to his eager but sensitive temperament, would be most trying. His route would take him through the churches which he had been instrumental in founding, and this would give him scope for exercising the gifts which were afterward to be displayed in a still more responsible office. It is probable, from the passages already referred to, that after accomplishing the special work assigned to him he returned by the same route, and met St. Paul according to a previous arrangement, and was thus with him when the Second Epistle was written to the church of Corinth. He returns with the apostle to that city, and joins in messages of greeting to the disciples whom he had known personally at Corinth, and who had since found their way to Rome. He forms one of the company of friends who go with St. Paul to Philippi, and then sail by themselves, waiting for his arrival by a different ship. Whether he continued his journey to Jerusalem, and what became of him during St. Paul's two years' imprisonment and voyage, are points on which we must remain uncertain. He must have joined Paul, however, apparently soon after his arrival in Rome, and was with him when the Epistles to the Philippians, to the Colossians and to Philemon were written.

From the two Epistles addressed to him, we are able to put together a few notices as to his later life. It follows from 1 Tim. 1: 3 that he and his master, after the release of the latter from his imprisonment, revisited Proconsular Asia—that the apostle then continued his journey to Macedonia, while the disciple remained at Ephesus. The friendship of fifteen years was drawing to a close, and all memories connected with it throng upon the mind of the old man, now ready to be offered—the blameless youth, the holy household, the solemn ordination, the tears at parting. The last recorded words of the apostle express the earnest hope, repeated yet more earnestly, that he might see him once again. Timotheus is to come before winter, to bring with him the cloak for which in that winter there would be need. We may hazard the conjecture that Timothy reached Paul in time, and that the last hours of the teacher were soothed by the presence of the disciple whom he loved so truly. He continues, according to the old traditions, to act as bishop of Ephesus, and dies a martyr's death under Domitian or Nerva. The great festival of Artemis led him to protest against the license and frenzy which accompanied it. The mob were roused to fury and put him to death with clubs.

BETRAYAL AND CRUCIFIXION OF OUR SAVIOUR.

On the next day, after the arrival at Bethany—which took place on a Saturday, the Jewish Sabbath—Jesus accompanied by a great multitude of people proceeded toward Jerusalem. And when they came to Bethphage, he sent two of his disciples into a village over against them, to fetch thence? An ass with her colt, which he told them they would find tied there. Satisfying their owners, as they did, with the simple statement that? The Lord had need of them. And when they were brought to him? They put their garments on them, and set him thereon. And many spread? Their garments in the way. And others cut down? Branches of trees and strewed them in the way. And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying? Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest. But it was only when Jesus was glorified that his disciples remembered that? It was so written of him by the prophet, Zech. 9. And when the Pharisees saw the multitudes thronging to meet him, they said among themselves? Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him. And some of them from among the multitude having said to him, Master, rebuke thy disciples, Jesus said to them? I tell you that if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out. And when he beheld the city near at hand, he wept over it, saying? If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes: for the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, and shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation. And when he had entered into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying? Who is this? And the multitude said? This is Jesus, the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee. And having gone into the temple? He healed the blind and the lame who came to him. And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the son of David! they were displeased, and said unto him? Hearest thou what these say? To which Jesus replied? Yea; have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise? Ps. 8. And when eventide was come? He went out to Bethany with the twelve, and lodged there. Matt. 21; Mark 11; Luke 19; John 12.

Morning of the second day of the week (Monday), when they were returning from Bethany unto the city? He hungered. And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves? He came to it, if haply he might find anything thereon. But when he came to it? He found nothing but leaves, for the time of figs was not yet. Whereupon he said to it in the hearing of his disciples? Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently? The fig tree withered away. And when they had come unto the city Jesus went into the temple and cast out? Them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves. And would not suffer any man to carry any vessel through the temple, saying unto them, Is it not written? My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer (Isa. 56), but ye have made it a den of thieves. And the scribes and chief priests sought in consequence? How they might destroy him, but could not find how they might do so. For the people generally? Were astonished at his doctrine, and heard him attentively. So long as it was day, therefore, he continued? Teaching in the temple. But at night he went out and abode in? The Mount of Olives. Matt. 21; Mark 11; Luke 19.

Morning of the third day of the week (Tuesday), as they were returning to the city, the disciples called the attention of Jesus to the fig tree which he had cursed the day before, which was now? Dried up from the roots. Whereupon Jesus said to them? Have faith in God; for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith and doubt not, all things whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive. And when he had come into the city, and was walking about in the temple, teaching the people and preaching the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes and the elders said to him? Tell us by what authority thou doest these things, and who gave thee this authority. To which Jesus replied by the silencing rejoinder? The baptism of John, was it from heaven or of men? Wherefore should this simple question have silenced them? Because they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven, he will say, Why then did ye not believe him? but if we shall say, Of men, the people will stone us, for they are persuaded and hold that John was a prophet indeed. And further reproved them by the parable of the wicked husbandmen, who, when the owner of the vineyard sent servant after servant to receive the fruits thereof? Beat and entreated them shamefully, and sent them away empty; and some of them they even put to death. And who, when he sent his only, his well-beloved son, saying, It may be they will reverence him when they see him, said among themselves when they saw him? This is the heir; come let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours. And took him accordingly, and? Killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard. An atrocity which Jesus said the lord of the vineyard would requite when he came, by? Miserably destroying these wicked men, and letting out his vineyard to other husbandmen, who should render him the fruits in their seasons. Therefore I say unto you, continued he? The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof. And on being told that certain Greeks who were present at the feast desired to see him, he said? The hour is come that the Son of man should be glorified: now is my soul troubled, and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour; but for this cause came I unto this hour: Father, glorify thy name. Then there came a voice from heaven, saying? I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again. Some of the people therefore that stood by and heard, said? That it thundered. Others that? An angel spake to him. But Jesus said? This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes: now is the judgment of this world; now shall the prince of this world be cast out. And among the chief rulers? Many believed on him. But because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest? They should be put out of the synagogue; for they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God. And on going out of the temple, his attention having been called by his disciples to the magnificence of the structure, and how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said? As for these things which ye behold, the days come in the which there shall not be left one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down. And on his way to Bethany, having sat down on the Mount of Olives fronting the temple, the disciples said to him? When shall these things be, and what shall be the sign of their coming to pass? And Jesus answering said to them? Take heed that ye be not deceived; for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ, and shall deceive many: and when ye hear of wars and rumors of wars, be ye not troubled, for such things must needs be, but the end is not yet: nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there shall be earthquakes, and famines, and pestilences in divers places; these are the beginning of sorrows: but, before all these, ye shall be delivered up to councils, and to synagogues; brought before kings and rulers; imprisoned and beaten; betrayed by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolk, and friends; hated of all men, and some of you put to death, for my Name's sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. And he said to them further? And after the tribulation of those days the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light; and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken: and then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory: watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man: and what I say unto you, I say unto all, Watch; for in such an hour as ye think not, the Son of man cometh. And he thereafter discoursed to them on the dread solemnities of the judgment-day, saying? When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all nations; and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats. And he shall set the sheep? On his right hand. But the goats? On the left. And then he shall say unto them on his right hand? Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. But to those on his left hand he shall say? Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels. And these shall go away into? Everlasting punishment. But the righteous? Into life eternal. Matt. 21-25; Mark 11-13; Luke 20, 21; John 12.

The fourth day of the week (Wednesday) Jesus spent at? Bethany. And there, at a supper made for him in the house of Simon the leper, at which Martha served, but at which Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him, Mary having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard, very costly? Anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair; and the house was filled with the odor of the ointment. Whereupon Judas Iscariot said? Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor? This he said, however? Not that he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein. Then said Jesus? Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this: for the poor ye have always with you; but me ye have not always; and verily I say unto you, Whosoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this that this woman hath done be told for a memorial of her. Then entered Satan into Judas Iscariot, and he went his way and? Communed with the chief priests and captains how he might betray him unto them. They having previously, along with the scribes and elders of the people, in the course of the day, at an assembly which was held in the palace of Caiaphas the high priest, consulted? How they might take Jesus by subtlety, and put him to death. Only not on the feast-day, said they, lest? There be an uproar among the people. Therefore were they glad at the proposal of Judas, and covenanted with him for? Thirty pieces of silver. And thenceforth Judas sought? How he might conveniently betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude. Matt. 26; Mark 14; Luke 22; John 12.

The fifth day of the week (Thursday), being the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when the passover must be killed, Jesus sent forth Peter and John from Bethany, saying? Go ye into the city, and there shall a man meet you bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into whatsoever house he entereth, and say to the goodman of the house, Where is the guest-chamber where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? and he will show you a large upper room furnished and prepared; there make ready for us. And the two disciples went forth as he had commanded them, and? Found as he had said unto them, and there they made ready the passover. And in the evening, having himself come into the city, he sat down with? The twelve apostles. And said to them? With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer; for I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said? Take this, and divide it among yourselves; for I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God shall come. And there being a strife amongst his disciples as to which of them should be accounted the greatest, Jesus said unto them? Let him that is greatest among you be as the younger; and him that is chief as he that doth serve. And Jesus knowing that his hour was come, and that his Father had given him all things into his hands, rose and laid aside his garments, and took a towel and girded himself, and began to? Wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. But when he came to Simon Peter, Peter said unto him? Thou shalt never wash my feet. To which Jesus replied? If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. Whereupon Peter saith to him? Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. To which Jesus replied? He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit; and ye are clean; but not all. And after he had washed their feet, and resumed his garments, he sat down again, and said to them? Ye call me Master and Lord, and ye say well, for so I am: if I, then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet; for I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you. I know whom I have chosen (he continued), but that the scripture may be fulfilled? He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me. Ps. 41:9. And as they sat and did eat, Jesus, troubled in spirit, said unto them plainly? Verily, verily, I say unto you, That one of you which eateth with me shall betray me. And they were exceedingly sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, one by one? Lord, is it I? And Simon Peter, having beckoned to the disciple whom Jesus loved, and who was leaning on his bosom, to ask him who it should be of whom he spake, Jesus answered? He it is to whom I shall give a sop when I have dipped it: and truly the Son of man goeth, as it is written of him; but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed; good were it for that man if he had never been born. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to? Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. And Satan having thereupon entered into him, Jesus said unto him? That thou doest, do quickly; and Judas went immediately out, and it was night. And as soon as he had gone out, Jesus said? Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him. And to his disciples generally he said? Little children, whither I go ye cannot come. And to Peter individually? Whither I go thou canst not follow me now; but thou shalt follow me afterward. To which Peter replied? Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake. Then saith Jesus unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night, for it is written? I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad. And Peter answered and said unto him? Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended: I am ready to go with thee both into prison and to death. But Jesus said? I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow twice before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me. And as they did eat (that is, of the ordinary paschal meal, now about ended, and to which, at this time, the cup formerly mentioned seems to have been merely preliminary), Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave it to them, saying? Take eat; this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. In the same manner also after supper he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying? Drink ye all of it; for this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many, for the remission of sins: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. Verily I say unto you, I will no more drink of the fruit of the vine until the day that? I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom. And having delivered to them a lengthened parting address, fraught with the sublimest instruction, and furnishing grounds of consolation in the prospect of their impending bereavement, he lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said? Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee: I have glorified thee on the earth; I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do: and now, O Father, glorify me with thine own self, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was. And having given utterance to an intercessory prayer for his followers to the end of time, and having along with his disciples sung a hymn, they went forth at a late hour of the night over? The brook Kedron. And at the base of Mount Olivet entered into? The garden of Gethsemane. And having done so, he said to his disciples? Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder; and pray that ye enter not into temptation. And he taketh with him Peter and James and John—the privileged witnesses of his transfiguration also—and began to be? Sore vexed and very heavy. And said unto them? My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here and watch. And having gone forward from them about a stone's cast, he kneeled down and prayed, saying? Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee: if thou be willing, remove this cup from me; nevertheless not my will, but thine be done. And there appeared unto him? An angel from heaven strengthening him. And being in an agony? He prayed more earnestly, and his sweat was, as it were, great drops of blood, falling down to the ground. And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them? Sleeping for sorrow. And said unto them, to Peter especially? What! could ye not watch with me one hour? watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. And having gone away again a second time, he prayed and spake the same words, saying? Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done. And having returned? He found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy. And again he left them, and? Prayed a third time, uttering the same words. And when he returned to his disciples this time, he said to them? Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough; the hour is come—the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners: rise, let us be going; he that betrayeth me is at hand. And Judas being well acquainted with the locality, for? Jesus had oftentimes resorted to it with his disciples. Having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, came thither about midnight, accompanied by? A great multitude with swords and staves—from the chief priests and scribes and elders of the people. Jesus, therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth and said unto them? Whom seek ye? And they answered him? Jesus of Nazareth. And Jesus said unto them? I am he. Whereat they went backward and? Fell to the ground. Whereupon Jesus said to them again? Whom seek ye? And when they said, Jesus of Nazareth, as before, Jesus said to them? I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way. And this he said that his own saying might be fulfilled, namely? Those that thou gavest me I have kept, so that none of them is lost but the son of perdition. John 17. Now the traitor had given them a token, saying? Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he, hold him fast. And straightway as soon as he was come he went up to him, and said? Hail, Master; and kissed him. Whereupon Jesus said to him, meekly? Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss? And the rabble who accompanied Judas having come up, as had been preconcerted? Laid hands on him and held him fast. And Simon Peter having a sword, drew it, and? Smote off the right ear of Malchus, the servant of the high priest. But Jesus said, Suffer ye thus far, and? Touched his ear, and healed him. And said unto Peter? Put up thy sword into its place; for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword. Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me? More than twelve legions of angels? but the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it? And to the multitude he said? Are ye come out as against a thief, with swords and staves to take me? When I was daily with you in the temple, teaching, ye stretched forth no hands against me; but this is your hour, and the power of darkness. And then all the disciples? Forsook him and fled. Matt. 26; Mark 14; Luke 22; John 6: 13-18; 1 Cor. 9.

Soon after midnight, in the morning of the sixth day of the week, they that had laid hold on Jesus, led him away first to? Annas. And then to? Caiaphas the high priest, Annas's son-in-law. And Peter and another of the disciples followed him afar off, even unto? The palace of the high priest. And one of the maids of the high priest having accosted Peter, and said to him, Thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth, Peter denied before them all, saying? I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And thereupon? The cock crew. And a little while after another saw him, and said to them that stood by? This fellow also was with Jesus of Nazareth. And again Peter denied with an oath, saying? I do not know the man. And about an hour after they that stood by said again to Peter? Surely thou art one of them; for thou art a Galilean, and thy speech betrayeth thee. Then began Peter? To curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak. And immediately, again? The cock crew. And the Lord turned and? Looked upon Peter. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus had said unto him; and when he thought thereon? He went out and wept bitterly.

The high priest, in the mean time, had asked Jesus of his disciples and of his doctrine, to which Jesus had answered? I spake openly to the world: I ever taught in the synagogues, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing: why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them; behold, they know what I said. And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by? Struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so? To which Jesus replied? If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil; but if well, why smitest thou me? And as soon as it was day? The elders of the people, and the chief priests, and the scribes, came together, and led him into their council. And there they sought? False witness against Jesus, to put him to death. But although many false witnesses came? Their witness agreed not together. But at last came two false witnesses, witnessing against him, saying? This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God—I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands: but neither so did their witness agree together. The high priest then stood up in the midst and said to Jesus? Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee? But Jesus? Held his peace, and answered nothing. And the high priest said to him further? I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of the Blessed. To which Jesus answered? I am; and hereafter ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. Whereupon the high priest rent his clothes and said? What further need have we of witnesses? now ye have heard his blasphemy; what think ye? And they all said? He is guilty of death. To what indignities was Jesus thereupon subjected? They spat on him, and buffeted him, and blindfolded him, and struck him on the face, saying, Prophecy unto us, thou Christ, who it is that smote thee; and many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

PILATE DECLARES CHRIST TO BE FAULTLESS.

And early in the morning, the Sanhedrim having taken counsel against him to put him to death, they bound him, and led him away, and delivered him to? Pontius Pilate the governor. Pontius Pilate, under whose rule our Lord worked, suffered and died—who, like the other Roman governors of Judæa, had his ordinary residence at Cæsarea, but during the great festivals at Jerusalem—was the sixth governor in succession from the deposition of Archelaus, and held the office of procurator of Judæa from A. D. 26 till A. D. 36. He was a man of a time-serving disposition, willing rather to perpetrate any iniquity than to be charged with the imputation, Thou art not Cæsar's friend. His government was oppressive and unpopular; and having been accused by the Samaritans of great cruelty toward them, he was sent to Rome to answer for his conduct by Vitellius, the prefect of Syria, father of the future emperor of that name. Of his after life, and of the scene and manner of his death, we have no certain information. But they themselves went not into the judgment-hall, lest? They should be (legally) defiled, and (oh monstrous perversion!) so incapacitated from eating the Passover. And when Pilate went out and said to them, What accusation bring ye against this man, they answered? If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him unto thee. And when Pilate said unto them, Take ye him and judge him according to your law, they answered? It is not lawful for us to put any man to death. And then they began more specially to accuse him, saying? We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cæsar, saying that he himself is Christ a king. And Pilate having entered into the judgment-hall again, called Jesus and said unto him? Art thou the king of the Jews? To which Jesus answered? Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me? To which Pilate replied? Am I a Jew? thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me—what hast thou done? And Jesus answered? My kingdom is not of this world: if it were so, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews; but now is my kingdom not from hence. Pilate therefore said unto him? Art thou a king then? To which Jesus answered? Thou sayest that I am a king: to this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth: every one that is of the truth heareth my voice. Whereupon Pilate saith unto him? What is truth? And when he had said this he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them? I find in him no fault at all. And when the chief priests and elders continued to accuse him of many things, he answered? Nothing. And when Pilate said to him, Hearst thou not how many things these witness against thee, he still? Answered him to never a word. Inasmuch that the governor? Marvelled greatly. And again said to the chief priests and to the people? I find no fault in this man. At which they were the more fierce, saying? He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place.

And when Pilate heard of Galilee, and had ascertained that he belonged to Herod's jurisdiction? He sent him to Herod (Antipas), who happened to be in Jerusalem at the time. And when Herod saw Jesus? He was exceeding glad, for he had long been desirous to see him, and hoped to see some miracle done by him. But though Jesus was questioned by him in many words? He answered him nothing. And the chief priests and scribes having vehemently accused him, Herod with his men of war? Set him at naught, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him back again to Pilate. And the same day Pilate and Herod, who had been at enmity before? Were made friends together. And Pilate having assembled the chief priests and the rulers and the people, said unto them? Ye have brought this man unto me as one that perverteth the people; but I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in him; no, nor yet Herod: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go. But ye have a custom, continued he, that at the Passover I should release unto you? Whatsoever single prisoner ye may desire. Now they had at that time a notable prisoner, a robber, called? Barabbas. Who was in prison for? Insurrection and murder. And when the multitude were clamorous for compliance with their privilege, Pilate said to them? Will ye that I release unto you the king of the Jews? for he knew that for envy they had delivered him. And while Pilate was sitting on the judgment-seat, his wife sent unto him, saying? Have thou nothing to do with that just man; for I have suffered many things this day in a dream, because of him. And when the multitude cried out, all at once, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas, Pilate said to them? What shall I do then with Jesus, who is called Christ, whom ye call the king of the Jews. Whereupon they all cried out, saying? Crucify him! crucify him! And when Pilate said to them, Why, what evil hath he done? They were instant with loud voices requiring that he might be crucified. And when Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made? He took water and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it. To which all the people answered and said? His blood be on us, and on our children. And so Pilate, willing to content the people? Released unto them Barabbas, whom they desired, but scourged Jesus, and delivered him to their will.

And the soldiers of the governor led him away into the hall called? Prætorium. And there? They stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe; and plaited a crown of thorns, and put it on his head; and put a reed in his right hand; and bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews! and spat upon him, and took from him the reed, and smote him with it on the head. Pilate, therefore, went forth again and said to them? Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him. And when Jesus came forth wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe, Pilate saith unto them? BEHOLD THE MAN! But the chief priests and officers cried out, as the multitude had done before? Crucify him! crucify him! And Pilate said to them? Take ye him, and crucify him; for I find no fault in him. Then said they unto Pilate, We have a law, and by that law he ought to die, because? He made himself the Son of God. When Pilate, therefore, heard that saying? He was the more afraid. And went again into the judgment-hall, and said to Jesus? Whence art thou? But Jesus? Gave him no answer. And Pilate saying to him, Speakest thou not to me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and that I have power to release thee?—Jesus answered? Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin. And thenceforth Pilate sought to release him; but they cried out, saying? If thou let this man go thou art not Cæsar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Cæsar. When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment-seat, in a place called? The Pavement; but in the Hebrew language, Gabbatha, and saith unto the Jews, Behold your king! But they cried out? Away with him! away with him! crucify him! crucify him! And Pilate said unto them? Shall I crucify your king? To which the chief priests answered? We have no king but Cæsar. And Pilate on hearing this? Delivered Jesus unto them to be crucified.

And when Judas, who had betrayed him, saw that he was condemned? He repented, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, saying, I have sinned, in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. To which they made the heartless reply? What is that to us? see thou to that. Whereupon Judas? Cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself. And the chief priests, having taken the pieces of silver, said? It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood. And they took counsel, and bought with them? The potter's field, to bury strangers in. Wherefore that field was, and is still, called? Aeldama (Acts 1); that is, the field of blood. And when they had mocked Jesus? They stripped him of his purple robe, and put his own raiment on him, and led him out to crucify him. And as Jesus came out bearing his cross? They laid hold on one Simon, a Cyrenian, who, coming from the country, was passing by at the time; and on him they laid the cross, and compelled him to bear it after Jesus. And there followed him? A great company of people and of women, who also bewailed and lamented him. But Jesus turning unto them said? Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children: for if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry? And two malefactors—thieves? Were brought forth to be put to death along with him. And when they came to a place called Calvary or Golgotha, that is? The place of a skull. They presented to him? Vinegar mingled with gall; which when he had tasted, however, he would not drink. And there, at the third hour? They crucified Jesus. And the two thieves along with him—on? Either side one, and Jesus in the midst. What prayer did Christ, in his agony, utter in behalf of his murderers? He said, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And the soldiers, when they had crucified him, parted? His outer garments among them. But as to his coat (his inner vesture), which was without seam and woven throughout, they said among themselves? Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it whose it shall be. That the scripture might be fulfilled which saith? They parted my garments among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. And Pilate wrote as a title, and put on the cross, over his head, in Hebrew, Greek and Latin, his accusation, namely? This is Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews. And the chief priests objected, saying? Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews. But Pilate answered? What I have written, I have written. And as he hung upon the cross, they that passed by? Reviled him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself; if thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross. Likewise also the chief priests, mocking, with the scribes and elders, said? He saved others, himself he cannot save; if he be the Christ, the king of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him: he trusted in God; let him deliver him now if he will have him; for he said, I am the Son of God. And one of the malefactors, too, who were crucified with him, railed on him, saying? If thou be Christ, save thyself and us. But the other answering rebuked him, saying? Dost thou not fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? and we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward of our deeds; but this man hath done nothing amiss. And to Jesus himself he said? Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom. To which Jesus replied? Verily I say unto thee, To-day thou shalt be with me in paradise. Now there stood by the cross of Jesus? His mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing by, he said unto his mother? Woman, behold thy son! And to the disciple he said? Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple? Took her unto his own home.

Now there was darkness over all the land from? The sixth until the ninth hour. And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani! that is to say? My God! my God! why hast thou forsaken me? And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said? Behold, he calleth for Elias. And Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, saith? I thirst. And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and? Filled it with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, on a reed, and gave it to him to drink. Saying at the same time? Let us see whether Elias will come to take him down, and save him. And when Jesus had received the vinegar, he said? It is finished. And cried with a loud voice, saying? Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit. And having thus said? He bowed his head, and gave up the ghost. Matt. 26, 27; Mark 14, 15; Luke 22, 23; John 18, 19; Acts 1.

THE RESURRECTION AND ASCENSION OF CHRIST.

Sunday, the 17th of Nisan (April 8th), the first Lord's Day—"EASTER DAY."

As the resurrection of Christ is the great fact, so the day of its occurrence is the great day of Christianity. From the time of the apostles its weekly return has been called by the name of the LORD'S DAY; and to this epoch of the new creation of all things, marked by the new life of Christ, all the permanent sanctity of the primeval Sabbath was transferred.

The Resurrection itself is related only by St. Matthew: "Behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it. His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow: and for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men."

The time of the resurrection is stated by St. Mark as "early on the first day of the week," which began from the sunset of the evening before. It had already taken place when the first visit was paid to the sepulchre, "while it was yet dark," "as it began to dawn." The portion, however brief, of this day (according to Jewish reckoning) that Jesus remained in the tomb is reckoned as one day, like the brief interval between his burial and the Friday's sunset, and thus he remained three days in the earth.

Visit of the Women to the Sepulchre.—The Jewish custom of resuming the occupations of common life the moment the Sabbath's sun had set had enabled the two Marys to purchase on that evening the spices needed to complete the embalment which Nicodemus had hastily performed. At the approach of dawn they came to the sepulchre with certain other women, among whom was Joanna, to perform this pious service, wondering, as they went along, how they could roll away the great stone from its mouth. They reached the sepulchre at sunrise and found the stone removed, and entering they saw that the body of Jesus was gone.

Mary Magdalene carries the news to Peter and John.—The ardent love of Mary Magdalene prompted her at once to run and tell Peter and John of the trick that she supposed had been played by the enemies of Christ in removing his body beyond the reach of his disciples.

Vision of an Angel to the Women in the Sepulchre.—Meanwhile, the other women had entered the recesses of the rock-hewn sepulchre, and there they saw an angel sitting on the right side, in the form of a young man in a long white robe, who told them that Christ had risen and would meet his disciples in Galilee, with other words of comfort and encouragement. Fear at the vision and joy at the tidings joined to hasten the flight of the women from the sepulchre, that they might carry the news to the disciples.

First Appearance of Jesus—to the Women on their Return from the Sepulchre.—Their hasty course was stayed by the appearance and greeting of Jesus himself. They fell down to worship him, and received from his own lips the same message that the angel had given them. The apostles and other disciples received the intelligence "as idle tales," not being yet ready to believe the truth.

Visit of Peter and John to the Sepulchre.—Luke speaks of the eleven (a common formula for the body of the apostles at this period) as receiving these tidings from the women, and that so as to imply that they had reassembled from their flight, and were waiting to see what would happen on this day. But it is evident from John that both Peter and John himself were away from the rest, probably at the latter's house, where John would naturally remain to comfort his new-found mother, and where his friend, disgraced in the eyes of the other disciples, would find a refuge for his remorse. To them Mary had brought word that the sepulchre was empty, and while the other women were giving their fuller tidings to the rest of the apostles, Peter and John ran to the sepulchre to see for themselves. We trace something of the peculiar character of each in the beautifully simple narrative of John. The ardent affection of "the disciple whom Jesus loved" carried him first to the sepulchre: he looked in and saw the grave-clothes, but hesitated to enter; while Peter, coming up, at once went in and saw the linen clothes lying as they had been left, and the napkin that had been about the head of Jesus folded together by itself. John then entered and saw the same spectacle, and while Peter only wondered, John believed, for, as he himself takes care to tell us, the disciples had not yet understood the prophecy of His resurrection.

Second Appearance of Jesus—to Mary Magdalene at the Sepulchre.—While Peter and John returned home, Mary, who had followed them back to the sepulchre, stood by its entrance, as the words just quoted have described. Looking into the sepulchre as she wept, she saw two angels sitting at the head and the feet where the body of Jesus had lain. To their inquiry why she wept, she answered, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him;" and she was turning away to leave the sepulchre in despair when she saw Jesus standing before her, though she knew him not, even when he asked her why she wept. Taking him for the keeper of the garden, she earnestly entreated him to tell her whither he had removed the body. The one word, "Mary," from the lips of Jesus recalled her to herself, and turning so as to have a full view of him for the first time, she replied, "Rabboni!"—that is, "Master!"—and would have embraced him. But, with the mysterious injunction, "Touch me not, for I am not yet ascended to my Father," he sent her to forewarn his brethren of his ascension. But even at this second testimony the disciples remained incredulous.

Third Appearance of Jesus—to St. Peter.—St. Paul states, immediately after the fact of our Lord's resurrection, "that he was seen of Cephas" before he appeared to the other apostles. This appearance is also mentioned incidentally, but very emphatically, by St. Luke, in connection with the journey to Emmaus.

Our Lord's Fourth Appearance—The Journey to Emmaus.—This is briefly mentioned by St. Mark, but the deeply interesting narrative of St. Luke gives us a view of the disciples' state of mind on this memorable day. Two of them, Cleopas and another, left the city after the visits paid to the sepulchre by the women and by Peter and John, and walked to Emmaus, a village about seven miles from Jerusalem. Their only object seems to have been to talk freely with each other respecting the bearing of the recent events on the question of the Messiahship of Jesus; and the doubtful result of their discussions is expressed in the exclamation, "But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel!" As they were thus engaged, Jesus himself joined them, but a spell was upon their eyes, so that they did not know him. Every reader of the Gospel is familiar with what followed—the statement of their anxious reasonings; his rebuke of their ignorance and unbelief, and his exposition of the scripture which foretold his sufferings and glory; their pressing him to stay with them at the village; and his being made known to them by blessing and breaking the bread at their evening meal. They hastened back to Jerusalem, and found the apostles assembled with other disciples at their evening meal, in a strangely mingled state of doubt and wonder; for, while some met them with the news, "The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon," their own full account of his converse with them was still received with unbelief.

Our Lord's Fifth Appearance—to the assembled Apostles except Thomas.—It was at this very crisis of their perplexity that Jesus crowned his separate appearances by a manifestation of himself to the apostles and those disciples who were with them. His sudden appearance in their midst, the doors of the room being shut fast for fear of the Jews, alarmed them with the idea that they saw a spirit, though he greeted them with the words, "Peace be unto you!" But he called them to feel his body, and showed them the wounds in his hands and feet and side. As they still doubted, he ate food before them, and then he opened their minds to see the fulfillment of all that had been spoken of him in the law, the prophets and the psalms, and to know their own mission as the witnesses of his resurrection and the preachers of repentance and remission of sins in his name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. Then by the sign of breathing on them he indicated the conferring of that gift of the Holy Spirit which was actually to descend upon them after his ascension, and for which he bade them to wait at Jerusalem; and he gave them the authority of remitting and retaining sins. This "great commission" was repeated afterward, but Mark, who mentions only three of our Lord's appearances, and this as the last, refers to this occasion also the promise of the power of working miracles. Such was our Lord's last appearance to his disciples on the day of his resurrection.

Sunday, the 24th of Nisan, April 16th.

Christ's Second Appearance—to the assembled Disciples with Thomas—the Sixth in all.—Facts are sometimes of themselves strong arguments, and such is our finding the disciples again assembled on the first day of the following week, and our Lord again appearing in the midst of them. Their mere meeting may have been continued from day to day, but our Saviour's blessing this meeting with his presence goes far to mark the Lord's Day as sacred. It was then that the incredulous Thomas was taught by the evidence of his own senses not only to share his brethren's faith, but to go beyond them by recognizing in the Lord's resurrection a proof of his divinity. But Jesus did not grant the proof that Thomas required without pronouncing a higher blessing upon those who are content to believe on the testimony of others.

Third Appearance of Jesus—to the Apostles (seven of them) by the Lake of Galilee—the Seventh in all.—The evangelists now cease to specify days. St. Matthew tells us that the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, as they had been commanded when first the resurrection was announced to them, but their meeting with Jesus in the mountain he had appointed them must have been subsequent to that morning by the Lake of Galilee of which St. John has given us so full and touching an account. Seven of the apostles—Peter, Thomas, Nathanael, the sons of Zebedee, and two others who are not named—had returned to their avocations as fishermen, when Jesus revealed himself to them in a manner strikingly similar to that of their former calling by the sign of a miraculous draught of fishes. The one striking difference, that now the net did not break, showed the coming of the time when they were to be indeed "fishers of men." It was then that our Lord drew from Peter the avowal of his love, repeated thrice as the revocation of his threefold denial, and restored him to his place among the disciples by the special commission, also thrice repeated, "Feed my sheep!" adding the prediction of his martyrdom, but rebuking his affectionate curiosity concerning the fate of John.

The Eighth Appearance of Jesus—to the great body of his Disciples in Galilee.—St. Matthew continues the statement just quoted by saying that the eleven disciples went out to a mountain in Galilee, where Jesus had appointed them, and when they saw him they worshiped him, but some doubted. Though Matthew mentions only the eleven, he can scarcely mean the last statement to apply to them after the removal of the last remains of their incredulity in the case of Thomas. It is evident, from comparing the Gospels, that in several statements which refer to the body of the disciples the eleven are particularly named, because they were specially the appointed witnesses of Christ's resurrection. All that we see of their life during this interval confirms the view that the apostles were in no way separated from the other disciples. At the beginning of the last chapter of Matthew the message, first of the angel and then of Christ himself, is to "the disciples" and "his brethren," not to the apostles only; and the evangelist clearly records this meeting in Galilee as the fulfillment of that message. There is, therefore, no difficulty in identifying this interview with the appearance of Jesus to "above five hundred brethren at once" mentioned by St. Paul, who appeals to the fact that some of them were still living when he wrote. This number agrees well with that assigned by St. Luke to the church at Jerusalem, for as these were one hundred and twenty, and as the greater number of our Lord's converts were made in Galilee, five hundred and upward is a reasonable number for those of Galilee, with the apostles and such others as were able to accompany them from Judæa.

This, then, was the great interview of Jesus with his disciples of which he had spoken even before his death, and to which they were summoned from the moment of his resurrection. Its scene was Galilee, where Jesus had commenced his course of public teaching and where his life had been chiefly spent; and as he had opened his public ministry on a mountain by the discourse which set forth the conditions of discipleship, so he closed it on a mountain by the commission which he based upon his own unlimited authority: "All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you alway unto the end of the world."

Christ's Ninth Appearance—to James (the Less). Immediately after mentioning this interview St. Paul adds the words "after that he was seen of James," a special notice which agrees well with the importance assigned to James, as being, like Peter and John, one of the "pillars" of the Church. This appearance may be referred to Jerusalem, with the more probability as James was not one among the apostles at the Lake of Galilee. Nor does it seem unlikely that it was one of several appearances to individual disciples omitted by the evangelists, who have recorded only those needful to establish the great facts of Christ's resurrection and of his commission to the apostles.

Our Lord's Last Interview with the Apostles, and his Ascension—his Tenth Appearance.—The last scene of all was reserved for the eyes of the apostles only, as the specially-appointed witnesses of Christ's resurrection and ascension. St. Peter lays stress upon the fact that when God had raised Jesus from the dead, "he showed him, openly, not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead." The superiority of such testimony to any which could have been furnished by a more public display of the risen Saviour to all the people has been ably demonstrated by Bishop Horsley. Neither Matthew nor John relates our Saviour's ascension, though the latter gives in the Apocalypse a glowing description of his state of glory. Mark simply says that "he was received up into heaven and sat on the right hand of God." St. Luke describes the whole scene, briefly in his Gospel and fully in the Acts of the Apostles.

The whole time during which Jesus "showed himself after his passion by many infallible proofs" was forty days, a period which has evidently some mystical signification, being the same as the time spent by Moses and by Elijah in Mount Horeb, and by Christ himself in the wilderness of temptation, and corresponding to the number of years that the people had wandered in the desert. As they passed an appointed interval of trial between their baptism to Moses in the Red Sea and their entrance on the promised land, so our Lord himself was subjected to a forty days' trial of his faith and patience between his baptism and his showing to Israel; and again, after his final baptism of suffering a like interval was interposed before he entered into glory, to try the faith of his disciples and to work in them full conviction of the great truth they had to preach. In what secret retirement he took up his abode during these forty days we are not told: all that concerns us is the time he spent with his disciples, "speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God."

At last, on the fortieth day the disciples were assembled with Jesus at Jerusalem, it would seem by a special appointment, and he commanded them not to depart thence till they received the promise of the Father, the baptism with the Holy Ghost. After rebuking their desire to know whether the time was come for him to restore the kingdom to Israel, he promised them power, by that baptism of the Spirit, for the work they had to do for his name in Jerusalem, Judæa and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.

Either during or after this conversation he led them out—over the very ground he had traversed with them six weeks before, when he entered the city to suffer—as far as Bethany, on the farther slope of the Mount of Olives, and so out of view of the city; and there with uplifted hands he gave them his parting blessing; a cloud interposed between him and them, like the chariot and horses of fire that separated Elijah from Elisha; and, upborne on this aerial car, he was wafted from their sight through the vault of heaven. This was all they saw, but the inspired Psalmist had long before described the unseen glories of Christ's ascension. What those spiritual gifts were, and how they were soon distributed to the Church, is explained by the apostle Paul.

