XXVIII. If any Person forge the Signature of any Registrar, District Registrar, or Commissioner for taking Oaths, or forge or counterfeit any Seal of the Court of Probate, or knowingly use or concur in using any such forged or counterfeit Signature or Seal, or tender in Evidence any Document with a false or counterfeit Signature of such Registrar, District Registrar, or Commissioner, or with a false or counterfeit Seal, knowing the same Signature or Seal to be false or counterfeit, every such Person shall be guilty of Felony, and shall upon Conviction be liable to Penal Servitude for the Term of his Life or any Term not less than Seven Years, or to Imprisonment for any Term not exceeding Three Years, with or without Hard Labour.

Practice of the Court.

XXIX. The Practice of the Court of Probate shall, except where otherwise provided by this Act, or by the Rules or Orders to be from Time to Time made under this Act, be, so far as the Circumstances of the Case will admit, according to the present Practice in the Prerogative Court.

Rules and Orders to be made for regulating the Procedure of the Court.

XXX. And to the Intent and End that the Procedure and Practice of the Court may be of the most simple and expeditious Character, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, at any Time after the passing of this Act, with the Advice and Assistance of the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench, or any One of the Judges of the Superior Courts of Law to be by such Chief Justice named in that Behalf, and of the Judge of the said Prerogative Court, to make Rules and Orders, to take effect when this Act shall come into operation, for regulating the Procedure and Practice of the Court, and the Duties of the Registrars, District Registrars, and other Officers thereof, and for determining what shall be deemed contentious and what shall be deemed non-contentious Business, and, subject to the express Provisions of this Act, for fixing and regulating the Time and Manner of appealing from the Decisions of the said Court, and generally for carrying the Provisions of this Act into effect; and after the Time when this Act shall come into operation it shall be lawful for the Judge of the Court of Probate from Time to Time, with the Concurrence of the Lord Chancellor and the said Lord Chief Justice, or any One of the Judges of the Superior Courts of Law to be by such Chief Justice named in this Behalf, to repeal, amend, add to, or alter any such Rules and Orders as to him, with such Concurrence as aforesaid, may seem fit.

Mode of taking Evidence in
Matters.

XXXI. Subject to the Regulations to be established by such Rules and Orders as aforesaid, the Witnesses, and where necessary the Parties, in all contentious Matters where their Attendance can be had, shall be examined orally by or before the Judge in open Court: Provided always, that, subject to any such Regulations as aforesaid, the Parties shall be at liberty to verify their respective Cases, in whole or in part, by Affidavit, but so that the Deponent in every such Affidavit shall, on the Application of the opposite Party, be subject to be cross-examined by or on behalf of such opposite Party orally in open Court as aforesaid, and after such Cross-examination may be re-examined orally in open Court as aforesaid by or on behalf of the Party by whom such Affidavit was filed.

Court may issue Commissions or give Orders for Examination of Witnesses abroad, or who
attend.

XXXII. Provided, That where a Witness in any such Matter is out of the Jurisdiction of the Court, or where, by reason of his Illness or otherwise, the Court shall not think fit to enforce the Attendance of the Witness in open Court, it shall be lawful for the Court to order a Commission to issue for the Examination of such Witness on Oath, upon Interrogatories or otherwise, or if the Witness be within the Jurisdiction of the Court to order the Examination of such Witness on Oath, upon Interrogatories or otherwise, before any Officer of the said Court, or other Person to be named in such Order for the Purpose; and all the Powers given to the Courts of Law at Westminster by the Acts of the Thirteenth Year of King George the Third, Chapter Sixty-three, and of the First Year of King William the Fourth, Chapter Twenty-two, for enabling the Courts of Law at Westminster to issue Commissions and give Orders for the Examination of Witnesses in Actions depending in such Courts, and to enforce such Examination, and all the Provisions of the said Acts, and of any other Acts for enforcing or otherwise applicable to such Examination, and the Witnesses examined, shall extend and be applicable to the said Court of Probate and to the Examination of Witnesses under the Commissions and Orders of the said Court, and to the Witnesses examined, as if such Court were One of the Courts of Law at Westminster, and the Matter before it were an Action pending in such Court.

What Rules of Evidence to be observed.

XXXIII. The Rules of Evidence observed in the Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster shall be applicable to and observed in the Trial of all Questions of Fact in the Court of Probate.

When Common
may sit.

XXXIV. It shall be lawful for the Judge of the Court of Probate to sit, with the Assistance of any Judge or Judges of any of the Superior Courts of Law at Westminster, who, upon the Request of the Judge of the Court of Probate, may find it convenient to attend for that Purpose.

XXXV. It

Probates and Letters of Administration.

XXXV. It shall be lawful for the Court of Probate to cause any Question of Fact arising in any Suit or Proceeding under this Act to be tried by a Special or Common Jury before the Court itself, or by means of an Issue to be directed to any of the Superior Courts of Common Law, in the same Manner as an Issue may now be directed by the Court of Chancery, and such Question shall be so tried by a Jury in any Case where an Heir-at-Law, cited or otherwise made Party to the Suit or Proceeding, makes Application to the Court of Probate for that Purpose; and in any other Case where all the Parties to the Suit or Proceeding concur in such an Application, and where any Party or Parties other than such Heir-at-Law make a like Application (the other Party or Parties not concurring therein), and the Court shall refuse to cause such Question to be tried by a Jury, such Refusal of the Court shall be subject to Appeal as herein provided.

Court may cause Questions of Fact to be tried by a Jury before itself, or direct an Issue to a Court of Law.

XXXVI. When the Court shall order a Question of Fact to be tried before itself by a Jury, the Court may make all such Rules and Orders upon the Sheriff or any other Person for procuring the Attendance of a Special or Common Jury for the Trial of such Question as may now be made by any of the Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster, and may also make any other Orders which to such Court may seem requisite; and every such Jury shall consist of Persons possessing the Qualifications, and shall be struck, summoned, balloted for, and called in like Manner as if such Jury were a Jury for the Trial of any Cause in any of the said Superior Courts; and every Jurymen so summoned shall be entitled to the same Rights, and subject to the same Duties and Liabilities, as if he had been duly summoned for the Trial of any such Cause in any of the said Superior Courts; and every Party to any such Proceeding shall be entitled to the same Rights as to Challenge and otherwise as if he were a Party to any such Cause; and generally for all Purposes of or auxiliary to the Trial of Questions of Fact by a Jury before the Court itself, and in respect of new Trials thereof, and also for all Purposes in relation to or consequential upon the Direction of Issues, the Court of Probate shall have the same Jurisdiction, Powers, and Authority in all respects as belong to any Superior Court of Common Law, or to any Judge thereof, or to the High Court of Chancery, or any Judge thereof, for the like Purposes.

Powers of the Court for the Trial of Questions by a Jury.

XXXVII. When any such Question shall be so ordered to be tried by a Jury before the Court itself, such Question shall be reduced into Writing in such Form as the Court shall direct, and at the Trial the Jury shall be sworn to try the said Question, and a true Verdict to give thereon according to the Evidence; and upon every such Trial the Court of Probate shall have the same Powers, Jurisdiction, and Authority as belong to any Judge of any of the said Superior Courts sitting at Nisi Prius.

Question to be stated, and Jury sworn to try it. Authority of Court on Trial.

XXXVIII. Where the Court of Probate directs an Issue, it shall be lawful for such Court to direct such Issue to be tried either before a Judge of Assize in any County or at the Sittings for the Trial of Causes in London or Middlesex, and either by a Special or Common Jury, in like Manner as is now done by the Court of Chancery.

Court may direct where Issues shall be tried.

XXXIX. Any Person considering himself aggrieved by any final or interlocutory Decree or Order of the Court of Probate may appeal therefrom to the House of Lords: Provided always, that no Appeal from any interlocutory Order of the Court of Probate shall be made without Leave of the Court of Probate first obtained, but on the Hearing of an Appeal from any final Decree all interlocutory Orders complained of shall be considered as under Appeal as well as the final Decree.

Appeal to the House of Lords.

XL. All Persons who at the Time of the passing of this Act have been admitted Advocates in any of the Ecclesiastical Courts shall be entitled to practise as Advocates or Counsel in all Matters and Causes whatsoever in the Court of Probate; and all Serjeants and Barristers-at-Law shall be entitled to practise as Advocates or Counsel in all contentious Matters and Causes in the said Court; and such Persons who have been so admitted Advocates and Serjeants and Barristers-at-Law shall have respectively the same Rank and Precedence which they now have before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, unless and until Her Majesty shall otherwise order.

Advocates admitted to practise. Barristers may practise in contentious Causes.

XLI. All Persons who at the Time of the passing of this Act have been admitted as Advocates as aforesaid shall be entitled to practise as Counsel in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Law or Equity in England, with the same Eligibility to Appointments, under Acts of Parliament or otherwise, as if they had respectively been duly called to the Degree of Barrister-at-Law on the Days on which they respectively were so admitted as Advocates, and with the same Rank and Precedence which they now have before the said Judicial Committee, unless and until Her Majesty shall otherwise order.

Advocates admitted to practise as Barristers.

XLII. Every Person who at the Time of the passing of this Act is actually admitted and practising as a Proctor in the Courts in Doctors Commons, or in the Prerogative Court of York, or in any Diocesan Court, or in any Archidiaconal Court, having previously duly served under Articles of Clerkship either to an Attorney or Proctor, may, upon his Application, at any Time within One Year after the passing of this Act, be admitted a Proctor of the Court of Probate, without Payment of any Fee or Stamp Duty.

Proctors admitted to practise.

XLIII. Every Person who at the Time of the Commencement of this Act is acting as Registrar or Deputy Registrar of any Ecclesiastical Court, or is actually admitted and practising as a Proctor in the Courts in Doctors Commons, or in any Ecclesiastical Court in England or Wales, may, within One Year after the passing of this Act, be admitted, without the Payment of any Stamp Duty, Fee, Charge, or Gratuity whatsoever, as a Solicitor of the High Court of Chancery, upon the Production of his Appointment or Admission as such Registrar, Deputy Registrar, or Proctor, or an official Certificate thereof; and upon the Production of an official Certificate that such Appointment or Admission continued in force at the

the Time of the passing of this Act, and upon signing the Roll of Solicitors of the High Court of Chancery, but not otherwise, such Person shall be entitled to be admitted as a Solicitor of such Court, and to be afterwards in like Manner admitted and enrolled as an Attorney of Her Majesty's Superior Courts.

Admission of Articled Clerks
Solicitors.

XLIV. Every Person who at the Time of the Commencement of this Act has served or is actually serving as an Articled Clerk to a Proctor entitled to take such Articled Clerk, and who has not been admitted as a Proctor, shall be entitled to be admitted as a Solicitor of the High Court of Chancery, in the same Manner, and subject to the same Rules and Regulations, and upon the same Conditions as if he had before the Commencement of this Act been articled to a Solicitor or to an Attorney-at-Law; and such Admission shall entitle such Articled Clerk so admitted as a Solicitor to be afterwards in like Manner admitted and enrolled as an Attorney of Her Majesty's Superior Courts: Provided, that if any such Proctor to whom any such Clerk is now articled shall retire from Practice after the passing of this Act, he shall and is hereby required to transfer such Articled Clerk to some other Proctor, or to a Solicitor, or to an Attorney-at-Law, for the unexpired Term of his Articles of Clerkship; provided that the Court shall at any Time have the same Power to transfer such Clerk, during the unexpired Term of his Articles of Clerkship, to any other Proctor, or to a Solicitor, or to an Attorney-at-Law, as the Judge of the Prerogative Court now has in respect to Clerks articled to Proctors practising in the Court of Arches.

Practitioners.

XLV. All Solicitors and Attornies-at-Law may practise in the Court of Probate, and the Laws and Statutes now in force concerning Solicitors and Attornies shall extend to Solicitors and Attornies practising in the said Court; and the Commissioners for taking Oaths in the High Court of Chancery shall be Commissioners for taking Oaths in the Court of Probate.

When Probates and Administration may be granted by District Registrars.

XLVI. Probate of a Will or Letters of Administration may, upon Application for that Purpose to the District Registry, be granted in Common Form by the District Registrar in the Name of the Court of Probate and under the Seal appointed to be used in such District Registry, if it shall appear by Affidavit of the Person or some or One of the Persons applying for the same that the Testator or Intestate, as the Case may be, at the Time of his Death had a fixed Place of Abode within the District in which the Application is made, such Place of Abode being stated in the Affidavit, and such Probate or Letters of Administration shall have effect over the Personal Estate of the Deceased in all Parts of England accordingly.

Affidavit to be conclusive for authorizing Grant of Probate.

XLVII. Such Affidavit shall be conclusive for the Purpose of authorizing the Grant, by the District Registrar, of Probate or Administration; and no such Grant of Probate or Administration shall be liable to be recalled, revoked, or otherwise impeached by reason that the Testator or Intestate had no fixed Place of Abode within the District at the Time of his Death; and every Probate and Administration granted by any such District Registrar shall effectually discharge and protect all Persons paying to or dealing with any Executor or Administrator thereunder, notwithstanding the Want of or Defect in such Affidavit, as is hereby required.

District Registrars not to make Grants where there is Contention, &c.

XLVIII. The District Registrar shall not grant Probate or Administration in any Case in which there is Contention as to the Grant until such Contention is terminated or disposed of by Decree or otherwise, or in which it otherwise appears to him that Probate or Administration ought not to be granted in Common Form.

As to Transmission of Notice of Application for Grants of Probate, &c. to
trar.

XLIX. Notice of every Application to any District Registrar for the Grant of Probate or Administration shall be transmitted by such District Registrar to the Registrars of the Principal Registry by the next Post after such Application shall have been made; and such Notice shall specify the Name and Description, or Addition (if any), of the Testator or Intestate, the Time of his Death, and the Place of his Abode at his Decease, as stated in the Affidavit made in support of such Application, and the Name of the Person by whom the Application has been made, and such other Particulars as may be directed by Rules or Orders under this Act; and no Probate or Administration shall be granted in pursuance of such Application until such District Registrar shall have received a Certificate, under the Hand of One of the Registrars of the Principal Registry, that no other Application appears to have been made in respect of the Goods of the same deceased Person, which Certificate the said Registrar of the Principal Registry shall forward as soon as may be to the District Registrar; all such Notices in respect of Applications in the District Registries shall be filed and kept in the Principal Registry, and the Registrars of the Principal Registry shall, with reference to every such Notice, examine all Notices of such Applications which may have been received from the several other District Registries, and the Applications which may have been made for Grants of Probate or Administration at the Principal Registry, so far as it may appear necessary to ascertain whether or no Application for Probate or Administration, in respect of the Goods of the same deceased Person, may have been made in more than One Registry, and shall communicate with the District Registrars as Occasion may require in relation to such Applications.

District Registrar in case of Doubt as to Grant to take the Directions of the Judge.

L. In every Case where it appears to a District Registrar that it is doubtful whether the Probate or Letters of Administration which may be applied for should or should not be granted, or where any Question arises in relation to the Grant, or Application for the Grant, of any Probate or Administration, the District Registrar shall transmit a Statement of the Matter in question to the Registrars of the Court of Probate, who shall obtain the Directions of the Judge in relation thereto, and the Judge may direct the District Registrar to proceed in the Matter of the Application according to such Instructions as to the Judge may seem necessary, or may forbid any further Proceeding by the District Registrar in relation to the Matter of such Application, leaving the Party applying for the Grant in question to make Application to the Court of Probate through its Principal Registry, or, if the Case be within its Jurisdiction, to a County Court.

LI. On the First Thursday of every Month, or oftener if required by any Rules or Orders to be made in that Behalf, every District Registrar shall transmit to the Registrars of the Principal Registry a List, in such Form and containing such Particulars as may be from Time to Time required by the Court of Probate, or by any Rules or Orders under this Act, of the Grants of Probate and Administration made by such District Registrar up to the last preceding Saturday, and not included in a previous Return, and also a Copy, certified by the District Registrar to be a correct Copy, of every Will to which any such Probate or Administration relates.

District Registrars to transmit Lists of Probates and Administrations and Copies of Wills.

LII. Every District Registrar shall file and preserve all original Wills of which Probate or Letters of Administration with the Will annexed may be granted by him, in the Public Registry of the District, subject to such Regulations as the Judge of the Court of Probate may from Time to Time make in relation to the due Preservation thereof, and the convenient Inspection of the same.

District Registrars to preserve original Wills.

LIII. Caveats against the Grant of Probates or Administrations may be lodged in the Principal Registry or in any District Registry, and (subject to any Rules or Orders under this Act) the Practice and Procedure under such Caveats in the Court of Probate shall, as near as may be, correspond with the Practice and Procedure under Caveats now in use in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, and immediately upon a Caveat being lodged in any District Registry, the District Registrar shall send a Copy thereof to the Registrars to be entered among the Caveats in the Principal Registry; and immediately upon a Caveat being entered in the Principal Registry, Notice thereof shall be given to the District Registrar of the District, if any, in which it is alleged the Deceased resided at the Time of his Decease, and to any other District Registrar to whom it may appear to the Registrar of the Principal Registry expedient to transmit the same.

As to Caveats.

LIV. Where it shall appear by Affidavit of the Person or some or One of the Persons applying for Probate or Letters of Administration that the Testator or Intestate had at the Time of his Death his fixed Place of Abode in One of the Districts specified in Schedule (A.) to this Act, and that the Personal Estate in respect of which such Probate or Letters of Administration should be granted under this Act, exclusive of what the Deceased shall have been possessed of or entitled to as a Trustee, and not beneficially, but without deducting anything on account of the Debts due and owing from the Deceased, is under the Value of Two hundred Pounds, and that the Deceased at the Time of his Death was not seised or entitled beneficially of or to any Real Estate, or that the Value of the Real Estate of or to which he was seised or entitled beneficially at the Time of his Death was under the Value of Three hundred Pounds, the Judge of the County Court having Jurisdiction in the Place in which it shall be sworn that the Deceased had at the Time of his Death his fixed Place of Abode shall have the contentious Jurisdiction and Authority of the Court of Probate in respect of Questions as to the Grant and Revocation of Probate of the Will or Letters of Administration of the Effects of such deceased Person, in case there be any Contention in relation thereto.

Where Personalty is under 200*l.*, and Real Property is under 300*l.*, County Court to have Jurisdiction.

LV. On a Decree being made by a Judge of a County Court for the Grant or Revocation of a Probate or Administration in any such Cause, the Registrar of the County Court shall transmit to the District Registrar of the District in which it shall have been sworn that the Deceased had at the Time of his Decease his fixed Place of Abode a Certificate under the Seal of the County Court of such Decree having been made, and thereupon, on the Application of the Party or Parties in favour of whom such Decree shall have been made, a Probate or Administration in compliance with such Decree shall be issued from such District Registry; or, as the Case may require, the Probate or Letters of Administration theretofore granted shall be recalled or varied by the District Registrar according to the Effect of such Decree.

Registrar of County Court to transmit Certificate of Decree for Grant or Revocation of Probate.

LVI. The Judge of any County Court before whom any disputed Question shall be raised relating to Matters and Causes Testamentary under this Act shall, subject to the Rules and Orders under this Act, have all the Jurisdiction, Power, and Authority to decide the same and enforce Judgment therein, and to enforce Orders in relation thereto, as if the same had been an ordinary Action in the County Court.

Judge of County Court to decide Causes, &c. as in other Cases.

LVII. The Affidavit as to the Place of Abode and State of the Property of a Testator or Intestate which is to give contentious Jurisdiction to the Judge of a County Court under the previous Provisions shall, except as herein-after provided, be conclusive for the Purpose of authorizing the Exercise of such Jurisdiction, and the Grant or Revocation of Probate or Administration in compliance with the Decree of such Judge; and no such Grant of Probate or Administration shall be liable to be recalled, revoked, or otherwise impeached by reason that the Testator or Intestate had no fixed Place of Abode within the Jurisdiction of such Judge or within any of the said Districts at the Time of his Death, or by reason that the Personal Estate sworn to be under the Value of Two hundred Pounds did in fact amount to or exceed that Value, or that the Value of the Real Estate of or to which the Deceased was seised or entitled beneficially at the Time of his Death amounted to or exceeded Three hundred Pounds: Provided, that where it shall be shown to the Judge of a County Court before whom any Matter is pending under this Act that the Place of Abode or State of the Property of the Testator or Intestate in respect Affidavit of the Facts giving the County Court Jurisdiction to be conclusive, unless disproved while the Matter is pending.

Probates and Letters of Administration.

of whose Will or Estate he may have been applied to for Grant or Revocation of Probate or Administration has not been correctly stated in the Affidavit, and if correctly stated would not have authorized him to exercise such contentious Jurisdiction, he shall stay all further Proceedings in his Court in the Matter, leaving any Party to apply to the Court of Probate for such Grant or Revocation, and making such Order as to the Costs of the Proceedings before him as he may think just.

As to Appeals from County Court.

LVIII. Any Party who shall be dissatisfied with the Determination of the Judge of the County Court in point of Law, or upon the Admission or Rejection of any Evidence in any Matter or Cause under this Act, may appeal from the same to the Court of Probate, in such Manner and subject to such Regulations as may be provided by the Rules and Orders to be made under this Act, and the Decision of the Court of Probate on such Appeal shall be final.

Not obligatory to apply for Probate, &c. to District Registries or County Court, but may in every Case be made to Court of Probate.

LIX. It shall not be obligatory on any Person to apply for Probate or Administration to any District Registry, or through any County Court, but in every Case such Application may be made through the Principal Registry of the Court of Probate, wherever the Testator or Intestate may at the Time of his Death have had his fixed Place of Abode: Provided, that where in any contentious Matter arising out of any such Application it is shown to the Court of Probate that the State of the Property and Place of Abode of the Deceased were such as to give contentious Jurisdiction to the Judge of a County Court, the Court of Probate may send the Cause to such County Court, and the Judge thereof shall proceed therein as if such Application and Cause had been made to and arisen in his Court in the first instance.

Rules and Orders for regulating the Procedure of County Courts under the Act to be made by the Judges now having Authority for the like Purpose.

LX. For regulating the Procedure and Practice of the County Courts, and the Judges, Registrars, and Officers thereof, in relation to their Jurisdiction and Proceedings under this Act, Rules and Orders may be from Time to Time framed, amended, and certified by the County Court Judges appointed for the Time being to frame Rules and Orders for regulating the Practice of the County Courts under the Act of the Session holden in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and eight, and shall be subject to be allowed or disallowed or altered, and shall be in force from the Day named for that Purpose by the Lord Chancellor, as in the said Act is provided in relation to other Rules and Orders regulating the Practice of the same Courts; and for establishing Rules and Orders to be in force when this Act comes into operation, the Power given by this Enactment shall be exercised as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act.

Where a Will affecting Real Estate is proved in solemn Form, &c., the Heir and Persons interested in the Real Estate to be cited.

LXI. Where Proceedings are taken under this Act for proving a Will in solemn Form, or for revoking the Probate of a Will, on the Ground of the Invalidity thereof, or where in any other contentious Cause or Matter under this Act the Validity of a Will is disputed, unless in the several Cases aforesaid the Will affects only Personal Estate, the Heir-at-Law, Devisees and other Persons having or pretending Interest in the Real Estate affected by the Will shall, subject to the Provisions of this Act, and to the Rules and Orders under this Act, be cited to see Proceedings, or otherwise summoned in like Manner as the Next of Kin or others having or pretending Interest in the Personal Estate affected by a Will should be cited or summoned, and may be permitted to become Parties, or intervene for their respective Interests in such Real Estate, subject to such Rules and Orders, and to the Discretion of the Court.

Where the Will is proved in solemn Form, or its Validity otherwise decided on, the Decree of the Court to be binding on the Persons interested in the Real Estate.

LXII. Where Probate of such Will is granted after such Proof in solemn Form, or where the Validity of the Will is otherwise declared by the Decree or Order in such contentious Cause or Matter as aforesaid, the Probate, Decree, or Order respectively shall enure for the Benefit of all Persons interested in the Real Estate affected by such Will, and the Probate Copy of such Will, or the Letters of Administration with such Will annexed, or a Copy thereof respectively, stamped with the Seal of Her Majesty's Court of Probate, shall in all Courts, and in all Suits and Proceedings affecting Real Estate, of whatever Tenure, (save Proceedings by way of Appeal under this Act, or for the Revocation of such Probate or Administration,) be received as conclusive Evidence of the Validity and Contents of such Will, in like Manner as a Probate is received in Evidence in Matters relating to the Personal Estate; and where Probate is refused or revoked, on the Ground of the Invalidity of the Will, or the Invalidity of the Will is otherwise declared by Decree or Order under this Act, such Decree or Order shall enure for the Benefit of the Heir-at-Law or other Persons against whose Interest in Real Estate such Will might operate, and such Will shall not be received in Evidence in any Suit or Proceeding in relation to Real Estate, save in any Proceeding by way of Appeal from such Decrees or Orders.

Heir in certain Cases not to be cited, and where not cited not to be affected by Probate.

LXIII. Nothing herein contained shall make it necessary to cite the Heir-at-Law or other Persons having or pretending Interest in the Real Estate of a deceased Person, unless it is shown to the Court and the Court is satisfied that the Deceased was at the Time of his Decease seized of or entitled to or had Power to appoint by Will some Real Estate beneficially, or in any Case where the Will propounded or of which the Validity is in question would not in the Opinion of the Court, though established as to Personalty, affect Real Estate, but in every such Case, and in any other Case in which the Court may, with reference to the Circumstances of the Property of the Deceased or otherwise, think fit, the Court may proceed without citing the Heir or other Persons interested in Real Estate; provided that the Probate, Decree, or Order of the Court shall not in any Case affect the Heir or any Person in respect of his Interest in Real Estate, unless such Heir or Person has been cited or made Party to the Proceedings, or derives Title under or through a Person so cited or made Party.

Probate or Office Copy to LXIV. In any Action at Law or Suit in Equity, where, according to the existing Law, it would be necessary to produce and prove an original Will in order to establish a Devise or other Testamentary Disposition

Probates and Letters of Administration.

Disposition of or affecting Real Estate, it shall be lawful for the Party intending to establish in Proof such Devise or other Testamentary Disposition to give to the opposite Party, Ten Days at least before the Trial or other Proceeding in which the said Proof shall be intended to be adduced, Notice that he intends at the said Trial or other Proceeding to give in Evidence as Proof of the Devise or other Testamentary Disposition the Probate of the said Will or the Letters of Administration with the Will annexed, or a Copy thereof stamped with any Seal of the Court of Probate; and in every such Case such Probate or Letters of Administration, or Copy thereof respectively, stamped as aforesaid, shall be sufficient Evidence of such Will and of its Validity and Contents, notwithstanding the same may not have been proved in solemn Form, or have been otherwise declared valid in a contentious Cause or Matter, as herein provided, unless the Party receiving such Notice shall, within Four Days after such Receipt, give Notice that he disputes the Validity of such Devise or other Testamentary Disposition.

LXV. In every Case in which, in any such Action or Suit, the original Will shall be produced and proved, it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge before whom such Evidence shall be given to direct by which of the Parties the Costs thereof shall be paid.

LXVI. There shall be One Place of Deposit under the Control of the Court of Probate, at such Place in London or Middlesex as Her Majesty may by Order in Council direct, in which all the original Wills brought into the Court or of which Probate or Administration with the Will annexed is granted under this Act in the Principal Registry thereof, and Copies of all Wills the Originals whereof are to be preserved in the District Registries, and such other Documents as the Court may direct, shall be deposited and preserved, and may be inspected under the Control of the Court and subject to the Rules and Orders under this Act.

LXVII. The Judge shall cause to be made from Time to Time in the Principal Registry of the Court of Probate Calendars of the Grants of Probate and Administration in the Principal Registry, and in the several District Registries of the Court, for such Periods as the Judge may think fit, each such Calendar to contain a Note of every Probate or Administration with the Will annexed granted within the Period therein specified, and also a Note of every other Administration granted within the same Period, such respective Notes setting forth the Dates of such Grants, the Registry in which the Grants were made, the Names of the Testators and Intestates, the Place and Time of Death, the Names and Descriptions of the Executors and Administrators, and the Value of the Effects; and the Calendars to be so made shall be printed as the same are from Time to Time completed.

LXVIII. The Registrars shall cause a printed Copy of every Calendar to be transmitted through the Post or otherwise to each of the District Registries, and to the Office of Her Majesty's Prerogative in Dublin, the Office of the Commissary of the County of Midlothian in Edinburgh, and such other Offices, if any, as the Court of Probate shall from Time to Time by Rule or Order direct; and every printed Copy of a Calendar so transmitted as aforesaid shall be kept in the Registry or Office to which it is transmitted, and may be inspected by any Person on Payment of a Fee of One Shilling for each Search, without reference to the Number of Calendars inspected.

LXIX. An official Copy of the whole or any Part of a Will, or an official Certificate of the Grant of any Letters of Administration, may be obtained from the Registry or District Registry where the Will has been proved or the Administration granted, on the Payment of such Fees as shall be fixed for the same by the Rules and Orders under this Act.

LXX. Pending any Suit touching the Validity of the Will of any deceased Person, or for obtaining, recalling, or revoking any Probate or any Grant of Administration, the Court of Probate may appoint an Administrator of the Personal Estate of such deceased Person; and the Administrator so appointed shall have all the Rights and Powers of a General Administrator, other than the Right of distributing the Residue of such Personal Estate; and every such Administrator shall be subject to the immediate Control of the Court, and act under its Direction.

LXXI. It shall be lawful for the Court of Probate to appoint any Administrator appointed as aforesaid or any other Person to be Receiver of the Real Estate of any deceased Person pending any Suit in the Court touching the Validity of any Will of such deceased Person by which his Real Estate may be affected, and such Receiver shall have such Power to receive all Rents and Profits of such Real Estate, and such Powers of letting and managing such Real Estate, as the Court may direct.

LXXII. The Court of Probate may direct that Administrators and Receivers appointed pending Suits involving Matters and Causes Testamentary shall receive out of the Personal and Real Estate of the Deceased such reasonable Remuneration as the Court think fit.

LXXIII. Where a Person has died or shall die wholly intestate as to his Personal Estate, or leaving a Will affecting Personal Estate, but without having appointed an Executor thereof willing and competent to take Probate, or where the Executor shall at the Time of the Death of such Person be resident out of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and it shall appear to the Court to be necessary or convenient in any such Case, by reason of the Insolvency of the Estate of the Deceased, or other special Circumstances, to appoint some Person to be the Administrator of the Personal Estate of the Deceased, or of any Part of such Personal Estate, other than the Person who if this Act had not been passed would by Law have been entitled to a Grant of Administration of such Personal Estate, it shall not be obligatory upon the Court to grant Administration of the Personal Estate of such deceased Person be Evidence of the Will in Suits concerning Real Estate, save where the Validity of the Will is put in issue.

As to Costs of Proof of Will.

to the Person who if this Act had not passed would by Law have been entitled to a Grant thereof, but it shall be lawful for the Court, in its Discretion, to appoint such Person as the Court shall think fit to be such Administrator upon his giving such Security (if any) as the Court shall direct, and every such Administration may be limited as the Court shall think fit.

38 G. 3 c. 87.
Administrators.

LXXIV. The Provisions of an Act passed in the Thirty-eighth Year of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter Eighty-seven, shall apply (in like Manner) to all Cases where Letters of Administration have been granted, and the Person to whom such Administration shall have been granted shall be out of the Jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Courts of Law and Equity.

When Power to sue as an Executor to cease.

LXXV. After any Grant of Administration, no Person shall have Power to sue or prosecute any Suit, or otherwise act as Executor of the Deceased, as to the Personal Estate comprised in or affected by such Grant of Administration, until such Administration shall have been recalled or revoked.

Revocation of temporary Grants not to prejudice Actions or Suits.

LXXVI. Where before the Revocation of any temporary Administration any Proceedings at Law or in Equity have been commenced by or against any Administrator so appointed, the Court in which such Proceedings are pending may order that a Suggestion be made upon the Record of the Revocation of such Administration, and of the Grant of Probate or Administration which shall have been made consequent thereupon, and that the Proceedings shall be continued in the Name of the new Executor or Administrator, in like Manner as if the Proceeding had been originally commenced by or against such new Executor or Administrator, but subject to such Conditions and Variations, if any, as such Court may direct.

Payments under
bates or Ad-
be valid.

LXXVII. Where any Probate or Administration is revoked under this Act, all Payments bonâ fide made to any Executor or Administrator under such Probate or Administration, before the Revocation thereof, shall be a legal Discharge to the Person making the same; and the Executor or Administrator who shall have acted under any such revoked Probate or Administration may retain and reimburse himself in respect of any Payments made by him which the Person to whom Probate or Administration shall be afterwards granted might have lawfully made.

Indemnity to
making Pay-
bates.

LXXVIII. All Persons and Corporations making or permitting to be made any Payment or Transfer bonâ fide, upon any Probate or Letters of Administration granted in respect of the Estate of any deceased Person under the Authority of this Act, shall be indemnified and protected in so doing, notwithstanding any Defect or Circumstance whatsoever affecting the Validity of such Probate or Letters of Administration.

Rights of an Executor re-
bate to cease.

LXXIX. Where any Person, after the Commencement of this Act, renounces Probate of the Will of which he is appointed Executor or One of the Executors, the Rights of such Person in respect of the Executorship shall wholly cease, and the Representation to the Testator and the Administration of his Effects shall and may, without any further Renunciation, go, devolve, and be committed in like Manner as if such Person had not been appointed Executor.

Sureties to Ad-
Bonds.

LXXX. So much of an Act passed in the Twenty-first Year of King Henry the Eighth, Chapter Five, and of an Act passed in the Twenty-second and Twenty-third Years of King Charles the Second, Chapter Ten, and of an Act passed in the First Year of King James the Second, Chapter Seventeen, as requires any Surety, Bond, or other Security to be taken from a Person to whom Administration shall be committed, shall be repealed.

Persons to, whom Grant of Administrations shall be com-
give Bond.

LXXXI. Every Person to whom any Grant of Administration shall be committed shall give Bond to the Judge of the Court of Probate to enure for the Benefit of the Judge for the Time being, and, if the Court of Probate or (in the Case of a Grant from the District Registry) the District Registrar shall require, with One or more Surety or Sureties, conditioned for duly collecting, getting in, and administering the Personal Estate of the Deceased, which Bond shall be in such Form as the Judge shall from Time to Time by any general or special Order direct: Provided that it shall not be necessary for the Solicitor for the Affairs of the Treasury or the Solicitor of the Duchy of Lancaster applying for or obtaining Administration to the Use or Benefit of Her Majesty to give any such Bond as aforesaid.

Penalty on Bonds.

LXXXII. Such Bond shall be in a Penalty of double the Amount under which the Estate and Effects of the Deceased shall be sworn, unless the Court or District Registrar, as the Case may be, shall in any Case think fit to direct the same to be reduced, in which Case it shall be lawful for the Court or District Registrar so to do, and the Court or District Registrar may also direct that more Bonds than One shall be given, so as to limit the Liability of any Surety to such Amount as the Court or District Registrar shall think reasonable.

Power of Court to assign Bond.

LXXXIII. The Court may, on Application made on Motion or Petition in a summary Way, and on being satisfied that the Condition of any such Bond has been broken, order One of the Registrars of the Court to assign the same to some Person, to be named in such Order, and such Person, his Executors or Administrators, shall thereupon be entitled to sue on the said Bond, in his own Name, both at Law and in Equity, as if the same had been originally given to him instead of to the Judge of the Court, and shall be entitled to recover thereon as Trustee for all Persons interested the full Amount recoverable in respect of any Breach of the Condition of the said Bond.

Pending Suits
bate.

LXXXIV. All Suits, whether original or by way of Appeal, which at the Commencement of this Act shall be pending in any Court in England respecting any Grant of Probate or Administration, shall be transferred, with all the Proceedings therein, to the Court of Probate, there to be dealt with and decided decided according to the Rules and Practice of the said Court, except so far as such Court may think it expedient to adopt, for the Purposes of such transferred Suits or any of them, the Rules or Practice of the Court in which the same shall have been pending, to which End the Court of Probate shall, for the Purposes of such Suits, have all the Jurisdiction, Power, and Authority possessed by the Court from which such Suit shall be transferred; but this Enactment shall not apply to Proceedings by way of Appeal pending before Her Majesty in Council, which Proceedings shall be carried on and prosecuted in the same Manner in all respects as if this Act had not passed; and every Person who if this Act had not passed might have appealed to Her Majesty in Council against any Proceeding, Decree, or Sentence of any Court respecting the Grant of any Probate or Administration, may, notwithstanding this Act, appeal to Her Majesty in Council against such Proceeding, Decree, or Sentence: Provided also, that Her Majesty in Council may remit to the Court of Probate any Cause or Proceeding pending by way of Appeal as aforesaid, or to be brought before Her Majesty in Council upon Appeal as aforesaid, with such Directions as the Justice of the Case may require.

Not to apply to Appeals pending before Her Majesty in Council.

LXXXV. Provided, That if at the Commencement of this Act any Cause which would be transferred to the Court of Probate under the Enactment herein-before contained shall have been heard before any Judge having Jurisdiction in relation to such Cause before the Commencement of this Act, and shall be standing for Judgment, such Judge may, at any Time within Six Weeks after the Commencement of this Act, give in to One of the Registrars of the Court a written Judgment thereon, signed by him, and a Decree or Order, as the Case may require, shall be drawn up in pursuance of such Judgment; and every such Decree or Order shall have the same Force and Effect as if it had been drawn up in pursuance of a Judgment of the Court of Probate on the Day on which the same shall so be delivered to the Registrar, and shall be subject to Appeal under this Act.

Power to Judges whose Jurisdiction is determined to deliver written Judgments.

LXXXVI. All Grants of Probates and Administrations made before the Commencement of this Act, which may be void or voidable by reason only that the Courts from which respectively the same were obtained had not Jurisdiction to make such Grants, shall be as valid as if the same had been obtained from Courts entitled to make such Grants: Provided, that any such Grants of Probate or Administration shall not be made valid by this Act when the same shall before the Commencement of this Act have been revoked or determined by any Court of competent Jurisdiction to have been void; nor shall this Act prejudice or affect any Proceedings pending at the Time of the passing of this Act in which the Validity of any such Probate or Administration shall be in question: If the Result of such Proceeding shall be to invalidate the same, such Probate or Administration shall not be rendered valid by this Act; and if such Proceedings abate or become defective by reason of the Death of any Party, any Person who but for this Act would have any Right by reason of the Invalidity of such Probate or Administration shall retain such Right, and may commence Proceedings for enforcing the same within Six Calendar Months after the Death of such Party.

Void and voidable Probates and Administrations.

LXXXVII. Legal Grants of Probate and Administration made before the Commencement of this Act, and Grants of Probate and Administration made legal by this Act, shall have the same Force and Effect as if they had been granted under this Act, but in every such Case there shall be due and payable to Her Majesty such further Stamp Duty, if any, as would have been chargeable on any Probate or Administration which but for this Act would or ought to have been obtained in respect of the Personal Estate not covered by the Grant; and all Inventories and Accounts in respect thereof shall be returnable to the Court of Chancery, and all Bonds taken in respect thereof may be enforced by or under the Authority of the Court of Chancery, at the Discretion of the Court.

Probates and Administrations granted before this Act comes into operation.

LXXXVIII. Provided that where any Probate or Administration has been granted before the Commencement of this Act, and the Deceased had Personal Estate in England not within the Limits of the Jurisdiction of the Court by which the Probate or Administration was granted, or otherwise not within the Operation of the Grant, it shall be lawful for the Court of Probate to grant Probate or Administration only in respect of such Personal Estate not covered by any former Probate or Administration, and such Grant may be limited accordingly.

Probate or Administration may be granted of Personal Estate not affected by the former Grants.

LXXXIX. The Acting Judge and Registrar of every Court, and other Person now having Jurisdiction to grant Probate or Administration, and every Person having the Custody of the Documents and Papers of or belonging to such Court or Person, shall, upon receiving a Requisition for that Purpose, under the Seal of the Court of Probate, from a Registrar, and at the Time and in the Manner mentioned in such Requisition, transmit to the Court of Probate, or to such other Place as in such Requisition shall be specified, all Records, Wills, Grants, Probates, Letters of Administration, Administration Bonds, Notes of Administration, Court Books, Calendars, Deeds, Processes, Acts, Proceedings, Writs, Documents, and every other Instrument relating exclusively or principally to Matters or Causes Testamentary, to be deposited and arranged in the Registry of each District or in the Principal Registry, as the Case may require, so as to be easy of Reference, under the Control and Direction of the Court.

Judges of present Ecclesiastical Courts and others to transmit all Wills, &c. to the Registry.

XC. No Judge, Registrar, or other Person who shall wilfully refuse or neglect so to transmit such Records, Wills, Grants, Probates, Letters of Administration, Administration Bonds, Notes of Administration, Court Books, Calendars, Deeds, Processes, Acts, Proceedings, Writs, Documents, or any other Instrument relating to Matters or Causes Testamentary, shall be entitled to any Compensation under this Act, and every Judge, Registrar, or other Person so refusing or neglecting shall be liable to a Penalty for Default.

Penalty

Probates and Letters of Administration.

Penalty of One hundred Pounds, to be sued for and recovered, together with full Costs of Suit, in any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts, by the Registrars.

Depositories for safe Custody of the Wills of living Persons.

XCI. One or more safe and convenient Depository or Depositories shall be provided, under the Control and Directions of the Court of Probate, for all such Wills of living Persons as shall be deposited therein for safe Custody; and all Persons may deposit their Wills in such Depository upon Payment of such Fees and under such Regulations as the Judge shall from Time to Time by any Order direct.

This Act not to affect the Stamp Duties on Probates and Administrations.

XCII. Nothing in this Act contained shall affect the Stamp Duties now by Law payable upon Probates and Administrations; and all the Clauses, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, and Directions contained in any Act of Parliament relating to the said Duties, and to Wills, Probates of Wills, and Letters of Administration, for securing the said Duties, not superseded by or inconsistent with the express Provisions of this Act, shall be in full Force, and shall be observed, applied, and put in execution for securing the Duties payable on Probates of Wills and Letters of Administration granted under this Act, as if such Duties had been granted by this Act, and the said Clauses, Provisions, Rules, and Regulations relating thereto were herein repeated and specially enacted.

The Registrars to deliver Copies of Wills, &c. to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

XCIII. The Registrars of the Court of Probate shall, within such Period as the Judge shall direct after Probate of any Will or Letters of Administration shall have been granted, deliver or cause to be delivered to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, or their proper Officer, the following Documents respectively; that is to say, in the Case of a Probate or Administration with a Will annexed a Copy of the Will and the original Affidavit, and in the Case of Letters of Administration without a Will annexed such original Affidavit, and in every Case of Letters of Administration a Copy or Extract thereof, and in every Case such Certificate or Note of the Grant as the said Commissioners may require.

Sections 8 and 9 of 53 G. 3. c. 127. repealed in part as to the Court of Probate.

XCIV. 'Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty-third Year of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and twenty-seven, it is enacted, that if any Proctor of any Ecclesiastical Court shall act as such, or permit his Name to be used in any Suit appertaining to the Office of a Proctor, or in obtaining Probates of Wills or Letters of Administration, for or on account or for the Profit or Benefit of any Person not entitled to act as a Proctor, or shall permit any such Person to participate in such Profit or Benefit, such Proctor shall be subject to certain Penalties therein mentioned; and it is also therein further enacted, that if any Person shall, in his own Name, or in that of any other Person, do or perform any Act whatever belonging to the Office of a Proctor in consideration of any Gain, Fee, or Reward, or with a view to participate in the Benefit to be derived from the Office, Functions, or Practice of a Proctor, without being admitted and enrolled, every such Person shall be subject to certain other Penalties therein mentioned: Be it enacted, Nothing in the said Act contained shall prevent any Proctor of the Court of Probate from acting as Agent of any Attorney or Solicitor in relation to any Matter Testamentary, or from allowing him to participate in the Profits of and incident thereto.

Fees to be taken by Officers of Court and by Officers of County Courts.

XCIV. The Lord Chancellor, with such Assistance as is herein-before provided as to Rules and Orders to be made in pursuance of this Act, shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, fix a Table or Tables of Fees to be taken by the Officers of the Court of Probate, and the Proctors, Solicitors, and Attornies practising therein, including the District Registrars, and the Proctors, Solicitors, and Attornies practising in District Registries, and of Fees to be taken by the Officers of the County Courts, in respect of Business under this Act, and of Fees to be payable in respect of Searches, Inspection, and Printed and other Copies of and Extracts from Records, Wills, and other Documents in the Custody or under the Control of the Court of Probate, and the Judge of the Court of Probate, with such Concurrence as is herein-before provided in respect of the Amendment of Rules and Orders, is hereby empowered, from Time to Time after this Act shall come into operation, to add to, reduce, alter, or amend such Table or Tables of Fees, as he may see fit: Provided that such Tables of Fees and every Alteration of the same, except so far as respects the Fees which are to be taken by District Registrars, Proctors, and others, for their own Remuneration and to their own Use, shall be subject to the Approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury; and every such Table of Fees, and every Addition, Reduction, Alteration, or Amendment to, in, or of the same, shall be published in the London Gazette; and no other Fees than those specified and allowed in such Tables of Fees shall be demanded or taken by such Officers, and Proctors, Solicitors, and Attornies.

Taxation of Costs.

XCVI. The Bill of any Proctor, Attorney, or Solicitor, for any Fees, Charges, or Disbursements in respect of any Business transacted in the Court of Probate, whether contentious or otherwise, or any Matters connected therewith, shall, as well between Proctor or Attorney or Solicitor and Client as between Party and Party, be subject to Taxation by any One of the Registrars of the said Court, and the Mode in which any such Bill shall be referred for Taxation, and by whom the Costs of Taxation shall be paid, shall be regulated by the Rules and Orders to be made under this Act, and the Certificate of the Registrar of the Amount at which such Bill is taxed shall be subject to Appeal to the Judge of the said Court.

Fees not to be paid in Money, but by Stamps.

XCVII. None of the Fees payable to the Officers of the Court of Probate, or of any County Court, in respect of Business under this Act, except the Fees of the District Registrars (which are to be taken as their Remuneration, and for their own Use), the Fees of Proctors, Solicitors, and Attornies, and such Fees as may be authorized to be taken for their own Use by Surrogates and Commissioners for administering nistering Oaths, shall be received in Money; but every such Fee shall be collected and received by a Stamp denoting the Amount of the Fee which otherwise would be payable.

XCVIII. The Fees to be collected by means of Stamps under the Provisions of this Act shall be deemed "Stamp Duties," and shall be placed under the Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, to be collected and paid into the Exchequer under the same Laws and Regulations as those made in respect of the other Duties of "Stamps," and the Provisions in the several Acts for the Time being in force relating to Stamps under the Care or Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall in all Cases not hereby expressly provided for be of full Force and Effect with respect to the Stamps to be provided under or by virtue of this Act, and to the Vellum, Parchment, or Paper on or to which the same Stamps shall be impressed or affixed, and be applied and put in execution for collecting and securing the Sums of Money denoted thereby, and for preventing, detecting, and punishing all Frauds, Forgeries, and other Offences relating thereto, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if such Provisions had been herein repeated and specially enacted with reference to the said last-mentioned Stamps and Sums of Money respectively; but a separate and distinct Account of all Money received in respect of the said last-mentioned Stamps for every Year ending the Thirty-first Day of March shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within One Month after the Termination of such Year of Accounts, or, if Parliament be not then sitting, within One Month after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament.

XCIX. No Document which under this Act, and any Table of Fees for the Time being in force under this Act, ought to have a Stamp in respect of such Fee impressed thereon or affixed thereto, shall be received or filed or be used in relation to any Proceeding in the Court of Probate, or be of any Validity for any Purpose whatsoever, unless or until the same shall have the proper Stamp impressed thereon or affixed thereto: Provided that if any Time it shall appear that any such Document has through Mistake or Inadvertence been received, or filed, or used without having such Stamp impressed thereon or affixed thereto, it shall be lawful for the Judge of the Court of Probate, if he think fit, to order that such Stamp shall be impressed thereon or affixed thereto, and thereupon, when a Stamp shall have been impressed on such Document or affixed thereto in compliance with any such Order, such Document and every Proceeding in reference thereto shall be as valid and effectual as if such Stamp had been impressed thereon or affixed thereto in the first instance.

C. If any Officer of the Court of Probate, or any other Person employed under this Act, shall do or commit or connive at any fraudulent Act or Practice in relation to any Stamp to be used under the Provisions of this Act, or to any Fee or Sum of Money to be collected, or which ought to be collected, by means of any such Stamp, or if any such Officer or Person shall be guilty of any wilful Act, Neglect, or Omission whereby any Fee or Money which ought to be collected by means of a Stamp under this Act shall be lost, or the Payment thereof evaded, every such Officer or Person so offending shall be dismissed from his Office or Employment if the Judge of the Court of Probate shall think fit so to order.

CI. The Salary of the Judge of the Court of Probate, and any retiring Annuity granted to a Judge of the Court of Probate under this Act, and all Compensations payable under this Act, shall be charged on and payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom.

CII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, out of such Monies as may be provided and appropriated by Parliament for the Purpose, to cause to be paid all Salaries payable to the Registrars, Clerks, and other Officers under this Act, and all necessary Expenses of the Court of Probate and its Registries, and other Expenses which may be incurred in carrying the Provisions of this Act into effect (except such Salary, retiring Annuity, and Compensations as are herein-before charged on the said Consolidated Fund).

CIII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any Archdeacons, Judges, Deputy Judges, Registrars, Deputy Registrars, and other Persons holding Office in the Courts now exercising Jurisdiction in Matters and Causes Testamentary who may sustain any Loss of Emoluments by reason of the passing of this Act, and who are not transferred or appointed by or under this Act to Offices of equal Value in the Court of Probate, such Compensation as, having regard to the Tenure of their respective Offices and Appointments, and to the Provisions of the Act of the Session holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-seven, Section Twenty-five, and of the Act of the Session holden in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-eight, Section Nine, and the several subsequent Acts continuing the Provisions of the said Acts respectively, the said Commissioners deem just and proper to be awarded: Provided that where Persons whose Claims in respect of Offices, held for Life or otherwise, are excluded by the said Provisions, have executed in Person the Duties of such Offices, the said Provisions shall not be deemed to prevent the said Commissioners from granting to such Persons such Compensation as the said Commissioners would deem just and proper to be awarded on the Abolition or Reduction of the Emoluments of like Offices, if held at the Pleasure of the Crown; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to grant to all managing and other Clerks who have been continuously employed in the Offices of Registrars of the said Courts for Fifteen Years and upwards immediately before the passing of this Act, and may sustain any Loss of Emoluments as aforesaid, and are not transferred or appointed as aforesaid, such Compensation as the said Commissioners Provisions of Acts relating to Stamps to be applicable to Stamps for collecting Fees.

No Document to be received or used unless stamped.

Officers of the Court may be dismissed for Fraud or wilful Neglect in relation to Stamps.

As to Salary of Judge and Compensations.

Salaries, &c. not charged on Consolidated Fund to be paid out of Monies to be provided by Parliament.

Compensation to Registrars, &c. of existing Courts.

Commissioners

sioners may deem just and proper: Provided always, that if any Person to whom any yearly Sum is awarded for Compensation as aforesaid is or shall be appointed to any Office or Situation under this Act, or in the Public Service, the Payment of such Compensation shall be suspended so long as he continues to receive the Salary or Emoluments of such Office or Situation, if the Amount thereof be equal to or greater than the Amount of Emoluments in respect of the Loss whereof Compensation is awarded; and if the Amount of such last-mentioned Emoluments be greater than the Salary or Emoluments of such Office or Situation, no more of such Compensation shall be paid than will, with such Salary or Emoluments, be equal to the Emoluments in respect of the Loss whereof such Compensation is payable.

Persons receiving Compensation to continue to discharge the remaining Duties of their Offices.

Compensation to Proctors.

CIV. Any Person to whom Compensation is awarded under this Act in respect of the Loss of Emoluments of any Office, and who at the passing of this Act shall have been discharging or liable to discharge in respect of such Office Duties other than those in Matters and Causes Testamentary, shall, so long as he shall receive such Compensation, be bound to discharge such other Duties on the same Terms on which, whether gratuitously or otherwise, he discharged or was liable to discharge the same before the passing of this Act.

CV. 'Whereas the Fees or Emoluments of the Persons now practising as Proctors in the Courts now exercising Jurisdiction in Matters and Causes Testamentary may be damaged by the Abolition of the exclusive Rights and Privileges which they have hitherto enjoyed as such Proctors in such Courts: Be it enacted, That the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Examination on Oath or otherwise, which Oath they are hereby authorized to administer, may inquire into and may, by the Production of such Evidence as they shall think fit to require, ascertain and absolutely determine the net annual Amount of the Profits arising from the Transaction of Business by Proctors in Matters and Causes Testamentary, on an average of Five Years immediately preceding the Commencement of this Act, or of such Proportion of Five Years as shall have elapsed since each and every such Proctor was admitted to practise in such Courts, and shall award to each and every such Proctor a Sum of Money or annual Payment during the Term of his natural Life of such Amount as shall be equal in Value to One Half of the net Profits derived by such Proctor in respect of Matters and Causes Testamentary upon the said Average of Five Years immediately preceding the Commencement of this Act, or of such Proportion of the said Five Years as shall have elapsed since the Admission of each and every such Proctor to practise in the Courts now exercising Jurisdiction in Matters and Causes Testamentary.

Compensation to Proctors in Partnership.

CVI. 'And whereas divers Proctors practising in the Courts now exercising Jurisdiction in Matters and Causes Testamentary now are or may at the Commencement of this Act be associated together in Partnership: Be it therefore enacted, That in all such Cases the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall inquire into and ascertain the Terms or Conditions of such Partnerships, and shall absolutely determine and award Compensation in respect thereof as herein-before provided to each of such Partnerships, in like Manner as if all the Emoluments thereof had been derived by One Individual, and shall apportion such Compensation among the Members of each such Partnership, with or without Benefit of Survivorship, Regard being had to the existing Terms and Conditions of the same.

For the Protection of the Interests of Viscount Canterbury.

