BUREAU OF THE MINT.

Washington, D. C., — January 16, 1890. 188

The Superintendent, U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

Replying to your letter of yesterday, relative to moving the coin from the vaults in the post office to the mint, I will have two representatives of this department, one of my own office and one of the Treasurer's, at your mint on Monday morning in time to commence the transfer.

I desire that you shall put in the new vault all the silver dollars that will probably not be required for use, so that they can be under the joint seal of yourself, this bureau and the Treasurer's office, and the vault can be sealed up so as not to be disturbed, and prevent further re-weighing

Very respectfully,

E. O. Leach
Director.

*They might weigh and put in a million
a day from the Post Office and a million a day from your own vaults. E. O.*
