

NEW YORK, March 10, 1918. The House of Representatives today passed the bill for the relief of the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which was introduced by Representative Charles D. Wick of New York. The bill provides for the payment of $100,000 to the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which was the amount of the unpaid income tax for the year 1917. The bill was passed by a vote of 247 yeas to 121 nays.

THE BEE.
PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY J. BAYON.
NEW YORK, MONDAY MORNING, MARCH 11, 1918.
FOR GOVERNOR.
A. B. ROMAN.
Extract from the Journal of the Senate of the U. S. A.
Resolved, That the Senate of the United States do hereby pass the bill for the relief of the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which was introduced by Representative Charles D. Wick of New York, and the same be so amended as to provide for the payment of $100,000 to the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which was the amount of the unpaid income tax for the year 1917.

FOR GOVERNOR.
A. B. ROMAN.
Resolved, That the Senate of the United States do hereby pass the bill for the relief of the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which was introduced by Representative Charles D. Wick of New York, and the same be so amended as to provide for the payment of $100,000 to the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which was the amount of the unpaid income tax for the year 1917.

FOR GOVERNOR.
A. B. ROMAN.
Resolved, That the Senate of the United States do hereby pass the bill for the relief of the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which was introduced by Representative Charles D. Wick of New York, and the same be so amended as to provide for the payment of $100,000 to the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which was the amount of the unpaid income tax for the year 1917.

FOR GOVERNOR.
A. B. ROMAN.
Resolved, That the Senate of the United States do hereby pass the bill for the relief of the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which was introduced by Representative Charles D. Wick of New York, and the same be so amended as to provide for the payment of $100,000 to the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which was the amount of the unpaid income tax for the year 1917.

FOR GOVERNOR.
A. B. ROMAN.
Resolved, That the Senate of the United States do hereby pass the bill for the relief of the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which was introduced by Representative Charles D. Wick of New York, and the same be so amended as to provide for the payment of $100,000 to the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which was the amount of the unpaid income tax for the year 1917.

FOR GOVERNOR.
A. B. ROMAN.
Resolved, That the Senate of the United States do hereby pass the bill for the relief of the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which was introduced by Representative Charles D. Wick of New York, and the same be so amended as to provide for the payment of $100,000 to the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which was the amount of the unpaid income tax for the year 1917.

FOR GOVERNOR.
A. B. ROMAN.
Resolved, That the Senate of the United States do hereby pass the bill for the relief of the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which was introduced by Representative Charles D. Wick of New York, and the same be so amended as to provide for the payment of $100,000 to the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which was the amount of the unpaid income tax for the year 1917.

FOR GOVERNOR.
A. B. ROMAN.
Resolved, That the Senate of the United States do hereby pass the bill for the relief of the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which was introduced by Representative Charles D. Wick of New York, and the same be so amended as to provide for the payment of $100,000 to the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which was the amount of the unpaid income tax for the year 1917.