Mr. Ellis (St. John), merely rose for the purpose of saying that Mr. Edwards was very alone in his dissent from the government's resolution...

The resolution was then put through committee and reported, the house rising at 12:07 a.m.

In the Senate yesterday, on the motions for a third reading of the bill to amend the Companies Act...

Mr. Blair's Reply. The Minister of Railways replied. He found that Mr. Foster had attacked him personally rather than criticizing the contract itself...

On the third reading of the bill respecting the Grand Trunk, Mr. Foster proposed an amendment to insert a provision that changes in the contract shall be subject to confirmation by parliament...

Iron Bounties. The Minister of Finance proposed his resolution declaring it expedient to provide that the bounties on steel ingots, puddled iron bars and pig iron...

reasonable encouragement of the iron industry for a limited time seemed to be in the public interest...

TRANSVAAL SITUATION.

Sir Alfred Milner Says It is a Case for British Intervention—Chamberlain Supports the Commissioner.

LONDON, June 21.—The Daily Mail correspondent at Capetown says the Natal volunteers have been officially ordered to hold themselves in readiness for active service.

Sir Alfred Milner has always been supposed to have taken a serious view of the Transvaal question, but the publication of official despatches in the blue book last issued shows him even more decided than was imagined.

Sir Alfred's own words are as follows: "It is a case for intervention over-whelmingly. The only attempted answer is that things will right themselves if left alone, but in fact, the policy of leaving things alone has been tried for years, and has led from their going from bad to worse."

A certain section of the press, not in the Transvaal only, preaches openly and constantly the doctrine of a republic embracing all of South Africa, and supports it by menacing references to the arguments of the Transvaal, its alliance with the Orange Free State, and the active sympathy which in case of war it would receive from a large section of the British subjects.

It was a double treat with which the members of the Appalachian Mountain Club were regaled in Huntington Hall when Charles F. Campbell, of London, addressed them upon "How the Blind Become Self-Supporting."

Mr. Chamberlain, after receiving this remarkable despatch of Sir Alfred Milner, with its heavy indictment against the Boers, allowed him to speak at the Bloemfontein conference with full powers to act upon his own discretion, merely pointing out the advisability of putting the franchise in the forefront of the British demand.

THE COFFIN WAS READY. London, June 21.—A message to the Daily News from Paris, Mrs. Emily Crawford says: "A curious message has been received from the Isle of Devils: 'Dreyfus has gone. What shall we do with the coffin and embalming drugs?'"

BODA FOUNTAIN EXPLODES. Pittsburg, June 21.—While Andrew Hammers was charging a soda fountain at his business place, No. 133 Beaver avenue, Allegheny, the carbonic gas tank exploded and Mr. Hammers was almost blown to pieces, his body being horribly mangled.

FIRE IN A MAGAZINE. Pensacola, Fla., June 21.—Fire broke out today in a smaller magazine of Fort Pickens, which was afterwards wrecked by an explosion. Private Wells of battery H was killed and four men were badly injured.

Mr. P. Ketchum, of Pike City, Cal., says: "During my brother's late sickness from sciatic rheumatism, Chamberlain's Pain-Balm was the only remedy that gave him any relief."

PRESBYTERIANS IN CONFERENCE.

HAMILTON, June 20.—At to-day's session of the Presbyterian assembly, Dr. Caven reported for the committee appointed to define the duties of Dr. Robertson, in relation to his present position, superintendent of the additional posts in the Transvaal.

KILLED BY ELECTRICITY. Toronto, June 20.—James Nicholl was instantly killed this morning by coming in contact with the electric current. Deceased was employed by the street commissioners' department to drive a sprinkling cart, had driven the cart out on Dundas street when it ran off the railway tracks.

SIMPLY MARVELLOUS. Said a physician not far from Toronto when he watched the recovery of a patient he had given up to die from cancer of the stomach, after treatment by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

News of the North

Indians Dying Near Selkirk—Commandant Evans and a Correspondent Race to Dawson.

Through Drift Ice and Dangerous Jams—Gold Being Taken Out at Atlin.

Among the passengers who arrived from the north by the Tees were Mr. J. and Mrs. Blaker, who have a hotel at Fort Selkirk.

W. D. John, the Dawson correspondent of the Chicago Record, A. C. Wissel and Messrs. Roberts and Lowery were the first men to arrive at Dawson from the lakes when the ice broke this season.

Both parties left Bennett on May 11th and went in to the foot of Lake Le Barge by sled. From there they had a clear run down the Thirty-Mile and Lewes to Big Salmon.

At Steamboat slough, nine miles above Thistle creek, they were overtaken by Commandant Evans and the sergeant, and the race was hot for a time.

Shortly after leaving Fort Selkirk, Mr. Evans and the sergeant nearly lost their lives in an ice jam.

According to John Gosdon, formerly of the customs service on the passes, the Atlin district is turning out gold.

The Atlin claim on June 10th has the following description of the tour of their mining reporter up Spruce creek.

"From here right up to 98 everybody is mining and finding all kinds of work. At the latter we met G. D. Williams."

Pimples and Boils.....

The nasty little pimples that come on the face and mar the beauty, as well as the painful boils which often cause so much suffering, are simply evidences of the bad blood within coming to the surface.

Miss Agnes Rowman, Perry Station, Ont., writes: "I have been a sufferer from boils and pimples on my neck and face for many years."