CVII. 'And whereas the Most Reverend Charles late Archbishop of Canterbury, by virtue of the Power given by an Act of the Ninth Year of King George the Fourth, "to authorize the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the Time being to appoint a Person or Persons to the Office of Registrar of "his Prerogative, without a previous Surrender of the existing Grant or Grants of the said Office," did, by Letters Patent under his Archiepiscopal Seal, dated the Twenty-first Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, with the Confirmation of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Christ, Canterbury, grant the said Office of Registrar of his Prerogative to the Right Honourable Charles Manners Sutton, now Viscount Canterbury, then Charles Manners Sutton, Esquire, the eldest Son and next Heir Male of the Right Honourable Charles Manners Sutton, late Viscount Canterbury, for his Life, subject and without Prejudice to the Estates and Interests, Rights and Privileges, of the Reverend George Moore and Robert Moore (who then held the said Office by virtue of such Grant as therein mentioned), and the Survivor of them: And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for settling and securing Annuities on the Right Honourable Charles Manners Sutton and on his next Heir Male, in consideration of the eminent Services of the said Right Honourable Charles Manners Sutton, it was enacted, that an Annuity of Four thousand Pounds should be payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to the said Right Honourable Charles Manners Sutton late Viscount Canterbury during his Life, and that after the Decease of the said Charles late Viscount Canterbury One Annuity of Three thousand Pounds be payable out of the said Consolidated Fund to the then Heir Male of the Body of the said Charles late Viscount Canterbury, during the natural Life of such Heir Male; and it was further enacted, that, in the event of the said Charles now Viscount Canterbury having succeeded to and being in the Possession of the said Annuity of Three thousand Pounds, and afterwards becoming entitled to the full Possession of the said Office of Registrar of the Prerogative of the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, and to the Fees, Perquisites, Profits, and Emoluments thereof (provided the same should exceed the annual Sum of Three thousand Pounds), then and in either of the Cases aforesaid the said Annuity of Three thousand Pounds should

' cease and determine and be no longer payable to the said Charles now Viscount Canterbury: Provided nevertheless, that if the said Fees, Perquisites, Profits, and Emoluments of the said Office of Registrar should not produce the net annual Sum of Three thousand Pounds to the said Charles now Viscount Canterbury, then there should be issued and paid out of the said Consolidated Fund such a Sum of Money annually as, together with the said Fees, Perquisites, Profits, and Emoluments, would make a clear annual Income to the said Charles now Viscount Canterbury of Three thousand Pounds: And whereas the said Charles now Viscount Canterbury, upon the Decease of the said Charles late Viscount Canterbury, succeeded to and is now in possession of the Annuity of Three thousand Pounds, but he is not yet in possession of the said Office of Registrar: There shall be awarded to the said Charles now Viscount Canterbury, as a Compensation for the Fees, Perquisites, Profits, and Emoluments of the said Office of Registrar of the Prerogative of the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, an Annuity to be calculated upon the average yearly net Receipts of the legal Fees, Perquisites, Profits, and Emoluments of the said Office during such Period next preceding the Time when this Act shall come into operation as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall think proper; and such Annuity shall commence from the Time of this Act coming into operation, if the said Charles Viscount Canterbury shall then be in possession of the said Office, and if not, then from the Time at which the said Charles Viscount Canterbury would have become entitled, but for the passing of this Act, to the full Possession of the said Office, and to the Receipt of the Fees, Perquisites, Profits, and Emoluments thereof, and shall be paid to the said Charles Viscount Canterbury thenceforth during his Life; provided that if the said Annuity by way of Compensation shall exceed the annual Sum of Three thousand Pounds, then the said Annuity of Three thousand Pounds payable under the last-recited Act to the said Charles Viscount Canterbury shall, from and after the Commencement of the said Annuity by way of Compensation, cease and determine, and shall not be payable to the said Charles Viscount Canterbury; and in case the Annuity awarded by way of Compensation shall be less than the net annual Sum of Three thousand Pounds, the Provision contained in the said recited Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Second and Third Years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, for the Payment unto the Heir Male of the Body of the said Charles Viscount Canterbury, out of the said Consolidated Fund, of such a Sum of Money annually as, together with the said Fees, Perquisites, Profits, and Emoluments, would make up a clear Income to him of Three thousand Pounds, shall, from and after the Commencement of the said Annuity by way of Compensation, be applicable to and be in force for the Purpose of making up, together with the said Annuity so to be awarded in lieu of such Fees, Perquisites, Profits, and Emoluments as aforesaid, a clear annual Income of Three thousand Pounds to the said Charles now Viscount Canterbury during his Life.

CVIII. All the Claim, Title, and Interest which at the Time of the passing of this Act the Reverend Robert Moore, Clerk, has or is entitled to in or in respect of the Building at present used as the Public Registry of the Prerogative Court, shall at the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act vest in the Registrars for the Time being of the Court, subject to the Payment of such Rents, and the Performance and Fulfilment of such Contracts in respect thereof, as the said Robert Moore, his Executors or Administrators, shall be subject to at the Time of such vesting.

The Registry of Prerogative Court of Canterbury to vest in Registrars of the Court.

CIX. In case Sir John Dodson, the present Judge of the Prerogative Court of Canterbury and Dean of the Court of Arches, be not appointed the First Judge of the Court of Probate, there shall be paid to him during his natural Life, as well by way of retiring Pension as of Salary as Dean of the Court of Arches, the net yearly Sum of Two thousand Pounds, to commence from the Time appointed for the coming into operation of this Act, and to be paid out of the Fund and in manner herein provided for the Payment of Compensations.

Compensation to Sir J. Dodson in case he be not appointed Judge of Court of Probate.

CX. There shall be a Clerk or so many Clerks in each District Registry, and there shall be paid to such Clerk or Clerks such Salary or respective Salaries, as the Judge of the Court, with the Sanction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, may from Time to Time think fit to direct; and it shall be lawful for such Judge to prescribe from Time to Time the Qualifications which shall be possessed by Persons appointed to be Clerks in such District Registries, and generally to regulate the Establishment of such District Registries with reference to the Duties to be performed therein; and the Clerk or Clerks in each District Registry shall be appointed by the District Registrar, with the Approval of the Judge; and every such Clerk may be removed by such Judge, or by the District Registrar with the Approval of the Judge.

Establishments in District Registries.

CXI. Each District Registrar shall, out of the Fees taken by him in respect of the Business in his respective District Registry, pay the Salary or Salaries of the Clerk or Clerks in such Registry, and the Residue of such Fees shall be retained by such District Registrar to his own Use; and every District Registrar shall keep an Account of all Fees so taken by him as aforesaid, and shall within One Month after the End of each Year render to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury a faithful Account in Writing of all such Fees received by him during such Year: Provided that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, at any Time after the Commencement of this Act, to order that the District Registrars under this Act, or any of them, shall be paid by Salaries instead of Fees, and to fix the Salaries to be payable to them respectively; and thereupon all Fees payable to the District Registrars so ordered to be paid by Salaries shall be accounted for and paid into the Exchequer at such Times and Fees payable to District Registrars.

District Registrars may be paid by Salaries instead of Fees.

under such Regulations as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall direct, and shall be carried to and form Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, and the Salaries of such District Registrars and of their Clerks shall be paid out of such Monies as shall be provided by Parliament for that Purpose, and no such District Registrar shall be deemed to have any Claim to Compensation on account of any Diminution of his Emoluments by reason of any such Order.

Compensation to Clerical Surrogates, &c.

CXII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to every Clerical Surrogate or other Clerical Person who, at the Time of the passing of this Act, shall have been appointed Surrogate in either of the Provinces of Canterbury or York, such Compensation for any Loss the said Surrogates or Persons may sustain by the passing of this Act as the said Commissioners deem just and proper to be awarded; the said Commissioners having regard in awarding such Compensation to the Circumstance of the said Clerical Surrogates not being able to follow any other professional Employment in lieu of the said Office of Surrogate.

Persons receiving Compensation to be liable to be called upon to fill Offices, &c.

CXIII. That every Person to whom any Compensation shall be granted under this Act shall at all Times when called upon be liable to fill any public Office or Situation in England under the Crown for which his previous Services in any Office abolished by this Act may render him eligible; and that if he shall decline when called upon so to do to take upon himself such Office or Situation, and execute the Duties thereof satisfactorily, being in a competent State of Health, he shall forfeit his Right to any Compensation or Allowances which may have been granted to him in respect of such previous Services.

Publication of Accounts.

CXIV. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall cause to be prepared in each Year ending December Thirty-one a Return of all Fees and Monies levied in such Year under the Authority of this Act; also a Return of the annual Salaries of the Judge of the said Court of Probate, and of the Registrars, Deputy Registrars, Clerks, and all others holding Offices either in London or in the Country Districts, with an Account of all the incidental Expenses relating to the Offices aforesaid, whether such Salaries and Expenses be defrayed out of Fees or out of any other Monies; also a Return of all Superannuations, Pensions, Annuities, Retiring Allowances and Compensations made payable under this Act in each Year, stating the gross Amount and the Amount in detail of such Charges: Provided always, that all such Returns aforesaid shall be presented to both Houses of Parliament on or before the Thirty-first Day of March in each Year, if Parliament is then sitting, and if Parliament is not sitting, then such Returns shall be presented within One Month of the First Meeting of Parliament after the Thirty-first Day of March in each Year: Provided also, that every District Registrar shall keep an Account of all Fees so taken by him as aforesaid, and shall within One Month after the End of each Year render to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury a faithful Account in Writing of all such Fees received by him during such Year.

Provision if Judge a Privy Councillor.

CXV. The Judge of the Court if a Privy Councillor shall be a Member of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.

College of Doctors of Law may let, sell, &c. their Real and Personal Estate, and lay out Monies in Purchase of other Estates, &c.

CXVI. And whereas, with reference to the Abolition of the Jurisdiction hereby abolished and otherwise, it is expedient to give, confirm, or extend certain Powers to or of "The College of Doctors of Law exercent in the Ecclesiastical and Admiralty Courts," incorporated under that Style and Title by Letters Patent, dated the Twenty-second Day of June, in the Eighth Year of His late Majesty King George the Third: Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said College from Time to Time hereafter to let, sell, or exchange for other Real or Personal Estate, or both, all or any Part of the Real and Personal Estate which shall for the Time being belong to the said College, either directly or through the Medium of any Trustee or Trustees, and to lay out the Monies to be received on any such Sale or Exchange, or otherwise, belonging to the said College as aforesaid, in the Purchase of other Real or Personal Estate, or both, but so that the said College shall not at any One Time hold or enjoy Real Estate of a yearly Value exceeding One thousand Pounds in the whole, and to pay, apply, and dispose of the Income of all the Real and Personal Estate which shall for the Time being belong to the said College as aforesaid to or for the Benefit of such Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Person or Persons, whether being or including, or not being or including, the said College, and all or any individual Members or Member thereof for the Time being, and generally for such Purposes and in such Manner as the said College shall think fit; and further, to alien and dispose of all or any Part of such Real and Personal Estate, and the Proceeds of any Sale thereof, either by way of Donation, voluntary Disposition, or otherwise, unto, between, or amongst any Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, or any Person or Persons whatsoever, whether being or not being a Member or Members of the said College: Provided always, that no Donation or other voluntary Disposition of the Corpus, or any Part of the Corpus, of the Real and Personal Estate of the said College to any Person or Persons being a Member or Members thereof at the Time of such Donation or other voluntary Disposition shall be effectual without the previous Consent thereto of a Majority of the Members of the said College present at any Meeting of the College, and the Receipt of the Treasurer for the Time being of the said College shall be an effectual Discharge for all gross annual and other Sums which shall for the Time being belong or be payable to the said College.

College may surrender their Charter, and CXVII. It shall be lawful for the said College, at any Time after a Resolution to that Effect shall have been come to at a Meeting of the College, by a Majority of the Members present at such Meeting, to surrender and yield up to Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, at such Time as in such Resolution shall shall be determined, the Charter of Incorporation of the said College, and all Franchises and Privileges thereby conferred, or which shall for the Time being belong to the said College; and upon and by such Surrender the said Corporation shall be dissolved, and shall cease to exist, for all Purposes whatsoever, (except so far as its Existence may be requisite for the Saving of the Rights of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and of all and every Person and Persons, Body and Bodies Politic or Corporate, whatsoever other than the said College,) and all Real and Personal Estate which at the Time of such Dissolution of the said College shall belong to the said College for its own Use and Benefit, either directly or through the Medium of any Trustee or Trustees, shall thenceforth belong, for all the Estate and Interest therein which at the Time of such Dissolution belonged to the said College absolutely, to all the Persons who at the Time of such Dissolution thereof shall be the President and Fellowes of the said College, in equal Shares as Tenants in Common, to and for their own Use and Benefit respectively, but subject to any Charges or Incumbrances affecting the same at the Time of such Dissolution, and all Real and Personal Estate of which the said College at the Time of such Dissolution thereof be seised or possessed, upon any Trust or Trusts, shall thereupon become vested in the Four Persons who at the Time of such Dissolution shall be the President and Three Senior Fellowes of the said College, as joint Tenants, their Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, according to the Nature of the Real and Personal Estates respectively, upon the Trust or Trusts affecting the same respectively.

upon such Surrender shall be dissolved.

CXVIII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, out of such Monies as may be provided and appropriated by Parliament for that Purpose, to cause to be purchased, erected, hired, or otherwise provided such Offices and Buildings as may be suitable for the District Registries and Depository or Depositories for Wills, and such Buildings, if any, as may be necessary for the Court and Principal Registry, in addition to the Building by this Act vested in the said Registrars, or after the Determination of their Interest in such Building.

Treasury to provide the Buildings for Registries, &c.

CXIX. All Rules and Orders to be made under this Act concerning Procedure and Practice, and the Table of Fees to be fixed under this Act, and all Alterations thereof to be from Time to Time made, shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within One Month after the making thereof if Parliament be then sitting, or if Parliament be not then sitting, within One Month after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament.

Rules and Orders to be laid before Parliament.

An Act to amend the Act Seven and Eight Victoria, Chapter One hundred and eleven, for facilitating the winding up the Affairs of Joint Stock Companies unable to meet their pecuniary Engagements, and also the "Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849." [25th August 1857.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Act Seven and Eight Victoria, Chapter One hundred and eleven, intituled An Act for facilitating the winding up the Affairs of Joint Stock Companies unable to meet their pecuniary Engagements, and also to amend the "Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849," and also to make Provision for the more equal Distribution amongst Creditors as well of the Assets to arise from the separate Estates or Contributions of Shareholders in any Company as of the joint Assets thereof: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Judge or Master by Advertisement may call Meetings of Creditors to appoint Representative of Creditors.

I. In all Cases in which an Order heretofore has been or hereafter shall be made for the Dissolution and Winding up or for the winding up of any Company, it shall be lawful for the Judge or Master charged with the winding up of any Company, at the Instance of any Creditor of such Company or otherwise, in all Cases in which it shall appear expedient, and for the Benefit of the Parties interested, in and by the Advertisement for Proof of Debts required by the Seventy-second Section of the "Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Act, 1848," or by subsequent Advertisements, or by Notice transmitted to each of the Creditors by Post, as directed by the said Two before-mentioned Acts, from Time to Time to call upon the Creditors

Joint Stock Companies.

Creditors of the Company to meet before such Judge or Master at such Time and Place as shall be fixed by him, for the Purpose of appointing One or more Person or Persons other than the Official Manager to represent all the Creditors of the said Company in and about the said Proceedings before him, or in and about so many and such of the same Proceedings as to such Judge or Master shall from Time to Time seem expedient; and it shall be lawful for Two Thirds in Value of the Creditors present at such Meetings, whose Debts shall have been proved before the said Judge or Master, or who shall previously to such Meeting have lodged an Affidavit of their Debt before him, and who would be entitled to vote in the Choice of Assignees under a Bankruptcy, by themselves or by some Person authorized by any Letter or Writing under the Hand of such Creditor, and which Letter or Writing shall require no Stamp Duty to be paid thereon, to choose some Person or Persons to represent all the Creditors of any such Company accordingly; and the Proceedings of such Meeting shall be conducted before and by the said Judge or Master in the same Manner as would be the Case if the said Creditors were proceeding to the Election of Assignees in Bankruptcy; provided, that the said Judge or Master may reject any Person or Persons so chosen who shall appear to him unfit to be such Representative or Representatives, or may remove any such Representative or Representatives, and upon such Rejection or Removal a new Choice of a Representative or Representatives shall be made in like Manner; and from and after the issuing of any such Advertisement as aforesaid all the Creditors of the said Company shall be deemed Parties to the Winding-up: Provided always, that in case such Company heretofore has been or hereafter shall be adjudged bankrupt, the Assignees of the Estate and Effects of such Bankrupt Company shall be deemed and taken to be and they are hereby constituted (without such Advertisement or Meeting as herein-before mentioned) the Representatives of the Creditors for the Purposes of this Act, and shall have and exercise the same Rights and Powers as are hereby given to or vested in such Representative or Representatives; and provided also, that if any such Representative or Representatives of the Creditors shall have been chosen or appointed in the Matter of the winding up of any Company before the Appointment of Assignees under the Adjudication of Bankruptcy against the same Company, then upon such Appointment of Assignees the Rights, Powers, and Authorities of such Representative or Representatives shall cease and determine, and the same Rights, Powers, and Authorities shall thereupon become vested in and may lawfully be had and exercised by such Assignees as aforesaid; and such Representative or Representatives shall be entitled to his or their reasonable Costs in the Matter of the winding up of such Company.

II. Whenever any such Company heretofore has been or hereafter shall be declared bankrupt, and no Winding-up Order shall have been made before such Company shall have become bankrupt, the Assignees may, with the Leave of the Court of Bankruptcy first obtained, after Notice to such Creditors, and subject to such Condition (if any) as to obtaining the Consent of Creditors, or any Proportion of them, as the said Court shall think fit to direct, and whether the whole of the Assets of such Company shall have been collected or converted or not, and having regard to the Sufficiency of the Assets of the Company for Payment of the Debts or Liabilities of such Company, and also to the Solvency and Means of the several Shareholders or Members of such Company, or any One or more of them, or to such other Matters as the said Court may deem material, accept and take from all or any or either of the Shareholders or Members of such Company such reasonable Sum or Sums in discharge and satisfaction of the Liability of all and every the Shareholders and Members, or any or either of them, to the Debts and Liabilities of such Company, in such Manner and at such Times as the Assignees for the Time being of the Estate of such Company shall think fit, or make any other Compromise, Composition, or other Arrangement in the Matter; and all such Sum or Sums as shall be payable thereunder shall be paid to and received by the Official Assignee, and shall be applied as Part of the Estate and Effects of such Company; and the said Court shall, at the Request of the Assignees for the Time being of such Company, give to the several Shareholders and Members, or such of them as shall be so discharged, a Certificate under the Hand and Seal of the Commissioner, setting forth the Circumstances of such Discharge, so far as he may deem the same material, and such Certificate shall thenceforth operate to all Intents and Purposes as an absolute Release to the Shareholders and Members to whom the same shall relate, and may be by them pleaded and used in bar and in discharge of any Action, Execution, or other Proceeding by any Creditor whose Debt or Claim is by Law provable under such Bankruptcy; and every such Shareholder and Member shall be entitled, as between himself and the other Shareholders or Members of the Company, to Credit in respect of such Sum or Sums as shall by such Certificate be declared to have been paid by him.

III. It shall be lawful for such Representatives or Representative as herein-before mentioned to join and concur or take part in all the Proceedings in and about the winding up of the said Company, or such of the same Proceedings as the Judge or Master shall deem expedient for the Interest of the Creditors, and also, subject as herein-after is mentioned, and so far as the Creditors of the said Company are concerned, to make or enter into, take part in, consent to, or approve of any Compromise, Composition, or Arbitration or other Arrangement, whether for the Discharge and Satisfaction of the Liability of all and every the Shareholders and Members, or any or either of them, to the Debts and Liabilities of such Company or otherwise, as such Representatives or Representative for the Time being shall think fit, and the Certificate of the Judge or Master shall be deemed and taken as full and sufficient Evidence and Proof of every such Compromise, Composition, Arbitration, or other Arrangement, and of any Discharge or Release which may have been thereby effected; and it shall also be lawful for such Representatives or Representative as herein-before mentioned (subject as aforesaid) to take part in, consent to, or approve of

After such Advertisement, Creditors to be deemed Parties to Winding-up. Assignees of Bankrupt Companies to be such Representatives.

Where Company bankrupt, and no Winding-up Order, Assignees may compromise with Shareholders, so as to bind all the Creditors.

Representatives of Creditors may concur in Proceedings, and in Compromises.

Joint Stock Companies.

of any Compromise, Composition, Arbitration, or other Arrangement which the Official Manager may propose to make or enter into with the Debtors or Creditors of the said Company or otherwise in respect of its Estate or Affairs; and all the Creditors of the said Company, whether their Debts shall have been then proved or not, shall, subject to the Provisions herein-after contained, be fully and effectually bound by the Acts of such Representatives or Representative as to all such Matters as are authorized by this Act.

All Creditors to be bound thereby.

Compromise, &c. to be subject to Consent of Creditors, if required by Judge or Master.

Creditors Rights against Third Persons not to be prejudiced.

IV. No such Compromise, Composition, Arbitration, or other Arrangement as in the last Section mentioned shall be valid as against the Creditors of the Company, unless the same be made with the Consent of such Representatives, and with Leave of the Judge or Master, who shall give Leave to the Official Manager to be heard thereon; and every such Compromise, Composition, Arbitration, or other Arrangement shall be subject to such Conditions (if any) as to Payment of the Costs of any Actions, Suits, or other Proceedings, and as to obtaining the Consent of Creditors or any Proportion of them, as the said Judge or Master shall think fit to direct.

V. No Creditor or Claimant shall be prejudiced or affected by any Compromise, Composition, Arbitration, or other Arrangement herein-before authorized, or by carrying the same into effect, as to his Right or Remedy against any Person other than the Members and Contributories thereof, to whom the same shall relate, nor otherwise than may be provided thereby; and in the event of any such Compromise, Composition, or other Arrangement as mentioned in the Second and Third Sections of this Act being made with the Contributories or alleged Contributories of the said Company, or any or either of them, whereby or in consequence whereof all or any of such Contributories may be or become discharged from further Liability to the Creditors of the said Company, then and thereupon the Creditors of the said Company, as regards their Rights and Remedies against the Persons, Property, and Effects of any Persons who were Shareholders of the said Company at the Times when the respective Debts or Causes of Action of such Creditors arose, shall be in the same Position, and have the same Remedies against such former Shareholders as last aforesaid, their Persons, Property, and Effects, as if such Creditors had obtained Execution on a Judgment Order or Decree for the Amount of their respective Debts against the Persons, Property, and Effects of the Contributories of the said Company who shall be or become so discharged as aforesaid, and had been unable thereby or otherwise to obtain Satisfaction of such Judgment Decree or Order, or Debts, from such Execution or from such Contributories beyond the Amount received by such Creditors respectively on account of his or their Debts out of the Monies so paid or satisfied by the said Contributories or any of them under such Composition, Compromise, or Agreement as aforesaid.

Proceedings under this Act subject to Appeal.

VI. All Orders, Directions, Reports, and other Proceedings of or before the Judge or Master under this Act shall be subject to the Appeals given by the Two aforesaid "Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849;" and all Orders, Directions, Reports, and other Proceedings of or before the Court of Bankruptcy under this Act shall be subject to the Appeals given by the Bankrupt Law Consolidation Act, 1849.

After Advertisements for Representative, Creditors not to sue at Law without Leave of Judge or Master, and Time is not to run against them.

VII. When any such Company heretofore has been or hereafter shall be adjudicated bankrupt, then, if or so soon as Creditors Assignees shall have been appointed, or, when any such Company shall not have been or be adjudicated bankrupt, then after the Judge or Master shall by Advertisement have called on the Creditors to appoint a Representative or Representatives as herein-before mentioned, no such Action as is mentioned in the Seventy-third Section of the said "Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Act, 1848," shall be commenced or proceeded with, otherwise than for the Purpose of making the Company bankrupt, nor shall any Execution or Scire facias be issued or proceeded with against the Person, Property, or Effects of any Member or Members for the Time being of such Company, or any former Member or Members thereof, except by Leave of the Court of Bankruptcy where such Company has been made bankrupt before an Order shall have been made for winding up the Company, or of the said Judge or Master where such Company has not been made bankrupt before such Order shall have been made; and no Time which shall elapse after the Appointment of Creditors Assignees as aforesaid, or after the said Creditors shall be so called on, shall be reckoned as Part of the Time which by virtue of any Statute of Limitations or otherwise is or shall be limited for commencing or prosecuting any Action, Suit, Step, or Proceeding against the Company, or the Persons being Members or Contributories thereof, or any former Members or Contributories thereof, with reference to or in respect of any Debt or Demand which might be discharged or affected by any such Compromise, Composition, Arbitration, or other Arrangement as is herein-before mentioned.

Court may require Security.

VIII. On the Hearing of the Application of any Creditor of any such Company for Leave to commence or proceed with any such Action (otherwise than as aforesaid), or to issue or proceed with a Writ of Scire facias or Execution as aforesaid, it shall be a sufficient Ground for refusing such Leave if the Person against whom or against whose Property or Effects such Action, Scire facias, or Execution shall be sought to be commenced, issued, or proceeded with shall give or shall have given to the Official Assignee, in case such Company shall have been declared bankrupt before an Order shall have been made for winding up the Company, or to the Official Manager in case such Company shall not have been declared bankrupt before such Order shall have been made, Security to the Satisfaction of the Court of Bankruptcy or of the Master or Judge, as the Case may be, for Payment of such Sum or Sums of Money, and upon such Terms, and to be applied in such Manner, as the said Court or the said Master or Judge shall require, having regard to the Debts and Liabilities of such Company and to the Circumstances of the Case, and upon Payment of such Costs as the said Court of Bankruptcy or the said Master or Judge may think fit: Provided always, that such Security to the Official Manager shall be subject to the Consent of the Representative (if any) for the Time being of the Creditors of such Company, or if there shall be no such Representative at the Time of giving such Security, then the same shall be subject to the Consent of the Representative of such Creditors when appointed.

IX. The Provisions contained in the Thirty-eighth, Fortieth, and Forty-eighth Sections of the "Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Act, 1848," shall extend to and comprise Creditors or Persons who have claimed to be Creditors of the said Company as well as Contributories and alleged Contributories; and after the Judge or Master shall have called on the Creditors to appoint a Representative or Representatives, as herein-before mentioned, such Creditors and Persons who have claimed to be Creditors shall be entitled to attend the Proceedings, and to submit such Proposals, and to inspect such Books, as in the said Sections of the said Act are mentioned.

Creditors to be at liberty to attend Proceedings and inspect Books of Company.

X. It shall be lawful for the Judge or Master of the High Court of Chancery in England acting in the winding up of any Company to appoint any Person in Ireland, and it shall be lawful for the Master of the High Court of Chancery in Ireland acting as aforesaid to appoint any Person in England, other than or in addition to the Commissioners, Judges, and other Persons named in the Twentieth Section of "The Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Act, 1849," to be Commissioners for the Purposes and with the same Powers and Authorities as in the said Twentieth Section of the last-mentioned Winding-up Act are named or referred to in that Behalf.

Judge or Master may appoint Commissioners for receiving Evidence.

XI. Nothing in this Act contained shall apply to or affect the Rights and Remedies of any Creditor (unless with his own Consent) under or in respect of any Judgment obtained against any Shareholder in Ireland, which Judgment has been prior to the passing of this Act duly registered in manner required by the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Laws relating to Judgments in Ireland, or who shall have actually levied Execution or taken Proceedings to obtain an Attachment; but no such Creditor claiming to retain the Benefit of such registered Judgment, Execution, or Attachment, and not to be affected by any Compromise under this Act, shall be entitled to receive any further Dividend, or to have recourse to any other Remedy or Proceeding, other than such Right and Remedies as he may have in respect of such Judgment, Execution, or Attachment against the Lands which are affected by the same, until all the other Creditors shall have been paid in full.

Rights of Creditor under Judgment obtained in Ireland not to be affected.

XII. 'And whereas the Dissolution and Winding-up of unincorporated Companies for working Mines within and subject to the Jurisdiction of the Stannaries can now in most Cases be conveniently, cheaply, and expeditiously effected in the Court of the Vice-Warden of the Stannaries: Be it enacted, That no Petition shall hereafter be filed in the Court of Chancery under the Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Acts, 1848, 1849, by any Adventurer or Shareholder in such a Company, except upon special Application to that Court, alleging and showing to the Satisfaction of the Court that the Company cannot be effectually dissolved or wound up in the Court of the Vice-Warden, or unless the Vice-Warden shall certify to the Court of Chancery that the Jurisdiction and Powers of his Court are, under the Circumstances, insufficient effectually to dissolve or wind up the same.

Petitions for winding-up certain Mining Companies not to be filed in Court of Chancery, except upon Application to Court of Stannaries, &c.

XIII. In all Cases where such a Petition shall, upon such Application or Certificate, be filed in the Court of Chancery, the Proof of Debts and Creditors Claims, the Sale of Machinery and other Effects of the Company within the Stannaries, and the Distribution of the Proceeds of such Sales, shall be effected (under the general Direction of the Court of Chancery), but by and through the immediate Agency of the Vice-Warden or Registrar of his Court, unless it shall appear to the Court of Chancery to be more conducive to the Interests or Convenience of Adventurers and Creditors, or to the saving of Time or Expense, that such Proceedings or any of them shall take place in the ordinary Course and Practice of the Court of Chancery under the Winding-up Acts above referred to.

In Cases where such Petitions are filed, Proof of Debts, Sales of Effects, &c., to be effected through Court of Stannaries.

XIV. This Act shall be taken and construed as a Part of the said "Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849."

Act deemed Part of Winding-up Acts.

XV. The Words Shareholder, Member, Contributory, and alleged Contributory shall be severally taken to include all Contributories or alleged Contributories within the Meaning of the said "Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849," and also all Persons who may apprehend or desire to be discharged from Responsibility in respect of the Debts, Liabilities, or Obligations of the Company.

Interpretation of Terms.

XVI. In citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament, and in legal Instruments and in legal Proceedings, it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Amendment Act, 1857."

Short Title of Act.

C A P. LXXIX.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Probates and Letters of Administration in Ireland.

[25th August 1857.]

' WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Law relating to Probates and Letters of Administration, and that all Jurisdiction in relation to the Grant and Revocation of Probates of Wills and Letters of Administration in Ireland should be exercised, in the Name of Her Majesty, by One Court: Be it enacted enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Commencement of Act.

I. This Act (except where otherwise specially provided) shall come into operation on such Day, not sooner than the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, as the Lord Lieutenant shall by Order in Council appoint, provided that such Order shall be made One Month at least previously to the Day so to be appointed.

Interpretation of Terms.

II. In the Construction of this Act, unless the Context be inconsistent with the Meaning hereby assigned—

“Will” shall comprehend “Testament” and all other Testamentary Instruments of which Probate may now be granted:

“Administration” shall comprehend all Letters of Administration of the Effects of deceased Persons, whether with or without the Will annexed, and whether granted for general, special, or limited Purposes:

“Matters and Causes Testamentary” shall comprehend all Matters and Causes relating to the Grant and Revocation of Probate of Wills or of Administration:

“Common Form Business” shall mean the Business of obtaining Probate and Administration where there is no Contention as to the Right thereto, including the passing of Probates and Administrations through the Court of Probate in contentious Cases when the Contest is terminated, and all Business of a non-contentious Nature to be taken in the Court in Matters of Testacy and Intestacy, not being Proceedings in any Suit, and also the Business of lodging Caveats against the Grant of Probate or Administration:

“The Court” shall mean Her Majesty's Court of Probate hereby established, and shall also include the Judge of the said Court:

“The Judge” shall mean the Judge of the said Court:

“The Court of Chancery” shall mean the High Court of Chancery in Ireland:

“Accountant General” shall mean the Accountant General in the High Court of Chancery in Ireland:

“The Prerogative Court” shall mean Her Majesty's Court of Prerogative in Ireland:

“Lord Chancellor” shall comprehend the Lord Chancellor and Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Ireland for the Time being:

“Lord Lieutenant” shall include the Lords Justices or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland:

“Person” shall mean a Body Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, as well as an Individual:

“Superior Courts” shall mean Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Record at Dublin:

“The Testamentary Office” shall mean the Public Registry attached or belonging to Her Majesty's Court of Probate under this Act, and the Offices connected therewith:

“The District Office” shall mean the Public Registry attaching or belonging to Her Majesty's Court of Probate in each District hereby established:

“The Registrar” shall mean the Principal Registrar and other Registrars of the Testamentary Office:

“District Registrar” shall mean the Registrar of each District Office hereby established.

III. This Act may be cited as “The Probates and Letters of Administration Act (Ireland), 1857.”

IV. This Act shall not extend to England or Scotland, except where expressly mentioned.

V. The voluntary and contentious Jurisdiction and Authority of all Ecclesiastical, Royal Peculiar, Peculiar, Manorial, and other Courts and Persons in Ireland, now having Jurisdiction or Authority to grant or revoke Probate of Wills or Letters of Administration of the Effects of deceased Persons, shall in respect of such Matters absolutely cease; and no Jurisdiction or Authority in relation to any Matters or Causes Testamentary, or to any Matter arising out of or connected with the Grant or Revocation of Probate or Administration, shall belong to or be exercised by any such Court or Person.

VI. The voluntary and contentious Jurisdiction and Authority in relation to the granting or revoking Probate of Wills and Letters of Administration of the Effects of deceased Persons now vested in or which can be exercised by any Court or Person in Ireland, together with full Authority to hear and determine all Questions relating to Matters and Causes Testamentary, shall belong to and be vested in Her Majesty, and shall, except as herein-after is mentioned, be exercised in the Name of Her Majesty in a Court to be called “The Court of Probate,” and to hold its ordinary Sittings and to have its Principal Registry at such Place or Places in Dublin as the Lord Lieutenant in Council shall from Time to Time appoint.

VII. There shall be One Judge of Her Majesty's Court of Probate; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty from Time to Time, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Ireland, to appoint a Person, being or having been a Barrister-at-Law of Fifteen Years Standing, to be such Judge: Provided, that the Person who, at the Time of the passing of this Act, may be the Judge of the Prerogative Court, shall be the First Judge of Her Majesty's Court of Probate; and provided, that no Person holding the said Office of Judge shall be capable of being elected or being a Member of the present or any future House of Commons.

Probates and Letters of Administration (Ireland).

VIII. The Judge shall hold his Office during good Behaviour, provided that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to remove any such Judge from his Office upon an Address of both Houses of Parliament.

IX. Every Judge of the Court shall, before executing any of the Duties of his Office, take the following Oath, which the Lord Chancellor or the Master of the Rolls in Ireland for the Time being is hereby respectively authorized and required to administer:

‘ I A.B. do solemnly and sincerely promise and swear, That I will duly and faithfully, and to the best of my Skill and Power, execute the Office of Judge of the Court of Probate: So help me GOD.’

X. The Judge shall have Rank and Precedence with the Puisne Judges of Her Majesty’s Superior Courts according to the Date of his Appointment; and he shall have a Secretary and Usher, to be from Time to Time appointed and removed by him at his Pleasure.

XI. The Judge shall be One of “The Commissioners of Charitable Donations and Bequests for Ireland,” under Statute Seventh and Eighth Victoria, Chapter Ninety-seven, in lieu of “The Judge of Her Majesty’s Court of Prerogative for Causes Ecclesiastical and Court of Faculties in and throughout Ireland.”

XII. There shall be paid to the Judge the net yearly Salary of Three thousand five hundred Pounds, and to his Secretary the net yearly Salary of Three hundred Pounds, and to his Usher the net yearly Salary of Seventy-five Pounds.

XIII. From and after the Period at which this Act shall come into operation, so much of the Statute passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of King George the Fourth, Chapter Forty-four, as relates to the Payment of a Salary of Three thousand Pounds to the Judge of the Prerogative Court and Court of Faculties in Ireland shall be and is hereby repealed.

XIV. Upon the next Vacancy in the Office of Judge of the High Court of Admiralty in Ireland, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if She so think fit, to appoint the Person then being Judge of the Court of Probate to be also Judge of the said Court of Admiralty, and after the Union of the said Two Offices they shall be thenceforth held by the same Person.

XV. Her Majesty, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, may grant unto any Person executing the Office of Judge of Her Majesty’s Court of Probate an Annuity, not exceeding Two thousand three hundred and thirty-three Pounds Six Shillings and Eightpence, to commence immediately after the Day when the Person to whom such Annuity shall be granted shall resign the said Office or Offices, and to continue during his natural Life; provided that Her Majesty may, in and by such Letters Patent, limit the Duration of Payment of such Annuity, or any Part thereof, to such Periods of Time during the natural Life of such Person in which he shall not exercise any Office of Profit under Her Majesty, so that such Annuity, together with the Salary and Profits of such other Office, shall together not exceed in the whole the said Sum of Two thousand three hundred and thirty-three Pounds Six Shillings and Eightpence: Provided also, that no Annuity granted to any Person having executed the Office of Judge under this Act, except the present Judge of the Prerogative Court, shall be valid unless such Person shall have held such Office for the Period of Fifteen Years, or have held such Office and any of the Offices of Judge in any of the Superior Courts of Law or Equity for Periods amounting together to Fifteen Years, or shall be afflicted with some permanent Infirmary disabling him from the due Execution of his Office, which shall be distinctly recited in the said Grant.

XVI. There shall be established for each of the Districts specified in Schedule (A.) to this Act, and at the Places respectively mentioned in such Schedule, a Public Registry attached to and under the Control of the Court of Probate, herein-after referred to as “The District Registry.”

XVII. It shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant in Council from Time to Time to alter the said Districts or any One or more of them, and add to or reduce the Number thereof, and to direct that the District Registry shall be held at such Place within the District as to the Lord Lieutenant in Council shall appear most convenient and suitable.

XVIII. There shall be Two Registrars, One Record Keeper, and One Clerk of the Seal for the Principal Registry of the Court of Probate, and there shall be One District Registrar for each District Registry, herein-after referred to as the District Registrar, and there shall be so many Clerks and other Officers for the Court and the Principal Registry as the Judge of the Court, with the Sanction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury, may from Time to Time think fit: Provided, that if at any Time it appear to the Lord Lieutenant in Council that the Duties of the Registrars of the Principal Registry of the Court of Probate can be performed by One Registrar, it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant by Order in Council to direct that the Number of Registrars for such Principal Registry be reduced accordingly.

XIX. Maurice Keatinge, One of the present Deputy Registrars of the Prerogative Court, and William Wiley, Esquire, LL.D., One of the Advocates in the said Prerogative Court, shall be the First Registrars of the Principal Registry of the Court of Probate; the present Clerk of the Records of the said Prerogative Court shall be the First Record Keeper at the said Principal Registry; and the present Senior Clerk and Clerk of the Seal of the said Prerogative Court shall, if willing to accept the Office, be the First Clerk of the Seal at the said Principal Registry.

XX. Such of the other Clerks and Officers now employed in the said Prerogative Court (whose Services shall be necessary) shall be transferred to such Situations in the Court of Probate and the

to be transferred to like Offices in Court of Probate. Principal Registry thereof as the Judge may in that Behalf direct, so that their Duties may be such as, in the Opinion of the said Judge, may be as nearly as possible similar to those which they have heretofore discharged in the said Prerogative Court: Provided always, that no such Clerk or other Officer shall be so transferred whom the Judge shall consider to be from Age, Infirmity, or other Cause incompetent to the Discharge of his Duties.

Existing Diocesan Registrars to be entitled to be appointed District Registrars at the same Places. XXI. The Registrar or Deputy Registrar (as the Case may be) now executing in Person the Duties of Registrar of a Diocesan or other Court within the District which a District Registry is to be established under this Act, or where there is more than One such Registrar or Deputy Registrar so acting such One of them as the Judge shall select, shall be appointed the First District Registrar for such District, save where the Judge shall consider such Registrar or Deputy Registrar, or all such Registrars or Deputy Registrars if more than One, to be from Age, Infirmity, or other Cause incompetent to the Discharge of the Duties of District Registrar.

Clerk of Peace to be appointed District Registrar in certain Cases. XXII. In case there shall be no Person competent to fill the Office of District Registrar for any District within the Meaning of the last preceding Section, and also on the Death, Resignation, or Removal of any Person appointed to fill such Office, the Judge shall appoint the Clerk of the Peace for the County or County of a City in which the District Registry is situate, or if he shall be from any Cause incompetent or shall be removed then some other Clerk of the Peace within the District, to be the District Registrar, and the Office of such Clerk of the Peace shall be the District Registry.

As to Appointment to Offices. Salaries of Officers. XXIII. The Registrars and other Officers of the Court of Probate, except as herein-before provided, shall be appointed by the Judge, but subject to the Approval of the Lord Chancellor: There shall be paid to the several Officers mentioned in Schedule B. to this Act, the several Salaries set opposite to their respective Titles in the same Schedule, and the said District Registrars shall, as the Remuneration for the Performance of their Duties under this Act, including the Services of any Clerks they may employ, be entitled to take in respect of the Business in their respective District Registries such Fees as shall be fixed as herein-after provided; and, except as aforesaid, there shall be paid to the several Clerks and other Officers appointed under this Act such Salaries or other Remuneration as the Judge, with the Approval of the Lord Chancellor and the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall from Time to Time in each Case direct.

Tenure of Office of Officers. XXIV. The Registrars and District Registrars shall hold their Offices during good Behaviour, subject to be removed by Order of the Lord Chancellor for some reasonable Cause to be in such Order expressed; and the other Officers of the Court may be removed by the Judge, with the Sanction of the Lord Chancellor.

Qualification of Registrars and District Registrars. XXV. No Person shall be appointed a Registrar who shall not be or have been an Advocate, Barrister-at-Law, Proctor, Solicitor, or Attorney-at-Law, unless at the Time of the passing of this Act he is performing in Person the Duties of Registrar or Deputy Registrar of some Ecclesiastical Court in Ireland.

Officers to perform Duties in Person, Registrars, &c. not to act as Proctors, &c. XXVI. All Registrars, District Registrars, Officers, and Clerks of the Court shall execute their respective Offices in Person, and not by Deputy; and no Registrar of the Principal Registry of the Court, nor any Officer or Clerk in the Principal Registry thereof, shall during the Time of his holding such Office directly or indirectly practise as an Advocate, Barrister, Proctor, Solicitor, or Attorney, or receive or participate in the Fees of any other Person so practising.

Power to Judge to cause Seals of the Court to be provided. XXVII. The Judge shall cause to be made Seals for the Court of Probate, that is to say, One Seal to be used in its Principal Registry, and separate Seals to be used in the several District Registries, and may cause the same respectively from Time to Time to be broken, altered, and renewed at his Discretion; and all Probates, Letters of Administration, Orders, and other Instruments, and Exemplifications and Copies thereof respectively, purporting to be sealed with any Seal of the Court of Probate, shall in all Parts of the United Kingdom be received in Evidence without further Proof thereof.

The Court to have throughout all Ireland the same Powers as the Prerogative Court. XXVIII. The Court shall be a Court of Record, and shall have the same Powers, and its Grants and Orders shall have the same Effect, throughout all Ireland, and in relation to the Personal Estate in all Parts of Ireland of deceased Persons, as the Prerogative Court and its Grants and Orders respectively now have in relation to those Matters and Causes Testamentary and those Effects of deceased Persons which are within the Jurisdiction of the said Prerogative Court; and all Duties which, by Statute or otherwise, are imposed on or should be performed by Ordinaries generally, or on or by the said Prerogative Court, in respect of Probates, Administrations, or Matters or Causes Testamentary within their respective Jurisdictions, shall be performed by the Court of Probate: Provided that no Suits for Legacies, or Suits for the Distribution of Residues, shall be entertained by the Court, or by any Court or Person whose Jurisdiction as to Matters and Causes Testamentary is hereby abolished.

Suits for Legacies, &c. not to be entertained. Power to examine Witnesses. XXIX. The Court may require the Attendance of any Party in Person, or of any Person whom it may think fit to examine or cause to be examined in any Suit or other Proceeding in respect of Matters or Causes Testamentary, or may examine or cause to be examined upon Oath or Affirmation, as the Case may require, Parties and Witnesses by Word of Mouth, and may, either before or after or with or without such Examination, cause them or any of them to be examined on Interrogatories, or receive their or any of their Affidavits or solemn Affirmations, as the Case may be; and the Court may by Writ require such Attendance, and order to be produced before itself or otherwise any Deeds, Evidences, or Writings,

As to Production of Deeds, &c.

Probates and Letters of Administration (Ireland).

Writings, in the same Form, or nearly as may be, as that in which a Writ of Subpœna ad testificandum, or of Subpœna duces tecum, is now issued by any of the Superior Courts of Law; and every Person disobeying any such Writ shall be considered as in Contempt of the Court, and also be liable to forfeit a Sum not exceeding One hundred Pounds.

XXX. The Court shall have the like Powers, Jurisdiction, and Authority for enforcing the Attendance of Persons required by it as aforesaid, and for punishing Persons failing, neglecting, or refusing to produce Deeds, Evidences, or Writings, or refusing to appear or to be sworn, or make Affirmation or Declaration, or to give Evidence, or guilty of Contempt, and generally for enforcing all Orders, Decrees, and Judgments made or given by the Court under this Act, and otherwise in relation to the Matters to be inquired into and done by or under the Orders of the Court under this Act, as are by Law vested in the Court of Chancery for such Purposes in relation to any Suit or Matter depending in such Court.

XXXI. The Court may, on Motion or Petition, or otherwise, in a summary Way, whether any Suit or other Proceeding shall or shall not be pending in the Court with respect to any Probate or Administration, order any Person to produce and bring into the Principal or any District Registry, or otherwise as the Court may direct, any Paper or Writing being or purporting to be testamentary, which may be shown to be in the Possession or under the Control of such Person; and if it be not shown that any such Paper or Writing is in the Possession or under the Control of such Person, but it shall appear that there are reasonable Grounds for believing that he has the Knowledge of any such Paper or Writing, the Court may direct such Person to attend for the Purpose of being examined in open Court, or upon Interrogatories respecting the same, and such Person shall be bound to answer such Questions or Interrogatories, and, if so ordered, to produce and bring in such Paper or Writing, and shall be subject to the like Process of Contempt in case of Default in not attending or in not answering such Questions or Interrogatories, or not bringing in such Paper or Writing, as he would have been subject to in case he had been a Party to a Suit in the Court and had made such Default; and the Costs of any such Motion, Petition, or other Proceeding shall be in the Discretion of the Court.

XXXII. The Registrars and District Registrars shall respectively have full Power to administer Oaths; and all Persons who at the Commencement of this Act shall be acting as Surrogates of any Ecclesiastical Court, and any other Persons whom the Judge shall, under the Seal of the Court, from Time to Time appoint, shall respectively have full Power to administer Oaths and perform such other Duties in reference to Matters and Causes Testamentary as may be assigned to them from Time to Time by the Rules and Orders under this Act; and the Persons so appointed shall be styled "Commissioners of Her Majesty's Court of Probate:" Provided, that any Party required to be examined, or any Person called as a Witness or required or desiring to make an Affidavit or Deposition under or for the Purposes of this Act, shall be permitted to make his solemn Affirmation or Declaration instead of being sworn, in the Circumstances and Manner in which a Person called as a Witness so desiring to make an Affidavit or Deposition in any of the Superior Courts would now be permitted so to do; and any Person who shall wilfully give false Evidence, or who shall wilfully swear, affirm, or declare falsely in any Affidavit or Deposition before the Court of Probate, or before any Registrar, District Registrar, or Commissioner of the Court, shall be liable to the Penalties and Consequences of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

XXXIII. If any Person forge the Signature of any Registrar, District Registrar, or Commissioner for taking Oaths, or forge or counterfeit any Seal of the Court of Probate, or knowingly use or concur in using any such forged or counterfeit Signature or Seal, or tender in Evidence any Document with a false or counterfeit Signature of such Registrar, District Registrar, or Commissioner, or with a false or counterfeit Seal, knowing the same Signature or Seal to be false or counterfeit, every such Person shall be guilty of Felony, and shall upon Conviction be liable to Penal Servitude for the Term of his Life or any Term not less than Seven Years, or to Imprisonment for any Term not exceeding Three Years with or without Hard Labour.

XXXIV. The Practice of the Court of Probate shall, except where otherwise provided by this Act, or by the Rules or Orders to be from Time to Time made under this Act, be, so far as the Circumstances of the Case will admit, according to the present Practice in the Prerogative Court.

XXXV. And to the Intent and End that the Procedure and Practice of the Court may be of the most simple and expeditious Character, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, at any Time after the passing of this Act, with the Advice and Assistance of the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench, or any One of the Judges of the Superior Courts of Law to be by such Chief Justice named in that Behalf, and of the Judge of the said Prerogative Court, to make Rules and Orders, to take effect when this Act shall come into operation, for regulating the Procedure and Practice of the Court, and the Duties of the Registrars, District Registrars, and other Officers thereof, and for determining what shall be deemed contentious and what shall be deemed non-contentious Business, and, subject to the express Provisions of this Act, for fixing and regulating the Time and Manner of appealing from the Decisions of the said Court, and generally for carrying the Provisions of this Act into effect; and, after the Time when this Act shall come into operation, it shall be lawful for the Judge of the Court of Probate from Time to Time, with the Concurrence of the Lord Chancellor and the said

Powers of the Court to enforce Orders.

Order to produce any Instrument purporting to be testamentary.

Registrars, &c. to have Power to administer Oaths.

Power to appoint, also, Commissioners to administer Oaths, &c.

Penalty on forging or counterfeiting Seals or Signatures of Officers.

Practice of the Court.

Rules and Orders to be made for regulating the Procedure of the Court.

Probates and Letters of Administration (Ireland).

Lord Chief Justice, or any One of the Judges of the Superior Courts of Law to be by such Chief Justice named in this Behalf, to repeal, amend, or alter any such Rules and Orders, or make other Orders in lieu thereof, as to him, with such Concurrence as aforesaid, may seem fit.

Mode of taking Evidence in contentious Matters.

XXXVI. Subject to the Regulations to be established by such Rules and Orders as aforesaid, the Witnesses, and where necessary the Parties, in all contentious Matters where their Attendance can be had, shall be examined orally by or before the Judge in open Court: Provided always, that, subject to any such Regulations as aforesaid, the Parties shall be at liberty to verify their respective Cases, in whole or in part, by Affidavit, but so that the Deponent in every such Affidavit shall, on the Application of the opposite Party, be subject to be cross-examined by or on behalf of such opposite Party, orally in open Court as aforesaid, and after such Cross-examination may be re-examined orally in open Court as aforesaid by or on behalf of the Party by whom such Affidavit was filed.

Court may issue Commissions or give Orders for Examination of Witnesses abroad, or unable to attend.

3 & 4 Vict. c. 105.

XXXVII. Provided, That where a Witness in any such Matter is out of the Jurisdiction of the Court, or where, by reason of his Illness or otherwise, the Court shall not think fit to enforce the Attendance of the Witness in open Court, it shall be lawful for the Court to order a Commission to issue for the Examination of such Witness on Oath, upon Interrogatories or otherwise, or if the Witness be within the Jurisdiction of the Court to order the Examination of such Witness on Oath, upon Interrogatories or otherwise, before any Officer of the said Court, or other Person to be named in such Order for the Purpose; and all the Powers given to the Courts of Law at Dublin by the Act of the Session of Parliament held in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter One hundred and five, for enabling the Courts of Law at Dublin to issue Commissions and give Orders for the Examination of Witnesses in Actions depending in such Courts, and to enforce such Examination, and all the Provisions of the said Acts, and of any other Acts for enforcing or otherwise applicable to such Examination, and the Witnesses examined, shall extend and be applicable to the said Court of Probate and to the Examination of Witnesses under the Commissions and Orders of the said Court, and to the Witnesses examined, as if such Court were One of the Courts of Law at Dublin, and the Matter before it were an Action pending in such Court.

What Rules of Evidence to be observed.

Common Law Judges may sit.

XXXVIII. The Rules of Evidence observed in the Superior Courts of Common Law shall be applicable to and observed in the Trial of all Questions of Fact in the Court of Probate.

XXXIX. It shall be lawful for the Judge of the Court to sit, with the Assistance of any Judge or Judges of any of the Superior Courts of Law, who, upon the Request of the Lord Chancellor, may find it convenient to attend for that Purpose.

Provision in case of Absence of Judge, &c.

XL. In case of Illness or unavoidable Absence of the Judge, or in any Suit or Matter in which the Judge, his Wife, or Child, or any Member of his Family, shall have an Interest, such other Judge of any of the Superior Courts of Law who, on the Request of the Lord Chancellor, shall find it convenient to attend, may sit for the Judge of the Court and exercise all his Powers.

Court may cause Questions of Fact to be tried by a Jury before itself, or direct an Issue to a Court of Law.

XLI. It shall be lawful for the Court of Probate to cause any Question of Fact arising in any Suit or Proceeding under this Act to be tried by a Special or Common Jury before the Court itself, or by means of an Issue to be directed to any of the Superior Courts of Common Law, in the same Manner as an Issue may now be directed by the Court of Chancery, and such Question shall be so tried by a Jury in any Case where an Heir-at-Law, cited or otherwise made Party to the Suit or Proceeding, makes Application to the Court of Probate for that Purpose; and in any other Case where all the Parties to the Suit or Proceeding concur in such an Application, and where any Party or Parties other than such Heir-at-Law make a like Application (the other Party or Parties not concurring therein), and the Court shall refuse to cause such Question to be tried by a Jury, such Refusal of the Court shall be subject to Appeal as herein provided.

Powers of the Court for the Trial of Questions by a Jury.

XLII. When the Court shall order a Question of Fact to be tried before itself by a Jury, the Court may make all such Rules and Orders upon the Sheriff or any other Person for procuring the Attendance of a Special or Common Jury for the Trial of such Question as may now be made by any of the Superior Courts of Common Law at Dublin, and may also make any other Orders which to such Court may seem requisite; and every such Jury shall consist of Persons possessing the like Qualifications, and shall be struck, summoned, balloted for, and called in like Manner as if such Jury were a Jury for the Trial of any Cause in any of the said Superior Courts; and every Juryman so summoned shall be entitled to the same Rights and subject to the same Duties and Liabilities as if he had been duly summoned for the Trial of any such Cause in any of the said Superior Courts; and every Party to any such Proceeding shall be entitled to the same Rights as to Challenge and otherwise as if he were a Party to any such Cause; and generally for all Purposes of or auxiliary to the Trial of Questions of Fact by a Jury before the Court itself, and in respect of new Trials thereof, and also for all Purposes in relation to or consequential upon the Direction of Issues, the Court of Probate shall have the same Jurisdiction, Powers, and Authority in all respects as belong to any Superior Court of Common Law, or to any Judge thereof, or to the High Court of Chancery, or any Judge thereof, for the like Purposes.

Question to be stated, and Jury sworn to try it.

XLIII. When any such Question shall be so ordered to be tried by a Jury before the Court itself, such Question shall be reduced into Writing in such Form as the Court shall direct, and at the Trial the Jury shall be sworn to try the said Question, and a true Verdict to give thereon according to the Evidence; and and upon every such Trial the Court of Probate shall have the same Powers, Jurisdiction, and Authority as belong to any Judge of any of the said Superior Courts sitting at Nisi Prius. Authority of Court on Trial.

XLIV. Where the Court of Probate directs an Issue, it shall be lawful for such Court to direct such Issue to be tried in any Court of Common Law, and either before a Judge of Assize in any County or at the Sittings for the Trial of Causes in Dublin, and either by a Special or Common Jury, in like Manner as is now done by the Court of Chancery. Court may direct Issues to try any Fact.

XLV. Any Person considering himself aggrieved by any final or interlocutory Decree or Order of the Court of Probate may appeal therefrom to the Court of Appeal in Chancery, and thence to the House of Lords: Provided always, that no Appeal from any interlocutory Order of the Court of Probate shall be made without Leave of the Court of Probate first obtained, but on the Hearing of an Appeal from any final Decree all interlocutory Orders complained of shall be considered as under Appeal as well as the final Decree. Appeal to the House of Lords.

XLVI. All Persons who at the Time of the passing of this Act have been admitted Advocates in the Prerogative Court, and all Barristers-at-Law, shall be entitled to practise as Advocates or Counsel in all Matters and Causes in the said Court. Advocates and Barristers may practise.

XLVII. Every Person who at the Time of the passing of this Act is actually admitted and practising as a Proctor in the Prerogative Court may, upon his Application, at any Time within One Year after the passing of this Act, be admitted a Proctor of the Court of Probate, without Payment of any Fee or Stamp Duty. Proctors admitted to practise.

XLVIII. Every Person who at the Time of the passing of this Act is actually admitted and practising as a Proctor of the Court of Prerogative or any other Ecclesiastical Court in Ireland may, within One Year after the passing of this Act, be admitted, without the Payment of any Stamp Duty, Fee, Charge, or Gratuity whatsoever, as a Solicitor of the High Court of Chancery, upon the Production of his Appointment or Admission as such Registrar, Deputy Registrar, or Proctor, or an Official Certificate thereof; and upon the Production of an Official Certificate that such Appointment or Admission continued in force at the Time of the passing of this Act, and upon signing the Roll of Solicitors of the High Court of Chancery, but not otherwise, such Person shall be entitled to be admitted as a Solicitor of such Court, and to be afterwards in like Manner admitted and enrolled as an Attorney of Her Majesty's Superior Courts. Admission of Proctors as Solicitors.

XLIX. All Persons now or hereafter admitted to practise in any Ecclesiastical Court in Ireland, and all Solicitors and Attornies-at-Law, may practise in the Court, and the Laws and Statutes now in force concerning Solicitors and Attornies shall extend to Solicitors and Attornies practising in the Court: The Commissioners for taking Oaths in the High Court of Chancery shall be Commissioners for taking Oaths in the Court. Practitioners.

