All Americans Can Serve

Every man, woman and child in this country, who wants to serve the country, can serve it and serve it in a very simple and effective way, says Secretary McAdoo.

That service is to lend your money to the government. Every 25 cents loaned to the government is a help at this time and practically every man, woman and child, by making some trifling sacrifice, some denial of a pleasure, or giving up some indulgence, can render the government that support.

Not a Slacker

To dispel the implication that William Graham Murray is a military "slacker," it should be published, in justice to the young man, that Sheriff Nesbitt has received legal papers from New York proving conclusively that Murray is 32 years old—over the American draft age.

Also, having made application for and received first American citizenship papers, thereby forswearing his British allegiance, he is not liable to service in the British Army or Navy.

Pine Needles

The Von Loben Sels family and party, whose homes are up near Sacramento, are here for at least a three months' stay. They have taken the Norwood houses.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Wyatt and their four boys are away on a fruit-picking camping tour. They may not return until the Fall.

No wonder the political candidates advertise in the Pine Cone. There are over four hundred voters in Carmelo Precinct.

Mrs. Alice V. Cotton and her daughter, Miss Laura, came down from San Francisco on Sunday. The former has been ill for some time, but is now on the road to health.

Mr. Lewis B. Avery and family are occupying a large house over on the Eighty Acre Tract. They will be here about three weeks. Mr. Avery is assistant superintendent of the Oakland schools.

Mrs. Stephen Rogers and John E. Reardon, sister and brother of Tom Reardon, drove down from San Jose on Sunday for a brief visit.

Miss Odessa Finckh is here from Ben Lomond for a six weeks' visit with her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Steinmetz, with Mr. and Mrs. McNally, are occupying the Taze cottage. Mr. Steinmetz is with the business department of the S. F. Examiner, and Mr. McNally has been connected with the Oakland Traction Co. for many years.

The new Rendtorff bungalow on Carmelo Avenue is rapidly nearing completion. Carmel has at times this year been taxed to capacity to house visitors, so that the erection of additional houses is a distinct gain to the community.

Lord and Lady Barton are here from Santa Barbara. They are registered at La Playa.

Don't forget the Red Cross dance at Arts and Crafts Hall tonight.

N. O. Morse and family departed for their Berkeley home on Sunday morning. Phyllis Overstreet accompanied them. She will return in time for school opening.

Rev. L. E. Learned, rector of All Saints Church at Pasadena, is here with his family. They thoroughly enjoy their annual Carmel sojourns. Oh, but the streets are hard on the machine.

Dr. F. O. Edwards, osteopathic physician, of San Jose, who, with his wife was here recently, will spend this week-end here. This time friends will accompany them on the trip.

Robert Wolters, formerly of the Carmel Valley, has rented a cottage in the pine forest close to town. He will not occupy the place alone for very long.

Sunday is the sabbath day, no matter where people happen to be. The large number of vacationers now here, have attended in large number for several weeks past the regular services at the historic Carmel Mission.

Jean Jacques Pfister, a Swiss artist of San Francisco, is the guest of George J. Seideneck. He will be here several weeks. "Carmel is glorious," says he.

A critic who has read advance sheets of Mary Austin's new book, "The Young Woman Citizen," says of it: "It does for the prospective woman voter what Lippman's 'Preface to Politics' has done for man."

The annual praise service of the Carmel Missionary Society will be held at 2:30 next Wednesday afternoon, at the Presbyterian Chapel, corner Eighth and Dolores streets. Interesting speakers from Ailomar will be present. The public is cordially invited.

No fooling! Monterey will be a dry, dry town from Saturday next until the end of the war. The closing order will extend to Pebble Beach Cottage and Del Monte. A cruel war, mates; a cruel war.

The Woodland Dancers

On Saturday evening, July 20, at 9 o'clock, Jeannette Hongland with her Woodland Dancers will appear on the Forest Theatre stage. A splendid program has been arranged. The dancers have been rehearsing for many weeks, and the affair promises to even a greater artistic success than last year's charming event.

