MEMORANDUM FOR THE FILE

SUBJECT: SUTAKA, Kamezo

Address: Believed to be in custody of the USSR in Siberia

He was Commander of the 19th Division of the 12th Japanese Army, the Commander of the 3rd Army, and Vice President of the new State University in Manchukuo.

A check of IPS files indicates in File 378, Serial 146 that Subject has not been repatriated from Siberia. No other mention in files.

SUETAKA, Kamezo

Request by: ITAGAKI

Believed to be in custody of Russia in Siberia.

Was commander of 19th Div. of 12th Army; Commander of 3d Army; Vice President of new State Univ. in Manchukuo.

The facts concerning which this witness can give testimony are that as commander of the 19th Division he was in charge of operations at Chang Kunfen, where Jap and Russian forces clashed over a boundry line dispute. He has full knowledge of all aspects thereof and can acquaint this Tribunal with exactly what there occurred, and the causes and the result.

This evidence would be relevant in view of the evidence adduced by the prosecution tending to show that Japan was the aggressor in the incident and staged the incident as part of its plan to wage war on Russia.
