ORGANIZE IN SUPPORT OF COOLIDGE

Local Republicans Form Club To Take Active Part In Campaign

Republican loyalty and admiration of Calvin Coolidge have resulted in Glendale in the formation of the "Coolidge Republican Club of Glendale," definitely organized, officers elected and aims outlined last night at an enthusiastic meeting in the auditorium of the Glendale Union High school.

The call to the meeting, signed by a group of representative Republicans of Glendale, was issued last week, and last night this group was joined by many more.

After the routine procedure of organization W. E. Evans was unanimously chosen as president. Mr. Evans has taken an active part in state and national Republican affairs and under his leadership the Coolidge Republican club of Glendale will undoubtedly rally all Republicans in Glendale and nearby communities.

Form Organization

Other officers elected are Mrs. John Robert White, first vice-president; Mrs. E. W. Hayward, secretary; Mrs. T. D. Watson, assistant secretary; J. C. Sherer, treasurer.

Previous to the election Mr. Evans had served as temporary chairman of the meeting and in that capacity appointed the following organizing committee: John Robert White, chairman; A. T. Cowan, T. D. Watson, J. C. Sherer, R. S. Person and Mrs. Harry Greenwalt. Mr. Cowan was chosen secretary of the committee and presented its report to the assembled company.

In addition to presenting the list of names to be voted on for officers, Mr. Cowan stated that the committee recommended that the organization be known as "Coolidge Club of Glendale." Further recommendation was that the president appoint as many second vice-presidents as he desired, and that he appoint publicity and financial committees.

Second Vice-Presidents

In complying with this recommendation Mr. Evans appointed as second vice-presidents all those whose names appeared on the call for the meeting and the names of all others who attended the meeting last night.

Second vice-presidents of the club are: Mr. and Mrs. Ed M. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Emery, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Hall, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hayward, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rattray, Mr. and Mrs. D. Ripley Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. White, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Whitling, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Toll, Mrs. W. E. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. John Robert White, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Stephen C. Packer, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Blackburn, Judge and Mrs. Sidney N. Reeve, Judge and Mrs. F. H. Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wilson, Mrs. Harry Green.

Borah Would Outlaw War as World Crime

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, today re-introduced in the senate his resolution outlawing war as a public crime against the law of nations.

Borah would bind all nations by treaty to punish "war breeders, instigators and war profiteers." He also proposed formation of an international code of peace, to be administered through an international court, modeled after the United States supreme court.

NEW GERMAN CRISIS

BERLIN, Dec. 20.—The worst financial crisis since the German republic was created faced the government today. Foreign Minister Luther applied for a new rent mark credit, but Currency Director Schacht flatly refused. Unless it can obtain credit the government will be unable to pay its employees at the end of the month.

PETITION DENIED

The petition presented to the City Council asking that Pacific avenue between Broadway and Colorado street be designated as a commercial district, was denied this morning. There was no argument on the matter.

Husband, Wife In Suicide Pact, Is Claim of Police

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 20.—Holding each other's hand and lying on the floor in their night clothing, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Whitney were found dead today in the back room of their grocery store here. Both died from bullet wounds which, apparently, were self-inflicted.

Theories of murder were scouted by police authorities, who said all indications pointed to a suicide pact. No messages or notes of explanation have been discovered.

A "jazz" dance record was found on the phonograph which, apparently, had been played a short time before, as the record cabinet was open. Everything else in the room was orderly and undisturbed.

AUTO CAMP CASE BEFORE COUNCIL

Action Relative to License Is Put Over Until December 27

Claiming that the place was being operated without a license, representatives of the West Glendale Protective association appeared before the City Council this morning and requested that the auto camp at San Fernando road and Riverdale drive be closed. This camp was sold last week. It was stated, to E. Holland, 1031 Western avenue, who has filed an application for a permit with the city clerk. This application has been referred to the city health officer for investigation, and it also requires the approval of the chief of police.

Some time ago W. Claire Anspach, attorney for the former owners, petitioned the superior court for a writ of review in this case. This was granted, and the council was restrained from taking any further action on the old license until an opinion was rendered.

Meantime the camp was sold to Mr. Holland, and in order that the issuance of the new license might be decided on its merits, at the suggestion of the city attorney, attorneys for the defense dismissed the writ of review, releasing the city from the order of the court.

Consequently, although the attorneys for the defense were acting in good faith, their client was technically violating the law, it is claimed.

After hearing several protests, the matter was laid over until December 27 at 10 o'clock.

Demands Action

The communication addressed to the council in the matter was signed on behalf of the association by R. H. Johnson, president; F. M. Sunda, secretary, and W. M. Lee, treasurer.

In addressing the council, Mr. Johnson demanded that action be taken at once, as the fact remained that the camp was operating without a license, agreements of the attorneys notwithstanding. Chief of Police Fraser was called in and asked for his opinion of the case. He stated that he had not had time to investigate the proposition, as the report had but recently been made to him.

During the interval of one week allowed, a thorough investigation of the affair will be made, and probably no action will be taken by the council regarding the closing of the camp, before the application comes up for hearing Thursday, December 27.

Lone Train Bandit Sought by Officers

CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—Police of Chicago, Milwaukee and cities along the north shore today were seeking the lone train robber who leisurely cleaned the pockets of three passengers and the flagman of the crack Pioneer limited train of $579, pulled the bell cord and escaped as the train entered the outskirts of Milwaukee.

TRADING WITH ENEMY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Senator Shortridge, Republican, of California, today introduced an amendment to the trading-with-the-enemy act, providing that the statute of limitation as a defense is suspended in cases of claims filed against insurance companies for unpaid amounts from losses or damages in the San Francisco fire of April 1, 1906.

REPUBLIC IS PLAINED BY GREEKS

Guns Thunder Last Salute as King George and Queen Sail Into Exile

PARIS, Dec. 20.—An important group of Greek army officers is preparing a proclamation of a Greek republic, said a dispatch to the foreign office this afternoon.

The dispatch said they desired the republic to be an accomplished fact before the national assembly meets.

Royal Family Leaves

ATHENS, Dec. 20.—The Greek government today assured the foreign legations that the departure of King George II was orderly.

The foreign diplomats were informed that the national assembly will soon meet to discuss the future status of the Greek government.

King George and Queen Elizabeth departed from Piraeus for Kusten, Roumania, late Wednesday afternoon on the Greek ship Daphne.

Premier Gounatas and M. Djuvara, the Roumanian minister, bade farewell to the royal couple. The attendants wept while Queen Elizabeth smilingly covered up her face. The king was obviously downcast.

Regent Is Named

Admiral Koundouriotis was to be sworn in as regent this afternoon.

Departure of the sovereigns took place without any untoward incident. It is generally believed King George will continue to live abroad indefinitely unless he returns as a private citizen.

King George, before leaving, received all the foreign diplomats. A twenty-one-gun salute was fired as the Daphne left Piraeus.

Assumes Regency

ATHENS, Dec. 20.—Admiral Koundouriotis today assumed the regency of Greece, on a decree signed by Colonel Plastiras, head of the Greek revolutionary committee.

"I am convinced that Greece will be saved," the regent told International News Service. "I believe there will be a republic which will insure order, tranquillity and reconciliation."

Station Demolished By Train; 11 Injured

BETHESDA, O., Dec. 20.—The Baltimore and Ohio passenger station was demolished and eleven persons injured today when ten cars of a Chicago-bound train left the track and crashed into the structure. Two men in the waiting room of the station were injured, one seriously.

Two big engines were pulling the train and it was thought these may have caused the track to spread as a switch point was reached. The smoker and day coach were thrown completely through the station.

Alvin McCormick and Arthur Mead, who were in the station, were caught beneath falling timbers. McCormick was badly crushed and injured internally. Other victims of the wreck recovered with cuts and bruises.

Chinese Bandit Dies Before Firing Squad

SHANGHAI, Dec. 20.—Sun Tei Yao, bandit chieftain, who startled the world by capturing a score of foreigners at Lincheng, died before a firing squad this afternoon at Tsao Chuang. He was charged with mutiny. Following the release of the prisoners Sun was made a general commanding the former bandits who, as part of their terms, were taken into the Chinese army. Recently he was ordered to Hupeh and refused to obey. He was persuaded to come to Tsao Chuang and there executed by orders of General Chang Pei Yuan.

INDEMNITY DEFEATED

PARIS, Dec. 20.—The government proposal for a small indemnity to government employees to help them meet the high cost of living was voted down by the Chamber of Deputies today. The vote was 331 to 200. Members of the left, amid much tumult, demanded even a higher indemnity than proposed by the government. There were shouted demands for the resignation of Minister of Finance De Lasteyrie.

Man Walks Self To Death Result Of Liquor Party

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 20.—To determine what killed Charles H. Stoughton, 23, bricklayer, who apparently walked himself to death, Coroner T. B. W. Leland today ordered an investigation. Stoughton, who died early today, had been ill since Sunday when, according to police, he attended a drinking "party."

Police, investigating Stoughton's death, said he had walked the floor constantly since Monday until the time of his death, being unable to sleep. Late Tuesday a physician was called and administered a sleeping potion but this had no effect and Stoughton kept up his incessant walk.

REBELS BEAT FEDERALS IN FIGHT

VERA CRUZ, Dec. 20.—Revolutionary forces under General Garza, General Gonzales and General Maycotte have again defeated the federals in the region of San Marcos, according to advices received by Huertista headquarters today.

Two thousand Yaqui Indians and General Lopez Ortiz, of General Martinez' federal staff, surrendered to the revolutionaries. The federals have abandoned San Marcos and retired to Munoz, on the Mexican railroad. General Sanchez' revolutionary forces now control both the Inter-Oceanic and Mexican railroads to Apizaco.

REBELS BEAT FEDERALS IN FIGHT

The telegraph conference between General Martinez, federal commander, and De La Huerta broke without result.

In the latest battle, two revolutionary columns under General Garza and General Gonzales attacked the federal front while Huertista cavalry under General Maycotte attacked General Martinez' flank.

The result, according to Huertista headquarters, was "an important victory for the revolutionaries."

The extent of the federal casualties is not known. Colonel Elizo Paz and Captain David Soto were killed. General Fernando Reyes was wounded.

Federals Entrench

The federals are throwing up strong entrenchments in the sectors of Munoz and Apizaco.

Revolutionary forces under General Garza and General Maycotte are passing forward, planning a "three sided attack" against the federals.

PLAN PURCHASE OF HOSPITAL SITE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The secretary of the treasury would be authorized in a bill introduced in the senate today by Senator Shortridge, Republican, of California, to acquire a site in San Francisco for erection of a new marine hospital, to cost not more than $1,500,000. ### GERMAN LOAN PARLEYS BREAK DOWN

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Negotiations for a commercial loan to Germany to meet her desperate economic situation have broken down and relief must come in some form of charity, in the opinion of high treasury officials, it was announced. Use of German products as collateral for commercial loans would not be acceptable to American bankers, unless priority would be given over reparations, officials said.

NAVAL PLANS OUTLINED IN BILL

Purchase of Land on Both Coasts Authorized In Britten's Measure

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The navy's program for purchase of land on the Pacific and Atlantic coasts for the development of shore establishments and the sale of land no longer needed was presented for congressional approval today in a bill introduced by Representative Britten, Republican of Illinois, a member of the house naval affairs committee.

Expenditures totalling $27,832,950 were proposed for improvements on the San Francisco bay. Lack of a supply station in San Francisco bay promotes constant extravagances and military weakness.

Navy's Need Told

"All military experts agree that the lack of a base of the Pacific coast, now so necessary, is a serious matter. Uncle Sam, in the Pacific, occupies the position of a man with many automobiles and not a single garage. The navy policy for the future permanent use of Mare Island navy yard for shipbuilding and fleet repair work should rest at rest the few, but rabid, objectors to an Alameda base, now so necessary for the navy's operations in the Pacific."

Provisions were made for a naval air station at Sand Point, Washington, and for the purchase of the town of Quantico, Va., as an addition to the marine station there.

The secretary of the navy also was authorized to acquire the following lands:

Will Purchase Land

For supply station at Brooklyn, N. Y., $330,000; marine flying field at Quantico, Va., $20,000; rifle range at Puget Sound, Washington, $30,000; air station at Chatham, Mass., $58,000; air station at Lakehurst, N. J., $18,000; air station at Galveston, Texas, $13,000.

Properties acquired during the world war and no longer necessary were ordered sold as follows: radio stations at Alpena, Mich.; Duluth, Minn.; Manistique, Mich.; Siasconset, Mass.; South Wellfleet, Mass.; Lents, Ore.; Point Isabel, Texas.

BUILDING NEARS ITS FINAL GOAL

Permits Start on Last Lap Of Ten Million Dollar Race For 1923

Glendale is coming down the home stretch on the last lap of the 1923 building record race.

The last quarter post is passed, and a steady gain is all that is needed to insure victory before the judges' flag falls at the end of the year, signifying the finish of the race.

Permits for the year yesterday passed the nine and three-quarter million mark, or $9,752,318. Of this amount, $530,759 is credited to the month of December.

"There is not the least bit of doubt," stated H. C. Vanderwater, municipal building superintendent, "that the ten million mark will be reached before the first of the year."

Coolidge Willing To Call Meeting On Limitations

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—President Coolidge is willing, as was the late President Harding, to call a new international conference to attempt limitation of submarines and aircraft at any time when conditions are such as to lead to a successful undertaking, it was stated today in official quarters.

Like Harding, however, President Coolidge does NOT consider that such time has yet arrived, consequently no steps are being taken at this time toward the summoning of such a conference.

ARMS REDUCTION PARLEY PLANNED

Britain Wants Coolidge to Call Meet to Discuss Air Force Slash

LONDON, Dec. 20.—Great Britain is willing to join a disarmament meeting of all nations, looking to limitation of aerial forces, if President Coolidge of the United States summons it, according to foreign office officials today.

It was pointed out that Ramsay MacDonald, leader of the labor party, may succeed Stanley Baldwin as premier and MacDonald is known to be in sympathy with any movement for disarmament.

So far the foreign office has not received any definite information about the reported conference except what was conveyed in press dispatches from Washington.

Whitehall, the seat of British officialdom, is convinced that MacDonald will greatly recognize to the soviet government if he continues in power as British premier.

BANKERS, MERCHANTS AND INDUSTRIAL LEADERS HAVE 'CONSERVATIVE OPTIMISM'

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—America faces one of its greatest post-war business years in 1924. A majority of business leaders look for "continued improvement" over 1923, regarded generally as a good year. The most pessimistic prediction looks to the new year with "conservative optimism."

