OWEN HUMPHREYS WINS TENNIS SINGLES CHAMPIONSHIP FROM W. J. KIRKPATRICK

One of the Association's Youngest Players Triumphs Over Veteran Title Holder in Three Straight Sets—Staples Consolation Winner in Hard-Fought Match With W. R. D. Hall

A new tennis champion came to town last Saturday afternoon when Owen Humphreys defeated W. J. Kirkpatrick, in the Singles Finals of the Red Cross Tournament of the Narberth Tennis Association. It was a rattling good contest from start to finish, and was witnessed and enjoyed by a good sized audience of local tennis enthusiasts.

The spectators were also treated to some unusually good tennis earlier in the afternoon when Arthur Staples defeated W. R. D. Hall in the Consolation Singles Finals.

The result of the Humphreys-Kirkpatrick match was a surprise, and then again it wasn't if you understand that kind of an Irish remark.

Although one of the youngest members of the association Humphreys has been playing a good game for several seasons and last year he won the Consolation Singles. But it was not until this year that he developed to the point where the members began considering him as a possible contender for the title.

However, with the opening of the tournament, Humphreys began showing his skill and speed in a manner that surprised everyone. One by one he eliminated his opponents, and came finally to Saturday's big event.

The championship was won in three straight sets, Humphreys increasing his lead over Kirkpatrick with each succeeding set. Score, 6-4, 6-3, 6-1.

"The Fight by Rounds"

The first set was nip and tuck, with first one and then the other leading, the score being 4-4 at the end of the eighth game. The ninth and tenth games both went to deuce, but in each instance Humphreys managed to put over the winning shots and the set ended 6-4.

Humphreys started the second set with a rush and won three games straight, Kirkpatrick scoring only three points in the three games. Then Kirkpatrick braced and took two games, with Humphreys scoring only three points, which made the score 3-2 in Humphreys favor. The latter then increased his lead by winning the sixth and seventh games, and after Kirkpatrick had taken the eighth, the coming champion finished the set by winning the ninth.

The final set was short and fast. Kirkpatrick, serving, won his only game—a deuce game—in the third contest. He did not slacken his playing, however, for he drove each of the last three games to deuce.

In justice to Kirkpatrick it should be said that there were times during the contest when he did not measure up to the standard which he has established in previous contests. But in equal justice to Humphreys it must also be said that he won a clean-cut, hard fought victory, and that in the opinion of an impartial observer Kirkpatrick could not have won under any circumstances.

Humphreys Was Everywhere

From the very first ball Humphreys was everywhere on the court, and always back in position after making the most difficult returns. His alley shots against Kirkpatrick's back-hand were particularly fine and frequently he won applause by passing his opponent with quick, sharp shots straight down the fatal left line.

Kirkpatrick played a good game throughout, making many fine returns and shooting with remarkable accuracy. But Humphreys returned everything, and he kept on returning 'em until the opportunity showed itself and then he whipped along the necessary shot and scored the point. And that's the way it went, game after game, and in the last analysis, that's why Humphreys won three straight sets. Kirkpatrick need feel no humiliation over his defeat and Humphreys may justly feel proud over his victory. Welcome to our city, champion!

Staples Wins Hard Match

The Consolation Finals went to Staples only after the hardest kind of playing. He won the first two sets 6-3 and 6-2. Then Hall won the third set 6-4. The fourth went to deuce and was finally won by Staples, 7-5. Game after game went to deuce and it wasn't until Staples scored the final point in the very last game in the fourth set that he was certain of the contest.

The tournament is now complete, but for the Consolation Doubles. There remain to be played a portion of one match, one of the semi-final matches, and then the finals. It is hoped that this coming Saturday will see the windup.

