

RESERVE BANKS OPEN

NEW ERA INAUGURATED IN FINANCIAL WORLD—PANICS MAY BE AVOIDED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—After months of work on the part of the Federal Reserve board and preparation by the banks which will be members of the new system, the twelve federal reserve banks will open their doors to business tomorrow. Their entrance into the field of rediscount will mark the first great change in the banking system of this country in the last fifty years, since the national bank was conceived and called into being after the Civil war.

The twelve banks, designed to take care of the commercial needs of the entire nation, are located in the following cities: Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Richmond, Atlanta, Cleveland, Chicago, Minneapolis, St. Louis, Kansas City, Dallas and San Francisco.

For the present the operations of the banks will be limited largely to the rediscounting of notes, drafts and bills of exchange, but as experience is gained, steps to have them exercise their other functions under the currency act will be taken. The directors of all the banks have been selected, the board has named its representative for each, and suitable quarters have been secured in all the twelve cities.

Officials here will watch the progress of the system with the utmost interest. It starts on its mission with 7571 member banks. Their authorized capital is put at $106,795,600, of which one-sixth has been called and is in their vaults. The exact figures for the cash reserves in all twelve banks has not been accurately computed, but the estimate puts the amount at close to $250,000,000, drawn under the law from the present reserve agents of member banks.

Secretary McAdoo said tonight: "The opening of these banks marks a new era in the history of business and finance in this country. It is believed that they will put an end to the annual anxiety from which the country has suffered for the past generation about insufficient money and credit to move the crops each year and will give such stability to the banking business that the extreme fluctuations in interest rates and available credits, which have characterized banking in the past, will be destroyed permanently. The federal reserve banks provide for a system of credits based upon commercial paper, thus at last securing to the country an adequate supply of the necessary credits to meet the legitimate demands of business as they develop.

The supply will be absolutely responsive to the demand, and thus business will be freed from restrictions, limitations and injuries from which it has suffered in the past because it has not been able to receive at the time when most needed the credit facilities which were essential to its regular and proper development. The whole country is to be congratulated."

The secretary said he was exceedingly gratified by the prompt and cheerful response with which the directors of the system met his suggestion that the banks be ready for business tomorrow in spite of the fact that only three weeks were allowed to perfect their several organizations. In every district, he said, a cheerful and hearty response has been given, and in all parts of the country the member banks have joined with the reserve board and the secretary in an earnest and laudable effort to open the system under the most auspicious circumstances.

The reserve banks begin operations at a time when members of the board feel that there is an excellent opportunity to test out the value of the system. Their ability to rediscount paper is counted upon as one of the means to loosen the purse-strings of the banks, provide machinery for caring for crops, and generally meet business needs.

The formal call at opening will be sent out tomorrow by Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo. Every step the reserve board thought was necessary preceding the opening has been taken and the formal signal will be largely a matter of form.

The Twelfth District Reserve bank located in San Francisco and serving the states of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, California, Nevada, Utah and all of Arizona except the southeast corner, was ready tonight to begin business tomorrow, it was announced by George O. Bordwell, acting chief clerk, and the man who has had most of the getting ready to do. Every national bank in the territory must become a member bank of this institution or else go out of business as a national institution. Those which become member banks must subscribe for capital stock an amount equal to 6 per cent of their capital and sur-

13 STATES DRY NOW

THREE VOTED "DRY" ON NOVEMBER 3 AND MANY OTHERS ARE "OPTION"

Thirteen states now have laws prohibiting the sale of alcoholic beverages. The thirteen include four states added to the "dry" list as the result of the election on November 3. On the face of the returns prohibition has just been adopted by Arizona, Washington, Oregon and Colorado.

The states which prohibit the sale of liquor are:

1. Arizona.
2. Arkansas.
3. Colorado.
4. Georgia.
5. Kansas.
6. Maine.
7. Mississippi.
8. North Carolina.
9. Oregon.
10. Tennessee.
11. Washington.
12. West Virginia.
13. North Dakota.

