Songs of Indian Life. 4.30 P. M.

MISS MABEL SIMPSON, ASSISTANT, NEWPORT HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

"THE WEAVER." Words by William Felter.
Music by Thurlow Lieurance.

The Poem is Indian in Nature. The Melody is a Crow Tobacco Dance Melody. The Planting of the Tobacco in the Spring is a Religious Ceremony. The Melody was sung by "Felix Bear," "In the Cloud," and "Sitting Eagle," and recorded by the author in January, 1912, on the Crow Reservation, near the Custer Battlefield.

"LOVE SONGS." FROM THE RED WILLOW PUEBLOS. Words by Edna Dean Proctor. Music by Thurlow Lieurance.

The Melody is one of the Red Willow Ceremonial Songs, and the words are from an Omaha Legend. When the young Indian feels the Spring of Love Dawn, he mounts the hill overlooking the valley where the camp is located, and calls upon the Flute to His Love. The Love Songs are played upon the Indian Flute, which is made of two pieces of Cedar, glued together with the pitch from the pine tree.