L. Probate of a Will or Letters of Administration may, upon Application for that Purpose to the District Registry, be granted in Common Form by the District Registrar in the Name of the Court of Probate and under the Seal appointed to be used in such District Registry, if it shall appear by Affidavit of the Person or some or One of the Persons applying for the same that the Testator or Intestate, as the Case may be, at the Time of his Death had a fixed Place of Abode within the District in which the Application is made, such Place of Abode being stated in the Affidavit; and all Grants of Probate and Letters of Administration granted by such District Registrars shall be deemed Grants by the Court, and shall have effect over the Personal Estate of the Deceased in all Parts of Ireland accordingly. When Probates and Administration may be granted by District Registrars.

LI. Such Affidavit shall be conclusive for the Purpose of authorizing the Grant, by the District Registrar, of Probate or Administration; and no such Grant of Probate or Administration shall be liable to be recalled, revoked, or otherwise impeached by reason that the Testator or Intestate had no fixed Place of Abode within the District at the Time of his Death; and every Probate and Administration granted by any such District Registrar shall effectually discharge and protect all Persons paying to or dealing with any Executor or Administrator thereunder, notwithstanding the Want of or Defect in such Affidavit as is hereby required. Affidavit to be conclusive for authorizing Grant of Probate.

LII. The District Registrar shall not grant Probate or Administration in any Case in which there is Contention as to the Grant until such Contention is terminated or disposed of by Decree or otherwise, or in which it otherwise appears to him that Probate or Administration ought not to be granted in Common Form. District Registrars not to make Grants where there is Contention, &c.

LIII. Notice of every Application to any District Registrar for the Grant of Probate or Administration shall be transmitted by such District Registrar to the Registrars of the Principal Registry by the next Post after such Application shall have been made; and such Notice shall specify the Name and Description, or Addition (if any), of the Testator or Intestate, the Time of his Death, and the Place of his Abode at his Decease, as stated in the Affidavit made in support of such Application, and the Name of the Person by whom the Application has been made, and such other Particulars as may be directed by Rules or Orders under this Act; and no Probate or Administration shall be granted in pursuance of such Application until such District Registrar shall have received a Certificate, under the Hand of One of the Registrars of the Principal Registry, that no other Application appears to have been made in respect of the Goods of the same deceased Person, which Certificate the said Registrar of the Principal Registry shall forward as soon as may be to the District Registrar; all such Notices, in respect of Applications in in the District Registries; shall be filed and kept in the Principal Registry, and the Registrars of the Principal Registry shall, with reference to every such Notice, examine all Notices of such Applications which may have been received from the several other District Registries, and the Applications which may have been made for Grants of Probate or Administration at the Principal Registry, so far as it may appear necessary to ascertain whether or no Application for Probate or Administration, in respect of the Goods of the same deceased Person, may have been made in more than One Registry, and shall communicate with the District Registrars as Occasion may require in relation to such Applications.

District Registrar in case of Doubt as to Grant to take the Directions of the Judge.

LIV. In every Case where it appears to a District Registrar that it is doubtful whether the Probate or Letters of Administration which may be applied for should or should not be granted, or where any Question arises in relation to the Grant, or Application for the Grant, of any Probate or Administration, the District Registrar shall transmit a Statement of the Matter in question to the Registrars of the Court of Probate, who shall obtain the Directions of the Judge in relation thereto, and the Judge may direct the District Registrar to proceed in the Manner of the Application according to such Instructions as to the Judge may seem necessary, or may forbid any further Proceeding by the District Registrar in relation to the Matter of such Application, leaving the Party applying for the Grant in question to make Application to the Court of Probate through its Principal Registry, or, if the Case be within its Jurisdiction, to the Court of the Assistant Barrister.

District Registrars to transmit Lists of Probates and Administrations, and Copies of Wills.

LV. On the First and Third Thursday of every Month, or oftener if required by any Rules or Orders to be made in that Behalf, every District Registrar shall transmit to the Registrars of the Principal Registry a List, in such Form and containing such Particulars as may be from Time to Time required by the Court of Probate, or by any Rules or Orders under this Act, of the Grants of Probate and Administration made by such District Registrar up to the last preceding Saturday, and not included in a previous Return, and also a Copy, certified by the District Registrar to be a correct Copy, of every Will to which any such Probate or Administration relates.

District Registrars to preserve original Wills.

LVI. Every District Registrar shall file and preserve all original Wills of which Probate or Letters of Administration with the Will annexed may be granted by him, in the Public Registry of the District, subject to such Regulations as the Judge of the Court of Probate may from Time to Time make in relation to the due Preservation thereof, and the convenient Inspection of the same.

As to Caveats.

LVII. Caveats against the Grant of Probates or Administrations may be lodged in the Principal Registry or in any District Registry, and (subject to any Rules or Orders under this Act) the Practice and Procedure under such Caveats in the Court of Probate shall, as near as may be, correspond with the Practice and Procedure under Caveats now in use in the Prerogative Court; and immediately upon a Caveat being lodged in any District Registry, the District Registrar shall send a Copy thereof to the Registrars to be entered among the Caveats in the Principal Registry; and immediately upon a Caveat being entered in the Principal Registry, Notice thereof shall be given to the District Registrar of the District, if any, in which it is alleged the Deceased resided at the Time of his Decease, and to any other District Registrar to whom it may appear to the Registrar of the Principal Registry expedient to transmit the same.

Where Personalty is under 200*l.*, and Real Property under 300*l.*, Assistant Barrister to have Jurisdiction.

LVIII. Where it shall appear by Affidavit of the Person or some or One of the Persons applying for Probate or Letters of Administration that the Testator or Intestate had at the Time of his Death his fixed Place of Abode in One of the Districts specified in Schedule (A.) to this Act, and that the Personal Estate in respect of which such Probate or Letters of Administration should be granted under this Act, exclusive of what the Deceased shall have been possessed of or entitled to as a Trustee, and not beneficially, but without deducting anything on account of the Debts due and owing from the Deceased, is under the Value of Two hundred Pounds, and that the Deceased at the Time of his Death was not seised or entitled beneficially of or to any Real Estate, or that the Value of the Real Estate of or to which he was seised or entitled beneficially at the Time of his Death was under the Value of Three hundred Pounds, the Assistant Barrister having Jurisdiction in the Place in which it shall be sworn that the Deceased had at the Time of his Death his fixed Place of Abode shall have the contentious Jurisdiction and Authority of the Court of Probate in respect of Questions as to the Grant and Revocation of Probate of the Will or Letters of Administration of the Effects of such deceased Person in case there be any Contention in relation thereto.

Clerk of the Peace of the County Court to transmit Certificate of Decree for Grant or Revocation of Probate.

LIX. On a Decree being made by an Assistant Barrister for the Grant or Revocation of a Probate or Administration in any such Cause, the Clerk of the Peace of the County shall transmit to the District Registrar of the District in which it shall have been sworn that the Deceased had at the Time of his Decease his fixed Place of Abode a Certificate of such Decree having been made, and thereupon, on the Application of the Party or Parties in favour of whom such Decree shall have been made, a Probate or Administration in compliance with such Decree shall be issued from such District Registry; or, as the Case may require, the Probate or Letters of Administration theretofore granted shall be recalled or varied by the District Registrar according to the Effect of such Decree.

The Assistant Barrister to decide Causes and enforce

LX. The Assistant Barrister before whom any disputed Question shall be raised relating to Matters and Causes Testamentary under this Act shall, subject to the Rules and Orders under this Act, have all the Jurisdiction, Power, and Authority to decide the same and enforce Judgment therein, and to enforce enforce Orders in relation thereto, as if the same had been an ordinary Action in the Court of such Assistant Barrister.

LXI. The Affidavit as to the Place of Abode and State of the Property of a Testator or Intestate which is to give contentious Jurisdiction to the Assistant Barrister under the previous Provisions shall, except as herein-after provided, be conclusive for the Purpose of authorizing the Exercise of such Jurisdiction, and the Grant or Revocation of Probate or Administration in compliance with the Decree of such Judge; and no such Grant of Probate or Administration shall be liable to be recalled, revoked, or otherwise impeached by reason that the Testator or Intestate had no fixed Place of Abode within the Jurisdiction of such Judge or within any of the said Districts at the Time of his Death, or by reason that the Personal Estate sworn to be under the Value of Two hundred Pounds did in fact amount to or exceed that Value, or that the Value of the Real Estate of or to which the Deceased was seised or entitled beneficially at the Time of his Death amounted to or exceeded Three hundred Pounds: Provided that where it shall be shown to the Assistant Barrister before whom any Matter is pending under this Act that the Place of Abode or State of the Property of the Testator or Intestate in respect of whose Will or Estate he may have been applied to for Grant or Revocation of Probate or Administration has not been correctly stated in the Affidavit, and if correctly stated would not have authorized him to exercise such contentious Jurisdiction, he shall stay all further Proceedings in his Court in the Matter, leaving any Party to apply to the Court of Probate for such Grant or Revocation, and making such Order as to the Costs of the Proceedings before him as he may think just.

LXII. Any Party who shall be dissatisfied with the Determination of the Assistant Barrister in point of Law or upon the Admission or Rejection of any Evidence in any Matter or Cause under this Act may appeal from the same to the Court of Probate in such Manner and subject to such Regulations as may be provided by the Rules and Orders to be made under this Act, and the Decision of the Court of Probate in any such Appeal shall be final.

LXIII. It shall not be obligatory on any Person to apply for Probate or Administration to any District Registrar, or Assistant Barrister of any County, but in every Case such Application may be made through the Principal Registry of the Court of Probate, wherever the Testator or Intestate may at the Time of his Death have had his fixed Place of Abode: Provided, that where in any contentious Matter arising out of any such Application it is shown to the Court of Probate that the State of the Property and Place of Abode of the Deceased were such as to give contentious Jurisdiction to the Assistant Barrister, the Court of Probate may send the Cause to the Court of such Assistant Barrister, who shall proceed therein as if such Application and Cause had been made to and arisen in his Court in the first instance.

LXIV. It shall be lawful for the Judge of the Court, with the Assistance of Two or more of the Assistant Barristers to be for that Purpose named by the Lord Chancellor, from Time to Time to make Rules and Orders for regulating the Procedure and Practice of the Assistant Barristers Courts, and the Judges and Officers thereof, in relation to their Jurisdiction and Proceedings under this Act.

LXV. Where Proceedings are taken under this Act for proving a Will in solemn Form, or for revoking the Probate of a Will, on the Ground of the Invalidity thereof, or where in any other contentious Cause or Matter under this Act the Validity of a Will is disputed, unless in the several Cases aforesaid the Will affects only Personal Estate, the Heir-at-Law, Devisees and other Persons having or pretending Interest in the Real Estate affected by the Will, shall, subject to the Provisions of this Act, and to the Rules and Orders under this Act, be cited to see Proceedings, or otherwise summoned in like Manner as the Next of Kin or others having or pretending Interest in the Personal Estate affected by a Will should be cited or summoned, and may be permitted to become Parties, or intervene for their respective Interests in such Real Estate, subject to such Rules and Orders, and to the Discretion of the Court.

LXVI. Where Probate of such Will is granted after such Proof in solemn Form, or where the Validity of the Will is otherwise declared by the Decree or Order in such contentious Cause or Matter as aforesaid, the Probate, Decree, or Order respectively shall enure for the Benefit of all Persons interested in the Real Estate affected by such Will, and the Probate Copy of such Will, or the Letters of Administration with such Will annexed, or a Copy thereof respectively, stamped with the Seal of Her Majesty's Court of Probate, shall in all Courts, and in all Suits and Proceedings affecting Real Estate, of whatever Tenure, (save Proceedings by way of Appeal under this Act, or for the Revocation of such Probate or Administration,) be received as conclusive Evidence of the Validity and Contents of such Will in like Manner as a Probate is received in Evidence in Matters relating to the Personal Estate; and where Probate is refused or revoked, on the Ground of the Invalidity of the Will, or the Invalidity of the Will is otherwise declared by Decree or Order under this Act, such Decree or Order shall enure for the Benefit of the Heir-at-Law or other Persons against whose Interest in Real Estate such Will might operate, and such Will shall not be received in Evidence in any Suit or Proceeding in relation to Real Estate, save in any Proceeding by way of Appeal from such Decrees or Orders.

LXVII. Nothing herein contained shall make it necessary to cite the Heir-at-Law or other Persons having or pretending Interest in the Real Estate of a deceased Person, unless it is shown to the Court and the Court is satisfied that the Deceased was at the Time of his Decease seised of or entitled to or had Power to appoint by Will some Real Estate beneficially, or in any Case where the Will propounded Judgments as in other Cases.

Affidavit of the Facts giving the Assistant Barrister Jurisdiction to be conclusive, unless disproved while the Matter is pending.

As to Appeals from Determination of Assistant Barrister.

Not obligatory to apply for Probate, &c. to District Registries or Assistant Barrister, but may in every Case be made to Court of Probate.

Judge to make Rules, &c. regulating Assistant Barristers Courts.

Where a Will affecting Real Estate is proved in solemn Form, &c., the Heir and Persons interested in Real Estate to be cited.

Where the Will is proved in solemn Form, or its Validity otherwise decided on, the Decree of the Court to be binding on the Persons interested in the Real Estate.

Heir in certain Cases not to be cited, and where not cited not to be or of which the Validity is in question would not in the Opinion of the Court, though established as to Personalty, affect Real Estate, but in every such Case, and in any other Case in which the Court may, with reference to the Circumstances of the Property of the Deceased or otherwise, think fit, the Court may proceed without citing the Heir or other Persons interested in Real Estate; provided that the Probate, Decree, or Order of the Court shall not in any Case affect the Heir or any Person in respect of his Interest in Real Estate, unless such Heir or Person has been cited or made Party to the Proceedings, or derives Title under or through a Person so cited or made Party.

Probate or Office Copy to be Evidence of the Will in Suits concerning Real Estate, save where the Validity of the Will is put in issue.

LXVIII. In any Action at Law or Suit in Equity, where, according to the existing Law, it would be necessary to produce and prove an original Will in order to establish a Devise or other Testamentary Disposition of or affecting Real Estate, it shall be lawful for the Party intending to establish in Proof such Devise or other Testamentary Disposition to give to the opposite Party, Seven Days at least before the Trial or other Proceeding in which the said Proof shall be intended to be adduced, Notice that he intends at the said Trial or other Proceeding to give in Evidence as Proof of the Devise or other Testamentary Disposition the Probate of the said Will or the Letters of Administration with the Will annexed, or a Copy thereof stamped with any Seal of the Court of Probate; and in every such Case such Probate or Letters of Administration, or Copy thereof respectively, stamped as aforesaid, shall be sufficient Evidence of such Will and of its Validity and Contents, notwithstanding the same may not have been proved in solemn Form, or have been otherwise declared valid in a contentious Cause or Matter, as herein provided, unless the Party receiving such Notice shall, within Three Days after such Receipt, give Notice that he disputes the Validity of such Devise or other Testamentary Disposition.

As to Costs of Proof of Will.

LXIX. In every Case in which, in any such Action or Suit, the original Will shall be produced and proved, it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge before whom such Evidence shall be given to direct by which of the Parties the Costs thereof shall be paid.

Repeal of
c.113. ss.31-33.

LXX. The Thirty-first, Thirty-second, and Thirty-third Sections of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1856," are hereby repealed.

Place of Deposit of original Wills.

LXXI. There shall be One Place of Deposit under the Control of the Court, at such Place in Dublin as the Lord Lieutenant may by Order in Council direct, in which all the original Wills brought into the Court or of which Probate or Administration with the Will annexed is granted under this Act in the Principal Registry thereof, and Copies of all Wills, the Originals whereof are to be preserved in the District Registries, and such other Documents as the Court may direct, shall be deposited and preserved, and may be inspected under the Control of the Court and subject to the Rules and Orders under this Act.

Judge to cause
Calendars to be made from Time to Time in the Principal Registry, and to be printed.

LXXII. The Judge shall cause to be made from Time to Time in the Principal Registry of the Court of Probate Calendars of the Grants of Probate and Administration in the Principal Registry, and in the several District Registries of the Court, for such Periods as the Judge may think fit, each such Calendar to contain a Note of every Probate or Administration with the Will annexed granted within the Period therein specified, and also a Note of every other Administration granted within the same Period, such respective Notes setting forth the Dates of such Grants, the Registry in which the Grants were made, the Names of the Testators and Intestates, the Place and Time of Death, the Names and Descriptions of the Executors and Administrators, and the Value of the Effects; and the Calendars to be so made shall be printed as the same are from Time to Time completed.

transmit printed Copies to certain Offices.

LXXIII. The Registrars shall cause a printed Copy of every Calendar to be transmitted through the Post or otherwise to each of the District Registries, and to the Office of Her Majesty's Court of Probate in London, the Office of the Commissary of the County of Midlothian in Edinburgh, and such other Offices, if any, as the Court of Probate shall from Time to Time by Rule or Order direct; and every printed Copy of a Calendar so transmitted as aforesaid shall be kept in the Registry or Office to which it is transmitted, and may be inspected by any Person on Payment of a Fee of One Shilling for each Search, without reference to the Number of Calendars inspected.

Official Copy of whole or Part of Will may be obtained.

LXXIV. An official Copy of the whole or any Part of a Will, or an official Certificate of the Grant of any Letters of Administration, may be obtained from the Registry or District Registry where the Will has been proved or the Administration granted, on the Payment of such Fees as shall be fixed for the same by the Rules and Orders under this Act.

Administration
pendente lite.

LXXV. Pending any Suit touching the Validity of the Will of any deceased Person, or for obtaining, recalling, or revoking any Probate or any Grant of Administration, the Court of Probate may appoint an Administrator of the Personal Estate of such deceased Person; and the Administrator so appointed shall have all the Rights and Powers of a General Administrator, other than the Right of distributing the Residue of such Personal Estate; and every such Administrator shall be subject to the immediate Control of the Court, and act under its Direction.

Receiver of
pendente lite.

LXXVI. It shall be lawful for the Court of Probate to appoint any Administrator appointed as aforesaid or any other Person to be Receiver of the Real Estate of any deceased Person pending any Suit in the Court touching the Validity of any Will of such deceased Person by which his Real Estate may be affected, and such Receiver shall have such Power to receive all Rents and Profits of such Real Estate, and such Powers of letting and managing such Real Estate, as the Court may direct.

LXXVII. The

Probates and Letters of Administration (Ireland).

LXXVII. The Court of Probate may direct that Administrators and Receivers appointed pending Suits involving Matters and Causes Testamentary shall receive out of the Personal and Real Estate of the Deceased such reasonable Remuneration as the Court think fit.

Remuneration to Administrators, &c.

LXXVIII. Where a Person has died or shall die wholly intestate as to his Personal Estate, or leaving a Will affecting Personal Estate, but without having appointed an Executor thereof willing and competent to take Probate, or where the Executor shall at the Time of the Death of such Person be resident out of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and it shall appear to the Court to be necessary or convenient in any such Case, by reason of the Insolvency of the Estate of the Deceased, or other special Circumstances, to appoint some Person to be the Administrator of the Personal Estate of the Deceased, or of any Part of such Personal Estate, other than the Person who if this Act had not been passed would by Law have been entitled to a Grant of Administration of such Personal Estate, it shall not be obligatory upon the Court to grant Administration of the Personal Estate of such deceased Person to the Person who if this Act had not passed would by Law have been entitled to a Grant thereof, but it shall be lawful for the Court, in its Discretion, to appoint such Person as the Court shall think fit to be such Administrator upon his giving such Security (if any) as the Court shall direct, and every such Administration may be limited as the Court shall think fit.

Power as to Appointment of Administrator.

LXXIX. 'Whereas it is expedient that the Powers given by the Act of the Thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter Eighty-seven, should be exercised by the Court of Probate in Ireland, and that the like Powers should be extended to Cases where Administrators are residing out of the Jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Courts of Law and Equity in Ireland?' Be it therefore enacted, That at the Expiration of Twelve Calendar Months from the Death of any Testator or Intestate, if the Executor to whom Probate has been granted or the Administrator to whom Administration has been granted by the Court be residing out of the Jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Courts of Law or Equity in Ireland, the Court shall, upon the Application of any Creditor, next of Kin, or Legatee, grounded upon an Affidavit, have and exercise all the Powers by the said Act given to the Ecclesiastical Courts in England in Cases where the Executor to whom Probate has been granted by any of such Courts is residing out of the Jurisdiction of the Courts of Law and Equity in England, and all the Powers by the said recited Act given to Courts of Equity in England shall, so far as relates to Property and to Suits in Ireland, be exercised by the Court of Chancery in Ireland, and the Powers thereby given to the Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery in England, or to the Secretary or Deputy Secretary of the Governor or Company of the Bank of England, shall be exercised by the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, and by the Officers and the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland respectively.

38 G. 3. c. 87. (England) extended to Ireland, and to apply to Administrators.

LXXX. After any Grant of Administration, no Person shall have Power to sue or prosecute any Suit, or otherwise act as Executor of the Deceased, as to the Personal Estate comprised in or affected by such Grant of Administration, until such Administration shall have been recalled or revoked.

When Power to sue as an Executor to cease.

LXXXI. Where before the Revocation of any temporary Administration any Proceedings at Law or in Equity have been commenced by or against any Administrator so appointed, the Court in which such Proceedings are pending may order that a Suggestion be made upon the Record of the Revocation of such Administration, and of the Grant of Probate or Administration which shall have been made consequent thereupon, and that the Proceedings shall be continued in the Name of the new Executor or Administrator, in like Manner as if the Proceeding had been originally commenced by or against such new Executor or Administrator, but subject to such Conditions and Variations, if any, as such Court may direct.

Revocation of temporary Grants not to prejudice Actions or Suits.

LXXXII. Where any Probate or Administration is revoked under this Act, all Payments bonâ fide made to any Executor or Administrator under such Probate or Administration, before the Revocation thereof, shall be a legal Discharge to the Person making the same; and the Executor or Administrator who shall have acted under any such revoked Probate or Administration may retain and reimburse himself in respect of any Payments made by him which the Person to whom Probate or Administration shall be afterwards granted might have lawfully made.

Payments under revoked Probates or Administration to be valid.

LXXXIII. All Persons and Corporations making or permitting to be made any Payment or Transfer bonâ fide upon any Probate or Letters of Administration granted in respect of the Estate of any deceased Person, under the Authority of this Act, shall be indemnified and protected in so doing, notwithstanding any Defect or Circumstance whatsoever affecting the Validity of such Probate or Letters of Administration.

Indemnity to Persons, &c. making Payment upon Probates.

LXXXIV. Where any Person, after the Commencement of this Act, renounces Probate of the Will of which he is appointed Executor or One of the Executors, the Rights of such Person in respect of the Executorship shall wholly cease, and the Representation to the Testator and the Administration of his Effects shall and may, without any further Renunciation, go, devolve, and be committed in like Manner as if such Person had not been appointed Executor.

Rights of an Executor renouncing Probate to cease as if he had not been named in the Will.

Probates and Letters of Administration (Ireland).

Sureties to Administration Bonds.

LXXXV. So much of an Act passed by the Parliament of Ireland in the Seventh Year of King William the Third, Chapter Six, as requires any Surety, Bond, or other Security to be taken from a Person to whom Administration shall be committed, shall be repealed.

Person to whom Grant of Administration shall be committed shall give Bond.

LXXXVI. Every Person to whom any Grant of Administration shall be committed shall give Bond to the Judge of the Court to enure for the Benefit of the Judge for the Time being, and if the Court of Probate or (in the Case of a Grant from the District Registry) the District Registrar shall require, with One or more Surety or Sureties, conditioned for duly collecting, getting in, and administering the Personal Estate of the Deceased, which Bond shall be in such Form as the Judge shall from Time to Time by any general or special Order direct; provided, that it shall not be necessary for the Solicitor for the Treasury in Ireland, on applying for or obtaining Administration to the Use or Benefit of Her Majesty, to give any such Bond as aforesaid.

Penalty on Bond.

LXXXVII. Such Bond shall be in a Penalty of double the Amount under which the Estate and Effects of the Deceased shall be sworn, unless the Court or District Registrar, as the Case may be, shall in any Case think fit to direct the same to be reduced, in which Case it shall be lawful for the Court or District Registrar so to do, and the Court or District Registrar may also direct that more Bonds than One shall be given, so as to limit the Liability of any Surety to such Amount as the Court or District Registrar shall think reasonable.

Power of Court to assign Bond.

LXXXVIII. The Court may, on Application made on Motion or Petition in a summary Way, and on being satisfied that the Condition of any such Bond has been broken, order One of the Registrars of the Court to assign the same to some Person, to be named in such Order, and such Person, his Executors or Administrators, shall thereupon be entitled to sue on the said Bond, in his own Name, both at Law and in Equity, as if the same had been originally given to him instead of to the Judge of the Court, and shall be entitled to recover thereon as Trustee for all Persons interested the full Amount recoverable in respect of any Breach of the Condition of the said Bond.

Pending Suits transferred to Court of Probate.

LXXXIX. All Suits, whether original or by way of Appeal, which at the Commencement of this Act shall be pending in any Court in Ireland respecting any Grant of Probate or Administration, shall be transferred, with all the Proceedings therein, to the Court of Probate, there to be dealt with and decided according to the Rules and Practice of the said Court, except so far as such Court may think it expedient to adopt, for the Purposes of such transferred Suits or any of them, the Rules or Practice of the Court in which the same shall have been pending, to which End the Court of Probate shall, for the Purposes of such Suits, have all the Jurisdiction, Power, and Authority possessed by the Court from which such Suit shall be transferred.

Power to Judges whose Jurisdiction is determined to deliver written Judgments.

XC. Provided, That if at the Commencement of this Act any Cause which would be transferred to the Court under the Enactment herein-before contained shall have been heard before any Judge or Court having Jurisdiction in relation to such Cause before the Commencement of this Act, and shall be standing for Judgment, such Judge or Court may, at any Time within Six Weeks after the Commencement of this Act, give in to One of the Registrars of the Court a written Judgment thereon, and a Decree or Order, as the Case may require, shall be drawn up in pursuance of such Judgment; and every such Decree or Order shall have the same Force and Effect as if it had been drawn up in pursuance of a Judgment of the Court of Probate on the Day on which the same shall be so delivered to the Registrar, and shall be subject to Appeal under this Act.

Void and voidable Probates and Administrations.

XCI. All Grants of Probates and Administrations made before the Commencement of this Act, which may be void or voidable by reason only that the Courts from which respectively the same were obtained had not Jurisdiction to make such Grants, shall be as valid as if the same had been obtained from Courts entitled to make such Grants: Provided, that any such Grants of Probate or Administration shall not be made valid by this Act when the same shall before the Commencement of this Act have been revoked or determined by any Court of competent Jurisdiction to have been void; nor shall this Act prejudice or affect any Proceedings pending at the Time of the passing of this Act in which the Validity of any such Probate or Administration shall be in question: If the Result of such Proceeding shall be to invalidate the same, such Probate or Administration shall not be rendered valid by this Act; and if such Proceedings abate or become defective by reason of the Death of any Party, any Person who but for this Act would have any Right by reason of the Invalidity of such Probate or Administration shall retain such Right, and may commence Proceedings for enforcing the same within Six Calendar Months after the Death of such Party.

Probates and Administrations granted before this Act comes into operation.

XCII. Legal Grants of Probate and Administration made in Ireland before the Commencement of this Act, and Grants of Probate and Administration made legal by this Act, shall have the same Force and Effect as if they had been granted under this Act; but in every such Case there shall be due and payable to Her Majesty such further Stamp Duty, if any, as would have been chargeable on any Probate or Administration which, but for this Act, would or ought to have been obtained in respect of the Personal Estate not covered by the Grant; and all Inventories and Accounts in respect thereof shall be returnable to the Court of Chancery, and all Bonds taken in respect thereof may be enforced by or under the Authority of the Court of Chancery, at the Discretion of the Court.

XCIII. Provided,

Probates and Letters of Administration (Ireland).

XCIII. Provided, That where any Probate or Administration has been granted before the Commencement of this Act, and the Deceased had Personal Estate in Ireland not within the Limits of the Jurisdiction of the Court by which the Probate or Administration was granted, or otherwise not within the Operation of the Grant, it shall be lawful for the Court to grant Probate or Administration only in respect of such Personal Estate not covered by any former Probate or Administration, and such Grant may be limited accordingly.

Probate or Administration may be granted of Personal Estate not affected by the former Grants.

XCIV. From and after the Period at which this Act shall come into operation, when any Probate or Letters of Administration to be granted by the Court of Probate in England shall be produced to and a Copy thereof deposited with the Registrars of the Court of Probate in Ireland, such Probate or Letters of Administration shall be sealed with the Seal of the said last-mentioned Court, and being duly stamped shall be of the like Force and Effect, and have the same Operation in Ireland as if it had been originally granted by the Court of Probate in Ireland.

Probates granted in England same as if originally granted in Ireland on being resealed.

XCIV. From and after the Period at which this Act shall come into operation, when any Probate or Letters of Administration to be granted by the Court of Probate in Ireland shall be produced to and a Copy thereof deposited with the Registrars of the Court of Probate in England, such Probate or Letters of Administration shall be sealed with the Seal of the last-mentioned Court, and being duly stamped shall be of the like Force and Effect and have the same Operation in England as if it had been originally granted by the Court of Probate in England.

Probates granted in Ireland same as if originally granted in England on being resealed.

XCVI. The Acting Judge and Registrar of every Court and other Person in Ireland now having Jurisdiction to grant Probate or Administration, and every Person having the Custody of the Documents and Papers of or belonging to such Court or Person, shall, upon receiving a Requisition for that Purpose, under the Seal of the Court of Probate, from a Registrar, and at the Time and in the Manner mentioned in such Requisition, transmit to the Court of Probate, or to such other Place as in such Requisition shall be specified, all Records, Wills, Grants, Probates, Letters of Administration, Administration Bonds, Notes of Administration, Court Books, Calendars, Deeds, Processes, Acts, Proceedings, Writs, Documents, and every other Instrument relating exclusively or principally to Matters or Causes Testamentary, to be deposited and arranged in the Registry so as to be easy of Reference, under the Control and Direction of the Court.

Judges of present Ecclesiastical Courts and others to transmit all Wills, &c. to the Registry.

XCVII. No Judge, Registrar, or other Person who shall wilfully refuse or neglect so to transmit such Records, Wills, Grants, Probates, Letters of Administration, Administration Bonds, Notes of Administration, Court Books, Calendars, Deeds, Processes, Acts, Proceedings, Writs, Documents, or any other Instrument relating to Matters or Causes Testamentary, shall be entitled to any Compensation under this Act, and every Judge, Registrar, or other Person so refusing or neglecting shall be liable to a Penalty of One hundred Pounds, to be sued for and recovered, together with full Costs of Suit, in any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts, by the Registrars.

Penalty for Default.

XCVIII. One or more safe and convenient Depository or Depositories shall be provided, under the Control and Directions of the Court of Probate, for all such Wills of living Persons as shall be deposited therein for safe Custody; and all Persons may deposit their Wills in such Depository upon Payment of such Fees and under such Regulations as the Judge shall from Time to Time by any Order direct.

As to Depositories for safe Custody of the Wills of living Persons.

XCIX. Nothing in this Act contained shall affect the Stamp Duties now by Law payable upon Probates and Administrations; and all the Clauses, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, and Directions contained in any Act of Parliament relating to the said Duties, and to Wills, Probates of Wills, and Letters of Administration, for securing the said Duties, not superseded by or inconsistent with the express Provisions of this Act, shall be in full Force, and shall be observed, applied, and put in execution for securing the Duties payable on Probates of Wills and Letters of Administration granted under this Act, as if such Duties had been granted by this Act, and the said Clauses, Provisions, Rules, and Regulations relating thereto were herein repeated and specially enacted.

This Act not to affect the Stamp Duties on Probates and Administrations.

C. The Registrars of the Court of Probate shall, within such Period as the Judge shall direct after Probate of any Will or Letters of Administration shall have been granted, deliver or cause to be delivered to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, or their proper Officer, the following Documents respectively; that is to say, in the Case of a Probate or Administration with a Will annexed a Copy of the Will and the original Affidavit, and in the Case of Letters of Administration without a Will annexed such original Affidavit, and in every Case of Letters of Administration a Copy or Extract thereof, and in every Case such Certificate or Note of the Grant as the said Commissioners may require.

The Registrars to deliver Copies of Wills, &c. to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

CL. Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty-fourth Year of King George the Third, Chapter Sixty-eight, it is enacted, that if any Proctor of any Ecclesiastical Court shall act as such, or permit his Name to be used in any Suit appertaining to the Office of a Proctor or in obtaining Probates of Wills or Letters of Administration, for or on account or for the Profit or Benefit of any Person not entitled to act as a Proctor, or shall permit any such Person to participate in such Profit or Benefit, such Proctor shall be subject to certain Penalties therein mentioned; and it is also therein further enacted, that if any Person shall, in his own Name, or in that of any other Person, do or perform any Act whatever belonging to the Office of a Proctor in consideration of any Gain, Fee, or Reward, or with a view to participate

Probates and Letters of Administration (Ireland).

‘ in the Benefit to be derived from the Office, Functions, or Practice of a Proctor, without being admitted and enrolled, every such Person shall be subject to certain other Penalties therein mentioned:’ Be it enacted, Nothing in the said Act contained shall prevent any Proctor of the Court of Probate from acting as Agent of any Attorney or Solicitor in relation to any Matter Testamentary, or from allowing him to participate in the Profits of and incident thereto.

Table of Fees to be taken by Officers of Court and by Officers of Assistant Barristers Courts.

CII. The Lord Chancellor, with such Concurrence as is herein-before required as to Rules and Orders to be made in pursuance of this Act, shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, fix a Table of Fees to be taken by the Officers of the Court of Probate and the Proctors practising therein, including the District Registrars and the Proctors practising in District Registries, and a Table of Fees to be taken by the Officers of the Assistant Barristers Courts in respect of Business under this Act, and of the Fees to be payable in respect of Searches, Inspection, and printed and other Copies of and Extracts from Records, Wills, and other Documents in the Custody or under the Control of the Court of Probate, and he is hereby empowered from Time to Time, with such Concurrence as aforesaid, to add to, reduce, alter, or amend the same as he may see fit; and he shall cause every such Table of Fees, and every Addition, Reduction, Alteration, or Amendment to, in, or of the same, to be published in the “Dublin Gazette ;” and no other Fees than those specified and allowed in such Tables of Fees shall be demanded or taken by such Officers and Proctors, Solicitors and Attorneys.

Taxation of Costs.

CIII. The Bill of any Proctor, Solicitor, or Attorney for any Fees, Charges, or Disbursements in respect of any Business transacted in the Court of Probate, whether contentious or otherwise, or any Matters connected therewith, shall, as well between Proctor and Client as between Party and Party, be subject to Taxation by any One of the Registrars of the said Court, and the Mode in which any such Bill shall be referred for Taxation, and by whom the Costs of Taxation shall be paid, shall be regulated by the Rules and Orders to be made under this Act, and the Certificate of the Registrar of the Amount at which such Bill is taxed shall be subject to Appeal to the Judge of the said Court.

Fees not to be paid in Money, but by Stamps.

CIV. None of the Fees payable to the Officers of the Court of Probate or of any Assistant Barrister’s Court in respect of Business under this Act, except the Fees of the District Registrars (which are to be taken as their Remuneration, and for their own Use), the Fees of Proctors, Solicitors, and Attorneys, and such Fees as may be authorized to be taken for their own Use by the Commissioners for administering Oaths, and except as herein-after mentioned, shall be received in Money, but the same shall be received by a Stamp denoting the Amount of the Fee which otherwise would be payable: Provided always, that the Judge may order any Fees which cannot in his Opinion conveniently be collected by Stamps to be received in Money.

Provisions of Acts relating to Stamps to be applicable to Stamps for collecting Fees.

CV. The Fees to be collected by means of Stamps under the Provisions of this Act shall be deemed “Stamp Duties,” and shall be placed under the Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, to be collected and paid into the Exchequer under the same Laws and Regulations as those made in respect of the other Duties of “Stamps ;” and the Provisions in the several Acts for the Time being in force relating to Stamps under the Care or Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall in all Cases not hereby expressly provided for be of full Force and Effect with respect to the Stamps to be provided under or by virtue of this Act, and to the Vellum, Parchment, or Paper on or to which the same Stamps shall be impressed or affixed, and be applied and put in execution for collecting and securing the Sums of Money denoted thereby, and for preventing, detecting, and punishing all Frauds, Forgeries, and other Offences relating thereto, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if such Provisions had been herein repeated and specially enacted with reference to the said last-mentioned Stamps and Sums of Money respectively; but a separate and distinct Account of all Money received in respect of the said last-mentioned Stamps for every Year ending the Thirty-first Day of March shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within One Month after the Termination of such Year of Accounts, or, if Parliament be not then sitting, within One Month after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament.

No Document to be received or used unless stamped.

CVI. No Document which under this Act, and any Table of Fees for the Time being in force under this Act, ought to have a Stamp in respect of such Fee impressed thereon or affixed thereto, shall be received or filed or be used in relation to any Proceeding in the Court of Probate, or be of any Validity for any Purpose whatsoever, unless or until the same shall have the proper Stamp impressed thereon or affixed thereto: Provided, that if at any Time it shall appear that any such Document has through Mistake or Inadvertence been received, or filed, or used without having such Stamp impressed thereon or affixed thereto, it shall be lawful for the Judge of the Court of Probate, if he think fit, to order that such Stamp shall be impressed thereon or affixed thereto, and thereupon, when a Stamp shall have been impressed on such Document or affixed thereto in compliance with any such Order, such Document and every Proceeding in reference thereto shall be as valid and effectual as if such Stamp had been impressed thereon or affixed thereto in the first instance.

Officers of the Court may be dismissed for Fraud, &c. relative to Stamps.

CVII. If any Officer of the Court of Probate, or any other Person employed under this Act, shall do or commit or connive at any fraudulent Act or Practice in relation to any Stamp to be used under the Provisions of this Act, or to any Fee or Sum of Money to be collected, or which ought to be collected, by means of any such Stamp, or if any such Officer or Person shall be guilty of any wilful Act, Neglect, or or Omission whereby any Fee or Money which ought to be collected by means of a Stamp under this Act shall be lost, or the Payment thereof evaded, every such Officer or Person so offending shall be dismissed from his Office or Employment if the Judge of the Court of Probate shall think fit so to order.

CVIII. The Salary of the Judge of the Court of Probate, and any retiring Annuity granted to a Judge of the Court of Probate under this Act, and all Compensations payable under this Act, shall be charged on and payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom.

CIX. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, out of such Monies as may be provided and appropriated by Parliament for the Purpose, to cause to be paid all Salaries payable to the Registrars, Clerks, and other Officers under this Act, and all necessary Expenses of the Court of Probate and its Registries, and other Expenses which may be incurred in carrying the Provisions of this Act into effect (except such Salary, retiring Annuity, and Compensations as are herein-before charged on the said Consolidated Fund).

CX. Any Person to whom Compensation is awarded under this Act in respect of the Loss of Emoluments of any Office, and who at the passing of this Act shall have been discharging or liable to discharge in respect of such Office Duties other than those in Matters and Causes Testamentary, shall, so long as he shall receive such Compensation, be bound to discharge such other Duties on the same Terms on which, whether gratuitously or otherwise, he discharged or was liable to discharge the same before the passing of this Act.

CXI. Every Person to whom any Compensation shall be granted under this Act shall at all Times, when called upon, be liable to fill any public Office or Situation in Ireland under the Crown for which his previous Services in any Office abolished by this Act may render him eligible; and that if he shall decline, when called upon so to do, to take upon himself such Office or Situation, and execute the Duties thereof satisfactorily, being in a competent State of Health, he shall forfeit his Right to any Compensation or Allowances which may have been granted to him in respect of such previous Services.

CXII. 'Whereas the Fees or Emoluments of the Persons now practising as Proctors in the Courts now exercising Jurisdiction in Matters and Causes Testamentary may be damaged by the Abolition of the exclusive Rights and Privileges which they have hitherto enjoyed as such Proctors in such Courts: Be it enacted, That the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Examination on Oath or otherwise, which Oath they are hereby authorized to administer, may inquire into, and may, by the Production of such Evidence as they shall think fit to require, ascertain and absolutely determine the net annual Amount of the Profits arising from the Transaction of Business by Proctors in Matters and Causes Testamentary on an Average of Five Years immediately preceding the Commencement of this Act, or of such Proportion of Five Years as shall have elapsed since each and every such Proctor was admitted to practise in such Courts, and shall award to each and every such Proctor a Sum of Money or annual Payment during the Term of his natural Life of such Amount as shall be equal in Value to One Half of the net Profits derived by such Proctor in respect of Matters and Causes Testamentary upon the said Average of Five Years immediately preceding the Commencement of this Act, or of such Proportion of the said Five Years as shall have elapsed since the Admission of each and every such Proctor to practise in the Courts now exercising Jurisdiction in Matters and Causes Testamentary.

CXIII. 'And whereas divers Proctors practising in the Courts now exercising Jurisdiction in Matters and Causes Testamentary now are or may at the Commencement of this Act be associated together in Partnership: Be it therefore enacted, That in all such Cases the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall inquire into and ascertain the Terms or Conditions of such Partnerships, and shall absolutely determine and award Compensation in respect thereof as herein-before provided to each of such Partnerships, in like Manner as if all the Emoluments thereof had been derived by One Individual, and shall apportion such Compensation among the Members of each such Partnership, with or without Benefit of Survivorship, Regard being had to the existing Terms and Conditions of the same.

CXIV. There shall be a Clerk, or so many Clerks, in each District Registry, and there shall be paid to such Clerk or Clerks such Salary or respective Salaries as the Judge of the Court, with the Sanction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, may from Time to Time think fit to direct; and it shall be lawful for such Judge to prescribe from Time to Time the Qualifications which shall be possessed by Persons appointed to be Clerks in such District Registries, and generally to regulate the Establishment of such District Registries with reference to the Duties to be performed therein; and the Clerk or Clerks in each District Registry shall be appointed by the District Registrar, with the Approval of the Judge; and every such Clerk may be removed by such Judge, or by the District Registrar with the Approval of the Judge.

CXV. Each District Registrar shall, out of the Fees taken by him in respect of the Business in his respective District Registry, pay the Salary or Salaries of the Clerk or Clerks in such Registry, and the Residue of such Fees shall be retained by such District Registrar to his own Use; and every District Registrar shall keep an Account of all Fees so taken by him, and shall within One Month after the End of each Year render to the Commissioners of the Treasury a faithful Account in Writing of all such Fees received by him during such Year: Provided, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, at any Time after the Commencement of this Act, to order that the District Regis-

It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, out of such Monies as may be provided and appropriated by Parliament for that Purpose, to cause to be purchased, erected, hired, or otherwise provided such Offices and Buildings as may be suitable for the District Registries and Depository or Depositories for Wills, and such Buildings, if any, as may be necessary for the Court and Principal Registry.

Accountant General of Court of Chancery to act for Court of Probate.

CXVIII. It shall be competent to the Lord Chancellor to direct that the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery shall act as Accountant General of the Court, and in such Case the Accountant General shall carry into effect the Orders of the Court in the same Manner as if they were Orders of the Court of Chancery.

Compensation to Registrars, &c. of existing Courts.

CXIX. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any Judges, Deputy Judges, Vicar General, Registrars, Deputy Registrars, and other Persons holding Office in the Courts now exercising Jurisdiction in Matters and Causes Testamentary who may sustain any Loss of Emoluments by reason of the passing of this Act, and who are not transferred or appointed by or under this Act to Offices in the Court of Probate of equal Value to the Offices previously held by them, such Compensation as, having regard to the Tenure and Nature of their respective Offices and Appointments, and the Periods during which they have held and discharged the Duties of the same, the said Commissioners deem just and proper to be awarded; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to grant to all managing and other Clerks who have been continuously employed in the Offices of Registrars of the said Courts for Fifteen Years and upwards immediately before the passing of this Act, and may sustain any Loss of Emoluments as aforesaid, and are not transferred or appointed as aforesaid, such Compensation as the said Commissioners may deem just and proper: And provided also, that if any Person to whom any yearly Sum is awarded for Compensation as aforesaid is or shall be appointed to any Office or Situation under this Act, or in the Public Service, the Payment of such Compensation shall be suspended so long as he continues to receive the Salary or Emoluments of such Office or Situation, if the Amount thereof be equal to or greater than the Amount of Emoluments in respect of the Loss whereof Compensation is awarded; and if the Amount of such last-mentioned Emoluments be greater than the Salary or Emoluments of such Office or Situation, no more of such Compensation shall be paid than will, with such Salary or Emoluments, be equal to the Emoluments in respect of the Loss whereof such Compensation is payable.

Compensation to A. Hawkins.

CXX. ' And whereas Anthony Hawkins, Esquire, One of the Deputy Registrars of the Court of Probate, and who hath served therein for a Period of Twenty-eight Years, is unwilling to accept the Office of Registrar under this Act: There shall be paid to the said Anthony Hawkins, by way of retiring Pension, an Annuity equivalent to the net annual Profits of his Office on an average to be taken by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Three Years next preceding the passing of this Act, but not in any Case to exceed the Sum of Six hundred and fifty Pounds, to commence from the Period at which this Act shall come into operation, and to be paid out of the Fund and in the Manner herein appointed for the Payment of Compensations.

Rules and Orders to be laid before Parliament.

CXXI. All Rules and Orders to be made under this Act concerning Procedure and Practice, and the Table of Fees to be fixed under this Act, and all Alterations thereof to be from Time to Time made, shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within One Month after the making thereof, if Parliament be then sitting, or if Parliament be not then sitting, within One Month after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament.

An Act to amend "The Joint Stock Companies Act, 1856."

[25th August 1857.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that a further Amendment should be made in "The Joint Stock Companies Act, 1856:" Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. The Joint Stock Companies Acts, 1856, 1857, shall not, nor shall either of them, be deemed to have repealed, as respects Companies already formed for the Purpose of carrying on the Business of Insurance, under the Act passed in the Eighth Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and ten, or as respects Companies hereafter to be formed for the said Purpose, the said Act passed in the Eighth Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and ten, or any other Act amending the same or relating to such Companies: Provided that if any Insurance Company, formed under the said Act of the Eighth Year of Her present Majesty, or the Directors of or Shareholders in any such Company have, during the Interval between the passing of the said Joint Stock Companies Act, 1856, and of this Act, acted as if the said Act of the Eighth Year of Her present Majesty had, as to such Company, been repealed by the said Joint Stock Companies Act, 1856, then so far as affects the Mutual Rights and Relations of the said Company, its Directors and Officers, and late or present Shareholders, and so far as affects any Penalties which the said Company, or its Directors, Officers, or Shareholders, may have incurred by Non-observance of the said Act of the Eighth Year of Her present Majesty, the said Act of the Eighth Year of Her present Majesty shall, as regards the Actions of the said Company, its Directors and Shareholders, during such Interval as aforesaid, be deemed to have been repealed.

Joint Stock Companies Acts, 1856, 1857, not to be deemed to repeal 7 & 8 Vict. c. 110., &c. as respects Insurance Companies. Proviso.

C A P. LXXXI.

An Act to amend the Burial Acts.

[25th August 1857.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session holden in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her Majesty (Chapter Eighty-five), "to amend the Laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in the Metropolis;" and an Act was passed in the Session holden in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years

Burial Acts Amendment.

- 16 & 17 Vict. c. 134. ' of Her Majesty (Chapter One hundred and thirty-four), " to amend the Laws concerning the Burial ' " of the Dead in England beyond the Limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the

- 17 & 18 Vict. c. 87. ' teenth and Eighteenth Years of Her Majesty (Chapter Eighty-seven), " to make further Provision for
' " the Burial of the Dead in England beyond the Limits of the Metropolis;" and Acts were passed in ' the Session holden in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Years of Her Majesty (Chapters Seventy-eight ' and One hundred and twenty-eight), " to amend the Laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in ' " England." And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Acts: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:
- As to Approval of Acts done by a Joint Board. I. All Acts authorized to be done by any Burial Board, with the Approval, Sanction, or Authority of the Vestry or Vestries of the Parish or Parishes for which such Board is constituted, may, where a Joint Burial Board is constituted for more than Two Parishes, be done with the Approval, Sanction, or Authority (as the Case may require) of the Vestries of the Majority of such Parishes.
- Joint Burial Boards may be dissolved. II. Where the Vestries of Two or more Parishes have agreed to provide One Burial Ground for the common Use of such Parishes, such Vestries may, at any Time before such Burial Ground has been provided, determine the Union between such Parishes under such Agreement, and upon such Union being so determined all the Provisions of the said Acts and this Act shall be applicable with regard to such Parishes and the respective Burial Boards thereof as if such Union had not been formed, save that any Expenses already properly incurred by the Joint Burial Board for such Parishes shall be defrayed as provided by the said Acts.
- Burial Boards may provide more than One Burial Ground. III. Any Burial Board may, if they see fit, with the Approval of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, provide more than One Burial Ground, and may, if they see fit, with such Approval, instead of setting apart a Portion of any Burial Ground for the Purpose of such Portion being used as unconsecrated Ground, provide separate and distinct Grounds to be used respectively as consecrated and unconsecrated Burial Grounds: Where before the passing of this Act any Burial Board has provided more than One Burial Ground, or has (instead of setting apart a Portion of any Burial Ground for the Purpose of being used as unconsecrated Ground) provided separate and distinct Grounds as consecrated and unconsecrated Burial Grounds, such Burial Board shall be deemed to have acted lawfully and in accordance with the said Acts.
- Local Board of Health may, by Order in Council, be constituted a Burial Board. IV. In case it appear to Her Majesty in Council, upon the Petition of the Local Board of Health of any District established under the Public Health Act, or upon the Petition of any Commissioners elected by the Ratepayers, and acting under or by virtue of the Powers of any Local Act of Parliament for the Improvement of any Town, Parish, or Borough, stating that the District of such Local Board of Health or of such Commissioners is co-extensive with a District for which it is proposed to provide a Burial Ground, and that no Burial Board has been appointed for such District, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing all or any of the Burial Grounds within the said District, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the Advice of Her Privy Council, in case Her Majesty see fit so to do, to order that such Local Board shall be a Burial Board for the District of such Local Board, or that such Commissioners shall be a Burial Board for the District of such Commissioners, and thereupon such Local Board or such Commissioners, as the Case may be, shall be a Burial Board for such District accordingly; and the Powers and Provisions of the Acts herein-before mentioned (except the Provisions relating to the Constitution or Appointment and Resignation of Members of Burial Boards), and the Provisions herein contained, shall extend to the District of such Board, and to such Board, or to the District of such Commissioners, and to such Commissioners, and to any Burial Ground and Places for the Reception of the Bodies of the Dead previously to Interment which may be provided by such Board or by such Commissioners, in like Manner as to any Parish or Parishes and the Burial Board thereof, and any Burial Ground and any such Places as aforesaid provided by such last-mentioned Board, save that no Approval, Sanction, or Authorization of any Vestry shall be requisite: Provided always, that Notice of such Petition, and of the Time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and in One of the Newspapers usually circulating in the District of such Local Board or of such Commissioners, One Month at least before such Petition is so considered: Provided also, that this Enactment shall not apply to any such District as aforesaid exclusively consisting of the whole or Part of One Corporate Borough within the Meaning of the Public Health Act, 1848.
- Burial Board may be established for a District not maintaining its own Poor, and which has had no separate Burial Ground. V. The Vestry, or Meeting in the Nature of a Vestry, of any Parish, new Parish, Township, or other District not separately maintaining its own Poor, and which has had no separate Burial Ground, may appoint a Burial Board; and such Vestry or Meeting, and the Burial Board appointed by it, shall exercise and have all the Powers which they might have exercised and had under the said Acts and this Act if such Parish, new Parish, Township, or District had had a separate Burial Ground before the passing of the said Act of the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Years of Her Majesty: Provided always, that all the Powers of any other Vestry or Meeting and Burial Board, if any, shall then cease and determine, so far as relates to such Parish, new Parish, Township, or District as aforesaid; and until a Burial Ground shall be so provided as aforesaid and consecrated for any new Parish or District created or to be created pursuant pursuant to the Provisions of the Sixth and Seventh Victoria, Chapter Thirty-seven, the Seventh and Eighth Victoria, Chapter Ninety-four, and the Nineteenth and Twentieth Victoria, Chapter One hundred and four, or any or either of them, and to which the said Acts, or any or either of them, may apply, the Incumbent of such new Parish or District (if any Burial Ground has been or shall be provided under the herein recited Acts for the Burial of the Dead, or any or either of them, for any Parish or Parishes out of Rates to which such new Parish or District, or any Part thereof, shall have contributed or contribute or be liable,) shall, with respect to the Burial in such last-mentioned Burial Ground of the Remains of the Parishioners or Inhabitants of such new Parish or District, or of such Part thereof as shall have contributed or contribute as aforesaid, as the Case may be, perform the same Duties, and have the same Rights, Privileges, and Authorities, and be entitled to the same Fees, and also the Clerk and Sexton of such new Parish or District shall, when necessary, respectively perform the same Duties, and be entitled to the same Fees, in respect of such Burials, as if the said Burial Ground were exclusively the Burial Ground of such new Parish or District, subject nevertheless to all Provisions to which the Incumbents, Clerks, and Sextons of original Parishes are respectively subject in and by the said Burial Acts, or any or either of them: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall affect the Rights or Privileges of any existing Incumbent, Clerk, or Sexton without the Consent of such Incumbent, Clerk, or Sexton respectively.

VI. Where the Guardians of any Parish or Union are or shall hereafter become possessed of any Land suitable to the Purposes of a Burial Ground, and the Poor Law Board shall consent to the same being appropriated to the Reception of the dead Bodies of any poor Persons whom such Guardians shall be authorized or required by Law to bury, it shall be lawful for the Ordinary of the Diocese wherein such Land shall be situated, if he see fit, to consecrate the whole or a Part of such Land for Burial Purposes, and after Consecration the Guardians may lawfully direct any such dead Body as aforesaid to be buried therein; and the Land so consecrated shall not thenceforth be used for any other Purposes than for Burials according to the Rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, and shall be kept in decent Order; and the Fences thereof, and any Building or other Erection therein or adjoining thereto used for the Performance of the Burial Service, shall be maintained in good Repair by the Guardians, out of the Common Fund of such Parish or Union: Provided nevertheless, that the Guardians shall not be authorized to direct the Body of any poor Person to be buried in such Grounds who, or whose Husband, Wife, or Next of Kin, shall, by Letter addressed to the Master of the Workhouse or otherwise, have expressly desired Burial to take place elsewhere.

Ordinary of Diocese may consecrate the whole or Part of Land belonging to any Parish for the Burial of poor Persons.

VII. Where a Burial Ground has been provided for any Parish under any of the Acts commonly referred to or known as the Church Building Acts, and the same has been consecrated, and any Money expended in providing such Burial Ground has been borrowed on the Security of the Church Rates, it shall be lawful for the Incumbent of the Parish, with the Consent of the Ordinary and the Burial Board of such Parish, or of any Borough or District in which such Parish is wholly or in part comprised, by Instrument in Writing under the Hands and Seals of such Incumbent and Ordinary, and under the Seal of the said Burial Board, to declare that, in consideration of the Payment of the Debt by the said Burial Board, or of such Sum as shall be mutually agreed upon, with the Consent of the Persons, signified in Writing under their Hands, to whom Two Thirds of such Debt is due, the said Burial Ground shall be vested in and be under the Care and Management of such Burial Board, and thereupon the same shall be vested in and be under the Care and Management of such Board, and shall be subject to the Provisions of the herein-before recited Acts and this Act applicable to a consecrated Burial Ground or the consecrated Part of any Burial Ground provided by any Burial Board; and any Money borrowed as aforesaid, and remaining owing, and the Interest due and to become due thereon, and all Costs and Expenses occasioned by the Nonpayment thereof, or incurred in providing such Burial Ground, and then remaining unpaid, shall be charged on and paid out of such Rates or Fund as under the said last-mentioned Acts and this Act would be chargeable with the Expense of providing a Burial Ground by such Board, and such Declaration as aforesaid shall be registered in the Registry of the Diocese; and such Board may, with the Approval of the Vestry, enlarge such Burial Ground, by the Addition of Ground to be used for Burials otherwise than according to the Rites of the Church of England, and to be used subject to the Provisions of the Acts herein recited and of this Act in respect to the unconsecrated Portions of Burial Grounds.