Alabama at one time adopted a prohibition amendment, but later rescinded it. The part of Oklahoma that was formerly Indian Territory is also prohibition, and South Carolina is largely so under various acts. In addition, a score of states have local option laws.

MRS. LAND ENTERTAINS

A very pleasant party was given on last Saturday afternoon by Mrs. F. B. Land at her home on Maryland avenue complimentary to her daughter, Miss Ethel Land, the occasion being her birthday. The afternoon was spent in playing Five Hundred, Miss Eva Black and Miss Tillie Thompson tied for the prize, which fell to the lot of Miss Black. The color scheme, which was yellow and white, was carried out in the decorations with yellow and white chrysanthemums. After the game a dainty two-course luncheon, where the color scheme was again used, was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. L. E. Gray.

The invited guests were Misses Bessie, Mattie Belle and Clara Provot, Cecelia Wilson, Lillian Mills, Harriett Wells, Eva Black, Elizabeth Lange, Pauline Scholz and Mesdames L. W. Eley and L. E. Gray. The out-of-town guests were Miss Tillie Thompson, Mesdames Harry Bastian and Everett Mitchell of Los Angeles and T. S. Ramey of Ocean Park.

LETTER OF THANKS

The Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher associations desires thus publicly to acknowledge gratefully its indebtedness to those kind friends who so generously assisted in their several ways to make their affair of last Thursday night such a pleasurable occasion to their guests and members. They would specially render thanks to Meses. Coral Harrison Sloan, Grace Bobo, and George E. Adams, Misses Ruby Dale, Helen Beatrice Cooper and Lalla Fagge, Messrs. Clarence D. Kellogg, C. D. Lusby, Paul Butterfield, Ralph W. Lusby, Dr. C. R. Lusby, W. C. Alvord and O. C. Logan, and the young ladies who so capably assisted with the refreshments.

MRS. CHARLES H. TOLL,
President.

GLENDALE HEIGHTS

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey returned on Saturday from a week's visit to San Diego.

Mr. Goodrich is having the grounds about the old adobe put in nice order. The house will be allowed to remain as it is for the present. It seems a pity to lose such old landmarks, but no doubt it will be torn down to make way for a modern residence in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Pirtle entertained friends from the city Sunday. Covers were laid for eight.

EXHIBIT TO CONTINUE

Edward H. Weston, who has had a group of his pictures at the Friday Morning club in Los Angeles the past week, will continue the exhibit the remainder of this month. Mr. Weston's work has attracted much attention among Los Angeles artists and brought forth many complimentary notices.

BIG PARK MASS MEETING

Tomorrow (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock at the high school auditorium will be held a mass meeting to decide finally upon a city park. The meeting has been called by the executive committee of the Chamber of Commerce. If you want a park or if you do not want one, you should be present.

BEST PICTURE AT SALON

LONDON MAGAZINE ASKED HONORARY SECRETARY FOR AN ANSWER

In reply to our inquiry, Mr. Bertam Park writes: "Which is the best picture in the salon? That is a truly difficult question to answer, but I can tell you which I think is the best group of pictures by the same artist. They are Nos. 98, 107, 153, 169 and 172, by Edward H. Weston of California.

"Mr. Weston is evidently a man of original ideas, sound technique, a refined artistic perception and sense for decoration. I cannot remember having ever seen any of his work before, and it is a very great pleasure to welcome a newcomer whose pictures show such a distinctive personality. No. 107, 'Toxophilus, a Decorative Study,' is truly decorative, an extremely interesting study of a nude archer. There is very little modelling in the tones, which give one almost the impression of silhouette. No. 98, 'Summer Sunshine,' is a more elaborate arrangement, with full modelling, but nevertheless a very narrow range of tones—an admirably posed full-length figure of a laughing girl in a rather dim light of diffused sunshine. No. 153 is an essay of quite a different character—'Child Study in Grey.' A still narrower range of tones is used in delicate grey of a style which might be described as 'Cadesque,' a description which will be readily understood. The expression on the child's face is delightfully natural, fresh and sparkling—in its own way quite a masterpiece of portraiture.

