That Many in Manchuria Unable to Find Work Those Unable to Earn Living May Be Sent Out of China

Special to The Times. Shanghai, March 3.—Morgan Palmer, field representative of the United States Red Cross in Manchuria, reporting to the China Central Committee, says a small foreign missionary committee at Kirin rendered heroic service to Russian refugees by establishing a hospital, dispensing medicines and providing food and clothing.

There are 5,000 Russian refugees in Kirin, mostly soldiers, peasants and workmen. Three hundred recently requested the Chinese authorities to return them to Soviet Russia. At Tsetzihar the Chinese have provided barracks, bread, soup and tea for the ex-Russian officers. Repatriated "White" soldiers and officers who are being absorbed into the "Red" army are not subjected to persecutions.

Probably 20,000 Russian refugees throughout Manchuria are finding no work available. Some of the "White" officers unwilling to work, are alienating public sympathy by their improper conduct. The American Red Cross is co-operating with the local agencies in Manchuria to relieve this situation, which places the entire foreign population in an unfortunate position.

The belief is general that the best solution of the problem would be the return to Russia of all refugees unable to provide for themselves in China.

DOMINIONS NEED MEN AND CAPITAL

Citizens to Build Up Countries Desired, says Joynson-Hicks

London, March 3.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Two things are wanted by the Dominions—capital and men. Sir William Joynson-Hicks, Secretary for Overseas Trade, said in an address at the annual dinner of the Chamber of Commerce of Leicester last night. Great Britain had a surplus of men, he said, but it would do good to ask the Dominions to take the surplus population without a prospect of such proving useful.

"The Dominions said, 'We cannot take your penniless men or men of no trade. You must send us men who will make good citizens,'" said Sir William.

Referring to unemployment insurance, Sir William said: "To-day we are spending in unemployment insurance £100,000,000 a year, the whole of which is an increase in the cost of production."

BRITISH AND ARGENTINE DEBT SETTLEMENT PLAN

Buenos Aires, March 3.—It is understood the Argentine Government will admit the claim of the British Treasury to several million gold pesos which represent a difference in exchange rates in the payment of the British loan of $50,000,000 on January 14, 1921. ### L. LYON WROTE "POMP OF POWER"

Authorship of Book Published Anonymously in Britain Disclosed

Special to The Times. London, March 3.—It was a Canadian after all who wrote "The Pomp of Power," an anonymous recent work whose general iconoclastic tone and bitter attack on Lord Beaverbrook and his Canadian staff at the Ministry of Information during the war in particular earned much publicity.

Laurence Lyon, formerly a lawyer in Canada and later a member of the British House of Commons, is the author, states Captain Peter Wright in a review to-day of "The Path of Peace," another Lyon book. Mr. Lyon was engaged in propaganda work for the British and French Governments during the war and was put in possession by the French of confidential documents which revealed much of the inner workings of the British Government.

In his latest book he gives almost the only correct published account of the Battle of Cambrai and, incidentally, this to say of Canada's present Governor-General, "General Byng" and several divisions. In a single movement they arrived almost at the suburbs of Cambrai. The absence of necessary forces behind the attack launched by Byng was not the fault of the latter.

Mr. Lyon does not divulge the reason for his hostility to Beaverbrook.

DECLARES CANADA INTERESTED IN RUHR

Tom Moore Points Out Country Will Receive Many European Immigrants

Ottawa, March 3.—The emphatic protest of organized labor in Belgium, France and Great Britain against the Ruhr occupation by the French and Belgian troops was indicated yesterday by Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, in a short speech delivered to the members of the Ottawa Kiwanis Club.

Mr. Moore characterized as unfair the attempt to brand those who took a stand against the Ruhr occupation as German propagandists. It would be fairer, he said, to say they were attempting to prevent a return to those conditions which resulted in the holocaust of 1914.

REVOLVER SHOT DISTURBS PREMIER

Premier Oliver came forward with evidence in connection with the mysterious shooting which has been going on in Oak Bay for the last three months, when he told for the first time of shooting near his own house, 187 Fern Street, which is out towards the Willows, Oak Bay part of the city.

This shooting, he said, took place about two o'clock in the morning, just before he left on his Eastern trip nearly two months ago.

"It was a distinct shot and so close that I got up to see what it was," the Premier said. "But no place about two o'clock in the morning, just before he left on his Eastern trip nearly two months ago."

The Business Began With a Newspaper Advertisement

"That first year we spent $2,600 in advertising our new product in the newspapers of two cities and because advertising has been such a big factor in building up the business, we consider that our beginning."

So wrote a business man whose product is now a household word.

He had a new idea—a new article—a new style of merchandising—almost a new want to create.

The newspaper advertising gave him an idea of the public's response. It was favorable and profitable.

The rest was easy, and city by city the new idea was put across.

Today his company is a many million dollar concern and its advertising appropriation is counted by the hundreds of thousands.

Newspaper advertising properly planned and properly done pays from the beginning and returns increasing dividends year after year.

JOSEPH MARTIN.

The combativeness and determination which won for the Honorable Joseph Martin the sobriquet "Fighting Joe" more than twenty-five years ago never were more evident than in the last few years of the picturesque career which came to an end yesterday.

Mr. Martin was possessed of great ability linked with other qualities which in ordinary circumstances would have carried him far up the ladder of renown.

But he was afflicted with certain disabilities of disposition which set arbitrary limits upon his progress as a public man.

There was nothing vicious or sinister behind his belligerency. He merely was responding to the urge of a disposition which craved action and which he was ready to indulge regardless of odds.

His death will occasion much comment, much historical review and reminiscence, throughout the Dominion, in every corner of which his name at one time was a household term.

Many advocates of an unrestricted traffic in liquor have argued on the public platform and in the newspapers that the enormous increase in the use of narcotics on the American continent has been brought about by prohibition.

Canada has not been singled out specifically in this connection because of the fact that "dry" law in this country is a little younger and perhaps not altogether so drastic as it is across the border.

Out of 9,500 addicts in the Dominion as a whole Quebec accounts for 3,500 and this Province comes second with a roster of 2,250—a combined total of 6,050, leaving the rest of the provinces to make up the remaining 3,450.

gation that the proximity of these two provinces to the Atlantic and Pacific seaboard indicates the reason for such large numbers of addicts and their purveyors.

We are of the opinion that population and geographical position are very considerably less responsible for this state of affairs than the mental state which is sometimes an accompaniment of a desire and ability to satisfy the appetite for sensation with alcoholic stimulant.

These are not joyful conclusions; but one is forced to recognize in the statistics which Dr. Eland has made public a significance which is not at all in harmony with the claim that has been made in respect of the relationship between the abuse of drugs and prohibition.

It has been my privilege during my stay in your beautiful city to visit almost every spot which boasts of scenic beauty and around Victoria, and I can frankly say, so far as scenery is concerned, Los Angeles in California has nothing to compare with you.

To the Editor:—I think domestic science and manual training splendid subjects to include in a child's education.

LESS EXCLUSIVENESS NEEDED.

To the Editor:—Being a visitor from that much-talked-of city, Los Angeles, I was much interested in an article appearing in last Sunday's Colonist from the pen of Mr. Frank Giolma.

Mr. Giolma is evidently trying to make a comparison of the possibilities of Victoria with those of Los Angeles.

It has been my privilege during my stay in your beautiful city to visit almost every spot which boasts of scenic beauty and around Victoria, and I can frankly say, so far as scenery is concerned, Los Angeles in California has nothing to compare with you.

Why have you not enjoyed the growth that surely should be yours, with such assets—assets any one of which would be envied by any other city less fortunate?

You have a publicity bureau which I understand is doing good work; a desire to live in Oak Bay municipality in conjunction with it harmoniously, and quite a large sum is spent each year by these organizations in trying to attract visitors to your city.

Your prairie visitors are entertained each week by the various service clubs of your city, and right here is, in my opinion, the greatest asset you have taken in the right direction.

If there is one thing your city lacks most it is warmth on the part of many of your citizens. Do not think I am complaining of such treatment having been accorded me. On the contrary, I have been shown every courtesy and have formed some very fine friendships during my stay.

THE DEWDNEY TRAIL

To the Editor:—I have just been on a visit to your city for a few weeks, and in looking over the daily papers I saw that Mr. Nation gave a lecture on what is called the Dewdney Trail in 1865—that was the year after it was cut.

It had nothing to do with the tree boughs that had been thrown to it.

BRITISH OR ENGLISH

To the Editor:—Will you permit me through the columns of your valuable paper to point out a few little errors.

In the sporting column you have in Thursday night's news Mrs. Mallory and Miss Ryan win over English racket stars. I am pleased you point out that they are English, but they are British when they win.

It may be urged that the bridge and the C. P. R. aid in the publicity campaign for the city. True, but there are other assets of great value in making settlement permanent and prosperous than these; namely, by health conditions and the fact that Victoria is the lowest in the civilized world—4.1 per thousand—and our city is 1.5 per thousand.

DR. DORCHESTER'S MESSAGE

To the Editor:—Will you permit me to direct attention to an advertisement appearing in your columns re the approaching visit of Dr. Dorchester, of Vancouver.

The Doctor is a well-known physical culture specialist and has the reputation of giving a wonderful platform demonstration of the power of mind over the body.

His message is that perfect health depends upon pure food, moderate eating, plenty of fresh air and the studied cultivation of mental control.

HUMAN ANIMALS, NONE IN FAMILY, FOUND IN CATSKILLS

Two Men and Feeble-minded Woman Subsist on Raw Carrots

Little Ones, Untaught to Speak, Chattered Away Like Monkeys

New York, Mar. 2.—Riding through the snow into the mountains of Sullivan County, State Troopers found two men, an unmarried woman and six children living in squalor and subsisting chiefly on raw carrots.

They were found in a hovel two miles from Willowemoc, a post village thirty-seven miles north of Port Jervis and fifteen miles from the State Road in the foothills of the Catskills.

