C A P. VII.

An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters.

[23d March 1830.]

‘ WHEREAS the raising or keeping a Standing Army within
 ‘ the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Time ‘ of Peace, unless it be with the Consent of Parliament, is against ‘ Law: And whereas it is adjudged necessary by His Majesty, and ‘ this present Parliament, that a Body of Forces should be con‘ tinued, for the Safety of the United Kingdom, the Defence of ‘ the Possessions of His Majesty’s Crown, and the Preservation ‘ of the Balance of Power in Europe, and that the whole Number
 ‘ of such Forces should consist of Eighty-eight thousand eight ‘ hundred and forty-eight Men, exclusive of the Officers and Men
 ‘ belonging to the Regiments employed in the Territorial Posses‘ sions of the East India Company, but including the Officers and ‘ Men of the Troops and Companies recruiting for those Regi‘ ments: And whereas no Man can be forejudged of Life or Limb, ‘ or subjected in Time of Peace to any Kind of Punishment within ‘ this Realm, by Martial Law, or in any other Manner than by the ‘ Judgment of his Peers, and according to the known and estab‘ lished Laws of this Realm; yet nevertheless, it being requisite,
 ‘ for the retaining all the before-mentioned Forces in their Duty,
 ‘ that an exact Discipline be observed, and that Soldiers who shall ‘ mutiny or stir up Sedition, or shall desert His Majesty’s Service, ‘ be brought to a more exemplary and speedy Punishment than ‘ the usual Forms of the Law will allow;’ Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person who is or shall be commissioned or in Pay as an Officer, or who is or shall be listed or in Pay as a Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier, shall, at any Time during the Continuance of this Act, begin, excite, cause, or join in any Mutiny use his utmost Endeavours to suppress the same, or coming to the Knowledge of any Mutiny or intended Mutiny, shall not, without Delay, give Information thereof to his Commanding Officer; or shall misbehave himself before the Enemy; or shall shamefully abandon or deliver up any Garrison, Fortress, Post, or Guard committed to his Charge, or which he shall be commanded to defend;

 or shall compel the Governor or Commanding Officer of any Garrison, Fortress, or Post to deliver up to the Enemy or to abandon the same; or shall speak Words or use any other Means to induce such Governor or Commanding Officer, or others, to misbehave before the Enemy, or shamefully to abandon or deliver up any Garrison, Fortress, Post, or Guard committed to their respective Charge, or which he or they shall be commanded to defend; or shall leave his Post before relieved, or shall be found sleeping on his Post; or shall hold Correspondence with or give Advice or Intelligence to any Rebel or Enemy of His Majesty, either by

II. And be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to exempt any Officer or Soldier from being proceeded against by the ordinary Course of Law; and any Commanding Officer who shall neglect or refuse, when Application is made to him for that Purpose, to deliver over to the Civil Magistrate any Officer or Soldier accused of any Capital Crime, or of any Violence or Offence against the Person, Estate, or Property of any of His Majesty's Subjects, which is punishable by the known Laws of the Land, or shall wilfully neglect or refuse to assist the Officers of Justice in apprehending such Offender, shall, upon Conviction thereof in any Prosecution in any of His Majesty's Courts at Westminster, Dublin, or Edinburgh, be deemed to be ipso facto cashiered, and shall be utterly disabled to have or hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in His Majesty's Service, and a Certificate thereof shall be transmitted to the Judge Advocate in London; provided that no Person, being acquitted or convicted of any Capital Crime, Violence, or Offence, by the Civil Magistrate, or by the Verdict of a Jury, shall be liable to be punished by a Court Martial for the same otherwise than by cashiering.

III. And be it enacted, That no Person whatever (except an Apprentice) enlisted into His Majesty's Service as a Soldier shall be liable to be arrested or taken therefrom by reason of the Warrant of any Justice, on account of any Breach of Contract or Engagement to serve or work for any Employer; and no Person enlisted as a Soldier shall be liable to be taken out of His Majesty's Service by any Process or Execution whatsoever, other than for some Criminal Matter, unless an Affidavit shall be made by the Plaintiff, or some one on his Behalf, for which no Fee shall be taken, before some Judge of the Court out of which such Process or Execution shall issue, or before some Person authorized to take Affidavits in such Courts, of which Affidavit a Memorandum shall, without Fee, be endorsed upon the Back of such Process, that the original Debt for which the Action has been brought or Execution sued out amounts to the Value of Thirty Pounds at least, over and above all Costs of Suit in the Action or Actions on which the same shall be grounded; and any Judge of such Court may examine into any Complaints made by a Soldier, or by his Superior Officer, and by Warrant under his Hand discharge such Soldier without Fee, he being shewn to be duly enlisted, and to have been arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, and shall award reasonable Costs to such Complainant, who shall have for South Wales excepted,) or in the Settlements of the East India Company, shall, in order to have Power to try a Commissioned Officer, or to pass Sentence of Death or Transportation on any Offender, consist of not less than Thirteen Commissioned Officers, in which Sentence of Death Nine at the least of the Officers of any Court consisting of Thirteen shall concur; and if to try any Person not of the Rank of a Commissioned Officer, shall consist of not less than Nine; and such General Courts-martial convened in Bermuda, or out of the King's Dominions, excepting Africa and New South Wales, shall have not less than Seven, and in Africa and New South Wales not less than Five Commissioned Officers; and in all Cases where such General Courts-martial as aforesaid shall consist of more or fewer Officers than Thirteen, no Judgment of Death shall pass without the Concurrence of Two Thirds at the least of the Officers present; and the President shall in no Case be the Officer commanding in chief or Governor of the Garrison where the Offender shall be tried, nor under the Degree of a Field Officer, unless where a Field Officer cannot be had, nor in any Case whatsoever under the Degree of a Captain.

