I am very sorry that you were misrepresented by the translator, and have written to the editor of the Asiatic Review requesting that a note be inserted to that effect. Permit me to observe that the statements were not charged with error, but merely designated as paradoxical.

Yours truly

Dear Professor Snouck Hurgronje

As the time of the Oriental Congress is approaching, my wife wishes me to communicate the hope that you will honour us by accepting the hospitality of this house for the period of the Congress, and to say that this invitation includes Mme Hurgronje, should she be coming with you.

Yours truly

D. P. Margoliouth

Aug. 6, 1928

Dear Professor Snouck Hurgronje

We are looking forward to the pleasure of seeing you here for the Congress.

On Wednesday Aug. 29 the British Government proposes to give a Luncheon to the Delegates at Christ Church, Oxford. The second toast proposed will be that of The Rulers of States represented by Delegates. The Committee request you to reply to this toast, and much hope that you will consent to do so.

We hope, too, that you will be willing to preside at the Islamic Section on the first morning (Aug. 28).

Yours truly

Aug. 24, 1928

Dear Professor Snouck Hurgronje

We are looking forward to seeing you here on Monday at the time you mention.

You should have no difficulty in catching the 12:52 train from Oxford on Sep. 1, reaching Paddington at 2:15. In order to make sure, we can deal with the place of the next Congress at the beginning of proceedings at the 11 o'clock meeting.

Yours truly

D. S. Margoliouth
