BEHAVIOR REBATED INSURANCE RATE

Fire-Chiefs Make Maintenance Proposal

Officers Are Chosen at Final Sitting

A two per cent. rebate to municipalities by all fire insurance underwriters of premiums collected, to be applied to the maintenance of fire departments and to cover compensation for injuries, pension funds and improvements was unanimously endorsed by the Pacific Coast Fire Chiefs' Association this morning.

The convention was held in San Francisco, California, that thirty-six states in the Union already enjoyed the benefits of this system.

To Golden Gate Next Year. San Francisco was the unanimous selection for the next convention. Warm invitations were received from Prince Rupert, Wallace, Idaho, and other cities.

Chief Murphy of San Francisco personally thanked the convention for selecting the Golden Gate for its next meeting, and assured them of a hearty welcome.

A resolution was also endorsed asking the International Association of Fire Engineers to hold its convention jointly with the Pacific Coast Fire Chiefs' Convention at San Francisco next year.

Every influence will be exercised to get the convention of world chiefs for the Pacific Coast next year, as it is realized that the East will put up a big fight for the 1922 convention when the International Association meets at Atlanta, Georgia, in October.

Election of Officers. Chief A. J. Trodick, Great Falls, Mont., vice-president last year, was unanimously elected president; Chief R. J. Scott, Los Angeles, vice-president; Joe Wood, Renton, Wash., treasurer, and R. W. Brimhurst, Seattle, secretary.

Vice-presidents were elected as follows: Alberta, Jas. Scharf, Calgary; Arizona, W. J. Simmons, Phoenix.

California, Chief-Lemoine, Richmond; Idaho, A. B. Canfield, Pocatello; Montana, Emery Kell, Anaconda; Nevada, R. B. Hawcroft, Reno; Oregon, Thos. Coates, Tillamook; New Mexico, Charles Whitman, Roswell; Utah, C. W. Lipp, Logan; Washington, H. E. Hawkins, Yakima; Wyoming, Percy Hoyt, Cheyenne.

Chief Dewell, Portland, president for the past year, was made honorary past president.

As a tribute to the memory of Chief A. L. Lewis and Captain, who passed away during the past year, the convention stood for a moment in silence.

LIQUOR INQUIRY IN SAN FRANCISCO

Arbuckle Case Leads to an Investigation

San Francisco, Sept. 29.—Preparations for the prosecution of Roscoe C. (Patty) Arbuckle on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Miss Virginia Rappe to-day were overshadowed at least for the moment by the federal investigation into the supply of liquor drunk by the guests at the comedian's Hotel St. Francis party.

Belief that his investigations had uncovered a liquor smuggling ring, operating with San Francisco as a base, which imports liquor of choice brands and quality only from Mexico and Canada, was expressed by Federal Prohibition Director E. Forest Mitchell. He is making his inquiry coincidentally with Robert H. McCormack, special assistant to the United States Attorney-General.

Mitchell last night stated that he had a witness who had delivered liquor to Arbuckle's suite at the Hotel St. Francis.

Arbuckle is in Los Angeles on bail.

BREAD NEEDED FOR 30,000,000

Seed Grain Needed in Russian Famine Area

Moscow, Sept. 29.—(Associated Press)—M. Kallinin, head of the Russian Committee for Famine Relief, addressed a famine mass meeting to-day which was attended by the Moscow Soviet, and all local proletarian organizations.

He said the Soviets already had supplied 423,840,000 pounds of seed grain in the famine area and were faced with the problem of supplying 721,400,000 pounds for Spring planting and bread to last the 30,000,000 sufferers through the winter.

Many of these sufferers were 500 miles from food supplies, he declared. Workers and peasants numbering 470,000 had been evacuated by the government to Baku, Basmu, Turkistan and Siberia. He added, and 600,000 had fled unaided from the famine district, embracing about 70,000 square miles.

Passports. The Russian Bolshevik delegation here, said to be acting under instructions from Moscow, announced it would admit no Americans into Russia unless they were permitted to carry American passports.

Ship Wrecked. Helsinki, Sept. 29.—The Huvudstadsbladet reports that a large American steamship bound for Petrograd with a cargo of flour was grounded in the Gulf of Finland. The vessel is likely to become a wreck, the newspaper says.

MEMORIAL AVENUE WILL BE UNIQUE

To Be Lasting Tribute to Fallen Heroes

With the sounding of the Last Post at 8:50 p. m. on Sunday next, at the north end of Shelburne Street, Lieutenant-Governor Nichol, the heads of the Provincial Government and of many municipalities in this Province, as well as the delegates of every public and semi-public organization in this city, will stand in mute reverence to those sons and daughters of this Province who gave their lives for their country in the late war.

The Programme. The function will take place on Sunday afternoon, under the care of Brigadier-General R. P. Clark, master of ceremonies. It will be one of the most impressive tributes to the heroes of B. C. that has yet been performed and the programme will follow along the accompanying lines:

3:25 p. m.—Arrival of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor.

3:30 p. m.—Firing explosive charges to blast holes to receive trees.

3:35 p. m.—His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor to open ceremonies with dedicatory address, to be followed by a address from the Premier, the Hon. John Oliver.

3:50 p. m.—Planting of the first tree by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor. Sounding of "Last Post."

4:05 p. m.—Dedicatory hymn, 4:15 p. m.—The Benediction, 4:16 p. m.—Sounding of "Reveille," 4:20 p. m.—"God Save the King."

Naval and Military. In addition to public dignitaries, a detachment from the Permanent Militia will be present, to a total of some 200, comprising the P. P. C. I. L. Machine Gun Brigade, Royal Canadian Artillery and details. The naval authorities will be represented by Commander Nixon and the Royal Naval College will be represented.

The G. O. C. of M. D. 11, Brigadier-General Ross, C.M.G., has given permission for all militia officers to attend in uniform and it is planned to have the officers from all present militia units and of the former units with war service attend in uniform. Also detachments will be present from the 15th Regiment, C. G. A., 16th Battalion, Canadian Cavalry and the Boys' Naval Brigade and the Victoria Boy Scouts.

Public Invited. The heads of all patriotic and ex-service organizations will be on hand as well as many of their members. The public are to be made most cordially welcome, as it is in the nature of a lasting and public tribute to the honor of B. C. in the late war.

The ministry will be ably represented by the leading clergy of all denominations. The Rev. M. T. Habershon, President of the Ministers' Association, will conduct the dedicatory prayer, while Bishop MacDonald will give a benediction. Two buglers from West Point Barracks will sound the Last Post and the Reveille.

The Provincial Government motion picture service, as well as commercial film companies, will be present to "shoot" the ceremony for distribution throughout Canada and the British Empire. The band of the Boys' Naval Brigade will officiate at the ceremony.

INDICTED. Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 29.—Charging conspiracy in restraint of trade, to wit, a combination to fix the price of cement, the Hamilton County grand jury to-day returned a blanket indictment against a score or more of material and supply firms and individuals.

TOMB OF UNKNOWN HONORED BY U. S.

American Medal on Grave of French Soldier

Paris, Sept. 29.—The French Government has arranged one of the most elaborate and impressive ceremonies since the Armistice for next Sunday morning, when General Pershing will place the Medal of Honor voted by the United States Congress on the tomb of the "Unknown Soldier of France."

President Millerand, Premier Briand, Marshal Foch, members of the Cabinet, the Senate and Chamber of Deputies and nearly all the French military leaders who are in France will participate in the ceremony.

LOCAL LIBERAL IS NOMINATED

William Marchant Named in Comox-Alberni

Liberals of the Comox-Alberni riding met at Parksville last evening, and nominated William Marchant, of this city, as their candidate at the forthcoming general election.

He is a leading member of the riding, and there was a good attendance. Mr. Marchant is among the best known of the older residents of Victoria. He recently retired from the Customs and Excise Department, where he held the position of Inspector of Customs, having risen from the position of appraiser, to which he was chosen in 1857. Mr. Marchant has been an active alderman, school trustee, and library commissioner of Victoria, and a well-known lecturer in behalf of proportional representation.

He is a leading member of the Baptist church, and has taken an active part in the discussion of many public questions.

Mr. Marchant has always been a consistent Liberal, and in one of the Victoria, but was unsuccessful. His professional duties as an inspector of customs has taken him periodically to the coast during the morning.

More than fifty people were present when City Treasurer E. C. Smith offered the sale this morning but bidding, as had been expected, was slack, and the chief bidder, who was the chief bidder, little land was bought by other people for speculative purposes.

So far the city has been obliged to take over exactly eighty per cent. of the land offered for sale. If the sale continues on its present basis the Corporation will be loaded up with well over 300 parcels of land in addition to the huge quantity which it took over at former tax sales.

BALLOON DESTROYED. Dayton, Ohio, Sept. 29.—A bolt of lightning in an electrical storm early this morning struck and demolished a "baby blimp" dirigible balloon stationed at Wilbur Wright aviation field.

PRAIRIE FARMERS, DELAYED, WISH TO THRESH SUNDAYS

Regina, Sept. 29.—A large number of farmers in this province, embarrassed by the delayed threshing and the approach of winter, are applying to the Dominion Government for permission to thresh on Sundays for the remainder of the season in spite of the provisions of the Lord's Day Act.

SIR W. MACKENZIE MAY DO RAILWAY BUILDING IN SPAIN

Toronto, Sept. 29.—The Toronto Globe has a news story to the effect that Sir William Mackenzie, who is now on the ocean heading for Europe, has been invited to undertake construction work for the Spanish Government and that he has gone to London to discuss the proposal.

FRENCH AIRMAN WAS DROWNED IN PACIFIC OFF PERU

Lima, Peru, Sept. 29.—Lieut. Joseph Ronnat, of the French aviation mission, is believed to have been drowned while flying from Casma, 210 miles northwest of Lima, to the latter city Tuesday. His aeroplane was last seen over Ancón and it is believed he fell into the Pacific near that place.

WILL TOUR ISLAND TO BOOST HOME MADE ARTICLES

A decision, made at a dinner of 200 manufacturers of Vancouver yesterday, will bring a large delegation of Vancouver business men to this city and island in connection with the Made in B. C. Campaign.

MOONSHINERS IN "HAUNTED" BUILDING

Winnipeg, Sept. 29.—The mystery of the haunted schoolhouse near Emerson, Manitoba, ninety miles south of here, has been solved by the police of that town. Weird lights were seen at night around the old building, which was recently sold to a Ruthenian farmer, and suspicious "ghosts" and visitors from the "spirit world."

EMERSON, MANITOBA, SCHOOLHOUSE MYSTERY CLEARED UP

When the police arrived they found the building brilliantly lighted and the "school marm's" platform occupied by a huge still ten feet in length with an estimated capacity of forty-five to sixty-five gallons daily. Two streams of aromatic liquor were gurgling forth and there were nineteen barrels of "moon" arranged about the walls. Several kegs of the finished product, it is stated, were ready for export.

LEADERS TO ADDRESS G.W.V.A. CONVENTION

Ottawa, Sept. 29.—The Great War Veterans' Association Dominion headquarters is now preparing for the big annual convention in Port Arthur, which will open October 17. It is now hoped that Admiral Lord Beatty, Gen. Sir Arthur Currie, Gen. Lord Byng and Gen. Pershing will attend as its guests, and that these eminent soldiers will take the occasion to address the 1,500 delegates who are expected to be there.

START REGISTRATION FOR CITY ELECTION

Registration of non-property owners for the civic voters' list will be started at City Clerk E. W. Bradley's offices to-morrow morning. All non-property owners who wish to vote at the December civic election must register between to-morrow morning and the last day of October. Besides registering they will be required to pay a $2 road tax. These provisions apply to men and women.

CITY TAKES OVER MOST OF TAX LAND

Private Buyers Purchase 30 Parcels. Thirty parcels of land were purchased by private interests for $5,551.85 when the city's annual tax sale opened in the City Council Chamber this morning. The city was forced to take over 159 parcels of land during the morning. Over 400 parcels will be disposed of in the course of the sale.

LEADER SCORES LABOR RADICALS

Wilson, British Sailors' Chief, Condemns Strikes. London, Sept. 29.—(Canadian Press)—J. Havelock Wilson, president of the National Sailors' and Firemen's Union, indulged in some plain talk concerning strikes while giving his presidential address.

If the trades union movement had been wise when the war was ended, he said, it would have made a good compromise with the employers to secure industrial peace, but unfortunately a good many of the labor leaders lacked the moral courage to help the workers. I cannot understand, he said, what they actually believed. He said that one of the most colossal blunders labor had ever made was the recent stoppage of work in the coal mines.

"There are many who want turmoil from end to end of the country," said Mr. Wilson. "How that is going to help the workers, I cannot understand. Such ideas are those of fools and madmen which in no way reflect the real feelings of the workers."

Manifolds. The terms of the Meighen party's manifesto have yet to be discussed, the draft of which, it is understood, has already been prepared and the manifesto itself probably will be issued during the week-end. It will lay down the lines of the Meighen party's policy, emphasizing protection as the dominant issue in the campaign.

While running down the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway last night, the National train on which Premier Meighen was traveling to Ottawa passed through a severe electrical and rain storm. So strong was the wind that it tore one of the screen doors completely off the Premier's car, but beyond that no damage was done.

To Maritime Provinces. Premier Meighen expects to return here after the Maritime tour to clear up unfinished business. He will then proceed to the Maritime Provinces for the campaign there.

McMaster Spoke. Sherbrooke, Que., Sept. 29.—The feature of the last rally at Bury yesterday was an attack by A. R. McMaster on Hon. C. Ballantyne in connection with the Government Merchant Marine. McMaster, a member of the Brome County staff, said that the Minister of Marine had mentioned in Parliament that the service was paying 100 per cent. of the cost of the voyage.

Removal of Cause. "Talk of disarmament is idle," he added, "unless the cause of armaments is removed. Frankly, I see no hope of disarmament until problems relating to the Pacific are settled."

Referring to the Empire defence, Mr. Hughes said that whatever should be decided upon at the Washington conference, Australia must have a naval defence adequate for her safety and that "peace in the Pacific means peace in the Empire."

Obstructions. Geneva, Sept. 29.—Charges that a systematic campaign was being waged to put obstructions in the way of international relief for Russia by interests which had political objects in view were made in the Assembly of the League of Nations to-day by Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, High Commissioner of the International Committee for Russian Relief.