"No. 169, 'Carlota,' another portrait, is in a lower key. The model, as in the last mentioned, is lit from top and from the rear, so that her face is mostly in shadow with a halo of light illuminating her profile. There is a charming softness about the work, a softness which is so different from fuzziness, and an atmosphere of refinement and mystery which is exceedingly attractive. In the last few years at the Salon we have had perhaps too many Austrian, Hungarian and German prints, among the chief characteristics of which are a forceful, almost brutal, strength and rich, decisive tone values, so that the delicate elusiveness of the pictures I have mentioned appealed at once as something which gave a fresh outlook and a welcome change."

BAPTIST CHURCH VOTES TO UNITE IN GREAT UNION SERVICES

As a happy climax to a day of spiritual worship, the membership of the First Baptist church, at the close of the Sunday evening service, voted unanimously to join in with the other churches of Glendale, Casa Verdugo and Tropic in a big union revival effort under the leadership of Brown and Curry.

At both services Mr. C. H. Cunningham pleased all with sweet baritone solos, and Miss Maud Salisbury delighted as usual with her matchless performance upon the piano.

Pastor Troy earnestly exhorted Christ and made strong appeals to the unsaved. Two united by letter and one by experience. A rally of all male members of the local Baptist church is announced for Tuesday evening. The organization of a Brotherhood is planned.

NOTICE!

Those who desire auto conveyance to the "southern afternoon" at the home of Mrs. Frederick Baker on Wednesday afternoon are requested to telephone on Tuesday to Mrs. Clinton Booth, Glendale 932, or to Mrs. H. Lee Clotworthy, 2116, two bells. Receipts from both these autos will be turned over to the clubhouse fund.

BANKER FUNERAL TOMORROW

The remains of Harry Banker, brother of J. M. Banker of this city and a former well-known Glendale man, who passed away at his home in Houston, Texas, some months ago, are expected to arrive in Glendale this evening.

Funeral services will be conducted at half past two tomorrow afternoon at the Pulliam undertaking chapel. Rev. J. H. Troy of the Baptist church will conduct the service and the remains will be laid to rest in the family lot at Grand View cemetery.

TRADE AT HOME SPIRIT

There is a "trade at home" sentiment being worked up in Glendale among the city's loyal residents that is spreading and will ultimately work great good for the city. Glendale will prosper just in proportion to the extent of community pride that exists among her citizens. The slogan should be "buy at home."

PARK AND CIVIC CENTER

DR. MILLS MAKES EXCELLENT SUGGESTION FOR PARK SITE FOR CITY

In discussing the purchase of a public park, I want to recommend the square bounded by Colorado boulevard, Fifth, Kenwood and Louise streets and for the following reasons:

First, if you look at a map of Tropic, Glendale and Casa Verdugo, you will see that no other square is as near the center of population as this.

Second, it accommodates all the people living in all parts of the town equally well, being one block from all four carlines, one block from Broadway and one block—the high school block—from Brand boulevard.

Third, it is cheaper than the one recommended on Broadway. To be sure it has a number of buildings on it, but none of them are costly and they can be sold, and the lots are much less costly than those on Broadway, so the total cost of the whole square should be less than $50,000, instead of $65,000 for the other site.

Fourth, it is the only square in the city that can be made a beautiful civic center without any extra cost. It is faced by the Sixth street school, the buildings of the Union high school, the Episcopal church building, the public library, and a lot owned by the Tuesday Afternoon club, besides the Elks' new home which will be in sight and also the Masonic temple. The only public city building not facing the square is the city hall and that can easily be sold and a better one built on the east facing the square, and you will not only have a beautiful public park, but a civic center of which every citizen living in Glendale and vicinity will be proud. No other city in Southern California has a better opportunity for a beautiful civic center than Glendale, and we ought not let it go by.