 as near his Horse as possible; and the Constables are hereby required to billet all Soldiers and their Horses on their March in a just and equal Proportion upon the Keepers of all Houses within One Mile of the Place mentioned in the Route, although some of such Houses may be in the adjoining County, in like Manner in every respect as if such Houses were locally situate within such Place; provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to authorize any Constable to billet Soldiers out of the County to which such Constable belongs, when the Constable of the adjoining County shall be present, and undertake to billet the due Proportion of Men in such adjoining County; and no more Billets shall at any Time be ordered than

An Act for the Regulation of His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces while on Shore. [23d March 1830.]

WHEREAS it is judged necessary for the Safety of the United Kingdom, and the Defence of the Possessions of this Realm, that a Body of Royal Marine Forces should be employed in His Majesty's Fleet and Naval Service, under the Direction of the Lord High Admiral of the said United Kingdom, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid : And whereas the said Forces may frequently be quartered or be on Shore, or sent to do Duty on board Transport Ships or Merchant Ships or Vessels, or Ships or Vessels of His Majesty not being in Commission, or other Ships or Vessels, in which they will not be subject to the Laws relating to the Government of His Majesty's Forces by Sea : And whereas no Man can be forejudged of Life or Limb, or subjected in Time of Peace to any Kind of Punishment within this Realm, by Martial Law, or in any other Manner than by the Judgment of his Peers, and according to the known and established Laws of this Realm ; yet nevertheless, it being requisite for the retaining of such Forces in their Duty, that an exact Discipline be observed, and that Marines who shall mutiny or stir up Sedition, or shall desert His Majesty's Service, or be guilty of any other Crime in breach of good Order and Discipline, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy Punishment than the usual Forms of the Law will allow : Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Twenty-fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty, if any Person who is or shall be commissioned or in Pay as an Officer of Royal Marines, or who is or shall be listed or in Pay as a Non-commissioned Officer or Private Man in any Division of Royal Marines in His Majesty's Service, shall at any Time during the Continuance of this Act, while on Shore in any Place within the said Kingdom, or in any other of His Majesty's Dominions, or in Foreign Parts out of such Dominions, or on board any Transport Ship, or Merchant Ship or Vessel, or any Ship or Vessel of His Majesty not being in Commission, or on board any Convict Hulk or Ship, or any other Ship or Vessel, begin, excite, cause, or join in any Mutiny or Sedition in His Majesty's Marine or other Forces, or shall not use his utmost Endeavours to suppress any such Mutiny or Sedition ; or coming to the Knowledge of any Mutiny or intended Mutiny, shall not without Delay give Information thereof to his Commanding Officer ; or shall misbehave himself before the Enemy ; or shall shamefully abandon or deliver up any Garrison, Fortress, Post, or Guard committed to his Charge, or which he shall be commanded to defend ; or shall compel the Governor or Commanding Officer of any Garrison, Fortress, or Post to deliver up to the Enemy or to abandon the same ; or shall speak Words or use any other Means to induce such Governor or Commanding Officer or any others to misbehave

The ordinary Course of Law not to be interfered with.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to exempt any Officer or Marine from being proceeded against by the ordinary Course of Law for Crimes thereby cognizable; and any Commanding Officer who shall neglect or refuse, when due Application shall be made to him for that Purpose, to deliver over to the Civil Magistrate any Officer or Marine charged with any Capital Crime, or with any Violence or Offence against the Person or Property of any of His Majesty's Subjects punishable by the known Laws of the Land, or who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to assist any Peace Officer in apprehending any such Offender, shall, upon Conviction thereof in any of His Majesty's Courts at Westminster, Dublin, or Edinburgh, be deemed to be ipso facto cashiered, and shall be utterly disabled to hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment in His Majesty's Service; and a Certificate of such Conviction shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the Admiralty: Provided always, that no Person who shall have been tried before any of the ordinary Courts of Law for any Crime cognizable in such Courts shall be liable to be punished for the same by any Court-martial otherwise than by cashiering.

Desertion.

XXVIII. And whereas it has been judged expedient for the Prevention of Desertion, to establish Outlying Parties in the Vicinity of the respective Divisions of Royal Marines, for the Purpose of intercepting such Men as may straggle or attempt to desert from Head Quarters, and it is fit that Encouragement should be given to Persons composing such Parties to be diligent and active in their Duty in this Behalf; Be it therefore enacted, That for and in respect of every Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine so straggling or attempting to desert, who may be apprehended at a greater Distance from Head Quarters than is allowed by the Articles of War, the Party or Parties by whom he shall be apprehended shall be entitled to a Reward of Ten Shillings, to be paid upon the delivering up of such Marine; which Sum of Ten Shillings shall be charged against and stopped and retained out of the Pay and Subsistence of every such Non-commissioned Officer and Private Marine, in like Manner as the Reward or Sum of Twenty Shillings is hereinbefore directed to be charged against, stopped, and retained out of the Pay and Subsistence of every Deserter.

have been wetted or steeped, but all such Corn or Grain shall nevertheless in all Cases where the same shall not have been gauged and taken Account of by the proper Officer of Excise within Twenty-six Hours from the Time of such Corn or Grain being emptied out of the Cistern or Cisterns, and whilst the same was kept in the Couch Frame, at all Times of the Year, be taken and deemed to be in Couch, and shall be gauged and taken Account of by the Officer of Excise as in Couch for the Space of Thirty Hours from the Time of its being emptied from or out of the Cistern or Cisterns, whether such Corn or Grain shall be continued in the Couch Frame or Frames into which the same shall have been emptied, or shall be removed after the Expiration of the said Twenty-six Hours and before the Expiration of Thirty Hours, from such Couch Frame or Frames, to the Floor.

