GARDEN SOCIETY FILLS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AT VERY PLEASANT GATHERING

What was undoubtedly the largest gathering, in a social way, that the Chamber of Commerce hall has ever witnessed was the entertainment held Thursday night by the Glendale Garden Society. Throughout the evening about 150 people were present. The large hall was tastefully decorated and everything that could contribute to the comfort and amusement of the members and guests was provided.

Mrs. Nanno Woods, president of the society, opened the meeting. Reading of the minutes was dispensed with. Mrs. Woods said that the primary object of the Glendale Garden society was "civic beauty." The society aimed at aiding the people to beautify their homes, to care for their own gardens and to help others to care for theirs. She pointed to the great pleasure families got from gardens, while profit also was not wanting. One of the great benefits was the comradeship that inevitably sprang up between parent and child in the sowing of seed and the care of plants from germination to maturity.

Mrs. Woods spoke particularly of the Flower Show that is to be held April 20, 21 and 22, saying that the Glendale show differed from all others in the fact that it was to be a free affair. No charge would be made for admission. In this respect Glendale was a pioneer—the first city in California to adopt such a plan. Interest in the show was widely aroused and it promised to be a great success. The society had secured the northwest corner of Fifth and Brand as a site for the show and a large tent would be erected there. The city had donated $100 for the show and there was another $50 in sight, with the likelihood that $50 more would follow. Prizes would be offered for all classes of flowers and vegetables as would be seen from the printed schedules, distributed at the meeting.

The society looked for the hearty support of the citizens for this event which would become an attraction in Glendale equal to the Tournament of Roses in Pasadena. Such a show would be one of the best ads that Glendale could have. Individual and concerted effort would mean the realization of all that Glendale desired to be.

The meeting was then thrown open to those present for the purpose of asking questions concerning horticultural matters. Various members took part in the discussion. Mrs. Rose Cook said that she had tried to grow the Mexican Scarlet Lily and had failed. She had tried all manner of plans but none had succeeded. She had been advised to use plenty of fertilizer and had done so. She wished to know why she had failed.

Mrs. Ackley answered that the reason probably was that she had used too much fertilizer.

Mrs. Nanno Woods wished to know what could be done to prevent scale on antirrhinums. Various members suggested spraying and it was also suggested that the soil in which Mrs. Woods' antirrhinums were grown was too rich. The antirrhinum, one member said, flourished best in light soil and grew specially well on old walls where the roots of the plant thrived on the mortar in the interstices of the stones or bricks.

One lady was desirous of knowing what caused hard brown rings on the stems of her rose bushes. No other person seemed to have noticed such an affection in those flowers. It was suggested that she examine the rings with a powerful microscope. Mrs. Durham told of rotation of crops, stating that beans and tomatoes could both be grown after potatoes.

Mr. Peter Oliver asked why watering tomatoes was better to be done in the early morning than at night. It was answered that night watering was likely to be followed by a considerable fall in temperature, whereas in the morning the plants absorbed the water in a rising temperature.

One of the most pleasing features of the evening was the violin selections of Prof. Lowinsky, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Lowinsky. The audience was delighted with such classical pieces as "Meditation" from Massenet's "Thais," Dvorak's "Humoresque," Schumann's "Traumeri," Mendelssohn's "Spring Song" and Drdla's "Souvenir." The music was highly appreciated.

Various members of the society made themselves useful in the necessary arrangements of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. P. Oliver took charge of the hats and cloaks; Mr. Carruthers ably seconded Mrs. Woods in her efforts to make the people acquainted with each other; Mrs. Ackley and Mrs. Seaman arranged and decorated

STUDY OF ROMANS

DR. J. R. PRATT OF PASADENA GIVES SECOND LECTURE IN COURSE

At the Presbyterian Church Thursday evening, Dr. J. R. Pratt of Pasadena gave the second of his foundational studies preliminary to the study of the epistle to the Romans. To understand Romans you must understand God's three covenants, with the seed of the woman, with the seed of Abraham, and with the seed of David.

Satan's friendship with the woman in the garden was the greatest calamity that ever came to man and the cause of all others that ever have or ever will come.

At that time was begun the unceasing warfare between the seed of the woman and the seed of the serpent. "It shall bruise thy head and thou shalt bruise his heel."