Meanwhile, the disciples scarcely recollected that this was but what he had himself foretold: "What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?" They stood gazing up after him as if he had been lost for ever, till they were awakened from their stupor by the appearance of two angels standing by them, and declaring that this same Jesus, who was taken from them into heaven, should so come in like manner as they had seen him go into heaven—words which exclude any other than the final advent of our Lord, and teach us that he shall then be seen descending from the riven sky as plainly and as unexpectedly as he passed into it from their eyes. With this agrees his own warning of "the sign of the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven, with power and great glory," and the words of the final Scripture prophecy, "Behold, he cometh with clouds, and every eye shall see him."

Having worshiped their glorified Lord, they returned from the Mount of Olives to Jerusalem with great joy, and, while expecting the promised gift of the Holy Spirit, they spent their time continually in the temple, praising and blessing God.

We cannot more fitly conclude this narrative of our Saviour's life on earth—in which we have aimed to bring into one view the records of the four evangelists with as much brevity as was consistent with the omission of no important fact—than by calling attention to the two points insisted on by St. John: first, that we have only a small part of our Lord's sayings and doings in the presence of his disciples, for the world itself could hardly have contained the record of the whole; but, finally, that all we do possess has been written with this one sole object, "That we might believe that JESUS IS THE CHRIST, THE SON OF GOD, and that, believing, we might have LIFE THROUGH HIS NAME."

CONCORDANCE TO THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS.

TO THE READER.—1. This Concordance doth not pretend to comprehend any more than any other larger ones, but to contain the principal substance of them all in little room. 2. By observing one more principal words of any remembered text, and what are the first three letters of them, and searching under answerable words in the Concordance, the sentence will be found. 3. The original words, whether nouns or verbs, are marked in CAPITAL letters, and those derived from them come after in Italics. 4. Where words are found in many places, the plural is distinguished from the singular; and the parts of verbs ending in -ed, -est, -eth, from their original. But when the examples are few, no such distinction is made, but may be easily observed. 5. The concordant words, except the first, are marked by the first letter a, b, c, &c.; and the mark — stands for several words marked in Italics: divine persons are noted by answerable capitals. 6. Even other words, especially of divine persons, are often marked by one or more of their first letters, that the sense of the line might be more complete.

PSALMS OF DAVID IN METRE.

PSALM 1.

THAT man hath perfect blessedness who walketh not astray
In counsel of ungodly men,
nor stands in sinners' way,
Nor sitteth in the scorner's chair:
2 But placeth his delight
Upon God's law, and meditates on his law day and night.
3 He shall be like a tree that grows near planted by a river,
Which in his season yields his fruit,
and his leaf fadeth never:
And all he doth shall prosper well.
4 The wicked are not so;
But like they are unto the chaff, which wind drives to and fro.
5 In judgment therefore shall not stand such as ungodly are;
Nor in th' assembly of the just shall wicked men appear.
6 For why? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known:
Whereas the way of wicked men shall quite be overthrown.

PSALM 2.

WHY rage the heathen? and vain things
why do the people mind?
2 Kings of the earth do set themselves,
and princes are combin'd,
To plot against the Lord, and his Anointed, saying thus,
3 Let us asunder break their bands, and cast their cords from us.
4 He that in heaven sits shall laugh;
the Lord shall scorn them all.
5 Then shall he speak to them in wrath, in rage he vex them shall.
6 Yet, notwithstanding, I have him to be my King appointed;
And over Sion, my holy hill,
I have him King anointed.
7 The sure decree I will declare;
the Lord hath said to me,
Thou art mine only Son; this day
I have begotten thee.
8 Ask of me, and for heritage
the heathen I'll make thine;
And, for possession, I to thee will give earth's utmost line.
9 Thou shalt, as with a weighty rod of iron, break them all;
And, as a potter's sherd, thou shalt them dash in pieces small.
10 Now therefore, kings, be wise; be taught,
ye judges of the earth:
11 Serve God in fear, and see that ye join trembling with your mirth.
12 Kiss ye the Son, lest in his ire ye perish from the way,
If once his wrath begin to burn:
bless'd all that on him stay.

PSALM 3.

OLORD, how are my foes increas'd?
against me many rise.
2 Many say of my soul, For him in God no succour lies.
3 Yet thou my shield and glory art,
th' uplifter of mine head.
4 I cried, and, from his holy hill,
the Lord me answer made.
5 I laid me down and slept, I wak'd;
for God sustained me.
6 I will not fear though thousands ten set round against me be.
7 Arise, O Lord; save me, my God;
for thou my foes hast stroke
All on the cheek-bone, and the teeth of wicked men hast broke.
Salvation doth appertain unto the Lord alone:
Thy blessing, Lord, for evermore thy people is upon.

PSALM 4.

GIVE ear unto me when I call,
God of my righteousness:
Have mercy, hear my pray'r; thou hast enlarg'd me in distress.

1 O ye the sons of men! how long will ye love vanities?
How long my glory turn to shame,
and will ye follow lies?
3 But know, that for himself the Lord
the godly man doth choose:
The Lord, when I on him do call,
to hear will not refuse.
4 Fear, and sin not; talk with your heart on bed, and silent be.
5 Offerings present of righteousness, and in the Lord trust ye.
6 O who will show us any good?
is that which many say:
But of thy countenance the light,
Lord, lift on us alway.
7 Upon my heart, bestow'd by thee, more gladness I have found [wine Than they, ev'n then, when corn and did most with them abound.
8 I will both lay me down in peace, and quiet sleep will take;
Because thou only me to dwell in safety, Lord, dost make.

PSALM 5.

GIVE ear unto my words, O Lord,
my meditation weigh.
2 Hear my loud cry, my King, my God;
for I to thee will pray.
3 Lord, thou shalt early hear my voice:
I early will direct
My pray'r to thee; and, looking up, an answer will expect.
4 For thou art not a God that doth in wickedness delight;
Neither shall evil dwell with thee,
5 Nor fools staid in thy sight.
All that ill-doers are thou hast;
6 Cutt'st off that liars be:
The bloody and deceitful man abhorred is by thee.
7 But I into thy house will come in thine abundant grace;
And I will worship in thy fear toward thy holy place.
8 Because of those mine enemies,
Lord, in thy righteousness
Do thou me lead; do thou thy way make straight before my face.
9 For in their mouth there is no truth, their inward part is ill;
Their throat's an open sepulchre, their tongue doth flatter still.
10 O God, destroy them; let them be by their own counsel quell'd:
Them for their many sins cast out,
for they 'gainst thee rebell'd.
11 But let all joy that trust in thee, and still make shouting noise;
For them thou sav'st: let all that love thy name in thee rejoice.
12 For, Lord, unto the righteous man thou wilt thy blessing yield:
With favour thou wilt compass him about, as with a shield.

PSALM 6.

LORD, in thy wrath rebuke me not;
Nor in thy hot rage chasten me.
2 Lord, pity me, for I am weak:
Heal me, for my bones vexed be.
3 My soul is also vexed sore; [make?
But, Lord, how long stay wilt thou
4 Return, O Lord, my soul set free;
O save me, for thy mercies' sake.
5 Because those that deceased are
Of thee shall no remembrance have;
And who is he that will to thee
Give praises lying in the grave?
6 I with my groaning weary am,
I also all the night my bed
Have caused for to swim; and I
With tears my couch have watered.
7 Mine eye, consum'd with grief, grows old,
Because of all mine enemies.
8 Hence from me, wicked workers all;
For God hath heard my weeping cries.
9 God hath my supplication heard,
My pray'r received graciously.
10 Sham'd and sore vex'd be all my foes,
Sham'd and back turned suddenly.

Another of the same.

IN thy great indignation,
O Lord, rebuke me not;
Nor on me lay thy chast'ning hand in thy displeasure hot.
2 Lord, I am weak, therefore on me have mercy, and me spare:
Heal me, O Lord, because thou know'st my bones much vexed are.
3 My soul is vexed sore: but, Lord, how long stay wilt thou make?
4 Return, Lord, free my soul; and save me, for thy mercies' sake.
5 Because of thee in death there shall no more remembrance be:
Of those that in the grave do lie,
who shall give thanks to thee?
6 I with my groaning weary am,
and all the night my bed
I caused for to swim; with tears
my couch I watered.
7 By reason of my vexing grief mine eye consumed is;
It waxeth old, because of all that be mine enemies.
8 But now, depart from me all ye
that work iniquity:
For why? the Lord hath heard my voice,
when I did mourn and cry.
9 Unto my supplication
the Lord did hearing give:
When I to him my prayer make,
the Lord will it receive.
10 Let all be sham'd and troubled sore,
that en'mies are to me;
Let them turn back, and suddenly ashamed let them be.

PSALM 7.

OLORD my God, in thee do I
my confidence repose:
Save and deliver me from all my persecuting foes;
2 Lest that the enemy my soul should, like a lion, tear,
In pieces rending it, while there is no deliverer.
3 O Lord my God, if it be so that I committed this;
If it be so that in my hands
iniquity there is:
4 If I rewarded ill to him that was at peace with me; (Yea, ev'n the man that without cause my foe was I did free);
5 Then let the foe pursue and take my soul, and my life thrust Down to the earth, and let him lay mine honour in the dust.
6 Rise in thy wrath, Lord; raise thyself, for my foes raging be;
And, to the judgment which thou hast commanded, wake for me.
7 So shall th' assembly of thy folk about encompass thee:
Thou, therefore, for their sakes, return unto thy place on high.
8 The Lord he shall the people judge;
my judge, JEHOVAH, be,
After my righteousness, and mine
integrity in me.
9 O let the wicked's malice end;
but stablish steadfastly
The righteous: for the righteous God the hearts and reins doth try.
10 In God, who saves th' upright in heart, is my defence and stay.
11 God just men judgeth, God is wroth with ill men ev'ry day.
12 If he do not return again, then he his sword will whet:
His bow he hath already bent,
and hath it ready set:
13 He also hath for him prepar'd
the instruments of death;
Against the persecutors he his shafts ordained hath.

14 Behold, he with iniquity doth travail, as in birth;
A mischief he conceived hath,
and falsehood shall bring forth, 15 He made a pit, and digg'd it deep another there to take;
But he is fall'n into the ditch which he himself did make.
16 Upon his own head his mischief shall be returned home;
His vi'lent dealing also down on his own pate shall come.
17 According to his righteousness
the Lord I'll magnify;
And will sing praise unto the name of God that is most high.

PSALM 8.

HOW excellent in all the earth,
Lord, our Lord, is thy name!
Who hast thy glory far advanc'd above the starry frame. [mouth 2 From infants' and from sucklings thou didest strength ordain,
For thy foes' cause, that so thou might'st
th' avenging foe restrain.
3 When I look up unto the heav'ns, which thine own fingers fram'd,
Unto the moon, and to the stars,
which were by thee ordain'd;
4 Then say I, What is man, that he remember'd is by thee?
Or what the son of man, that thou so kind to him should'st be?
5 For thou a little lower hast him than the angels made;
With glory and with dignity
thou crown'd hast his head. [Lord, 6 Of thy hands' works thou mad'st him all under's feet didst lay;
7 All sheep and oxen, yea, and beasts that in the field do stray;
8 Fowls of the air, fish of the sea,
all that pass through the same.
9 How excellent in all the earth,
Lord, our Lord, is thy name!

PSALM 9.

LORD, thee I'll praise with all my heart,
thy wonders all proclaim.
2 In thee, most High, I'll greatly joy, and sing unto thy name.
3 When back my foes were turn'd, they fell, and peris'd at thy sight: [cause;
4 For thou maintain'dst my right and on throne sat'st judging right.
5 The heathen thou rehnkd hast,
the wicked overthrow'n;
Thou hast put out their names, that they may never more be known.
6 O en'my! now destructions have an end perpetual:
Thou cities raz'd, perish'd with them is their memorial.
7 God shall endure for aye; he doth for judgment set his throne;
8 In righteousness to judge the world, justice to give each one.
9 God also will a refuge be for those that are oppress'd;
A refuge will he be in times of trouble to distress'd.
10 And they that know thy name, in the their confidence will place:
For thou hast not forsaken them that truly seek thy face.
11 O sing ye praises to the Lord that dwells in Sion hill;
And all the nations among his deeds record ye still.
12 When he inquireth after blood,
he then rememb'reth them;
The humble folk he not forgets that call upon his name.
13 Lord, pity me; behold the grief which I from foes sustain; Ev'n thou, who from the gates of dost raise me up again;

- 14 That I, in Sion's daughters' gates,
may all thy praise advance;
And that I may rejoice always in thy deliverance.
- 15 The heathen are sunk in the pit which they themselves prepar'd;
And in the net which they have hid their own feet fast are snar'd.
- 16 The Lord is by the judgment known which he himself hath wrought:
The sinners' hands do make the snare wherewith themselves are caught.
- 17 They who are wicked into hell
each one shall turned be;
And all the nations that forget to seek the Lord most high.
- 18 For they that needy are shall not forgotten be alway;
The expectation of the poor shall not be lost for aye.
- 19 Arise, Lord, let not man prevail;
Judge heathen in thy sight: [men, 20 That they may know themselves but the nations, Lord, affright.

PSALM 10.

- WHEREFORE is it that thou, O Lord,
dost stand from us afar?
And wherefore hidest thou thyself when times so troublous are?
- 2 The wicked in his loftiness doth persecute the poor:
In these devices they have fram'd let them be taken sure.
- 3 The wicked of his heart's desire doth talk with boasting great;
He blesseth him that's covetous, whom yet the Lord doth hate.
- 4 The wicked, through his pride of face,
on God he doth not call;
And in the counsels of his heart
the Lord is not at all.
- 5 His ways they always grievous are;
thy judgments from his sight
Removed are: at all his foes he puffeth with despite.
- 6 Within his heart he thus hath said,
I shall not moved be;
And no adversity at all shall ever come to me.
- 7 His mouth with cursing, fraud, deceit,
is fill'd abundantly;
And underneath his tongue there is mischief and vanity.
- 8 He closely sits in villages;
he slays the innocent:
Against the poor that pass him by his cruel eyes are bent.
- 9 He, lion-like, lurks in his den;
he waits the poor to take;
And when he draws him in his net,
his prey he doth him make.
- 10 Himself he humbleth very low,
he croubeth down withal,
That so a multitude of poor may by his strong ones fall.
- 11 He thus hath said within his heart,
The Lord hath quite forgot;
He hides his countenance, and he for ever sees it not.
- 12 O Lord, do thou arise; O God, lift up thine hand on high:
Put not the meek afflicted ones out of thy memory.
- 13 Why is it that the wicked man
thus doth the Lord despise?
Because that God will it require he in his heart denies.
- 14 Thou hast it seen; for their mischief and spite thou wilt repay:
The poor commits himself to thee;
thou art the orphan's stay.
- 15 The arm break of the wicked man,
and of the evil one;
Do thou seek out his wickedness,
until thou findest none.
- 16 The Lord is king through ages all,
even to eternity;
The heathen people from his land are perish'd utterly.
- 17 O Lord, of those that humble are thou the desire didst hear;
Thou wilt prepare their heart, and thou to hear wilt bend thine ear:
- 18 To judge the fatherless, and those that are oppress'd sore;
That man, that is but sprung of earth,
may them oppress no more.

PSALM 11.

- IN the Lord do put my trust;
how is it then that ye Say to my soul, Flee, as a bird, unto your mountain high?
- 2 For, lo, the wicked bend their bow, their shafts on string they fit,
That those who upright are in heart they privily may hit.

- 3 If the foundations be destroy'd, what hath the righteous done?
4 God in his holy temple is,
in heaven is his throne:
His eyes do see, his eyelids try men's sons. The just he proves:
5 But his soul hates the wicked man, and him that violence loves.
- 6 Snares, fire and brimstone, furious ou sinners he shall rain: [storms,
This, as the portion of their cup, doth unto them pertain.
- 7 Because the Lord most righteous doth in righteousness delight;
And with a pleasant countenance beholdeth the upright.

PSALM 12.

- HELP, Lord, because the godly man doth daily fade away;
And from among the sons of men
the faithful do decay.
- 2 Unto his neighbour ev'ry one doth utter vanity:
They with a double heart do speak,
and lips of flattery.
- 3 God shall cut off all flat'ring lips, tongues that speak proudly thus,
4 We'll with our tongue prevail, our lips are ours: who's Lord o'er us?
- 5 For poor oppress'd, and for the sighs of needy, rise will I, Saith God, and him in safety set from such as him defy.
- 6 The words of God are words most pure;
they be like silver tried
In earthen furnace, seven times that hath been purified. [keep
- 7 Lord, thou shalt them preserve and for ever from this race.
- 8 On each side walk the wicked, when vile men are high in place.

PSALM 13.

- HOW long wilt thou forget me, Lord?
shall it for ever be?
O how long shall it be that thou wilt hide thy face from me?
- 2 How long take counsel in my soul, still sad in heart, shall I?
How long exalted over me shall be mine enemy?
- 3 O Lord my God, consider well, and answer to me make:
Mine eyes enlighten, lest the sleep of death me overtake:
- 4 Lest that mine enemy should say,
Against him I prevail'd;
And those that trouble me rejoice,
when I am mov'd and fall'd.
- 5 But I have all my confidence thy mercy set upon;
My heart within me shall rejoice in thy salvation.
- 6 I will unto the Lord my God
sing praises cheerfully,
Because he hath his bounty shown to me abundantly.

PSALM 14.

- THAT there is not a God, the fool doth in his heart conclude:
They are corrupt, their works are vile;
not one of them doth good.
- 2 Upon men's sons the Lord from heav'n did cast his eyes abroad,
To see if any understood,
and did seek after God.
- 3 They altogether filthy are,
they all aside are gone;
And there is none that doeth good, yea, sure there is not one.
- 4 These workers of iniquity
do they not know at all,
That they my people eat as bread,
and on God do not call?
- 5 There fear'd they much; for God is with the whole race of the just.
- 6 You shame the counsel of the poor,
because God is his trust.
- 7 Let Israel's help from Sion come:
when back the Lord shall bring His captives, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall sing.

PSALM 15.

- WITHIN thy tabernacle, Lord, who shall abide with thee?
And in thy holy and holy hill who shall a dweller be?
- 2 The man that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness,
And as he thinketh in his heart,
so doth he truth express.
- 3 Who doth not slander with his tongue,
nor to his friend doth hurt;
Nor yet against his neighbour doth take up an ill report.
- 4 In whose eyes vile men are despis'd;
but those that God do fear
He honoureth; and changeth not, though to his hurt he swear.

- 5 His coin puts not to usury, nor take reward will he Against the guiltless. Who doth thus shall never moved be.

PSALM 16.

- LORD, keep me; for I trust in thee.
2 To God thus was my speech,
Thou art my Lord; and unto thee my goodness doth not reach:
- 3 To saints on earth, to th' excellent,
where my delight's all plac'd.
4 Their sorrows shall be multiplied to other gods that haste:
Of their drink-offerings of blood
I will no offering make;
Yea, neither I their very names up in my lips will take.
- 5 God is of mine inheritance and eup the portion;
The lot that fallen is to me thou dost maintain alone.
- 6 Unto me happily the lines in pleasant places fell;
Yea, the inheritance I got in beauty doth excel.
- 7 I bless the Lord, because he doth by counsel me conduit;
And in the seasons of the night
my reins do me instruct.
- 8 Before me still the Lord I set:
sith it is so that he
Doth ever stand at my right hand,
I shall not moved be.
- 9 Because of this my heart is glad,
and joy shall be express Ev'n by my glory; and my flesh in confidence shall rest.
- 10 Because my soul in grave to dwell shall not be left by thee;
Nor wilt thou give thine Holy One corruption to see.
- 11 Thou wilt me show the path of life:
of joys there is full store
Before thy face; at thy right hand are pleasures evermore.

PSALM 17.

- LORD, hear the right, attend my cry, unto my pray'r give heed,
That doth not in hypocrisy from feigned lips proceed.
- 2 And from before thy presence forth
My sentence do thou send:
Toward these things that equal are do thou thine eyes intend.
- 3 Thou prov'dst mine heart, thou visit'st hy night, thou did'st me try, [me
Yet nothing found'st; for that my mouth shall not sin, purpos'd I.
- 4 As for men's works, I, by the word that from thy lips doth flow,
Did me preserve out of the paths wherein destroyers go.
- 5 Hold up my goings, Lord, me guide
in those thy paths divine,
So that my footsteps may not slide out of those ways of thine.
- 6 I called have on thee, O God, because thou wilt me hear:
That thou may'st hearken to my speech,
to me incline thine ear.
- 7 Thy wondrous loving-kindness show,
thou that, by thy right hand, Sav'st them that trust in thee from those that up against them stand.
- 8 As th' apple of the eye me keep;
in thy wings shade me elose
- 9 From lewd oppressors, compassing me round, as deadly foes.
- 10 In their own fat they are enclos'd;
their mouth speaks loftily. [ground 11 Our steps they compass'd; and to down bowing set their eye.
- 12 He like unto a lion is that's greedy of his prey,
Or lion young, which lurking doth in secret places stay.
- 13 Arise, and disappoint my foe,
and cast him down, O Lord:
My soul save from the wicked man,
the man which is thy sword.
- 14 From men, which are thy hand, O Lord,
from worldly men me save,
Which only in this present life their part and portion have.
- Whose belly with thy treasure hid thou fill'st; they children have
In plenty; of their goods the rest they to their children leave.
- 15 But as for me, I thine own face in righteousness will see;
And with thy likeness, when I wake,
I satisfied shall be.

PSALM 18.

- THEE will I love, O Lord, my strength.
2 My fortress is the Lord,
My rock, and he that doth to me deliverance afford:
My God, my strength, whom I will trust,
a buckler unto me,

- The horn of my salvation, and my high tow'r, is he.
- 3 Upon the Lord, who worthy is of praises, will I cry;
And then shall I preserved be safe from mine enemy.
- 4 Floods of ill men affrighted me, death's pangs about me went;
5 Hell's sorrows me environed;
death's snares did me prevent.
- 6 In my distress I call'd on God,
ery to my God did I;
He from his temple heard my voice,
to his ears came my ery.
- 7 Th' earth, as affrighted, then did shake, trembling upon it seiz'd:
The hills' foundations moved were,
because he was displeas'd.
- 8 Up from his nostrils came a smoke, and from his mouth there came Devouring fire, and coals by it were turned into flame.
- 9 He also bowed down the heav'ns, and thence he did descend;
And thickest clouds of darkness did under his feet attend.
- 10 And he upon a cherub rode,
and thereon he did fly;
Yea, on the swift wings of the wind his flight was from on high.
- 11 He darkness made his secret place:
about him, for his tent,
Dark waters were, and thickest clouds of th' airy firmament.
- 12 And at the brightness of that light, which was before his eye,
His thick clouds pass'd away, hailstones, and coals of fire did fly.
- 13 The Lord God also in the heav'ns did thunder in his ire;
And there the Highest gave his voice, hailstones and coals of fire.
- 14 Yea, he his arrows sent abroad,
and them he scattered;
His lightnings also he shot out,
and them discomfited.
- 15 The waters' channels then were seen, the world's foundations vast
At thy rebuke discover'd were,
and at thy nostrils' blast.
- 16 And from above the Lord sent down,
and took me from below;
From many waters he me drew,
which would me overflow.
- 17 He me reliev'd from my strong foes and such as did me hate;
Because he saw that they for me too strong were, and too great.
- 18 They me prevented in the day of my calamity;
But even then the Lord himself a stay was unto me.
- 19 He to a place where liberty and room was hath me brought;
Because he took delight in me,
he my deliverance wrought.
- 20 According to my righteousness
he did me recompense,
He me repaid according to my hands' pure innocence.
- 21 For I God's ways kept, from my God did not turn wickedly.
- 22 His judgments were before me, I his laws put not from me.
- 23 Sincere before him was my heart,
with him upright was I;
And watchfully I kept myself
from mine iniquity.
- 24 After my righteousness the Lord hath recompens'd me,
After the cleanness of my hands appearing in his eye.
- 25 Thou gracious to the gracious art,
to upright men upright:
- 26 Pure to the pure, froward thou kyth'st unto the froward wight.
- 27 For thou wilt the afflicted save,
in grief that low do lie:
But wilt bring down the countenance of them whose looks are high.
- 28 The Lord will light my candle so that it shall shine full bright:
The Lord my God will also make my darkness to be light.
- 29 By thee through troops of men I break and them discomfit all;
And, by my God assisting me,
I overleap a wall.
- 30 As for God, perfect is his way:
the Lord his word is tried;
He is a buckler to all those who do in him confide.
- 31 Who but the Lord is God? but he who is a rock and stay?
- 32 'Tis God that girdeth me with strength and perfect makes my way.
- 33 He made my feet swift as the hinds, set me on my high places.
- 34 Mine hands to war he taught, mine arms brake bows of steel in pieces.
- 35 The shield of thy salvation
thou didst on me bestow;

Thy right hand held me up, and great thy kindness made me grow.

26 And in my way my steps thou hast enlarged under me,
That I go safely, and my feet are kept from sliding free.

27 Mine enemies I pursued have, and did them overtake;
Nor did I turn again till I an end of them did make.

I wounded them, they could not rise; they at my feet did fall.
Thou girdedst me with strength for war; my foes thou brought'st down all:
And thou hast giv'n to me the necks of all mine enemies;
That I might them destroy and slay, who did against me rise.

28 They cried out, but there was none that would or could them save;
Yea, they did cry unto the Lord, but he no answer gave.

29 Then did I beat them small as dust before the wind that flies;
And I did cast them out like dirt upon the street that lies.

30 Thou mad'st me free from people's strife, and heathen's head to be:
A people whom I have not known shall service do to me.

31 At hearing they shall me obey to me they shall submit.

32 Strangers for fear shall fade away, who in close places sit.

33 God lives, blest be my Rock; the God of my health praised be.

34 God doth avenge me, and subdues the people under me.

35 He saves me from mine enemies; yea, thou hast lifted me above my foes; and from the man of violence set me free.

Therefore to thee will I give thanks the heathen folk among;
And to thy name, O Lord, I will sing praises in a song.
He great deliverance gives his king: he mercy doth extend
To David, his auointed one, and his seed without end.

PSALM 19.

THE heav'n's God's glory do declare, the skies his hand-works preach:
2 Day utters speech to day, and night to night doth knowledge teach.
3 There is no speech nor tongue to which their voice doth not extend:
4 Their line is gone through all the earth, their words to the world's end.

In them he set the sun a tent;
5 Who, bride-groom-like, forth goes From 's chamber, as a strong man doth to run his race rejoice.

6 From heav'n's end is his going forth, circling to th' end again;
And there is nothing from his heat that hidden doth remain.

7 God's law is perfect, and converts the soul in sin that lies:
God's testimony is most sure, and makes the simple wise.

8 The statutes of the Lord are right, and do rejoice the heart:
The Lord's command is pure, and doth light to the eyes impart.

9 Unspotted is the fear of God, and doth endure for ever:
The judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether. [gold,

10 They more than gold, yea, much fine to be desired are:
Than honey, honey from the comb that droppeth, sweeter far.

11 Moreover, they thy servant warn how he his life should frame:
A great reward provided is for them that keep the same.

12 Who can his errors understand?
O cleanse thou me within

13 From secret faults. Thy servant keep from all presumptuous sin:
And do not suffer them to have dominion over me:
Then, righteous and innocent, I from much sin shall be. [ceed, 14 The words which from my mouth pro- the thoughts sent from my heart, Accept, O Lord, for thou my strength and my Redeemer art.

PSALM 20.

JEHOVAH hear thee in the day when trouble he doth send:
And let the name of Jacob's God thee from all ill defend.

2 O let him help send from above, out of his sanctuary:
From Zion, his own holy hill, let him give strength to thee.

3 Let him remember all thy gifts, accept thy sacrifice:
4 Grant thee thine heart's wish, and fulfil thy thoughts and counsel wise.

5 In thy salvation we will joy; in our God's name we will Display our banners: and the Lord thy prayers all fulfil.

6 Now know I God his king doth save: he from his holy heav'n Will hear him, with the saving strength by his own right hand giv'n.

7 In chariots some put confidence, some horses trust upon:
But we remember will the name of our Lord God alone.

8 We rise, and upright stand, when they are bowed down, and fall.

9 Deliver, Lord; and let the King us hear, when we do call.

PSALM 21.

THE king in thy great strength, O Lord, shall very joyful be:
In thy salvation rejoice how vehemently shall he!

2 Thou hast bestowed upon him all that his heart would have;
And thou from him didst not withhold whate'er his lips did crave.

3 For thou with blessings him prevent'st of goodness manifold;
And thou hast set upon his head a crown of purest gold.

4 When he desired life of thee, thou life to him didst give;
Ev'n such a length of days, that he for evermore should live.

5 In that salvation wrought by thee his glory is made great;
Honour and comely majesty thou hast upon him set.

6 Because that thou for evermore most blessed hast him made;
And thou hast with thy countenance made him exceeding glad.

7 Because the king upon the Lord his confidence doth lay;
And through the grace of the most High shall not be mov'd away.

8 Thine hand shall all those men find out that enemies are to thee:
Ev'n thy right hand shall find out those of thee that haters be.

9 Like fiery o'v'n thou shalt them make, when kindled is thine ire:
God shall them swallow in his wrath, devour them shall the fire. [stroy,

10 Their fruit from earth thou shalt de- their seed men from among:
11 For they beyond their might against thee did plot mischief and wrong. [back,

12 Thou therefore shalt make them turn when thou thy shafts shalt place Upon thy strings, made ready all to fly against their face.

13 In thy great pow'r and strength, O Lord, be thou exalted high;
So shall we sing with joyful hearts, thy power praise shall we.

PSALM 22.

MY God, my God, why hast thou me forsaken? why so far Art thou from helping me, and from my words that roaring are?

2 All day, my God, to thee I cry, yet am not heard by thee;
And in the season of the night I cannot silent be.

3 But thou art holy, thou that dost inhabit Israel's praise.

4 Our fathers hop'd in thee, they hop'd, and thou didst them release.

5 When unto thee they sent their cry, to them deliverance came:
Because they put their trust in thee, they were not put to shame.

6 But as for me, a worm I am, and as no man am priz'd:
Reproach of men I am, and by the people am despis'd.

7 All that me see laugh me to scorn;
shoot out the lip do they:
They nod and shake their heads at me, and, mocking, thus do say,

8 This man did trust in God, that he would free him by his might:
Let him deliver him, sith he had in him such delight.

9 But thou art he out of the womb that didst me safely take;
When I was on my mother's breasts thou me to hope didst make.

10 And I was cast upon thy care, ev'n from the womb till now;
And from my mother's belly, Lord, my God and guide art thou.

11 Be not far off, for grief is near, and none to help is found.

12 Bulls many compass me, strong bulls of Bashan me surround.

13 Their mouths they open'd wide on me, upon me gape did they,
Like to a lion ravening and roaring for his prey.

14 Like water I'm pour'd out, my bones all out of joint do part:
Amidst my howls, as the wax, so melted is my heart.

15 My strength is like a potsherd dried; my tongue it cleaveth fast Unto my jaws; and to the dust of death thou brought me hast.

16 For dogs have compass'd me about: the wicked, that did meet
In their assembly, me enclos'd; they pierc'd my hands and feet.

17 I all my bones may tell, and they do upon me look and stare.

18 Upon my vesture lots they cast, and clothes among them share.

19 But be not far, O Lord, my strength; haste to give help to me.

20 From sword my soul, from pow'r of dogs my darling set thou free.

21 Out of the roaring lion's mouth do thou me shield and save:
For from the horns of unicorns an ear to me thou gave.

22 I will show forth thy name unto those that my brethren are;
Amidst the congregation thy praise I will declare.

23 Praise ye the Lord, who do him fear; him glorify all ye
The seed of Jacob; fear him all that Israel's children be.

24 For he despis'd not nor abhorr'd th' afflicted's misery;
Nor from him hid his face, but heard when he to him did cry.

25 Within the congregation great my praise shall be of thee;
My vows before them that him fear shall be perform'd by me.

26 The meek shall eat, and shall be fill'd; they also praise shall give Unto the Lord that do him seek: your heart shall ever live.

27 All ends of th' earth remember shall, and turn the Lord unto;
All kindreds of the nations to him shall homage do:

28 Because the kingdom to the Lord doth appertain as his;
Likewise among the nations the Governor he is.

29 Earth's fat ones eat, and worship shall: all who to dust descend Shall bow to him; none of them can his soul from death defend.

30 A seed shall service do to him; unto the Lord it shall Be for a generation reckon'd in ages all.

31 They shall come, and they shall declare his truth and righteousness Unto a people yet unborn, and that he hath done this.

PSALM 23.

THE Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want.
2 He makes me down to lie In pastures green: he leadeth me the quiet waters by.

3 My soul he doth restore again; and me to walk doth make Within the paths of righteousness, ev'n for his own name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale, yet will I fear none ill:
For thou art with me; and thy rod and staff me comfort still.

5 My table thou hast furnished in presence of my foes;
My head thou dost with oil anoint, and my cup overflows.

6 Goodness and mercy all my life shall surely follow me:
And in God's house for evermore my dwelling-place shall be.

PSALM 24.

THE earth belongs unto the Lord, and all that it contains;
The world that is inhabited, and all that there remains.

2 For the foundations thereof he on the seas did lay,
And he hath it established upon the floods to stay.

3 Who is the man that shall ascend into the hill of God?
Or who within his holy place shall have a firm abode? [pure,

4 Whose hands are clean, whose heart is and unto vanity
Wh' hath not lifted up his soul, nor sworn deceitfully

5 He from th' Eternal shall receive the blessing him upon,
And righteousness, ev'n from the God of his salvation.

6 This is the generation that after him inquire,
O Jacob, who do seek thy face with their whole heart's desire

7 Ye gates, lift up your heads on high; ye doors that last for aye,
Be lifted up, that so the King of glory enter may.

8 But who of glory is the King? The mighty Lord is this;
Ev'n that same Lord, that great in might and strong in battle is.

9 Ye gates, lift up your heads; ye doo- doors that do last for aye,
Be lifted up, that so the King of glory enter may.

10 But who is he that is the King of glory? who is this?
The Lord of hosts, and none but he, the King of glory is.

PSALM 25.

TO thee I lift my soul:
2 O Lord, I trust in thee:
My God, let me not be asham'd, nor foes triumph o'er me.

3 Let none that wait on thee be put to shame at all;
But those that without cause transgress let shame upon them fall.

4 Show me thy ways, O Lord; thy paths, O teach thou me:
5 And do thou lead me in thy truth, therein my teacher be:
For thou art God that dost to me salvation send,
And I upon thee all the day expecting do attend.

6 Thy tender mercies, Lord, I pray thee to remember,
And loving-kindnesses; for they have been of old for ever.

7 My sins and faults of youth do thou, O Lord, forget:
After thy mercy think on me, and for thy goodness great.

8 God good and upright is: the way he'll sinners show.

9 The meek in judgment he will guide, and make his path to know.

10 The whole paths of the Lord are truth and mercy sure,
To those that do his cov'nant keep, and testimonies pure.

11 Now, for thine own name's sake, O Lord, I thee entreat
To pardon mine iniquity; for it is very great.

12 What man is he that fears the Lord, and doth him serve?
Him shall he teach the way that he shall choose, and still observe.

13 His soul shall dwell at ease; and his posterity Shall flourish still, and of the earth inheritors shall be.

14 With those that fear him is the secret of the Lord;
The knowledge of his covenant he will to them afford.

15 Mine eyes upon the Lord continually are set;
For he it is that shall bring forth my feet out of the net.

16 Turn unto me thy face, and to me mercy show;
Because that I am desolate, and am brought very low.

17 My heart's griefs are increas'd: me from distress relieve.

18 See mine affliction and my pain, and all my sins forgive.

19 Consider thou my foes, because they many are;
And it a cruel hatred is which they against me bear.

20 O do thou keep my soul, do thou deliver me:
And let me never be asham'd, because I trust in thee.

21 Let uprightness and truth keep me, who thee attend.

22 Redemption, Lord, to Israel from all his troubles send.

Another of the same.

TO thee I lift my soul, O Lord:
2 My God, I trust in thee:
Let me not be asham'd; let not my foes triumph o'er me.

3 Yea, let thou none ashamed be that do on thee attend:
Ashamed let them be, O Lord, who without cause offend. [paths,

4 Thy ways, Lord, show; teach me thy

5 Lead me in truth, teach me:
For of my safety thou art God; all day I wait on thee.

6 Thy mercies, that most tender are, do thou, O Lord, remember,
And loving-kindnesses; for they have been of old for ever.