C A P. XVIII.

An Act to render valid Marriages solemnized in certain Churches and Chapels. [29th May 1830.]

4 G. 4. c. 76.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for amending the Laws respecting the Solemnization of Marriages in England, it is provided that if the Church of any Parish, or Chapel of any Chapelry, wherein Marriages have been usually solemnized, be demolished in order to be rebuilt, or be under repair, and on such Account be disused for Public Service, it shall be lawful for the Banns to be proclaimed in a Church or Chapel of any adjoining Parish or Chapelry in which Banns are usually proclaimed, or in any Place within the Limits of the Parish or Chapelry which shall be licensed by the Bishop of the Diocese for the Performance of Divine Service during the Repair or rebuilding of the Church as aforesaid: And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for amending the Laws respecting the Solemnization of Marriages in England," it was enacted, that all Marriages which had been theretofore solemnized, or which should be thereafter solemnized, in any Place within the Limits of such Parish or Chapelry so licensed as aforesaid for the Performance of Divine Service during the Repair or rebuilding of the Church of any Parish, or Chapel of any Chapelry, wherein Marriages had been usually solemnized, or if no such Place should be so licensed, then in a Church or Chapel of any adjoining Parish or Chapelry in which Banns were usually proclaimed, whether by Banns lawfully published in such Church or Chapel, or by Licence lawfully granted, should not have their Validity questioned on account of their having been so solemnized, nor should the Ministers who had so solemnized the same be liable to any Ecclesiastical Censure or to any other Proceeding whatsoever: And whereas the Ministers of certain Parish Churches and Chapels of Chapelries have, during the Repair or rebuilding of such Churches or Chapels, published the Banns of Marriages in some Places within the Limits of their Parishes or Chapelries respectively wherein Divine Service has been usually performed during the Time of such Repair or rebuilding, but have solemnized the Marriages themselves in the Churches or Chapels of the same or of some adjoining Parishes or Chapelries: And whereas other Clergymen, during the Time of such Repair or rebuilding, have published Banns of Marriage and solemnized Marriages in Places duly licensed for the Performance of Divine Worship, according to the Forms of the United Church of England and Ireland, within their respective Parishes or Chapelries, but not licensed specially for such

5 G. 4. c. 32.

' such Performance during such Time as aforesaid: And whereas ' it is expedient that the Marriages so solemnized should not on ' that Account have their Validity questioned; ' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Marriages, the Banns whereof have been published in any Place used for the Performance of Divine Service within the Limits of any Parish or Chapelry during the Repairs or rebuilding of the Church or Chapel thereof, which Marriages have been solemnized either in the said Place so used or in the Church or Chapel of the same or of some adjoining Parish or Chapelry during such Repair or rebuilding, shall not have their Validity questioned on account of having been so solemnized.

II. And be it further enacted, That in every Case in which the Church of any Parish or Place, in which Banns of Marriage may be published and Marriages solemnized, shall be pulled down, or be rebuilding or under Repair, it shall be lawful for the Bishop of the Diocese to order and direct that Banns of Marriage may be published and Marriages solemnized in any consecrated Chapel of such Parish or Place which he shall by Order in Writing direct, until the Church shall again be opened for the Performance of Divine Service; and during all such Period the said consecrated Chapel shall, for all Purposes relating to the Publication of Banns of Marriage and to the Solemnization of Marriages, be deemed and taken to be the Church of the Parish, any thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding; and the Fees in respect thereof shall be applied, during such Period, as the Bishop of the Diocese shall, with the Consent of the Incumbent, order and direct.

III. ' And whereas Doubts have arisen touching the Validity ' of Marriages solemnized in Churches which have been made ' and constituted the Churches of distinct Parishes, or District ' Parishes, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Fifty- ' eighth Year of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for building ' and promoting the building of additional Churches in populous ' Parishes; and also of an Act passed in the Fifty-ninth Year of ' His late Majesty, intituled An Act to amend and render more ' effectual an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, for build- ' ing and promoting the building of additional Churches in populous ' Parishes: And whereas it is expedient that such Doubts should ' be removed; ' Therefore be it enacted, That all Marriages which have already been solemnized, or may hereafter be solemnized, in any Church which shall have been made and constituted the Church of a distinct Parish, or of a District Parish as aforesaid, after Consecration thereof and Assignment of a District thereto, shall be as good and valid in Law as if such Marriages had been solemnized in any Parish Church wherein Banns had been usually published before or at the Time of passing an Act made in the Twenty-sixth Year of King George the Second, intituled An Act for the better preventing of clandestine Marriages.

SCHEDULE.

QUESTIONS, to which by Directions of an Act passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for taking an Account of the Population of Great Britain, and of the Increase or Diminution thereof," of," written Answers are to be returned by the Rector, Vicar, Curate, or officiating Minister, and Overseers of the Poor, or by some other substantial Householder of every Parish, Township, and Place (including those Places also which are Extra-parochial), in England; and by the Schoolmasters, or other Persons to be appointed under the said Act, for every Parish and Place in Scotland; signed by them respectively, and attested upon Oath or Affirmation by the said Overseers, or by such other substantial Householders as aforesaid in England, and by the Schoolmasters or other such Persons as aforesaid in Scotland.