DEATH OF WILLIAM J. POSEY

Mr. William J. Posey, seventy-three years of age, father of Miss Elizabeth M. Posey, 203 Essex avenue, Narberth, died last Saturday evening while conversing with his family. He was one of the most widely known men in York county, and a descendant of the Chester county pioneers known as the Valley Forge-Brandywine Poseys. His three brothers gave their lives to the country in the Rebellion. George W., Seventy-sixth Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, was killed in attack on Fort Wagner and was never found; Robert A., One Hundred and Thirty-seventh Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, was fatally wounded at Fredericksburg, and John B. died in a hospital at Washington, D. C., from exposure at the battle of Cold Harbor, Virginia.

William Posey taught school in York county for thirty-one years. He was a reader and student, and his historic knowledge was broad. Mr. Posey was a local preacher in the Methodist Episcopal Church of York county. A wife and nine children survive him. He was buried at Bethel M. E. Church, York county, September twenty-fifth.

Walter Nash, of Dudley avenue, has been called out; he goes to service on Thursday.

A JOLLY AUTOMOBILE TRIP

On Saturday afternoon, a party of three cars motored to Valley Forge, where they had a very fine chicken and waffle dinner at the Washington Inn. A most enjoyable evening was spent there, after which they journeyed homeward in the moonlight.

LOVEY MARY'S GARDEN

On Friday and Saturday, October 26 and 27, all roads will lead to the Narberth Y. M. C. A. when the Women's Auxiliary will open the gates of Lovey Mary's Garden to the residents of our home town for inspection and sale.

Lovey Mary's Garden will, in reality, be a unique and attractive bazaar, the proceeds from which will be devoted to the purchase of coal for the Y. M. C. A. in an effort to make that building cheerful and comfortable for the host of men, women and children who enjoy its hospitality during the winter months.

This garden will also be denotational in character, every church and almost every society and club in the borough being represented in some pleasing and original manner. The personnel of the great committee of capable women is as follows:

Mrs. M. M. Greaves, general chairman, with Mrs. Samuel Dickie and Mrs. D. D. Stickney, assistants. The Methodist booth will be in charge of Mrs. N. E. Smedley and Mrs. G. M. Davis; Presbyterian, Mrs. Romaine C. Hoffman; Baptist, Mrs. T. C. Trotter; Episcopalian, Mrs. Daniel Leitch; Catholic, Mrs. John Roberts; Lutheran, Mrs. Alex. Chambley; Quaker, Mrs. E. Odell; Community Club, Mrs. C. P. Fowler; King's Daughters, Mrs. Fred Derby; Suffrage, Mrs. W. A. Cole; Boy Scouts, Mrs. C. L. Smith, Sororities, Mrs. Raymond C. Jones, Mrs. Lester Jefferies, Miss Edith Humphreys and Miss Jessie Ballingall, and lastly, but very important, the Country Store will be in charge of the Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A. and I believe my readers will agree with me that it will be well worth while spending two evenings at the northeast corner of Forest and Haverford avenues observing this respected body of gentlemen offering their wares for sale.

In addition to the above there will be some delightful music both evenings, and as we do not believe there is a family in our home town that is not more or less intimately affiliated with at least one of the enterprises above mentioned, the invitation is as broad as it is cordial to EVERYBODY to spend these two evenings with us. Now please remember the time, October 26 and 27; place, Narberth Y. M. C. A., and object, a good time, and COAL.

ACTIVITY AT NARBERTH Y. M. C. A.

Various Departments Getting in Line for Big Season—Narberth Branch a Community Centre—Other Notes of Interest

President Wilson Says:

"I am interested in the Young Men's Christian Association because it is intended to bring young men together before any crust has formed over them, before they have been hardened to any particular occupation, before they have caught an inveterate point of view, when they have the searchlight that they can swing and see what it reveals of all the circumstances of the hidden world, and I am more interested in it because it is an association of young men who are Christians. My advice is, don't think about your character. If you will think about what you ought to do for other people, your character will take care of itself. Character is a by-product, and any man who devotes himself to its cultivation in his own case will become a selfish prig. The only way our powers can become great is by exerting them outside the circle of your own narrow special, selfish interests; and that is the lesson of Christianity."

Listen!