- 7 Let not the errors of my youth,
nor sins, remember'd be:
In mercy, for thy goodness' sake,
O Lord, remember me.
- 8 The Lord is good and gracious,
he upright is also:
He therefore sinners will instruct in ways that they should go.
- 9 The meek and lowly he will guide
in judgment just alway:
To meek and poor afflicted ones he'll clearly teach his way.
- 10 The whole paths of the Lord our God are truth and mercy sure,
To such as keep his covenant,
and testimonies pure.
- 11 Now, for thine own name's sake, O Lord,
I humbly thee entreat
To pardon mine iniquity;
for it is very great.
- 12 What man fears God? him shall he teach the way that he shall choose.
- 13 His soul shall dwell at ease; his seed
the earth, as heirs, shall use.
- 14 The secret of the Lord is with such as do fear his name;
And he his holy covenant will manifest to them.
- 15 Towards the Lord my waiting eyes continually are set;
For he it is that shall bring forth my feet out of the net.
- 16 O turn thee unto me, O God, have mercy me upon;
Because I solitary am,
and in affliction.
- 17 Enlarg'd the griefs are of mine heart;
me from distress relieve.
- 18 See mine affliction and my pain,
and all my sins forgive.
- 19 Consider thou mine enemies,
because they many are;
And it a cruel hatred is which they against me hear.
- 20 O do thou keep my soul; O God,
do thou deliver me:
Let me not be ashamed; for I do put my trust in thee.
- 21 O let integrity and truth
keep me, who thee attend.
- 22 Redemption, Lord, to Israel from all his troubles send.

PSALM 26.

- JUDGE me, O Lord, for I have walk'd
in mine integrity:
I trusted also in the Lord;
slide therefore shall not I.
- 2 Examine me, and do me prove;
try heart and reins, O God:
- 3 For thy love is before mine eyes, thy truth's paths I have trod.
- 4 With persons vain I have not sat,
nor with dissemblers gone:
- 5 Th' assembly of ill men I hate;
to sit with such I shun.
- 6 Mine hands in innocence, O Lord,
I'll wash and purify;
So to thine holy altar go,
and compass it will I:
- 7 That I, with voice of thanksgiving,
may publish and declare,
And tell of all thy mighty works, that great and wondrous are.
- 8 The habitation of thy house,
Lord, I have loved well;
Yea, in that place I do delight where doth thine honour dwell.
- 9 With sinners gather not my soul, and such as blood would spill:
- 10 Whose hands mischievous plots, right corrupting bribes do fill. [hand]
- 11 But as for me, I will walk on
in mine integrity:
Do thou redeem me, and, O Lord,
be merciful to me.
- 12 My foot upon an even place doth stand with steadfastness:
Within the congregations
th' Eternal I will bless.

PSALM 27.

- THE Lord's my light and saving health who shall make me dismay'd?
My life's strength is the Lord, of whom then shall I be afraid?
- 2 When as mine enemies and foes,
most wicked persons all,
To eat my flesh against me rose,
they stumbled and did fall.
- 3 Against me though an host encamp, my heart yet fearless is:
Though war against me rise, I will be confident in this.
- 4 One thing I of the Lord desir'd, and will seek to obtain,
That all days of my life I may within God's house remain;
- 5 That I the beauty of the Lord behold may and admire,
And that I in his holy place may reverently inquire.

- 5 For he in his pavilion shall me hide in evil days;
In secret of his tent me hide,
and on a rock me raise.
- 6 And now, ev'n at this present time, mine head shall lifted be Above all those that are my foes, and round encompass me:
Therefore unto his tabernacle
I'll sacrifices bring
Of joyfulness; I'll sing, yea, I to God will praises sing.
- 7 O Lord, give ear unto my voice,
when I do cry to thee;
Upon me also mercy have,
and do thou answer me.
- 8 When thou didst say, Seek ye my face,
then unto thee reply
Thus did my heart, Above all things thy face, Lord, seek will I.
- 9 Far from me hide not thou thy face;
put not away from thee
Thy servant in thy wrath: thou hast an helper been to me.
O God of my salvation,
leave me not, nor forsake: [leave,
- 10 Though me my parents both should the Lord will me up take.
- 11 O Lord, instruct me in thy way, to me a leader be
In a plain path, because of those that hated hear to me.
- 12 Give me not to mine enemies will;
for witnesses that lie Against me risen are, and such as breathe out cruelty.
- 13 I fainted had, unless that I believed had to see
The Lord's own goodness in the land of them that living be.
- 14 Wait on the Lord, and he thou strong, and he shall strength afford
Unto thine heart; yea, do thou wait,
I say, upon the Lord.

PSALM 28.

- TO thee I'll cry, O Lord, my rock;
hold not thy peace to me;
Lest like those that to pit descend
I by thy silence be.
- 2 The voice hear of my humble pray'rs, when unto thee I cry;
When to thine holy oracle
I lift mine hands on high.
- 3 With ill men draw me not away that work iniquity; [in That speak peace to their friends, while their hearts doth mischief lie.
- 4 Give them according to their deeds and ills endeavour'd:
And as their handy-works deserve,
to them be rendered.
- 5 God shall not build, but them destroy,
who would not understand
The Lord's own works, nor did regard the doing of his hand.
- 6 For ever blessed be the Lord, for graciously he heard
The voice of my petitions, and prayers did regard. [heart]
- 7 The Lord's my strength and shield; my upon him did rely;
And I am helped; hence my heart
doth joy exceedingly,
And with my song I will him praise.
- 8 Their strength is God alone:
He also is the saving strength of his anointed one.
- 9 O thine own people do thou save,
bless thine inheritance:
Them also do thou feed, and them for evermore advance.

PSALM 29.

- GIVE ye unto the Lord, ye sons that of the mighty be,
All strength and glory to the Lord with cheerfulness give ye.
- 2 Unto the Lord the glory give that to his name is due:
And in the beauty of holiness unto JEHOVAH hew.
- 3 The Lord's voice on the waters is;
the God of majesty
Doth thunder, and on multitudes of waters sitteth he.
- 4 A pow'ful voice it is that comes out from the Lord most high:
The voice of that great Lord is full of glorious majesty.
- 5 The voice of the Eternal doth asunder cedars tear:
Yea, God the Lord doth cedars break that Lebanon doth bear.
- 6 He makes them like a calf to skip,
ev'n that great Lebanon,
And, like to a young unicorn,
the mountain Sirion.
- 7 God's voice divides the flames of fire;
8 The desert it doth shake:
The Lord doth make the wilderness of Kadesh all to quake.

- 9 God's voice doth make the hinds to calve,
it makes the forest hare;
And in his temple ev'ry one his glory doth declare.
- 10 The Lord sits on the floods; the Lord sits King, and ever shall.
- 11 The Lord will give his people strength, and with peace bless them all.

PSALM 30.

- LORD, I will thee extol, for thou hast lifted me on high,
And over me thou to rejoice
mad'st not mine enemy.
- 2 O thou who art the Lord my God,
I in distress to thee,
With loud cries lifted up my voice,
and thou hast healed me.
- 3 O Lord, my soul thou hast brought up,
and rescu'd from the grave;
That I to pit should not go down, alive thou didst me save.
- 4 O ye that are his holy ones,
sing praise unto the Lord;
And give unto him thanks, when ye his holiness record.
- 5 For but a moment lasts his wrath;
life in his favour lies:
Weeping may for a night endure,
at morn doth joy arise.
- 6 In my prosperity I said, that nothing shall me move.
- 7 O Lord, thou hast my mountain made to stand strong by thy love:
But when that thou, O gracious God, didst hide thy face from me,
Then quickly was my prosp'rous state turn'd into misery.
- 8 Wherefore unto the Lord my cry
I caused to ascend:
My humble supplication
I to the Lord did send.
- 9 What profit is there in my mood,
when I go down to pit?
Shall unto thee the dust give praise?
thy truth declare shall it?
- 10 Hear, Lord, have mercy; help me, Lord:
- 11 Thou turned hast my sadness
To dancing; yea, my sackcloth loos'd, and girded me with gladness;
- 12 That sing thy praise my glory may,
and never silent be.
O Lord my God, for evermore
I will give thanks to thee.

PSALM 31.

- IN thee, O Lord, I put my trust, sham'd let me never be;
According to thy righteousness
do thou deliver me.
- 2 Bow down thine ear to me, with speed
send me deliverance:
To save me, my strong rock be thou and my house of defence.
- 3 Because thou art my rock, and thee
I for my fortress take;
Therefore do thou me lead and guide, ev'n for thine own name's sake. [fore]
- 4 And sith thou art my strength, there-pull me out of the net.
Which they in subtilty for me so privily have set.
- 5 Into thine hands I do commit my spirit; for thou art he,
O thou, JEHOVAH, God of truth, that hast redeem'd me.
- 6 Those that do lying vanities regard, I have abhorr'd:
But as for me, my confidence is fixed on the Lord.
- 7 I'll in thy mercy gladly joy:
for thou my miseries
Consider'd hast; thou hast my soul known in adversities:
- 8 And thou hast not inclosed me
within the en'my's hand;
And by thee have my feet been made in a large room to stand.
- 9 O Lord, upon me mercy have,
for trouble is on me:
Mine eye, my belly, and my soul,
with grief consumed be.
- 10 Because my life with grief is spent,
my years with sighs and groans:
My strength doth fail; and for my sin consumed are my bones.
- 11 I was a scorn to all my foes,
and to my friends a fear;
And specially reproach'd of those that were my neighbours near:
When they me saw they from me fled.
- 12 Ev'n so I am forgot,
As men are out of mind when dead:
I'm like a broken pot.
- 13 For slanders I of many heard;
fear compass'd me, while they Against me did consult, and plot to take my life away.
- 14 But as for me, O Lord, my trust upon thee I did lay;
And I to thee, Thou art my God,
did confidently say.

- 15 My times are wholly in thine hand:
do thou deliver me
From their hands that mine enemies and persecutors be.
- 16 Thy countenance to shine do thou upon thy servant make:
Unto me give salvation,
for thy great mercies' sake.
- 17 Let me not be ashamed, O Lord, for on thee call'd I have:
Let wicked men be sham'd, let the be silent in the grave.
- 18 To silence put the lying lips, that grievous things do say,
And hard reports, in pride and scorn,
on righteous men do lay.
- 19 How great's the goodness thou for them that fear thee keep'st in store, [thee
And wrought'st for them that trust in the sons of men before!
- 20 In secret of thy presence thou shalt hide them from man's pride;
From strife of tongues thou closely shalt,
as in a tent, them hide.
- 21 All praise and thanks be to the Lord;
for he hath magnify'd
His wondrous love to me within a city fortify'd.
- 22 For from thine eyes cut off I am,
I in my haste had said;
My voice yet heard'st thou, when to the with cries my moan I made.
- 23 O love the Lord, all ye his saints;
because the Lord doth guard
The faithful, and he plenteously proud doers doth reward.
- 24 Be of good courage, and he strength unto your heart shall send,
All ye whose hope and confidence doth on the Lord depend.

PSALM 32.

- BLESSED is the man to whom is freely pardon'd
All the transgression he had done, whose sin is cover'd.
- 2 Bless'd is the man to whom the Lord
imputeth not his sin,
And in whose spirit there is no guile, nor fraud is found therein.
- 3 When as I did refrain my speech, and silent was my tongue,
My bones then waxed old, because I roared all day long.
- 4 For upon me both day and night
thine hand did heavy lie,
So that my moisture turned is in summer's drought thereby.
- 5 I thereupon have unto thee
my sin acknowledged,
And likewise mine iniquity
I have not cover'd:
I will confess unto the Lord
my trespasses, said I;
And of my sin thou freely didst forgive th' iniquity.
- 6 For this shall ev'ry godly one his prayer make to thee;
In such a time he shall thee seek,
as found thou mayest be.
Surely, when floods of waters great do swell up to the brim,
They shall not overwhelm his soul,
nor once come near to him.
- 7 Thou art my hiding-place, thou shalt from trouble keep me free:
Thou with songs of deliverance about shalt compass me.
- 8 I will instruct thee, and thee teach the way that thou shalt go;
And, with mine eye upon thee set,
I will direction show.
- 9 Then he not like the horse or mule, which do not understand; [thee, Whose mouth, lest they come near to a bridle must command.
- 10 Unto the man that wicked is his sorrows shall abound;
But him that trusteth in the Lord mercy shall compass round.
- 11 Ye righteous, in the Lord he glad,
in him do ye rejoice:
All ye that upright are in heart,
for joy lift up your voice.

PSALM 33.

- YE righteous, in the Lord rejoice;
it comely is and right,
That upright men, with thankful voice should praise the Lord of might.
- 2 Praise God with harp, and unto him
sing with the psaltery;
Upon a ten-string'd instrument make ye sweet melody.
- 3 A new song to him sing, and play, with loud noise skilfully;
- 4 For right is God's word, all his works are done in verity.
- 5 To judgment and to righteousness a love he heareth still;
The loving-kindness of the Lord
the earth throughout doth fill.

The heavens by the word of God did their beginning take; And by the breathing of his mouth, he all their hosts did make.

7 The waters of the seas he brings together as an heap; And in store-houses, as it were, he layeth up the deep.

8 Let earth, and all that live therein, with reverence fear the Lord; Let all the world's inhabitants dread him with one accord. For he did speak the word, and done it was without delay; Established it firmly stood, whatever he did say.

9 God doth the counsel bring to nought which heathen folk do take; And what the people do devise of none effect doth make.

10 O but the counsel of the Lord doth stand for ever sure; And of his heart the purposes from age to age endure.

11 That nation blessed is, whose God JEHOVAH is, and those a blessed people are, whom for his heritage he chose.

12 The Lord from heav'n sees and beholds all sons of men full well:

13 He views all from his dwelling-place that in the earth do dwell.

14 He forms their hearts alike, and all their doings he observes. [strength]

15 Great hosts save not a king, much no mighty man preserves.

16 An horse for preservation is a deceitful thing; And by the greatness of his strength can no deliverance bring.

17 Behold, on those that do him fear the Lord doth set his eye; Ev'n those who on his mercy do with confidence rely.

18 From death to free their soul, in dearth life unto them to yield.

19 Our soul doth wait upon the Lord; he is our help and shield.

20 Sith in his holy name we trust, our heart shall joyful be.

21 Lord, let thy mercy be on us, as we do hope in thee.

PSALM 34.

GOD will I bless all times; his praise my mouth shall still express.

2 My soul shall boast in God: the meek shall hear with joyfulness.

3 Extol the Lord with me, let us exalt his name together.

4 I sought the Lord, he heard, and did me from all fears deliver.

5 They look'd to him, and lighten'd were: not shamed were their faces. [sav'd]

6 This poor man cried, God heard, and him from all his distresses.

7 The angel of the Lord encamps, and round encompasseth All those about that do him fear and them delivereth.

8 O taste and see that God is good: who trusts in him is bless'd.

9 Fear God his saints: none that him fear shall be with want oppress'd.

10 The lions young may hungry be, and they may lack their food: But they that truly seek the Lord shall not lack any good.

11 O children, hither do ye come, and unto me give ear; I shall you teach to understand how ye the Lord should fear.

12 What man is he that life desires, to see good would live long?

13 Thy lips refrain from speaking guile, and from ill words thy tongue.

14 Depart from ill, do good, seek peace, pursue it earnestly.

15 God's eyes are on the just; his ears are open to their cry.

16 The face of God is set against those that do wickedly, That he may quite out from the earth cut off their memory.

17 The righteous cry unto the Lord, he unto them gives ear; And they out of their troubles all by him deliver'd are.

18 The Lord is ever nigh to them that be of broken spirit; To them he safety doth afford that are in heart contrite.

19 The troubles that afflict the just in number many be; But yet at length out of them all the Lord doth set him free.

20 He carefully his bones doth keep, whatever can befall; That not so much as one of them can broken be at all.

21 Ill shall the wicked slay; laid waste shall be who hate the just.

22 The Lord redeems his servants' souls; none perish that him trust.

PSALM 35.

PLEAD, Lord, with those that plead; and with those that fight with me. [fight]

2 Of shield and buckler take thou hold, stand up mine help to be.

3 Draw also out the spear, and do against them stop the way That me pursue: unto my soul, I'm thy salvation, say.

4 Let them confounded be and sham'd that for my soul have sought: Who plot my hurt turn'd back be they, and to confusion brought.

5 Let them be like unto the chaff that flies before the wind; And let the angel of the Lord pursue them hard behind.

6 With darkness cover thou their way, and let it slippery prove; And let the angel of the Lord pursue them from above.

7 For without cause have they for me their net hid in a pit, They also have without a cause for my soul digged it.

8 Let ruin seize him unawares; his net he hid withal Himself let catch; and in the same destruction let him fall.

9 My soul in God shall joy; and glad in his salvation be:

10 And all my bones shall say, O Lord, who is like unto thee, Which dost the poor set free from him that is for him too strong; The poor and needy from the man that spoils and does him wrong?

11 False witnesses rose; to my charge things I not knew they laid.

12 They, to the spoiling of my soul, me ill for good repaid.

13 But as for me, when they were sick, in sackcloth sad I mourn'd: My humbled soul did fast, my pray'r unto my bosom turn'd.

14 Myself I did behave as he had been my friend or brother; I heavily bow'd down, as one that mourneth for his mother.

15 But in my trouble they rejoic'd, gath'ring themselves together; Yea, objects vile together did themselves against me gather: I knew it not; they did me tear, and quiet would not be.

16 With mocking hypocrites, at feasts they gnash'd their teeth at me.

17 How long, Lord, look'st thou on? from destructions they intend [those] Rescue my soul, from lions young my darling do defend.

18 I will give thanks to thee, O Lord, within th' assembly great; And where much people gather'd are thy praises forth will set.

19 Let not my wrongful enemies proudly rejoice o'er me; Nor who me hate without a cause, let them wink with the eye.

20 For peace they do not speak at all; but crafty plots prepare Against all those within the land that meek and quiet are.

21 With mouths set wide, they 'gainst me Ha, ha! our eye doth see. [said]

22 Lord, thou hast seen, hold not thy peace; Lord, be not far from me.

23 Stir up thyself; wake, that thou may'st judgment to me afford, Ev'n to my cause, O thou that art my only God and Lord.

24 O Lord my God, do thou me judge after thy righteousness; And let them not their joy 'gainst me triumphantly express:

25 Nor let them say within their hearts, Ah, we would have it thus; Nor suffer them to say, that he is swallow'd up by us.

26 Sham'd and confounded be they all that at my hurt are glad; Let those against me that do boast with shame and scorn be clad.

27 Let them that love my righteous cause be glad, shout, and not cease To say, The Lord be magnify'd, who loves his servant's peace.

28 Thy righteousness shall also be declared by my tongue; The praises that belong to thee speak shall it all day long.

PSALM 36.

THE wicked man's transgression within my heart thus say, Undoubtedly the fear of God is not before his eyes.

2 Because himself he flattereth in his own blinded eye,

Until the hatefulness be found of his iniquity.

3 Words from his mouth proceeding are, fraud and iniquity: He to be wise, and to do good, hath left off utterly.

4 He mischief, lying on his bed, most cunningly doth plot: He sets himself in ways not good, ill he abhorreth not.

5 Thy mercy, Lord, is in the heav'ns; thy truth doth reach the clouds; thy justice is like mountains great; thy judgments deep as floods: Lord, thou preservest man and beast.

7 How precious is thy grace! Therefore in shadow of thy wings men's sons their trust shall place.

8 They with the fatness of thy house shall be well satisfy'd; From rivers of thy pleasures thou wilt drink to them provide.

9 Because of life the fountain pure remains alone with thee; And in that purest light of thine we clearly light shall see.

10 Thy loving-kindness unto them continue that thee know; And still on men upright in heart thy righteousness bestow.

11 Let not the foot of cruel pride come, and against me stand; And let me not removed be, Lord, by the wicked's hand.

12 There fallen are they, and ruin'd, that work iniquities: Cast down they are, and never shall be able to arise.

PSALM 37.

FOR evil doers fret thou not thyself unquietly; Nor do thou envy bear to those that work iniquity.

2 For, even like unto the grass, soon be cut down shall they; And, like the green and tender herb, they wither shall away.

3 Set thou thy trust upon the Lord, and be thou doing good; And so thou in the land shalt dwell, and verily have food.

4 Delight thyself in God; he'll give thine heart's desire to thee.

5 Thy way to God commit, him trust, it bring to pass shall be.

6 And, like unto the light, he shall thy righteousness display; And he thy judgment shall bring forth like noon-tide of the day.

7 Rest in the Lord, and patiently wait for him: do not fret For him who, prospering in his way, success in sin doth get.

8 Do thou from anger cease, and wrath see thou forsake also: Fret not thyself in any wise, that evil thou should'st do.

9 For those that evil doers are shall be cut off and fall: But those that wait upon the Lord the earth inherit shall.

10 For yet a little while, and then the wicked shall not be; His place thou shalt consider well, but it thou shalt not see.

11 But by inheritance the earth the meek ones shall possess: They also shall delight themselves in an abundant peace.

12 The wicked plots against the just, and at him whets his teeth: The Lord shall laugh at him, because his day he coming seeth.

14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and bent their bow, to slay The poor and needy, and to kill men of an upright way.

15 But their own sword, which they have shall enter their own heart: [drawn] Their bows which they have bent shall and into pieces part. [break]

16 A little that a just man hath is more and better far Than is the wealth of many such as lewd and wicked are.

17 For sinners' arms shall broken be; but God the just sustains.

18 God knows the just man's days, and still their heritage remains.

19 They shall not be ashamed when they the evil time do see; And when the days of famine are they satisfy'd shall be.

20 But wicked men, and foes of God, as fat of lambs, decay; They shall consume, yea, into smoke they shall consume away.

21 The wicked horrors, but the same again he doth not pay; Whereas the righteous mercy shows, and gives his own away.

22 For such as blessed be of him the earth inherit shall; And they that cursed are of him shall be destroyed all.

23 A good man's footsteps by the Lord are ordered aright; And in the way wherein he walks he greatly doth delight.

24 Although he fall, yet shall he not be cast down utterly; Because the Lord with his own hand upholds him mightily.

25 I have been young, and now am old, yet have I never seen The just man left, nor that his seed for bread have beggars been.

26 He's ever merciful, and lends: his seed is bless'd therefore.

27 Depart from evil, and do good, and dwell for evermore.

28 For God loves judgment, and his saints leaves not in any case; They are kept ever: but cut off shall be the sinner's race.

29 The just inherit shall the land, and ever in it dwell. [speak]

30 The just man's mouth doth wisdom his tongue doth judgment tell.

31 In 's heart the law is of his God, his steps slide not away.

32 The wicked man doth watch the just, and seeketh him to slay.

33 Yet him the Lord will not forsake, nor leave him in his hands: The righteous will he not condemn, when he in judgment stands.

34 Wait on the Lord, and keep his way, and thee exalt shall he Th' earth to inherit; when cut off the wicked thou shalt see.

35 I saw the wicked great in pow'r, spread like a green bay-tree:

36 He pass'd, yea, was not; him I sought but found he could not be.

37 Mark thou the perfect, and behold the man of uprightness; Because that surely of this man the latter end is peace.

38 But those men that transgressors are shall be destroy'd together; The latter end of wicked men shall be cut off for ever.

39 But the salvation of the just is from the Lord above; He in the time of their distress their stay and strength doth prove.

40 The Lord shall help, and them deliver: he shall them free and save From wicked men; because in him their confidence they have.

PSALM 38.

IN thy great indignation, O Lord, rebuke me not; Nor on me lay thy chast'ning hand, in thy displeasure hot.

2 For in me fast thine arrows stick, thine hand doth press me sore:

3 And in my flesh there is no health nor soundness any more.

This grief I have, because thy wrath is forth against me gone; And in my bones there is no rest, for sin that I have done.

4 Because gone up above mine head my great transgressions be; And, as a weighty burden, they too heavy are for me.

5 My wounds do stink, and are cover'd, my folly makes it so.

6 I troubled am, and much low'd down; all day I mourning go.

7 For a disease that loathsome is so fills my loins with pain, That in my weak and weary flesh no soundness doth remain.

8 So feeble and infirm am I, and broken am so sore, That, through disquiet of my heart, I have been made to roar.

9 O Lord, all that I do desire is still before thine eye; And of my heart the secret groans not hiddeu are from thee.

10 My heart doth pant incessantly, my strength doth quite decay; As for mine eyes, their wonted light is from me gone away.

11 My lovers and my friends do stand at distance from my sore; And those do stand aloof that were kinsmen and kind before.

12 Yea, they that seek my life lay snares who seek to do me wrong Speak things mischievous, and deceive imagine all day long.

13 But, as one deaf, that heareth not, I suffer'd all to pass; I as a dumb man did become whose mouth not open'd was 14 As one that hears not, in whose mouth are no reproofs at all.

- 15 For, Lord, I hope in thee; my God, thou'lt hear me when I call.
- 16 For I said, Hear me, lest they should rejoice o'er me with pride;
And o'er me magnify themselves,
when as my foot doth slide.
- 17 For I am near to halt, my grief is still before mine eye:
- 18 For I'll declare my sin, and grieve for mine iniquity.
- 19 But yet mine enemies lively are,
and strong are they beside;
And they that hate me wrongfully are greatly multiply'd.
- 20 And they for good that render ill,
as enemies me withstood;
Yea, ev'n for this, because that I do follow what is good.
- 21 Forsake me not, O Lord; my God, far from me never be.
- 22 O Lord, thou my salvation art, haste to give help to me.

PSALM 39.

- I SAID, I will look to my ways,
lest with my tongue I sin:
In sight of wicked men my mouth with bridle I'll keep in.
- 2 With silence I as dumb became,
I did myself restrain
From speaking good; but then the more increased was my pain.
- 3 My heart within me waxed hot;
and, while I musing was,
The fire did burn; and from my tongue
these words I did let pass:
- 4 Mine end, and measure of my days,
O Lord, unto me show
What is the same; that I thereby my frailty well may know.
- 5 Lo, thou my days an handbreadth mine age is in thine eye [mad'st;
As nothing: sure each man at best is wholly vanity.
- 6 Sure each man walks in a vain show;
they vex themselves in vain:
He heaps up wealth, and doth not know to whom it shall pertain.
- 7 And now, O Lord, what wait I for?
my hope is fix'd on thee.
- 8 Free me from all my trespasses, the fool's scorn make not me.
- 9 Dumb was I, op'ning not my mouth, because this work was thine.
- 10 Thy stroke take from me; by the blow of thine hand I do pine.
- 11 When with rebukes thou dost correct man for iniquity,
Thou wastes his beauty like a moth:
sure each man's vanity.
- 12 Attend my cry, Lord, at my tears and pray'rs not silent be:
I sojourn as my fathers all,
and stranger am with thee.
- 13 O spare thou me, that I my strength recover may again,
Before from hence I do depart, and here no more remain.

PSALM 40.

- I WAITED for the Lord my God,
and patiently did bear;
At length to me he did incline my voice and cry to hear.
- 2 He took me from a fearful pit,
and from the miry clay,
And on a rock he set my feet,
establishing my way.
- 3 He put a new song in my mouth,
our God to magnify:
Many shall see it, and shall fear,
and on the Lord rely.
- 4 O blessed is the man whose trust
upon the Lord relies;
Respecting not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.
- 5 O Lord my God, full many are the wonders thou hast done;
Thy gracious thoughts to us-ward far above all thoughts are gone:
In order none can reckon them to thee: if then declare,
And speak of them I would, they more than can be number'd are.
- 6 No sacrifice nor offering didst thou at all desire;
Mine ears thou bor'd: sin-off'ring thou and burnt didst not require:
- 7 Then to the Lord these were my words,
I come, behold and see;
Within the volume of the book
it written is of me:
- 8 To do thy will I take delight,
O thou my God that art;
Yea, that most holy law of thine
I have within my heart.
- 9 Within the congregation great
I righteousness did preach:
Lo, thou dost know, O Lord, that I refrain'd not my speech.
- 10 I never did within my heart conceal thy righteousness;

- I thy salvation have declar'd, and shown thy faithfulness:
Thy kindness, which most loving is,
concealed have not I,
Nor from the congregation great have hid thy verity.
- 11 Thy tender mercies, Lord, from me
O do thou not restrain;
Thy loving-kindness, and thy truth,
let them me still maintain.
- 12 For ill's past reckon'g compass me,
and mine iniquities
Such hold upon me taken have,
I cannot lift mine eyes:
They more than hairs are on mine head, thence is my heart dismay'd.
- 13 Be pleased, Lord, to rescue me;
Lord, hasten to mine aid.
- 14 Sham'd and confounded be they all that seek my soul to kill;
Yea, let them backward driven be,
and sham'd, that wish me ill.
- 15 For a reward of this their shame
confounded let them be,
That in this manner scoffing say,
Aha, aha! to me.
- 16 In thee let all be glad, and joy,
who seeking thee abide;
Who thy salvation love, say still,
The Lord be magnify'd.
- 17 I'm poor and needy, yet the Lord of me a care doth take:
Thou art my help and saviour,
my God, no tarrying make.

PSALM 41.

- BLESSED is he that wisely doth the poor man's case consider;
For when the time of trouble is,
the Lord will him deliver.
- 2 God will him keep, yea, save alive;
on earth he bless'd shall live;
And to his enemies' desire thou wilt him not up give.
- 3 God will give strength when he on bed of languishing doth mourn;
And in his sickness sore, O Lord, thou all his bed wilt turn.
- 4 I said, O Lord, do thou extend thy mercy unto me;
O do thou heal my soul; for why?
I have offended thee.
- 5 Those that to me are enemies,
of me do evil say,
When shall he die, that so his name may perish quite away?
- 6 To see me if he comes, he speaks vain words: but then his heart Heaps mischief to it, which he tells when forth he doth depart.
- 7 My haters jointly whispering, 'gainst me my hurt devise.
- 8 Mischief, say they, cleaves fast to him;
he li'eth, and shall not rise.
- 9 Yea, ev'n mine own familiar friend,
on whom I did rely,
Who ate my bread, ev'n he his heel against me lifted high.
- 10 But, Lord, be merciful to me, and up again me raise,
That I may justly them requite
according to their ways.
- 11 By this I know that certainly
I favour'd am by thee;
Because my hateful enemy
triumphs not over me.
- 12 But as for me, thou me uphold'st
in mine integrity;
And me before thy countenance
thou sett'st continually.
- 13 The Lord, the God of Israel, be bless'd for ever then,
From age to age eternally.
Amen, yea, and amen.

PSALM 42.

- LIKE as the hart for water-brooks in thirst doth pant and bray;
So pants my longing soul, O God,
that come to thee I may.
- 2 My soul for God, the living God, doth thirst: when shall I near Unto thy countenance approach, and in God's sight appear?
- 3 My tears have unto me been meat,
both in the night and day,
While unto me continually,
Where is thy God? they say.
- 4 My soul is poured out in me,
when this I think upon;
Because that with the multitude
I heretofore had gone:
With them into God's house I went with voice of joy and praise;
Yea, with the multitude that kept the solemn holy days.
- 5 O why art thou cast down, my soul?
why in me so dismay'd?
Trust God, for I shall praise him yet, his countenance is mine aid.
- 6 My God, my soul's cast down in me;
thee therefore mind I will

- From Jordan's land, the Hermonites, and ev'n from Mizar hill.
- 7 At the noise of thy water-spouts deep unto deep doth call;
Thy breaking waves pass over me,
yea, and thy billows all.
- 8 His loving-kindness yet the Lord command will in the day,
His song's with me by night; to God,
by whom I live, I'll pray:
- 9 And I will say to God my rock,
Why me forgett'st thou so?
Why, for my foes' oppression,
thus mourning do I go?
- 10 'Tis as a sword within my bones,
when my foes me upbraid;
Ev'n when by them, Where is thy God?
'tis daily to me said.
- 11 O why art thou cast down, my soul?
why, thus with grief oppress,
Art thou disquieted in me?
in God still hope and rest:
For yet I know I shall him praise, who graciously to me
The health is of my countenance, yea, mine own God is he.

PSALM 43.

- JUDGE me, O God, and plead my cause against th' ungodly nation;
From the unjust and crafty man,
O be thou my salvation.
- 2 For thou the God art of my strength;
why thrusts thou me thee fro?
For th' enemy's oppression
why do I mourning go?
- 3 O send thy light forth and thy truth;
let them be guides to me,
And bring me to thine holy hill, ev'n where thy dwellings be.
- 4 Then will I to God's altar go, to God my chiefest joy:
Yea, God, my God, thy name to praise
my harp I will employ.
- 5 Why art thou then cast down, my soul?
what should discourage thee?
And why with vexing thoughts art thou disquieted in me?
Still trust in God: for him to praise good cause I yet shall have:
He of my countenance is the health,
my God that doth me save.

PSALM 44.

- O GOD, we with our ears have heard,
our fathers have us told, [done,
What works thou in their days badst ev'n in the days of old.
- 2 Thy hand did drive the heathen out, and plant them in their place;
Thou didst afflict the nations, but them thou didst increase.
- 3 For neither got their sword the land, nor did their arm them save;
But thy right hand, arm, countenance;
for thou them favour gave.
- 4 Thou art my King: for Jacob, Lord, deliv'rance command. [foes,
5 Through thee we shall push down our that do against us stand:
We, through thy name, shall tread down that ris'n against us have. [those
- 6 For in my bow I shall not trust, nor shall my sword me save.
- 7 But from our foes thou hast us sav'd,
our haters put to shame.
- 8 In God we all the day do boast, and ever praise thy name.
- 9 But now we are cast off by thee,
and us thou putt'st to shame;
And when our armies do go forth,
they go'st not with the same.
- 10 Thou mak'st us from the enemy,
faint-hearted, to turn back;
And they who hate us for themselves our spoils away do take.
- 11 Like sheep for meat thou gavest us;
'mong heathen cast we be.
- 12 Thou didst for nought thy people sell;
their price enrich'd not thee.
- 13 Thou mak'st us a reproach to be unto our neighbours near;
Derision and a scorn to them that round about us are.
- 14 A by-word also thou dost us
among the heathen make;
The people, in contempt and spite,
at us their heads do shake.
- 15 Before me my confusion continually abides;
And of my shameful countenance
the shame me ever hides:
- 16 For voice of him that doth reproach,
and speaketh blasphemy;
By reason of th' avenging foe,
and cruel enemy.
- 17 All this come on us, yet we have not forgotten thee;
Nor falsely in thy covenant behav'd ourselves have we.
- 18 Back from thy way our heart not turn'd;
our steps no straying made;

- 19 'Though us thou brak'st in dragons' place and cover'dst with death's shade.
- 20 If we God's name forgot, or stretch'd to a strange god our hands,
- 21 Shall not God search this out? for he heart's secrets understands.
- 22 Yea, for thy sake we're kill'd all day, counted as slaughter-sheep.
- 23 Rise, Lord, cast us not ever off;
awake, why dost thou sleep?
- 24 O wherefore hidest thou thy face?
forgett'st our cause distress'd,
- 25 And our oppression? For our soul is to the dust down press'd:
Our belly also on the earth fast cleaving, hold doth take.
- 26 Rise for our help, and us redeem, ev'n for thy mercies' sake.

PSALM 45.

- MY heart brings forth a goodly thing;
my words that I indite Concern the King: my tongue's a pen of one that swift doth write.
- 2 Thou fairer art than sons of men:
into thy lips is store
Of grace infus'd; God therefore thee hath bless'd for evermore.
- 3 O thou that art the mighty One,
thy sword gird on thy thigh;
Ev'n with thy glory excellent,
and with thy majesty.
- 4 For meekness, truth, and righteousness,
in state ride prosperously;
And thy right hand shall thee instruct in things that fearful be.
- 5 Thine arrows sharply pierce the heart of th' enemies of the King;
And under thy subjection
the people down do bring.
- 6 For ever and for ever is,
O God, thy throne of might;
The sceptre of thy kingdom is a sceptre that is right.
- 7 Thou lovest right, and hatest ill;
for God, thy God, most high,
Above thy fellows hath with th' oil
of joy anointed thee.
- 8 Of aloes, myrrh, and cassia,
a smell thy garments had,
Out of the ivory palaces, whereby they made thee glad.
- 9 Among thy women honourable king's daughters were at hand:
Upon thy right hand did the queen in gold of Ophir stand.
- 10 O daughter, hearken and regard,
and do thine ear incline;
Likewise forget thy father's house,
and people that are thine.
- 11 Thea of the King desir'd shall be thy beauty veh'mently:
Because he is thy Lord, do thou him worship reverently.
- 12 The daughter there of Tyre shall be with gifts and offerings great:
Those of the people that are rich thy favour shall entreat.
- 13 Behold, the daughter of the King
all glorious is within;
And with embroideries of gold
her garments wrought have been.
- 14 She shall be brought unto the King
in robes with needle wrought;
Her fellow-virgins following shall unto thee be brought.
- 15 They shall be brought with gladness and mirth on every side, [great,
Into the palace of the King,
and there they shall abide.
- 16 Instead of those thy fathers dear,
thy children thou may'st take,
And in all places of the earth
them noble princes make.
- 17 Thy name remember'd I will make through ages all to be:
The people therefore evermore shall praises give to thee.
- Another of the same.*
- MY heart inditing is good matter in a song:
I speak the things that I have mad which to the King belong:
My tongue shall be as quick,
his honour to indite,
As is the pen of any scribe that useth fast to write.
- 2 Thou'rt fairest of all men;
grace in thy lips doth flow
And therefore blessings evermore on thee doth God bestow.
- 3 Thy sword gird on thy thigh,
thou that art most of might:
Appear in dreadful majesty,
and in thy glory bright.
- 4 For meekness, truth, and right, ride prosperously in state;
And thy right hand shall teach to th things terrible and great.
- 5 Thy shafts shall pierce their hearts that foes are to the King;
Whereby into subjection
the people thou shalt bring.