Provision for Transfer to a Burial Board of a Burial Ground provided under Church Building Acts.

VIII. It shall and may be lawful for the Vestry of any Parish in which any Burial Ground closed by Order in Council may be situate, and which does not belong to such Parish, by Resolution of the Vestry at a Meeting called for that Purpose, to purchase such Burial Ground, and from the Time of such Purchase such Burial Ground shall belong to such Parish, and be subject to all the Conditions affecting the Burial Grounds of the Parish in which the same is situate.

Vestry may purchase closed Burial Ground if not belonging to Parish.

IX. And whereas by the said Act of the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twenty-eight, it is enacted, that where a Parish or Place has been united with any other Parish or Place, Parishes or Places, for all or any Ecclesiastical Purposes, or where Two or more Parishes or Places have heretofore had a Church or a Burial Ground for their joint Use, or where the Inhabitants of several Parishes or Places have been accustomed to meet in One Vestry for Purposes common to such several Parishes or Places, it shall be lawful for the Vestry, or any Meeting in the

Burial Boards not to be appointed for united Parishes, &c. in Cases provided for by 18 & 19 Vict. c. 128, without

Burial Acts Amendment.

Consent of Secretary of State, where One of the Places separately maintains its own Poor or has a Burial Ground.

‘ Nature of a Vestry, of such several Parishes or Places, in any of the Cases aforesaid, and whether any One or more of such Parishes or Places do or do not separately maintain its own Poor, to appoint a Burial Board, and from Time to Time to supply Vacancies therein, and to exercise the same Powers of Authorization, Approval, and Sanction in relation to such Burial Board, and such other Powers as, under the Acts therein recited and that Act, are vested in the Vestry of a Parish or Place separately maintaining its own Poor:’ Where any of the several Parishes or Places under the Circumstances provided for in the said Enactment separately maintains its own Poor, or has a separate Burial Ground, it shall not be lawful for the Vestry, or Meeting in the Nature of a Vestry, of such several Parishes or Places, to appoint a Burial Board under the said Enactment without the Approval of One of Her Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State; and in case it appear to the Secretary of State that any such Parish or Place has a sufficient Burial Ground, or that otherwise it would not be expedient that the Powers given by the said Enactment should be exercised in relation to such Parish or Place, the Secretary of State may direct that such Parish or Place shall be excepted from the Operation of the said Enactment, and thereupon the same shall be excepted accordingly; and the Inhabitants of the remaining Parish or Parishes, Place or Places, may assemble in Vestry, or in a Meeting in the Nature of a Vestry, from Time to Time, and in such Vestry or Meeting may proceed in like Manner under the said Acts and this Act in all respects as if the Inhabitants of such last-mentioned Parish or Parishes, Place or Places, exclusively had a Vestry for their common Purposes, and were wholly unconnected with the Parish or Place so excepted.

Orders in Council may be made for regulating Burial Grounds, &c.

X. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order made by and with the Advice of Her Privy Council, on the Representation of One of Her Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State, from Time to Time to establish such Regulations as to Her Majesty may seem proper for the Protection of the Public Health, and for the Maintenance of Public Decency, in respect of all Burials in common Graves in any Cemeteries named in Schedule (B.) to the Act Fifteenth and Sixteenth Victoria, Chapter Eighty-five, and in respect of the like Burials in any Cemetery established under the Authority of any Local Act of Parliament; and every such Order in Council shall be published in the London Gazette; and all Persons having the Care of such Cemeteries and Burial Grounds and Places shall conform to and obey such Regulations; and any such Person who shall violate or wilfully neglect to observe any of such Regulations shall, on summary Conviction thereof before Two Justices of the Peace, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds: Provided always, that no such Representation shall be made in relation to any Cemetery or Burial Ground until Ten Days previous Notice in Writing of the Intention to make such Representation shall have been given to the Person or One of the Persons having the Control or Care of such Cemetery or Burial Ground.

How consecrated and unconsecrated Portions of Burial Ground to be marked.

XI. It shall not be necessary to erect or maintain any Wall or Fence between the consecrated and the unconsecrated Portions of any Burial Ground provided under the herein-before recited Acts and this Act, or any of them: Provided always, that in the Case of any Burial Ground where there shall be no such Wall or Fence, it shall be the Duty of the Burial Board having the Care of such Burial Ground to place, and from Time to Time to repair and renew, such Boundary Marks of Stone or Iron as may be sufficient to show the Boundaries of such consecrated and unconsecrated Portions respectively.

Appeal.

XII. If, upon the Application in Writing by any Burial Board to the Bishop of the Diocese for the Consecration of a Burial Ground, declared in such Writing to be in a fit and proper Condition for the Purpose of Interment according to the Rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, which Application the Board is required to make as soon as such Ground is in such fit and proper Condition, the said Bishop shall refuse to consecrate the same, it shall be lawful for such Burial Board to appeal from such Refusal to the Archbishop of the Province, who shall decide the Matter in dispute; and if the said Archbishop shall decide that the said Burial Ground is not in a fit and proper Condition as aforesaid, then the Board shall be bound to put the said Ground in a fit and proper Condition; and if the said Archbishop shall decide that the said Burial Ground is in a fit and proper Condition as aforesaid and ought to be consecrated, such Decision shall be communicated in Writing by the Archbishop to the Bishop aforesaid; and if after such Communication the said Bishop shall not within One Calendar Month consecrate the said Burial Ground, the said Archbishop shall, under his Hand and Seal, license the same for the Interment of Bodies according to the Rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, and the Licence of the said Archbishop so granted as aforesaid shall, until such Burial Ground be consecrated, operate to make lawful the Use of the same as if it had been consecrated.

Incumbent or Curate may bury in Burial Ground certified by Secretary of State prior to Consecration.

XIII. In any Burial Ground provided under the Powers of the Acts herein-before recited or this Act, respecting which One of Her Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State shall have certified that the necessary Provisions have been complied with, it shall be lawful for the Incumbent or Incumbents of such Parish or Parishes for which such Burial Ground is provided, or his or their Curate or Curates, or such duly qualified Person as any such Incumbent may authorize, if such Incumbent, Curate, or such duly qualified Person respectively think fit, to bury in such Burial Ground prior to the Decision of the Bishop or Archbishop upon the Application for the Consecration thereof.

Section 32. of 3 G. 4. c. 126.

XIV. ‘ Whereas by Section Thirty-two of the Act of the Third Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and twenty-six, it is enacted, that no Toll shall be demanded or taken by virtue of

Burial Acts Amendment.

‘ of that or any other Act or Acts of Parliament on any Turnpike Road of or from any Inhabitant of any Parish, Township, or Place going to or returning from attending the Funeral of any Person who shall die and be buried in the Parish, Township, or Place in which any Turnpike Road shall lie.’ From and after the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, or from and after the Termination of any now existing Lease of Tolls expiring before that Date, the said Enactment shall extend to exempt from Toll every Person going to or returning from attending the Funeral of any Person who shall be buried in any Burial Ground provided for the Parish, Township, or Place in which he died under the Acts herein-before recited and this Act, or any of them, or under any other Act of Parliament, although such Burial Ground be not within the Limits of the Parish, Township, or Place for which it may have been provided, or in which the Turnpike Road shall lie.

exempting Funerals from Tolls, extended to Funerals in Burial Grounds provided for the Parish, although not within its Limits.

XV. That every Person who shall wilfully destroy or injure, or cause to be destroyed or injured, any Register Book of Burials, kept according to the Provisions of this Act, or any Part or certified Copy of any Part of such Register, or shall falsely make or counterfeit, or cause to be falsely made or counterfeited, any Part of any such Register or certified Copy thereof, or shall wilfully insert or cause to be inserted in any Registry Book or certified Copy thereof any false Entry of any Burial, or shall wilfully give any false Certificate, or shall certify any Writing to be a Copy or Extract of any such Register Book, knowing the same to be false in any Part thereof, or shall forge or counterfeit the Seal of any Burial Board, shall be guilty of Felony.

Persons wilfully destroying, &c. Register Book of Burials guilty of Felony.

XVI. ‘ Whereas by the Act of the Fifty-second Year of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and forty-six, Section Four, it is provided, that whenever the Ceremony of Burial shall be performed in any other Place than the Parish Church or Churchyard of any Parish (or the Chapel or Chapelyard of any Chapelry providing its own distinct Registers), and such Ceremony shall be performed by any Minister not being the Rector, Vicar, Minister, or Curate of such Parish or Chapelry, the Minister who shall perform such Ceremony of Burial shall on the same or on the next Day transmit to the Rector, Vicar, or other Minister of such Parish or Chapelry, or his Curate, a Certificate of such Burial, and the Rector, Vicar, Minister, or Curate of such Parish or Chapelry shall thereupon enter such Burial according to such Certificate in the Book kept pursuant to that Act for such Purpose: And whereas distinct Registers are by Law required to be kept in the Burial Grounds provided under the Burial Acts:’ The recited Enactment of the said Act of King George the Third shall not apply in any Case where the Ceremony of Burial is performed in a Burial Ground provided or to be provided under the Acts of Her Majesty herein-before recited and this Act, or any of them.

Section 4. of 52 G. 3. c. 146. not to apply to Burials in Grounds provided under the Burial Acts.

XVII. No Fees shall be charged or received by any Burial Board in respect of any Service done or Right granted in the unconsecrated Portion of any Burial Ground provided by such Board but such as are identical in Amount with the Fees charged and received in respect of the same Service or Right in the consecrated Portion of such Ground, less any such Portion of such corresponding Fees or Payments which may be received for or on account of any Incumbent, Churchwarden, Clerk, or Sexton, or of any Trustee for or on behalf of any Incumbent, Churchwarden, Clerk, or Sexton.

Fees for Service in unconsecrated Portion to be same as for consecrated Portion.

XVIII. So much of Section Twenty of the firstly herein-before recited Act as requires “that there shall be paid in every Year, in addition to the Interest of the Money borrowed and unpaid, not less than One Twentieth of the Principal Sum borrowed, until the whole is discharged,” shall be repealed, and the Provisions of the other Acts herein-before recited to which the said Section has been extended shall be construed accordingly.

Part of s. 20. of 15 & 16 Vict. c. 85. repealed.

XIX. The Clauses of the Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to Mortgages to be executed by the Commissioners, shall be incorporated with this Act, and shall apply to Mortgages and other Securities to be executed by Burial Boards; and for the Purposes of this Act the Expression “the Commissioners” where used in the said Clauses shall mean the Burial Board acting in the Execution of the said Clauses and the Acts herein-before recited or this Act.

Clauses of 10 & 11 Vict. c. 16. with respect to Mortgages incorporated.

XX. Provided always, That for the Purpose of providing a Sinking Fund for paying off the Principal Money borrowed on Mortgages granted under any of the said Acts or this Act, the Burial Board shall once in every Year set aside, out of the Monies charged by such Mortgages, such Sum as they think proper, being a Sum equal to or exceeding One Fiftieth Part of the Principal Money so borrowed.

Sinking Fund to be provided for paying off Mortgages.

XXI. Any Burial Board or Council of a Borough may, for the Purpose of raising Money, instead of making Mortgages under any of the said Acts, grant terminable Annuities for a Life or Lives, or for any Number of Years not exceeding Thirty Years, to be paid out of the like Monies as provided with regard to the Monies secured by such Mortgages.

Power to Burial Boards to borrow Money on Annuities.

XXII. Any Money required by the Council of any Borough for the Purpose of defraying the Expense of executing the Acts herein-before recited; or any of them, or this Act, or for paying any Monies borrowed under such Act, or any Interest thereon, may be raised by such Council, if they think fit, by means of a separate Rate, to be called a Burial Rate, to be charged upon all Property within such Borough liable to be charged to the Borough Rate; and the Council of such Borough shall have all such Powers for making and levying such Rate, and all Provisions shall be applicable in respect thereof, as in the Case of a Borough Rate made under the Act passed in the Session holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-six.

Power to Councils of Boroughs to make a separate Rate for Burial and Expenses.

Burial Acts Amendment.

Orders in Council may be issued on Representation of Secretary of State, so as to prevent Vaults, &c. being dangerous to Health.

Trustees of closed Cemeteries empowered, with Sanction of Secretary of State, to let, lease, or sell Portions thereof which have not received Interments.

Bodies not to be removed from Burial Grounds, save under Faculty, without Licence of Secretary of State.

Burial Boards may in certain Cases purchase Cemeteries which have been closed.

Orders in Council to remain in force. Resolutions, &c. of Vestries not to be void by reason of Irregularity of Notices, &c.

XXIII. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, upon the Representation of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by and with the Advice of Her Privy Council, from Time to Time to order such Acts to be done by or under the Directions of the Churchwardens or such other Persons as may have the Care of any Vaults or Places of Burial for preventing them from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the Public Health; and every such Order in Council shall be published in the London Gazette, and such Churchwardens or other Persons shall do or cause to be done all Acts ordered as aforesaid, and the Expenses incurred in and about the doing thereof shall be paid out of the Poor Rates of the Parish: Provided always, that no such Representation shall be made until Ten Days previous Notice of the Intention to make such Representation shall have been given to the Churchwardens or other Persons, or One of the Churchwardens or other Persons, having the Care of the Vaults or Places of Burial to which the Representation relates.

XXIV. In all Cases in which unconsecrated Land or Buildings is or are vested in a Trustee or Trustees, either under any Local Act or otherwise, for the Purposes of a Cemetery or Burial Ground, and Burials in such Cemetery or Burial Ground shall by Order in Council under the herein-before recited Acts or any of them have been ordered to be wholly or partially discontinued, it shall be lawful for the Trustee or Trustees for the Time being of such Cemetery or Burial Ground, from Time to Time, with the Sanction of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to let, demise, or lease any Part or Parts in which no Interment shall have taken place of such Land or Buildings, and to renew or accept Surrenders of any Leases or Tenancies thereof, and to sell and absolutely dispose thereof for Money in gross, or for any perpetual or other Rent or Rents to be made payable thereout, and by Public Auction or Private Contract, and to sell all or any such perpetual or other Rent or Rents for Money in gross and in manner aforesaid, and for any of the Purposes aforesaid to make and execute any Contracts, Conveyances, Leases, or other Assurances, and to take any Measures and make any Arrangements which may be deemed expedient; and upon any such Lease or Sale as aforesaid a Grant or Conveyance by such Trustee or Trustees alone shall be a sufficient Assurance of the Property thereby purported to be leased or sold, and the Receipts of such Trustee or Trustees shall be effectual Discharges for the Monies therein expressed to have been received, and shall absolve any Lessee or Purchaser from having to see to or being answerable for the Application of such Monies; and the net Monies to be received by such Trustee or Trustees under any of the preceding Powers shall be applied by them in discharge of any Incumbrances affecting such Cemetery or Burial Ground, and any Debts which such Trustee or Trustees may have properly incurred in their fiduciary Capacity; and any Residue of such Monies shall, where such Land or Buildings shall have been held in trust for any Parish, be applied in such Manner, for the Benefit of such Parish, as the Vestry of such Parish shall direct; but where such Land or Buildings shall have been held in trust for the Benefit of private Persons, such Residue shall be divided by such Trustee or Trustees rateably among the Cestuique Trusts; and it shall be lawful for such Trustee or Trustees so to apply any reserved Fund in his or their Hands.

XXV. Except in the Cases where a Body is removed from one consecrated Place of Burial to another by Faculty granted by the Ordinary for that Purpose, it shall not be lawful to remove any Body, or the Remains of any Body, which may have been interred in any Place of Burial, without Licence under the Hand of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and with such Precautions as such Secretary of State may prescribe as the Condition of such Licence; and any Person who shall remove any such Body or Remains, contrary to this Enactment, or who shall neglect to observe the Precautions prescribed as the Condition of the Licence for Removal; shall, on summary Conviction before any Two Justices of the Peace, forfeit and pay for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds.

XXVI. Where any Cemetery in which Burials have, by Order in Council, under the herein-before recited Acts or any of them, been ordered to be discontinued, is adjoining or near to any Land appropriated or about to be appropriated by any Burial Board for the Purposes of a Burial Ground, and appears to such Board eligible for the Purpose of appropriating or erecting Buildings for or making Approaches to such Burial Ground, it shall be lawful for such Board, with the Approval of the Vestry or respective Vestries, to purchase such Cemetery; and where in the like Case any Cemetery has been so purchased before the passing of this Act, the Purchase thereof shall be deemed to have been lawful: Provided always, that, notwithstanding such Purchase, such Order in Council shall remain in full Force and Effect in relation to such Cemetery.

XXVII. No Resolution or Proceeding of any Vestry, or Meeting in the Nature of a Vestry, for the Purposes of the said recited Acts and this Act, or any of them, shall be void or voidable by reason of any Defect or Irregularity of or in Notice of such Vestry or Meeting, or any other Error in Form in the calling of such Vestry or Meeting, or in the Proceedings thereat, unless Notice in Writing of such Defect or Irregularity or Error shall have been given at such Vestry or Meeting, or within Seven Days after the Day of the holding thereof, to the Churchwardens or other Persons to whom it belongs to call Meetings of such Vestry, or such Meeting in the Nature of a Vestry, who shall thereupon call another Meeting for the Purpose of considering the previous Resolution or Proceeding or the Matter thereof; and no such Resolution and Proceeding made or taken at any such Vestry, or Meeting in the Nature of a Vestry, before the passing of this Act, which shall not have been objected to by Notice in Writing to such such Churchwardens or Persons as aforesaid, shall be deemed invalid by reason of any such Defect, Irregularity, or Error.

XXVIII. In the Construction of this Act the Expression "Burial Board" shall mean a Burial Board constituted under the herein-before recited Acts, or any of them, or under this Act.

XXIX. That the Expression "Borough" whenever used in the said Act of the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Years of Her said Majesty shall be construed to include any City, Borough, Port, Cinque Port, or Town Corporate named in the Schedules annexed to an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to provide for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales, and to any City, Borough, Port, Cinque Port, or Town Corporate incorporated by Charter granted or to be granted in pursuance of that or any subsequent Act; and the Words "Town Council of any Borough," or "Council of any Borough," wherever used in the said Act of the Seventeenth and Eighteenth years of Her said Majesty, shall (as well with respect to all past as to future Proceedings under the same Act, and for the Purpose of confirming and making valid all such past Proceedings,) be construed to mean Town Council or Council of any City, Borough, Port, Cinque Port, or Town Corporate.

XXX. The herein-before recited Acts and this Act shall be construed together as One Act.

"Burial Board."

Construction of certain Expressions used in 17 & 18 Vict. c. 87.

Recited Acts and this to be as One.

C A P. LXXXII.

An Act to authorize the Embodying of the Militia.

[25th August 1857.]

WHEREAS the sudden Demand for the Service in India of a large Body of Her Majesty's Regular Forces may render it expedient to draw out and embody the Militia or some Part of the Militia of the United Kingdom: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland respectively, at any Time after the passing of this Act, and before the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, to cause all or any Part of the respective Militias in England, Scotland, and Ireland to be drawn out and embodied in like Manner as in the respective Cases in which such Militias are now by Law authorized to be drawn out and embodied.

Power to Her Majesty, &c. to cause the Militia to be drawn out and embodied.

II. All the Provisions of the Acts relating to such respective Militias and of all other Acts now in force applicable for and in the Case of the drawing out and embodying of such Militias in the Cases in which the same may now by Law be drawn out and embodied, and to such respective Militias when so embodied, shall be applicable for and in the Case of the drawing out and embodying of such respective Militias under the Authority of this Act, and to such Militias when so embodied; and all Militiamen ordered to be drawn out and embodied under this Act shall be subject to the same Obligations of Service in all respects as if they had been ordered to be drawn out and embodied in a Case now provided for by Law.

Provisions of Acts relating to the Militia extended to this Act.

III. So much of the Acts relating to such Militias as requires that a Proclamation shall be issued for the meeting of Parliament (if the Militia be drawn out and embodied when Parliament shall be separated by an Adjournment or Prorogation which will not expire within Fourteen Days) shall not be applicable in the Case of the Militia or any Part thereof being drawn out and embodied under the Authority of this Act.

Provisions requiring the meeting of Parliament not to apply.

IV. The Pay of the Officers and Men of the Militia who may be drawn out under this Act shall commence from the Time appointed for their assembling or joining their respective Regiments, Battalions, or Corps, and not from the Date of the Order or Warrant for drawing out such Militia, subject nevertheless to the Provisions for postponing the Commencement of such Pay in the Case of any Person in such Militia who may not join his Regiment, Battalion, or Corps on the Day appointed for that Purpose.

Pay of Militia drawn out to commence from Time appointed for assembling.

V. Section Four of the Act of the Session holden in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirteen, shall extend to any Case of drawing out and embodying the Militia in England, or any Part of such Militia, under the Authority of this Act.

Section 4. of 17 & 18 Vict. c. 13. to apply to this Act.

C A P. LXXXIII.

An Act for more effectually preventing the Sale of Obscene Books, Pictures, Prints, and other Articles.

[25th August 1857.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to give additional Powers for the Suppression of the Trade in Obscene Books, Prints, Drawings, and other Obscene Articles: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. It shall be lawful for any Metropolitan Police Magistrate or other Stipendiary Magistrate, or for any Two Justices of the Peace, upon Complaint made before him or them upon Oath that the Complainant has Reason to believe, and does believe, that any Obscene Books, Papers, Writings, Prints, Pictures, Drawings, or other Representations are kept in any House, Shop, Room, or other Place within the Justices, &c. may authorize Search of suspected Premises.

Sale of Obscene Books, &c. Prevention.

the Limits of the Jurisdiction of any such Magistrate or Justices, for the Purpose of Sale or Distribution, Exhibition for Purposes of Gain, lending upon Hire, or being otherwise published for Purposes of Gain, which Complainant shall also state upon Oath that One or more Articles of the like Character have been sold, distributed, exhibited, lent, or otherwise published as aforesaid, at or in connexion with such Place, so as to satisfy such Magistrate or Justices that the Belief of the said Complainant is well founded, and upon such Magistrate or Justices being also satisfied that any of such Articles so kept for any of the Purposes aforesaid are of such a Character and Description that the Publication of them would be a Misdemeanor, and proper to be prosecuted as such, to give Authority by Special Warrant to any Constable or Police Officer into such House, Shop, Room, or other Place, with such Assistance as may be necessary, to enter in the Daytime, and, if necessary, to use Force, by breaking open Doors or otherwise, and to search for and seize all such Books, Papers, Writings, Prints, Pictures, Drawings, or other Representations as aforesaid found in such House, Shop, Room, or other Place, and to carry all the Articles so seized before the Magistrate or Justices issuing the said Warrant, or some other Magistrate or Justices exercising the same Jurisdiction; and such Magistrate or Justices shall thereupon issue a Summons calling upon the Occupier of the House or other Place which may have been so entered by virtue of the said Warrant to appear within Seven Days before such Police Stipendiary Magistrate or any Two Justices in Petty Sessions for the District, to show Cause why the Articles so seized should not be destroyed; and if such Occupier or some other Person claiming to be the Owner of the said Articles shall not appear within the Time aforesaid, or shall appear, and such Magistrate or Justices shall be satisfied that such Articles or any of them are of the Character stated in the Warrant, and that such or any of them have been kept for any of the Purposes aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Magistrate or Justices, and he or they are hereby required, to order the Articles so seized, except such of them as he or they may consider necessary to be preserved as Evidence in some further Proceeding, to be destroyed at the Expiration of the Time herein-after allowed for lodging an Appeal, unless Notice of Appeal as herein-after mentioned be given, and such Articles shall be in the meantime impounded; and if such Magistrate or Justices shall be satisfied that the Articles seized are not of the Character stated in the Warrant, or have not been kept for any of the Purposes aforesaid, he or they shall forthwith direct them to be restored to the Occupier of the House or other Place in which they were seized.

Amends, &c.

II. No Plaintiff shall recover in any Action for any Irregularity, Trespass, or other wrongful Proceeding made or committed in the Execution of this Act, or in, under, or by virtue of any Authority hereby given, if Tender of sufficient Amends shall have been made by or on behalf of the Party who shall have committed such Irregularity, Trespass, or other wrongful Proceeding, before such Action brought; and in case no Tender shall have been made it shall be lawful for the Defendant in any such Action, by Leave of the Court where such Action shall depend, at any Time before Issue joined, to pay into Court such Sum of Money as he shall think fit, whereupon such Proceeding, Order, and Adjudication shall be had and made in and by such Court as in other Actions where Defendants are allowed to pay Money into Court.

Limitation of Actions.

III. No Action, Suit, or Information, or any other Proceeding, of what Nature soever, shall be brought against any Person for anything done or omitted to be done in pursuance of this Act, or in the Execution of the Authorities under this Act, unless Notice in Writing shall be given by the Party intending to prosecute such Action, Suit, Information, or other Proceeding, to the intended Defendant, One Calendar Month at least before prosecuting the same, nor unless such Action, Suit, Information, or other Proceeding shall be brought or commenced within Three Calendar Months next after the Act or Omission complained of, or in case there shall be a Continuation of Damage, then within Three Calendar Months next after the doing such Damage shall have ceased.

Appeal.

IV. Any Person aggrieved by any Act or Determination of such Magistrate or Justices in or concerning the Execution of this Act, may appeal to the next General or Quarter Sessions for the County, Riding, Division, City, Borough, or Place in and for which such Magistrate or Justices shall have so acted, giving to the Magistrate or Justices of the Peace whose Act or Determination shall be appealed against Notice in Writing of such Appeal, and of the Grounds thereof, within Seven Days after such Act or Determination and before the next General or Quarter Sessions, and entering within such Seven Days into a Recognizance, with sufficient Surety, before a Justice of the Peace for the County, City, Borough, or Place in which such Act or Determination shall have taken place, personally to appear and prosecute such Appeal, and to abide the Order of and pay such Costs as shall be awarded by such Court of Quarter Sessions or any Adjournment thereof, and the Court at such General or Quarter Sessions shall hear and determine the Matter of such Appeal, and shall make such Order therein as shall to the said Court seem meet; and such Court, upon hearing and finally determining such Appeal, shall and may, according to their Discretion, award such Costs to the Party appealing or appealed against as they shall think proper; and if such Appeal be dismissed or decided against the Appellant or be not prosecuted, such Court may order the Articles seized forthwith to be destroyed: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for the Appellant on the Hearing of any such Appeal to go into or give Evidence of any other Grounds of Appeal against any such Order, Act, or Determination than those set forth in such Notice of Appeal.

Limitation of Act.

V. This Act shall not extend to Scotland.

C A P. LXXXIV.

An Act for confirming a Scheme of the Charity Commissioners for the College of God's Gift in Dulwich in the County of Surrey, with certain Alterations. [25th August 1857.]

WHEREAS the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales, in their Report to Her Majesty of their Proceedings during the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, have reported that they have provisionally approved and certified (among other Schemes for the Application and Management of Charities) a Scheme for the College of God's Gift in Dulwich in the County of Surrey, and such Scheme is set out in the Appendix to the said Report: And whereas it is expedient that the said Scheme, as the same, with certain Modifications thereof, is set out in the Schedule to this Act, shall take effect: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

3d Report,
28th Feb. 1856.

I. The Scheme set out in the Schedule to this Act shall be established and take effect.

Scheme confirmed.]

SCHEDULE.

SCHEME for the Application and Management of the Charity called the COLLEGE OF GOD'S GIFT, in Dulwich, in the County of Surrey.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

1. The existing incorporation of the above-mentioned Charity, by the name of the College of God's Gift, in Dulwich, or by any other name, shall be dissolved; and the several offices and places of the master, warden, and fellows, brothers, and sisters of the said college shall be abolished from and after the 31st December 1857, and no new appointment shall be made to any office or place in or under the Charity according to its present constitution, after the establishment of this scheme.

Present corporation dissolved.

2. The Charity, as reconstituted by this scheme, shall be called "Alley's College of God's Gift, at Dulwich;" and the Archbishop of Canterbury, and his successors, shall continue to be the visitors of the Charity, with the same authorities, rights, and privileges as heretofore, so far as the same shall not be inconsistent with this scheme.

Archbishop of Canterbury to continue visitor.

3. There shall be nineteen governors of the Charity, who shall be called "The Governors of Alley's College, at Dulwich," and who shall have the control and management of the Charity, and the estates and property thereof, from and after the said 31st day of December 1857. Eight of such governors, herein-after called "The Elective Governors," shall be elected; and the remaining eleven, or non-elective governors, shall be appointed as herein-after provided.

Governors.

4. The vestries of the parishes of Saint Botolph Without Bishopsgate, Saint Saviour Southwark, Saint Luke Middlesex, and Saint Giles Camberwell shall each elect two of the said eight elective governors respectively; and the first election shall be made before the expiration of the month of November 1857. And every subsequent election shall be made by the vestry entitled to elect within three calendar months next after the occurrence of the vacancy requiring to be filled. Every elective governor shall be elected to hold office for a period of seven years, and shall be re-eligible at or subsequently to the determination of such period.

Elective governors.

5. The non-elective governors shall be appointed by the Court of Chancery, upon application to be made to the same court by Her Majesty's Attorney General, either by petition or by summons before one of the judges of the said court sitting at chambers. And the first appointment of non-elective governors shall be made as soon as conveniently may be after the establishment of this scheme; and whenever the number of non-elective governors for the time being shall be reduced by the occurrence of vacancies to eight, three suitable persons shall be appointed by the said court, upon such application as aforesaid, so as to make up the full number of eleven non-elective governors.

Non-elective governors.

One of the non-elective governors to be appointed by the Court of Chancery shall be a resident inhabitant of the township or hamlet of Dulwich, and shall be distinguished in his appointment as the "Dulwich Governor." And upon any vacancy in the office of the "Dulwich Governor" for the time being, some other resident inhabitant of the same township or hamlet shall be appointed by the said court to succeed to such vacancy, whether the number of non-elective governors shall then have become reduced to eight or not; but nothing herein contained shall be construed as restraining the appointment of a larger number of non-elective governors from among residents in the said township or hamlet.

6. Death, resignation, bankruptcy, or insolvency, residence out of England, refusal or incapacity to act, or neglect to attend any meeting of the governors for one year, shall respectively create a vacancy in the office of governor. The office of the Dulwich Governor shall also determine upon his ceasing to be resident in Dulwich.

Vacancy in office of governor.

7. All the real estate, of whatsoever tenure, and rights and privileges vested in or held in trust for the said college, or any of the members thereof, as such, (subject to the subsisting leases and charges, if any, thereof,) and the full benefit of all subsisting covenants, conditions, and securities made or entered into with or reserved to the said college, or any person or persons in trust for the same college, and Charity estates to be vested in governors for the time being.

and all the personal estate belonging to or held in trust for the said college, or any of the members thereof as such, and the right to sue for and recover all choses in action recoverable for the benefit of the college, or any such member as aforesaid, shall, from and after the said 31st day of December 1857, be vested in the said governors, and shall from time to time thereafter vest and continue vested in the governors of Alleyn's College at Dulwich for the time being, for the purposes and according to the provisions of this scheme, without any conveyance, assignment, or assurance; and the right to sue upon or enforce all or any covenants, conditions, or securities made, reserved, or contracted to or with the said college before its dissolution, or to or with any preceding governors of the said Charity for the benefit thereof, shall be exercisable by and in the names of the governors for the time being, as fully and effectually as the same right might be exercised by such college if not dissolved, or by such preceding governors, if still retaining their office; and in the same manner all contracts and liabilities of the said college before its dissolution, or of any preceding governors for the time being of the Charity, may be enforced against the governors thereof for the time being, to the extent of the property or assets of the Charity, but not against their private estates.

Execution of leases and other instruments.

8. Leases and other deeds and instruments for the letting or disposition of the Charity estate, or any part thereof, may be executed and made by any five of the governors for the time being on behalf and as the act of the whole of them, according to any order of the governors of the said Charity, made at any regular meeting of their body, and shall have the same effect as if executed by all the said governors; and the recital of any such order, contained in any deed or instrument by which any such lease or other disposition shall be effected, shall be prima facie evidence thereof upon any proceedings to which the parties to the same lease or instrument, or their respective successors in title, representatives, or assigns, shall be parties or a party.

Stock committee.

9. The governors may from time to time appoint any four persons of their number to be a stock committee, into whose names all stock belonging to the Charity may from time to time be transferred, and the dividends on all such stock shall be disposable by the governors for the time being as part of the general income of the Charity. All or any sums of stock belonging to the Charity may also be transferred into the name of "The Official Trustees of Charitable Funds," in trust for the Charity under the provisions of "The Charitable Trusts Act, 1853," and "The Charitable Trusts Amendment Act, 1855."

Transfer of the administration of Charity and its funds to governors.

10. The Charity shall continue to be managed and administered by the present governing body of the college until the said 31st day of December 1857 inclusive, and the accounts of the Charity shall be made up and finally balanced to that day. And there shall be paid to the master, warden, fellows, and poor brethren and sisters of the college respectively out of the current year's income a due proportion of the several annual or other payments to which they are respectively entitled under the present system of administration, to be calculated from the then last preceding day of payment up to the said 31st day of December 1857. And any surplus or balance of income which shall remain to the credit of the Charity after providing for and satisfying such proportion of the said several annual payments, and the requisite or proper expenses attending the management and administration of the Charity up to that time, and all trust funds held by the college, or by any of its members as such, in trust for any other charitable purposes, shall be paid and transferred on that day unto the governors to be appointed as provided by this scheme, or as they may direct, according to and to be held upon the subsisting trusts thereof.

Allowances to present members of college.

11. There shall be paid by the governors to the present master, warden, fellows, and poor brethren and sisters of the college respectively, or to such of them as shall be living on the said 31st day of December 1857, during their respective lives, out of the income of the Charity, in lieu and full satisfaction of all present and future allowances, rights, and emoluments, the following annual sums; that is to say,—

To the master, the sum of -	-	-	-	-	-	-	£ 1,015
To the warden	-	-	-	-	-	-	855
To the first and second fellows each	-	-	-	-	-	-	500
To the third and fourth fellows each	-	-	-	-	-	-	466
To each of the poor brethren and sisters	-	-	-	-	-	-	150

The said allowances or annual sums shall commence from the said 31st day of December 1857, and shall be payable half-yearly, except the allowances to the poor brethren and sisters, which shall be paid monthly, or at such other periods as the governors may think fit, and shall be apportionable in cases of the death of any of the said recipients before or in the interval between any of the said half-yearly payments.

The allowance or annual sum payable to the warden shall, in the event of his surviving the master, be increased to 1,015*l.* from the day of the master's decease; but the whole of the said allowances or annual sums shall abate in proportion in case and so often as the clear income of the Charity, after paying and providing for all necessary or proper outgoings and expenses of management, as well as the several payments and expenses directed or authorized by this scheme for the benefit or maintenance of the present poor scholars, and the college grammar school, and the servants and others attached to the present present establishment, shall in any year or years prove insufficient to pay the same allowances or annual sums in full.

12. Until the appointment of a chaplain as herein-after provided, the present first and other fellows of the said college shall respectively continue as heretofore to perform or provide for the performance of divine service in the chapel of the college, or in some other building to be appointed by the governors for that purpose, and to discharge the other spiritual duties heretofore and of right discharged by them respectively; but, save as aforesaid, the said master, warden, and fellows respectively shall from and after the said 31st day of December 1857 be exonerated from all obligation of residence in the said college, or the performance of any duties with respect to the Charity, and from all restriction against their respective marriages.

Performance of divine service until appointment of chaplain.

13. Until the establishment of a school in which the existing poor scholars shall be received and instructed, as contemplated by this scheme, and subject to the provisions herein contained, such poor scholars shall receive and enjoy the same instruction, maintenance, and other benefits, and shall also be entitled to the same apprenticeships and exhibitions to be respectively provided and paid out of the general income of the Charity, as such scholars respectively would have been entitled to receive and enjoy if this scheme had not been established.

Present poor scholars to receive instruction and other benefits as heretofore.

14. Subject to the provisions of this scheme, and until the governors shall otherwise direct, the college grammar school may continue to be carried on as heretofore in the buildings hitherto used for such school; and the several stipends, allowances, and other payments which have been heretofore paid and allowed out of the income of the Charity for the purposes of such school may continue to be paid and allowed as heretofore; and upon the discontinuance of the said school the governors may, if they so think fit, pay to the master thereof, out of the general income of the Charity, such a reasonable gratuity or pension in consideration of his services as they may consider proper and expedient.

Provision as to college grammar school.

15. The servants and attendants now employed in the college, upon their respective services being dispensed with in consequence of the provisions of this scheme, may respectively have any reasonable pensions or gratuities paid to them by the governors out of the income of the Charity, in such manner and subject to such conditions as the said governors shall think fit.

Present servants and attendants may be pensioned.

16. All pensions and exhibitions at present properly payable out of the income of the Charity shall continue to be paid to the present recipients thereof respectively during the tenure of their respective appointments, subject to the same rules and conditions as are now subsisting and applicable to the same respectively.

Present pensions and exhibitions to be continued.

17. The governors may appoint a clerk and a receiver (who respectively shall be removable by them at their pleasure), or they may grant the offices of clerk and receiver to one person, and they may pay to the holder of each such office, out of the income of the Charity, any reasonable stipend or allowance as a remuneration for his services. Every receiver shall, before entering upon his office, give such security for the due performance of the duties thereof as the governors shall direct.

Clerk and receiver.

18. It shall be the duty of the clerk, subject to the control and direction of the governors, to give notices of and to attend all meetings of the governors or committees of the governors, to enter and keep minutes of the proceedings at all such meetings, to keep the accounts, and to pay the bills of the Charity, to prepare and make out such statements of account relating to the Charity as the governors shall from time to time require, and to perform all such other duties appertaining to the office of clerk of the Charity as the governors shall direct.

Duties of clerk.

19. The receiver, subject to the control and direction of the governors, shall exercise a general supervision over the Charity estates and property, and the lessees thereof, and shall collect and receive the rents and income, and shall submit to the governors, so often and at such times as shall be directed by them, a report as to the state and condition of the Charity estates, and also full and particular accounts of all rents, income, and monies collected or received on account of the Charity, and of all arrears due of such rents or income; and shall perform all such other duties appertaining to the office of receiver, in respect of the Charity and its property, as the governors shall reasonably direct. And unless the governors shall otherwise direct, all rents and incomes to be received by the receiver on account of the Charity shall, immediately upon the receipt thereof, be paid over by him to the bankers of the Charity to the credit of the Charity account.

Duties of receiver.

20. There shall not be less than four meetings of the governors in every year, and such meetings shall be held on the Thursday fortnight after Lady Day, Midsummer Day, Michaelmas Day, and Christmas Day respectively, or upon such other days, being respectively within thirty days next after the said quarterly days as shall have been appointed by the governors at any preceding meeting, and the said governors shall have power to appoint all such other meetings as they shall think necessary. All meetings shall be held at the college, and at the hour of noon, unless the governors shall fix some other convenient place in Dulwich, and some other convenient hour for holding the next or any other meeting. There shall also be a first general meeting of the governors, for the general purposes and business of the Charity, on the first day of January 1858.

General meetings.

21. Any three or more governors may require the clerk to convene a special meeting of the governors for any special object to be mentioned in such requisition, and the clerk shall thereupon give notice to each governor of the holding of such meeting, specifying the time, place, and object thereof; and no business shall be transacted at any special meeting, which shall not be specified or sufficiently indicated in the notice.

Special meetings.

Dulwich College.

Notice of meetings.

22. Notice shall be given by the clerk to every governor seven clear days at the least previously to a general meeting, and fourteen clear days at the least previously to a special meeting; and notice of every adjourned meeting, so far as the interval between the original and adjourned meetings will permit, shall be given in like manner immediately after the adjournment to all governors not present thereat, and every notice shall specify the place and the day and hour appointed for holding the meeting. All notices required to be given to any governor shall be in writing delivered to him, or sent by the post or otherwise to his usual place of residence.

Permanent chairman.

23. There shall be a permanent chairman of the governors, who, whenever present, shall preside as chairman at all meetings of the governors, and who shall hold office until he shall cease to be a governor, or shall resign, or be appointed receiver, or be removed from being such chairman by a resolution passed at any special meeting of the governors to be convened for that purpose. The first permanent chairman shall be elected by the governors at their first meeting; and every subsequent permanent chairman shall be elected at some special meeting of the governors, to be held upon due notice after an interval of not less than twenty-eight days after the vacancy of the office.

Quorum of governors at meetings.

24. Five governors shall form a quorum at any meeting; and so soon after the time fixed for the holding of any meeting as a sufficient number of governors shall be present to form a quorum, in case the permanent chairman shall be absent, or his office shall be vacant, the governors then present shall proceed to elect a deputy chairman, who, when so elected, shall preside as the chairman at such meeting.

Resolutions of the majority to be binding.

25. The resolutions and proceedings of a majority of the governors present at any meeting shall be binding on the whole body; and no resolution or proceeding shall be subsequently revoked or altered, except at a special meeting duly convened upon notice for that purpose. The chairman presiding at any meeting shall, in the event of an equality of votes, have in addition to his original vote a second or casting vote.

Adjournment of meetings.

26. If after the space of one hour from the time appointed for holding any meeting, a sufficient number of governors shall not be in attendance to form a quorum, the permanent chairman, or in his absence any governor then present, or the clerk if no governor be present, may adjourn the meeting to a subsequent day, not less than seven days distant. Any meeting may also be adjourned at any time by the chairman thereof upon a resolution for adjournment being adopted at such meeting.

Appointment of committees.

27. The governors may at any time appoint three or more of their body to be a committee for the purpose of making any inquiry, or superintending or performing any specific acts or duties which in their judgment may be more conveniently referred to or delegated to such committee. The acts and proceedings of every such committee shall be reported to the governors from time to time at their next meeting.

Minutes of proceedings.

28. The governors shall provide and keep minute books, wherein shall be entered the names of the governors attending each meeting, and minutes of all proceedings thereat, and of all other transactions of the governors relating to the Charity. The minutes of the proceedings at each meeting shall be signed by the chairman of the meeting, and countersigned by the clerk.

Accounts.

29. The governors shall provide and cause to be kept proper account books, wherein shall be regularly entered and kept full accounts of all receipts and payments on behalf of the Charity, and such other particulars as the governors shall direct to be entered therein. All such accounts, and all accounts of the clerk and receiver, or other agents of the governors shall be examined, vouched, and audited half-yearly at the first general meeting after Midsummer Day and Christmas Day in every year, or at some adjournment of such meetings respectively, by one or more auditors, to be appointed for that purpose by the governors, and shall be signed by the chairman and two at least of the other governors present at such meeting; and a statement or sufficient abstract of such accounts, together with a statement showing the number of the boys of each description at the respective schools, and the number of exhibitioners, and the other recipients of the Charity, shall be printed and delivered annually to each governor, and to the vestry clerk of each of the said four parishes, and to such other persons as the governors shall think fit.

Bankers.

30. The governors shall from time to time appoint and employ bankers to the Charity, or for the purposes thereof; and all payments of money on account of the Charity shall be made, as far as practicable, by means of cheques or orders drawn on such bankers, to be signed at some meeting of the governors by the chairman thereof, and by one at least of the governors present thereat, and to be countersigned by the clerk.

Provision for payment of current expenses.

31. Such monies nevertheless as may from time to time be required for payment of the current expenses of the Charity may be paid or advanced by the governors for that purpose to the clerk or such other officer of the Charity, and in such manner, as they may consider expedient; and every such officer shall render to the governors, or as they shall direct, full and exact accounts of all such monies received or expended by him.

Custody of documents.

32. The governors shall provide some suitable room or place of deposit in the college, wherein shall be deposited the deeds, vouchers, account books, and documents belonging to the Charity, with proper lists lists or schedules thereof; and the contents of such room or place shall be examined by or under the direction of the governors at least once in each year; and such room or place shall be kept locked, and the keys thereof shall be kept in such secure custody, and under such regulations, as the governors shall from time to time prescribe.

33. The governors shall make suitable provision for the preservation and custody of the library belonging to the college, and shall appropriate annually, out of the income of the Charity, any sum not exceeding 100*l.* for binding, and the purchase of books; and subject to the superior authority and directions of the governors, the master of the college shall have the immediate charge and management of the library, and may establish suitable regulations for access thereto, and for the use of the books by the masters and boys of either school herein-after mentioned, and the officers and members of the establishment, and other persons, and generally for the management thereof. Library.

34. There shall be one chaplain, to be styled "The Chaplain of Alleyn's College of God's Gift at Dulwich," who shall be a duly qualified person in priests orders of the Established Church. The chaplain shall be appointed by the governors, who shall also have the power of removing him for neglect of duty, or other sufficient cause. The first appointment of a chaplain shall be made as soon as conveniently may be after the said 31st day of December 1857, and not later than the first general meeting to be held next after the 25th day of March 1858. Chaplain.

35. A suitable residence shall be erected or appropriated and provided by the governors at the expense of the Charity for the use of the chaplain, and such residence shall be occupied by the chaplain for the time being and his family rent free, and shall be kept in substantial repair, and all rates and taxes thereon paid by the governors out of the general income of the Charity; and the chaplain shall reside in his official residence rent free, and shall not underlet or part with possession of the same, or any part thereof, and he shall not absent himself from residence without the permission of the governors or of the master of the college acting under their authority. Chaplain's residence.

36. The chaplain shall perform divine service in the chapel attached to the college upon Sundays, and on such other days and at such time as the governors or the master of the college, with their sanction, shall from time to time direct, and he shall discharge such spiritual duties for the benefit of the several objects of the Charity as established by this scheme, and the several persons for the time being belonging or attached thereto, as the governors or the master with their sanction shall authorize and direct, and also, so far as may be lawful and convenient, all such spiritual duties for the benefit of the township or hamlet of Dulwich, and the inhabitants thereof respectively, as have been heretofore commonly performed by the first or other fellows of the college. Duties of chaplain.

37. In case an ecclesiastical district comprising the said township or hamlet of Dulwich shall hereafter be legally created, the chaplain, with the consent of the governors of the said Charity, may become the incumbent or minister of such district, subject and without prejudice to the performance of his duties under this scheme. Provision for annexation of ecclesiastical district to chaplaincy. !

38. The governors shall pay to the chaplain out of the general income of the Charity, by equal half-yearly payments, a clear annual stipend not exceeding 350*l.* and not less than 250*l.* Chaplain's stipend.

39. There shall be an organist for the purposes of the Charity, who shall be appointed by the governors, and shall be removable by them at pleasure, and who shall be paid such a reasonable annual salary out of the income of the Charity as the governors shall direct; and the duty of the organist shall be, subject to the control and direction of the master and the governors, to play the organ and generally to superintend the musical part of the services in the college chapel, and to instruct the boys in vocal music and choral singing at the schools herein-after constituted, or such of them as may be selected for that purpose by the master, and also such of the girls in the Dulwich girls school as herein-after provided. The governors may, if they so think fit, provide an official residence for the organist rent free out of the funds of the Charity. Organist.

40. The present chapel of the college shall continue to be appropriated and used as a place of divine worship for the purposes of the Charity and its establishment, and also for the inhabitants of the township or hamlet of Dulwich, in the same manner and to the same extent as heretofore; and the governors may, if they think fit, declare any number of the sittings to be free, or may require from any persons frequenting the chapel, and not being members of the Charity or its establishment, the payment of any reasonable sums by way of pew rent to be applied towards the expenses of such chapel, and the maintenance of the services thereof; provided that no such payment shall be required in respect of any pew or sitting in the chapel which shall have been annexed or appropriated to any house in the township or hamlet of Dulwich under any agreement or resolution of the college during the continuance of the term or period for which such pew or sitting shall have been so annexed or appropriated. In case the present chapel shall at any time hereafter be found insufficient or unsuitable for the purposes of the Charity and for the inhabitants of the township or hamlet of Dulwich, it may either be altered or enlarged by the governors, or a new chapel in a convenient situation for the inmates of the college may be erected and fitted up by the governors upon a plan to be approved by the visitor; provided that in the construction of such new chapel arrangements shall be made for affording to the inhabitants of the township or hamlet of Dulwich an equal extent of accommodation at least to that heretofore enjoyed by them in the present chapel. Chapel.

chapel of the college, having regard also to the probable or eventual increase of population in the said township or hamlet.

Governors may prescribe rules and regulations.

41. Subject to the provisions of this scheme, the governors may from time to time prescribe such reasonable rules and regulations as they may think expedient for the internal government and conduct of the Charity and the establishment thereof as contemplated by this scheme, and of all officers and persons for the time being attached thereto or employed therein; and all such rules and regulations shall be observed by the persons affected thereby.

Three-fourths of net income to go to educational branch of Charity, and one-fourth to eleemosynary branch.

42. The Charity with respect to its objects shall consist of two branches, hereafter respectively called "the Educational" and "the Eleemosynary" branches; and the surplus annual income of the Charity, which shall remain after providing for and paying thereout the expenses of all necessary buildings, repairs, and insurance, and all other requisite or proper outgoings and expenses of management, as well as the stipends and salaries, and several other payments herein-before authorized or directed to be paid, and the interest and instalments of any debt payable thereout, shall be divided by the governors annually into equal fourth parts; and three of such fourth parts shall be placed by them from time to time to the account of "the educational branch" of the Charity, and (subject to the provision next herein-after contained) shall be applied and expended for the purposes thereof as herein-after directed; and the remaining one fourth part of such surplus income shall be placed by the said governors to the account of the eleemosynary branch of the Charity, and (subject to the said provision next herein-after contained) shall be applied and expended for the purposes thereof as herein-after also directed.

Surplus income of the Charity to be temporarily accumulated.

43. Provided nevertheless, that until the available surplus income of the Charity shall be sufficient for accomplishing the whole purposes hereby provided for with respect to the said educational and eleemosynary branches of the Charity respectively, or for bringing the same into active and complete operation, the amount of such surplus income as aforesaid shall be invested by the governors from time to time in the public funds or other government securities in the name of the stock committee for the time being, and the dividends thereon shall also be received and invested by them in like manner, so as to form an accumulating fund, which shall be ultimately applicable for such or the like purposes as are hereby declared of the income whence the same shall have arisen, except that if and so far as the governors may from time to time find the income for the time being sufficient for any partial accomplishment of such purposes respectively, it shall be lawful for them, with the sanction of the Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales, to apply the same income, or any part thereof, to such partial purposes.

For explanation and modification of this scheme.

44. If any doubt or question shall arise amongst the governors or any of them as to the proper construction or application of any of the provisions of this scheme or the management of the Charity, application may be made by the governors to the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales for their opinion and advice thereon, which opinion and advice, when given, shall be binding on the governors; and any provision in this scheme which may require to be explained or more closely adapted to the circumstances for the time being of the Charity may be explained, and adapted accordingly, by an order either of the Court of Chancery or of the Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales, to be made upon the application of the governors to the said Court or Board; and any provision in this scheme which shall be found inconvenient or objectionable may be modified accordingly by an order of the Court of Chancery, provided that no alteration shall be made by any such order involving a deviation from the main objects and principles of this scheme.

AS TO THE EDUCATIONAL BRANCH OF THE CHARITY.

Two schools to be established, an upper school and a lower school.

45. There shall be two schools, viz., an "Upper School," and a "Lower School," which shall be respectively established and maintained in the township or hamlet of Dulwich, out of the proportion of the income and funds of the Charity applicable to the educational branch thereof, subject and according to the provisions of this scheme.

Upper school.

46. The upper school shall be for the reception and instruction of boys as foundation scholars and day boys, and may be carried on in the present college buildings, which, for the purposes thereof, may be altered, enlarged, adapted, and fitted up by the governors, or, if necessary, new school buildings, with masters residences, playgrounds, and appurtenances, may be erected, provided, and fitted up by them, according to any plan which shall be previously approved by the Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales.

Head master and under master.

47. There shall be a head master of the said upper school, to be styled, "The Master of Alleyn's College of God's Gift at Dulwich," and who shall have the general control and superintendence of the educational branch of the Charity, subject to the superior authority of the governors, to whom he shall be responsible for the conduct thereof. There shall also be an under master of the same school, and such master and under master respectively shall be appointed by the governors.

Qualification of head and under master.

48. The master of the college, and the under master of the upper school, shall respectively be members of the Church of England, and graduates of one of the Universities of the United Kingdom, duly qualified to discharge the duties contemplated by this scheme; and the governors shall in all cases, previously to appointing any master or under master, advertise for candidates, and require and receive testimonials and other evidence of qualification in such manner as they may deem expedient for securing the services of the most efficient and eligible persons.

Dulwich College.

49. The governors shall pay by equal half-yearly payments, out of the income of the educational branch of the Charity, a fixed annual salary or stipend of 400*l.* to the master of the college, and of 250*l.* to the under master of the upper school, and also, in addition to such fixed salaries or stipends, a half-yearly payment or sum of 30*s.* to the master, and 10*s.* to the under master, for every boy exceeding the number of fifty, who shall have bonâ fide attended the said school for a period of not less than three calendar months during the then preceding half year.

Salaries of head master and under master.

50. The master of the college, with the approbation of the governors, shall be at liberty from time to time to appoint such assistant masters or teachers, and such professors, lecturers, and instructors, as may be requisite and proper for the purposes of the school; and every person so appointed shall hold office during the pleasure of the governors, and shall be paid out of the income of the educational branch of the Charity such a reasonable salary or remuneration as the governors shall appoint.

Assistant masters and teachers.

51. All boys between the ages of eight and fifteen years, whose parents or next friends shall be inhabitants of any of the said four parishes of Saint Botolph, Saint Saviour, Saint Luke, and Saint Giles Camberwell, being respectively of good character and conduct, and free from any infectious disease, and able to read and write, shall, to the extent of the accommodation afforded by the said upper school, be capable of being admitted thereto as day scholars, and of partaking of the benefits and advantages thereof, subject to the provisions of this scheme, and to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the governors consistently therewith; but no boy shall remain in the said school after he shall have attained the age of eighteen years. Subject to such rules and regulations as aforesaid, and subject to the right of preference in favour of boys from the four parishes aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the governors, if they think it expedient, at any time, to order the admission to the said school of boys from other parishes also, provided that the accommodation afforded by the school buildings and the funds of the Charity shall be sufficient for that purpose.

Qualifications for admission of boys to upper school.

52. Every application for admission to the upper school as a day scholar shall be made in writing to the master of the college, in whom the power of admitting or rejecting applicants shall be vested in the first instance, subject to the revision and control of the governors in each case, and such applications shall be made in such form, and shall be accompanied by such testimonials and evidence of qualification, as the said master, with the sanction of the governors, shall from time to time require; and registers of the applications for admission, and also of the boys admitted to the school, specifying the respective dates of such applications and admissions respectively, and the residences of the boys, and such other particulars as the governors may direct or sanction, shall be kept by the said master, and shall be accessible to every governor.

Applications for admission to upper school.

53. Any of the day boys attending the upper school may, with the consent of the governors, be admitted as day boarders upon the payment of such sums as the governors shall from time to time direct, and subject to such other reasonable regulations as they may prescribe.

Day boys may be partially boarded.

54. There shall be so many foundation scholars in the upper school, not exceeding the number of 24 at one time, as shall be fixed and determined from time to time by the governors, having regard to the amount of the income and resources of the educational branch of the Charity and the extent of accommodation afforded by the buildings, and the said foundation scholars shall be appointed in manner herein-after mentioned, and shall hold their respective appointments during such periods and subject to such regulations and conditions as the governors may from time to time prescribe.

Foundation scholars at upper school.

55. All boys belonging to any of the four parishes, either from the upper school or the lower school hereafter constituted, between the ages of 12 and 15 years, may offer themselves as candidates for appointment as foundation scholars in the upper school, subject and according to such regulations as the governors may from time to time prescribe; and the said foundation scholars shall be elected and appointed by the governors from time to time from the candidates who shall be reported to them by the master of the college to be the most deserving, having regard to the examinations passed by such candidates respectively at the examinations herein-after directed to be held of the said schools, and to their respective characters and conduct: Provided that of the whole number of foundation scholars in the upper school not less than one third shall be so elected and appointed by examination from the foundation scholars of the lower school.