This is the consensus compiled by International News Service from bankers, merchants and manufacturers from coast to coast. Business barometers cited in proof of the hopeful view are the conditions of stocks, the building boom, improvements and additions to railroad equipment, increased savings deposits, a rush for life insurance, sound employment conditions and the vastly improved conditions of the American farmer.

Good in 1923, Better in 1924, Belief

Albert H. Gary, chairman of the board of the United States Steel corporation, found business good in 1923.

"I look for it to be even better in 1924," he said. "There are no limits to the possibility of industry and business in the United States. American prosperity has by no means touched the highwater mark." A similar note is sounded by James H. Farrell, president of the United States Steel corporation, who believes America is "over-emphasizing the troubles of Europe."

Retail Trade Will Excel Past Year

Thomas E. Wilson, Chicago packer, said:

"We will have prosperity in 1924. Good business will prevail, provided business men give it an opportunity and continue to sound an optimistic note."

Pacific Coast Outlook Is Excellent

Life insurance applications increased 25 per cent and a better outlook for 1924 is expected by Robert D. Lay, vice-president of the National Life Insurance company of Chicago.

"Applications for life insurance are an infallible index of the financial situation," he said. "The past few years have been very low."

Government Officials Are Optimistic

Edgar Sensesich of Portland, president of the Oregon Bankers' association, looks forward to an "even more prosperous 1924" for Oregon, "which experienced the most satisfactory business year of its history in 1923."

Want Safety Signal
On West Park Avenue
Plans for the installation of a safety signal at the crossing of West Park avenue are discussed in a letter received by the Glendale Chamber of Commerce from T. H. Williams, assistant general manager of the Southern Pacific, in which he points out, however,
that he has looked into the question and finds that the constant switching at that crossing would keep the signal ringing constantly and would tend to make those who use the crossing disregard the signal.
The matter will be taken up by the recently appointed transportation committee of the Chamber of Commerce, in an effort to secure the immediate installation of a signal.

SOCIAL EVENTS
Dinner Dance
Mr. and Mrs. Hugo C. Oltsch of 346 Cortez street had the very great pleasure of being surrounded by about forty old-time friends and neighbors, when they entertained at an elaborate dinner dance in Los Angeles on Tuesday night, celebrating their twentieth wedding anniversary.
The banquet room was elaborately decorated, American Beauty roses being used on the table, with a unique decoration in china, to indicate the fact that it was their china wedding.
The wedding vows taken twenty years ago were repeated, Rev.
Francis Wright performing the ceremony, while Harry Hahn, well-known vocalist, sang. The ring ceremony was used, and the ring of twenty years ago presented the bride with a diamond ring.
At the banquet table, Mrs. Marieger Wright, a childhood friend of the bride in South Ind., spoke reminiscently of former days and presented Mr. Oltsch with a diamond stud, the gift of
Mrs. Oltsch.
Gifts of beautiful and rare china were presented by the guests to
Mr. and Mrs. Oltsch.
Mrs. Mabel Metzger Wright
played a number of her own compositions, and Mr. Hahn sang several selections. An orchestra played during dinner and for the dancing later.

Literary Group
The spirit of service and the giving to people who really need were thoughts brought yesterday afternoon to the Literature Section of the Tuesday Afternoon club by Mrs. F. W. Bolton and Mrs. H. D. Fortier.
Mrs. Bolton spoke on "The Christmas Spirit" and Mrs. Fortier on "Christmas Giving."
Other interesting numbers on the holiday program were Christmas carols sung by three little girls, and a reading by Mrs. Rowe with vocal number by Mrs. J. M.
Cates.
The three little girls who sang were Barbara Sawyer, Marjorie Hopkins and Naida Taylor. Accompanied by Mrs. Helen Sawyer they sang "Silent Night" and
"Tark, the Herald Angels Sing."
Mrs. Cates, who was accompanied by Mrs. L. E. Starkey, sang
"Joy to the World."
Hostesses were Mrs. Homer
Lockwood and Mrs. J. A. Bolton.
The next meeting of the club will be on January 2 and the program will be announced in the club bulletin, now being printed.

Rodaires Meet
Miss Zilda Cross of West Windsor road, entertained last night with a delightful informal Christmas party the members of the Rodaire club.
Christmas decorations in red and green were artistically used in arranging the rooms for the occasion.
A feature of the evenings entertainment was the presentation of Christmas gifts to the one whose number they had drawn at the last meeting. Late in the evening a dainty luncheon was served.
Those present included, Mesdames Ray Engle, Herman Peen-er, Robert Godar, Paul McCowan,
James McCowan, F. M. Duffey,
Misses Eve Brehme, Henrietta
Meck and the hostess Miss Zilda Cross.
The meetings of the club will be postponed for two weeks on account of the holiday season. The next meeting will be held January 9, at the home of Mrs. F. M. Duffe at 209 West Magnolia.

QUICK THINKING SAVES ROBINSON
Mayor Springs Novel Excuse To Ticket Sellers of Local Music Club
Glendale's singing mayor, Spencer Robinson, has been cited by the Glendale Music club for honorable mention for originality among Glendale men. This is how the mayor won the honor. Yesterday, when the throngs of Glendale realtors poured out of the Egyptian Village after luncheon, they were met by a delegation of Glendale Music club women selling the Christmas memberships.
According to Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, club president, the unannounced excuse offered by her was, "I'll have to ask my wife."
Now it happened that Mrs. Robinson, who has bought six tickets herself, was present among the ticket sellers, so when the mayor came along it was necessary for him to think quickly in the face of the feminine contingent that met him.
"Has To Think Quick"
On one arm he carried his overcoat; on the other arm his wife came and in his hands two large packages. In front of him stood his wife pleading, "Spencer, YOU must buy one of these $4 tickets," and echoing was a chorus of feminine voices, "Yes, YOU must!"
"I can't," stammered the singing mayor. "Can't you see my hands are full of food for my dog?"
Further count made by Mrs. Jones showed that "Bill" Bode and A. J. Shepard, having no wives to ask if they might spend $4, each bought two tickets, while Harry MacBain, Dr. C. S. Steelman, Julius Kranz and Edwin Smith decided to take real chances and bought tickets with the decision to "tell the wife" later.

Bill Urges Loan of Millions to Farmers
WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—An appropriation of $50,000,000 from the federal treasury to loan to wheat farmers of the Dakotas, Minnesota and Montana, to enable them to diversify products was proposed by a bill introduced in the house today by Representative Burness, Republican, North Dakota.
The maximum loan to any farmer would be $1,000, to be secured by cattle to be purchased from the loan.

Mr. Thom further reports that the committee plans to employ two office girls, starting Monday, to assist Miss Winnifred Traver in the details of the sewer campaign work being prosecuted by the Glendale Realty board.

SAGACIOUS LADY SIGNS CONTRACT

Scorns Matrimonial Offer, Retains Independence, Remains Happy

Editor The Glendale Evening News: Nestling among the hills in the most attractive part of the fertile valley was the estate of Jennie Dale. Thrift and enterprise were to be seen on every hand. Well-tilled orange groves, modern poultry yards, waving palms and flowering shrubs gave evidence of refinement and foresight. The sound of the saw and hammer was music to the ear, as new buildings and enlargements went forward.

No wonder that Jennie Dale's fame was carried far and wide. Although of a charming personality, Jennie Dale was a cool, calculating, business woman. Not the clinging ivy type of bygone days. She was too busy achieving success to foster sentimental moods.

Her neighbor to the south, owner of a vast estate—but desiring more—had often gazed over his fair neighbor's holdings. He admired her independence, her abundant success, but more than all, her fruitful acres. He longed to take her under his spacious roof. But to all of his covert advances she gave no apparent heed.

Thus affairs might have continued indefinitely had not an emergency arise. To further enhance her holdings and minister to the health and comfort of her helpers, Jennie Dale planned an irrigation ditch. Careful investigation showed that a permit to cross her neighbor's land on the south was necessary. The matter was presented to him, but he was not at all inclined to grant a permit. Thus the improvement was delayed from year to year.

At last, through the influence of friends and concessions on her part, a contract was prepared whereby each was to receive benefits. The papers were all ready to sign.

Would the benefits offset the concessions? Should the contract be finally entered into?

At this juncture advice was volunteered. Said her friends to her, "Jennie Dale, be careful. You are making a serious mistake. Look how much this will cost you to lay this drain pipe through your neighbor's land. Perhaps it would not work out at all satisfactorily. Why not do the wise thing—just marry the old fellow? Don't you see you would have no bill at all to pay? Just let him do the work and pay the bill out of his own pocket."

It did appear to be a saving proposition. But Jennie Dale just shook her head. Her cool, calculating business nature asserted itself.

"No," said she, "while that might look to be a great saving on one hand, it is not on the other. Just to get that ditch dug and a chance to lay it under my neighbor's land would be getting me and all I have got in the bargain. And if he would be so close and tight-fisted with me before I was married, no telling how mean he would be after I was married, with no chance for a divorce."

"Don't you think for a minute that I would give up my acres and my independence for such a mess of pottage as that? The contract may be a little tight, but better than to lose my liberty, my present success and greater prospects. For my liberty would be cherished and enjoyed long after the price was forgotten."

"Just tell my neighbor for me that on January 8, 1924, I shall sign the contract, get the ditch dug and retain my own name and independence."

But, lo! when she signed her name, instead of reading Jennie Dale, it stood out in bold relief: "GLENDALE."

Annual Election Will Be Held By American Legion Post Here Friday Night

The annual election of officers, Glendale American Legion Post No. 127, will be held tomorrow evening, Friday, December 21, at the American Legion hall on East Broadway.

As there are more candidates in the field for the various offices than is usually the case, a great deal of interest and friendly rivalry is being manifested. Cards have been sent out announcing the election to all members and a record crowd is expected.

Under Chalmers D. Day as Post Commander the local post has enjoyed a very prosperous year, and greater things are expected in the future when the paid adjutant recently authorized, gets affairs in working order. Notices were sent to all neighboring legion posts through the Bulletin of Los Angeles that Glendale wanted a paid adjutant, and as a result many applications from men eminently fitted for the position have been received. It has been a very hard matter for the executive committee to choose one man from the many considered.

List of Nominees
A meeting was held last night at which all the applicants were present for a personal interview. No final decision was made by the committee, but the selection will probably be made before the regular meeting tomorrow night, so an announcement can be made to the post at that time.

Following is a list of nominees for the various offices, to be voted on tomorrow night.

Post Commander: F. C. Butler, Ryland Sizer, Mitchell Frug and Joseph Wilson.

First Vice-Commander: C. A. Regelin and E. W. Gilliland.

Second Vice-Commander: Walter A. Grayson, G. R. Postle, W. H. Richards and M. V. Cook.

Treasurer: William A. McCormack and Walter A. Grayson.

RACIAL ROMANCE IN FRESNO CAFE

Mixed Nationalities Gopher, University Graduates Sweep and Cook

By GIL A. COWAN
Special to The Evening News
FRESNO, Dec. 20.—Boy, page Hans Christian Andersen. Tell him to rewrite the following story for a Christmas fairy tale.

An Irishman, promoting a Swedish dairy concern, was talking to a Greek restaurateur on Broadway, at midnight. He had with him another salesman who was born in Norway.

Into the restaurant walked a Scotchman, who espied a card advertising the fact that Kopecks was to fight Silver, somewhere, some place, soon.

"Kopecks against Silver," he said. "I'd bet on Silver," purposely mis-stating the name. He turned to an Italian seated at the counter. "Kopecks not so good Austrian money these days," commented the Scotchman.

"I don't know," said the son of Italy, and just then the youth sweeping out the place spoke up. "Kopecks are Russian, also Hungarian, exchange. I handle lots of them when I work in the national bank of Copenhagen."

"You Danish?" inquired the Irishman.

University Graduates
"Sure," said the young fellow. I am civil engineer, graduate University of Copenhagen, gone broke ranching in Nevada, lost $3500 in eighteen months, and only 23."

"And was educated to be a lawyer in the old country," said the son of Athens. "A civil engineer and a lawyer to feed you people, ha!"

Another customer walked in. He was a German. And a general discussion of international politics ensued. No need of going into that, for the story Hans Christian Andersen would want is this: Before the party broke up the Norwegian promised the young Dane a better job for Christmas. And the Greek will be advertising for some one else to sweep out or add the dignity of janitor to his legal education as it enables him to mix the soups and fry the steaks in his Broadway cafe in Fresno.

Heated Exhaust Sets Motor Truck Afire
A large White truck in the building occupied by the Barton Transfer company at the corner of Glendale and Wilson avenues, caught fire this morning at 10 o'clock from an overheated exhaust pipe.

Engine company No. 1 answered the call and extinguished the blaze before any material damage had been done.

By the Act of 1816 the salary of the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States was fixed at $8 a day.

INDUSTRIAL NEED OF COAST SHOWN

Plans to Bring Factories to Pacific Slope Told by A. G. Arnoll

The plans that are under way to attract industrial plants to the Pacific coast, through the work of the industrial department of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, were explained to the members of the Glendale Realty Board yesterday at their weekly meeting in the Egyptian Village by A. G. Arnoll, head of that department, who declared that the stabilization of the industrial situation in this region is one of the most vital needs of Southern California today.

Mr. Arnoll quoted figures showing the millions of yards of textiles, the millions of pounds of yarns, cotton, wool and silk that are consumed on the Pacific coast each year; the vast quantities of metals that are used here, much of which comes from the copper mines of California's neighbor state, Arizona; the steel that is required here, with immense deposits of rich iron ore lying undeveloped within the borders of the state of California; and he stressed the conditions that exist here, conditions that are favorable to the development of industry, where there is a plenitude of labor, favorable climatic conditions that tend to reduce heating and operating costs; and other advantages that this region has over the crowded districts of the east.

Freight Costs High

Every industry here, he declared, must pay the cost of the long haul from the centers of manufacture to the Pacific coast, and in the case of those industries that use imported materials, like silk, or that use the wool grown on the western sheep, or that use the copper mined in the Arizona hills, must pay double and more than double, in some instances, traffic charges for the haul across the continent and back again.

"One impediment to the development of industries here," he asserted, "has been the attitude of the railroads, which have sought to retain for themselves the transcontinental business that has been so profitable to them; but with the opening of the Panama canal this condition has been largely changed, and the railroads do not now get the cross-country freight in the same proportion as before."

Another clearly defined tendency among eastern manufacturers, he claimed, is that which leans toward the decentralization of industry, spreading it out in many places instead of keeping it all closely together in one particular region.