C. I. MILLS.

NORTH GLENDALE

Mr. Karl Mertens of 1105 North Louise street will be among the several who will attend the reception tendered the new employees and the regular office force where Mr. Mertens has the responsible position of treasurer of the Guy M. Rush company of 735 South Hill street, Los Angeles, at Hotel Clark this evening. A banquet will be served and a jolly good time is expected.

Mrs. Laura Steele of 1528 Lorraine street is spending several weeks in Los Angeles and is located on Fifty-fifth street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Alston, who for the past several months have resided with Mr. Alston's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Alston of 1652 Ruth street, are now domiciled in their own home on Dryden street near North Pacific avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Sunkes of 825 Lincoln place are rejoicing over the arrival of a beautiful eight-pound baby boy, who came to them last Saturday evening and who will be known as Master Robert. This is the second son born to these charming people and the best wishes for both mother and little one are extended them. We are very glad to announce that both are doing exceedingly well up to the present time.

Miss Mary Pierce of Walton avenue, Los Angeles, spent last week with friends in North Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Mertens of 1105 North Louise street entertained at their home guest during the past week Mrs. North, a celebrated Norwegian sculptress, who has been making her home in Long Beach and occupying a studio there. Mrs. North has decided to give up her residence in Long Beach, having been invited by Madam Tingley, head of the Theosophist society at Point Loma, Cal., to reside there and who has given her a studio. Mrs. North having gained the recognition of Madam Tingley by the building of a wonderfully life-like bust of the famous Madam Blavatsky, founder of the society in Boston, Mass.

Mrs. John Murphy of 1648 Ruth street entertained as her guest at a prettily appointed luncheon last Saturday Mrs. Luther Colson and sister-in-law, Mrs. George Henry of Burbank.

AND TIME SO VALUABLE

Greenberg had taken out an insurance policy on his stock of goods, and three hours later a fire broke out which consumed building and contents. The company could find no ground on which to refuse payment, but in sending the check, the following was included in the letter: "We note that your policy was issued at noon on Thursday and the fire did not take place till 3 o'clock the same day. Why this delay?"

TROPICO ITEMS

MEMBERS OF W. R. C. TO MAKE CHRISTMAS GIFTS—OTHER ITEMS OF INTEREST

It is the annual custom of the members of N. P. Banks W. R. C. to remember the women who are inmates of the Old Ladies' home, located at Evergreen, Cal., with substantial assistance. At present there are thirty or more women, aged and helpless, widows of deceased veterans of the Civil war. This year in connection with the financial aid sent by N. P. Banks W. R. C. the members have secured the names of these thirty ladies and thirty or more members of the Corps have each taken a name and will send an individual gift to each, thus affording pleasure and happiness to these less fortunate women. Verily, it is more blessed to give than to receive.

Mrs. Charles A. Barker, president of the Tropic Thursday Afternoon club, and Mrs. Leigh Bancroft will represent the club at Whittier on Wednesday, when the club of that city observes their reciprocity day.

Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Funk of Alhambra, formerly of Imperial, and Mrs. M. R. Galt of Alhambra, were the Sunday guests of Mrs. David H. Imler of Palm Villa.

Mrs. Louise Purnell entertained as guests at luncheon recently at her home on West Tenth street Mrs. Samuel A. Pollock and Mrs. Elizabeth Kasseall of Rochester, N. Y., who is spending the winter as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Pollock.

Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Hollingsworth of Virginia place are entertaining as their house guest Mr. E. J. Hogberger, a business man of Portland, Ore., who will remain here for a week or ten days.

Mrs. Phoebe Meyers, who has been enjoying a few days' visit with friends at Whittier, has returned to her home on Mariposa street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Parker of Central avenue were the Sunday guests of friends in Hollywood.

Mrs. Charles M. Turck, chairman of the music section of the Tropic Thursday Afternoon club, accompanied by Miss Helene Morgan, represented the club at a lecture given Wednesday at the Ebell club in the interest of the symphony orchestra, of which a series of lectures will be given.