Election of foundation scholars.

56. Subject to such regulations as shall from time to time be established or approved by the governors, the foundation scholars in the upper school shall during their continuance at the same school be lodged, boarded, clothed, educated, and maintained in all respects at the entire expense of the Charity, and the governors may, if they think fit, direct that such scholars shall wear a suitable cap or other mark of distinction.

Foundation scholars to be clothed and maintained at the expense of the Charity.

57. The master of the college and the second master of the upper school shall not be at liberty to receive and board any private pupils in their respective residences.

Head master and second master not at liberty to receive and board any private pupils.

58. The governors shall have the power of dismissing and expelling any boy from the upper school for any immorality, insubordination, misconduct, or other sufficient cause; and the master may immediately suspend any boy guilty of any such misconduct from further attendance at the school until the case can be reported to the governors and decided upon by them.

Suspension and expulsion of boys.

59. An annual sum or capitation fee to be fixed and determined from time to time by the governors shall be paid by every boy attending the upper school, with the exception of the foundation scholars, and, until until it shall be otherwise determined by the governors, the payment shall be according to the following scale; viz. :—

For every boy under the age of fourteen years :

If belonging to any of the four parishes aforesaid, 6*l.*

If not belonging to any of the same parishes, 8*l.*

For every boy above the age of fourteen years :

If not belonging to any of the same parishes, 10*l.*

And all such capitation fees shall be paid in advance to the governors, or to such person as they may appoint to receive the same, in such half-yearly or other payments and at such times as the governors may direct; and the governors shall be at liberty in any special cases to vary the sum to be paid by any boy, or to remit the same either partially or entirely as a reward of his superior merit, or on the ground of the greater poverty of his parents or next friends.

Application of
capitation fees.

60. The annual amount of the capitation fees to be received from the boys as aforesaid shall be paid and applied by the governors as follows, viz., one moiety thereof shall be paid half-yearly to the master of the college, and one-fourth part thereof shall be paid half-yearly to the under master of the upper school, in augmentation of their respective stipends, and the remaining one-fourth part thereof shall be applicable to the general purposes of the said school.

Instruction in upper school.

61. The instruction to be afforded in the upper school shall comprise, as far as may be—

The Principles of the Christian Religion and the Reading and Study of the Holy Scriptures ;

English Literature and Composition ;

The Greek, Latin, and modern Languages, and Literature ;

History and Geography ;

Writing and Vocal Music ;

Mathematics, Algebra, Arithmetic, and Book-keeping ;

Drawing and Designing, Practical Geometry and Mensuration, and the Principles of Civil Engineering ;

Physics, Mechanics, Chemistry, and the Natural Sciences, especially with their Applications to the Industrial and Practical Arts ;

And generally such subjects as the governors shall from time to time prescribe for affording to the scholars a sound religious, moral, and useful education.

For the purposes of these several branches of instruction, the upper school may be divided into such departments or sections as the governors, or the master with their sanction, shall from time to time determine, and the buildings to be provided for or appropriated to the objects of the same school, and the fittings thereof respectively, shall be adapted to the same purposes accordingly.

The governors may also, out of the funds applicable to the educational branch of the Charity, from time to time provide such instruments, models, drawings, apparatus, and other requisites, and may employ either temporarily or otherwise such lecturers, professors, or teachers, as they shall think proper, and as the said funds shall be sufficient to provide for advancing or rendering more effective the instruction to be so given.

school.

62. The course of instruction to be adopted in the upper school, and the hours of attendance, and the discipline and internal conduct and management thereof, and the holidays and vacations to be allowed therein, shall be under the direction and control of the master of the college, subject to such rules and regulations as the governors may from time to time approve.

mination.

63. There shall be an annual examination of the boys at the upper school at such time as shall be appointed by the governors, who shall appoint one or more suitable examiners, being respectively graduates of one of the Universities of the United Kingdom, to conduct such examination, and may pay such examiners respectively any reasonable sum for their trouble and expenses ; and such examination shall take place in the presence of the governors, and of the master of the college, and the under master of the school, or such of them as can conveniently attend ; and the churchwardens of the said four parishes, and such other persons as the governors or the master may think fit, shall be invited to attend the same ; and suitable prizes may be provided and distributed by the governors upon every such examination to the boys who shall be reported to them by the master of the college as deserving the same.

Not more than
each.

64. Whenever the income and resources of the educational branch of the Charity shall, in the judgment of the governors, permit, it shall be lawful for the governors to establish and pay out of such income any number of exhibitions or scholarships, not exceeding eight in the whole, and not exceeding the amount of one hundred pounds per annum each ; and such exhibitions or scholarships, when vacant, shall be open to the competition of all the boys at the upper school at the annual examination aforesaid, and may be awarded by the governors to the boys who shall appear to be most deserving thereof, having regard to the result of the said examination, and to the general character and conduct of such boys respectively : Provided that no boy shall be eligible for such exhibition who has not for the period of two years immediately preceding been educated in the upper or lower school.

tenable for five years.

65. Each exhibition or scholarship shall be tenable for five years, or for any less period, to be determined by the governors ; provided that the holder shall during his tenure thereof continue to be resident at

at one of the English Universities, or to be a bonâ fide student of some learned or scientific profession or of the fine arts, with a view to the professional practice thereof, and shall continue to conduct himself with propriety and to the satisfaction of the governors.

66. The lower school shall be for the instruction and benefit of boys as foundation scholars and day boys, and shall be established and carried on in suitable buildings and premises, to be constructed or provided and fitted up for that purpose by the governors in Dulwich, according to a plan to be previously approved by the Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales; and the buildings of the present college grammar school may, if thought expedient, and subject to the like approval, be appropriated and altered, enlarged and fitted up, by the governors for the purpose of the said lower school. Lower school.

67. There shall be a master of the lower school to be appointed by the governors, who shall be a member of the Church of England, duly qualified to discharge the duties contemplated by this scheme; and the governors, previously to appointing any such master, shall advertise for candidates, and receive such testimonials and evidence of qualification as they may deem expedient for securing the services of the most efficient and eligible master. Master of the lower school.

68. The master of the lower school shall be paid by the governors by half-yearly payments out of the income of the educational branch of the Charity a fixed annual stipend of 200*l.*, and also an additional half-yearly sum of 20*s.* for every boy exceeding the number of fifty who shall have bonâ fide attended the same school for a period of not less than three calendar months during the then preceding half-year. Stipend to master of the lower school.

69. The governors, upon the recommendation of the master of the college, may from time to time appoint such and so many persons as assistant masters, teachers, and instructors for the purposes of the lower school as in their opinion may be requisite or proper, having regard to the requirements of the same school, and the income and resources of the educational branch of the Charity; and every such person may be paid by the governors such a salary or remuneration as the governors may think proper, and every person to be so appointed shall hold office during the pleasure of the governors. Assistant masters or teachers.

70. There shall be so many "foundation scholars" in the lower school as shall be fixed and determined from time to time by the governors, having regard to the amount of the income and resources for the time being of the educational branch of the Charity. Foundation scholars at lower school.

71. The foundation scholars at the lower school shall be appointed by the governors, and boys between the ages of eight and twelve years, of good character, free from infectious disease, and able to read and write, and being poor orphans having lost one or both parents, or in default of such then the children of poor deserving parents resident in any of the said several parishes of St. Botolph, St. Saviour, St. Luke, and St. Giles Camberwell, shall be eligible to be so appointed, but so that an equal number of the said foundation scholars shall be taken from each of the said parishes. The age up to which the foundation scholars may remain in the lower school may be fixed and determined from time to time by the governors, provided that no boy shall be allowed to remain as a foundation scholar in the same school after the age of sixteen years. Qualification of foundation scholars.

72. The foundation scholars at the lower school shall be elected from time to time from amongst boys duly qualified as aforesaid, upon an examination and inquiry to be instituted by the governors, or by a committee of not less than three of their number, to be appointed for that purpose; and every such election shall be held either at Dulwich or at the respective parishes from which the scholars are to be elected, and shall take place at such times and be subject to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the said governors; and previously to every such election sufficient notice shall be given by the governors in such of the said parishes as may be interested therein, and in any manner and form which the governors may consider best calculated to ensure publicity, specifying the number of vacancies to be filled up, and the qualifications required from candidates, and the time and place at which the election will take place; and in making every such election the merits, qualifications, and claims of the candidates in regard to their respective proficiency, abilities, and general character, and the circumstances and character of their respective parents, shall be taken into due consideration by the governors. Election of foundation scholars.

73. The governors may appoint any fit and proper person to examine the candidates at every such election, and may pay to such person out of the funds of the Charity any reasonable remuneration for his trouble and expenses, or they may authorize the master of the lower school, or the master of the college, or the under master of the upper school to act as the examiner upon any such occasion gratuitously; and so far as conveniently may be, and subject to such regulations as the governors may prescribe, every such examination may be attended by all parishioners of the parish for which the election in question shall be held, and by any other persons whom the said governors may think fit or expedient to admit to attend the same. Examination of candidates.

74. The foundation scholars at the lower school shall be lodged and boarded in suitable buildings attached to the same school, to be provided and fitted up by the governors for that purpose, and shall also be clothed, maintained, and educated at the same school at the entire expense of the Charity, in accordance with such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the governors in that behalf. Foundation scholars to be clothed, educated, and maintained at expense of Charity.

75. Subject to the regulation and control of the governors, and to the extent of accommodation afforded by the school, all boys above the age of eight years, the children of the industrial or poorer classes resident in any of the four parishes aforesaid, being respectively of good character and able to Day boys at lower school.

read and write, and not suffering from any infectious disorder, shall be admissible to the lower school as day boys; but no such boy shall remain at the school after the age of sixteen years.

Applications for admission
as day boys.

76. Every application for admission as a day boy to the lower school shall be made to the master of the same school, who shall keep a register of all such applications and of the boys admitted to the school, which register shall always be open to the inspection of every governor and of the master of the college.

Capitation fees.

77. A capitation fee to be fixed by the governors from time to time, but not exceeding 5s. a quarter for each boy under fourteen years of age, and 10s. a quarter for each boy above that age, shall be paid by the parents or friends of every day boy attending the lower school to the governors, or to any person appointed by them to receive the same; but the governors may in particular cases, if they see fit, as a reward of superior merit, or on the ground of the poverty of any boy or his friends, or for sufficient special reasons, excuse the payment of such capitation fees either wholly or in part. All such capitation fees shall be paid in advance quarterly, or at such other times as the governors may direct, and shall be paid and applied by the governors as follows, viz., one moiety of the amount thereof shall be paid half-yearly to the master of the lower school in augmentation of his stipend, and the remaining moiety shall be applied towards increasing the stipend or remuneration of the assistant masters or teachers of the said school respectively (if any), or for the general purposes of the same school, as the governors in their discretion shall think fit.

Provision for
ing day boys.

78. Any of the day boys attending the lower school may, with the consent of the governors, be admitted as day boarders, and may thereupon be boarded with the foundation scholars of the same school upon the payment of such a sum for defraying the expense as the governors may from time to time direct, and subject to such other reasonable regulations as they may prescribe.

Instruction in lower school.

79. The instruction to be given in the lower school shall comprise, as far as may be—

The Principles of the Christian Religion, and the Reading and Study of the Holy Scriptures;

Spelling, Reading, and Writing;

English Grammar and Composition, and the Latin and modern Languages;

General History and Geography;

Vocal Music;

Arithmetic, Algebra, Mathematics, and the Elements of Practical Geometry and of Mensuration;

Elementary Instruction in the Laws of Physics, Mechanics, Chemistry, and the Natural Sciences; Elementary Freehand and Mechanical Drawing.

The instruction in these subjects shall bear especially on their application to the Industrial Arts, and to them may be added such subjects as the governors shall from time to time prescribe for affording to the scholars a sound religious, moral, and useful education, adapted to their probable occupations or stations in life.

For the purposes aforesaid the lower school may be divided into such departments or sections as the governors, or the master with their sanction, shall from time to time determine, and the buildings to be provided for or appropriated to the objects of the same school, and the fittings thereof shall be adapted to the same several purposes accordingly.

*The governors may also from time to time, for the benefit of the lower school, make any such provision for promoting or rendering more effectual the instruction to be given therein, and particularly in any branches of physical or mechanical science as are authorized to be made by them for the benefit of the upper school for the like purposes, so far as in their judgment such provision shall be required, and the funds of the educational branch of the Charity properly applicable to this purpose will permit.

Suspension and
boys.

80. The boys at the lower school shall be liable to dismissal and expulsion by the governors for any breach of the rules of the school, or for theft, immorality, insubordination, or misconduct, or other sufficient cause. And upon the occurrence of any such offence or occasion, the master of the same school shall report the same to the master of the college, who shall have power to inquire into the same, and if he shall so think fit, to suspend the offender from further attendance at the school until the case shall have been reported by him to the governors, and decided upon by them.

Provision for
tendence and
lower school.

81. The discipline and course of instruction to be adopted at the lower school, and the internal regulation and management thereof, shall be committed to the master of the same school, subject, nevertheless, to the general superintendence and direction of the master of the college, who shall be at liberty at all times to visit and inquire into the state and condition of the said lower school, and shall, at least once in each year, make a report thereon to the governors, and subject also to the orders and regulations of the governors.

Annual examination.

82. There shall be an annual examination of the boys at the lower school at such time as shall be appointed by the governors, who shall appoint some fit and proper examiner to conduct such examination, and may pay to him any reasonable remuneration for his trouble and expenses; and such examination shall take place in the presence of the governors, and of the masters of the upper and lower schools, or such of them as can conveniently attend, and the churchwardens of the said four parishes, and such other persons as the governors or the master of the college may from time to time think fit, shall be invited to attend the same. With the approbation of the governors, either the master of the college or the second master of the upper school may act as the examiner at any such annual examination gratuitously.

Dulwich College.

83. The governors may yearly, upon the occasion of such examination as last aforesaid, distribute suitable prizes, to be provided out of the income and funds of the educational branch of the Charity, among the boys at the lower school who shall be found to be most deserving thereof, having regard to the results of the said examination and to the general character and conduct of such boys, according to a report thereof to be made to the governors by the master of the college in concurrence with the master of the lower school; and the governors may also yearly, upon the occasion of such annual examination, award and pay out of the same income and funds, to or for the benefit of a limited number of such boys as last aforesaid who shall be then leaving the school (but not exceeding the number of six in the whole during any one year), a gratuity or sum not exceeding 40*l.* in each case for the purpose of apprenticing or advancing such boys respectively in the world in such manner and subject to such conditions and regulations as the governors may prescribe: Provided that one third at least of the boys receiving such benefit shall be taken every year from the most deserving of the foundation scholars of the lower school, if a sufficient number of the foundation scholars should be then leaving the school.

gifts.

84. Whenever the income and resources of the educational branch of the Charity shall in the judgment of the governors permit, any number of exhibitions or scholarships, not exceeding twelve in the whole, and not exceeding the amount of 40*l.* per annum each, may be awarded and paid by the said governors out of such income to or for the benefit of such boys as herein-after mentioned upon their leaving the lower school, and any such exhibition or scholarship shall be tenable by the boy to whom it shall be so awarded for a period not exceeding four years from the time of his leaving the school, provided that he shall continue to conduct himself with propriety and to the satisfaction of the governors; but no more than three such exhibitions or scholarships shall be awarded or filled up in any one year.

Exhibitions or

85. The said exhibitions or scholarships to the extent of the disposable vacancies for the time being therein shall be open to the competition of all boys at the lower school (as well foundation scholars as day boys) at the annual examination for the same schools, and shall be awarded by the governors to the boys who shall be found to be most deserving thereof, having regard to the result of the said examination, and to the general character and conduct of the boys, according to a report to be made to the governors by the master of the college in concurrence with the master of the lower school; but no boy shall be entitled to or receive any such exhibition or scholarship in addition to a gratuity for his apprenticeship or advancement as aforesaid: Provided also, that no boy shall be eligible for such exhibition or scholarship who has not for the period of two years immediately preceding been educated in the said lower school.

Competition
bitions.

86. Suitable residences, with all proper fittings and appurtenances, shall be provided by the governors for the persons holding the respective offices of master of the college and under master and master of the said upper and lower schools, and the same persons respectively shall reside in their respective official residences rent-free, and shall have the occupation and use thereof in respect of their official character and duties, and not as tenants, and shall, if removed from office, deliver up possession of their said respective residences at such time and to such person as the governors may require or direct; and no master shall underlet or permit any person, except himself and his family, to occupy his official residence or any part thereof. The said official residences, with their respective appurtenances, shall be kept in proper repair, and all rates and taxes thereon shall be paid by the governors out of the income of the Charity.

Masters to reside in and not to underlet
dences.

87. The master of the college and the under master and master of the said upper and lower schools respectively shall give their whole time and personal attention to the duties of their respective offices, and shall not respectively during their respective tenure of office accept or hold any benefice having the cure of souls, or any office or appointment which in the opinion of the governors may interfere with the proper performance of their respective duties under this scheme.

Masters not to
employments.

88. The master of the college and the under master and master of the said upper and lower schools respectively, previously to entering into office under the provisions of this scheme, shall respectively sign a declaration to be entered in the minute book of the governors, which may be in the following form, or as near thereto as conveniently may be, i.e. :—

be signed by masters on
office.

“ I, _____ declare, That I will always to the best of my ability discharge the duties of _____ during my tenure of that office according to the provisions of the scheme for the regulation of Alleyn's College of God's Gift at Dulwich, and that in case I shall be removed from my office by the governors according to the provisions of the same scheme, I will acquiesce in such removal, and will thereupon relinquish all claim to such office and its future emoluments, and upon any such removal, or upon any avoidance of my office, possession of my official residence with its appurtenances may be forthwith taken by the governors, or any person appointed by them to take possession of the same.”

89. The master of the college, and the under master of the upper school, and the master of the lower school respectively, shall be liable to be removed from their respective offices by the resolution of the governors present at a special meeting, to be called for the express purpose of considering the expediency of such removal upon a requisition of at least three governors, provided that the resolution for such removal shall be carried at such meeting by at least two-thirds of the governors present, and that the number of governors voting for the removal shall not be less than seven, and provided that the notice of meeting shall in this special case have been given to every governor by the space of at least one calendar month previously to the holding thereof, and that notice thereof shall have been also given in like manner by the same space previously to the master whose removal shall be proposed, and that such resolution shall be entered on the minutes and signed by the governors voting for the same.

Removal of head and under masters.

90. The master of the college, and the under master of the upper school, and the master of the lower school, shall also respectively be removable by the governors under the provisions of "The Charitable Trusts Act, 1853," and the governors may assign to any master or under master, upon his removal under this or the last foregoing clause, or upon his retirement, such a reasonable annual allowance by way of retiring pension, to be paid out of the income of the educational branch of the charity, as the Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales shall sanction.

Masters' salaries apportionable in case of death, &c.

91. Any master of the college, and any under master or master of the said upper and lower schools respectively, who may die, resign, or be removed from office under the provisions of this scheme in the interval between any two half-yearly days of payment, shall respectively be entitled to a due proportion of his salary or stipend, and of the portion of capitation fees, if any, payable to him under the provisions of this scheme from the previous half-yearly day of payment thereof up to the day of his death, resignation, or removal.

Provision as to the religious instruction.

92. Prayers taken from the Liturgy of the Church of England, or of which the form shall have been approved by the visitor, shall be said daily in each of the said schools when the same shall meet. The religious instruction in both the schools shall be in accordance with the doctrines of the Church of England, and shall be given under the general direction of the master of the college to all boys, except that instruction in the Church Catechism, or in any distinctive doctrines of the Church of England, shall not be given to boys whose parents, or persons standing in loco parentis (being respectively persons not in communion with that church), shall state in writing to the master of the college that they object to such last-mentioned instruction upon conscientious grounds; and all the boys, except those last aforesaid, shall also attend divine service at the chapel of the college on Sundays, and on such other days and at such times as may be directed by the master of the college, subject to the approbation of the governors. The exemption from attending divine service at the chapel of the college on Sundays may also be extended by the governors or the master, if found necessary or convenient, to any day boys attending the schools from other places than Dulwich; but care shall be taken, as far as possible, that all boys who shall, by virtue of the said exception, be exempted from attendance at the said chapel as aforesaid, shall regularly attend some other place of religious public worship on Sundays.

Boarding establishment.

93. Every establishment which may be set up by any person or persons for the purpose of lodging or boarding boys at the upper or lower school shall be under the superintendence of the master of the college, subject to any rules and regulations which may be made by the governors.

Attendants and servants.

94. The governors may appoint from time to time such attendants and servants as may be found to be required for any of the purposes of the said respective schools at such reasonable salaries to be paid out of the income of the educational branch of the Charity as the governors may think fit, and may remove any such attendants and servants at pleasure.

Present poor scholars to be admitted as foundation scholars.

95. The present poor scholars at the college, or such of them (if any) as may retain their respective appointments when this scheme shall come into operation, shall be entitled to be admitted in the first instance as foundation scholars either at the upper or lower schools as the governors may determine and direct in each case.

Preference in favour of inhabitants of Dulwich for admission to schools.

96. In the appointment or admission of boys from the parish of Camberwell to either of the said schools, under any of the provisions of this scheme, boys being the children of resident inhabitants of the township or hamlet of Dulwich, and being otherwise duly qualified for appointment or admission, shall always be entitled to and have a preference, cæteris paribus, over boys being the children of persons resident in any other part of the said parish of Camberwell. Provided nevertheless, that the preference hereby given shall take effect and be acted upon in those cases only where the merits and qualifications of the respective candidates for appointment or admission independently of their place of residence shall be equal in the judgment of the governors, whose decision in case of any dispute or difference as to the application or effect of this provision shall be conclusive upon all parties.

Schools subject to H. M. Inspectors of Schools.

97. The schools shall respectively be subject to inspection by Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools.

Provision for increase of number of foundation scholars and exhibitioners.

98. It shall be lawful for the governors from time to time, with the sanction of the Court of Chancery or the Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales, to be obtained upon application to such Court or Board, to increase the number of foundation scholars or exhibitioners at or from both or either of the said schools to such an extent as the amount of the income and resources of the educational branch of the Charity for the time being, and other circumstances, may render proper and expedient.

Surplus income.

99. The annual surplus income (if any) of the educational branch of the Charity which shall not be applied or required for the purposes herein-before expressed, shall be invested by the governors from time to time in the public funds or other Government securities, in the names of the stock committee or in the name of the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds, and the dividends and income to arise from such investments shall be applicable as part of the income of the educational branch of the Charity.

AS TO THE ELEEMOSYNARY BRANCH.

100. There shall be such a number of almspeople belonging to the Charity as shall be determined by the governors from time to time, having regard to the amount of income available for the support of the eleemosynary branch of the Charity, and the extent of accommodation afforded by the buildings to be erected for that purpose according to this scheme; but the number of such almspeople for whom accommodation shall be provided by the governors in the first instance shall not exceed twenty-four. Almspeople.

101. Suitable residences with gardens, if the same can be conveniently attached to them, and all necessary and proper fittings and conveniences, shall be erected or appropriated and provided by the governors for the reception and accommodation of the said almspeople upon the Charity estate if practicable, or elsewhere at Dulwich, and according to plans to be approved by the Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales. Residences for almspeople.

102. The present poor brethren and sisters belonging to the Charity, or any of them, who may continue to hold their respective appointments after the 31st day of December next, shall be entitled to be placed, in the first instance, in the residences to be erected or appropriated and fitted up in accordance with the provisions of this scheme; and until sufficient residences shall be erected and fitted up for such poor brethren and sisters, and in case of and from and after their removal from the college, the governors shall provide them with fit residences or make such other provision for their location and domiciles as shall be just and expedient. Provision for locating present poor brethren and sisters.

103. One half of the almspeople shall be poor men to be called "Brethren," and the other half of such almspeople shall be poor women to be called "Sisters," and both classes shall be selected, so far as practicable, from among respectable persons, either married or single, who shall have fallen from better circumstances into indigence, and who shall be of the age of sixty years or upwards; and the said almspeople shall always be chosen and appointed from among residents in the said four parishes of Saint Botolph Without Bishopsgate, Saint Saviour Southwark, Saint Luke Middlesex, and Saint Giles Camberwell, respectively, in the proportion of one-fourth of the whole number of such almspeople from each of the said several parishes respectively. Qualification of almspeople.

104. The right of appointing the almspeople shall be vested in the governors, but for the purpose of every such appointment the vestry of the parish from which the appointment is to be made shall submit to the governors the names of three persons duly qualified as aforesaid as candidates, with all proper information and evidences as to their qualification, condition, character, and circumstances, and so far as regards the candidates to be so submitted from the parish of Camberwell, having due regard to the preference herein-after reserved in favour of persons resident in the township or hamlet of Dulwich, and one of such candidates, if found duly qualified and eligible, shall thereupon be selected and appointed by the governors to fill the vacancy; but the governors may, if and so often as they shall think fit, on the ground of disqualification, or any other reasonable cause to be assigned by them, reject all or any of the three candidates to be so submitted to them for the purpose of any such appointment, and require other candidates to be submitted to them as aforesaid, in the respective places of any so rejected. In any case of the refusal or omission of the vestry to submit to the governors the names of proper candidates within twenty-eight days next after a notification made to them or to their clerk by order of the governors of a vacancy to be filled, or next after the rejection by the governors according to the preceding provision of any candidates or candidate for the said vacancy, the governors shall be at liberty to appoint any duly qualified person to fill such vacancy. Appointment of almspeople.

105. The almspeople, during the tenure of their respective appointments, shall have the use and occupation of their respective residences, together with such fittings and furniture (if any) as may be provided by the governors, rent-free, and a weekly stipend to be fixed and determined from time to time by the governors, but not exceeding twenty shillings per week, shall be paid to each almsperson out of the income of the eleemosynary branch of the Charity. Weekly allowances to almspeople.

106. The chaplain of the college, subject to the superior authority and direction of the governors, shall have the immediate supervision and control of the almspeople, and shall take care that proper discipline and order is observed by them, and he shall half-yearly or more frequently report to the governors as to the state and condition of the almspeople and the eleemosynary branch of the Charity generally. Chaplain to have supervision of almspeople.

107. Whenever the income of the eleemosynary branch of the Charity, after providing for the establishment and maintenance of twenty-four almspeople, shall be sufficient for the following purpose, the governors shall appoint from time to time as out-pensioners any number of persons not exceeding the number of almspeople for the time being, and not exceeding thirty-two in the whole. The number of such pensioners of either sex shall, so far as possible, be equal; and so far as may be convenient and practicable the several provisions herein contained with regard to the qualification of the said almspeople, and the proportion of the whole number to be appointed from the poor of each of the said four parishes respectively, and the mode of their election and appointment, and the tenure of their appointments, shall be applicable to the pensioners contemplated by this provision, except that such pensioners, shall be eligible after the age of fifty years. The governors may pay to each pensioner during the tenure of his Pensioners.

or her appointment, out of the last-mentioned income, a weekly or other periodical sum at the rate of ten shillings per week.

Removal and suspension of almspeople.

108. The governors shall have the power of removing and dismissing any almsperson or pensioner for disqualification, immorality, insubordination, misconduct, or other sufficient cause, and the master of the college may at any time suspend any almsperson or pensioner guilty of any such misconduct from the receipt of any allowance or benefit from the Charity until the case can be reported to the governors and decided upon by them.

Preference in favour of Dulwich for appointment as almspeople and pensioners.

109. In the appointment of any almsperson or pensioner from among residents in the parish of Camberwell under the provisions of this scheme, poor persons resident in the said township or hamlet of Dulwich, being otherwise duly qualified as required by this scheme, shall always be entitled to and have a preference, ceteris paribus, over poor persons resident in other parts of the said parish, and the nominations to be made by the vestry of the said parish of Camberwell shall in all cases be made in accordance with this provision; provided nevertheless, that the preference hereby given shall take effect and be acted upon in those cases only where the qualifications and claims of the respective candidates in accordance with this scheme, independently of their place of residence, shall be equal according to the judgment of the governors, whose decision in case of any dispute or difference as to the application or effect of this provision shall be conclusive as between all parties.

Surplus income.

110. The annual surplus income (if any) of the eleemosynary branch of the Charity which shall not be applied or required for the purposes herein-before expressed, or any of them, shall be invested by the governors from time to time in the public funds or other Government securities, in the names of the stock committee or in the name of the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds, and the dividends and income to arise from such investments shall be applicable as part of the income of the eleemosynary branch of the Charity.

AS TO THE PICTURES AND OTHER MINOR FOUNDATIONS.

Provision for preservation and custody of pictures.

111. Provision shall be made by the governors, with the sanction of the President and Council of the Royal Academy, for the preservation and custody of the collection of pictures and other works of art bequeathed to the college by the respective wills of Sir Peter Francis Bourgeois and Margaret Desenfans, and all accretions or additions (if any) to such collection, in the present gallery, and, if necessary, in some additional gallery to be erected or otherwise provided for the purpose at the College at Dulwich, and subject to such regulations for making the same accessible to the public, and for other purposes, as the governors, with the like sanction or approval, may determine or direct.

Endowments of picture gallery.

112. All sums of stock, securities for money, and other property vested in or held by the college, or any person or persons in trust for the custody or preservation of the said pictures or works of art, or for any object or purpose connected therewith, or so much thereof as shall not have been already vested in the said governors by virtue of the provisions herein-before contained, shall be transferred to the governors hereby established, or to any four persons of their number to be appointed by them for that purpose, or as to such stock to the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds, and shall be placed by the governors to a separate account, to be called "The Picture Gallery Endowment Account," and the same stock, securities, and premises, and the dividends and income arising therefrom, shall be applicable primarily to the purposes of placing, preserving, and guarding the said pictures and works of art, but such purposes may include the erection, providing, appropriation, and fitting of any additional gallery which may be erected or provided in pursuance of the foregoing provision, and of keeping the same in repair. In case the services of the present curator and doorkeeper of the picture gallery, or of either of them, shall be dispensed with by the governors, a suitable yearly allowance or pension shall be assigned to them respectively during their respective lives, in consideration of their past services, such respective allowances or pensions to be paid by the governors half-yearly out of the income of the Picture Gallery Endowment.

Surplus income of picture gallery endowment.

113. The annual surplus income (if any) arising from the said Picture Gallery Endowment shall be applied by the governors in or towards providing instruction in drawing or designing for the boys at the two schools constituted by this scheme, and until so applied shall be accumulated and invested as part of the surplus income of the said educational branch of the Charity.

John Whitfield's gift.

114. The sum of 666*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*, 3*l.* per cent. reduced Bank Annuities, bequeathed by John Whitfield, Esquire, by his will dated the 24th of April 1826, to the master and warden of the said College and their successors, upon trust to lay out the interest thereof annually in bread and potatoes, or other necessaries, and distribute the same in the months of December, January, and February in each year unto and among such twenty poor widows in the hamlet of Dulwich as the said master and warden should in their discretion consider most to stand in need of such assistance, and in proportion to the number of their respective families and wants, together with all accretions or additions, if any, to such bequest, shall be transferred to the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds, in trust for John Whitfield's Charity, Dulwich; and the chairman for the time being of the governors, and the master, and the chaplain for the time being of Alleyn's College of God's Gift at Dulwich as hereby constituted, shall be the trustees for the management and distribution of the said last-mentioned charity, and the income thereof thereof shall be paid over from time to time to such trustees, or any one or more of them, in order that the same may be applied and distributed by them, or the majority of them, in accordance with the trusts declared by the said will.

115. The rents, dividends, and income arising from the estates and other property constituting the endowment of the school founded by James Allen, by indenture dated on or about the 31st of August 1741, for the benefit of the children of poor persons resident in the town of Dulwich, or within one mile thereof, and all accumulations of income and other funds belonging to the said endowment, shall be placed by the governors to a separate account, to be called "The Dulwich Girls' School Account." The chairman for the time being of the governors and the master and the chaplain for the time being of the said college shall be the trustees for the administration of the said last-mentioned school, which shall be established and carried on as a school for the instruction of girls being the children of poor persons resident in the hamlet of Dulwich and its immediate vicinity, subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by the said trustees, or the majority of them, with the sanction of the said Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales; and the organist of the college shall instruct in vocal music and choral singing such girls in the said school as the trustees may select; and the rents and income arising from the said endowment shall be paid over to the said trustees in trust for the purposes of the same school, and the governors of the said college shall be at liberty to appropriate in perpetuity a suitable piece of land out of the college estate as a site for school buildings for the said last-mentioned school, and any accumulations which have been already made, or may hereafter be made, out of the rents or income of the said endowment, may be applied by the said trustees in or towards erecting and fitting up suitable buildings for the purposes of the said school.

James Allen's gift, or Dulwich girls' school.

C A P. LXXXV.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Divorce and Matrimonial Causes in England.

[28th August 1857.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Law relating to Divorce, and to constitute a Court with exclusive Jurisdiction in Matters Matrimonial in England, and with Authority in certain Cases to decree the Dissolution of a Marriage: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. This Act shall come into operation on such Day, not sooner than the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, as Her Majesty shall by Order in Council appoint, provided that such Order be made One Month at least previously to the Day so to be appointed.

Commencement of Act.

II. As soon as this Act shall come into operation, all Jurisdiction now exercisable by any Ecclesiastical Court in England in respect of Divorces à Mensâ et Thoro, Suits of Nullity of Marriage, Suits of Jactitation of Marriage, Suits for Restitution of Conjugal Rights, and in all Causes, Suits, and Matters Matrimonial, shall cease to be so exercisable, except so far as relates to the granting of Marriage Licences, which may be granted as if this Act had not been passed.

Jurisdiction in Matters Matrimonial now vested in Ecclesiastical Courts to cease.

III. Any Decree or Order of any Ecclesiastical Court of competent Jurisdiction which shall have been made before this Act comes into operation, in any Cause or Matter Matrimonial, may be enforced or otherwise dealt with by the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes herein-after mentioned, in the same Way as if it had been originally made by the said Court under this Act.

Court may enforce Decrees, &c. before Act takes effect.

IV. All Suits and Proceedings in Causes and Matters Matrimonial which at the Time when this Act comes into operation shall be pending in any Ecclesiastical Court in England shall be transferred to, dealt with, and decided by the said Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes as if the same had been originally instituted in the said Court.

As to Suits pending when this Act comes into operation.

V. Provided, That if at the Time when this Act comes into operation any Cause or Matter which would be transferred to the said Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes under the Enactment herein-before contained shall have been heard before any Judge having Jurisdiction in relation to such Cause or Matter, and be then standing for Judgment, such Judge may at any Time within Six Weeks after the Time when this Act comes into operation give in to One of the Registrars attending the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes a written Judgment thereon signed by him; and a Decree or Order, as the Case may require, shall be drawn up in pursuance of such Judgment, and every such Decree or Order shall have the same Force and Effect as if it had been drawn up in pursuance of a Judgment of the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes on the Day on which the same was delivered to the Registrar, and shall be subject to Appeal under this Act.

Power to Judges whose Jurisdiction is determined to deliver written Judgments.

VI. As soon as this Act shall come into operation, all Jurisdiction now vested in or exercisable by any Ecclesiastical Court or Person in England in respect of Divorces à Mensâ et Thoro, Suits of Nullity of Marriage, Suits for Restitution of Conjugal Rights, or Jactitation of Marriage, and in all Causes, Suits, and Matters Matrimonial, except in respect of Marriage Licences, shall belong to and be vested in Her Majesty, and such Jurisdiction, together with the Jurisdiction conferred by this Act, shall be exercised in the Name of Her Majesty in a Court of Record to be called "The Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes."

Jurisdiction over Causes Matrimonial to be exercised by the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes.

VII. No

Divorce and Matrimonial Causes.

Decree for Divorce à Mensâ et Thoro abolished, &c.

Judges of the Court.

Judge of Court of Probate to be Judge Ordinary, and shall have full Authority, &c.

Petitions for Dissolution of a Marriage, how to be heard.

Who to act as Judge during Absence of the Judge Ordinary.

Sittings of the Court.

Seal of the Court.

Officers of the Court.

Advocates, &c. of Ecclesiastical and Superior Courts may practise in the Court.

Judicial Separation may be obtained for Adultery, &c.

Application for Restitution of Conjugal Rights or Judicial Separation may be made by Husband or Wife by Petition to Court, &c.

Powers of Judges of Assize for Purposes of deciding Applications under Authority of this Act.

VII. No Decree shall hereafter be made for a Divorce à Mensâ et Thoro, but in all Cases in which a Decree for a Divorce à Mensâ et Thoro might now be pronounced the Court may pronounce a Decree for a Judicial Separation, which shall have the same Force and the same Consequences as a Divorce à Mensâ et Thoro now has.

VIII. The Lord Chancellor, the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench, the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, the Lord Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer, the Senior Puisne Judge for the Time being in each of the Three last-mentioned Courts, and the Judge of Her Majesty's Court of Probate constituted by any Act of the present Session, shall be the Judges of the said Court.

IX. The Judge of the Court of Probate shall be called the Judge Ordinary of the said Court, and shall have full Authority, either alone or with One or more of the other Judges of the said Court, to hear and determine all Matters arising therein, except Petitions for the dissolving of or annulling Marriage, and Applications for new Trials of Questions or Issues before a Jury, Bills of Exception, Special Verdicts, and Special Cases, and, except as aforesaid, may exercise all the Powers and Authority of the said Court.

X. All Petitions, either for the Dissolution or for a Sentence of Nullity of Marriage, and Applications for new Trials of Questions or Issues before a Jury, shall be heard and determined by Three or more Judges of the said Court, of whom the Judge of the Court of Probate shall be One.

XI. During the temporary Absence of the Judge Ordinary, the Lord Chancellor may by Writing under his Hand authorize the Master of the Rolls, the Judge of the Admiralty Court, or either of the Lords Justices, or any Vice-Chancellor, or any Judge of the Superior Courts of Law at Westminster, to act as Judge Ordinary of the said Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes, and the Master of the Rolls, the Judge of the Admiralty Court, Lord Justice, Vice-Chancellor, or Judge of the Superior Courts, shall, when so acting, have and exercise all the Jurisdiction, Power, and Authority which might have been exercised by the Judge Ordinary.

XII. The Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes shall hold its Sittings at such Place or Places in London or Middlesex or elsewhere as Her Majesty in Council shall from Time to Time appoint.

XIII. The Lord Chancellor shall direct a Seal to be made for the said Court, and may direct the same to be broken, altered, and renewed, at his Discretion; and all Decrees and Orders, or Copies of Decrees or Orders, of the said Court, sealed with the said Seal, shall be received in Evidence.

XIV. The Registrars and other Officers of the Principal Registry of the Court of Probate shall attend the Sittings of the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes, and assist in the Proceedings thereof, as shall be directed by the Rules and Orders under this Act.

XV. All Persons admitted to practise as Advocates or Proctors respectively in any Ecclesiastical Court in England, and all Barristers, Attornies, and Solicitors entitled to practise in the Superior Courts at Westminster, shall be entitled to practise in the Court of Divorce and Matrimonial Causes; and such Advocates and Barristers shall have the same relative Rank and Precedence which they now have in the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, unless and until Her Majesty shall otherwise order.

XVI. A Sentence of Judicial Separation (which shall have the Effect of a Divorce à Mensâ et Thoro under the existing Law, and such other legal Effect as herein mentioned,) may be obtained, either by the Husband or the Wife, on the Ground of Adultery, or Cruelty, or Desertion without Cause for Two Years and upwards.

XVII. Application for Restitution of Conjugal Rights or for Judicial Separation on any one of the Grounds aforesaid may be made by either Husband or Wife, by Petition to the Court, or to any Judge of Assize at the Assizes held for the County in which the Husband and Wife reside or last resided together, and which Judge of Assize is hereby authorized and required to hear and determine such Petition, according to the Rules and Regulations which shall be made under the Authority of this Act; and the Court or Judge to which such Petition is addressed, on being satisfied of the Truth of the Allegations therein contained, and that there is no legal Ground why the same should not be granted, may decree such Restitution of Conjugal Rights or Judicial Separation accordingly, and where the Application is by the Wife may make any Order for Alimony which shall be deemed just: Provided always, that any Judge of Assize to whom such Petition shall be presented may refer the same to any of Her Majesty's Counsel or Serjeant at Law named in the Commission of Assize or Nisi Prius, and such Counsel or Serjeant shall, for the Purpose of deciding upon the Matters of such Petition, have all the Powers that any such Judge would have had by virtue of this Act or otherwise.

XVIII. For the Purpose of hearing and deciding all Applications under the Authority of this Act, the Judge of Assize or Person nominated by him as aforesaid shall be entitled to avail himself of the Services of all Officers, and use and exercise all Powers and Authorities, which the Court of Assize may employ, use, and exercise for the Determination of Causes and other Matters now usually heard and decided by them respectively, and the said Judge of Assize or other Person shall also for the Purpose have and be entitled to exercise all the Powers and Authorities hereby given to the Court for the hearing and deciding Applications made to it, and also the Powers hereby given to the Court to make Provision touching the Custody, Maintenance, and Education of Children; and every Order made by any Judge of Assize or other Person under the Authority of this Act may, on the Application of the Person obtaining the the same, be entered as an Order of the Court, and when so entered shall have the same Force and Effect, and be enforced in the same Manner, as if such Order had been originally made by the Court.

XIX. The Court shall from Time to Time fix and regulate the Fees which shall be payable upon all Proceedings under any Application to a Judge of Assize under this Act; and such Fees shall be received in Money, for their own Benefit, by the Persons to whom or for whose Use the same shall be directed to be paid.

The Court to regulate Fees on Proceedings before Judges, &c.

XX. Any Order so entered as aforesaid may be reviewed, and either altered or reversed on Appeal to the Judge Ordinary of the Court, but such Appeal shall not stay the intermediate Execution of the Order, unless the Judge Ordinary shall so direct, who shall have Power, if such Appeal be dismissed or abandoned, to order the Appellant to pay to the other Party the full Costs incurred by reason of such Appeal.

Orders may be reviewed.

XXI. A Wife deserted by her Husband may at any Time after such Desertion, if resident within the Metropolitan District, apply to a Police Magistrate, or if resident in the Country to Justices in Petty Sessions, or in either Case to the Court, for an Order to protect any Money or Property she may acquire by her own lawful Industry, and Property which she may become possessed of, after such Desertion, against her Husband or his Creditors, or any Person claiming under him; and such Magistrate or Justices or Court, if satisfied of the Fact of such Desertion, and that the same was without reasonable Cause, and that the Wife is maintaining herself by her own Industry or Property, may make and give to the Wife an Order protecting her Earnings and Property acquired since the Commencement of such Desertion, from her Husband and all Creditors and Persons claiming under him, and such Earnings and Property shall belong to the Wife as if she were a Feme Sole: Provided always, that every such Order, if made by a Police Magistrate or Justices at Petty Sessions, shall, within Ten Days after the making thereof, be entered with the Registrar of the County Court within whose Jurisdiction the Wife is resident; and that it shall be lawful for the Husband, and any Creditor or other Person claiming under him, to apply to the Court, or to the Magistrate or Justices by whom such Order was made, for the Discharge thereof: Provided also, that if the Husband or any Creditor or other Person claiming under the Husband shall seize or continue to hold any Property of the Wife after Notice of any such Order, he shall be liable, at the Suit of the Wife (which she is hereby empowered to bring), to restore the specific Property, and also for a Sum equal to double the Value of the Property so seized or held after such Notice as aforesaid: If any such Order of Protection be made, the Wife shall during the Continuance thereof be and be deemed to have been, during such Desertion of her, in the like Position in all respects, with regard to Property and Contracts, and suing and being sued, as she would be under this Act if she obtained a Decree of Judicial Separation.

Wife deserted by her Husband may apply to a Police Magistrate or Justices in Petty Sessions for Protection.

XXII. In all Suits and Proceedings, other than Proceedings to dissolve any Marriage, the said Court shall proceed and act and give Relief on Principles and Rules which in the Opinion of the said Court shall be as nearly as may be conformable to the Principles and Rules on which the Ecclesiastical Courts have heretofore acted and given Relief, but subject to the Provisions herein contained and to the Rules and Orders under this Act.

Court to act on Principles of the Ecclesiastical Courts.

XXIII. Any Husband or Wife, upon the Application of whose Wife or Husband, as the Case may be, a Decree of Judicial Separation has been pronounced, may, at any Time thereafter, present a Petition to the Court praying for a Reversal of such Decree on the Ground that it was obtained in his or her Absence, and that there was reasonable Ground for the alleged Desertion, where Desertion was the Ground of such Decree; and the Court may, on being satisfied of the Truth of the Allegations of such Petition, reverse the Decree accordingly, but the Reversal thereof shall not prejudice or affect the Rights or Remedies which any other Person would have had in case such Reversal had not been decreed, in respect of any Debts, Contracts, or Acts of the Wife incurred, entered into, or done between the Times of the Sentence of Separation and of the Reversal thereof.

Decree of Separation obtained during the Absence of Husband or Wife may be reversed.

XXIV. In all Cases in which the Court shall make any Decree or Order for Alimony, it may direct the same to be paid either to the Wife herself or to any Trustee on her Behalf, to be approved by the Court, and may impose any Terms or Restrictions which to the Court may seem expedient, and may from Time to Time appoint a new Trustee, if for any Reason it shall appear to the Court expedient so to do.

Court may direct Payment of Alimony to Wife, &c.

XXV. In every Case of a Judicial Separation the Wife shall, from the Date of the Sentence and whilst the Separation shall continue, be considered as a Feme Sole with respect to Property of every Description which she may acquire of which may come to or devolve upon her; and such Property may be disposed of by her in all respects as a Feme Sole, and on her Decease the same shall, in case she shall die intestate, go as the same would have gone if her Husband had been then dead; provided, that if any such Wife should again cohabit with her Husband, all such Property as she may be entitled to when such Cohabitation shall take place shall be held to her separate Use, subject, however, to any Agreement in Writing made between herself and her Husband whilst separate.

In case of Judicial Separation the Wife to be considered a Feme Sole with respect to Property she may acquire, &c.;

XXVI. In every Case of a Judicial Separation the Wife shall, whilst so separated, be considered as a Feme Sole for the Purposes of Contract, and Wrongs and Injuries, and suing and being sued in any Civil Proceeding; and her Husband shall not be liable in respect of any Engagement or Contract she may have entered into, or for any wrongful Act or Omission by her, or for any Costs she may incur as Plaintiff or Defendant; provided, that where upon any such Judicial Separation Alimony has been decreed or

ordered to be paid to the Wife, and the same shall not be duly paid by the Husband, he shall be liable for Necessaries supplied for her Use; provided also, that nothing shall prevent the Wife from joining, at any Time during such Separation, in the Exercise of any joint Power given to herself and her Husband.

On Adultery of Wife or Incest, &c. of Husband, Petition for Dissolution of Marriage may be presented.

XXVII. It shall be lawful for any Husband to present a Petition to the said Court, praying that his Marriage may be dissolved, on the Ground that his Wife has since the Celebration thereof been guilty of Adultery; and it shall be lawful for any Wife to present a Petition to the said Court, praying that her Marriage may be dissolved, on the Ground that since the Celebration thereof her Husband has been guilty of incestuous Adultery, or of Bigamy with Adultery, or of Rape, or of Sodomy or Bestiality, or of Adultery coupled with such Cruelty as without Adultery would have entitled her to a Divorce à Mensâ et Thoro, or of Adultery coupled with Desertion, without reasonable Excuse, for Two Years or upwards; and every such Petition shall state as distinctly as the Nature of the Case permits the Facts on which the Claim to have such Marriage dissolved is founded: Provided that for the Purposes of this Act incestuous Adultery shall be taken to mean Adultery committed by a Husband with a Woman with whom if his Wife were dead he could not lawfully contract Marriage by reason of her being within the prohibited Degrees of Consanguinity or Affinity; and Bigamy shall be taken to mean Marriage of any Person, being married, to any other Person during the Life of the former Husband or Wife, whether the Second Marriage shall have taken place within the Dominions of Her Majesty or elsewhere.

As to "Incestuous Adultery."

Adulterer to be a Co-Respondent.

XXVIII. Upon any such Petition presented by a Husband the Petitioner shall make the alleged Adulterer a Co-Respondent to the said Petition, unless on special Grounds, to be allowed by the Court, he shall be excused from so doing; and on every Petition presented by a Wife for Dissolution of Marriage the Court, if it see fit, may direct that the Person with whom the Husband is alleged to have committed Adultery be made a Respondent; and the Parties or either of them may insist on having the contested Matters of Fact tried by a Jury as herein-after mentioned.

Cause may be tried by a Jury.

Court to be satisfied of Absence of Collusion.

XXIX. Upon any such Petition for the Dissolution of a Marriage, it shall be the Duty of the Court to satisfy itself, so far as it reasonably can, not only as to the Facts alleged, but also whether or no the Petitioner has been in any Manner accessory to or conniving at the Adultery, or has condoned the same, and shall also inquire into any Counter-charge which may be made against the Petitioner.

Dismissal of Petition.

XXX. In case the Court, on the Evidence in relation to any such Petition, shall not be satisfied that the alleged Adultery has been committed, or shall find that the Petitioner has during the Marriage been accessory to or conniving at the Adultery of the other Party to the Marriage, or has condoned the Adultery complained of, or that the Petition is presented or prosecuted in collusion with either of the Respondents, then and in any of the said Cases the Court shall dismiss the said Petition.

Power to Court to pronounce Decree for dissolving Marriage.

XXXI. In case the Court shall be satisfied on the Evidence that the Case of the Petitioner has been proved, and shall not find that the Petitioner has been in any Manner accessory to or conniving at the Adultery of the other Party to the Marriage, or has condoned the Adultery complained of, or that the Petition is presented or prosecuted in collusion with either of the Respondents, then the Court shall pronounce a Decree declaring such Marriage to be dissolved: Provided always, that the Court shall not be bound to pronounce such Decree if it shall find that the Petitioner has during the Marriage been guilty of Adultery, or if the Petitioner shall, in the Opinion of the Court, have been guilty of unreasonable Delay in presenting or prosecuting such Petition, or of Cruelty towards the other Party to the Marriage, or of having deserted or wilfully separated himself or herself from the other Party before the Adultery complained of, and without reasonable Excuse, or of such wilful Neglect or Misconduct as has conducted to the Adultery.

Alimony.

XXXII. The Court may, if it shall think fit, on any such Decree, order that the Husband shall to the Satisfaction of the Court secure to the Wife such gross Sum of Money, or such annual Sum of Money for any Term not exceeding her own Life, as, having regard to her Fortune (if any), to the Ability of the Husband, and to the Conduct of the Parties, it shall deem reasonable, and for that Purpose may refer it to any one of the Conveyancing Counsel of the Court of Chancery to settle and approve of a proper Deed or Instrument to be executed by all necessary Parties; and the said Court may in such Case, if it shall see fit, suspend the pronouncing of its Decree until such Deed shall have been duly executed; and upon any Petition for Dissolution of Marriage the Court shall have the same Power to make interim Orders for Payment of Money, by way of Alimony or otherwise, to the Wife, as it would have in a Suit instituted for Judicial Separation.

Husband may claim Damages from Adulterers.

XXXIII. Any Husband may, either in a Petition for Dissolution of Marriage or for Judicial Separation, or in a Petition limited to such Object only, claim Damages from any Person on the Ground of his having committed Adultery with the Wife of such Petitioner, and such Petition shall be served on the alleged Adulterer and the Wife, unless the Court shall dispense with such Service, or direct some other Service to be substituted; and the Claim made by every such Petition shall be heard and tried on the same Principles, in the same Manner, and subject to the same or the like Rules and Regulations as Actions for Criminal Conversation are now tried and decided in Courts of Common Law; and all the Enactments herein contained with reference to the Hearing and Decision of Petitions to the Court shall, so far as may be necessary, be deemed applicable to the Hearing and Decision of Petitions presented under this Enactment; and the Damages to be recovered on any such Petition shall in all Cases be ascertained by the Verdict of a Jury, although the Respondents or either of them may not appear; and after the Verdict has been given the Court shall have power to direct in what Manner such Damages shall be paid or applied, and to direct that the whole or any Part thereof shall be settled for the Benefit of the Children (if any) of the Marriage, or as a Provision for the Maintenance of the Wife.

XXXIV. Whenever in any Petition presented by a Husband the alleged Adulterer shall have been made a Co-Respondent, and the Adultery shall have been established, it shall be lawful for the Court to order the Adulterer to pay the whole or any Part of the Costs of the Proceedings.

XXXV. In any Suit or other Proceeding for obtaining a Judicial Separation or a Decree of Nullity of Marriage, and on any Petition for dissolving a Marriage, the Court may from Time to Time, before making its final Decree, make such interim Orders, and may make such Provision in the final Decree, as it may deem just and proper with respect to the Custody, Maintenance, and Education of the Children the Marriage of whose Parents is the Subject of such Suit or other Proceeding, and may, if it shall think fit, direct proper Proceedings to be taken for placing such Children under the Protection of the Court of Chancery.

XXXVI. In Questions of Fact arising in Proceedings under this Act it shall be lawful for, but, except as herein-before provided, not obligatory upon, the Court to direct the Truth thereof to be determined before itself, or before any One or more of the Judges of the said Court, by the Verdict of a Special or Common Jury.

XXXVII. The Court, or any Judge thereof, may make all such Rules and Orders upon the Sheriff or any other Person for procuring the Attendance of a Special or Common Jury for the Trial of such Question as may now be made by any of the Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster, and may also make any other Orders which to such Court or Judge may seem requisite; and every such Jury shall consist of Persons possessing the like Qualifications, and shall be struck, summoned, balloted for, and called in like Manner, as if such Jury were a Jury for the Trial of any Cause in any of the said Superior Courts; and every Jurymen so summoned shall be entitled to the same Rights, and subject to the same Duties and Liabilities, as if he had been duly summoned for the Trial of any such Cause in any of the said Superior Courts; and every Party to any such Proceeding shall be entitled to the same Rights as to Challenge and otherwise as if he were a Party to any such Cause.

XXXVIII. When any such Question shall be so ordered to be tried such Question shall be reduced into Writing in such Form as the Court shall direct, and at the Trial the Jury shall be sworn to try the said Question, and a true Verdict to give thereon according to the Evidence; and upon every such Trial the Court or Judge shall have the same Powers, Jurisdiction, and Authority as any Judge of any of the said Superior Courts sitting at Nisi Prius.

XXXIX. Upon the Trial of any such Question or of any Issue under this Act a Bill of Exceptions may be tendered, and a General or Special Verdict or Verdicts, subject to a Special Case, may be returned, in like Manner as in any Cause tried in any of the said Superior Courts; and every such Bill of Exceptions, Special Verdict, and Special Case respectively shall be stated, settled, and sealed in like Manner as in any Cause tried in any of the said Superior Courts, and where the Trial shall not have been had in the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes shall be returned into such Court without any Writ of Error or other Writ; and the Matter of Law in every such Bill of Exceptions, Special Verdict, and Special Case shall be heard and determined by the full Courts, subject to such Right of Appeal as is herein-after given in other Cases.

XL. It shall be lawful for the Court to direct One or more Issue or Issues to be tried in any Court of Common Law, and either before a Judge of Assize in any County or at the Sittings for the Trial of Causes in London or Middlesex, and either by a Special or Common Jury, in like Manner as is now done by the Court of Chancery.

XLI. Every Person seeking a Decree of Nullity of Marriage, or a Decree of Judicial Separation, or a Dissolution of Marriage, or Decree in a Suit of Jactitation of Marriage, shall, together with the Petition or other Application for the same, file an Affidavit verifying the same so far as he or she is able to do so, and stating that there is not any Collusion or Connivance between the Deponent and the other Party to the Marriage.

XLII. Every such Petition shall be served on the Party to be affected thereby, either within or without Her Majesty's Dominions, in such Manner as the Court shall by any General or Special Order from Time to Time direct, and for that Purpose the Court shall have all the Powers conferred by any Statute on the Court of Chancery: Provided always, that the said Court may dispense with such Service altogether in case it shall seem necessary or expedient so to do.

XLIII. The Court may, if it shall think fit, order the Attendance of the Petitioner, and may examine him or her, or permit him or her to be examined or cross-examined on Oath on the Hearing of any Petition, but no such Petitioner shall be bound to answer any Question tending to show that he or she has been guilty of Adultery.