Here begins the "highway of the seed." "Abel, Seth, Noah, Shem, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Judah, David, and Immanuel—Christ. We note here that this enmity is between two mighty beings, the one powerful, the other all powerful, and both operating through man. Knowing this fact, we understand why Satan hurls his fiercest attacks against those who are in Christ Jesus.

Satan overstepped himself, as he often does, when he nailed Jesus to the cross. The time is short as he knows and he must work his works before Christ Jesus comes again to put him down forever. The believer's only safety here and hereafter is in Christ, who alone is able to vanquish the devil, the most powerful of God's creatures. Every man is the bond servant to a supernatural power, he is either in Christ or in the Devil and he is where he is by deliberate choice, he is a free moral agent.

The attendance last evening was larger than at any previous time, and all who came were edified.

The pastor, Rev. W. E. Edmonds, will continue his study on "The Second Coming of Christ," and kindred subjects on Monday evening. The classes are open to all. The invitation is, "Whosoever will may come."

GLEN EYRIE CHAPTER

The regular meeting of Glen Eyrie Chapter, order of Eastern Star, was held in Masonic hall at 8 o'clock Thursday evening. After a short business meeting a memorial was held for Mrs. Elizabeth Moyses, the second Worthy Matron of Glen Eyrie chapter.

Plans were made for the official visit of District Deputy Grand Matron Mrs. Nellie Dean Graham on the evening of March 23.

All members of Glen Eyrie chapter and any visiting Eastern Star members in the valley are invited to attend.

After last night's meeting the members were invited to the banquet room, where two tables had been arranged and refreshments prepared by Brother Beamon, Past Worthy Patron, were enjoyed.

BANK MAKES GIFTS TO PATRONS

The Bank of Glendale is making gifts to its many patrons in the shape of very dainty calendars fit to adorn the wall of any home. The background is in purple and white with hand-painted decoration of violets, with a dainty purple silk ribbon for hanging. These are as much appreciated for the home as were the large and substantial calendars distributed to the business houses earlier in the year. This bank also has on hand for distribution among its patrons and prospective patrons a number of copies of a book, "California Laws Made Plain," compiled by Hon. John F. Davis. The book consists of 100 pages of matter such as the business man, farmer, mechanic and property owner ought to know about the laws of the state.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Saturday! continued warm, probably winds.

the hall; Mrs. Cook lent her auto for the thousand-and-one needs of the preparations; Mrs. Atkinson and Mrs. Poole attended to the refreshments, which consisted of all manner of cakes and cookies; while Mr. and Mrs. Cornwell looked after the fruit punch, which was pronounced delicious by everyone. In these and other arrangements the various committees were also assisted by Gilbert Woods, Dorothy Woods, Kathleen Woods, Eva Hudson, Olive Hudson, Gladys Peckham and Edyth Atkinson. The evening closed with all in full agreement that the affair was a pronounced success and that it would be productive of great good to the society and to the coming Flower Show.

PRESIDENT ORDERS TROOPS INTO MEXICO

SECRETARY BAKER TO SEND 8000 SOLDIERS TO PURSUE AND CAPTURE VILLA

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.—President Wilson gave orders at one p. m. to Secretary of War Newton D. Baker to send troops into Mexico. Scattered along the Mexican border from Brownsville, Tex., to Yuma, Ariz., there are about 20,000 American troops. Of that number 8000 will invade the southern republic with the sole purpose of capturing the bandit chief Gen. Villa and of exterminating the Columbus raiders. It is reported that Gen. Carranza is willing to co-operate with the United States in smashing Villa. The men are eager for the pursuit, having been subjected for months to the greatest insolence and insults on the part of the Mexican ruffians.

REPORT THAT CARRANZA IS DEAD

WASHINGTON, D. C., HEARS THAT MEXICAN PROVISIONAL PRESIDENT IS NO MORE—UNCONFIRMED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

VILLISTAS AGAIN RAID COLUMBUS DISTRICT

MEXICAN FREEBOOTERS ATTACK AMERICAN RANCHES AND DRIVE OFF CATTLE AND HORSES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

COLUMBUS, N. M., March 10.—Villista-raiders crossed the border at different places today. The evidence of their raids was to be seen in burning ranch buildings and devastated fields at various points. The raiders did not succeed in killing any Americans as the ranches were either deserted in which case the buildings were burned; or strongly defended, in which case they were let alone. The raiders drove off cattle and horses and secured as much personal property as possible from the ranches before setting fire to them.