CINDERELLA CLUB MEETS

The Cinderella Sewing club met at the home of Mrs. Henry Wayne Yarik, 1447 West Third street, on Saturday afternoon and enjoyed one of the delightful gatherings which characterize this club. There were elaborate decorations of brilliant poinsettias in the living and dining rooms, which threw a warm and cheerful glow over the scene. As usual, the afternoon was spent in dainty needlework and many pretty gifts to gladden the hearts of friends at the Yuletide were fashioned by the ladies while pleasant social intercourse hastened the hours.

Refreshing 5 o'clock tea was served at the close of the afternoon's activities. This club will hold their next meeting at the home of Mrs. Blake Franklin.

BOX LUNCHEON

The Home and Foreign Missionary society will meet tomorrow at the Presbyterian church. The new study book, "In Red Man's Land," will be reviewed at 10:30. Individual box lunch at noon and social hour, followed by program. Subject, "Mexicans in U. S. Latin-America." Any lady whether a member of the church or a stranger, is welcome.

MRS. F. C. EATON

Sunday evening at twenty minutes past four, the spirit of Mrs. Mary E. Eaton, wife of Mr. F. C. Eaton, took its flight. An invalid for a number of years from heart trouble, death came as a sweet release from suffering.

Mrs. Eaton was born October 6, 1844, in New York, hence was more than 70 years old at the time of her death. She spent her early life in her native state, but lived in Florida for twenty-three years before coming to Glendale five years ago.

She leaves to mourn her death her husband and one daughter, Miss Lillian Eaton. Funeral services in charge of the Pulliam Undertaking company will be held at the home, 1301 Lomita avenue, Tuesday morning at ten o'clock, Rev. Hatch conducting the service. She will be laid to rest in Fairmount cemetery.

LITCHFIELDS LEAVE GLENDALE

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Litchfield and family very much regret their departure today for their new home near Orosi. The condition of Mr. Litchfield's health has made a change imperative, hence this move. Mr. Litchfield is a newspaper photographer and has been suffering from the effects of chemical poisoning, and has been forced to give up that work. Some months ago he purchased a ranch near Orosi and has been preparing to take his family to that place. The household goods were shipped Saturday and the family leaves today. Glendale regrets the loss of this family.

PLANS MADE FOR BEAUTIFICATION OF SCHOOL GROUNDS—GOOD PROGRAM

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher association was held Friday at the Third street school. The president, Dr. Jessie A. Russell, presided. Reports of the following chairmen of committees were given: Mrs. C. L. Peckham, emergency; Mrs. R. L. Hinkley, membership; Mrs. Vivian R. Webb, patriotism.

The following committee on beautification of school grounds was appointed: Dr. Nathaniel Green, Miss Helen White, Mrs. Mary C. Edwards. The association made appropriation for shrubs for the grounds, to make window boxes and other necessities.

The program for the afternoon was composed of expressions on the "Boy Problem in Glendale." The leaders in the discussion were Mrs. C. D. Lusby and Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson and the following took part in the discussion: Mrs. Fred Baker, Mrs. W. E. Heald, Miss Thayer, Prof. Richardson D. White, Mrs. Charles H. Toll, Mrs. W. P. Snow and others. Mrs. Toll gave a reading on "The Boy in the House."

There was a large attendance at the meeting and many new members joined the association.

ENTERTAIN AT FIVE HUNDRED

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Evans of 113 Orange street entertained Saturday evening with a dinner party. Covers were laid for twelve and a most enjoyable time was had by all. Yellow chrysanthemums and Shasta daisies filled every available space in the living-room and on the dining table was a low brass bowl filled with yellow chrysanthemums. The favors were yellow bonbon boxes and the place cards were yellow chrysanthemums hand painted.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Tower, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Hunchberger, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Wilber McFadden and Mr. Owen Emery. After dinner Five Hundred was played, the prize going to Mrs. John G. Hunchberger.