XLIV. The Court may from Time to Time adjourn the Hearing of any such Petition, and may require further Evidence thereon, if it shall see fit so to do.

XLV. In any Case in which the Court shall pronounce a Sentence of Divorce or Judicial Separation for Adultery of the Wife, if it shall be made appear to the Court that the Wife is entitled to any Property either in possession or reversion, it shall be lawful for the Court, if it shall think proper, to order such Settlement as it shall think reasonable to be made of such Property or any Part thereof, for the Benefit of the innocent Party, and of the Children of the Marriage, or either or any of them.

XLVI. Subject to such Rules and Regulations as may be established as herein provided, the Witnesses in all Proceedings before the Court where their Attendance can be had shall be sworn and examined orally in open Court: Provided that Parties, except as herein-before provided, shall be at liberty to verify their respective Cases in whole or in part by Affidavit, but so that the Deponent in every such Affidavit shall, on the Application of the opposite Party or by Direction of the Court, be subject to be cross-examined by or on behalf of the opposite Party orally in open Court, and after such Cross-examination may be re-examined orally in open Court as aforesaid by or on behalf of the Party by whom such Affidavit was filed.

XLVII. Provided, That where a Witness is out of the Jurisdiction of the Court, or where, by reason of his Illness or from other Circumstances, the Court shall not think fit to enforce the Attendance of the Witness in open Court, it shall be lawful for the Court to order a Commission to issue for the Examination of such Witness on Oath, upon Interrogatories or otherwise, or if the Witness be within the Jurisdiction of the Court to order the Examination of such Witness on Oath, upon Interrogatories or otherwise, before any Officer of the said Court, or other Person to be named in such Order for the Purpose; and all the Powers given to the Courts of Law at Westminster by the Acts of the Thirteenth Year of King George the Third, Chapter Sixty-three, and of the First Year of King William the Fourth, Chapter Twenty-two, for enabling the Courts of Law at Westminster to issue Commissions and give Orders for the Examination of Witnesses in Actions depending in such Courts, and to enforce such Examination, and all the Provisions of the said Acts, and of any other Acts for enforcing or otherwise applicable to such Examination and the Witnesses examined, shall extend and be applicable to the Court and to the Examination of Witnesses under the Commissions and Orders of the said Court, and to the Witnesses examined, as if such Court were One of the Courts of Law at Westminster, and the Matter before it were an Action pending in such Court.

XLVIII. The Rules of Evidence observed in the Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster shall be applicable to and observed in the Trial of all Questions of Fact in the Court.

XLIX. The Court may, under its Seal, issue Writs of Subpœna or Subpœna duces tecum, commanding the Attendance of Witnesses at such Time and Place as shall be therein expressed; and such Writs may be served in any Part of Great Britain or Ireland; and every Person served with such Writ shall be bound to attend, and to be sworn and give Evidence in obedience thereto, in the same Manner as if it had been a Writ of Subpœna or Subpœna duces tecum issued from any of the said Superior Courts of Common Law in a Cause pending therein, and served in Great Britain or Ireland, as the Case may be: Provided that any Petitioner required to be examined, or any Person called as a Witness or required or desiring to make an Affidavit or Deposition under or for the Purposes of this Act, shall be permitted to make his solemn Affirmation or Declaration instead of being sworn in the Circumstances and Manner in which a Person called as a Witness or desiring to make an Affidavit or Deposition would be permitted so to do under the "Common Law Procedure Act, 1854," in Cases within the Provisions of that Act.

L. All Persons wilfully deposing or affirming falsely in any Proceeding before the Court shall be deemed to be guilty of Perjury, and shall be liable to all the Pains and Penalties attached thereto.

LI. The Court on the Hearing of any Suit, Proceeding, or Petition under this Act, and the House of Lords on the Hearing of any Appeal under this Act, may make such Order as to Costs as to such Court or House respectively may seem just: Provided always, that there shall be no Appeal on the Subject of Costs only.

LII. All Decrees and Orders, to be made by the Court in any Suit, Proceeding, or Petition to be instituted under Authority of this Act shall be enforced and put in execution in the same or the like Manner as the Judgments, Orders, and Decrees of the High Court of Chancery may be now enforced and put in execution.

LIII. The Court shall make such Rules and Regulations concerning the Practice and Procedure under this Act as it may from Time to Time consider expedient, and shall have full Power from Time to Time to revoke or alter the same.

LIV. The Court shall have full Power to fix and regulate from Time to Time the Fees payable upon all Proceedings before it, all which Fees shall be received, paid, and applied as herein directed: Provided always, that the said Court may make such Rules and Regulations as it may deem necessary and expedient for enabling Persons to sue in the said Court in formâ pauperis.

LV. Either Party dissatisfied with any Decision of the Court in any Matter which, according to the Provisions aforesaid, may be made by the Judge Ordinary alone, may, within Three Calendar Months after the pronouncing thereof, appeal therefrom to the full Court, whose Decision shall be final.

LVI. Either Party dissatisfied with the Decision of the full Court on any Petition for the Dissolution of a Marriage may, within Three Months after the pronouncing thereof, appeal therefrom to the House of Lords if Parliament be then sitting, or if Parliament be not sitting at the End of such Three Months, then within Fourteen Days next after its meeting; and on the Hearing of any such Appeal the House of Lords may either dismiss the Appeal or reverse the Decree, or remit the Case to the Court, to be dealt with in all respects as the House of Lords shall direct.

LVII. When

Divorce and Matrimonial Causes.

LVII. When the Time hereby limited for appealing against any Decree dissolving a Marriage shall have expired, and no Appeal shall have been presented against such Decree, or when any such Appeal shall have been dismissed, or when in the Result of any Appeal any Marriage shall be declared to be dissolved, but not sooner, it shall be lawful for the respective Parties thereto to marry again, as if the prior Marriage had been dissolved by Death: Provided always, that no Clergyman in Holy Orders of the United Church of England and Ireland shall be compelled to solemnize the Marriage of any Person whose former Marriage may have been dissolved on the Ground of his or her Adultery, or shall be liable to any Suit, Penalty, or Censure for solemnizing or refusing to solemnize the Marriage of any such Person.

Liberty to Parties to marry again.

No Clergyman compelled to solemnize certain Marriages.

LVIII. Provided always, That when any Minister of any Church or Chapel of the United Church of England and Ireland shall refuse to perform such Marriage Service between any Persons who but for such Refusal would be entitled to have the same Service performed in such Church or Chapel, such Minister shall permit any other Minister in Holy Orders of the said United Church, entitled to officiate within the Diocese in which such Church or Chapel is situate, to perform such Marriage Service in such Church or Chapel.

If a Minister refuse to perform Marriage Ceremony, any other Minister may perform it.

LIX. After this Act shall have come into operation no Action shall be maintainable in England for Criminal Conversation.

No Action for Criminal Conversation.

LX. None of the Fees payable under this Act, except as herein expressly provided, shall be received in Money, but every such Fee shall be collected and received by a Stamp denoting the Amount of the Fee which would otherwise be payable; and the Fees to be so collected by Stamps shall be "Stamp Duties," and be under the Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

All Fees, except as herein provided, to be collected by Stamps.

LXI. The Provisions contained in or referred to by an Act of the present Session of Parliament, "to amend the Laws relating to Probates and Letters of Administration in England," and applicable to the Collection and Payment and Accounts of the Fees to be received thereunder by means of Stamps, and to such Stamps, and the Vellum, Parchment, or Paper on or to which the same shall be impressed or affixed, and in relation to Documents which ought to have Stamps impressed thereon or affixed thereto, and to the Punishment of Persons for such wrongful Acts as therein mentioned in relation to Stamps, or Fees or Sums of Money which ought to be collected by means of Stamps, shall be applicable to and for the Purposes of this Act, as if such Provisions as aforesaid had been contained or referred to in this Act with reference to the like Matters, and the Court under this Act had been mentioned, instead of the Court of Probate, or the Judge thereof, as the Case may be.

Provisions concerning Stamps for the Court of Probate to be applicable to the Purposes of this Act.

LXII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, out of such Monies as may be provided and appropriated by Parliament for the Purpose, to cause to be paid all necessary Expenses of the Court under this Act, and other Expenses which may be incurred in carrying the Provisions of this Act into effect, except as herein otherwise provided.

Expenses of the Court to be provided for by Parliament.

LXIII. The same Amount of Stamp Duty as is now payable on the Admission of a Proctor to any Ecclesiastical Court shall be payable by every Person to be admitted as a Proctor in the Court of Divorce and Matrimonial Causes, or in the Court of Probate, who shall not have been previously admitted as a Proctor in the other of such Courts, or in an Ecclesiastical or Admiralty Court, and have paid the Stamp Duty in respect thereof; and every Person who shall practise as a Proctor or as a Solicitor or Attorney in the said Court of Divorce and Matrimonial Causes, or the said Court of Probate, shall obtain an annual Certificate to authorize him so to do, under the Stamp Duty Acts, in the same Manner as Proctors practising in the Ecclesiastical or Admiralty Courts, and Solicitors and Attornies practising in Her Majesty's Courts at Westminster, are now required to do by the said Acts or any of them, and shall be subject and liable to the same Penalties and Disabilities in case of any Neglect to obtain such Certificates as such Proctors, Attornies, and Solicitors are now subject and liable to for any similar Neglect, and as if the Clauses and Provisions of the said Acts in relation to such Certificates had been inserted in this Act, and specially enacted in reference to Proctors, Solicitors, and Attornies practising in the said Court of Divorce and Matrimonial Causes and Court of Probate, provided that One annual Certificate only shall be required for any one Person, although he may practise in more than One of the Capacities aforesaid, or in several of the Courts herein-before mentioned.

Stamp Duty on Admission of Proctors, and annual Certificates.

LXIV. Every Person who at the Time of the passing of this Act has been duly admitted and is practising as a Proctor in any Ecclesiastical Court in England shall, at the Expiration of Two Years from and after the Commencement of this Act, be entitled to make a Claim for Compensation to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury; and the said Commissioners, by Examination of Evidence on Oath (which they are hereby empowered to administer), or otherwise, as they shall think fit, shall inquire into and ascertain the Loss, if any, of Professional Gains and Profits in respect of Suits relating to Marriage and Divorce sustained by such Proctors respectively, upon a Comparison in each Case of the average clear Gains of the Three Years immediately before the Commencement of this Act, arising from such last-mentioned Business, and the Average of the same Gains during the Two Years immediately succeeding the Commencement of this Act; and the said Commissioners shall in each Case, having regard to all the Circumstances, award a reasonable Compensation, by way of Annuity, to the Persons sustaining such Loss, during their Lives, but in no Case shall such Annuity exceed One Half of the annual Loss so ascertained as aforesaid; and such Annuities shall be paid out of Monies to be annually provided by Compensation to Proctors.

Divorce and Matrimonial Causes.

Parliament for that Purpose, and the Persons receiving the same shall be subject to the Provisions contained in the Nineteenth Section of the Act of Fourth and Fifth William the Fourth, Chapter Twenty-four.

As to Salary of Judge of Court of Probate, if made Judge of Court of Divorce, &c.

LXV. In case the Judge of the Court of Probate established by any Act passed during the present Session shall be appointed Judge Ordinary of the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes, the Salary of such Judge shall be the Sum of Five thousand Pounds per Annum; but such Judge, if afterwards appointed Judge of the Admiralty Court, shall not be entitled to any Increase of Salary.

Power to Secretary of State to order all Letters Patent, Records, &c. to be transmitted from all Ecclesiastical Courts.

LXVI. Any One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may order every Judge, Registrar, or other Officer of any Ecclesiastical Court in England or the Isle of Man, or any other Person having the public Custody of or Control over any Letters Patent, Records, Deeds, Processes, Acts, Proceedings, Books, Documents, or other Instrument relating to Marriages, or to Suits for Divorce, Nullity of Marriage, Restitution of Conjugal Rights, or to any other Matters or Causes Matrimonial, except Marriage Licences, to transmit the same, at such Times and in such Manner, to such Places in London or Westminster, and under such Regulations, as the said Secretary of State may appoint; and if any Judge, Registrar, Officer, or other Person shall wilfully disobey such Order he shall for the First Offence forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to be recoverable by any Registrar of the Court of Probate as a Debt under this Act in any of the Superior Courts at Westminster, and for the Second and subsequent Offences the Judge Ordinary may commit the Person so offending to Prison for any Period not exceeding Three Calendar Months, provided that the Warrant of Committal be countersigned by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the said Persons so offending shall forfeit all Claim to Compensation under this Act.

Rules, &c. to be laid before Parliament.

LXVII. All Rules and Regulations concerning Practice or Procedure, or fixing or regulating Fees, which may be made by the Court under this Act, shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within One Month after the making thereof, if Parliament be then sitting, or if Parliament be not then sitting, within One Month after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament.

Yearly Account of Fees, &c. to be laid before Parliament.

LXVIII. The Judge Ordinary of the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes for the Time being shall cause to be prepared in each Year ending December Thirty-one a Return of all Fees and Monies levied in such Year on account of the Fee Fund of the Court of Divorce and Matrimonial Causes, and of any other Fund under the Authority of this Act; also, a Return of the annual Salaries of the said Judge Ordinary, and of all Persons holding Offices in the said Court, with all the incidental Expenses of the said Court, whether the Salaries and incidental Expenses aforesaid be defrayed out of Fees or out of any other Monies; also, a Return of all Superannuations, Pensions, Annuities, retiring Allowances, and Compensations made payable under this Act, in each Year, stating the gross Amount, and the Amount in detail, of such Charges: Provided always, that all such Returns as aforesaid shall be presented to both Houses of Parliament on or before the Thirty-first Day of March in each Year, if Parliament is then sitting, and if Parliament is not sitting, then such Returns shall be presented within One Month of the First Meeting of Parliament after the Thirty-first Day of March in each Year.

Cap. xxi."Islington Parish Act, 1857."

Whereas an Act was made and passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to repeal several Acts for the Relief and Employment of the Poor of the Parish of Saint Mary Islington in the County of Middlesex; for lighting and watching and preventing Nuisances and Annoyances therein; for amending the Road from Highgate through Maiden Lane, and several other Roads in the said Parish; and for providing a Chapel of Ease and an additional Burial Ground for the same; and to make more effectual Provisions in lieu thereof." And whereas by the Section of the said Act numbered One hundred and eleven, after reciting that great Numbers of Oxen, Sheep, and other Cattle had been and frequently were driven through or into the Parish of Islington on Sundays, to the great Annoyance, Terror, and Danger of His late Majesty's Subjects passing on and through the Streets and Roads of the said Parish on their lawful Occasions, or to or from their respective Places of Public Worship, it was, for Remedy thereof enacted, that if any Drover or other Person should from and after the passing of the said Act conduct or drive in, upon, or through any of the Roads, Lanes, Streets, Squares, or other Places, or on or over any of the Footpaths which then were or thereafter might be within the said Parish, any Oxen, Sheep, Swine, or other Cattle on any Sunday between the Hours of Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon and Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, he should for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Forty Shillings, to be recovered before any Justice of the Peace for the said County: And whereas another Act was made and passed in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for providing a Metropolitan Market and Conveniences connected therewith, in lieu of the Cattle Market at Smithfield:" And whereas, under the Authority of the said last-mentioned Act, a Metropolitan Market has been provided within the Parish of Islington aforesaid, and since the opening thereof the Numbers of Oxen, Sheep, Swine, and other Cattle driven through and into the Parish of Islington on Sundays have very greatly increased, to the great Inconvenience, Annoyance, and Danger of Her Majesty's Subjects: And whereas the Time limited by the said first herein-before recited Act of Parliament for the driving of such Oxen, Sheep, Swine, or other Cattle through the said Parish on Sundays has been found wholly insufficient for the Convenience, Protection, and Safety of Her Majesty's Subjects residing therein, or passing on and through the Streets and Roads of the said Parish on their lawful Occasions, or to or from their respective Places of Public Worship: And whereas it is expedient, for the Remedy thereof, and to prevent the Desecration of the Lord's Day, that the said Section of the said first herein-before recited Act, numbered One hundred and eleven, should be repealed, and further and more effectual Provisions in lieu thereof should be made; but the Purposes aforesaid cannot be effected without the Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in the present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same:

- I. That the said Section of the first-recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, numbered One hundred and eleven, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.
- II. That this Act may be cited for all Purposes as the "Islington Parish Act, 1857."
- III. That it shall not be lawful for any Drover or other Person to conduct or drive in, upon, or through any of the Roads, Lanes, Streets, Squares, or other Places, or on or over any of the Footpaths which now are or hereafter may be within the Parish of Islington, any Oxen, Sheep, Swine, or other Cattle between the Hours of Twelve of the Clock on any and every Saturday Night and Twelve of the Clock on any and every Sunday Night throughout the Year, and if any Drover or other Person shall so conduct or drive in, upon, over, or through such Roads, Lanes, Streets, Squares, Footpaths, or other Places as aforesaid, any Oxen, Sheep, Swine, or other Cattle between the Hours of Twelve of the Clock on any and every Saturday Night and Twelve of the Clock on any and every Sunday Night throughout the Year, he shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Penalty or Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, to be recovered before any Police Magistrate within the Metropolitan District of Police, or before any Two Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, one Moiety of which Penalty or Sum shall be paid to the Informer, and the remaining Moiety thereof shall be paid to the Vestry of the said Parish, which Moiety shall be applicable to the same Purposes as the Rates authorized to be levied by the said Vestry; and in default of Payment thereof and of the Costs and Expenses of such Proceedings, it shall and may be lawful for such Police Magistrate, or such Two Justices as aforesaid, to commit the Party or Parties so offending to the House of Correction for the said County for a Period not exceeding Three Calendar Months.
- IV. That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Police Magistrate within the Metropolitan District of Police, or any Justice of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, and he is required, upon Complaint to him made by One or more credible Witness or Witnesses of any such Offence, to issue a Warrant for apprehending the Party or Parties accused, or it shall and may be lawful to and for any Police or Peace Officer who shall see such Offence committed to apprehend, and also for any Person or Persons to assist in apprehending the Offender or Offenders, and by Authority of this Act, without any other Warrant, and to convey him or them before some Police Magistrate within the Metropolitan District of Police or any Two Justices of the Peace for the said County, to be by him or them dealt with according to Law.
- V. That the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of passing this Act, and all other Charges incident to, or attending the obtaining thereof, shall be borne, paid, and defrayed by the Vestry of the Parish of St. Mary Islington out of Moneys which may be in their Hands or in the Hands of any of their Collectors or other Persons at the Time of the passing of this Act, under and by virtue of the said first-recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and twenty-five, or under or by virtue of the Acts of Parliament of the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the better Local Management of the Metropolis," and of the Nineteenth and Twentieth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Act of last Session of Parliament, Chapter One hundred and twenty, for the better Local Management of the Metropolis."

"The Coal Duties (London, &amp;c.) Drawback Act, 1857."

Whereas an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Vend and Delivery of Coals in London and Westminster, and in certain Parts of the adjacent Counties, and to allow a Drawback on Coals conveyed beyond certain Limits:" And whereas by the said Act a Drawback of Twelvepence per Ton out of the Duty of Thirteenpence per Ton payable upon all Seaborne and Inland Coals brought into the Port of London, or within the London District, is allowed upon such Coals as are afterwards exported Coastwise or to Foreign Parts, or conveyed beyond the said District, provided that the same Coals shall not have been previously landed or removed from the Vessel or Barge or Railway Waggon in which they may have been brought, except upon the Conditions defined in the said Act: And whereas it has been found that the Restriction contained in the said Act against the Landing or Removal of such Coals from the Vessel or Barge or Railway Waggon in which they may have been brought is inexpedient, and that the Drawback granted by the said Act ought to be extended to all Seaborne and Inland Coals upon which the said Duties have been paid, and which are bona fide conveyed beyond the London District or exported or carried Coastwise, whether the same may or may not have been landed or removed from the Vessel or Barge or Railway Waggon in which they may have been brought: But inasmuch as such Drawbacks cannot be granted without the Authority of Parliament, may it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

- I. All Words and Expressions used in the following Clauses shall have the same Meaning assigned to them respectively as would have been assigned to them if they had been contained in the Coal Duties (London and Westminster and adjacent Counties) Act, 1851.
- II. This Act shall take effect upon the First Day of October next after the passing hereof.
- III. That upon and from the First Day of October next after the passing of this Act, a Drawback of Twelvepence per Ton from the Duties payable in respect of Coals brought into the Port of London, or within the London District, shall be allowed upon all Coals upon which the Duties shall have been paid, and which shall be subsequently exported Coastwise or to Foreign Parts, or conveyed by any Vessel, or by any Canal or Inland Navigation, or by any Railway to any Place situated more than Twenty Miles from the General Post Office, notwithstanding that such Coals may have been landed from the Vessel which may have brought the same within the Port of London, or from the Barge or Railway Waggon which may have brought them within the London District.
- IV. Whenever the Owner of any Seaborne or Inland Coals which may have been landed at any Wharf or in any Dock, or the Agent of such Owner, shall be desirous of obtaining a Drawback on such Coals or on any Part thereof, upon their being exported Coastwise or to Foreign Parts, or conveyed by any Vessel, or any Canal or Inland Navigation, or by Railway to any Place beyond the London District, such Owner or his Agent shall give Notice in Writing under his Hand to the Clerk and Registrar of the Coal Market before such Coals shall be removed to the Vessel, Barge, or Railway Waggon for Exportation, or for Conveyance beyond the London District.
- V. Whenever any Coals upon which a Drawback may be intended to be claimed upon their being exported Coastwise, or conveyed beyond the London District, shall be conveyed from the Vessel in which they have been imported to any Wharf or Dock or Depôt mediately by means of a Barge or Lighter, the Owner or Lessee of such Wharf or Dock or Depôt, or the Secretary or other proper Officer of the Dock Company shall certify to the Clerk and Registrar of the Coal Market the Quality, together with the Quantity of Coal so conveyed, and the Name of the Craft employed, and the Date of landing.

VI. Whenever any such Coals as last aforesaid shall be discharged alongside any Wharf, or immediately into any Depôt or Dock, the Owner or Lessee of such Wharf or Dock or Depôt, or the Secretary or other proper Officer of the Dock Company shall certify to the Clerk and Registrar of the Coal Market the Quality and Quantity of Coal landed, together with the Name of the Vessel from whence the same may have been taken.

VII. Every Description and Quality of Seaborne or Inland Coals landed at any Wharf, or into any Dock or Depôt, and on which a Drawback may at any Time be claimed, shall be kept distinct and separate, and a correct Account shall be kept of all such Coals as are intended for Exportation, or for Conveyance beyond the London District; and such Account shall at all reasonable Times be open to the Inspection of the Clerk and Registrar of the Coal Market, or of any Person appointed by him or by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons.

VIII. Upon and from the First Day of October next after the passing of this Act, a Drawback of Twelvepence per Ton from the Duties payable as aforesaid shall be allowed on all small Coals, irrespective of Quality, that shall have been screened and shall exceed Twenty Tons in Quantity, and shall be retained in Barges or Craft, or landed at Wharves, or in Docks, or into any Depôt (in accordance with the Provisions of this Act), and afterwards exported or conveyed Coastwise, or conveyed beyond the London District by Railway or Canal Conveyance.

IX. The Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, or any Committee appointed by them to carry out the Provisions of the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the First and Second Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-six, shall have full Power and Authority, and they are hereby authorized and empowered from Time to Time to make such Rules and Regulations as they may think fit with respect to the landing of Coals on which Drawbacks may be claimed, on the subsequent Exportation or Conveyance thereof beyond the London District, and also from Time to Time to appoint Inspectors and Officers for the Purpose of effectually carrying out such Rules and Regulations; and all the Clauses and Enactments contained in the said recited Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and forty-six, relating to Coals on which Drawbacks may be claimed, shall extend and apply to Coals landed at any Wharf or within the Limits of any Dock, or into any Depôt, with a view to having a Drawback allowed thereon on the subsequent Exportation or Conveyance thereof beyond the London District, and shall be in full Force and Effect, except so far as the same may be altered or varied by this Act.

X. In Cases of Vessels Coal-laden coming into the Port of London or within the London District, and there discharging a Portion of their respective Cargoes, and exporting or conveying Coastwise the Remainder of such Cargoes in the same Vessels, it shall be lawful for the Clerk and Registrar of the Coal Market to require the usual Fitter's Certificate of the entire Cargo of every such Vessel, together with a Certificate from the Master thereof, stating the Quantity of Coal it is his Intention to discharge within the Limits of the Port or District, and the Quantity to be left on board intended for Exportation or Conveyance Coastwise; and the Clerk and Registrar of the Coal Market shall upon the Production by the Master of the usual Certificate of Clearance from a Searcher of Her Majesty's Customs, forthwith exempt such Portion of the Cargo, exceeding Ten Tons in Quantity, as may be exported or conveyed Coastwise.

XI. Provided always, That it shall be lawful for the Clerk and Registrar of the Coal Market to require in such Cases as aforesaid that a Coal Weigher satisfactory to him be appointed to weigh out such Portion of the Cargo as may be intended to be delivered within the Limits of the Port or District, before exempting from the Payment of Duty such Residue of Cargo as may be exported or conveyed Coastwise.

Cap. cxv.

“ Covent Garden Approach and Southwark and Westminster Communication Act, 1857.”

Whereas it would be of great public Utility if a spacious and convenient Communication were opened between Saint Martin's Lane, at its Intersection by Long Acre and Cranbourne Street, in the Parish of Saint Martin in the Fields, and the North-west End of King Street, Covent Garden, in the Parish of Saint Paul Covent Garden, all in the County of Middlesex, and also if a new Street were made from Blackfriars Road in the Parish of Christchurch in the County of Surrey to High Street in the Borough of Southwark : And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled “ An Act for the better Local Management of the Metropolis,” in this Act called the Metropolis Local Management Act, 1855, the Metropolitan Board of Works were empowered to make, widen, or improve any Streets, Roads, or Ways for facilitating the Passage and Traffic between various Parts of the Metropolis or to contribute and join with any Persons in any such Improvements as aforesaid, and to take by Agreement or Gift any Land, Right in Land, or Property for the Purposes aforesaid, or otherwise for the Improvement of the Metropolis ; provided that where the estimated Expense of such Works should exceed Fifty thousand Pounds the same should not be carried into effect without the Approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, and that no such Works should be commenced where the estimated Expense should exceed One hundred thousand Pounds without the previous Sanction of Parliament : And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and three, intituled “ An Act to authorize further Charges on 'The London Bridge Approaches Fund,' for the Completion of certain Improvements in the Metropolis,” it was enacted, that after Payment of all Principal Moneys and Interest by certain Acts therein recited and by the said Act authorized to be charged on the London Bridge Approaches Fund, or raised or borrowed on the Credit thereof, the Residue or Surplus of the several Duties in the said Act mentioned, called “ The London Bridge Approaches Fund,” should, during the Continuance thereof, be applied to the Opening of an improved Line of Communication between Coventry Street and Covent Garden, according to a Plan to be thereafter approved by Parliament ; provided nevertheless, that nothing contained in the said Act or in the Charges to be made on the said Fund under the Authority of the said Act should operate or enure to extend to continue the Duties therein mentioned on Coal and Wines, Fees and Revenues, or either of them, beyond the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and Sixty-two : And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled “ An Act to enable Her Majesty's Commissioners of Woods to make a new Street from Coventry Street, Piccadilly, to Long Acre, and for other Improvements in the Metropolis,” after reciting that it was expedient that the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings should be authorized, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to advance out of the Moneys to be borrowed and raised by them under the said Act any Sum not exceeding Thirty thousand Pounds towards the Expense of forming, making, and completing a Line of

5 F

Street between Southwark and Westminster Bridge, the said Commissioners were empowered to charge the several Funds and Duties therein mentioned with the Payment of the Sums therein mentioned : And whereas by the said Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Victoria, Chapter One hundred and three, it was enacted, that the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings should and they were thereby authorized and empowered to reserve, and, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from Time to Time to appropriate and apply, out of the Moneys to be borrowed and raised by them under the Powers and Provisions of that Act, any Sum not exceeding the Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds, with Interest thereon from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, towards the Expense of making, forming, and completing a Line of Street between Southwark and Westminster Bridge, and in addition to the like Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds and the Interest thereof, which by the said Act of the Fourth and Fifth Victoria, Chapter Twelve, the said Commissioners had been already authorized to appropriate and apply to the Purpose aforesaid : And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to authorize Advances out of the Consolidated Fund to discharge Moneys borrowed on the Security of the Land Revenues of the Crown for the Purpose of Metropolitan Improvements, and providing for the Payment of such Advances, and of certain Moneys charged on the 'London Bridge Approaches Fund,'" it was enacted, that the Commissioners of the Treasury should, out of the Consolidated Fund, immediately after the passing of the said Act, pay to the Commissioners of Works such a Sum of Money as under the Provisions of the aforesaid Acts should be payable for Principal and Interest in respect of the said Two Sums of Thirty thousand Pounds and Thirty thousand Pounds provided for the Southwark Improvements, and that such Moneys, until required for the Purposes aforesaid, should be invested by the Commissioners of Works, either in the Purchase of Exchequer Bills, or in the Purchase of Three per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, or of some other of the Public Stocks or Funds of Great Britain, as the Commissioners of Works, with the Consent of the Commissioners of the Treasury, should determine ; and such Stocks, Funds, or Exchequer Bills should be sold when required for the Purposes of the therein mentioned Improvements ; and the Income of the said Exchequer Bills, Funds, or Stock, until applicable as aforesaid, should from Time to Time be invested as was therein-before provided as to the Principal Moneys by way of Accumulation, and the Produce of such Investment applied as the Moneys to arise from the first-mentioned Investment should be applicable : And whereas, in compliance with the Provisions of the last-recited Act, the Sum of Eighty thousand one hundred and thirty-five Pounds Sixteen Shillings and Twopence, being the Amount of the said Two Principal Sums of Thirty thousand Pounds and Thirty thousand Pounds, with Interest thereon, was accordingly by the Directions of the Commissioners of the Treasury paid out of the Consolidated Fund to the Commissioners of Works, and was invested by them in the Purchase of Seventy-nine thousand six hundred Pounds Exchequer Bills : And whereas the Interest received upon the said Sum of Seventy-nine thousand six hundred Pounds Exchequer Bills was invested by the Commissioners of Works in the Purchase of other Exchequer Bills : And whereas the Interest received in respect of the so increased Amount of Exchequer Bills, as well as all subsequent Interest as received, was in like Manner invested by the Commissioners of Works in the Purchase of other Exchequer Bills : And whereas the total Amount of Exchequer Bills applicable to the Purposes of the Southwark Improvement on the Twenty-first Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven was Eighty-nine thousand one hundred Pounds : And whereas there was also on the same Twenty-first Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven in the Hands of Her Majesty's Paymaster General, applicable for the Purposes of the Southwark Improvement, the Sum of Four Pounds and Tenpence in Cash, being the uninvested Balance of the Moneys received for Interest on Exchequer Bills up to that Time : And whereas the Metropolitan Board of Works have caused to be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, and also with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Surrey, Plans describing the said intended Improvements, and the Lands on the Site of which the same are intended to be made, and Books of Reference containing the Names of the Owners, Lessees, and Occupiers of the Land proposed to be taken for the Purposes of such Improvements, and Sections showing the Levels of such intended new Streets and Improvements : And whereas the Chief Commissioner of Works and Public Buildings has considered and approved the Plans for the same new Streets : And whereas the Lands on the Site of which the Improvements are intended to be made are at present covered with numerous Houses and Buildings, and many of those Properties being held under Leases and Subleases, there are many intermediate Interests between the Ground Landlord and the Occupier, and by reason of the Sub-division of such Properties, and the numerous Interests therein, and the Difficulty of ascertaining the Nature of those Interests, great Delay and additional Expense are likely to arise unless Provision be made for facilitating the Proceedings of the said Board in the Purchase of the Property required for the Improvements : And whereas for the Purposes aforesaid it is expedient that the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, should be only partially incorporated with this Act, and that other Provisions should be made in those respects in which such Act is unsuited to the existing Condition of the Property required for the said Improvements : And whereas the Metropolitan Board of Works are unable to carry into effect the said Improvements without the Authority of Parliament : May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted ; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows ; (that is to say,)

I. "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," (except such of the Provisions thereof as are expressly varied by or excepted from this Act,) is incorporated with and forms Part of this Act ; and the Expression "the Promoters of the Undertaking" in such Act means, for the Purposes of this Act, the Metropolitan Board of Works.

II. In citing this Act for any Purpose it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "Covent Garden Approach, and Southwark and Westminster Communication Act, 1857."

III. In this Act the following Words and Expressions shall have the several Meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction ; (that is to say,)

The Word "Person" shall include Corporation, whether aggregate or sole :

The Word "Justice" shall mean Justice of the Peace acting for the County, Borough, Liberty, or Place where the Matter requiring the Cognizance of any such Justice shall arise, and who shall not be interested in the Matter :

When any Matter shall be required to be done before Two Justices, the Expression "Two Justices" shall be understood to mean Two Justices assembled and acting together in Petty Sessions :

The Word "Streets" shall include Squares, Streets, Courts, or Alleys, Highways, Lanes, Roads, Thoroughfares, or public Passages or Places :

The Expression "the Board" shall mean the Metropolitan Board of Works :

The Word "Lessee" shall include any Person holding a Sublease.

IV. The Word "Sheriff" in the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, shall, with respect to this Act, so far as the same affects the new Street hereafter referred to as the Covent Garden Approach, mean the High Bailiff of Westminster in all Cases where the High Bailiff discharges the Duties and Offices usually discharged by the Sheriff.

V. The Metropolitan Board of Works shall be and they are hereby empowered to carry this Act into execution.

VI. It shall be lawful for the Board from Time to Time to appoint a Committee to manage and transact all or any of the Matters or Purposes which the Board are hereby empowered to do, execute, or perform, which Committee shall have so much or so many of the Powers, Authorities, and Discretion by this Act given to and reposed in the Board as the Board shall think fit or proper to delegate to such Committee.

VII. If any Person, being a Member of the said Committee, shall be directly or indirectly interested or concerned in any Contract which shall be made or entered into by or on behalf of such Committee for or concerning any of the Works to be performed or done in pursuance of this Act, or for or concerning any Materials to be used or employed therein, every such Contract shall be void, and the Person who, being a Member of such Committee, shall be so interested or concerned shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty of One hundred Pounds, and such Penalty may be recovered by any Person, with full Costs of Suit, in any of the Superior Courts.

VIII. It shall be lawful for the Board to make the new Streets following; that is to say, a new Street commencing in the Parish of Saint Martin in the Fields in the City and Liberty of Westminster in the County of Middlesex at or from Saint Martin's Lane at or near its Point of Intersection by Long Acre and Cranbourne Street, and thence running in a South-easterly Direction, and terminating in the Parish of Saint Paul Covent Garden in the City and Liberty of Westminster aforesaid at or near the North-west End of the Street there called King Street, and which new Street will be partly in the Parish of Saint Martin in the Fields and partly in the Parish of Saint Paul Covent Garden, and is herein-after referred to as the Covent Garden Approach; a new Street commencing in the Parish of Christchurch Southwark in the County of Surrey at the East Side of the Blackfriars Road, opposite or nearly opposite to the East End of Stamford Street, and terminating in High Street in the Parish of Saint Saviour's in the Borough of Southwark and County of Surrey near York Street in the same Borough, and which lastly mentioned new Street will be partly in the Parish of Christchurch, partly in the Clink Liberty, and partly in the Parish of Saint Saviour's Southwark in the County of Surrey, and is herein-after referred to as the Southwark Improvement.

IX. Subject to the Provisions of this Act, the said new Streets, and the Improvements and other Works by this Act authorized, may be made in or upon the Lands delineated on the said Plans and described in the said Books of Reference, and according to the Levels defined on the said Sections; and it shall be lawful for the Board to enter upon, take, use, and hold such of the said Lands as they may deem necessary for all or any of such Purposes, and for providing Space for the Erection of Houses and Buildings adjoining and near such Streets and Improvements: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Board, in carrying the Works shown on the said Sections into execution, to deviate to any Extent not exceeding Three Feet from the Levels defined on such Sections.

X. It shall be lawful for the Board to cause such Part of the said Streets to be laid out for Carriageways and such Part thereof for Foot Passengers as they shall think proper, and to construct, erect, and provide such Vaults, Cellars, Arches, Sewers, Drains, and other Works and Conveniences as they may think proper.

XI. It shall be lawful for the Board to alter, divert, or stop up all such Streets shown on the said Plans as intended to be altered, diverted, or stopped up, and to inclose all such void Ground shown on such Plans or such Parts thereof as the Board shall deem necessary to alter, divert, stop up; or inclose for the Purposes of this Act, and the Ground and Soil of such Streets and void Ground, or Parts thereof respectively as shall be stopped up and inclosed, and the Fee Simple and Inheritance thereof, shall be and are hereby vested in the Board for the Purposes of this Act.

XII. It shall be lawful for the Board, during the making, widening, and improving of the said Streets, to stop up or cause to be stopped up all or any Part of the Carriage or Foot Ways of Streets which they shall think necessary for the Purposes of this Act, and for that Purpose to put up or cause to be put up sufficient Palisadoes, Bars, Posts, and other Erections, and to make such Order for regulating the Passage of Carts, Carriages, and Horses as to them shall seem proper.

XIII. It shall be lawful for the Board to alter the Lines or Levels of any of the Streets described on the deposited Plans and Sections as intended to be diverted, raised, or lowered in such Manner as may be so described on such Plans and Sections, or as, subject to the Powers and Provisions of this Act, the Board may deem expedient.

XIV. The Board shall, in a substantial and workmanlike Manner, fill or cause to be filled in all and every the Vaults, Cellars, and open Places over which it may be necessary for the Purposes aforesaid to new pave (except such as may be used as Cellars, Vaults, or Areas) with good sound hard Brick Rubbish, to be well rammed down to prevent the Ground from giving way, and shall well and effectually pave over all the said Ground and the said Streets with a sufficient Quantity of Materials of proper Quality and Dimensions, and shall in like Manner erect and build any Arches which they may think necessary, and also relay and repair the Streets which they shall disturb or alter in carrying the Purposes of this Act into execution; Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to charge the Board with the Liability or Expense of Repairing or making good such Pavement or Arches in future, but when the same shall have been in the first instance so paved, relaid, and repaired as aforesaid, the same shall for ever thereafter be kept in repair by the Board of Works of the District or Vestry of the Parish or Place in which the same is situate, or by any other Parties or Persons liable to repair the same, and the Right and Property of all Pavements, Arches, Stones, and Bricks so to be laid as aforesaid shall belong to and be the Property of the said Board of Works of the District, or Vestry of the Parish or Place, or Parties or Persons, in the same Manner as Things of a like Description in other Parts of the Districts are now vested by Law.

XV. It shall be lawful for the Board to cause to be arched over or filled up all such Sewers and Drains or Parts thereof which shall lie and be in or near the said Streets to be made, widened, improved, altered, diverted, or stopped up, or inclosed as aforesaid, as shall appear necessary for completing the Purposes of this Act, so as that no public Sewer or Drain whatsoever (unless the same become unnecessary by reason of the Purchase of the Property entitled to the use thereof) shall be in anywise disturbed, injured, or prejudiced, without another Sewer or Drain being made in lieu thereof equally serviceable and convenient: Provided always, that at the Time of filling up any Sewer or Drain, or Part thereof as aforesaid, the Board shall cause to be made and built other good and sufficient Sewers and Drains of the same or greater Size or Capacity, and upon the same or lower Levels than the Sewers or Drains which shall be filled up, and when made and completed the said Sewers and Drains shall be under the same Jurisdiction, Care, Management, and Direction as the existing Sewers or Drains.

XVI. It shall be lawful for the Board to raise, sink, or otherwise alter or cause to be altered the Position of any of the Steps, Areas, Cellar Windows, and Watercourses, Pipes, or Spouts belonging to any House or Building, and also the Mains and the leaden or other Pipes which for the Purpose of conveying Water or Gas to any House or other Place shall be laid into or from any Main or Pipe laid down by any of the Companies or Societies who furnish the Inhabitants with Water or Gas, and to remove all other Obstructions, so as the same be done with as little Detriment and Inconvenience to the said Companies, Societies, and Inhabitants as the Circumstances of the Case will admit, and the Board shall make reasonable Compensation to any Person who suffers Damage by any such Alteration.

XVII. When the said Streets shall be completed, all the Land which shall be laid open into the said Streets and paved as aforesaid shall form Part of the said Streets, and shall be used by the Public accordingly, and the same and the sole Power and Authority of paving, repairing, cleansing, and lighting thereof shall be under the Care, Management, Control, and Jurisdiction of the Board of Works of the District or Vestry of the Parish or Place in which the same is situate.

XVIII. The Board may permit the Use of the Subsoil or Ground under any Street formed by the Board, or any Part thereof, by any Company or Person for the Purpose of Subways, Subroads, Railways, or any Public Works or Purpose, or for laying down Gas or Water Pipes, or Telegraph Wires, upon such Terms and Conditions and for such Period as the Board and such Company or Person may mutually agree, and the Board may sell and convey any such Right or Property to any Company or Person for any of the Purposes aforesaid, or may grant a Lease thereof for any Term or Number of Years, and make such Stipulations for preventing Injury to the adjoining Property and for the Security of the Public, as the Board think proper.

XIX. For the Purposes of this Act it shall be lawful for the Board to take and use any Lands, and to pull down and remove or to cause to be pulled down and removed any Houses or Buildings which they may deem necessary or expedient to take, use, or pull down and remove for the Purposes of this Act at any Time at or after the Expiration of Six Months after Notice in Writing from the Board, or their Clerk or Agent duly authorized, of the Intention to take or use the same shall have been left at the principal Office or Place of Business of or given to the principal Officer of the Corporation interested in or entitled to, or by this Act or the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, enabled to sell and convey any such Lands, Houses, or Buildings, or given to the Person or Persons who shall respectively be the Owner, Lessee, and Occupier of such Lands, or have been left at his usual or last known Place of Abode or Business, or in case any such Parties shall be absent from the United Kingdom, or cannot be found after diligent Inquiry, then with the Tenant or Occupier of the same Lands, Houses, or Buildings, or if there be no such Tenant or Occupier, have been affixed upon some conspicuous Part of such Lands, Houses, or Buildings.

XX. Provided always, That the Board shall not be authorized to take any Lands for the Purposes of this Act, except such as are delineated on the Plans deposited as aforesaid and described in the Books of Reference thereto, without the Consent of the Owner, Lessee, and Occupier thereof, unless such Lands shall have been omitted by Mistake, and the Fact that such Omission proceeded from Mistake shall have been certified in manner herein-after provided for.

XXI. If any Omission, Mis-statement, or erroneous Description shall have been made of any Lands, or of the Owners, Lessees, or Occupiers of any Lands, on the said Plans or in the Books of Reference thereto, it shall be lawful for the Board, after giving Ten Days Notice to the Owners of the Lands affected by such proposed Correction, to apply to Two Justices for the Correction thereof, and if it shall appear to such Justices that such Omission, Mis-statement, or erroneous Description arose from Mistake, they shall certify the same accordingly, and they shall in such Certificate state the Particulars of any such Omission, and in what respect any such Matter shall have been mis-stated or erroneously described; and such Certificate shall be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace of the County in which the Lands affected thereby shall be situate, and such Certificate shall be kept by such Clerk of the Peace along with the other Documents to which they relate, and thereupon such Plan or Book of Reference shall be deemed to be corrected according to such Certificate, and it shall be lawful for the Board to take the Lands in accordance with such Certificate.

XXII. It shall not be lawful for the Board to take or use under the Powers of this Act any Part of the Property numbered 267 and 268 on the Plan (held under Lease by Messieurs Charles and William Pott under the See of Winchester, and occupied by them in connexion with their Vinegar Works), which is situate to the North of the Black Line drawn on the deposited Plan, commencing at a Point Seventy Feet Northward from the Angle of the Wall at the North-east Corner of New Street and Southwark Bridge Road, and thence following the said Black Line so laid down on the Plan to a Point in Great Guildford Street, One hundred and twenty-four Feet Northward of the North-west Corner of the Street now called New Street and Great Guildford Street.

XXIII. It shall be lawful for the Board to sell the Materials of the Houses and Buildings which have been purchased or taken by them by virtue of this Act.

XXIV. If the Graveyard or Burial Ground attached to the Meeting House called the Redcross Street Friends Meeting House shall be required to be interfered with by the Board for the Purposes of this Act, the Board shall provide at their Expense for the proper Disinterment of the Bodies and the Removal of the same, and of the Graves and Gravestones to and proper Re-interment of the Bodies at such Place as may be convenient and fit, and as shall be agreed on by the Board and the governing Body of the said Meeting House or of the said Burial Ground; and in case of any Difference of Opinion between the Board and such governing Body the Dispute shall be referred to the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Public Works, or the Chief Commissioner of the Board of Health, or to any Person whom Her Majesty's Secretary of State for the Home Department may nominate as Referee, and the Board shall execute such Works as shall be by such Commissioner or Person ordered.

XXV. It shall be lawful for the Board, and for their Surveyors, Officers, and Workmen, from Time to Time, at all reasonable Times in the Day, upon giving in Writing for the First Time Twenty-four Hours and afterwards from Time to Time Twelve Hours previous Notice, to enter into and upon the Lands authorized to be taken and used as aforesaid, or any of them, for the Purpose of surveying and valuing the said Premises, without being deemed Trespassers, and without being subject or liable to any Fine, Penalty, or Punishment on account of entering or continuing upon any Part of the said Lands.

XXVI. It shall be lawful for the Board and they are hereby empowered to treat and agree for the Purchase of any Lands authorized to be taken and used by them as aforesaid, and of any subsisting Leases, Terms, Shares, Estates, and Interests therein, and Charges thereon, or such of them or such Part thereof as the Board shall think proper.

XXVII. The Powers of the Board for the Compulsory Purchase or taking of the Lands authorized to be taken by this Act shall not be exercised after the Expiration of Five Years, to be computed from the passing of this Act.

XXVIII. On or before the Expiration of One Month next after Notice in Writing from the Board or their Agent duly authorized of the Intention to take or use any Lands for the Purposes of this Act shall have been so given, left, or affixed as herein-before is mentioned, every Person interested in or entitled to or by this Act or the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, enabled to sell and convey any such Lands, or to accept and receive Satisfaction or Recompence for the Value of the same, or any Estate, Share, or Interest therein or Charge thereon, or having or claiming to be entitled to any Compensation for any Goodwill or Improvements, or for Fixtures, or for any Injury or Damage sustained on account of the Execution of this Act, shall deliver at the Office of the Board a Statement in Writing of the Particulars of the Estate, Share, Interest, or Charge which he may claim to be entitled to or to be authorized to receive Satisfaction or Recompence for, and of any Goodwill or Improvements, and of the Fixtures, and of the Injury or Damage sustained by him, and of the Amount of the Sum of Money which he may expect and be willing to receive in satisfaction or recompence for the Value of such Estate, Share, Interest, or Charge, and also the Amount of the Sum which he may expect and be willing to receive as Compensation for such Goodwill or Improvements and Fixtures, and for such Injury or Damage respectively; provided that the reasonable Costs of and incident to the preparing and delivering such Statement shall be borne and defrayed by the Board (unless the Jury shall award and declare that such Statement did not contain sufficient Particulars to enable the Board to make a proper Offer), and shall be payable at such Time and in like Manner as the Costs to which under the Provisions of this Act or the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, the Board may be liable.

XXIX. If any Person interested in or entitled to or by this Act or the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, enabled to sell and convey any Lands, or any Share, Estate, or Interest therein or Charge thereon as aforesaid, or any Occupier thereof sustaining such Loss, Injury, or Damage as aforesaid, for and on his Part, or for or on the Part of his Cestuique Trust or Ward, or of any other Person on whose Behalf he is entitled to sell and convey as aforesaid, shall refuse to accept such Purchase Money, Satisfaction, or Recompence, or other Compensation as shall be offered by the Board or any Person authorized by them on their Behalf, or if any Person interested in or entitled to or enabled to sell and convey any such Lands as aforesaid shall (upon such Notice in Writing as herein-before is mentioned having been so given, left, or affixed as aforesaid), for the Space of One Month next after such Notice, neglect or refuse to send in a Statement of the Particulars of his Claim in respect of any Lands, or shall neglect or refuse to treat or agree, or shall not agree, or by reason of Disability cannot agree with the Board or with any Person authorized by them for the Sale or Conveyance of such Lands, or any Share, Estate, and Interest therein or Charge thereon, then and in every or any such Case the Amount of such Purchase Money, Satisfaction, Recompence, or Compensation shall be settled and determined by the Verdict of a Jury in manner provided for in the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845.

XXX. So much of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, as authorizes the Party claiming Compensation to have the same settled by Arbitration, in Cases when the Money claimed or offered shall exceed Fifty Pounds, shall not be incorporated with or form Part of this Act.

XXXI. Provided always, That every Person, whether sui juris or hereby capacitated to sell, and who may not agree with the Board as to the Price to be paid, may, if he shall think fit, instead of having the Value ascertained by a Jury as aforesaid, agree with the Board, and the Board may, if they shall think fit, agree to refer it to any Person or Persons and their Umpire to ascertain in manner provided by the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, in Cases of Arbitration, the Amount to be paid, and every such Agreement shall be in all respects binding and effectual.

XXXII. If the Owner, Lessee, or Occupier of any Lands authorized to be taken by virtue of this Act, and for the taking whereof Notice shall have been given as provided under this Act, shall not be inclined to sell or part with the whole thereof, or of his Interest in the whole thereof, and it shall not be found necessary to take the whole for the Purposes of this Act, and the said Parties cannot agree as to the Sum of Money to be paid for the Part which the Board or any Person authorized by them shall think it necessary to purchase, then and in such Case the Jury which shall be summoned to value the Premises shall assess the Value of the whole Premises according to the Condition in which they are at the Time of taking the View, and also the Value of that Part of the Premises which will remain after the Board or the Persons authorized by them have taken away so much as they shall think necessary for the Purposes of this Act, and the Jury having made these Two Valuations, the Difference between them shall be the Price to be paid by the Board for that Part which they shall have Occasion for, and such Price shall be recorded as the Verdict of the Jury for the Value of the same.

XXXIII. The Jury shall award all Determinations, Judgments, and Verdicts which they shall make and give in execution of the Powers hereby vested in them concerning the Value of Lands, or any Share, Estate, or Interest therein, or Charge thereon, separately and distinctly from the Consideration of any other Loss to which the Occupier may personally be entitled, or any other Loss or Damage to be sustained by any Person in consequence of the Execution of any of the Powers of this Act, and shall distinguish the Value set upon the Lands, or Share, Estate, or Interest therein or Charge thereon, and the Money assessed or adjudged for such Loss or Damage as aforesaid, separately and apart from each other; and when any Money shall be assessed or adjudged for such Loss or Damage as aforesaid, the Jury shall, if required by the Board, award and declare whether the Statement delivered by the Claimant of the Manner in which any Amount of Money which shall have been demanded as a Compensation for the same has been computed and made up gave sufficient Particulars to enable the Board to make a proper Offer; and if the Jury shall be of Opinion that the Statement delivered by the Party claiming Compensation of the Manner in which any Amount of Money which shall have been demanded as a Compensation has been computed and made up did not give sufficient Particulars to enable the Board to make a proper Offer, One Half of the Costs of summoning, empannelling, and returning the Jury, and of taking the Inquiry, and in recording the Verdict and Judgment therein, shall be defrayed by the Person with whom the Board shall have such Controversy or Dispute, and the remaining Half shall be defrayed by the Board, anything in the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXIV. All Sums of Money or other Consideration, Recompence, or Satisfaction to be made or paid pursuant to any Agreement, Determination, or Verdict, under the Provisions of this Act or of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, shall be paid or tendered to the Party entitled to the same, or into the Bank of England, in manner provided by the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, before the Board or any Person or Persons authorized by them shall proceed to take possession of any Tenement, or to pull down any House or other Erection or Building comprised in or affected by such Agreement, Determination, or Verdict respectively, or to use the same for any of the Purposes of this Act.

XXXV. The One hundred and thirty-third Section of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, shall not be incorporated with or form Part of this Act.

XXXVI. And whereas by reason of the Exercise of the Powers by this Act granted there may be Deficiencies in the Assessments for Land Tax in the said Parishes, Precincts, and Districts through or in which the Works hereby authorized may be performed or done: The Board therefore, in case they shall become possessed by virtue of this Act of any Premises charged with the Land Tax, shall from Time to Time, until the Works hereby authorized shall be completed and assessed to such Land Tax, be liable to make good the Deficiency arising within any Parish, Precinct, or District by reason of any Lands having been taken or used for the Purposes of this Act, and such Deficiency shall be computed according to the Rental at which such Lands, with any Buildings thereon, were valued or rated at the Time of the passing of this Act, and the Board shall pay all Deficiencies on Demand thereof to the Collector of the said Assessments; nevertheless, if at any Time the Board think fit to redeem such Land Tax, they may do so in accordance with the Powers in that Behalf given by the Acts for the Redemption of the Land Tax.

XXXVII. In case any Lands which shall be purchased and cleared under the Provisions of this Act shall not be laid into and form Part of the Streets to be made and improved as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Board, when and as they shall think fit so to do, to demise and lease such Lands, or such Parts thereof as the Board shall think it expedient to let, on Building Leases, either altogether or in Parcels, to any Person or Persons who shall erect and build, or covenant and agree to erect and build thereon, or on any Part thereof, Houses, Erections, and Buildings of such Rate or Class of Building, and upon such Plan and Elevation, and of such Height and with such Stories as the Board shall think proper, for any Term or Number of Years, to determine at or before the Expiration of Ninety-nine Years from and after the passing of this Act, so as there be reserved in every such Demise or Lease such yearly Rent to be incident to the immediate Reversion of the Premises therein comprised as to the Board shall seem reasonable, and so that in every such Demise or Lease there be contained a Covenant for the Payment of the Rent thereby to be reserved, and such other Covenants on the Part of the Tenant or Lessee to be therein named as the Board shall reasonably advise or require, and also a Clause in the Nature of a Condition of Re-entry on Nonpayment of the Rent thereby to be reserved or on Nonperformance of the Covenants therein to be contained on the Part of the Tenant or Lessee to be observed and performed; and every such Tenant or Lessee shall give such good and sufficient Security for the erecting, finishing, and completing of every such House, Erection, and Building which he shall covenant or agree to erect within the Time in which he shall have contracted to finish the same, as the Board shall order and direct; and further, that in any such Lease the Board may, if they think fit, accept and take any Fine for the granting thereof, and may enter into any Agreement for the granting any Lease on such Terms and Conditions as they may think fit, and on granting Leases in pursuance of such Agreements may alter the Amount of the Rents agreed to be reserved in such Leases, and may apportion the same and grant separate Leases of any Part of the Hereditaments by any such Agreement agreed to be leased as the Board think fit, and may also alter or rescind any Agreement as aforesaid, and may accept any Surrender of any Lease granted for the Purpose of granting separate Leases of the same Premises at apportioned Rents or under different Covenants or otherwise in all respects as the Board shall think fit, and any Part of the said Lands may be appropriated for and left as Yards or Courts to be attached to any Houses agreed to be leased as the Board shall think fit.