Bitter Fight Ahead

In the industrial development of the Pacific coast, he asserted, the fight is going to come between Los Angeles and Oakland. The former offers a greater buying and working population, but Oakland offers cheaper factory sites. Los Angeles will, he declared, have the advantage in locating plants in Southern California, but many of these plants will seek the smaller towns where they can secure sites at a lower price than would be possible in Los Angeles, where the growth of the population has sent realty values higher than they are in Oakland.

Glendale will get some of these factories, Long Beach, with its ocean front, will get some, and other cities will get others, and it is the duty of every city in the Southland, he asserted, to establish industrial regions where such plants may locate and that will, in time, furnish employment to the boys and girls who are now graduating from the school, and who must secure places in the industrial life of the community.

URGES DELAY IN PAVING STREETS

Ferry Would Install Sewers Before Completion of Pending Contracts

Peter L. Ferry, well-known contractor, addressed the City Council this morning asking that steps be taken to put in the sewer on streets where paving contracts have been let, prior to the completion of the job.

He suggested anticipating the carrying of the sewer bonds on January 8, thereby saving the expense of tearing up the new pavement, which could never be replaced in as good condition.

It was also suggested by City Manager W. H. Reeves that hereafter all paving contracts awarded stipulate that the final work should not be done until the sewer, under the plan proposed by the engineers, had been laid on the street concerned.

FACTS AND FIGURES PROVE GLENDALE'S BIG NEED OF COMPLETE SEWER SYSTEM

Officials Point Out Why City Must Vote Bond Issue to Secure Health Protection and to Continue Great Growth and Full Prosperity; Project Is Much Cheaper Than Annexation

Glendale must either vote the $1,600,000 sewer bonds or face annexation to Los Angeles, declares Councilman Sam Davis, who, with Mayor Spencer Robinson and the members of the City Council and other forward-looking Glendaleans, have sponsored and pushed this movement from the start.

With an adequate, up-to-date sewer system assured, the city will attain a population of 100,000 in three years, experts predict. Without such a system, Glendale must ultimately beg mercy of Los Angeles and be absorbed.

Therefore, the sewer bond campaign, Councilman Davis asserts, must meet the annexationists on their own ground and defeat them with cold facts. At a recent meeting held by the Glendale Foothill Improvement association in the Grand View school, he produced a series of arguments backed up by figures that were so conclusive debt, with a great deal higher tax rate than at present, and without the very sewer system they are certain to get under the present plan.

Judging from the numbers of questions asked and from the satisfaction expressed over the clear replies, it can be safely stated that when Glendale people understand the sewer matter in its various angles, they become heartily in favor of it. On the night of December 18, the occasion of the public mass meeting called to explain the sewer project to all Glendale, it is urged by Mayor Robinson and Councilman Davis that every resident of the city who does not thoroughly understand every angle of this great forward-looking project be present as a civic duty and obtain the enlightenment that will make his vote a sewer bond issue.

Chester A. Smith, engineering expert for the firm of Burns & McDonnell, who are making Glendale's preliminary sewer survey, addressed the meeting of the Foothill Improvement Association Tuesday night of this week, declaring that his organization had never before experienced a city of Glendale's size totally without a sewer system and stating that generally it is considered a serious enough matter when a community reaches 10,000 population without adequate disposal facilities.

Taking up each of the five Lippenott proposals of a year ago, Mr. Smith analyzed them and showed why they were not practical for Glendale.

Going into some detail on Pasadena's sewer farm problem, he showed that the system was unsatisfactory at the present time and giving a great deal of trouble, in addition to requiring constant large outlays of capital to maintain.

The fact that cities so located as Glendale must ultimately form metropolitan sewer districts, as is done in Boston and other eastern cities, was stressed by Mr. Smith, who pointed out that Fullerton, Anaheim and a number of surrounding communities have already formed such a district, with Santa Ana as their consolidation point, while Linwood, Watts and communities in that neighborhood are forming such a district at the present time.

The Pacific ocean is the one and only natural sewage outlet for Southern California, Mr. Smith told his audience. All other arrangements were makeshifts, he said, and would in the end prove costly, insufficient and unhygienic.

Future Growth

The impossibility of predicting the future growth of such centers as Glendale was stressed by Mr. Smith, it being pointed out that three years ago it was believed by experts that the city would attain a population of 40,000 by 1940.

It was for this reason, he said, that the present plan calls for a system, connecting with the Los Angeles outfall, of such capacity as to care for a population of 1,000,000 in Glendale and surrounding communities, while allowance is made for 20 per cent in excess of an ultimate Glendale population of 240,000.

The election called for January 15 to authorize the $1,600,000

Description of Sewer

The following description of the proposed Glendale sewer system is given by the firm of Burns & McDonnell, noted sewer engineers:

The accompanying map shows the nine proposed intercepting lines or mains which are planned to bring the sanitary sewer system within reach of every home in the city of Glendale. The heavy lines shown on the map and marked "Main No. 1," etc., indicate the location and size of the mains to serve the city.

Main No. 1—Varies from 8-inch to 12-inch in diameter and connects with the main outfall sewer at Tyburn avenue and Hollywood drive, and follows Tyburn avenue to Gardena avenue, thence to Los Feliz road, thence on Los Feliz road to San Fernando, thence on San Fernando to Magnolia.

Main No. 2—Varies from 8-inch to 18-inch in diameter and connects with the main outfall sewer at Parkdale avenue and west of San Fernando road and follows Parkdale to San Fernando, thence on San Fernando to Palmer, thence on Palmer to Glendale avenue, thence on Glendale avenue to Elk avenue.

Main No. 2-A—Varies from 8-inch to 12-inch in diameter and connects with Main No. 2 at Los Angeles street and Parkdale and follows Los Angeles street to San Fernando road, thence on San Fernando road to Elk avenue.

Main No. 3—Varies in size from 8-inch to 15-inch in diameter and connects with Main No. 2 at Palmer and Glendale avenue. This main follows Palmer avenue, Adams, Acacia and Verdugo road to Colorado street.

Main No. 4—Varies from 8-inch to 22-inch in diameter and connects with the main outfall sewer on Colorado and west of San Fernando road. This line follows Colorado, Glendale, Harvard, Sycamore Canyon road and Sierra avenue to Scholl drive near the head of Scholl canyon. This main will take care of the principal commercial district of Glendale.

Main No. 5—Varies in diameter from 8-inch to 15-inch and connects with Main No. 4. This line follows San Fernando road, Salem and Chester to Patterson avenue.

Main No. 6—Varies from 8-inch to 24-inch in diameter and connects with the main outfall sewer at Aviation drive and west of San Fernando. This line follows Aviation drive to San Fernando, thence on San Fernando to the northwest city limits of Glendale.

Main No. 7—Varies from 12-inch to 18-inch in diameter and connects with Main No. 6 on San Fernando road. This line follows along Palm drive and Dryden street until it comes to the point on Verdugo road where it will connect with the present sewer system which is already constructed in Verdugo canyon but has no outlet.

Main No. 8—Varies from 8-inch to 12-inch and connects with Main No. 6 at San Fernando and Grand View. This line follows Grand View to Glenwood road, thence on Glenwood road to Virginia avenue.

These nine mains listed above connect with the main outfall sewer which follows approximately the line of the Los Angeles river to Sixth and Utah where it connects with the outfall sewer of the city of Los Angeles, a distance of approximately ten miles. The cost of construction of the nine mains in Glendale is $277,966 and the cost of the main outfall sewer is estimated at $1,250,000.

Lines of Sewer System Are Shown on City Map

Exact location of the main trunk line and nine intercepting lines of Glendale's proposed sewer system are shown below in the map of the city, prepared by Burns & McDonnell, sewer experts of Los Angeles and Kansas City, who are making the preliminary survey.

NEED HARD WORK IN BOND ELECTION

Resolutions Won't Pass Issue, Is Warning Given by Councilman Davis

By RALPH A. LYND
Member of The Evening News Staff.

"You can't win elections by eating at banquets nor by passing resolutions. You have got to get out and gather in the voters that are working at their duties in their homes, in the backyards, and elsewhere, and you've got to lean over the backyard fences and get in your work for the sewer bonds before you can get the people out to vote."

So declared Councilman Sam Davis in a speech before the members of the Glendale Realty board at a recent luncheon in the Glendale Tavern. Davis quoted in detail from the figures he has compiled from official sources, showing that Glendale, in the event of annexation to Los Angeles, would be compelled to assume its share of the bonds that Los Angeles has issued amounting to $71,155,550, or $35.81 per capita, as against the assumption of $28.67 per capita that would be assessed in the event that the city of Glendale builds its own sewers through the bond issue of $1,600,000. These figures are based on an estimated population of 60,000 people in Glendale by the time the sewers are completed.

Mr. Davis quoted from a copy of the minutes of the Los Angeles City Council of November 15 and of November 17, showing, by direct answers to persons here who favor consolidation, that, in the event of annexation, Glendale would have to float bonds to pay for whatever sewers would be necessary and to bear the cost of connecting with the outfall sewer, or that it would have to form a local bond district and assess such district or issue bonds to build sewers in the business section of the city. "And even then, the minutes state that it would be at least twelve months after annexation had been decided upon before such a sewer system could be installed," Mr. Davis declared.

Will Boost Value

"It would pay the people of Glendale to build these sewers if they never ran a drop of water down them," asserted Mr. Davis. "The sight of constructive work being done in the streets of the city would be the greatest inducement to newcomers to settle here that could be devised, and the advance in property values would more than take care of the cost of the entire system."

In introducing the men who were to speak on the sewer proposition, President Peter Hanson paid a tribute to Mayor Spencer Robinson and the members of the council who have worked so hard to secure the contract between Glendale and Los Angeles, pledging the support of the Glendale Realty board to pass the bonds at the coming election.

Declaring that Glendale will have a population of 50,000 people by the first of 1924, Manager

W. H. Reeves stated that during the past year, $101,650 had been expended in Glendale to build 2033 cesspools, money which, he asserted, had been practically wasted. And septic tanks that were built cost an immense amount in addition to the cost of the cesspools, he declared.

Praises Agreement

"The sewer system as planned now, will be big enough to take care of Glendale for the next fifty years, Mr. Reeves asserted, "and if this city is annexed to Los Angeles the system will cost double what it will cost if built from the proceeds of our own bond issue. The agreement Glendale has made with Los Angeles gives us what we want, and we should go ahead and pass these bonds by a sweeping majority."

Chester A. Smith, representing Burns & McDonnell, the engineers who have made the survey and drawn the plans for the sewer system, showed on his maps just where the various mains and laterals would run, stating that the sewers had been planned on a basis that would take care of the requirements of the entire San Fernando valley up to a population of 1,000,000 people.

In answer to a question Mr. Smith stated that Burbank could not connect with the sewer system as planned at this time without first being annexed to Los Angeles, as the contract provides that only such territory as is included in Los Angeles or that may later be annexed to it can discharge its sewage into this sewer, and it cannot hook on to Glendale's sewer without paying for that privilege and in the event of its annexation to Los Angeles, also paying its share of the cost of the sewer connection through Los Angeles to the ocean.

City Must Have Its Own Sewer System

The Glendale Evening News is heartily in favor of the proposed sewer bonds and its columns are wide open to the organizations supporting the project. There is every need of a complete sewer system for this city. The evidence is ALL for a sewer. There is no evidence against having a sewer. The city's remarkable growth is menaced because of a lack of a system will mean continued a sewer system. Installation of prosperity. A recognized firm of engineers has prepared a preliminary report on the matter. Many columns are being printed concerning the project. The election will be held on January 8, 1924. Let's tell the world Glendale is unanimous for a complete sewer system.

arrangement be taken care of for all time to come.

Mrs. M. B. Buckman, a member of the executive committee at the conclusion of Mr. Smith's remarks before the Foothill Improvement association rose and stated that she was glad it had been made clear that the proposed bond issue provided for carrying the sewer from Aviation drive north along San Fernando road to the Burbank city line, as many residents of the northwest section of Glendale had been laboring under the impression they were to have no sewer, the laterals, which will be constructed under the assessment district plan, at a nominal cost. With a flow provided of sixty gallons per capita per day, on a basis of 1,000,000 population ultimately utilizing this system, it is estimated by Mr. Smith that the sewage of Glendale and all surrounding communities will by this they made determined bond voters of practically everyone present.

Official Minutes

Councilman Davis read to the audience copies of the official minutes of the Los Angeles City Council, as taken at the time in 1922 when an annexation committee from this city presented their plea to the Angeleno city fathers.

These minutes showed conclusively, in black and white and beyond any argument, that in the event of annexation, Glendale would have to build its own system of intercepting mains and laterals, and that the earliest sewer service that could be promised was one year from date of annexation, in the business district, while no date could be set when the rest of Glendale might be connected up with the Los Angeles system.

These minutes showed furthermore, that Glendale would have to float a local bond district, even in the event of annexation, in order to get a sewer system even in the business district. They showed many other advantageous features of the Los Angeles annexation offer, that served to open the eyes of many annexationists and convert them to the proposed bond issue.

Important Figures

But most convincing of all was a set of carefully checked figures presented by Councilman Davis, based on a population of 60,000, showing that in the event of annexation, the people of Glendale would assume their just proportion of 3.36 per cent of $71,155,500 in taxpaying bonds, or $2,148,896, which is more than the total cost of the proposed sewer system, or $35.81 per capita; and that in addition they would assume $22,000,000 of tax-exempt bonds, nevertheless a liability, or an additional $11.07 per head; making a total of $48.88 per head which the people of Glendale would immediately assume under annexation, while the total per capita cost of building the proposed $1,600,000 sewer system is only $26.67 per head.

These figures proved to be compelling, and upon conclusion of Councilman Davis' remarks many who had been more or less annexationist in tendency saw that by going in with Los Angeles they would be shouldering a heavy burden, and upon conclusion of Councilman Davis' remarks many who had been more or less annexationist in tendency saw that by going in with Los Angeles they would be shouldering a heavy

ROTARY PLEDGES AID FOR SEWERS

'No Time For Buck Passing' Is Warning by Hewitt To Club Members

Members of the Glendale Rotary club pledged their support in co-operating with the Realty Board in canvassing Glendale in the interest of the sewer bond election, at the noon luncheon at the Egyptian Village today. Following an appeal by W. E. Hewitt, president of the Chamber of Commerce and chairman of the sewer committee.

"This is not a case for 'passing the buck' to the other fellow," Mr. Hewitt reminded the Rotarians, "but it is a matter for each of you to get behind and see through to the finish. If you don't your property is going down and you'll have to sell out and leave Glendale."

