NEW COUNTERFEITS.

Every counterfeit that has ever been made has one or more mistakes in it. Our aim is to show what that mistake is.

FARMERS & MANUFACTURERS NATIONAL B'K, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.
10s, a very dangerous counterfeit, well executed, and very likely to deceive. Look out for them.

FIRST NAT. BANK, Boston, Mass.
20s, imit. The left hand of the soldier holding the gun does not touch the D in "Deposited;" in genuine it does. The butt of the musket on lower left corner touches the scroll work around figures "20;" and the hand of the female on the man's breast, the fingers can scarcely be seen. The shield behind the eagle on the back of the note has but six stars, and are very imperfect. Genuine shows 17.

FIRST NAT. BANK, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.
10s, imitation, are again being put in circulation. They are well engraved and very likely to deceive. Look out for them.

MARINE NAT. BANK, N. Y. City.
2s. A good imitation and very likely to deceive. Genuine read "Marine National Bank of the City of New York." Counterfeit, Marine National Bank of New York.

MERCHANTS' NAT. B'K, N. Y. City.
20s, imitation. The engraving is well executed, and the paper and printing are good. An exceedingly good counterfeit and very likely to deceive.

50 CENT FRACTIONAL CURRENCY.
Latest Issue.—The engraving is coarse and the fine lathe work wanting, though imitated coarsely, yet it is well calculated to deceive. The red and blue fibres in the paper of the genuine are imitated by printing; in the counterfeit, the long beard of Secretary Stanton is darker, and the figures "50" on the right hand are surrounded by solid black instead of fine lines as in the genuine. On the reverse, the counterfeit may be distinguished by the "s" in "Customs" failing to touch the large oval to the next, and also by the absence of shading and the fine lines around the "50" in the corners.

New Issue—A very good counterfeit. The portrait of Lincoln is coarser and darker than the genuine, and the lathe work in the centre of the die is also darker.

NATIONAL BANK OF COMMERCE,
New York City.

20s, imitation. The paper is rather poor, the shading irregular and impression imperfect, although very dangerous counterfeit. In the Battle of Lexington there is no boy behind the soldier loading his gun, while in genuine there is; on the right end, the Goddess of Liberty has no toes to her feet, and but one foot can be seen; in the genuine they are both visible; above her head the word "Loyalty" cannot be seen, while in the genuine it is very plain; the genuine are signed Jno. A. Stevens.

NATIONAL SHOE & LEATHER B'K,
New York City.

20s. A good imitation. The face of the bill and the lettering is well done, while the engraving on the back of the note is rather coarse. Very likely to deceive.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY NAT. B'K,
Peckskill, N. Y.

2s, imitation. The general appearance of the bill is good, although the shading under the title of the bank is very irregular and dark. The vignette on left end is blurred and very rough.

10s, imitation. Well done.

ONEIDA NATIONAL B'K, Utica, N. Y.
20s, imitation. The paper is rather poor, the shading irregular, impression imperfect. The child on the lap of the Indian girl, on back of the bill is very indistinct. Dangerous.

AGENTS WANTED.

Good, reliable Agents wanted to canvass for this Reporter. A liberal commission offered. Address Box 5,196 N.
Y. Post Office.

New York, December 24, 1870.

The event in financial and commercial circles during the month—since the 25th ult., has been an artificial monetary stringency. The bank-reserves having been considerably reduced—to about nine and a-half millions in excess over their legal requirement—by the demand, so usual at this season, for currency from the South and West for cotton and pork, and from all regions for the payment of various dividends, interest on bonds, etc., falling due at the close of the year, the occasion was about a fortnight ago deemed opportune by a combination of stock-speculators for a "squeeze" by withdrawing nearly $6,000,000. Consequently rates for call-loans advanced from 6 to 7 per cent, and an additional "commission" varying from 1-32 all the way up to 1/2 per cent per diem. Though that extreme stringency did not prevail for more than a day or two the money market has been quite irregular ever since, and will probably remain active until into January, when those dividends and similar disbursements, estimated at sixty to seventy millions dollars, will return to this business centre, and bring about an easier condition of the market. Commercial paper has been little favored, nothing being discounted under 7 per cent. and the quotable rates 7@9 for prime acceptances, and 8@15 for single names, varying according to time and grade.

