 ‘ the Duty of Excise on Malt, being Materials from which such Spirits are made, and of the ‘ countervailing Duty can be fairly estimated:’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent of Strength or any greater or less Quantity:

 any greater or less Quantity.

II. And be it enacted, That the said several countervailing Duties shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise, and shall be collected, paid, and accounted for as Duties of Excise, and in the same Manner as any Duties of Excise now imposed on plain any one of the said Parts of the United Kingdom into any other, are directed to be collected, paid, and accounted for when made payable in that Part of the United Kingdom into which such Spirits are so removed, under any Law or Laws of Excise; and the general and special Provisions, Clauses, Enactments, Regulations, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures contained in any Act or Acts relating to the Collection and Management of the Revenue of Excise shall, so far as the same are applicable thereto, be applied to the Collection and Management of the removed from one of the said Parts of the United Kingdom into another; and the said Spirits, when so imported from any of the said Islands, shall, upon such Importation, and before landing, be entered under the like Denomination with the proper Officer of Excise at the Port at which such Spirits are imported, subject to the Provisions aforesaid, and under the like Regulations, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures as are imposed in such respect on plain British Spirits under any Law or Laws of Excise, and subject to the several Provisions, Clauses, and Enactments (except so far as altered by this Act) of any Law or Laws of the Customs respecting the Declaration and Certificate of Produce, and other Regulations

 factured in the Islands, and the United Kingdom, to be denominated plain British

5 & 6 Vict. c.89. ' WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to promote the Drainage of Lands, and Improvement of Navigation and Water Power in connexion with such Drainage, in Ireland, it is amongst other things enacted, that if the Proprietors of Two Thirds or more in Extent of the Lands proposed to be drained or improved by Drainage under the Provisions of the said Act should have assented assented in Writing to the Execution of the proposed Works, the Commissioners acting in execution of said Act should make and sign a Declaration describing the Lands proposed to be drained or improved, and declaring the then actual Value thereof, and the Increase in such Value by means of the proposed Works, and the Proportion in which such Lands should be chargable towards the Expence of the proposed Works, such Proportion being fixed according to such actual Value and such estimated Increase as aforesaid, and also stating the several other Matters and Things in and by the said Act authorized and required; and it is by the said Act further enacted, that it should and might be lawful for the Commissioners appointed under the said Act, from Time to Time as Occasion should require, to borrow and take up at Interest any Sum or Sums of Money required for defraying the Costs, Charges, and Expences to be incurred by them in the Execution of any Works for the Drainage and Improvement of any Land, or the Navigation of any River, or the Formation of any Reservoir under or by virtue of the said Act, and that the Repayment of such Sum or Sums of Money, with Interest at a Rate not exceeding Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, should be secured to the Party lending the same upon the Monies accruing to the said Commissioners under or by virtue of the Award to be made by the said Commissioners as in the said Act mentioned; and it is in and by the said Act further enacted, that as soon as conveniently might be after any Works for the Drainage or Improvement of any Land or the Navigation of any River under the said Act, or any other Work by the said Act authorized, should have been completed, the Commissioners should draw up an Award or Instrument in Writing in the Manner and Form therein particularly mentioned and described, and that the respective Sums of Money which by the Award of the said Commissioners should be specified as the Proportions or Contributions payable in respect of the several Parcels or Portions of the Land drained or improved by Drainage, or by any Works under the said Act, towards the total Amount of the Sums expended in and about such Drainage or Improvements as aforesaid, with Interest for such respective Sums of Money at a Rate not exceeding Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, from the Date of such Award, should be charged on such several Parcels or Portions of the Land so drained or improved as aforesaid, and that in preference to and with Priority over all Incumbrances on such Land: Provided nevertheless, that any Quit or Chief Rent issuing thereout, or other Incumbrance thereon, previously to the Date of the said Award, should have Priority to such Charges to the Extent of the Value of such Land before the Improvements were effected, but no further; and the same respective Sums of Money, with such Interest for the same as aforesaid, should also be charged upon so much of any other Land situate within One Mile of any Part of the Lands so drained or improved, and settled with the Lands so drained or improved to the same Uses, Intents, and Purposes, by virtue of Limitations contained in the same Instrument or the same Set of Instruments, as the said Commissioners should by their said Award, or any Instrument under their Hands and Seals enrolled in the Rolls Office, direct, limit, and appoint, having regard to the Sufficiency of the said Lands to satisfy and secure the Charge thereon, but subject, as to such other Land, to the full Amount of all Incumbrances affecting the same prior to the Date of the said Award: And whereas Applications have been made to the said Commissioners for the Drainage of Land, and the Improvement of Navigation and Water Power of several Rivers and Lakes, in Ireland, and Undertakings and Works for those Purposes are now in progress under the Direction of the said Commissioners: And whereas it is expedient and just that the Monies to be charged upon Lands by any such Award as aforesaid shall take Priority and have Effect as to such Lands from the Date of the said Declaration in and by the said Act authorized, instead of the Date of the said Award; and for the more effectual Attainment and Extension of the Benefits likely to arise from the said Act it is expedient to facilitate the raising of Monies for the Purposes thereof, and to amend the said Act in certain other respects as herein after mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in the Case of all Loans to be effected and Declarations to be made by the said Commissioners after the passing of this Act, under the Provision of said recited Act or this Act, the respective Sums of Money which, by the Award to be made by the said Commissioners, shall be specified as the Proportions or Contributions payable in respect of the several Parcels or Portions of the Land drained or improved by Drainage, or by any Works under the said Act or this Act, towards the total Amount of the Sums expended in and about such Drainage or Improvements as aforesaid, with Interest for such respective Sums of Money at the Rate not exceeding Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, shall from the Date of such Declaration be charged on such several Parcels or Portions of the Land so drained or improved as aforesaid, and that in preference to and with Priority over all Incumbrances on such Land, save only that any Quit or Chief Rent issuing thereout, or other Incumbrance thereon, previously to the Date of the Memorandum of the Registry of such Declaration, as by this Act authorized and directed to be made by the said Commissioners, shall have Priority to such respective Sums of Money so charged to the Extent of the Value (as stated by the said Commissioners in any such Declaration) of such Land before the Improvements were commenced, but no further; and the same respective Sums of Money, with such Interest for the same as aforesaid, shall also be charged upon so much of any other Land situate within One Mile of any Part of the Lands so drained or improved, and settled with the Lands so drained or improved, to the same Uses, Intents, and Purposes, by virtue of Limitations contained in the same Instrument or the same Set of Instruments, as the said Commissioners shall by the said Award, or any Instrument under their Hands and Seals, and enrolled in the Rolls Office, direct, limit, and appoint, having regard to the Sufficiency of the said Lands to satisfy and secure the Charge thereon, but subject, as to such other Land as aforesaid, not being Part of the Lands so drained or improved, to the full Amount of all Incumbrances affecting the same prior to the Registry of the Memorandum of such Declaration.

Provisions in recited Act as to Charge on Lands to apply to Land of the same Proprietor.

And be it enacted, That the Provisions in the said recited Act and this Act contained relating to the Charge of any Monies or Interest on Land situate within One Mile of any Part of the Land drained or improved shall be deemed and construed to extend and apply to all Land belonging to the same Proprietor, as the Land so drained or improved, situate within One Mile of any Part of the Lands so drained and improved, for all his Estate and Interest existing at the Time of such Declaration of the said Commissioners as aforesaid.

The whole of the Lands chargeable shall be described in the Declaration.

And be it enacted, That the Extent of the whole of the Land or Premises which, under the Provisions of said Act or this Act, may become chargeable with the Monies expended in pursuance of the Provisions thereof, shall be entered, stated, or described in every such Declaration, as herein-before mentioned, to be made by said Commissioners; and when such Declaration shall be finally settled a Copy thereof shall be printed, and deposited with the Clerk of the Peace, as in said Act directed.

The Commissioners to cause Memorandum of Declaration to be drawn up and registered.

VI. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, within Three Months from the passing of this Act, draw up Memorandums or Instruments in Writing in the Manner and Form aforesaid, or as near thereto as the Circumstances of each Case will admit, of the several Declarations heretofore by them made under the Provision of the said recited Act, and Memorials thereof respectively, and cause the said Memorials to be entered and registered in the Register's Office for registering of Deeds in the City of Dublin in the same Manner as last aforesaid.

And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, in any Case where they shall so deem fit, to make any Certificate or Set of Certificates granted under the said Act or this Act for the whole of the Monies required to be borrowed for such Case, payable at any Time (to be fixed as herein-after provided) intervening between Two Periods to be stated in such Certificates; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to alter the Form of the Certificate provided by the said Act to suit the Circumstances of each Case, and such Certificate so varied shall be equally good and effectual as if the same were according to the Form by said Act prescribed.