The dances for this season include an exquisite pastoral by a group of young girls, a stately gavotte, flower dances, and several solo dances by Miss Hongland, whose work needs no introduction to Carmel.

Reserved seats are on sale at the Carmel Bakery. General admission, 50c; reserved seats, $1.

The affair will be repeated on Monday evening for the benefit of the Red Cross.

The production of "The Tents of the Arabs," scheduled for the end of July, has been abandoned.

California Faces Sugar Famine

Individual Saving Will Avert It

SUGAR MUST BE SAVED!

A teaspoonful was nothing. You say. Yet a heaping teaspoonful served each meal for 120 days for each of the 200,000,000 persons in the United States makes a pile as big as the Woolworth building—enough to supply the entire annual needs of the nation.

TAKE THIS OFF THE TABLE

All sugar purchased for canning will be carefully checked and if it is found that any individual has purchased what appears to be an excessive supply he will be called upon to show the goods canned and his, or her, failure to produce the canned goods will result in prosecution.

The sugar situation is serious and every ounce saved is of vital importance. Every person in California should constitute himself or herself a saver of sugar.

Manufacturers, grocers, restaurants and bakers have been allotted definite amounts and those who exceed their quotas will be forced to do without sugar for the balance of the allotment period.

The food administration announces that the seriousness of the sugar situation is such that hoarding in the households and elsewhere will be met with prompt and drastic punishment. A corps of federal inspectors have been assigned to the work of checking up individual purchases. Those found guilty are liable to a fine of $5000 or two years' imprisonment, or both, under the food control bill. Their names will also be made public.

The needs for strict conservation of sugar are as imperative for the present as the necessity of wheat saving, and because of the loyal co-operation of the public in conserving wheat the food administration believes that, with the public understanding the situation, observance of the new regulations restricting consumption to three pounds per person a month as a maximum, will be uniform and that patriotism will prevent hoarding any undue amounts of the commodity. Every effort will be directed toward insuring equitable distribution of the limited supplies to all.

In response to a widespread request of hotel and restaurant men for the abolition of the sugar bowl from the tables of public eating places, the food administration has arranged for a meeting with those involved for consideration of the advisability of such a step. Many dining places have already eliminated the sugar bowl and are serving individual limited portions in envelopes, which has resulted in a big saving.

Sale of sugar for home canning and preserving will be strictly supervised under the new regulations, but it is believed that sufficient sugar will be available to prevent any loss of fruit or berries.

U. S. Food Administration Urges Every Patriotic Person to Cut Down the Consumption of Sugar That Serious Condition May Be Avoided

Nothing short of rigid economy in the use of sugar in the homes will prevent exhaustion of California's supply before August 1.

California's sugar ration for July for all purposes is approximately 12,000,000 pounds less than normal.

Housewives are warned that it is highly unpatriotic as well as a violation of the law punishable by fine and imprisonment to have on hand a supply of sugar in excess of three pounds for each member of the household. For instance, if there are four in the family the maximum supply would be 12 pounds or the allowance for 30 days. This, however, does not include sugar designed for canning. For the latter purpose 25 pounds may be secured at a time by signing a certificate in which the purchaser agrees to use the sugar for canning purposes. Not more than this amount should be in any household at any one time except by special permission of the local administration.

Adopt a War Orphan

The last quarterly payment has just been sent to San Francisco, completing the amount required to provide for a French child for two years, which amount is $73. On hand in treasury, $3.35; to be collected, 90 cents. Most of the subscribers desire to go on with this child two years more. Through Carmel residents nine children have been adopted.

General Pershing has sent out a request that this work of assisting orphans be stimulated. Ten cents a day, or about $3 a month or $36.50 a year, plus a similar amount given by the French government, enable a mother to keep her child, instead of placing it in an institution.

Anyone desiring to take a child, may do so through

WEEKLY GREETING

I would as soon be dead as live on this planet if the Hun and his military government were on top.—J. Stitt Wilson, Socialist orator.