The Gold market has been comparatively quiet during the month. Quotations declined slowly but almost steadily from 112—as reported last month—to 110 1/2, between which figure and 111 it has fluctuated since. To-day gold closed at 110 1/2 @ 110 3/4.

Foreign Exchange is to-day selling on the standard of sterling; 60 days' commercial, 108 1/4 @ 109; bankers', 109 @ 109 1/4; short sight, 110 @ 110 1/2.

For to-day's quotations in the various branches of the New York Stock Exchange, see page 23.

Another New Counterfeit.

John Smith was brought before Commissioner Shields on the 26th inst., charged with passing a counterfeit $10 note on the Farmers' and Manufacturers' National Bank of Poughkeepsie, upon Matilda Hearn, keeper of a confectionary store, at No. 477 Second Avenue. The counterfeit is new and dangerous.

The following Bankers' Card was received too late for insertion in the inside of the Reporter:

Q. W. WELLINGTON & CO'S BANK,
Corning, N. Y.
L. E. CONGER'S BANK, Dexter, Iowa.

The passers of counterfeit money are having a hard time of it lately, judging from the numerous arrests made in different sections of the country. The officers of the Secret Service Division are scattering them in all directions.

The First National Bank of Cheyenne, W. T., has been organized with a capital of $100,000. A. R. Converse, President, H. J. Rogers, Cashier.

The Comptroller of the Currency has granted the necessary authority for the establishment of the Merchants' National Bank of Richmond, Va., with a capital of $200,000.

Redemption of Three per cent. Certificates.

The Secretary of the Treasury has directed the Assistant Treasurer in this city to give notice that from and after the 31st day of January next, no interest will be paid upon the three per cent certificates of the denomination of $500, between the numbers of 249 and 356 inclusive, and of the denomination of $1,000, between the numbers of 193 and 359 inclusive, nor will such certificates be available after that time as a portion of the lawful money reserves in possession of any national banking association. These certificates in the aggregate amount to $2,000,000, making the total amount thus far advertised $4,000,000.

Stamping Counterfeit Notes.

Treasurer Spinner has decided that officers of the national banks designated as depositors are considered officers of the Treasury, and are under Treasury regulations, and by which all officers of the Department are required, whenever any spurious note purporting to have been issued by the United States shall be offered to any such officer, to stamp thereon the word "counterfeit"

The Treasurer has also decided that before the draft on the back of a duplicate Post Office warrant will be signed by the Treasurer or his assistant, the payee thereof, or party at interest, shall give a bond, with two sureties, for double the amount of the warrant, in the form furnished by the Department, indemnifying the United States against the risk of loss from the payment of the original warrant.

Col. Whitley, Chief of the Secret Service Division, has succeeded in capturing at a small railroad station near Decatur, Ills., upwards of $60,000 in well executed $10, $20 and $50 counterfeit notes, and a large quantity of the new 50 cent fractional currency, just ready to be put in circulation; also a complete set of plates for printing counterfeit $5 United States Treasury notes. These plates are pronounced by experts the best that have ever been attempted by the counterfeiters.

In other locations he secured a set of plates cut in copper for counterfeiting $20 greenbacks; a steel plate for counterfeiting $10 greenbacks; a plate cut in copper to counterfeit a $50 Seven-thirty bond; a set of steel dies for counterfeiting $20 gold coin, another for counterfeiting $10 gold coin, and a third for counterfeiting $2 50 gold coin. Also two kits of tools for cutting plates.

Nearly all this counterfeiting material was obtained through information given by John P. McCartney, a notorious Western counterfeiter, arrested a short time since by Col. Whitley, with over $130,000 in counterfeit money of various denominations in his possession.