XI. And be it enacted, That where more than One Certificate for any such Case shall be so issued and made payable between Two such Periods as aforesaid, the Commissioners shall, as soon as may be convenient after the final Settlement of their Award, give Notice in the Dublin Gazette, and in such other Newspapers and by such other Means as they shall think fit, to the Holders of such Certificates of their Intention, on a Day and Hour in said Notice to be fixed, not sooner than Fourteen Days from the Publication thereof, to hold a Ballot for the Purpose of determining the Order in which such Certificates shall be paid off; and upon the Day and at or after the Hour named the Commissioners shall accordingly proceed to make such Ballot in presence of such (if any) the Holders of such Certificates, or their Agents or Representatives, as shall attend at such Ballot, and if none of such Persons shall attend then in the Absence of such Persons; and the Result of such Ballot shall be recorded in the Office of the said Commissioners, and noted upon all such of the said Certificates as shall

LIV. ' And

LIV. ' And whereas such Goods, if not claimed by the Owner within the Period limited by Law, belong of right to Her Majesty in Her Office of Admiralty, but by reason of the Smallness of their Value would, if prosecuted to Condemnation in the High Court of Admiralty in England and Ireland respectively, be wholly unproductive ;' be it therefore enacted, That whenever any such Goods, whether picked up at Sea or on the Shore within the Flow of the Sea, shall be reported to the Officers of the Customs, Notice thereof shall be forthwith given by them, if in Great Britain or the Isle of Man, to the Receiver General of Droits of Admiralty, and if in Ireland to the Queen's Proctor of Admiralty ; and all such Goods shall be placed at their Disposal respectively, as the Case may be, subject, however, to the Payment of the Duties with which they shall be respectively chargeable ; and in case the rightful Owner thereof shall prove his Claim thereto to the Satisfaction of the said Receiver General or Queen's Proctor, as the Case may be, within the Period of Twelve Calendar Months from the Day on which they shall be so reported, such Goods shall be restored to the Owner, on Payment of the Duties and necessary Charges attending the Care of the same, and a reasonable Compensation to the Amount of One Third of the net Value (after abating the Duties and Charges aforesaid) to the Salvors thereof ; but if no such Claim shall be established within the Period aforesaid, then such Goods shall be deemed and taken to be condemned to Her Majesty as Droits of Admiralty, and may be sold by the said Receiver General or Queen's Proctor, without any Process from the High Courts of Admiralty respectively, and the net Proceeds thereof, after Payment of Duties, Salvage, and other Charges as aforesaid, shall be disposed of by them respectively, and carried to the Credit of the Consolidated Fund, in like Manner as Droits of Admiralty are by an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, for the Support of His Majesty's Household, and the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, directed to be applied, any thing in any Act or Acts contained, or any Law, Statute, or Usage, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

LVI. ' And whereas by the Laws now in force certain Articles subject to an Inland Duty of Excise are required to be stamped, to denote the Payment of such Duty ; and to prevent Fraud in the Evasion of such Duty it is expedient that Foreign Articles of a similar Description, when imported into the United Kingdom, should be stamped with such Mark or Stamp as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs may deem necessary, in order to distinguish the Foreign from the British Article ;' be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, and they are hereby authorized, after any Goods have been entered at the Custom House, and before the same shall be discharged by the Officers, and delivered into the Custody of the Importer or his Agent,

XVI. And be it enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act the Tonnage of every Ship or Vessel required by Law to be registered shall, previous to her being registered, be measured and ascertained while her Hold is clear, and according to the following Rule; (that is to say,) divide the Length of the upper Deck between the after Part of the Stem and the fore Part of the Stern-post into Six equal Parts; Depths, at the foremost, the middle, and the aftermost of those Points of Division, measure in Feet and decimal Parts of a Foot the Depths from the under Side of the upper Deck to the Ceiling at the Limber Strake; in the Case of a Break in the upper Deck the Depths are to be measured from a Line stretched in a Continuation of the Deck; Breadths, divide each of those Three Depths into Five equal Parts and measure the inside Breadths at the following Points; (videlicet.) at One Fifth and at Four Fifths from the upper Deck of the foremost and aftermost Depths, and at Two Fifths and Four Fifths from the upper Deck of the Midship Depth; Length, at Half the Midship Depth measure the Length of the Vessel from the after Part of the Stem to the fore Part of the Stern-post; then to Twice the Midship Depth add the foremost and the aftermost Depths for the Sum of the Depths; add together the upper and lower Breadths at the foremost Division, Three Times the upper Breadth and the lower Breadth at the Midship Division, and the upper and Twice the lower Breadth at the after Division, for the Sum of the Breadths; then multiply the Sum of the Depths by the Sum of the Breadths, and this Product by the Length, and divide the final Product by Three thousand five hundred, which will give the Number of Tons for Register; if the Vessel have a Poop or Half Deck or a Break in the upper Deck, measure the inside mean Length, Breadth, and Height of such Part thereof as may be included within the Bulkhead; multiply these Three Measurements together, and dividing the Product by 92·4, the Quotient will be the Number of Tons to be added to the Result as above found; in order to ascertain the Tonnage of open Vessels the Depths are to be measured from the upper Edge of the upper Strake.

The Rule by which Tonnage of Vessels is to be ascertained.

XVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in each of the several Rules herein-before prescribed, when applied for the Purpose of ascertaining the Tonnage of any Ship or Vessel propelled by Steam, the Tonnage due to the Cubical Contents of the Engine Room shall be deducted from the total Tonnage of the Vessel as determined by either of the Rules aforesaid, and the Remainder shall be deemed the true Register Tonnage of the said Ship or Vessel; the Tonnage due to the Cubical Contents of the Engine Room shall be determined in the following Manner; (that is to say,) measure the inside Length of the Engine Room in Feet and decimal Parts of a Foot from the foremost to the aftermost Bulkhead, then multiply the said Length by the Depth of the Ship or Vessel at the Midship Division as aforesaid, and the Product by the inside Breadth at the same Division at Two Fifths of the Depth from the Deck, taken as aforesaid, and divide the last Product by 92·4, and the Quotient shall be deemed the Tonnage due to the Cubical Contents of the Engine Room.

Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Tonnage due to the Cubical Contents of the Engine Room, and also the Length of the Engine Room, shall be set forth in the Certificate of Registry as Part of the Description of the Ship or Vessel, and that any Alteration of such Tonnage due to the Cubical Contents of the Engine Room, or of such Length of the Engine Room after Registry, shall be deemed to be an Alteration requiring Registry de novo within the Meaning of this Act.

Rule for measuring Ships with Cargoes on board.

XIX. And be it enacted, That for the Purpose of ascertaining the Tonnage of all such Ships as there shall be occasion to measure while their Cargoes are on board, the following Rule shall be observed, and is hereby established; (that is to say,) measure first the Length on the upper Deck between the after Part of the Stem and the fore Part of the Stern-post; secondly, the inside Breadth on the under Side of the upper Deck at the middle Point of the Length; and, thirdly, the Depth from the under Side of the upper Deck down the Pump Well to the Skin; multiply these Three Dimensions together, and divide the Product by One hundred and thirty, and the Quotient will be the Amount of the Register Tonnages of such Ships; if the Vessel have a Poop or Half Deck or a Break in the upper Deck, measure the inside mean Length, Breadth, and Height of such Part thereof as may be included within the Bulkhead, multiply these Three Measurements together, and, dividing the Product by Ninety-two and Four Tenths, the Quotient will be the Number of Tons to be added to the Result above found.

XX. And be it enacted, That the true Amount of the Register Tonnage of every Ship or Vessel required by Law to be registered, ascertained according to the Rule by this Act established, shall be deeply carved or cut in Figures at least Three Inches in Length on the Main Beam of every such Ship or Vessel prior to her being registered.

Tonnage when so ascertained to be ever after deemed the Tonnage.

XXII. And be it enacted, That whenever the Tonnage of any Ship or Vessel shall have been ascertained according to the Rules herein prescribed, such Account of Tonnage shall ever after be deemed the Tonnage of such Ship or Vessel, and shall be repeated in every subsequent Registry of such Ship or Vessel, unless it shall happen that any Alteration has been made in the Form and Burden of such Ship or Vessel, or it shall be discovered that the Tonnage of such Ship or Vessel had been erroneously taken and computed.

And be it enacted, That if the Certificate of Registry of such Ship or Vessel shall be produced to the Collector and Comptroller of any Port where she may then be after any such Bill of Sale shall have been recorded at the Port to which she belongs, together with such Bill of Sale containing a Notification of such Record, signed by the Collector or Comptroller of such Port as before directed, it shall be lawful for the Collector and Comptroller of such other Port to endorse on such Certificate of Registry (being required so to do) the Transfer mentioned in such Bill of Sale, and such Collector and Comptroller shall give Notice thereof to the Collector and Comptroller of the Port to which such Ship or Vessel belongs, who shall record the same in like Manner as if they had made such Endorsement themselves, but inserting the Name of the Port at which such Endorsement was made: Provided always, that the Collector and Comptroller of such other Port shall first give Notice to the Collector and Comptroller of the Port to which such Ship or Vessel belongs of such Requisition made to them to endorse the Certificate of Registry, and the Collector and Comptroller of the Port to which such Ship or Vessel belongs shall thereupon send Information to the Collector and Comptroller of such other Port whether any and what other Bill or Bills of Sale have been recorded in the Book of the Registry of such Ship or Vessel; and the Collector and Comptroller of such other Port having such Information shall proceed in manner directed by this Act in all respects to the endorsing of the Certificate of Registry as they would do if such Port were the Port to which such Vessel belonged.

Bills of Sale may be produced after Entry at other Ports than those to which Vessels belong, and Transfers endorsed on Certificate of Registry.

Previous Notice to be given to Officers at the Port of Registry.

XLI. And be it enacted, That if it shall become necessary to register any Ship or Vessel de novo, and any Share or Shares of such Ship or Vessel shall have been sold since she was last registered, and the Transfer of such Share or Shares shall not have been recorded and endorsed in manner herein-before directed, the Bill of Sale thereof shall be produced to the Collector and Comptroller of Her Majesty's Customs, who are to make Registry of such Ship or Vessel, otherwise such Sale shall not be noticed in such Registry de novo, except as hereinafter excepted: Provided always, that upon the future Production of such Bill of Sale, and of the existing Certificate of Registry, such Transfer shall and may be recorded and endorsed as well after such Registry de novo as before.

If upon Registry de novo any Bill of Sale shall not have been recorded, it shall then be produced.

XLII. And be it enacted, That if upon any Change of Property in any Ship or Vessel the Owner or Owners shall desire to have the same registered de novo, although not required by this Act, and the Owner or proper Number of Owners shall attend at the Custom House at the Port to which such Ship or Vessel belongs for that Purpose, it shall be lawful for the Collector and Comptroller of Her Majesty's Customs at such Port to make Registry de novo of such Ship or Vessel at the same Port, and to grant a Certificate thereof, the several Requisites herein-before in this Act mentioned and directed being first duly observed and complied with.

Upon Change of Property Registry de novo may be granted if desired, although not required by this Act.

XLIII. And whereas great Inconvenience hath arisen from the Registering Officers being served with Subpœnas, requiring them to bring with them, and produce on Trials in Courts of Law relative to the Ownery of Vessels or otherwise, the Oaths or Declara-

Registry, admitted in Evidence.