LITERARY SECTION

The literary section of the Tuesday Afternoon club will meet at the home of the curator, Mrs. Williford, 231 Orange street, tomorrow afternoon at half past two. Each member will answer to roll call with the name of her favorite book. Mrs. White will review Jane Addams' book, "The Spirit of Youth in the City Streets." Mrs. Hutchinson will discuss political issues and Mrs. Danford will speak on the possibilities of our library.

HONOR BRIDE

Mrs. Frank A. Richardson and Mrs. Luther G. Brown gave a tea on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Brown, 128 North Louise street. The tea was in honor of Mrs. Leroy H. Harrod, a recent bride of this city. The beautiful home of Mrs. Brown was decorated with yellow chrysanthemums throughout, all the decorations and setting of the dining-room being of yellow and silver. Mrs. O. S. Richardson and Mrs. William Harvey, Jr., presided at either end of the tea table and a pretty picture they made with their silver hair and dainty gowns. The drawn shades and lights made the house a fairyland.

The dainty sandwiches, tea and little cakes were served by Miss Alice Noble and Miss Marion Shimmerhorn of Los Angeles. The guest of honor, Mrs. Harrod, looked beautiful in blue chausseuse.

The following out-of-town guests were present: Mrs. C. H. Noble and her daughter, Miss Alice Noble; Miss Marion Shimmerhorn, Miss Helen Curran, Miss Marie McDonald and Mrs. John Mitchell, all of Los Angeles.

LITCHFIELDS LEAVE GLENDALE

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Litchfield and family very much regret their departure today for their new home near Orosi. The condition of Mr. Litchfield's health has made a change imperative, hence this move. PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sherman of 340 Central avenue are spending a week with friends in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Pumphrey of 1226 Chestnut street visited over Sunday with their son Henry and family at Whittier.

Dr. and Mrs. Lawler leave Glendale Tuesday for a visit with Dr. Lawler's parents, who live on a large ranch near Elsinore. They will be gone about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford M. Jack and little daughters, Margaret and Victoria, were Sunday guests at the home of Dr. Jessie A. Russell, 343 North Maryland avenue.

Johannie McCoy, Angelino Gossman and J. Simon are new members of the Bar Z who were initiated recently. The boys are planning a masquerade dance to be given on Thanksgiving evening.

Mr. Julius Kranz, violin teacher, with studio at 1325 North Brand boulevard, will give a recital by his pupils on Saturday afternoon at the studio. Parents and friends of the students are welcome.

Among those from Glendale who are attending the Lyric club convention are the following: Mr. and Mrs. William Herman West, Miss Eva Daniels, Dr. Jessie A. Russell and Mrs. A. S. Chase.

Mrs. Ruie D. Meeks, a prominent Canadian reader and entertainer, who is spending the season in Los Angeles, was a dinner guest at the home of Dr. Jessie A. Russell, 343 North Maryland, recently.

The Poothill club will meet at the residence of Mrs. Everett K. Barnes, 1303 Brand boulevard, corner of Randolph, on November 20th, that being the third Friday of the month. Mrs. Barnes will be assisted by Mrs. G. K. Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dow of 223 East First street will be dinner guests this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hunchberger, 344 South Central avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Dow are leaving for Victorville, where they will spend a year on their large ranch, having closed their Glendale home for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sprinkle of 319 East Fifth street have just returned from a visit to Barstow, having left here Friday evening. The trip was in the nature of a business trip, but they were pleasantly surprised to find a dance in progress at the home of their friends in Barstow, which helped to make their stay very pleasant.

Smoke from a small stove which had no outlet except through the hot air flues caused a silent alarm to be sent to the fire station from the Christian church at Sixth and Louise streets Sunday morning. There was no danger from fire, but no one knew how to stop the smoke. When the truck driver, Mr. Lankford, arrived, he took the remaining paper and trash from the stove and the atmosphere soon cleared.