Lewis Selner, a stencil plate dealer of No. 261 Bowery, was arrested lately on a charge of circulating bogus currency. One of Col. Whitley's detectives a few days ago visited the premises of the accused, and bought one $20 and three $10 notes, all counterfeit. Later another detective went to the prisoner's store and bought two counterfeits, one of $20 and one of $10. The marked money given in exchange for the counterfeit notes was found in the prisoner's possession.

Counterfeit Tobacco Stamps.

The points of difference between the counterfeit and the genuine stamp are so marked as to be easily detected by the glass. They are as follows:

- FIRST: The imprint in the counterfeit is badly engraved, and a trifle larger than the genuine. The words "Continental Bank Note Co., New York," in the genuine are small, distinct, and not connected, each letter standing separate, while in the counterfeit the letters are heavier, and more crowded, larger, and closer together, and in the word "Continental" the "l" joins the "n," making the "l" and "n" look like an "m," with a period at the end of the imprint in the counterfeit, which is omitted in the genuine.
- SECOND: In the sky of the counterfeit, over the mine of the horse, will be observed four small dots: in the genuine the sky is made of straight lines.
- THIRD: The ornamental lines resembling small stars on each side of the vignette in the latter work of the counterfeit look imperfect and blurred, while in the genuine they appear bright.
- FOURTH: Over the white faced figure "6" on the left side of the stamp in the genuine is a small black figure, a part of the latter work pattern which is wanting in the counterfeit, and the imitation in the work of the counterfeit has a muddy appearance, while in the genuine the patterns are clear and distinct.

500, left centre, oval portrait of Hamilton; Treasury die in pink on right of die; 50 on die on each end of note.

COUNTERFEIT GREENBACKS.

10, (1st kind) can be readily detected by the inferior style of the engraving, particularly the head of Chase. The mouth is crooked, the eyes imperfect, and the hair on the top of the head resembles side hair brushed over to cover baldness. The back is of a lighter green than the genuine.

25, (2d kind) the general appearance is very coarse and may readily be detected; green ink is very pale. On the imitation there is a black straight line under the red figures on the upper part of the bill; none in gen.

50, imit., well executed. Coat of Hamilton badly done. The shirt bosom of Hamilton is very dark and uneven, but in the genuine white and plain. The shading of the words "UNITED STATES" light and broken.

100, 1000, genuine notes without the red seal, and others reported without the usual number being printed upon them.

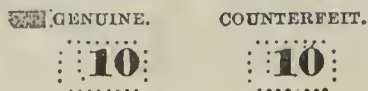

50, imit., words "United States" heavily shaded. Gen. are clear, lightly shaded and plain. The words "Patented 20th June, 1867," under the words N. York are on the counterfeit bill. All the counterfoits are letter A, and are 1/8 inch shorter than the genuine.

On the new series of letter "A," around the figure of Liberty on left end is a plain black line. On the counterfoits, this line along the bottom of the figure running towards the right of the note forms two distinct lines, on gen. only one. But this may be a counterfeiter's dodge to have it described and alter it afterwards.

50, imit., this bill is well calculated to deceive, and the only difference we can detect is in the die on the right end enclosing the figure 5. The genuine has three black circles enclosing the 5. The imit. has only two, and on lower right end figure 8, and on left end series 90.

10, an excellent imitation of the genuine. Note the following discrepancies. In the genuine, the shading around the 10 in the medalion appears like a fine net work, and runs close up to the figures. In the counterfeit, the shading is "picked up," and becomes coarser as it reaches the figures, forming a light streak or circular haze. Another test is on the figure 10 within the light circle. The genuine has three and one-third dots on the left of the fig. 10, while the counterfeit has but three. Thus:

But the surer test is under the left wing of the eagle. The genuine has FOUR DISTINCT ROWS OF FEATHERS under the wing, while in the counterfeit the rows of feathers are undefined. One issue of this counterfeit is of the new series, letter D, No. 53; another is letter D, with a small 5 under the D, No. 23. These counterfoits are the best we have ever seen.

Newer issues have appeared, in which the defects above referred to have been corrected. We would advise our patrons to refuse all 10s, greenbacks, unless they know the parties from whom they receive them.