QUESTIONS addressed to the OVERSEERS in England, and to the SCHOOLMASTERS in Scotland:

Who are respectively required to take an Account of the resident Population, by proceeding from House to House on the Thirtieth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, and on the Days immediately subsequent thereto, if One Day shall not be sufficient; and they are also required to specify in Writing the Name of the Parish or Place in the Schedule, and whether it be usually called a Parish, Township, Tithing, Quarter, or by what other Denomination.

1st. How many inhabited Houses are there in your Parish, Township, or Place; and by how many Families are they occupied?

2nd. How many Houses are now building, and therefore not yet inhabited?

3rd. How many other Houses are uninhabited?

4th. What Number of Families in your Parish, Township, or Place are chiefly employed in and maintained by Agriculture; or by Trade, Manufacture, or Handicraft; and how many Families are not comprised in either of the Two preceding Classes?

N. B. The total Number of Families in answer to this Question must correspond with the Number of Families in answer to the First Question; and if any Doubt shall arise as to the Class in which any Family or Families ought to be comprised, such Doubt is to be stated as a Remark (under Question Sixteenth), not omitting therein to specify in which Class such Family or Families may have been comprised in your Answer to the Fourth Question.

5th. How many Persons (including Children of whatever Age) are there actually found within the Limits of your Parish, Township, or Place, at the Time of taking this Account; distinguishing Males and Females, and exclusive of Men actually serving in His Majesty's Regular Forces, or in the Militia, and exclusive of Seamen, either in His Majesty's Service or belonging to registered Vessels?

6th. How many of the Males enumerated in answer to the 5th Question, are upwards of Twenty Years old?

N. B. If this Number of Males upwards of Twenty Years old should differ materially [or otherwise as compared to the Return of 1821] from One Half of the total Number of Males [in answer to Question 5th], some Error has probably been committed, and the Answer to this Question should be examined, and corrected, if necessary.

7th. How

7th. How many Males upwards of Twenty Years old are employed in Agriculture, including Graziers, Cowkeepers, Shepherds, and other Farm Servants, Gardeners (not taxable as Male Servants), and Nurserymen?

In answering this Question, you will carefully distinguish these Males into Three Classes; viz. First, Occupiers of Land who constantly employ and pay One or more than One Labourer or Farm Servant in Husbandry; Secondly, Occupiers of Land who employ no Labourer other than of their own Family; Thirdly, Labourers in Husbandry and Farm Servants employed by Occupiers of the First Class.

8th. How many Males upwards of Twenty Years old are employed in Manufacture or in making Manufacturing Machinery; but not including Labourers, Porters, Messengers, &c., who are to be included in a subsequent Class?

9th. How many Males upwards of Twenty Years old are employed in Retail Trade or in Handicraft, as Masters, Shopmen, Journeymen, Apprentices, or in any Capacity requiring Skill in the Business; but not including Labourers, Porters, Messengers, &c., who are to be included in a subsequent Class?

N.B. To enable you to answer this Question in a Manner satisfactory to yourself, a Sheet containing a List of the Denominations of several Trades is transmitted herewith, with blank Spaces for your Use in Entry of the Answers you obtain; it being understood that if any Trade or Business carried on in your Parish or Place does not appear in the printed List, you will specify such Trade at Bottom of the said List, making a Mark for each Male opposite to the Denomination of his proper Trade or Business, and adding all together for final Entry in the Schedule; to which Schedule you will annex the said printed List, with your original Entries thereon.

10th. How many Males upwards of Twenty Years old are Wholesale Merchants, Bankers, Capitalists, Professional Persons, Artists, Architects, Teachers, Clerks, Surveyors, and other Educated Men? And in answering this Question, you will include generally Persons maintaining themselves otherwise than by Manufacture, Trade, or bodily Labour.

11th. How many Males upwards of Twenty Years old are Miners, Fishermen, Boatmen, Excavators of Canals, Road-makers, Toll Collectors, or Labourers employed by Persons of the Three preceding Classes, or otherwise employed in any Kind of bodily Labour, excepting in Agriculture? Labourers in Agriculture having been already entered in the proper Place.

12th. How many other Males upwards of Twenty Years old (not being taxable Servants under the next Question) have not been included in any of the foregoing Classes? Including, therefore, in answer to this Question, retired Tradesmen, superannuated Labourers, and Males diseased or disabled in Body or Mind.

13th. How many Household Servants, including all Female Servants, and such Male Servants (of whatever Age) as are taxable as such; also Waiters and Attendants at Inns; distinguishing distinguishing the Males upwards of Twenty Years of Age, from the Males under Twenty Years of Age?

N. B. Observe that the Number of Males, in answer to Questions 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, and 13th collectively, cannot be less than the Number of Males upwards of Twenty Years old, in answer to Question 6th; but will exceed that Number in consequence of including Male Servants under Twenty Years of Age; and, as a general Rule, always assign an Individual of mixed Occupation or Income to that by which he is supposed to profit more than by any other.

14th. If you have entered any Males in answer to the 8th Question, be pleased to specify the Manufacture or Manufactures in which they are employed; and what Proportion of the Number of those entered in answer to Question 11th are employed in any Quarry, Mines, Coal Pits, Fishery, or public Work now in progress?

15th. Referring to the Number of Persons in One thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, to what Cause do you attribute any remarkable Difference in the Number at present?

16th. Are there any other Matters which you may think it necessary to remark in Explanation of your Answers to any of the preceding Questions?