You cannot make a bet or investment that taking out a membership for yourself or your friend in the local Y. M., as the association affords both young and old alike a wholesome place to spend your leisure time—the time that makes or breaks character.

Our lobby is a cozy, comfortable place to meet a friend, read the newspapers, magazines and enjoy music.

Our chess and checker room is just the right place to spend that evening off in good wholesome recreation and fellowship.

The game room is the best equipped along the Maine Line and where good games may be played in a clean atmosphere.

The physical department is just the place to keep yourself "fit" and if most men would take time for recreation and play, they would enjoy life and come nearer to the pleasures and health of their boyhood.

Volley ball games are the best and cheapest tonic for overworked nerves and sluggish systems. It's the "grind left out and the fun put in."

My commission expires Feb. 5, 1919.

These crisp fall days are the most delightful of the year. Nature is most alluring in her garb of flaming red and gold and green. Our young people are most appreciative, as indicated by the many couples seen walking in the woods, gathering autumn leaves and chestnuts, and presumably quoting poetry and whispering "soft nothings."

The Red Cross carnival at Bryn Mawr last week was a success in every sense of the word. Thousands attended and enjoyed the colorful scene on the polo grounds. The many booths and tents did a heavy business, and the financial results will be very gratifying to the ladies of the Main Line branches, who worked so hard. The weather left nothing to be desired, and contributed much to draw the immense crowd present both days and evenings.

The campaign for the sale of the new issue of 4 per cent. liberty bonds is now in full swing. A special drive is being made along the Main Line. We understand that the new issue includes bonds of very small denominations, so that even children may become purchasers. Our young people should be encouraged to put their savings in these bonds, as evidence of their desire to help win the battle for the freedom of the world. In later years, when asked what they did during the great war, they can refer with justifiable pride to the fact that they did their share in financing it.

A SUGGESTION TO THE NEW COUNCIL

Our Town suggests to the new Council and borough officers that they could start right with the people of the Year Round Home Town by arranging a modest inaugural and inviting the citizens to witness the beginning of a new era in local government. If the people attend a session of Councils once they might form a habit of repeating the experience. A clean environment and a hearty welcome from you would go a long way toward encouraging citizens to take an interest in your work. Why not try it?

OUR TOWN is about completing its third year. We trust we are not egotistical in asserting that as an experiment in co-operative journalism, with no paid workers, it has been a success. We are fully alive to the fact that there are many respects in which it may be improved, but our critics must not lose sight of the fact that those who conduct it are busy men and women, with many other duties, and our critics should not be too severe in their judgment.

We feel that our little journalistic venture is firmly established in the affections of the people of Narberth. It is the only medium we have for the interchange of views and record of social and other happenings. We have frequently asked our subscribers to send us items for our column of locals, which is always read with much interest. We are certain that there are many happenings that would be of interest to the whole community that are not recorded. We take this opportunity of again asking everybody to co-operate in this work and contribute items of this character to the editor of the column.

A LETTER TO THE NARBERTH CIVIC ASSOCIATION

The result of our investigation September 27, of inspecting the attractive yards in Narberth, the purpose of this investigation to award prizes for the best "kept and most attractive yards" in Narberth, as soon from the street," has led us to award the following prizes in Class C, 100 foot frontage and up:

The Grand Prize—Dr. O. J. Snyder, corner Woodbine and Narberth avenues.

Narbrook Prizes—James Artman, A. C. Shand.

Class C—First, C. H. Roberts. Honorable Mention—Albert Golze, Fletcher W. Stites, House at corner Haverford and Shirley roads; George Barrie, H. A. Jacobs.

In arriving at our conclusions your committee have taken into consideration the general upkeep of the place; the thought given to the arrangement and selection of the plants used in its decoration, and the location of border plantations, with the view of screening objectionable features. Also the general effect with the lawn and its relation to the house, and the location of the house upon the lot.

