KEEPERS AND OTHERS.

FIFTH EDITION.

PRICE, 10 CENTS.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The prices offered in this list are for good specimens, unless otherwise stated. A coin badly worn, plugged, pierced, scratched or damaged in any other form, cannot be called a good or even a "fair," specimen, but must be classed as "poor," while a "fine" coin must have a sharp and bright appearance, showing each hair-line to perfection. Coins described "without arrows," are such having the arrows omitted at date, and not on the reverse (eagle) side as some suppose. A "milled edge" specimen of 1836 half dollar must have the word "half a dollar" omitted, and be entirely milled like the half dollar of the current series. Those found with the letters "fifty cents or half a dollar" on edges, of this date, are very common and command no premium. By "fillet-head" we mean hair of Liberty tied with a hand, and "flowing hair" unbound or "without hand."

We are frequently asked by parties why we purchase coins, and a great many questions concerning them. To one and all we here will say that thousands of collections of coins are being formed throughout the country, by individuals and numismatic societies, hence the demand for certain coins at advanced prices. The rarity and value of a coin arises from the fact that but few pieces of certain dates were struck at the mint, and for sundry other reasons.

Out-of-town parties, having coins to dispose of, should forward them on approval so that we can see the pieces before making a definite offer, or if preferable, an impression, which can easily be made by folding a piece of paper around the coin, and taking the end of a lead pencil, rubbing the same, which will enable us to form an idea as to the condition of the piece.

We answer no postal cards, or letters unaccompanied with a 2-cent stamp. To notice dozens of inquiries, which we daily receive, would cost us considerable money and valuable time, while the expense to each of our applicants would be but two cents extra to insure a prompt response.

Positively no premium paid for any coins, Foreign or American, no matter how old they may be, if not mentioned in this list, as we only desire such and no others.

A little attention paid to this advice will save considerable time, annoyance, and expense.

Complete and Standard List of American Silver and Copper Coins which command a Premium.

We herewith annex our buying rates for U. S. Coins; where no condition is mentioned, the price is supposed to be for "good" specimens only. It must not be expected by parties having or contemplating to form a collection, that we have all of these coins in stock, as that is almost impossible, but generally keep as far as practicable most of them, and will endeavor to secure rarities whenever desired. We do not deal in Gold or Foreign Coins.

This list cancels all previous quotations.

American Silver and Copper Coins not issued by the United States Mint.

SILVER COINAGE.

Dollars.—First coinage 1794; none issued 1805 to 1835 inclusive, and 1837.

Half Dollars.—First coinage 1794, none issued 1798, 1799, 1816.

Quarter Dollars.—First coinage 1796; none issued 1794, 1795, 1797 to 1804, 1808 to 1814 inclusive, 1816, 1817, 1826, 1829, 1830.

Dimes.—First coinage 1796; none issued 1794, 1795, 1799, 1806, 1808, 1810, 1812, 1813, 1815, to 1819 inclusive, 1826.

Half Dimes.—First coinage 1794; none issued 1798, 1799, 1801, 1806 to 1828 inclusive. The coinage of half dimes was discontinued in 1873.

Three Cent Pieces, Silver.—First coinage 1851; and then the dates follow in succession until 1873, when the coinage of them was discontinued.

COPPER CENTS.

Copper Cents—First coinage 1793; none issued 1815, they followed to 1857, when the coinage was changed to nickel. The nickel cent of 1856 was only a pattern, which continued during this year up to 1864 inclusive. This bronze cent was introduced in this year. In 1865 the nickel cent was discontinued, and up to date the bronze cents are issued.

Half Cents—First coinage 1793; none issued 1798, 1799, 1801, 1812 to 1824 inclusive, 1827, 1837, 1838, 1839, in 1857 the issue of half cents was discontinued.

1797 1864 the Two Cent piece in bronze was introduced, and discontinued in 1873.

1800 1865 the Three Cent nickel piece was first issued.

1802 1866 the Five Cent piece was first issued, a very few were struck in 18 as pattern. In 1853 the die was changed to that of the current issue, with Liberty head.

The Stamp and Coin Pursuit as viewed by Other Publications.

An Exchange says:—"Traffic for coins between gentlemen and the curious, either by money or exchange, is ever esteemed an honorable commerce."

The American Journal of Philately remarks:—"The collecting of postage stamps is the most intellectual and agreeable pursuit of the day, and is engaged in by both old and young, rich and poor, prince and peasant. There are thousands of collectors in the United States, while amateurs are to be found in every city, town and village in the world. It teaches geography and history. It developes a taste for art and science, and stimulates research in nearly every branch of learning."

A VOICE FROM THE CURIOSITY CABINET.

"Let no collector of stamps or coins be considered engaged in a foolish pursuit, for it is by means of the preservation of a knowledge of the past that we accelerate our progress in civilization, and the collection of anything that requires study, adds to the attractions of home, and to our love of country, and distinguishes us from the roving barbarian. An article in one paper says there are about 200,000 persons in the U. S. alone who are engaged in the business of stamp collecting."

Another exchange has the following to say:—"Should stamp collecting be subjected to ridicule when such noble personages as the Royal Family of England, his honor the Pope, Baron Rothschild, and probably the most prominent of American collectors—Gen. W. T. Sherman, deem it entertaining enough to pay any attention to it?"

A CARD OF THANKS TO OUR PATRONS.

To one and all we clasp hands as we enter upon our sixteenth year of uninterrupted success in the coin and stamp business.

After such a long and successful career, it is with feelings of pride that we tender our most heartfelt thanks for the very liberal patronage bestowed upon us in the past, as well as for the numberless testimonials of good will which are constantly showered upon us, and which lack of space forbids us from publishing.

Suffice to say, that we never were in a more prosperous condition than to-day. And now, kind friends, we again thank you for your liberality in the past and solicit a continuance of your esteemed favors, promising that in the future our motto will always remain, "honesty, promptness and fair dealings," which has characterized our business in the past.

THE PUBLISHER.

Coin Collectors, send list of you wants and we will return it with lowest quotations.

Collectors are quite apt to go where their attention is called, and, if they find coins and stamps as represented, will invariably purchase them there in preference to spending their time in seeking elsewhere.

Tin-types or wood-cuts will answer, but not as well as photographs. If your picture is small, send 60 cts extra for enlarging; or send $1.00 extra and we will send you the enlarged cabinet; otherwise it will be small in the stamp. (Photographers can enlarge before sending and save this expense). We preserve negatives and fill duplicate orders at above prices.