Dr. Nansen's charges were made in a speech which he delivered after the Assembly had decided, in a report presented by Delegate Motta of Switzerland, that the League could not undertake an appeal to the nations of the world for funds to feed Russia.

$2,000,000 MORE FOR B. C. ROADS

Highway System to Be Improved. The Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance, to-day called tenders for $2,000,000 of British Columbia bonds. The money will be used for extension of the good roads system of the province.

The bonds will be 4 per cent. run for 25 years and be payable in Canada only. Bids must be in by next Tuesday.

Road construction under this loan will be carried on according to the good roads plans formulated some time ago by the Hon. J. H. King, Minister of Public Works. The policy contemplates adding a few miles here and there throughout the province to the highway system, rather than spending any large amount of money in one place.

It is expected that this road work will aid in relieving unemployment during the winter.

This bond issue is part of the $5,000,000 for good roads authorized by the Legislature.

PROTEST ON YAP BY THE CHINESE

Objections to American-Japanese Agreements. Peking, Sept. 29.—Agreements between the United States and Japan relative to the future status of the island of Yap, as reported in press dispatches, constitute a violation of China's sovereignty and the principle of national equality, say identical notes transmitted to the American and Japanese Legations by the Chinese Foreign Office.

The Chinese note maintains the American-Japanese agreement can not authorize Japan to lay a cable between Shanghai and the island of Yap without securing the consent of China.

CABINET DISCUSSES DATE FOR POLLING

Then Meighen Goes to Montreal to Speak

Political News From Various Canadian Points

A meeting of the Meighen Cabinet at which it is understood the date of the Federal general election was discussed, and further nominations for the Commons were the Thursday political news of Canada to-day.

Hon. Mackenzie King spoke in Windsor, N. S., last night. Premier Meighen is to address a meeting in Montreal to-night. Opinion in Ottawa is that polling will not take place November 28, the date first mentioned, but a dispatch says "there is hope the campaign will be over before Christmas."

Mr. King Spoke. Windsor, N. S., Sept. 29.—Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, the Liberal Leader; Hon. H. S. Beland, M. P.; Wilfrid Laurier, M. P.; and D. D. Mackenzie, M. P., were in the city at a meeting here last evening.

In Sherbrooke, London and Portage la Prairie Premier Meighen had declared a Government of the character and free trade, said Mr. King. The real question to-day was whether the people would trust a man who did not trust himself or whether they wanted rule by all the people.

The Liberal Leader said the people voting for the Liberal Party would vote for a Government of the character of that of 1896, when Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his Government opened to Canada her golden era of prosperity and development.

Referring to a recent speech of Premier Meighen, Mr. King said: "The people do not know what sort of government they are voting against, if not all know what they are voting for."

Mr. King referred to the War-Time Election Act as a "stunt" which the people had been deprived of their proper representation and had been defrauded.

Mr. Duff said Canadians to-day were being paid back for rejecting both reciprocity and Sir Wilfrid Laurier in 1911. "Had reciprocity gone into effect in 1911, we would not have heard of the Fordney bill," said Mr. Duff. "Retaliatory tariff measures are not the proper method of dealing with a tariff. We would be better to have honest commerce between a Canadian Liberal administration and Washington."

Meighen in Ottawa. Ottawa, Sept. 29.—(Canadian Press)—Premier Meighen arrived in Ottawa from the West this morning and later in the day presided at a meeting of the Cabinet.

Several important questions are down for discussion before the Premier leaves for Montreal, where he is due to speak to-night. First comes the dissolution of Parliament and the date of the election. It is quite likely that the date will not be officially announced to-day, an effort is being made to reach a decision as early as possible. It is understood the election will be held November 28, the date originally in view, but there is every hope that the campaign will be over before Christmas.

Manifolds. The terms of the Meighen party's manifesto have yet to be discussed, the draft of which, it is understood, has already been prepared and the manifesto itself probably will be issued during the week-end. It will lay down the lines of the Meighen party's policy, emphasizing protection as the dominant issue in the campaign.

Sinn Fein Accepts Invitation Sent by Premier of Britain

Delegates From Ireland Will Attend Conference In British Capital and Discuss Plan For Settlement.

CLOCKS WILL GO BACK AN HOUR AT MIDNIGHT

OCTOBER 11 THE DATE

London, Sept. 30.—Eamonn de Valera to-day sent a communique to Premier Lloyd George, accepting the invitation to a conference in London October 11 with a view to a settlement of the Irish question.

Dublin, Sept. 30.—Sinn Fein Ireland's answer to the British Government's invitation to a conference to be held in London October 11 was expected to be ready for the Daily Express "Cabinet" when it assembled here at 3 p. m. to-day. Eamonn de Valera, leader of the Irish Republic, was "virtually decided upon" during the afternoon.

Postponed. Belfast, Sept. 30.—Fear that a solution of the Irish controversy may not be reached at the London conference on October 11 should the British Government's invitation be accepted by the Sinn Fein was expressed by The Northern Whig to-day. In commenting on Premier Lloyd George's latest note to Dublin, the newspaper said:

"Mr. Lloyd George has not permanently averted a grave crisis in the peace negotiations by his reply. Unless someone is prepared to make a big surrender, he has only postponed it."

"The course adopted by the British Government is open to criticism on various grounds. It may be considered as undignified and lacking in courage, and therefore unworthy of the rulers of a great empire. It does not necessarily indicate, however, any intention on the part of the Government to throw the crown into the melting pot to keep company with all that has already been put there."

An Epoch. "In the days to come," declared The Irish News, "October 11, 1921, will be associated with the beginning of another epoch of Irish history, provided the present crisis is handled skilfully and boldly, with an honest regard for the interests of all concerned in the desire for peace with which the protracted correspondence has been studied all along."

American Views. New York, Sept. 30.—(Canadian Press)—Reactions of Irishmen can not ask more than that, says The New York Times to-day after reviewing the latest note of Premier Lloyd George to de Valera.

The Times says the British Premier, while stating "the unalterable determination of his Government not to treat with Ireland as an independent nation, does not ask the Sinn Fein leader to withdraw his previous notification that the Sinn Fein delegates should go to the conference as representatives of a sovereign State."

"He merely requests him," says The Times. "After stating that indications from Dublin point to de Valera's acceptance of the offer, The Times concludes: 'Any other way would be madness.'"

Only Course. "The World believes 'the acceptance of the latest offer to a conference is the only course open to Sinn Fein leaders.'"

UNEMPLOYED MEN CLASH WITH POLICE IN LEICESTER, ENG.

Leicester, Eng., Sept. 29.—A dozen men were injured and many arrested after a clash here to-day between the police and 600 unemployed men who had smashed the windows of the board of guardians' offices. The fight lasted only a few minutes. The police used their truncheons freely, while the unemployed used stones and other missiles.

ROYAL-VICTORIA

"Peck's Bad Boy" starring Jackie Coogan, six-year-old motion picture celebrity, will be the feature attraction at the Royal Victoria Theatre again to-day.

The little youngster who carved a niche in the hearts of all picture fans who saw him as "The Kid" is said to have done even greater work in "Peck's Bad Boy" than he did in the Chaplin masterpiece, if such a thing can be possible.

In this screen version of the volumes of the late Governor George Peck, Jackie is seen as an all-around American lad who is constantly making trouble for his ingenious boyish pranks.

How he manages to get to the circus at the expense and mortification of his "Pa," causes the escape of a lion and general furore at the tent show, and throws a chair into an uproar by introducing a collection of live ants, are some of the high-lights in this comedy.

The subtlety is the working of Irvin S. Cobb, famous humorist. Doris May has the role of the Girl in the Case (Jackie's sister). Wheeler Oakman portrays the Man in the Case. James Corrigan is seen as Mr. Peck and Lillian Leighton as Mrs. Peck. Raymond Hatton is the village grocer and Baby Gloria Wood is Jackie's affinity.

"Peck's Bad Boy" was produced by Irving Lesser. It is released by Associated First National Pictures Inc.

Three good short subjects are also shown on the same programme: "Springland in Zooland," a Bray Pictograph; "Lonesome Pup," a Bruce Scenic; and a two reel special Christie comedy entitled "Red Hot Legs." Masked Neebitt, Victoria's boy singer, has been given a special engagement and will no doubt please in the songs that he renders.

PRINCESS

The comedy now playing at the Princess is without doubt a real one, strictly up to the moment, and with never a lull in the action from the rise to the fall of the curtain.

Byron Aldenn and Harry Leeland are cast for the two leading characters, and are indeed giving the Princess patrons proof of their capability by their careful handling of these two difficult parts.

The entire cast appears to advantage and from every angle "Potash and Perlmutter" is a splendid production, sure to please those who witness it.

Next week the popular company will produce a concoction entitled "As We Are." It is a play or several plays within a play, and has been written around the people who are appearing in the production and will show a different side of their lives than the one with which the public is in general familiar.

Remember the bean contest is still unguessed, $45 if won on Saturday. "Potash and Perlmutter" will appear to-night and to-morrow night with a matinee Saturday.

COLUMBIA

A different picture is "Poor Dear Margaret Kirby," the Selznick feature, starring Elaine Hammerstein, which is now showing at the Columbia Theatre. The eternal triangle does crop up, but it is merely incidental, and is used only to serve as an additional obstacle in the heroine's thorny path to happiness. In adapting this picture from the popular novel of the same title by Kathleen Norris, Lewis Allen Browne, who is given the credit for the picturization of the story, has skillfully caught the sardonic humor and dramatic intensity of every situation. "Poor Dear Margaret Kirby" is written around a young society matron who suddenly finds herself destitute with an invalid husband on her hands. Her erstwhile friends desert her with the acceleration of rats deserting a sinking ship in spite of the formidable obstacles which arise, however, Margaret manages to keep her head above water, and in the end her enemies are vanquished, the villain scorned, and the love of her husband regained, with the future lying sunny and prosperous before them. It is a splendid story, the acting is excellent, and the supporting cast chosen with exceptional care.

The combined efforts of two of the most skilled cameramen in the motion picture industry are responsible for the beautiful photography of "The Idol of the North." Thomas Branigan and Lawrence E. Williams. Mr. Branigan has been associated with Paramount pictures for a long period, and some of the marvellous effects of this production were achieved by him. Mr. Williams is a veteran at the crank, having begun with the old Thanhouser Company. He has been associated with Bellanca, made all of the Frank A. Keeney productions with Catherine Calvert, Virginia Pearson productions and "Black Sheep," featuring Holmes E. Herbert.

The Dominion Theatre is to open to the public on Monday. Every reader of novels knows Mme. Elmer Glyn, author of "Three Weeks" and other novels of international fame. The story of "The Great Moment," in which Gloria Swanson stars and during the filming of Cecil B. De Mille's Paramount production of "The Affairs of Anatol" which will be shown at the Dominion Theatre next Monday. Mme. Glyn was induced to permit herself to be screened with her in a society scene of which there are many in this remarkable all-star photoplay. The celebrated author is seated with Lady Parker, wife of Gilbert Parker, at a fashionable tea given at the home of Anatol De Witt Spencer, the hero of the story. Only a momentary glimpse of the two ladies is given and those who desire to study their faces must look sharp. Wallace Reid, Gloria Swanson, Elliott Dexter, Bebe Daniels, Monte Blue, Wanda Hawley, Theodore Roberts and Polly Moran have the leading roles in this great picture production.

CAPITOL

Betty Compton has scored a decisive hit in "At the End of the World," her first Paramount starring picture which is attracting large audiences to the Capitol Theatre this week. Miss Compton is a charming actress and her role in this photoplay affords her many opportunities for effective work. Milton Sills leading man, shares honors with the star.

NOTES ABOUT FILM PLAYERS

Marion Davies is an expert automobile driver, motoring being one of her favorite sports. She is a well known figure on the roads about New York City.

Montague Love, who plays the villain in "The Beauty Shop," Cosmopolitan production's screen version of the famous musical comedy, has appeared in many American stage productions but has never been on Broadway. He is Englishman, and was born in Calcutta, India.

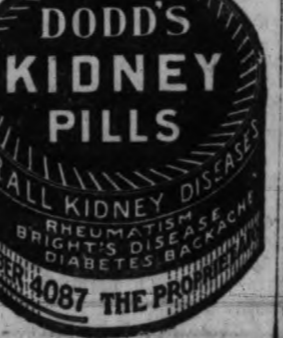

Tom Lewis, well known stage comedian, will make an appearance in pictures in a prominent part in "Enchantment," starring Marion Davies, which Cosmopolitan Productions will soon release.

"Back Pay," a Fannie Hurst story, will shortly be seen in its third form—a photoplay. Miss Hurst's story is now being produced on Broadway in a stage version and Cosmopolitan Productions has completed a screen version. Seena Owen and Matt Moore play the leading parts.

Gladys Leslie is working in "Sisters," a Kathleen Norris story which Albert Capellan is directing for Cosmopolitan Productions.

Billy B. Van, who has an important part in "The Beauty Shop," a Cosmopolitan Production now being filmed, was missed from the studio the other day. As a dietary expert as well as a famous comedian, Director Edward Dillon suspected the cause of his absence. He told an assistant to see if there were any cows in the neighborhood. Sure enough, near the studio in Harlem, New York City, the assistant found a cow tethered. Van was there looking the animal over. The comedian owns a model dairy farm in New Hampshire and cannot resist inspecting every unit of the source of supply he sees.

Marguerite Marsh, who plays opposite Lionel Barrymore in "Broomstick Bill," a forthcoming Cosmopolitan Production, is a student of occultism and mysticism. Marguerite is an authority on East Indian lore.

WOMEN IN POLITICS.

To the Editor:—I have noticed of late the press asking the women of Victoria to take more interest in politics. It is my opinion it would be of more interest and beneficial to the country if women were to take more interest in their homes and families. Men have muddled the affairs of the country badly enough without asking the women to join in and make matters worse.

SAANICH WATER BY-LAW.

To the Editor:—In the letter in your issue of this evening, in which Alfred E. Hall, Jr., holds me up to scorn he refers to himself as "one of the leaders" of the movement against the by-law.

Alfred E. Hall is too modest. He is "the" leader of the band—the intellectual head. He is the Horatius of "The Dauntless Three"—the D'Artagnan of "The Three Musketeers." Messrs. Adams and Collis are but his lieutenants. He is their inspiration. They dance to his piping.

