GENERAL ELECTION IN GREAT BRITAIN ON DEC. 6

Here and There

Big Interests Turn From the Past, Seeing Opportunities Ahead; Others Will Follow; London Learns of B.C.; Copper Better Again

Jesse Livermore, who has gained fame and millions by his intensive study of and skill in forecasting business conditions, thinks that business generally is going ahead again. The wires quote him in New York to-day as saying:

"It is the same old story of the big interests forgetting the past and looking ahead. The steel industry has turned the corner as will be amply shown when the next unfilled tonnage statement is published. You do not need any better evidence of what the big interests think."

Steel as a great fundamental industry is one of the accurate barometers of trade. That's why Mr. Livermore shows so much interest in it.

It is also interesting to note that he says it is the "big interests" who are forgetting the past and looking ahead. This ability to visualize the future and act has made them "big interests." It is the small men who haven't yet started looking forward on this coast. The big fellows are getting in on the ground floor; the others in a few years will be moaning over lost opportunities.

Mr. Wade, British Columbia's Agent-General, tells London something about this Province. Some British Columbians as well as Londoners don't know what we have got here.

Mr. Wade sums up this Province this way:
"British Columbia, the Pacific Gateway, population 524,000, area 372,608 square miles, standing seventh in order of Provincial populations, with less than 6 per cent. of the population of Canada, takes:

"FIRST place in the Dominion in the production of LUMBER, FISH and COPPER;

"SECOND in MINERAL production, FRUIT, GOLD AND SILVER; and

"THIRD in PAPER, PULP and MANUFACTURING.

"Can there be any question as to the future of British Columbia. It is a Province where forest wealth, minerals, water power, harbors and fertile lands combine to give promise of a stable and prosperous future."

Mr. Wade pertinently asks Londoners this question:
"American capital is earning dividends in British Columbia, why not British?"

The following published in The New York American this morning is important to British Columbia, greatest producer of copper in Canada:

"Within the last week the price of copper metal has advanced one-half cent to 13 1/2 cents a pound. Indications are that with a continuation of the present urgent inquiry quotations will rise indefinitely. One important development is the appearance of brass manufacturers as large buyers for the first time in many weeks. Foreign demand is also good and is declared to be running at the rate of about $0,000,000 monthly. All the important European countries are in the market as buyers."

Every eighth up in copper means more business and better times for B. C. merchants as well as copper men. This Province produces around 40,000,000 pounds of copper a year. With prices firm it will produce lot more as there are many properties waiting a chance to open up.

DOCTOR TELLS HOW TO FIGHT GERMS OF BOTULISM

Chicago, Nov. 13.—Food preserved in saturated solutions of either salt or sugar are proof against the deadly germs of botulism, Dr. John C. Geiger, epidemiologist of the United States Public Health Service, attached to the University of Chicago, declared to-day. Other preservatives, put up in solutions neither decidedly acid or alkaline, are susceptible to the botulism germs, he said.

$450,000 MORE A YEAR FOR 12,000 RAILROAD WORKERS

Chicago, Nov. 13.—An increase of two cents an hour for the 12,000 employees in the mechanical crafts of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy has been granted by the railway management, E. P. Bracken, vice-president, announced to-day. He estimated that the aggregate increase would be $450,000 a year.

COMMISSION WILL HEAR GERMAN STATE REPARATIONS CASE

Paris, Nov. 13.—The Allied Reparations Commission decided to-day to hear representatives of Germany regarding the capacity of the Reich to pay reparations. The date of the hearing will be fixed later.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Although the door still is open for American helpfulness in the reparations problem, President Coolidge regards the latest move in that direction as having come definitely to an end.

London, Nov. 13.—Until Premier Poincare has officially advised the British Government regarding the details of his proposed new reparations inquiry, the Government will withhold formal expression of its attitude.

Einstein's Life Menaced; He Will Go to Holland

Berlin, Nov. 13 (Jewish Telegraph Agency).—Warning letters from Anti-Semites received by Professor Albert Einstein since his return from Russia several days ago have convinced the scientist of the advisability of leaving Germany for Holland. The letters contain clear intimations that attempts would be made on his life.

As the suggested committee of experts, however, would apparently operate on an even narrower basis than that suggested by Great Britain or the United States, it is stated the Government will decline to join it, especially as there is no indication that Premier Poincare intends to invite United States participation.

Paris, Nov. 13.—A new factor had entered the reparations situation to-day as the Reparations Commission met to decide whether Germany's request for a financial hearing should be granted.

The addition was Premier Poincare's own proposal that the Commission name a committee to investigate thoroughly Germany's economic and financial condition.

In a report to the Provincial Police this afternoon the cause of the accident is given. It appears that Mr. Thompson with a lady passenger were driving on the Island Highway about a quarter of a mile south of the Drawing Lake intersection when the car hit a rock, skidded and became unmanageable. The car overturned, throwing Mr. Thompson out. The lady was uninjured.

Belgian Ministry Declares Peace is Being Menaced

Brussels, Nov. 13.—The question of addressing the Allied and Associated powers, "recalling them to the moral duties," is under consideration by the Belgian Cabinet. It may also bring the matter before the League of Nations, as it considers the peace of the world is becoming increasingly endangered.

MAN INJURED IN CAR SMASH ON MALAHAT

Robert Thompson Sustained Fractured Arm When Automobile Turned Over

Robert Thompson, of 2620 Government Street, sustained a fractured arm yesterday when the automobile in which he was driving on the Malahat overturned on the highway and was badly wrecked. The accident is one of a series of motor mishaps which occurred outside the city during the holiday period. It was at first reported that Thompson was seriously injured in the smash, but on being rushed to the St. Joseph's Hospital here it was learned that the injuries were confined to a fracture of the arm and other hurts of a minor character. Thompson was admitted to the hospital at seven o'clock last night and received prompt attention at the institution.

In a report to the Provincial Police this afternoon the cause of the accident is given. It appears that Mr. Thompson with a lady passenger were driving on the Island Highway about a quarter of a mile south of the Drawing Lake intersection when the car hit a rock, skidded and became unmanageable. The car overturned, throwing Mr. Thompson out. The lady was uninjured.

Committee's Duties
M. Poincare, who it is said would be kindly disposed toward a suggestion for negotiations with Germany now that the economic situation in the Ruhr is clearing up, would have the proposed committee of experts empowered to do several things. It would arrive at an estimate of Germany's external resources; it would suggest how these might be used for her reparations accounts; it would determine what steps Germany should take towards re-establishing her finances; it would make every effort to learn the location of the Reich's exported capital and would then study means of returning it.

Louis Barthou, president of the Reparations Commission, was asked to present the Premier's plan at the meeting to-day.

START THIRD WEEK WITH OPPOSITION ATTACKS REPULSED

Ministers Whip Legislation Into Shape For Reopening of House To-morrow

Premier's P.G.E. Announcement Quashes Conservative Drive on Railway Work

The British Columbia Legislature will start the third week of its present session to-morrow with the debate on the Speech from the Throne nearing the end and the Government almost ready to bring down its annual programme of legislation.

The Government starts this week probably stronger than it started the session itself. The attacks of the Opposition, which were given so much prominence early last week, were beaten back and overcome by Premier Oliver's sudden announcement that a complete investigation of Pacific Great Eastern Railway affairs—an investigation more complete than P.G.E. critics asked—had been ordered even before the Opposition launched its drive on the Railway Department.

The Government's P.G.E. announcement and its determination to sift every charge against the administration of the railway to the bottom brought a favorable reaction all over the Province, according to reports received at the Parliament Buildings to-day.

Wind Up Debate
Most of this week will be filled with the concluding speeches of the debate on the Speech from the Throne. J. W. Jones, of South Okanagan, right-hand man of the Opposition leader, W. J. Bowser, will have the floor to-morrow. It is understood that he will deal chiefly with agricultural problems, to which he has devoted a great deal of attention.

Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture, will follow him. It is expected that Mr. Barrow will make known the real facts of the Sumas Reclamation Scheme, expenditures on which have been attacked in the House recently.

Thursday and Friday private members, including some of the Independents, will be given an opportunity to speak.

HOSPITAL DRIVE IS NOW UNDER WAY

Jubilee Hospital Appeal Commences Under Happy Auspices

Support Will be Sought Next Sunday From the Pulpits

The Jubilee Hospital campaign, after careful and thorough organization by a group of enthusiastic directors and citizens, began formally to-day. As stated in The Times yesterday, the committee were encouraged at the end of last week by some satisfactory premises, and it is expected that a substantial sum will be realized this week before the house to house canvass begins.

The committee to-day sent out through its manager, R. F. Taylor, an appeal to the Ministerial Association to make next Sunday Hospital Sunday in the churches of Victoria and district. A pledge of support was made by Rev. Dr. Wilson on behalf of the ministers, and it is expected that some of the executive committee may be given an opportunity to voice their appeal in the churches before the sermons next Sunday, particularly in view of the direct personal effort which will follow the special canvass of this week to a selected list of citizens.

The committee is asking for $125,000 to complete the central construction with the new hospital unit. Blueprints are on view at the campaign headquarters, Central Building, showing every detail for those who are unfamiliar with the extent of the undertaking.

KING AND QUEEN ATTENDED WEDDING

Princess Maud Became Bride of Lord Carnegie

Prince of Wales Among Those at Ceremony

London, Nov. 13.—Escorted to the altar by King George, Princess Maud, the bride of Lord Carnegie, was married in the Royal Chapel of St. George, which she is a sister of King George, Queen Mary and the members of the royal family and a large number of distinguished persons witnessed the marriage, which took place in the chapel of the Guards at the Wellington Barracks.

Bride's Gown
The bride was dressed in a rather old-fashioned gown made of cloth of silver. It was cut long with a sash of silver cloth on which were worn crystals. She wore a long full gown, which fell from a silver band on ripples over her silver train, lined with pale blue, which was carried by two pages. A rope of pearls was the only jewelry worn. The bride carried a nosegay of white flowers, and her feathery clusters of heather fixed at the sides of the bandeau to signify her Scottish descent.

The bridesmaids were dressed in frocks of the softest powder blue chiffon. They carried small bouquets of heather pink roses.

Princess Attended
The Prince of Wales, Prince George and Prince Henry and Viscount Lascelles were in uniform of the Guards as a compliment to the bridegroom, who is an officer of the King's Guards. The streets were lined with crowds of bridegrooms.

WANCHOW CAPTURED BY SUN'S FORCES

City Taken From Northern Chinese Troops

Shanghai, Nov. 13.—Sun Yat Sen, South China leader, has captured Wanchow, which was held by North Chinese forces in Kwantung Province under General Chen Chuang Ming, according to a dispatch received by the government at Canton. Sun's stronghold, unofficially advised received here state. The capture is said to have been effected through a strategic manoeuvre, which lured Chen's troops away from Wanchow.

The advice received here indicate that the crisis which threatened last week, when Sun's troops were reported on November 9 to be surrounded at Sheklung by General Chen's army, has been at least temporarily averted.

STAKES POLITICAL CAREER ON APPEAL TO BRITISH VOTERS

Report King May be Forced From Country and Republic Established

Britain and U.S. Have Financial Claims Against Country

London, Nov. 13.—Ministerial circles in London are without definite news of the uncertain political situation in Greece at the present moment, but they view with much anxiety the unofficial reports that King George probably will be forced to leave the country so as to permit the establishment of a republic.

Great Britain, like the United States, has financial claims against Greece, and it is felt the proclamation of a republic amid such conditions as now prevail would make the payment of these claims, or even the interest on them, remote.

The United States advanced to Greece $15,000,000 under the Liberty Bond Act, and the interest on this amount to date totals almost another million.

While the London Government, like that at Washington, has withheld its recognition of King George, who inherited such a large legacy from the late King Constantine, it has warmly endorsed the young monarch's neutrality throughout the fierce party strife in Greece and his efforts to re-establish his country in the good opinion of the world.