Mr. Hewitt also made an appeal in the interest of the Glendale float to be entered in the Pasadena parade at the Tournament of Roses on New Year's day. The members expressed themselves in favor of the club contributing $100 toward the expense of arranging the float. Their action is expected to be made official by the board of directors.

Speaking of the float, James M. Rhoades told the club that the Glendale entry, compared with the other floats, "will look like a diamond on a dirty shirt front."

Football Banquet

Harry Webb announced that the sale of tickets to the big turkey dinner being given by the Chamber of Commerce and Glendale service clubs for the high school football squads at the Central Christian church tonight has been highly satisfactory. It urged a full attendance by Rotarians.

A large bouquet of rosebuds was sent to the club by Mrs. Edith Huntley, asking that they be accepted in memory of her late husband, Jack Huntley, who was a member of the Rotary club. The flowers were accompanied by a $10 check to be used in bringing cheer to Glendale kiddies at Christmas.

Two members of the club acted as Santa Claus to fellow Rotarians at the luncheon. Carl H. Kirkland presented each member with a handsomely bound memorandum book, with each name printed in gold on the front cover. Ed Nishe, 135 1/2 South Brand boulevard, gave each member and guest a clothes brush, bearing his firm name.

Board to Meet

Announcement was made by President George B. Karr, chairman of the meeting, that the regular noon luncheon would be suspended with next Thursday, only the directors' meeting, with members privileged to come and make up their attendance. Thursday night the Rotarians will be entertained with an informal dinner and social by the Rotaryans at the Tuesday Afternoon club.

The following members of other Rotary clubs were guests at the luncheon: Albert G. Hesser, Orange; Bell Hartzell, W. J. Riley, J. J. King, Burbank; Elliott Wyman, Los Angeles; John P. Thillies, Ventura, and J. W. Johnson, Pueblo, Colo.

Kiddies Write To Santa Claus In Heart Appeals For Christmas Presents

Appeals to Santa Claus from Glendale children through Postmaster D. Ripley Jackson, asking for Christmas gifts, cover a wide variety of wants, but a striking feature of all the letters is the modesty of their requests. Few of them ask for more than two or three gifts, many of which are of a useful nature.

From the indecipherable efforts of the little tot yet unable to write, to the scrawling hand of children just learning the art of penmanship (with a pencil), these messages to Santa Claus represent a heart appeal upon which the sender in most cases is depending for the greater part of his Christmas cheer.

The Exchange Club is sponsoring this undertaking, and through the efforts of Dr. Henry R. Harrower, chairman of the committee in charge of this work, and Mrs. E. D. Yard, president of the Glendale Welfare Bureau, co-operating with the Exchange Club, it is hoped that every letter sent to Santa Claus will be given attention.

Worthy Children

Some of the letters show that the writers are, indeed, worthy of a visit from Santa Claus.

"Dear Santa Claus" reads one letter in part: "I am a little boy and sick in bed. Can you bring me something to play with? My mamma has to work out. I have two brothers and one sister."

Still another, who aspires to operate a railroad system: "I am a little boy 7 years old. I go to school and try to be a good boy. Please bring me a water tank, one good-sized depot, a tunnel for my train; one hand for my train and a switch; a tool chest, and that's all."

This one, addressing Santa Claus at the North Pole, is not at all selfish. He wishes a Merry Christmas for Old Santa himself. He begins by asking: "Do you know what I want? Well, I want an electric train, a soccer ball, a bike-wagon (if you don't know what a bike-wagon is, I'll tell you: It's a tricycle with one wheel in front with pedals, with a wagon in the rear.)" He adds: "Don't forget, I want three pounds of candy."

Thinks of Sister

This little fellow thought of his little sister first, so he makes his appeal for her first: "I have a little sister and can't write would you mind if I wrote for her she would like a doll says mama and a cat that says meow."

For himself he adds: "I would like a pair of shoes and stockings and clothes and a little auto."

Dozens of other such letters have been received by Captain Jackson, and through the co-operation of the Exchange Club and the Welfare Bureau, pressure is going to be brought to bear on Santa Claus to see that these kiddies' appeals are answered on Christmas morning.

To aid in this worthy undertaking the musical comedy, "Oh-Ho," which was presented recently at the Tuesday Afternoon club, will be repeated Saturday night at the high school. Funds derived from sale of tickets will be used in helping Santa Claus provide gifts for the kiddies of Glendale.

CHAPEL BOAT IS TAR'S SALVATION

Dinant Priest Ministers to Sailors and Children on 'Star of Morning'

PARIS, Dec. 20.—"The Star of the Morning" is the little chapel boat which lies in the Seine river just over the parapet of St. Michel, not many yards away from Notre Dame.

It is a long imposing-looking black barge with only a little campanile surmounted by a golden cross to suggest what it really is. Passers-by lean over the picturesque bridge and wonder what is this queer little boat. The cross is very small. Many are the Parisians who have never heard of M. Dinant, who, during ten years has been working for all who wander up and down the river in boats of every kind, as well as the children of the sailors.

Here he holds mass for them and gives valuable advice and lessons to all who desire them.

Inside, the chapel is sombre and dark with green plants for the background of the little altar with a tabernacle of finely-carved wood. Nearby is a little votive offering in the shape of a boat constructed by a friendly sailor.

The bell in the campanile is thought to possess historical interest, for on it one reads, "Hilbrand, smelter of the Emperor, 1865," and above this inscription are the arms of Napoleon III. Discovered in an attic at Armentieres in 1912, the bell was confided to a proprietor of Dinant, where it was conserved in a cellar during the war and later hidden in the gardens of a convent during the occupation of the Germans. Now it calls the sailors to mass in the chapel on the Seine at sunrise or sundown.

SOLDIER BONUS ATTACK

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Another attack on the proposed soldier bonus was launched late yesterday by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, in a letter to Representative A. P. Andrews, Republican of Massachusetts.

Mellon said that the bonus bill vetoed by President Harding last year, a counterpart of which is now pending before the house ways and means committee, would have cost the country $5,085,832,687, distributed over a period of twenty years, if enacted.

ing the senator's meeting here, organization of a state wide Johnson group for the presidential primaries in April will be deferred, Mr. Hitchcock said.

Postpone Hearing On Business Zone Plea

Alleged Slayers Of Child Are Sentenced

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 20.—Paul Daedler and William Forrester were sentenced by Judge Hahn today to one reformatory until they are 21 years old, for the death of Arthur Martinez, 6, whom they are alleged to have shot and then beaten to death in a Pasadena warehouse.

Judge Hahn in sentencing the boys added that when they reach 21 years of age they will be brought before the court and if their records justify an appeal for probation, they will be allowed to file such an appeal. However, if their records are unsavory they will be sentenced to San Quentin, the judge warned.

Loan to Buy Liquor Is Held Illegal Act

DES MOINES, Ia., Dec. 20.—The Iowa supreme court has held that money lent for the purpose of buying liquor or for furthering the liquor traffic in the state can not be recovered through process of law, and that the act is as criminal as the selling of liquor.

The decision of the state's highest court was made in the case of Gertie Davis against Clyde and Nellie Herney of Sioux City.

The court held that the money loaned to the Herney family to further the liquor traffic and allowed a judgment in favor of the defendants.

Rail Improvements

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 20.—More than $70,000,000 will be spent by the Santa Fe railroad next year for maintenance and new equipment, it has been announced here. President William B. Storey of the company said that $2,000,000 will be spent to facilitate transportation at Los Angeles harbor. More than 7,500 freight cars and eighty-nine locomotives were put in service on the Santa Fe to handle the increased business of the Pacific coast, he stated.

Ranchers Optimistic

SANTA BARBARA, Dec. 20.—Ranchers in this section are highly optimistic over conditions following the recent storm which brought a precipitation of .20 of an inch. While the quantity was quite small, they say, it served to freshen up the atmosphere and benefit the country generally.

Old-timers here declare that January and February are to be wet months, and that the rain coming late will be of greater benefit than if the storms had set in earlier, followed by a scant rainfall during the first months of the new year.

Plan District Fair

SANTA MARIA, Dec. 20.—With the proposal for a county fair for the county of Santa Barbara opposed by farmers in the Carpinteria district, members of the County Farm Bureau in that section have expressed themselves in favor of a district fair for the northern part of the county. They propose also to co-operate with farmers and ranchers in conducting the Ventura county fair.

According to Neal Ballard of Carpinteria, the farmers in that vicinity are opposed to the county fair because they believe that a fair embracing the entire county would be impossible. They feel, he said, that the county never could get together for a county fair because of lack of good communication and transportation to many sections.

Finish Navel Crop

ANAHEIM, Dec. 20.—Crowding of the market with California navel oranges appears to be near its end, at least for some time to come, with the Central California orange belt this week practically finished shipping navels, according to Manager J. H. Ritchie of the Anaheim Co-operative Orange Association. It is expected that prices, which declined slightly after the opening of the season, and the other navel orange growing sections, particularly of the south, will benefit, if they keep the market in hand.

Plan Dry Crusade

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 20.—Mustering of an army of 300 special dry agents who will blockade cafes, roadhouses and resorts near Los Angeles on New Year's eve has been completed by Divisional Prohibition Agent E. E. Hunt and Supervisor C. F. Gailling of the Southern California enforcement bureau, it has been announced.

The special officers will be stationed at the cafes and roadhouses, it was said, to break up parties who "register" hilarity through consumption of alcoholic beverages. The "army" will be divided into platoons of from six to ten men to search automobiles at the cafes and boulevard resorts. No attempt will be made to molest private parties in private homes, only public places being affected, it was said.

Belongs In Pulpit.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 20.—The declaration of Dr. William McCormack of St. Paul's cathedral "that a minister belongs in the pulpit and not in politics" has agitated the circle of blue law advocates led by two local ministers. The statement was made on the eve of the City Council's special committee named to revise the present dance ordinance, which prohibits dancing after midnight. Several civic organizations have been invited to have representatives present at today's meeting to confer with Councilmen Criswell, Mallard and Allen, who make up the committee.

The Barling Bomber, largest airplane in the world, recently carried in flight 19 bombs, having a total weight of 6,692 pounds.

The Post Office Department manufactured 359,152 mail locks last year, at a cost of $79,000.

LA CRESCENTA

ATTENDANCES AT CHURCH GROWING

Sunday School and Preaching Services Draw Eager Audiences Weekly

The Community church has a rousing attendance now, both in its Sunday school and the church services.

The choir is doing splendid work under the direction of Allen Daniels, and, next Sunday, they will render a number of special anthems of the season. This music is equal to any in the city churches, as there are a number of splendid voices here. Next week the Watch Night program for New Year's eve will be given in detail, and it promises to be a good one, of interest to all.

Tonight the Willing Workers' class, taught by the pastor, Rev. W. Kelso, will have a class service in the church rooms, and on Sunday evening a pantomimic version of Henry Van Dyke's "Other Wise Man" will be given. The program for this service will be published on Saturday.

Scouts Plan Hike

Boy Scouts of this section are planning a two days' hike to Switzer's camp, where they expect to wash each other's faces in the snow. They will join the other patrols of Verdugo Hills district in the venture next week.

Friday of this week the local patrol will hike to Cook's canyon. At the next meeting, Scout Master Angier announces, the patrol will be reorganized along stronger lines.

The Scouts are doing splendid work here, and hold their meetings in the Community church.

The Swami Paramananda of the Vedanta Centre has returned from Boston. He will hold special services on Sunday, December 23, at 3:15 p. m. A public service, with address by the Swami, will be held on every Sunday thereafter at 3:15 p. m. The bus from the Centre will meet all street cars at the Pennsylvania avenue stop at 3, and the Los Angeles stages at Pennsylvania at 3:15 p. m., and the Pasadena stage at the Canada terminal at 2:45. All are most cordially invited to attend these services.

Build New Store

Mr. and Mrs. Gould, who purchased the Evans home on Montrose avenue, also purchased some Pennsylvania avenue business lots, on which they have erected a five-story store building. They expect to open a general grocery there on Saturday, and are very enthusiastic over the outlook. Mr. and Mrs. Gould are from Hull, England, and are very good business people, who have lately been residing in Glendale, but are now La Crescentians.

The Montrose community sing, which is meeting with such success, has been postponed until after New Year's.

Last Friday night some lively singing was conducted by Alexander Stuart. All the old airs and the carols were heartily enjoyed by the audience. With two weekly community sings, this valley will probably make itself heard all over.

The next date of the Montrose community sing will be published later.

AMBROSINI URGES VOTE FOR BONDS

Property Owner Predicts Big Majority For Sewers on Return From East

"Glendale must vote the sewer bonds or cease to grow," declares Anthony Ambrosini, who last Sunday returned with his wife after an eight months' visit in St. Paul, Minn., and is at present living with his son-in-law, T. H. Menk, at 143 South Isabel street, until the Ambrosini residence at 146 South Jackson street can be made ready.

"Back east a city without a sewer would not be a city," says Mr. Ambrosini. "Here is Glendale, grown 15,000 bigger since we left last April, and no sewer yet."

Predicts Passage
"To me, the best news I received while away was that a contract had been signed between Glendale and Los Angeles giving us the privilege of connecting with her great outfall sewer to the ocean. I am confident the bond election will be practically unanimous in favor of the sewer—for I believe the people of Glendale have good sense."

Mr. Ambrosini is known to be a large property owner in Glendale and is willing to pay whatever it will cost to get the sewer, realizing that sum will be a mere pittance compared with the increased worth of his holdings.

In St. Paul the Ambrosinis visited their son, John Ambrosini, superintendent of the Forest Cemetery association, of which Anthony Ambrosini is president and manager.

STEP TOWARD DIVORCE

LONDON, Dec. 20.—Mrs. Alice Rudd, an American woman, was granted a decree restoring her conjugal rights. This is the first step towards a divorce in the British courts. The husband, H. H. Rudd, has been granted a divorce in the courts of Washington. He is now living in that state, where he remarried. The British courts held that the American divorce was not binding because the wife had not been notified of the proceedings.

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
For International News Service.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Secretary of State Hughes' curt rejection of soviet Russia's latest olive branch and his refusal to even consider a joint conference to adjust differences between the two countries, provided the so-called Progressives of the Sixty-eighth Congress with another issue upon which they planned today to assault administration policies.

Most of the insurgent Progressives were planning an extensive series of speeches. They will denounce Secretary Hughes. It appeared the matter might be brought into the campaign.

Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho; Senator Hiram Johnson, of California, supported by what is known as the "northwestern bloc" of insurgent-Progressives, and the farm bloc in general, were particularly incensed.