' tions required to be taken by the Owners thereof prior to the registering thereof, and ' the Books of Registry or Copies or Extracts therefrom : And whereas it would tend much ' to the Despatch of Business if the Attendance of such Registering Officers with the same ' upon such Trials were dispensed with ;' be it therefore enacted, That the Collector and Comptroller of Her Majesty's Customs at any Port or Place, and the Person or Persons acting for them respectively, shall, upon every reasonable Request by any Person or Persons whomsoever, produce and exhibit for his, her, or their Inspection and Examination any Oath or Declaration sworn or made by any such Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, and also any Register or Entry in any Book or Books of Registry required by this Act to be made or kept relative to any Ship or Vessel, and shall, upon every reasonable Request by any Person or Persons whomsoever, permit him, her, or them to take a Copy or Copies or an Extract or Extracts thereof respectively, and that the Copy and Copies of any such Oath or Declaration, Register or Entry, shall, upon being proved to be a true Copy or Copies thereof respectively, be allowed and received as Evidence upon every Trial at Law, without the Production of the Original or Originals, and without the Testimony or Attendance of any Collector or Comptroller, or other Person or Persons acting for them respectively, in all Cases as fully and to all Intents and Purposes as such Original or Originals, if produced by any Collector or Collectors, Comptroller or Comptrollers, or other Person or Persons acting for them, could or might legally be admitted or received in Evidence.

If Vessels or Shares sold in the Absence of Owners, without formal Powers, Commissioners may permit Record of such Sales or Registry de novo, as the Case may require ; and also in other Cases where Bills of Sale cannot be produced ;

Security being given to produce legal Powers, or abide future Claims.

Transfer by way of Mortgage.

Mortgagee not to be deemed an Owner.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That if the Ship or Vessel, or the Share or Shares of any Owner thereof who may be out of the Kingdom, shall be sold in his Absence by his known Agent or Correspondent under his Directions, either expressed or implied, and acting for his Interest in that Behalf, and such Agent or Correspondent who shall have executed a Bill of Sale to the Purchaser of the whole of such Ship or Vessel, or of any Share or Shares thereof, shall not have received a legal Power to execute the same, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, upon Application made to them, and Proof to their Satisfaction of the fair Dealings of the Parties, to permit such Transfer to be registered, if Registry de novo be necessary, or to be recorded and endorsed, as the Case may be, in manner directed by this Act, as if such legal Power had been produced ; and also if it shall happen that any Bill of Sale cannot be produced, or if, by reason of Distance of Time or the Absence or Death of Parties concerned, it cannot be proved that a Bill of Sale for any Share or Shares in any Ship or Vessel had been executed, and Registry de novo of such Ship or Vessel shall have become necessary, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, upon Proof to their Satisfaction of the fair Dealings of the Parties, to permit such Ship or Vessel to be registered de novo, in like Manner as if a Bill of Sale for the Transfer of such Share or Shares had been produced : Provided always, that in any of the Cases herein mentioned good and sufficient Security shall be given to produce a legal Power or Bill of Sale within a reasonable Time, or to abide the future Claims of the absent Owner, his Heirs and Successors, as the Case may be, and, at the future Request of the Party whose Property has been so transferred without the Production of a Bill of Sale from him or from his lawful Attorney, such Bond shall be available for the Protection of his Interest, in addition to any Powers or Rights which he may have in Law or Equity against the Ship or Vessel, or against the Parties concerned, until he shall have received full Indemnity for any Loss or Injury sustained by him.

XLV. And be it enacted, That when any Transfer of any Ship or Vessel, or of any Share or Shares thereof, shall be made only as a Security for the Payment of a Debt or Debts, either by way of Mortgage or of Assignment to a Trustee or Trustees for the Purpose of selling the same for the Payment of any Debt or Debts, then and in every such Case the Collector and Comptroller of the Port where the Ship or Vessel is registered shall, in the Entry in the Book of Registry, and also in the Endorsement on the Certificate of Registry in manner herein-before directed, state and express that such Transfer was made only as a Security for the Payment of a Debt or Debts, or by way of Mortgage, or to that Effect ; and the Person or Persons to whom such Transfer shall be made, or any other Person or Persons claiming under him or them as a Mortgagee or Mortgagees, or a Trustee or Trustees only, shall not by reason thereof be deemed to be the Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel, Share or Shares thereof, nor shall the Person or Persons making such Transfer be deemed by reason thereof to have ceased to be an Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel, any more than if no such Transfer had been made, except so far as may be necessary for the Purpose of rendering the Ship or Vessel, Share or Shares, so transferred, available, by Sale or otherwise, for the Payment of the Debt or Debts for securing the Payment of which such Transfer shall have been made.

XLVI. And be it enacted, That when any Transfer of any Ship or Vessel, or of any Share or Shares thereof, shall have been made as a Security for the Payment of any Debt or Debts, either by way of Mortgage or of Assignment as aforesaid, and such Transfer shall have been duly registered according to the Provisions of this Act, the Right or Interest of the Mortgagee or other Assignee as aforesaid shall not be in any Manner affected by any Act or Acts of Bankruptcy committed by such Mortgagor or Assignor, Mortgagors or Assignors, after the Time when such Mortgage or Assignment shall have been so registered as aforesaid, notwithstanding such Mortgagor or Assignor, Mortgagors or Assignors, at the Time he or they shall so become bankrupt as aforesaid, shall have in his, her, or their Possession, Order, and Disposition, and shall be the reputed Owner or Owners of the said Ship or Vessel, or the Share or Shares thereof so by him or them mortgaged or assigned as aforesaid, but such Mortgage or Assignment shall take place of and be preferred to any Right, Claim, or Interest which may belong to the Assignee or Assignees of such Bankrupt or Bankrupts in such Ship or Vessel, Share or Shares thereof, any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander-in-Chief of any of Her Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories, and they are hereby respectively authorized and required, if any Suit, Information, Libel, or other Prosecution or Proceeding of any Nature or Kind whatever shall have been commenced or shall hereafter be commenced in any Court whatever in any of the said Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories respectively touching the Force and Effect of any Register granted to any Ship or Vessel, upon a Representation made to any such Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander-in-Chief, to cause all Proceedings thereon to be stayed, if he shall see just Cause so to do, until Her Majesty's Pleasure shall be known and certified to him by Her Majesty, by and with the Advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council; and such Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander-in-Chief is hereby required to transmit to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to be laid before Her Majesty in Council, an authenticated Copy of the Proceedings in every such Case, together with his Reasons for causing the same to be stayed, and such Documents (properly verified) as he may judge necessary, for the Information of Her Majesty.

XLVIII. VII. And be it enacted, That the Duties and Drawbacks by this Act imposed and allowed shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, and shall be ascertained, raised, levied, collected, paid, and recovered, and allowed and applied or appropriated, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for the general Regulation of the Customs.

VIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the Advice of Her Privy Council, by Her Order in Council, from Time to Time to order and direct that there shall be levied and collected any additional Duty, not exceeding One Fifth of the Amount of any existing Duty, upon all or any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of any Country which shall levy higher or other Duties upon any Article the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of any of Her Majesty's Dominions than upon the like Article the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of any other Foreign Country, and in like Manner to impose such additional Duties upon all or any Goods when imported in the Ships of any Country which shall levy higher or other Duties upon any Goods when imported in British Ships than when imported in the national Ships of such Country, or which shall levy higher or other Tonnage or Port or other Duties upon British Ships than upon such national Ships, or which shall not place the Commerce or Navigation of this Kingdom upon the Footing of the most favoured Nation in the Ports of such Country, and either to prohibit the Importation of any manufactured Article the Produce of such Country in the event of the Export of the raw Material of which such Article is wholly or in part made being prohibited from such Country to the British Dominions, or to impose an additional Duty, not exceeding One Fifth as aforesaid, upon such manufactured Article, and also to impose such additional Duty in the event of such raw Material being subject to any Duty upon being exported from the said Country to any of Her Majesty's Dominions ; and all Duties imposed by any such Order shall be deemed to be Duties imposed by this Act.

Additional Duties to be levied on Foreign Merchandize, &c.

IX. And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty-ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to carry into effect a Convention of Commerce concluded between His Majesty and the United States of America, and a Treaty with the Prince Regent of Portugal, divers Provisions were made respecting the Duties payable and the Bounties and Allowances to be granted upon the Importation and Exportation of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize into or from the United Kingdom in Vessels of the United States and in Portuguese Vessels, and respecting the Repayment to certain Corporations, Bodies Politic and Corporate, and sundry other Persons, of the Amount of the Sums of Money of which they would be deprived by means of the said Act, and it was thereby enacted that the said Act should continue in force so long as the Convention therein recited between His said late Majesty and the United States of America, and the Treaty therein recited between His said late Majesty and His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Portugal, and 59 G. 3. c. 54. to apply to all Foreign Powers as well as United States and Portugal, and to Duties on Goods as well as on Ships.

‘ so long as any Treaty to be made with any Foreign Power with the similar Provisions therein-before recited, should respectively continue in force: And whereas, subsequently to the Enactment of the said recited Act, Her Majesty and Her Royal Predecessors have made and concluded with divers Foreign Powers Treaties containing Provisions similar to those recited in the said recited Act, and Doubts have arisen whether, according to the true Construction thereof, the said Act doth apply and extend to the Trade and Shipping of such other Foreign Powers, and whether the same applies to differential Duties or Charges on Goods imported or exported in Foreign Ships as well as to differential Duties and Charges on Foreign Ships, and it is expedient that such Doubts be removed;’ be it therefore enacted and declared, That from and after the Ratification of any Treaty heretofore made by Her Majesty or any of Her Royal Predecessors subsequently to the Enactment of the said Act, or of any Treaty which may hereafter be made by Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, with any such Foreign Power, in which Treaty has been or shall be contained Provisions similar to those recited in the said recited Act, all and every the Provisions, Clauses, Matters, and Things in the said recited Act contained shall apply and extend to the Trade and Shipping of such Foreign Powers respectively as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as to the Trade and Shipping of the said United States and of the said Kingdom of Portugal, and also shall apply and extend to differential Duties or Charges on Goods imported or exported in the Ships of such Foreign Powers as well as to differential Duties on the Ships of such Foreign Powers.

Recited Act not to be construed as granting Powers beyond subsisting Treaties.

X. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted and declared, That the said recited Act doth not extend, and shall not be construed to extend, to grant to or to confer upon the Trade or Shipping of the said United States, or of the said Kingdom of Portugal, or of any other Foreign Power, or to the Subjects of such States or Kingdom, or of any such Foreign Power as aforesaid, any other or greater Advantage than such as shall have been stipulated for by and granted to the said United States, the said Kingdom of Portugal, or any such other Foreign Power, by the respective Treaties subsisting and in force between them respectively and Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, or Her Royal Predecessors, but that the said Act shall be so construed and applied as to give full and complete Effect to such respective Treaties so long as the same shall respectively remain in force, and is to provide such, and only such, Indemnity as therein mentioned to such Bodies Politic and Corporate, and other Persons as are therein mentioned, for such Losses as they shall respectively sustain by the Execution of such respective Treaties,

Her Majesty, with Advice of Privy Council, to declare the Powers with whom Treaties are subsisting.

XI. And for the Prevention of Uncertainty herein, be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, by any Order or Orders to be by Her or Them made, with the Advice of Her or Their Privy Council, and published in the London Gazette, from Time to Time to declare what are the Foreign Powers with which any such Treaty or Treaties as aforesaid is or are subsisting, and this present Act and the said recited Act shall apply and shall be deemed from the Time of the Ratification of any such Treaties to have been applicable to the Trade and Shipping of such Foreign Countries as shall be so mentioned in any such Order or Orders in Council as aforesaid, so long as any such Order or Orders shall continue unrevoked, and no longer.

Lords of Treasury may reduce Duties on Ships or Goods of Countries under Reciprocity.

XII. And be it enacted, That in any Case where any Treaty is in force between Her Majesty and any Foreign State, containing any Stipulations that no higher Duties or Charges shall be levied on the Vessels or Produce of such Foreign State, or upon Goods exported or imported in the Vessels of such Foreign State than on British Vessels or Produce, or upon the like Goods exported or imported in British Vessels, or any direct or indirect Stipulations to the like Effect, or for the like Objects, or any of them, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Two or more of them, from Time to Time to give Directions that all Duties or Charges imposed by any Act passed after the Tenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and forty-two upon the Vessels of such Foreign State entering or leaving any Port of Her Majesty's Dominions, or upon Articles of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the Dominions of such Foreign State, or upon any Articles imported into the United Kingdom in Vessels of such Foreign State, or upon any Articles (or any particular Classes of Articles) exported from the United Kingdom (or exported from the United Kingdom to any particular Place or Places), shall be reduced to the same Rates as are in the like Cases imposed upon British Vessels, or upon the like Articles of British Growth, Produce, or Manufacture, or upon the like Articles imported into or exported from the United Kingdom in British Vessels, or to give so much of the said Directions as the Case may require.

XIII. And be it enacted, That all Manufactures of Gibraltar, Malta, and Heligoland made of Materials of Foreign Produce liable to Duty upon Importation into the United Kingdom, upon which no such Duty has been paid, or upon which Drawback of such Duty has been allowed in the United Kingdom, shall, for the Purposes of Duty, be deemed and taken to be the Produce of and imported from a Foreign Country.

Manufactures of Gibraltar, &c. from Foreign Materials deemed Foreign.

XIV. 'And whereas a Treaty has been concluded between Her Majesty and the United States of America, dated the Ninth Day of August in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-two, whereby it is stipulated that all the Produce of the Forest in Logs, Lumber, Timber, Timber Boards, Staves, or Shingles, or of Agriculture, not being manufactured, grown on any of those Parts of the State of Maine watered by the River Saint John or by its Tributaries, of which Fact reasonable Evidence shall, if required, be produced, shall have free Access into and through the said River and its Tributaries having their Source within the State of Maine to and from the Seaport at the Mouth of the River Saint John, and to and round the Falls of the said River, either by Boats, Rafts, or other Conveyance, and that when within the Province of New Brunswick the said Produce shall be dealt with as if it were the Produce of the said Province: And whereas it is the Intention of the High Contracting Parties to the said Treaty that the aforesaid Produce should be dealt with as if it were the Produce of the Province of New Brunswick.' be it therefore enacted, That the Produce in the said recited Treaty and hereinbefore described shall, so far as regards all Laws relating to Duties, Navigation, and Customs in force in the United Kingdom, or in any of Her Majesty's Dominions, be deemed and taken to be and be dealt with as the Produce of the Province of New Brunswick: Provided nevertheless, that in all Cases in which Declarations and Certificates of Production or Origin, and Certificates of Clearance, would be required in respect of such Produce if it were the Produce of New Brunswick, similar Declarations and Certificates shall be required in respect of such Produce, and shall state the same to be the Produce of those Parts of the State of Maine which are entered by the River Saint John or by its Tributaries.

Certain Produce of the State of Maine to be treated as the Produce of New Brunswick.

XV. And be it enacted, That upon the Exportation from the United Kingdom of any Foreign Rice or Paddy which shall have been cleaned therein, and which shall have paid the Duties payable on the Importation thereof, there shall be allowed and paid for every Hundred Weight thereof a Drawback equal in Amount to the Duty paid on every Four Bushels of the rough Rice or Paddy from which the same shall have been cleaned.

Drawback on the Exportation of Foreign Rice or Paddy.

XVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That such Drawback upon Rice so exported shall be paid and allowed only upon such clean Rice as shall be deposited for the Purpose of Exportation, within One Calendar Month from the Day on which the Duty thereon had been paid, in some Warehouse in which Rice may be warehoused on Importation without Payment of Duty, and shall there remain secured until duly shipped to be exported from such Warehouse: Provided also, that the Exporter of such Rice shall make Declaration before the Collector or Comptroller that the Rice so warehoused for Exportation was cleaned from the rough Rice or Paddy upon which the Duties had been so paid.

Conditions on which such Drawback is to be paid.

XVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Importer of any Goods subject to any Duties of Customs to warehouse such Goods upon the first Entry thereof, under the Laws in force for the warehousing of Goods, without Payment of Duty upon such first Entry, and that all Goods which shall have been so warehoused before the Commencement of any such Duties, and shall remain so warehoused after the Commencement of the same, shall become liable to such Duties in lieu of all former Duties.

Warehousing of Goods.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That for the Purposes of this Act the Cape of Good Hope, and the Territories and Dependencies thereof, shall be deemed to be within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter, and the Island of Mauritius shall be deemed to be one of Her Majesty's Sugar Colonies, and placed upon the same Footing in all respects as Her Majesty's Islands in the West Indies.

Cape of Good Hope deemed to be within Limits of Charter; Mauritius as West Indies.

Produce of Limits of Charter imported from Malta or Gibraltar.

XIX. And be it enacted, That all Goods the Produce of Places within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter having been imported into Malta or Gibraltar from those Places in British Ships shall, upon subsequent Importation into the United Kingdom direct from Malta or Gibraltar, be liable to the same Duties as the like Goods would respectively be liable to if imported direct from some Place within the Limits of the said Charter.

An Account of the Amount of hereditary Revenues of the Crown to be kept separate.

XX. ' And whereas by the Consolidation of the different Branches of the public Revenue, and of the several Duties payable on the Importation or Exportation of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, and the Appropriation thereof, as directed by the several Acts in force in England, the hereditary and temporary Revenues of the Crown of Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, and of other Duties upon Goods, Wares, and Merchandize arising in England, are not now kept distinct and separate at the several Offices, but have become blended with other Duties of Customs and Tonnage both in the Collection and Appropriation thereof: And whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for ascertaining the annual Amount of what such hereditary Revenues would have produced in case the same had not been so consolidated, and that an Account should hereafter be kept of such annual Amount; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, shall cause to be prepared and kept an Account of what such hereditary Revenue arising in England would have amounted to in case the same had not been and was not consolidated and collected with other Duties of Customs and Tonnage in the Collection and Appropriation thereof, in such Manner and Form as shall appear to the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being best adapted to ascertain such Amount, which Account the said Commissioners for the Time being are hereby required to make out, or cause to be made out, and laid before Parliament, together with the public Accounts directed to be laid before Parliament, pursuant to the Provisions of the several Acts for directing public Accounts to be laid annually before Parliament.

Not to affect the hereditary Revenue in Scotland.

XXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to affect or to alter the hereditary Revenue of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in Scotland, or other Revenues there granted to His late Majesty King George the Second during His Life, and reserved to Her present Majesty during Her Life by an Act passed in the First Year of Her present Majesty's Reign, but the same, and the Civil Establishment payable out of the same, shall continue to be paid in like Manner as heretofore, any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Duties to be paid into the Exchequer, and carried to the Consolidated Fund.

XXII. And be it enacted, That all the Monies arising by the Duties imposed by this Act (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted) shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer in Great Britain, and shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, except only as by this Act is specially provided, and shall be appropriated in like Manner and to the same Services as the Duties by this Act repealed would have been if this Act had not been passed.

Duties due before the passing of this Act, but levied after, to be deemed Duties under this Act, and appropriated as such.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That all Monies arising from any Duties of Customs, or any Arrears thereof, shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, or received from and after the passing of this Act, for or on account of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize whatever imported or brought into the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or exported from the said United Kingdom, although the Amount of the said Duties may have been computed and ascertained as such Duties have been computed and ascertained before the passing of this Act, and although the Goods, Wares, or Merchandize whereon any such Duties of Customs may have been charged or may be charged may have been imported into or exported from the United Kingdom before the passing of this Act, and although any Duties of Customs due and payable, or charged or chargeable thereon, may have been secured by Bond or otherwise on or before the passing of this Act; and all such Monies shall from and after the passing of this Act be appropriated and applied in like Manner and to the same Purposes as the Duties of Customs by this Act granted are directed to be appropriated and applied, except as is in this Act provided, any Act or Acts of Parliament, Law, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary notwithstanding; and that all Monies arising by any of the Revenues of Customs hereafter to be paid or allowed, either upon Bond or otherwise, either by way of Drawback, Bounty, Certificate, Premium, or Allowance, or by any other legal Document whatever, from and after the passing of this Act, although the Amount of the same shall have been computed and ascertained in like Manner in which they have heretofore been usually computed and ascertained, or shall have become due before the passing of this Act, shall and may be paid or allowed in like Manner by the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs out of any Monies in their Hands arising from the Duties of Customs respectively.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament. Alteration of Act.