1 Thy royal seat, O Lord,
for ever shall remain:
The sceptre of thy kingdom doth all righteousness maintain.
2 Thou lov'st right, and hat'st ill;
for God, thy God, most high,
Above thy fellows hath with th' oil
of joy anointed thee,
3 Of myrrh and spices sweet
a smell thy garments had,
Out of the iv'ry palaces,
whereby they made thee glad.
4 And in thy glorious train kings' daughters waiting stand;
And thy fair queen, in Ophir gold, doth stand at thy right hand.
5 O daughter, take good heed, incline, and give good ear;
Thou must forget thy kindred all,
and father's house most dear.
6 Thy beauty to the King shall then delightful be:
And do thou humbly worship him, because thy Lord is he.
7 The daughter then of Tyre
there with a gift shall be,
And all the wealthy of the land shall make their suit to thee.
8 The daughter of the King
all glorious is within;
And with embroideries of gold
her garments wrought have been.
9 She cometh to the King
in robes with needle wrought;
The virgins that do follow her shall unto thee be brought.
10 They shall be brought with joy,
and mirth on ev'ry side,
Into the palace of the King,
and there they shall abide.
11 And in thy fathers' stead,
thy children thou may'st take,
And in all places of the earth
them noble princes make.
12 I will show forth thy name
to generations all:
Therefore the people evermore to thee give praises shall.

PSALM 46.

1 GOD is our refuge and our strength, in straits a present aid;
2 Therefore, although the earth remove,
we will not be afraid:
3 Though hills amidst the seas be east;
4 Though waters roaring make,
And troubled be; yea, though the hills
by swelling seas do shake.
5 A river is, whose streams do glad the city of our God;
The holy place, wherein the Lord
most high hath his abode.
6 God in the midst of her doth dwell;
nothing shall her remove:
The Lord to her an helper will,
and that right early, prove.
7 The heathen rag'd tumultuously, the kingdoms moved were:
The Lord God uttered his voice,
the earth did melt for fear.
8 The Lord of hosts upon our side doth constantly remain:
The God of Jacob's our refuge, us safely to maintain.
9 Come, and behold what wondrous works have by the Lord been wrought;
Come, see what desolations
he on the earth hath brought.
10 Unto the ends of all the earth wars into peace he turns:
The bow he breaks, the spear he cuts,
in fire the chariot burns.
11 Be still, and know that I am God; among the heathen I will be exalted; I on earth will be exalted high.
12 Our God, who is the Lord of hosts, is still upon our side;
The God of Jacob our refuge for ever will abide.

PSALM 47.

1 ALL people, clap your hands; to God with voice of triumph shout:
2 For dreadful is the Lord most high, great King the earth throughout.
3 The heathen people under us
he surely shall subdue;
And he shall make the nations
under our feet to bow.
4 The lot of our inheritance choose out for us shall he,
Of Jacob, whom he loved well,
ev'n the excellency.
5 God is with shouts gone up, the Lord with trumpets sounding high. [praise, 6 Sing praise to God, sing praise, sing praise to our King sing ye.
7 For God is King of all the earth;
with knowledge praise express.
8 God rules the nations: God sits on his throne of holiness.

G

9 The princes of the people are assembled willingly;
Ev'n of the God of Abraham
they who the people be.
For why? the shields that do defend the earth are only his:
They to the Lord belong; yea, he exalted greatly is.

PSALM 48.

1 GREAT is the Lord, and greatly he is to be praised still,
Within the city of our God,
upon his holy hill.
2 Mount Zion stands most beautiful,
the joy of all the land;
The city of the mighty King on her north side doth stand.
3 The Lord within her palaces is for a refuge known.
4 For, lo, the kings that gather'd were together, by have gone.
5 But when they did behold the same,
they, wond'ring, would not stay;
But, being troubled at the sight,
they thence did haste away.
6 Great terror there took hold on them, they were possess'd with fear;
Their grief eame like a woman's pain,
when she a child doth bear. [break'st:
7 Thou Tarshish ships with east winds
8 As we have heard it told,
So, in the city of the Lord,
our eyes did it behold;
In our God's city, which his hand for ever stablish will.
9 We of thy loving-kindness thought,
Lord, in thy temple still.
10 O Lord, according to thy name, through all the earth's thy praise;
And thy right hand, O Lord, is full of righteousness always.
11 Because thy judgments are made known,
let Zion mount rejoice;
Of Judah let the daughters all send forth a cheerful voice.
12 Walk about Zion, and go round;
the high tow'rs thereof tell:
13 Consider ye her palaces, and mark her bulwarks well;
That ye may tell posterity.
14 For this God doth abide Our God for evermore; he will ev'n unto death us guide.

PSALM 49.

1 HEAR this, all people, and give ear, all in the world that dwell;
2 Both low and high, both rich and poor.
3 My mouth shall wisdom tell:
My heart shall knowledge meditate.
4 I will incline mine ear
To parables, and on the harp my sayings dark declare.
5 Amidst those days that evil be,
why should I, fearing, doubt?
When of my heels th' iniquity shall compass me about.
6 Who'er they be that in their wealth their confidence do pitch,
And boast themselves, because they are become exceeding rich:
7 Yet none of these his brother can redeem by any way;
Nor can he unto God for him sufficient ransom pay, 8 (Their soul's redemption precious is,
and it can never be.)
9 That still he should for ever live, and not corruption see.
10 For why? he seeth that wise men die, and brutish fools also Do perish; and their wealth, when dead, to others they let go.
11 Their inward thought is, that their and dwelling-places shall [house Stand through all ages; they their lands by their own names do call.
12 But yet in honour shall not man abide continually;
But passing hence, may be compar'd unto the beasts that die.
13 Thus brutish folly plainly is their wisdom and their way;
Yet their posterity approve what they do fondly say.
14 Like sheep they in the grave are laid,
and death shall them devour;
And in the morning upright men shall over them have pow'r:
Their beauty from their dwelling shall consume within the grave.
15 But from hell's hand God will me free, for he shall me receive.
16 Be thou not then afraid when one enriched thou dost see,
Nor when the glory of his house advanced is on high:
17 For he shall carry nothing hence when death his days doth end;
Nor shall his glory after him into the grave descend.

18 Although he his own soul did bless whilst he on earth did live;
(And when thou to thyself dost well, meu will thee praises give;)
19 He to his fathers' race shall go, they never shall see light.
20 Man honour'd wanting knowledge is like beasts that perish quite.

PSALM 50.

1 THE mighty God, the Lord, hath spoken, and did call
The earth, from rising of the sun, to where he hath his fall.
2 From out of Sion hill, which of excellency
And beauty the perfection is,
God shined gloriously.
3 Our God shall surely come,
keep silence shall not he:
Before him fire shall waste, great storms shall round about him be.
4 Unto the heavens clear
he from above shall call,
And to the earth likewise, that he may judge his people all.
5 Together let my saints unto me gather'd be,
Those that by sacrifice have made a covenant with me.
6 And then the heavens shall his righteousness declare:
Because the Lord himself is he by whom men judged are.
7 My people Isr'el hear, speak will I from on high,
Against thee I will testify;
Ood, ev'n thy God, am I.
8 I for thy sacrifice
no blame will on thee lay,
Nor for burnt-off'rings, which to me thou offer'dst ev'ry day.
9 I'll take no calf nor goats from house or fold of thine:
10 For beasts of forests, cattle all
on thousand hills, are mine.
11 The fowls on mountains high are all to me well known;
Wild beasts which in the fields do lie, ev'n they are all mine own.
12 Then, if I hungry were,
I would not tell it thee;
Because the world, and fulness all thereof, belongs to me.
13 Will I eat flesh of bulls?
or goats' blood drink will I?
14 Thanks offer thou to God, and pay thy vows to the most High.
15 And call upon me when in trouble thou shalt be;
I will deliver thee, and thou
my name shalt glorify.
16 But to the wicked man
God saith, My laws and truth [take Should'st thou declare? how dar'st thou my cov'nant in thy mouth?
17 Sith thou instruction hat'st,
which should thy ways direct;
And sith my words behind thy back thou east'st, and dost reject.
18 When thou a thief didst see,
with him thou didst consent;
And with the vile adulterers partaker on thou went.
19 Thou giv'st thy mouth to ill,
thy tongue deceit doth frame;
20 Thou sitt'st, and 'gainst thy brother thy mother's son dost shame. [speak'st, 21 Because I silence kept,
while thou these things hast wrought;
That I was altogether like thyself, hath been thy thought:
Yet I will thee reprove,
and set before thine eyes,
In order ranked, thy misdeeds, and thine iniquities.
22 Now, ye that God forget,
this carefully consider;
Lest I in pieces tear you all,
and none can you deliver.
23 Whoso doth offer praise me glorifies; and I Will show him God's salvation, that orders right his way.

Another of the same.

1 THE mighty God, the Lord, hath spoke,
and call'd the earth upon,
Ev'n from the rising of the sun unto his going down.
2 From out of Sion, his own hill, where the perfection high
Of beauty is, from thence the Lord hath shined gloriously.
3 Our God shall come, and shall no more be silent, but speak out:
Before him fire shall waste, great storms shall compass him about.
4 He to the heavens from above,
and to the earth below,
Shall call, that he his judgments may bef' e his people show.

5 Let all my saints together be unto me gathered;
Those that by sacrifice with me a covenant have made.
6 And then the heavens shall declare his righteousness abroad:
Because the Lord himself doth come none else is judge but God.
7 Hear, O my people, and I'll speak;
O Israel by name,
Against thee I will testify;
God, ev'n thy God, I am.
8 I for thy sacrifices
reprove thee never will,
Nor for burnt-off'rings to have been before me offer'd still.
9 I'll take no bullock nor he-goats from house nor folds of thine:
10 For beasts of forests, cattle all
on thousand hills, are mine.
11 The fowls are all to me well known that mountains high do yield;
And I do challenge as mine own the wild beasts of the field.
12 If I were hungry, I would not to thee for need complain;
For earth, and all its fulness, doth to me of right pertain.
13 That I to eat the flesh of bulls take pleasure dost thou think?
Or that I need, to quench my thirst,
the blood of goats to drink?
14 Nay, rather unto me, thy God,
thanksgiving offer thou:
To the most High perform thy word,
and fully pay thy vow:
15 And in the day of trouble great see that thou call on me;
I will deliver thee, and thou
my name shalt glorify.
16 But God unto the wicked saith,
Why should'st thou mention make
Of my commands? how dar'st thou in thy mouth my cov'nant take?
17 Sith it is so that thou dost hate all good instruction;
And sith thou east'st behind thy back,
and slight'st my words each one.
18 When thou a thief didst see,
then thou join'dst with him in sin, [straight
And with the vile adulterers thou hast partaker been.
19 Thy mouth to evil thou dost give,
thy tongue deceit doth frame.
20 Thou sitt'st, and 'gainst thy brother thy mother's son to shame. [speak'st, 21 These things thou wickedly hast done, and I have silent been:
Thou thought'st that I was like thyself,
and did approve thy sin:
But I will sharply thee reprove, and I will order right
Thy sins and thy transgressions in presence of thy sight.
22 Consider this, and be afraid,
ye that forget the Lord,
Lest I in pieces tear you all,
when none can help afford.
23 Who off'reth praise me glorifies:
I will show God's salvation
To him that ordereth aright his life and conversation.

PSALM 51.

1 AFTER thy loving-kindness, Lord, have mercy upon me:
For thy compassions great, blot out all mine iniquity. [wash
2 Me cleanse from sin, and thoroughly
from mine iniquity:
3 For my transgressions I confess;
my sin I ever see.
4 'Gainst thee, thee only, have I sinn'd, in thy sight done this ill; [just That when thou speak'st thou may'st be and clear in judging still.
5 Behold, I in iniquity was form'd the womb within;
My mother also me conceiv'd in guiltiness and sin.
6 Behold, thou in the inward parts with truth delighted art;
And wisdom thou shalt make me know within the hidden part.
7 Do thou with hyssop sprinkle me,
I shall be cleansed so;
Yea, wash thou me, and then I shall be whiter than the snow.
8 Of gladness and of joyfulness make me to hear the voice;
That so these very bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.
9 All mine iniquities blot out,
thy face hide from my sin.
10 Create a clean heart, Lord, renew a right sp'rit me within.
11 Cast me not from thy sight, nor tak thy Holy Sp'rit away.
12 Restore me thy salvation's joy;
with thy free Sp'rit me stay.
13 Then will I teach thy ways unto those that transgressors be;

- And those that sinners are shall then be turned unto thee.
- 14 O God, of my salvation God, me from blood-guiltiness Set free; then shall my tongue aloud sing of thy righteousness.
- 15 My closed lips, O Lord, by thee let them be opened; Then shall thy praises by my mouth abroad be published.
- 16 For thou desirest not sacrifice, else would I give it thee; Nor wilt thou with burnt-offering at all delighted be.
- 17 A broken spirit is to God a pleasing sacrifice: A broken and a contrite heart, Lord, thou wilt not despise.
- 18 Show kindness, and do good, O Lord, To Sion, thine own hill: The walls of thy Jerusalem build up of thy good will. [please,
- 19 Then righteous offerings shall thee and offerings burnt, which they With whole burnt-offerings, and with shall on thine altar lay. [calves,

PSALM 52.

- WHY dost thou boast, O mighty man, of mischief and of ill? The goodness of Almighty God endureth ever still.
- 2 Thy tongue mischievous calumnies deviseth subtly; Like to a razor sharp to cut, working deceitfully.
- 3 Ill more than good, and more than truth thou lovest to speak wrong:
- 4 Thou lovest all-devouring words, O thou deceitful tongue.
- 5 So God shall thee destroy for aye, remove thee, pluck thee out Quite from thy house, out of the land of life he shall thee root.
- 6 The righteous shall it see, and fear, and laugh at him they shall:
- 7 Lo, this the man is that did not make God his strength at all: But he in his abundant wealth his confidence did place; And he took strength unto himself from his own wickedness.
- 8 But I am in the house of God like to an olive green: My confidence for ever hath upon God's mercy been.
- 9 And I for ever will thee praise, because thou hast done this: I on thy name will wait; for good before thy saints it is.

PSALM 53.

- THAT there is not a God, the fool doth in his heart conclude: They are corrupt, their works are vile, not one of them doth good.
- 2 The Lord upon the sons of men from heav'n did cast his eyes, To see if any one there was that sought God, and was wise.
- 3 They altogether filthy are, they all are backward gone; And there is none that doeth good, no, not so much as one.
- 4 These workers of iniquity, do they not know at all, That they my people eat as bread, and on God do not call?
- 5 Ev'n there they were afraid, and stood with trembling, all dismay'd, Whereas there was no cause at all why they should be afraid: For God his bones that thee besiege'd hath scatter'd all abroad; Thou hast confounded them, for they despised are of God.
- 6 Let Israel's help from Sion come: when back the Lord shall bring His captives, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall sing.

PSALM 54.

- SAVE me, O God, by thy great name, and judge me by thy strength:
- 2 My prayer hear, O God; give ear unto my words at length.
- 3 For they that strangers are to me do up against me rise; Oppressors seek my soul, and God set not before their eyes.
- 4 The Lord my God my helper is, lo, therefore I am bold: He taketh part with ev'ry one that doth my soul uphold.
- 5 Unto mine enemies he shall mischief and ill repay: O for thy truth's sake cut them off, and sweep them clean away.
- 6 I will a sacrifice to thee give with free willingness; Thy name, O Lord, because 'tis good, with praise I will confess.

- 7 For he hath me delivered from all adversities; And his desire mine eye hath seen upon mine enemies.

PSALM 55.

- LORD, hear my pray'r, hide not thyself from my entreating voice:
- 2 Attend and hear me; in my plaint I mourn and make a noise.
- 3 Because of th' en'my's voice, and for lewd men's oppression great: On me they cast iniquity, and they in wrath me hate.
- 4 Sore pain'd within me is my heart: death's terrors on me fall.
- 5 On me comes trembling, fear and dread o'erwhelm me withal.
- 6 O that I, like a dove, had wings, said I, then would I flee Far hence, that I might find a place where I in rest might be.
- 7 Lo, then far off I wander would, and in the desert stay;
- 8 From windy storm and tempest I would haste to 'scape away.
- 9 O Lord, on them destruction bring, and do their tongues divide; For in the city violence and strife I have espy'd.
- 10 They day and night upon the walls do go about it round: There mischief is, and sorrow there in midst of it is found.
- 11 Abundant wickedness there is within her inward part; And from her streets deceitfulness and guile do not depart.
- 12 He was no foe that me reproach'd, then that endure I could; Nor hater that did 'gainst me boast, from him me hide I would.
- 13 But thou, man, who mine equal, guide, and mine acquaintance wast:
- 14 We join'd sweet counsels, to God's house in company we past.
- 15 Let death upon them seize, and down let them go quick to hell; For wickedness doth much abound among them where they dwell.
- 16 I'll call on God: God will me save.
- 17 I'll pray, and make a noise At ev'ning, morning, and at noon; and he shall hear my voice.
- 18 He hath my soul delivered, that it in peace might be From battle that against me was; for many were with me.
- 19 The Lord shall hear, and them afflict, of old who hath abode: Because they never changes have, therefore they fear not God.
- 20 'Gainst those that were at peace with he hath put forth his hand: [him The covenant that he had made, by breaking he profan'd.
- 21 More smooth than butter were his words, while in his heart was war; His speeches were more soft than oil, and yet drawn swords they are.
- 22 Cast thou thy burden on the Lord, and he shall thee sustain; Yea, he shall cause the righteous man unmoved to remain.
- 23 But thou, O Lord my God, those men in justice shalt o'erthrow, And in destruction's dungeon dark at last shalt lay them low: The bloody and deceitful men shall not live half their days: But upon thee with confidence I will depend always.

PSALM 56.

- SHEW mercy, Lord, to me, for man would swallow me outright; He me oppresseth, while he doth against me daily fight.
- 2 They daily would me swallow up that hate me spitefully; For they be many that do fight against me, O most High.
- 3 When I'm afraid I'll trust in thee:
- 4 In God I'll praise his word; I will not fear what flesh can do, my trust is in the Lord. [thoughts
- 5 Each day they wrest my words; their 'gainst me are all for ill. [steps,
- 6 They meet, they lurk, they mark my waiting my soul to kill.
- 7 But shall they by iniquity escape thy judgments so? O God, with indignation down do thou the people throw.
- 8 My wand'rings all what they have been thou know'st, their number took; Into thy bottle put my tears: are they not in thy book?
- 9 My foes shall, when I cry, turn back; I know't, God is for me.
- 10 In God his word I'll praise: his word in God shall praised be

- 11 In God I trust; I will not fear what man can do to me.
- 12 Thy vows upon me are, O God: I'll render praise to thee.
- 13 Wilt thou not, who from death me sav'd, my feet from falls keep free, To walk before God in the light of those that living be?

PSALM 57.

- BE merciful to me, O God; thy mercy unto me Do thou extend; because my soul doth put her trust in thee: Yea, in the shadow of thy wings my refuge I will place, Until these sad calamities do wholly overpass.
- 2 My cry I will cause to ascend unto the Lord most high; To God, who doth all things for me perform most perfectly.
- 3 From heav'n he shall send down, and me from his reproach defend That would devour me: God his truth and mercy forth shall send.
- 4 My soul among fierce lions is, I firebrands live among, Men's sons, whose teeth are spears and a sharp sword is their tongue. [darts,
- 5 Be thou exalted very high above the heav'ns, O God; Let thou thy glory be advanc'd o'er all the earth abroad.
- 6 My soul's bow'd down; for they a net have laid, my steps to snare: Into the pit which they have digg'd for me, they fallen are.
- 7 My heart is fix'd, my heart is fix'd, O God; I'll sing and praise.
- 8 My glory wake; wake psal'try, harp; myself I'll early raise.
- 9 I'll praise thee 'mong the people, Lord; 'mong nations sing will I:
- 10 For great to heav'n thy mercy is, thy truth is to the sky.
- 11 O Lord, exalted be thy name above the heav'ns to stand: Do thou thy glory far advance above both sea and land.

PSALM 58.

- DO ye, O congregation, indeed speak righteousness? O ye that are the sons of men, judge ye with uprightness?
- 2 Yea, ev'n within your very hearts ye wickedness have done; And ye the violence of your hands do weigh the earth upon.
- 3 The wicked men estranged are, ev'n from the very womb; They, speaking lies, do stray as soon as to the world they come.
- 4 Unto a serpent's poison like their poison doth appear; Yea, they are like the adder deaf, that closely stops her ear;
- 5 That so she may not hear the voice of one that charm her would, No, not though he most cunning were, and charm most wisely could.
- 6 Their teeth, O God, within their mouth break thou in pieces small; The great teeth break thou out, O Lord, of these young lions all.
- 7 Let them like waters melt away, which downward still do flow: In pieces cut his arrows all, when he shall bend his bow.
- 8 Like to a snail that melts away, let each of them be gone; Like woman's birth untimely, that they never see the sun.
- 9 He shall them take away before your pots the thorns can find, Both living, and in fury great, as with a stormy wind.
- 10 The righteous, when he vengeance sees, he shall be joyful then; The righteous one shall wash his feet in blood of wicked men.
- 11 So men shall say, The righteous man reward shall never miss: And verily upon the earth a God to judge there is.

PSALM 59.

- MY God, deliver me from those that are mine enemies; And do thou me defend from those that up against me rise.
- 2 Do thou deliver me from them that work iniquity; And give me safety from the men of bloody cruelty.
- 3 For, lo, they for my soul lay wait: the mighty do combine Against me, Lord; not for my fault, nor any sin of mine.
- 4 They run, and, without fault in me, themselves do ready make:

Awake to meet me with thy help; and do thou notice take.

- 5 Awake therefore, Lord God of hosts, thou God of Israel, To visit heathen all: spare none that wickedly rebel.
- 6 At ev'ning they go to and fro; they make great noise and sound, Like to a dog, and often walk about the city round.
- 7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth, and in their lips are swords: For they do say thus, Who is he that now doth hear our words?
- 8 But thou, O Lord, shalt laugh at them, and all the heathen mock.
- 9 While he's in pow'r I'll wait on thee for God is my high rock.
- 10 He of my mercy that is God betimes shall me prevent; Upon mine en'mies God shall let me see mine heart's content.
- 11 Them slay not, lest my folk forget; but scatter them abroad By thy strong pow'r; and bring them O thou our shield and God. [down,
- 12 For their mouth's sin, and for the words that from their lips do fly, Let them be taken in their pride; because they curse and lie.
- 13 In wrath consume them, them consume, that so they may not be: And that in Jacob God doth rule to th' earth's ends let them see.
- 14 At ev'ning let thou them return, making great noise and sound, Like to a dog, and often walk about the city round.
- 15 And let them wander up and down, in seeking food to eat; [not And let them grudge when they shall be satisfy'd with meat.
- 16 But of thy pow'r I'll sing aloud; at morn thy mercy praise: For thou to me my refuge wast, and tow'r, in troublous days.
- 17 O God, thou art my strength, I will sing praises unto thee: For God is my defence, a God of mercy unto me.

PSALM 60.

- LORD, thou hast rejected us, and scatter'd us abroad; Thou justly hast displeas'd been; return to us, O God.
- 2 The earth to tremble thou hast made; therein didst breaches make: Do thou thereof the breaches heal, because the Lord doth shake.
- 3 Unto thy people thou hard things hast show'd, and on them sent; And thou hast caused us to drink wine of astonishment.
- 4 And yet a banner thou hast giv'n to them who thee do fear; That it by them, because of truth, displayed may appear.
- 5 That thy beloved people may deliver'd be from thrall, Save with the pow'r of thy right hand, and hear me when I call.
- 6 God in his holiness hath spoke; herein I will take pleasure: Shechem I will divide, and forth will Succoth's valley measure.
- 7 Gilead I claim as mine by right; Manasseh mine shall be; Ephraim is of mine head the strength; Judah gives laws for me;
- 8 Moab's my washing-pot; my shoe I'll over Edom throw; And over Palestina's land I will in triumph go.
- 9 O who is he will bring me to the city fortify'd? O who is he that to the land of Edom will me guide?
- 10 O God, which hadest us cast off, this thing wilt thou not do? Ev'n thou, O God, which didst not forth with our armies go?
- 11 Help us from trouble; for the help is vain which man supplies. [shall
- 12 Through God we'll do great acts; he tread down our enemies.

PSALM 61.

- GOD, give ear unto my cry; unto my pray'r attend.
- 2 From th' utmost corner of the land my cry to thee I'll send. What time my heart is overwhelm'd, and in perplexity, Do thou me lead unto the Rock that higher is than I.
- 3 For thou hast for my refuge been a shelter by thy pow'r; And for defence against my foes thou hast been a strong tow'r
- 4 Within thy tabernacle I for ever will abide;

And under covert of thy wings with confidence me hide.
5 For thou the vows that I did make,
O Lord my God, didst hear:
Thou hast giv'n me the heritage of those thy name that fear.
6 A life prolong'd for many days thou to the king shalt give;
Like many generations be the years which he shall live.
7 He in God's presence his abode for evermore shall have:
O do thou truth and mercy both prepare, that may him save.
8 And so will I perpetually sing praise unto thy name;
That having made my vows, I may each day perform the same.

PSALM 62.

MY soul with expectation depends on God indeed;
My strength and my salvation doth from him alone proceed.
2 He only my salvation is,
and my strong rock is he:
He only is my sure defence;
much mov'd I shall not be.
3 How long will ye against a man plot mischief? ye shall all be slain; ye as a tottering fence shall be, and bowing wall.
4 They only plot to cast him down from his excellency:
They joy in lies; with mouth they bless,
but they curse inwardly.
5 My soul, wait thou with patience upon thy God alone;
On him dependeth all my hope and expectation.
6 He only my salvation is,
and my strong rock is he;
He only is my sure defence;
I shall not moved be.
7 In God my glory plac'd is,
and my salvation sure;
In God the rock is of my strength,
my refuge most secure.
8 Ye people, place your confidence in him continually;
Before him pour ye out your heart:
God is our refuge high.
9 Surely mean men are vanity,
and great men are a lie;
In balance laid, they wholly are more light than vanity.
10 Trust ye not in oppression,
in robbery be not vain;
On wealth set not your hearts, when as increas'd is your gain.
11 God hath it spoken once to me,
yea, this I heard again,
That power to Almighty God alone doth appertain.
12 Yea, mercy also unto thee belongs, O Lord, alone:
For thou according to his work rewardest ev'ry one.

PSALM 63.

LORD, thee my God, I'll early seek:
my soul doth thirst for thee;
My flesh longs in a dry parch'd land, wherewith no waters be:
2 That I thy power may behold, and brightness of thy face,
As I have seen thee heretofore within thy holy place.
3 Since better is thy love than life, my lips thee praise shall give.
4 In thy name will lift my hands, and bless thee while I live.
5 Ev'n as with marrow and with fat my soul shall filled be;
Then shall my mouth with joyful lips sing praises unto thee:
6 When I do thee upon my bed
remember with delight,
And when on thee I meditate in watches of the night.
7 In shadow of thy wings I'll joy;
for thou mine help hast been.
8 My soul thee follows hard; and me thy right hand doth sustain.
9 Who seek my soul to spill shall sink down to earth's lowest room.
They by the sword shall be cut off, and foxes' prey become.
11 Yet shall the king in God rejoice, and each one glory shall
That swear by him: but stopp'd shall be the mouth of liars all.

PSALM 64.

WHEN I to thee my prayer make,
Lord, to my voice give ear;
My life save from the enemy,
of whom I stand in fear.
2 Me from their secret counsel hide who do live wickedly;
From insurrection of those men
that work iniquity;

8 Who do their tongues with malice whet, and make them cut like swords;
In whose bent bows are arrows set,
ev'n sharp and bitter words:
4 That they may at the perfect man in secret aim their shot;
Yea, suddenly they dare at him to shoot, and fear it not.
5 In ill encourage they themselves, and their snares close do lay:
Together conference they have;
Who shall them see? they say.
6 They have search'd out iniquities, a perfect search they keep:
Of each of them the inward thought,
and very heart, is deep.
7 God shall an arrow shoot at them, and wound them suddenly: [found;
8 So their own tongue shall them con-all who them see shall fly.
9 And on all men a fear shall fall,
God's works they shall declare;
For they shall wisely notice take what these his doings are.
10 In God the righteous shall rejoice, and trust upon his might:
Yea, they shall greatly glory all in heart that are upright.

PSALM 65.

PRAISE waits for thee in Sion, Lord:
to thee vows paid shall be.
2 O thou that hearer art of pray'r, all flesh shall come to thee.
3 Iniquities, I must confess,
prevail against me do:
But as for our transgressions,
them purge away shalt thou.
4 Bless'd is the man whom thou dost and mak'st approach to thee, [choose,
That he within thy courts, O Lord, may still a dweller be:
We surely shall be satisfy'd with thy abundant grace,
And with the goodness of thy house,
ev'n of thy holy place.
5 O God of our salvation,
thou, in thy righteousness,
By fearful works unto our pray'rs thine answer dost express:
Therefore the ends of all the earth, and these afar that be Upon the sea, their confidence,
O Lord, will place in thee.
6 Who, being girt with pow'r, sets fast by his great strength the hills.
7 Who noise of seas, noise of their waves, and people's tumult, stills.
8 Those in the utmost parts that dwell are at thy signs afraid:
Th' outgoings of the morn and ev'n by thee are joyful made.
9 The earth thou visit'st, wat'ring it;
thou mak'st it rich to grow
With God's full flood; thou corn pre-when thou provid'st it so. [par'st, 10 Her rigs thou wat'rest plenteously,
her furrows settlest:
With show'rs thou dost her mollify,
her spring by thee is blest.
11 So thou the year most lib'rally dost with thy goodness crown;
And all thy paths abundantly on us drop fatness down.
12 They drop upon the pastures wide,
that do in deserts lie;
The little hills on ev'ry side rejoice right pleasantly.
13 With flocks the pastures clothed be,
the vales with corn are clad;
And now they shout and sing to thee, for thou hast made them glad.

PSALM 66.

ALL lands to God, in joyful sounds, aloft your voices raise.
2 Sing forth the honour of his name, and glorious make his praise.
3 Say unto God, How terrible in all thy works art thou!
Through thy great pow'r thy foes to thee shall be constrain'd to bow.
4 All on the earth shall worship thee, they shall thy praise proclaim
In songs: they shall sing cheerfully unto thy holy name.
5 Come, and the works that God hath with admiration see: [wrought In's working to the sons of men most terrible is he.
6 Into dry land the sea he turn'd, and they a passage had;
Ev'n marching through the flood on there we in him were glad. [foot, 7 He ruleth ever by his pow'r;
his eyes the nations see:
O let not the rebellious ones lift up themselves on high.
8 Ye people, bless our God; aloud
the voice speak of his praise:
9 Our soul in life who safe preserve, our foot from sliding stays.

10 For thou didst prove and try us, Lord, as men do silver try;
11 Brought's us into the net, and mad'st bands on our loins to lie.
12 Thou hast caus'd men ride o'er our heads;
and though that we did pass Through fire and water, yet thou us to a wealthy place. [brought'st 13 I'll bring burnt-off'rings to thy house;
to thee my vows I'll pay,
14 Which my lips utter'd, my mouth spake,
when trouble on me lay.
15 Burnt-sacrifices of fat rams with incense I will bring;
Of bullocks and of goats I will present an offering.
16 All that fear God, come, hear, I'll tell what he did for my soul.
17 I with my mouth unto him cry'd,
my tongue did him extol.
18 If in my heart I sin regard,
the Lord me will not hear:
19 But surely God me heard, and to my prayer's voice gave ear.
20 O let the Lord, our gracious God, for ever blessed be,
Who turned not my pray'r from him,
nor yet his grace from me.

PSALM 67.

LORD, bless and pity us,
shine on us with thy face:
2 That th' earth thy way, and nations all may know thy saving grace.
3 Let people praise thee, Lord:
let people all thee praise.
4 O let the nations be glad,
in songs their voices raise:
Thou't justly people judge,
on earth rule nations all.
5 Let people praise thee, Lord; let them praise thee, both great and small.
6 The earth her fruit shall yield, our God shall blessing send.
7 God shall us bless; men shall him fear unto earth's utmost end.

Another of the same.

LORD, unto us be merciful,
do thou us also bless;
And graciously cause shine on us
the brightness of thy face:
2 That so thy way upon the earth to all men may be known;
Also among the nations all thy saving health be shown.
3 O let the people praise thee, Lord;
let people all thee praise.
4 O let the nations be glad,
and sing for joy always:
For rightly thou shalt people judge,
and nations rule on earth.
5 Let people praise thee, Lord; let all the folk praise thee with mirth.
6 Then shall the earth yield her increase;
God, our God, bless us shall.
7 God shall us bless; and of the earth the ends shall fear him all.

PSALM 68.

LET God arise, and scatter'd let all his en'mies be;
And let all those that do him hate before his presence flee.
2 As smoke is driv'n, so drive thou them;
as fire melts wax away,
Before God's face let wicked men
so perish and decay.
3 But let the righteous be glad:
let them before God's sight
Be very joyful; yea, let them rejoice with all their might.
4 To God sing, to his name sing praise;
extol him with your voice,
That rides on heav'n, by his name JAH, before his face rejoice.
5 Because the Lord a father is unto the fatherless;
God is the widow's judge, within his place of holiness.
6 God doth the solitary set in fam'lies: and from bands
The chain'd doth free; but rebels do inhabit parched lands.
7 O God, what time thou didst go forth before thy people's face;
And when through the great wilderness thy glorious marching was;
8 Then at God's presence shook the earth, then drops from heaven fell;
This Sinai shook before the Lord,
the God of Israel.
9 O God, thou to thine heritage
didst send a plenteous rain, Whereby thou, when it weary was,
didst it refresh again.
10 Thy congregation then did make their habitation there:
Of thine own goodness for the poor,
O God, thou didst prepare.
11 The Lord himself did give the word, tho word abroad did spread;

Great was the company of them
the same who published.
12 Kings of great armies foiled were,
and forc'd to flee away;
And women, who remain'd at home,
did distribute the prey.
13 Though ye have lien among the pots, like doves ye shall appear,
Whose wings with silver, and with gold whose feather's cover'd are. [kings 14 When there th' Almighty scatter'd like Salmon's snow 'twas white.
15 God's hill is like to Bashan hill, like Bashan hill for height.
16 Why do ye leap, ye mountains high?
this is the hill where God Desires to dwell; yea, God in it for aye will make abode.
17 God's chariots twenty thousand are, thousands of angels strong;
In's holy place God is, as in mount Sinai, them among.
18 Thou hast, O Lord, most glorious, ascended up on high;
And in triumph victorious led captive captivity:
Thou hast received gifts for men,
for such as did rebel;
Yea, ev'n for them, that God the Law in midst of them might dwell.
19 Bless'd be the Lord, who is to us of our salvation God;
Who daily with his benefits us plenteously doth load.
20 He of salvation is the God, who is our God most strong;
And unto God the Lord from death
the issues do belong.
21 But surely God shall wound the head of those that are his foes;
The hairy scalp of him that still on in his trespass goes.
22 God said, My people I will bring again from Bashan hill:
Yea, from the sea's devouring depths them bring again I will;
23 That in the blood of enemies thy foot imbrud may be,
And of thy dogs dipp'd in the same the tongues thou mayest see.
24 Thy goings they have seen, O God;
the steps of majesty
Of my God, and my mighty King, within the sanctuary.
25 Before went singers, players next on instruments took way;
And them among the damsels were that did on timbrels play.
26 Within the congregations
bless God with one accord:
From Israel's fountain do ye bless and praise the mighty Lord.
27 With their prince, little Benjamin, princes and council there
Of Judah were, there Zebulou's and Naphthali's princes were. [strong 28 Thy God commands thy strength;
what thou wrought'st for us, Lord.
29 For thy house at Jerusalem kings shall thee gifts afford.
30 The spearmen's host, the multitude of bulls, which fiercely look, [sent,
Those calves which people have forb
O Lord our God, rebuke,
Till ev'ry one submit himself, and silver pieces bring:
The people that delight in war disperse, O God and King.
31 Those that be princes great shall then come out of Egypt lands;
And Ethiopia to God shall soon stretch out her hands.
32 O all ye kingdoms of the earth,
sing praises to this King;
For he is Lord that ruleth all,
unto him praises sing.
33 To him that rides on heav'n's of heav'n's which he of old did found;
Lo, he sends out his voice, a voice in might that doth abound.
34 Strength unto God do ye ascribe;
for his excellency
Is over Israel, his strength is in the clouds most high.
35 Thou'rt from thy temple dreadful, Lord;
Israel's own God is he, [pow'r:
Who gives his people strength and
O let God blessed be.

PSALM 69.

SAVE me, O God, because the floods do so environ me,
That ev'n unto my very soul
come in the waters be.
2 I downward in deep mire do sink where standing there is none:
I am into deep waters come,
where floods have o'er me gone 8 I weary with my crying am,
my throat is also dry'd;
Mine eyes do fail, while for my God
I waiting do abide.