Mr. Hall criticises my letter. I trust he will pardon my saying of his that to me it savors of an uncultivated mind.

And I suggest to Mr. Hall, Mr. Adams and Mr. Collis, individually, collectively, and with respect, that they have demonstrated to the municipality that they are perhaps better qualified to criticise a cabbage than question the expert figures upon which the by-law is based.

"VANCOUVER ISLE."

(By Geo. S. Grant)

Away out where the setting Sun
At evening turns the hills to gold,
There nestles in Pacific's blue,
A wondrous island I am told,
Its name is like summer at the year,
And flowers bloom, the grass is green,
Where you can see more wondrous sights.

Then e'er before you could have seen,
If you can come and spend awhile
Amongst its hills or by its streams,
You'll say, "At last I've found
A place fulfill my fondest dream,
When at last you have to go,
You simply tear yourself away,
And to yourself say: very soon
I'm coming over here to stay.

The folks that come from U. S. A.
Tell you down there your not in style,
If to the island you don't come
To motor through, and camp awhile.
And when back home amongst your friends
"A good time" Well they see you smile,
They do not have to ask you that,
When you've been through "Vancouver Isle."

THE TARIFF.

To the Editor:—As the result of the coming election, appears to be based on the present tariff, or freer trade, I would wish to express a land owner's opinion and experience in Manitoba on the working of the tariff on the farmers' tools. The farmer most likely has read that near the Straits of Gibraltar a band of sea robbers lived on an island named Tarifa, and that they levied a tax on all merchant ships too weak to resist, and finally merchants entering the Mediterranean were paid a certain sum agreed upon and thus the word tariff as applying to tax was born and coined by sea and not land robbers. I have seen a farmer in Dakota and another in Manitoba with only one boundary line between them, both using a gasoline tractor made in the same factory in the United States and both the same grade of machine and the one in Manitoba costing near $1,000 more than the one in Dakota. Thus the tiller of the soil in Canada had to sweat and work for a year or two more than the Dakotan, and had to pay interest on the extra, which in some cases out of ten was borrowed from a machine company who charged an extra profit, because it paid the duty for him as well as furnishing the machine on time. Thus the farmer who faces the heat and cold and works all the year on the chance of a crop is penalized. A tariff is said to encourage manufacturers—if so is the tiller of the soil not a producer of grain, in fact, a manufacturer, for he gives a year's labor to produce one crop? If it be said he is protected by a duty on grain, a reply can be made that it does not help him, as there is a surplus to sell in Canada.

If the claim is made that the tariff on the tiller tools enables the manufacturer to pay his workers better wages, neither the farmer nor the land-owner object but they cannot understand why the tools they have to buy should not be as cheaply made in Canada as in the United States, and it is commonly said that the output is limited in Canada so that the duty is paid on goods made in Canada by adding it on the price here. After a farmer pays the duty on his tools and he sees them wear out and become useless, he becomes superstitious and begins to "see things" and that is the cause of unrest among farmers who think they are not getting a square deal. Among some of the things they imagine they see is the heads of machine companies becoming millionaires and sit in Parliament and make tariff laws and when hail or drought or low prices strike him he wonders who is his friend. He turns to rain makers for help and the church reads prayers for rain, but it takes cash for the tariff and now the United States charges him 35 cents a bushel duty for wheat going there, so he gets it wrong both going and coming and yet produces the best wheat in the world which the United States is his market for, to grind with the soft wheat grown there. He knows the door is open for reciprocal trade and with that his grain that might go south on a short haul otherwise has to go east on a long haul at his expense. This is what is the matter with the grain grower and is he not right?

VOTE FOR THE BY-LAW.

If the volume of correspondence which has found its way into the newspaper offices may be taken as evidence of the amount of interest that is being manifested by the Saanich people generally to-morrow's vote on the water by-law should provide a record expression of opinion. There appears to be every prospect of the requisite majority in favor of what should be regarded as an enterprise in keeping with the progressive spirit and accomplishments of the municipality. It goes without saying that a modern water system for domestic purposes is a fundamental requirement in any community. It is more than ordinarily essential in a district whose activities in the cause of public health has earned a reputation for itself of which it may well be proud. In view of its ultimate adaptation to the agricultural needs of the community as a whole the issue should no longer remain in doubt. Our advice to the electors of Saanich is to vote "yes."

HOW SHOCKING!

It was only to be expected that the Colonial Office scheme for re-grouping the British Crown colonies would provoke a good deal of criticism from the old Imperialistic school. Central authority with the thumb of Downing Street stretching out to the utmost limits of the far-flung Empire is an essential symbol of the flag to those portly gentlemen who recline in their arm-chairs at the Carlton Club in total ignorance of the fact that the Empire in whose glories they revel after all has grown up. It was difficult enough for them to let the adult members of the British family leave the immediate domestic circle; but the idea of extending the principle to all the youngsters under any guise is shocking.

The new proposal appears to be something in the nature of a consolidation along geographical and racial lines in order that the several groups may be furnished with more active machinery for their general benefit and development. It is merely an extension of the policy which singles out the Empire as a model system of management. But the critics are those who will experience similar shocks when Westminster begins to talk seriously of a federal system of government for Great Britain in order that over-worked M. P.'s will not require to go to London to discuss the purchase of a few yards of drain-pipe for a remote Scottish constituency.

GETTING WISE.

If other British Labor leaders have been faint hearted Mr. Havelock Wilson did not mince matters when he delivered his presidential address to the annual gathering of the National Sailors' and Firemen's Union this morning. He declared that if the Trades Union movement had been wise at the conclusion of the war it would have made a good compromise with the employers to secure industrial peace. But the reason it had not done so was because many of the Labor leaders lacked the moral courage to preach what they actually believed. He informed his hearers that the chiefs of the Miners' Federation already had reached the conclusion that the coal strike was one of the most colossal blunders Labor had ever made.

The average man who is not working overtime to discover a short cut to industrial calamity will welcome these all too frequent outbursts of candor from responsible officials of the Labor Party. He—like Mr. Wilson—recognizes the fact that there are many who want "turnout" from end to end of the country just as he also laments the lack of courage on the part of influential labor men who might do their own cause and the country some good were they to ask the extremists how their methods are going to improve matters. Mr. Wilson correctly measures the attitude of these irresponsible dreamers when he describes their ideas as those "of fools and madmen which in no way reflect the real feelings of the workers."

But there is a brighter side to the picture to be found in the attitude adopted by some of the unemployed who have forbidden communists to speak at their meetings. Going one better was the course of action taken by returned men at Newport who registered disapproval of a communist orator by depositing him in what is described in the dispatch as a "deep pool." A good old-fashioned ducking is a useful expedient at times.

AMERICAN OPINION.

Like practically all of the British newspapers The New York Times cannot understand how de Valera can justify a refusal to attend the conference which Mr. Lloyd George has called for the eleventh of next month. It declares that reasonable Irishmen cannot ask more than that contained in the latest communication from the Prime Minister and observes that "any other way would be madness." The World believes the acceptance of the invitation is the only course open to the Sinn Fein leaders and points out that rejection "can only mean blindness to their opportunities." And it can be taken for granted that the sentiments expressed by these two influential American dailies represent the attitude of the bulk of the people in the United States. They know as the people of the British Isles know that Lincoln dealt with the Southern States long before they got half as unruly as Sinn Fein Ireland. If there was justification for the Washington cry—"the Union must be preserved"—in 1861 there is all the more point in the attitude taken by Mr. Lloyd George.

MR. MACDONALD CHOSEN.

Although the British Columbia Legislature will suffer a distinct loss by his departure for the national arena the Liberals of Burrard had the satisfaction of knowing that they have made no mistake in selecting Mr. M. A. Macdonald as their candidate in the forthcoming Federal elections. On the public platform and on the floor of the Legislature Mr. Macdonald has shown himself to possess all the attributes of a political leader. Since the electors of Vancouver sent him to the local House in the early days of 1916 he has fought three elections and his judgment of his own city has not changed: This fact alone justifies the choice of the Liberals in Burrard and Mr. Macdonald's thorough grasp and understanding of Federal affairs should reduce his campaign obstacles and present him with a handsome majority.

A WISE CHOICE.

Since it is considered advisable to retain the present system of management in South Vancouver the Government could not have made a wiser selection of a successor to Commissioner Gillespie than Mr. Arthur W. Gray. Eleven years of active municipal experience in New Westminster—six as an Alderman and five as Mayor—have equipped him for the important position to which he has been called. None the less his task is by no means a simple one. South Vancouver has added factional prejudices to her financial problems and the role of Commissioner is expected to embrace the faculty of harmonizing the two. Mr. Gray's record in the Royal City is all the recommendation he should need.

GOING THE ROUNDS.

According to a dispatch from Paris Roumania has negotiated a ten-million-dollar credit with Switzerland and a part of the accommodation will be utilized in the purchase of agricultural machinery. This announcement revives interest in the twenty-five million dollar credit which Roumania was successful in establishing in this country with similar objects of purchase in view. Unless the Minister of Finance has kept the information to himself we do not recall ever having heard of anything in the way of payment of interest or capital to the Dominion Exchequer. And the transaction is something like two years old now. There ought to be some distinction between a loan and a gift.

NOTE AND COMMENT

It was Mr. M. A. Macdonald who started the Liberal landslide in British Columbia in 1916. Does his entry into the wider field presage something of a similar nature in Federal politics?

Premier Hughes is opposed to a constitutional conference and believes that the surest way to dismember the British Empire is to meddle with the constitution. Well said!

At a recent meeting of the Kamloops Chamber of Commerce one of the speakers who lives in Vancouver referred to the loss of revenue from which British Columbia is suffering because the coast is not linked up to the interior by a passable highway. He also remarked upon the fact that hundreds of motorists from across the border are repeatedly asking in Vancouver how they can cross the Province by road. This is a matter that should be discussed by the Legislature in the nature of an investment and not by any means from the point of view of a luxury—although it would be both and good business at that.

A GOOD SIGN

(The Portland Oregonian.) Inquiry is made whether a wave of something cannot be discovered that would add to the sum of happiness, as a relief from the crime waves and suicide waves with which we are constantly regaled. It is nevertheless a good sign that a wave of happiness is still not news. Happiness is a good deal commoner, and hence more commonplace, than the pessimists are willing to admit.

HOROSCOPE

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1921. (Copyright, 1921, by The McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

This is not a fortunate rule, according to astrology. Although Jupiter is in benefic aspect, Saturn dominates in evil power. The morning should be fortunate for business initiative and should bring large profits to all who take risks wisely.

There is a most promising sign for the President of some man in high place, for he will gain lasting world fame.

Civic honors for a distinguished soldier are forecast by the stars.

The year will witness many strange conditions in which men in educational institutions will gain new power in the affairs of State.

High honors will be accorded to a woman past middle-age, who will be well qualified to occupy an important position.

The King of Sweden again comes under evil influences that may affect his health.

Revolutionary propaganda will be distributed in many countries during the coming year, but will have less influence in the United States than elsewhere.

There is to be a piece of litigation that will attract the attention of the whole world, and American lawyers will be concerned in it.

The conjunction of Mars and Saturn, which will take place November 15, denotes shipping troubles.

Persons whose birthdate it is must keep their eyes well in hand during the coming year.

Children born on this day may have long and happy lives, but they probably will have unusual talents and will always find much amusement in all their experiences.

SAANICH WATER BY-LAW.

To the Editor:—May I please be accorded the privilege of your column for a final plea to the electors. I wish to state first of all that we are already assured support of the by-law from the progressive element of Saanich, who are fully conversant with the provisions of the by-law, but it is to the voter whose vision has been clouded and whose mind has been put in doubt by a certain reactionary element whose opposition to the by-law has been of such a nature as to have brought the city of shame from all quarters and loudst from their own ward, that I would say that any issue, no matter how meritorious it is can easily be clouded by anyone wishing to raise doubt and suspicion, especially when dishonest means are resorted to. But you are asked to apply this infallible test.

Take the following type of men who, as ratepayers of Saanich are in active support of the scheme: Reeve Wilson, all the councillors except two, who though honest in in-ent are confirmed reactionaries; Mayor Porter, who as a ratepayer of Saanich states that failure to support the measure will hurt every ratepayer in Saanich; Municipal Clerk Cowper, a man of unchallenged integrity and ability, who has the interests of every ratepayer at heart, assures you that the scheme is for the benefit of everyone. Your leading business and labor men are giving it most active support. Now cast a glance at the opposition. R. E. Collis, who made statements which have been publicly declared false, J. B. Adams, who has a Government job, and is therefore not dependent on the economic progress of Saanich as we who depend upon the land for our living. Weigh these two sides up and give the by-law that last ounce of support that it merits.

The fight has become more than one for water—it has become an issue between the progressive and reactionary forces of our whole community. Be progressive. Vote "yes."

POLITICS

London Times Also Guesses. No Party All-Powerful. New Men, New Policies Coming. Farmer-Labor Pact? Should Bar Choose Judges?

Now comes The London Times with its prediction of the result of the Dominion election.

It is the estimate cabled by its Canadian correspondent, Sir John Willison, head of the Canadian Reconstruction Association, which is supported by high tariff advocates, chiefly in the interests of the Meighen Government.

This is what The Times has to say:

No one believes that the Government can carry the majority of the constituencies or that any one group will be able to control the next parliament.

It is believed that Quebec will give Mr. Mackenzie King practically solid support. It is doubtful if more than half a dozen candidates representing Labor, Conservatives, or the Farmers' party will be elected in the French Province.

Mr. King should also carry eight or ten seats in Ontario and ten or a dozen in the Atlantic Provinces.

It is expected that the Farmers' party will sweep the three Prairie Provinces, while Conservatives and Labor will secure most of the constituencies in British Columbia.

It is certain that at the moment there is no definite understanding between any two groups, and the common expectation is that the Farmers' party will carry more constituencies than either the Conservatives or Liberals.

Canada, after the election, will see a re-alignment of political parties and new political leaders, according to The Toronto Star.

There is no prospect of class government, this newspaper declares, as it is impossible for the Farmers to have a working majority all their own.

But, there will be three or four parties, and government will have to be carried on through some sort of intelligent co-operation which will preclude the introduction of extreme policies.