VILLA SAYS HE HAS ONLY BEGUN CAMPAIGN

MEXICAN BANDIT LEADER SAYS HE IS GOING TO INVADE THE UNITED STATES AND BURN AND KILL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

EL PASO, Texas, March 10.—Gen. Villa, the raider of Columbus, sent word to this city today as follows: "I have only started my campaign. I am going to invade the United States and burn cities and kill every gringo I can find—women and children alike. Wilson will pay for his recognition of the bewhiskered Carranza."

TURKS AND PERSIANS EVACUATE ISPAHAN

MUSCOVITE TROOPS ARE VICTORIOUS IN PERSIA—WITHIN 20 MILES OF TREBIZOND

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PETROGRAD, March 10.—Desperate fighting in the neighborhood of Ispahan, Persia, has resulted in the victorious advance of the Russian troops. The Persians and the Turks, with their German officers, are beating a hasty retreat. In their evacuation of Ispahan they have left behind large quantities of military stores. The two Russian forces that are marching on Trebizond are now within twenty miles of that fortified city.

TEUTON SUBMARINE TORPEDIES THE LOUISANE—ALL ON BOARD ARE SAVED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, March 10.—The French transatlantic liner Louisane was torpedoed and sunk this morning, not far from the French coast. It is stated that the big boat was sunk by a Teuton submarine. All on board were saved.

GERMANS STILL PUSHING VERDUN ATTACK

KAISER'S MEN ARE STRIVING HARD TO CLOSE IN ON FORT DE TAVANNES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

BERLIN, March 10.—The German "smash" against Verdun still continues. Southeast of Damloup the attack is being pressed with great persistence and the French are resisting frantically. The German advance is endeavoring to close in on Fort de Tavannes, one of the important defenses of Verdun.

EUGENE BROWN WRITES

GLENDALE BEAUTIFUL CITY—TAXES HIGH—EAGLEDALE NOT GETTING SQUARE DEAL

Eugene Brown, the bunco bard of Eagle Dale, who admits that he writes many wrongs, has unbuttoned his grouch to the careless gaze of the citizenry of Glendale. It seems among other things that he objects to paying his taxes—an attitude which places him in a class by himself. He has penned an extended communication to The News to which we give space—not because of its merit, but because we recognize the right of a fellow man to have a grievance. He says:

"It is worth much to live in a clean and beautiful city like Glendale, but is it worth the price we are paying? I have been a resident for less than five years, but in that time the city has expanded from a village to a well-built town of possibly eight thousand wholesome souls. Hardly anything has been able to keep pace with this growth, except the taxes. They have not only kept up with the procession but have run a mile or so ahead. I am advised that the school tax rate in Glendale is higher than any other city of record. This, however, is only one avenue of expense. In other departments there is an equal lavishness of other people's money.

"A particular grievance of my personal neighborhood is the possibility that confronts us of paying a quadruple tax for what we feel is but one improvement. It could rain for forty days and forty nights without doing any flood damage in the block where I own or represent nearly six hundred feet of frontage, yet we paid a liberal assessment for a storm drain and flood control in our especial district. This takes care of all the water that could possibly disturb our territory, and none outside were assessed for the improvement. Now I am informed that we are included in the assessment district which proposes to make a boulevard out of the Sycamore Canyon Wash, almost a full mile from my place. In addition to this we are expected to vote for a bond issue to cover Glendale flood control and which will include a part of the improvement already ordered. Besides there is the general water control plan for the whole county, the bonds for which must be met by the taxpayers—the Glendale share being about $100,000, as we are advised. The source of all of Glendale's flood troubles arises outside of the city itself and it seems to me little less than a crime to spend a lot of other people's money on any permanent project that does not include a complete understanding with and co-operation by the county and the larger flood control district. Let the city of Glendale, as a whole, formulate in conjunction with the county a comprehensive plan for handling excess surface water and if bonds are to be issued let them be shared by all tax payers. The voters will condone any sane and reasonable plan that includes the idea of damming or retarding the waters in the hills. It is the wild rush that does the harm. If the volume of water that dashes down in four or five hours could be stretched over four or five days it would do good instead of harm. That is the way flood problems are now being settled.

