REGULATIONS.

DELIVERY OF WORKS.

WORKS of Art intended for Exhibition must be delivered unpacked at the Gallery, or to the London Agents, Messrs. DICKSEE & Co., of 7, Duke Street, St. James's, London, S.W., from MONDAY, 14th, to WEDNESDAY, 16th AUGUST, both inclusive.

The following Liverpool firms will undertake to receive and deliver Works:

R. JACKSON & SON, 3, Slater Street, Liverpool.

H. JEFFREYS, Renshaw Street, Liverpool.

JOHN H. PARIS, 15 and 17, Leece Street, Liverpool.

The Agent's charges on Works not specially invited for Exhibition are payable by the Artist.

The utmost care will be taken of all Works of Art sent for Exhibition, but neither the Committee nor their Agents will be responsible for any loss, damage, or injury, whether in transit or whilst under their control, caused by fire or otherwise. Messrs. DICKSEE & Co. are prepared, if desired, to effect insurances against all risks, at a scale of fixed charges, which may be ascertained on application to them.

ENTRY FORMS AND LABELS.

A Form, which may be had on application, or a note (written only on the first and third pages) must be sent by post, addressed to the Curator at Liverpool, describing the Works and giving the Prices to be inserted in the Catalogue. Quotations and narratives will be subject to the approval of the Executive Committee, and should be sent in duplicate. The number of works submitted must not exceed four. At the back of each Picture should be written in full the name and address of the Artist, the title and price of the Picture and the number (if there are more than one) to which it refers on his list. Artists are also requested to repeat title, price, name and address, on a label so attached to the back of the frame by a string, that it will hang over the front of the Picture. Any ordinary linen label will answer the purpose. Works of Sculpture and examples of Decorative Art must be similarly labelled and marked so as to ensure identification. The strict attention of Artists to these regulations is earnestly requested, in order to ensure accuracy in the Catalogue.

FRAMES AND MOUNTS.

All Pictures must be suitably framed; round, oval, and other unusually shaped Pictures must have the frames rectangular in outside form, without projecting corners. Any but gilt frames, any admixture of black or colour in the frames, and any superfluous carving, may prevent the acceptance of Pictures. Water-colour Drawings with mounts are admitted, provided the frames are without projecting ornaments and the width of mount and frame does not exceed five inches; a DISTINCT preference will be given to gold mounts. Drawings with white mounts are not hung in the principal Water-colour room.

SALES.

Works intended for sale must be bonâ fide the property of the Artist. A commission of five per cent. upon the Catalogue price will be charged upon all Works sold whilst in the possession of the Committee, whether by the Artist or the Curator.

The quotation of a sale price by the Artist is to be regarded as giving full authority to the Curator to sell a work without further sanction from the Artist or his legal representatives.

A sale at the Catalogue price takes precedence of any offer, the acceptance of which has not reached the Curator.

The sale of a picture is held to include Copyright, unless the latter has been expressly reserved.

RE-DELIVERY OF UNSOLD WORKS.

Artists whose Works remain unsold at the close of the Exhibition are requested to forward instructions for the disposal of them to the Curator, as none will be delivered without the direct written authority of the Artist.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

No Work that has been exhibited previously in a Public Gallery in Liverpool is admissible.

The Exhibition is open from MONDAY, September 18th, 1905, to SATURDAY, January 6th, 1906.

CORRECTIONS FOR THE PRESS SHOULD BE ADDRESSED TO
E. RIMBAULT DIBDIN, Curator, Walker Art Gallery, Liverpool.

NOTICE.

---

The Committee endeavour to secure complete accuracy in the announcement of the Prices fixed by the Artists, but will not be responsible for any errors that may occur.

A deposit of not less than Ten per cent. is required to be paid on works directed to be marked as sold.

“Therefore it came to pass, that we saw fit to enter Sir Ensor’s room in the following manner. Lorna, with her right hand swallowed entirely by the palm of mine. All one side of her hair came down, in a way to be remembered, on the left and fairest side of my favourite otter-skin waistcoat; Old Sir Ensor looked much astonished.

“‘Ye two fools!’ he said at last, with a depth of contempt no words can express: ‘ye two fools!’

“‘May it please your worship,’ I answered softly; ‘maybe we are not such fools as we look. But though we be, we are well content, so long as we may be two fools together.’”

Sir Wyke Bayliss, P.R.B.A. £105 0

And now the time rushes on so fast that it is scarcely worth while to count the centuries as they go. A millennium passes, and there is no change. The same Christ in the centre—the same Agnus Dei round the frieze.—“These follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth.” Listen to the voices of two men, working at a mosaic in the apse of the Basilica of St. Prassede—a thousand years ago.

FIRST WORKMAN: Tell me now, for I have fallen into some error; ought there to be seven rows, or only six, of the pale red tesseræ, here, just above the brow?

SECOND WORKMAN: Seven, I learned it at Mount Athos, and am quite sure.

FIRST WORKMAN: It is weary work — this counting of tesseræ. I dream of it o' nights. One, two, three, four—one, two, three, four—one, two, and after all, a very little mistake will throw everything into confusion.

SECOND WORKMAN: Ah, well, the new fashion is coming in, of painting with a brush—and then, they say, every picture will be different.

FIRST WORKMAN: I fear me that the sweep of the brush will sweep us off the scaffold.