The Star adds: This ought, then, to mean a period in which new men, given the opportunity, will endeavor to frame such policies and build up such a party as will deserve well of the country whose support it will seek.

An "arrangement" between Labor and the Farmers is announced in Ontario.

J. J. Morrison, leader of the United Farmers of Ontario, and James Simpson, leader of the Labor party in Toronto, have agreed that in ridings where the urban vote predominates, Farmers are to support the Labor candidate, and in ridings where the rural vote is greater, Labor is to support the farmer.

To carry out this plan Mr. Morrison says that the U. F. O. central executive will depart from the boasted policy of non-interference in local ridings and use the influence of their organization in doing so.

Lé Devoir believes that something should be done about the custom of using the privilege of appointing judges in Canada as a means of rewarding political service.

Henri Bourassa's newspaper says: Notwithstanding the high esteem we have for our judges—and Canada has for the most part very excellent judges—we cannot help thinking that the manner of selecting the magistrature in all the provinces of the Dominion might be appreciably improved.

Too often, as a matter of fact, political motives determine the choice of this or that lawyer for the vacant position on the Bench.

Of course, these gentlemen may make very good judges, but our rulers are apt to commit abuses in making these nominations.

It is not because this man or that man has rendered services to his party, or, being tired of politics and wanting to get out, that they ought to be elevated to the Bench.

Why cannot the Government appoint the judges on the recommendation of the Bar of the Province in which the appointment is to be made? The councils of the Bar could each year draw up a list of candidates, and from these lists the Government, as occasion arose, might make its selection. This would be an additional guarantee to those who are amenable to the judges' jurisdiction.

The new cabinet is announced. It is, perhaps, as excellent a lot of ball-bearers as could have been selected.—Toronto Star.

WOMAN'S CASE IS TAKEN UP BY CLUBS

Deprived of Right to Obtain Alimony by Law of 1865

Vancouver, Sept. 30.—The attention of women's clubs in the city is being called to a very recent happening in British Columbia.

A woman obtained judicial separation with the custody of her child and a provision for leave to apply for alimony.

An application for alimony was made and granted.

She was unable to collect the alimony from her husband and she states that he disappeared.

He was recently located and was served with an order for examination in aid of execution. He refused to answer questions put to him.

The woman then made application to commit her husband to jail for non-payment of alimony, firmly believing that he was in a position to pay the alimony and maintenance for his child.

Counsel for the defence brought into the courts an act passed in 1865 by the old Crown Colony, which states that a man cannot be imprisoned for debt.

The woman in the case has gone through with the fight believing that she would have the law behind her.

Before her husband deserted her he told her that she could get nothing and told her the fallacy of British Columbia laws was her misfortune. She says her suffering and her sorrow is hard to bear, but she will undergo further trials to have the other women of the province protected.

TO COMMEMORATE SAILING OF TROOPS

Lady Alderson Chapter, I. O. D. E., to Sell "Everlastings" To-morrow

In token of everlasting remembrance of the first troops who sailed from Gaspe Bay on October 3, 1914, the Lady Alderson Chapter, I. O. D. E., will sell "everlastings" and "souvenirs" at the leading stores and the Empress Hotel to-morrow.

The funds so raised will be used by the Chapter to continue its work of relieving cases of distress among the returned men in the city.

The Lady Alderson Chapter was formed on the anniversary of the departure of the troops, taking for its name that of the first Commander of the Canadian Forces.

At the time of the sailing of the troops, the first Commander of the Canadian Forces was General Sir E. A. H. Alderson.

Attractive cards have been designed for the commemoration, bearing on the top the British and Canadian flags, flanked by the words "In remembrance of the troops who sailed from Gaspe Bay on October 3, 1914." Underneath the name of the chapter is the inscription "1914. Your King and Country Need You; 1918. Well Done; 1921. Not Forgotten" and the verse "The night was full of darkness and doubt—The stars were dim, the hunters were out! The waves began to wrestle and moan—The Lion stood by his shore alone And sent—unto the bounds of earth and sea—First low notes of the thunder to be then, East and West, through its vastness dim, The whelps of the Lion answered him."

The members of the Order in Chilliwack are very kindly entertaining the visiting delegates at lunch and tea on Wednesday, October 5.

FOR CHILDREN THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TO-NIGHT

THE WITCH WOMAN Part II.

The Witch Woman sat very still while the Princess stepped to the window sill, but no sooner had her two little feet reached the ground in the garden than she sprang on a silver broomstick and touching the Princess with her silver cane she lifted her up beside her and off she flew to her cave.

Now the Princess thought the Moon Lady was taking her for a sail upon the clouds and she was not at all frightened, but when they began to fly downward, the silver trees and the bright stars in the sky, she wanted to know where she was.

"You are in my power, my Princess," replied the Witch Woman. "You shall take my place part of the time and over you I shall throw my magic spell so that when you return to the Palace you will not remember anything that happened."

As she finished speaking and before the Princess had time to be frightened, the Witch Woman waved her silver cane which she held in one thin white hand, and the other hand she waved in front of the Princess a she chanted:

"In my charmed power you now shall be. In me the Prince his bride shall see. For some my magic spell can sever, I hold you in my power forever."

Of course if she had been an old witch she would not have said that last line, because all magic spells that are used by witch or ogre or such magic folk as they have to give one way of escape for the victim, but as the Witch Woman was young she was vain enough to think she could do anything she wished, and so she did for a while, as you shall learn.

The Princess now under her spell did everything the Witch Woman told her and meekly sat down at her command and began to spin at a silver spinning wheel, where the Witch Woman had been making a silver cap from wonderfully soft silvery yarn.

QUEEN ALEXANDRA REVIEW DONATES SUM TO HOSPITAL BALL

The second regular meeting of Queen Alexandra Review, No. 11, was held in K. of P. Hall Wednesday evening the Lieutenant, Mrs. Stephen presiding. In future the meetings will be held on first and third Thursdays of each month in No. 1 K. of P. Hall, the review having outgrown the former hall. Final arrangements were made for the opening on October 6, and a committee convened by Mrs. Burnett was appointed: Convener, Mrs. Burnett; music, Miss Alva Ball; floor, Miss Halant; cards, Mrs. Watson; refreshments, Mrs. Bloor, Sr.

Mrs. Laing reported for the home cooking sale to be held in Spencer's store Saturday, October 6, in aid of the Guard fund, donations for which may be left at Hawkins & Hayward's, corner Fort and Douglas Streets, Friday, or at Spencer's on the morning of sale, the committee consisting of Mesdames Laing, Bloor, Schmeis and Baylis.

The commander, Mrs. Galbraith, then reported the committee re hospital ball to be held October 19 in Empress Hotel, to which she and Mrs. Stephen had been appointed delegates. The Review decided to donate $10 toward the fund.

Mrs. Galbraith then spoke regarding the very great honor conferred upon Miss Bha. M. West, supreme commander, by the National Fraternal Congress in nominating her as a member of President Harding's committee on limitations of armament, after which a congratulatory letter was sent to Miss West by Queen Alexandra Review, No. 11, trusting that the decision would be in Miss West's favor.

THE WITCH WOMAN

Part II.

The Princess now under her spell did everything the Witch Woman told her and meekly sat down at her command and began to spin at a silver spinning wheel, where the Witch Woman had been making a silver cap from wonderfully soft silvery yarn.

She did not have much time to tarry, for she knew that the palace would be in a tumult if it were discovered that the Princess was gone, so off the Witch Woman flew on her broomstick and was soon snuggling down among the soft pillows where the Princess had once slept.

But in her hurry she forgot to take her white kitten and the Princess soon found that playing with the kitten was more fun than spinning, so she broke off a piece of silver yarn and winding it into a ball she quickly made friends with the white kitten.

The Witch Woman had no trouble in fooling the Palace people, nor did the Prince when he came to visit his Princess, for she knew it was not her place, but after a day or two the Witch Woman grew restless and longed for her nightly ride among the clouds on her broomstick.

So one night, when everyone was in bed and asleep in the Palace, she went to the place where she had hidden the magic broomstick in the clothespress behind a silver gown, and opening it up she went to the open window and away she flew.

Of course she had to return the real Princess to the Palace before she could go on her witch ride, so that it was late when she started, and before she knew it day was breaking and she had to hurry back to her cave without changing places with the real Princess.

That day when the Prince came to see the Princess he noticed that she had a far-away look in her eyes. "What is it, my Princess," he asked, "that makes you look so sad?"

"I am trying to remember something," replied the Princess, pressing her hands to her eyes. "I saw a white kitten once, and I am trying to remember where it was."

The Prince thought this very strange, and then for the first time he noticed that her hair was very much like threads of gold and only the day before he had said it looked like threads of silver when the sunlight fell upon it.

The Prince began to wonder what had so changed the Princess and he made up his mind to be very watchful, for he thought some strange spell had fallen upon her.

GRAY TO MANAGE SOUTH VANCOUVER

Will Get Same Salary as Gillespie; Elected Council For 1922

Appointment of A. Wells Gray as commissioner in charge of the municipal administration of South Vancouver in succession to F. J. Gillespie, who resigned because his salary was not increased, was announced today.

Mr. Gray will take over the South Vancouver administration Saturday. He will receive $4,500 a year, the same salary as Commissioner Gillespie has been receiving.

At the same time it was announced that South Vancouver is to have an elected council after the first of next year. The council will be given control generally of the conduct of the municipality's affairs, but Mr. Gray will oversee operations to safeguard the loan of $1,000,000, which the Provincial Government advanced the municipality when South Vancouver's affairs became insolvent in 1917, and the Government had to take over the administration.

Restoration of almost total autonomy to the municipality is the result of pleas to the Government from residents who have been telling the Government that they have learned their lesson, and are now able to manage their own affairs in a sensible manner.

Mr. Gray was an alderman of New Westminster from 1907 to 1912 and Mayor from 1913 to 1917. In 1915 he was president of the Union of B. C. Municipalities, and since 1917 he has been secretary. He is now president of the Royal Columbian Hospital, and has held a number of appointments on commissions. During his younger days he was one of the great lacrosse men of New Westminster.

Puts new life into you

BOVRIL

The Woman Hater

By RUBY M. AYRES
Author of "The One Who Forgot," "The Phantom Lover," "A Bachelor Husband," etc.

He caught her suddenly by the arm, turning her face to the fading light so that he could see it more clearly. "Lillie, made love to you, of course," he said hoarsely. "Hast'nt he? He told you he loved you?"

She did not answer, but he saw by the sudden change in her face that she had listened to and for a moment his eyes were mad in their anger.

"The liar! The cursed, miserable liar!" he broke out passionately. "Kill him if he's made you care for him, Lillie! And you'll be glad for me too, when I tell you what I know."

She stood quite still, her face marble-white, but her eyes unflinching.

"I think it is you who are mad," she said quietly, though he could feel how she was trembling. "I know I've hurt you, Philip. I know that I've treated you badly. I'd give anything in the world to undo it and make you believe I'm sorry—sorry! But—"

"You mustn't say anything against Miles to me," she honey-bee brown eyes swam suddenly with tears. "I love him, and he loves me. She swung her head back, a scorching color in her sweet face.

"Nothing you can say will ever alter that," she said again. "I love him."

There was a tragic silence, then Tranter said almost brutally: "You won't love him, Philip. I know what I've got to tell you. You won't love him when you know that he made you the subject of a common bet in a club."

"I don't believe you!" she said with swift exultation, as she shrank away from him. "It hurt me, too, when I heard. But it's the truth. He made a bet with Parry—you don't know Parry, but I do. He's one of those idlers who hang about clubs and listen to any infernal scandal a man cares to repeat of a woman. Faversham bet him twenty pounds that within a month he would make you throw me over for him."

"I don't believe you!" she said, almost a cry. "I don't believe you! I've known Miles all my life. Her voice caught on a sob. "Oh, I've known him all my life, and he wouldn't... he couldn't do such a thing!"

"All your life!" Tranter stared at her incredulously. "You don't know what I'm saying! You never met him till that night at Marnie's."

"I've known him all my life," she said again, a throbbing note in her voice. "He loved me years ago, and I was such a poor little fool I could not see how well worth having he was. I threw myself overboard on his heart, but now—"

Her brown eyes shone through her tears as she looked at Tranter's white face. "Now I'd lie down gladly and die to save him a moment's pain."

"Tranter caught her by the arm; his fingers bruised her soft flesh through the little woolly jacket, but she hardly felt it. He peered down into her exultant face uncertainly, and there was a poignant silence; then he said in a stiff, hoarse voice: "Then it was you... you!... the woman he told me about years ago!"

"The woman who made him hate all others," Lillie said.

"Oh, I know, I know," she said in a shamed whisper. "I ought to have told you. I wish now that I had, but that night when he came to dinner I never thought he cared, and I didn't know how much he was going to make me care. Don't be hard, Philip. Try and forgive me. I can't help loving him... try and forgive me."

Tranter laughed. "Forgive you for letting him fool you as he has? I tell you he cares nothing for you. You think he means to marry you? I tell you that he never will; that he's just playing his own game, and that when he comes back to me he'll never come back to me but to turn and walk away. Where is he now? I was told he was down here with you. Where is he now?"

"He had to go back to London—on business," she said. "He had a telegram..."

She stammered and broke off.

"Business! Have you ever known Faversham have any business that mattered more than his own pleasure? He's gone, I tell you. You'll never see him again. It's the end of the story as far as he's concerned, Lillie, for God's sake..."

She was striking at him with impotent hands. "Oh, you cruel, cruel, heartless!" she gasped, sobbing in her pain. There was a very real terror growing in her heart—or had it always been there, but only brought to life by this man's words?

"Oh, I hate you, I hate you!" she said frantically. "Let me go—oh, let me go to my room! She broke away from him and fled down the road in the darkness."

Tranter stood looking after her stupidly for a moment. Then he followed and caught her by the arm, holding her in spite of her struggles.

"Lillie, listen to me—listen to me just for a moment! Oh, my darling, don't cry like that! He was sobbing wildly. "He's not worth a tear—not worth a thought. I swear to you my word of honour that all I have to offer you is a broken heart. He's nothing for you. It's the truth about that bet. Parry let it out in front of me one night. He was frightened afterwards; he did his best to recall it, but it was the truth, and I made him admit it."