The Only Leader
It is recognized that George has been little more than a harmless adornment to his throne since his father's death, but it is felt he probably is the one man acceptable to both the Venizelos and Royalist parties who could tide the country through the ferocious party passions which since the ruthless killing of M. Gounaris and his five colleagues have poisoned the whole national life.

Mr. Baldwin said in substance he was thoroughly convinced protective tariffs were necessary in order to solve the unemployment problem.

Since the late Lord Law had promised there would be no fundamental change in the Government's fiscal policy during the life of the present Parliament, added the Premier, his only course, "as an honest man," was to place his views before the country.

If the country released him from Beggar Law's pledge and gave him a mandate he could incorporate in next year's budget such measures as he deemed necessary.

MAN KILLED BY BANDITS ON ROAD NEAR LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles, Nov. 13.—Richard F. Nagle, forty-five, of Columbus, Ohio, was shot and killed here early this morning by two bandits as he was driving toward Los Angeles from Culver City, a suburb, with his brother, Edward, a Culver City real estate man.

The bandits obtained $500, the proceeds of an American Legion carnival held at Culver City that the brothers were bringing to Los Angeles.

Nagle was here visiting his brother.

BALDWIN CALLS ON BRITISH VOTERS TO DECIDE TARIFF ISSUE

If Parliament Dissolved Friday Next, December 6 Will Be Set As Date of Test; Lloyd George and Asquith Wings of Liberal Party Reunite

London, Nov. 13.—The British Parliament, which reassembled to-day after the long holidays, will be dissolved almost immediately, probably on Friday, and a general election will be held forthwith with Joseph Chamberlain's battle banner of the last generation, Protection, again at the forefront.

Premier Baldwin, forced by his own convictions in favor of protection as a cure for unemployment and urged by many of the old line Tories as well as the Premiers of the Dominions, has decided to take his political life in his hands and force the issue.

He announced the proposed dissolution in the House of Commons this afternoon. If Parliament is dissolved on Friday, the nominations will be held on November 23 and the election on December 6.

The House of Commons, at the end of its short session to-day, adopted a brief motion by Premier Baldwin appropriating the whole time of the House for the Government for the remainder of the session. The vote was 270 to 90.

Liberal Reunion
Foreseeing the Conservatives' move, David Lloyd George and Herbert Asquith, as leaders of the two factions of the Liberal Party, this morning held a love feast and buried the political enmities which have so long disrupted the party. The Liberals announced that they would present a solid front in the election.

Labor, which is the second strongest party in the Commons, has also thrown down the gauntlet to Mr. Baldwin and his followers, and thus one of the fiercest political wars in recent years is about to be fought in Great Britain.

London, Nov. 13.—The Asquith and Lloyd George factions of the Liberal Party, in their references to this morning, reunited to present a solid front against the Conservative protectionists, as well as the Labor Party, in the coming general election.

While such a move was not unexpected by many political observers, there yet had been a great element of doubt as to whether the two bitter Liberal antagonists, Asquith and Lloyd George, could be brought together. Therefore the announcement of the reunion furnished one of the big sensations of the day.

Asquith as Leader
The Evening News states Mr. Asquith will lead the reunited party. It is recalled that Mr. Lloyd George, in answering interviewers when he landed at Southampton from his visit to Canada, and the United States last week, said he would work with anybody who would serve the country faithfully.

BALDWIN'S STATEMENT
Addressing the House of Commons at the brief session to-day, Premier Baldwin said he had advised the King to dissolve Parliament as quickly as possible, and he did not see why the date should not be fixed for next Friday.

The Premier made only a brief statement in which he said a general election was always a disturbing element and should be got through with as quickly as possible.

Is Convinced
Mr. Baldwin said in substance he was thoroughly convinced protective tariffs were necessary in order to solve the unemployment problem.

Since the late Lord Law had promised there would be no fundamental change in the Government's fiscal policy during the life of the present Parliament, added the Premier, his only course, "as an honest man," was to place his views before the country.

EXPECT HOLLAND TO KEEP EX-KAISER

British Officials Satisfied Dutch Will Prevent Escape

Former Crown Prince Now on Silesian Estate

Berlin, Nov. 13.—It is officially denied here that ex-Kaiser Wilhelm has been authorized to return to Germany.

London, Nov. 13.—British Government officials reiterated to-day that they were entirely satisfied with the adequacy of the assurances given by the Government of Holland that ex-Kaiser Wilhelm would not be allowed to leave Dutch custody.

They said that up to the moment they had no reason to suppose Hohenzollern proposed to decamp, and if he had such an intention they were confident the Dutch Government would frustrate the attempt.

No new representations, therefore, had been made to Holland.

EX-PRINCE ON ESTATE
Oels, Silesia, Nov. 13.—Former Crown Prince Frederick Wilhelm who last Saturday left Holland, where he had lived in seclusion since the war, arrived at his estate here at 6 o'clock to-night.

Wrapped in a heavy motoring jacket and wearing a leather helmet with goggles, he drove to the main entrance of the castle unrecognised by the servants or by the crowd of waiting correspondents.

Other royal cars apparently belonging to the party arrived from other directions in order to divert the attention of the crowd. The ex-Crown Prince was visible only for the brief moment while he was alighting.

There was no demonstration, Princess Cecilie, the ex-queen's wife, having requested the populace to refrain from any public reception. Hohenzollern visited old acquaintances of the Hohenzollerns along the route from the Dutch border, and was forty-three hours behind his schedule in arriving here.

BELGIAN ATTITUDE
Brussels, Nov. 13.—On connection with the return of the former Crown Prince to Germany, the Belgian Cabinet holds that the close cohesion of the Allies is necessary with a view to the strict application of the Treaty of Versailles as regards both the punishment of war criminals and reparations.

TAX REVISION IN UNITED STATES NOW BEING URGED

Washington, Nov. 13.—Without committing himself either to approval or disapproval of the Treasury tax revision programme, President Coolidge to-day let it be known that he regards the proposal as a step toward opening the way for meeting the demand of the country for lower taxes.

YOUNG WOMAN BEAT OFF THIEVES AND KEPT MONEY

W. A. Pound, director of the Fisheries Service of Canada, arrived in the city on Monday. He has been inspecting fishery interests on the coast.
Mr. Pound stated that the fisheries situation on the coast had been satisfactory this season. He confirmed the statement of production by districts issued through the various organizations and published in The Times on Saturday.
Mr. Pound said there were no announcements to make affecting the fishery district, the administration of the department's interests throughout the British Columbia coast be-

DRUG COMMISSION WILL PROCEED IN VICTORIA MONDAY
Hearing to Proceed Without Awaiting Result of Appeal by Accused
Adjourned by arrangement of the Commissioner, J. P. Smith, K.C., and counsel, the Royal Commission called to consider allegations of drug trafficking preferred against certain officers and special agents of the Vancouver section of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, will sit here on Monday, November 19.
Announcement of this effect was made to-day when it was stated that the hearings would re-open in Victoria but that the concluding sittings would likely be held in Vancouver.
When the sitting of the commission, set for Thanksgiving Day, was adjourned, it was suggested that the trial of the case in which F. W. Eccles, Frank Fernandez and W. L. Smith appeal from a police court conviction on a charge of illegal possession of opium. The commission will proceed independently of the proceedings in the criminal courts. It was indicated to-day that C. L. Harrison appears for the Crown; J. B. Pattullo, K.C., with J. A. Russell for the defence.
In police court proceedings before Magistrate Jay in this city Eccles and Fernandez were each sentenced to eighteen months' imprisonment, and ordered to pay a fine of $1,000 each. Smith was given a nine-month term, with a fine in the sum of $500. From this conviction and sentence the accused seek appeal by way of case stated to the Supreme Court. The hearing of the stated case is pending.

Game Board Moves Muskrats From Mainland and Establishes Them on Island
Covichan Lake is to be the breeding ground of muskrats, most valuable of all fur-bearing animals in British Columbia under plans announced to-day by M. B. Jackson, Chairman of the Game Conservation Board.
The first muskrats to be placed in the Covichan Lake district by game officials were shipped to the island last week from the lower mainland, where they were caught for the purpose. Large numbers of the animals, caught on the mainland, will be sent over to Covichan Lake in the near future, Mr. Jackson said to-day. The animals will be placed in swampy places at various points around the lake shore where they are expected to multiply rapidly.
Muskrats to-day are the most highly prized of all fur-bearing animals, because their fur can be used for a large variety of purposes. Most of the limitations of more valuable furs are made from muskrat pelts. Parts of the pelts can be dyed almost any color with excellent results, and this fact has caused them to be used more widely than any other hide that can be secured in western Canada.
The Covichan Lake district, it is believed, will form an ideal home for muskrats. In some of the swamps that stretch in from the lake shore the animals, it is anticipated, will soon become numerous.
Covichan Lake already is an important game conservation centre, following the establishment of the Shaw Creek reserve, where large bands of elk are being protected.

TO SUBMIT EXPRESS RATES ARGUMENTS
Four Western Provinces Will Place Views Before Railway Commission
Alberta's Plan of United Case Not Adopted
Edmonton, Nov. 12.—The Alberta Government will play a lone hand in its opposition to the express rates application, so far as participation by the sister provinces is concerned. It has been hoped that the Governments of the four Western provinces would join hands in a united case before the Railway Board and Premier Greenfield immediately after announcing the decision of his own Government to oppose the increase, approached his three brother Premiers, asking if they would co-operate with Alberta.
Manitoba and British Columbia gave replies that indicated their willingness to put up a joint case in this way if it could be made an all-West, four-province proposition, but Saskatchewan carried on its fight alone, feeling that it could do better in that way than

Several important plans which the Government foreshadowed in its speech are being whipped into shape and will be ready for the House soon. While private members were taking the week-end to eat their Thanksgiving dinners with their families, members of the Cabinet worked through without a break. A large volume of routine business was finally cleaned up at a Cabinet meeting this morning.
Expect Redistribution News.
Premier Oliver said to-day that the Government probably would be in a position to make an announcement on redistribution next week following the conclusion of the debate on the Speech from the Throne. Such marked progress has been made by the Government in the last week that members are looking forward to adjournment in about four weeks from now.

COVICHAN LAKE BIG FUR CENTRE
Game Board Moves Muskrats From Mainland and Establishes Them on Island

TRAGEDY OF PEACE PROBLEM FOR YOUTH
War Debris and Rejuvenation of World Problems For Citizens of To-morrow
Kiwanis Club Hears Eloquent Address by Captain Ian Mackenzie, M.P.P.
In an eloquent address before the Kiwanis Club, assembled for the weekly luncheon at the Dominion Hotel to-day, Captain Ian Mackenzie, M.P.P., dealt with the significance of the Armistice Anniversary. It was a question if the tragedy of peace was not as great as the tragedy of the war, he said. There was no peace in the world to-day.
What was the duty of everyone in regard to the problem? He asked. The answer was contained in four words: duty, honor, patriotism and sacrifice. Duty to one country in the living and furthering of right principles; honor and reverence for the memory of those who gave their lives in the war; patriotism, not of the junkety type, but the very real patriotism of those who suffered in the holocaust; and the sacrifice of those who would give and endure all for the principles they held to be right.
If British nations would keep these four duties before them the time would come when such a policy would portend prosperity and the complete solidarity of the Empire, he concluded. Captain Mackenzie was accorded a most hearty reception. A vote of thanks, proposed by J. B. Clearhugh, M.P.P. and seconded by R. C. Nicholas, was conveyed to the speaker amid a storm of applause.
In proposing the vote of thanks Mr. Clearhugh classed the tragedy of peace as a tragedy of forgetfulness. He said, "If peace had been true to the same high ideals that actuated those who fought in the war, which failed, he said, it was because people of the world had already forgotten its nobler ideals and tenets of principle. The Armistice, he concluded, was an opportunity for the dedication of the individual to the nobler mode of life."
During the luncheon an appeal was made to the members to support the benefit performances to be staged by the Compton Players at the Playhouse on Wednesday. The occasion would be that set apart for the service clubs, and a full Kiwanis attendance was requested. Tickets are in the hands of the secretary, Walter Walker for distribution.
Notice of motion by Carl Stocker, dealing with the executive office in the club, was read and is to be taken up at the next meeting. The Kiwanis to-day entertained many out of town members, featuring visits from Seattle and Vancouver clubs of the organization.