100, Paper very light, and the green ink of a lighter shade. Dated March 10th, 1862.

100, alt'd from 10, portrait of Chase on left.

100, imit. There are 16 small Xs on upper right margin, and only 15 on the genuine. The words "Printed by the National Bk Note Co." on lower left margin extends over 9 of the Xs on imit. and 8 on the genuine.

100, imit., has 14 small x's on upper right margin—16 on left. The gen. has 15 x's each side of engraver's name. Portrait of Pres. Lincoln is very coarse and pale looking; imit. are dated Washington, March 10, 1862, letter C.

200, very close imit. of gen., the engraving is good, in the center figure the foot of the female can scarcely be seen. On the left end bottom are the words "Payable at the Treasury of the U. S. at New York." The A's in payable are too small and uneven. The letter 'x' in the word 'The' is not crossed in the centre. The imprint is defective; the green ink is of too light a color.

500, alt'd from 25, portrait of Hamilton on left centre. The vignettes of the two-dollar and fifty-dollar Treasury note are the same. Ingenious persons are counterfeiting the body of the fifties and using the vignettes of the twos, producing a note that deceives experts.

500, imit. observe the figures 50 on back of the bill around the margin, the 5 in the imit. runs into the 0, gen. does not. The word 'FIFTY' around the above 50 can scarcely be read. Words 'LEGAL TENDER' is very much blurred. Letter C dated March 2, '63. On the left lower corner the No. 550 instead of 50 enclosed in one circle.

500, imit. observe the head of Hamilton, upon the face of the note, which represents the line of the waistcoat crossing the white collar at the neck. The acute angle formed by the shape of the collar, so far as it is shown, is perfect in the counterfeit note; but in the genuine the lines of the flesh were drawn by the engraver across the point of the collar at its junction with the waistcoat, for the purpose of relieving the angle of the sharpness it would otherwise have exhibited. This difference is not readily observed unless the notes are perfectly clean. The other discrepancy is in the shape of the ornaments in the border on each end of the face of the bills, and in the whole border on the back. The figures "50" are engraved on a green ground, of which the rim, in the genuine bill, is in octagonal form, rather well defined, though the angles are not sharp. The eight sides of what at first view appeared to be circles, may be easily discerned. In the counterfeit bill the border ornaments, containing the "50" are octagonal in only a very slight degree, and seem to be perfect circles. The general appearance of the counterfeit gives no indication of its true character.

1000, imit. the red figures are much larger than the figures of any Treasury Notes, the wings of the eagle are very coarse—the double rule running from it is heavier, and the curve twice as large, while there is a diagonal shading at the joint of the imprint with the rule, which does not appear on the genuine. On the right end of the back of the bill, the 100 in the circles are inverted, thus, 001. In the genuine this inversion is on the left end. The imprint, American Bank Note Co., is very uneven, and too large.

1000, imit., (2d kind) of the notes issued under the act of February, 1862, well executed. The spurious note is smaller, and the coloring on the back is paler than on the genuine bill. The words "one hundred dollars" on the right hand side of the counterfeit are smaller than on the genuine note.

1000, imit., (3d kind) the note is smaller than the genuine, the spread eagle is very coarse, and the shading of UNITED STATES is badly done. The bill is calculated to deceive.

COUNTERFEIT FRACTIONAL CURRENCY. Old Issue.

500, imit., the portraits of Washington differs one from another; in the genuine they are all alike; the green color looks light and pale.

250, imit., well executed. Look out.

2d Issue. 100, imitation. All gen. on the top has the word "Depositaries," the imitation reads "Depositories."

500, imit., have a pale slate color. The small barrels on lower right corner are very indistinct. The gen. have six barrels perfectly clear and plain. Three on lower row, two on next, and one on top. The counterfeit barrels are black, and gen. are white.

500, raised from 50.

3d Issue.

500, imit.; two kinds of the new long 50 cent currency. The imitation of one kind has DESIGNATED on upper right corner instead of DESIGNATED. The second kind has designated correctly spelt, but on the little American Shield, under the Eagle, there is a black line drawn across the upright bars of the Shield. And so on the genuine.