State policemen learned of the case from Fletcher Rhodes, Sullivan County Superintendent of the Poor, who had heard about it in a report relayed by hunters and farmers.

It had nothing to do with the tree boughs that had been thrown to it.

MRS. H. CARNE REACHES 90TH YEAR

Nonagenarian Here Nearly Sixty Years

Mrs. H. Carne, widow of the late Frederick Carne, who resides with her daughters, Mrs. J. L. Cramp and Mrs. A. D. Whittier, 1972 St. Ann Street, Oak Bay, celebrated her nineteenth birthday on Tuesday of this week, and many of her friends and relatives called to congratulate her upon having reached such an advanced age.

MISS CANN TO SPEAK TO CANADIAN CLUB

An unusually interesting address is promised the Women's Canadian Club on Tuesday afternoon next, when Miss Cann, teacher of English in the Victoria High School, will speak on "Imagery" dealing with psychology. The meeting will be held in the ballroom and will commence at 8.15.

The musical committee of the Club has under preparation an attractive programme for the meeting of March 20, when Harry Charlesworth will give a paper on "Canada's Musical Development" and Miss Blanche Nelson, of Vancouver, will contribute vocal numbers.

GINES OVERHEAT

Don't always blame the cooling system when the engine overheats. The mixture supplied by the carburetor may be causing the trouble, perhaps being too rich. Possibly the spark is not advanced far enough; maybe the oiling system is clogged or for some reason is not properly lubricating the mechanism of the power plant. It might even be possible that the fan belt is slipping, thus preventing the fan from doing its full duty. Then there are the brakes. They may be dragging because the bands are too tight, a condition which can be discovered only by jacking up the rear wheels and noting whether or not they turn freely. Overheating is often chargeable to improper driving—the car has too gear too long when the car should be running in high.

VICTORIA W.I. HELD NOVEL ENTERTAINMENT

That the social meeting of the Victoria Women's Institute, which is always held on the first Friday of the month, is a popular one, was shown yesterday by the large attendance. The committee in charge was comprised of Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Tugbhart, Mrs. Waterhouse and Mrs. Todd, and they deserve much praise for the novel and interesting programme. The photo gallery which included pictures of the various members when they were very young, was much merrier, and the prize for guessing the most was won by Mrs. F. W. Laing.

A pianoforte solo by Miss Bennett and two violin solos by Miss Bessie Jones, also a pianoforte duet by Mesdames Yeo and Todd formed the musical part of programme and were much appreciated. Mrs. G. L. Walker with her two recitations, "Jemima's Courtship" and "When the Minister Comes to Tea," delighted every one present.

The musical story contest was won by Mrs. C. L. Campbell.

Many interesting events are planned for March for the Victoria W. I. On Saturday evening, March 3, there will be an indoor picnic in the Institute rooms.

On Friday, March 16, there will be the regular monthly meeting of the Institute, while on the following day, Saturday, March 17, there will be a musical entertainment which will entertain the members at a St. Patrick's tea.

Another event planned for March is a "dust cap and apron" sale, which will be held in the Institute rooms on Wednesday afternoon, March 21. A musical programme will be given and afternoon tea served.

Won't Shrink Woollens

—true, says MONARCH KNITTING CO.

The above firm, one of the largest manufacturers of woollens in Canada, investigated the best method of cleaning sweaters—and they recommend Lux.

Here is their letter, which tells how sweaters should be washed.

Messrs. Lever Bros., Limited
Toronto, Canada
January 17, 1922

Gentlemen:

Sweater coats or blouses, where they are manufactured out of pure wool or silk, can be washed as satisfactorily and as easily as ordinary goods, provided the proper material and methods are used for the washing, and they use our knitted goods and for our yarns. We suggest to all women who buy these goods to wash them with Lux.

The slogan of the manufacturers—"Won't shrink woollens"—is true if proper washing methods are used. The thin, water-like film of Lux solves readily and there is no possibility of any pieces of solid soap being left on the wool or silk and yellowing it, ultimately ruining the fabric.

Children's sweater coats or suits are often ruined in the first laundering because they are improperly washed, but if Lux is used, they will wear longer and give more satisfaction to the buyer.

We also recommend that garments should be dried quickly and when drying, lay them out flat and straighten to shape. Never hang them up when wet.

We are pleased to say that our silk and woollen overcoats, skirts, suits, etc., in the most delicate colors and weights can be safely washed with Lux.

Yours very truly,
THE MONARCH KNITTING CO., LTD.
J. W. TURNER, Gen. Mgr.

After-Dinner Coffee

The simplest little dinner in the world can be given the air of a party if the after-dinner coffee, instead of being served at the table, is sipped in the corner of a big divan or in deep-cushioned chairs in front of a blazing fire.

Not long ago I dropped in at the apartment of a young married couple of my acquaintance, whose one large studio-living room served also as a dining room. At one end of the room, near the windows, a gate-leg table was drawn forward, and set with their informal little dinner, cooked by the hostess herself in the tiny kitchenette adjoining. I had not been expected, and the meal was that patchy variety produced by using left-overs from the more pretentious dinner of the night before.

The wise young matron, however, made no apologies. She added such little touches as a bowl of Indian chutney, some fragile glasses filled in relaxed comfort, while the host drew lazily at his cigar.

As I went home, I reflected how fully that prettily served after-dinner coffee obliterated the memory of the meagre repast, and sent me away with the feeling that I had been charmingly entertained and fed.

NEW JINGLE POT MINE TO PRODUCE 1,000 TONS A DAY. Victoria Men Chief Backers of Big Coal Property on Island.

Inauguration of the new Jingle Pot coal mine, in which Lieutenant-Governor Nichol and J. M. Savage of the Canadian Collieries and other Victorians are co-venturers, was announced today by R. C. Campbell-Johnson, mining engineer.

The new mine, owned by the East Wellington Mines, Ltd., is 1,200 feet away from the worked out Jingle Pot area in the famous old Wellington coal district just west of Nanaimo. The old Wellington seam was the original discovery on Vancouver Island by the Dunsmuir.

The product of the mine will be marketed through the Canadian Collieries, it was announced. It is expected to be the highest grade domestic coal.

A slope is already into the seam and galleries are being extended. The company will use the same railway tracks to be shipping in a month. It is expected that a production of 1,000 tons a day will be reached, it is expected.

The company has acquired 750 acres of virgin forest under Millstone Creek. The slope came into the seam at a depth of 1,100 feet. In addition, borings have been conducted all over the area. These show the seam everywhere. The seam is 5 1/2 feet thick with a good floor and a slightly rolling roof. The mine will produce 400 tons a day, it is expected.

MEET FOR FINAL ECONOMY EFFORT. Trustees, at Meeting Monday, Will Try to Cut School Budget.

The request of the City Council that teachers' salaries be reduced will be considered at Monday's meeting but the Trustees are more inclined now to favor the Litchfield scheme as they fear that reduction in teachers' salaries might impair school efficiency.

NEW CATHEDRAL CANVASS TO BEGIN. Christ Church Cathedral Buildings Effort to Start.

Arrangements are well under way for the canvass to be undertaken next week on behalf of the new Christ Church Cathedral buildings. Although some persons think that the present is not the best time to launch the effort, there is a stronger opinion that so much time has been given to considering the matter that definite action must now be taken to meet the pressing need for the buildings, and secure their erection at an early date.

JAPANESE FIRST GAME TO COAST IN THE THIRTIES. Were Shipwrecked Off Cape Flattery and Rescued From Indians.

It will interest those who discuss the Oriental issue as a new problem in British Columbia to learn that the first Japanese who came to this province, so far as the records of the Maritime Fur Company show, were shipwrecked on the coast in the winter of 1823-24.

That was many years before the opening of Japan to foreigners in the sixties, with the resultant break down of the feudal system in that country. One of the most famous features of that feudalism was the use of handsome armor. In 1889 a Japanese coat of arms was unearthed in Victoria, when workmen were engaged in digging a well, and found the curio under four feet of earth.

It was found a letter dated Nov. 18, 1884, from Dr. John McLoughlin to the company, which was read by John Forster, a typhoid fever sufferer, to the meeting of the Historical Association last evening.

The vessel it appears was reputed from Yakutsk to Yezo, then the capital of Japan, with a cargo of rice, mankens and porcelain. It was driven out of its course, says Dr. McLoughlin, by a typhoon which wrecked eventually off Cape Flattery, after sickness had broken out, and all but three had died. The doctor hearing of the plight of the three survivors, sent Capt. McNeill to rescue them from the Indians, and this was done.

SEEK SHOW DOWN. RACING HERE. Aldermen Strive to Reach Compromise on Racing Concession. "Clean Up" Offer of Racing Association Impresses Members.

The City Council will try to reach a showdown on the whole racing question Monday night, following its interview yesterday with representatives of the Vancouver Racing and Breeding Association, which wants to be allowed to stage horse racing on the site of the proposed new association believes now that a majority of aldermen are prepared to support their application and give them an arrangement which would be satisfactory to the Racing Association.

A special committee of the Council which investigated the matter will recommend to the Council Monday that the B. C. Agricultural Association be given a yearly lease of the Willows Agricultural Grounds, and that the Racing Association be given a concession for the racing on the grounds.

What the attitude of the Agricultural Association toward such a plan would be is not known. Alderman George Sangster, secretary of the Agricultural Association, indicated at yesterday's meeting that he and his associates believed that racing had been run here satisfactorily in the past and that the charge that "damnable and disgusting" conditions prevailed at the Willows was without foundation.

List of Members. This list of members of the Racing and Breeding Association has been supplied to the Council so that it may see that the organization is composed of reliable men. The list is as follows: Governor Nichol, J. Rithet, W. Cathart, W. S. Terry, W. J. Rennie, Lt. B. Carley, Percy Fox, T. G. Courtney, W. Blantyre, C. J. Ross, L. Smith, H. Graham, B. Craven, J. JOE MARTIN LEFT IMPRESS FOR GOOD. PREMIER ASSERTS. Hon. John Oliver Himself Entered Public Life Under Former Premier.