4 Those men that do without a cause hear hatred unto me,
Than are the hairs upon my head
in number more they be:
They that would me destroy, and are mine enemies wrongfully,
Are mighty: so what I took not,
to render forc'd was I.
4 Lord, thou my folly know'st, my sins not cover'd are from thee.
8 Let none that wait on thee be sham'd,
Lord God of hosts, for me.
O Lord, the God of Israel, let none, who search do make,
And seek thee, he at any time confounded for my sake.
7 For I have horns reproach for thee,
my face is hid with shame.
8 To brethren strange, to mother's sons an alien I became.
9 Because the zeal did eat me up, which to thine house I bear;
And the reproaches cast at thee,
upon me fallen are.
10 My tears and fasts, t'afflict my soul, were turned to my shame.
11 When sackcloth I did wear, to them a proverb I became.
12 The men that in the gate do sit against me evil spake:
They also that vile drunkards were,
of me their song did make.
13 But, in an acceptable time,
my pray'r, Lord, is to thee:
In truth of thy salvation, Lord, and mercy great, hear me.
14 Deliver me out of the mire, from sinking do me keep;
Free me from those that do me hate,
and from the waters deep.
15 Let not the flood on me prevail,
whose water overflows;
Nor deep me swallow, nor the pit
her mouth upon me close.
16 Hear me, O Lord, because thy love and kindness is most good;
Turn unto me, according to thy mercies' multitude.
17 Nor from thy servant hide thy face:
I'm troubled, soon attend.
18 Draw near my soul, and it redeem;
me from my foes defend.
19 To thee is my reproach well known,
my shame, and my disgrace:
Those that mine adversaries be are all before thy face.
20 Reproach hath broke my heart; I'm full of grief: I look'd for one
To pity me, hut none I found;
comforters found I none.
21 They also bitter gall did give unto me for my meat:
They gave me vinegar to drink,
when as my thirst was great.
22 Before them let their table prove a snare; and do thou make Their welfare and prosperity a trap themselves to take.
23 Let thou their eyes so darken'd be,
that sight may them forsake;
And let their loins be made by thee continually to shake.
24 Thy fury pour thou out on them,
and indignation;
And let thy wrathful anger, Lord,
fast hold take them upon.
25 All waste and desolate let be their habitation;
And in their tabernacles all inhabitants be none.
26 Because him they do persecute, whom thou didst smite before;
They talk unto the grief of those whom thou has wounded sore.
27 Add thou iniquity unto their former wickedness;
And do not let them come at all into thy righteousness.
28 Out of the hook of life let them be raz'd and hotted quite;
Among the just and righteous
let not their names be writ.
29 But now become exceeding poor and sorrowful am I:
By thy salvation, O my God,
let me be set on high.
30 The name of God I with a song
most cheerfully will praise;
And I, in giving thanks to him,
his name shall highly raise.
31 This to the Lord a sacrifice more gracious shall prove Than hulloek, ox, or any beast that hath both horn and hoof.
32 When this the humble men shall see,
it joy to them shall give:
O all ye that do seek the Lord, your hearts shall ever live.
33 For God the poor hears, and will not his prisoners contemn.
34 Let heav'n, and earth, and seas, him and all that move in them. [praise,

35 For God will Judah's cities build,
and he will Sion save,
That they may dwell therein, and it in sure possession have.
36 And they that are his servants' seed inherit shall the same;
So shall they have their dwelling there that love his blessed name.

PSALM 70.

LORD, haste me to deliver;
with speed, Lord, succour me.
2 Let them that for my soul do seek sham'd and confounded be:
Turn'd back be they, and sham'd,
that in my hurt delight.
3 Turn'd back be they, Ha, ha! that say,
their shaming to requite.
4 In thee let all be glad,
and joy that seek for thee:
Let them who thy salvation love
say still, God praised be.
5 I poor and needy am;
come, Lord, and make no stay:
My help thou and deliver art;
O Lord, make no delay.

Another of the same.

MAKE haste, O God, me to preserve;
with speed, Lord, succour me.
2 Let them that for my soul do seek
sham'd and confounded be:
Let them be turned back, and sham'd,
that in my hurt delight.
3 Turn'd back be they, Ha, ha! that say,
their shaming to requite.
4 O Lord, in thee let all be glad,
and joy that seek for thee:
Let them who thy salvation love
say still, God praised be.
5 But I both poor and needy am;
come, Lord, and make no stay:
My help thou and deliver art;
O Lord, make no delay.

PSALM 71.

O LORD, my hope and confidence is plac'd in thee alone;
Then let thy servant never be put to confusion.
2 And let me, in thy righteousness, from thee deliverance have:
Cause me escape, incline thine ear unto me, and me save.
3 Be thou my dwelling-rock, to which
I ever may resort:
Thou gav'st commandment me to save,
for thou'rt my rock and fort.
4 Free me, my God, from wicked hands, hands cruel and unjust:
5 For thou, O Lord God, art my hope,
and from my youth my trust.
6 Thou from the womb didst hold me up;
thou art the same that me
Out of my mother's bowels took;
I ever praise will thee.
7 To many I a wonder am;
but thou'rt my refuge strong.
8 Fill'd let my mouth be with thy praise and honour all day long.
9 O do not cast me off, when as old age doth overtake me;
And when my strength decayed is,
then do not thou forsake me.
10 For those that are mine enemies against me speak with hate;
And they together counsel take that for my soul lay wait.
11 They said, God leaves him; him pursue and take: none will him save.
12 Be thou not far from me, my God:
thy speedy help I crave.
13 Confound, consume them, that unto my soul are enemies:
Cloth'd be they with reproach and that do my hurt devise. [shame 14 But I with expectation will hope continually;
And yet with praises more and more
I will thee magnify.
15 Thy justice and salvation
my mouth abroad shall show, Ev'n all the day; for I thereof
the numbers do not know.
16 And I will constantly go on in strength of God the Lord;
And thine own righteousness, ev'n thine alone, I will record.
17 For even from my youth, O God,
by thee I have been taught;
And hitherto I have declar'd
the wonders thou hast wrought.
18 And now, Lord, leave me not, when I old and gray-headed grow:
Till to this age thy strength and pow'r to all to come I show.
19 And thy most perfect righteousness,
O Lord, is very high,
Who hast so great things done: O God,
who is like unto thee?

20 Thou, Lord, who great adversities, and sore, to me didst show,
Shalt quicken, and bring me again from depths of earth below.
21 My greatness and my pow'r thou wilt increase, and far extend:
On ev'ry side against all grief thou wilt me comfort send.
22 Thee, ev'n thy truth, I'll also praise,
my God, with psaltery:
Thou Holy One of Israel, with harp I'll sing to thee.
23 My lips shall much rejoice in thee,
when I thy praises sound;
My soul, which thou redeemed hast,
in joy shall much abound.
24 My tongue thy justice shall proclaim, continuing all day long;
For they confounded are, and sham'd, that seek to do me wrong.

PSALM 72.

O LORD, thy judgments give the king, his son thy righteousness.
2 With right he shall thy people judge, thy poor with uprightness.
3 The lofty mountains shall bring forth unto the people peace;
Likewise the little hills the same shall do by righteousness.
4 The people's poor ones he shall judge,
the needy's children save;
And those shall he in pieces break who them oppressed have. [moon 5 They shall these fear, while sun and do last, through ages all.
6 Like rain on mown grass he shall drop, or show'rs on earth that fall.
7 The just shall flourish in his days,
and prosper in his reign:
He shall, while doth the moon endure, abundant peace maintain.
8 His large and great dominion shall from sea to sea extend:
It from the river shall reach forth
unto earth's utmost end.
9 They in the wilderness that dwell bow down before him must;
And they that are his enemies shall lick the very dust.
10 The kings of Tarshish, and the isles, to him shall presents bring;
And unto him shall offer gifts
Sheba's and Seba's king.
11 Yea, all the mighty kings on earth before him down shall fall;
And all the uations of the world do service to him shall.
12 For he the needy shall preserve,
when he to him doth call;
The poor also, and him that hath no help of man at all.
13 The poor man and the indigent
in mercy he shall spare;
He shall preserve alive the souls of those that needy are.
14 Both from deceit and violence their soul he shall set free;
And in his sight right precious and dear their blood shall be.
15 Yea, he shall live, and giv'n to him shall be of Sheba's gold:
For him still shall they pray, and he shall daily be extoll'd.
16 Of corn an handful in the earth on tops of mountains high, [trees With prosperous fruit shall shake, like on Lebanon that be.
The city shall be flourishing,
her citizens abound
In number shall, like to the grass that grows upon the ground.
17 His name for ever shall endure;
last like the sun it shall:
Men shall be bless'd in him, and bless'd all nations shall him call.
18 Now blessed be the Lord our God,
the God of Israel,
For he alone doth wondrous works,
in glory that excel.
19 And blessed be his glorious name
to all eternity:
The whole earth let his glory fill.
Amen, so let it be.

PSALM 73.

YET God is good to Israel, to each pure-hearted one.
2 But as for me, my steps near slipp'd, my feet were almost gone.
3 For I envious was, and grudg'd
the foolish folk to see,
When I perceiv'd the wicked sort enjoy prosperity
4 For still their strength continueth firm;
their death of hands is free.
5 They are not toll'd like other men, nor plagu'd, as others he,
6 Therefore their pride, like to a chain, them compasseth about;
And, as a garment, violence
doth cover them throughout,

7 Their eyes stand out with fat; they have more than their hearts could wish.
8 They are corrupt; their talk of wrong both lewd and lofty is. [heav'ns 9 They set their mouth against the in their blasphemous talk; [out
And their reproaching tongue through-the earth at large doth walk.
10 His people oftentimes for this look back, and turn about;
Sith waters of so full a cup to these are poured out.
11 And thus they say, How can it be that God these things doth know?
Or, Can there in the Highest be knowledge of things below?
12 Behold, these are the wicked ones, yet prosper at their will
In worldly things; they do increin wealth and riches still.
13 I verily have done in vain
my heart to purify;
To no effect in innocence
washed my hands have I.
14 For daily, and all day throughout, great plagues I suffer'd have;
Yea, ev'ry morning I of new did chastisement receive.
15 If in this manner foolishly to speak I would intend,
Thy children's generation,
behold, I should offend.
16 When I this thought to know, it was too hard a thing for me;
17 Till to God's sanctuary I went,
then I their end did see.
18 Assuredly thou didst them set a slipp'ry place upon;
Them suddenly thou castedst down into destruction.
19 How in a moment suddenly to ruin brought are they!
With fearful terrors utterly they are consum'd away.
20 Ev'n like unto a dream, when one from sleeping doth arise;
So thou, O Lord, when thou awak'st, their image shalt despise.
21 Thus grieved was my heart in me,
and me my reins oppress:
22 So rude was I, and ignorant, and in thy sight a beast.
23 Nevertheless continually,
O Lord, I am with thee:
Thou dost me hold by my right hand and still upholdest me.
24 Thou, with thy counsel, while I live, wilt me conduct and guide;
And to thy glory afterward receive me to abide.
25 Whom have I in the heavens high,
but thee, O Lord, alone?
And in the earth whom I desire besides thee there is none.
26 My flesh and heart doth faint and fail, but God doth fail me never:
For of my heart God is the strength and portion for ever.
27 For, lo, they that are far from thee for ever perish shall;
Them that a whoring from thee go thou hast destroyed all.
28 But surely it is good for me that I draw near to God:
In God I trust, that all thy works
I may declare abroad.

PSALM 74.

O GOD, why hast thou cast us off?
is it for evermore?
Against thy pasture-sheep why doth thine anger smoke so sore?
2 O call to thy remembrance thy congregation,
Which thou hast purchased of old;
still think the same upon:
The rod of thine inheritance,
which thou redeemed hast,
This Sion hill, wherein thou hadst thy dwelling in times past.
3 To these long desolations thy feet lift, do not tarry;
For all the ills thy foes have done within thy sanctuary.
4 Amidst thy congregations thine enemies do roar:
Their ensigns they set up for signs of triumph thee before.
5 A man was famous, and was had in estimation,
According as he lifted up his axe thick trees upon.
6 But all at once with axes now and hammers they go to,
And down the carved work thereof
they break, and quite undo.
7 They fired have thy sanctuary, and have defil'd the same,
By casting down unto the ground
the place where dwelt thy name.
8 Thus said they in their hearts, Let us destroy them out of hand;

They burnt up all the synagogues of God within the land.
 9 Our signs we do not now behold; there is not us among
 A prophet more, nor any one that knows the time how long.
 10 How long, Lord, shall the enemy thus in reproach exclaim?
 And shall the adversary thus always blaspheme thy name?
 11 Thy hand, ev'n thy right hand of might, why dost thou thus draw back?
 O from thy bosom pluck it out for our deliv'rance' sake.
 12 For certainly Ood is my King, ev'n from the times of old,
 Working in midst of all the earth salvation manifold.
 13 The sea, by thy great pow'r, to part asunder thou didst make;
 And thou the dragons' heads, O Lord, within the waters brake.
 14 The leviathan's head thou brak'st in pieces, and didst give Him to be meat unto the folk in wilderness that live.
 15 Thou clav'st the fountain and the flood, which did with streams abound.
 Thou dry'dst the mighty waters up unto the very ground.
 16 Thine only is the day, O Lord, thine also is the night;
 And thou alone prepared hast the sun and shining light.
 17 By thee the borders of the earth were settled ev'ry where:
 The summer and the winter both by thee created were.
 18 That th' enemy reproached hath, O keep it in record;
 And that the foolish people have blasphem'd thy name, O Lord.
 19 Unto the multitude do not thy turtle's soul deliver:
 The congregation of thy poor do not forget for ever.
 20 Unto thy cov'nant have respect; for earth's dark places be Full of the habitations of horrid cruelty.
 21 O let not those that be oppress'd return again with shame:
 Let those that poor and needy are give praise unto thy name.
 22 Do thou, O Ood, arise and plead the cause that is thine own:
 Remember how thou art reproach'd still by the foolish one.
 23 Do not forget the voice of those that are thine enemies:
 Of those the tumult ever grows that do against thee rise.

PSALM 75.

TO thee, O God, do we give thanks, we do give thanks to thee;
 Because thy wondrous works declare thy great name near to be.
 2 I purpose, when I shall receive the congregation,
 That I shall judgment uprightly render to ev'ry one.
 3 Dissolved is the land, with all that in the same do dwell;
 But I the pillars thereof do bear up, and stablish well.
 4 I to the foolish people said, Do not deal foolishly;
 And unto those that wicked are, Lift not your horn on high.
 5 Lift not your horn on high, nor speak with stubborn neck. But know,
 That not from east, nor west, nor south, promotion doth flow.
 7 But God is judge; he puts down one, and sets another up.
 8 For in the hand of God most high of red wine is a cup:
 'Tis full of mixture, he pours forth, and makes the wicked all Wring out the bitter dregs thereof; yea, and they drink them shall.
 9 But I for ever will declare, I Jacob's God will praise.
 10 All horns of lewd men I'll cut off; but just men's horns will raise.

PSALM 76.

IN Judah's land God is well known, his name 's in Isr'el great:
 2 In Salem is his tabernacle, in Zion is his seat.
 3 There arrows of the bow he brake, the shield, the sword, the war.
 4 More glorious thou than hills of prey, more excellent art far.
 5 Those that were stout of heart are spoil'd, they slept their sleep outright;
 And none of those their hands did find, that were the men of might.
 6 When thy rebuke, O Jacob's Ood, had forth against them past,
 Their horses and their chariots both were in a dead sleep cast.

7 Thou, Lord, ev'n thou art he that should be fear'd; and who is he
 That may stand up before thy sight, if once thou angry be?
 8 From heav'n thou judgment caus'd be the earth was still with fear, [heard;
 9 When God to judgment rose, to save all meek on earth that were.
 10 Surely the very wrath of man unto thy praise redounds:
 Thou to the remnant of his wrath wilt set restraining bounds.
 11 Vow to the Lord your God, and pay: all ye that near him be,
 Bring gifts and presents unto him; for to be feared is he.
 12 By him the sprits shall be cut off of those that princes are:
 Unto the kings that are on earth he fearful doth appear.

PSALM 77.

UNTO the Lord I with my voice, I unto God did cry;
 Ev'n with my voice, and unto me his ear he did apply.
 2 I in my trouble sought the Lord, my sore by night did run,
 And ceased not; my grieved soul did consolation shun.
 3 I to remembrance God did call, yet trouble did remain;
 And overwhelm'd my spirit was, whilst I did sore complain.
 4 Mine eyes, debarr'd from rest and sleep, thou mak'st still to wake;
 My trouble is so great that I unable am to speak.
 5 The days of old to mind I call'd, and oft did think upon
 The times and ages that are past full many years ago.
 6 By night my song I call to mind, and commune with my heart;
 My sprit did carefully inquire how I might ease my smart.
 7 For ever will the Lord cast off, and gracious be no more?
 8 For ever is his mercy gone? fails his word evermore?
 9 Is 't true that to be gracious the Lord forgotten hath?
 And that his tender mercies he hath shut up in his wrath?
 10 Then did I say, That surely this is mine infirmity:
 I'll mind the years of the right hand of him that is most High.
 11 Yea, I remember will the works performed by the Lord:
 The wonders done of old by thee I surely will record.
 12 I also will of all thy works my meditation make;
 And of thy doings to discourse great pleasure I will take.
 13 O God, thy way most holy is within thy sanctuary;
 And what God is so great in pow'r as is our Ood most high?
 14 Thou art the God that wonders dost by thy right hand most strong:
 Thy mighty pow'r thou hast declar'd the nations among.
 15 To thine own people with thine arm thou didst redemption bring;
 To Jacob's sons, and to the tribes of Joseph that do spring.
 16 The waters, Lord, perceived thee, the waters saw thee well;
 And they for fear aside did flee; the depths on trembling fell.
 17 The clouds in water forth were pour'd, sound loudly did the sky;
 And swiftly through the world abroad thine arrows fierce did fly.
 18 Thy thunder's voice amongst the heav'n a mighty noise did make;
 By lightnings lighten'd was the world, th' earth tremble did and shake.
 19 Thy way is in the sea, and in the waters great thy path;
 Yet are thy footsteps hid, O Lord; none knowledge thereof hath.
 20 Thy people thou didst safely lead, like to a flock of sheep;
 By Moses' hand and Aaron's thou didst them conduct and keep.

PSALM 78.

ATTEND, my people, to my law; thereto give thou an ear;
 The words that from my mouth proceed attentively do hear.
 2 My mouth shall speak a parable, and sayings dark of old;
 3 The same which we have heard and and us our fathers told. [known,
 4 We also will them not conceal from their posterity;
 Them to the generation to come declare will we:

The praises of the Lord our God, and his almighty strength,
 The wondrous works that he hath done, we will show forth at length.
 5 His testimony and his law in Isr'el he did place,
 And charg'd our fathers it to show to their succeeding race;
 6 That so the race which was to come might well them learn and know;
 And sons unborn, who should arise, might to their sons them show:
 7 That they might set their hope in God, and suffer not to fall
 His mighty words out of their mind, but keep his precepts all.
 8 And might not, like their fathers, be a stiff rebellious race;
 A race not right in heart; with God whose sprit not steadfast was.
 9 The sons of Ephraim, who nor bows nor other arms did lack,
 When as the day of battle was, they faintly turned back.
 10 They brake God's cov'nant, and refus'd in his commands to go;
 11 His works and wonders they forgot, which he to them did show.
 12 Things marvellous he brought to pass; their fathers them beheld Within the land of Egypt done, yea, ev'n in Zoan's field.
 13 By him divided was the sea, he caus'd them through to pass;
 And made the waters so to stand, as like an heap it was.
 14 With cloud by day, with light of fire all night, he did them guide.
 15 In desert rocks he clave, and drink, as from great depths, supply'd.
 16 He from the rocks brought streams, like made waters to run down. [floods
 17 Yet sinning more, in desert they provok'd the highest One.
 18 For in their heart they tempted Ood, and, speaking with mistrust,
 They greedily did meat require to satisfy their lust.
 19 Against the Lord himself they spake, and, murmuring, said thus,
 A table in the wilderness can God prepare for us?
 20 Behold, he smote the rock, and thence came streams and waters great;
 But can he give his people bread? and send them flesh to eat?
 21 The Lord did hear, and waxed wroth; so kindled was a flame
 'Gainst Jacob, and 'gainst Israel up indignation came.
 22 For they believ'd not God, nor trust in his salvation had;
 23 Though clouds above he did command, and heav'n's doors open made,
 24 And manna rain'd on them, and gave them corn of heav'n to eat.
 25 Man angel's food did eat; to them he to the full sent meat.
 26 And in the heav'n he did cause an eastern wind to blow;
 And by his power he let out the southern wind to go.
 27 Then flesh as thick as dust he made to rain down them among;
 And feather'd fowls, like as the sand which l'ith the shore along.
 28 At his command amidst their camp these show'rs of flesh down fell,
 All round about the tabernacles and tents where they did dwell.
 29 So they did eat abundantly, and had of meat their fill;
 For he did give to them what was their own desire and will.
 30 They from their lust had not estrang'd their heart and their desire;
 But while the meat was in their mouths, which they did so require, 31 God's wrath upon them came, and slew the fattest of them all;
 So that the choice of Israel, o'erthrown by death, did fall.
 32 Yet, notwithstanding of all this, they sinned still the more; [wrought,
 And though he had great wonders believ'd him not therefore:
 33 Wherefore their days in vanity he did consume and waste;
 And by his wrath their wretched years away in trouble past.
 34 But when he slew them, then they did to seek him show desire:
 Yea, they return'd, and after God right early did inquire.
 35 And that the Lord had been their Rock they did remember then;
 Ev'n that the high almighty God had their Redeemer been.
 36 Yet with their mouth they flatter'd him, and spake but feign'dly;
 And they unto the God of truth with their false tongues did lie.

37 For though their words were good, their with him was not sincere; [heart Unsteadfast and perfidious they in his cov'nant were.
 38 But, full of pity, he forgave their sin, them did not slay;
 Nor stirr'd up all his wrath, but oft his anger turn'd away.
 39 For that they were but fading flesh to mind he did recall;
 A wind that passeth soon away, and not returns at all.
 40 How often did they him provoke within the wilderness!
 And in the desert did him grieve with their rebelliousness!
 41 Yea, turning back, they tempted God, and limits set upon Him, who in midst of Isr'el is the only Holy One.
 42 They did not call to mind his pow'r, nor yet the day when he Deliver'd them out of the hand of their fierce enemy;
 43 Nor how great signs in Egypt land he openly had wrought;
 What miracles in Zoan's field his hand to pass had brought.
 44 How lakes and rivers ev'ry where he turned into blood;
 So that nor man nor beast could drink of standing lake or flood.
 45 He brought among them swarms of flies, which did them sore annoy;
 And divers kinds of filthy frogs he sent them to destroy.
 46 He to the caterpillar gave the fruits of all their soil;
 Their labours he deliver'd up unto the locusts' spoil.
 47 Their vines with hail, their sycamores he with the frost did blast:
 48 Their beasts to hail he gave; their flocks hot thunderbolts did waste.
 49 Fierce burning wrath he on them cast, and indignation strong,
 And troubles sore, by sending forth ill angels them among.
 50 He to his wrath made way; their soul from death he did not save;
 But over to the pestilence the lives of them he gave.
 51 In Egypt land the first-born all he smote down ev'ry where;
 Among the tents of Ham, ev'n these chief of their strength that were.
 52 But his own people, like to sheep, thence to go forth he made;
 And he, amidst the wilderness, them, as a flock, did lead.
 53 And he them safely on did lead, so that they did not fear;
 Whereas their en'mies by the sea quite overwhelmed were.
 54 To borders of his sanctuary the Lord his people led,
 Ev'n to the mount which his right hand for them had purchased.
 55 The nations of Canaan, by his almighty hand,
 Before their face he did expel out of their native land;
 Which for inheritance to them by line he did divide,
 And made the tribes of Israel within their tents abide.
 56 Yet God most high they did provoke, and tempted ever still;
 And to observe his testimonies did not incline their will:
 57 But, like their fathers, turned back, and dealt unfaithfully:
 Aside they turned, like a bow that shoots deceitfully.
 58 For they to anger did provoke him with their places high;
 And with their graven images mov'd him to jealousy.
 59 When Ood heard this, he waxed wroth, and much loath'd Isr'el then:
 60 So Shiloh's tent he left, the tent which he had plac'd with men.
 61 And he his strength delivered into captivity;
 He left his glory in the hand of his proud enemy.
 62 His people also he gave o'er unto the sword's fierce rage:
 So sore his wrath inflamed was against his heritage.
 63 The fire consum'd their choice young their maids no marriage had; [men;
 64 And when their priests fell by the sword, their wives no mourning made.
 65 But then the Lord arose, as one that doth from sleep awake;
 And like a giant that, by wine refresh'd, a shout doth make 66 Upon his en'mies' hinder parts, he made his stroke to fall;
 And so upon them he did put a shame perpetual.

67 Moreover, he the tabernacle of Joseph did refuse;
The mighty tribe of Ephraim
he would in no wise choose:
68 But he did choose Jehudah's tribe to be the rest above;
And of mount Zion he made choice, which he so much did love.
69 And he his sanctuary built like to a palace high,
Like to the earth which he did found to perpetuity.
70 Of David, that his servant was,
he also choice did make,
And even from the folds of sheep was pleased him to take:
71 From waiting on the ewes with young,
he brought him forth to feed
Israel, his inheritance,
his people, Jacob's seed.
72 So after the integrity
he of his heart them fed;
And by the good skill of his hands them wisely governed.

PSALM 79.

O GOD, the heathen enter'd have thine heritage; by them Defiled is thy house: on heaps they laid Jerusalem.
2 The bodies of thy servants they have east forth to be meat
To ravenous fowls; thy dear saints' flesh they gave to beasts to eat.
3 Their blood about Jerusalem like water they have shed;
And there was none to bury them when they were slain and dead.
4 Unto our neighbours a reproach most base become are we;
A scorn and laughing-stock to them that round about us be.
5 How long, Lord, shall thine anger last?
wilt thou still keep the same?
And shall thy fervent jealousy burn like unto a flame?
6 On heathen pour thy fury forth, that have thee never known,
And on those kingdoms which thy name have never call'd upon.
7 For these are they who Jacob have devoured cruelly;
And they his habitation
have caused waste to lie.
8 Against us mind not former sins;
thy tender mercies show;
Let them prevent us speedily,
for we're brought very low.
9 For thy name's glory help us, Lord, who hast our Saviour been:
Deliver us; for thy name's sake,
O purge away our sin.
10 Why say the heathen, Where's their let him to them be known; [God?
When those who shed thy servants' are in our sight o'erthrown. [blood 11 O let the pris'n-er's sighs ascend before thy sight on high;
Preserve those in thy mighty pow'r that are design'd to die.
12 And to our neighbours' bosom cause it sev'n fold render'd be,
Ev'n the reproach wherewith they have,
O Lord, reproached thee.
13 So we thy folk, and pasture-sheep, shall give thee thanks always;
And unto generations all we will show forth thy praise.

PSALM 80.

HEAR, Isr'el's Shepherd! like a flock thou that dost Joseph guide; Shine forth, O thou that dost between the cherubims abide.
2 In Ephraim's, and Benjamin's, and in Manasseh's sight,
O come for our salvation;
stir up thy strength and might.
3 Turn us again, O Lord our God,
and upon us vouchsafe
To make thy countenance to shine,
and so we shall be safe.
4 O Lord of hosts, almighty God, how long shall kindled be Thy wrath against the prayer made by thine own folk to thee?
5 Thou ears of sorrow giv'st to them
instead of bread to eat;
Yea, tears instead of drink thou giv'st to them in measure great.
6 Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours round about;
Our enemies among themselves at us do laugh and flout.
7 Turn us again, O Lord of hosts,
and upon us vouchsafe
To make thy countenance to shine,
and so we shall be safe.
8 A vine from Egypt brought thou hast,
by thine outstretched hand;
And thou the heathen out didst east,
to plant it in their land.

9 Before it thou a room didst make,
where it might grow and stand;
Thou causedst it deep root to take,
and it did fill the land.
10 The mountains vail'd were with its as with a covering; [shade,
Like goodly cedars were the boughs which out from it did spring.
11 Upon the one hand to the sea her boughs she did out send;
On th' other side unto the flood her branches did extend.
12 Why hast thou then thus broken down and ta'en her hedge away?
So that all passengers do pluck,
and make of her a prey.
13 The boar who from the forest comes doth waste it at his pleasure;
The wild beast of the field also devours it out of measure.
14 O God of hosts, we thee beseech, return now unto thine;
Look down from heav'n in love, behold,
and visit this thy vine:
15 This vineyard, which thine own right hath planted us among; [hand
And that same branch, which for thyself thou hast made to be strong.
16 Burnt up it is with flaming fire,
it also is cut down:
They utterly are perished
when as thy face doth frown.
17 O let thy hand be still upon the Man of thy right hand,
The Son of man, whom for thyself thou madest strong to stand.
18 So henceforth we will not go back, nor turn from thee at all:
O do thou quicken us, and we upon thy name will call.
19 Turn us again, Lord God of hosts,
and upon us vouchsafe
To make thy countenance to shine,
and so we shall be safe.

PSALM 81.

SING loud to God our strength; with joy to Jacob's God do sing.
2 Take up a psalm, the pleasant harp, timbrel and psal'try bring.
3 Blow trumpets at new-moon, what day our feast appointed is:
4 For charge to Isr'el, and a law of Jacob's God was this.
5 To Joseph this a testimony
he made, when Egypt land
He travell'd through, where speech I
I did not understand. [heard 6 His shoulder I from burdens took, his hands from pots did free.
7 Thou didst in trouble on me call,
and I deliver'd thee:
In secret place of thundering
I did thee answer make;
And at the streams of Meribah of thee a proof did take.
8 O thou, my people, give an ear,
I'll testify to thee;
To thee, O Isr'el, if thou wilt but hearken unto me.
9 In midst of thee there shall not be any strange god at all;
Nor unto any god unknown
thou bowing down shalt fall.
10 I am the Lord thy God, which did from Egypt land thee guide;
I'll fill thy mouth abundantly,
do thou it open wide.
11 But yet my people to my voice would not attentive be;
And ev'n my chosen Isr'el
he would have none of me.
12 So to the lust of their own hearts
I them delivered;
And then in counsels of their own they vainly wandered.
13 O that my people had me heard,
Isr'el my ways had chose!
14 I had their enemies soon subdu'd, my hand turn'd on their foes.
15 The haters of the Lord to him submission should have feign'd;
But as for them, their time should have for evermore remain'd.
16 He should have also fed them with the finest of the wheat;
Of honey from the rock thy fill
I should have made thee eat.

PSALM 82.

IN gods' assembly God doth stand;
he judgeth gods among.
2 How long, accepting persons vile, will ye give judgment wrong?
3 Defend the poor and fatherless;
to poor oppress'd do right.
4 The poor and needy ones set free;
rid them from ill men's might.
5 They know not, nor will understand;
in darkness they walk on:
All the foundations of the earth out of their course are gone.

6 I said that ye are gods, and are sons of the Highest all:
7 But ye shall die like men, and as one of the princes fall.
8 O God, do thou raise up thyself, the earth to judgment call:
For thou, as thine inheritance, shalt take the nations all.

PSALM 83.

KEEP not, O God, we thee entreat,
O keep not silence now:
Do thou not hold thy peace, O God,
and still no more be thou.
2 For, lo, thine enemies a noise
tumultuously have made;
And they that haters are of thee have lifted up the head.
3 Against thy chosen people they do crafty counsel take;
And they against thy hidden ones do consultations make.
4 Come, let us cut them off, said they,
from being a nation,
That of the name of Isr'el may no more be mention.
5 For with joint heart they plot, in league against thee they combine.
6 The tents of Edom, Ishm'elites,
Moab's and Hagar's line;
7 Gebal, and Ammon, Amalek,
Philistines, those of Tyre;
8 And Assur join'd with them, to help
Lot's children they conspire.
9 Do to them as to Midian,
Jabin at Kison strand;
10 And Sis'ra, which at En-dor fell,
as dung to fat the land.
11 Like Oreb and like Zeeb make their noble men to fall;
Like Zeba and Zalmunna like,
make thou their princes all;
12 Who said, For our possession
let us God's houses take.
13 My God, them like a wheel, as chaff before the wind, them make.
14 As fire consumes the wood, as flame doth mountains set on fire, 15 Chase and affright them with the storm and tempest of thine ire.
16 Their faces fill with shame, O Lord, that they may seek thy name.
17 Let them confounded be, and vex'd, and perish in their shame:
18 That men may know that thou, to alone doth appertain [whom The name JEHOVAH, dost most high o'er all the earth remain.

PSALM 84.

HOW lovely is thy dwelling-place,
O Lord of hosts, to me!
The tabernacles of thy grace
how pleasant, Lord, they be!
2 My thirsty soul longs vehemently, yea faints, thy courts to see:
My very heart and flesh cry out,
O living God, for thee.
3 Behold, the sparrow findeth out an house wherein to rest;
The swallow also for herself hath purchased a nest;
Ev'n thine own altars, where she safe her young ones forth may bring,
O thou almighty Lord of hosts,
who art my God and King.
4 Bless'd are they in thy house that dwell, they ever give thee praise.
5 Bless'd is the man whose strength thou in whose heart are thy ways: [art, 6 Who passing thorough Baca's vale, therein do dig up wells;
Also the rain that falleth down
the pools with water fills.
7 So they from strength unwearied go still forward unto strength, Until in Zion they appear before the Lord at length.
8 Lord God of hosts, my prayer hear;
O Jacob's God, give ear.
9 See God our shield, look on the face of thine anointed dear.
10 For in thy courts one day excels a thousand; rather in My God's house will I keep a door, than dwell in tents of sin.
11 For God the Lord's a sun and shield:
he'll grace and glory give;
And will withhold no good from them that uprightly do live.
12 O thou that art the Lord of hosts, that man is truly blest,
Who by assured confidence on thee alone doth rest.

PSALM 85.

O LORD, thou hast been favourable to thy beloved land:
Jacob's captivity thou hast recall'd with mighty hand.
2 Thou pardoned thy people hast
all their iniquities;

Thou all their trespasses and sins hast cover'd from thine eyes. [turn 3 Thou took'st off all thine ire, from thy wrath's furiousness.
4 Turn us, God of our health, and cause thy wrath 'gainst us to cease.
5 Shall thy displeasure thus endure against us without end?
Wilt thou to generations all thine anger forth extend?
6 That in thee may thy people joy, wilt thou not us revive?
7 Show us thy mercy, Lord, to us do thy salvation give.
8 I'll hear what God the Lord will speak to his folk he'll speak peace,
And to his saints; but let them not return to foolishness.
9 To them that fear him surely near is his salvation;
That glory in our land may have her habitation.
10 Truth met with mercy, righteousness and peace kiss'd mutually:
11 Truth springs from earth, and righteous looks down from heaven high. [nes 12 Yea, what is good the Lord shall give;
our land shall yield increase:
13 Justice, to set us in his steps, shall go before his face.

PSALM 86.

O LORD, do thou bow down thine ear,
and hear me graeciously;
Because I sore afflicted am,
and am in poverty.
2 Because I'm holy, let my soul
by thee preserved be:
O thou my God, thy servant save,
that puts his trust in thee.
3 Sith unto thee I daily cry,
he merciful to me.
4 Rejoice thy servant's soul; for, Lord,
I lift my soul to thee.
5 For thou art graecious, O Lord,
and ready to forgive;
And rich in mercy, all that call upon thee to relieve.
6 Hear, Lord, my pray'r; unto the voice of my request attend:
7 In troublous times I'll call on thee;
for thou wilt answer send.
8 Lord, there is none among the gods that may with thee compare; [done,
And like the works which thou hast not any work is there.
9 All nations whom thou mad'st shall and worship rev'rently [come Before thy face; and they, O Lord, thy name shall glorify.
10 Because thou art exceeding great,
and works by thee are done
Which are to be admir'd; and thou art God thyself alone.
11 Teach me thy way, and in thy truth,
O Lord, then walk will I;
Unite my heart, that I thy name may fear continually.
12 O Lord my God, with all my heart to thee I will give praise;
And I the glory will ascribe unto thy name always:
13 Because thy mercy toward me
in greatness doth excel;
And thou deliver'd hast my soul out from the lowest hell.
14 O God, the proud against me rise, and violent men have met,
That for my soul have sought; and thee before them have not set.
15 But thou art full of pity, Lord,
a God most graecious,
Long-suffering, and in thy truth and mercy plenteous.
16 O turn to me thy countenance, and mercy on me have;
Thy servant strengthen, and the son of thine own handmaid save.
17 Show me a sign for good, that they which do me hate may see,
And be ashamed; because thou, Lord didst help and comfort me.

PSALM 87.