Red Cross Notes

A Red Cross Dollar in providing relief supplies is worth a normal one dollar and fifty-nine cents. This fifty-nine cent gain is made possible by the freely-given labor of millions of Red Cross workers, by the ability of the Purchasing Department to purchase at less than commercial market value through the cooperation of our own and our allies' governmental institutions and the generosity of manufacturers and merchants, by shipping space donated, etc.

The general public has been requested to conserve nursing skill by not employing unnecessarily individual nurses and by utilizing hospitals and visiting nurses whenever possible. Over ten thousand American Red Cross nurses have been assigned during the first year of the war to our Army and Navy. Fifteen thousand more are needed by next January. Sixty thousand nurses have not yet volunteered.

The second Red Cross Drive being a thing of the past, chapters are urged to begin a campaign immediately to remove the emblem of the Red Cross from automobiles, store windows, wagons, etc., where it appears without campaign announcements. Cards indicating war fund subscriptions may be displayed, also membership cards.

The Pacific Division Bureau of Civilian Relief rendered aid to the women of the party of 250 Belgian soldiers who arrived in San Francisco from Russia. On arrival it was found that the women were sadly in need of clothing, which was supplied. A woman having an affliction of the eye was sent to the hospital.

$1.50 pays for the Pine Cone for a year. Send it to a relative or a friend who is interested in Carmel and its doings.

POLITICAL NOTES

Registration for the county and state election has been resumed here at the Pine Cone and J. W. Hand offices. Registration for the Primary closes on July 27.

Five candidates for Sheriff will make a spirited contest at the August primary election. Three aspirants will then be eliminated. E. J. Dutton of Jolon, one of the candidates, was here last week making a vigorous campaign.

W. J. (Pete) Wallace of Salinas is a hustling candidate for the office of County Recorder. He is young, has been a successful business man, and possesses all the requirements to make a competent public servant.

Music, Drama and Lecture
 News Notes

Henry Cowell, young composer and pianist, well known here, who is in the Army, is now second conductor of the home orchestra at Allentown, Pa., where is located the training camp of the U. S. Medical Corps. He has also been selected as musical director of a play to be given by the soldiers in New York.

Miss Alice MacDougal is home from New York. She's a little late for the Forest Theatre Society plays, but perhaps we shall have her for the "Tents of the Arabs," to be presented by the Western Drama Society the end of this month.

The large Pepper residence and the two Fullager cottages will be required to house the students and assistant teachers of Warren D. Allen, Dean of the Conservatory of Music of the College of the Pacific. Mr. Allen will, as last year, teach for two months in Carmel. Miss Jessie Moore will instruct students who do not study with Mr. Allen personally, and Miss Irene Wilkins will give private lessons in harmony. Both young ladies are associated with Mr. Allen at Pacific Conservatory. The party have arrived from San Jose and the Allens are occupying the Friant cottage.

Cameron Johnson, a well-known lecturer, has been booked for three illustrated lectures at the Carmel Church. On Sunday night the subject will be "Japan," on Monday, "Egypt," and on Tuesday, "Palestine." Tickets for single lecture 25c., course ticket 60c.

It is satisfying to note how each year is bringing to Carmel many eminent musicians. Just at present we have here Signor Antonia De Grassi, well-known violinist; Mr. Israel Seligman, Russian pianist; Mr. Lawrence Strauss, a finished singer; Miss Therese Ermine, splendid accompanist and accomplished pianist; and Miss Blanche Tolme, concert soprano.

On Saturday evening, August 3, a concert in which the above-named artists will take part, is to given at Arts and Crafts Hall.

Carmel

The sunset dies,
 And in its place wreathes low the purple mist;
 A seagull flies
 Far to her rest on barren rocks foam-kist.

A star gleams out
 High in the soft blue, o'er the ocean's peace.
 O, now the doubt
 That so assailed the day shall surely cease.