REVOLVER AND CHEQUE AT INQUEST
Vancouver Police do Not Believe W. W. Bayley, Bank Clerk, Murdered
Vancouver, Nov. 12.—Among the exhibits at the inquest held this afternoon to inquire into the death by shooting of William W. Bayley, twenty-three, teller at the Victoria Drive and Forty-third Avenue branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce in South Vancouver on Saturday last, were a .32 revolver with two cartridges expended, found lying close to the right hand of the dead man, a bullet which had passed through his head and a cheque.
The cheque, made out by Bayley in favor of his mother for $69.96, less four cents for war tax, being the amount of his salary for the week, is believed to have been written a few minutes prior to the shooting. The writing is said to be "shaky" and was not written in his usual bold style.
The police discredit the theory of murder as, they say, the boy rang up his mother Saturday to say he was not feeling well.
With Bank Six Months
Bayley, who was a well-built youth over six feet tall, had been in the employ of the bank for six months.
On Friday evening he had dinner with his mother at her West End home, leaving at 11:30 p.m. He had accepted an invitation to a private dance on Saturday night and discussed this with her before leaving.
According to bank regulations, he slept on the premises, and in his bedroom where two revolvers, the property of the bank.
He apparently went to bed, for it had been step in.

The death took place yesterday at Sidney of Elizabeth Maureen, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson.

The reconciliation between the Lloyd George and Asquith Liberals is the sequel to one of the most sensational political incidents which occurred during the Great War. The two opponents have gradually become large friends, and are now co-operating as outstanding figures of the Liberal party. Mr. Asquith as Premier when the war broke out and when all party differences were merged by the formation of a coalition Ministry.
Breath in 1916
Mr. Lloyd George was one of Mr. Asquith's most active associates, his position as Minister of Munitions giving him a leading part in the direction of military operations, the supply of guns, munitions and explosives. In this he gained widespread popular approval as a man of intense energy, whereas Mr. Asquith gradually became identified in the public mind with the spirit of caution, hesitation and "muddling" according to the phrase of the day. The clash between these two opponents came in December, 1916, when Mr. Asquith retired, and Mr. Lloyd George took up the duties of Premier. This was followed by the adoption of energetic measures in all war work and a general policy of "speeding up."
A bitter personal division between Mr. Asquith and Mr. Lloyd George grew out of the change. Each had his loyal band of followers. Mr. Asquith retaining the leadership of the old Liberal organization, while Mr. Lloyd George headed a large section which became known as the Lloyd George Liberals. Thus an armed truce has continued between the two Liberal branches until the reconciliation effected to-day.

Did Not Visit Berlin
Berlin, Nov. 12.—Denial was made here to-day of a report that former Crown Prince Frederick Wilhelm visited Berlin secretly on his way from Holland to his estate in Upper Silesia.
He stayed Saturday night at Haldesheim, Sunday night at Grossplatten in Mecklenburg with Count Bassewitz, and last night with friends in the province of Brandenburg.
The visit to Berlin of Premier von Knilling of the Bavarian Government has been postponed.

OMORI PLANNED AS TOKIO'S PORT
Head of Japanese Advertiser Speaks of Reconstruction
New City to be of Reinforced Concrete
Forecasting that the Japanese Government would select Omori as the port of Tokio, B. W. Fleisher, publisher of The Japanese Advertiser, the best known daily issued in English in the Orient, told The Times yesterday that Yokohama would be used while dredging was going on in front of Omori, which is located on Tokio Bay, ten miles from the center of Tokio. The proposed port is about half way between Tokio and Yokohama, and well adapted for development.
It would be five years before the new port would be ready, Mr. Fleisher said, meanwhile in lighter cargoes at Yokohama it is costing $9 per thousand feet additional for lumber used in the reconstruction work at the capital, lumber which could be logged, cut, and shipped across the Pacific for $15 per thousand feet. The only reason for this exceptional condition was that the people must have it at once for reconstruction.
Newspaper Plant Destroyed
The Japanese Advertiser, said Mr. Fleisher, who arrived on the Empress of Asia with his wife and daughter, just everything in the first following the earthquake. It will cost upwards of $400,000 to assemble the equipment of a new plant from overseas, and provide a building. A building to house the plant as it arrives has just been erected, and it is expected to resume publication on December 15. Meanwhile twenty-three Americans engaged in various expert occupations in the production of the paper have been carried on the payroll until the paper can resume publication.
Asked for a statement with regard to the progress of reconstruction in the devastated area, Mr. Fleisher said:
"At first the shock was stunning. No one knew where he stood. Everything was in an atmosphere of utter disorder. Many of the firms moved from Tokio to Osaka and Kobe, but are now returning to Tokio. Whether Yokohama will ever recover is a problem. It certainly will never be like the former city, but after all Yokohama was a retrogressing city. Tokio, on the other hand, will be rebuilt on a larger scale than ever."
A City of Shacks
"Tokio," Mr. Fleisher stated, "is becoming a city of shacks, as rebuilding goes on of shacks and barracks. It is a city of lumber and corrugated iron. The most of the large institutions as the Mitsui Company and Yokohama Specie Bank have already built barracks. The word 'barracks' has passed over bodily into the Japanese tongue. Each business is transacting its affairs in these premises. The plan of the new Tokio will be issued in a few days. These constructions will go forward with more rapidly. So fast has been construction in the past few weeks, in spite of the failure to pay any insurance indemnities owing to the anti-earthquake clause in the policies, that in the mushroom city lumber will continue for a long time to be an important factor."

SHOULD MAINTAIN BRITISH RESPECT FOR LAW AND ORDER
"In Canada we want to maintain a thoroughly British respect for law, order, fair play and justice, which is one of the greatest heritages that has been handed down to us from our ancestors," declared Lindley Crease, K.C., in an address to-day on "Law" before the Gyro Club.
Mr. Crease referred to certain agencies which threatened to undermine law in the United States, instancing the Klu Klux Klan movement. He also deplored the use of stool pigeons.
"Law must be the living expression of the people," he declared, and pointed out that law must continue to advance the same as sciences.
Law which did not keep pace with the requirements of modern society was not a living force.
Mr. Crease traces the development of law from the early day when the spark of justice caused the wild tribes to get together to settle their differences.
W. Jones was the soloist at the luncheon to-day, and his numbers were greatly appreciated.

Reports Upon Duncan Gathering of School Trustees

(Special to The Times)

Sooke Harbor, Nov. 12.—A large and widely representative meeting of ratepayers and others interested in educational matters, at Sooke Hall on Friday evening to hear Dr. R. Felton's report as delegate to the Convention of the British Columbia School Trustees' Association, held in Duncan last month.

Dr. Felton represented several of the rural schools in the Esquimalt electoral district. He was this year elected as rural representative to the executive committee of the association.

Dr. Felton deplored the continued poor representation of rural districts at these conventions, stating that there was a universal feeling, not confined to this Province, but world-wide, that the work done in any system of state education was the unorganized rural district, or more particularly the single-teacher school, and endeavoring to find an explanation of this poor representation in three factors: (1) The greater distances in the country and the difficulty of communication as compared with the cities. (2) Comparative poverty of rural districts. (3) The lack of initiative in rural communities as a whole.

The remedies suggested were, firstly, a more practical interest to be taken by cities in their surrounding districts, and, secondly, the co-operation of rural districts to form local branches under the parent association, to discuss their own local problems and to obtain representation at the conventions through one common delegate.

Dr. Felton then dealt at length with the convention.

Dr. Felton intends holding a similar meeting at some central point, to be decided upon later, for the convenience of the other school districts he represented.

A short dance followed. A general collection was taken up to pay the expenses of the meeting and to buy books for the school. Refreshments were served by the Sooke Women's Institute.

A Witt has returned after a considerable absence from the valley. It is expected that the new bridge which is being constructed by the Department of Public Works, Victoria, across the White River, will be open to traffic next week.

JAPANESE FINANCE MINISTER INSISTING BUDGET BE CUT

Tokyo, Nov. 12.—The date for calling a special session of the Diet, recently decided on, has been tentatively fixed as December 10. The delay is due to the inability of the Cabinet to agree on budget estimates for the next fiscal year and on reconstruction plans.

Minister of Finance Inouye is reported to be insistent on keeping the expenditures within 1,200,000,000 yen ($600,000,000). It is understood that all departments except that of the navy have accepted Inouye's figures and the navy's demands are still under consideration by the Cabinet.

COURAGEOUS MR. BALDWIN

Whatever happens to Mr. Baldwin and his party at the polls on December 6—for that seems to be the day upon which an election in Britain will take place—it can never be said that the present Prime Minister lacked courage. At a time when he might reasonably consider himself fairly safely entrenched with a substantial working majority in the House, with Liberalism divided against itself and Labor his most formidable Opposition, he chooses to dissolve Parliament and go to the country on the very issue which resulted in the downfall of the Conservative Party in 1906 and again in 1910—about the only issue upon which there would be the slightest prospect of a reconciliation between Mr. Lloyd George and Mr. Asquith. Here was courage indeed.

Mr. Baldwin has produced his own "crisis." He deliberately advertised his belief in protection as the remedy for the country's economic ills. He must have known that in the ranks of his own party there are to be found staunch Conservatives who are also staunch Free Traders and will so remain no matter what happens. It was not to Labor that the Prime Minister was appealing for he knew at the outset that the workingman does not believe that industrial conditions can be improved by levying a tax upon food and other commodities that are exchanged for British exports. Consequently Mr. Baldwin has taken a course—inevitable after what he has said in recent days—that has been dictated either by the genuine desire for a new verdict upon an old question or by the unexpected momentum which the first hint of tariff reform has now gained.

The first development after the announcement of the Prime Minister's intention was the reconciliation between Mr. Lloyd George and Mr. Asquith and their decision to present a united Liberal front against all protectionist parties. Labor likewise reiterated its intention to fight the Baldwin proposals with every means in its power. And with such platform wizards as the two Liberal ex-Premiers can be, especially where free trade is challenged, it is not difficult to see that the protectionist elements are in for one of the most exciting times of their lives.

Nor should it be forgotten that by no means the least important factor in the coming election will be the feminine vote. When tariff reform got its severe trouncing in 1906 and 1910 the voter who presides over the destinies of the cottage kitchen had not been enfranchised. Upon this occasion, however, she will have to be consulted. Here in itself will be found a large and irreconcilable volume of opposition to anything in the nature of a dearer food policy. So it may well be seen that if the late Joseph Chamberlain, when that distinguished statesman was at the top pinnacle of his career—in the piping times of peace and prosperity—could not persuade his countrymen to do away with free trade, it will undoubtedly be considerably more difficult for Mr. Baldwin to change their minds when there are more than one million unemployed and the cost of living is double what it was in 1906 or 1910.

None the less the coming election will create a profound interest all over the British Empire, Canada's concern, and particularly that of British Columbia, very naturally centres in the preference to be extended on canned salmon and apples. These proposals would have to run the gauntlet of the British House of Commons in any case; but it is safe to say that unless Mr. Baldwin and his party are returned there is slim chance of their adoption. This country, however, will continue to look upon that decision as one for Britain to make without suggestion or interference from this side.

WHICH IS IT?

Mr. Bowser told the Conservatives of Oak Bay last week that Premier Oliver had blundered by spending $20,000,000 on the P.G.E. road that was not yet built, when the late Government had an agreement with Foley, Welch & Stewart to complete the line for $6,000,000.