UPON the hills of holiness
he his foundation sets.
2 God, more than Jacob's dwellings delights in Zion's gates.
3 Things glorious are said of thee, thou city of the Lord.
4 Rahab and Babel I, to those that know me, will record:
Behold ev'n Tyrus, and with it the land of Palestine,
And likewise Ethiopia;
this man was born therein
5 And it of Zion shall be said,
This man and that man there Was born; and he that is most himself shall stablish her.

6 When God the people writes, he'll count that this man born was there.
7 There be that sing and play; and all my well-springs in thee are.

PSALM 88.

LORD God, my Saviour, day and night before thee cry'd have I.
2 Before thee let my prayer come; give e'er unto my cry.
3 For troubles great do fill my soul; my life draws nigh the grave.
4 I'm counted with those that go down to pit, and no strength have.
5 Ev'n free among the dead, like them that slain in grave do lie; Cut off from thy hand, whom no more thou hast in memory.
6 Thou hast me laid in lowest pit, in deeps and darksome caves.
7 Thy wrath lies hard on me, thou hast me press'd with all thy waves.
8 Thou hast put far from me my friends, thou mad'st them to abhor me; And I am so shut up, that I find no evasion for me.
9 By reason of affliction mine eye mourns dolefully: To thee, Lord, do I call, and stretch my hands continually.
10 Wilt thou show wonders to the dead? shall they rise, and thee bless?
11 Shall in the grave thy love be told? in death thy faithfulness?
12 Shall thy great wonders in the dark, or shall thy righteousness Be known to any in the land of deep forgetfulness?
13 But, Lord, to thee I cry'd; my pray'r at morn prevent shall thee.
14 Why, Lord, dost thou cast off my soul, and hid'st thy face from me?
15 Distress'd am I, and from my youth I ready am to die; Thy terrors I have borne, and am distracted fearfully.
16 The dreadful fierceness of thy wrath quite over me doth go: Thy terrors great have cut me off, they did pursue me so.
17 For round about me ev'ry day, like water, they did roll; And, gathering together, they have compassed my soul.
18 My friends thou hast put far from me, and him that did me love; And those that mine acquaintance were to darkness didst remove.

PSALM 89.

GOD'S mercies I will ever sing; and with my mouth I shall Thy faithfulness make to be known to generations all.
2 For mercy shall be built, said I, for ever to endure; Thy faithfulness, ev'n in the heav'n's, thou wilt establish sure.
3 I with my chosen One have made a cov'nant graciously; And to my servant, whom I lov'd, to David sworn have I;
4 That I thy seed establish shall for ever to remain, And will to generations all thy throne build and maintain.
5 The praises of thy wonders, Lord, the heavens shall express; And in the congregation of saints thy faithfulness.
6 For who in heaven with the Lord may once himself compare? Who is like God among the sons of those that mighty are?
7 Great fear in meeting of the saints is due unto the Lord; And he of all about him should with reverence be ador'd.
8 O thou that art the Lord of hosts, what Lord in mightiness Is like to thee? who compass'd round art with thy faithfulness.
9 Ev'n in the raging of the sea thou over it dost reign; And when the waves thereof do swell, thou stillest them again.
10 Rahah in pieces thou didst break, like one that slaughter'd is; And with thy mighty arm thou hast dispers'd thine enemies.
11 The heav'n's are thine, thou for thine the earth dost also take; [own The world, and fulness of the same, thy pow'r did found and make.
12 The north and south from thee alone, their first beginning had; Both Tabor mount and Hermon hill shall in thy name be glad.
13 Thou hast an arm that's full of pow'r, thy hand is great in might; And thy right hand exceedingly exalted is in height.

14 Justice and judgment of thy throu are made the dwelling-place; Mercy, accompany'd with truth, shall go before thy face.
15 O greatly bless'd the people are the joyful sound that know; In brightness of thy face, O Lord, they ever on shall go.
16 They in thy name shall all the day rejoice exceedingly; And in thy righteousness shall they exalted be on high.
17 Because the glory of their strength doth only stand in thee; And in thy favour shall our horn and pow'r exalted be.
18 For God is our defence; and he to us doth safety bring: The Holy One of Israel is our almighty King.
19 In vision to thy Holy One thou saidst, I help upon A strong one laid; out of the folk I rais'd a chosen one;
20 Ev'n David, I have found him out a servant unto me; And with my holy oil my King anointed him to be.
21 With whom my hand shall stablish'd be; mine arm shall make him strong.
22 On him the foe shall not exact, nor son of mischief wrong.
23 I will beat down before his face all his malicious foes; I will them greatly plague who do with hatred him oppese.
24 My mercy and my faithfulness with him yet still shall be; And in my name his horn and pow'r men shall exalted see.
25 His hand and pow'r shall reach afar, I'll set it in the sea; And his right hand established shall in the rivers be.
26 Thou art my Father, he shall cry, thou art my God aloud; And he shall say, Thou art the Rock of my salvation.
27 I'll make him my first-born, more high than kings of any land.
28 My love I'll ever keep for him, my cov'nant fast shall stand.
29 His seed I by my pow'r will make for ever to endure; And, as the days of heav'n, his throne shall stable be, and sure.
30 But if his children shall forsake my laws, and go astray, And in my judgments shall not walk, but wander from my way:
31 If they my laws break, and do not keep my commandments;
32 I'll visit then their faults with rods, their sins with chastisements.
33 Yet I'll not take my love from him, nor false my promise make.
34 My cov'nant I'll not break, nor change what with my mouth I spake.
35 Once by my holiness I swear, to David I'll not lie;
36 His seed and throne shall, as the sun, before me last for aye.
37 It, like the moon, shall ever be establish'd steadfastly; And like to that which in the heav'n doth witness faithfully.
38 But thou, displeas'd, hast cast off, thou didst abhor and loathe; With him that thine anointed is thou hast been very wroth.
39 Thou hast thy servant's covenant made void, and quite cast by; Thou hast profan'd his crown, while it cast on the ground doth lie.
40 Thou all his hedges hast broke down, his strong holds down hast torn.
41 He to all passers-by a spoil, to neighbours is a scorn.
42 Thou hast set up his foes' right hand; mad'st all his en'mies glad;
43 Turn'd his sword's edge, and him to in battle hast not made. [stand 44 His glory thou hast made to cease, his throne to ground down cast;
45 Shorten'd his days of youth, and him with shame thou cover'd hast.
46 How long, Lord, wilt thou hide thyself? for ever, in thine ire? And shall thine indignation burn like unto a fire?
47 Remember, Lord, how short a time I shall on earth remain: O wherefore is it so that thou hast made all men in vain?
48 What man is he that liveth here, and death shall never see? Or from the power of the grave what man his soul shall free?
49 Thy former loving-kindnesses, O Lord, where he they now? Those which in truth and faithfulness to David sworn hast thou?

50 Mind, Lord, thy servant's sad reproach; how I in bosom bear The scornings of the people all, who strong and mighty are.
51 Wherewith thy raging enemies reproach'd, O Lord, think on; Wherewith they have reproach'd the of thine anointed one. [steps 52 All blessing to the Lord our God let be ascribed then: For evermore so let it be. Amen, yea, and amen.

PSALM 90

LORD, thou hast been our dwelling-place in generations all.
2 Before thou ever hadst brought forth the mountains great or small; Ere ever thou hadst form'd the earth, and all the world abroad; Ev'n thou from everlasting art to everlasting God.
3 Thou dost unto destruction man that is mortal turn; And unto them thou says't, Again, ye sons of men, return.
4 Because a thousand years appear no more before thy sight Than yesterday, when it is past, or than a watch by night.
5 As with an overflowing flood thou carry'st them away: They like a sleep ere, like the grass that grows at morn are they.
6 At morn it flourishes and grows, cut down at ev'n doth fade.
7 For by thine anger we're consum'd, thy wrath makes us afraid.
8 Our sins thou and iniquities dost in thy presence place, And sett'st our secret faults before the brightness of thy face.
9 For in thine anger all our days do pass on to an end; And as a tale that hath been told, so we our years do spend.
10 Threescore and ten years do sum up our days and years, we see; Or if, by reason of more strength, in some fourscore they be: Yet doth the strength of such old men but grief and labour prove; For it is soon cut off, and we fly hence, and soon remove.
11 Who knows the power of thy wrath? according to thy fear
12 So is thy wrath: Lord, teach thou us our end in mind to bear; And so to count our days, that we our hearts may still apply To learn thy wisdom and thy truth, that we may live thereby.
13 Turn yet again to us, O Lord, how long thus shall it be? Let it repent thee now for those that servants are to thee.
14 O with thy tender mercies, Lord, us early satisfy; So we rejoice shall all our days, and still be glad in thee.
15 According as the days have been, wherein we grief have had, And years wherein we ill have seen, so do thou make us glad.
16 O let thy work and pow'r appear thy servants' face before; And show unto their children dear thy glory evermore:
17 And let the beauty of the Lord our God be us upon: Our handy works establish thou, establish them each one.

PSALM 91.

HE that doth in the secret place of the most High reside, Under the shade of him that is th' Almighty shall abide.
2 I of the Lord my God will say, He is my refuge still, He is my fortress, and my God, and in him trust I will.
3 Assuredly he shall thee save, and give deliverance From subtle fowler's snare, and from the noisome pestilence.
4 His feathers shall thee hide; thy trust under his wings shall be: His faithfulness shall be a shield and buckler unto thee.
5 Thou shalt not need to be afraid for terrors of the night; Nor for the arrow that doth fly by day, while it is light;
6 Nor for the pestilence, that walks in darkness secretly; Nor for destruction, that doth waste at noon-day openly.
7 A thousand at thy side shall fall, on thy right hand shall lie Ten thousand dead; yet unto thee it shall not once come nigh.

8 Only thou with thine eyes shalt look, and a beholder be; And thou therein the just reward of wicked men shalt see.
9 Because the Lord, who constantly my refuge is alone, Ev'n the most High, is made by thee thy habitation;
10 No plague shall near thy dwelling come, no ill shall thee befall:
11 For thee to keep in all thy ways his angels charge he shall.
12 They in their hands shall bear thee up, still waiting thee upon; Lest thou at any time should'st dash thy foot against a stone.
13 Upon the adder thou shalt tread, and on the lions strong; Thy feet on dragons trample shall and on the lions young.
14 Because on me he set his love, I'll save and set him free; Because my great name he hath known, I will him set on high.
15 He'll call on me, I'll answer him; I will be with him still In trouble, to deliver him, and honour him I will.
16 With length of days unto his mind I will him satisfy; I also my salvation will cause his eyes to see.

PSALM 92.

TO render thanks unto the Lord it is a comely thing, And to thy name, O thou most High, due praise aloud to sing.
2 Thy loving-kindness to show forth when shines the morning light; And to declare thy faithfulness with pleasure ev'ry night,
3 On a ten-stringed instrument, upon the psaltery, And on the harp with solemn sound and grave sweet melody.
4 For thou, Lord, by thy mighty works hast made my heart right glad; And I will triumph in the works which by thine hands were made.
5 How great, Lord, are thy works! each of thine a deep it is: [thought 6 A brutish man it knoweth not; fools understand not this.
7 When those that lewd and wicked are spring quickly up like grass, And workers of iniquity do flourish all apace; It is that they for ever may destroyed be and slain:
8 But thou, O Lord, art the most High for ever to remain.
9 For, lo, thine enemies, O Lord, thine en'mies perish shall; The workers of iniquity shall be dispersed all.
10 But thou shalt, like unto the horn of th' unicorn, exalt My horn on high: thou with fresh oil anoint me also shalt.
11 Mine eyes shall also my desire see on mine enemies; Mine ears shall of the wicked hear, that do against me rise.
12 But like the palm-tree flourishing shall be the righteous one; He shall like to the cedar grow that is in Lebanon.
13 Those that within the house of God are planted by his grace, They shall grow up, and flourish all in our God's holy place.
14 And in old age, when others fade, they fruit still forth shall bring; They shall be fat, and full of sap, and aye be flourishing;
15 To show that upright is the Lord he is a rock to me; And he from all unrighteousness is altogether free.

PSALM 93.

THE Lord doth reign, and cloth'd is he with majesty most bright; His works do show him cloth'd to be, and girt about with might. The world is also established, that it cannot depart.
2 Thy throne is fix'd of old, and thou from everlasting art.
3 The floods, O Lord, have lifted up, they lifted up their voice; The floods have lifted up their waves, and made a mighty noise.
4 But yet the Lord, that is on high, is more of might by far Than noise of many waters is, or great sea-billows are.
5 Thy testimonies ev'ry one in faithfulness excel; And holiness for ever, Lord, thine house ocometh well.

PSALM 94.

- O LORD God, unto whom alone
all vengeance doth belong;
O mighty God, who vengeance own'st, shine forth, avenging wrong.
- 2 Lift up thyself, thou of the earth
the sov'reign Judge that art;
And unto those that are so proud a due reward impart.
- 3 How long, O mighty God, shall they who lewd and wicked be,
How long shall they who wicked are thus triumph haughtily? [them]
- 4 How long shall things most hard be uttered and told?
And all that work iniquity to boast themselves be bold?
- 5 Thy folk they break in pieces, Lord,
thine heritage oppress:
6 The widow they and stranger slay, and kill the fatherless.
- 7 Yet say they, God it shall not see,
nor God of Jacob know.
- 8 Ye brutish people! understand;
fools! when wise will ye grow?
- 9 The Lord did plant the ear of man, and hear then shall not he?
He only form'd the eye, and then shall he not clearly see?
- 10 He that the nations doth correct, shall he not chastise you?
He knowledge unto man doth teach,
and shall himself not know?
- 11 Man's thoughts to be but vanity
the Lord doth well discern.
- 12 Bless'd is the man thou chast'nest, Lord, and mak'st thy law to learn: [days]
- 13 That thou may'st give him rest from of sad adversity,
Until the pit be digg'd for those that work iniquity.
- 14 For sure the Lord will not cast off those that his people be, Neither his own inheritance quit and forsake will he:
- 15 But judgment unto righteousness shall yet return again;
And all shall follow after it that are right-hearted men.
- 16 Who will rise up for me against those that do wickedly?
Who will stand up for me 'gainst those that work iniquity?
- 17 Unless the Lord had been my help
when I was sore oppress, Almost my soul had in the house of silence been at rest.
- 18 When I had uttered this word,
(my foot doth slip away),
Thy mercy held me up, O Lord,
thy goodness did me stay.
- 19 Amidst the multitude of thoughts which in my heart do fight,
My soul, lest it be overcharg'd, thy comforts do delight.
- 20 Shall of iniquity the throne have fellowship with thee,
Which mischief, cunningly contriv'd, doth by a law decree?
- 21 Against the righteous souls they join,
they guiltless blood condemn.
- 22 But of my refuge God's the rock, and my defence from them.
- 23 On them their own iniquity
the Lord shall bring and lay,
And cut them off in their own sin;
our Lord God shall them slay.

PSALM 95.

- O COME, let us sing to the Lord:
come, let us ev'ry one
A joyful noise make to the Rock of our salvation.
- 2 Let us before his presence come with praise and thankful voice;
Let us sing psalms to him with grace, and make a joyful noise.
- 3 For God, a great God, and great King, above all gods he is.
- 4 Depths of the earth are in his hand,
the strength of hills is his.
- 5 To him the spacious sea belongs, for he the same did make;
The dry land also from his hands its form at first did take.
- 6 O come, and let us worship him,
let us bow down withal,
And on our knees before the Lord
our Maker let us fall.
- 7 For he's our God, the people we of his own pasture are,
And of his hand the sheep; to-day,
if ye his voice will hear,
- 8 Then harden not your hearts, as in the provocation,
As in the desert, on the day of the temptation:
- 9 When me your fathers tempt'd and did my working see; [prov'd,
- 10 Ev'n for the space of forty years
this race hath griev'd me.

- I said, This people errs in heart,
my ways they do not know:
11 To whom I swear in wrath, that to my rest they should not go.

PSALM 96.

- O SING a new song to the Lord:
sing all the earth to God.
- 2 To God sing, bless his name, show still his saving health abroad.
- 3 Among the heathen nations his glory do declare;
And unto all the people show his works that wondrous are.
- 4 For great's the Lord, and greatly he is to be magnify'd;
Yea, worthy to be fear'd is he above all gods beside.
- 5 For all the gods are idols dumb,
which blinded nations fear;
But our God is the Lord, by whom the heavens created were.
- 6 Great honour is before his face,
and majesty divine;
Strength is within his holy place,
and there doth beauty shine.
- 7 Do ye ascribe unto the Lord, of people ev'ry tribe,
Glory do ye unto the Lord,
and mighty pow'r ascribe.
- 8 Give ye the glory to the Lord
that to his name is due;
Come ye into his courts, and bring an offering with you.
- 9 In beauty of his holiness,
O do the Lord adore;
Likewise let all the earth throughout tremble his face before.
- 10 Among the heathen say, God reigns;
the world shall steadfastly
Be fix'd from moving; he shall judge the people righteously.
- 11 Let heav'n's be glad before the Lord, and let the earth rejoice;
Let seas, and all that is therein, cry out, and make a noise.
- 12 Let fields rejoice, and ev'ry thing that springeth of the earth:
Then woods and ev'ry tree shall sing with gladness and with mirth
- 13 Before the Lord; because he comes,
to judge the earth comes he:
He'll judge the world with righteousness, the people faithfully. [ness,

PSALM 97.

- GOD reigneth, let the earth be glad,
and isles rejoice each one.
- 2 Dark clouds him compass; and in right with judgment dwells his throne.
- 3 Fire goes before him, and his foes
it burns up round about:
- 4 His lightnings lighten did the world;
earth saw, and shook throughout.
- 5 Hills at the presence of the Lord,
like wax, did melt away;
Ev'n at the presence of the Lord of all the earth, I say.
- 6 The heav'n's declare his righteousness, all men his glory see.
- 7 All who serve graven images,
confounded let them be.
- Who do of idols boast themselves,
let shame upon them fall:
Ye that are called Gods, see that ye do him worship all.
- 8 Sion did hear, and joyful was, glad Judah's daughters were;
They much rejoic'd, O Lord, because thy judgments did appear.
- 9 For thou, O Lord, art high above all things on earth that are;
Above all other gods thou art exalted very far.
- 10 Hate ill, all ye that love the Lord:
his saints' souls keepeth he;
And from the hands of wicked men
he sets them safe and free.
- 11 For all those that be righteous sown is a joyful light,
And gladness sown is for all those that are in heart upright.
- 12 Ye righteous, in the Lord rejoice;
express your thankfulness,
When ye into your memory
do call his holiness.

PSALM 98.

- O SING a new song to the Lord,
for wonders he hath done:
His right hand and his holy arm him victory hath won.
- 2 The Lord God his salvation
hath caused to be known;
His justice in the heathen's sight
he openly hath shown.
- 3 He mindful of his grace and truth to Israel's house hath been;
And the salvation of our God
all ends of th' earth have seen.
- 4 Let all the earth unto the Lord
send forth a joyful noise;

- Lift up your voice aloud to him, sing praises, and rejoice.

- 5 With harp, with harp, and voice of unto JEHOVAH sing: [psalms,
- 6 With trumpets, cornets, gladly sound before the Lord the King.
- 7 Let seas, and all their fulness roar;
the world, and dwellers there;
- 8 Let floods clap hands, and let the hills together joy declare
- 9 Before the Lord; because he comes,
to judge the earth comes he:
He'll judge the world with righteousness,
his folk with equity.

PSALM 99.

- TH' eternal Lord doth reign as king,
let all the people quake;
He sits between the cherubims,
let th' earth be mov'd and shake.
- 2 The Lord in Sion great and high above all people is;
- 3 Thy great and dreadful name (for it is holy) let them bless.
- 4 The king's strength also judgment loves;
thou settlest equity:
Just judgment thou dost execute in Jacob righteously.
- 5 The Lord our God exalt on high,
and rev'rently do ye
Before his footstool worship him:
the Holy One is he.
- 6 Moses and Aaron 'mong his priests,
Samuel, with them that call Upon his name: these call'd on God, and he them answer'd all.
- 7 Within the pillar of the cloud
he unto them did speak:
The testimonies he them taught,
and laws, they did not break.
- 8 Thou answer'dst them, O Lord our God;
thou wast a God that gave Pardon to them, though ou their deeds thou wouldest vengeance have.
- 9 Do ye exalt the Lord our God, and at his holy hill
Do ye him worship: for the Lord our God is holy still.

PSALM 100.

- ALL people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice.
- 2 Him serve with mirth, his praise forth
Come ye before him and rejoice. [tell,
- 3 Know that the Lord is God indeed;
Without our aid he did us make:
We are his flock, he doth us feed,
And for his sheep he doth us take.
- 4 O enter then his gates with praise,
Approach with joy his courts unto:
Praise, laud, and bless his name always,
For it is seemly so to do.
- 5 For why? the Lord our God is good,
His mercy is for ever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

Another of the same.

- O ALL ye lands, unto the Lord make ye a joyful noise.
- 2 Serve God with gladness, him before come with a singing voice.
- 3 Know ye the Lord that he is God;
not we, but he us made:
We are his people, and the sheep within his pasture fed.
- 4 Enter his gates and courts with praise, to thank him go ye thither:
To him express your thankfulness, and bless his name together.
- 5 Because the Lord our God is good,
his mercy faileth never;
And to all generations
his truth endureth ever.

PSALM 101.

- MERCY will and judgment sing,
Lord, I will sing to thee.
- 2 With wisdom in a perfect way shall my behaviour be.
- O when, in kindness unto me,
wilt thou be pleas'd to come?
1 with a perfect heart will walk within my house at home.
- 3 I will endure no wicked thing before mine eyes to be:
I hate their work that turn aside,
it shall not cleave to me.
- 4 A stubborn and a froward heart depart quite from me shall;
A person giv'n to wickedness
I will not know at all.
- 5 I'll cut him off that slandereth his neighbour privily:
The haughty heart I will not bear, nor him that looketh high.
- 6 Upon the faithful of the land mine eyes shall be, that they May dwell with me: he shall me serve that walks in perfect way.
- 7 Who of deceit a worker is in my house shall not dwell;

- And in my presence shall he not remain that lies doth tell.
- 8 Yea, all the wicked of the land
early destroy will I;
All from God's city to cut off
that work iniquity.

PSALM 102.

- O LORD, unto my pray'r give ear,
my cry let come to thee;
- 2 And in the day of my distress hide not thy face from me.
Give ear to me; what time I call,
to answer me make haste:
- 3 For, as an hearth, my bones are burnt my days, like smoke, do waste.
- 4 My heart within me smitten is,
and it is withered
Like very grass; so that I do forget to eat my bread.
- 5 By reason of my groaning voice my bones cleave to my skin.
- 6 Like pelican in wilderness forsaken I have been:
I like an owl in desert am,
that nightly there doth moan;
7 I watch, and like a sparrow am on the house-top alone.
- 8 My bitter enemies all the day
reproaches cast on me;
And, being mad at me, with rage against me sworn they be.
- 9 For why? I ashes eaten have like bread, in sorrows deep;
My drink I also mingled have with tears that I did weep.
- 10 Thy wrath and indignation did cause this grief and pain;
For thou hast lift me up on high,
and cast me down again.
- 11 My days are like unto a shade, which doth declining pass;
And I am dry'd and withered, ev'n like unto the grass.
- 12 But thou, Lord, everlasting art, and thy remembrance shall Continually endure, and be to generations all.
- 13 Thou shalt arise, and mercy have upon thy Sion yet;
The time to favour her is come,
the time that thou hast set.
- 14 For in her rubbish and her stones thy servants pleasure take;
Yea, they the very dust thereof do favour for her sake.
- 15 So shall the heathen people fear
the Lord's most holy name;
And all the kings on earth shall dread thy glory and thy fame.
- 16 When Sion by the mighty Lord built up again shall be,
In glory then and majesty to men appear shall he.
- 17 The prayer of the destitute
he surely will regard;
Their prayer will he not despise,
by him it shall be heard.
- 18 For generations yet to come this shall be on record:
So shall the people that shall be created praise the Lord.
- 19 He from his sanctuary's height lath downward cast his eye;
And from his glorious throne in heav'n
the Lord the earth did spy;
- 20 That of the mournful prisoner
the groanings he might hear,
To set them free that unto death by men appointed are:
- 21 That they in Sion may declare
the Lord's most holy name,
And publish in Jerusalem
the praises of the same;
- 22 When as the people gather shall in troops with one accord,
When kingdoms shall assembled be to serve the highest Lord.
- 23 My wonted strength and force he hath abated in the way,
And he my days hath shortened:
- 24 Thus therefore did I say,
My God, in mid-time of my days take thou me not away:
From age to age eternally
thy years endure and stay.
- 25 The firm foundation of the earth of old time thou hast laid;
The heavens also are the work which thine own hands have made
- 26 Thou shalt for evermore endure, but they shall perish all;
Yea, ev'ry one of them wax old,
like to a garment, shall:
- Thou, as a vesture, shalt them change and they shall changed be:
- 27 But thou the same art, and thy years are to eternity.
- 28 The children of thy servants shall continually endure;
And in thy sight, O Lord, their seed shall be establish'd sure.

Another of the same.

LORD, hear my pray'r, and let my cry
Have speedy access unto thee;
2 In day of my calamity
O hide not thou thy face from me.
Hear when I call to thee; that day
An answer speedily return:
8 My days, like smoke, consume away,
And, as an hearth, my bones do burn.
4 My heart is wounded very sore,
And withered, like grass doth fade:
I am forgetful grown therefore
To take and eat my daily bread.
5 By reason of my smart within,
And voice of my most grievous groans,
My flesh consumed is, my skin,
All parch'd, doth cleave unto my bones.
6 The pelican of wilderness,
The owl in desert, I do match;
7 And, sparrow-like, companionless,
Upon the house's top, I watch.
8 I all day long am made a scorn,
Reproach'd by my malicious foes:
The madmen are against me sworn,
The men against me that arose.
9 For I have ashes eaten up,
To me as if they had been bread;
And with my drink I in my cup
Of bitter tears a mixture made.
10 Because thy wrath was not appeas'd,
And dreadful indignation:
Therefore it was that thou me rais'd,
And thou again didst cast me down.
11 My days are like a shade away,
Which doth declining swiftly pass;
And I am withered away,
Much like unto the fading grass.
12 But thou, O Lord, shalt still endure,
From change and all mutation free,
And to all generations sure
Shall thy remembrance ever be.
13 Thou shalt arise, and mercy yet
Thou to mount Zion shalt extend:
Her time for favour which was set,
Behold, is now come to an end.
14 Thy saints take pleasure in her stones,
Her very dust to them is dear.
15 All heathen lands and kingly thrones
On earth thy glorious name shall fear.
16 God in his glory shall appear,
When Zion he builds and repairs.
17 He shall regard and lend his ear
Unto the needy's bumble pray'rs:
Th' afflicted's pray'r he will not scorn.
18 All times this shall be on record:
And generations yet unborn
Shall praise and magnify the Lord.
19 He from his holy place look'd down,
The earth he vis'd from heav'n on high;
20 To bear the pris'n's mourning groan,
And free them that are doom'd to die;
21 That Zion, and Jerus'lem too,
His name and praise may well record,
22 When people and the kingdoms do
Assemble all to praise the Lord.
23 My strength he weaken'd in the way,
My days of life he shortened.
24 My God, O take me not away
In mid-time of my days, I said:
Thy years throughout all ages last.
25 Of old thou hast established
The earth's foundation firm and fast:
Thy mighty hands the heav'ns have made.
26 They perish shall, as garments do,
But thou shalt evermore endure;
As vestures, thou shalt change them so;
And they shall all be changed sure:
27 But from all changes thou art free;
Thy endless years do last for aye.
28 Thy servants, and their seed who be,
Establish'd shall before thee stay.

PSALM 103.

O THOU my soul, bless God the Lord; and all that in me is
Be stirred up his holy name to magnify and bless.
2 Bless, O my soul, the Lord thy God, and not forgetful be
Of all his gracious benefits
he hath bestow'd on thee.
3 All thine iniquities who doth most graciously forgive:
Who thy diseases all and pains doth heal, and thee relieve.
4 Who doth redeem thy life, that thou to death may'st not go down;
Who thee with loving-kindness doth and tender mercies crown:
5 Who with abundance of good things doth satisfy thy mouth;
So that, ev'n as the eagle's age, renewed is thy youth.
6 God righteous judgment executes for all oppressed ones.
7 His ways to Moses, he his acts made known to Isr'el's sons.
8 The Lord our God is merciful, and he is gracious,
Long-suffering, and slow to wrath,
In mercy plenteous.

9 He will not chide continually, nor keep his anger still.
10 With us he dealt not as we sinn'd, nor did requite our ill.
11 For as the heaven in its height
the earth surmounteth far;
So great to those that do him fear
his tender mercies are:
12 As far as east is distant from the west, so far hath he
From us removed, in his love, all our iniquity.
13 Such pity as a father hath unto his children dear;
Like pity shows the Lord to such as worship him in fear.
14 For he remembers we are dust, and he our frame well knows.
15 Frail man, his days are like the grass, as flow'r in field he grows:
16 For over it the wind doth pass,
and it away is gone;
And of the place where once it was it shall no more be known.
17 But unto them that do him fear
God's mercy never ends;
And to their children's children still his righteousness extends:
18 To such as keep his covenant,
and mindful are alway
Of his most just commandments, that they may them obey.
19 The Lord prepared hath his throne in heavens firm to stand;
And ev'ry thing that being hath his kingdom doth command.
20 O ye his angels, that excel in strength, bless ye the Lord;
Ye who obey what he commands,
and hearken to his word.
21 O bless and magnify the Lord, ye glorious hosts of his;
Ye ministers, that do fulfill whate'er his pleasure is.
22 O bless the Lord, all ye his works, wherewith the world is stor'd
In his dominions ev'ry where.
My soul, bless thou the Lord.

PSALM 104.

BLESS God, my soul. O Lord my God, thou art exceeding great;
With honour and with majesty thou clothed art in state.
2 With light, as with a robe, thyself thou coverest about;
And, like unto a curtain, thou
the heavens stretchest out.
3 Who of his chambers doth the beams within the waters lay;
Who doth the clouds his chariot make,
on wings of wind make way.
4 Who flaming fire his ministers, his angels' spirits, doth make:
5 Who earth's foundations did lay, that it should never shake.
6 Thou didst it cover with the deep,
as with a garment spread:
The waters stood above the hills,
when thou the word but said.
7 But at the voice of thy rebuke they fled, and would not stay;
They at thy thunder's dreadful voice did haste them fast away.
8 Thy by the mountains do ascend, and by the valley-ground
Descend, unto that very place which thou for them didst found.
9 Thou hast a bound unto them set,
that they may not pass over,
That they do not return again
the face of earth to cover.
10 He to the valleys sends the springs, which run among the hills:
11 They to all beasts of field give drink, wild asses drink their fill, 12 By them the fowls of heav'n shall have their habitation.
Which do among the branches sing with delectation.
13 He from his chambers watereth
the hills, when they are dry'd:
With fruit and increase of thy works
the earth is satisfy'd.
14 For cattle he makes grass to grow,
he makes the herb to spring
For th' use of man, that food to him he from the earth may bring;
15 And wine, that to the heart of man
doth cheerfulness impart,
Oil that his face makes shine, and bread that strengtheneth his heart.
16 The trees of God are full of sap;
the cedars that do stand
In Lebanon, which planted were by his almighty hand.
17 Birds of the air upon their boughs do choose their nests to make;
As for the stork, the fir-tree she doth for her dwelling take.
18 The lofty mountains for wild goats
a place of refuge be;

The coales also to the rocks
do for their safety flee.
19 He sets the moon in heav'n, thereby the seasons to discern:
From him the sun his certain time of going down doth learn. [beasts 20 Thou darkness mak'st, 'tis night, then of forests creep abroad.
21 The lions young roar for their prey, and seek their meat from God.
22 The sun doth rise, and home they flock, down in their dens they lie.
23 Man goes to work, his labour he doth to the ev'ning ply.
24 How manifold, Lord, are thy works in wisdom wonderful
Thou ev'ry one of them hast made;
earth's of thy riches full:
25 So is this great and spacious sea, wherewith things creeping are,
Which number'd cannot be; and beasts both great and small are there.
26 There ships go; there thou mak'st to play that leviathan great.
27 These all wait on thee, that thou may'st in due time give them meat.
28 That which thou givest unto them they gather for their food;
Thine hand thou open'st lib'rally,
they filled are with good.
29 Thou hid'st thy face; they troubled are,
their breath thou tak'st away;
Then do they die, and to their dust return again do they.
30 Thy quick'ning spirit thou send'st forth, then they created be;
And then the earth's decay'd face renewed is by thee.
31 The glory of the mighty Lord continue shall for ever:
The Lord JEHOVAH shall rejoice in all his works together.
32 Earth, as affrighted, trembleth all,
if he on it but look;
And if the mountains he but touch, they presently do smoke.
33 I will sing to the Lord most high,
so long as I shall live;
And while I being have I shall to my God praises give.
34 Of him my meditation shall sweet thoughts to me afford;
And as for me, I will rejoice in God, my only Lord.
35 From earth let sinners be consum'd, let ill men no more be.
O thou my soul, bless thou the Lord.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

PSALM 105.

GIVE thanks to God, call on his name;
to men his deeds make known.
2 Sing ye to him, sing psalms; proclaim his wondrous works each one.
3 See that ye in his holy name to glory do accord;
And let the heart of ev'ry one rejoice that seeks the Lord.
4 The Lord Almighty, and his strength, with steadfast hearts seek ye:
His blessed and his gracious face seek ye continually.
5 Think on the works that he hath done,
which admiration breed;
His wonders, and the judgments all which from his mouth proceed; 6 O ye that are of Abr'ham's race,
his servant well approv'd;
And ye that Jacob's children are,
whom he chose for his own.
7 Because he, and he only, is the mighty Lord our God;
And his most righteous judgments are in all the earth abroad.
8 His cov'nant he remember'd hath,
that it may ever stand:
To thousand generatious
the word he did command.
9 Which cov'nant he firmly made with faithful Abraham,
And unto Isaac, by his oath,
he did renew the same:
10 And unto Jacob, for a law,
he made it firm and sure,
A covenant to Israel,
which ever should endure.
11 He said, I'll give Canaan's land for heritage to you;
12 Whils they were strangers there, and few,
in number very few:
13 While yet they went from land to land without a sure abode;
And while through sundry kingdoms did wander far abroad; [they 14 Yet, notwithstanding, suffer'd he no man to do them wrong:
Yea, for their sakes, he did reprove kings, who were great and strong.
15 Thus did he say, Touch ye not those that mine anointed be,
Nor do the prophets any harm that do pertain to me.

16 He call'd for famine on the land, he brake the staff of bread:
17 But yet he sent a man before,
by whom they should be fed;
Ev'n Joseph, whom unnat'rally sell for a slave did they;
18 Whose feet with fetters they did hurt,
and he in irons lay;
19 Until the time that his word came to give him liberty;
The word and purpose of the Lord
did him in prison try.
20 Then sent the king, and did command that he enlarg'd should be:
He that the people's ruler was did send to set him free.
21 A lord to rule his family
he rais'd him, as most fit;
To him of all that he possess'd
he did the charge commit:
22 That he might at his pleasure bind
the princes of the land;
And he might teach his senators wisdom to understand.
23 The people then of Israel down into Egypt came;
And Jacob also sojourn'd
within the land of Ham.
24 And he did greatly by his pow'r increase his people there;
And stronger than their enemies
they by his blessing were.
25 Their heart he turned to envy his folk maliciously,
With those that his own servants were to deal in subtily.
26 His servant Moses he did send,
Aaron his chosen one.
27 By these his signs and wonders great in Ham's land were made known.
28 Darkness he sent, and made it dark;
his word they did obey.
29 He turn'd their waters into blood, and he their fish did slay.
30 Their land in plenty brought forth frogs in chambers of their kings.
31 His word all sorts of flies and lice in all their borders brings.
32 He hail for rain, and flaming fire into their land he sent:
33 And he their vines and fig-trees smote;
trees of their coasts he rent.
34 He spake, and caterpillars came,
locusts did much abound;
35 Which in their land all herbs consum'd, and all fruits of their ground.
36 He smote all first-born in their land, chief of their strength each one.
37 With gold and silver brought them forth, weak in their tribes were none.
38 Egypt was glad when forth they went,
their fear on them did light.
39 He spread a cloud for covering,
and fire to shine by night.
40 They ask'd, and he brought quails: with of heav'n he filled them. [bread 41 He open'd rocks, floods gush'd, and ran in deserts like a stream.
42 For on his holy promise he,
and servant Abr'ham, thought.
43 With joy his people, his elect with gladness, forth he brought.
44 And unto them the pleasant lands
he of the heathen gave;
That of the people's labour they inheritance might have.
45 That they his statutes might observe according to his word;
And that they might his laws obey.
Give praise unto the Lord.

PSALM 106.