MUSIC SECTION CONCERT

The music department of the high school is making preparations for a public concert to be given one week from Wednesday at two o'clock in the afternoon at the high school auditorium. There will be selections by the orchestra, girls' glee club, boys' glee club and solos by Oley Bond, pianist. Mr. Bond is taking a post-graduate course in harmony at the local school.

A number of original compositions by harmony students of the Glendale school will be given their first rendition at this time. Mrs. Dora L. Gibson, director, cordially invites all the public to attend this concert. No admission will be charged—a rare treat indeed—so make it a point to be present.

GLENDALE A GARDEN SPOT

Among the acknowledgements received by Glendale people for copies of the anniversary number of the Glendale Evening News was a letter received by Mrs. Charles Ravenscroft of 541 South Kenwood street from a friend in New Albany, Indiana. The letter says:

"We thank you very much for remembering us with a souvenir edition of the Glendale paper. This edition is a very fine one and from the views therein, Glendale must be a beautiful place. You are very fortunate indeed to have had your lines fall in such a garden spot. We are sure you cannot help but enjoy life in such ideal surroundings."

AND YOUR AUNT RACHEL KNOWS

He—"My dear, our neighbor, Mr. Smith, the paper says this morning, is a bachelor of arts."

She—"Then the paper doesn't know what it's talking about. You know as well as I do that Smith is a married man."

YANKEE LEADS TURKS

R. D. Bucknam, a Yankee, born in America in 1870, is now in supreme command of the naval forces of the Sultan of Turkey. When Bucknam first went to Constantinople several years ago, he looked at the dilapidated Turkish navy and then told the minister of the naval department that Switzerland was the only naval power in the world that Turkey could whip. So Abdul Hamid asked Mr. Bucknam to reorganize the whole navy and named a very large salary. And thus it happens that Turkey on the sea is commanded by an American. In the Literary Digest a few days ago was an article assigning the birthplace of "Tipperary," the great tramping song of the English in the present war, as being in America. It would seem that American men and American products "go anywhere."

CHRISTMAS SHIP SAILS

Saturday, November 14, the great ship Jason, laden with toys, dolls and clothing for the little children of Europe, whose fathers have been lost in the war, sailed from New York harbor, amid the shouts and cheers of thousands. Every corner of the great ship was crammed with surprises for the children, all of which had been given by the great-hearted American people, and which had been gathered from all parts of the country under the auspices of American societies of all kinds, American railroads and the Red Cross society, which latter will have charge of distributing the gifts in Europe.

We of the United States should thank God that we have not only the privilege, but the ability to do anything at all to aid the stricken little ones of Europe.

WOMEN AND PROPER USE OF THE BALLOT

It is pleasant to read in our news columns that the equal suffragists in Chicago have been discussing such a topic as "How to Utilize the Ballot for the Public Good." How to use the franchise is hardly secondary in importance to how to obtain the privilege. Chicago women in particular and Illinois women in general must have learned even thus early in their experience as voters that the right of citizenship and the proper exercise of that right are two very different things. Let it be hoped that discussions of this sort will impress upon all Illinois women at least two essentials to the voter's whole duty—voting and voting intelligently.—Christian Science Monitor.

ANNIVERSARY NUMBER

Register-Gazette, Rockford, Ills.—An anniversary number of the Glendale (Cal.) Evening News has been received by the Register-Gazette and it is a publication which it is easy to praise. A. T. Cowan, publisher, was formerly owner of the Tri-County Press at Polo, and Robert H. Cowan, advertising manager, who is his son, was formerly with the Hess store and also conducted an advertising agency here. Mr. Cowan took possession of The News in March, 1913. He converted it from a weekly to a daily the following August. He has built up the mechanical department, enlarged the paper and is giving Glendale, from all appearances, an expert and profitable publicity. The News anniversary number is attractive from every viewpoint.

Citizens of San Fernando are circulating a petition asking that the area of their city be enlarged. The claim is that if the city is not enlarged, what now is of it will be swallowed up by Los Angeles.