250, imit., are very pale and coarse. The letter C in cents on left end is smaller than the other letters, and too far off.

New Issue.

25, imitation. Above the words "Treasury Department," on the bottom of the bill in the genuine there is a fine narrow line—the counterfoits have a straight line.

Notice the shading of the "25" on the back of the note. The genuine is dark, while the counterfeit is very pale, and very little darker than the other green. The word "of" on the face of the genuine appears thus—"of"—on the counterfeit "of."

250, imit., well executed, but may be detected by the absence of a period (.) after the word Treasurer under Spinner's name; the work is better than any we have previously seen and liable to deceive unless carefully examined.

250, well executed; head of Chittenden; where it reads "Furnished only by the Assistant Treasurers" the Assistant is spelt "Assistatn." In the genuine the shading of the letter "R" in "Five" is unbroken, while the counterfeit has a little notch in it.

500, well executed. The engraving on the face of the note is excellent. The adverse is slightly blurred. The notes are an eighth of an inch narrower than the genuine.

500, the "y" in "Colby's" name crosses a line of the coat in the genuine, but not in the counterfeit.

500, the line of stars on counterfeit between the figures "50" at the top and bottom of the back of the note have white centres, while the entire stars on genuine are in green. The reading in black on the genuine note clear and distinct, while on the counterfeit the bronze is printed on the black, the words "FIFTY CENTS" being almost obliterated.

500, well done. The last "e" in the signature of F. E. Spinner is omitted in some, and the (.) after print. on one end, and the d. after March 30.

500. New and dangerous counterfoits of the last issue of the fifty cent fractional currency notes, which bear upon their face the head of Treasurer Spinner, have been detected by the Treasury Department. It can be detected by the absence of a period (.) after the word print on the right end, and also under the letter "d" in "March 3d," on the left end. The paper is thicker than that of the genuine notes, and the general appearance is calculated to deceive unless closely inspected.

NATIONAL BANKS.

First, Chestnut st. Par C. H. Clark, Pres. M. McMichael, jr., Cash. 10s. imit. A very dangerous counterfeit. Same plate as the one below, with its deficiencies corrected.
10s. imit. This is a dangerous counterfeit. The shading under "Philadelphia" being very black and continuous. Notice the absence of shading on the words "will pay" and "to bearer," and by the word "currency" on upper right corner of the bill being spelled "curreny."
Second, Frankfort st. Par N. Hilles, Pres. J. S. Brown, Cash.
Third, 1428 Market st. Par D. R. Paul, Pres. R. Glenduning, Cash. 10s. imit. Very dangerous and likely to deceive good judges. On upper right of the bill the small words "National Currency" between the small figures 10, is spelled "Cur-reny." The P in "Philadelphia," also stands below the other letters. Same plate as First National Bank of Philadelphia.
Fourth, 723 Arch st. Par H. Askin, Pres. E. F. Moody, Cash. 20s. imit. The face of the bill is good, and the back coarse. The wounded soldier on the left end appears to have lost his head. The last A in Philadelphia is not crossed.

DR. GUILMETTE'S
EXTRACT JUNIPER.

Dr. Guilmette, Physician and Chemist of forty years' experience, after many costly trials, has succeeded in producing a pure JUNIPERINE EXTRACT, warranted free from the deleterious oils usually found in foreign and domestic Gins, and which, by their action upon the fluids and tissues of the body, aggravate the disease, rather than effect a cure.

It is an infusion of the berries of the celebrated Italian Juniper in the best quality of Gin. The result is a PLEASANT STIMULATING, CHEMICALLY PURE, HEALTH GIVING PREPARATION, which has received the endorsement of eminent Physicians and Chemists, as well as the general public. A SAFE, SURE REMEDY FOR ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE KIDNEYS AND URINARY ORGANS IT HAS NO EQUAL. It entirely counteracts the ill effects produced by impure water. Try it and be convinced.