GIVE praise and thanks unto the Lord, for bountiful is he;
His tender mercy doth endure unto eternity.
2 God's mighty works who can express?
or show forth all his praise?
3 Blessed are they that judgment keep,
and justly do always.
4 Remember me, Lord, with that love which thou to thine dost bear;
With thy salvation, O my God,
to visit me draw near:
5 That I thy chosen's good may see,
and in their joy rejoice;
And may with thine inheritance triumph with cheerful voice.
6 We with our fathers sinned have,
and of iniquity
Too long we have the workers been;
we have done wickedly.
7 The wonders great, which thou, O Lord,
didst work in Egypt land,
Our fathers, though they saw, yet them
they did not understand:
And they thy mercies' multitude kept not in memory;
But at the sea, ev'n the Red sea,
provok'd him grievously.
8 Nevertheless he saved them,
ev'n for his own name's sake.

That so he might be well known his mighty power make.

9 When he the Red sea did rebuke, then dried up it was:
Through depths, as through the wilder-he safely made them pass. [ness,

10 From hands of those that hated them
he did his people save;
And from the en'my's cruel hand to them redemption gave.

11 The waters overwhelm'd their foes; not one was left alive.

12 Then they believ'd his word, and praise to him in songs did give.

13 But soon did they his mighty works forget unthankfully,
And on his counsel and his will did not wait patiently;

14 But much did lust in wilderness, and God in desert tempt.

15 He gave them what they sought, but to their soul he leanness sent.

16 And against Moses in the camp their envy did appear;
At Aarou they, the saint of God, envious also were.

17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did devour,
And all Abiram's company did cover in that hour.

18 Likewise among their company a fire was kindled then;
And so the hot consuming flame burnt up these wicked men.

19 Upon the hill of Moreb they an idol-calf did frame,
A molten image they did make,
and worshipped the same.

20 And thus their glory, and their God, most vainly echanged they
Into the likeness of an ox that eateth grass or hay.

21 They did forget the mighty God, that had their saviour been, [pass
By whom such great things brought to they had in Egypt seen.

22 In Ham's land he did wondrous works, things terrible did he,
When he his mighty hand and arm stretch'd out at the Red sea.

23 Then said he, He would them destroy, had not his wrath to stay,
His chosen Moses stood in breach,
that them he should not slay.

24 Yea, they despis'd the pleasant land, believed not his word:

25 But in their tents they murmured, not heark'ning to the Lord.

26 Therefore in desert them to slay
he lifted up his hand:

27 'Mong nations to o'erthrow their seed, and scatter in each land.

28 They unto Baal-peor did themselves associate;
The sacrifices of the dead
they did profanely eat.

29 Thus, by their lewd inventions,
they did provoke his ire;
And then upon them suddenly the plague brake in as fire.

30 Then Phin'has rose, and justice did,
and so the plague did cease;

31 That to all ages counted was to him for righteousness.

32 And at the waters, where they strove, they did him angry make,
In such sort, that it fared ill with Moses for their sake:

33 Because they there his spirit meek provoked bitterly,
So that he utter'd with his lips words unadvisedly.

34 Nor, as the Lord commanded them, did they the nations slay:

35 But with the heathen mingled were,
and learn'd of them their way.

36 And they their idols serv'd, which did a snare unto them turn.

37 Their sons and daughters they to dev'ls in sacrifice did burn.

38 In their own children's guiltless blood their hands they did imbrue, Whom to Canaan's idols they for sacrifices slew:

So was the land defil'd with blood.

39 They stain'd with their own way,
And with their own inventions
a whoring they did stray.

40 Against his people kindled was the wrath of God therefore,
Insomuch that he did his own inheritance abhor.

41 He gave them to the heathen's hand;
their foes did them command.

42 Their en'mies them oppress'd, they were made subject to their hand.

43 He many times deliver'd them;
but with their counsel so They him provok'd, that for their sin they were brought very low.

44 Yet their affliction he beheld, when he did hear their cry:

45 And he for them his covenant
did call to memory;
After his mercies' multitude he did repent: And made 46 Them to be pitied of all those who did them captive lead.

47 O Lord our God, us save, and gather the heathen from among,
That we thy holy name may praise in a triumphant song.

48 Bless'd be JEHOVAH, Isr'el's God,
to all eternity:
Let all the people say, Amen.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

PSALM 107.

PRAISE God, for he is good: for still his mercies lasting be.

2 Let God's redeem'd say so, whom he from th' en'my's hand did free;

3 And gather'd them out of the lands, from north, south, east, and west.

4 They stray'd in deserts pathless way, no city found to rest.

5 For thirst and hunger in them faints
6 their soul. When straits them press,
They cry unto the Lord, and he them frees from their distress.

7 Them also in a way to walk that right is he did guide,
That they might to a city go,
wherein they might abide.

8 O that men to the Lord would give praise for his goodness then,
And for his works of wonder done
unto the sons of men!

9 For he the soul that longing is doth fully satisfy;
With goodness he the hungry soul
doth fill abundantly.

10 Such as shut up in darkness deep,
and in death's shade abide,
Whom strongly hath affliction bound,
and irons fast have ty'd:

11 Because against the words of God
they wrought rebelliously,
And they the counsel did contemn of him that is most High:

12 Their heart he did bring down with grief, they fell, no help could have.

13 In trouble then they cried to God, he them from straits did save.

14 He out of darkness did them bring,
and from death's shade them take;
These bands, wherewith they had been asunder quite he brake. [bound,

15 O that men to the Lord would give praise for his goodness then,
And for his works of wonder done
unto the sons of men!

16 Because the mighty gates of brass in pieces he did tear,
By him in sunder also cut the bars of iron were.

17 Fools, for their sin, and their offence,
do sore affliction bear;

18 All kind of meat their soul abhors;
they to death's gates draw near.

19 In grief they cry to God; he saves them from their miseries.

20 He sends his word, them heals, and them from their destructions frees.

21 O that men to the Lord would give praise for his goodness then,
And for his works of wonder done
unto the sons of men!

22 And let them sacrifice to him offerings of thankfulness;
And let them show abroad his works in songs of joyfulness.

23 Who go to sea in ships, and in great waters trading be, 24 Within the deep these men God's works and his great wonders see.

25 For he commands, and forth in haste
the stormy tempest flies,
Which makes the sea with rolling waves aloft to swell and rise.

26 They mount to heav'n, then to the depths
they do go down again;
Their soul doth faint and melt away with trouble and with pain.

27 They reel and stagger like one drunk, at their wit's end they be:

28 Then they to God in trouble cry, who them from straits doth free.

29 The storm is chang'd into a calm at his command and will;
So that the waves, which rag'd before,
now quiet are and still.

30 Then are they glad, because at rest and quiet now they be:
So to the haven he them brings,
whieh they desir'd to see.

31 O that men to the Lord would give praise for his goodness then,
And for his works of wonder done
unto the sons of men!

32 Among the people gathered let them exalt his name;
Among assembled elders spread his most renowned fame.

33 He to dry land turns water-springs, and floods to wilderness;

34 For sins of those that dwell therein, fat land to barrenness.

35 The burnt and parched wilderness to water-pools he brings;
The ground that was dried up before he turns to water-springs:

36 And there, for dwelling, he a place doth to the hungry give,
That they a city may prepare commodiously to live. [plant,

37 There sow they fields, and vineyards to yield fruits of increase.

38 His blessing makes them multiply, lets not their beasts decrease.

39 Again they are diminished, and very low brought down,
Through sorrow and affliction, and great oppression.

40 He upon princes pours contempt, and causeth them to stray,
And wander in a wilderness,
wherein there is no way.

41 Yet setteth he the poor on high from all his miseries,
And he, much like unto a flock,
doth make him families.

42 They that are righteous shall rejoice, when they the same shall see;
And, as ashamed, stop her mouth shall all iniquity.

43 Whoso is wise, and will these things observe, and them record, Ev'n they shall understand the love and kindness of the Lord.

PSALM 108.

MY heart is fix'd, Lord; I will sing, and with my glory praise.

2 Awake up psaltery and harp;
myself I'll early raise.

3 I'll praise thee 'mong the people, Lord;
'mong nations sing will I:

4 For above heav'n thy mercy's great, thy truth doth reach the sky.

5 Be thou above the heavens, Lord, exalted gloriously;
Thy glory all the earth above be lifted up on high.

6 That those who thy beloved are delivered may be,
O do thou save with thy right hand,
and answer give to me.

7 God in his holiness hath said,
Herein I will take pleasure;
Shechem I will divide, and forth will Succoth's valley measure.

8 Gilead I claim as mine by right;
Manasseh mine shall be;
Ephraim is of my head the strength;
Judah gives laws for me;

9 Moab's my washing-pot; my shoe
I'll over Edom throw;
Over the land of Palestine
I will in triumph go.

10 O who is he will bring me to the city fortify'd?
O who is he that to the land of Edom will me guide?

11 O God, thou who hadst east us off, this thing wilt thou not do?
And wilt not thou, ev'n thou, O God, forth with our armies go?

12 Do thou from trouble give us help, for helpless is man's aid.

13 Through God we shall do valiantly;
our foes he shall down tread.

PSALM 109.

OTHOU the God of all my praise,
do thou not hold thy peace;

2 For mouths of wicked men to speak against me do not cease:
The mouths of vile deceitful men against me open'd be;
And with a false and lying tongue
they have accused me.

3 They did beset me round about with words of hateful spite:
And though to them no cause I gave, against me they did fight.

4 They for my love became my foes, but I me set to pray.

5 Evil for good, hatred for love, to me they did repay.

6 Set thou the wicked over him;
and upon his right hand
Give thou his greatest enemy, ev'n Satan, leave to stand.

7 And when by thee he shall be judg'd, let him condemned be;
And let his pray'r be turn'd to sin,
when he shall call on thee.

8 Few be his days, and in his room his charge another take.

9 His children let be fatherless, his wife a widow make.

10 His children let be vagabonds,
and beg continually;
And from their places desolate seek bread for their supply.

11 Let covetous extortioners catch all he hath away:
Of all for which he labour'd hath let strangers make a prey.

12 Let there be none to pity him, let there be none at all
That on his children fatherless will let his mercy fall.

13 Let his posterity from earth cut off for ever be,
And in the follow'ing age their name be blotted out by thee.

14 Let God his father's wickedness still to remembrance call;
And never let his mother's sin be blotted out at all.

15 But let them all before the Lord appear continually,
That he may wholly from the earth cut off their memory.

16 Because he mercy minded not,
but persecuted still
The poor and needy, that he might the broken-hearted kill.

17 As he in cursing pleasure took,
so let it to him fall;
As he delighted not to bless,
so bless him not at all.

18 As cursing he like clothes put on,
into his bowels so,
Like water, and into his bones,
like oil, down let it go.

19 Like to the garment let it be which doth himself array,
And for a girdle, wherewith he is girt about alway.

20 From God let this be their reward
that en'mies are to me,
And their reward that speak against my soul maliciously.

21 But do thou, for thine own name's sake,
O God the Lord, for me:
Sith good and sweet thy mercy is,
from trouble set me free.

22 For I am poor and indigent, afflicted sore am I,
My heart within me also is wounded exceedingly.

23 I pass like a declining shade, am like the locust lost:

24 My knees through fasting weaken'd are, my flesh hath fatness lost.

25 I also am a vile reproach unto them made to be;
And they that did upon me look did shake their heads at me.

26 O do thou help and succour me, who art my God and Lord:
And, for thy tender mercy's sake, safety to me afford:

27 That thereby they may know that this is thy almighty hand;
And that thou, Lord, hast done the same,
they may well understand.

28 Although they curse with spite, yet, Lord, bless thou with loving voice:
Let them ashamed be when they rise;
thy servant let rejoice.

29 Let thou mine adversaries all with shame be clothed over;
And let their own confusion them, as a mantle, cover.

30 But as for me, I with my mouth will greatly praise the Lord;
And I among the multitude his praises will record.

31 For he shall stand at his right hand who is in poverty,
To save him from all those that would condemn his soul to die.

PSALM 110.

THE LORD did say unto my Lord,
Sit thou at my right hand,
Until I make thy foes a stool, whereon thy feet may stand.

2 The Lord shall out of Sion send the rod of thy great pow'r:
In midst of all thine enemies be thou the governor.

3 A willing people in thy day of pow'r shall come to thee,
In holy beauties from morn's womb;
thy youth like dew shall be.

4 The Lord himself hath made an oath, and will repent him never,
Of th' order of Melchisedec thou art a priest for ever.

5 The glorious and mighty Lord, that sits at thy right hand,
Shall, in his day of wrath, strike through kings that do him withstand.

6 He shall among the heathen judge,
he shall with bodies dead
The places fill: o'er many lands
he wound shall ev'ry head.

7 The brook that runneth in the way with drink shall him supply;
And, for this cause, in triumph he shall lift his head on high.

PSALM 111.

PRAISE ye the Lord: with my whole
I will God's praise declare, [heart Where the assemblies of the just and congregations are.
2 The whole works of the Lord our God are great above all measure, Sought out they are of ev'ry one that doth therein take pleasure.
3 His work most honourable is,
most glorious and pure,
And his untainted righteousness for ever doth endure.
4 His works most wonderful he hath made to be thought upon:
The Lord is gracious, and he is full of compassion.
5 He giveth meat unto all those that truly do him fear;
And evermore his covenant
he in his mind will bear.
6 He did the power of his worke unto his people show,
When he the heathen's heritage upon them did bestow.
7 His handy-works are truth and right;
all his commands are sure:
8 And, done in truth and uprightness, they evermore endure.
9 He sent redemption to his folk;
his covenant for aye
He did command: holy his name and rev'rend is alway.
10 Wisdom's beginning is Ood's fear:
good understanding they Have all that his commands fulfil:
his praise endures for aye.

PSALM 112.

PRAISE ye the Lord. The man is bless'd that fears the Lord aright,
He who in his commandments doth greatly take delight.
2 His seed and offspring powerful shall be the earth upon:
Of upright men bless'd shall be the generation.
3 Riches and wealth shall ever be within his house in store;
And his unspotted righteousness endures for evermore.
4 Unto the upright light doth rise, though he in darkness be:
Compassionate, and merciful, and righteous, is he.
5 A good man doth his favour show,
and doth to others lend:
He with discretion his affairs will guide unto the end.
6 Surely there is not any thing that ever shall him move:
The righteous man's memorial shall everlasting prove.
7 When he shall evil tidings hear,
he shall not be afraid:
His heart is fix'd, his confidence upon the Lord is stay'd.
8 His heart is firmly stablished, afraid he shall not be,
Until upon his enemies
he his desire shall see.
9 He hath dispers'd, giv'n to the poor;
his righteousness shall be To ages all; with honour shall his horn be raised high.
10 The wicked shall it see, and fret,
his teeth gnash, melt away:
What wicked men do most desire shall utterly decay.

PSALM 113.

PRAISE God: ye servants of the Lord,
O praise, the Lord's name praise.
2 Yea, blessed be the name of God from this time forth always.
3 From rising sun to where it sets,
God's name is to be praise'd.
4 Above all nations God is high,
'bove heav'n's his glory rais'd.
5 Unto the Lord our God that dwells on high, who can compare?
Himself that humbleth things to see in heav'n and earth that are.
7 He from the dust doth raise the poor that very low doth lie:
And from the dunghill lifts the man
oppress'd with poverty;
8 That he may highly him advance, and with the princes set;
With those that of his people are the chief, ev'n princes great.
9 The barren woman house to keep he maketh, and to be
Of sons a mother full of joy.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

PSALM 114.

WHEN Isr'el out of Egypt went,
and did his dwelling change,
When Jacob's house went out from those that were of language strange,

2 He Judah did his sanctuary, his kingdom Isr'el make:
3 The sea it saw, and quickly fled,
Jordan was driven back.
4 Like rams the mountains, and like the hills skipp'd to and fro. [lambs 5 O sea, why flect'dst thou? Jordan, back why wast thou driven so?
6 Ye mountains great, wherefore was it that ye did skip like rams?
And wherefore was it, little hills,
that ye did leap like lambs?
7 O at the presence of the Lord, earth, tremble thou for fear,
While as the presence of the God of Jacob doth appear:
8 Who from the hard and stony rock did standing water bring;
And by his pow'r did turn the flint into a water-spring.

PSALM 115.

NOT unto us, Lord, not to us, but do thou glory take Unto thy name, ev'n for thy truth, and for thy mercy's sake.
2 O wherefore should the heathen say,
Where is their Ood now gone?
3 But our God in the heavens is, what pleas'd him he hath done.
4 Their idols silver are and gold, work of men's hands they be.
5 Mouths have they, but they do not speak;
and eyes, hut do not see;
6 Ears have they, hut they do not hear;
noses, hut savour not;
7 Hands, feet, hut handle not, nor walk;
nor speak they through their throat.
8 Like them their makers are, and all on them their trust that build.
9 O Isr'el, trust thou in the Lord,
he is their help and shield.
10 O Aaron's house, trust in the Lord, their help and shield is he.
11 Ye that fear God, trust in the Lord, their help and shield he'll be.
12 The Lord of us hath mindful been,
and he will bless us still:
He will the house of Isr'el bless, bless Aaron's house he will.
13 Both small and great, that fear the Lord,
he will them surely bless.
14 The Lord will you, you and your seed, aye more and more increase.
15 O blessed are ye of the Lord, who made the earth and heav'n.
16 The heav'n, ev'n heav'ns, are Ood's, hut earth to men's sons hath giv'n. [he 17 The dead, nor who to silence go,
God's praise do not record:
18 Hut henceforth we for ever will bless Ood. Praise ye the Lord.

PSALM 116.

I LOVE the Lord, because my voice and prayers he did hear.
2 I, while I live, will call on him, who bow'd to me his ear.
3 Of death the cords and sorrows did about me compass round;
The pains of hell took hold on me,
I grief and trouble found.
4 Upon the name of Ood the Lord
then did I call, and say,
Deliver thou my soul, O Lord,
I do thee humbly pray.
5 God merciful and righteous is,
yea, gracious is our Lord.
6 God saves the meek: I was brought low,
he did me help afford.
7 O thou my soul, do thou return unto thy quiet rest;
For largely, lo, the Lord to thee his bounty hath exprest.
8 For my distressed soul from death
deliver'd was by thee:
Thou didst my mourning eyes from tears,
my feet from falling, free.
9 I in the land of those that live will walk the Lord before.
10 I did believe, therefore I spake:
I was afflicted sore.
11 I said, when I was in my haste, that all men liars be.
12 What shall I render to the Lord for all his gifts to me?
13 I'll of salvation take the cup,
on God's name will I call:
14 I'll pay my vows now to the Lord
before his people all.
15 Dear in God's sight is his saints' death.
16 Thy servant, Lord, am I;
Thy servant sure, thine handmaid's son:
my hands thou didst untie.
17 Thank-off'rings I to thee will give,
and on God's name will call.
18 I'll pay my vows now to the Lord
before his people all;
19 Within the courts of God's own house, within the midst of thee,
O city of Jerusalem.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

PSALM 117.

O GIVE ye praise unto the Lord,
all nations that be;
Likewise, ye people all, accord
his name to magnify.
2 For great to us-ward ever are his loving-kindnesses:
His truth endures for evermore.
The Lord O do ye bless.

PSALM 118.

O PRAISE the Lord, for he is good;
his mercy lasteth ever.
2 Let those of Israel now say,
His mercy faileth never.
3 Now let the house of Aaron say,
His mercy lasteth ever.
4 Let those that fear the Lord now say,
His mercy falleth never.
5 I in distress call'd on the Lord;
the Lord did answer me:
He in a large place did me set,
from trouble made me free.
6 The mighty Lord is on my side,
I will not be afraid;
For any thing that man can do
I shall not be dismay'd.
7 The Lord doth take my part with them,
that help to succour me:
Therefore on those that do me hate
I my desire shall see.
8 Better it is to trust in God than trust in man's defence;
9 Better to trust in Ood than make princes our confidence.
10 The nations, joining all in one,
did compass me about:
But in the Lord's most holy name
I shall them all root out.
11 They compass'd me about; I say,
they compass'd me about:
But in the Lord's most holy name
I shall them all root out.
12 Like bees they compass'd me about;
like unto thorus that flame
They quenched are: for them shall I destroy in God's own name.
13 Thou sore hast thrust, that I might fall, hut my Lord helped me.
14 God my salvation is become,
my strength and song is he.
15 In dwellings of the righteous is heard the melody
Of joy and health: the Lord's right hand doth ever valiantly.
16 The right hand of the mighty Lord exalted is on high;
The right hand of the mighty Lord
doth ever valiantly.
17 I shall not die, hut live, and shall the works of God discover.
18 The Lord hath me chastised sore, hut not to death giv'n over.
19 O set ye open unto me
the gates of righteousness;
Then will I enter into them,
and I the Lord will bless.
20 This is the gate of Ood, by it the just shall enter in.
21 Thee will I praise, for thou me heard'st, and hast my safety been.
22 That stone is made head corner-stone, which builders did despise:
23 This is the doing of the Lord, and wondrous in our eyes.
24 This is the day God made, in it we'll joy triumphantly.
25 Save now, I pray thee, Lord; I pray, send now prosperity.
26 Blessed is he in God's great name that cometh us to save:
We, from the house which to the Lord pertains, you blessed have.
27 God is the Lord, who unto us hath made light to arise:
Bind ye unto the altar's horns with cords the sacrifice.
28 Thou art my God, I'll thee exalt;
my God, I will thee praise.
29 Give thanks to God, for he is good:
his mercy lasts always.

PSALM 119.

ALEPH. The 1st Part.

BLESSED are they that undefil'd, and straight are in the way;
Who in the Lord's most holy law do walk, and do not stray.
2 Blessed are they who to observe his statutes are inclin'd;
And who do seek the living God with their whole heart and mind.
3 Such in his ways do walk, and they do no iniquity.
4 Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts carefully.
5 O that thy statutes to observe thou would'st my ways direct!
6 Then shall I not be sham'd, when I thy precepts all respect.

7 Then with integrity of art thee will I praise and bless,
When I the judgments all have learn'd of thy pure righteousness.
8 That I will keep thy statutes all firmly resolv'd have I:
O do not then, most gracious God, forsake me utterly.

BETH. The 2d Part.

9 By what means shall a young man learn his way to purify?
If he according to thy word thereto attentive be.
10 Unfeignedly thee have I sought with all my soul and heart:
O let me not from the right path of thy commands depart.
11 Thy word I in my heart have hid, that I offend not thee.
12 O Lord, thou ever blessed art, thy statutes teach thou me.
13 The judgments of thy mouth each one my lips declared have:
14 More joy thy testimonies' way than riches all me gave.
15 I will thy holy precepts make my meditation;
And carefully I'll have respect unto thy ways each one.
16 Upon thy statutes my delight shall constantly be set:
And, by thy grace, I never will thy holy word forget.

GIMEL. The 3d Part.

17 With me thy servant, in thy grace, deal bountifully, Lord;
That by thy favour I may live,
and duly keep thy word.
18 Open mine eyes, that of thy law
the wonders I may see.
19 I am a stranger on this earth, hide not thy laws from me.
20 My soul within me breaks, and doth much fainting still endure,
Through longing that it hath all time unto thy judgments pure.
21 Thou hast reuk'd the cursed proud, who from thy precepts swerve.
22 Reproach and shame remove from me,
for I thy laws observe.
23 Against me princes spake with spite, while they in council sat:
But I thy servant did upon thy statutes meditate.
24 My comfort, and my heart's delight, thy testimonies be;
And they, in all my doubts and fears,
are counsellors to me.

DALETH. The 4th Part.

25 My soul to dust cleaves: quicken
according to thy word.
26 My ways I show'd, and me thou heard'st.
teach me thy statutes, Lord.
27 The way of thy commandments make me aright to know;
So all thy works that wondrous are
I shall to others show.
28 My soul doth melt, and drop away,
for heaviness and grief:
To me, according to thy word,
give strength, and send relief.
29 From me the wicked way of lies let far removed be;
And graciously thy holy law
do thou grant unto me.
30 I chosen have the perfect way of truth and verity:
Thy judgments that most righteous are before me laid have I.
31 I to thy testimonies cleave;
shame do not on me east.
32 I'll run thy precepts' way, when thou my heart enlarged hast.

HE. The 5th Part.

33 Teach me, O Lord, the perfect way of thy precepts divine,
And to observe it to the end
I shall my heart incline.
34 Give understanding unto me,
so keep thy law shall I;
Yea, ev'n with my whole heart I shall observe it carefully.
35 In thy law's path make me to go;
for I delight therein.
36 My heart unto thy testimonies and not to greed, incline.
37 Turn thou away my sight and eyes from viewing vanity;
And in thy good and holy way
he pleas'd to quicken me.
38 Confirm to me thy gracious word, which I did gladly hear,
Ev'n to thy servant, Lord, who is devoted to thy fear.
39 Turn thou away my fear'd reproach for good thy judgments be.
40 Lo, for thy precepts I have long'd;
in thy truth quicken me.

VAU. The 6th Part.

- 41 Let thy sweet mercies also come and visit me, O Lord; Ev'n thy benign salvation, according to thy word.
- 42 So shall I have wherewith I may give him an answer just, Who spitefully reproacheth me; for in thy word I trust.
- 43 The word of truth out of my mouth take thou not utterly; For on thy judgments righteous my hope doth still rely.
- 44 So shall I keep for evermore thy law continually.
- 45 And, sith that I thy precepts seek, I'll walk at liberty.
- 46 I'll speak thy word to kings, and I with shame shall not be mov'd;
- 47 And will delight myself always in thy laws, which I lov'd.
- 48 To thy commandments, which I lov'd, my hands lift up I will; And I will also meditate upon thy statutes still.

ZAIN. The 7th Part.

- 49 Remember, Lord, thy gracious word thou to thy servant spake, Which, for a ground of my sure hope, thou causedst me to take.
- 50 This word of thine my comfort is in mine affliction: For in my straits I am reviv'd by this thy word alone.
- 51 The men whose hearts with pride are did greatly me deride; [stuff'd] Yet from thy straight commandments I have not turn'd aside.
- 52 Thy judgments righteous, O Lord, which thou of old forth gave, I did remember, and myself by them comforted have.
- 53 Horror took hold on me, because ill men thy law forsake.
- 54 I in my house of pilgrimage thy laws my songs do make.
- 55 Thy name by night, Lord, I did mind, and I have kept thy law.
- 56 And this I had, because thy word I kept, and stood in awe.

OHEFH. The 8th Part.

- 57 Thon my sure portion art alone, which I did choose, O Lord: I have resolv'd, and said, that I would keep thy holy word.
- 58 With my whole heart I did entreat thy face and favour free: According to thy gracious word be merciful to me.
- 59 I thought upon my former ways, and did my life well try; And to thy testimonies pure my feet then turned I.
- 60 I did not stay, nor linger long, as those that slothful are; But hastily thy laws to keep myself I did prepare.
- 61 Bands of ill men me robb'd; yet I thy precepts did not slight.
- 62 I'll rise at midnight thee to praise, ev'n for thy judgments right.
- 63 I am companion to all those who fear, and thee obey.
- 64 O Lord, thy mercy fills the earth: teach me thy laws, I pray.

TETH. The 9th Part.

- 65 Well hast thou with thy servant dealt, as thou didst promise give. [teach,] Good judgment me, and knowledge for I thy word believe.
- 67 Ere I afflicted was I stray'd; but now I keep thy word.
- 68 Both good thou art, and good thou do'st: teach me thy statutes, Lord.
- 69 The men that are puff'd up with pride against me forg'd a lie; Yet thy commandments observe with my whole heart will I. [wealth,] Their hearts, through worldly ease and as fat as grease they be: But in thy holy law I take delight continually.
- 71 It hath been very good for me that I afflicted was, That I might well instructed be, and learn thy holy laws.
- 72 The word that cometh from thy mouth is better unto me Than many thousands and great sums of gold and silver be.

JOD. The 10th Part.

- 73 Thon mad'st and fashion'dst me: thy know give wisdom, Lord. [laws]

- 74 So who thee fear shall joy to see me trusting in thy word.
- 75 That very right thy judgments are I know, and do confess; And that thou hast afflicted me in truth and faithfulness.
- 76 O let thy kindness merciful, I pray thee, comfort me, As to thy servant faithfully was promised by thee.
- 77 And let thy tender mercies come to me, that I may live; Because thy holy laws to me sweet delectation give.
- 78 Lord, let the proud ashamed be; for they, without a cause, With me perversely dealt: but I will muse upon thy laws.
- 79 Let such as fear thee, and have known thy statutes, turn to me.
- 80 My heart let in thy laws be sound, that sham'd I never be.

CAPIH. The 11th Part.

- 81 My soul for thy salvation faints; yet I thy word believe.
- 82 Mine eyes fail for thy word: I say, When wilt thou comfort give?
- 83 For like a bottle I'm become, that in the smoke is set: I'm black, and parch'd with grief; yet I thy statutes not forget.
- 84 How many are thy servant's days? when wilt thou execute Just judgment on these wicked men that do me persecute?
- 85 The proud have digged pits for me, which is against thy laws.
- 86 Thy words all faithful are: help me, pursu'd without a cause.
- 87 They so consum'd me, that on earth my life they scarce did leave: Thy precepts yet forsook I not, but close to them did cleave.
- 88 After thy loving-kindness, Lord, me quicken, and preserve: The testimony of thy mouth so shall I still observe.

LAMED. The 12th Part.

- 89 Thy word for ever is, O Lord, in heaven settled fast;
- 90 Unto all generations thy faithfulness doth last: The earth thou hast established, and it abides by thee.
- 91 This day they stand as thou ordain'dst; for all thy servants be.
- 92 Unless in thy most perfect law my soul delights had found, I should have perished, when as my troubles did abound.
- 93 Thy precepts I will ne'er forget; they quick'ning to me brought.
- 94 Lord, I am thine; O save thou me: thy precepts I have sought.
- 95 For me the wicked have laid wait, me seeking to destroy: But I thy testimonies true consider will with joy.
- 96 An end of all perfection here have I seen, O God: But as for thy commandment, it is exceeding broad.

MEM. The 13th Part.

- 97 O how love I thy law! it is my study all the day:
- 98 It makes me wiser than my foes; for it doth with me stay.
- 99 Than all my teachers now I have more understanding far; Because my meditation thy testimonies are.
- 100 In understanding I excel those that are ancients; For I endeavoured to keep all thy commandments.
- 101 My feet from each ill way I stay'd, that I may keep thy word.
- 102 I from thy judgments have not swerv'd; for thou hast taught me, Lord.
- 103 How sweet unto my taste, O Lord, are all thy words of truth! Yea, I do find them sweeter far than honey to my mouth.
- 104 I through thy precepts, that are pure, do understanding get; I therefore ev'ry way that's false with all my heart do hate.

NUN. The 14th Part.

- 105 Thy word is to my feet a lamp, and to my path a light.
- 106 I sworn have, and I will perform, to keep thy judgments right.
- 107 I am with sore affliction ev'n overwhelm'd, O Lord: In mercy raise and quicken me, according to thy word.

- 98 The free-will offerings of my mouth accept, I thee beseech: And unto me thy servant, Lord, thy judgments clearly teach.
- 109 Though still my soul be in my hand, thy laws I'll not forget.
- 110 I err'd not from them, though for me the wicked snares did set.
- 111 I of thy testimonies have above all things made choice, To be my heritage for aye; for they my heart rejoice.
- 112 I carefully inclined have my heart still to attend; That I thy statutes may perform alway unto the end.

SAMECH. The 15th Part.

- 113 I hate the thoughts of vanity, but love thy law do I.
- 114 My shield and biding-place thou art: I on thy word rely.
- 115 All ye that evil doers are from me depart away; For the commandments of my God I purpose to obey.
- 116 According to thy faithful word uphold and establish me, That I may live, and of my hope ashamed never be.
- 117 Hold thou me up, so shall I be in peace and safety still; And to thy statutes have respect continually I will.
- 118 Thou tread'st down all that love to false their deceit doth prove. [stray;] Lewd men, like dross, away thou putt'st; therefore thy law I love.
- 120 For fear of thee my very flesh doth tremble, all dismay'd; And of thy righteous judgments, Lord, my soul is much afraid.

AIN. The 16th Part.

- 121 To all men I have judgment done, performing justice right; Then let me not be left unto my fierce oppressors' might.
- 122 For good unto thy servant, Lord, thy servant's surety be: From the oppression of the proud do thou deliver me.
- 123 Mine eyes do fail with looking long for thy salvation, The word of thy pure righteousness while I do wait upon.
- 124 In mercy with thy servant deal, thy laws me teach and show.
- 125 I am thy servant, wisdom give, that I thy laws may know.
- 126 'Tis time thou work, Lord; for they have made void thy law divine.
- 127 Therefore thy precepts more I love than gold, yea, gold most fine.
- 128 Concerning all things thy commands all right I judge therefore; And ev'ry false and woked way I perfectly abhor.

PE. The 17th Part.

- 129 Thy statutes, Lord, are wonderful, my soul them keeps with care.
- 130 The entrance of thy words gives light, makes wise who simple are.
- 131 My mouth I have wide opened, and panted earnestly, While after thy commandments I long'd exceedingly.
- 132 Look on me, Lord, and merciful do thou unto me prove, As thou art wont to do to those thy name who truly love.
- 133 O let my footsteps in thy word aright still order'd be: Let no iniquity obtain dominion over me.
- 134 From man's oppression save thou me; so keep thy laws I will.
- 135 Thy face make on thy servant shine; teach me thy statutes still.
- 136 Rivers of waters from mine eyes did run down, when I saw How wicked men run on in sin, and do not keep thy law.

TSADDI. The 18th Part.

- 137 O Lord, thou art most righteous; thy judgments are upright.
- 138 Thy testimonies thou command'st most faithful are and right.
- 139 My zeal hath ev'n consumed me, because mine enemies Thy holy words forgotten have, and do thy laws despise.
- 140 Thy word's most pure, therefore on it thy servant's love is set.
- 141 Small, and despis'd I am, yet I thy precepts not forget.

- 142 Thy righteousness is righteous which ever doth endure: Thy holy law, Lord, also is the very truth most pure.
- 143 Trouble and anguish have me found, and taken hold on me: Yet in my trouble my delight thy just commandments be.
- 144 Eternal righteousness is in thy testimonies all: Lord, to me understanding give, and ever live I shall.

KOPH. The 19th Part.

- 145 With my whole heart I cry'd, Lord, hear: I will thy word obey.
- 146 I cry'd to thee; save me, and I will keep thy laws alway.
- 147 I of the morning did prevent the dawning, and did cry: For all mine expectation did on thy word rely.
- 148 Mine eyes did timeously prevent the watches of the night, That in thy word with careful mind then meditate I might.
- 149 After thy loving-kindness hear my voice, that calls on thee: According to thy judgment, Lord, revive and quicken me.
- 150 Who follow mischief they draw nigh; they from thy law are far:
- 151 But thou art near, Lord; most firm truth all thy commandments are.
- 152 As for thy testimonies all, of old this have I try'd, That thou hast surely founded them for ever to abide.

RESH. The 20th Part.

- 153 Consider mine affliction, in safety do me set: Deliver me, O Lord, for I thy law do not forget.
- 154 After thy word revive thou me; save me, and plead my cause.
- 155 Salvation is from sinners far; for they seek not thy laws.
- 156 O Lord, both great and manifold thy tender mercies be: According to thy judgments just, revive and quicken me.
- 157 My persecutors many are, and foes that do combine; Yet from thy testimonies pure my heart doth not decline.
- 158 I saw transgressors, and was griev'd; for they keep not thy word.
- 159 See how I love thy law! as thou art kind, me quicken, Lord.
- 160 From the beginning all thy word hath been most true and sure: Thy righteous judgments ev'ry one for evermore endure.

SCHIN. The 21st Part.

- 161 Princes have persecuted me, although no cause they saw: But still of thy most holy word my heart doth stand in awe.
- 162 I at thy word rejoice, as one of spoil that finds great store.
- 163 Thy law I love; but lying all I hate and do abhor.
- 164 Sev'n times a day it is my care to give due praise to thee; Because of all thy judgments, Lord, which righteous ever be.
- 165 Great peace have they who love thy law: offence they shall have none.
- 166 I hop'd for thy salvation, Lord, and thy commands have done.
- 167 My soul thy testimonies pure observed carefully; On them my heart is set, and them I love exceedingly.
- 168 Thy testimonies and thy laws I kept with special care; For all my works and ways each one before thee open are.

TAU. The 22d Part.

- 169 O let my earnest pray'r and cry come near before thee, Lord: Give understanding unto me, according to thy word.
- 170 Let my request before thee come: after thy word me free.
- 171 My lips shall utter praise, when thou hast taught thy laws to me.
- 172 My tongue of thy most blessed word shall speak, and it confess; Because all thy commandments are perfect righteousness.
- 173 Let thy strong hand make help to me thy precepts are my choice.
- 174 I long'd for thy salvation, Lord and in thy law rejoice.

75 O let my soul live, and it shall give praises unto thee; And let thy judgments gracious be helpful unto me.
176 I, like a lost sheep, went astray; thy servant seek, and find: For thy commands I suffer'd not to slip out of my mind.

PSALM 120.