The first impression that a person receives in passing the property has also received consideration. The Dr. Snyder house located on a corner lot with little natural vegetation, and in a prominent location offered the opportunity of over-planting, which was not done. The vines on the porch and the window boxes on the front of the house made the place most attractive.

The Roberts place, is especially interesting on account of its location in the natural woods, and the simplicity in the use of native plants, and their location in relation to the house. Two beautiful dogwoods screening the carriage-way and a few well placed shrub masses gives the place an unusual dignity.

The A. C. Shand place, similarly located, is an instance where exotic plants have been used with an attractive and well-kept turf.

The places receiving honorable mention were considered in Mr. Golze's case on account of the thought given to his border plantings arranged to serve as a screen and to give breadth and a feeling of expansiveness to the lawn.

The house at the corner of Haverford and Shirley roads, the corner nearest the Montgomery pike, on account of the healthy and well-kept condition of the shrubs, all of which are growing vigorously, showing careful attention upon the part of the owner.

Fletcher W. Stites has a most interesting flower garden, designed by the owner, showing a most sincere love of plants by all the members of the household.

The Geo. Barrie and H. A. Jacobs places, also instances where considerable forethought and attention has been given to their planting and general care.

Mr. Shand's house is unusually well located showing careful thought in taking advantage of the existing trees and vegetation to form a natural frame of foliage for the house as seen from the "Narbrook" Park.

It has been a difficult problem to decide in a community where the general pride is so manifest as in Narberth. We feel that vast improvement could be gained if your association would give attention to the kinds of plants to use in different locations. That is, to place in the hands of householders a list of plants for shady or open sun conditions.

We were impressed by the misuse of certain plants under conditions in which they cannot ultimately thrive and it is not the householder's fault in many cases.

Yours very truly,

"For my Aunt Kate."

The attendance at all the services Sunday were more than gratifying, it being the largest since the beginning of the present pastorate. Mr. Chalker's illustrated talk in the Young People's meeting proved to be far above the ordinary and brought forth great applause at the conclusion. Mr. Chalker demonstrated that religion services need not be dull. The young people are planning to hold a social on the evening of October 19.

The ladies of the church will give a reception in the church parlors October 12 to the new members of the church and congregation and to the friends of the church who have recently come to Narberth.

If you are not regularly attending church elsewhere come and worship with us next Sunday. If you come once you will come again.

FIRST DISTRICT BOARD WORKING FOR QUOTA

Exemption Claims Heard—More Men Certified

Selecting For Army

Any person who is under the impression that the members of the various local or district exemption boards are having an easy time in getting men for the new army should be very careful not to make such a statement in the hearing of any of the gentlemen who are performing this patriotic duty.

A reporter paid a visit to the local board for Division No. 1, of this county, during the hearings of claims for exemption by men that had been accepted after their physical examinations.

Sheriff Louis Nagle, Mr. John S. Clarke and Dr. Romaine C. Hoffman, the members of the board, with their assistants, Miss Katherine Kiernan and Messrs. Louis Winter, John Dicio and Michael McDonough, were all in their places around the big table, which was covered with records and regulations, when the scribe entered and he was invited to remain and see how the work was carried on.

The hearings had been started at 10 A. M., and with only a half hour recess for luncheon, they were continued until 7 P. M. before all the men had been heard.

Each man was admitted according to his order number in the district and was immediately sworn to tell nothing but the truth by Mr. Clarke. A large envelope which contained all affidavits and other information in regard to his case was opened and the nature of the claim was read. The man was then questioned by the board members, and if his testimony showed that he had a clear case of dependency his claim was allowed and another man was brought in.

In the hearing of these cases there are many questions arising that require the careful interpretation of the draft laws and later regulations by the board members. It is up to the man to prove his claim, and if he can do so to the satisfaction of the board he will receive exemption, but if he does not have sufficient grounds for exemption under the regulations he is promptly informed that his name will be certified to the district board for army service. If he desires to appeal from the decision of the local board he is provided with the proper forms for carrying his appeal to Lancaster.