Appearances may be put in for Defendants having Privilege of Parliament in Court of Equity, on Return of Process of Sequestration.

XII. And whereas in many Cases Persons having Privilege of Parliament are named as Defendants in Suits instituted in Courts of Equity against them, either alone or jointly with other Persons for enforcing against them Demands and Duties cognizable in Courts of Equity, and in some Cases such Defendants having Privileges of Parliament have stood out to the Return of Process of Sequestration issued against them for enforcing Appearance, and such Process of Sequestration hath not been found sufficient to

‘ to enforce such Appearance ;’ Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, in case any Defendant having Privilege of Parliament shall, upon a Return of Process of Sequestration issued against him for not putting in an Appearance to any original or other Bill of Complaint instituted against him in a Court of Equity for enforcing Discovery and Relief, or Discovery alone, (as the Case may be,) neglect to appear, that then and in such Case such Court, upon producing the Return of such Sequestration in Court, may, on the Motion or other Application of the Plaintiff in such Cause, appoint a Clerk in Court to enter an Appearance for such Defendant so having Privilege of Parliament, and such Proceedings may be thereupon had in the Cause as if the Party had actually appeared.

XIII. ‘ And whereas in many Cases it is necessary, on the Part of the Persons having legal Rights against Persons having Privilege of Parliament, to proceed by Bill in Equity against such Persons so having Privilege of Parliament, to obtain from them Discovery on Oath of Facts intended to be used or given in Evidence in Courts of Law against the Persons making such Discovery ; and in Cases where such Persons having such Privilege as aforesaid shall stand out Process of Contempt, Parties entitled to such Discovery against them have not sufficient Means of compelling or obtaining the same in all Cases ;’ Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, when any Defendant having Privilege of Parliament shall have appeared to any Bill filed against him seeking a Discovery upon Oath, or when an Appearance shall have been entered for such Defendant according to the Provisions aforesaid, and such Person shall refuse or neglect to put in his Answer to such Bill within the Time for that Purpose allowed by the Rules and Orders of such Court, that then it shall and may be lawful for the Plaintiff in such Suit to apply to the Court for an Order that such Bill shall be taken pro Confesso against such Defendant, and upon such Application such Court of Equity shall make an Order that such Bill shall be taken pro Confesso, unless the Defendant shall within Eight Days after being served with such Order shew good Cause to the contrary.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That when and so soon as any such Order shall have been pronounced by any such Court of Equity for taking such Bill pro Confesso, such Bill in Equity, or an examined Copy thereof, so taken pro Confesso, shall be taken and read in any Court of Law or Equity as Evidence of the Facts and Matters and Things therein contained, in the same Manner as if such Facts, Matters, and Things had been admitted to be true by the Answer of the Defendant put in to such Bill ; and such Bill so taken pro Confesso shall be received and taken in Evidence of such and the same Facts, and on behalf of such and so many Persons, as the Answer of the Defendant to the said Bill could and might have been read and received in Evidence of, in case such Answer had been put in by the Defendant thereto, and had admitted the same Facts, Matters, and Circumstances as in such Bill stated and set forth ; and in like Manner every other Bill of Discovery taken pro Confesso, under any of the Provisions of this Act, shall or may be taken and read as Evidence of the Facts and Matters and Things therein contained, to the Extent aforesaid.

In default of Answer to Bill in Equity against Persons having Privilege of Parliament, Bill shall be taken pro Confesso.

Such Bill shall be read in Evidence as an Answer admitting the Facts.

Rules for Courts of Equity.

XV. And for remedying the Practice of Courts of Equity in regard to Process of Contempt and the taking of Bills pro Confesso, be it further enacted, That the Rules and Regulations hereinafter provided and contained shall be adopted by the High Court of Chancery, and shall from henceforth become Orders and Rules of the said Court of Chancery, and be observed and enforced in and by the said Court; (that is to say,)

1. That when a Writ of Attachment shall have duly issued against any Defendant for Contempt in not answering the Bill, and such Defendant shall not have been taken under such Writ, and the Sheriff of the County into which such Writ shall have issued shall make a Return of Non est inventus to the same, the Court shall, upon Motion by or on behalf of the Plaintiff, (Notice of which shall not be required,) order that the Sergeant at Arms attending the Court do apprehend such Defendant and bring him to the Bar of the Court to answer his Contempt, and the same Proceedings may thereupon be had as if such Order had been made in the Manner heretofore in use; provided that before such Order shall in any such Case be made, the Plaintiff applying for the same shall be required to satisfy the Court, by the Affidavit of the Solicitor of the Plaintiff, or of his Town Agent, if the Writ of Attachment was issued by such Town Agent, that due Diligence was used to ascertain the Place where such Defendant was at the Time of issuing such Writ, and in endeavouring to apprehend such Defendant under the same, and that the Person suing forth such Writ verily believed at the Time of suing forth the same that such Defendant was in the County into which such Writ was issued.
2. That if any Defendant, being in Contempt for not answering the Bill, shall have been brought to the Bar of the Court under Process for such Contempt, and shall have been committed or remanded back to the Prison of the Fleet, the Plaintiff may sue forth the Writ of Habeas Corpus in the Manner and Form heretofore in use in the like Cases, provided that there shall be at least Twenty-eight Days between the Day on which such Defendant was so committed or remanded back and the Return of such Writ of Habeas Corpus; and upon or after the Return of such Writ of Habeas Corpus, in case such Defendant shall not have put in his Answer, the Court shall order the Bill to be taken pro Confesso against such Defendant, in the same Manner as is now usual in the like Cases upon the Return of a Writ of Alias pluries Habeas Corpus, and such Decree shall thereupon be made as shall be thought just; but in regard to any Defendant in Custody before and at the Time of the passing of this Act, there shall be at least Thirty Days between the Time of passing this Act and the Return of such last-mentioned Writ of Habeas Corpus; and it shall not be necessary in the Case of any Defendant now in Custody as aforesaid, who shall have been brought to the Bar of the Court as aforesaid, to sue forth more than One Writ of Habeas Corpus in order to take the Bill pro Confesso.
3. That the Party prosecuting any Contempt shall be at liberty, without without Order, to sue forth the several Writs in Process of Contempt, returnable immediately in case the Party in Contempt resides or is in London or within Twenty Miles thereof; and that in other Cases, the Party prosecuting a Contempt shall be at liberty, without Order, to sue forth such several Writs, returnable in Vacation, provided that there be Fifteen Days between the Teste and the Return of each of such Writs.