She repulsed him fiercely. "I don't believe you. It's a cruel, wicked lie to break my heart!"

"It's the truth—I swear it! Forget him—he's not worth a thought."

"He is your friend," she said brokenly.

Tranter flushed. "He was my friend," he said in a hoarse voice, "but if ever we meet again..."

He broke off, drawing a hard breath.

"If ever you meet again, he will tell you to your face that they are all lies, what you have said," she broke in passionately. "I don't believe you—"

"It's the truth," she said, indeed, never see Faversham again? Her steps were leading her away from the village and towards the sea. The soft sound of the waves reached them through the chill evening, and she broke out again in despair.

"Oh, I will kill myself if, what you say is true!" she turned on Tranter fiercely. "Why have you come? How did you know where I was?"

Lillie wrote to me.

"Later!" Her voice was broken, incredulous. After a moment she

Pump Explained

The Rees-Roturbo Pump, he said, "is suitable for either flooding or a burning haystack, or to throw a jet of water at high pressure over a great height without in any way interfering with the engine speed. In other words, at a constant engine speed the pump can be used for discharging water at high pressure or water at low pressure, the difference being, of course, in the volume of water discharged per minute. The standard fire engine requires 50 B. H. P. when pumping 500 gallons per minute at 120 lbs. pressure per square inch; the volume is increased to 800 gallons per minute, the head decreases only to 70 lbs. per square inch and so on for still larger volumes, and no extra power is required to keep this up. The reason for such a paradoxical result is found in the internal design and arrangement peculiar to the Rees-Roturbo pump. In this pump the full pressure is attained directly in the impeller, which is in the form of the revolving pressure drum and from thence the water issues from directed nozzles in the pump casing. Provided the engine speed is kept constant there is always a constant head of water maintained in the impeller, and should the external pressure at the pump discharge be decreased below that of the internal pressure, the water issuing from the impeller nozzles produces the effect obtained in some turbines (and actually assists the rotation of the impeller, thus relieving the engine considerably. Where this turbine effect is not available, as is the case with the impeller of any ordinary turbine pump, the extra volume of water produced by the effect of a water break and overloads the engine without doing any useful work on the water. This is a serious defect in the Rees-Roturbo pump is so effective in giving larger volumes at reduced heads efficiently."

SUMS UP RESULTS OF OVERHEAD WATER SUPPLY ON CROPS

What Skinner System Has Done in Irrigation Work

The last official act of Lionel Skinner, former director of the Sidney Experimental Station, was to send a paper on overhead irrigation to the Western Canada Irrigation Convention at Vernon, Oct. 26. He had already left for Toronto, it was read on his behalf at the convention. In the vote on the bill to-morrow in the House of Commons, extracts from his paper will be of interest.

"The annual rainfall experienced on Vancouver Island and the Gulf Islands is poorly distributed when considered from the viewpoint of crop production. The average total annual precipitation of water would be ample for all needs if it came during the Summer months, but unfortunately it is confined to that portion of the year, October to April, when soil temperatures are low and there is little or no growth. During the period of growth the rainfall averages less than one inch per month, with frequent long periods of drought. The district is favored by a slow rate of evaporation, due to the influence of large bodies of salt water, giving comparatively low temperatures and a moisture laden air. This soil moisture offsets to a certain extent the great shortage of Summer precipitation.

"By practicing the methods common to good agriculture in dry districts there is always sufficient moisture each season for one crop. The yield of the standard food plants, providing that each can be developed by July. For general agriculture practice irrigation is not required, but for intensive small fruit, vegetable and orchard work it is very necessary if the greatest use is to be made of the land."

Fine Crops With Irrigation.

"In the city of Victoria and the district of Saanich numerous growers of small fruits, flowers, nursery stock and vegetables use the "Skinner" system of overhead irrigation to aid them in getting the greatest service from their highly capitalized land. Under natural rainfall one crop has been possible; under irrigation as many as five crops of the quick growing vegetables have been obtained. Some service from rain each season is easily possible even with the longer season vegetables such as potatoes. Frequently the small crop which by the way is the most important crop of the district, will be cut short through lack of natural rainfall. Many strawberry areas will not develop their plants sufficiently during the first year to give a full crop in the fruiting years, simply for want of water during July and August. The condition in the strawberry fields has been responsible for a demand of water under pressure from the strawberry growers. The growers are waiting for its extension that they too may irrigate.

"The greatest use to which overhead irrigation has been put in the

STANDARD FIRE ENGINE EXPLAINED

T. B. Ross Addresses Pacific Fire Chiefs' Association

Standard fire engines manufactured by the great English company of Leyland Motors, Limited, formed the topic of an interesting address before the Pacific Coast Fire Chiefs' Association to-day when T. B. Ross, of T. B. Ross & Company, Limited, Victoria, London and Liverpool, representing the Leyland people as well as Hansomes, Sims & Jeffries, Limited, famous British agricultural implement manufacturers, gave some interesting details on latest mechanical equipment and the results obtained from Leyland engines.

It will be remembered that recently The Times published the photograph of the Leyland fire engine which was to have been shown during the present convention, but the machine has not yet arrived. It will be demonstrated in Victoria and throughout eastern Canada on arrival shortly.

Mr. Ross informed his audience that the Leyland was turned out in two standard models, one with a capacity of up to 1,000 gallons a minute and the other 500 gallons. The respective horse power is 65 and 48.

The speaker explained that the Leyland won a high reputation during the war and was constantly in use on all battlefronts. The London County Council has a fleet of fifty Leyland fire engines and they are also in use in every large town throughout Great Britain and in other parts of the world. At Calcutta one engine attending a jute fire had a non-stop run of 74½ hours without leaving the water. The advantages of the turbine pump were explained and the various other features of the Leyland, including the reasons for favoring rear-end instead of side suction and pumping. The pump, of course, was

New York Giants Are Again N. L. Champs

"Muggsy" McGraw Wins Pennant For Seventh Time, Setting New Record In Number of Championships Won; St. Louis Cardinals Bounced Pittsburgh Out of Chance For Flag.

New York, Sept. 30.—The New York Giants are the 1921 National League champions. While they accomplished the feat mainly by their own efforts, it remained for the St. Louis Cardinals to give them the final shove that placed them beyond the reach of the Pittsburgh Pirates, no matter what happens in the remaining games.

One of Pittsburgh's own sons, Bill Doak, pitched St. Louis to victory in the first battle, five to four, in ten innings. The second, an abbreviated affair of six innings, due to darkness, was credited to Pitcher Sherdel's winning column. These two clubs have three more games to play in the present series and if St. Louis makes a clean sweep they will tie Pittsburgh for second place.

Yankees Nearly There

With the Giants in the Yankees are almost there. The latter team was successful against the Athletics yesterday, 5 to 0. Pitcher Shawkey, of New York, allowed only four hits. On the other hand Cleveland, the Yankees' chief contender, were set down to a five to nothing defeat by the Chicago White Sox. The Indians to win the pennant must take all of the three remaining games with Chicago while the Yankees lose their last three games.

A Record for "Muggsy"

New York, Sept. 30.—By winning his seventh pennant for the New York National League Club, Manager "Muggsy" McGraw tops all other managers in the number of championships won. He was tied at six by Connie Mack, of the Philadelphia Athletics, until he piloted the 1921 Giants out in front.

The Giants won their first pennant under McGraw in 1904. They repeated next year when they won their only world's championship. They also won the league championship in 1911, 12, 13 and 1917.

Although the St. Louis Cardinals were strong contenders at times for the National League pennant, they failed to realize their ambition. Nevertheless they finished one of the strongest outfits in the league. They gave the New York Giants a slap in the face in their final tussle and yesterday they shoved Pittsburgh out of the race by defeating them twice. The Giants can consider themselves fortunate that they did not have to finish up with a long series in St. Louis. The Cardinals have a powerful team and it will make the game hot in the National League next year.

THISTLES SOCCER CLUB ORGANIZES FOR SEASON

R. Laughtland was appointed president of the Thistles Football Club, which held its annual meeting last night at the Green Block, where a large number of football fans gathered to lend their support to the Scotsmen's eleven.

The other officers of the organization are as follows: Wm. Henderson, secretary-treasurer; and the selection committee, Keen, W. Stewart and R. Laughtland. The captain of the team will be selected after the practice to-day.

FOOTBALL NOTICES

There will be a meeting of the Wednesday Football League in the Trades Hall, on Broad Street, on Monday at 8 o'clock to discuss business.

The C. P. R. Football Club will hold a practice game at Central Park to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. All players are requested to be there.

The Thistles will hold a practice at 8 o'clock to-morrow afternoon at the Beacon Hill upper grounds. All members of the team are asked to attend.

EARL COOPER BACK IN MOTOR-RACING GAME

Fresno, Cal., Sept. 30.—Earl Cooper announced early yesterday he would re-enter the racing game. His first race will be the international classic held on the Fresno Speedway, Saturday afternoon. He is to drive the car of Joe Thomas, who was operated on to-day for blood poisoning. Thomas is in a very serious condition and an amputation of his arm may be necessary.

Nine drivers are ready for the starter's flag and will compete in the elimination tryouts to-day.

BABE RUTH RETURNS TO GAME TO-DAY TO ASSIST YANKEES TO WIN FLAG

New York, Sept. 30.—Babe Ruth, who was confined to his hotel yesterday with a mild attack of grippe, to-day left for Philadelphia to rejoin the Yankees. He was stated he would be in the game to-day. The Yankees want to make sure of to-day's game, and need Ruth. If New York wins to-day and Cleveland loses, the American League pennant will be good for the Yankees. Babe also wants two more home runs to achieve his ambition for the season.

M'GINNITY PITCHES AGAINST THE GIANTS

"Iron Man" to Perform in Benefit Game for "Big Six" at New York To-day

New York, Sept. 30.—A five-inning game between the present New York Giants and a team composed of former major league players featured the Christy Mathewson testimonial at the Polo Grounds to-day. Joe McGinnity, the "iron man" of the Giants years ago, was expected to start the pitching for the old timers.

The regular New York-Boston game was to follow the exhibition contest.

McGinnity often twirled in Victoria. He managed the Tacoma Tigers several years ago in the Northwestern League.

World's Series Fodder For the Baseball Fans

New York, Sept. 30.—The career of John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, and one of the best known men in professional baseball, was suggested to Fredman by McGraw's play in his first professional game shortly after he discarded short trousers. He made such a reputation around his home town as a hard-hitter and skillful fielder that he was recommended to the Olean team, then in the New York State team and in the Spring of 1910 signed his first baseball contract.

McGraw was slightly better than the first game he played with Olean. Although only about 200 fans attended he felt more nervous than at any time in his life. In describing his first game the popular leader of the Giants said:

"That first game was one of the greatest in my life. I will remember it always. I was confident of making good until I went on the field. Then I was bewildered; it seemed that there were enough persons in the stands to populate the state of New York. I hoped that the batter would not hit the ball to me. When John finished there I was way I felt as though I was rooted to the turf. I couldn't move. Finally it seemed like an age to me—my first base man's head. In my haste to beat the runner."

Some Salary.
The error last the game for McGraw's team but it did not discourage him. He was paid $50 a month for playing with Olean.

After one year with Olean he went to the Cedar Rapids Club, where the price reported to be $18,000. The National League, then last in a 12-clubs circuit.

Bill Barney was manager of the Orioles when McGraw broke into the big leagues. He was in the season of 1891 as a bench warmer.

Stuck at Third Base.
In May, 1892 Ned Hanlon, succeeded Barney and took a fancy to McGraw in spite of his small stature. First he tried him on second base where he showed much speed and skill. He was transferred to third where he played even more brilliantly and better he stuck.

From that time until he withdrew from active service he was one of the best third basemen in the game, at one time being considered the top-notch of them all. His ability to field bunts was uncanny, and no third baseman in the game ever has equaled him in that department. He always was a capable batter but under Hanlon's direction he became one of the greatest in baseball. For years he averaged never below the .350 mark and he was very fast on the bases. His all-round good work was a big factor in Baltimore's string of pennants.

While a member of the Orioles he was surrounded by a coterie of stars who helped to set off his brilliancy. McGraw and Robinson were sold in 1900 to the St. Louis Club for a price reported to be $18,000. The sale displeased both men. When the American League invaded the East in 1900, McGraw was one of the league's stalwarts of Ben Johnson, the League president. While the team was still in St. Louis, McGraw and Robinson were plotting to place an American team in Baltimore. Finally McGraw obtained backing and

FOUR PROS. SURVIVE THIRD ROUND IN U. S. GOLFING TOURNAMENT

New York, Sept. 30.—The four survivors of the third round of the Professional Golfers' Association championship tournament yesterday were: Jim Barnes of Pelham, N. Y., National open champion; Emmet French, Youngstown, Ohio; Cyril Walker, Englewood, N. J.; and Walter Hagen, Detroit, Western open title-holder. In the semi-finals Barnes and Walker will play French and Hagen respectively. Barnes and French each had a 68 in the morning round.

Two Football Games Are Down for Opener

Mets and Wests, Old Rivals For Several Seasons, Open Up With Star Attraction at Beacon Hill To-morrow Afternoon; S. O. E. and Garrison Meet At Work Point; Thistles Not Playing.

First Division football will be inaugurated in Victoria to-morrow afternoon. Two games are to be played, one at Beacon Hill between the Victoria Wests and the Metropolis and the other at Work Point between the Garrison and the Sons of England. The third game which was scheduled for the Royal Athletic Park between the Thistles and Yarrows has been unavoidably postponed. The Thistles have been unable to get their team together following their hurried acceptance by the V. and D. F. A. for first class company on Tuesday night.

Undoubtedly one of the biggest crowds to attend a soccer game in this city for a long time will assemble on the side-lines at Beacon Hill to-morrow afternoon. The Wests and the Sons of England, two rivals of long standing, should have been pitted against each other at the outset of the season. These teams always draw big crowds and they will cause an unrivalled amount of interest in the opening card.

West's Hope For Change.
This match may be one of the decisive ones of the schedule, although played at the very outset. The Mets have usually had the upper hand of the Wests in the past, notwithstanding that they were able to string out both the City and Jackson Cup series last year. The Wests, however, have strengthened up considerably since that time and are confident that they will be able to switch the tables on the Mets this year.