This is thoroughly Bowserian as the record shows. The Government of which Mr. Bowser was a member guaranteed the bonds of the P.G.E., otherwise the firm of Foley, Welch & Stewart, for a railroad from Vancouver to Prince George. The statute under which this was done provided that the proceeds of those bonds were to be put into the bank to the credit of the Province and released by the Government mile per mile as construction proceeded, until completion. That is to say, when the road was finished—and not until then—all these funds would have been handed over to the promoters, who also were the contractors, and who, of course, were to raise money on their own account because the proceeds of the bonds themselves were not sufficient to defray the cost of construction.

Mr. Bowser, however, as acting Premier and Minister of Finance, paid to the promoters all of the bond money in defiance of the statute which he was sworn to uphold, when the road was scarcely half finished. He defended his course in the Legislature with the statement that the promoters had been unable to finance their share of the work, that they would have to drop the contract and cease operations unless the bond money was paid to them and that this would put many men out of employment. Which version is right? If Foley, Welch & Stewart could have completed the road for $6,000,000, why did Mr. Bowser pay to them all the proceeds of the bonds guaranteed by the Province, in defiance of the law, before the work was half finished? Why did he say that he had to turn those funds over to them to prevent them closing down and putting men out of employment? What was the real reason for mishandling funds raised on the credit of the people of this Province?

HE TAKES THE BIG RISK

Although France and her Allies may frown on the return of the former Crown Prince of Germany to his native land, is it not a fact that he and he alone, has taken the greatest risk and is now much more exposed to some adventuresome spirit among that element in the country—who would not hesitate to settle a score if opportunity presented—than he was in seclusion on a Dutch island?

After all that has taken place in the republic, an understanding of what the machinations of the former war lords have meant to a flourishing state and a thrifty and comparatively happy people, there are doubtless many who would be prepared to register their own peculiar revenge in a manner that the law of the land does not permit.

To all this, even though he may surround himself with former friends and new and faithful stalwarts, Frederick William obviously exposes himself. On the other hand if he should be able to cast another spell over his compatriots the Allies will still be in a position to dictate such terms as may be necessary for his delivery into their hands. Meanwhile, however, it looks as it matters little whether he be in Germany or Timbuctoo.

JOSHUA'S DILEMMA

Joshua Hinchliffe thinks Mr. Oliver ought to resign because General A. D. McRae does not like the way the Government has been handling the P.G.E. project. But in the same manifesto in which McRae criticizes the Premier he also attacks Mr. Bowser on the same ground and says there is a conspiracy against the public between the Premier and Leader of the Opposition. Mr. Hinchliffe did not call for Mr. Bowser's resignation. On the contrary, he thinks Mr. Bowser and the Bowser record excellent, so excellent that he follows one in all its tortuous course and swallows the other without a grimace. Obviously, if Mr. Oliver should resign on account of the attack of the Shaughnessy Heights so-called Third Party, so should Mr. Bowser for the same reason, and as Mr. Hinchliffe shares Mr. Bowser's fortunes and upholds his record and policy he also should resign. This, as Enclid would say, is absurd and, we would add, as absurd as Mr. Hinchliffe, who seems to have shed the pretensions to the limited independence with which by implication he appealed to the electorate when he divested himself of his canonicals.

Note and Comment

It didn't take Mr. Lloyd George and Mr. Asquith very long to "shake hands" when they saw Baldwin's hat in the ring.

These are the days when Victorians should consider their purchases for Old Country mailing. Christmas will be upon us before we are aware of it.

Those senior golfers who were in Victoria last week knew their own minds when they selected this place as the spot for next year's gathering.

We are now informed that the senior Hohenzollern expects to go back to Germany. Does Germany want the man who ran away when he saw trouble ahead?

Mr. Lloyd George arrived in his native land just in time to get into another scrap. He told the Americans to follow through and keep their eye on the ball. He no-doubt realizes that free trade demands that he play the political course in par or better during the next twenty days.

 And I am yours. Benjamin Franklin.

 Patriots, dear to God, and famous to all ages. Milton.

Profane eloquence is transferred from the

 Formerly practised it, and where it has become

Our Contemporaries

BACKING THE TEAM

Calgary Alberta:—The citizens of Edmonton are filling the largest arenas with 6,000 to 8,000 people for the world championship women basketball games, which is also a world record. And when citizens in such large numbers get together cheering for one team, the mass has a good influence on civic spirit. That is the common sense of the matter.

NARCOTIC DRUG ADDICTS

Winnipeg Tribune:—There is not a single public institution in Canada for the care and treatment of drug addicts. The fact is really a disgrace to the country. Winnipeg and Manitoba have had the need of such an institution locally called to the attention of the people times without number, but there is still no movement to rectify the injustice that is done almost daily when drug addicts are sent to jail.

MARCEL DUPRE'S RECITAL

To the Editor:—Regarding the forthcoming organ recital to be given by Marcel Dupre, the remarkable French organist, at St. Andrew's Cathedral, on Sunday evening next, I shall be glad if you will give me a short space in your columns to tell my fellow-citizens that I have received a personal letter from a friend of mine, Mons. N. le Blanc, music critic, of Paris, advising me not on any account to miss the opportunity of hearing this wonderful organist. Mr. Le Blanc says that many hundreds never fall to hear Marcel Dupre at the Notre Dame Cathedral organ, and that he is considered in Paris the greatest organist of the present day. For one, I shall not fall to hear this phenomenal musician, and trust the people of this city will recognize what it means to have such a big man in his profession visit their city, and give one of his remarkable programmes.

A COSTLY BUSINESS

To the Editor:—Tenders are being called for a new High School in Oak Bay. The proposed building will cost in the neighborhood of $150,000. There are now about 150 Oak Bay pupils at the Oak Bay High School. The new building will therefore cost $1,000 for each student. This does not take into account the value of the High School lands. The annual cost for interest and sinking fund will come to some $15,000, of $100 a year for each of the present pupils or building alone. The least important factor in education. This sum is nearly 4 mills on our present assessment. It will increase our taxes by 12% at one blow. Just for an item of expenditure! Yet Oak Bay prides itself on its sane and economical municipal financing. We smile at poor Victoria, whose great piles of stone, brick and marble school buildings have helped to impoverish so many of her citizens. At least Victoria put up her palaces when building was cheap, and in a time of apparent prosperity. We know building is now expensive. The proposed new school will cost over $10,000 for each class-room in it) and surely a tax of 30 mills is heavy enough.

If the expenditure were inevitable nothing ought to be said against it. But there is an alternative plan which should be placed before the ratepayers. Even granted the need for more High School accommodation and that it would be best to provide this on the Cranmore Road ground, it is not necessary to put up such a big and ambitious building. For between $40,000 and $45,000 (according to the type of fittings used) a very suitable and pleasing High School can be built. This building would house all the boys now at the H.S. and look after several years' growth. It can easily be planned to allow for expansion. This building would be very like the present O.B. H.S. with which, I believe, most of the taxpayers of Oak Bay are perfectly satisfied.

OAK BAY.

THE STEEL RAINBOW

To the Editor:—Among the numerous persons who advocate the commitment of the credit of the Province to a costly experiment in the development of a steel industry in the Province it seems strange that no one enlightens us with a statement of world-wide conditions of the steel industry as it stands to-day.

The writer, whether rightly or wrongly, is under the impression that there is too much steel in the world—a plethora of steel—and it might be added also, of oil and copper and many other things, including perhaps wheat, although we fairly well have it otherwise for the sake of our north-west farmers.

When the war got under way every country in the world was busy producing for so doing speeded up production of steel at a tremendous pace, so that to-day plants are in existence like those of the United States Steel Corporation, which alone could turn out fifty per cent. of the total requirements of the world every year. If then this great organization worked to full capacity there would be left only fifty per cent. of the world's annual steel requirements for the great independent plants of the United States, combined with those of Britain, Germany, France, Belgium, Canada and other countries manufacturing on a smaller scale—and this condition at a time when a tremendous amount of steel is being utilized in office buildings and automobile construction, which latter is now at the peak of a boom.

Less than a month ago Japan called for tenders for 32,000 tons of steel. The order went to Germany, the manufacturer of which is $12 per ton below the Pittsburgh price. Look at the weekly quotations from the big iron centres and observe the gradual sinking of prices, amounting to at least $8 per ton in as many months; and the end of these declining figures is yet a long way off. Look at the quotations on shares in steel concerns and compare them with what has gone before. Even the great United States Steel Corporation feels impelled at this time to add a quarter of one per cent. to the dividend to help along the process of distribution of shares, which has been under way for years; and this is done in fact of great shrinkage in orders, according to the figures given in Saturday's newspapers. A little sound sanity in the consideration of this steel business is most useful if we are not a plunge into another wild and reckless undertaking. There will have to be a process of readjustment in steel and a good many other things in which, especially in steel, the weakest will most surely go into the discard. Perhaps when that day comes an idle plant might be bought at a cheap price and moved to British Columbia, but for the present at least let us cut out all this flapping and buncom about the "necessity of a steel plant for British Columbia" and turn our hands to other things that promise a return on the money invested.

POPPY BALL CLIMAX TO THANKSGIVING

Many Hundreds Enjoyed G.W.V.A.'s Third Annual Function

Coming as a fitting culmination to Thanksgiving Day, the third annual poppy ball attracted hundreds of guests to the Empress Hotel last evening to enjoy the entertainment arranged by the Great War Veterans' Association. The affair proved such a success as to eclipse similar gatherings of former years, and much credit redounds to the energetic committee whose personnel included Messrs. Food (chairman), Saunders, W. G. Stone, Ingledew, Johnson, Bryson, Sherritt, Holmes, McLeod, Laurie, Watt and Asquith, while the door committee included Messrs. Robinson, Jones and Fouracre.

Finder's eight-piece orchestra excelled itself in a programme of the latest dance numbers, and encores were freely demanded and generously accorded. The corridor leading to the writing room had been pressed into use for the accommodation of the many dancers, while the palm court with its masses of beautiful chrysanthemum blooms formed a pleasant rendezvous.

Among the many guests at the affair were Mr. H. J. S. Mackenzie, representing His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor; General and Mrs. J. M. Ross, Commander and Mrs. Beard, Col. Greer, Col. Codville, Mayor and Mrs. Hayward, Hon. Dr. and Mrs. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips, Sir Richard and Lady Lake, Col. and Mrs. Winsby, Mr. and Mrs. Kinnaird, Dr. and Mrs. E. H. FUN IS POKED AT TITLED SOCIALIST

Countess of Warwick Treated More Ceremoniously Than Prince of Wales

London, Nov. 13 (Canadian Press Cable)—Fun is being poked at the countess in a manner in which fellow Socialists receive the Countess of Warwick when she arrives at a meeting place in connection with her campaign as Socialist candidate in the Warwick and Leamington division of Warwickshire. Her Ladyship is getting crowded audiences.

"Make way there, please," comes the order in awed tones from self-appointed heralds on her arrival, and then with still more awesome intonation, "the Countess of Warwick."

One observer contrasts this with the manner which plain people like the Prince of Wales, Premier Baldwin, or even the ordinary commoner is content to arrive at the platform.

The countess has offered a lengthy explanation concerning the support being given to Captain Anthony Eden, her Conservative opponent, by her family connections.

Lady Brooke, daughter-in-law of the Countess, is a prominent worker in the interests of the Conservative candidate, while the son and daughter of the Countess are likely to also give him their support.

"The use made of this situation," declares the Countess, "is the act of cad."

The regular monthly meeting of the Victoria Welsh Society was held at Harmony Hall, 724 Fort Street, on Wednesday, Nov. 14, at 8 p.m. As each membership has promised to bring one artist, this meeting should be one of the best yet held, and it is hoped that the ladies are asked to bring refreshments.