' And whereas it may happen that after the re-packing into proper Packages of any Parcel of Goods which have been unpacked and separated or drawn off from the original Package in any of the Cases herein-before provided for, there may remain some surplus Quantities of the respective Parcels of such Goods which may not be sufficient to make or fill up any One of such proper Packages, or it may happen that some Part of such Goods when separated from other Parts may be such Refuse, or in so damaged a State, as to be worthless, or that the total Quantity of such Parcel of Goods may be reduced by the Separation of Dirt or Sediment, or by the Dispersion of Dust or otherwise: And whereas the Duties payable on such Goods may have been levied at a Rate having regard to a just Allowance for the State in which such Goods are imported, and it is not proper that any manufacturing Process should be performed in such Warehouse to the Detriment of the Revenue; be it therefore enacted, That after such Goods have been so re-packed in proper Packages, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Customs, at the Request of the Importer or Proprietor of such Goods, to cause or permit any such Refuse, Damage, or surplus Goods not contained in any of such Packages to be destroyed; and if the Goods be such as may be delivered for Home Use the Duties shall be immediately paid upon any Part of such Surplus as may remain, and the same shall be delivered for Home Use accordingly; and if they be such as may not be so delivered such Surplus as may so remain shall be disposed of for the Purpose of Exportation in such Manner as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs shall direct; and thereupon the Quantity contained in each of such proper Packages shall be ascertained and marked upon the same; and the Deficiency shall be ascertained by a Comparison of the total Quantity in such proper Packages with the total Quantity first warehoused, and the proportion which such Deficiency may bear to the Quantity in each Package shall also be marked on the same and added to such Quantity, and the Total shall be deemed to be the imported Contents of such Package, and be held subject to the full Duties of Importation, except as otherwise in any Case provided by this Act: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to accept the Abandonment for the Duties of any Quantity of Tobacco or Coffee, or Pepper or Cocoa, or Lees of Wine, and also of any whole Packages of other Goods, and to cause or permit the same to be destroyed, and to deduct such Quantity of Tobacco or Coffee, or Pepper or Cocoa, or the Contents of such whole Packages, from the total Quantity of the same Importation in computing the Amount of the Deficiency of such total Quantity.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That no Foreign Casks, Bottles, Corks, Packages, or Materials whatever, except any in which some Goods shall have been imported and warehoused, shall be used in the re-packing of any Goods in the Warehouse, unless the full Duties shall have been first paid thereon.

And be it enacted, That upon the Application to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs of any Person actually carrying on the Business of a Sugar Refiner in the Ports of London, Liverpool, Bristol, Hull, Greenock, or Glasgow, or any other Port to be approved of by any Three of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs by their Order to approve of such Premises as Bonded Sugar Houses for the refining of Sugar for Exportation only, on it being made appear to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners that the said Premises are fit in every respect for receiving such Sugars, and wherein the same may be safely deposited.

Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs may approve of Premises for refining Sugar for Exportation.

XLIII. And be it enacted, That on the Approval of any Premises as Bonded Sugar Houses as aforesaid it shall be lawful for the Officers of the Customs at the Ports respectively where such Premises are situated to deliver, without Payment of Duty, to the Party or Parties so applying as aforesaid, on Entry with the proper Officer of Customs, any Quantity of Foreign Sugar, or of Sugar the Produce of any British Possession, for the Purpose of being there refined under the Locks of the Crown for Exportation only; and that all Sugars so delivered shall be lodged and secured in such Premises, under such Conditions, Regulations, and Restrictions as the said Commissioners shall from Time to Time direct; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, by their Order, to revoke or alter any former Order of Approval of any such Premises.

On Approval thereof, Officers of Customs empowered to deliver Sugars Duty-free, to be there refined for Exportation only.

Order of Approval may be revoked.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That upon the Entry of the Sugar to be refined in any Premises approved of under the Authority of this Act, the Refiner on whose Premises the same is to be refined shall give Bond to the Satisfaction of the Officers of the Customs, in the Penalty of Double the Amount of the Duty payable upon a like Quantity of Sugar of the British Plantations, with a Condition that the whole of such Sugar shall be actually subjected to the Process of Refinement upon the said Premises, and that within Four Months from the Date of such Bond the whole of the refined Sugar and Treacle produced by such Process shall be either duly exported from the said Premises or delivered into an approved Bonded Warehouse, under the Locks of the Crown, for the Purpose of being eventually exported to Foreign Parts.

Refiner to give Bond.

XLV. And whereas some Sorts of Goods are liable in Time to Decrease, and some to Increase, and some to Fluctuation of Quantity, by the Effect of the Atmosphere and other natural Causes, and it may be necessary in some Cases that the Duties should not be charged upon the Deficiency arising from such Causes; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to make Regulations for ascertaining the Amount of such Decrease or Increase of the Quantity of any particular Sorts of Goods, and to direct in what Proportion any Abatement of Duty payable under this Act for Deficiencies shall be made on account of any such Decrease: Provided always, that if such Goods be lodged in Warehouses of special Security, or declared in the Order of

 ‘ contained in the said recited Acts should be altered and extended:’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, in the Execution of the Powers of leasing or agreeing to lease in the said recited Acts contained of any Land or Ground by the said Acts authorized to be leased for any Term not exceeding Ninety-nine Years, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, for the Time being, to demise and lease, or to enter into any Contract or Agreement for demising and leasing, all the Estate, Right, Title, and Interest of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in right of Her Crown, of and in any Portions of the Shore of the Sea or any Arms thereof, or of navigable Rivers or Lands, derelict or gained, or which may hereafter become derelict or be gained, from the Sea or any Arms thereof, or navigable Rivers, as by the said recited Acts is provided with regard to Land or Ground thereby authorized to be leased for any Term not exceeding Ninety-nine Years as aforesaid, except that when the Lessee or Lessees shall covenant and agree to make any Embankments, or do other Acts, in the Opinion of the said Commissioners necessary or expedient for the reclaiming any such Land, or to construct or erect Wharfs, Docks, or other Works thereon, or on any Part thereof, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners and for the permanent Improvement of the Value of the said Land, it shall not be necessary that such Lessee or Lessees should agree or enter into any Contract to erect on such Land, or any Part thereof, any Building or Buildings, other than and except as aforesaid.

Commissioners of Woods, &c. may demise or lease any Portion of the Shore of the Sea or navigable Rivers or Lands derelict or gained from the Sea, or hereafter to become so, for any Term not exceeding 99
 Years, where Lessee shall covenant to em-bank or to construct Docks, &c. thereon.

II. And be it enacted, That when any Leases shall be granted or Agreements entered into after the passing of this Act, in pursuance of the Powers in the said recited Acts or this Act contained, of any Land or Ground, and whereon or on any Part whereof any Person or Persons to whom any such Leases may be granted, or with whom any such Agreements may be entered into, may have erected any Buildings which in the Opinion of the said Commissioners were erected in Ignorance of the Crown’s Title to such Land, then such Leases may be granted or Agreements entered into in all respects as by the said recited Acts is provided, but without reference to or taking into consideration the Value of the Buildings so erected, and with reference only to the Value of the Land for Building Ground, either at the Time of the Erection of such Buildings, or at the Time of granting the said
 Lease, or of entering into the said Agreement, as the said Commissioners may think fit.

When any Persons have erected Buildings on Crown Lands in Ignorance of Title of the Crown, Commissioners to grant Leases as by recited Acts provided with reference only to Value of Land as Building Ground.

III. ‘ And whereas, in the Execution of the Powers of granting Leases in the said first-‘ recited Act contained, Leases have from Time to Time been granted of certain Parcels of ‘ Ground intended to be applied for Building Purposes; and by reason that the ultimate Value
 ‘ could only be ascertained and realized after a long Period, instead of one uniform Rent ‘ having been reserved in respect thereof during the whole Term of the Lease so granted as ‘ aforesaid, different Rents for different Portions of the Term for which such Leases were ‘ granted have been reserved therefore, as being the most beneficial Mode of disposing of ‘ such Ground for Building Purposes; and inasmuch as Doubts may be entertained as to the
 ‘ the Validity of such Leases, by reason of such varying Amount in the Rents reserved, ‘ instead of one uniform Rent during the Term granted, it is expedient that such Doubts ‘ should be removed;’ now therefore be it enacted, That all such Leases so granted as aforesaid, so far as regards any Doubts which may arise with respect to any such Reservation of Rent as aforesaid, shall be as from the making thereof absolutely confirmed, and shall poses, reserving

 Term, instead

 Rent, confirmed.

be taken to have been made within the Powers of the said first-mentioned Act contained, any thing therein to the contrary notwithstanding.

Commissioners, in future Exercise of Powers given of granting Leases for 99 Years, to reserve either one uniform Rent, or separate Rents for separate Parts of the Term.

IV. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, in the Exercise of the Powers in the said first-recited Act or in this Act contained with regard to Ground authorized to be let or agreed to be let for any Term not exceeding Ninety-nine Years for Building Purposes, where the Lessee or Lessees shall agree to erect Buildings thereon, or otherwise, as herein-before mentioned, or on any Part thereof, the said Commissioners may, if they shall think fit, either reserve one uniform Rent in respect thereof, or may reserve separate Rents for separate Parts of the Term demised or agreed to be demised, varying in such Manner as may be determined on by the said Commissioners for the Time being, instead of one uniform Rent during the said Term; but all and every the Leases or Agreements for Leases by the said Act or this Act authorized to be granted or entered into shall in all respects be made and entered into in the Manner and subject in all respects as by the said first-recited Act is provided, except as far as the Terms and Provisions of the said first-recited Act, as to the granting and making such Leases and Agreements as aforesaid, are hereby altered or extended.

Where any Licence or Waiver of Forfeiture reserved in any Lease of the Land Revenues of the Crown shall be given by the Commissioners, such Licence, &c. shall extend only to the Breach of the particular Covenant, and not prevent Proceeding for subsequent Breach.

