Dear Sir:- We need two thousand of the new silver dollars and when we say new ones we would like to have those which have not been issued, or subjected to any abrasion, if possible. Can you furnish them to us? If so, send them down by express and telegraph me on receipt of this letter and I will have a draft or check forwarded to you by first mail for the amount, Two Thousand Dollars. If it is necessary to have the draft before the dollars are shipped, please so state in your telegram.

Yours truly,

Scovill Mfg. Co.