4. That where a Defendant is confined for a Misdemeanor, and has been brought before the Court upon an Habeas Corpus, and thereupon has been turned over to the Fleet pro formâ, but has been carried back to the Prison from whence he came, with his Cause, another Writ of Habeas Corpus may issue, directed to the Gaoler or Keeper of the Prison to which he has been carried back, and thereupon the Defendant shall be brought into Court, and remanded to the Prison from whence he came, with his Cause, without being turned over again to the Fleet Prison, and the Bill may be taken pro Confesso, in the same Manner in all respects as if the Defendant had been all along in the Custody of the Warden of the Fleet.
5. That if the Defendant, under Process of Contempt for not appearing or not answering, be in actual Custody, and shall not have been sooner brought to the Bar of the Court under Process to answer his Contempt, the Plaintiff, if the Contempt be not sooner cleared, shall bring the Defendant by an Habeas Corpus to the Bar of the Court within Thirty Days from the Time of his being actually in Custody, or detained (being already in Custody) upon Process of Contempt, and if the last Day of such Thirty Days shall happen out of Term, then within the Four first Days of the ensuing Term; and where the Defendant is in Custody of the Serjeant at Arms, or of the Messenger, upon an Attachment or other Process, the Plaintiff shall, within Ten Days after his being taken into such Custody, or if the last of such Ten Days shall happen out of Term then within the first Four Days of the next ensuing Term, cause the Defendant to be brought to the Bar of the Court; and in case any such Defendant shall not be brought to the Bar of the Court within the respective Times aforesaid, the Sheriff, Gaoler or Keeper, Serjeant at Arms or Messenger, in whose Custody he shall be, shall thereupon discharge him out of Custody without Payment by him of the Costs of Contempt, which shall be payable by the Party on whose Behalf the Process issued; and this Rule shall apply to every Defendant in Custody before and at the Time of passing of this Act, who shall not have been brought to the Bar of the Court; but the Thirty Days allowed in the first above-mentioned Case, and the Ten Days allowed in the second above-mentioned Case, shall be reckoned from the first Day of next Term.
6. That if a Defendant, upon being brought before the Court upon an Habeas Corpus, shall make Oath (which shall be administered to him by the Registrar, and he shall be examined in open Court), that he is unable by reason of Poverty to employ a Solicitor to put in his Answer, the Court shall thereupon thereupon refer it to a Master in Rotation to inquire into the Truth of that Allegation, and to report thereon to the Court forthwith, and thereupon the Court may make such Order as upon other Reports of the like Nature under the Provisions hereinafter contained.

7. That on the Thirtieth Day of January, the Thirtieth Day of April, the Thirtieth Day of July, and the Thirtieth Day of October, in every Year, or if any of those Days happen on a Sunday, then on the following Day; One of the Masters of the Court of Chancery, to be named by the Court, shall visit the Fleet Prison, and examine the Prisoners confined there for Contempt, and shall report their Opinion on their respective Cases to the Court; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the Court to order, if it shall see fit, that the Costs of the Contempt of any such Prisoner shall be paid out of the Interest and Dividends arising from the several Government or Parliamentary Securities standing in the Name of the Accountant General of the said Court of Chancery, intituled "Account of Monies placed out for the Benefit and better Security of the Suitors of the High Court of Chancery," and "Account of Securities purchased with Surplus Interest arising from Securities carried to an Account of Monies placed out for the Benefit and better Security of the Suitors of the High Court of Chancery," or out of any Cash standing to either of such Accounts, or to any other Account which is now or hereafter may be standing to the Credit of the Suitors of the said Court of Chancery, (after and subject to the Payment of all Charges which by any Act heretofore passed are directed to be paid thereout,) and to assign a Solicitor and Counsel to such Prisoner, for putting in his Answer and defending him in formâ pauperis, and to direct any such Prisoner, having previously done such Acts as the Court shall direct, to be discharged out of Custody; provided that if any such Defendant become entitled to any Funds out of such Cause, the same shall be applied, under the Direction of said Court, in the first Instance to the Reimbursement of the Suitors Fund.
8. That it shall be lawful for the Master visiting the Fleet, or to whom the Case of a Prisoner shall be referred by the Court itself, to examine the Prisoner, and all other Persons whom he may think it proper to examine, upon Oath, and to administer an Oath or Oaths to any such Prisoner and other Persons accordingly; and to cause any Officers, Clerks, and Ministers of any Court of Law or Equity to bring and produce upon Oath before him any Records, Orders, Books, Papers, or other Writings belonging to the said Courts, or to any of the Officers within the same as such Officers.
9. That if it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the Court, that any such Prisoner is an Idiot, Lunatic, or of unsound Mind, although no Commission has issued, the Court shall appoint a Guardian to put in his Answer and discharge the Defendant, providing for the Costs in any of the Ways pointed out by this Act, as shall seem just; and if the Court shall see fit, the Defence may be made by such Guardian in formâ pauperis.