V. And be it enacted, That where any Licence or Waiver of any Forfeiture or Power of Re-entry reserved in any Lease heretofore granted or hereafter to be granted of the Possessions or Land Revenues of the Crown shall at any Time after the passing of this Act be given by the said Commissioners or any Two of them, (which they are hereby authorized to do, by any Memorandum in Writing, without Stamp,) every such Licence or Waiver shall, unless otherwise expressed, only extend to the actual Breach of the particular Covenant or Condition in respect of which the same is given, or to any specific Breach of any Proviso or Covenant made or to be made, but not so as to prevent any Proceeding for any subsequent Breach or Omission (unless otherwise specified in such Licence), or to the actual Assignment, Under-lease, or other Matter thereby specifically authorized to be done; and all Rights under Covenants and Powers of Forfeiture and Re-entry in the Lease contained shall remain in full force and virtue, and shall be available as against any subsequent Breach of Covenant or Condition, Assignment, Under-lease, or other Matter not specifically authorized or made dispunishable by such Licence or Waiver, in the same Manner as if no such Licence or Waiver had been given; and the Condition or Right of Re-entry shall be and remain in all respects as if such Licence or Waiver had not been given, except in respect of the particular Matter waived or authorized to be done or omitted.

Commissioners may accept a Surrender of any Lease, and grant separate Leases of the Hereditaments so surrendered, and apportion the Rent reserved by the surrendered Lease;

VI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being, in the Execution of the Powers contained in the said Act passed in the Tenth Year of King George the Fourth, to accept a Surrender of any Lease of any of the Possessions or Land Revenues of the Crown, and to grant separate Leases of the Hereditaments so surrendered, for the Residue of the Term for which such surrendered Hereditaments were held, and to apportion the Rent reserved in or by any such surrendered Lease, as they shall think fit; and any Leases which may heretofore have been made on any such Surrender as aforesaid, and which might have been made if this Act had passed, are (so far as relates to any Question as to the Validity of any such Surrender and Re-grant) hereby confirmed.

and whenever a Surrender shall be made for the Purpose of taking a new Lease, the new Lease shall be taken to be a Renewal of the surrendered Lease.

VII. And be it enacted, That whenever a Surrender shall be made of any existing Lease, for the Purpose of taking a new Lease or Leases by virtue of this Act, the new Lease or Leases shall be taken to be a Renewal of the surrendered Lease, within the Scope and Meaning of the Sixth Section of an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intituled An Act for the more effectual preventing Frauds committed by Tenants, and for the more easy Recovery of Rents and Renewal of Leases, so far as to render unnecessary the Surrender of any Under-leases previously to the granting of such new Lease or Leases, and to give full Effect to such new Lease in all respects, notwithstanding any Under-lease or Under-leases may not be surrendered.

Commissioners may relieve Tenants from Forfeiture by

VIII. And whereas in many of the Leases of Crown Lands there is contained a Covenant on the Part of the Lessee to insure the Buildings therein against Fire in the Names of the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues,

Works, and Buildings, and in many Cases such Covenants have not been strictly observed, by reason of the Changes of the said Commissioners, or otherwise; and it is expedient that the Lessees should be relieved from the Forfeiture incurred by such Non-observance of Covenants, and that some Provision should be made for facilitating the due Observance thereof in future; be it enacted, That where in any Lease heretofore made, or which shall at any Time hereafter be made, in pursuance of the Powers in the said Act of the Tenth Year of King George the Fourth or in this Act contained, there shall be contained a Covenant on the Part of the Lessee to insure against Fire the Buildings erected, or the Hereditaments therein comprised, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being, or any Two of them, at their Discretion, to release by Licence or Waiver, as herein-before is provided, the Tenant or Lessee from any such Covenant, whether Default has been made in the same or not, or for any particular Breach thereof; and where any such Insurance is covenanted to be made in the Names of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being, or in the joint Names of the same Commissioners and any other Person or Persons, or otherwise, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being, or any Two of them, at their Discretion, to designate in Writing any Person or Persons in whose Name or Names such Insurance is to be made in lieu of the Names of the said Commissioners for the Time being; and the Name or Names of such Person or Persons shall be in all respects equivalent to the Names of the said Commissioners for the Time being, for the Purposes of any such Insurance and Covenant, and shall so continue until such Designation as aforesaid shall be revoked in Writing, and a new Person or Persons appointed for the Purposes aforesaid by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being, or any Two of them; or any such Insurance may be made in the Name of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, as if they were a Corporation, or jointly in such Name and in the Name or Names of any other Person or Persons; and the Commissioners aforesaid, from Time to Time, by the Name of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, alone or jointly with any other Person or Persons, as the Case may be, shall sue and recover and receive under any Policy so effected as aforesaid, in all respects by such Name as aforesaid, and as if they were incorporated by such Name; and any Insurance made in the Name or Names of the Person or Persons so nominated as aforesaid, either solely or jointly with any other Person or Persons (as the Case may be), or in the Name of the said Commissioners as aforesaid, and either jointly or solely as aforesaid, and as the said Commissioners for the Time being, or any Two of them, shall direct, shall be and be deemed to all Intents and Purposes a Compliance with and Performance of any Covenant already entered into, or hereafter to be entered into, to insure in the Names of the said Commissioners for the Time being, either solely or jointly with any other Person or Persons, or otherwise.

reason of Non-compliance with their Covenants to insure Buildings in Names of the Commissioners for the Time being;

and may designate in Writing any Persons in whose Names such Insurance is to be made instead of the Names of the Commissioners;

or any such Insurance may be made in Name of Commissioners of Woods, &c. as if they were a Corporation, or jointly in such Name and the Names of any other Persons; and such an Insurance shall be deemed a Compliance with the Covenant.

IX. And whereas by the Act of the Thirty-eighth Year of His late Majesty King George the Third, for the Redemption of the Land Tax, the Tenants of Crown Lands were excepted from the general Preference in purchasing or redeeming the Land Tax therein given to Persons having any Estate or Interest in Lands or Hereditaments wherein any Land Tax was chargeable: And whereas by the Act of the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, for making further Provisions for the Redemption of the Land Tax, after mentioning that it might have happened that Tenants or Lessees of Crown Lands had redeemed the Land Tax charged thereon, and had transferred the Consideration for the Redemption thereof as if they had been empowered to contract for the same, it was by the last-mentioned Act provided that it should be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, for the Time being, in all such Cases to cause to be transferred to any such Lessees or Tenants so much Capital Stock as should be equivalent in Amount to the Stock transferred by such Lessees or Tenants for the Redemption of such Land Tax which ought not to have been contracted for, and thereupon His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, should be entitled to the Benefit of such Land Tax: And whereas by the aforesaid Act of the Tenth Year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth it was enacted, that it should be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land

Where a Tenant of Crown Lands has transferred or may hereafter transfer any Stock for Redemption or Purchase of Land Tax on such Lands in ignorance of the Exception in 38 G. 3., the Commissioners may transfer to such Tenant so much Stock as shall be a Compensation for the Stock transferred by such Tenant.

‘ Revenues to redeem the Land Tax charged on any Part of the Possessions of the Crown, and to purchase any Land Tax on any Part thereof which might have been redeemed or should be redeemed by any other Person or Persons, but such Provision was not to authorize any Person or Persons to purchase or redeem the Land Tax charged on any Crown Lands contrary to the Provisions of the said Act of the Forty-second Year of King George the Third: And whereas Lessees or Tenants of Crown Lands may have entered into, or may hereafter enter into, Contracts for the Purchase or Redemption of the Land Tax on such Lands, and may have transferred or may transfer to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt Sums of Three per Centum Bank Annuities, as the Consideration for the Purchase or Redemption of such Land Tax, in Ignorance of the Exception in the said Act of the Thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, herein-before referred to; and it is expedient that the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being should be empowered to reimburse such Tenants or Lessees, their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, as after mentioned, and that thereupon such Crown Lands as aforesaid should become exempt from Land Tax;’ be it therefore enacted, That in any Case where any Tenant or Lessee of any Part of the Possessions of the Crown to which the said Act of the Tenth Year of King George the Fourth or this Act relates shall have transferred, or at any Time hereafter shall transfer, any Sum or Sums of Stock into the Names of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, for the Purpose of purchasing or redeeming the Land Tax on the Crown Lands of which such Person was or shall be such Tenant or Lessee, and such attempted Purchase or Redemption shall be invalid or doubtful under the aforesaid Provision of the said Act of the Thirty-eighth Year of King George the Third, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being, with the Consent in Writing of the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, or of any Three of the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury for the Time being, by and out of the annual Income of the Land Revenues of the Crown, to purchase and cause to be transferred to any such Lessee or Tenant as aforesaid, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, so much Stock as, under all the Circumstances of the Case, shall, in the Judgment of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, be a due Compensation for the Stock so transferred by such Tenant or Lessee; and upon the Execution by the Party to whom such Stock shall be so transferred of an Instrument in Writing acknowledging the Transfer thereof (to be enrolled in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Enrolments), the Lands on which the Land Tax shall have been so attempted to be purchased or redeemed by such Tenant or Lessee as aforesaid shall become and be absolutely freed and discharged of and from the Payment of the Land Tax, and all Arrears thereof: Provided always, that during the Continuance of the Estate of any such Tenant or Lessee, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, by whom such attempted Purchase or Redemption of Land Tax as aforesaid shall have been made, Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, shall have and be entitled to a Rent-charge to be issuing out of such Lands the Land Tax whereof shall have been so redeemed, equal in Amount to the Land Tax redeemed; and such Rent shall be payable yearly, and shall be recovered by Distress as in case of Rent reserved on Lease.

Such Parts of an Estate near Millbank, Westminster, now vested in Her Majesty, as have not been required for Purposes of the Penitentiary to be under the Management of Commissioners of Woods, &c. as Part of the Land Revenues of the Crown;

X. ‘ And whereas it is expedient that such Parts of an Estate situate at or near Millbank in the City of Westminster and County of Middlesex, and now vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, as have not been required for the Purposes of the Penitentiary at Millbank, should be let on Building Leases, or otherwise advantageously disposed of;’ be it therefore enacted, That such Parts of the said Estate and Hereditaments at Millbank aforesaid as have not been used for the Purpose of the said Penitentiary shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being, in like Manner in all respects as the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which the said Act of the Tenth Year of King George the Fourth relates are under the Management of the same Commissioners under or by virtue of the last-mentioned Act, or any other Act or Acts now made or hereafter to be made; and the said Hereditaments shall be taken and considered as Part of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown to which the said Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty Majesty King George the Fourth relates; and every Grant, Lease, or Agreement of such Parts of the said Hereditaments, already made or entered into by the said last-mentioned Commissioners, is hereby confirmed, in all respects as if the same had been made or entered into after the passing of this Act.

and Grants, &c. already made confirmed.