"I object to paying for making a fancy boulevard out of a wash that has existed since the memory of man. That boulevard no longer fills a want for traffic purposes. It is purely a local improvement and should be paid for by the owners of property abutting upon it. When our subdivision of Eagle Dale came into the city we brought you paved street, stone curbs, concrete walks, parkings and water pipes and connections, and for at least two years we kept those streets clean without expense to the city. We came with clean hands and clean streets. The utilities have ripped our pavements up without properly restoring them and the city has never done anything for us that could possibly be avoided. The postal and express deliveries and other semi-public services appear to end at Verdugo boulevard, but the assessor and the tax collector are the ones who can always find us. We came into the city without any expense to the community, bringing public improvements costing several thousand dollars. Since that time we have had three assessments for pavements and boulevards outside our district; we have paid for a complete system of flood control that covers our territory, and we have even paid for the opening of a street three blocks away—even to the laying of a sidewalk on the same. Under these circumstances, is it any wonder that

IN ERIN'S COLORS

MRS. GOODWIN GIVES HONOR PARTY WITH ST. PATRICK SYMBOLS

In honor of Mrs. Ben F. Logan, a charming visitor from Kentucky, Mrs. Henry P. Goodwin of 142 W. Tenth street was at home to a coterie of friends, Thursday, March 9. A profusion of beautiful spring flowers and delicate ferns adorned the pretty home of the hostess, where were gathered the honoree, Mrs. Ben F. Logan and Mesdames R. M. Jackson, W. E. Evans, Walter M. Stamps, Albert D. Pearce, John Hunchberger, A. W. Tower, Laurence Ellis, Emil Tholen, Charles Temple, Harry Neel, Ernest Kimmel, A. L. Weaver, Warren Roberts, Perce H. Curtis, Mattison B. Jones, Edward Lynch, H. Lee Clotworthy and F. W. Pigg—all of Glendale.

Guests from other cities were: Mrs. G. H. A. Goodwin of Hollywood and Mesdames John Karnahan, M. Ewell Smith and Lucius Phillips of Los Angeles.

A number of the guests enjoyed the game of "500" during the afternoon. The scores were kept on pretty handpainted shamrock cards.

Mrs. Logan was presented with a dainty gold-etched mayonnaise bowl and ladle, a beautiful memento of the happy afternoon.

Mrs. Pearce was successful in winning the first prize, a handsome pottery vase. The enjoyable afternoon was made more delightful with music by Mrs. Harry Neel and Mrs. Fred Pigg. Late in the afternoon dainty refreshments symbolical of St. Patrick's day were served.

MORE AID FOR THE JEWS

Mr. S. H. Goldstein, secretary for the local Jewish Relief fund, received intimation this week from the local Masonic lodge, Unity, No. 368, that the lodge had decided to give the sum of $10 to the Jewish Relief fund. This amount brings the funds subscribed in Glendale up to $400. It is gratifying to learn that a group of Jews in the East has promised to double all sums subscribed on the Pacific coast between January and April. Thus Glendale's subscription will be made up to $800.

LOSE INFANT SON

Norman Wesley Graybill, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Royer W. Graybill, died suddenly at the home of his parents, at the age of seven months and thirteen days, Thursday. The baby was taken ill suddenly and died within twenty-four hours. It is believed that infantile paralysis was the cause of death. The funeral will take place from Jewel City Undertaking parlors, Saturday, at 11 a. m. Interment will be at Forest Lawn cemetery.

we complain at a real estate promotion project a mile distant?

"If Glendale would keep the inhabitants she has, and attract others, she must soon practice actual economy. She must see not how much, but how little she can spend. For many years I dwell in a Mississippi Valley city having a population of forty thousand souls. It inherited a debt two generations back, incurred for railway construction and amounting when I first knew it to $1,600,000. The city was paying over $100,000 a year for interest. A policy of reorganization and retrenchment was necessary, and was adhered to. The bonded debt is now only about $300,000. Besides that the city has a cash sinking fund of $400,000 toward the purchase of the waterworks plant. The banks pay sufficient interest on the sinking fund to take care of the interest on the city debt. For years the city affairs were almost wholly in control of a mayor, city clerk, city engineer and city treasurer, all of whom were elected by the people, and the highest salary paid any one of them was $1500 a year. Out of that they had to incur considerable expense in campaigning for election. Policemen were started in at $40 a month and the chief only got $1000 a year. School teachers began at $35 a month and lastly principals received only $65. Yet there were plenty of capable applicants for all positions. Had anybody suggested an embroidered, city manager he would possibly have been lynched by an indignant populace. If by some trick of legislation Glendale were enabled to award her offices and service to the lowest competent bidders the money saved would be astounding. There are lots of persons qualified for public service who would be willing to take hold at half the present salary list.