Borah Takes Stand
"I shall have something to say later on," said Borah. "Meanwhile I intend to press my resolution in the senate for recognition of Russia." The Idaho senator talked with President Coolidge over the president's recommendations regarding Russia in his message prior to its delivery to congress. After its delivery, the senator was loud in his praise of that portion which said:

"Whenever there appears any disposition to compensate our citizens who were despoiled and to recognize the debt contracted with our government, whenever the active spirit of enmity to our institutions is abated, our country ought to be the first to go to the economic and moral rescue of Russia. We hope the time is near at hand when we can act."

Senator Wheeler, Democrat of Montana, who made an "independent investigation" this summer of Russian conditions, charged that the effect of Secretary of State Hughes' note is to inform the Moscow government that "President Coolidge did NOT mean what he said."

Wheeler is another senator who is planning to attack the administration policy. Others are King, Democrat of Utah; Frazier, Republican of North Dakota; Brookhart, Republican of Iowa, and the two farmer-labor senators from Minnesota—Johnson and Shipstead.

Regulars Approve
On the other hand, the Hughes reply met with general approval from the Republican regulars, including Senator Lodge, Senator Moses, Senator Brandegee and other Republican members of the foreign relations committee, who are opposed to the Borah resolution for recognition.

The first step in the Progressives' campaign of action was taken this afternoon, when Senator Ladd, Republican of North Dakota, introduced a resolution calling upon the secretary of state to furnish the senate with a mass of information concerning its Russian policy.

It particularly requested Hughes to report whether "any secret agreements, confidential understandings, diplomatic arrangements or verbal contracts exist between the state department and foreign nations 'with a view to prohibiting restricting or retarding trade' between Russia and the United States.

Cast of Eager Heart In Rehearsal of Play

The rehearsal last night of the Community Service Christmas play "Eager Heart," was very satisfactory. This beautiful mystery play is to be given at the new High School auditorium tomorrow night. There will be no admission charge, but a collection will be taken for the Community Service Christmas fund.

Mrs. Geraldine Jacobi Russell, the director is working out some very beautiful settings and the participants are said to be exhibiting a finished portrayal that will be most entertaining.

The musical part of the play will be very effective. A heavenly host will appear at appropriate intervals and add to the beauty and harmony of the performance.

The Girl Scouts are to act as ushers for the evening. This popular and growing organization will be represented by girls from each of the four troops.

The general public is invited and urged to attend this entertainment that promises to be one of the finest of the holiday season.

MAY SEIZE GUNBOAT

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 20.—Seizure of the Mexican gunboat Mayo by United States officers was anticipated here, according to Enrique Ferreira, Mexican consul, who declared that he had taken all the steps necessary for the holding of the vessel in port. It is probable that arrests, if made, will charge mutiny, it was said. Captain Valentin L. Monsalve of the Mayo yesterday openly declared his allegiance to the De la Huerta faction, and proclaimed his intention of using his ship in Huerta's aid.

NOT KNOWN THERE

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 20.—Efforts to reach Miss Esther Naumann, alleged friend of Neal Dow Henry of Syracuse, N. Y., now held at San Diego for violation of the Dyer act for Syracuse authorities, at 412 South Hoover street, where she was reported to have been living, proved unavailing. At the address it was declared no Mrs. Naumann was there or had ever lived there.

GREAT INTEREST IN 'OH-HO' SHOW

Sale of Tickets Promises Merry Christmas For Glendale Kiddies

There was a fine seat sale for "Oh-Ho" this morning. The Glendale kiddies are going to be a happy bunch on Christmas morning, for if the Glendale public will continue to call at the box office for reservations for "Oh-Ho" every youngster in this city can be assured of a broad smile on that day of days next Tuesday.

There was never a bigger bargain offered in Glendale theatricals, than this show. Wherein it has played nearly every city in California, at two dollar prices, it is here offered for fifty cents. And all the money spent will do duty toward buying a Christmas present for some poor boy or girl.

As one of the Exchange club members remarked this morning, we saw "Oh-Ho" here ten days ago. "This is like getting a seat to the world series' baseball game for a dollar. This is the best show I ever saw in this city, and it's easily worth four times as much as is asked for it." Admiral Halstead, in command of the Twelfth Naval District, General Hunter Liggett, of the Ninth Army, and General Barnett, commander of the Devil Dog Marines, were all at the "Oh-Ho" show at San Francisco, at "Army and Navy Night" when the production was staged there. Each of these heads of Uncle Sam's defenses, were loud in their praises of the show; and George Warren, San Francisco's leading dramatic critic, in his review of the show said: "It is the best thing playing in San Francisco this week," and his comparison was made against the Orpheum, "Going Up," "Teas for Three," the Alcazar Theatre, and the other shows playing at the many theatres in San Francisco.

Is Needy Work
 Dr. H. R. Harrower, chairman of the "Oh-Ho" show, said this morning: "We have mailed out tickets to some Glendaleans whom we trust to see at the show, or buy these tickets, for this is a needy work that we are engaged in, and we sent tickets only to those citizens whom we felt we could count on to take them. Any citizens knowing, as I do, of the hundreds and hundreds of children in Glendale who are depending on the funds made on this entertainment to give them a happy Christmas, will not disappoint us in immediately mailing in their checks."

Those who have not been sent tickets, as well as ticket holders, all must call at Roberts and Echols Drug Store to have their seats reserved. This can be done at any time between now and Saturday evening.

Although an endeavor was made to secure the new High school auditorium for two nights for "Oh-Ho" at this bargain price, the school was engaged, and only one night's show could be arranged for. That being the case,

Glendale Teachers' Club Entertains Educators of State at Luncheon Meet

An outstanding event in the season's social calendar of the Glendale City Teachers' club was the luncheon yesterday in Los Angeles at which covers were laid for one hundred and thirty persons. The tables were decorated with sprays of brilliant poinsettias, giving a Christmas air to the festive appearance of the banquet hall.

The president, Mrs. Mary Ogden Ryan, presided as hostess, bringing greetings to the club and introducing the guests of honor, who were speakers of the afternoon.

Will C. Wood, state superintendent of public instruction, was greeted as he rose to deliver a short address on "The analogy between the automobile industry and education." He brought to the attention of the teachers the danger of standardizing education too far, and losing sight of the individual. He described in detail his visits recently to two great automobile factories in Michigan, comparing the standardized article with the finer one that was completed with the more laborious process of hand-work, in clever illustration of his topic.

Praises Glendale
 Mark Keppel spoke, briefly, complimenting the club, the schools and Glendale in general, telling some very amusing incidents connected with his first visit to Glendale in 1902, when the first high school was completed and he refused to buy a lot on Broadway near Brand for $100.

A round of applause greeted Mrs. Ryan's announcement that Glendale is known far and wide in the United States and even the world over as "The Fastest Growing City in America," and she would now introduce the superintendent of Glendale schools, "who had to run to keep up with himself," Richardson D. White.

May Hold Institute
 Mr. White spoke briefly, saying in part that in Glendale we thought in numbers, usually in large numbers, and now had attained the numbers that would legally entitle us to hold our own city institute if we desire to do so. He also paid a high tribute to the club, not only its numbers, but its quality, and what it stands for.

Miss Carrie A. Noble responded to a call with cheerful greetings to the club.

Pleasing selections by the Teachers' Choral club were "A Bowl of Roses" (Clarke); "Mellon Man" (Bergh), and for an encore, "I Passed By Your Window" (Brahe Lucas). Miss Hazel Linkert contributed two beautiful violin numbers, "Spanish Dance" (Sarasate), and "Melody" (by Dawes), with piano accompaniment by her sister, Mrs. Pearl Curran. She responded to an encore with a third number, a beautiful arrangement of "The Rosary."

The program closed with hearty Christmas greetings from the president to her club members.

Tombs return to water only to lay eggs, while frogs always remain near it.

It is certain that the place will be entirely sold out by Saturday's performance which begins at 8:15.

CITY DISTRICTED IN SEWER FIGHT

Realty Board Names Captains For Every Precinct to Aid in Campaign

The Glendale Realty Board, at its meeting in the Egyptian Village yesterday, organized itself into a compact fighting force to work from now until the last vote is cast on January 8, 1924, for the passage of the $1,600,000 issue of bonds to construct a sewer system that will care for the needs of Glendale for many years to come.

Acting on the suggestion of the board's special sewer committee, of which C. D. Thom is chairman, precinct captains were appointed for every precinct in the city, under the chairmanship of C. W. Ingledue, to be directly responsible for getting out the vote on the day of the election.

These precinct captains, in turn, will enlist the assistance of active, aggressive workers who will canvass every block in their respective precincts to arouse sentiment in favor of the sewer bonds and who will see that every voter is brought to the polls.

Need Is Stressed
 The pressing need of this arrangement was stressed by Mr. Ingledue, who declared that the organization must begin to function at once, if the bond issue were not to be threatened with defeat. Dr. Jessie A. Russell also laid emphasis on the fact that the industry of rug-making and the large percentage of rug-makers who eventually become blind from eye strain, which is not surprising when one considers that in one square inch of a finely-woven rug the maker ties about 8000 knots.

The Persians are also extremely jealous of this art, and strongly object to the rugs being taken out of the country.

Work in Syrian Field
 Mrs. Ella Wells spoke on Syria and the trying conditions under which the mission work is conducted in that country.

Mrs. E. B. Gittman gave an interesting talk on mission work among the Mormons of Utah. Her talk was based on personal experience, as her home was in Rigby, Idaho, before coming to Glendale, and her husband was in business in a section settled by the sect.

An announcement of interest was made to the effect that Miss McCuen, returned missionary from Korea, who spoke at the previous meeting, and was presented with $5 by the society, sent a message to the effect that she had forwarded the money to Korea, and it would pay for the support of a child in the mission school for the year.

The president requested the members to send postcards to Mrs. George Martin, a former member, who left a few months ago for the Mary Holme seminary at West Point, Miss., and who is to undergo a serious operation December 26.

A request from Mrs. R. W. Mottern for a silver offering, to be sent the West Coast leperetorium, met with ready response.

Mrs. D. F. Rae gave the monthly Presbytery report.

Cesspools Return Water To City Wells, Repeating Process As Time Goes On

What becomes of Glendale's sewage now? The old saying runs—"Out of Sight, Out of Mind," or in other words, when a thing is not brought to one's mind by the sight of it, it is forgotten as though it never existed.

This is true of the sewage wastes of Glendale with the exception of where it now overflows the tops of the cesspools and into the gutters from the business district, where not only the sense of sight but also the sense of smell reminds us very strongly of the presence of sewage and where it ought NOT TO GO.

The present population of Glendale is approximately 45,000, and upon the basis of fifty gallons of sewage per capita per day (a very close estimate as based on sewage flow measurements actually recorded in a large number of subdivisions of the type of Glendale) the daily wastes of sewage of Glendale amounts to 2,250,000 gallons per day, or a total of 821,000,000 gallons per year. All of this is discharged into the ground beneath the city by the means of cesspools or septic tanks. If this was spread out over the entire area of approximately 7,000 acres of subdivided tracts, it would only amount to about two and one-half gallons per square foot per year.

However, it is not thus distributed, but is concentrated into the small cesspool areas. The average cesspool is five feet in diameter, and assuming that the surrounding soil for ten feet also acts to absorb the liquid, this gives an area of twenty-five feet in diameter, equal to 500 square feet, which receives the sewage. With an estimate of about 10,000 cesspools, the sewage is concentrated in 5,000,000 square feet, or 165 gallons per square foot per year.

This means a depth of twenty-two feet of sewage on each square foot per year, that must soak down into the ground. In a loose gravel soil it will go down until it is stopped by a rock or impervious stratum, or until it reaches a water-filled stratum.

At Colorado and Brand boulevard the water plane is approximately fifty to fifty-five feet below the surface, and some of the cesspools are forty feet deep. At the water plant the first water is found at forty feet below the surface. On the lower ground west of San Fernando road water is only five to ten feet below the surface.

The cesspool liquids of the city drain into this underground water plane which slopes from the mountains to the river, and wells are sunk into the water plane and take water therefrom. Consequently, the continued use of cesspools and the dumping of sewage and liquid wastes into the ground on the upper slopes of the water-bearing ground and the drawing of water from the lower side will eventually create a sort of a circulating system which will carry sewage-laden water into the city wells.

CONWAY ADMITS GUILT IN BAD CHECK CHARGE
 Robert C. Conway, who was arrested on a bad check charge in Glendale on September 20, following a clever bit of detective work on the part of Lieutenant Royle and Officer Stanford of the local police department, was brought up for trial in Department 18 of the superior court in Los Angeles yesterday.

At the time of his preliminary hearing here, he pleaded not guilty, but yesterday changed his plea to guilty, and made an application for probation. The court took the matter under consideration and will render judgment January 3, 1924.

COOLIDGE AND FORD
 LANSING, Mich., Dec. 20.—The names of Henry Ford and Calvin Coolidge will appear on the ballot at the preferential primary in April. Nominating petitions for Ford, as a Democratic candidate, and for President Coolidge as a Republican candidate, were accepted yesterday by Secretary of State Charles Deland.

CLAIM ARREST NEAR
 CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—Leo Koertez, alleged $7,000,000 oil swindler, is within twenty-four hours train ride of Chicago and will be arrested within a week, it was announced by Harry Hamlin, assistant United States district attorney. The government is seeking Koertez on a warrant charging fraudulent use of the mails.

CAMPAIGN NEARS OFFICIAL CLOSE

Few More Hours and Big Race Will End, When Prizes Will Be Claimed

The climax tonight! Eight weeks of hard work and anxiety culminate in the closing scene at 8 o'clock tonight, at which time The Glendale Evening News' gigantic salesmanship campaign comes to an official close and the most aggressive competitors will claim the magnificent prizes.

Success in an affair of this kind depends upon keen judgment and immediate action. Throughout all history people possessing the faculty of knowing a good thing when they see it, and grasping it at the right minute, have won (frequently on the last turn of the card), while those undecided and afraid have stood back and talked about what they might have done.

Final Effort
 This newspaper has urged club members to do their best right along, but now it wishes to lay particular stress upon the final necessity of looking the situation squarely in the face, and realizing where it will be necessary to put forth your supreme efforts between now and the finish if you would be declared a winner of one of the grand capital prizes.

Don't flatter yourself that you already have enough credits to win, as some of the others may have a large number of credits in reserve. Don't think for a minute that a million and a half of credits will win the first grand prize, if it won't, and some almost that number printed in the paper. There is more than one club member in that class right now, and before the final scene comes into play you may find yourself in figures greatly enlarged. Don't take a single chance of not winning the prize you most desire. What if you fall short one or two clubs of subscriptions, representing a few hours' work?