The duty of the board is to secure men for army service, and Messrs. Nagle, Clarke and Hoffman are certainly devoting their time and labor to bring about this end in a fair and impartial way that assures all men in this district of a just and square deal.

The board has received instructions to send another 5 per cent. of their quota, which will be about 20 men, to Camp Meade on Wednesday of next week. The men have not yet been selected, as the names of those certified for service will not be received from the District Board until to-day. The local board has not sent one man to camp in the entire 176 that left last Friday who was not certified by the district board or waived all exemption claims.

The men from this district all arrived safely at Camp Meade, and from reports they send home they are receiving the best of care and are very comfortable in the quarters assigned to them. They are all in the same barracks and are pleased with their officers and the training they are receiving. They are part of the 17th Training Battalion and their mail should be so addressed.

A PLEASANT SUNDAY EVENING

Why stay at home when the Little Church on the Hill announces its attractive program for this Sunday evening?

In reply to many earnest questions asked the pastor on the subject of heaven, Mr. Koppel will preach on the subject: "What Kind of a Place is the Heaven of a Modern Believer?"

Miss Vera Bernice Chesley, the new church organist, announces the following numbers as her first Sunday evening recital.

Autumn.....Edward Johnston
Chant d'Amour.....James R. Gillette
Postlude in D minor.....Alfred J. Silver
Spring Song.....Will C. Mcfarlane
At Evening.....Ralph Kinder
Toccata in D.....Ralph Kinder

But what a lot of near truth comes out in a political campaign!

THE FIRESIDE

Not a man in Narberth should fail to hear Ed. Mercer and Tom Farmer speak in the Presbyterian Church Sunday night, October 14. Their fame is nation-wide and their coming to so small a community is a real compliment to our aliveness.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. A. Townsend, of 212 Dudley avenue, have just returned from a delightful trip to Detroit, Mich., Niagara Falls, N. Y., and other cities. Mr. Townsend has a brother in Detroit, Mich. They reported fine weather and a fine time while on their vacation in the middle west.

Main Line trains were delayed fifteen minutes early Wednesday morning, while a new four-track steel and concrete bridge was shifted on transverse rails into place on new emplacements, over Anderson avenue, Ardmore, after a small army of workmen had been busy for months in preparation for the move.

Ex-President William H. Taft and Senator Philander C. Knox spoke at the opening of the new Devon Manor, a school for girls at Devon, yesterday. Bishop Thomas J. Garland, chairman of the Board of Directors, opened the meeting by introducing Senator Knox as permanent chairman. The principal address was made by Mr. Taft.

Friday, October 5, has been set apart in Bala and Cynwyd for registration of the women. The work is undertaken by the suffrage department of the Woman's Club of Cynwyd, under the direction of the Montgomery County Women's Committee of the Council of National Defense. Registration will take place between the hours of 9 A. M. and 9 P. M. in the parish houses of the Catholic Church, the Presbyterian Church and the two Episcopal Churches.

Friends of Misses Madelyn McCoy and Ethel Ridge will doubtless be interested to learn that they have returned to the Combs Conservatory Music, Philadelphia, to resume their piano studies. Both young ladies are pursuing the course under the supervision of Gilbert Reynolds Combs, founder and director of the institution. It is expected that these young ladies will make several concert appearances during the coming season.

Following is the program to be given by the quartette of Narberth Presbyterian Church at the musical service Sunday evening, October 7:

Anthem, with violin, My Faith Looks Up to Thee, Schaecker; anthem, Lead Kindly Light, Buck; anthem, Now the Day is Over, Marks; duet for soprano and tenor, Love Divine "Daughter of Jairus," Stainer; contralto solo, with violin, I Do Not Ask, Oh Lord, Spross. Mr. William Macdonald, violinist, will assist the quartette, and will also render a solo.

bath tub until you were "next?" That's a thing of the past for the fellow who joins the Y. M. C. A. He wouldn't give one shower for a thousand tubs. Think of it! Plenty of hot water day and night, then a cold finish. It's good-bye to that tired feeling, and all for the small amount of effort necessary to carry you hence.

