Abstract: National Flood Insurance Program premium rating system changes under consideration include a community rating system and a system to use revised FIRMs producing higher rates for existing policyholders, subject to a rate cap. The community rating system would be designed to recognize circumstances within local communities that mitigate or exacerbate the flooding risk, such as the inaction of a community in addressing flood problems or the performance of a community that goes beyond minimum NFIP floodplain management requirements. The use of revised FIRMs for existing policyholders would replace the current practice of allowing premium rates for such policyholders to be based on the map in existence at the time of construction so long as the construction met the requirements at that time.

Abstract: Under PL 93-288, the Federal Emergency Management Agency provides financial and technical assistance to States and local governments in their hurricane preparedness planning. Except for some instances, FEMA has provided 100 percent funding to designated States that have high risk hurricane hazard areas for the development of population preparedness and property protection studies. This proposed rulemaking will establish a plan for having States share the cost of these activities. These changes to 44 CFR 300.6 will affect only the hurricane preparedness portion of this rule; the earthquake hazards reduction portion will be revised in a separate concurrent rulemaking effort.

CFR Citation: 44 CFR 305; 44 CFR 302; 44 CFR 360; 44 CFR 301; 5 CFR 900

Legal Deadline: None

Abstract: The comprehensive aspect of the CCA process itself was not created by legislation or even by regulation; Presidential emphasis on grants consolidation and FEMA policy on integrating programs created the CCA. The cooperative agreement aspect of the CCA process is based on PL 95-224, the Federal Grant and Cooperative Agreement Act of 1977. Cooperative agreements are used when stimulating a public purpose (the multiple programs delivered in each CCA are aimed at stimulating public purposes, primarily civil defense). The Federal Civil Defense Act of 1950, as amended, authorizes the major portion of CCA programs and assistance dollars, and is therefore the major legislative authority underpinning the CCA process. Various Civil Preparedness Guides, primarily CPG 1-38 and CPG 1-3 address the CCA process and associated programs. However, a regulation would provide complete notice to States and interested parties and complete the policy and procedural requirements identified by the Office of General Counsel. Specific quantitative estimates cannot be cited.

CFR Citation: 44 CFR 59; 44 CFR 60; 44 CFR 61; 44 CFR 62

Abstract: Section 544 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1987 provides a new benefit to National Flood Insurance Program Policyholders: Payment for demolition or relocation of an insured structure if it is located "along the shore of a lake or other body of water and is certified by appropriate State and local land use authority to be subject to imminent collapse or subsidence as a result of erosion or undermining caused by waves or currents of water exceeding anticipated cyclical levels." FEMA plans to commission an investigation through the National Academy of Sciences (expected to take approximately 15 months) to provide a basis for regulations defining "imminent collapse" certification criteria and erosion zone management measures. In the meantime, FEMA is considering issuing interim administrative regulations dealing with other aspects of providing new benefits.