Premier Oliver today talked of the late Joseph Martin, K. C., in expressing his regret at the death of the former Premier of this Province and for a time member of the British House of Commons.

"As a public man, he undoubtedly left his impression on the history of Canada and I may say that he undoubtedly left an impression for good," the Premier said.

"There is no doubt that he put forward principles that were sound and have been beneficial in their effect." The Premier recalled how he himself was a Martin supporter in the early days, and how on his first election to the Legislature of B. C. he went there as a stalwart of Premier Martin. Mr. Oliver differed with him later, and in 1902 withdrew his support.

"But we have been friendly ever since," the Premier went on. "As far as I am concerned nothing was closer to my knowledge to the effect that Joe Martin tried to injure me in any way, political or otherwise."

Cougars Swamp Seattle In Game Which Landed Them In Play-off

Mets Unable to Keep Pace With Whirlwind Display of Victoria; Team Flashed Around Frederickson and Piled Up One-Sided Score of 9-2; "Freddie" Equals Coast Scoring Record By Wonderful Display; First Game In Play-Off With Vancouver Here On Wednesday Night.

Victoria is in the play-off.

For the first time since this system of deciding the champions of the Pacific Coast Hockey Association was introduced by the Pacific Coast Hockey Association have won one of the two berths at stake. In past seasons Seattle and Vancouver have had a corner on the play-off, but last night the Mets looked like old men alongside the fast-flying Cougars and they had to yield the honor to the blue and gold sextette. Seattle was completely outplayed and outclassed and suffered its worst defeat on the local ice this season. After Frederickson had finished piling up his phenomenal record of points Victoria hiked to the dressing-room with the game and the play-off berth by 9 goals to 2.

It was a sensational climax to the most thrilling finish ever staged by a club in the history of the Coast League. Confronted by obstacles which three weeks ago seemed as though they would force Victoria once again to accept the cellar position, the Cougars have produced energy, speed, hockey brains and stamina which have appalled the fans and clubs all over the country. One by one the Cougars have leaped their hurdles with the ease and grace of a stag, and reached the top of the mountain which the one obtained under protest from Vancouver, but which will not have to be replayed owing to the fact that it will have no bearing on the outcome of the race.

Seemed to Beat Nature

By all the rules of nature the Cougars should have been slating about with their tongues out last night, of marked their seventh appearance on the ice within fourteen days, and sandwiched in between these frantic struggles to get back to the top of the mountain and wide in cramped quarters. When Seattle and Vancouver returned from their swings around the prairie loops they went state for a short period and could not get into their proper stride. In fact the Mets have never recovered from their "jitters".

But after Mickey Ion had started the teams last night it was soon apparent to the 4,000 fans that the recent hard grind had just served to put an edge on the Cougars' play. They skated like fiends, making Seattle look leg-weary and slow in comparison. The Cougars showed few of their drives going wide of the posts. They had the strength to skate both ways at terrific speed and their back-checking was a study in the heart out of Seattle's play. The Victoria defence was so tight that a machine-runner would have had a job squeezing a bullet through with Fec Fowler in goal. While being a far less busy individual than Happy Holmes at the other end, he was in rare form and made a fine display of ones and a' grounders with the ease of a major league ball player.

Their Finest Effort

It was without doubt the finest performance that the Cougars have ever shown on the ice. It was the long-to-be-remembered victory over St. Paul, of Toronto, at the start of the season. There was not a flinch in the wonderful and right now let it be recorded that not once during the sixty minutes of furious play was a pass missed when inside the net. The Cougars' defence of the Cougars was superb. It baffled the Mets more than anything else. Lester's crew also displayed more "hockey brains" than they have in years. Every play was coolly calculated despite the high pressure under which the athletes worked.

The fans were overjoyed at the way the game went. For only ten minutes of the first period did Seattle have a fighting chance. After that it was simply a case of how many shots Holmes could stop. When the goals started to flow the fans found no more use for their seats and remained on their feet for the rest of the game. They were surprised at the way the Cougars were whirling and tearing and they did their part by shouting until they had only a whisper left.

A Great Relief

It was not only a great relief for the Cougars but also to the fans. For the first time since the formation of the Victoria club have been working the "V" and "and" overtime in regular play. The Cougars had of making the play-off. Their anxiety now can be tossed to the north wind and they can rest up and get ready for the next crucial game, the first battle for the play-off between Vancouver and Victoria.

According to an announcement made after the game by Frank Patrick, president of the P. C. H. A., the first game in the play-off for the championship will be held in Victoria on Wednesday night, March 7. The second game will be staged in Vancouver on Monday night, March 12. The title will go to the team which scores the most goals in the two games.

Lester Patrick, manager of the Cougars, made an appeal to the other Coast outfits in session here yesterday afternoon, to have help in Victoria on Wednesday night for the play-off. It was thought that if Victoria won they might have to play against Vancouver on Wednesday night, which would be the terrific task which the Cougars have been forced to undergo during the past two weeks and in fairness to the club it should be given a short time to recuperate. The meeting did not turn a deaf ear to the plea and the first game will not be held until next Wednesday night which will give the Cougars a five-day respite.

Since the game the Cougars have been literally showered with bouquets him a pass in front of which was converted into the first goal.

Harry Meeking then went through a flying for the second goal. It was a beautiful effort, the chunky lad swinging around the defence and pulling Holmes out. His shot clinked with the hemp.

Then came one of the most notable performances of the evening. Joe Anderson crowned his efforts by scoring his only goal of the season—He shot and tore in for the rebound, which he stopped past Holmes. The Cougars had to halt for a few seconds while they crowded around the lead to congratulate him.

In the second period Frederickson played his greatest hockey since coming to the coast. He was a regular flash and figured in all four goals scored by Victoria. He got the first single-handed when, from a face-off on his own goal-line, he went the length of the ice and scored. Three minutes later the Iceman had scored again when Skipper Oatman saved him a pass in front. With the score standing 5-0 against them the Mets tried their three-man rush, with less speed and more caution, but their hopes were wrecked on the stout resistance of the Cougars. Walker let fly a long shot from the blue line, which he missed. Clem Loughlin's elbow and flashed into the net before Fowler could recover himself.

Victoria got two more goals before the gong sounded. Oatman notched one from close quarters on a pass from Frederickson while the Iceman's second goal of the season was scored by Clem Loughlin.

His Last Point

Frederickson gained his last point of the evening when he gave Meeking a pass for a goal right after the second goal of the season. He made a feint to shoot, went around Fraser and beat Holmes with a bullet-shot.

"Freddie" had scored four goals and gathered two assists, for a total of six points, a record for one game this season. These counts boosted "Freddie" total for the season to 54 points, which tied the record made by Charlie Peters in the season of 1915-17. "Freddie" played in two more games than Morris, but he was shooting against far better defences. Before the final game had sounded the Iceman had scored three goals in the last period by Manacker, Delidai and Rowley.

Helped by his Team-mates. Frederickson's ability to get goals this year has been due to great extent to the fact that he figures in every rush and every play. His mates have given him every chance to score. He is the pivot man and the players who have sacrificed many opportunities to shoot for him, to "Freddie" who has been in a better position in front. This shining example of the team should serve as an example to all other teams as to what can be done by co-operation. Victoria has ridden over its many obstacles in order that the shooting more displays like that of last night and the Vancouver Maroons can hang up their sticks for the season as the Cougars hold the first National Hockey League champions.

Mets Were Hurt. Seattle's chances of keeping pace with Victoria were ruined by injuries to Rickie and Rowe, the first-line defence men, were both forced to quit the game. Rickie was cracked across his weak knee in the first period and had to give way to Gordie Fraser, while Bobby Rowe wrenched his shoulders in the second period. Although he stuck gamely to the job, he was unable to help and did not appear at all in the third center. Jack Walker had to drop back on the defence with Fraser and this left only Briden and McCarthy to spell off the regulars.

With the Mets weakened Lester decided to save his regulars and during the last ten minutes the four substitutes were doing duty, with Halder and Fowler as the only first-line men on the ice. Even at that the Cougars held. The outs seemed to be spurred by some secret ambition and they tore into things, Tommy Dunderdale getting a goal, while Delidai almost picked one off. Anderson and W. Loughlin were going both ways hard and shooting well.

Game Very Clean. The game was very clean. It was a hard checking as a result of the prize at stake but Referee Ion called all the players about him before he turned them loose, and cautioned them that nothing that was not according to Hoyle would be tolerated. The teams went through the first period without a penalty, but Frederickson drew one in the second for looking Walker. Right afterwards Houston hood Halderson on the blind side and got away with it. Mickey, however, eased up on the Seattle as they were out of the race and the Mets got a number of shots from off-ides.

After the team had been going for ten minutes Frederickson yelled for help and Jocko Anderson went over the ice. It seemed as though the Cougars needed a pilot, to steer them through the defence. They were over the ice. It seemed as though the Cougars needed a pilot, to steer them through the defence. They were over the ice. It seemed as though the Cougars needed a pilot, to steer them through the defence. They were over the ice.

Penalties. First period—None. Second period—Frederickson and Fraser, 2 minutes each. Third period—Fraser, 2 minutes.

RIGHT OFF THE ICE

At last we made the grade. Now for the championship. It's a tall order, as Vancouver has a very smart team, but should the Cougars go like they went last night there is no team in the world that can beat them.

The new battle song of the Cougars is "Abe, Abe, My Boy." Before the game the boys reared up on their hind legs and burst forth into song under the leadership of Chairman Lester Patrick.

The fans won't care whether the Cougars continue to sing "Abe" or switch to "Looking through the notable in father's wooden lex" as long as they keep on winning game.

The way the Cougars came through in the pinch is without parallel in the history of the P. C. H. A. Two weeks ago they had the straitest trip ahead of them, and five victories necessary to make sure of place in the play-off. They delivered in great style.