10. That where the Defendant has been brought to the Bar of the Court for his Contempt in not answering, and refuses or neglects to answer, (not being Idiot, Lunatic, or of unsound Mind,) the Court may, upon Motion or Petition, of which due Notice shall be given personally to the Defendant, authorize the Plaintiff to amend his Bill, without such Amendment operating as a Discharge of the Contempt, or rendering it necessary to proceed with the Process of Contempt de novo; but after such Amendment the Plaintiff may proceed to take the amended Bill pro Confesso, in the same Manner as if it had not been amended: Provided nevertheless, that if the Defendant shall be desirous to answer such amended Bill, the Court shall allow him such Time as shall seem just for that Purpose; but if he shall not within the Time allowed by the Court put in a sufficient Answer to the amended Bill, the Process for taking the Bill pro Confesso may be resumed and carried on.
11. That in every Case where the Defendant has been brought to the Bar of the Court to answer his Contempt for not answering, and shall refuse or neglect to answer within the next Twenty-one Days, the Plaintiff shall be at liberty, with the Leave of the Court, upon Ten Days previous Notice to the Defendant after the Expiration of such Twenty-one Days, unless good Cause be shown to the contrary, instead of proceeding to have the Bill taken pro Confesso, to put in such an Answer to the Bill as hereinafter is mentioned, in the Name of the Defendant, without Oath or Signature; and thereupon the Suit shall proceed in the same Manner as if such Answer were really the Answer of the Defendant, with which the Plaintiff was satisfied; and the Costs of the Contempt and of putting in such Answer may be provided for in like Manner as if the Defendant himself had put in such Answer; and such Answer, besides the formal Parts thereof, shall be to the following Effect; that the Defendant leaves the Plaintiff to make such Proofs of the several Matters in the Bill alleged as he shall be able or be advised, and submits his Interests to the Court.
12. That in any Case where, upon the Application of the Plaintiff, the Court shall be satisfied that Justice cannot be done to the Plaintiff without an Answer to the Bill or to the Interrogatories from the Defendant himself, it shall be lawful for the Court to order the Defendant to remain in Custody until Answer or further Order, but without Prejudice to the Plaintiff's availing himself of any of the Provisions of this Act.
13. That where the Defendant is in Contempt for not appearing or not answering, and in actual Custody under Process for such Contempt, or being already in Custody shall be detained by an Attachment for such Contempt, and shall not, where the Contempt is for not appearing, enter an Appearance within Twenty-one Days after he is lodged in Gaol or Prison, or the Attachment is lodged against him, (he being already in Prison,) as the Case may be, or, where the Contempt is for not answering, put in an Answer within Two Calendar Months after he is lodged in Gaol or Prison, or the Attachment is lodged lodged against him, he being already in Prison, the Plaintiff shall (as the Case may be), within Fourteen days after the Period computed from the Expiration of such Twenty-one Days within which he may by the Provisions of this Act be able to enter such Appearance, cause an Appearance to be entered for the Defendant under the Powers of this Act, and shall at the Expiration of such Two Calendar Months proceed to take the Bill pro Confesso, and shall accordingly obtain an Order for taking the same pro Confesso within Six Weeks after the Period computed from the Expiration of such Two Calendar Months within which he may be able to take the same pro Confesso; or in Default of so doing in either of such Cases, the Defendant shall, upon Application to the Court, be entitled to be discharged out of Custody without paying any of the Costs of the Contempt, unless the Court shall, under the Power herein-before contained, see good Cause to remand and detain the Defendant in Custody; and this Rule shall apply to every Defendant in Custody before and at the Time of the passing of this Act, who shall not have entered his Appearance, and for whom an Appearance shall not have been entered, or shall not have answered the Bill, and the Bill shall not have been taken pro Confesso, but the Twenty-one Days and Two Calendar Months respectively to be reckoned from the first Day of next Term, and the other Periods to be altered accordingly in Computation; but nothing in this Act shall prevent any Plaintiff from proceeding to take his Bill pro Confesso, according to the Practice existing before the passing of this Act, where at the Time of passing of this Act his Proceedings shall be so far advanced that the Powers of this Act would not enable him to accelerate the Period for taking his Bill pro Confesso.

14. That where a Defendant is in Custody for Contempt in not answering, and shall be able to put in his Answer by borrowing or obtaining a Copy of the Bill, without taking an Office Copy of the Bill, he shall not be compellable to take any such Copy, but the Clerk in Court may (if he think the Defendant is of sufficient Ability to pay for an Office Copy) require him, before the Answer is filed, to make an Affidavit denying his Ability in consequence of Poverty to pay for an Office Copy of the Bill.
15. That when any Person shall have been directed by any Decree or Order to execute any Deed or other Instrument, or make a Surrender or Transfer, or to levy a Fine, or suffer a Recovery, and shall have refused or neglected to execute, make, or transfer, or levy or suffer the same, and shall have been committed to Prison under Process for such Contempt, or, being confined in Prison for any other Cause, shall have been charged with or detained under Process for such Contempt, and shall remain in such Prison, the Court may, upon Motion or Petition, and upon Affidavit that such Person has, after the Expiration of Two Calendar Months from the Time of his being committed under, or charged with, or detained under such Process, again refuse to execute such Deed or Instrument, or make such Surrender or Transfer, or levy or suffer suffer