"I want it understood, however, that I am not making a kick. This is merely a roar."

DIFFICULTIES OF PAN-AMERICAN TRADE

Leaders in Brazilian business circles, in addition to declaring that the United States has everything to gain in the upbuilding of Pan-American trade and that Brazil can anticipate but little profit therefrom, also criticize the personnel of the delegation selected by President Braz, to go to the Pan-American congress in Washington this year. Rio de Janeiro business men of standing say that the delegation represents all other interests except those of business.

It is pointed out that Dr. Pereira Lima, of Rio de Janeiro, is the only business man on the commission. They say that the others are politicians who are anxious to enjoy a sight-seeing expedition to the United States at the public expense. It is also asserted that Brazil has nothing to gain by sending representatives to the Congress. They say Brazil has nothing to export that is not already well established in North American markets, and that no amount of junketing can increase American consumption of Brazilian coffee, rubber, sugar, cocoa and crude metals.

Some resentment against the United States has been worked up by foreign interests which are not anxious to see trade between the United States and Brazil increase. These interests have emphasized a recent American threat to place a five-cents-a-pound import duty on coffee. This has been dubbed an "American bluff," especially by the strong German interests in Brazil, which are particularly potent in the large province of Santa Catherina.

Some of the newspapers that are notoriously working in foreign interests insist that "this threat of a tax on imported coffee noticeably appears each time the reciprocity treaty between the United States and Brazil is about to expire." "Brazil," says one of these papers, "need not heed this bluff. If they do impose an import duty it is the American consumer who will have to pay for it."

It is believed that all this criticism will result in certain changes in the personnel of the visiting delegation, by which business men will be substituted for the political element. With some such changes there is no doubt that the delegation would be more likely to effect beneficial relations between the two countries.

LITTLELANDS

The cards for the pledging of the upkeep of Bolton hall have been distributed during the past week. It is expected that a generous response will shortly ensue. Please return the cards whether you contribute or not. But be SURE to contribute.

Mrs. Hawthorne, who is living in the Dr. Peters' house on Monte Vista boulevard, returned last week from a visit with her sister in Los Angeles. She was accompanied home by her little nephew, who is very contented and happy with his aunt.

Mr. George H. Maxwell has been called to Washington, D. C., on important business connected with the river legislation pertaining to the lower Mississippi. The Floods commission will take up this work and it is essential that Mr. Maxwell be there. He will probably be away for several months. While in Washington Mr. Maxwell expects to write a book entitled "Soldiers For Peace" with a sub-title, "Gateway of Opportunity."

The school children have been especially busy and happy this week in their first attempt at making flower beds in the school yard. A good plan to stimulate a proper pride in the beautifying of the school grounds as well as to inculcate a love and knowledge of the making and caring for flower gardens.

The Littlelands postoffice must be doing a banner business. One day this week 500 letters were mailed by one party in one lot. There was a whole suitcase full of them.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy of Los Angeles were the guests for several days during the past week at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson on Pine street.

Pigeon Club

Mrs. Linaberry and Miss Osgood were hostesses to the Pigeon club last Monday evening. The president, Mr. Paul, was absent, and Mr. Johnson presided. He gave some interesting facts from his own experience in the pigeon business. Mr. Johnson thinks there is no need of sickness among the pigeons if the nests are kept reasonably clean and plenty of clean water is accessible. For nesting the wild alfalfa may be used instead of the cultivated variety. It is better to use it dry and cut in short lengths. The birds are very fond of White Cos lettuce and spearmint. Mr. Johnson gave the formula which he is now using for his pigeons. To 50 birds he feeds 1 1/2 lbs. of mixed grain twice a day and when the squabs begin to come he increases the quantity to 2 lbs. He gives hemp separate, about 1/2 lb. twice a week for 40 birds.

After the business session, Mrs. Linaberry invited the company to remain and hear some music from her Edison, which, with its diamond disc point renders music far superior to the usual graphophone music. Several beautiful classic selections from the old masters were given and some favorite old songs. The next meeting will be held the first Monday evening at the home of Mr. Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Baer of Wisconsin expect to sojourn in Littlelands for some time. They are occupying Miss McKee's house on San Ysidro road.

