

General Bennett H. Young Louisville Ky. is Dead

Contracted, Hall Medical Clinic U. S. Reserve Army. Today is the loss in the ranks.

My heart is deeply pained to announce the death of our distinguished Colonel and Honorary Commander-in-Chief, of the U. S.
A.—General Bennett H. Young, of Louisville, Ky.

He answered the last earthly roll call one day last week, at the age of 76 years.

He was a gallant soldier, a courteous, cheerful and affable gentleman ever prompt and zealous faithful to obligations, patient in afflictions and privations.

Taps have sounded; our past Commander-in-Chief is not here.
His immortal soul has winged its flight to the Almighty Creator, who gave it; he has passed over the river of death, to join Lee, Johnston and Jackson, the loved ones who are camping on the other shore.

It is not ours to grieve as those without hope; nay, relying on the

YOUNG—GENERAL BENNETT H.
CATHOLIC Times Mar 6, 1919 and all imp

ted,
his

General Bennett H. Young Louisville Ky. is Dead

Comrades, Halt! Salute! Close Up! Reserve Arms! There is one less in the ranks.

My heart is deeply pained to
announce the death of our distinguished comrade and Honorary Commander-in-Chief, of the U. S.
A.—General Bennett H. Young, of Louisville, Ky.

He answered the last earthly roll call one day less week, at the age of 76 years.

He was a gallant soldier, a courteous, cheerful and affable gentleman ever prompt and zealous faithful to obligations, patient in afflictions and privations.

Taps have sounded; our past
Commander-in-Chief is not here.
His immortal soul has winged its
flight to the Almighty Creator,
who gave it; he has passed over the
river of death, to join Lee, Johnston and Jackson, the loved ones
who are camping on the other shore.

It is not ours to grieve as those
without hope; nay, relying on the

and all
imp
ted,
his

General Bennett H. Young Louisville Ky. is Dead

Reserve Army Corps is in the ranks.

My heart is deeply pained by the death of our distinguished comrade and Honorary
Commander-in-Chief, of the U. S.
A.—General Bennett H. Young, of Louisville, Ky.

He answered the last earthly roll
call one day last week, at the age of 76 years.

He was a gallant soldier, a courteous, cheerful and affable readiman ever prompt and zealous faithful to obligations, patient in afflictions and privations.

Taps have sounded; our past
Commander-in-Chief is not here.
His immortal soul has winged its
flight to the Almighty Creator,
who gave it; he has passed over the
river of death, to join Lee, Johnston and Jackson, the loved ones
who are camping on the other shore.

It is not ours to grieve as those
without hope; nay, relying on the promise we devoutly pray and humbly hope, that when the all pervading call of the last trump shall sound we shall arise reunited, never to part again. Peace to his spirit. honor to his memory.

Fraternally,
H. C. C. Huut.

promise, we devoutly pray humbly hope, that when the pervading call of the last trump shall sound we shall arise reunited never to part again. Peace to spirit. honor to his memory.

Fraternally,
H. C. C. Huut.

General Bennett H. Young Louisville Ky, is Dead

Commander, Hall's Regiment of Reserve Army Troops is lost in the ranks.

My heart is deeply pained by the death of our distinguished comrade and Honorary
Commander-in-Chief, of the U. S.
A.—General Bennett H. Young, of Louisville, Ky.

He answered the last earthly roll
call one day last week, at the age of 76 years.

He was a gallant soldier, a courteous, cheerful and affable gentleman ever prompt and zealous faithful to obligations, patient in afflictions and privations.

Taps have sounded; our poor Commander-in-Chief is not here.
His immortal soul has winged its
flight to the Almighty Creator,
who gave it; he has passed over the
river of death, to join Lee, Johnston and Jackson, the loved ones
who are camping on the other shore.

It is not ours to grieve as those
without hope; nay, relying on the
promise, we devoutly pray and
humbly hope, that when the all
pervading call of the last trump
shall sound we shall arise reunited,

never to part again. Peace to his
spirit. honor to his memory.

Fraternally,
H. C. C. Huut.

promise, we devoutly pray
humbly hope, that when the
pervading call of the last trump
shall sound we shall arise reunited never to part again. Peace to spirit. honor to his memory.

Fraternally,
H. C. C. Huut.