Over-Confidence Fatal
 Over-confidence has lost many battles. Relaxation at this stage of the game is suicidal to your success. Determination to win, coupled with relentless activity in securing more, with the big idea of being a big winner, is the only thing that will put you over the top at the last moment. There is no time to lose, for at 8 o'clock (Continued on Page 8)

The New ESSEX

A SIX

Built by Hudson under Hudson Patents

Essex closed car comforts now cost $170 less than ever before. Also with this lower price you get an even more attractive Coach body and a six cylinder motor built on the principle of the famous Hudson Super-Six.

It continues Essex qualities of economy and reliability, known to 135,000 owners. It adds a smoothness of performance which heretofore was exclusively Hudson's. Both cars are alike in all details that count for long satisfactory service at small operating cost.

You will like the new Essex in the nimble ease of its operation. Gears shift quietly. Steering is like guiding a bicycle, and care of the car calls for little more than keeping it lubricated. That, for the most part, is done with an oil can.

The chassis design lowers the center of gravity, giving greater comfort and safety, at all speeds, on all roads. You will be interested in seeing how this is accomplished.

Greater fuel economy is obtained. The car is lighter, longer and roomier. You will agree that from the standpoint of appearance, delightful performance, cost and reliability, the new Essex provides ideal transportation.

Sympathizers Far and Near Send Money to Aid in Replacing Loss

Although John Steven McGroarty does not wish his friends to help rebuild the home he lost at Tujunga, Sunday, December 10, the day following the house burning, so many requests have been received by the Tujunga Woman's club, that this organization has been prompted to handle any contributions that may be offered. The funds will be deposited with the Tujunga Valley bank, which will act as trustee, according to a statement made by Mrs. Mark White, a member of the club.

Friends from far and near and people the author has never met, have sent messages of sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. McGroarty. Many of them have sent money to be used in rebuilding the home, but Mr. McGroarty has expressed himself as not in favor of this plan. He wants his home to represent his own efforts, so it is probable that the money contributed will be used to finish work on the new home of the Mission Play at Saa Gabriel, in compliance with the author's wish.

The Tujunga Woman's club undertook the handling of the fund at the urgent requests of friends and specifies that it is to be entirely a matter of sentiment with those who wish to contribute, and asks that no one give any pretensions sum. The purpose is to give an opportunity to help in rebuilding just as the friends might want to do part of the actual work, if that were practicable. Mrs. Leo L. Lang is one of the committee members who are in charge of the fund.

Sage in Good Spirits
Mr. McGroarty has been in seclusion following the tragic sequel to his happy home warming party, recuperating from the effects of the harrowing experience. Friends who wished to express their sympathy over his loss, found him in good spirits, and inclined to treat the fire loss lightly. His reply was characteristic of his philosophical nature:

"Forget this house-burning stuff folks. My wife didn't burn, did she? I am getting letters from everywhere that would break your heart to read. They all send money or insist in some other way on the right to help rebuild the home. But it is all a mistake to do that. I want the joy of the struggle to restore that home, just as it was or better. The insurance money has been paid. The foundations are still there and the lower rock walls intact. Mrs. McGroarty and I haven't a chick nor child to worry about. When I get the house refurnished again it will be the best-known home in the Southland and we will have another house warming, if God permits, even though my friends shall insist on sending the fire department to guard us.
"Let everyone forget condolence about house burning when they write or meet me. I have so many letters about it from people I never saw, that I actually believe I am the happiest man in California this Christmas season."

TWO WET MEASURES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—An attempt to liberalize the Volstead act was launched in the senate by Senator Walter E. Edge, Republican, of New Jersey. Edge introduced two bills, each of which would make the prohibition act less drastic. The first would authorize the manufacture, sale and distribution of 3 per cent beer instead of the one-half of one per cent brew now permitted.

The second measure would wipe out all restrictions on the issuance of liquor prescriptions by physicians for medical purposes. The measures were referred to the judiciary committee.

Veterans Aid Probe of Fake Promoters

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—A federal round-up of promoters of fake world war veterans' societies is imminent. It has been announced. The promoters have been utilizing the holiday spirit to raise the funds. Postoffice inspectors are making an investigation to learn whether postal laws are being violated by these promoters. During the last six months, the disabled American Veterans' organization has been gathering data on various alleged veterans' societies, which have been turned over to the veterans bureau. The bureau is co-operating with the department of justice and postoffice department, in unearthing these alleged fake organizations.

Daugherty to Decide Farley's Eligibility

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Attorney-General Daugherty will be asked by President Coolidge to rule on the eligibility of Edward P. Farley of Chicago to serve as chairman of the United States States shipping board, it has been announced at the White House. Because of the geographical apportionment provided by acts of congress for the shipping board membership, the validity of the Farley appointment has been questioned and his confirmation held up in the senate. Senator Jones, Republican, of Washington, laid the matter before President Coolidge yesterday.

Survey of Resources of Kern County Completed As Part of Campaign

By GIL A. COWAN
Special to The Evening News
BAKERSFIELD, Dec. 20.—Herbert F. Ormsby, representing the bureau of research and information of the California Development Association, has completed a survey of Kern county's potentialities after a month of intensive effort.

His findings are of little interest to Glendale, perhaps, although they are vital to this city. But what is more important is the fact that the California Development Association is engaged on this and other enterprises for the building of the greatest state in this nation of ours.

J. T. Edwards, F. R. G. S., of Glendale, is another who is employed by the California Development Association, and he is producing at Los Angeles the largest relief map in the world which will show the agricultural, mineral and industrial wealth of the state, not to forget its mountains, valleys, lakes, rivers, forests, etc.

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT SHOWN BY JUDGE

Permits Closed Bootleg Cafe to Open for Banquet to Hungry Kids

By ROLAND KREBS
For International News Service
CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—When federal Judge James H. Wilkerson fined "Diamond Joe" Esposito $1,000 for bootlegging, and by injunction nailed up his Bella Napoli cafe for a year, the underworld chieftain would have snuffed had anyone intimated they were brothers under their skins.

Yet, to the amazement of South Halstead street's tenement dwellers, they discovered today how close the relationship was. Christmas was responsible. "Diamond Joe" is a bootlegger. He admitted it in court. He is one of the reasons that make the Nineteenth ward as tough as it is. He has a drinking acquaintance with all the safe blowers and three minute eggs that live around the Bella Napoli cafe. Not long ago some one bumped off one of Joe's lieutenants. Joe is a tough customer whether you look at him from the east or the west. But under his swarthy skin and the folds of fat of his portly figure, there beats one of those strange things called "a heart of gold."

Proof? Every Christmas Joe had his waiters kick out all the rum hounds that usually patronize the Bella Napoli and turned it over for a night to the poor youngsters that live in those wooden cliffs of tenements.

"Diamond Joe's" feats have been famous in Chicago for years. But this year stern Judge Wilkerson nailed up the Bella Napoli. That meant no Christmas feast for the Halstead street kids. Judge Wilkerson is a tough customer, too, but in a different way. He fines people right and left. He sends them to jail without batting an eyelash. No one ever went before Judge Wilkerson and thought he was going to get off lightly.

Gives Banquet Permit Under his judicial robes, however, there beats the same sort of heart that Diamond Joe has. The judge heard that 400 tenderloin boys and girls were going to be cheated of their Christmas feast because he closed up the Bella Napoli. So today, the judge informed Diamond Joe Esposito, the bootlegger. "You may open up Saturday night and banquet your 400 guests. After that, you close up again and stay closed." That's what Christmas does to tough customers.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters, M.D.
Authors of "Diet and Health, with Key to the Calories"

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

Mrs. C.: Excessive sweating of the face, neck and head in a child is one of the symptoms of rickets. Have you been following our articles on Diet for Children? Probably incorrect diet is the biggest factor in the causing of rickets. Unhygienic surroundings and lack of sunshine also are factors.

Have as a foundation for her diet at least three glasses of milk a day; one cup of vegetables, part raw; one cup of fruit and one or two egg yolks for the protective foods—and for the energy foods, whole grain cereals, including bread, butter, cream, simple desserts, etc. Do not give egg whites, because they seem to be harmful rather than helpful in rickets.

Have her out in the open air and sunshine as much as possible. Have her bare-legged and bare-armed, but otherwise warmly dressed in the cold weather, and always with a shade hat. If she has not been used to this, begin not more than fifteen minutes a day, and gradually extend to a half hour or so. If you are in a position to go to a physician, do so. He will give you specific directions. We have had many letters from our followers saying that their children were cured of rickets by following our column advice.

Mrs. L.: You need not worry about your girl's menstruating irregularly. It is not unusual for the menstruation to be irregular for some time during the adolescent period. As she is growing tall so rapidly you must see that she gets a sufficient amount of food, and that means some amount. You know that if you have been following the Diet for Children articles. Read the answer to Mrs. C. above this. Your daughter can have more milk than three glasses daily.

Soft Palate Calisthenics

One of our followers, who does not sign his name, writes that snoring may be cured by "commanding oneself to abstain from it, and doing this the last minute before falling asleep, so that no further thoughts may intrude. The command must be given sternly and with emphasis. It should become habitual for some months."

I heard an exceedingly funny talk on snoring recently at the Authors' League banquet. The author who gave the talk stated that he had gathered his information from his Pullman car observations. He called snoring "Soft Palate Calisthenics," and divided the types into inspirational and inspirational and the combined inspirational and expirational forms. He gave us demonstrations of a dozen or so varieties, among them the Westinghouse Air Raid type, the sad and melancholy, the whistling and blowing, the conversational, the interrupted expirational or staccato form, and the self-awakening variety. From the gale of laughter which greeted each demonstration it was evident that we had all heard them at some time.

It is thought that, unless there is some permanent obstruction to the breathing, soft palate calisthenics are most often indulged in when the performer is lying flat on his back. While in this position the back of the tongue relaxes backward. Turning over on the side will usually stop the performance.

Mrs. S.: A father who will give a nine-months-old baby, or a child of any age, very hard spankings, ought to be reported to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

It is not at all improbable that he might have injured her kidneys and other organs if he spanked her as hard as you intimate in your letter.

Have you been reading our articles on Diet for Children? These will tell you how to feed your grandchild.

Mrs. C.: You should cure your constipation by attention to your diet, exercise and regularity in going to the toilet, not by taking pills every night. We have an article on constipation which you may have. The article which you requested and did not get probably failed to come because you did not enclose a fully self-addressed, stamped envelope. Sorry; try again.

My Dear Followers: When sending material which we offer you, please remember to enclose a stamped envelope bearing your full name and address. The pamphlet on reducing weight is the only one for which you must enclose 4 cents in stamps extra. Address your letters to me in care of this paper. Make them as brief as possible, not over 250 words, and type or write them legibly with ink. Please sign your name as evidence of good faith—we will not use it in any way. Remember, it is impossible for me to diagnose for you or to answer you personally. I appreciate very much the beautiful letters you send me and regret it is impossible to give you individual advice. The questions you ask will be answered in the columns as soon as possible, if they are of general interest. Don't forget the s. a. if you expect me to send you the information I have offered.

BEAUTY CHATS

HAIR TONICS

In winter weather the hair is apt to become excessively oily owing to the fact that hats are worn so many more hours a day than in the summer, and that the hats themselves are so heavy and heating. The hair is packed down against the scalp and sometimes stays so all day. Here are suggestions for keeping the hair healthy all winter.

At night when you take it down run the fingers up through it and shake it all out loosely. At the same time give the scalp quick, vigorous massage, clutch handfuls of the hair and pull them away from the scalp.

You probably shampoo once in three weeks. Get some crude oil, which is thick, black oil, and the night before you shampoo heat it as hot as your scalp can stand it, and rub it in thoroughly. If you rub in enough you will probably have to pin a towel over the pillow to protect the linen case. When you shampoo be sure you use enough soap and hot water to get out all this oil. Three thorough soappings at least will be needed, possibly four.

Have you a good hair tonic? It is more necessary in winter than in summer. I don't think I can do better than to repeat the formula for mine, which is still the best tonic I know.

Pilocarpine Hydrochlorate... 2 gr.
Precipitated Sulphur..... 30 gr.
Detergent; or Creasol (Lily)..... 30 drops
Castor Oil..... 10 drops
Alcohol (95 per cent)..... 4 ounces
Tr. Cantharides..... 4 drams
Cologne (Farina)..... 4 drams
Rosewater, to make..... 8 ounces

This can be used daily, or two or three times a week. It is very stimulating and it is particularly good if the hair has any tendency towards premature grayness. As a matter of fact I got this tonic for all who complained of early gray hairs, but it is such an excellent general tonic that I can recommend it for anyone. Being very stimulating it is apt to make the hair a little oily if it already has that tendency.

Sixteen—Any condition that would cause dandruff would also affect the color of the hair, or would even cause gray hair. In most cases nature will correct all scalp or hair troubles if the circulation is quickened through a daily massage, unless there is a run down state of health, when the hair will always be affected by it.

Megs—It is not advisable to use camphor on the bust for reduction. Try deep breathing and exercises of the arms that also exercise all the muscles of the chest.

Troubled—Bran does not fatten. All the hair that falls out is dead hair, so when you build up the scalp those hairs should come out as it helps the new hair to grow. If you are in need of a good hair tonic I shall be glad to mail you the formula for the Pilocarpine tonic, so often advised in the Chats, upon receipt of a stamped, self-addressed envelope for mailing.

Tomorrow—If You Have Chills.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes, in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So, if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

Heart and Home Problems

By MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Some time ago I read in your column the letter of a girl who was not popular and thought the cause was her hatred of petting. You told her she was right in allowing no love-making. I presume you will not publish this because it differs from your narrow code of ethics.

I am nineteen and for the last three years have gone practically with whom I wished. The list has included college men, traveling men, high school boys, farm boys and factory workers. In all this time I have seen no man who was your much bragged of "pal" type. They all expected a little love-making and got it. I would say they respected me more for it—certainly they respected me. I never have been insulted by any one of them.

You probably think that I am the moron type of girl. I am not. At eighteen I graduated from high school, fifth in a class of ninety-eight.

Now I have found the man who makes me feel, the man I love. He asked me if I ever kissed any one else and I said I had. He replied, "I am glad you have. No girl could be popular or desirable to any one man if she had not been kissed by others. I would think that you were lacking in self-faith. Let us not misunderstand our neighbor who appears conceited. She may be making a struggle to retain her self-faith."