Mrs. Maude S. Mehard spent the week end at her home on Stephen's Way, leaving again Monday morning for Los Angeles.

Miss Hannah L. McKee went Monday to Pasadena, where she expects to remain for some time with her old friends, the Treat family.

Mr. Brackett of Los Angeles is here seeking relief from asthma. He is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson.

Wednesday of last week Mr. A. C. Wheat, deputy superintendent of Los Angeles county schools, spent the entire day visiting our schools. He seemed well pleased with the plans and progress of the schools.

Miss Wieman from Highland Park is visiting her father, Rev. W. H. Wieman, this week. She is making arrangements to go into the chicken business in Littlelands on her father's place.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Lang entertained Miss Salstrom and Miss Wilson at dinner last Monday evening, at their home on Monte Vista boulevard.

search for food, is probably regulated by the advance of salt water into the lower streams caused by the lessened flow of water during the dry summer months. The crabs are strictly salt water animals and die if placed in fresh water. As the salt water moves up into the stream on a flood tide they advance and occasionally are caught by the fresh water during the ebb and to escape they crawl out on to the mud or into the tules and it is reported they occasionally die here by the thousands. They are numerous during the summer in the Carquinez Straits and have been found as far up as Pittsburg, on the San Joaquin River.

NEW GLENDALE CHURCH

The Harmonical Spiritual church of Glendale is a new organization recently formed at the home of the pastor, Mrs. Dora Barnett, 1203 Lomita avenue. The day on which this meeting was held proved to be the fortieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Barnett and a number of friends came in to help them celebrate the event. After the reading of the minutes and the Circle, refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed. Mr. Tabor made very appropriate remarks and Mrs. Barnett responded with birthday greetings to Mr. E. Hopkins, whose birth occurred February 29. Music was furnished by Mr. E. Z. Barnett, Mr. E. Hopkins and Miss Mildred Allured of Los Angeles.

Mrs. M. E. Cline is the secretary of this new church. The first meeting will likely be held a week from Sunday.

HOUSE BILLS 13,000

During the first twelve days of the present Congress 6781 bills were introduced, which is more than double the number offered during the same period of the last Congress. The mark has now passed 13,000 bills in the House alone. The flood of measures introduced into the Congress of the United States is like a troop of soldiers charging a long series of trenches. The ones that get to the last ditch not only must have considerable merit but a whole lot of luck, and in the last trench stands the big gun of filibuster, which may blow them to pieces, in the hands of a single man.

TROPICO

Miss Regina Bacon, superintendent of the Municipal playground, reports that these warm afternoons are very conducive towards increasing the attendance at the playground. After the close of school many boys and girls assemble and spend two hours or more in various forms of recreation, baseball, basketball, tennis, croquet and other sports. Many employees of the basket factory find much pleasure and recreation at the playgrounds and are enthusiastic in their praise of the splendid and spacious playgrounds.

Mrs. J. E. Bahrenberg has exchanged her beautiful home, "Twin Pines," on West Park avenue, for a ranch near Perris. Mrs. Bahrenberg has leased her ranch property and will take up her residence in Los Angeles. After a residence of six or more years in Tropico, during which time Mrs. Bahrenberg made many friends, she will be greatly missed when she leaves here.

The Tropico Girls' Tennis club met the Intermediate Girls' Tennis club of Glendale on the court of the Municipal playground, this afternoon.

The free band concert to be given Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock on the Municipal playground will draw a large number of visitors as the Tropico Concert band furnishes delightful music. Following the concert a lively game of ball will be enjoyed, with the following lineup: Flower, l.f.; Chuck Flanders, s.s.; Morse, r.f.; Bidwell, c.f.; Albert Gabag, 2b.; Mitchell, 3b.; Schultz, 1b.; Bradford, c.; Henderson, p.; Galley and L. Gabag, substitutes.

This reorganized team will cross bats with the R. G. S. of Los Angeles, formerly Solomon's Penny de Luxe, and is considered one of the finest teams available.

Miss Elsie Anderson of Virginia Place was the guest recently of Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Schloesser, at their beautiful new home, Castle Sans Souci, in Hollywood, when this charming home was the scene of a brilliant musicale. Two hundred guests assembled to be entertained by a number of the foremost musicians of Los Angeles. Miss Marshall, one of the musicians, is a frequent visitor at the Anderson home.