Doff your hat to this Jocko boy. The way Anderson was going last night had the fans singing his praises in miles away up around high E. Jocko is the best substitute in the league.

Hee Fowler is the best goalie in the league now. He has taken the laurels from Lehman and Holmes. It takes a real shot to get by him. Last night he was nailing them in all directions.

Clem Loughlin finished the season with the best scoring record he has ever made. The assist he got last

THE "MASTER-MIND"

LESTER PATRICK

Whether the Cougars succeed in winning the play-off or not it is just as well to pay a little tribute to the man behind the Cougars. To Lester Patrick, hero of many puck championships himself, goes a whole lot of credit for the showing of the Cougars. Although he has discarded playing togs his active mind has produced the system under which the Cougars have been moulded into a real hockey club. The team has the same material it had last year with the addition of Anderson. A new system, which still remains a mystery to the other two clubs in the circuit, and which has brought the club through so successfully, was hatched under the locks of Lester Patrick. His famous two-man rushes and three-man defence has produced results hitherto untouched in this league. The other clubs have tried to adopt Victoria's tactics but they cannot fathom how any two men can go on a rush and the defence remould itself to keep three men in position. It does not matter whether "Slim" or Clem go in the rush the positions are filled without hesitation.

It's the Short Game That Counts, Says Gene Sarazen

By GENE SARAZEN, World's Champion Golfer.

Between the time of the National Open Championship and the Professional Championship, I played a number of exhibition matches. I was playing quite well, better, in fact, after the first week following my victory. In the open, that I ever played before, because I had the confidence to go with my game. Consequently, as I look back over the week in August at Oakmont, I was surprised to me that I won the Professional title also.

There was never much doubt in my mind about the outcome. I didn't see much thought as to whom I was to meet, nor was I concerned about the results of the matches. I simply went out, day after day, during that week in August at Oakmont, and played who ever my opponent happened to be.

In the third round I met Jock Hutchison, and this was, by far the hardest match of all during that tournament.

Hutchison is such a marvelous golfer. He is plugging all the time—no matter how the going is. We had quite a thrilling match, which ended in my favor after I had been fortunate enough to get four birdies in a row on the last four holes.

After this match, I was more confident than ever that I would win this tournament because I knew that no golfer in the game fights harder than Hutchison and because I also knew that Jock had played remarkably fine golf all the way. I decided to give him a lesson in the final round for victory.

Since winning these two titles, I have been asked a number of times what advice I give to my players. My reply is immediately the short game. Of course, one has to have a golf

Dog Racing at Banff To-day For Big Trophy

Winter Carnival at Famous Winter Resort Has Attracted Huge Crowd

Special to The Times. Banff, March 3.—Everything is now in readiness for the Grand Prix Dog Derby for the Strongheart Trophy and $2,500 prizes, which will be awarded to the winner of this afternoon. The drop in temperature together with the three-inch snowfall according to the carnival committee and mushers of the P. C. H. A. has made the course ideal, and it is anticipated that it will be the fastest speedway in the history of dog races. The thaw of a day ago caused a slight surface of water on the lake, which has since hardened, and this with the natural cushion of snow will make less hard work on the dogs.

Although C. B. Morgan's team, three-time winner of the Pas Derby, seems the reigning favorite, the high altitude and the difference of the Minnesota course compared to that of the Pas makes results of to-day's race more or less of a speculation. The mushers feel confident that the race will be completed ten hours from the start.

Hundreds of visitors were given the opportunity yesterday of seeing the splendid teams exercising on the main thoroughfares of the town. Accommodation everywhere is taxed to the limit, and a special bus including a large number of Rotarians arrived from Calgary early this morning.

The programme opened yesterday morning with a ladies' hockey match played between Calgary Regents and the Edmonton Eskimos, the former team being the victors with a score of 2-0.

THREE TEAMS TIED IN LADIES' LEAGUE

Central Girls' Win Over High School Causes Triple Tie for Lead

Once again the forecastings of the gods have been upset in the Ladies' City Basketball League, when the Telephone girls swapped the High Ladies to the tune of 11-4 last night at the Trades Hall. The school girls were looked upon as the probable winners of the league when they defeated the crack Times quintette several weeks ago, but now, however, the league is tied up again, three teams holding down the lead, namely, The Times, High School and the Victoria College, each aggregation having lost one match.

The Telephone girls played a brilliant game last night and well deserved the win. One of the interesting features of the game was the refereeing of G. De Macedo, the popular Drift Hall arbitrator, who handled the whistle in the ladies' league for the first time last night. He kept the two teams well in control and awarded a good number of free shots, each team getting as many as 25. However, only five of the Central girls' foul shots were nettles, while the High only secured three.

On account of the defeat of the High girls last night a play-off may be necessary to decide the champions of the league, as all the three leading teams have only one more match to engage in.

In the second game the Normals had an easy win over the Y. W. C. A. girls by the count of 17-7. The accurate combination and long passing of the winners completely fooled their opponents who were unable to fathom their combination. The "Y" girls, however, had a bit of hard luck in the first stanza as they had smoke shots at the Normals' basket than their opponents had at theirs.

Coast Teams Had Edge On Prairie Brethren

Patrick Clubs Won 15 Out of 24 Games and Scored 88 Goals to Opponents' 57; Cougars Make Best Showing, Winning Six Out of Eight Games; Regina Best Prairie Club; Frederickson and Hay Leading Scorers.

When the Tigers polished off the Cougars in Calgary on Monday night the inter-league series between the P. C. H. A. and the W. C. H. L. came to a close. This series, the most interesting and thrilling staged in the long career of the Coast circuit, proved an outstanding success inasmuch as it provided a welcomed relief from the monotony of seeing Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle performing in rapid succession and demonstrated that the Coast teams have an edge on their brethren east of the Rockies. It also cured a lot of rabid fans who thought that the prairie clubs had nothing but a lot of hard-working, aggressive players and that all the super-hockey men were camped with the Prairies. Those fans were quickly disillusioned for while the Coast teams held an edge in the series, they did not prove to be all-over the easterners like a tent. Two Winters ago stood in the prairie hockey clubs was held cheaply on the Coast, so cheaply in fact that when Regina came west to play Vancouver it was like looking for a hen's high tooth to find a man who would put a nickel on the visitors.

When Kestner and the fans swooned but got back on to easy street when Vancouver walked all over the Capitals on their own ice. It was as if the Regina had been lucky to win in Vancouver.

This year the fans have had a chance to see all four prairie clubs in action and they have seen in some heart-breaking defeats for their particular favorites. A total of twenty-four games were played between the teams in the two leagues. The coasters won fifteen battles, while eight went to President Richardson's account and one ended in a draw. In six games he accounted for eight goals and four assists. Barney Stanley, of the same team, was runner-up with ten points.

The individual scorers were as follows:

ROWLAND IS BEATEN

Winipeg, March 3.—E. J. Don Rowland, of Winnipeg, who won the Canadian amateur welterweight boxing championship at Calgary last night, was defeated in the Manitoba championship tournament here last night by J. Coughlin on points in a three-round bout.

Beginning at 7.15 o'clock sharp, a fine programme of four exciting basketball games will be played tonight in the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium. The opener, between Christ Church senior girls and St. Andrew's, promises to be one of the most exciting of the season. These two teams always provide a thrilling game, and tonight's encounter should be no exception, as both teams are still in the running for the championship.

ALBERTA CHAMPIONS GAIN ONE-GOAL LEAD

Young Liberals Handicapped Through Loss of Box; Scott Played Well

Vancouver, March 3.—Blairmore's crack team of amateur puckchasers, carrying the championship of Alberta, defeated Vancouver, Young Liberals, senior amateur hockey champions of British Columbia, four to three last night in a snappy game in which honors were about even and the mettle of both teams was brought out in every minute of the game. Reinka, the Blairmore right wing, played the best game for his side, but unfortunately put himself out of the game in the middle of the second period when he fell on the stick of a Vancouver man he was cross-checking. He was not seriously injured. Cresswell scored for Vancouver in the third, but was ruled offside. The Vancouver men showed themselves the equal of the visitors and chances are about even for the series.

Box was declared ineligible and could not play. Cresswell rose from a sick bed and was only capable of a shadow of his usual form. He was taken to hospital after the game. The fine work of Scott in Vancouver's goal prevented a much higher tally for the visitors.

Summary
 First period—1, Blairmore, Turner, 9:30; 2, Blairmore, Reinka, 1:30.
 Second period—3, Blairmore, Reinka, 6:10; 4, Vancouver, Shaw from King, 11:30.
 Third period—5, Vancouver, King, 3:30; 6, Vancouver, Shaw, 3:00; 7, Blairmore, Pruden, 3:00.

The Oak Bay High team are as follows: Full, Crombie, Bowers, Lambert, Morris; Miller, Phipps; Killen, Gelling, Rhodes, Moir, Collison, Potts, Forbes, Walker.

Edmonton, March 3.—Eskimos romped through their game with Saskatoon here last night, winning by score of 8 to 1. For the first period and the early part of the second, it was close, fast hockey. Then the Eskimos cut loose and after Arbour had scored two in the second, they solved over five in succession in the third period. "Billy" Tobin made his first appearance in goal this winter and played brilliantly, although he was beaten for the only Saskatoon goal by a shot from the blue line. Murray in the Saskatoon goal gave a wonderful exhibition. During the game he stopped more than 60 shots, of which 21 were in the first period.

Inasmuch as the Eskimos had their place in the playoff secured anyway the substitutes were used much of the time. They were effective. Only one penalty was handed out by Reinka.

Summary—First period, 1, Eskimos, Keats, from Trapp, 15:35.
 Second period—2, Saskatoon, Scott, 1:00; 3, Eskimos, Arbour, from Morrison, 10:52; 4, Eskimos, Arbour from Gagne, 4:02.