YOUR HOME AND YOU

By HELEN KENDALL

Waterproofing the Porous Vase

"I simply love that beautiful piece of pottery that Jane gave us for our anniversary, but it doesn't hold water," mourned the bride of a year. "I found a big white ring on the shelf where it had been standing, and now and then a drop of water oozes out of the side and rolls down. I know it hasn't been glazed, for it was made by those native people down here. But the jar is so porous that it will never hold water."

The hot solution enters the open pores of the pottery and forces out of the jar the liquid the paraffin instantly hardens, filling the pores so that no water can ooze through them.

ling and pottery-making last year, and I think she told me how it could be done. When I go back I will find out the recipe and send it to you."

And so, a few days after her departure, the following directions were received by the bride, and followed to her great success and gratification.

To every two quarts of paraffin, add one cup of turpentine. Heat it over a low flame until it is in complete solution and very hot. Have enough of it so that the jar or vase may be entirely immersed in the liquid. Put the jar in and leave it until no bubbles appear on the surface of the fluid.

The hot solution enters the open pores of the pottery and forces out of the jar the liquid the paraffin instantly hardens, filling the pores so that no water can ooze through them.

Very quietly, owing to the recent death of the bride's mother, the marriage of Reita Fern, daughter of Mr. J. B. McCallum and the late Mrs. McCallum, to George William Russell, was celebrated last evening at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Russell, 1027 Richardson Street. The bride was given in marriage by her father and attended by Miss Olive Jones. Capt. George Bloomfield supported the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Russell left on the midnight boat on a honeymoon trip to Vancouver and Seattle.

One of the most interesting of this season's small dances took place last Friday evening, when about 100 members and friends of the Victoria Amateur Swimming Club gathered together and participated in a jolly barn dance. Neary's two-piece orchestra supplied an excellent programme. All enjoyed themselves immensely, and were loath to curtail the fun at midnight, so the dance was continued until one in the morning. The hall was decorated for the occasion and refreshments were served. The success of the affair was due to the energetic work of the committee, the Misses D. McFiville and K. Welburn, Messrs. P. Pitt and E. Squires.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. C. H. Pendry entertained at a shower in honor of Miss Gladys Ridout whose marriage will take place shortly. The rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers, the color scheme being carried out in green and white. During the afternoon Miss Dorcas and Wilfred Pendry wheeled in a prettily decorated wagon laden with various preserved fruits and vegetables. Later delicious refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Dawkins, Mrs. E. A. Ridout and Miss Margaret Turner. Among those present were the Misses G. Gladys Ridout, Margaret Turner, Thora Ridout, and Mrs. F. Turner, Mrs. R. Friend, Mrs. Woodley, Mrs. B. Parker,

Mrs. G. Fraser, Mrs. G. Halkett, Mrs. E. Matthews, Mrs. V. Dawkins, Mrs. E. A. Ridout, Mrs. J. Pendry, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. J. E. Fuller, and Mrs. A. C. Ridout.

Masquerade Dance—Under the auspices of the Equinault branch of the Ladies' Guild for Sailors, a masquerade dance will be held at the Sailors' Club on Thursday evening, November 15. Good prizes will be given and an enjoyable evening is assured.

AT THE THEATRES

Edison Power Scheme Aided Meighan, Dominion

When Thomas Meighan's latest George Ade Paramount picture story, "Woman-Proof," is flashed on the screen of the Dominion Theatre all this week, the spectators will see a genuine explosion of nearly seven thousand cases of dynamite which was used in the blasting of a thirteen-mile tunnel at Huntington Lake, Cal., where work on the biggest hydro-electric project in the world, involving the expenditure of $27,000,000, was in progress at the time the picture was filmed.

This tunnel passes through a mountain, making the waters of Huntington Lake available for electric power. It is said to be one of the longest tunnels of its kind in the world. The project was undertaken by the Edison Company to develop electric power for Los Angeles. This location is 340 miles northeast of Hollywood, in the Sierra Mountains, and was chosen after a prolonged search for a spot where the most spectacular scenes of this kind could be filmed.

Mr. Meighan plays the role of a civil engineer who is supervising this huge industrial scheme. In the picture, the tunnel is supposed to cave in, entombing scores of workmen. The rescue of these men forms some of the most thrilling scenes in the picture. The picture was directed by Alfred E. Green. The following are the supporting players: Lila Lee, leading woman; Robert Agnew, Charles A. Selton, Vera Reynolds, Bill Gonder and Mike Donlin.

Film Hero Foiled; "Impossible, if You Say; See Royal Show!"

Ever hear of a motion picture hero who engages in a duel and loses it?—who participates in a death grapple with another fellow and does not "get" his man, though the latter drops dead from heart failure?—who makes love to a beautiful woman and at the same time remains true to his real sweetheart—and who, despite all these things, still remains a hero?

We guess not. And yet this is the entirely different sort of hero that Richard Barthelmess is introducing on the screen to-night at the Royal Theatre, in his delineation of Charles Abbot in "The Bright Shawl," the John S. Robertson production, adapted from Joseph Hergesheimer's gripping romance of Cuba in the days before it overthrew the yoke of Spanish tyranny.

Barthelmess, if all reports are to be believed, is a mighty convincing and realistic hero at that. Also, a very much beloved one.

And as the young American who has thrown himself in on the side of the Cuban rebels, he is mightily admired for his tremendous courage and audacity even by the officers of the Spanish crown, despite the fact that he is a novice of a swordsman.

Romance? He falls in love with the fairest daughter of a fine Cuban family; but he also pretends to be infatuated with a beautiful Spanish dancer—to gain valuable information for the rebels.

Fight? He crosses swords with the most expert swordsman in Cuba, fights until he drops from utter exhaustion, and is so greatly respected by his enemy that his life is saved.

As a photodrama, "The Bright Shawl," presented by Inspiration Pictures, Inc. through Associated First National Pictures, will eclipse even the popularity of the story achieved in magazine and book.

Plenty of Punch in Pantages Bill Opening To-night

Starting at nine o'clock to-night the Pantages opens its usual weekly engagement of three days with the full six-act Pantages road show intact, and, from all reports, is an exceptionally good one. Eddie Barden and company head the list in "Moments Humorous," and there are Joe Saxon and Jack Farrell in "The Elopers," Pearl Evans and John E. Wilson in "Bright Bits of Musical Comedy," Julia Edwards in novelty gymnastics, comedy talk and song; Bill and Blonny in "Just Boys"; and the New Century comedy, "Fashion Follies."

Colombia Film Carries Plea for Upright Living

"The Man From Lost River," a Goldwyn picture presented at the Columbia Theatre this week, is a stirring tale of emotional conflict that justifies the good old virtues of fidelity and truth and condemns the weakness of character that seeks only pleasure and selfish ends.

The story is the first photoplay written directly for the screen by Katharine Newlin Burt, author of "The Branding Iron" and "Snow-blind." Mrs. Burt spends several months each year on a ranch in Northern Wyoming, and it is here that she conceived the idea that has found picture form in "The Man From Lost River."

House Peters plays the role of a lumber camp foreman who has known only the association of men and is dumb in the presence of the woman he loves. Allan Forrest, as a slip love-maker, wins the girl, but soon proves his utter unworthiness. The girl is admirably played by Fritz Brunette. How the situation finally becomes unbearable to the girl, is resolved, furnishes one of the most thrilling climaxes seen on the screen in a long time.

"The Man From Lost River" is a Frank Lloyd production. It reveals his usual dexterous manipulation of groups and his clever stage management.

COMPTON PLAYERS DELIGHT AUDIENCE

Last Week of Entertainment Marks Success For Local Company

The Compton Comedy Company last night presented its ever-popular stage success, "Cappy Ricks." As Alden P. Ricks, better known as "Cappy" Francis Compton portrays, in his usual delightful style, a splendid characterization of the old seafaring man, the wealthy lord of the merchant service, the loving, generous-hearted father, and the dynamic, explosive "groucher," "Cappy Ricks."

Miss Peggy Dundas, as Florence Ricks, daughter of the late "Cappy," plays her role to perfection, with grace and interpretation of character entirely her own. Miss Dundas has been complimented for the manner in which she takes this part, and last night she proved even better in her role than usual. Miss Agnes Burton took the part of the aunt of Florence Ricks, and with Mr. Compton and Miss Dundas, was an outstanding figure of the play.

Possibly the greatest amount of amusement was derived by the audience from the acting of Bruce Bredin, as Cecil Pericles Bernard, sent by his father to learn that sea-faring business, and who Cappy Ricks undertakes to teach. The ludicrous situations in which the unfortunate Mr. Bernard finds himself, give rise to great merriment. His depiction of a true "top," of the very highest order, living amidst surroundings scarcely better than his own, all of which he clearly realizes and laments over, combined with a turbulent love affliction, create many amusing climaxes, all of which add greatly to the entertainment of the audience.

The remainder of the cast, with Miss Belle Eilers, George M. Durham, Wilfred Hill, G. Gibson-Gunn and Herbert Lougheed, all are credited with excellent roles.

Although the company will present another play this week, "Grumpy," in which they have previously distinguished themselves, it is not expected that they will appear here again unless some other premises are procured for the staging of such performance. The company has been in the habit of producing in the past. Mr. Compton's plans for the future are as yet uncertain. But the Victoria public will be sorry to lose so valuable an asset as the Compton Comedy Company, as was manifested by the welcome and farewell given the troupe last night.

Kipling Wrote Basis for Story in Capitol Film

George Melford's new Paramount production, "The Light That Failed," featuring Jacqueline Logan, Percy Marmont, Sigrid Holmquist, and David Torrence, was shown with splendid success at the Capitol Theatre last evening. The story by Rudyard Kipling, tells of Dick Helder, a young man who leaves London, a dismal failure only to return—the talk of England, having achieved success by his war sketches during the British occupation of the Sudan.

Maisie Wells, Dick's childhood sweetheart, encourages him to devote his time to painting a great picture. Dick finds himself in love as a model, Bessie Broke, a street girl. Dick interferes in Bessie's love romance with Torpenhow, a newspaper correspondent, and in revenge Bessie destroys Dick's portrait of herself which he had finished the night before he became totally blind. Maisie cares for Dick in his affliction and the picture closes with the pair happily reunited.

Jacqueline Logan finely portrays the role of Bessie Broke, while Dick Helder is played by Percy Marmont. Sigrid Holmquist is Maisie Wells and David Torrence is excellently cast as Torpenhow. Those appearing in the support include Mabel Van Buren, Luke Cosgrave, Peggy Shaffer, Winston Miller and Mary Jane Irving, the last two mentioned in the juvenile roles of Dick and Maisie as children.

Stokowski's Opinion of Marcel Dupre

Leopold Stokowski, the famous conductor of the Philadelphia orchestra, himself an organist of note, upon learning that Marcel Dupre, the organist at Notre Dame Cathedral, Paris, was to visit America, wrote Dupre's manager, "I consider the coming of Dupre to America of supreme importance."

Dupre will play with the Philadelphia and Boston Symphony Orchestras besides playing recitals in over thirty states and provinces in the United States and Canada. Never before, so it is said, has a virtuoso organist been booked for so many recitals in one tour. Not only organists, but music-lovers generally are looking forward to the appearance of this young genius, whose playing has been termed by eminent critics in Europe and North America as: "A Musical Miracle," "A Phenomenon," "Enthralling," "Amazing" and "Wonderful."

It is said that Dupre will play over eighty recitals in North America in the six months of his tour, one of which is the recital to be held at St. Andrew's Cathedral, Blanshard Street, on Sunday evening next, at 8 o'clock. No tickets will be sold on the Sunday evening. The recital, which will be available on the Sunday night, where they are now on sale at Fletcher Bros. music store.