XXXVIII. As soon as conveniently may be after the Houses, Erections, and Buildings to be erected and built as herein-before is mentioned, or any of them, shall be finished and completed, and either before or after any such Leases shall have been granted thereof, the Board shall sell and dispose of or cause to be sold and disposed of the Ground Rents to be reserved by the Leases or Demises, or agreed to be reserved by any such Agreement as aforesaid, in pursuance or in consideration of which the same Houses respectively shall have been erected and built, or shall be agreed to be erected and built, and also the Reversion and Inheritance in Fee Simple in possession (subject to such Leases, Demises, or Agreements of the Lands therein demised or agreed to be demised) of such Houses and other Buildings, except such as shall have been otherwise disposed of pursuant to this Act, either altogether or in Parcels, by Public Auction or Private Contract, for such Price or Prices or Sum or Sums of Money as the Board shall think reasonable, and subject to such Stipulations and Provisions for the Enjoyment thereof, and as to the Nature of the Buildings which are to be at all Times erected and built, and also subject to such Stipulations as to the Title to be produced to the Hereditaments to be sold, as the Board shall think fit; and as regards any Stipulations or Provisions which may be contained in any such Conveyance, the same may at all Times thereafter be enforced in a Court of Equity by the Board, for the Benefit of the Parties entitled to the other Property adjoining or held under the same Title, in such Manner in all respects as the Board shall think fit, and the Board shall, at the Request, Costs, and Charges of the Purchasers of the same Premises respectively, upon Payment of the Money agreed to be given for the same respectively to the Board, by Deed convey and assure the Lands so purchased by such Purchasers respectively, together with the Houses, Erections, and Buildings then erected and built or to be erected and built thereon respectively, and the Fee Simple and Inheritance thereof, with the Appurtenances, to such Purchasers respectively, their Heirs and Assigns respectively, or as they respectively shall in that Behalf order or direct, free from Incumbrances (except the Building Leases or Agreements to be granted thereof by virtue of this Act).

XXXIX. It shall be lawful for the Board, if they shall think it expedient so to do, to sell and dispose of, in the Manner herein-before directed, all or any Lands whatever which shall not be laid out and form Part of the Street to be made or improved as aforesaid, without having previously granted or agreed to grant any Lease thereof, and to convey and assure the same unto the Purchaser or respective Purchasers thereof for such Sum or Sums of Money, and upon, under, and subject to such Terms and Conditions, and with, under, and subject to such Covenants and Agreements on the Part of the Person or Persons purchasing or agreeing to purchase the same, with respect to the Size or Class of the Houses, Erections, and Buildings to be erected thereon, and the Height, Size, and Elevations thereof, and the Time and Manner of erecting the same, and with respect to any other Matters, Restrictions, and Things relating thereto, as the Board shall think fit and impose.

XI. The Board shall, within Ten Years after the Completion of the Streets respectively, sell and dispose of to any Person or Persons and grant and convey such Parts of the said Lands as they shall not think proper to let on Building Leases, or any other Lands which they may have purchased under the Authority of this Act which shall not be wanted for the Purposes of this Act.

XLI. The Receipt of the Board for any Purchase Moneys, Rents, or Profits, or other Money payable to the Board by virtue of this Act, shall be a sufficient and effectual Discharge for the Money in such Receipt expressed or acknowledged to be received, and the Person to whom the same shall be given shall not afterwards be answerable or accountable for the Misapplication or Nonapplication of the Money in such Receipt expressed or acknowledged to be received.

XLII. The Covent Garden Approach authorized by this Act shall be deemed the improved Line of Communication referred to in the Twenty-first Section of the recited Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Victoria, Chapter One hundred and three, and it shall be lawful for the Board to borrow and take up at Interest any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Thirty-five thousand Pounds, upon the Credit of the Surplus of the London Bridge Approaches Fund, and such Moneys so to be raised shall be applied by the Board to the Purposes of the Covent Garden Approach authorized by this Act.

XLIII. The Board may accept any Sums of Money from any Person by way of Contribution towards the Covent Garden Approach by such Instalments and on such Terms and Conditions as to the Board shall seem fit.

XLIV. The Southwark Improvement authorized by this Act shall be deemed to be the Line of Street between Southwark and Westminster Bridge mentioned or referred to in the recited Acts of the Fourth and Fifth Victoria, Chapter Twelve, the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Victoria, Chapter One hundred and three, and the Sixteenth Victoria, Chapter Eighteen, and any Money to be received by the Board under or by virtue of such Acts (save only and except from the Surplus of the London Bridge Approaches Fund) shall be applied to the Southwark Improvement, and such several Acts shall apply to the Southwark Improvement hereby authorized, so far as the same relate thereto, and to the providing of Funds for the Execution thereof, and to the Board, in the same Manner as if such Funds had been expressly authorized in such Acts to be paid to the Board for the Purposes of those new Streets respectively.

XLV. For the Purpose of defraying the Expenses of carrying this Act into execution; it shall be lawful for the Board from Time to Time to borrow and take up at Interest any Sums of Money which the Board may require for the Purposes of this Act; and for securing the Repayment of the Moneys so to be borrowed, with Interest, the Board may issue Bonds under their Corporate Seal, or may mortgage and assign over the Moneys or Rates which may be charged, raised, or assessed by them by virtue of the Metropolis Local Management Act, 1855, or any Part thereof respectively to the Person who shall lend and advance such Money, or his Trustees, as a Security for the Repayment of the Money so to be borrowed, together with Interest for the same.

XLVI. Every such Bond and Mortgage shall be by Deed duly stamped, in which the Consideration shall be truly stated, and every such Bond may be according to the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect.

XLVII. The Sections of the Metropolis Local Management Act, 1855, numbered respectively 184 to 191, both inclusive, are incorporated with this Act, and shall be applicable to the Mortgages and Bonds by this Act authorized to be granted and issued.

XLVIII. All Persons to whom such Bonds or Mortgages shall be made, or who shall be entitled to the Moneys thereby secured, shall, in proportion to the Sums therein respectively mentioned, be Creditors on the said Moneys raisable under the Metropolis Local Management Act, 1855, equally one with another, without any Preference in respect o the Priority of advancing such Moneys or of the Dates of any such Bonds or Mortgages respectively.

XLIX. In case the Board shall think it advisable or more advantageous to raise all or any Part of the Money to be borrowed under this Act by granting Annuities for Life or for Terms of Years, instead of raising the same by Bonds or on Mortgage, it shall be lawful for the Board, by Deed under their Corporate Seal, to grant an Annuity to any Person who shall contribute and pay to the Treasurer of the Board such Sum of Money as the Board shall deem right and proper for the absolute Purchase of an Annuity to be paid and payable during the Life of every such Contributor, or the Life of such Person as shall be nominated by such Contributor at the Time of Payment of his Contribution or Purchase Money, or for any Term of Years which may be agreed upon, and such Grant may be according to the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect.

L. The Provisions in the Metropolis Local Management Act, 1855, with respect to the Register, Transfer, and Register of Transfers of Mortgages, shall be respectively applicable to the Register, Transfer, and Register of Transfers of Annuities granted by virtue of the Provisions herein-before contained.

LI. The Form of Transfer of Mortgages contained in Schedule (F.) to "The Metropolis Local Management Act, 1855," shall be applicable, so far as may be practicable or convenient, to the Transfer of Annuities and Bonds granted or issued under the Authority of this Act.

LII. All Moneys raised by Mortgage or Bond, and all Sums of Money payable by way of Annuity by virtue of this Act, shall be charged upon and payable out of the Moneys or Rates which the Board are authorized to raise or assess by virtue of the Metropolis Local Management Act, 1855; and all Remedies given by such Act shall be applicable to any Sums of Moneys to be raised by virtue of this Act, but such Moneys shall not, unless the same be expressly declared in the Mortgage Deed or other Security, be charged upon the Land which may become vested in the Board for the Purposes of this Act, nor upon the Surplus of the London Bridge Approaches Fund herein mentioned.

LIII. The Expenses of every Bond, Mortgage, and Grant of Annuity shall from Time to Time be defrayed by the Board out of the Money raised by the same.

LIV. The Board shall keep separate Accounts of all Moneys borrowed by them, and of all Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments purchased by them, and of the Moneys invested in such Purchases, and of all their Receipts, Credits, Payments, and Liabilities with respect to the Execution of this Act, and in order the better to show the State of the Affairs of the Board, those Accounts shall be kept separate and distinct from all their other Accounts.

LV. All the Money which shall be raised under the Authority of this Act by borrowing on Mortgage or Bond, or by the Grant of Annuities, shall be applied in the first place in paying the Expenses incurred by the Board of applying for, obtaining, and passing this Act, and preparatory or incident thereto, and afterwards in purchasing Lands, and making such new Streets and other Improvements connected therewith as are hereby authorized and as the Board shall direct to be made, and in carrying the Purposes of this Act into execution with reference thereto.

LVI. All Moneys which shall be received by the Board by the way of Fine for the granting of any Lease, and the Purchase Money arising from the Sale by the Board of any Lands, or from the Sale of the Ground Rents reserved or agreed to be reserved under the Powers of this Act, shall be applied in carrying out the Improvements and Purposes by this Act authorized, or in augmentation of the Sinking Fund to be provided by the Board in pursuance of the One hundred and nineteenth Section of the Metropolis Local Management Act, 1855, for the Discharge of the Principal Moneys borrowed under the Authority of this Act, and after discharging all the Purposes of this Act any Surplus shall be applicable to the Purposes to which the general Funds authorized to be raised by the Board are by the Metropolis Local Management Act, 1855, directed to be applied: Provided always, that nothing in this Act shall authorize the Board to apply any Part of the Moneys obtained by the Sale of the Ground Rents reserved or agreed to be reserved under the Powers of this Act for Lands situate in the Neighbourhood of the Covent Garden Approach, except to the Purposes of the Covent Garden Approach authorized by this Act.

LVII. The Commissioners of Works shall upon the passing of this Act cause to be delivered over to the Board, or to their Treasurer for the Time being, or to such other Person as the Board shall direct to receive the same, the Exchequer Bills amounting to the Sum of Eighty-nine thousand one hundred Pounds herein-before mentioned, applicable to the Purposes of the Southwark Improvement, and also all other Exchequer Bills (if any) which may have been purchased by them out of the Moneys received for Interest, and which may at the Time of the passing of this Act be in their Custody or Power, and shall also pay over to the Board or to their Treasurer for the Time being, or to such other Person as the Board may direct to receive the same, the before-mentioned Balance or Sum of Four Pounds and Tenpence so now remaining in the Hands of Her Majesty's Paymaster General, and also all other Sum and Sums of Money which may have been received for Interest on the said Exchequer Bills since the Twenty-first Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven; and the Receipt in Writing of the Treasurer for the Time being of the Board, or of the Person who may be appointed by the Board to receive the same, shall be an effectual Discharge to the Commissioners of Works for all such Exchequer Bills and Money as may be so delivered over or paid to him, and as in such Receipt shall be acknowledged to have been received, and shall wholly and entirely exonerate and discharge the Commissioners of Works and every other Person or Persons whomsoever in whose Custody or Power the said Exchequer Bills and Cash may be at the Date of such Receipt from all Obligations to see to the Application thereof or of any Part thereof, and from all Responsibility in case of the Nonapplication or Misapplication of the same.

LVIII. Before the Board shall proceed under the Authority of this Act to borrow and take up at Interest any Sum or Sums of Money for the Purpose of enabling them to effect the Southwark Improvement by this Act authorized, they shall first sell and dispose of the Exchequer Bills herein-before directed to be delivered over to them, or the Exchequer Bills for which the same may have been or may be exchanged, and shall apply the Moneys to be produced thereby, and also the said Balance or Sum of Four Pounds and Tenpence and other the Moneys herein-before directed to be paid over to them by the Commissioners of Works, together with any Interest which may have accrued in respect of such Exchequer Bills, in effecting such Improvement; and it shall not be lawful for the Board to borrow or take up at Interest under the Authority of this Act any Sum or Sums of Money for the Purpose of enabling them to effect the Southwark Improvement until the Produce of such Exchequer Bills and other the Moneys aforesaid, which are hereby declared to be the primary Fund for effecting such Improvement, shall have been exhausted in effecting the same; and in order to prevent any Question from arising as to the Time at which it shall be lawful for the Board to exercise the Power by this Act given to them of borrowing Money for the Purpose of effecting the Southwark Improvement, the Board shall, when and as soon as the Produce of the said Exchequer Bills and the other Moneys by this Act directed to be applied as the primary Fund for the Purpose of the Southwark Improvement shall have been exhausted, cause a Minute thereof to be entered in the Minute Book of their Proceedings, and a Copy of such Minute, certified by the Secretary for the Time being of the Board to be a true Copy, shall in all Cases and for all Purposes be received as Evidence of the said Money having been fully expended, and shall be a sufficient Authority for the Board to exercise the Power hereby given to them of raising Money for the Purposes of the Southwark Improvement.

"The Metropolitan Market Act, 1857."

Whereas an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for providing a Metropolitan Market and Conveniences connected therewith, in lieu of the Cattle Market at Smithfield," and by the said Act it was declared that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, after the Expiration of Six Calendar Months from the passing of the said Act, in case the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London should not in the meantime have signified in the Manner therein mentioned their Desire to undertake the Execution of the said Act, to appoint certain Commissioners who were thereby authorized and empowered to provide, build, and maintain, in such Situations as might appear to them convenient for the Purpose, and as might be approved of by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, Places for holding a Cattle Market in lieu of the Market then holden in Smithfield, and a Meat Market with Slaughter-houses and Lairs for Cattle brought to such Cattle Market, or intended to be slaughtered in such Slaughter-houses, and to provide, build, and maintain such Pens, Stalls, Shops, Buildings, and Conveniences for the Purposes of the said Markets, Slaughter-houses, and Lairs as the Commissioners may think necessary, and to purchase by Agreement such Lands as they might deem necessary for the Purposes aforesaid; but no Agreement for the Purchase of any Site for any of the Purposes aforesaid was to be made or entered into by the Commissioners without the Consent in Writing of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: And whereas by the said Act the Commissioners were authorized, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to borrow and take up at Interest any Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds for the Purpose of defraying any Expenses which might be incurred by them in the Execution of the said Act, and to mortgage and assign over to any Person by or on whose Behalf such Sums might be advanced all or any of the Tolls, Rents, and Payments receivable by them the Commissioners under the said Act; and by the same Act the Commissioners of Public Works were authorized to make Advances to the Commissioners under the said Act upon the Security of the said Tolls, Rents, and Payments, without requiring any further or other Security than a Mortgage of such Tolls, Rents, and Payments; and it was by the said Act further declared, that the Sum to be appropriated and set apart by the Commissioners under the Act every Year as a Sinking Fund should be such a Sum as should from Time to Time be directed on that Behalf by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury; and the Commissioners under the said Act were authorized to sell and dispose of such Lands purchased under the said Act as might not appear to them to be required for the Purposes thereof, and to apply the Produce of such Sale in like Manner as other Moneys received under the said Act; and the said Commissioners were required, in the Month of March in every Year, to deliver to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State Accounts of their Receipt and Expenditure, to be laid before both Houses of Parliament: And whereas the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, within the Time limited in the said Act for that Purpose, duly signified their Desire to take upon themselves the Execution of the said Act, and declared their Intention to defray the Expenses incurred therein out of their own Funds: And whereas under or by virtue of the Provisions contained in the said Act the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons have, at the Expense of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, purchased a Site for and have erected and established a Cattle Market for the Metropolis, in lieu of the Market formerly held at Smithfield, together with a Meat Market and Slaughter-houses, and Lairs for Cattle brought to such Cattle Market, or intended to be slaughtered in such Slaughter-houses, and have expended Four hundred and forty thousand Pounds in the said Purchase and in the Formation of the said Markets, and in the Erection of Lairs and Slaughter-houses and of Taverns, Public Houses, and other Buildings and Conveniences connected with the said Markets, and they have borrowed the same upon the Credit of the several Tolls, Dues, Rents, and Payments receivable under the said Act and upon the Estates and Revenues of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens: And whereas it is expedient that Power be given the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons to let upon Lease the surplus Ground not now wanted for Market Purposes, and also the Slaughter-houses and other Buildings, for the best Rents that can be procured for the same, so as that the Freehold and Inheritance thereof may be retained in their own Hands, in case at any distant Period of Time it should become necessary to use the same for the Purpose of enlarging or otherwise improving the said Markets or the Approaches thereto: And whereas by an Act passed in the Twenty-first Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act to prevent the Mischiefs that arise from driving Cattle within the Cities of London and Westminster, and Liberties thereof, and Bills of Mortality," the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London for the Time being were authorized to make and frame reasonable Rules, Orders, or Ordinances for governing and regulating all Persons who should drive any Cattle, Sheep, Calves, or Lambs within the Cities of London or Westminster, and the Liberties thereof, or the Bills of Mortality: And whereas it is expedient that the said first-recited Act should be amended, and that increased Powers for the Management and Control of the said Cattle Market, Meat Market, Slaughter-houses, and Lairs should be vested in the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, and that the Tolls, Dues, and Payments by the said first-recited Act authorized to be demanded and taken should be increased: And whereas it is expedient that the Power by the first-recited Act given to the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London for regulating the driving of Cattle, Sheep, Calves, or Lambs within the Cities of London and Westminster, and the Liberties thereof, and the Bills of Mortality, and all the Rules, Orders, and Ordinances made by virtue thereof, should be repealed, and that new and more extensive Powers for that Purpose should be vested in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London; but the same cannot be done without the Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

I. From and after the Commencement of this Act the whole of the first-recited Act, and the Fourth Section of the second-recited Act, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

II. In this Act the following Words and Expressions shall have the several Meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction; (that is to say,)

The Words "Common Council" shall mean the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London in Common Council assembled, and shall include the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens:

The Words "Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens" shall mean the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London:

The Word "Cattle" shall include Sheep, Lambs, and Swine:

The Word "Horse" shall include Mare, Ass, and Mule:

The Word "Slaughter-house" shall mean a Place used for slaughtering Cattle:

The Word "Justice" shall include the Lord Mayor and any Aldermen and the Recorder of the City of London.

General Saving of Rights, &c. under recited Acts, §§ 3 to 7.

VIII. The Common Council shall maintain and uphold the Cattle Market established under the Authority of the first-recited Act, in lieu of the Market formerly holden in Smithfield, with the Slaughter-houses and Lairs for Cattle, and Pens, Stalls, Shops, Taverns, Public Houses, and other Buildings and Conveniences already erected and built in connexion therewith, or for the Purposes thereof; and it shall be lawful for the Common Council to provide, build, and maintain, in such Situation as may appear to them convenient for the Purpose, a Meat Market, with such Stalls, Shops, Standings, and other Conveniences for the Purposes thereof, and also such and so many additional Slaughter-houses, Lairs, Pens, Stalls, Shops, Buildings, and Conveniences for the Purposes of the said Markets, as they may think necessary, all which Markets shall be deemed to be public Markets, and to make and maintain all necessary and convenient Roads and Approaches to and from the Market Places, Slaughter-houses, and Lairs provided and to be provided as aforesaid, and with the Consent of the Owner of any existing Road, or of the Persons in whom the Management thereof may by Law be vested, to widen and improve such existing Road for facilitating Ingress and Egress to and from such Market Places, Slaughter-houses, and Lairs; and it shall be lawful for the Common Council to purchase by Agreement such Lands as they may deem necessary for the Purposes aforesaid: Provided always, that no Agreement for the Purchase of any Site for any of the Purposes aforesaid shall be made or entered into by the Common Council without the Consent in Writing of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

IX. The Common Council shall provide for the said Market Places, Slaughter-houses, and Lairs a sufficient Supply of Water, and may procure the same from any Water Company or Persons willing to contract for the Purpose, and the Common Council shall cause the said Market Places, Slaughter-houses, and Lairs to be sufficiently drained, and may (subject to any Rights and Jurisdiction vested in the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers) execute the Works necessary for the Drainage thereof, or may procure such Works to be executed by such Commissioners.

X. It shall be lawful for the Common Council from Time to Time to appoint such Clerks, Collectors, Inspectors, and other Officers as they may think fit for the Purposes of this Act, and from Time to Time to remove the Officers so appointed, or any of them, and to allow to such Officers respectively such Salaries and Wages as the Common Council may think proper.

XI. It shall be lawful for the Common Council from Time to Time to make Byelaws for fixing or altering the Days upon which the Markets to be holden under this Act shall or may be held, for placing and driving Cattle within the said Market, for fixing the Hours for commencing and closing the said Markets on each Market Day, the Times at which Cattle and Horses respectively shall be brought into or exposed for Sale in the Market and removed therefrom, and for the letting, occupying, holding, and using of the Pens, Lairs, Stalls, Shops, Buildings, and Conveniences, for keeping the said Market Places, Slaughter-houses, and Lairs in a cleanly and proper State, and preventing the Exercise of Cruelty therein, for preventing Nuisances or Obstructions in the said Market Places or the immediate Approaches thereto, and generally for regulating, ordering, and governing the said Markets, Slaughter-houses, and Lairs, and the Conduct of Business therein; and the Common Council may from Time to Time alter or repeal any such Byelaws, and may by such Byelaws impose such reasonable Penalties as they think fit, not exceeding Forty Shillings for each Breach of such Byelaws, but so that every such Byelaw be so framed as to allow the Justices before whom any Penalty imposed thereby may be sought to be recovered to order the whole or Part only of such Penalty to be paid: Provided always, that no Byelaw of the Common Council shall be of any Force or Effect until the same has been approved under the Hand of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and such Byelaws shall be signed by the Town Clerk of the City of London, and published as hereinafter mentioned, and in the meantime and until such new Byelaws shall be made, approved, and published as aforesaid, the Byelaws made under the Authority of the said first-recited Act shall remain and continue in force as if the said Act had not been repealed.

XII. It shall be lawful for the Common Council from Time to Time to demise and lease all or any of the Stalls, Slaughter-houses, Lairs, and Conveniences already provided or which may hereafter be provided under the Authority of this Act, and which in their Opinion may properly be exclusively occupied, for any Term or Number of Years not exceeding Seven Years, and to demise and lease any House, Tavern, Public House, and Shop already erected and built, or which may be erected and built under the Authority of this Act, for any Term not exceeding Twenty-one Years, and to demise and lease all or any of the several Slips or Pieces of Land described in the Schedule (B.) annexed to this Act for any Term or Number of Years not exceeding Eighty Years, every Lease which may be granted under the Authority of this Act to take effect in possession or within Three Months from the Time of granting the same; and all Rents which may be received under or by virtue of any such Leases shall be applied in the same Manner as the Tolls, Dues, and other Payments receivable under this Act are authorized to be applied.

XIII. The Common Council shall, with the Approbation of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, fix a Table of Tolls and Payments to be demanded and taken for or in respect of Cattle, Horses, and Meat brought into or exposed for Sale in the said Markets, and for or in respect of the Use of Pens, Lairs, Slaughter-houses, and Conveniences provided under the said first-recited Act or this Act, and may from Time to Time, with such Approbation as aforesaid, vary such Table of Tolls and Payments as they may deem fit: Provided always, that such Tolls and Payments do not exceed the said respective Sums mentioned in the Schedule (A.) to this Act, and the Table of the Tolls and Payments for the Time being payable under this Act shall be published as herein-after directed; and in the meanwhile and until such Tolls and Payments shall be so fixed and sanctioned as aforesaid it shall be lawful for the Common Council to levy and take for or in respect of Horses, Cattle, and Meat brought into and exposed for Sale in the said Markets, and for the Use of Pens, Lairs, Slaughter-houses, and Conveniences, the same Tolls and Payments as they are now authorized to levy and take.

XIV. Copies of all Byelaws for the Time being in force under this Act affecting other Persons than the Officers of the Common Council, and the Table of Tolls and Payments for the Time being payable under this Act in respect of the said Markets respectively, shall be painted in legible Characters on Boards, to be set up and continued at each and every of the Entrances, or in some conspicuous Position in the Place for holding the Market to which such Byelaws relate, or in respect of which such Tolls and Payments are payable; and such Boards shall from Time to Time be renewed, replaced, and restored when and so often as the same are destroyed, defaced, or removed: Provided always, that if any such Board be destroyed, defaced, or removed, such Byelaws, Tolls, and Payments shall continue in force and payable respectively during such Time as may be reasonably required for renewing, replacing, or restoring the same, in the same Manner as if the Destruction, Removal, or Defacement had not occurred.

XV. Smithfield Market having under the Provisions of the first-recited Act ceased to be a Market for the Sale of Cattle and Horses, the Repeal of such Act shall not authorize or empower, or be deemed or construed to authorize or empower, the using of the Site thereof, or of any Part thereof, as a Market for the Sale of Cattle or Horses; and no new Market for the Sale of Cattle or Horses shall be opened in the Cities of London or Westminster, or the Liberties thereof, or in the Borough of Southwark, or at any Place distant less than Seven Miles in a straight Line from St. Paul's Cathedral in the City of London.

XVI. It shall be lawful for the Common Council from Time to Time to appoint a Committee to manage and transact all or any of the Matters or Purposes which the Common Council are hereby empowered to do, execute, or perform, which Committee shall have such or so many of the Powers and Authorities and Discretion by this Act given to or reposed in the Common Council as the Common Council shall think fit and proper to delegate to such Committee.

XVII. It shall be lawful for any Clerk or Inspector appointed under this Act, with or without Assistants, to inspect and examine any Cattle and dead Meat exposed or offered for Sale in the Markets provided under this Act, or either of them, and for that Purpose to enter into any Building, Shop, Stall, Pen, or Place provided under this Act, and seize any such Cattle or Meat which may appear to him unfit for human Food, and to report such Seizure to any Justice of the Peace having Jurisdiction in the Place; and such Justice may order such Cattle or Meat to be destroyed or otherwise disposed of in such Manner as may appear to him proper, and any Person exposing or offering for Sale as aforesaid Cattle or Meat unfit for human Food shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

XVIII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioner of the City Police, with the Consent of the Common Council, from Time to Time to make such Orders, Rules, and Regulations as he and they shall deem expedient with respect to the driving of Cattle within the Police District of the City of London, and also for the Commissioners of the Police of the Metropolis from Time to Time to make such Orders, Rules, and Regulations as they shall deem expedient with respect to the driving of Cattle within so much of the Metropolitan Police District as is within the City of Westminster and within the Boundaries of the Boroughs of Marylebone, Finsbury, the Tower Hamlets, Lambeth, and Southwark, as defined by an Act passed in the Second and Third Years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-four, intituled "An Act to settle and describe the Divisions of Counties and the Limits of Cities and Boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the Election of Members to serve in Parliament," whether such Cattle shall or shall not be proceeding either from or to the said Market, or to any Slaughter-house or Lair, and with respect to the Days and Hours on and within which and the Routes, Streets, Roads, Ways, or Places by, through, or in which Cattle shall be driven, and also to make Orders, Rules, and Regulations for the Control, Regulation, and good Government of all Persons driving, aiding, or assisting in driving Cattle within the said Districts, and from Time to Time alter, vary, or repeal all or any of such Orders, Rules, or Regulations; and any Person disobeying or acting contrary to any such Orders, Rules, or Regulations, or driving or aiding or assisting in driving any Cattle within such Districts contrary to such Orders, Rules, or Regulations, or on a Day on which, or within Hours during which, or by or along Routes, Streets, Roads, Ways, or Places, or in or by or through which Cattle shall by any such Orders, Rules, or Regulations be prohibited from being driven, shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings: Provided always, that such Orders, Rules, or Regulations shall not be of or have any Force or Effect until the same shall have been approved under the Hand of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and such Orders, Rules, and Regulations shall, so far as the same relate to the Police District of the City of London, be signed by the Town Clerk for the Time being of the City of London, and so far as the same relate to the Metropolitan Police District be signed by One of the said Commissioners of Police, and shall be published as by this Act is directed with respect to the Publication of Byelaws made under the Authority thereof.

XIX. Such Orders, Rules, and Regulations shall not extend to prevent Cattle imported into London by Sea from being driven to their Lairs, or Fields used as Lairs, on any Sunday throughout the Year: Provided that such Cattle shall not be so driven by or along any Streets, Roads, Ways, or Places within the Limits herein before mentioned between the Hours of Ten and Five o'Clock on that Day, nor without a Certificate from the Veterinary Surgeon appointed to inspect such Cattle that it is necessary for the Condition and Health of such Cattle that they should be so driven to their Lairs or Fields as aforesaid.

XX. The Tolls for the Time being fixed by such Tables of Tolls and Payments as aforesaid shall become due and payable immediately on the Cattle, Horses, or Meat in respect of which such Tolls are to be taken entering or being brought into the said Market Places respectively from any Person driving or bringing the same, or causing the same to be driven or brought into or exposing or offering the same for Sale in the said Market Places respectively; and the Payments for the Time being fixed by such Table for the Use of Pens, Lairs, and Conveniences shall become due and payable from the Persons using the same at such Times as for the Time being may be fixed by such Table, and all such Tolls and Payments as aforesaid shall be collected, received, and taken on behalf of the Common Council by such Collectors or Persons as they may direct.

XXI. It shall be lawful for the Common Council to grant to any Person who shall produce such a Certificate as shall satisfy them of his good Character and Fitness for such Situation a Licence to act as Drover or Assistant Drover; and every such Licence shall bear Date on the Day on which the same shall be granted, and shall continue in force for the Space of One Year, unless the same shall be sooner revoked or suspended; and the Common Council shall at the Time of granting any Licence deliver to the Drover to whom the same shall be granted a Metal Ticket or Badge, upon which there shall be painted or engraved or embossed his Office or Employment, and a Number corresponding with the Number which shall be inserted in such Licence; and it shall not be lawful for any Person to act as Drover in driving, or to aid or assist in driving, any Cattle within the London Police District, or so much of the Metropolitan Police District as aforesaid, unless such Person shall have a Licence so to do; and any Person who shall act as Drover, or who shall aid or assist in driving any Cattle within the London Police District, or so much of the Metropolitan Police District as aforesaid, without having such Licence, shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and every licensed Drover, and every Person licensed to assist in driving Cattle, shall at all Times, whenever employed in driving Cattle, wear his Badge conspicuously upon the upper Part of the Left Arm in such Manner that the Number painted or engraved or embossed thereon shall at all Times be distinctly legible; and every licensed Drover, and every Person licensed to assist in driving Cattle, who shall drive or assist in driving Cattle without wearing such Badge in such conspicuous Manner as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

XXII. All Tolls, Rents, and Payments which shall be received under this Act by any Officer of the Common Council shall be by such Officer forthwith paid into the Chamber of the City of London to the Credit of an Account to be intituled "The Account of the Metropolitan Market;" and the Receipt of the Chamberlain for the Time being, or his known Clerk, shall be a sufficient Discharge for the same.

XXIII. Before any Officer appointed under this Act shall be permitted to enter upon any Office or Employment by reason whereof he will or may be entrusted with the Custody or Control of Money under this Act, the Common Council shall require and take from him such Security for the faithful Execution of such Office or Employment, and for duly accounting for all Moneys which may be entrusted to him by reason thereof, as they may think sufficient.

XXIV. The Money to be paid into the Chamber of London under this Act shall be paid out upon Drafts or Orders signed by Seven or more Members of the Common Council.

XXV. It shall be lawful for the Common Council, for the Purposes of defraying any Expenses incurred or to be incurred by them in the Execution of the said first-recited Act or of this Act, and payable out of the Tolls, Rents, and Payments receivable by them under this Act, and with the Approbation of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from Time to Time to borrow and take up at Interest any Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Four hundred thousand Pounds, including the Money already borrowed, which may appear to the Common Council necessary, and for the Purpose of securing the Repayment of any Sums so borrowed, together with such Interest as aforesaid, the Common Council may mortgage and assign over to the Persons by or on behalf of whom such Sums are advanced all or any of the said Lands, Tolls, Rents, and Payments.

XXVI. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners acting in the Execution of the Act of the Session holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Nine, and in the Execution of any of the Acts recited in that Act, or of any Act or Acts for amending or continuing the same Acts or any of them, to make Advances to the Common Council upon the Security of the Tolls, Rents, and Payments to be received under this Act.

XXVII. The Clauses of the "Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," with respect to the Mortgages to be executed by the Common Council, shall be incorporated with this Act; and the Word "Rates," where used in the said Clauses, shall for the Purposes of this Act mean the Tolls, Rents, and Payments to be received by the Common Council under this Act; and the Sum to be appropriated and set apart by the Common Council every Year as a Sinking Fund shall be such Sum as shall be from Time to Time directed in this Behalf by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

XXVIII. The Chamberlain shall cause Books to be provided and kept, and full and correct Accounts to be entered therein, of all Tolls, Rents, and Payments, and other Moneys received by him or his Clerks on account of the Metropolitan Market, and of the Application thereof, distinguishing the Times and Purposes when and for which Moneys were received and paid, and shall in the Month of January in each Year cause their Accounts to be balanced up to the Thirty-first Day of December of the preceding Year; and the Chamberlain shall cause a full Statement and Account to be drawn out of all Contracts entered into and of all Moneys received and expended by virtue of this Act during such preceding Year under the several distinct Heads of Receipt and Expenditure, and also of all Moneys then owing to the Common Council, and of all Mortgages and other Debts then owing by the Common Council on account thereof.

XXIX. The Accounts of the Common Council shall be examined and audited by the Auditors for the Time being of the City Accounts.

XXX. The Common Council may enter into all such Contracts as they may think fit for providing the Market Places, Slaughter-houses, Lairs, Conveniences, and Matters by this Act authorized to be provided, and for any other Matters in relation to the Purposes of this Act in respect of which it may appear to the Common Council expedient to enter into Contracts.

XXXI. Provided always, That no Purchase, Building, or Work where the Purchase Money or the estimated Expense of such Building or Work exceeds Fifty thousand Pounds shall be made, erected, or done, or any Contract for the same entered into, by the Common Council, without the Approbation of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

XXXII. "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," except the Clauses of that Act "with respect to the Purchase and taking of Lands otherwise than by Agreement," "with respect to Lands acquired by the Promoters of the Undertaking, but which shall not be required for the Purposes thereof," "with respect to the Recovery of Forfeitures, Penalties, and Costs," shall be incorporated with this Act; and for the Purposes of this Act the Expression "the Promoters of the Undertaking," wherever used in the said Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, shall mean the Common Council.

XXXIII. The Common Council shall in the Month of March in every Year send to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State a Report of their Proceedings, and shall, where any Variation has been made in the Table of Tolls and Payments since the preceding Report, show such Variation in their Report, and shall with such Report send an Account in abstract, showing the Receipt and Expenditure for such preceding Year, under the several distinct Heads of Receipt and Expenditure, with the Statement of the Allowance of the Auditors, if they have allowed such Accounts, or of the Parts, if any, which they have disapproved of such Accounts, and also a Statement of all Moneys owing to and Debts owing by the Common Council on the Thirty-first Day of December of such preceding Year; and the Common Council shall also from Time to Time give to any One of such Secretaries of State as aforesaid such Information as he may require respecting their Proceedings.

XXXIV. Every Report, Account in abstract, and Statement to be sent to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State under this Act shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within One Month after the Receipt thereof, if Parliament be sitting, or if Parliament be not sitting, then within One Month after the next Meeting of Parliament.

XXXV. That the Justices acting in and for every Petty Sessions Division within the Metropolitan Police District shall hold a Special Sessions in the Division or District for which they usually act in every Year in the Month of October, and shall cause public Notice of the Time and Place when and where such Special Sessions shall be holden to be affixed to or near to the Door of the Parish Church of the Parish comprising such Division or District, or of the respective Parishes in such Division or District, and such Special Sessions shall and may be adjourned from Time to Time by the Justices there present as they may think fit; and from and after the passing of this Act no Place within the Metropolitan Police District, other than those erected or to be erected under the Authority of the said first-recited Act and of this Act, shall be used as a Slaughter-house without a Licence had for that Purpose from the Justices of the Peace acting for the Division or District where such Place is situate at such Special Sessions as aforesaid (who are hereby authorized to grant such Licences where they in their Discretion think proper), signified under the Hands and Seals of a Majority of the Justices there assembled; and no Fee or Reward exceeding One Shilling shall be taken for any such Licence; and if any Person use as a Slaughter-house any Place other than the Slaughter-houses erected or to be erected under the Authority of the said first-recited Act and of this Act, or permit the same to be used by any other Person within the Division or District aforesaid which is not for the Time being so licensed, every Person so offending shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds: Provided always, that before any Licence for the Use of any Place as a Slaughter-house is granted by any Justices acting in such Division or District, One Month's Notice previous to the First Day of October in every Year of the Intention to apply for such Licence shall be given to the Vestry or District Board of the Parish or District in which such Place is situate, to the Intent that such Vestry or District Board, if they think fit, may show Cause against the Grant of such Licence, and also Seven Days Notice previous to such Special Sessions being held of the Intention to apply for such Licence shall be given to the Clerk of the Justices for such Division.

XXXVI. That any Person or Persons who shall think himself or themselves aggrieved by any Act of any Justice done in or concerning the Grant or Refusal of any Licence for a Slaughter-house may appeal against such Act to the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden for the County or Place wherein the Cause of such Complaint shall have arisen, unless such Session shall be holden within Twelve Days next after such Act shall have been done, and in that Case to the next subsequent Session holden as aforesaid, and not afterwards, and such Appeal shall be subject to the same Provisions and Conditions as to previous Notice and Recognizances for trying such Appeal, the Hearing and Judgment of the General or Quarter Sessions thereon, with the same Powers of awarding Costs relative thereto as are contained in the Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the granting of Licences to Keepers of Inns, Alehouses, and Victualling Houses in England," in the same Manner as if the Provisions contained in the said Act relating to Appeals were re-enacted in this Act.

XXXVII. Every Person who shall destroy, pull down, injure, or deface any Board placed by Authority of the Common Council in or about the Markets provided under this Act, upon which any Byelaw or Table of Tolls and Payments shall be painted or placed, shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

XXXVIII. No Member or Officer of the Common Council shall be in anywise concerned or interested in any Contract or Work made with or executed for the Common Council; and if any such Member or Officer be so concerned or interested, or shall under colour of his Office or Employment exact, take, or accept any Fee or Reward whatsoever other than his proper Salary, Wages, and Allowances, he shall cease to be a Member of the Common Council or Officer, and shall be incapable of afterwards holding or continuing in or in any Office or Employment under the Common Council, and shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds, which may be recovered by any Person, with full Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt: Provided that no Person being a Shareholder of any Joint Stock Company established by Act of Parliament or by Charter shall be prevented from being interested in any Contract between such Company and the Common Council, or of any Work executed by such Company.

XXXIX. If any Person liable to the Payment of any Toll under this Act in respect of any Cattle, Horse, or Meat brought into the said Market Places respectively, or to any Payment for the Use of any Pens, Lairs, or Conveniences provided under this Act, neglect or refuse to pay such Toll or Payment when the same becomes payable under this Act, it shall be lawful for the Common Council, or any Person in that Behalf authorized by them, to levy and recover such Toll or Payment by Distress and immediate Sale of any such Cattle, Horse, or Meat for which such Toll is payable, or of any Cattle, Horses, Meat, or other Articles brought into such Pens, Lairs, or Conveniences by the Person liable to such Payment for using the same, rendering the Overplus (if any) of the Money arising from the Sale thereof on Demand to the Owner of the Things sold, after deducting the reasonable Charge of the Distress and Sale; and in case any Dispute or Difference arise concerning or in consequence of any such Distress or Sale, such Dispute or Difference shall and may be settled and determined by Two Justices, who are hereby empowered and required, on Application being made to them for that Purpose, to summon the Parties before them, and to hear and determine upon Oath the Matter of any Complaint which may be made concerning or in consequence of such Distress or Sale, and to make such Order therein and award such Costs to either Party as to such Justices in their Discretion shall seem meet, and by Warrant under their Hands and Seals to cause the Costs which shall be so awarded to be levied by Distress and Sale of any Cattle, Horses, Meat, Goods, or Chattels, being the Property of the Party liable to pay the same, rendering the Overplus (if any) of the Money arising from the Sale thereof on Demand to the Owner of the Things sold, after deducting in every case the reasonable Charges of such Distress and Sale: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent the Common Council from suing for and recovering in any Court of Record any Sum of Money which shall become payable to them for or in respect of any such Toll or Payment as aforesaid, if Default be made in Payment thereof.

XL. Every Person who shall be liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture imposed by this Act, or by any Byelaw, Order, Rule, or Regulation hereby authorized to be made, shall be proceeded against, and such Penalty or Forfeiture shall be recovered, enforced, and applied, in the same Manner as the Persons liable to the Penalties and Forfeitures imposed under the Act of the Session holden in the Second and Third Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Forty-seven, and such last-mentioned Penalties and Forfeitures may by Law be proceeded against, recovered, enforced, and applied respectively; and all Provisions and Powers and Rights which are by Law applicable to and consequent upon Proceedings against Persons liable to the Penalties and Forfeitures last mentioned, shall be applicable to the Proceedings against Persons liable to Penalties and Forfeitures under this Act, or any such Byelaw, Order, Rule, or Regulation as aforesaid.

XXI. The Production of a written or printed Copy of the Byelaws, and of the Table of Tolls and Payments authenticated by the Signature of the Town Clerk, shall be Evidence of the making, Approval, and Existence of such Byelaws, and of the fixing and Existence of such Table of Tolls and Payments respectively, in all Prosecutions, Actions, and Proceedings under or concerning the same; and for Proof of the Publication of such Byelaws and Table of Tolls and Payments respectively, it shall be sufficient to prove that painted Boards containing Copies thereof respectively were set up and continued in manner by this Act directed, and in case of any such Board having been destroyed, defaced, or removed, that it was renewed, replaced, or restored as soon as conveniently might be.

XXII. Nothing in this Act contained shall apply to or affect the Provisions contained in an Act of the present Session of Parliament intituled "The Islington Parish Act, 1857."

XXIII. In citing this Act in any other Acts of Parliament, and for legal Instruments, it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Metropolitan Market Act, 1857."

XXIV. All the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of obtaining and passing this Act and of carrying the same into effect, or otherwise relating thereto, shall be defrayed by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons out of any Moneys received under the Authority of this Act.

“The Great Northern Railway Company. (Capital)
Act, 1857.”

Whereas by “The Great Northern Railway Act, 1846,” the Great Northern Railway Company, which was thereby incorporated, was authorized to raise a Capital of Five millions six hundred thousand Pounds by Shares, and to borrow One million eight hundred and sixty-eight thousand Pounds; and by “The Great Northern Railway Act (No. 1), 1851,” the Company were authorized to raise in Shares an additional Sum of Seven hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, and by Mortgage an additional Sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds; and by “The Great Northern Railway Company’s Increase of Capital Act, 1853,” the Company were again authorized to raise by Shares a further Capital of Seven hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, and to borrow an additional Sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds; and by “The Great Northern Railway Act, 1855,” the Company were authorized to raise a further Sum of One million Pounds by Shares, and Three hundred and thirty-three thousand Pounds by Mortgage; and by other Acts relating to the Company they have been authorized to raise further Capital to the Extent of Five hundred and sixty-three thousand Pounds for specific Purposes: And whereas in pursuance of the said Acts the Company have by Votes at several Meetings created a Capital in Shares of Eight millions six hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, and have actually and lawfully on the Registers of the Company such Capital to the Extent of Eight millions two hundred and nine thousand one hundred and twelve Pounds Ten Shillings, the greater Part of which is consolidated into Stock; and of the said Capital, the Sum of Seven hundred and ninety-six thousand four hundred and forty Pounds is entitled to Priority of Dividend at the Rate of Four and a Half per Centum per Annum, and Two millions six hundred and sixteen thousand six hundred and forty-seven Pounds Ten shillings is entitled to such Priority at the Rate of Five per Centum per Annum: And whereas the remaining Sum of Four millions seven hundred and ninety-six thousand twenty-five Pounds Ten Shillings is ordinary Stock entitled to participate in the Profits of the Company, subject to such Priority of the said Preference Stock; but (by virtue of Powers contained in the Seventieth Section of “The Great Northern Railway Acts Amendment and Isle of Axholme Extension Act, 1848,”) the Proprietors of the Company, at a Half-yearly Meeting on the Twelfth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, resolved that every

Proprietor of an ordinary Share of Twenty-five Pounds on which Seventeen Pounds had been paid, should have the Option of dividing the same into Two Shares of Twelve Pounds Ten Shillings each, distinguished as A. or Deferred and B. or Guaranteed Shares, the Proprietors of the A. Shares (on which Twelve Pounds Ten Shillings had been paid in full) agreeing to give to the Proprietors of the B. Shares a Priority of Dividends to the Extent of Six per Centum per Annum on the said B. Shares, the annual Dividends beyond Six per Centum accruing to the Proprietors of the A. Shares alone; and there has been thus created One million one hundred and fifty-nine thousand two hundred and seventy-five Pounds of A. and the same Amount of B. stock; the remaining Sum of Two millions four hundred and seventy-seven thousand four hundred and seventy-five Pounds consisting of undivided ordinary Stock entitled to participate in the Profits of the Company, subject to the said Priority of the said Preference Stock: And whereas the Proprietors of all the Stock and Shares of the Company, whether Preference or A. or B. or ordinary Stock, are alike entitled to vote at the Meetings of the Company upon all Questions and upon the Election of Directors and Auditors: And whereas by virtue of “The Great Northern Railway Company’s Purchase Act, 1847,” the Great Northern Railway Company have long been in possession of the Undertaking of the East Lincolnshire Railway Company, under a Lease for Nine hundred and ninety-nine Years, at a fixed annual Rent of Thirty-six thousand Pounds; and by virtue of the Thirty-fourth Section of “The Great Northern Railway Acts Amendment Act, 1849,” the entire Management of the Undertaking of the said East Lincolnshire Railway Company, and the Distribution among the Proprietors thereof half-yearly of the said Rent, has devolved upon the Great Northern Railway Company: And whereas the paid-up Share Capital of the East Lincolnshire Railway Company is Six hundred thousand Pounds, which is consolidated into a Capital Stock: And whereas it hath recently been discovered that Stock and Shares both of the Great Northern and of the East Lincolnshire Railway Companies have been fraudulently created and issued by means of false Entries in the Books of the Companies, and by fictitious Transfers and otherwise, to the Amount of Two hundred and twenty-one thousand and seventy Pounds or thereabouts, and that by reason thereof the Stock and Shares of the Great Northern Railway Company and the Stock of the East Lincolnshire Railway Company exceed the Limits prescribed by the said several Acts of Parliament; and the Directors of the Great Northern Railway Company have been advised, that inasmuch as the said Stocks and Shares thus fraudulently created and issued are so blended with the genuine Capital of the Companies that they cannot be identified, the Company cannot without the Sanction of Parliament make any Dividend until the said several Stocks are reduced within the said Limits: And whereas the Schedule to this Act contains a Statement of the Capital lawfully on the Registers of the Company, and also a Statement of the Capital fraudulently created, so far as those Frauds have yet been ascertained: And whereas the Half-yearly General Meeting of the Company was held in London on the Twelfth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, which Meeting had been specially convened “to receive a Report from the Directors on the Subject of the Forgeries and Frauds committed by Leopold Redpath on the Company, and to authorize the Directors to make Application to Parliament, and take any other Measures they may deem advisable in “reference thereto;” and at the said Meeting a Report from the Directors, and a Statement of the net Revenue of the Company to the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six was read, which showed a Balance of Two hundred and forty-three thousand nine hundred and twenty-three Pounds Five Shillings and Eightpence for the Half Year ending on the said Thirty-first Day of December; and at the said Meeting it was resolved, “That no Dividend be declared, but that this Meeting considers it desirable that the Balance of Two hundred and forty-three thousand nine hundred and twenty-three Pounds Five Shillings and Eightpence mentioned in the Directors Report should be applied to meet the Losses caused by the Frauds and Forgeries of Leopold Redpath referred to in the Directors Report, and that the Directors be and are hereby requested and authorized so to apply the said Balance when and in such Manner as they may consider most beneficial for the Company, and to take such Proceedings in Parliament and otherwise as they may deem most conducive to the Interests of the Company:” And whereas the said Leopold Redpath has been convicted of Felony in consequence of the said Frauds and Forgeries, and has also been declared Bankrupt, and it is expected that some Part of the Losses occasioned by such Frauds and Forgeries may be reimbursed to the Great Northern Railway Company: And whereas it is believed that for the Stock and Shares so fraudulently created and issued a valuable and adequate Consideration has been given, without the Holders thereof having any Knowledge that the same were created and issued fraudulently, and it is fitting that the Holders of the said Stock and Shares should have their Titles to the same recognized, and that the Means herein-after authorized should be taken for the Re-purchase by the Company and for the ultimate Extinction of the Capital so fraudulently created and issued, or of Capital equivalent thereto in Amount: But inasmuch as these Objects cannot be attained without the Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

I. All Stock of whatever Description, and all Shares in the Great Northern and East Lincolnshire Railway Companies respectively, appearing upon the Registers of Stock and Shares of the same Companies respectively on the Thirty-first Day of January and the Thirty-first Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven respectively, (when the said Registers were respectively last closed,) are hereby declared to be valid, and to entitle the Holders thereof to all the Rights, Privileges, and Advantages, and to subject the Holders thereof to all the Duties and Liabilities which attach to the same Stock or Shares, or which would attach to the same if they had been all legally created and issued under the Authority of the Acts relating to the said Companies respectively.

II. The Directors shall apply the said Sum of Two hundred and forty-three thousand nine hundred and twenty-three Pounds Five Shillings and Eightpence, and any Moneys which shall be received by the Great Northern Railway Company towards Reimbursement as aforesaid of the said Losses, in Repayment of all Moneys expended by the said Company because of such Frauds and Forgeries, and in Payment of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses resulting therefrom, inclusive of the Expense of applying for, obtaining, and passing this Act; and in purchasing from Time to Time at their Discretion Stock or Shares of the said Companies in each of the several Capitals mentioned in the said Schedule, to the Amount of the several Stocks or Shares of the same Companies respectively so fraudulently created and issued, whether already discovered or hereafter discovered; and they shall forthwith cancel and extinguish the Stock and Shares so purchased: Provided always, that any Purchases of Stock or Shares which the Directors may have made pursuant to the said Resolution of the Twelfth Day of March last are hereby ratified and confirmed, and the said Directors are hereby required forthwith to cancel and extinguish the Stock or Shares so purchased: Provided also, that after the Purchase and cancelling and extinguishing herein-before directed, it shall be lawful for the Company or the Directors thereof to exercise all the Powers heretofore vested in them for the Creation and Issue of Capital as fully as though no such Stock and Shares had been so fraudulently created and issued.

III. If any Balance shall remain of the said Sum and of the said Moneys after such Application thereof as herein-before directed, it shall be lawful for the Directors and they are hereby required to apply such Balance, so far as the same will extend, in paying to the Proprietors of the several Classes of Preference Stock or Shares the Dividends to which they would have been entitled out of the said Sum of Two hundred and forty-three thousand nine hundred and twenty-three Pounds Five Shillings and Eightpence, if the same had been declared and apportioned as Dividend at the said Half-yearly Meeting of the Twelfth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven: Provided always, that all the Proprietors of each Class of Preference Stock or Shares shall receive their Dividends according to the Priority of the said Class and in preference to any subsequent Class: Provided also, that if the Balance remaining after Payment of the Dividend to preceding Classes of Stock or Shares is not sufficient to pay the whole Amount of the Dividend to the next subsequent Class, such Balance shall be divided rateably among all the Proprietors of the same Class of Stock or Shares according to the Amount of the same held by them respectively.

IV. It shall not be lawful for the Company, out of any Money by any Act relating to the Company authorized to be raised for the Purposes of such Act or Acts, to pay or deposit any Sum of Money which, by any Standing Order of either House of Parliament now in force or hereafter to be in force, may be required to be deposited in respect of any Application to Parliament for the Purpose of obtaining an Act authorizing the Company to construct any other Railway or execute any other Work or Undertaking.

V. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to exempt the Great Northern or the East Lincolnshire Railway, or the Companies owning the same, from the Provisions of any General Act relating to Railways, now in force or which may hereafter pass during this or any future Session of Parliament, or from any future Revision and Alteration, under the Authority of Parliament, of the maximum Rates of Fares and Charges, or of the Rates for small Parcels, authorized to be taken by the said Companies.

VI. Nothing herein contained shall in any way affect the Right, if any, of the Company or the Proprietors of the Shares therein to recover against their Directors or Officers of the said Company for any Neglect or Misconduct on their Part in the Matters in the Recital to this Act mentioned.

VII. This Act may be cited as "The Great Northern Railway Company (Capital) Act, 1857."

II. In citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament and in legal Instruments and other Proceedings it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Mayor's Court of London Procedure Act, 1857."

III. From and after the Commencement of this Act no Action or Suit for the Recovery of any Debt or Demand shall be commenced in the Sheriffs Court either of the Poultry Compter or of the Giltspur Street Compter, save only and except Pleas of Personal Actions under the Provisions of the London (City) Small Debts Act, 1852, which may continue to be brought as heretofore in the Sheriffs Court without being entitled as of either Compter: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed or construed to take away or diminish the Power or Authority of the Sheriffs of London or either of them to execute any Writ of Inquiry or other Writ or Mandate which may be directed to them by any Court of competent Authority, or by any Judge or Officer thereof, or by any Person lawfully authorized to issue the same, or any Writ of Trial which may be directed to them or either of them under or by virtue of the Provisions of the Act of Third and Fourth William the Fourth, Chapter Forty-two, nor to take away or diminish any other Power or Authority which the Sheriffs of London or either of them can have or hath or can or may lawfully exercise by Act of Parliament, Charter, Act of Common Council, Custom, Prescription, or otherwise howsoever.

IV. And whereas it is expedient to facilitate the Proceedings in Error on Matters arising in the Mayor's Court: Therefore, from and after the Commencement of this Act, no Petition shall be presented to or be received by the Lord High Chancellor for any Writ of Error to review any Proceeding in the Mayor's Court, nor shall any Writ of Error be issued thereout to review any such Proceeding, nor shall any Writ or other Proceeding be issued to the Court of Saint Martin's-le-Grand for any Purpose as a Court of Error to review any Proceeding of the Mayor's Court, but in all Cases of Error arising on Proceedings in the Mayor's Court the Exchequer Chamber shall be the Court of Error for the Purposes of this Act, and all Matters in Error shall be proceeded with according to the Rules to be framed for that Purpose as is herein-after expressed.

V. The Parties in any Action or Foreign Attachment may, after Issue joined, by Consent, and by the Order of the Court, state the Facts of the Case in the Form of a Special Case for the Opinion of the Court, or of any One of the Superior Courts, and may agree that Judgment shall be entered thereon for the Plaintiff, Garnishee, or Defendant as the Court or such Superior Court may think fit.

VI. When the Opinion of such Superior Court shall be required the Registrar of the Mayor's Court shall transmit such Special Case, under the Seal of the Court, to the Rule Department of the Master's Office of the Superior Court in which the Case is to be argued, and thereupon all such Proceedings shall be taken and Rules and Regulations observed in the said Superior Court as are usual with reference to Cases stated for the Opinion of such Superior Court in Actions therein pending.

VII. The Registrar of the Court, upon the Production of an Office Copy of the Rule of the Superior Court made upon hearing the said Special Case, shall enter Judgment in the Court in conformity with the Decision of the Superior Court.

VIII. If either Party appearing on the Trial of any Cause in which the Sum sought to be recovered shall exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds shall be dissatisfied with the Determination or Direction of the Court in point of Law, or upon the Admission or Rejection of any Evidence, such Party may appeal from the same to any One of the Superior Courts (Two or more of the Puisne Judges or Barons thereof shall sit out of Term as a Court of Appeal for that Purpose); provided, that such Party shall, within Two Days after such Determination or Direction, give Notice of Appeal to the other Party or his Attorney, and also give Security within such Time or Times as the Court shall direct, to be approved of by the Registrar of the Court (if the Judge shall so direct), for the Costs of the Appeal, whatever be the Event of the Appeal, and for the Amount of the Judgment, if he be the Defendant and the Appeal be dismissed: Provided nevertheless, that such Security, so far as regards the Amount of the Judgment, shall not be required in any Case where the Judge of the Court shall have ordered the Party appealing to pay the Amount of such Judgment into the Hands of the Registrar, and the same shall have been paid accordingly; and the said Court of Appeal may either order a new Trial on such Terms as it shall think fit, or may order Judgment to be entered for either Party, as the Case may be, and may make such Order with respect to the Costs of the said Appeal as such Court may think proper, and such Orders shall be final.

IX. Such Appeal shall be in the Form of a Case agreed on by both Parties or their Attornies, and, if they cannot agree, the Judge of the Court, upon being applied to by them or their Attornies, shall settle the Case and sign it, and such Case shall be transmitted by the Registrar to the Rule Department of the Master's Office of the Court in which the Appeal is to be brought.