XI. And whereas an Act was passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to authorize Her Majesty's Commissioners of Woods to grant Building Leases of the Royal Kitchen Garden at Kensington, and to form and improve other Royal Gardens; and to enable the said Commissioners to purchase Lands of Copyhold or Customary Tenure: And whereas another Act was passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty (Session 2), intituled An Act to empower the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods to form a new Opening from the Knightsbridge Road into Hyde Park, and a new Opening from High Street, Kensington, into an intended new Road across the Palace Green, and for annexing a Piece of extra-parochial Ground in the Royal Garden to the respective Parishes of Saint Mary Abbots Kensington and Saint Mary Paddington in several Portions: And whereas the Opening from High Street, Kensington, into the new Road across the Palace Green, contemplated by the last-mentioned Act, has been made, but the same being narrow and confined it is desirable and expedient that such Opening should be widened and enlarged; be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, for and on behalf of Her Majesty, and they are hereby empowered, with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of the United Kingdom, or any Three or more of them, to purchase a certain Piece or Parcel of Ground, Messuage or Tenement, and Buildings, with the Appurtenances, situate on the North Side of High Street, Kensington, in the County of Middlesex, known as the Grapes Tavern, and all subsisting Terms, Estates, Charges, and Interests therein, and to pull down such Buildings when so purchased, and to appropriate the Site thereof, or any Part thereof, towards widening the said Entrance or Approach from High Street, Kensington, aforesaid, into the new Road across the Palace Green aforesaid.

Commissioners of Woods, &c. empowered to purchase the Grapes Tavern at Kensington, for the Purpose of Improve-ments.

XII. And be it enacted, That all the Powers and Provisions contained in the herein-before recited Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, with reference to Contracts and Sales to be made to and with His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, or to and with the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, on behalf of Her Majesty, shall, so far as the same are applicable, extend and apply to the said Piece or Parcel of Ground, Messuage, and Buildings, with the Appurtenances, known as the Grapes Tavern, at Kensington aforesaid, and to the Owners or Occupiers thereof, or other Parties in anywise interested therein; and all the Provisions in the said Act as regards Stamps shall apply to this Act: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall authorize the said Commissioners to take or use the said last-mentioned Premises against the Consent of the Parties interested therein, and by the Act last herein-before mentioned authorized and empowered to convey the same.

Powers in 10 G. 4. c. 50. (as far as applicable) to extend to the said Premises.

XIII. And be it declared and enacted, That all Monies paid or to be paid by the said Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, for or incident to the Purchase of the Grapes Tavern, with its Appurtenances, aforesaid, and all Monies paid or to be paid by the said Commissioners for or incident to the Purchase of the Houses and Hereditaments in High Street, Kensington, aforesaid, described in the Schedule to the herein-before recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty (Session 2), and also all the Costs and Expences incurred or to be incurred by the said Commissioners in forming and completing Roads or Sewers upon or across or otherwise in appropriating and adapting for Building Purposes the Ground at or near Kensington, mentioned in the Schedule to the herein-before first-recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, shall be taken into account, and recouped to the Funds or Property under the Charge of the said Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, before any Surplus shall be deemed to have arisen or become applicable for the Purposes mentioned in the said last herein-before mentioned Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty.

All Monies paid by the Commissioners for said Premises, and for Purchase of Houses in High Street, Kensington, described in Schedule to 5 & 6 Vict. c. 19., and Costs of forming Roads, &c., to be recouped to Commissioners before any Surplus shall be applicable for Purposes of that Act.

[4th August 1845.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for facilitating the Administration of Justice in the Court of Chancery, whereby Power was given to the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Consent of the Master of the Rolls and the Vice Chancellor, or One of them, to make, from Time to Time, and at any Time within Five Years from the passing of the said Act, any Rules, Orders, and Regulations for the Purposes in the said Act mentioned; and it was thereby enacted, that all such Rules, Orders, and Regulations should be laid before both Houses of Parliament, if Parliament should be then sitting, immediately upon the making or issuing of the same, or if Parliament should not then be sitting, then within Five Days after the next Meeting thereof: And whereas another Act was passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, whereby it was enacted, that every such Rule, Order, or Regulation made in pursuance of the said recited Act should, from and after the Time in that Behalf to be appointed by the Lord Chancellor, with such Advice and Consent as aforesaid, and if no Time should be so appointed, then from and after the making thereof, be binding and obligatory on the said Court, and be of like Force and Effect as if the Provisions therein contained had been expressly enacted by Parliament; and it was thereby provided, that if either of the Houses of Parliament should, by any Resolution passed at any Time before such House of Parliament should have actually sat Thirty-six Days after such 3 & 4 Vict. c. 94.

' than the Number limited by the said Two last-recited Acts as the Number which it is ' lawful under the Provisions of such Acts to maintain and take care of within any One
 ' Lunatic Asylum: And whereas by an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His ' late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend an Act passed in the 1 W. 4. c. 13.

 ' Lunatic Poor which other District Lunatic Asylums now erected and established, or here' after to be erected and established, may respectively receive, maintain, and take care of,
 ' and to extend the Provisions of the said last-recited Act to the said other District Lunatic

 ' Provision contained in the said recited Act of the Session holden in the First and Second
 ' Years of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, or in any other Act or Acts, whereby
 ' the Number of Lunatic Poor to be maintained and taken care of, in a District Lunatic ' Asylum is in any Manner limited or restricted, shall be and the same is accordingly hereby ' repealed; and that notwithstanding any thing in the said last-mentioned Act, or in any ' other Act or Acts to the contrary, it shall and may be lawful to receive, maintain, and take ' care of, within every such District Lunatic Asylum, any Number of Lunatic Poor what-

 ' late Majesty King George the Fourth it was amongst other things enacted, that it should
 ' and might be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of ' Ireland, by and with the Advice and Consent of His Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, ' from Time to Time and at all Times, whenever and so often as should seem expedient to ' him or them so to do, to direct and order that any Asylum or Asylums for the Lunatic
 ' Poor in Ireland should be erected and established in any Place or in and for any District
 ' in Ireland, in lieu of or in addition to any Asylum or Asylums erected under the Authority ' of the therein and herein-before recited Act of the First and Second Years of King
 ' George the Fourth, and from Time to Time to alter or change the District or Places in ' or for which any such Asylum or Asylums shall have been or shall be erected under the ' Authority of the said recited Act or the Act now in recital: And whereas the said Act
 ' does not provide for the Enlargement or Extension of said District Asylums: And
 ' whereas the present Accommodation in District Asylums for Pauper Lunatics is insuffi' cient, and it is expedient that further Accommodation should be provided, so as to enable

 ' afflicted with Insanity, without which it is frequently found impossible to cure the Dis' order; be it enacted, That if it shall be deemed necessary, at any Time hereafter, to ' enlarge or extend the Buildings of any District Asylum for the Lunatic Poor in Ireland,
 ' or the Out-offices thereof, or to procure more Ground fit or necessary to be enjoyed
 ' therewith, then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord

Repeal of Part of 33 H. 8. c. 9.

‘ WHEREAS a Convention was concluded between His late Majesty King George the Fourth and the Emperor of Brazil, for the Regulation and final Abolition of the African Slave Trade, and signed at Rio de Janeiro on the Twenty-third Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty-six : And whereas by the said Convention it was agreed between the High Contracting Parties to adopt, for the Purpose and Period therein referred to, the several Articles and Provisions of the Treaties concluded between His said late Majesty and the King of Portugal on this Subject on the Twenty-second Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen and on the Twenty-eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, and the several explanatory Articles which had been added thereto, with the Instructions, Regulations, and Forms of Instruments annexed to the Treaty of the said Twenty-eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, and to appoint forthwith Mixed Commissions for adjudicating the Cases of Vessels detained under the Provisions of the aforesaid Convention of the Twenty-third Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty-six : And whereas such Mixed Commissions were accordingly appointed : And whereas an Act was passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, to carry that Convention into execution, intituled An Act to carry into execution a Convention between His Majesty and the Emperor of Brazil, for the Regulation and final Abolition of the Slave Trade : 7 & 8 G. 4. c. 74. And whereas on the Twelfth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and forty-five it was notified by the Imperial Government of Brazil to Her Majesty’s Government, that the British and Brazilian Mixed Commissions established at Rio de Janeiro and Sierra Leone would cease on the Thirteenth Day of the said Month of March ; but that the Imperial Government would agree that the said Mixed Commissions should continue for Six Months longer, for the sole Purpose of adjudicating the Cases pending, and those which might have occurred before the said Thirteenth Day of March : And whereas it has become necessary to provide for the Adjudication of the Cases of such Vessels detained under the Provisions of the said Convention of the Twenty-third Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty-six as were pending before the said Commissions or either of them and remained undecided on the said Thirteenth Day of March, and of the Cases of such other Vessels as may have been detained under the said Convention previously to the said Thirteenth Day of March, but had not then been brought in for Adjudication :’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent

Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the said Mixed Commissions established at Rio de Janeiro and Sierra Leone to proceed up to the Thirteenth Day of September in the current Year in the Adjudication of the Cases of such Vessels detained under the Provisions of the said Convention of the Twenty-third Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty-six as were pending before them or either of them and remained undecided on the said Thirteenth Day of March, and of the Cases of such other Vessels as may have been detained under the said Convention previously to the said Thirteenth Day of March, but had not then been brought in for Adjudication, in the same Manner and with the like Powers and Authorities in all respects as they possessed and exercised under the said Convention and under the said Act of Parliament.

Certain Decrees and Sentences of Mixed Commissions to be valid.