Ottawa, March 3.—Present indications are that the Ottawa Senators in their National Hockey League playoff games will lose the services of Fred Hitchman, a newcomer who was used to such good effect in the game against Hamilton here last Wednesday. Hitchman, who is a provincial detective, has been advised by his superiors that he will be only allowed to play amateur hockey. On the other hand, the Ottawa management declares Hitchman is not paid for his services and is hopeful of overcoming the difficulty.

PAVING WAY FOR THE DEMPSEY-GIBBONS GO

Bout May Be Held in Montana If It Does Not Exceed Fifteen Rounds

Helena, Mont., March 3.—The projected fight at Shelby, Mont., between Jack Dempsey and Tom Gibbons, of St. Paul, may be legally held in Montana, provided the match is limited to fifteen rounds, according to an opinion given out this afternoon by Attorney-General Wellington D. Rankin.

Shelby promoters, according to advice from that town, have raised money to make deposits of $100,000 and are prepared to guarantee $200,000 to Dempsey and $50,000 to Gibbons. Their representative, L. A. Sampson, has been in Great Falls several days awaiting the Attorney-General's decision before starting for the east to make the final arrangements for the match.

Plans have already been drawn at Shelby. It is said, for construction of an arena large enough to seat 100,000 persons.

FAMOUS PHARAOH'S TOMB YIELDS TREASURE SECRETS AFTER LAPSE OF CENTURIES

Cigarettes Must Harmonize With Milady's Gowns

New York, Mar. 3.—The dainty female smoker now must select her cigarettes with regard to color with as much care as she does her evening gowns, if she would be fashionable.

Lavender, blue, red, mauve, lilac—all shades to match colors and moods and surroundings are the latest styles. And with the new fad comes a new source of revenue for the dressmaker—that of a tobacconist.

The idea originated in the mind of a Madison Avenue dressmaker, who provided her models with varicolored cigarettes to match the gowns they were wearing. It is said to be attaining a vogue rapidly.

TAKE SALTS IF STOMACH ISN'T ACTING RIGHT

Says Indigestion Results From an Excess of Hydrochloric Acid.

Undigested food delayed in the stomach decays or rather ferments the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. He also tells us that indigestion is caused by Hyper-acidity meaning there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which prevents complete digestion and starts food fermentation. Thus everything eaten sours in the stomach much like garbage sours in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflame the stomach like a "toy balloon." Then we feel a heavy, lumpy misery in the chest; we belch up gas; we eructate sour food or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink it while it is effervescing, and furthermore, to continue this for a week. While relief often follows the first dose, it is important to help neutralize the acidity; remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salt is used for many stomach disorders with excellent results. (Adv.)

A MOTHER'S HEALTH NEEDS GREAT CARE

Care of Home and Children Often Causes a Breakdown.

The woman at home, deep in household duties and the care of motherhood, needs occasional help to keep her in good health. The demands upon a mother's health are many and severe. Her own health trials and her children's welfare exact heavy toll, while hurried meals, broken rest and much indoor living tends to weaken her constitution. No wonder that the woman at home is often indisposed through weakness, headaches, back-aches and nervousness. Too many women have grown to accept these visitations as a part of the lot of motherhood. But many a varied as her health troubles are, the cause is simple and relief at hand. When well, it is the woman's good blood that keeps her well; when ill she must make her blood rich to renew her health. The nursing mother more than any other woman in the world needs rich blood and plenty of it. There is one way to get this good blood so necessary to perfect health, and that is through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Mrs. W. T. Riley, R.R. No. 1, Apple Hill, Ont., has proved the great value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to mothers, and tells her story as follows:—"Two years ago, after the birth of my boy, I became very weak and run down. Gradually I lost weight and energy until I was unable to do my household work. I could not sleep, my nerves would twitch and jump, so that I arose in the morning with heavy aching limbs and head. Indigestion helped to make the misery worse, and my heart would palpitate terribly. I doctored steadily for a year without getting better, but just dragged along feeling that I would never be well again. But one lucky day, on the advice of a friend, I began treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I have taken only six boxes, but wish you could see the difference. I am now able to do my work, go about and enjoy myself. I feel so entirely like a new woman that I advise every weak or ailing woman to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I know they will get beneficial results."

If you are ailing, easily tired or depressed, it is a duty you owe yourself and your family to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial. What this medicine has done for others it will surely do for you. You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont. (Adv.)

AUTOMOTIVE NEWS

AUTOMOBILE BUSINESS BOOMS

Ten Per Cent. Increase on 1922 in United States

In 1923, according to the February issue of The Automobile Trade Journal, the automotive market can safely absorb 10 per cent more motor vehicles than were sold last year, when 2,550,000 cars and trucks were produced.

Other conditions remaining satisfactory, this promises to be the most successful year, for both maker and dealer, in the entire history of the automobile business.

Approximately 1,650,000 passenger cars will pass their sixth year of service some time during the next twelve months, and under normal economic conditions must be replaced. This represents the largest replacement market which has been available since the establishment of the automobile industry.

About 300,000 cars will be required for "new owners." This estimated requirement will, of course, be modified by existing industrial and agricultural conditions. It is estimated that 75,000 cars will go into the export trade. Adding these together, we find a demand for approximately 2,325,000 passenger cars.

In the commercial car field, the percentage of trucks needed for replacement is not quite so large as in the passenger car field. Approximately 125,000 commercial cars will be replaced during the coming twelve months, if business conditions continue on a fairly even keel. A demand for 135,000 trucks for new owners is anticipated. About 15,000 trucks will be sufficient for the export trade. This brings the total estimated requirements for 1923 to 275,000 commercial cars, making a total of 2,600,000 passenger cars, trucks, or an increase of about 10 per cent over last year's production.

Of the estimated output of 2,525,000

States. Of these, 2,485 are in cities over 500,000 population, 3,481 are in cities with populations between 100,000 and 500,000, 8,192 are in cities with populations between 10,000 and 100,000, 24,371, or more than half the total, are in small towns having a population of less than 10,000.

These figures do not include stumpy trees, garages, etc. of which there are over 4,000, making a total of more than 50,000 sales and service units devoted to the automobile.

FORD SHORTAGE IS THREATENED

Situation in United States is Explained

A recent car shortage warning issued by the Ford-Motor Company of Detroit through its various branches calls attention to the fact that the demand for Ford cars in the United States at the present time is more than 100 per cent over the demand a year ago.

In December, 1922, there were 105,799 Ford cars and trucks delivered to retail buyers, as against 59,203 for the same period in 1921. January sales for the first twenty days for which information is now available show sales at the rate of 120,000 for the month, while advance estimates received from dealers for February delivery show orders for 147,000 already booked.

This February demand is 20,000 cars and trucks in excess of the production capacity for February with the plant working on the new schedule which is aiming at 6,000 cars a day, as soon as material and equipment can be put on the right basis for

ADDS SIXTY MEMBERS TO ROLL

Victoria Automobile Club is Making Steady Progress

The new service features recently instituted by the Victoria Automobile Club are proving very attractive to local motorists, there having been more than sixty new members enrolled during the last two weeks.

In addition to promoting everything possible in the interests of motorists generally, the club now offers distinct advantages to members in the way of direct benefits. If a member's car becomes incapacitated and cannot be moved under its own power, the club furnishes a free tow.

This alone is an exceptionally attractive form of insurance, for while no motorist anticipates a breakdown, it is nevertheless a contingency that is liable to arise at any time.

On the basis of this information the Atkinson Company placed orders for both makes of cars, as they anticipated a boom in business this year, especially in the Spring. The cars are gaining in popularity, said Mr. Lovell, and as a result "we have made a sale practically every day during the last two months."

Victoria being the last city in his itinerary, Mr. Dugan was able to confidently say that there was general satisfaction with all regarding the Durant products.

The wide ramifications of the club form a distinct asset to members who go on tour in other parts. By reciprocal arrangement with other clubs in Canada and the United States as well as the Royal Automobile Club in Great Britain, the member is extended the privileges of membership in these other institutions. Any information desired may be had from the secretary, R. E. Webb, 402 Pemberton Building. Telephone 3109.

DURANT PRODUCTS INCREASING DEMAND

New Factory Nearing Completion; Nearly a Million Orders

E. G. Dugan, Assistant Sales Manager of the Durant and Star Car Company, visited Victoria this week in the course of a tour through Canada in which he is making an inspection of the sales for the Durant cars.

He announced to the local agent, Mr. Lovell, sales manager of the Atkinson Company, that the new factory now in its construction at Toronto is near its completion, and the thousands of cars will be turned out of this factory during this year.

Mr. Dugan stated that there were 326,000 orders for Durant cars already reached the factory by the Star car had reached the half million mark, there being no less than 500,000 orders in for this car.

On the basis of this information the Atkinson Company placed orders for both makes of cars, as they anticipated a boom in business this year, especially in the Spring. The cars are gaining in popularity, said Mr. Lovell, and as a result "we have made a sale practically every day during the last two months."

MOTOR DEMAND IS REPORTED IN STEADY GROWTH

Industry Looks for Busy Year as Sales Market Gains

Detroit, Mar. 3.—The automobile industry is getting under way steadily and sure to be a big year's business, and with the returns from each of the major shows now being held the conviction becomes stronger that it will be the largest year it has ever had.

There is no pessimism among the larger makers and their plans are fully made for an output which will run well beyond the figures established in last year's record total.

The impression is gaining ground that it will be a small car year, that the sales in the low-priced vehicles will run ahead of the year proportionate share. This belief is founded largely upon the impression that most of the buying in the farming districts will be in small low-priced cars, and that the farmer will be a strong factor in the 1923 market.

Manufacturers are being held to a lower total than might usually be expected by two factors—the continuance of larger demand for inclosed vehicles, which are slower in production than the open models, and the unsatisfactory railroad situation. Full production cannot be undertaken at this time because it is impossible to get adequate shipping accommodations.