X. If upon the Trial of any Issue the Judge shall grant Leave to the Plaintiff or Defendant to move in any of the Superior Courts to set aside a Verdict or a Nonsuit, and to enter a Verdict for the Plaintiff or Defendant, or to enter a Nonsuit, as the Case may be, or for a new Trial, the Party to whom such Leave may have been given may apply by Motion to such Superior Court, within such Period of Time after the Trial as Motions of the like Kind shall from Time to Time be permitted to be made in such Superior Court, for a Rule to show Cause why such Verdict or Nonsuit should not be set aside, and a Verdict entered for the Plaintiff or Defendant, or a Nonsuit entered, or why a new Trial should not be had, as the Case may be, in such Action, which Court is hereby authorized and empowered to grant or refuse such Rule (which Rule, when granted, shall operate as a Stay of Proceedings until the Determination thereof), and afterwards to proceed to hear and determine the Merits thereof, and to make such Orders thereupon, and as to Costs, as the same Court shall think proper; and in case such Court shall order a new Trial to be had in any such Action, the Party obtaining such Order shall deliver the same or any Office Copy thereof to the Registrar of the said Court, and thereupon all the Proceedings on the former Verdict or Nonsuit shall cease, and the Action shall proceed to Trial, according to the Practice of the Court, in like Manner as if no Trial had been had therein; or in case the Court before whom such Rule shall be heard shall order the same to be discharged, the party obtaining any such Order may, upon delivering the same or an Office Copy thereof to the Registrar, be at liberty to proceed in any such Action as if no such Rule Nisi had been obtained; and if a Verdict be ordered to be entered for the Plaintiff or Defendant, or a Nonsuit be ordered to be entered, as the Case may be, Judgment shall be entered accordingly.

XI. If in any Action in Covenant, Debt, Detinue, or Assumpsit, not being an Action for Breach of Promise of Marriage, the Plaintiff shall recover a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, or if in any Action in Trespass, Trover, or Case, not being an Action for Malicious Prosecution, or for Libel, or for Slander, or for Criminal Conversation, or for Seduction, the Plaintiff shall recover a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, the Plaintiff shall have Judgment to recover such Sum only, and no Costs, unless the Judge before whom such Verdict shall be obtained shall certify on the Back of the Record that it appeared to him that there was a sufficient Reason for bringing the said Action in the Court, and in such Case the Plaintiff shall have Judgment to recover his Costs of Suit; or if when there is no Verdict the Plaintiff shall make it appear to the Satisfaction of the Court, on Summons, that there was a sufficient Reason for bringing the said Action in the Court, in such Case the Court may by Rule or Order direct that the Plaintiff shall recover his Costs, and thereupon the Plaintiff shall have Judgment to recover his Costs accordingly.

XII. Where the Debt or Damage claimed in any Action shall not exceed the Sum of Fifty Pounds, no Plea to the Jurisdiction shall be allowed, provided the Defendant or One of the Defendants shall dwell or carry on Business within the City of London or the Liberties thereof at the Time of the Action brought, or provided the Defendant or One of the Defendants shall have dwelt or carried on Business at some Time within Six Months next before the Time of the Action brought, or if the Cause of Action, either wholly or in part, arose therein.

XIII. The Court may, if it shall think fit, in any Case when it shall satisfactorily appear by Affidavit that the Cause of Action arises within the Jurisdiction of the Court, order that the Plaint may be served in any Part of England or Wales; and the Service of any Plaint in pursuance of such Order shall be as valid and effectual as if the same had been served within the Jurisdiction of the Court, provided that a Copy of such Order shall be served at the Time of the Service of the Plaint.

XIV. In all Cases where an Order of the Court shall be made under the last preceding Section, all the Proceedings in the Cause shall be had and taken as if the Defendant had been duly served with the Plaint within the Jurisdiction.

XV. No Defendant shall be permitted to object to the Jurisdiction of the Court in or by any Proceeding whatsoever, except by Plea.

XVI. No Cause depending in the Mayor's Court in which the Debt or Damages sought to be recovered shall not exceed Fifty Pounds shall be removed by any Defendant before Judgment therein into any Superior Court, except in pursuance of a Judge's Order, as herein-after mentioned, unless the Defendant, with Two sufficient Sureties, such as the Mayor's Court shall allow, shall first be bound to the Plaintiff in the Cause by Recognizance, to be acknowledged in the Mayor's Court, in a sufficient Sum for the Payment of the Debt or Damages and Costs in case Judgment shall pass against the Defendant in the Superior Court, or in case the Cause shall be brought back by Procedendo in the Mayor's Court: Provided always, that any Judge of any of the Superior Courts may in the Exercise of his Discretion order a Writ of Certiorari to issue to remove any such Cause depending in the Mayor's Court into any Superior Court without such Recognizance as aforesaid, and such Cause may be removed into such Superior Court accordingly.

XVII. No Cause depending in the Mayor's Court shall be removed before Judgment therein into any Superior Court, unless the Writ removing such Cause shall have been lodged with the proper Officer of the Court within One Month after the Service of the Plaint, or unless such Writ shall have been lodged with such Officer before such Action shall have been entered for Trial according to the Practice of the Mayor's Court.

XVIII. No Foreign Attachment shall be removed from the Mayor's Court at any Time after the same shall be set down for Trial except by the express Order of One of the Judges of the Superior Courts, and then upon such Terms as to Costs, Bail, or Payment of Money into Court as such Judge on Summons shall think fit; provided that a Summons only, without any Order of the Judge thereon, shall not stay the Trial of the Attachment in the Mayor's Court.

XIX. No Cause depending in the Court shall, before Judgment be recovered, be removable into any of the Superior Courts (after Plea pleaded), unless by Leave of a Judge of One of the said Superior Courts in Cases which shall appear to such Judge fit to be tried in One of the Superior Courts, and upon such Terms, if any, as to Payment of Costs, giving Security for Debt and Costs, or Damages and Costs, or such other Terms as he shall think fit, upon Summons.

XX. No Suit commenced on the Equity Side of the Mayor's Court shall be removed from out of the said Court into Chancery without the special Order of the Lord High Chancellor, the Master of the Rolls, or One of the Vice Chancellors, upon Application for that Purpose made; and no Cause shall be so removed from out of the said Equity Side of the Mayor's Court if the Judge to whom such Application shall be made shall consider that the Matter in question in the said Suit is fit to be tried in the Mayor's Court; and the said Master of the Rolls shall have Power from Time to Time to make Rules and Regulations respecting the removal of such Suits as aforesaid.

XXI. In any Action or other legal Proceeding in the Court the Court may, on Application made for such Purpose by either Party, compel the opposite Party to allow the Party making the Application to inspect all Documents in the Custody or Power or under the Control of such opposite Party relating to such Action or other legal Proceeding, and if necessary to take examined Copies of the same, or to procure the same to be duly stamped in all Cases in which, previous to the passing of this Act, a Discovery might have been obtained by filing a Bill, or by any other Proceeding in a Court of Equity at the Instance of the Party so making Application as aforesaid to the Court.

XXII. The Judge of the Court may at any Time, within the Jurisdiction of the Court, hear and grant Applications for Rules to show Cause in Arrest of Judgment, or for Judgment non obstante veredicto, or for a Repleader, or for granting new Trials, and for entering Nonsuits and Verdicts in Causes pending in the Court.

XXIII. It shall be lawful for the Court at all Times to amend all Defects and Errors in any Proceeding, whether there is anything in Writing to amend by or not, and whether the Defect or Error be that of the Party applying to amend or not; and all such Amendments as may be necessary for the Purpose of determining in the existing Suit the real Question in controversy between the Parties shall be so made; and all such Amendments may be made with or without Costs, or upon such Terms as to the Court may seem fit.

XXIV. The Court may in any Action, upon the Application of any of the Parties thereto, order the Examination on Oath, upon Interrogatories or otherwise, before the Registrar or other Person or Persons to be named in such Order, of any Witness or Witnesses in any Part of England and Wales, and by the same or any subsequent Order or Orders may give all such Directions touching the Time, Place, and Manner of Examination, and all other Matters and Circumstances connected with such Examination as may appear reasonable and just.

XXV. When any such Order shall be made the Court may, in and by the First or any subsequent Order, command the Attendance of any Person to be named in such Order for the Purpose of being examined, or the Production of any Writing or other Document to be mentioned in such Order, and may direct the Attendance of any such Person to be at his own Place of Abode or elsewhere, if necessary or convenient so to do; and the Party at whose Instance such Order may have been made and issued shall have all the same Remedies against such Person, in case of Non-attendance, as he would have against any Person for Non-attendance in obedience to any Writ of Subpœna ad testificandum duly served according to the Practice of the Court: Provided that, in addition to the Service of the Order, an Appointment of the Time and Place of Attendance in obedience thereto, signed by the Person or Persons appointed to take the Examination, or by One or more of such Persons, shall be so served, together with or after the Service of such Order: Provided also, that every Person whose Attendance shall be so required shall be entitled to the like Conduct Money, and Payment for Expenses and Loss of Time, as upon Attendance at a Trial: Provided also, that no Person shall be compelled to produce under any such Order any Writing or other Document that he would not be compellable to produce at a Trial of the Cause.

XXVI. Upon the Application of any of the Parties to any Action depending in the Court, the Court may order a Commission to issue for the Examination of Witnesses upon Oath at any Place or Places beyond the Limits of England and Wales, by Interrogatories or otherwise, and by the same or any subsequent Order or Orders may give all such Directions touching the Time, Place, and Manner of such Examination, and all other Matters and Circumstances connected with such Examination, as may appear reasonable and just.

XXVII. Any Sheriff, Gaoler, or other Officer having the Custody of any Prisoner may take such Prisoner for Examination at the Place or Places named in any such Order by virtue of a Writ of Habeas corpus to be issued for that Purpose, which Writ shall and may be issued by any Judge under such Circumstances and in such Manner as such Judge may now by Law issue the Writ commonly called a Writ of Habeas corpus ad testificandum.

XXVIII. The Person or Persons authorized to take the Examination of Witnesses by any such Rule, Order, Writ, or Commission as herein mentioned shall and may take all such Examinations upon the Oath of the Witnesses, to be administered by the Person so authorized; and if upon such Oath any Person making the same shall wilfully and corruptly give any false Evidence, every Person so offending shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of Perjury, and shall and may be indicted and prosecuted for such Offence in the County where such Evidence shall be given, or in the County of Middlesex if the Evidence be given out of England.

XXIX. The Registrar or any other Person named in any such Rule or Order to take any Examination in pursuance thereof may and he is hereby required to make, if need be, a special Report to the Court touching such Examination, and the Conduct or Absence of any Witness or other Person thereon or relating thereto; and the Court is hereby authorized to institute such Proceedings and make such Order and Orders upon such Report as Justice may require, and as may be instituted and made in any Case of Contempt of Court.

XXX. The Costs of every Rule or Order to be made for the Examination of Witnesses by virtue of the Provisions herein contained, and of the Proceedings thereupon, shall be Costs in the Cause, unless otherwise directed either by the Judge of the Superior Court making such Order or by the Court.

XXXI. No Examination or Deposition to be taken by virtue of the Provisions herein contained shall be read in Evidence without the Consent of the Party against whom the same may be offered, unless it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the Court that the Examinant or Deponent is not in England or Wales, or is dead, or unable from permanent Sickness or other permanent Infirmary to attend the Trial, in all or any of which Cases the Examinations and Depositions, certified under the Hand of the Commissioner, Registrar, or other Person taking the same, shall and may, without Proof of the Signature to such Certificate, be received and read in Evidence, saving all just Exceptions.

XXXII. Upon Application made by or on behalf of any Defendant in any Action in the Court, such Application being made after Declaration and before Plea, by Affidavit or otherwise, showing that such Defendant does not claim any Interest in the Subject Matter of the Suit, but that the Right thereto is claimed or supposed to belong to some Third Party who has sued or is expected to sue for the same, and that such Defendant does not in any Manner collude with such Third Party, but is ready to bring into Court or to pay or dispose of the Subject Matter of the Action in such a Manner as the Court may order or direct, it shall be lawful for the Registrar to issue a Summons calling upon such Third Party to appear in Court and to state the Nature and Particulars of his Claim, and to maintain or relinquish his Claim, which Summons may be served upon such Third Party in any Part of England or Wales; and upon such Summons the Court may hear the Allegations as well of such Third Party as of the Plaintiff, and in the meantime stay the Proceedings in such Action, and finally order such Third Party to make himself Defendant in the same or some other Action, or to proceed to Trial on One or more Issue or Issues, and also direct which of the Parties shall be Plaintiff or Defendant on such Trial, or, with the Consent of the Plaintiff and such Third Party, their Counsel or Attornies, dispose of the Merits of their Claims, and determine the same in a summary Manner, and make such Rules and Orders therein as to Costs and all other Matters as may appear to be just and reasonable.

XXXIII. The Judgment in any such Action or Issue as may be decreed by the Court, and the Decision of the Court in a summary Manner, shall be final and conclusive against the Parties, and all Persons claiming by, from, or under them.

XXXIV. If such Third Party shall not appear upon such Summons to maintain or relinquish the Claim, being duly served therewith, or shall neglect or refuse to comply with any Rule or Order to be made after Appearance, it shall be lawful for the Court to declare such Third Party, and all Persons claiming by, from, or under him, to be forever barred from prosecuting his Claim against the original Defendant, his Executors or Administrators, saving nevertheless the Right or Claim of such Third Party against the Plaintiff, and thereupon to make such Order between such Defendant and the Plaintiff as to Costs and other Matters as may appear just and reasonable.

XXXV. When any Claim shall be made to or in respect of any Goods or Chattels taken or intended to be taken in Execution under the Process of the Court, or to or in respect of the Proceeds or Value thereof, by any Landlord for Rent, or by any Person not being the Party against whom such Process has issued, it shall be lawful to and for the Registrar, upon Application of the Serjeant-at-Mace or any of his Officers, made before or after the Return of such Process, and as well before as after any Action brought against such Serjeant-at-Mace or any of his Officers, to issue a Summons calling before the Court as well the Party issuing such Process as the Party making such Claim, and thereupon any Action which shall have been brought in any of the Superior Courts, or in any Local or Inferior Court of Record, in respect of such Claim, shall be stayed; and the Court in which such Action shall have been brought, or any Judge thereof, on Proof of the Issue of such Summons, and that the Goods and Chattels were so taken in Execution, may order the Party bringing such Action to pay the Costs of all Proceedings had upon such Action after the Issue of such Summons; and the said Court shall thereupon exercise, for the Adjustments of such Claim, and the Relief and Protection of the said Serjeant-at-Mace or any of his Officers, all or any of the Powers and Authorities herein-before contained, and make such Rules and Decisions as shall appear to be just, according to the Circumstances of the Case; and the Costs of all such Proceedings shall be in the Discretion of the Court.

XXXVI. In every Case where Judgment shall have been signed in the Court against any Person for any Debt not exceeding Twenty Pounds, exclusive of Costs, or where any Person shall be indebted to any other in a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, by virtue of any Judgment or Order for the Payment thereof, or by virtue of any Order for the Payment of any Costs, the Court shall, upon the Application of the Creditor by any Petition or Note in Writing, according to the Form in Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed, grant a Summons, according to the Form in Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed, which said Summons may be served upon the said Debtor where he may reside or be; and if the Debtor appear according to such Summons, or at any Adjournment thereof, he shall be interrogated, if the Creditor think fit, touching the Manner and Time of his contracting his Debt, the Means or Prospect of Payment he then had, the Property or Means of Payment he still hath or may have, and the Disposal he may have made of any Property since contracting such Debt; and such Creditor shall also be examined, if the Court or Debtor shall think fit, touching his Claim against such Debtor; and it shall be lawful for the Court, then or at any future Sitting of the Court, to make an Order on the said Debtor for the Payment of his Debt by Instalments or otherwise; and in case the Debtor shall not attend as required by the said Summons or at any Adjournment thereof, and shall not allege a sufficient Excuse for not attending, or shall if attending refuse to disclose his Property or his Transactions respecting the same, or respecting the contracting of the Debt, or shall not make Answer thereof to the Satisfaction of the Court, or shall appear to the Court to have been guilty of Fraud in contracting the Debt, or of having wilfully contracted it without reasonable Prospect of being able to pay it, or of having concealed or made away with his Property in order to defeat his Creditors, or having made any vexatious Defence to any Action for the Recovery of the Debt, or if he appear to have the Means of paying the same at the Time of hearing, and shall not pay the same if the Court shall so order, or shall not pay the same by Instalments at such Time as the Court shall order, or as the Court shall have ordered, and without any further Summons thereon, it shall be lawful for the Court to order such Debtor to be committed for any Time, not exceeding Forty Days to the Debtors Prison within the City of London, which Order of Committal shall be according to One of the Forms in Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed.

XXXVII. It shall be lawful for every Person who shall be entitled to sign Judgment in the Court where the Amount of the Debt recovered shall not exceed Twenty Pounds, exclusive of Costs, to give, previously to signing such Judgment, Notice in the Form in Schedule (D.) to this Act annexed to the Person against whom such Judgment may be signed; and in case such Notice shall be given, the Court shall, upon Judgment being signed, have the like Powers of hearing the Parties and making such Order for Payment on Committal as in the Cases hereinbefore mentioned.

XXXVIII. When an Order for Commitment shall have been made under this Act, and the Person against whom such Order of Commitment shall have issued shall be out of the Jurisdiction of the Court, it shall be lawful for the Officer charged with the Execution of such Order of Commitment to take the Person against whom such Order shall have issued wherever such Person shall reside or be.

XXXIX. In every Case in which Judgment shall have been obtained in the Court, or Order made, for a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds exclusive of Costs, it shall be lawful for the Registrar of the Court, either during the Sitting of the Court or out of Court, to hear the Parties and to grant an Order for Payment of the Amount of the Judgment or Order and Costs by Instalments or otherwise, or to issue an Order of Committal as in the Cases hereinbefore mentioned.

XL. The Court may from Time to Time frame a Table of Fees upon the Proceedings in the before-mentioned Cases, and make an Order for the Payment thereof, in addition to the Debt and Costs already recovered.

XLI. The Registrar of the Court may, in the Absence of the Judge, hold the Court and transact all the Business of the Court, except the Trial of Issues in Law or in Fact.

XLII. The Debtors Prison for the City of London shall be the Prison wherein all Persons committed into Custody under any Process or Proceeding of the Mayor's Court shall be confined; and the Keeper for the Time being of the said Debtors Prison shall and he is hereby required to receive and take into his Custody every Person who shall be committed or ordered to stand committed by the Court; and in case the Keeper of the said Prison shall neglect or refuse to receive or take into his Custody any Person committed by the Court, or shall before the Expiration of the Time for which any Person shall be committed to his Custody discharge such Person out of his Custody, and wilfully suffer such Person to go at large, without a Warrant or Order for that Purpose in Writing, signed by the Plaintiff or by the Court (or by some other Court of competent Authority), such Keeper so offending in either of the said Cases shall pay to the Plaintiff at whose Suit such Person was in Custody respectively the Debt or Debt and Costs for which such Person shall have been committed to the Custody of such Keeper, and also any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds at the Discretion of the Court.

XLIII. In the Absence of the Recorder the Common Serjeant for the Time being of the City of London may preside as Judge in the Mayor's Court, and in case of Illness or unavoidable Absence of either the said Recorder or Common Serjeant it shall be lawful for them or either of them, or in case of their Inability to make such Appointment, for the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London in Common Council assembled to appoint some other Person who shall have practised as a Barrister at Law for at least Seven Years to act as a Deputy of such Judge in the said Court during such Illness or unavoidable Absence; and it shall also be lawful for the said Recorder or Common Serjeant, or either of them, to appoint a Deputy who shall have practised as a Barrister for at least Seven Years, to act for either of them in the said Court for any Time or Times not exceeding in the whole Two Months in any consecutive Period of Twelve Months, and every Deputy so appointed during the Time for which he shall be so appointed shall have all the Powers and Privileges and perform all the Duties of a Judge of the said Court.

XLIV. It shall be lawful for any Judge of the Mayor's Court, either in or out of Court, to administer Oaths and take Declarations for the Purpose of authenticating any Documents which may be required to be produced in any Foreign Country or in any Place out of the Jurisdiction of the Court.

XLV. It shall be lawful for the Court from Time to Time to make, alter, and revoke Rules, Orders, and Regulations required for and in respect of the Offices of the Mayor's Court, and the Nature, Duties, Fees, and Emoluments attaching to the respective Officers, and from Time to Time to make, alter, and revoke Rules for regulating the Practice and Pleading, and the taking of oral Evidence in the Court, and the Fees to be taken on the Proceedings in the said Court, and the Forms relating thereto, both in Law and Equity, as shall from Time to Time to it seem necessary and proper : Provided always, that such Rules and Forms, and any Order for revoking or altering the same, shall be signed by the Judge of the said Court, and that no such Rules, Orders, or Forms shall be of any Force until they shall have been allowed and confirmed by Three of the Judges of the Superior Courts ; and it shall be lawful for the Judges of the Superior Courts from Time to Time to make such Rules, Orders, and Regulations as they may think fit for carrying into execution the Provisions of this Act relative to the Removal of Causes from the Mayor's Court to the Superior Courts.

XLVI. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from Time to Time, by an Order in Council, to direct that all or any Part of the Provisions of any Act for the Amendment of the Law now passed or hereafter to be passed, and also all or any of the Rules and Regulations made in pursuance thereof, shall extend to and apply to the Mayor's Court, and within One Month after such Order shall have been made and published in the London Gazette such Provisions and Rules respectively, or Parts thereof (and the Forms necessary in respect thereof), shall extend and apply in manner directed by such Order; and any such Order may be in like Manner altered and annulled ; and in and by any such Order Her Majesty may direct by whom any such Powers or Duties incident to the said Provisions, applied under the said several Acts and Rules in respect thereof, shall and may be exercised with respect to the Matters in such Court, and may make any Order, Regulation, or Form which may be deemed requisite for carrying into operation in such Court the Provisions so applied.

XLVII. In any Case where a Garnishee may appear before a Judge under the "Common Law Procedure Act, 1854," and dispute his Liability, the Judge may order that an Issue shall be tried in the said Mayor's Court in such Manner and Form as the Judge shall direct, and such Proceedings shall be had therein as if the same Question had been tried in the Superior Courts.

XLVIII. In every Case where final Judgment shall have been obtained in the Mayor's Court, and also in every Case where any Rule or Order shall have been made by the Court, whereby any Sum of Money, or any Costs, Charges, or Expenses, shall be payable to any Person, any Writ of Execution upon such Judgment, or any Rule or Order so made by the Court, shall be sealed by the Sealer of Writs of any of the Superior Courts, upon a Precipe of the same being lodged with him, together with an Affidavit verifying the Judgment or Order, and that the same remains unreversed and unsatisfied, and immediately thereupon such Writ of Execution and such Judgment, Rule, or Order shall become and be of the same Force, Charge, and Effect as a Writ of Execution or Judgment recovered in or a Rule or Order made by such Superior Court, and all the reasonable Costs and Charges attendant upon such sealing shall be recovered in like Manner as if the same were Part of such Judgment or Rule or Order : Provided always, that no such Judgment or Rule or Order when so removed as aforesaid shall affect any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments as to Purchasers, Mortgagees, or Creditors, any further than the same would have done if the same had remained a Judgment, Rule, or Order of the Mayor's Court, unless and until a Writ of Execution thereon shall be actually put into the Hands of the Sheriff or other Officer appointed to execute the same.

XLIX. If any Juror having been duly summoned shall not attend in pursuance of such Summons, or after his Appearance shall wilfully withdraw himself from the Presence of the Court, the Court shall impose such Fine upon every Juror so making default, unless some reasonable Excuse shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Court, as the Court shall think meet, not exceeding Five Pounds ; and in case of Nonpayment of such Fine according to the Directions of the Court, the same may be levied in such Manner as is provided for the levying of Fines imposed upon Common Jurors for any similar Default under the Provisions of 5 & 6 Will. IV. Cap. 76. Sec. 121.

L. If in any Action or Suit now or at any time hereafter depending in the Court it shall appear to the Court, or, if the Court is not sitting, to the Judge thereof, that it is proper to compel the personal Attendance at any Trial of any Witness who may not be within the Jurisdiction of the Court, it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge, if in their or his Discretion it shall so seem fit, to order that a Writ called a Writ of Subpœna ad testificandum, or of Subpœna duces tecum, or Warrant of Citation, shall issue in Special Form, commanding such Witness to attend such Trial or Process wherever he shall be within the United Kingdom, and the Service of any such Writ or Process in any Part of the United Kingdom shall be valid and effectual.

LI. The Parties in any Cause may, by Consent in Writing signed by them or by their respective Attornies, leave the Decision of any Issue of Fact to the Court, provided that the Court shall in their or his Discretion think fit to allow such Trial, or provided the Judges of the Superior Courts shall, in pursuance of the Power vested in them by Law for such Purpose, make any General Rule or Order dispensing with such Allowance, either in all Cases or in any particular Class or Classes of Cases to be defined by such Rule or Order ; and such Issue of Fact may thereupon be tried and determined, and Damages awarded where necessary, in open Court by the Judge who might otherwise have presided at the Trial thereof by Jury ; and the Verdict of such Judge shall be of the same Effect as the Verdict of a Jury, save that it shall not be questioned upon the Ground of being against the Weight of Evidence ; and the Proceedings upon and after such Trial as to the Power of the Court or Judge, the Evidence, and otherwise, shall be the same as in the Case of Trial by Jury.

LII. No Cause shall be removable from the Court otherwise than by a Writ of Certiorari, or by the Order of a Judge of One of the Superior Courts, or by the Special Order of the Lord High Chancellor, the Master of the Rolls, or One of the Vice Chancellors, and every Writ of Certiorari shall be made returnable immediately, whether in or out of Term.

LIII. Every Person who is legally entitled to any Franchise or Office in either of the Sheriffs Courts whose Office shall be abolished, or whose Office shall be deprived of any Emolument by this Act, shall be entitled to make a Claim for Compensation to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London in Common Council assembled within Six Months after the Commencement of this Act ; and it shall be lawful for the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, in such Manner as they shall see fit, to inquire what was the Nature of the Office, and what was the Tenure thereof; and what were the lawful Fees and Emoluments in respect of which such Compensation shall be claimed ; and the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons shall in each Case award such gross or yearly Sum, and for such Time, as they shall think just under the Circumstances of each Case, subject to the Approval of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury ; and all Compensation when so awarded shall be paid by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons out of the Funds of the said City.

“The Mersey Docks and Harbour Act, 1857.”

Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty-first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and forty-three, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the Borough of Liverpool were formed into a Body Corporate, and the Docks at Liverpool were vested in them, under the Style of “the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks,” and the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said Borough are now the Trustees of the said Docks, but the Management of such Docks is, by an Act passed in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Sixty-four, vested in a Body called “the Committee for the Affairs of the Estate of the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks,” and herein-after called “the Liverpool Dock Committee,” consisting of Twenty-four Members, of whom Twelve are nominated by the Council of the Borough of Liverpool, and Twelve are elected by the Dock Ratepayers: And whereas the several Acts comprised in the First Part of the Schedule hereunto annexed have been passed in relation to the said Docks: And whereas the said Trustees levy Dues on all Vessels, and Goods carried in Vessels, that enter or use any Dock or Work belonging to them, or that take in, tranship, or discharge their Cargoes, or any Part thereof, within High-water Mark, to Seaward of a Line drawn across the River Mersey from the Southern Extremity of the Township of Garston to the Southern Extremity of the Township of Eastham, and the Dues so received are expended exclusively in the Maintenance and Management of the said Docks and the Port of Liverpool: And whereas the said Trustees levy on all Vessels entering the Port of Liverpool, except Vessels driven in by Stress of Weather, certain Harbour and Light Dues for the Maintenance of the Buoys, Landmarks, and Telegraphs within the Port of Liverpool, and the Expense of Lights and Life Boats, and the Expenses of the Office of the Marine Surveyor of the said Trustees, and towards the Improvement of the Port of Liverpool in any other respect, except the Construction and Maintenance of the Liverpool Docks, and the Trustees expend such last-mentioned Dues for the Purposes in respect of which the same are levied: And whereas the Corporation of Liverpool levy on all Goods imported into and exported from the Port of Liverpool, not being the Property of Freemen of Liverpool or of resident Freemen of London, Bristol, Waterford, or Wexford, divers Dues, called Town Dues, amounting to a very large Amount in the whole, and likewise levy, under the Name of Anchorage Dues, divers other Dues on all Ships entering the Port of Liverpool: And whereas the said Town and Anchorage Dues are carried to the Account of the Borough Fund of the Borough of Liverpool: And whereas by an Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Seventy-nine, and herein-after called “The Birkenhead Dock Act, 1844,” certain Commissioners, herein-after called “the Birkenhead Dock Commissioners,” were appointed, with Powers to construct and maintain Tidal Basins and a Dock at Birkenhead in the County of Chester, and the several Acts comprised in the Second Part of the Schedule hereunto annexed have been passed in relation to the

Undertaking so authorized: And whereas by an Act of the Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Sixty, a Company called “the Birkenhead Dock Company” was incorporated, with Powers to make and maintain Docks and other Works at Birkenhead aforesaid, adjoining the Works proposed to be constructed by “the Birkenhead Dock Commissioners,” and the several Acts comprised in the Third Part of the Schedule hereunto annexed have been passed in relation to the said Company: And whereas by the Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and forty-four, comprised in the Second Part of the said Schedule, all the Powers of the Birkenhead Dock Commissioners were transferred to a Body Corporate called “the Trustees of the Birkenhead Docks:” And whereas by an Agreement bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and made between the Trustees of the Birkenhead Docks, the Birkenhead Dock Company, and the Corporation of Liverpool, it was agreed that all the Property, as therein described, of the Trustees of the Birkenhead Docks and of the Birkenhead Dock Company should, subject to any Liabilities affecting the same, be purchased by and transferred to and vested in the Corporation of Liverpool for the Consideration therein mentioned: And whereas by “The Birkenhead Docks Act, 1855,” the said Agreement was confirmed, and it was enacted, that all the Property of the Trustees of the Birkenhead Docks and of the Birkenhead Dock Company, as therein described, and their Powers in relation thereto, should, subject to the Liabilities affecting the same, vest in the Corporation of Liverpool, upon the Delivery by the Corporation to the Birkenhead Dock Trustees and Birkenhead Dock Company respectively of Bonds representing in the aggregate the Sum of One million one hundred and forty-three thousand Pounds, which Bonds have been delivered accordingly, and the said Property and Powers are now vested in the said Corporation, who have expended further considerable Sums in relation thereto: And whereas the said Corporation have erected an Observatory at Liverpool, and have partially constructed a Landing Stage at Liverpool for Sea-going Steamers: And whereas the said Corporation, under an Act of the Tenth George the Fourth, Chapter Sixteen, herein called “The Wallasey Embankment Act,” appoint certain of the Commissioners for executing the said Act, and are liable to contribute out of their Corporate Funds annually towards the Maintenance and Repair of the Wallasey or Leasowes Embankment: And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-three, the Appointment and Superintendence of Pilots for the Port of Liverpool is vested in a Body of Commissioners, herein-after called “the Liverpool Pilotage Commissioners:” And whereas under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and ten, (herein-after called “the Mersey Conservancy Act,”) and of an Act passed in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty Chapter Forty-two, the Conservancy of the River Mersey, and of the Banks and Shores thereof, from Warrington and Frodsham Bridges to the Sea, is vested in certain Commissioners (herein-after called "the Conservancy Commissioners"), and the said Corporation contribute out of their Corporate Funds to the Conservancy Fund provided by the said Mersey Conservancy Act : And whereas, by Custom, the Corporation of Liverpool are or claim to be entitled to appoint a Water Bailiff, and to remove sunken Vessels and other Impediments to the Navigation of the Mersey : And whereas it is expedient that the Constitution of the Liverpool Dock Trust should be altered, and that the Docks of Liverpool and Birkenhead, and the Powers in relation thereto of the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks, and of the Corporation, and the North Reserve near Birkenhead, and the Observatory and Landing Stage belonging to the said Corporation, and the Control over Pilotage, Harbour Lights, and other Matters conducive to the Safety or Convenience of the Shipping frequenting the Port of Liverpool, should, subject to the Provisions of the said Mersey Conservancy Act and of this Act, be vested in a new Trust, and that the Rights now lawfully exercised by the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks, and by the Corporation, of levying Rates and Dues on Shipping frequenting the Port of Liverpool, or on Goods carried in such Shipping, should be transferred to the new Trust, upon such Terms and for such Consideration as are herein-after mentioned, and that the Proceeds of such Rates and Dues should be applied to the Benefit of the Port of Liverpool, and of the Shipping and Trade of the said Port : And whereas the Corporation of Liverpool have agreed to transfer their Property and Rights aforesaid upon the Terms and for the Consideration by this Act provided : And whereas it is expedient that Docks and Works at Birkenhead should be completed as expeditiously as possible.

Definition of Docks, Corporation, and Rates, §§ 1 to 3.

Constitution of Board to be called "the Mersey Docks and Harbour Board ;" Qualification ; and Rotation of Members, §§ 5 to 17.

Transfer of Property to Board.

XXVI. All such Estate and Interest in the Docks, Buildings, and other Property, both real and personal, situate at Birkenhead or elsewhere, as are transferred or intended to be transferred to the Corporation of Liverpool by "The Birkenhead Docks Act, 1855," shall, upon and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, vest in the Board, but subject to all Charges and Liabilities affecting the same.

XXVII. All such Docks, Lights, Buoys, Lands, Buildings, and other Property, both real and personal, situate at Liverpool or elsewhere, as are held by or in trust for the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks under or in pursuance of or for the Purposes of any of the Acts mentioned in the First Part of the Schedule hereto annexed, shall, upon and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, vest in the Board, but subject to all Charges and Liabilities affecting the same.

XXVIII. The Landing Stage for Sea-going Steamers now being constructed by the Corporation in front of the Prince's Dock at Liverpool shall be completed by them at their own Expense, so that the same may be ready for Traffic, and the same (if so completed on the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight) shall vest in the Board at that Date, or, if not then completed, shall vest in the Board from and after the Completion thereof, and the same shall for ever thereafter be maintained by the Board in a State of Efficiency, and in the Situation where the same is now being constructed.

XXIX. The Liverpool Observatory, with its Instruments and Appurtenances, shall, from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, vest in the Board, who shall maintain the same in complete Efficiency.

XXX. All Powers, Rights, and Privileges vested in or exercisable by the Corporation of Liverpool, the Liverpool Dock Trustees, the Liverpool Dock Committee, or any of such Authorities, under or in pursuance of or for the Purpose of any of the Acts mentioned in the Schedule hereto, and not inconsistent with this Act, shall, from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, be vested in and exercisable by the Board.

XXXI. All such Powers of licensing and regulating Pilots, and of fixing Pilotage Rates, as are vested in the Commissioners appointed by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-three, and intitled "An Act for the better Regulation and Encouragement of Pilots for the conducting of Ships and Vessels into and out of the Port of Liverpool," for the Purposes aforesaid, and all such Property, real and personal, as is held by or in trust for the said Commissioners for the Purposes of such last-mentioned Act, and all such other Powers, Rights, and Privileges, as are vested in the said Commissioners in relation to Pilotage by the said Act, or by any other Act, Charter, or Custom, shall, from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, be vested in and exercisable by the Board.

XXXII. All such Powers, Rights, and Privileges of imposing or collecting any of the Dues, herein-before called respectively Town Dues and Anchorage Dues, as are now vested in or have been lawfully exercised by the Corporation of Liverpool, shall, from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, be transferred to and vested in the Board, but subject to all the Charges affecting the same : Provided always, that nothing herein-contained shall be held to affect the Rights of the said Corporation or of the Board to levy the said Town and Anchorage Dues, but such Rights shall be held to be legally capable of being exercised by the Board unless the contrary should be established in some Court of competent Jurisdiction.

XXXIII. All such Rights and Privileges of appointing a Water Bailiff and of removing sunken Vessels, and all such Powers of exercising Jurisdiction over the Navigation, or in respect of the Conservancy of the River Mersey, as are now vested in or exercisable by the Corporation, and all Obligations and Liabilities of the said Corporation in relation thereto, or in relation to the Wallasey or Leasowes Embankment, shall, from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, be transferred to the Board.

XXXIV. So much of the Salary of the Acting Conservator appointed by the Conservancy Commissioners as is now paid by the Corporation of Liverpool, and all other Expenses that are now incurred or payable by the Corporation in respect of the Conservancy of the Mersey, shall from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, be paid and borne by the Board.

XXXV. And whereas by Articles of Agreement dated the Fourteenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and made between the Honourable Charles Alexander Gore, a Commissioner of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, of the one Part, and Joshua Pollard and George Pollard therein described of the other Part, the said Charles Alexander Gore agreed to sell to the said Joshua Pollard and George Pollard, who agreed to purchase, that Part of the Land called the North Reserve which was shown on the Plan annexed to the Agreement for the Price and subject to the Covenants and Conditions therein contained: And whereas by an Indenture dated the First Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and made between the said Joshua Pollard and George Pollard of the one Part, and John Abel Smith of the other Part, and another Indenture dated the Seventeenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and made between John Abel Smith of the one Part, and the Corporation of Liverpool of the other Part, all the Estate and Interest of the said Joshua Pollard and George Pollard under the said recited Articles of Agreement dated the Fourteenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, except in a small Piece of Land in the last-mentioned Indenture described, became vested in the Corporation: And whereas only a Part of the Consideration Money by the said Articles of Agreement covenanted to be paid to Her Majesty has yet been paid, and many of the Covenants, Conditions, and Agreements therein contained still remain to be performed: And whereas it is expedient for the Objects and Purposes of this Act that the Estate and Interest of the Corporation of Liverpool under the same Articles of Agreement in the North Reserve should, from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, vest in the Board: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight all the Estate, Right, Title, and Interest of the Corporation of Liverpool in the Space of Land lying on the North Side of the Entrance to the above-named Dock Float, and commonly called the North Reserve, under the recited Articles of Agreement and Indentures, or any of them, shall, subject to the Provisions herein-after contained, become vested in the Board, subject to all Covenants, Agreements, and Conditions affecting the same.

XXXVI. The Compensation to be made by the Board in respect of the said North Reserve shall be the Sum of One hundred and twenty-seven thousand Pounds, and such Sum shall be applied in manner following:— First, in paying to the Crown the Balance of Purchase Money and Interest due to Her Majesty; second, in Payment or Satisfaction of all pecuniary Incumbrances, if any, affecting the said North Reserve, not being Liabilities to the Crown in respect of Works; thirdly, in paying the Balance to the Corporation of Liverpool: Provided always, that until such Compensation as aforesaid be paid, it shall not be lawful for the Board to take or interfere with the said North Reserve, or any Part thereof; and unless the said Sum of One hundred and twenty-seven thousand Pounds be paid to the Corporation within Two Months of the said First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, the said Sum shall bear Interest after the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum from the said First Day of January until the same be paid.

XXXVII. The Board shall pay to the Corporation, on or before the several Days mentioned in the Fourth Part of the Schedule hereto, the several Sums specified in such Schedule, and the Corporation shall apply the several Sums received by them under this Enactment in Payment of the several Sums owing or to become due, as specified in the said Schedule.

XXXVIII. In case at any Time and from Time to Time the Board shall make default in paying or providing for the Principal and Interest on the said Bonds, or any of them, on the Days of Payment thereof respectively, and shall not, on Demand, repay to the Corporation any Moneys which they may have paid in respect thereof, the Corporation may recover the Amount so paid by them, with Interest, in an Action against the Board as for Money paid to their Use, and in addition and without Prejudice to such Right of Action may re-enter on any Property at Birkenhead which by this Act has been transferred to and vested in the Board, and may hold the same until such Amount, with Interest thereon at the Rate of Four Pounds per Cent. per Annum, and all Costs incident to such Entry and Holding, shall have been paid and satisfied.

XXXIX. The Board shall also repay to the Corporation all such Moneys as they shall have bonâ fide paid or expended before and up to the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, or shall have been compelled after that Day to pay and shall have paid, either in the Payment of Interest on the Bonds delivered by them as aforesaid, or in respect of Works executed by them upon any of the Birkenhead Docks, or Property hereby transferred to the Board, or otherwise howsoever, in the bonâ fide Execution of the Powers and Provisions of "The Birkenhead Docks Act, 1855," or in the Performance of any Obligation or Duty thereby imposed upon the Corporation, together with Interest thereon at the Rate of Four Pounds per Cent. per Annum, from the respective Times of Payment thereof until Payment by the Board; and an Account of the Moneys so paid and expended by the Corporation, signed by the Town Clerk, shall be delivered to the Board within One Month after its Appointment, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and shall be verified by such Vouchers, Accounts, and Documents, and in such other Manner as the Board may reasonably require; and if such Account shall be disputed by the Board, the same or so much thereof as shall be so disputed shall be settled by Arbitration, and the Amount so agreed or settled, as the Case may be, shall be paid by the Board to the Corporation on or before the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, and in default of such Payment the Corporation may recover the same from the Board by Action as for Money paid to their Use, and in addition to such Right of Action may enter upon any of the Property which by this Act has been transferred to and vested in the Board, and may hold the same until the said Amount, with Interest thereon at the Rate of Four per Centum per Annum, and all Costs incident to the enforcing Payment thereof, shall have been fully paid.

XL. The Board shall pay to the Corporation the Sum of One million five hundred thousand Pounds in consideration of the Relinquishment and Transfer of their existing Rights to the Perception of the said Town and Anchorage Dues, and of the Transfer of the said Landing Stage and Observatory, and such Payment shall be made by Fifteen equal half-yearly Payments, on the First Day of July and the First Day of January in each Year, the First of such Payments to be made on the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight; and in addition to such last-mentioned Payments, the Board shall also on the same Days respectively pay to the Corporation Interest on the said Sum of One million five hundred thousand Pounds, or on so much thereof as for the Time being shall be unpaid, at the Rate of Four Pounds Ten Shillings per Cent. per Annum; and the same being duly paid, the Corporation shall, in consideration thereof, pay and satisfy the Holders of the Bonds issued by the Corporation upon the Credit of the Borough Fund, and not charged on the Liverpool Water Account, or in this Act otherwise provided for, as and when the same respectively become due, and shall protect and indemnify the Board and its Revenues from and against any Claim or Demand, either for Principal or Interest, upon any Bonds issued by the Corporation before the First January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and in case they shall fail to do so, and the Board shall by reason thereof be required to make and shall make any Payment upon any such Bond, they shall be entitled to deduct the Amount so paid by them, with Interest at the Rate of Four Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, and all Costs incurred by them in respect thereof, out of the next Payment to be made by them to the Corporation, or, if no such Payment remain to be made, may recover the same by Action against the Corporation as for Money paid to their Use.

XLI. The Sum of One million five hundred thousand Pounds and Interest thereon so to be paid by the Board to the Corporation shall be a Charge upon the general Revenues of the Board.

XLII. If at any Time there shall be due and in arrear to the Corporation from the Board in respect of any of the Moneys hereby made payable by the Board to the Corporation a Sum equal to Ten thousand Pounds, and the Board shall not, within Two Months after Demand, pay or satisfy the same, the Corporation may enforce the Payment thereof by the Appointment of a Receiver, but without Prejudice to their Right to recover or enforce Payment of the same in any other Manner; and for all Purposes relating to the Appointment and Acting of such Receiver, the 86th and 87th Sections of "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," shall be held to be incorporated with this Act: Provided, that such Appointment of Receiver, and the Powers to be exercised by him, shall not affect or disturb any Charge created by this Act in favour of the Specialty Creditors, but such Power shall be exercised subject thereto.

XLIII. All Debts and Obligations incurred, all Contracts entered into, and all Matters and Things engaged to be done by, with, or for the Corporation, the Liverpool Dock Trustees, the Liverpool Dock Committee, or the Liverpool Pilotage Commissioners, in respect of any Property, Powers, Rights, or Privileges hereby transferred to the Board, shall be deemed to have been incurred, entered into, or engaged to be done by, with, or for the Board; and all such Debts, Obligations, Contracts, Matters, and Things, and all Securities for the same, and all Penalties and Forfeitures for the Nonperformance thereof, shall be enforceable by or against the Board to the same Extent as the same would, if no such Transfer had taken place, have been enforceable by or against the Corporation, the Liverpool Dock Trustees, the Liverpool Dock Committee, or the Liverpool Pilotage Commissioners.

XLIV. All Rates and Sums of Money due to the Liverpool Dock Trustees, or to the Liverpool Dock Committee, or the Liverpool Pilotage Commissioners, on account of any Property, Powers, Rights, or Privileges hereby transferred, shall be deemed to be due to the Board, and be recoverable accordingly.

XLV. All Actions, Suits, and other legal Proceedings, civil or criminal, commenced or which might have been commenced by or against the Corporation, the Liverpool Dock Trustees, the Liverpool Dock Committee, or the Liverpool Pilotage Commissioners, in relation to any Property, Powers, Rights, or Privileges hereby transferred, may be continued or instituted by or against the Board.

XLVI. All Actions, Suits, and other Proceedings against the Corporation for or in respect of any Act, Matter, or Thing done or omitted to be done or alleged to have been done or omitted by them in the bonâ fide Execution of the Powers and Provisions of "The Birkenhead Docks Act, 1855," which shall be pending on the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, shall not after that Day be continued as against the Corporation, but may be continued and prosecuted against the Board upon the entering of a Suggestion, or by an Order of a Judge of any of the Superior Courts; and no Action, Suit, or other Proceeding in respect of any such Act, Matter, or Thing as aforesaid shall be commenced or instituted after the said First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight against the Corporation, but the same may be commenced and instituted against the Board; and in any such Action, Suit, or other Proceeding commenced or continued against the Board, such Judgment or Decree may be pronounced or made against the Board as might or would have been made against the Corporation if this Act had not passed.

XLVII. All Persons having in their Custody, Power, or Possession any Books, Papers, or Writings relating exclusively to the Property, Rights, Powers, and Privileges hereby transferred shall deliver the same to the Board, or to such Persons as they may appoint; and in case of Refusal or Neglect the Person so refusing or neglecting shall for each Offence incur a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds, and shall be liable at the Instance of the Board to the same Actions, Suits, or other Proceedings as they would respectively have been liable to at the Instance of the Authority to which such Property, Rights, Powers, and Privileges previously to the Transfer thereof belonged.

XLVIII. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall be held to require the Corporation to deliver to the Board any Books, Papers, or Writings which in any Manner relate to the Property or Rights of the Corporation, other than the Property, Powers, and Rights by this Act transferred to the Board, but the Corporation shall, if required by the Board, and at the Expense of the Board, produce such Books, Papers, and Writings in their Possession as may be necessary for establishing the Title of the Board to any Property, Powers, or Rights by this Act transferred to them.

Functions of Board.

XLIX. Subject to the Provisions of this Act, the Board shall stand possessed of all the Property, Powers, Rights, and Privileges hereby transferred to them upon the Trusts and for the Purposes upon and for which such Property, Powers, Rights, and Privileges were holden previously to the Commencement of this Act.

L. From and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight all Docks and Works belonging to the Board, and all Docks and Works that may hereafter belong to the Board, shall be deemed to constitute One Estate only, herein-after called "the Mersey Dock Estate," and a uniform System of Management shall be adopted with respect to the whole of such Mersey Dock Estate.

LI. The Board shall immediately after the Commencement of this Act proceed with the Construction of the outer Works at Birkenhead referred to in "The Birkenhead Docks Act, 1853," with a view to the Completion of the same, substantially in accordance with the Plans that have been sanctioned by Parliament.

LII. Until the Board shall take possession of the Birkenhead Docks under the Provisions of this Act, the Corporation shall proceed with the Construction of the Works authorized by the Birkenhead Dock Acts, and after the Board shall have entered into possession of the said Birkenhead Docks they shall assume all Contracts and all Liabilities of the said Corporation in respect of the said Works.

LIII. The Board may, with the Consent of the Conservancy Commissioners, make Regulations for the mooring of Vessels in the River Mersey, and the Prevention of Obstructions therein.

LIV. The following Accounts shall be kept separately, and shall be dealt with as distinct Sources of Income and Expenditure ; (that is to say,)

(1.) An Account of all Sums received and disbursed by the Board in respect of the following Matters, and herein-after called Conservancy Receipts and Conservancy Expenditure ; that is to say : in respect of the Maintenance of Buoys, Landmarks, and Telegraphs ; the Expense of Lights and Life Boats ; the Expense of the Marine Surveyor ; the Expenses to be incurred as herein-after mentioned, with the Consent of the Commissioners for the Conservancy of the River Mersey, in improving of the Port of

Liverpool or the Navigation of the River Mersey ; the Expenses to be incurred in the Exercise of the Jurisdiction hitherto vested in the Corporation of appointing a Water Bailiff, and removing sunken Vessels and other Impediments to the Navigation :

(2.) An Account of all Sums received and disbursed by the Board in the Exercise of the Powers hitherto vested in the Liverpool Pilotage Commissioners, herein-after called "Pilotage Receipts" and "Pilotage Expenditure :"

(3.) An Account of all other Sums received and disbursed by the Board in pursuance of this Act, and herein-after called "General Receipts" and "General Expenditure."

LV. The Board may, with the Consent of the Conservancy Commissioners, apply any Portion of their General Receipts, after providing for the Expenses and Charges incidental to the Mersey Dock Estate, in improving the Port of Liverpool, or the Navigation of the River Mersey ; they may also increase or diminish, and again increase, any Rates or Dues leviable by them in pursuance of this Act, either generally or in respect of any particular Articles.

LVI. The following Rules shall be observed by the Board with respect to the Moneys received by them under this Act ; (that is to say,)

(1.) The Conservancy Expenditure shall be defrayed out of the Conservancy Receipts :

(2.) The Pilotage Expenditure shall be defrayed out of the Pilotage Receipts :

(3.) No Portion of the Conservancy Receipts or Pilotage Receipts shall be applied in aid of the General Expenditure :

(4.) No Sums shall be payable in respect of Docks by any Vessel that does not use the same :

(5.) Save as by this Act is provided, no Moneys receivable by the Board shall be applied to any Purpose, unless the same conduces to the Safety or Convenience of Ships frequenting the Port of Liverpool, or facilitates the shipping or unshipping of Goods, or is concerned in discharging a Debt contracted for the above Purposes.

LVII. The Board may, in addition to any Powers acquired by them under the Acts specified in the Schedule, from Time to Time borrow at Interest, on the Security of any Rate or Rates, or any Dues forming Part of its General Receipts, any Sum or Sums required for the Completion of the Birkenhead Docks and Works, or for the Purposes specially provided for by this Act, but for no other Purpose whatever ; and for the Purposes of such borrowing, the Clauses of "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," with respect to the Mortgages to be executed by the Commissioners, shall be incorporated with this Act.

LVIII. All Arbitrations under this Act shall be conducted, and all Penalties imposed by this Act shall be recovered, in manner directed by "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845."

LIX. The Board shall render to Parliament, as soon as may be after the Twenty-fourth Day of June in every Year, an Account of its Receipts during the preceding Year ending the Twenty-fourth of June, and the Manner in which the same have been applied.

LX. The Board shall in the ensuing Session prosecute a Bill in Parliament for consolidating the several Acts specified in the Schedule hereto, and for obtaining any additional Powers that may be necessary or expedient for carrying into effect the Purposes of this Act, and for revising and regulating the Rates and Charges to be levied upon all Vessels, Goods, Merchandise, and other Articles now liable or hereafter liable to the same.

LXI. From and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, all such Provisions contained in the Acts specified in the First Schedule hereto, or in any other Act, as are inconsistent with this Act, are hereby repealed, and in particular the Fourth Section of the Act passed in the Sixth Year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and eighty-seven, and such Provisions of the said scheduled Acts as relate to the Appointment or Constitution of "the Liverpool Dock Committee" or "the Liverpool Pilotage Commissioners."

LXII. Except as otherwise expressly provided for by this Act, nothing herein contained shall in anywise annul, abridge, prejudice, or affect the Rights and Interests of the Company of Proprietors of the Mersey and Irwell Navigation, or of the Trustees under the Will of the Most Noble Francis late Duke of Bridgewater, in or connected with the River Mersey, or the Navigation or Conservancy thereof.

LXIII. Nothing in this Act shall exempt the Board from the Provisions of "The Merchant Shipping Law Amendment Act, 1853," "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," or any General Act relating to Docks, Harbours, or Dues on Shipping, or on Goods carried in Shipping, now in force or which shall be passed during the present or any future Session of Parliament.

LXIV. Nothing in this Act contained shall be held or construed to prejudice or affect any of the Rights, Privileges, Powers, or Authorities of the Owners or Lessees for the Time being of the Woodside and Seacombe Ferries respectively.

LXV. Whereas it is alleged that certain Works constructed by the Liverpool Dock Trustees in pursuance of the Act passed in the Session holden in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty, and in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Ten, have caused the Stream of the Mersey to impinge on the opposite Shore, and to Waste Land abutting on such River, situate in the Townships of Poulton-cum-Seacombe and Liscard in the Parish of Wallasey in the County of Chester, thereby occasioning serious Loss to the Owners of such Land, and it is also alleged that such Waste is still going on, and will, unless prevented by adequate Means, cause still greater Loss: Be it enacted, That the Board shall, if satisfied that such Allegation is true, construct a Wall or other adequate Works for the Purpose of preventing any such Waste: Provided always, that no such Wall or Works shall at any Time be constructed without the previous Consent of the Conservancy Commissioners of the Mersey, to be signified in Writing, under the Hand of the Acting Conservator, or without the Consent in Writing of the Commissioners of Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or One of them.

LXVI. Any Expenses incurred by the Board in constructing a Wall or other Works for the Prevention of such Waste as aforesaid shall be defrayed by the Board out of any Moneys for the Time being in their Hands standing to the Account of their General Receipts.

LXVII. Whereas all such Docks, Lights, Buoys, Lands, Buildings, and other Property, real and personal, as are held by or in trust for the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks under or in pursuance or for the Purposes of any of the Acts mentioned in the First Part of the Schedule annexed hereto, and which Property is herein-after called "the existing Liverpool Dock Estate," is transferred by this Act to the Board: And whereas all Powers vested in the said Trustees of the Liverpool Docks of levying Rates in respect of the said Docks and other Property are also transferred to the Board: And whereas the said Trustees of the Liverpool Docks are indebted to divers Persons, on Bond and other Specialty Debts, to the Extent of Six million Pounds and upwards, and it is expedient that such Persons, who are herein-after called existing Specialty Creditors, should not be prejudiced in their Rights by this Act: Be it enacted, That the Board shall keep a separate Account of all Rates levied by them in respect of the existing Liverpool Dock Estate, and all the existing Specialty Creditors shall, in respect of all Advances made by them on the Security of the said Liverpool Dock Estate and Liverpool Dock Rates, either alone or in common with other Property, or on the Security of Bonds of the Liverpool Dock Trustees, have the same Claim against the existing Liverpool Dock Estate, and the Rates levied in respect of the said Estate, to the Extent of the present net Revenue arising from the same, when such Rates are transferred to and levied by the Board, and also against the Board to the Extent of such present net Revenue arising from the Rates levied by them in respect of the Liverpool Dock Estate, as they would if this Act had not been passed have had in respect of the same Advances against the existing Liverpool Dock Estate in the Hands of the Liverpool Dock Trustees, and against the Rates levied by such Trustees, and against the Liverpool Dock Trustees, and such Claims shall, to the Extent of the said present net Revenue, have Priority over all other Charges which are created or hereafter may be created under the Authority of this Act; moreover, the Board shall not exercise any Power hereby given them in such Manner as to reduce the Revenue applicable to the Payment of the said Bond Debts so long as all such Debts remain unpaid below the Amount of the said net Revenue, or, in the event of any such Bond Debts being paid off, below such Amount as will bear the same Proportion to the existing Bond Debts for the Time being unpaid as the net Revenue bears to the existing Bond Debts unpaid at the passing of this Act.

LXVIII. All Expenses of and incidental to the passing of this Act, and of carrying the same into effect, shall be defrayed by the Board out of any Moneys for the Time in their Hands.