Mentho-Sulphur, a pleasant cream, will soothe and heal skin that is irritated or broken out with eczema; that is covered with ugly rash or pimples, or is rough or dry. Nothing soothes fiery skin eruptions, so quickly, says a noted skin specialist.

The moment this sulphur preparation is applied the itching stops and after two or three applications, the eczema is gone and the skin is delightfully clear and smooth. Sulphur is so precious as a skin remedy because it destroys the parasites that cause the burning, itching or disfigurement. Mentho-Sulphur always heals eczema right up.

A small jar of Rowles' Mentho-Sulphur may be had at any good drug store. (Adv't.)

C. E. McPherson, Assistant Passenger Traffic Manager, Western Lines, Canadian Pacific Railway, accompanied by Mrs. McPherson and Mr. Justice Macdonald, of the Court of the King's Bench of Manitoba, arrived in the city to-day registered at the Empress Hotel.

Saturday's community Armistice dance at the Armories attracted an even larger crowd than usual at these popular gatherings and the affair went with a fine swing. Bandmaster Rumbay and the Fifth Regiment orchestra furnished the dance music. During the evening the ladies of the Florence Nightingale Chapter, I.O.G.E., served delicious refreshments, in aid of their splendid work among the patients of the tubercular ward at the Jubilee Hospital.

Captain Baring said that the enrollment at University School is now about eighty, about one-third of the boys coming from Seattle.

Manitoba Lady Says This New Vaporizing Salve is Wonderful

The quick direct treatment for colds of children and grown-ups, too, is an application of Vicks over throat and chest at bedtime.

Not only is Vicks absorbed through the skin but its healing vapors of Camphor, Menthol, Eucalyptus, Turpentine, etc., are breathed all night directly into the affected air passages. Relief usually comes by morning.

Just as good, too, for cuts, burns, bruises and itching skin troubles.

Mrs. Ryckman, 817 16th Street, Brandon, Manitoba, says: "I have used Vicks VapoRub with the greatest satisfaction, and think there is nothing to equal it for a cold. As soon as I feel a cold coming on I just rub a little of Vicks on my throat, nose and chest, and by the next night, and my cold is all gone in the morning. ### PROCEEDING WITH TRANSMISSION LINE

Light Poles Contract Will be Awarded This Week

Tenders have been received by the B. C. Electric Railway Company for poles to carry the wires for the second transmission line from Jordan River to Brentwood Bay. The tenders will be opened this week, and a contract awarded, which at the present price of poles should represent about $10,000.

A survey party is now in the field, and upon its report will depend the ordering of material from overseas which it is proposed to place next month. Allowing three months for manufacture, and the necessary time for delivery by steamer through the Panama Canal, it is expected that the material can be delivered on Vancouver Island by next May, in preparation for a suitable period of the year for field work.

The survey and ordering of material will be as far as the undertaking, which was announced in the Times last month, can be proceeded with in 1923. The ultimate cost of the second line to the steam plant at Brentwood by way of the Goldstream Valley will be about $450,000.

SCHOOL EXHIBITS AT POTATO SHOW

Judging of Record Entry Started This Morning

Judging of the record entry for the Provincial Potato Show in Spencer's basement of the Arcade Building started this morning with a good list of judges to expedite the placing of the awards. Most of the awards are now in place and a few belated arrivals are rapidly being placed in position.

The acting chief instructor of the Soil and Crop branch of the Department of Agriculture expressed himself as highly pleased with the success assured for the exhibition and at the great interest it has aroused throughout British Columbia. A stimulus to the campaign to encourage the use of certified seeds and grow the variety of potato best suited to the district is given by the show, he states. Among the features of the show are the school exhibits for the Rotary Cup, judging of which started this morning. The competition is open to students under eighteen years of age and the different schools in the district are making a keen bid for the trophy. Signs urge encouragement to home production and state that the Rotary contest has produced many first class seedsmen. Many well written essays on Seed Production and Citizenship form part of the competition.

Potato growers from all parts of British Columbia are in attendance at the exhibition and many more are expected after the show is officially thrown open to the public to-morrow afternoon.

The proceedings wind up with a banquet and dance Saturday night. This event was previously set for Friday.

DRUGGISTS' DANCE

Each lady attending the druggists' novelty dance will be the recipient of a bottle of Richard Hudon's Three-Flower Perfume. This is one of the unique features of the affair.

The dance is to be held on Wednesday, November 14, from 9 till 1, in the K. of C. Hall, Government Street. Special attention will be given to the musical score for the evening and dancers are promised some of the latest hits. The music will be supplied by Ray Kimoch's orchestra. Moonlight dances will be a feature of the programme.

A tasty supper will be served during the evening, the catering arrangements being in the hands of Messrs. Tighe & Wheeler.

The dance will be strictly informal and those attending are assured a good time. A few tickets are still available at drug stores.

Prairie Hockey Teams Will Be Well Balanced

Calgary and Saskatoon Have Bolstered Up, While Regina and Edmonton Are Up to Last Season's Strength; Dukowski, Taking Morna's Place On Regina Defence, May Be Sensation

Special to The Times Calgary, Nov. 12.—While the deck has been freely shuffled in the different hockey camps on the plains, there is little that displaces the trump cards of the Edmonton and Regina Clubs. However, Calgary and Saskatoon have effected somewhat of a shake-up, and the arrow flickers between these two teams with a nervousness that worries the men who have always made their deposit on the Eskimo or Capital mark.

Looking over the rosters of the various prairie clubs, it is apparent that a balance has been struck this season that could not be more fairly equalized. A few recruits are to be given a chance to show their mettle, but it is hardly a far cry from looking over the list that there is really anything in the line of starters that should cause a tremor among the veterans.

Calgary Looks Good Take Calgary for a start, Eddie Oatman is here from Victoria to steady the Tigers' forward division, and with him is Bernie Morris, former Seattle forward, who wags the end of the stick for many years. With them on the Calgary forward line will be Harry Oliver, the speed sensation and stick-handling wizard from Selkirk, who was the choice forward of the prairie polo last winter. Foley Martin, the hook-checker, who is a local product, will also be in the role once more, and Rusty Crawford, the star of the entire clan, is back with the Tigers as well. Johnny Loebke, a Calgary forward, is trying out with the Tigers, and his game is of a type that has a deal of interest here, as he has been identified in various lines of sport and is a very capable athlete. He is tall and rangy, and is a combination of steps out at a pretty fair stride.

Saskatoon Improved Turning next to Saskatoon, there is the spectacle of a formidable aggregation whose framework is built about several brains old-timers, such as Normy Lalonde and Louis Berliand, and with them are the newcomers, and Rusty Crawford, the star of the entire clan, is back with the Tigers as well. Johnny Loebke, a Calgary forward, is trying out with the Tigers, and his game is of a type that has a deal of interest here, as he has been identified in various lines of sport and is a very capable athlete. He is tall and rangy, and is a combination of steps out at a pretty fair stride.

Several stars, including Wally Pipp, regular first sacker now, came to the city on their present line-up for 1924, as they have indicated, it will be the first time they have done so in eight years in which Col. Jacob Ruppert has been connected with the club ownership. A series of big deals, principally with the Boston Red Sox, has marked the Yankees' course ever since Ruppert and his former partner, T. L. Huston, took over the team in 1915. No doubt the champions will have their quota of youngsters on trial in the spring, but for the first time in many seasons no major transactions with other big league clubs are in sight.

No doubt the champions will have their quota of youngsters on trial in the spring, but for the first time in many seasons no major transactions with other big league clubs are in sight.

Carl Mays was obtained for $40,000 and the other players late in 1922, and the famous deal for Babe Ruth was consummated that winter at about the same time. Bob Meusel was bought from Boston by Jones and Scott transferred their allegiance. Last winter's bartering resulted in the acquisition of Herb Pennock, star port sacker, in exchange for several young players.

NORTHWARDS MEETING TO ORGANIZE FORCES

An organization meeting of the North-West football club was held last night at eight o'clock in the rooms of the Island Club. The team intends strengthening itself and hopes to have a successful season. The 1923-24 winter season was successful, but the team is determined to be more formidable to its opponents than has been the case in the past. Oldtime supporters of the club are returning to the fold, and all interested in the welfare of the team are asked to make a special effort to attend to-night's important meeting.

Whether Regina has slipped back in its 1923-24 hockey array remains to be seen. One thing is sure, it has the greatest combination of scorers that ever graced any one club. Art Gagne has passed over from the Eskimos and will play along with George Hay, with Dick Irvin alternating at centre with Barney Stanley. That is a powerful front for any team. Gagne headed the scoring averages for the prairies last season, with Hay third, and Irvin second. Irvin was only a couple of notches down.

The loss of Amby Moran is a more serious blow to the Capitals than many expect. He was the powerful factor out in front of the cage with Traub, but critics in that end of the country look for the greatest sensation of all when Duke Dutkowiak is in his stride. Toward the end of last winter's show, he was unleashing a wonderful brand of stuff, and as a defence man he substituted on defense. He spent last term with Edmonton, Jack Asseline, who tried to make his way with Vancouver but fell through, has been scooped up by Regina for the sub sacker in goal. The Capitals are in a pretty good position, and it is hard to see how they will be able to get out of the net. It is hard to see how they will be able to get out of the net.

Visiting Soccer Team Plays Well And Wins by 4-2

Vancouver Longshoremen Have Sweet Team and Account For Victoria's Best

Vancouver certainly boasts of a very smart soccer team in the Longshoremen. They performed here yesterday afternoon at the Royal Athletic Park against a Victoria representative team and won by 4 goals to 2.

The Longshoremen played soccer after the fashion of an Old Country eleven. They had a system and their team play was a treat to watch. The forwards were always in place and the ball was tipped from foot to foot with great accuracy. When it came to shooting the visitors stepped into the goal and sent away for the goal-mouth. In this department of the game the Longshoremen looked extremely good and Gordon Leeming, the local goalie, was given a very busy afternoon, due to the fact that the visiting forwards shot before reaching them, and they were usually on the mark.

Three Goals in First The Longshoremen stepped out in the first half and shot three goals. The first came off the foot of Gordon Leeming, the inside left, who gave Leeming no chance to block his long, high shot. Ferguson, the outside left, found the net when close in for his second goal and before the half time whistle sounded this same player went through again and scored.

The Capitals fought with a vengeance to get on to even terms with the Longshoremen. They were shown a good form at this stage of the game, but the Longshoremen, whom they were a goodly number present, expected the team to score the first goal, but they were unable to do so. However, Ferguson, the flashy centre forward of the visitors, made the game safe for his team by scoring their fourth goal.

Varsity Ruggers Down Vancouver's Rep Squad by 8-0

Vancouver, Nov. 12.—Varsity defeated Vancouver "rep" ruggers yesterday afternoon 8-0 in the McKechnie Cup game at Brockton. The varsity team was good, while half and Ramsell in the first period. Gwyther converted the first try.

Ottawa Taking Full Squad to Winnipeg For Big Tournament

Ottawa, Nov. 12.—The Ottawa hockey team which has closed arrangements to compete in the big professional hockey tournament at Winnipeg, will leave for the West Thursday night. The world's champions will take all their regulars along. The following will be in the Ottawa party: Tommy Gorman, manager; Eddie Gerard, captain; Clint Benedict, Frank Clancy, George Boucher, Lionel Hitman, Frank Nigh, Harry Broadbent, Cy Denenny and Jack Dorrath.

Corinthian Football Team Will Tour Canada in 1924 And Play Game in Victoria

Winnipeg, Nov. 13.—The famous Corinthian football team, of England, will tour Canada next summer, playing games from coast to coast. John Easton, president of the Dominion Football Association, announced this morning that definite word had been received from the celebrated Old Country amateurs accepting the invitation to play in Canada next summer. The Corinthians are due to arrive in Canada on July 25 and will play thirteen games, traveling as far as British Columbia. The final game is billed for Montreal on Labor Day.