Art Curtis, manager of the Mets, and Jack Youson, of the Wests, will have a busy time once again to-morrow matching their skill against each other.

Tommy vs. Sons.
The other game on the schedule between the Sons of England and the Garrison at Work Point promises to be close and interesting. The Garrison are making their first appearance in senior company since the pre-war days. Last year they played in the Intermediate League, but this year are reported to have strengthened considerably and are fit for First Division play. The Sons of England spent their first season since the war in the Intermediate League, which practically ended his days as an active participant in the game.

In mid-season the affairs of the Baltimore team became so demoralized that McGraw quit and announced that he was through with the game forever.

Put in Charge of Giants.
About this time the Giants were going poorly. It was during the Freedman regime. The team played bad ball and the fans were not attending the games. McGraw's name was suggested to Freedman and he placed him in command of the team on July 19. He has led the Giants since.

When McGraw came to New York the Polo Grounds seated 12,000 persons. Now it seats 38,000 and frequently on big days the club is commended to the streets. The New York Club considers John McGraw such a valuable asset that they have had his life insured for $100,000. The following table shows how McGraw's team has finished the National League since he took hold:

ROTHSCHILD'S MILENKO WINS JOCKEY'S STAKES

Newmarket, Eng., Sept. 30.—The Jockey Club stakes of £5,000, run over the last mile and three-quarters of the Cesarewitch course, was won here yesterday by James A. de Rothschild's Milenko, from a field of eight horses. Lord Astor's Waac was second and Sir Henry Bird's Monarch third. The odds quoted were 4 to 1 against Milenko and 7 to 1 against Waac. Milenko won by two lengths.

KINGSTON ST. TENNIS CLUB CLOSES SEASON

The tennis season will be brought to a close at the Kingston Street Lawn Tennis Club on Saturday, when the finals in the American tournament, which has been proceeding for some time past, will be played.

In the ladies' doubles, Miss Cass and Mrs. List will meet Miss N. Edwards and Miss Marquart. In the mixed doubles, Mrs. Foster and Parkes play Mrs. O'Halloran and Swayne.

The men's doubles will be decided between Cox and Parkes and McLaren and O'Halloran.

After the matches the prizes will be presented, and a special tea has been arranged for the occasion.

Following the presentation of prizes, the annual general meeting of the club will take place on the grounds, when the officers for the 1922 season will be elected.

CANADIAN MIDDLEWEIGHT CHAMPION ENTTITLE TO BOUT WITH JOHN WILSON

New York, Sept. 30.—Mike McGuire, middleweight champion of Canada, is reported to be all set to force Johnny Wilson, middleweight champion, in a titular contest.

"There is no doubt that during the past few months, McGuire has fought himself into a position where Wilson must step into the ring with him," says a local sporting writer in discussing the possibility of such a match being arranged.

WANDERERS TO MEET SAILORS TO-MORROW

Annual Exhibition Rugby Game Between These Teams to Be Staged at Oak Bay Park

To-morrow afternoon the Wanderers will test out their rugby squad in a friendly game at Oak Bay with the Royal Naval College. The game is scheduled to commence at 3 o'clock.

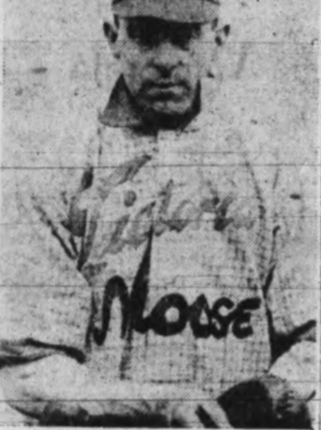

The Wanderers and Naval lads have engaged in an exhibition game before the opening of the season for the past three years. This year it will give the Wanderers a good chance to try out their new material. The line-up for to-morrow does not include many familiar veterans who have been members of the fighting Wanderers for many years. However, a number of youngsters are to be given a try-out and many show much promise.

High School Boys to Play.
The Wanderers are signing on several promising Oak Bay High School boys. The Wanderers now act as coaches for the school rugby team and in return are entitled to draw on any material they may desire.

SINGLE G. TOO FAST FOR OTTAWA PACER

Champion Harness Horse Had Little Trouble Beating Canadian Product

Chesterville, Ont., Sept. 30.—Before the largest crowd that was ever seen on the local fair grounds and race track, the world's champion pacing stallion, Single G, 1:57, won the match race yesterday afternoon from the Ottawa-owned mare Romala, 2:02. The day was fine and the track in perfect condition, but a strong wind mitigated somewhat against the horses in the stretch.

Romala was fortunate in drawing the pole before the race, and after three scores Starter Ed. Baker, of Ottawa, sent the horses off heads apart. Romala led until about fifty yards from the finish, when Allyn Muligan, half trainer, sent Single G jugged the last three-quarters and finished the mile in 2:18.

The men's doubles will be decided between Cox and Parkes and McLaren and O'Halloran.

Collapse of Pirates Sensation of Season

Pittsburgh, With Big Lead, Became Over-Confident and Was Nosed Out By New York; Giants Got Better As Pirates Went Worse and Had Spirit to Come Through and Win.

New York, Sept. 30.—Nothing in baseball is more bewildering than the collapse of the Pittsburgh Pirates. As the sun arose on the morning of August 23, and preparations were made for a five-game duel with the Giants, it seemed that the Pirates had absolutely cinched the pennant in the National League. It was almost inconceivable that anything could happen which could shear away appreciably any of the huge lead which they had amassed through four months' campaigning.

Yet from that hour dates the annihilation of the clan of Pittsburgh, which writes into baseball one of its most startling chapters. The rout started.

Cocky to an extreme, possessed probably of a bluky share of a fatal overconfidence, the men of Pittsburgh went into battle with the then-dispersed Giants. The fight and the dash which had characterized all their other warfare, was sadly missing in the first two games staged in New York. But they figured a few losses wouldn't make much difference as they reckoned the worst that could happen to them in New York would be to lose two out of the three games, which would still give them a commanding lead of six and one-half victorious struggles.

But, alas! The Pirates practically tossed away the first two games, were beaten decisively in the next two, and then, with their backs to the wall, made a desperate struggle for the fifth—but lost it. And the lead of seven and one-half games which they carried into New York had whittled down to two and one-half as they took their sad departure from the balliwick of the Giants.

Lost Their Dash.
Those five straight beatings by their closest rival took away the Pirate punch, the dash and the fighting spirit. From that hour the team no longer was reckoned the worst of combats. It fell again and again before the attacks of inferior foemen who ran rough shod over the broken machine which it had been assumed only a few days earlier was an irresistible force carrying toward pennant heights.

As the Pirates slumped, the Giants, heartened by the fact that they had crushed the best team in the league to the limit of endeavor. They realized that there was still some distance to travel before they could achieve the feat of the National League. But undaunted, they fought on. And so while the Pirates played eccentric baseball, the Giants displayed in almost unbeatable fashion.

On August 23 it was practically 100 to 1 that the Pirates would win the pennant. For them to lose two baseball miracles were necessary; one was the utter collapse of the Pirates; the other, a record-smashing spurt by the Giants. And, because nothing is certain in baseball, and everything is possible, those two miracles, it now seems, were wrought.

Lost in Field.
Batting isn't the explanation for the dual happenings. For on August 23 both teams were even up with the betting-mark set at 25. At this time the Pirates are hitting .291 and the Giants .297. So it can be seen that during the four-week period there was neither an appreciable increase in hitting by the Giants, nor a noticeable slip-off by the Pirate batsmen.

But, while the Giants' fielding deficiencies was almost airtight, that of the Pirates cracked and crumbled. The errors have been responsible for at least five of the Pirate defeats. And while the Giant pitchers came thundering along, the Pirate moundmen faltered—then crumpled.

But after all is said, the real explanation for the collapse of the Pirates is this:

Miss M. Woolridge

In Police Court.—In a short police court hearing this morning Cartier Bros. were remanded further upon a complaint by the building inspector in respect to a garage. The matter complained of is being remedied, it was stated. Robert Rowen, charged with speeding, was further remanded after some evidence upon his behalf. One witness for the prosecution named Whittier failed to appear and a warrant for his arrest has been issued. The case will be heard to-morrow.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Prosperity.—At The New Thought Temple this evening, at 8 o'clock, Dr. T. W. Butler will give a study-talk on "The Laws of Prosperity." Admission is free, and all are invited.

Choral Society.—The Choral Society will meet on Tuesday evening, October 4 at 8 o'clock in the Board of Director's room, Chamber of Commerce, 1 Arcade Building. Unless a sufficient number attend this meeting to elect officers for the season it is doubtful if the Choral Society will restart until some remote date.

To Serve Theatre Supper.—Commencing with to-morrow evening the Dorothy tea rooms, Broad Street, will inaugurate a theatre supper to be served between the hours of 9 and 11 o'clock. Mrs. Aldridge, the proprietress, has prepared a dainty menu which should appeal to those seeking a light repast after the show.

Oaklands Parent-Teachers.—The monthly meeting of the Oaklands Parent-Teachers' Association will be held on Monday next, at 8 p. m., in the Oaklands School, D. L. McLaurin, principal of the Provincial Normal School, will address the meeting. A varied programme, including instrumental music, recitation and a novel competition, will be given.

Souvenir Programmes.—Delegates to the convention of Pacific Coast Fire Chiefs are delighted with the souvenir programmes and the badges which they will carry away as mementoes of the pleasant hours spent in Victoria. The programmes and badges were done in two colors, bearing the flags of Canada and the United States, and are very attractive. They are the work of the Quality Press of this city.

St. Matthias W. A.—The junior W. A. of St. Matthias Church, Fowl Bay, will hold a sale of work to-morrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Cox, 1973 Crescent Road, when many useful and interesting articles will be offered by the young people. Afternoon tea will be served, and enjoyable time is assured those who attend. The affair will commence at 3 o'clock, and will terminate at 5 o'clock.

Victoria Photographic Society.—Mrs. R. M. Weller, a member of the Victoria Photographic Society, has succeeded in winning most of the honors in the Photographic Section of the New Westminster Provincial Fair. Mrs. Weller has obtained a diploma for the best photograph in the exhibition, a silver medal for first in landscape and marine, a bronze medal for second in portrait and figure study, and a bronze medal for second in still life.

Fined For Speeding.—Arraigned in the Esquimalt police court yesterday afternoon before Magistrate Jay, Warren Carlisle was fined $10 on a charge of exceeding the speed limit. The accused pleaded guilty, stating he was under the belief that hold-up money was being attempted to stop him. Chief Dawley gave evidence of the incident related yesterday, when the police fired on the car driven by the accused. E. V. Finland acted for the municipality.

Esquimalt Concert.—Under the auspices of the Esquimalt Ladies' Guild for Sailors an enjoyable whist drive and dance was held at the Sailors' Club last evening. Eleven tables were in progress and the prize-winners were as follows: Ladies, first, Miss Dorothy Thomas; second, Mrs. Kemp; consolation, Miss Chambers; gentlemen, first, Mr. Purry; second, Mr. Butler; consolation, Mr. Ashby. At the close of the game dancing was indulged in, the music being furnished by Mr. Perry at the piano, and Master Ramsay, violin. Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Guest were the efficient committee in charge of refreshments.

Scottish Concert.—The Ladies' Auxiliary of the St. Andrews and Caledonia Society will give a concert and dance in aid of the Juvenile Pipe Band in the Sailors' Club, Admirals Road to-night at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Dobbie, sr., is the convener. The following artists have kindly consented to contribute to the concert programme: Master Alex. Wallace, bagpipe selection; Mrs. Dobbie, sr. song; Miss Jean Wallace, song; Mr. Dobbie, sr. song; Miss May McIntosh, song; Miss Jean Dobbie, song; Miss Cameron, dance; Joe Dobbie, song; Tom Obee, song; John Dobbie, sr. song; Dan Wallace, accompanist. Refreshments will be served by the committee in charge.

Appeal Concluded.—The appeal of Wong Chong and others to set a conviction of the police magistrate when they were fined for being found in a common gaming house was concluded in the County Court yesterday before His Honor Judge Lammiman. W. C. Moreby acted for the appellants and C. L. Harrison for the defendants. Much evidence was heard. Wong Chong was convicted, where the police convictions stand; Wong Quong was dismissed, the conviction being quashed; while the cases of Sam Kee and Sam were reserved for judgment later. The exhibits taken as evidence were ordered returned, with the exception of lottery tickets, which were ordered destroyed.

WELSH CHOR PLAN WILL BE ADVANCED

A meeting of the executive of the Cymrodorion Society was held Wednesday evening at the home of W. Jones, 1712 Cook Street.

It was decided that the Fall sessions of the society will commence on Wednesday night, October 12 at 8 p. m. in the Forrester's Hall, Broad Street, and that the meeting take the form of a concert. An excellent programme for the same is being prepared. Solos, duets, and quartets also recitations, will be the leading features.

The committee also decided that in view of the many requests made to the society that they form a Welsh Choir, that a musical or programme committee be formed to handle the matter up, and if deemed advisable to commence operations to found such a choir.

Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting. Ladies are requested to bring cake and sandwiches, the society to provide tea, coffee, milk and sugar.

A collection will be taken up to defray the expenses. All are welcome.

WILL OPEN RESTHAVEN MIDDLE OF DECEMBER

Resthaven Hospital will be opened as a sanitarium by the Seventh Day Adventists about December 15, according to an announcement made by officials of that order after a conference yesterday.

The officials who attended yesterday's conference were: President, A. C. Gilbert, chairman; P. A. Lukens, Calgary; W. E. Clementson, president of the B. C. Conference; A. W. Dutton, engineer; and F. L. Hommel, who is business manager at Resthaven.

The hospital building is being renovated throughout and modern X-Ray, hydrotherapy and electrical departments will be installed. Mrs. Courter of Calgary, a highly-trained masseuse and graduate nurse, is at Resthaven now preparing for the re-opening of the institution. It is planned also to open a school at Resthaven for the purpose of training nurses needed there.

Visit to Brentwood.—The Pacific Coast Fire Chiefs were taken for an automobile drive to Butchart's Gardens this afternoon, where Mrs. Butchart acted as hostess to the visitors at afternoon tea. The party also visited Brentwood. At yesterday afternoon's session, D. E. Fryer, of Seattle, gave a very interesting talk on fire-proof doors, elevators and other safety devices.