IN my distress to God I cry'd, and he gave ear to me.
2 From lying lips, and guileful tongue, O Lord, my soul set free.
3 What shall be given thee? or what shall be done to thee, false tongue?
4 Ev'n burning coals of juniper, sharp arrows of the strong.
5 Woe's me that I in Mesech am a sojourner so long; That I in tabernacles dwell to Kedar that belong.
6 My soul with him that hateth peace hath long a dweller been.
7 I am for peace; but when I speak, for battle they are keen.

PSALM 121.

TO the hills will lift mine eyes, from whence doth come mine aid.
2 My safety cometh from the Lord, who heav'n and earth hath made.
3 Thy foot he'll not let slide, nor will he slumber that thee keeps.
4 Behold, he that keeps Israel, he slumbers not, nor sleeps.
5 The Lord thee keeps, the Lord thy shade on thy right hand doth stay:
6 The moon by night thee shall not smite, nor yet the sun by day.
7 The Lord shall keep thy soul; he shall preserve thee from all ill.
8 Henceforth thy going out and in God keep for ever will.

PSALM 122.

JOY'D when to the house of God, Go up, they said to me.
2 Jerusalem, within thy gates our feet shall standing be.
3 Jerus'lem, as a city, is compactly built together:
4 Unto that place the tribes go up, the tribes of God go thither.
To Isr'el's testimony, there to God's name thanks to pay.
5 For thrones of judgment, ev'n the of David's house, there stay. [thrones
6 Pray that Jerusalem may have peace and felicity: Let them that love thee and thy peace have still prosperity.
7 Therefore I wish that peace may still within thy walls remain, And ever may thy palaces prosperity retain.
8 Now, for my friends' and brethren's sakes, Peace be in thee, I'll say.
9 And for the house of God our Lord, I'll seek thy good alway.

PSALM 123.

THOU that dwellest in the heav'ns, I lift mine eyes to thee.
2 Behold, as servants' eyes do look their masters' hand to see, As handmaid's eyes her mistress' hand; so do our eyes attend Upon the Lord our God, until to us he mercy send.
3 O Lord, be gracious to us, unto us gracious be; Because replenish'd with contempt exceedingly are we.
4 Our soul is fill'd with scorn of those that at their ease abide, And with the insolent contempt of those that swell in pride.

PSALM 124.

HAD not the Lord been on our side, may Israel now say;
2 Had not the Lord been on our side, when men rose up to slay; 4 They had us swallow'd quick, when as their wrath 'gainst us did flame:
4 Waters had cover'd us, our soul had sunk beneath the stream.
5 Then had the waters, swelling high, over our soul made way.
6 Bless'd be the Lord, who to their teeth us gave not for a prey.
7 Our soul's escaped, as a bird out of the fowler's snare; The snare asunder broken is, and we escaped are.

8 Our sure and all-sufficient help is in JEHOVAH's name; His name who did the heav'n create, and who the earth did frame.

Another of the same.

NOW Israel may say, and that truly, If that the Lord had not our cause maintain'd;
2 If that the Lord had not our right sustain'd, When cruel men against us furiously Rose up in wrath, to make of us their prey;
3 Then certainly they had devour'd us all, And swallow'd quick, for ought that we could deem; Such was their rage, as we might well esteem.
4 And as fierce floods before them all things drown, So had they brought our soul to death quite down.
5 The raging streams, with their proud swelling waves, Had then our soul o'erwhelm'd in the deep.
6 But bless'd be God, who doth us safely keep, And hath not giv'n us for a living prey Unto their teeth, and bloody cruelty.
7 Ev'n as a bird out of the fowler's snare Escapes away, so is our soul set free: Broke are their nets, and thus escaped we.
8 Therefore our help is in the Lord's great name, Who heav'n and earth by his great pow'r did frame

PSALM 125.

THEY in the Lord that firmly trust shall be like Zion hill, Which at no time can be remov'd, but standeth ever still.
2 As round about Jerusalem the mountains stand alway, The Lord his folk doth compass so, from henceforth and for aye.
3 For ill men's rod upon the lot of just men shall not lie; Lest righteous men stretch forth their unto iniquity. [hands
4 Do thou to all those tunc be good thy goodness, Lord, impart; And do thou good to those that are upright within their heart.
5 But as for such as turn aside after their crooked way, God shall lead forth with wicked men: on Isr'el peace shall stay.

PSALM 126.

WHEN Zion's bondage God turn'd back, as men that dream'd were we.
2 Then fill'd with laughter was our mouth, our tongue with melody: They 'mong the heathen said, The Lord great things for them hath wrought.
3 The Lord hath done great things for us, whence joy to us is brought.
4 As streams of water in the south, our bondage, Lord, recall.
5 Who sow in tears, a reaping time of joy enjoy they shall.
6 That man who, bearing precious seed, in going forth doth mourn, He doubtless, bringing back his sheaves, rejoicing shall return.

PSALM 127.

EXCEPT the Lord do build the house, the builders lose their pain: Except the Lord the city keep, the watchmen watch in vain.
2 'Tis vain for you to rise betimes, or late from rest to keep, To feed on sorrows' bread; so gives he his beloved sleep.
3 Lo, children are God's heritage, the womb's fruit his reward.
4 The sons of youth as arrows are, for strong men's hands prepar'd.
5 O happy is the man that hath his quiver fill'd with those; They unashamed in the gate shall speak unto their foes

PSALM 128.

BLESS'D is each one that fears the Lord, and walketh in his ways;
2 For of thy labour thou shalt eat, and happy be always.
; Thy wife shall as a fruitful vine by thy house's sides be found: Thy children like to olive plants about thy table round.
4 Behold, the man that fears the Lord, thus blessed shall he be.
5 The Lord shall out of Zion give his blessing unto thee: Thou shalt Jerus'lem's good behold whilst thou on earth dost dwell.
6 Thou shalt thy children's children see, and peace on Israel.

PSALM 129.

OFT did they vex me from my youth, may Isr'el now declare;
2 Oft did they vex me from my youth, yet not victorious were.
3 The plowers plow'd upon my back; they long their furrows drew.
4 The righteous Lord did cut the cords of the ungodly crew.
5 Let Zion's haters all be turn'd back with confusion.
6 As grass on houses' tops be they, which fades ere it be grown:
7 Whereof enough to fill his hand the mower cannot find; Nor can the man his bosom fill, whose work is sheaves to bind.
8 Neither say they who do go by, God's blessing on you rest: We in the name of God the Lord do wish you to be blest.

PSALM 130.

LORD, from the depths to thee I cry'd.
2 My voice, Lord, do thou hear: Unto my supplication's voice give an attentive ear.
3 Lord, who shall stand, if thou, O Lord, should'st mark iniquity?
4 But yet with thee forgiveness is, that fear'd thou mayest be.
5 I wait for God, my soul doth wait, my hope is in his word.
6 More than they that for morning watch, my soul waits for the Lord; I say, more than they that do watch the morning light to see.
7 Let Israel hope in the Lord, for with him mercies be;
And plenteous redemption is ever found with him.
8 And from all his iniquities he Isr'el shall redeem.

PSALM 131.

MY heart not haughty is, O Lord, mine eyes not lofty be; Nor do I deal in matters great, or things too high for me.
2 I surely have myself behav'd with quiet sprit and mild, As child of mother wean'd: my soul is like a weaned child.
3 Upon the Lord let all the hope of Israel rely, Ev'n from the time that present is unto eternity.

PSALM 132.

DAVID, and his afflictions all, Lord, do thou think upon;
2 How unto God he swore, and vow'd to Jacob's mighty One.
3 I will not come within my house, nor rest in bed at all;
4 Nor shall mine eyes take any sleep, nor eyelids slumber shall;
5 Till for the Lord a place I find, where he may make abode; A place of habitation for Jacob's mighty God.
6 Lo, at the place of Ephratah of it we understood; And we did find it in the fields, and city of the wood.
7 We'll go into his tabernacles, and at his footstool bow.
8 Arise, O Lord, into thy rest, th' ark of thy strength, and thou.
9 O let thy priests be clothed, Lord, with truth and righteousness; And let all those that are thy saints shout loud for joyfulness.
10 For thine own servant David's sake, do not deny thy grace;

Nor of thine own anointed one turn thou away the face.
11 The Lord in truth to David swore, he will not turn from it, I of thy body's fruit will make upon thy throne to sit.
12 My cov'nant if thy sons will keep, and laws to them made known, Their children then shall also sit for ever on thy throne.
13 For God of Zion hath made choice; there he desires to dwell.
14 This is my rest, here still I'll stay; for I do like it well.
15 Her food I'll greatly bless; her poor with bread will satisfy. [saint 16 Her priests I'll clothe with health; her shall shout forth joyfully.
17 And there will I make David's horn to bud forth pleasantly: For him that mine anointed is a lamp ordain'd have I.
18 As with a garment I will clothe with shame his enemies all: But yet the crown that he doth wear upon him flourish shall.

PSALM 133.

BEHOLD, how good a thing it is, and how becoming well, Together such as brethren are in unity to dwell!
2 Like precious ointment on the head, that down the beard did flow, Ev'n Aaron's beard, and to the skirts did of his garments go.
3 As Hermon's dew, the dew that doth on Zion's hills descend: For there the blessing God commands life that shall never end.

PSALM 134.

BEHOLD, bless ye the Lord, all ye that his attendants are, Ev'n you that in God's temple be, and praise him nightly there.
2 Your hands within God's holy place lift up, and praise his name.
3 From Zion' hill the Lord thee bless, that heav'n and earth did frame.

PSALM 135.

PRaise ye the Lord, the Lord's name his servants, praise ye God. [praise
2 Who stand in God's house, in the court of our God make abode.
3 Praise ye the Lord, for he is good; unto him praises sing: Sing praises to his name, because it is a pleasant thing.
4 For Jacob to himself the Lord did choose of his good pleasure, And he hath chosen Israel for his peculiar treasure.
5 Because I know assuredly the Lord is very great, And that our Lord above all gods in glory hath his seat.
6 What things soever pleas'd the Lord, that in the heav'n did he, And in the earth, the seas, and all the places deep that be.
7 He from the ends of earth doth make the vapours to ascend; With rain he lightnings makes, and doth from his treasures send. [wind
8 Egypt's first-born, from man to beast who smote. Strange tokens he On Phar'oh and his servants sent, Egypt, in midst of thee.
10 He smote great nations, slew great kings!
11 Sihon of Heshbon king, And Og of Bashan, and to nought did Canaan's kingdoms bring:
12 And for a wealthy heritage their pleasant land he gave, An heritage which Israel, his chosen folk, should have.
13 Thy name, O Lord, shall still endure, and thy memorial With honour shall continu'd be to generations all.
14 For why? the righteous God will judg his people righteously; Concerning those that do him serve, himself repent will he.
15 The idols of the nations of silver are and gold, And by the hands of men is made their fashion and mould.
16 Mouths have they, but they do not speak, eyes, but they do not see;
17 Ears have they, but hear not; and in their mouths no breathing be.

- 18 Their makers are like them; so are all that on them rely.
 19 O Israel's house, bless God; bless God, O Aaron's family.
 20 O bless the Lord, of Levi's house ye who his servants are; And bless the holy name of God, all ye the Lord that fear.
 21 And blessed be the Lord our God from Zion's holy hill, Who dwelleth at Jerusalem. The Lord O praise ye still.

PSALM 136.

- GIVE thanks to God, for good is he: for mercy hath he ever.
 2 Thanks to the God of gods give ye: for his grace faileth never.
 3 Thanks give the Lord of lords unto: for mercy hath he ever.
 4 Who only wonders great can do for his grace faileth never.
 6 Who by his wisdom made heav'n's high: for mercy hath he ever.
 6 Who stretch'd the earth above the sea: for his grace faileth never.
 7 To him that made the great lights shine: for mercy hath he ever.
 8 The sun to rule till day decline: for his grace faileth never.
 9 The moon and stars to rule by night: for mercy hath he ever.
 10 Who Egypt's first-born kill'd outright: for his grace faileth never.
 11 And Israel brought from Egypt land: for mercy hath he ever. [hand:]
 12 With stretch'd-out arm, and with strong for his grace faileth never.
 13 By whom the Red sea parted was: for mercy hath he ever.
 14 And through its midst made Israel pass: for his grace faileth never.
 15 But Phar'oh and his host did drown: for mercy hath he ever.
 16 Who through the desert led his own: for his grace faileth never.
 17 To him great kings who overthrew: for he hath mercy ever.
 18 Yea, famous kings in battle slew: for his grace faileth never.
 19 Ev'n Sihon king of Amorites: for he hath mercy ever.
 20 And Og the king of Bashanites: for his grace faileth never.
 21 Their land in heritage to have: (for mercy hath he ever.)
 22 His servant Israel right he gave: for his grace faileth never.
 23 In our low state who on us thought: for he hath mercy ever.
 24 And from our foes our freedom wrought: for his grace faileth never.
 25 Who doth all flesh with food relieve: for he hath mercy ever.
 26 Thanks to the God of heaven give: for his grace faileth never.

Another of the same.

- PRAISE God, for he is kind: His mercy lasts for aye.
 2 Give thanks with heart and mind To God of gods alway: For certainly His mercies dure Most firm and sure Eternally.
 3 The Lord of lords praise ye, Whose mercies still endure.
 4 Great wonders only he Doth work by his great pow'r: For certainly, &c.
 5 Which God omnipotent, By might and wisdom high, The heav'n and firmament Did frame, as we may see: For certainly, &c.
 6 To him who did outstretch This earth so great and wide, Above the waters' reach Making it to abide: For certainly, &c.
 7 Great lights he made to be; For his grace lasteth aye:
 8 Such as the sun we see, To rule the lightsome day: For certainly, &c.
 9 Also the moon so clear, Which shineth in our sight; The stars that do appear, To guide the darksome night: For certainly, &c.
 10 To him that Egypt smote, Who did his message scorn; And in his anger hot Did kill all their first-born: For certainly, &c.

- 11 Thence Israel out he brought; For his grace lasteth ever.
 12 With a strong hand he wrought, And stretch'd-out arm deliver: For certainly, &c.
 13 The sea he cut in two; For his grace lasteth still.
 14 And through its midst to go Made his own Israel: For certainly, &c.
 15 But overwhelm'd and lost Was proud king Pharaoh, With all his mighty host, And chariots there also: For certainly, &c.
 16 To him who pow'rfully His chosen people led, Ev'n through the desert dry, And in that place them fed: For certainly, &c.
 17 To him great kings who smote; For his grace hath no bound.
 18 Who slew, and spared not Kings famous and renown'd: For certainly, &c.
 19 Sihon the Am'rites' king; For his grace lasteth ever:
 20 Og also, who did reign The land of Bashan over: For certainly, &c.
 21 Their land by lot he gave; For his grace faileth never,
 22 That Israel might it have In heritage for ever: For certainly, &c.
 23 Who hath remembered Us in our low estate;
 24 And us delivered From foes which did us hate: For certainly, &c.
 25 Who to all flesh gives food; For his grace faileth never.
 26 Give thanks to God most good, The God of heav'n, for ever: For certainly, &c.

PSALM 137.

- BY Babel's streams we sat and wept, when Zion we thought on.
 2 In midst thereof we hang'd our harps the willow-trees upon.
 3 For there a song required they, who did us captive bring: Our spoilers call'd for mirth, and said, A song of Zion sing.
 4 O how the Lord's song shall we sing within a foreign land?
 5 If thee, Jerusalem, I forget, skill part from my right hand.
 6 My tongue to my mouth's roof let cleave, if I do thee forget, Jerusalem, and thee above my chief joy do not set.
 7 Remember Edom's children, Lord, who in Jerusalem's day, Ev'n unto its foundation, Raze, raze it quite, did say.
 8 O daughter thou of Babylon, near to destruction; Bless'd shall he be that thee rewards, as thou to us hast done.
 9 Yea, happy surely shall he be thy tender little ones Who shall lay hold upon, and them shall dash against the stones.

PSALM 138.

- THREE will I praise with all my heart, I will sing praise to thee Before the gods: And worship will toward thy sanctuary. I'll praise thy name, ev'n for thy truth, and kindness of thy love; For thou thy word hast magnify'd all thy great name above.
 3 Thou didst me answer in the day when I to thee did cry; And thou my fainting soul with strength didst strengthen inwardly.
 4 All kings upon the earth that are shall give thee praise, O Lord; When as they from thy mouth shall hear thy true and faithful word.
 5 Yea, in the righteous ways of God with gladness they shall sing: For great's the glory of the Lord, who doth for ever reign.
 6 Though God be high, yet he respects all those that lowly be; Whereas the proud and lofty ones afar off knoweth he.
 7 Though I in midst of trouble walk, I life from thee shall have:

- 'Gainst my foes' wrath thou'lt stretch thine hand; thy right hand shall me save.
 8 Surely that which concerneth me the Lord will perfect make: Lord, still thy mercy lasts; do not thine own hands' works forsake.

PSALM 139.

- OLORD, thou hast me search'd and known.
 2 Thou know'st my sitting down, And rising up; yea, all my thoughts afar to thee are known.
 3 My footsteps, and my lying down, thou compass'est always; Thou also most entirely art acquaint with all my ways.
 4 For in my tongue, before I speak, not any word can be, But altogether, lo, O Lord, it is well known to thee.
 5 Behind, before, thou hast beset, and laid on me thine hand.
 6 Such knowledge is too strange for me, too high to understand.
 7 From thy Spirit whither shall I go? or from thy presence fly?
 8 Ascend I heav'n, lo, thou art there; there, if in hell I lie.
 9 Take I the morning wings, and dwell in utmost parts of sea;
 10 Ev'n there, Lord, shall thy hand me lead, thy right hand hold shall me.
 11 If I do say that darkness shall me cover from thy sight, Then surely shall the very night about me be as light.
 12 Yea, darkness hideth not from thee, but night doth shine as day: To thee the darkness and the light are both alike alway.
 13 For thou possessedst my reins, and thou hast cover'd me, When I within my mother's womb inclosed was by thee.
 14 Thee will I praise; for fearfully and strangely made I am; Thy works are marvellous, and right well my soul doth know the same.
 15 My substance was not hid from thee, when as in secret I Was made; and in earth's lowest parts was wrought most curiously.
 16 Thine eyes my substance did behold, yet being unperfected; And in the volume of thy book my members all were writ; Which after in continuance were fashion'd ev'ry one, When as they yet all shapeless were, and of them there was none.
 17 How precious also are thy thoughts, O gracious God, to me! And in their sum how passing great and numberless they be!
 18 If I should count them, than the sand they more in number be: What time soever I awake, I ever am with thee.
 19 Thou, Lord, wilt sure the wicked slay: hence from me bloody men.
 20 Thy foes against thee loudly speak, and take thy name in vain.
 21 Do not I hate all those, O Lord, that hatred bear to thee? With those that up against thee rise can I but grieved be?
 22 With perfect hatred them I hate, my foes I them do hold.
 23 Search me, O God, and know my heart, try me, my thoughts unfold:
 24 And see if any wicked way there be at all in me; And in thine everlasting way to me a leader be.

PSALM 140.

- LORD, from the ill and froward man give me deliverance, And do thou safe preserve me from the man of violence:
 2 Who in their hearts mischievous things are meditating ever; And they for war assembled are continually together.
 3 Much like unto a serpent's tongue their tongues they sharp do make And underneath their lips there lies the poison of a snake.
 4 Lord, keep me from the wicked's hands, from vilest men me save; Who utterly to overthrow my goings purpos'd have.
 5 The proud for me a snare have hid, and cords; yea, they've set

- Have by the way-side for me spread they gins for me have set.
 3 I said unto the Lord, Thou art my God: unto the cry Of all my supplications, Lord, do thine ear apply.

God the Lord, who art the strength, my salvation: v'ring in the day of war my head thou hast put on.
 2 Unto the wicked man, O Lord, his wishes do not grant; Nor further thou his ill device, lest they themselves should vaunt.

- 9 As for the head and chief of those about that compass me, Ev'n by the mischief of their lips let thou them cover'd be.
 10 Let burning coals upon them fall, them throw in fiery flame, And in deep pits, that they no more may rise out of the same.
 11 Let not an evil speaker be on earth established: Mischief shall hunt the vilest man, till he be ruined.
 12 I know God will th' afflicted's cause maintain, and poor men's right.
 13 Surely the just shall praise thy name, th' upright dwell in thy sight.

PSALM 141.

- OLORD, I unto thee do cry, do thou make haste to me, And give an ear unto my voice, when I cry unto thee.
 2 As incense let my prayer be directed in thine eyes: And the uplifting of my hands as th' ev'ning sacrifice.
 3 Set, Lord, a watch before my mouth, keep of my lips the door.
 4 My heart incline thou not unto the ill: I should abhor, To practice wicked works with men that work iniquity; And with their delicacies my taste let me not satisfy.
 5 Let him that righteous is me smite, it shall a kindness be; Let him reprove, I shall it count a precious oil to me: Such smiting shall not break my head; for yet the time shall fall, When I in their calamities to God pray for them shall.
 6 When as their judges down shall be in stony places cast, Then shall they hear my words; for they shall sweet be to their taste.
 7 About the grave's devouring mouth our bones are scatter'd round, As wood which men do cut and cleave lies scatter'd on the ground.
 8 But unto thee, O God the Lord, mine eyes uplifted be: My soul do not leave destitute; my trust is set on thee.
 9 Lord, keep me safely from the snares which they for me prepare; And from the subtle gins of them that wicked workers are.
 10 Let workers of iniquity into their own nets fall, Whilst I do, by thine help, escape the danger of them all.

PSALM 142.

- I WITH my voice cry'd to the Lord, with it madomy request:
 2 Pour'd out to him my plaint, to him my trouble I express.
 3 When in me was overwhelm'd my spirit, then well thou knew'st my way; Where I did walk a snare for me they privily did lay.
 4 I look'd on my right hand, and view'd; but none to know me were; All refuge failed me, no man did for my soul take care.
 5 I cry'd to thee; I said, Thou art my refuge, Lord, alone; And in the land of those that live thou art my portion.
 6 Because I am brought very low, attend unto my cry: Me from my persecutors save, who stronger are than I.
 7 From prison bring my soul, that I thy name may glorify: The just shall compass me, when thou, with me deal'st bounteously.

PSALM 143.

LORD, hear my pray'r, attend my suits;
and in thy faithfulness
Give thou an answer unto me,
and in thy righteousness.

2 Thy servant also bring thou not in judgment to be tried:
Because no living man can be in thy sight justify'd.

3 For th' en'my hath pursu'd my soul,
my life to ground down tread:
In darkness he hath made me dwell,
as who have long been dead.

4 My sp'rit is therefore overwhelm'd in me perplexedly;
Within me is my very heart
smazed wondrously.

5 I call to mind the days of old,
to meditate I use
On all thy works; upon the deeds
I of thy hands do muse.

6 My hands to thee I stretch; my soul thirsts, as dry land, for thee.

7 Haste, Lord, to hear, my spirit fails:
hide not thy face from me;

Lest like to them I do become that go down to the dust.

8 At morn let me thy kindness hear;
for in thee do I trust.
Teach me the way that I should walk:
I lift my soul to thee.

9 Lord, free me from my foes; I flee to thee to cover me.

10 Because thou art my God, to do thy will do me instruct:
Thy Sp'rit is good, me to the land of uprightness conduct.

11 Revive and quicken me, G Lord, ev'n for thine own name's sake;
And do thou, for thy righteousness, my soul from trouble take.

12 And of thy mercy stay my foes;
let all destroyed be
That do afflict my soul: for I a servant am to thee.

Another of the same.

OH, hear my prayer, Lord,
And unto my desire
To bow thine ear accord,
I humbly thee require;
And, in thy faithfulness,
Unto me answer make,
And, in thy righteousness,
Upon me pity take.

2 In judgment enter not
With me thy servant poor;
For why, this well I wot,
No sinner can endure
The sight of thee, O God:
If thou his deeds shalt try,
He dare make none abode
Himself to justify.

3 Behold, the cruel foe
Me persecutes with spite,
My soul to overthrow:
Yea, he my life down quite Unto the ground hath smote,
And made me dwell full low
In darkness, as forgot,
Or men dead long ago.

4 Therefore my sp'rit much vex'd,
O'erwhelm'd is me within;
My heart right sore perplex'd
And desolate hath been.

5 Yet I do call to mind
What ancient days record,
Thy works of ev'ry kind
I think upon, O Lord.

6 Lo, I do stretch my hands
To thee, my help alone;
For thou well understands
All my complaint and moan:
My thirsting soul desires,
And longeth after thee,
As thirsty ground requires
With rain refresh'd to be.

7 Lord, let my pray'r prevail,
To answer it make speed;
For, lo, my sp'rit doth fail:
Hide not thy face in need;
Lest I be like to those
That do in darkness sit,
Gr him that downward goes
Into the dreadful pit.

8 Because I trust in thee,
G Lord, cause me to hear
Thy loving-kindness free,
When morning doth appear:
Cause me to know the way
Wherein my path should be:
For why, my soul on high
I do lift up to thee.

9 From my fierce enemy
In safety do me guide:

Because I flee to thee,
Lord, that thou may'st me hide.

10 My God alone art thou,
Teach me thy righteousness:
Thy Sp'rit's good, lead me to
The land of uprightness.

11 G Lord, for thy name's sake,
Be pleas'd to quicken me;
And, for thy truth, forth take
My soul from misery.

12 And of thy grace destroy
My foes, and put to shame
All who my soul annoy;
For I thy servant am.

PSALM 144.

OBLESSED ever be the Lord, who is my strength and might,
Who doth instruct my hands to war,
my fingers teach to fight.

2 My goodness, fortress, my high tow'r, deliverer, and shield,
In whom I trust: who under me
my people makes to yield.

3 Lord, what is man, that thou of him dost so much knowledge take?
Or son of man, that thou of him so great account dost make?

4 Man is like vanity: his days,
as shadows, pass away.

5 Lord, bow thy heav'ns, come down, touch the hills, and smoke shall they. [thou]

6 Cast forth thy lightning, scatter them; thine arrows shoot, them rout.

7 Thine hand send from above, me save;
from great depths draw me out;
And from the hand of children strange,

8 Whose mouth speaks vanity;
And their right hand is a right hand that works deceitfully.

9 A new song I to thee will sing,
Lord, on a saltery;
I on a ten-string'd instrument will praises sing to thee.

10 Ev'n he it is that unto kings salvation doth send;
Who his own servant David doth from hurtful sword defend.

11 O free me from strange children's hand,
whose mouth speaks vanity;
And their right hand a right hand is that works deceitfully.

12 That, as the plants, our sons may be in youth grown up that are;
Our daughters like to corner-stones, carry'd like a palace fair.

13 That to afford all kind of store
our garners may he fill'd;
That our sheep thousands, in our streets ten thousands they may yield.

14 That strong our oxen be for work, that no in-breaking be,
Nor going out; and that our streets may from complaints be free.

15 Those people blessed are who be in such a case as this;
Yea, blessed all those people are, whose God JEHOVAH is.

PSALM 145.

ILL thee extol, my God, O king;
I'll bless thy name always.

2 Thee will I bless each day, and will thy name for ever praise.

3 Great is the Lord, much to be prais'd; his greatness search exceeds.

4 Race unto race shall praise thy works, and show thy mighty deeds.

5 I of thy glorious majesty
the honour will record;
I'll speak of all thy mighty works, which wondrous are, O Lord.

6 Men of thine acts the might shall show thine acts that dreadful are;
And I, thy glory to advance,
thy greatness will declare.

7 The mem'ry of thy goodness great they largely shall express;
With songs of praise they shall extol thy perfect righteousness.

8 The Lord is very gracious, in him compassions flow;
In mercy he is very great,
and is to anger slow.

9 The Lord JEHOVAH unto all his goodness doth declare;
And over all his other works
his tender mercies are.

10 Thee all thy works shall praise, O Lord, and thee thy saints shall bless;

11 They shall thy kingdom's glory show, thy pow'r by speech express:

12 To make the sons of men to know his acts done mightily,
And of his kingdom th' excellent and glorious majesty.

13 Thy kingdom shall for ever stand, thy reign through ages all.

14 God raiseth all that are bow'd down, upholdeth all that fall.

15 The eyes of all things wait on thee,
the giver of all good;
And thou, in time convenient,
bestow'st on them their food:

16 Thine hand thou open'st lib'rally, and of thy bounty gives Enough to satisfy the need of ev'ry thing that lives.

17 The Lord is just in all his ways, holy in his works all.

18 God's near to all that call on him,
in truth that on him call.

19 He will accomplish the desire of those that do him fear:
He also will deliver them,
and he their cry will hear.

20 The Lord preserves all who him love, that nought can them annoy:
But he all those that wicked are will utterly destroy.

21 My mouth the praises of the Lord to publish cease shall never:
Let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and for ever.

Another of the same.

OLORD, thou art my God and King;
Thee will I magnify and praise:
I will thee bless, and gladly sing
Unto thy holy name always.

2 Each day I rise I will thee bless,
And praise thy name time without end.

3 Much to be prais'd, and great God is;
His greatness none can comprehend.

4 Race shall thy works praise unto race,
The mighty acts show done by thee.

5 I will speak of the glorious grace,
And honour of thy majesty;
Thy wondrous works I will record.

6 By men the might shall be extoll'd
Of all thy dreadful acts, G Lord:
And I thy greatness will unfold.

7 They utter shall abundantly
The mem'ry of thy goodness great;
And shall sing praises cheerfully,
Whilst they thy righteousness relate.

8 The Lord our God is gracious,
Compassionate is he also;
In mercy he is plenteous,
But unto wrath and anger slow.

9 Good unto all men is the Lord:
O'er all his works his mercy is.

10 Thy works all praise to thee afford:
Thy saints, G Lord, thy name shall bless.

11 The glory of thy kingdom show
Shall they, and of thy power tell:

12 That so men's sons his deeds may know,
His kingdom's grace that doth excel.

13 Thy kingdom hath none end at all,
It doth through ages all remain.

14 The Lord upholdeth all that fall,
The cast-down raiseth up again.

15 The eyes of all things, Lord, attend,
And on thee wait that here do live,
And thou, in season due, dost send Sufficient food them to relieve.

16 Yea, thou thine hand dost open wide,
And ev'ry thing dost satisfy
That lives, and doth on earth abide,
Of thy great liberality.

17 The Lord is just in his ways all,
And holy in his works each one.

18 He's near to all that on him call,
Who call in truth on him alone.

19 God will the just desire fulfil
Of such as do him fear and dread:
Their cry regard, and hear he will,
And save them in the time of need.

20 The Lord preserves all, more and less,
That bear to him a loving heart:
But workers all of wickedness
Destroy will he, and clean subvert.

21 Therefore my mouth and lips I'll frame
To speak the praises of the Lord:
To magnify his holy name
For ever let all flesh accord.

PSALM 146.

PRAISE God. The Lord praise, O my soul.
2 I'll praise God while I live;
While I have being to my God in songs I'll praises give.

3 Trust not in princes, nor man's son,
in whom there is no stay:

4 His breath departs, to 's earth he turns;
that day his thoughts decay.

5 O happy is that man and blest, whom Jacob's God doth aid,

Whose hope upon the Lord doth rest,
and on his God is stay'd:

6 Who made the earth and heav'ns high, who made the swelling deep,
And all that is within the same;
who truth doth ever keep:

7 Who righteous judgment executes for those oppress'd that be,
Who to the hungry giveth food;
God sets the pris'ners free.

8 The Lord doth give the blind their sight,
the bowed down doth raise:
The Lord doth dearly love all those that walk in upright ways.

9 The stranger's shield, the widow's stay,
the orphan's help, is he:
But yet by him the wicked's way turn'd upside down shall be.

10 The Lord shall reign for evermore:
thy God, O Sion, he Reigns to all generations.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

PSALM 147.

PRAISE ye the Lord; for it is a praise to our God to sing;
For it is pleasant, and to praise it is a comely thing.

2 God doth build up Jerusalem;
and he it is alone
That the dispers'd of Israel doth gather into one.

3 Those that are broken in their heart,
and grieved in their minds,
He healeth, and their painful wounds
he tenderly up-binds.

4 He counts the number of the stars;
he names them ov'ry one.

5 Great is our Lord, and of great pow'r;
his wisdom search can none.

6 The Lord lifts up the meek; and casts the wicked to the ground.

7 Sing to the Lord, and give him thanks;
on harp his praises sound;

8 Who covereth the heav'n with clouds, who for the earth below
Prepareth rain, who maketh grass upon the mountains grow.

9 He gives the beast his food, he feeds
the ravens young that cry.

10 His pleasure not in horses' strength;
nor in man's legs, doth lie.

11 But in all those that do him fear the Lord doth pleasure take;
In those that to his mercy do by hope themselves betake.

12 The Lord praise, O Jerusalem;
Sion, thy God confess:

13 For thy gates' bars he maketh strong,
thy sons in thee doth bless.

14 He in thy borders maketh peace;
with fine wheat filleth thee.

15 He sendeth forth his command on earth, his word runs speedily.

16 Hoar-frost, like ashes, scatt'eth he;
like wool he snow doth give:
Like morsels casteth forth his ice;
who in its cold can live?

18 He sendeth forth his mighty word,
and melteth them again;
His wind he makes to blow, and then the waters flow again.

19 The doctrine of his holy word to Jacob he doth show;
His statutes and his judgments he gives Israel to know.

20 To any nation never he such favour did afford;
For thy his judgments have not known,
O do ye praise the Lord.

PSALM 148.

PRAISE God. From heavens praise the in heights praise to him be. [Lord]

2 All ye his angels, praise ye him;
his hosts all, praise him ye.

3 O praise ye him, both sun and moon, praise him, all stars of light.

4 Ye heav'ns of heav'ns him praise, and above the heavens' height. [floods]

5 Let all the creatures praise the name of our almighty Lord:
For he commanded, and they were created by his word.

6 He also, for all times to come,
hath them establish'd sure;
He hath appointed them a law,
which ever shall endure.

7 Praise ye JEHGVAH from the earth, dragons, and ev'ry deep:

8 Fire, hail, snow, vapour, stormy wind his word that fully keep.

9 All hills and mountains, fruitful trees, and all ye cedars high:

10 Beasts, and all cattle, creeping things, and all ye birds that fly.

- 11 Kings of the earth, all nations, princes, earth's judges all:
12 Both young men, yea, and maidens too, old men, and children small.
13 Let them God's name praise; for his name alone is excellent:
His glory reacheth far above the earth and firmament.
- 14 His people's horn, the praise of all his saints, exalteth he;
Ev'n Israel's seed, a people near to him. The Lord praise ye.

Another of the same.

- THE Lord of heav'n confess-
On high his glory raise.
2 Him let all angels bless,
Him all his armies praise
3 Him glorify
Sun, moon, and stars
Ye higher spheres,
and cloudy sky.
- 4 From God your beings are,
Him therefore famous make;
You all created were,
When he the word but spake.

- 6 And from that place
Where fix'd you be
By his decree,
You cannot pass.
- 7 Praise God from earth below,
Ye dragons, and ye deeps:
8 Fire, hail, clouds, wind, and snow,
Whom in command he keeps.
9 Praise ye his name,
Hills great and small,
Trees low and tall;
10 Beasts wild and tame;
- All things that creep or fly.
11 Ye kings, ye vulgar throng,
All princes mean or high;
12 Both men and virgins young,
Ev'n young and old,
13 Exalt his name;
For much his fame
Should be extoll'd.
- O let God's name be prais'd
Above both earth and sky;
14 For he his saints hath rais'd,
And set their horn on high:
Ev'n those that be Of Israel's race,
Near to his grace.
The Lord praise ye.

PSALM 149.

- PRAISE ye the Lord: unto him sing a new song, and his praise
In the assembly of his saints in sweet psalms do ye raise.
- 2 Let Israel in his Maker joy, and to him praises sing:
Let all that Sion's children are be joyful in their King.
- 3 O let them unto his great name give praises in the dance;
Let them with timbrel and with harp in songs his praise advance.
- 4 For God doth pleasure take in those that his own people be;
And he with his salvation
the meek will beautify.
- 5 And in his glory excellent let all his saints rejoice:
Let them to him upon their beds aloud lift up their voice.
- 6 Let in their mouth aloft be rais'd
the high praise of the Lord,
And let them have in their right hand
a sharp two-edged sword;
- 7 To execute the vengeance due upon the heathen all,

- And make deserved punishmen
upon the people fall.
8 And ev'n with chains, as pris'ners, their kings that them command;
Yea, and with iron fetters strong,
the nobles of their land.
- 9 On them the judgment to perform found written in his word:
This honour is to all his saints.
O do ye praise the Lord.

PSALM 150.

- PRAISE ye the Lord. God's praise within his sanctuary raise;
And to him in the firmament of his pow'r give ye praise.
- 2 Because of all his mighty acts, with praise him magnify:
O praise him, as he doth excel in glorious majesty.
- 3 Praise him with trumpet's sound: his with psaltery advance: [praise 4 With timbrel, harp, string'd instruments, and organs, in the dance.
- 5 Praise him on cymbals loud: him praise on cymbals sounding high.
- 6 Let each thing breathing praise the Lord
Praise to the Lord give ye
