1. The enclosed correspondence between the editor of the ill-famed daily "Der Abend" and Mr. Josselson of Berlin should be forwarded for your information.
2. It is requested that Mr. Hussenkamp be vetted and a report be submitted to this headquarters.
3. To judge from the enclosed correspondence the possibility seems to exist that Mr. Hussenkamp is qualified to work in a minor capacity on a paper like the "Wirtschaftszeitung".

ASSIGNMENT: CHIEF OF RESEARCH BRANCH

1. Upon your request dated 26 August above subject was interviewed.
2. Subject makes an excellent impression and has the definite intention to emigrate as soon as there is going to be an opportunity. He has not been before a denazification board and expects only to be called in a few months. He is not interested to write at the present time for the reason that he does not like for a publisher to take the risk to publish articles by him, a previous 1st lieutenant of the Waffen-SS. Although he has plenty of documents to prove that he can be considered a nominal member and he did many things which are absolutely in his favour while in the Waffen-SS, he will not ask for permission to go back into his old field again but will continue to work as a mechanic to prepare himself for an emigration favorably to Australia.

Service for Economics and Social-political Affairs)-- Chief Editor; Presently employed by the Bonner Bericht; Member of DJV, Rhine-Westphalia (Union of German Journalists).

c. Subject is listed as SS #22508 (Promoted on 20 April 1944 to Ostuf.) on a EDC "List of SS Officers."

d. EGFA-3634, 31 March 1950--Trace Request-- G. B. HASSENKAMP, age about 35-40 (DOB: 1910-15), journalist, member of FDP and apparently chief of that party's press service. He publishes at present (1950) a news letter called Wirtschafts-und-Sozialpolitik, Informationsdienst fuer Deutsche Wirtschaft, Bonn, Schliessfach 156/Bonn I.

According to his own statements, HASSENKAMP is a nephew of a former General Director of the German Lufthansa. During WW II he was wounded seriously in the left arm and thereafter served on both fronts as a war correspondent.

e. EGKA-18198, 14 April 1950--Trace Reply-- SS Ostuf. Gerd HASSENKAMP, no DPOB, was interrogated by the 1st Army G-2 on 15 March 1945. Subject was with the Propaganda Unit KURT EGGERS, the Propaganda Company of the 1st German Parachute Army, and also during December 1944 and January 1945 was often with the 6th Panzer Army. (The Propaganda Unit KURT EGGERS was ostensibly a unit providing propaganda agents to formations in the Wehrmacht though, according to the British, the scope of its activities probably went beyond that of mere propaganda.)

We were unable to locate the SG (Sicherungsgruppe) Weekly Reports (Sept. to Dec. 1952) presumably forwarded to Headquarters with EGFA-26347. Should an explanation of the appearance of Subject's name on the reports be desired, please query Bonn Element, Frankfurt for a re-check with CARAVEL.

3. Headquarters files contain no additional information on Franz WIEDMANN []