SAANICH WATER BY-LAW.

To the Editor.—With reference to the by-law which is being submitted to the ratepayers to-morrow, asking for powers to borrow the sum of $150,000 to be used for the purpose of extending the waterworks system of the municipality. I desire to place before the ratepayers in as brief a way as possible the main features of the by-law as it will affect the municipality as a whole.

The Council have prepared after careful consideration a by-law which they believe eminently fair to all sections of the district, and which received almost the unanimous endorsement of the Council, there being but one vote in opposition. Under the Municipal Act the Corporation may borrow a sum of approximately $3,000,000; of this sum already $1,000,000 has been pledged. Out of this amount nearly one-half of the interest and sinking fund have already been met on the Road Paving By-law, which by-law involved nearly one-half of the debt, and one-sixth of the interest and sinking fund have also been provided for on the Waterworks By-law, 1914, which by-law practically makes up the total debt of the municipality. There is a debt of $30,000 for school purposes which will be entirely wiped out next year. From these figures it will be readily seen that the additional $150,000 asked for the extension of the waterworks system will add but very little to the bonded debt.

Certain opposition to the by-law has appeared in the press and on the public platform, and very largely, I believe, from selfish motives, and if some arguments were followed to their logical conclusion the present waterworks system would never have been installed. One of these arguments is that the district as a whole is not sufficiently settled to warrant the expenditure. One of the opponents of the present scheme was instrumental in having the existing system put in operation, and he must know that there are miles and miles of main through "ploughed fields" which have never been paid for themselves, but are absolutely essential to the system as a whole, and have been one of the factors in the making of a paying one. The expenditure of the money raised by this by-law will relieve to a large extent the unemployment situation, now existing in the district, and I realize that approximately two-thirds of the amount will be spent in one section of the municipality.

I would like to point out that the advocates of the by-law from that district, through their energies during the last twenty-five years have been largely instrumental in making the district what it is, converting it from a very fertile to a great fruit-growing area, which has during the period I have mentioned brought into the district and its vicinity hundreds of thousands of dollars, in spite of tremendous obstacles, the lack of water being one of the greatest.

What have the opponents of the by-law done for Saanich? I leave them to answer and to an intelligent electorate.

POLITICIANS

J. A. McKelvie, M. P., was nominated as the Government candidate for Yale last night.

The Liberal nominating convention for Vancouver South was postponed last night until next Thursday.

Capt. James H. McLennan, of White Rock, a prominent shipping man, is being mentioned as the Liberal candidate in Westminster.

Fred Anderson, M. P. P. for Kamloops, announces that he will not be a candidate in the Dominion election. He is taking part in the Cariboo Liberal nominating convention to-night.

Liberals of Vancouver Centre will hold their convention to-night, Mayor Gale is likely to be put up to oppose the Hon. H. H. Stevens, it is predicted. G. C. McGown has announced that he is also willing to allow his name to go before the convention.

Socialists are putting Jaek Kavanagh in the field in Vancouver South.

A. D. Macfarlane, councillor of Oak Bay, at the Liberal meeting at Wesley Hall, Sidney, last night, consented to allow his name to go before the Liberal nominating convention at Duncan for the name who riding. Chairman Wylie told the delegates to the Duncan convention to vote for Mr. Macfarlane, but Mr. Macfarlane said they should go with open minds and pick the best man.

Delegates to the Duncan convention are: C. Moses, A. Munro, H. McKilligan, B. Deacon, F. Smith, Fred Bowcott and Sandy McDonald. Mr. Macfarlane spoke on the tariff issue. M. B. Jackson also spoke. A Liberal association was organized with these officers: Honorary president, M. B. Jackson, M. P. P.; president, E. LeSage; vice-president, C. Moses; secretary, W. H. Dawes; executive, with power to add to its numbers: C. C. Cochran, J. Matthews, F. Bowcott, E. Crossley, N. Watts, H. McKilligan, Roy Brethour, Bruce Burton, C. Blackburn, W. Stacey and S. Simister.

A resolution was passed asking women of the district to organize a Liberal association.

As a result of the failure of the N. L. C. nominating convention at Duncan, the meeting of Esquimalt Conservatives and Meighen supporters which had been summoned for to-night at Lamson Street school has been cancelled and will be held at the Rex Theatre at 8 o'clock next Monday night.

Liberal nominating convention for Victoria will likely be held next Thursday or Friday night. The date will be decided on at the Liberal executive meeting Tuesday night.

OBITUARY RECORD

The funeral of the late Alfred James Griffin, husband of Mrs. Mary A. Griffin, of 622 Hillside Ave., whose death took place last Wednesday at Duncan, will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Sands Funeral Chapel. Rev. J. L. Batty will officiate and interment will be made at Ross Bay Cemetery.

Major John Hunter McCloy, V. D., a former renowned crack shot, died this morning at his residence, 2969 Marion Street, in his seventy-second year. He was a native of Parish Inche, Scotland, coming to Canada fifteen months ago, after retiring into private life had been an auctioneer for fifty years. His wife predeceased him recently, since coming to this country, and was interred in New Westminster, B. C. A grown-up family survive. The remains are reposing at the B. C. Funeral Chapel and will be forwarded this evening to New Westminster, where interment will take place on Saturday. A. McCloy, of this city, will accompany his father's remains to their destination.

The remains of Frank Wield Jewell were laid to rest in the family plot at Ross Bay Cemetery yesterday afternoon. Services were held in the B. C. Funeral Chapel at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. C. M. Tait officiating. There was a large attendance of friends and many floral tributes covered the casket. Two hymns were sung, "Rock of Ages" and "Nearer, My God to Thee." The pallbearers were as follows: N. K. Nelson, W. Petherbridge, C. Holman, C. F. Gandy, R. Lane and F. Keown.

The death occurred suddenly in Vancouver on Wednesday of Eli Craigie, a native of the city aged 52 years. The late Mr. Craigie is survived by his widow, three sons, Albert, Gordon and William, residing in Vancouver; his mother, Mrs. Wm. Cooper, of Lutton, B. C.; two sisters, Mrs. J. Trace, of Lutton, and Mrs. R. Livingstone, of Victoria; also a brother, Thomas Craigie, of Lutton. The remains are being forwarded to this city for interment and will arrive Saturday morning. The funeral will take place from the B. C. Funeral Chapel on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, where service will be held by Rev. Dr. Campbell, interment being made in the family plot at Ross Bay Cemetery.

Bank Clearings.—Reports from the Victoria Clearing House show that the bank clearings for September total $5,248,514 as against $11,747,457 for the same period last year. The September, 1915 clearings were $10,544,780 and in 1918, $8,714,852.

RAILWAY TRAINMEN IN UNITED STATES VOTE FOR STRIKE

Chicago, Sept. 30.—While it was informally stated that approximately ninety per cent. of the 136,000 employees of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen had voted to strike, the exact figures will not be announced at once. The count of the ballots was completed yesterday and general chairmen were dispatched to report to the general grievance committees. The grievance committees will indicate whether a strike is to be called and the general chairmen will report back here next week.

RESIDENCE CHANGES HANDS.

"Ballinahinch," the handsome residence of Mr. Justice Martin at 1035 Belmont Avenue, changed hands shortly before noon to-day, the sale being effected by P. Landsberg. Messrs. Stewart Williams, auctioneers, disposed of the household effects at a well-attended sale.

VETERANS WILL DISCUSS SUBJECT OF AMALGAMATION

Ottawa, Sept. 30.—Officials of the Dominion command of the Great War Veterans Association announced this morning that the G. A. U. V. Dominion command in Toronto had accepted the invitation to the amalgamation conference proposed by the G. W. V. A. to be held immediately preceding the Port Arthur convention. This invitation also has been accepted by the Imperial Veterans of Canada and the Army and Navy Veterans.

POISONED.

Montreal, Sept. 30.—Poison, administered with alcohol, caused the death of a man believed to have been Arnold Zimmerman, forty-eight, of Paynton, Sask., whose body was discovered yesterday lying at the side of a deserted roadway in the parish of St. Leonard de Port Maurice.

EXTENSION OF DISCUSSION TIME

Moscow, Sept. 29.—Poland's reply to the request of the Russian Soviet Government for an extension from October 1 to October 5 of the time limit of the Polish ultimatum threatening a severance of diplomatic relations has not been received here as yet. It is generally assumed in official circles, however, that the extension will be granted.

YARROWS' LAND SHIP CONTRACT Esquimalt Firm Repairing Toyohashi Maru; Boat Will Coal Here

In competition with other ship-repair firms, Yarrows, Ltd., of Esquimalt, yesterday afternoon awarded the contract to effect repairs to the Nippon Yusen Kaisha steamship Toyohashi Maru, which put into port yesterday bound from Kamchatka to Europe.

Representatives of two Seattle firms, Todd Drydocks, Inc., and the Heffernan Engine Works, the Wallace Shipbuilding & Drydock Company, of North Vancouver, and Yarrows, Ltd., were awaiting the ship's arrival, and all four firms submitted bids after surveying the extent of the needed repairs.

A special fasting will have to be manufactured by Yarrows, and work on this has already been started. It is expected that the Toyohashi Maru will be able to get away to sea by Tuesday next.

Will Coal Here. The Toyohashi Maru was in bound to Union Bay to load bunkers. Owing to the holding of the vessel here for repairs, arrangements have been completed with the Canadian Collieries, Ltd., to have the coal barged down to permit the vessel to take on her coal while she is lying alongside the Outer Docks here.

The Toyohashi Maru carries a full cargo of canned salmon from the Kamchatka Peninsula, and her destination is London.

KEYSTONE STATE IS EXPECTED TO-MORROW

Admiral Liner Now Looked for in Quarantine by 5 o'Clock To-morrow Afternoon

Making a good run from the Orient, the Admiral Line trans-Pacific liner Keystone State is now expected to reach quarantine about 5 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, running a day ahead of her advertised schedule.

The Keystone State was not expected to reach here until Sunday, but the latest advices are to the effect that she may reach William Head to-morrow in good time to secure pratique before sundown.

Wenatchee in Drydock. Preparatory to resuming her sailings in the trans-Pacific service of the Admiral Line, on October 15, the liner Wenatchee, which has been refitting at Seattle at a cost of $200,000, has been drydocked in the Puget Sound navy drydock at Bremerton.

To Bring Out New Ship. Capt. M. M. Jensen, who is to command the newest of the Admiral 635-footers, left Seattle to-day for New York to take over the S. S. Pine Tree State. W. H. Rober, who will be chief engineer, and George Garshaw, named first assistant engineer, are also going East with Capt. Jensen.

The new steamship is expected to arrive at Seattle about November 28, and is scheduled to sail on her first voyage to the Orient December 19.

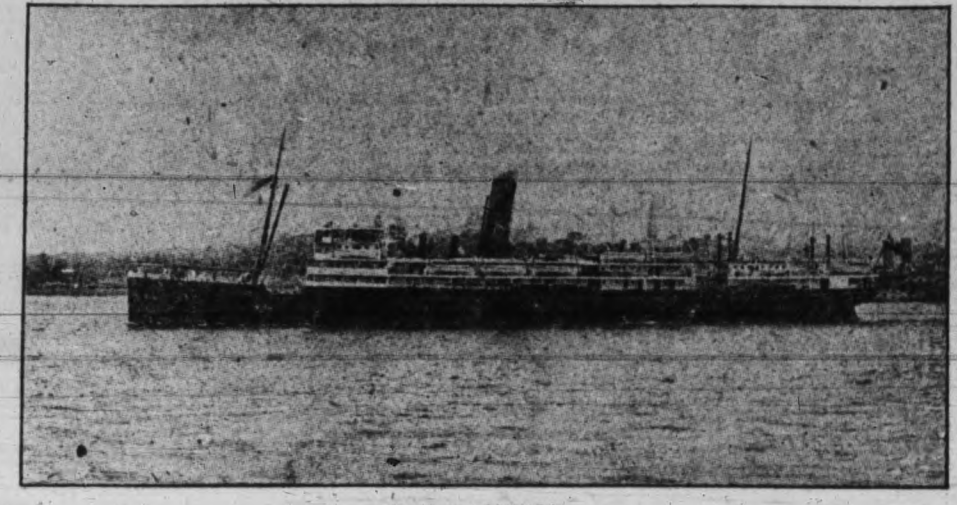

ELEVEN NEW STUDENTS AT NAVAL COLLEGE

With the opening of the Royal Naval College at Esquimalt following the Summer holidays, eleven new students were enrolled, seven being from Western Canada and four from the East.

The S.S. Canadian Highlander, now en route from Vancouver to Taku Bay and Shanghai, is laden with 3,700,000 feet of lumber.

Expected to Make Quarantine by Daybreak

R. M. S. MAKURA.

MAKURA WILL MAKE PORT AT DAYBREAK

Inbound Australian Liner Was 493 Miles Out at 8 o'Clock Last Night

By daybreak to-morrow the Canadian-Australasian liner Makura will be in quarantine awaiting the board- ing medical officers. The liner will probably be alongside the Outer Docks by 9 a. m.

At 2:25 a. m. to-day the Makura was talking to the Estevan Point wireless station, giving her position. Capt. R. Crawford reported being 493 miles south of Victoria at 8 o'clock last night.

The Makura has 250 passengers and 2,000 tons of Australasian cargo. It is reported that the ship has a large shipment of frozen turkeys in her refrigerator space for the Eastern States.

Her frozen cargo includes the usual shipments of mutton and butter. The Admiral Line steamship Keystone State, also expected to make quarantine to-morrow by nightfall, was 736 miles out at 8 o'clock last night.

The inbound Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Asia, at 5 o'clock last night gave her position in latitude 50° 23' N., longitude 152° 40' W.

It is not expected that she will make port before schedule early on Monday morning.

The S.S. Canadian Highlander, now en route from Vancouver to Taku Bay and Shanghai, is laden with 3,700,000 feet of lumber.

STEAMSHIP LINE LIABLE TO DAMAGES

Important Judgment in Princess Sophia Case

According to advice received to-day from Seattle by P. J. Sinnott of the firm of Sinnott & Green, Barristers, Victoria, who is acting for the local claimants, Federal Judge Jeremiah Neterer has given his decision in the action taken in the American Court by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company to limit its liability arising out of the wreck of the S.S. "Princess Sophia" at Vanderbilt Reef, Lynn Canal, Alaska, on October 25, 1918.