NARBERTH BRANCH AS A COMMUNITY CENTER

When the leaders in every phase of community life want some common place in which to gather, they immediately think of the association building.

The business men, the ministers, leaders in young people's and Sunday school work should gather here frequently to propose plans for furthering the best interests of our community.

Here is the young man's chance to line up with one or more of the above movements and bring out what's in him in making our neighborhood a better place in which to live.

Not the least of our privileges is the one to serve on committees. Here is YOUR opportunity to be a leader.

Here you will find a large program for work amongst young people. Your service on any one of our committees will be appreciated.

Anyone who can spare a little time each day, could obtain yarn free from Mrs. Redifer, and make a sweater for the soldiers. They are quite easy to make, being sleeveless and taking less time than a scarf. There is such a demand for the sweaters and helmets, particularly, that anyone who can knit would be doing a good charitable act by making these articles, leaving the plainer things such as wristlets and scarfs for the novices.

Narberth Supports Sporting Carnival
—Sweaters and Knitted Wear
Wanted October 15

Narberth actively supported the Main Line Sporting Carnival given at Bryn Mawr for the benefit of the American Red Cross. Many donations were sent from here for the various booths, Narberth women and girls were "on the job" on the grounds early and late Friday and Saturday and a large representation of our townfolk helped to swell the attendance and the sales. The local Boy Scouts were present at the competition and exhibition of scouting on Saturday afternoon.

Send in Knitted Wear

All persons now working on sweaters or knitted wear are urgently requested to complete every garment possible before October 15, and send in to Mrs. Perry Redifer. The National organization must supply 1,500,000 garments by that date.

SCOUT NEWS

The regular meeting of Boy Scout Troop No. 1, was held in the Y. M. C. A. on Friday evening, September 29. Meeting was opened by Lord's Prayer, pledge to flag, scout oath and law. Business was discussed and the minutes read. A Program Committee was elected by scouts, which consisted of Davis, Krell, Coggeshall, Wilson and Braden. A special meeting was held by Program Committee and Braden was elected chairman. Fairies was elected chairman of next meeting, then meeting adjourned M. D. and K2.

Hats off to Manager Charlie Barker and his all-star Autocar aggregation, who by defeating Wayne in the last game of the season, won the second round in the Main Line League championship race.

It was a deserved victory for Autocar, for any team that can go through a season against such clubs as were represented in the league this year, must sure have the goods. Wayne made a gallant struggle and Manager Singleton is to be congratulated upon finishing in the race as high as he did.

WELL SUPPLIED ALREADY

Mrs. Mig and Mrs. Mag were having their usual chat over the back fence, and no one in the neighborhood had a shred of character left. Then they got confidential. "Do you know, Mrs. Mag," said Mrs. Mig, "my husband really lost his temper this morning before he went to town?" A gleam of hope crossed Mrs. Mag's worn face. "Well judging from the way my husband went on," she replied, acidly, "it's very likely he found it. I wish you'd send your husband round to get it back; we don't need it." The shoe dealer will do work which is beneath other people.

The Communication
Army

A bird's-eye view of the country today would show a mighty panorama of military and industrial activities.

Radiating from the National Capitol and from the army and navy centers throughout the land would appear the thousands of telephone lines by which all these vast enterprises are directed and co-ordinated—a veritable maze of wires linking together the camps, yards, fortifications, plants and offices, and swarming with linemen, cablemen and installers, busy with Uncle Sam's existing and ever-increasing demands for telephone service.

All this is but a part of the vast work which the Bell System is doing. The conservation of every resource will be required to keep pace with the constantly increasing demands for service, from both Government and private sources.

Join us in this patriotic service, by remembering that the more careful you are to make only telephone calls that are necessary and to confine your talks as much as possible, to the less busy hours of the day, the better we can meet the needs of the Nation.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.
As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.

On the authority of an architect the largest room in the world is a room for improvement.