Tomorrow—Some Christmas Goodies.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So, if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question. Be sure to use your full name, street number, and the name of your city and state.—The Editor.

extremely sensitive. After a few months in the town she began to avoid people as much as possible. Naturally this distressed her young husband. He wanted her to take her place in the community life—to be friends with his townspeople.

But the little bride could not seem to lift herself out of the morass of worry. She had made several mistakes—little breaks in the small-town conventions, and she knew that she was being criticized severely for them. She brooded over the bad start she had made in this vicinity where she was to live all her life! She was almost sick over the situation.

Then one day she met Mrs. W. From the first she was attracted by the woman's self-assurance. She marvelled at the way Mrs. W. sailed down Main Street looking as if she owned every foot of ground she walked on. And all at once she got to envying this high-handed woman.

TODAY—Santa's Glamour Dim in N. Y.; What He Does "Between Times."

By JACK CARBERRY
For International News Service.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Every body knows there is a Santa Claus. There are so many of him. Dressed in his flowing King Lear's and his uniform that never cost a cent less than $2.25, he has taken his place on every important corner from Broadway to Market street—hired by department stores usually to emphasize the "Christmas spirit."

Some are portly, fitting the universal conception of the old saint. Others are skinny, desiccated fellows, with scraggly beards. But what is he? Where does he come from? What does he do between seasons? And do the children believe in him?

O. Henry found one who was a burglar in off hours. "Ga-wan, ya bum—bet it! Ya can't pull that stuff on me. If ya ain't got a nickel ya can't ride on dis car—see!" And Santa left a Broadway surface car at the end of the conductor's boot. "He didn't have a jit to pay his fare—thought them phoney whisksers would get him by, I guess," the conductor explained. Evidently Santa Claus aren't treated with respect—in New York.

Can you picture Santa at home answering the good wife's call of "Clarence?"

That's what the 200-pound individual of the red suit and whiskers in the Times Square district must do. And, sad to relate, Clarence was observed in the act of rescuing an almost good-as-new cigar from the gutter there—it wasn't half smoked. "Do the kids believe you?" the Santa—and he looked like Santa, too—at Herald Square was asked. "Nu Yoik kids don't believe nothin'." Santa informed.

CALL BALD EAGLE IMPOSTOR Mustn't Be Used As Emblem, Is Claimed

The bald eagle (above) and the golden eagle

Blackfoot chief of the Glacier National Park reservation, says the Indians have always held the golden eagle in higher esteem because of its supremacy in taking live animal prey for its food. As a purebred American, White Cliff, whose likeness appears on the present 5-cent piece, declares his pride of country suffers whenever he looks upon a silver coin of larger denomination and beholds emblazoned there the facsimile of a bald eagle. Montana civic bodies are said to be convinced the golden eagle is the more symbolic bird to represent the United States. The bald eagle is a rare bird, but Rocky mountain guides say this is due to nature's law which results in the survival of the fittest. In presenting the case to Congress, adherents of the golden eagle's cause are eager to lay bare the personal lives of both species.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

BY HOWARD R. GARLE

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE COASTER WAGON
"Oh, dear!" sighed Nannie Wagtail, the little girl goat, when she came home from school one day. "What's the matter?" asked Baby Bunty, the little rabbit child, who was an orphan. Baby Bunty had no home of her own, so she stayed, in turn, at the homes of the other animal children. Just now she was visiting the Wagtails, and, like "Orphan Annie," Baby Bunty used to "wash an' wipe th' dishes, an' put th' cups away."

"What's the matter, Nannie?" asked Baby Bunty, kindly, as the goat girl sighed again most sadly. "Did you miss your lessons at the hollow stump school, and did the lady mouse teacher keep you in?" For Bunty was in a lower class than Nannie, and didn't know all that went on. "No, I wasn't kept in," bleated Nannie. "Then why are you sad?" asked Baby Bunty. "Because I have nothing to lend Uncle Wiggily," answered Nannie. "My brother Billie let Uncle Wiggily take some stilts, and Peetie Bow Wow lent his roller skates. And Uncle Wiggily will tell Santa Claus to bring the boys something nice, 'cause they were good to him and lent him things. And I haven't a thing to lend Uncle Wiggily—and oh, dear!" sighed Nannie again.

Baby Bunty was a cute, clever little rabbit girl. She was always getting into mischief and out again, but everyone loved her just the same—Uncle Wiggily most of all. "Oh, Nannie! I know what you can lend Uncle Wiggily!" suddenly exclaimed Baby Bunty. "What?" asked the girl goat. "There's an old coaster wagon out in your woodshed," went on Baby Bunty. "I saw it yesterday. I guess it was Billie's once, but it's all broken now and he doesn't want it any more. We can take that over to Uncle Wiggily! Come on!"

"What good would it do to lend him a broken coaster wagon?" asked Nannie. "He couldn't have any fun with that as he did with the roller skates and the stilts. Besides, if the wagon is broken we can't even pull it over to the hollow stump bungalow. No, I guess I can't lend Uncle Wiggily anything, Baby Bunty, and he won't speak a good word to Santa Claus for me." But Baby Bunty did not easily give up. She caught hold of Nannie's hoof and led her toward the woodshed where the little rabbit girl had seen the old toy coaster wagon.

"Look!" exclaimed Baby Bunty, pointing. "Tisn't it broken so very much. One side is partly gone and there are only three wheels and it hasn't anything to pull it by. Outside of that, it's all right. And maybe we can put another wheel on." "Oh, maybe we can!" exclaimed Nannie, who was not quite so sad now. "I know where there's an old baby carriage wheel. We'll fasten that on." "And we can tie a piece of clothes line on to pull it by," said Baby Bunty, "and nail a piece of soap box on the side." "That's just what we'll do!" bleated Nannie.

The two little animal girls were quite clever, and in a short time they had mended the old coaster wagon so it would run. Of course the baby carriage wheel was a bit too large, but why worry about that? True, because three of the wheels were one size and the fourth wheel another size, the coaster wagon went along with a wobbly wobbly motion. But, as Baby Bunty said: "That only makes it the more fun."

Fixing up the wagon as best they could, Nannie and Baby Bunty took it to Uncle Wiggily's hollow stump bungalow. "Did you bring your wagon to get a load of wood?" asked the rabbit gentleman. "No, thank you," answered Nannie. "We brought you this wagon for you to play with if you present a program of great excellence given at the Tuesday Afternoon club rooms in Butler's hall Tuesday afternoon. H. B. Lynch, manager of the lighting department of the city of Glendale, was in Azusa last night speaking on the successful lighting system in Glendale. My kidneys work a lot better since I received your generous offer," writes John W. Brogan, Adams, Mass. FOLEY PILLS are a diuretic stimulant for the KIDNEYS and while being taken close attention should be paid to the diet. Avoid sweets, pastry, starchy foods, alcoholic drinks, tea and coffee. Drink plenty of good fresh water, and keep the body warmly clothed. Refuse substitutes. Children Present Program of Attractive Numbers As Parents Applaud

With the school yard and two sides of Los Angeles avenue full of parked cars, the schoolhouse held a larger crowd Tuesday night than ever before in the history of Crescanta. In fact, the crowd was so great the auditorium could not accommodate them, and part of the crowds stood in the corridor and patio of the school building.

Some of the ingenious ones seated themselves on step ladders placed in front of the open doors, so that the occupants could see over the heads of those seated in the auditorium proper.

The occasion was that of the school children's closing exercises for the year, and the presentation of the candies and popcorn balls. The parents heartily enjoyed the Christmas tree which was arranged for them by the Parent-Teachers' association committee and the teachers.

The Christmas tree was placed in the centre of the patio, while great streamers of pepper branches entwined with red crepe streamers were hung from each corner of the patio to the tip of the tree. Gay ornaments, yards of tinsel and numbers of brilliant lights decorated the beautiful tree, which dominated the scene.

The program, as follows, was remarkably well directed and the audience became children again for the evening hours. The program consisted of the following:
Carols—Pupils of fifth and sixth grades, "Joy to the World; The Lord Is Come;" "Hark, The Herald Angels Sing;" "O Come, All Ye Faithful."

Ruggles in the Rear—a comedy by pupils of the first grade, directed by Miss Olga Rasmussen. Cast: Mrs. Ruggles, Letty Smith, Sarah Maud, Lottie Gammill; Peppermint canes and popcorn balls were distributed to the school kiddies after the performance and after they were supplied the grown-up kiddies were also treated.

On Monday evening of this week Mr. Angier, assisted by C. W. Cox, entertained the Scoutmasters of Verdugo Hills at their monthly round table. The policies of operation for the coming year were discussed and refreshments were served.

It is probable next month's meeting will be held in Glendale. The Community Chorus will hold its regular weekly sing tonight at 7, sharp. All are cordially invited to attend and enjoy the carols with the Community Singers.

Burglar Alarm Fails to Foil Fur Thieves

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The official entry of William G. McAdoo into the race for the Democratic presidential nomination has been received with quiet interest here.

DEMOCRATS WANT WILSON'S OPINION
Former President Silent on McAdoo's Candidacy in Presidential Race

His candidacy has been regarded for so long as a foregone conclusion that the formal act of casting his sonnet into the ring in South Dakota created such a ripple on the placid surface of Democratic waters.

The most noticeable result of McAdoo's formal announcement was to quicken the curiosity that is generally felt in Democratic quarters as to the result of law's candidacy will be dealt with by Woodrow Wilson. The seclusion of S street follows the turns and shifts of party politics with a good deal more assiduity than is generally credited.

The former president has not expressed any opinion concerning his son-in-law's candidacy, unless it has been to Mr. McAdoo himself. Callers from time to time have endeavored to sound out Mr. Wilson, but have invariably met with replies which indicated Mr. Wilson was "more interested in principles and policies than personalities."

One story generally credited in Democratic circles is that during Mr. McAdoo's recent visit to Washington, in which he spent considerable time in S street, he acquainted Mr. Wilson with his intention of seeking the nomination and confided his plans in some detail. Mr. Wilson is said to have listened interestedly and expressed neither approval nor disapproval. Mr. Wilson can be expected to make his position "absolutely clear" before the Democratic convention meets next June, his friends said.

Two Candidates
The field of announced candidates now numbers two, the other being Senator Oscar Underwood of Alabama. Predictions were heard today in Democratic quarters that it is entirely likely there will be no more avowed candidates before the convention, although the political stable will be filled with "dark horses" who will await their freely expected deadlock such as featured the San Francisco convention in 1920 and the Baltimore meeting in 1912.

WHITE SOX MEET SAWTELLE'S TEAM

Mike Donlin's Players Take Drastic Steps to Land Triple A Pennant

Realizing that drastic steps are necessary if the White Sox are to be in the first division, let alone cop the pennant in the Triple A league, Mike Donlin, under the personal direction of Owners Kerwin and Leischner, has rebuilt the team which has represented Glendale this year will appear next Sunday against Sawtelle. The pastime is booked for the San Fernando ball yard, and Larry Arnold, who pilots the visiting aggregation, has a real ball team, standing second to San Pedro and Wilmette, where they tied for the top of the percentage column.

The team will have just two men that started the season in a White Sox uniform, Bill Doran and Doc Crandall. Doran will hold down third, and Doc has again been switched to the outfield. Doc's hitting ability is great to allow him being left out of the lineup, and he has played almost every position on the team. Smith, who was one of the leading hitters of the Wichita club, in the Western league, last season, will hold down the center garden, with Coleman in left. Coleman is a good fielder and has been weak with the stick since appearing with the locals. He showed up better last Sunday than in previous games, and Donlin hopes he has struck his stride.

Fills Long Want
Slade and "Chicken" Hawkes, of Vernon, will cavort at shortstop and first base, respectively. Slade has been one of the most consistent hitters on the team, and Hawkes will be a terrific pitcher, and will be a great addition to both defense and offense.

Completing the infield will be Carl Sawyer, the Vernon comedian, whose antics always keep the crowd in good humor. He has been signed for the remainder of the season with the White Sox.

Collard, who worked the last two games for the locals, has gone north to avoid a bad ending. Miller will both be on the lot, but the man to receive the pitching assignment is being kept a dark mystery. It is known that the White Sox are dickering with one of the leading minor league pitchers of the country to work in the local ball yard, and they expect to have his signature to a contract today or tomorrow. Until this is done no announcement will be made, as several clubs are bidding for his services.

Unless the new White Sox show much more class than their predecessors they will have a hard time turning back the Sawtellians, as Arnold has his team in the scrap from the first inning to the last. Barnaba, the famous southpaw spitballer, will probably twirl for the visitors, with McMullin receiving.

TENTATIVE CONTRACT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The special committee of the United States shipping board, headed by T. V. Connor, which has been conferring for the past few weeks with operators of the United Kingdom lines over the question of consolidating operation, has submitted to the board for approval a tentative new contract, which will eliminate three or four of the present operators, leaving the lines in the hands of one or two. The contract, it is said, has the approval of the operators.

New German Oil Formula Rubs Out Rheumatic Pains

Remarkable Discovery Promises Relief to Rheumatic Sufferers
German chemistry that has given to the world the boon of Aspirin for the relief of headache pain, and Novocaine for painless dentistry, has now come forward with another scientific discovery that is a thing of the past for thousands who have suffered terrible tortures.
A new combination of certain oils has been discovered which produces a clear amber liquid that affords immediate relief from pain in many instances. It is so penetrating that it disappears within a few seconds, so that it must be entirely absorbed by the body tissue. Even in the most advanced and stubborn cases the use of this remarkable oil has shown astonishing improvement at once in many instances. Fired muscles regain life, creaking joints with the pain all gone become supple, and the annoying "stiffness" disappears.
Rheumatism, in many cases, is due to internal abscesses, such as a blind pus pocket in a tooth, your dentist will return your money. It is called Buhler Oil, and can be had at most good druggists, such as Roberts & Echoes, Lexington Drug Co., Geo. V. Black—Advertisement.

ing and passing. He weighs approximately 220 pounds and is one of the greatest distance kickers of the season.

Giant Panther Is Milstead
"In Milstead, the first of my picks, Yale had a giant who had the catlike movements of the big panther—a man big enough to be immovable in the smother of interference, and yet with extraordinary speed, not only down the field, but in interference, and whose value was so recognized that two and sometimes three men were played against him by the opponents.

"Selecting a mate for Milstead is a difficult job, but, fortunately, we have in Sundstrom of Cornell an uncanny perception in diagnosing plays.