Cougars Leave For Seattle Ready to Mingle With Mets

Lester Patrick and his Cougars departed this afternoon for Seattle, where to-morrow night they are to meet the Mets, victors in last night's opening clash in Vancouver.

The boys had a light workout this afternoon to give Hec Fowler a little rest, and they were all in good fettle when they strutted up the gang plank. It is expected that Jocko Anderson, secretary of the team, will start the game at right wing. Fowler has given his best in the practices and looks good. He is the sixth of last year's regulars, and Manager Patrick, while playing a league match against Clapton Orient at Homerton November 3, scored one of the most brilliant goals ever witnessed on the football field.

OUR MAIL BAG

To the Sporting Editor.—Please grant me a few inches of space on your sporting page in which to discuss some facts which occurred on Saturday last. Let me first introduce my few observations for last Saturday's game at the Royal Athletic Park, which is an expression of real and unfeigned regret. I do hope and, rightfully will, see that anything I might say will do a great deal of good in those misguided individuals who are doing their very best to bring Victoria football into disrepute. In this respect I make an especial appeal to the few who attend the games each week in the hope of spending a pleasant afternoon and to the players who should be engaged in friendly combat if only for the reward of the week-end peace-which-winners. And there are a few followers who go to matches prepared, if everything does not travel smoothly, to vent their spleen on the individual, or collection of individuals, utterly regardless of the fact that they may thus be lending themselves to an act of gross injustice.

UPLANDS GOLF CLUB Captain's Team Wins

By a margin of three points the team captained by R. J. Darcus, captain of the Uplands Golf Club, defeated the squad led by F. G. Wark, president of the club, in a special match at the Uplands links yesterday. President Fowkes's players obtained the lead of ten points in the singles, but in the four-ball matches the captain's team came back with a vigorous win and overtook their opponents.

FAST GAMES PLAYED IN HANDICAP LEAGUE

Two fast backhand games were played at the Y.M.C.A. on Saturday night when the Rangers defeated the Prospectors 58-49, while the Voyagers won over the Adventurers the tune of 45-36 in the "Y" handicap league.

Teamsters and Tommies Fight To 2-All Draw

Wednesday League Leaders Fail to Break Tie After Hard Game

Locked in a two-all draw for the last twenty minutes of their game the Teamsters and Garrison failed to produce a winner at Beacon Hill yesterday afternoon. Both teams played an excellent brand of soccer, and provided the large crowd of enthusiastic spectators with plenty of excitement. As a result of the match ending in a draw, the Teamsters are still leading the Wednesday League, while the Garrison are holding down second berth with Broad Street in the third berth. Broad Street defeated the Bays yesterday morning by 1-0.

Upon the resumption of play the drivers immediately took the offensive, and only a few minutes had elapsed before Hatherill, outside right for the Teamsters, headed the team into the net. This gave the Teamsters heart, and they pressed once again in an effort to score the tying goal. After some neat combination play Speak booted the ball into the net, but the Garrison, who had teams fought hard for the winning goal, but the final whistle blew with the winner still undecided.

In the morning game in the Wednesday League the Broad Street team won a hard-fought game from the Hudson's Bay by the score of 1-0. Nex, star centre forward of the Broad Street, scored the lone goal of the match in the first half. The game was considerably slowed up on account of the heavy ball and slippery condition of the field. In the first half the Bays made some well-manoeuvred runs, but the Broad Street defence was impassable, and the first half ended with the score 1-0 in favor of the winners.

Foyston's Shot Wins First Game For Mets

Maroons Got Surprise of Their Life When Seattle Walked Into Their Own Camp and Gave Them Trimming; Mets Were Thought to Be Weak But They Are Going to Win Lot of Games This Winter, Say Vancouver Scribes; Fraser Proves a Star

Vancouver, Nov. 13.—Teddy Roosevelt's Rough Riders may have been better horsemen than Bob Rowe and Gordon Fraser, of the Seattle Mets, but they never rode with less regard for the Seattle pair of hockey hordes last night when Pete Muldoon's plaid performers beat Fraser's champion Maroons 2-2 in the season opener.

Frank Thomas Is Victor in Final For Golf Laurels

Defeated "Big" Wilson For Championship of Colwood Golf Club by 3 and 2

Frank Thomas, a former city golf champion, captured the first championship of the Colwood Golf Club when he defeated Biggester Williams by 3 and 2 in the finals yesterday afternoon. Neither golfer was in his best form, "Big" having considerable trouble with his tee shot.

Seattle introduced a star in young Jack MacFarlane, a combination man of the first water, who worked on left wing like a veteran. On the other wing none other than Smoky Harris started the game. And it was Jug the defender of the former team that spent deft instead of victor for the former team mate. He was in good condition, and checked with gray hair, but he was just as good as the other end, and saved the game many times. Fraser and Rowe worked like a team on the defence and without a bad shaking.

HAMILTON BEAT TIGERS Hamilton, Ont., Nov. 13.—Toronto University defeated Hamilton Tigers, Big Four champions 14-12 in an exhibition game here yesterday. Varsity piled up its score in the first half under inter-club relations, and much the best of the play, but the Tigers' executive upheld Hamilton.

SIXTEENTH DANCE WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Armories Will be Scene of
Weekly Community Event
To-morrow

The Sixteenth Battalion of the Canadian Scottish Regiment has prepared a good programme for the weekly community dance to be held to-morrow evening at the Armories on Bay Street. These weekly dances, for which the music is supplied by the full brass band of the battalion under Handmaster Miller, are becoming increasingly popular, and on each Wednesday evening the Armories are well filled with dancers. The dancers, for which but a nominal admission fee is charged, are part of the social work of the militia unit.

MENTAL DEFECTIVES NATIONAL PROBLEM

Rev. Dr. Shearer Now Giving
Attention to Question; to Speak Here

The problem of adequate care for the mental defectives of Canada is engaging the attention of the Social Service Council, Rev. Dr. J. G. Shearer, of Toronto, told The Times on his arrival yesterday afternoon. The invidious influence which spread through the community from the free intercourse of persons of limited intelligence, their propensity to crime and evil ways, Dr. Shearer stated is one which only recently people in the Dominion have come to realize properly. It is now possible by better organization to cut down the expense of caring for these unfortunate, and at some initial outlay succeeding in saving money to the country in their adult years.

On this subject Dr. Shearer will deliver an illustrated lecture at the First Presbyterian Church to-morrow evening.

Crippled Children
Another point to which he is giving attention is the case of crippled children. One school only in Canada, located in Montreal, exists for the purpose of educating crippled children. It is estimated, he said, that the crippled people in the Dominion number 55,000, and of these about

The Remedy You Breathe

PEPS are the finest protection you can have for Throat, Chest and Lungs this weather. You simply divest a Peps of its silver-jacket then dissolve the tablet in your mouth. The powerful medicinal fumes given off are breathed through the throat and air-passages deep into the chest and lungs. In this way weak spots are soothed, strengthened and healed, coughs and colds quickly arrested.

Peps are powerfully germicidal and speedily effective. They exterminate the germs that bring bronchitis, throat troubles, influenza, etc. Free from all harmful drugs, splendid for all weak-chested children.

SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

Now Recommends Lydia
E. Pinkham's Vegetable
Compound

Washington, D.C.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved me from an operation which a physician said I would have to have for a very bad case of female trouble. My system was all run-down for two years after my little girl was born. Then I read of your wonderful medicine and decided to try it. I could hardly drag one foot after the other, and after taking six bottles of the Vegetable Compound I felt like a new woman. I now do all my housework, also washing and ironing, and do not know what real trouble is. My health is fine, and I weigh 140 pounds. When I started taking it I weighed 97 pounds. I gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to any one who is suffering from female trouble or is run down. You may use this testimonial for I am only too glad to let suffering women know what the Vegetable Compound did for me."—Mrs. IDA HEWITT, 1629 Penna. Ave. S.E., Washington, D.C.

Such letters from women in every section of this country prove beyond question the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

one-third are children of school age. Exclusive of the cripples whose parents are in good circumstances, and can afford to pay for special tuition, Dr. Shearer says it is easy to see that the country has a problem, the magnitude of which it is not possible readily to realize.

Liquor administration in British Columbia, horse racing, and similar questions, which engage the attention of the Social Service Council, were the subject of inquiry by Dr. Shearer, who will be in Victoria, registered at the Empress Hotel, until to-morrow night.

The accident happened at 4 p.m. yesterday when Mr. Dearman was driving the party north. A crash came when the car struck a greasy patch on the road and skidded into a bank. SUES WITH DOUG.—Evelyn Brent, former leading lady for Douglas Fairbanks, has joined Doug and his wife, Mary Pickford, in the libel suit against an eastern magazine. The publication, in their petition contends, asserted Miss Brent had caused a rift in the Fairbanks' marital life. This, all three deny. And what's more, they allege the magazine said Miss Brent was fired by "Doug" because she was "growing fat."

WHEN TOMBSTONES WARP.—Beautiful old tombstones in a cemetery in Havana, Cuba, are sagging under their own weight. So now the United States Bureau of Standards is endeavoring to learn just why. Here's H. H. Dutton, attache of the bureau, making tests with different stones and marbles.

SIR CAMPBELL STUART, managing director of The London Times, has played a leading part in the launching of the Canadian History Society in England.

READY FOR OLD MAN WINTER.—Icy zephyrs are screeching across the barren snow-capped wastes of the frozen north. And the temperature is sliding down, down, down. But this Eskimo is prepared for the severest kind of weather. Here he is with his sledge-load of seals. Makes enough food and fuel to tide him and his family through until Spring. Any sufficient, fur to keep them all in clothes.

TRAVELING!—Lieutenant H. J. Brow, naval aviator, smashed the speed record by flying 259.15 miles an hour at Mitchell Field, L.I. Brow won second place in the International Races last month. The camera's shutter was forced to work 1-1900th part of a second to get this remarkable picture of the plane crossing the official timing device.

SCHOOL DAYS By DWIG

CITIES FIGHT DRUNKEN DRIVER AS TRAFFIC DEATHS MOUNT.—This is Judge Meredith Yeatman, of Cincinnati's municipal court giving an object lesson to traffic law violators. Judge C. C. Dalton, of Seattle, always inflicts the maximum sentence, thirty days in jail, $500 fine and revocation of the motorist's license. "If the laws allowed me," he says, "I would put a large red cross on the door of the drunken driver's automobile. For the second offense I would add a skull and cross-bones. For the third offense I would revoke his driver's license for life, for a drunken motorist is more dangerous to life and property than a maniac with a gun." Judge Lewis H. Ward, of San Francisco, asserts that consistency in sending intoxicated drivers to jail is the best method of lessening this evil. Every drunken driver found guilty in his court serves at least six months in jail. Judge John F. Haas, Chicago jurist, metes out justice to traffic offenders with Dr. David J. Jones, city physician, sitting at his elbow. To church every Sunday for a year was the requirement Judge Haas made after consulting Dr. Jones in a recent case of a drunken driver. The man was told to report every month to the probation officer with a certificate showing regular attendance. He also was assigned to the water wagon and fined $150 and costs. In St. Louis, Judge George E. Mix established a school in his court. If a prisoner admitted knowing the law, he was given the maximum sentence. If he pleaded ignorance, he was forced to sit between two policemen in court while he memorized the traffic code from cover to cover.

MR. WOO FLING LUMM, HE FLINGS A NASTY PASS.—One of the most promising young footballers in the Chicago district is Woo Fling Lumm, or Charley Lumm, to give him his real name. Lumm is a full-blooded Chinese and is the star of the Tilden High School eleven. No better handler of the forward pass has been developed in Chicago's High School circles this season.

THE LATEST NEWS FROM FINANCIAL CENTRES

BUYING POWER BEHIND RAILS

(By Burdick Bros. Ltd.)
New York, Nov. 13.—The tenor of the advice from abroad seemed to inject a note of hesitancy into the market during the early dealings, and in addition to the foregoing there was a rather liberal amount of profit taking going on, all of which gave the list an irregular appearance. Offerings, however, seemed well absorbed and in the end such declines as were registered were mostly fractional.