II. And be it declared and enacted, That any Decree or Sentence which may have been or shall be made or passed by either of the said Mixed British and Brazilian Commissions established at Rio de Janeiro and Sierra Leone, on any Vessel or Vessels captured and brought in before either of the said Commissions from the said Thirteenth Day of March last to the said Thirteenth Day of September ensuing inclusive by any Person or Persons in Her Majesty's Service acting under any such Order or Authority as aforesaid, is and shall be good and valid to all Intents and Purposes.

Part of 7 & 8 G. 4. c. 74. repealed.

III. ' And whereas by the said Convention of the Twenty-third Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty-six it was agreed and concluded by and between the High Contracting Parties, that at the Expiration of Three Years, to be reckoned from the Exchange of the Ratifications of the said Convention, it should not be lawful for the Subjects of the Emperor of Brazil to be concerned in the carrying on of the African Slave Trade under any Pretext or in any Manner whatever, and that the carrying on such Trade after that Period by any Person, Subject of His Imperial Majesty, should be deemed and treated as Piracy: And whereas it has become necessary, for the Purpose of carrying into effect the said Convention, that so much of the said Act of the Eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth as prohibits the High Court of Admiralty and the Courts of Vice Admiralty from exercising Jurisdiction over Vessels captured in virtue of the said Convention shall be repealed, and that further Provisions be made for the due Execution of the same; ' be it enacted, That so much of the said Act as prohibits the High Court of Admiralty or any Court of Vice Admiralty in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions from adjudicating on any Claim, Action, or Suit arising out of the said Convention, or as makes any Provision for barring any such Claim, Action, Suit, or Proceeding in the High Court of Admiralty or any of the said Courts of Vice Admiralty, shall be repealed.

VII. And be it enacted, That every Court of Vice Admiralty shall from Time to Time as shall be required by the Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, certify to the said Lord High Admiral or Commissioners the Name of every Ship or Vessel condemned in such Court of Vice Admiralty under this Act, and the Date of the Condemnation thereof; and the said Lord High Admiral or Commissioners shall once in every Year report to Her Majesty which of the Ships or Vessels condemned in the said High Court of Admiralty or in any Court of Vice Admiralty under this Act have been taken into Her Majesty's Service, and which have been broken up, and in each Case the Amount of the Price paid for the same or Sum for which the Materials were sold; and a Copy of every such Report shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Six Weeks after the same shall be received, if Parliament be then sitting, or if not then within Six Weeks next after the next Meeting of Parliament.

Reports of Vessels condemned to be laid before Parliament.

VIII. And be it enacted, That so much of the several Enactments set forth in an Act passed in the Fifth Year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend and consolidate the Laws relating to the Abolition of the Slave Trade, and in an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act to reduce the Rate of Bounties payable upon the Seizure of Slaves, and in an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the better and more effectually carrying into effect the Treaties and Conventions made with Foreign Powers for suppressing the Slave Trade, as relates to Persons giving false Evidence being guilty of Perjury; to maintaining and providing for captured Slaves pending Adjudication; to condemning Slaves as Forfeitures to the Crown; to rewarding the Captors with a Bounty on the Vessel as well as on the Slaves; to authorizing the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, if to their Discretion it shall seem meet, to order Payment of One Moiety of the Bounty where Slaves may not have been condemned or delivered over in consequence of Death, Sickness, or other inevitable Circumstance; to the Mode of obtaining such Bounties; to authorizing the High Court of Admiralty to determine as to doubtful Claims of Bounty, and also on any Question of joint Capture; and to enforcing any Decree or Sentence of any Vice Admiralty Court; and also the whole of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to amend an Act of the Second and Third Years of Her Majesty, for the Suppression of the Slave Trade, shall be applied, mutatis mutandis, to all Cases of Vessels detained and seized for carrying on the African Slave Trade in contravention of the said Convention.

‘ Volunteer Corps, in Great Britain or Ireland, and it is expedient that all such Persons should be indemnified;’ be it therefore enacted, That all Persons concerned in the advising, authorizing, or directing the issuing, or in the issuing of any Half Pay, or any Monies for Half Pay, or in the Application of any Money appropriated by the said Act for that Purpose, or in receiving or being concerned in the receiving any Portion of the Money so appropriated for such Half Pay, without requiring or taking the said Oaths or Declarations, or to or on account of any such Officers or Persons as aforesaid, shall be and are hereby fully exonerated and discharged from all Penalties, Forfeitures, Prosecutions, or Proceedings, in respect of any thing done in relation thereto, in all Cases in which such Half Pay or Payment for or in respect of such Half Pay shall have been or may hereafter be issued or received in conformity with the Provisions of the said recited Act or this Act, and the Usages heretofore established or observed in relation to the issuing, paying, and receiving of Half Pay in all other respects, except so far as relates to the demanding, requiring, or taking the said Oaths or Declarations; and all such Payments and Issues of Half Pay which shall have been or may be issued to any such Person as aforesaid shall be deemed valid and effectual Payments, and the Paymaster General, and all other Persons concerned in the issuing and paying the same, shall be and are hereby fully indemnified, and shall be and are hereby fully discharged and exonerated in respect thereof, in all Accounts relating to such Issues and Payments; any thing in any Act or Acts, or any Laws, Rules, or Regulations, relating to the issuing and paying of Half Pay, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Half Pay allowed to the Officers of the Manx Fencibles.

XXVI. ‘ And whereas the Royal Regiment of Manx Fencibles engaged to serve in the said Corps upon a Stipulation contained in the Letter of Service under which they were raised, that they should be allowed to receive any Half Pay to which they might be entitled notwithstanding their holding Subaltern Commissions in the said Corps; but no Provision has been made by Parliament for Payment of such Half Pay, and it is therefore expedient that Provision should be now made for the Arrears of Half Pay to such Officers as aforesaid:’ Be it therefore enacted, That Officers who were entitled to Half Pay, and who accepted or held Subaltern Commissions in the Royal Regiment of Manx Fencibles, shall, notwithstanding their having held the Full Pay of such Commissions, be entitled to receive the Arrears of such Half Pay for any Year or Time in which they shall not have been allowed to receive the same, upon making and subscribing a Declaration before any Person hereby authorized to administer a Declaration to Persons for the Purpose of receiving Half Pay, that they had not, in any Year or Time for which such Arrear is claimed, any Office or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under Her Majesty, besides their Allowance of Half Pay, save and except their Pay as such Subaltern Officers of the Royal Regiment of Manx Fencibles; and the making and subscribing the said Declaration shall, without making and subscribing any other Declaration, be sufficient to entitle such Officer to receive his Half Pay.

Half Pay Allowances to Chaplains of Regiments not being in possession of Ecclesiastical Benefices derived from the Crown.

XXVII. ‘ And whereas Chaplains of Regiments who have been placed upon Half Pay have not been allowed to receive such Half Pay in some Years, in consequence of being in possession at the Time of certain Ecclesiastical Benefices or Preferments, though the same were not in the Patronage of the Crown: And whereas it has been judged fair and reasonable that they should be allowed to receive such Half Pay, though in possession of Ecclesiastical Preferment, provided the same was private Patronage, and not derived from the Crown; and that they should also be entitled to receive the Arrears of Half Pay for such former Years as aforesaid:’ Be it therefore enacted, That all Chaplains who, after having been placed on Half Pay, shall have been refused or been unable to receive such Half Pay in any Year, in consequence of holding any Ecclesiastical Benefice not derived from or in the Gift of the Crown, shall be entitled to receive the Arrears of such Half Pay for such Year, upon making and subscribing a Declaration, before the proper Officer for administering Declarations to Persons for entitling them to receive Half Pay, that they held no Ecclesiastical Benefice or Preferment in any Year derived from the Crown, nor any Place or Employment of Profit under Her Majesty; and the making and subscribing the said Declaration shall, without making and subscribing any other Declaration, be sufficient to entitle such Chaplain to receive his Half Pay.

XXVIII. ' And whereas by the said recited Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of Her present Majesty the several Supplies which have been granted to Her Majesty as therein mentioned were appropriated to the several Uses and Purposes therein expressed, amongst which any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding Four hundred and fifty thousand Pounds in the whole was appropriated to be paid on account of Half Pay for the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-four, subject nevertheless to such Rules to be observed in the Application of the said Half Pay as in and by the aforesaid Act were prescribed in that Behalf: Now it is hereby provided, enacted, and declared, That so much of the said Sum of Four hundred and fifty thousand Pounds as is or shall be more than sufficient to satisfy the said Reduced Officers according to the Rules to be observed in the Application thereof, or any Part of such Overplus, shall and may be disposed of to such Officers who are maimed or have lost their Limbs in the late War, or such others as by reason of their long Service, or otherwise, Her Majesty shall judge to be proper Objects of Charity, or to the Widows or Children of such Officers according to such Warrant or Warrants under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, as shall be signed in that Behalf; any thing in this Act or the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

By 7 & 8 Vict. c. 104. a Sum was appropriated to be paid to Half Pay Officers, the Surplus of which is hereby authorized to be disposed of as Her Majesty shall direct.

XXIX. And as to the Sum of One hundred forty-one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight Pounds by this Act appropriated for defraying the Charge of Pensions to be paid to the Widows of Officers of Her Majesty's Land Forces as aforesaid, and as to the Sum of One hundred and five thousand Pounds by this Act appropriated for defraying the Charge of Allowances on the Compassionate List, of Allowances as of Her Majesty's Royal Bounty, and of Pensions to Officers for Wounds as aforesaid, it is hereby enacted and declared, That no Widow of an Officer of the Land Forces, and no Person claiming an Allowance on the Compassionate List, or of Allowances as of Her Majesty's Royal Bounty, shall have or receive any Part of the same without making and subscribing a Declaration to such Purport and Effect as shall be required in that Behalf by Her Majesty's Warrant directing the Issue of such Pensions and Allowances so to be received.

Widows and Persons claiming Pensions shall make the required Declaration.

XXX. And be it enacted, That every such Declaration shall and may be made and subscribed before any One or more of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, or before the resident Minister of the Established Church in any Parish in England, Scotland, or Ireland, or before any of the Persons appointed to examine Vouchers in the Office of the Paymaster General, in the Manner, and under the Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, specified in an Act passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty for the Abolition of unnecessary Oaths.

Declarations to be made as specified in 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 62.