ON DISPLAY AT RUSSELL'S BAKERY

How to Enter

Fill out your name in the nomination blank in tonight's paper, or go to Russell's Bakery and have your name entered on a nomination blank. Contestants may enter their own names or their parents or friends may turn them in.

How to Get Votes

The first thing to do is to get your parents to buy Russell's Bread. With every 5c loaf a coupon good for five votes is given, and with every 10c loaf ten votes are given. The more bread you can get your parents and neighbors to buy of Russell, the more votes you will have. Have all your friends sign your name on the coupons that come with their bread. Votes given with bread at both our stores—142 W. Broadway and cor. Second and Brand.

List of contestants and votes. There's plenty of time for more entries, as contest doesn't close until Christmas eve:

FOG CAUSE ACCIDENT

The dense fog Sunday night was the cause of H. A. Sipple of Broomfield avenue, Glendale, allowing his Overland touring car to run over the side of an embankment at Eagle Rock. Mr. Sipple, accompanied by Messrs. Hollenbeck, Anderson and Brace were returning from a trip when the accident happened. Mr. Hollenbeck received some lacerations on his face. The others were not injured.

DRIVEN TO IT

"He came to kill a printer," said the little man. Any printer in particular?" asked the foreman. "No, any one will do. I would prefer a small one, but I've got to make some sort of a show on a light, or save some space on the paper, and my wife's got to get a soft life."

IN THIS COVETOUS WOIL

It was on a Clark street car. A passenger stooped and picked up a coin from the floor. Three of the other passengers eyed him with envy. He said: "Which of you people dropped a $5 gold piece?" "I did!" yelled each of the three. "Well," said the finder to the man nearest him, "here's a nickel of it."

HE'S IN AGAIN!

The man with the blood-shot eyes entered the sanctum, and before he could say a word, the office boy sized him up and said: "I dono what it is, but th' proof-reader done it." "Well, it was aplenty," said the irate person loudly. "My daughter played a violin solo last night, an' my wife writ up th' piece fer th' paper herself, an' she said th' playin' was of a high order, an' hyer this paper says it was of a high odor—where's that there editor?"

NOTICE OF SALE, SHERIFF OR CONSTABLE

In the Justice's Court, Burbank Township, County of Los Angeles, State of California, Geo. C. Melrose, Justice.

Litchfield Lumber Company, plaintiff, vs. A. M. Brown, defendant. By virtue of an execution issued out of the Justice's Court of Burbank Township, County of Los Angeles, State of California, dated the nineteenth day of October, 1914, in a certain action wherein Litchfield Lumber Company as plaintiff recovered judgment against A. M. Brown as defendant, in the sum of $155.95 principal, $18.47 interest, $7.10 costs, together with the costs and interest that have and may accrue, on the nineteenth day of October, 1914, I have levied upon the following described property, to-wit: Lot Twenty-four (24), in Tract 1717 in the city of Eagle Rock. As recorded in Book 22, Page 77 of Maps, Records of Los Angeles County.

Notice is hereby given that on Friday, the 27th day of November, 1914, at 12 o'clock m. of that day, at the City Hall entrance in the City of Tropic, in said County of Los Angeles, in Burbank Township, I will sell all the right, title and interest of said A. M. Brown, defendant, in and to the above described property, at public auction, for cash, gold coin, to the highest and best bidder, to satisfy said execution and all costs.

H. E. PURRIER,
 Constable.

Dated at Burbank, the 3rd day of November, 1914.

TRIED TO BE FUNNY

Just what sort of a sense of humor those persons have who persist in sending in fake reports of happenings to a newspaper and consider the matter in the light of a joke, is hard to determine. There is decidedly something lacking in one who finds it necessary to stoop to such acts in order to gratify a misguided sense of humor.

Recently there was reported to us a musical-tea, supposed to have been given by Miss Mildred Hastings of 1215 West Ninth street, and inquiry develops the fact that the report was absolutely devoid of truth. The family of the young lady say they know nothing about any social affair being held at their home.