Among the influences of the day the optimistic remarks of Secretary Hoover were the subject of favorable comment. A cut in Pennsylvania crude oil was responsible for some additional scattering liquidation in the oil department of the list. The rails were features of strength with a goodly amount of activity in Erie and some of the other lower priced issues. The third quarter earning statement of the New Haven road showed up very favorably as compared with the year. The earnings of the Erie are also expected to make a very favorable showing for the year, likewise Southern Railway and Washburn.

Some buying in the rails probably also grows out of a belated recognition of the continued heavy freight loadings on the carriers during the greater part of the year. The market seems to be going through the process of digesting a rather liberal amount of profit taking which has been going on the last few sessions.

We do not, however, anticipate any material declines from this level, and should there be a further recession in prices it strikes us as though opportunities should be looked for on the buying side.

The memorial cross was a beautiful emblem of love and sacrifice with the many wreaths placed upon it. These included ones from the city of Duncan, the women's auxiliary to the North Cowichan Chapter, I.O. O.F. W. A. Chapter, the Cowichan Chapter of the Red Cross, Cowichan Girl Guides, Vimy Girl Guides, Pansy Patrol (an exquisite garden of pansies), the Ven. Archdeacon H. A. Collison, and benediction by Rev. F. Granville Christmas. The hymn, "The Supreme Sacrifice," was sung and the National Anthem concluded the proceedings. A guard of honor under Capt. J. D. ARMISTICE DAY

Cowichan War Memorial is Scene of Special Service. Special to The Times. Duncan, Nov. 12. The service on Armistice Day at the war memorial cross was well attended and most impressive. It commenced with the hymn, "O God, Our Help in Ages Past," followed by sentences read by Rev. W. H. Gibson. The E. and N. train from Victoria steamed into the station just on the stroke of eleven and gave a long blast on the whistle, immediately after which the two minutes' silence was observed. Then followed prayer by the Rev. Bryce A. Wallace, Scripture reading by Rev. John R. Hewitt, a very excellent address by the Rev. A. Fischlager, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ven. Archdeacon H. A. Collison, and benediction by Rev. F. Granville Christmas. The hymn, "The Supreme Sacrifice," was sung and the National Anthem concluded the proceedings. A guard of honor under Capt. J. D. Groves was furnished by returned men, Boy Scouts and Cubs under Sydney Wright, A.S.M., and Girl Guides and Brownies under Miss N. C. Denny, R.R.C. district commissioner.

WHAT SCIENCE SAYS

Mr. W. Lascelles Scott, the great English chemist, says: "After exhaustive analysis I have no hesitation in certifying absolutely pure Zam-Buk, also contains none of the impure animal fats and irritant mineral salts found in ordinary ointments..."

When you spend your money, don't you like to get the best possible value? If so, when next you need a household ointment, buy Zam-Buk. Why? Here are a few reasons.

ULCER FOR 30 YEARS

Mrs. Jeffrey of 31 French St., Methuen, writes: "I suffered from a thirty year ulcer which commenced on my ankle and spread to my knee. I used every known remedy, and had medical treatment, but only got temporary relief..."

IT SAVED MY HAND

"A sore on my finger turned to blood-poisoning. After a frightful agony the doctors amputated the finger. The hand and arm became swollen and inflamed. Doctors again operated, removed the bone, amputated my arm, but refused to operate until I had used Zam-Buk. My finger healed. I believe I would have saved my hand if I had used Zam-Buk. Rev. R. Lawrence St., Halifax, N.S., Lawrence St., Halifax, N.S., Lawrence St., Halifax, N.S."

A TALK TO WOMEN

Zam-Buk being made from nature's own healing balsam, is more powerful than ordinary ointments—better value. It can heal where other remedies fail. Read the extraordinary case of Mrs. Jeffrey in panel No. 4.

$4 SPENT ON IT SAVED 2 FINGERS

"I cannot express my gratitude for what Zam-Buk has done for me," writes Mr. J. V. Bernard, of 539 Craig St., E., Montreal. "In an accident at work my hand was so badly crushed the doctor said he would have to amputate two fingers. Naturally I didn't want this, so decided to try Zam-Buk first. I applied Zam-Buk daily, and within the time I had used $4 worth, the injury was completely healed. My fingers were saved!"

A MINISTER'S TRIBUTE

Rev. A. D. McLeod, of Harcourt, N.B., writes: "I know of nothing like Zam-Buk. Visiting throughout my ministerial mission, I see many an afflicted people, and have been amazed at the good Zam-Buk has done daily. For old wounds, been ulcers, eczema, and all skin diseases, it is unexcelled."

ZAM-BUK

Zam-Buk draws from a wound or sore all the poison before healing. Read how it thus saved Mr. Evans' hand, (panel No. 2). Zam-Buk, if applied to skin diseases, injuries, etc., will save you money, pain, and perhaps save a limb, as in the case reported in panel No. 5. Zam-Buk is best for children. Scores of mothers have proved this. In a nut-shell, here are Zam-Buk's points of superiority—It is herbal—not fatty. It is pure—not adulterated by minerals hidden by cheap perfumes. It is antiseptic—kills all germs. It is the most powerful known healer. It does more and goes further. It keeps "infectiously" never goes bad. It is suitable alike for the skin of adults and of children—even babies. It cures old and stubborn skin diseases as well as injuries and diseases of recent date. Its price brings it within the reach of everybody. Only 50c box, 3 for $1.25. Zam-Buk, like diamonds, is imitated. Protect your recent date. Insist on the genuine Zam-Buk.

It has been taken by different members of my family with great success. My daughter, have been wonderfully helped during motherhood by taking Pierce's Favorite Prescription; it is the best medicine the expectant mother can take for health and strength. And after delivery, the children are greatly benefited. My daughter was left in a very bad way and nothing in the way of medicine gave her any help until she began taking Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and through the use of this medicine her health was completely restored, and she is as well as ever."

Prospective Council Aspirants Await Turn of Events

Mayor Hayward Declares Present Council Has Done Excellent Work

Will there be a return of the old time members of the council to the electoral lists in three weeks' time?

Ex-Alderman Dinsdale, who was one of the five aldermen defeated in 1921, three of whom have since found seats again at the council board, states to The Times that he will be in the field again in December, as far as present indications can give any assurance.

The other former aldermen who has not since returned to the council board is W. F. Fullerton. Mr. Fullerton said today that he had not determined his course yet, but there was plenty of time to consider the subject.

There are expected to be two vacancies among the five members who retire, so that even if the retiring aldermen who offer themselves for re-election should be returned, some new blood is certain to come in. It used to be very difficult to oust a retiring member of the Council at the polls, but since 1920 the electorate has shown a distinct inclination to bring new members on the council board.

Mayor's Candidature

Mayor's acclamations were given in 1915, 1916, 1918 and 1920, and it looks like a similar course being adopted in the ensuing election, as no opposition has manifested itself to the return by acclamation of Mayor Hayward, who, as previously predicted, is again in the field.

In announcing his candidature the Mayor stated that among the reasons that prompted him to make the decision was firstly that a great many of his friends had urged him to do so, and secondly that he liked the work, although he had taken office at possibly the most trying time in the city's history. His Worship said he was willing to carry on for another term if his fellow citizens decided that it was in their interests that he should do so.

He said he loved the town of his nativity, and had great faith in its future. With his Aldermanic experience of 1922 and this year's Mayoral experience he said he felt that he now had a fairly good grasp of civic affairs, and could be of greater service in the future on that account.

The Mayor stated that he believed this year's Council had done excellent work, and had made decided steps towards getting the city's financial affairs on a sounder basis. His Worship feels that the efforts of the 1923 administration had been successful, and that the labors of each individual member would be appreciated by the citizens.

At a later date he promised to give the electorate a review of the year's work, and an outline of policy for 1924.

Railway Development.

The Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway has filled in the site of the present yard approaches, which formerly crossed on trestle. The ends of the wooden approaches still remain. The proximity of the Colwood yard has supplied a considerable amount of material, and more will be wanted when the yard area immediately South of the tracks, on the reserve side, is ready for filling prior to development.

On the East side of the bridge there is to be a coal spur, but until some debris has been removed it has been impossible to continue the retaining wall which is essential to protect the heavy fill at this point.

Immediately across the harbor bridge, begins the approach to the Esquimalt and Nanaimo yards climbing by a ramp from the new highway. On the steel bridge over the subway just West of the harbor is at present one set of tracks. It is proposed to floor the remainder of the bridge, and timbers have been assembled for that purpose. This will carry the roadway into the Esquimalt and Nanaimo yards, and also when the area between the Shell Oil, the Sidney Roofing plant, and the present grade is filled in, it will be the means of access to that whole area. This property which is nearly two acres in extent, will be held for future development.

Chairman of Advisory Board Has Spent Long Period in Province

In James Bailey of Sardis, Chairman of the Advisory Board of the Farmers' Institutes, which body is now holding sessions here, the province has a pioneer of forty-two years' standing.

Mr. Bailey, who is registered at the Dominion Hotel, stated that the Chilliwack district in 1881 presented a very different position to what it does to-day. Before the advent of the Canadian Pacific Railway across the country the only communication was by water from New Westminster, and in fact it long continued the chief means of shipping produce to the Coast markets.

Until the opening of the B. C. Electric Railway in 1919, the district, which is one of the finest dairy areas in British Columbia had so direct communication with the coast as to be by the longest interurban electric line in Canada to New Westminster and Vancouver.

The Chilliwack city and township, with a population of from 8,000 to 10,000 persons, is looking for a great stimulus from the Sumas reclamation scheme, which should add greatly to the business of the area. The town has always been noted for its cleanliness, well built appearance, and the advent of the new settlers to the westward should bring in a large population, Mr. Bailey thinks.

CONSTIPATION—skin troubles—stomach disorders—in thousands of such cases, Fleischmann's Yeast has proved its power again and again. All these ailments are generally due simply to wrong habits of living and eating, and can be overcome. Two or three cakes a day of this fresh natural food, eaten regularly, can accomplish literally amazing results.

Remember that Fleischmann's Yeast for Health comes only in the tinfoil wrapper and cannot be purchased in tablet form. All grocers have it.

Send for free booklet, "The New Found Value of Fleischmann's Yeast in Building Health." THE FLEISCHMANN COMPANY, Dept. 215, 1166 Burrard Street, Vancouver, B.C.

The letter that won the $1000.00 prize in the Fleischmann Yeast-for-Health Contest

"My husband invented a new nickname for me: 'Frenzied Medicator.' I had been an office worker for years, with precious little opportunity for exercise, and constipation had become chronic.

"So had the pernicious and easy habit of taking cathartics for relief. I switched from pills to mineral oil, from milk of magnesia to those huge gelatin ovals filled with castor oil—for as quickly as my system got accustomed to one remedy, I had to hunt a successor.

"One Monday evening my husband showed me the Fleischmann advertisement in the Tribune's Sunday rotogravure section, simultaneously producing two silver-wrapped yeast cakes bought at his neezy restaurant. 'At least this is food, not dope!' declared my new family physician.

"To be obliging I promised to try it out. The Yeast proved slower in action than my pet drastic drugs, but I soon discovered its superiority. In two months my internal economy was operating like a well-oiled motor. Today I am surprisingly regular, despite my mother's insistence that as constipation is 'inherited in our family,' I must expect to take medicine all my life!

"Yet to keep in trim I merely munch two 'yeast sandwiches' every day, spread between thin rye crackers—one at breakfast, the other just before bedtime. My complexion is clear. I no longer catch cold at the slightest provocation. And I have none of the old-time drowsy dullness that accompanies constipation. Those two yeast sandwiches keep my 'health budget' down to six cents a day!"
