Wikiworkshops we were doing it wrong

A medieval manuscript illustration depicting a professor in a blue robe and white turban standing at a wooden pulpit, reading from an open book. Below him, several students in red and blue robes are seated in rows, listening attentively. The scene is set against a background of a red wall with green floral decorations and a yellow building with arched windows.

I did mention NPOV and OR, didn't I.

Will that be on the exam?

A detailed oil painting of an elderly man with a white headband, looking down at an open book he is holding. The book is open to a page with text in a Gothic script, and a small illustration is visible at the bottom. He is wearing a dark fur-trimmed coat and a gold ring on his finger.

I swear it was here!

But you don't see any mountains here, do you.

A painting depicting a group of people in 18th-century attire in a lush garden setting. In the foreground, a woman in a red dress sits on a chair, holding a white cup. Behind her, a man in a blue velvet jacket and a woman in a yellow dress stand near a table covered with a white cloth. On the table are a bottle and two glasses. To the right, a man in a dark coat and hat sits at a table, looking towards the camera. The background is filled with dense green foliage and trees.

And you wrote it yourself? All alone?

Yup!

A historical painting depicting a busy port or river scene. In the foreground, several small wooden boats are filled with a reddish-brown material, likely iron ore or coal, being loaded onto larger, longer ships docked at a wooden pier. The pier is crowded with men in period clothing; some are working with shovels, while others stand by. In the background, a large brick building with multiple chimneys stands on a hill, and a bridge spans the water. The overall atmosphere is one of a bustling industrial or commercial activity.

What did she just do? Art?

More than that! A subject of copyright

A painting of two figures in a dynamic pose, one holding a long staff or object.

How about another activity?

Ugh!