Judge Jeremiah Neterer held the company liable, opening the way for awards totalling more than two million dollars to relatives and dependents of 349 victims of the sea disaster. Claims aggregating $2,500,000 for 250 victims are now on file in the case.

JUDGMENT RESERVED IN CLANSMAN CASE

Vancouver, Sept. 30.—Judgment was reserved by Mr. Justice Clement at the conclusion of the trial of the Coast Steamship Company, Limited, against the Canadian Pacific Railway Co., an action involving damage to the former company's steamer Clansman. At the same time His Lordship intimated that his mind was practically made up in favor of the plaintiff.

He stated that he was of the opinion that the vessel on November 8, 1920, came into the north end of C. P. R. Pier H and was directed by the wharfinger to berth near shore. The wharfinger was satisfied that the wharfing was asked then if there was sufficient water for the ship, and that he replied there was. The wharfinger knew, or should have known, the Clansman's draft. In the case of craft the size of the Clansman the trial judge did not consider it necessary to take soundings when coming into the wharf. The Clansman on the occasion in question was not overloaded, he said.

The only matter which concerned him was whether the master of the Clansman should have taken precautions to determine the safety of the vessel's berth, or whether the master was justified in accepting the word of the wharfinger. The latter, as a C. P. R. official, was in the position of being able to enter into contracts which would bind the company.

New Westminster, Sept. 30.—The September bank clearings here were $2,457,966; last year, $3,077,724.

MAY INQUIRE INTO GIVENCHY MISHAP

Hull of Government Boat Is Not Damaged, But Boat in Bad Shape

A marine investigation will probably be held in the near future into the circumstances of the stranding of the Dominion Government patrol steamer Givenchy, which on September 3 settled on a reef on Chatham Island. The reef, which is said to be uncharted, is dry at low tide.

No instructions has yet been received by the Wreck Commissioner from Ottawa regarding the holding of an inquiry into the Givenchy wreck, but it is expected here that an inquiry will be ordered.

Nothing is known regarding an inquiry into the flooding at sea of the S.S. Canadian Importer.

Hull Intact. A survey of the hull of the Givenchy, which was raised and beached last Sunday, has revealed the fact that there is no hole in the bottom of the vessel. The boat is structurally intact, but has suffered badly from being submerged and will not come south under her own power, it is reported.

Arrangements will probably be made to tow the Givenchy to Esquimalt.

QUEEN ARRIVES FROM CALIFORNIA

The steamship Queen, of the Admiral Line, reached port this morning from California, running several hours behind schedule.

In consequence of her late arrival, the Queen will not leave here for the South before 9 o'clock Saturday night. She is now posted to sail for Seattle at 3 o'clock Saturday.

MANY BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES.

The Canadian National Railways have just published a circular containing a list of the Business Opportunities offered in principal towns located on its lines in British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Ontario.

There appears to be many openings for blacksmiths, barbers, dentists, millers, hardware stores, garage, pool rooms, jewelers, moving picture theatres, boarding houses, tailors, bakers, milliners, lawyers, veterinary surgeons, etc., etc. Copies of this pamphlet may be had on application to City Ticket Office of the Canadian National Railways, 911 Government Street, Victoria, or to Mr. R. C. W. Lott, General Agent, Industrial and Resources Department, Edmonton, Alta. No. 4244.

DEPUTY MINISTER GIVES FACTS ON BOAT CONTRACT

Government Paid Company Over $12,000 in Excess of Original Contract Figure

Actual facts relative to the construction of the two motor lighthouse tenders Berens and Birnie by the B. C. Yacht and Boat Builders Company, Ltd., to the order of the Dominion Government, are hereunder given by Alex. Johnston, Deputy Minister of Marine and Fisheries, in reply to a statement emanating from the B. C. Provincial Department of Industries, published in The Times August 6 last, regarding the financial difficulties of the boat building concern. The statement of the Deputy Minister follows:

"My attention has been called to an item which appeared in your paper of August 6 under the heading 'Explains Failure of Boat Company,' which goes on to point out that while the cost to the B. C. Yacht and Boat Builders Company, Limited, of the boats constructed under the order of the Dominion Department of Marine and Fisheries amounted to $90,000, the Department would only pay the sum of $75,000, which was the contract price.

"In this connection I would like to place before you and the readers of The Daily Times the actual facts of the case, and I am sure that on perusal of them you and they will agree that the Department of Marine and Fisheries followed the only fair course of action which was open to it.

Seven Bids. "In the Spring of 1920 the Department called for tenders for the construction of two motor patrol boats for its service in British Columbia, and, in response to advertisement, received seven tenders from British Columbia firms offering to build the boats for various sums ranging from $65,250, which was the tender of the B. C. Yacht and Boat Builders Company, Limited, up to $112,400.

"Inquiries were made as to the status of the B. C. Yacht and Boat Builders Company, Limited, and assurances were received from various sources which were considered reliable, that the company was composed of returned soldiers, and was to be perfectly competent to carry out a contract of the kind into which it was proposed to enter. The company suggested the construction of the plans and specifications which would lessen the cost of the work and subsequently agreed and formally entered into a contract to build the two boats for the sum of $62,750 in 140 working days.

"The company at this time had neither plant nor staff, but immediately set about to establish themselves. They obtained a ten year lease of a site in Victoria from the Provincial Government, and the plant necessary to build the boats was subsequently installed.

Obstructions. "One obstruction after another presented itself, financial and otherwise, to retard the commencement of the work until finally a change of management was decided upon by the directors of the company, and the work of construction was not only begun to proceed in an aggressive and methodical manner on September 1.

"In November, 1920, Mr. William C. Winkel, manager of the B. C. Yacht and Boat Builders Company, Limited, arrived in Ottawa, accompanied by Mr. A. J. Salton, the company, and presented memorial to the Minister of Marine and Fisheries. This memorial and Mr. Winkel personally represented to the Department that the company could not build the boats for the amount of the contract price, namely, $62,750, and asked to be relieved of the existing contract and to be given a new contract which would call for the Department paying the cost of the labor and material entering into the construction of the two boats and which it was guaranteed would not exceed the sum of $75,000. As this amount was slightly lower than the amount of the original tender received for the construction of the boats, the Minister, after carefully considering the matter, decided that if he could get some assurance that the company could actually complete the boats for $75,000, he would recommend that the proposition put forward by Mr. Winkel on behalf of the company be accepted. Accordingly Mr. H. A. Butt, an expert ship-builder in the employ of the Department, and Mr. A. J. Salton, account in the Agency of the Department at Victoria, were instructed to go through the yard and books of the company for the purpose of securing cost data, etc. These gentlemen reported that the boats could be built within the estimate of $75,000, and arrangements to that end were accordingly concluded. It is alleged by and on behalf of the Company that the ultimate cost of constructing the vessels has exceeded this figure, but, in view of all the facts, it cannot be contended that the Department has not acted fairly."

ALIEN MEMBERS OF CREW DISCHARGED

New York, Sept. 30.—Two hundred alien members of the crew of the George Washington, the largest passenger liner operating under the American flag, were discharged yesterday, in furtherance of the policy of the United States Shipping Board to have only American crews on American ships which it owns.

Similar action will be taken with regard to other Shipping Board vessels operated by the line, officials said.

Another "Caloric" Owner In Victoria Says—

Having purchased one of your "Caloric" Furnaces last November, I take pleasure in strongly recommending it to any prospective buyer. Previous to installing your furnace I felt, as no doubt many others may feel, that it was more or less of an experiment, and I felt dubious about the ability of the furnace to heat all the rooms of the house, especially the upstairs, but I must say that it has done wonders in every corner of the house, as every corner is perfectly heated. I also find that it takes much less coal than our old style furnace.

ERA OF CITY HALL

SHIVERING IS PAST

Council to Warm Up Chilly Officials With Brand New Furnace

No longer will City Treasury officials shiver and wear overcoats while transacting the city's business during Winter months. The era during which heavily-dressed men huddled about a solitary stove and stenographers clad in flimsy Georgette crepe snuggled into furs has passed for ever.

After months of deliberation, the City Council has decided to bring a little comfort into the lives of its shivering servants. And great is the rejoicing at the City Hall. The Council has decided, in fact, to install a pipeless furnace in the Treasury Department in place of the stove which almost cooks those who sit near it and leaves those on the outskirts of the office to freeze.

With a furnace and a new cash register—installed after several years of aldermanic argument—the Treasury Department will hardly recognize the cash register was eyed with suspicion by some but the furnace, it is expected, will be welcomed by everyone, for nearly everyone's teeth have chattered in past Winters.

BACK FROM OTTAWA
Was Delegate to Canadian Bar Convention; Air Laws Discussed

Frank J. Stacpoole, K. C., Registrar General of Titles, returned to his office in the Land Registry on Tuesday, after a trip to Ottawa, as delegate from the Victoria Bar to the Canadian Bar Association Convention. On his return journey he visited relatives at Fort William, Winnipeg and Grand Forks.

Mr. Stacpoole noted that one of the outstanding items of business reported to the Convention was the work of the committee on uniformity of the laws of all the provinces. He described this as a tremendous task and said the progress made and laid before the delegates, as a result of the first year of work, was highly commended. The delegates expected that the first interim report will be ready for next year's convention, when radical suggestions will probably be made to the various provinces.

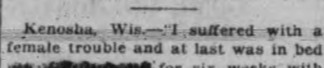

A paper by O. M. Bizzar, K. C., on the laws governing and affecting air transportation and rights, was listened to with great interest, but as it was breaking entirely new ground there was no offhand discussion.

Mr. Stacpoole was glad that the 1922 convention was secured for

FOUR DOCTORS

GAVE HER UP

Through a Neighbor's Advice This Woman Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Kenosha, Wis.—I suffered with a female trouble and at last was in bed for six weeks with what the doctors called inflammation of the bowels. Four of them said I could not live. A neighbor told me to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped me from the start.

When the doctor came I told him what I had taken and he said "Throw my medicine away and keep on with the Pinkham medicine. I did and it relieved me. If more women would take your medicine they would suffer so. I have recommended the Vegetable Compound to lots of people and they have been satisfied." Mrs. Mary Rhapsstock, 375 1/2 Wisconsin St., Kenosha, Wisconsin.

When a woman is beset with such symptoms as irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, a displacement, backache, headaches, bearing-down pains, nervousness, or the "stair" she should treat the cause of such conditions by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Adv.

VETERANS OF FRANCE

SOLIDLY IN LINE WITH AMALGAMATION

Another Link in Joint Chain for Unity Forged at Meeting

At a special meeting of the Veterans of France last night another link in the chain of amalgamation was forged when that body went on record as being entirely in agreement with the amalgamation mass meeting and its findings, and in favor of immediate amalgamation of all ex-service bodies, locally if not obtainable generally. Comrades R. Macnicol, C. K. Christian and T. Mooney were appointed to a permanent committee on amalgamation. Comrades Macnicol and Christian gave a report on the activities of the joint amalgamation committee of service bodies to date, and were cordially thanked for their services. A letter was read from the Disabled Soldiers' Organization of Vancouver, which stated that some 1,500 members of that body had gone on record for Dominion-wide amalgamation, to be effected at the first possible moment. The first meeting of the permanent amalgamation committee of joint service bodies will take place on Monday evening next, when it is thought probable further solidarity of purpose and aims will be effected by delegates from every ex-service body, with full power to act.

TO VOTE TO-MORROW

ON WATER EXTENSION

Saanich Measure Will Be Re-submitted to Voters' Approval

Everything is in readiness for the vote on the Saanich by-law, to extend the existing waterworks to Gordon Head and Cadboro Bay, which will be presented to the electors to-morrow.

The campaign, and this is the third which has been fought on this issue, has followed somewhat similar lines to its predecessors, although on this occasion there has been little opposition from Ward Six. The supporters of the movement are confident that the by-law will now attain the necessary majority to secure its passage.

The Saanich Central Ratepayers' Association has again gone on record in favor of the project, which has also received the backing of many large property owners, and of leading residents of Victoria who are freeholders in the district municipality. In addition to a revision of terms to meet past criticism, and an attractive contract with the city for water, which are new factors at this election, the supporters of the measure feel they have answered adverse criticisms at the meetings which have been held this week.

The Gordon Head Water Committee, which has handled the case for the resubmission of the by-law, will have headquarters in the Jones and Kent offices, Cormorant Street, where cars will be available to take voters to the polls from eight o'clock on Saturday.

Ward Six Neutral. The Ward Six Ratepayers' Association decided not to vote on the question last evening, leaving decision to the individual ratepayers. J. Malcolm presided over a meeting of about twenty persons. Councillor Kingwell, who has circularized his electorate in favor of the measure, spoke favorably, and was opposed by Councillor Brooks, representative of Ward Six. Trustee Philp Holloway also spoke in favor of the Gordon Head scheme.

Councillor Kingwell pointed out that the revenue from the Saanich Waterworks system was more than enough to meet all possible expenses as well as a considerable margin of profit. It was impossible that any citizen of Ward VI. could be called upon to pay one cent to the water rate, as no such rate had ever been levied, neither could it be done.

In closing the Councillor appealed for a broader community interest and reciprocity, explaining that whilst the immediate results of the by-law were not affecting Ward VI, yet in the long run it was vital to their own interests, as it established the water frontage rates of the whole municipality.

Councillor Brooks then took the floor in opposition. It was his firm belief that the individual taxpayers of Gordon Head could not afford the luxury. He also argued that the system was not broad enough, claiming that the mains were not adequate to cover both irrigation and domestic use. He claimed that the Council had balked wags reduction in order to catch a certain element of votes, a policy with which he was not in accord.

"Remember, my good man," said the visitor kindly, "that stone walls do not a prison make, nor iron bars a cage."

"Well, they've got me hypnotized then, that's all ma'am," said the old convict rudely.

WOULD FORCE P.G.E. TO GIVE SERVICE

Property Owners Say Railway Got Land Cheap on That Condition

J. F. Mahon and associates, holders of large blocks of land along the Pacific Great Eastern right-of-way, out of North Vancouver, have started action against the P. G. E. to compel that railway to provide hourly service out of North Vancouver in accordance with an agreement whereby the P. G. E. was allowed to buy land for its line at a reduced price.