Until better weather makes driveways possible factories will be compelled to operate at a reduced pace.

Manufacturers of leading cars in both the middle and higher class fields express the opinion that good business will continue throughout the year, and that there will be no material slowing up after the first six months. In their opinion it is entirely a matter of the car itself, and those cars with established reputations for service and economy built to meet the particular requirements of the driving public, will find

AVOID SKIDDING

Never Jam Brakes too Quickly, especially on a hill, smooth or wet pavement, or other place where the car is likely to slide or skid.

There were more automobiles stolen in the United States last year than all the cars owned in Austria, Bulgaria, Germany and Turkey. These cars were valued at approximately $100,000,000 and many were destroyed by fire or accident.

For operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated in New York, the penalty is a fine up to $500, imprisonment up to one year, or both. A car owner employing an incompetent driver may be fined $5 for each day of such employment.

LARGEST BUS IN NEW SAANICH FLEET

H. A. Davis, Limited, supplied Saanich with the above handsome G. M. C. unit of the municipal bus system, which seats 22 passengers but frequently carries 40 at a trip.

The 32-horsepower engine is of a new type and has an ample reserve of power, making the Cloverdale Hill on high with ease when allowed, but the Council has purposely established compulsory stops at Inverness Street to preserve the engine from undue forcing.

The service has proven extremely popular, the patrons remarking on the comfortable riding, mainly due to the giant pneumatic tyres with which the cars are equipped. The bus shown above was equipped with its spacious body by J. Meaton & Sons, the well known local firm of carriage and automobile body builders.

Donald McGillivray, of 2454 North Cook Street, who circulated the petition to the Council which resulted in the new service, has been receiving many congratulations on the success of his efforts.

ONTARIO'S FUEL PROBLEM ARGUED

M.P.'s Urge Greater Development of Canada's Coalfields

Ottawa, March 2.—The House last night heard much of the coal shortage. Ontario and part of Quebec, according to a statement made by Hon. Charles Stewart, Minister of Mines, must continue to depend in part on the United States for their fuel.

Mr. Stewart laid his views before the House in the course of a debate on the fuel problem. During the evening there were urgent pleas for the development of Canada's coal fields.

Mr. Stewart maintained that Nova Scotia could supply Ontario as well as Quebec with fuel by British Columbia coal was too far away to be moved to Ontario with profit.

From the Opposition side, Right Hon. Arthur Meighen declared that Ontario fuel problem was the cooking plants to coke the Maritime Province fuel.

During the evening there were urgent pleas for the development of Canada's coal fields. Mr. McKenzie, who represents North Cape Breton, maintained that Nova Scotia could supply Ontario as well as Quebec with fuel by British Columbia coal was too far away to be moved to Ontario with profit.

FIFTY FIVE PER CENT. INCREASE

National Motor Company Grows Steadily

In an interview yesterday at the office of the National Motor Co., Ltd., H. E. Wilson stated that the firm's slogan of a sale a day during the month of February was an accomplished fact, 28 new cars and 16 used cars having been sold during the month.

Mr. Wilson says in March the salesmen intend to better their February record. Business has been very good, and the outlook is very promising for this year's sales.

The first two months this year show an increase of 55 per cent over the same period last year.

He is Now a Well Man

So Says Mr. C. L. Green After Taking Dodd's Kidney Pills
He Cannot Speak Too Highly of the Benefits He Received From Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Ford, Ont., March 2. (Special)—After two years of suffering from kidney trouble, Mr. Green, a highly respected resident here, is telling his friends that he owes his new lease of health to Dodd's Kidney Pills. "I can highly recommend them," Mr. Green states in his enthusiasm. "They have made me a real well man."

Dodd's Kidney Pills hold their popularity not because of the promises they make, but because of the good they do. They are purely and simply a kidney remedy. The reason they are credited with relieving rheumatism, heart disease, dropsy, etc. is because all these diseases are caused by sick kidneys. Strengthen the kidneys, so that they do their proper work, and the cause of disease is removed.

If you enquire among your neighbors you will find scores of people who have found in Dodd's Kidney Pills relief from some form of kidney trouble. It may have been the dry, itching skin, dizziness, nervousness and inability to get refreshing sleep that mark the earlier stages of the disease, or it may be diabetes, dropsy, rheumatism or some other of the dangerous diseases that mark its advanced stages.

You will find that Dodd's Kidney Pills will help kidney trouble, no matter where or in what form it is found. (Adv.)

Incident in a Ghost Room; Did Not Mean to Be Rude

A woman went to stay at a country house and was put into the ghost room, she being quite unconscious of the room had any such uncanny title. In the middle of the night she was wakened by feeling, to her horror, the clothes being drawn off her bed. She clutched at them in desperation, but all to no purpose, for they were steadily dragged out of her hands and finally taken clean away. The incident was explained when, next morning, she heard a man say to the hostess that the fact was not that she had gone into the ghost room and took the clothes off the bed to keep herself warm, but that she would not put anyone in there.

EPISCOPAL MISSIONS MAY HAVE TO CLOSE

New York, March 3.—Possible closing of missionary stations in various parts of the world and general curtailment of Episcopal Church activities in the United States were forecast in a report issued by the National Council of the Church showing a deficit of $399,078.30 for 1922. An appeal has been made to Episcopal bishops and heads of church agencies and institutions for rigid economy. The report for general purposes in 1922 was $2,218,107.19 and the estimated expenditures for 1923, $3,618,185.79, leaving an estimated deficit of $399,078.30. The figures for 1921, $2,685,851 received and $2,515,996 disbursed.

BISHOP POOR AT $32,500 A YEAR

Is Object of Pity; Nominally Large Income Fails to Keep Up Position

London, March 3.—The Bishop of Winchester, whose official salary is £5,500 a year, cannot pay his way. Any bishop in his diocese must have £2,000 yearly of private means. This statement given by the bishop of the National Assembly of the Anglican Church was received with little surprise. The views expressed gave general approval to the proposal to divide the diocese into three. The difficulty which English bishops nowadays encounter in making ends meet is a problem almost as serious as the poverty of most of the lesser clergy. The Bishop of London, whose income is £10,000, publishes his balance sheet to show how his money goes. The Archbishop of York, with a similar income, also publishes a frank statement of his financial position. Both are bishops of the Anglican Church and the Bishop of London said he received much publicity one winter when he wore a fur-lined overcoat.

Above is shown the wax effigy of the saint, who was a thirteen-year-old Christian martyr of the third century.

MANY TOURISTS TO VISIT JERUSALEM IN COMING SPRING

Holy City Will Have Over 5,000 Visitors; City Is Under British Mandate

Jerusalem, whose gates have opened to David and Solomon, to the Roman conqueror, to Turk and Crusader, and to the Saviour of the World, expects many visitors during the next five months. The Holy City estimates that between 5,000 and 6,000 tourists will call there. All Jews at present, getting money to build a big hotel in the capital of Palestine next summer. Barsky says he does not know how Jerusalem there this winter and coming Spring. The hotels and convents can furnish beds for but 1,000 guests at the most. There are only two hotels of any size in Jerusalem. The Allenby accommodations 195 people, and the Grand Hotel, inside the walls, can house 115. The Convention Hotel, on Dame de France is able to house 300, and the German hospice 250, but there are no hotels in the strict sense of the word.

NEW CHURCHES FOR OLD CONTROVERSY IN LONDON

Many distinguished statesmen, warriors and artists are buried in the crypt of St. Paul's, or commemorated in the cathedral, including Wren himself and Nelson and Wellington. Monday's celebration here has revived a controversy regarding the fate of many churches in the heart of London which nowadays practically have no congregations. The sites and the endowments of these churches represent enormous figures and local enthusiasts are urging that many of these buildings should be demolished and the proceeds from the sales of the properties be devoted to the erection of new churches in the residential portions of the city. The Bishop of London, backed by supporters from architectural and ecclesiastical societies and also by men devoted to the science of church building and decoration, is in favor of the closing of 19 alleged derelict churches, out of a total of 47 in the city area.

Auto Aband.

There are 1,000 automobiles in Jerusalem, says Barsky, mostly of the light American type, for the use of tourists, and 24 sight-seeing cars on similar lines to those used in New York City, only more comfortable. It is quite easy to make the trip from Jerusalem to River Jordan and the Dead Sea in one day by automobile and be back before six o'clock. To do the Sea of Galilee and Nazareth occupies two days.

Tenting Makes Cheap Trip.

Horses, donkeys and camels can be hired in plenty and in April the weather in Palestine is nice for a tenting trip through the country, which is better than stopping at the small hotels at the various points of interest, and less expensive, as labor is cheap in the small towns and villages everywhere.

Jews Number 45,000.

Three racial groups exist in Jerusalem, states the repatriated son of Palestine who is now visiting New York. These consist of the Jews, whose number about 45,000, and the Moslems and Christians who make up the balance of the 15,000 population. The Bedouins are reported to be not giving any trouble to travelers, and the route, repaired by the British, are in excellent condition.

DWELL IN THE LAND OF HOW AND WHY

LIVING, as is often the case, within walking distance of many wonderful sights, seldom it is that we take advantage of these blessings. Within a radius of ten miles of Victoria the industrious may be initiated into the mysteries of many matters that we so often grow to old age without perceiving. We show visitors to the Provincial Museum, drive them to the Astronomical Observatory, to the Meteorological Station, and do everything but take advantage of these facilities for our own instruction.

Have you looked at the sky on a night when there was a full moon? If you gaze steadily at the moon long enough you will be almost certain to see the "man in the moon." On some nights he will seem to wink and be thoroughly pleased with himself, while on other occasions the man in the moon will wear a grim and sour look that seems to say, "This is my last quarter."

How many of our little readers have taken the trouble to secure a "close-up" of the man in the moon? Yet the facilities for seeing that mythical gentleman as he really is are ready to hand. On occasions when the public is invited to a visit to the Astronomical Observatory at Saanich Hill a ready means of examining the heavens through a telescope without equal in Canada for its type and construction. Photographs of the heavenly bodies are here to be seen in all their various phases, and much to be learned that is of great interest.