VILLISTAS KILL RANCHER

EL PASO, Texas, March 10.—Villista raiders attacked an American ranch west of Columbus, N. M., today and killed the owner, Mr. Hopps, according to a telegraphic message from J. B. Blair, a prominent merchant at Columbus. Blair said that Villa, with 2000 men, is reported to be moving for a new attack on Columbus. The town is wildly excited. The American troops are prepared to resist the invaders effectually.

GLENDALE FOOTHILLS

Mr. O. C. Logan of the Espesero de Verdugo has been visiting Oxnard, Cal., during the past two days. He is expected home by the end of the week.

Mrs. M. Drohan of Kenneth road has been visiting friends in Redlands for a few days. She is expected back shortly.

Mr. George Mitchell of Kenneth road has gone to his cattle ranch in Wyoming for a few weeks. He will be quite busy there with the opening of the spring work.

Mr. David Black, who has a fine ranch on the south side of Kenneth road, is busy planting potatoes.

Maier's ranch, on N. Pacific avenue, is busy these days. With four acres of land, a large flock of chickens, a large flock of turkeys and a considerable number of Belgian and New Zealand rabbits, the three men who are working there find quite enough to do. The chickens are a fine commercial flock and yield a profitable amount of eggs daily. There are fine Rhode Island Reds, Silver Hamburgs, Black Orpingtons and other varieties. The ranch also shows evidence of much labor in the way of agricultural and orchard work. Apricots and peaches are in fine bloom and the vegetable garden and cereals show tokens of skillful care.

Harry F. Olmsted, 1431 N. Pacific avenue, is constructing a fine road from the avenue through his ranch. He is also making other improvements. Mr. Olmsted grew a large number of very fine lemons of extraordinary size this year. These lemons were exhibited at the Orange Show at San Bernardino, a few weeks ago. There they were awarded the first prize for the largest lemons. Mr. Olmsted's lemons are peculiar in this that they are extremely juicy, each lemon yielding a large water glass full of juice, while they are also of a very fine quality.

Mr. James Conner, proprietor of the Home Dairy farm, is busy these days picking and packing lemons. He dispatched 2000 boxes the other day to the California Fruitgrowers' association. Lemons have come down somewhat in price recently and the Association is able to prevent the lemons of its members being dumped on the market at the prevalent low rates. "Last year was a poor year for lemons," said Mr. Conner, "not so much because of the importation of Sicilian lemons as because it was a very cold and rainy season in the east. In weather of that description people do not use many lemons. With a good season this year lemons should fetch a remunerative rate."

Mrs. Conner is busy with the dairy, where there is a fine herd of Brown Swiss, pedigreed cows and also a number of well-bred Holsteins. Mrs. Conner says that the Swiss cows give a particularly sweet and not too rich milk, which is in great favor with many people in Los Angeles, who come out in their autos to get it. She sells large quantities of milk and cream in this way and has also a demand for the product of her dairy in Glendale that is usually in excess of the supply.

SOUVENIR BRACELETS MADE OF PICTURE LINKS

As a souvenir of summer trips, auto parties and delightful week ends, a jeweler has devised a bracelet of enameled silver links, strung on ribbon, and, though each link locks into others, the ribbon may be changed to match the gown with which it is worn. On each link is the picture in enamel of some scene visited. Such places as Niagara Falls, the Panama exposition, Old Faithful geyser, and the capitol at Washington, may be had readily, but if one desires a special scene or unrequited place, the link must be made to order, and this is done by providing the manufacturer with a photograph or colored postal card of the place to be reproduced.

bracelets may be begun with one link, and others added from time to time. If various friends contribute to the bracelet as a gift, the initials of each friend and the date are engraved on the back of the link. The idea is fashioned on the line of the add-a-pearl necklace, the arrangement by which a necklace of fine gold or platinum, with pearls to start it, can be made to grow into a valuable string of gems by adding a pearl from time to time.

Poverty seldom ever wrecked a really strong character—and money never saved a character worth the salt, yet money has saved reputations. "Reputation" and "character" are two different things, yes, indeed!

The very best things of life are sometimes on the bargain counter.

It pays to be decent—decency pays, yes! Honesty was and is and always will be "The Best Policy." A man, a paper, a town, a county, a state, a nation ought to be clean—cleanliness of purpose and act is the best, and for the best here and hereafter!