On this claim things are becoming interesting, he told the questioner, but would not say what amount of gold was being run out. They have 500 feet of holes running through three claims.

Gold Fields on the Island

Rich Quartz Found Near the Nimpkish River—Gold at Kingcombe.

Indians Going North to the Canneries—Potlatching at Rupert.

There is an incident of gold excitement at Alert Bay and vicinity. The settlers thereabouts have deserted the mattock and clearing utensils and are no longer "men with the hoe."

Numbers of prospectors are at present searching the rocky shores of the inlets and bays of the northern coast—the majority in small sloops—for rock crevices, and without doubt some good finds will be made before long.

The potlatch which began last winter at Fort Rupert is still on and the Alaskan are yet dancing and feasting.

HOW THE INDIAN PLAGUE TRAVELS.

Animals spread the disease by their evacuations, by poisoning with the germs such water as is used by them and human beings, and—by insects which are common to them and men, or to them and the houses of men.

Colonel Adams, a medical officer, declared it proved that the infection is carried a long way in clothing, and to a limited extent by rats.

There is a phase of the situation which the imaginative or nervous mind will readily assume to be the worst of all—at least in the threat it carries of danger to the world at large.

Prospectors and Miners

Should Take With Them a Supply of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

It would be a wise precaution for those who are going out prospecting or surveying this summer, or who intend working in a mining camp, to provide themselves with a supply of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

Gold For Prince Luigi

The Italian Nobleman's Expedition Finds Rich Placers Near Point Clarence.

The Miners Were Survivors of the Jane Grey Disaster.

The miners who, under Major E. S. Ingraham, of Seattle, were sent North by Prince Luigi, the Italian nobleman, nephew of the King of Italy, who two years ago climbed Mount St. Elias, have struck it rich near Point Clarence.

In five hours Chard and his two brothers and prospectors took out $20 from the discovery claim with a rickety rooster. We did this, too, by working the poorest dirt.

Attached to every barracks is an "old clo" man, who buys up everything that is discarded by the military authorities—of course, at a very cheap rate.

STANLEY'S ANECDOTES.

It is twenty-one years since Henry M. Stanley's celebrated book "Through the Darkest Continent" was printed.

"Perhaps two or three years?" he replied. "Perhaps two or three years?" he exclaimed. "Why, I expected to hear you say fifty years at least."

"You may imagine my surprise. All the newspapers of the country had been printing every day for a year news of one sort or another about the Berlin conference and its results.

MALTA FEVER.

Malta fever takes its name from the fact that it was first studied among the British troops in the island of Malta.

Malta fever prevails all the year round, but by far the greatest number of cases occur in summer.

The early symptoms are like those of any other fever, namely: wakefulness and headache, a large and fabby tongue covered with a thick pellicle.

After about a week of these symptoms, the fever, which has till now been very slight, begins to rise.

The patient does not seem to be very sick; indeed, he often feels fairly well, but the wretched fever continues, now up, now down, and the sufferer loses flesh and strength.

Malta fever may last only a few weeks, or it may continue with intervals of apparent freedom for a year, or even two years.

UNCLE SAM'S WOMEN WORKERS.

Three Thousand in the Departments in Washington and Well Paid.

In October, 1882, seven women were placed at work by Gen. Francis Spinner, who detailed them to act as clerks.

There are in Washington probably 3,000 feminine employees of the department, drawn from all parts of the land.

Of the 1,500 employees of the interior department, 1,500 are women. The salaries paid are from $50, the lowest clerk, to $1,500, the highest.

What is probably the highest salary paid to any woman in the government is $5,000, the amount received by Miss Estelle Reel, of Boston.

The first woman regularly appointed in the interior department was a Miss Jane Nesbit, whose salary was $50 a month.

In the postoffice department in this city 182 women are employed. While many are typewriters and copyists, there are in the dead letter division the largest per cent. of ladies.

The employment of women in the state, war and navy departments is confined mostly to typewriters, copyists and clerks, there being 900 in the war, between 40 and 50 in the navy, and 18 in the state.

By the entire treasury department, which includes various bureaus, such as that of engraving and printing, the different auditors' offices, and the general government printing office, there are about 1,500 women used as clerks, writers and experts in various capacities. The RATS OF THE PACIFIC ISLANDS. The native rat has a great enemy. When brought into competition with the common brown rat of Europe, introduced by ships throughout the world, it usually disappears—by example of the evils of the influx of aliens.

On moonlight nights hundreds have been often seen gathered together round the native quarters, feeding upon waste rice or bread thrown out. A large hole-shaped hole was dug in the earth in Mangaiia, and baited with candle nuts, of which rats are excessively fond.

KISSING AND SOME FAMOUS KISSES. Kissing was introduced into England by royalty, tradition tells us. The British monarch, Vortigern, gave a banquet in honor of his Scandinavian allies, at which Rowena, the beautiful daughter of Hengist, was present.

HILL FIGHTING IN INDIA. At the Royal United Service Institute lately, Major-General Sir W. F. Gateacre, commanding the Eastern District, read a paper on the characteristics of hill fighting in India, and the training of infantry necessary for the same, possible in England.

Observing that the men who met our men on the hill side acted on the motto "Under the shadow of the drawn sword lies Paradise," the lecturer urged the absolute necessity for the British officer and soldier of being fully prepared for the tactics of Indian fighting men, many of whom had been trained in our Indian army.