The man in the moon resolves himself into a collection of extinct craters, massive mountains and cliff-like divisions that appear like giant canals. Under the powerful lens of the telescope stars that are invisible to our eyes become distinct and clear. Planets, dim worlds about which the world and its peoples still speculate, are outlined with a precision that lends enchantment to the story of their origin.

Another visit that our little friends should make is one to the Meteorological Observatory at Gonzales Heights. This also must be by arrangement, for real work is carried on at these observatories, and visitors are in the way at certain times.

Here may be seen many instruments the use of which we scarcely suspect—the measurement of the tidal forces which in rising press on the solid rock of our island, the path and course of winds as they wind their way over the face of the land, the erratic pulses of earthquakes and their probable centre, the heat of the sun, the depth of the rainfall and a hundred other facts about our climate that form a lesson in nature study not often told. What is the wind, where is it going and what does it do? The answer lies in the charts that are here to be found and explained by genial workers whose interest in their own work is large enough to foster a like interest on the part of each and every one that pays them the honor of a visit.

At the Provincial Museum our friends will see, also on the proper occasion, a collection of relics of Indian days here that is one of the finest of its kind in Canada. Axe heads carved in days long before our time here, classified and explained in a way that tells much of the life here in olden days. Rocks from which we get our gold, silver and other minerals are here seen, each carefully named and as carefully explained. The animals which throng our woods, and birds that delight us with song or our eyes with color, are here given a niche of their own. Indeed, to miss "doing" the Provincial Museum is to lose an opportunity of rare entertainment on a subject that would delight us the more we take the trouble to investigate it.

How does the city get its light? By what magic does a little box on our home wall carry our voice out to that of a friend many miles away? How does the fire department know where to look when an alarm is turned in for a fire? How does the city get its food, its coal?—and half a hundred other queries arise which have a solution that is to be found in the simple injunction, "Be interested enough to find out."

With a roar of pulsing dynamos electrical energy is generated far out in the Sooke Hills and finds its way to the city, to be redistributed in the form of light, heat and power in our city houses of business and in our homes. Countless miles of wire carry our voices in the form of electric impulses that react on instruments at distances even hundreds of miles away. In a small office at the top of the police station, signal men of the fire department sit and wait for the call that they will send crashing out to the headquarters and branch stations. Tons and tons of food for our tables comes to us by train, boat and car, from sources a few short miles distant and some from the other side of the world. Make it your business this year to find out what there is of general interest in this city and to instruct yourself on these matters.

BUDDY AND HIS FRIENDS

By Robt. L. Dickey

AS A DISCIPLE OF COUE BUCKY KELLY GOT A POOR START

as possible, full patrols should be sent out, working in pairs, but keeping in touch with their leader, and patrols from different troops should work against each other. Of course, each patrol should be in entire ignorance of the orders given to the enemy, and the routes should be arranged so that they cross each other's trail in one or more places.

The complete list of scout first class tests has now been given, and it is up to every scout who already holds this badge to ask himself whether he is really what the chief scout would consider first class. If not, he will immediately set to work to bring himself up to standard, so that when he meets Baden-Powell this Spring he will be able to look him in the eye, confident that he is not wearing any badge that he is not thoroughly entitled to hold. All the enemy they spotted and what they were doing, with time and place, where and how they camped and any other information that may be required. There will be a definite programme of scouting to be done when they reach their destination and probably a sketch of the country to be made. They must then get back the next day, still without having been spotted by the enemy or by anybody else, because the examiners will be wandering around trying to spot them and asking questions of any people they may meet. The scout who can take this test successfully, seeing without being seen and turning in a good report on all that he does see, may well consider himself first class.

This is, quite evidently, not a test to be passed on the first attempt without previous practice, and it will be necessary for scoutmasters and patrol leaders to arrange practice hikes during the camping season with varying schemes of sealed orders and over different ground each time, so that before a scout comes before the badge committee for this test he will already have done it several times under test conditions and have acquired confidence in his ability to succeed in it, as well as a fair knowledge of the surrounding country. So far certain they had come to catch him.

There was no hole, and before he could make one or even select a place to gnaw he heard a dreadful crash and then felt a terrible jolt which sent shivers of fear all over his little body.

With his eyes closed tightly Greytail began to think about the pantry, and he wondered if he would ever see it again. But when after a while nothing happened but jolts and no one came to catch him, Greytail grew bold and crept toward the top of the trunk.

The cover was closed. There was no way to get out. Then as he was thinking he must gnaw an opening and make his escape a crash worse than any other he had felt sent him sliding down to the very bottom of the trunk, and Greytail clutched at lace and fluffy things to keep from tumbling about for the men were not a bit gentle as they threw the trunk from one place to another. "Oh, my poor head," squealed Greytail. "It is opening so I could not run if I had the chance. All these somersaults are too much even for a young mouse like me."

But there was no one to hear his squeaks, for the trunk was being put aboard a big ship where there was too much noise for the cries of a mouse to be heard.

By and by all was quiet. At least, the trunk was tumbled about no more and Greytail began to feel very queer. "What is the matter?" he thought. "I cannot breathe. Oh dear, if someone does not let me out I am sure I will die."

As if in answer to his wish, Greytail heard a "click," and then in came the light, for Greytail was quite near the top of the trunk. For a minute he lay still, panting for breath, and then the covering of his hiding place was brushed aside and he leaped for freedom.

FOR CHILDREN

The Sandman Story For To-night

GREYTAIL'S VOYAGE Part I.

Greytail was one of a large family of mice that lived in the walls of the pantry of the Big House. It was lucky for them that the cook was careless and left plenty of crumbs around, for Father Mouse could never have fed them all, even after a hard day's work bringing home all the scraps he could find.

So when Greytail was quite young he had many times ventured as far as the door to the kitchen by himself and learned to be quick at dodging Black Cat, which, though too fat and sleek to bother much about such a small mouse as Greytail, sometimes did chase one just for fun.

But Greytail was eager for adventure, and one day when the door was open he ran out into the kitchen and, seeing another open door, he ran out into what proved to be the hallway. Against the wall stood an open trunk, though of course Greytail did not know it was a trunk. He only knew it was something new for him to play in, and so he ran up the sides and down into the soft fluffy things he found inside.

He was having a jolly time all by himself creeping in and out among laces and silks when suddenly, as he peeped from the folds of something soft, he saw two men. Dawn went Greytail to the very bottom of the trunk to find a hole through which to escape, for he was

VICTORIA BOYS SAILING ON ALL SEVEN SEAS

SINCE its inception in this Province a few short years ago the Boys' Naval Brigade in its various branches has trained and sent over 200 boys to sea. The Victoria division of the brigade, operated under the auspices of the local branch of the Navy League of Canada, has played an important part in this record, sending over 100 boys trained to their calling on board ships at sea. The local division, too, has to its credit the training of a brass band probably without equal for a juvenile organization in the length and breadth of the Province.

Many of the boys have shipped as cadets and will work upwards in their calling until, in a few short years, they will be junior officers, or regularly established in the merchant marine life of this country. All the boys have shipped on vessels of British register, those not taking out their papers as cadets shipping as able seamen.

These regular guards are seasoned old campaigners.

They stand no formations. Mess call is at three in the morning, and for the remainder of the twenty-four hours they have roving commissions. No guards challenge them. They show no passes. They slip around all over the place.

Most of them were born in the service, and there are always new kittens to be seen in the vicinity of the lunch room, where a lazy pup can graze a few crumbs. A kitten is never really initiated into the old guard until it has killed its first rat.

The regulars do not lie around a rat run, bringing in a prisoner now and then, but elect themselves to patrol duty. Never do they see a closed door, that they are not curious to investigate. They wait in the corridor until the door is opened. Once in a while their curiosity causes them to get locked in, and if it happens to be an infrequent storeroom they may be carried out a week or so later looking mighty sober and hungry.

They have no regular hours and are not confined to quarters. They may go A.W.L. into the civilian world, returning later with a new recruit, but they are not waited upon by a court martial.

While on the subject of cats it would be unforgivable in the Department at Washington, D.C. to fall to mention "Old Tom," who has a service record of seventeen years in the Post Office Department.

Old Tom is the king of cats. Probably no other cat in the country has been written up or had his picture in the papers as often as he. Tom came in with the Roosevelt administration, and though a staunch Republican, his job was never in danger during the Burleson regime.

In spite of his age, Tom still keeps the huge Department clear of rats. When not engaged in this pastime or duty he can be found in the office of the captain of the watch, where he is always willing to "show off" for visitors. Besides playing the piano, he will jump through the hoop, play dead, and, according to the watchmen, do anything but talk.

Honor Stoical Cub

A memorial has been unveiled in the Boy Scout headquarters at Mason's Hill, Bromley, Kent, to "Sonny," bravest of the Wolf Cubs of the troop, who died in hospital last September after suffering for many months from a malignant disease which caused him acute and constant pain, of which he never complained.

The memorial includes a typewritten copy of an article in The Daily Mail last May describing "Sonny's" wonderful courage, a portrait of the boy, who was only eleven when he died, and a brass plate which records his unconquerable heroism. The cost of the memorial has been covered by subscriptions from the boys of the troop.

Already several of the boys from this city and vicinity have been in shipwrecks, and in all cases have borne themselves in a manner that reflects great credit on their local instructors. Their training ground is the former drill hall on Menzies Street, kindly lent to the brigade by the Provincial Government. Here almost any night in the week an onlooker would see the interesting spectacle of young men eagerly entering into the acquisition of the first details of the mariner's life.

Signalling, the quick and effective maneuvers of the navy, occupies much of their attention. Navigation and compass work, weather charts, knots, splices, bends and hitches, international code flags and many other phases of nautical instruction are given. Not the least interesting phase of the work comes in the good weather, when the boys, under their instructors, take to the open, and boat pulling and cruises enter into their activities.