"Hazel of Rutgers is usually rated in the backfield, but he frequently plays on the end; he makes a perfect match in this regard for Bomar, and in addition we get Hazel's long-distance kick-

MAJOR LEAGUERS MAY TRAIN HERE

Eastern Club Angles for Bid To Make Glendale Its Pre-Season Home

Glendale has an opportunity to be the training camp next spring for one of the most famous major league ball clubs.

News of the fine ball park recently erected on San Fernando road has trickled back east, and Frank Kerwin yesterday received a letter from the business manager of an American league ball club in the east asking what inducements would be offered in case this city would enter the ring for the club's appearance here to condition for the campaign of 1924.

Some idea of the importance of this proposal may be gained by considering that Long Beach is erecting a ball park to cost in the neighborhood of $100,000 for a home for the Boston Red Sox next spring. If the Red Sox, who fought with the Athletics for the pennant last season, are worth that much to Long Beach, how much would a first division team be to Glendale?

Turn to California
It is true that these eastern baseball magnates generally want everything but the mayor's belt for coming to any town to train, but all major league outfits are turning to California as the spring training ground, especially in view of the fact that they have good competition with other teams to try out their recruit players here, something that has been lacking in the south.

It is safe to say that there is no finer minor league ball park on the western coast than that of Glendale. The diamond is in first-class shape, the location is good, and all that would be needed is a place for the team to stay. Glendale is far enough away from the white lights to keep the players at home nights, yet is close enough to draw good crowds for the exhibition, and these business managers certainly like to hear the merry creak of the turnstile.

Advertise Glendale
The columns of dispatches under the Glendale date line appearing in the eastern papers every day during the training period would be worth a great deal to Glendale, and furnish advertising that is impossible to get any other way.

The management of the White Sox has been so busy getting things at the park straightened out and bolstering up the team for the pennant race in the Triple A league that they have not brought this matter up before local organizations, although the matter was given consideration before the letter of inquiry was received from the east.

Grant Leischner wired east last night asking for more definite information, and if there is any hope that the city of Glendale, the ball park owners and the eastern team could be brought together, will take the initiative in the matter.

Rumors, Denials, Alibis

By F. A. GRAHAM

"So I took the $50,000 and bought a ball player." The baseball magnates are stealing Billy De Beck's thunder right merrily these days. Seasons come and seasons wane, but magnates spend their washers forever (in conversation).

The customary rumors are being wafted about that much class is being assembled by the clubs to do battle for another pennant. Players are being bought and sold so swift that their coffee gets cold in the saucer before they have time to get used to each new cup. They keep their household goods piled in the family flivver, ready to fly at a moment's notice to the next owner.

Pacific coast fans will have an old favorite back next season to razz in the person of Duke Bill Kenworthy, who was suspended two years ago for some alleged finger scorching deal with another club. Some less complimentary lingo, however, has been known to call Bill "the old woman." However, Portland likes the old lady, buddy as she is, and she will pilot that club in the coming epidemic of doubledeckerers.

Harry Williams is quoted as in favor of more class in the umpiring staff, which makes it unanimous. The new money has often deplored the condition from the outside and now that he is inside he proposes to remedy it. He believes there is but one way of getting results and that is by paying what good men are worth. It is possible that he may experiment with a relief system the coming year, using two additional catchers to take turns relieving the regulars. Some of the fans last year tried earnestly to relieve one or twoumps of their youthful figures and complexions.

Hughie High, Vernon outfielder, has been sold to Columbus, in the American association. Ken Douglas of the Angel pitching staff has been peddled to Albany, in the Eastern league, managed by Yipping Bill Rodgers, former pilot of Sacramento.

The Yankees evidently don't crave any part of Jackie May, the boy wonder, who stood the Coast league on its head two years ago, but who allowed the same to get back on its feet last year. The Yanks were

Bakersfield and Lick To Clash Saturday

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 20.—With Bakersfield high school scheduled to arrive here tomorrow and prepare for the Saturday game which will decide the interscholastic football championship of California, Lick-Wilmerding, holder of the Northern California title, has eased up on its training and Coach Hollingberry pronounces his charges fit for the battle of their lives.

The Lick-Wilmerding warriors, although outwitted by the Oil Drillers who are present holders of the state title, have been drilled in a number of deceptive plays which are counted on to put over a touchdown when the ball gets into Bakersfield territory.

Advance reservations indicate the largest crowd that ever attended a high school contest in San Francisco will be on hand when game time comes around next Saturday.

A white fabric, known as "hsiapu" or Chinese linen, woven from bark of hemp, is now the product of an industry of importance in parts of China.

DEATH KNELL OF BOXING SOUNDED

Decision in Dundee-Bernstein Bout Is Condemned By Sport Writers

By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service.
NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Sport critics are today writing the epitaphs of legalized boxing in New York state, as a result of the solemn decision of a referee and two judges, that Johnny Dundee had beaten Jack Bernstein for the junior lightweight championship on Monday night. The decision is referred to as the worst of many bad ones rendered since the Walker law came into effect some four years ago.

It is said that one of the first remedial steps to be taken by the state athletic commission will be a demand upon Tex Rickard to drive the gamblers out of Madison Square Garden once and for all time. Gamblers were said to have been active in the Garden Monday night.

Gambler's Rendezvous
Observers claim that the old Garden restaurant and bar, just off the main entrance, was thronged with these ghouls of the profession just before the main bout went on, and that business was brisk. The rendezvous in question, has ever been a happy hunting ground for the gambling element.

The effect was to send the odds of 8 to 5 on Bernstein tumbling to even money and at one stage of the proceedings, to 6 to 5 on Dundee. The circumstance was suspicious, to say the least.

It is understood that Rickard has pledged himself to drive the gamblers out of the Garden, as he did on the occasion of the Britton-Walker bout for the middleweight title, an affair that saw the odds fluctuate so sharply that the commission declared all bets off.

"Such decisions give the game a black eye," Rickard is quoted as saying, "and any time the game gets a black eye, I get one too."

NO RETURN MATCH

When asked if he would match Dundee and Bernstein again, Rickard gave vent to an emphatic "never, there might have been a riot on Monday."

At that the hint of collusion is predicated by the fact that some competent and unbiased observers have declared that they saw nothing wrong with the decision. Meantime, it is understood that the commission is disposed to take a poll of educated opinion on the controversy. It is said to be asking for suggestions on the rendering of decisions in the future, and one of them coming from many sources, demands the abolition of judges and the constitution of the referee as the sole arbiter, as in the days of the Frawley law.

The judges on Monday night were E. B. Becker and "Harlem Tommy" Murphy, great lightweight of another era. They voted for Dundee. Jack O'Sullivan, the referee, cast the sole vote for Bernstein.

Identify Airmen Who Lost Lives in Crash
SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Dec. 20.—The two army fliers burned to death Sunday when their plane fell at Temple, Texas, were Captain Harold E. Sturkieck of New York and Sergeant C. E. Ryals of Greenwood, Ga., according to messages received here.

Still Freshmen
In any case Bancroft and Fletcher will remain in the freshman class of the McGraw managerial school for the coming season. Thenceforth, it will be a question of advancing to the sophomore grade or being flunked out entirely.

At present there are only two managers of the National league clubs—Bancroft and Bill Killifer—who have had no connection with McGraw. Wilbert Robinson of the Dodgers is a post-graduate. He has already won pennants, in 1916 and 1920, and annually defies logic by making something out of nothing. Bill McKechnie has done quite well with his short regime in Pittsburgh, while Pat Moran's success in Cincinnati is above elaboration.

At that, we regard Moran as beyond the McGraw influence entirely. After winning a pennant in Philadelphia in 1915 and finishing one-two-three the following seasons, he was waived gently, but firmly, out, and subsequently taken on as a coach by the Giants. Before he had a chance to don a New York uniform he was allowed to escape in order that he might take over the Reds. In other words, the McGraw influence affected Moran's success like rain affects rubber.

MODERNIST CAMPAIGN
NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Modernists are planning to carry their rebellion against the fundamentalist teachings of the Protestant Episcopal church into the stronghold of the conservatives, the house of bishops. The laity became embroiled in the dispute also. J. P. Morgan, G. W. Wickersham, Mrs. Herbert Satterlee, sister of Moran, Mrs. Henry P. Davidson, Judge Edward R. Finch and George Gordon Battle were among the most widely known Episcopalianists said to be lined up behind the modernist faction, who in statements, have cast doubt upon the virgin birth of Christ.

SEASON TICKETS FOR BALL GAMES

Fans Can See Every Game At White Sox Grounds Next Year at Low Price

Season tickets entitling the holder to admission to all ball games played at the San Fernando road ball park, home of the White Sox, for the year of 1924, are now on sale at Cornwell & Kelly's Hardware store, 107 North Brand boulevard. The price of the tickets is $10.00.

"These tickets," said Grant Leischner yesterday, "will give admission to every game played at the new ball park, whether in the Triple A league, the San Fernando valley league or independent ball games. We have already booked three exhibition games for next spring. The Chicago Cubs will meet the New York Yankees, the Angels the Seattle club, and the Kansas City Blues will tackle the Chicago White Sox. These season tickets are good for the exhibition games as well.

Chance for Fans
"The admission to all games is 50 cents, and a purchaser would only have to attend twenty games during the year to break even, while if he is an enthusiastic fan, and takes them all in, he will get approximately fifty dollars' worth of baseball on his season ticket."

"Our idea in putting them on sale at this time is to get them before the public with the idea of presenting these season tickets as Christmas gifts. They would last for twelve months and in our opinion be an ideal present for husband, son or sweetheart."

Beats Wife to Death, Stabs Self, Survives

LOGANSPORT, Ind., Dec. 20.—Edward Hutchinson, forty-five, wealthy farm operator, became so enraged when he accused his wife of intimacy with another man, that he plunged a carving knife into his side and broke the blade off the shaft.

His two children, Edgar, nine, and Edgar, six, who saw the murder done, spread the alarm and then dragged the woman's body from the flames and quenched the fire.

COMMENT That's All

Busy Days for Merchants Los Angeles Is Hard Hit For Advertising for City What Others Are Saying

By Gil A. Cowan

Another week and then Christmas! My, what busy days are in store for the merchants and their clerks. And what a happy time the people of Glendale will have in making the final selections of gifts for their loved ones.

Christmas is the one season of the year when Americans forget themselves. Indeed, the most material thing goes out and think only of their money, many friends, and it is well that the time for stock-taking in the matter of friendship rolls round once a year.

Why, what would this old world mean to each and every one of us if we did not have friends? What if we lived in the old feud days when only one's family counted? Verily, we see the world getting better, but to prove the case is difficult in the face of professional reformers.

Speaking of these reformers, calls to mind the reaction of Los Angeles closing its movie directors' ball at midnight. While reparations may be made, the whole show world is "knocking" the Angel city for its "blueshevik" element.

Throughout this broad land of ours, the word is spread that Los Angeles is a town of peanut politicians, of small minded reformers, of pettifoggers, and you will see cartoons in papers throughout the country picturing the long hair as having scored a knockout. He has.

The total expenditure of the All Year Club to date, will not under the hand two or three people have done the city of Los Angeles. It is about time the people of Southern California awakened to the fact that people were born to live their own lives—not live as others would MAKE them.

Speaking of the All Year club advertising, calls to attention the need of Glendale making itself a little better known throughout the length and breadth of this land of ours.

Pasadena has very effectively used a small space in The Saturday Evening Post.

What Glendale's Chamber of Commerce has done is all right, but we believe their advertising appropriation should be increased, so that more good work of informing the public can be done.

Let this idea be among Glendale's New Year resolutions.

Crime at the holiday season is most deplorable.

In the last few days motorists over the Ridge route between Bakersfield and Los Angeles, have been victimized by bandits, who boldly ply the roads.

At the same time the numerous bad check passers make it impossible for a traveler to go anywhere without a certain amount of coin, for "cashing a check" is a high crime nowadays in all of the first class hotels.

Even banks are prone not to pass scrutiny on checks while paper money is being counterfeited in the larger denominations which causes no end of embarrassment for the person who possesses a ten or twenty dollar bill. Some systems should be devised in this modern day and age, whereby a traveler need not carry his bank account on his person. Travelers' checks are little better than personal checks, although they help somewhat.

We believe the bankers owe it to the public to insure them service, particularly within the confines of the state in which their institutions operate.

In turn, more severe penalties should be a meted those who betray the business man in cashing worthless paper.

From the newspapers throughout the state the following lines of cheer and wisdom are culled:

The United States spends more on gum than religion. This is because one is used chiefly on Sunday.—Santa Rosa Republican.

"Always be up and doing," said an old copy book motto. A lot of people are following it in doing others.—Redding Searchlight.

The foreign situation is about the same, except that the names are getting harder to pronounce.—Siskiyou News.

At least two positive statements can be made about trouble. One is that most of the calamities we apprehend never happen. The other is that those which do happen, with the exception of death, need not be final, unless we permit them to be so. And, of all human calamities, being afraid is one of the worst.—Sacramento Bee.

"Next to a baby, a newspaper is the most interesting thing in the world," says Professor Herria of Medill institution of Chicago. But that depends both on the newspaper and the baby.—Hanford Sentinel.

Protect the old trees and plant new ones. Plant life alone has the power of transforming auto exhaust gas from poison to harmless vapor. A tree by the highway is an antidote.—Woodland Democrat.

Bread-saving habits, formed in war-time and needlessly continued, now are limiting the consumption of wheat, say officials of the department of agriculture. Various campaigns are under way to induce people to eat more bread. That would help some farmers and injure others. For if people eat more of one thing, they eat less of something else.—Chicago Enterprise.

Big Campaign For Prizes Nears Close

tonight the campaign will come to a close. To temporize is to let your competitor sweep ahead and win the prize that might have been yours.

Time and again we have warned you that you must hustle as never before if you want to win, and the matter rests with you as to which one of the prizes will be yours after the final counting tonight. After reading this you still have time enough to get a few more clubs, and if you do it will be a big help to you and may put you over the top for one of the grand capital prizes.

Attention Boys!

Friday morning between the hours of 9 and 11, Santa Claus will be standing by the Christmas tree over Pendroy's side door entrance on Harvard street, and will toss bags of candy to all the children about. We have prepared hundreds of bags, and in each will be a slip of paper on which is a number; this number is a chance on a wonderful toy—one suitable for the little boy or the big boy; a really valuable gift that would please any boy. Remember the chance is for the boys only, as the girls received their gifts on Wednesday morning; but the bags of candy are for the boys and girls too. Write your name and address on the paper you find in the bag, and drop it into the box placed at the side entrance. The first one taken out will receive the gift, and the decision will be made on Saturday morning.