To watch the boys at work is to understand a little the glowing reports that masters of merchant shipping have been rendering on the conduct of the Naval Brigade lads under their care. Keenness to learn is the keynote upon which able instructors have reared a foundation that already attains to the dignity of a Canadian record in Naval Brigade work.

Every now and then a Naval Brigade boy returns on furlough from his ship, and then what stories are passed! One boy has been to India, another down the coast and through the Panama Canal to the Atlantic; others have made round trips to Australia and New Zealand, while some have been as far as Japan and the Far East.

Victoria boys have shipped under these auspices on vessels of the Canadian Steamship Line, the Canadian Robert Dollar Line, the Canadian Government, Merchants Marine and on several other companies' craft plying in nearly all the seven seas of the world. The boys under training here now will not necessarily take to a career at sea, but many do, and the training given them is of such a nature that, no matter what sphere of life such a boy is able to move in, he will be benefited by the instruction gained with the Naval Brigade. Not the least valuable asset of the training lies in the boys themselves—a rare source of wholesome companionship that makes for healthy friendship in all their outings.

Small boy at a church social, discovered by kind old lady. Boy in act of eating a bun with every appearance of having the time of his life. Old lady, with diary in hand and seeking the date: "Is this the twelfth, Johnny?" Johnny—"No, this is my tenth."

Above is shown a gold-encrusted representation of the sacred cow which served as frame-work for one of the couches.

And Population so Necessary

Humanity:—Surely the Government of the most prosperous Province in Canada should cast aside its apathy and indifference and combat this unenviable record.

This is the first photograph to reach this country of Count Charles Caviglioli-Bergold, Italian cavalry captain, whose engagement to Princess Yolanda of Italy (above) has just been announced.

Above are the spectacular ice covered ruins of the Lister Building, Hamilton, which was completely destroyed by fire of unknown origin, resulting in a loss estimated at over a million dollars. On the upper left firemen are seen laying five streams of water on the gutted ruins, and on the upper right is shown the King William Street side of the building with the city hall on James Street in the background.

Ice-Cold Hatchery For Hard-Boiled Eggs

Danish Prince Erik, Now Learning Farming in Canada, Gave Interest Returning a Practical Joke.

by P. W. LUCE.

HAD he come to this country fifteen or twenty years ago, Prince Erik of Denmark would most certainly have been mistaken for an English remittance man.

Because of his exalted lineage, and an aloofness which is not so pronounced as it was a few months ago, Prince Erik is not always taken as seriously as he would like by his neighbors in Saskatchewan.

The democracy of a young country, however, will not permit the Danish prince to escape with practical jokes played on newcomers in prairie districts.

His father, Prince Valdemar, after a voyage to the Danish East Indies in the motor ship Peru, came up the Pacific coast for a cruise.

Wishing to raise some Orpington chickens, Prince Erik asked a neighbor to sell him a setting from a prize strain.

Leading the way to the icehouse, he removed the straw from a block of ice, and placed the half-dozen eggs on the cold surface.

ASK RIGHT TO CLEAN UP RACES IN WILLOWS PARK

Local Association Would Eliminate 'Fixed' Races and 'Dammable' Conditions

Want to Keep Money Here and Give City $20,000 Profits on First Meet

Delegates of the Vancouver Island Racing and Breeding Association appeared before the City Council yesterday afternoon, and asked for the right to "clean up" racing at the Willows, hand over $20,000 in racing profits to the city and eliminate the "regrettable, damnable and disgusting" conditions that prevailed at the last meet here.

Briefly, the proposition laid before the Council is that the Association be allowed to stage two weeks' racing at the Willows, the city handing back all the profits thus made to the City Council. The Council would then hand back to the Association the sum to be decided at a conference between the Association executive and the City Finance Committee. The Association, it was explained, would keep the Willows track in good shape and would run all money spent in betting would say in Victoria under this plan instead of going to American interests as in the past, it was asserted.

Dr. J. F. Grant, President of the Racing Association, who led the delegation, said that it was estimated that the city would secure between $20,000 and $25,000 from this year's race meet. These figures, he explained, were based on the profits of previous meets.

Should Get Revenue.
Percy Fox, another member of the delegation, pointed out that the city owned a valuable asset in the Willows Ground and this asset should be made revenue producing. At the last race meet, he said, the racing privileges were given to outside investors which had made between $38,000 and $40,000. This money, he urged, should be kept in the city and part of it at least should go to the City Treasury.

W. H. Cochrane, well-known racehorse breeder, declared that if the Association were allowed to run races here it would encourage the breeding of horses locally by providing breeders' stakes. In the past, nothing had been done to encourage local horses, although breeding could be made into a substantial industry here.

'Fixed' Races.
Dr. Grant charged that in previous years races had been "fixed," to be the finest of the breed, that a certain horse could hardly help winning. Everyone was aware of this, including Alderman George Sangster, Secretary of the B. C. Agricultural Association, which has controlled the Willows Ground in the past, he said.

"No, I'm not," interjected Alderman Sangster, who was presiding. "You take that back. Cut it right out. You can't go on like that."

"I don't say you were a party to it," Dr. Grant explained.

Alderman Sangster still objected to the statement but Alderman Sargent urged that the delegation be given a full hearing.

Dishonest Jockeys.
Dr. Grant went on to assert that the racing interests could do just anything they wished so long as they could "get away with it." He said that dishonest jockeys had been "sent down" in punishment but later had been allowed back in the track with their horses threatened to withdraw their horses in Vancouver, he declared, one jockey had pulled three certain winners and the citizens had gone over the head of the racing interests and forced the man to leave the city.

"Everyone, including Alderman Sangster, knew about this, Dr. Grant said. "Now cut that right out!" Alderman Sangster warned again.

"Why, this is like the revelation of St. John," Alderman Andros remarked.

Alderman Leeming agreed that the information which was being given to the Council was very interesting and he wanted to hear all about it.

'Foreign Thugs.'
"I don't see why we should not deal with these local men rather than with a bunch of foreign thugs," Alderman Gillespie observed.

Alderman Sangster said that the last race meet had been under the auspices of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. "Do you say those races were improper?" he asked Dr. Grant.

"I do," Dr. Grant replied. "There was an undesirable element on the grounds and the betting booths giving regrettable tips to people. It was regrettable, damnable and disgusting. This sort of thing will kill the game. It was not a credit to the policing of the grounds."

The association's proposition to the city was outlined in this formal letter:

"The aim of the association is to encourage and stimulate thoroughly clean and honest sport, to encourage the breeding of the thoroughbred as an industry. There is no better climate in Canada than the southern end of Vancouver Island for this purpose.

"To remove racing control on local tracks from outside influence and to establish a racing commission under charter from the Government or as an industry. There is no better climate in Canada than the southern end of Vancouver Island for this purpose.

"To encourage and promote polo clubs, gymkhanas, steeplechases and other attractions, to be put on when possible throughout the year for the amusement of the citizens and visitors.

"We have already obtained a strong membership from influential business men, and are receiving encouragement from up-island points in support of clean racing and of the running of steeplechases and other kindred sports.

"We would undertake to lease the Willows ground for two or more years with the co-operation of the B.C. Agricultural Association, manage the races and sports meetings,

GET READY FOR A NOTABLE EVENT

Preparations Being Made for Visit of Sir Henry Newbolt

Representatives of the various service clubs of the city met at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon for the purpose of making arrangements in connection with the visit to Victoria of Sir Henry Newbolt, M. A., D. Litt., who will arrive here Friday morning, March 16, and remain until the following afternoon. Sir Henry, who is a noted author and poet, has come to Canada to attend the National Conference on Education and Citizenship to be held in Toronto, April 2 to 8. He is chairman of the committee of enquiry into the teaching of English set up by the British Board of Education, and will visit a number of schools in the Dominion during his stay.

The meeting elected H. Charlesworth as chairman, and Miss Cann as secretary. It was decided that these two, together with A. C. Flumherf, Mrs. Hyndman and Alderman Woodward, should constitute the permanent committee on arrangements, and should also look after any financing that may be involved. A reception committee to meet the guest author at noon on the day of his arrival for while in the city was named, consisting of Mayor Hayward, Hon. Dr. MacLean, Bishop Schofield, George Jay, Rev. W. Leslie Clay, Mrs. Hyndman, Miss Crease, Mrs. Bishop, H. Charlesworth and H. J. S. Musket.

On the morning of his arrival Sir Henry will be taken for a drive around the city and vicinity. He will speak for a few minutes at the High School, and will also call at Victoria College. At noon he will be the guest of the Men's and Women's Canadian Clubs jointly. In the afternoon he will be left free. In the evening he will address a public meeting in the Metropolitan Church. On Saturday morning he will address a gathering of educationists, comprising those connected with the Education Department, the School Board, the teachers, the students of Victoria College, the Parent-Teacher Association, and any others who may be interested enough to attend. He will take the Saturday afternoon boat for Vancouver.

The chairman, Mr. Charlesworth, also urged that something be done to arouse interest in the convention at Toronto, in order that Victoria may send a full quota of delegates. In this connection he stated that Mrs. Fleming will be a delegate, as she will be in Toronto at the time, attending the Red Cross. A committee for the purpose of arousing interest was appointed consisting of H. Charlesworth, Mrs. Schofield, B. C. lance-corporal, and others. They will probably address a number of organizations in the city on the subject.

It was stated that Victoria will probably be visited also by Sir Michael Sadler, vice-chancellor of the University of Leeds; Lieut.-Gen. Sir Robert Baden-Powell, founder of the Boy Scout and Girl Guide movements; and Lady Baden-Powell, Chief Girl Guide. All of these will be at the Toronto convention and contemplate making a somewhat extended tour of Canada.

Attention was called to the fact that every church in Canada is being asked to devote Sunday, April 8, to the cause of education, by appropriate services.