16. That where a Person shall be committed for a Contempt in not delivering to any Person or Persons or depositing in Court or elsewhere, as by any Order may be directed, Books, Papers, or any other Articles or Things, any Sequestrator or Sequestrators appointed under any Commission of Sequestration shall have the same Power to seize and take such Books, Papers, Writings, or other Articles or Things, being in the Custody or Power of the Person against whom the Sequestration issues, as they would have over his own Property; and thereupon such Articles or Things so seized and taken shall be dealt with by the Court as shall be just; and after such Seizure it shall be lawful for the Court, upon the Application of the Prisoner, or of any other Person in the Cause or Matter, or upon any Report to be made in pursuance of this Act, to make such Order for the Discharge of the Prisoner, upon such Terms, and, if it shall see fit, making any Costs in the Cause, as to the Court shall seem proper.
17. That in any other Case of a Commitment for Contempt, not herein specially provided for, the Court may upon any such Application as last aforesaid, or upon any such Report as aforesaid, make such Order for the Discharge of the Prisoner, upon any such Terms, and making, if the Court shall see fit, any Costs in the Cause, as to the Court shall seem proper.

19. That where any Party obstinately retains Possession of Lands or other Real Property after a Writ of Execution of a Decree or an Order for Delivery of Possession has been duly served and Demand of Possession made, and upon an Affidavit of such Service of the Writ of Execution, and of such Demand made thereunder, and a Refusal to comply therewith on the Part of the Person against whom the Writ issued, the Party issuing it shall be at liberty, upon an Affidavit of Service of the Writ of Execution, and Demand of Possession and Refusal, to obtain the usual Order of Course for the Writ of Assistance to issue, and that the intermediate Writs of Attachment and Injunction further commanding the Party to deliver Possession, or any other Writ, shall be unnecessary.

An Act to continue and amend the Laws for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England. [16th July 1830.]

7 G. 4. c. 57.

Certain Provisions in recited Acts to extend to all Persons petitioning.

Warrants of Attorney executed by Prisoners under Acts for their Relief declared not to be within 5 G. 4. c. 39.

Adjudication may be made conditional in certain Cases.

‘ WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend and consolidate the Laws for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England; and it is expedient to continue the said Act;’ Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act shall be and the same is hereby continued.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Provisions in the said Act contained, concerning the Removal of Assignees and the Appointment of new Assignees, and concerning Assignees’ Accounts, and concerning the Amount of Debts, and Claims to receive Dividends, and the ascertaining thereof, and concerning all Matters to be done and observed, when it may appear to the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors in any Case that all Debts have been discharged, and concerning the Proof or Evidence of Conveyances and Assignments, and of all Proceedings had or being of Record in the said Court, shall be deemed to extend to the Cases of all Persons who petitioned under the several Acts recited in the said Act, as well as of Persons petitioning under the said Act.

III. ‘ And whereas Doubts have arisen whether Warrants of Attorney, executed by Insolvent Debtors before Adjudication made in the Matters of their Petitions pursuant to the several Acts passed for their Relief, are to be deemed secret Warrants of Attorney within the Meaning and Provisions of an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty (a), intituled An Act for preventing Frauds on Creditors by secret Warrants of Attorney to confess Judgment;’ It is hereby declared and enacted, That such Warrants of Attorney, executed and to be executed as aforesaid, are not within the Meaning and Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act; and that the same have been, are, and shall be valid and effectual, any thing in the said last-mentioned Act, or in any Act extending the Provisions thereof, notwithstanding.

(a) See 1 W. 4. c. 71.

IV. ‘ And whereas it is for the Benefit of Prisoners petitioning the said Court, and especially of those whose Cases may be heard before a Commissioner on Circuit, or before Justices of the Peace at their Quarter Sessions in Wales or the Town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, where it may appear in the Case of any such Prisoner, on the Hearing, that the Proof of Notice to Creditors is imperfect, or that any other Matter or Thing ought to be done by or on behalf of such Prisoner before he or she is actually discharged from Custody, that nevertheless Adjudication should be made conditional upon such Matter or Thing being performed, and that the Hearing of such Case should stand adjourned only on Failure therein: And whereas Doubts have arisen as to the Competency of proceeding in manner above mentioned;’ It is hereby declared and

and enacted, That where it shall appear to the said Court, Commissioner, or Justices, at the Hearing of the Matters of the Petition of any such Prisoner, that certain Matters or Things ought to be performed by or on behalf of such Prisoner, before he or she is entitled to be actually discharged from Custody, but that nevertheless it is expedient not to adjourn the Hearing of such Case absolutely to some future Occasion without the Opportunity of such Discharge being sooner had by doing such Things as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the said Court, Commissioner, or Justices, to pronounce Adjudication, without then issuing the Order and Warrant pursuant thereto, and that such Adjudication may be directed to be conditional on the Performance of such Matters or Things as aforesaid, and that on the Non-performance thereof the Hearing of such Case shall stand adjourned according to the Direction made in that Behalf; and that all Proceedings heretofore had in manner aforesaid, in the Matters of the Petitions of any Prisoners petitioning the said Court, under any Act or Acts for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, shall be deemed good and valid to all Intents and Purposes.

V. ' And whereas it may often happen that some Interest in Lands and Tenements may become vested in the Provisional Assignee of the said Court, which appears to be of no Value to Creditors, but nevertheless it may be reasonable and expedient that the said Provisional Assignee should make or join in making some Conveyance or Assignment of the same, and that the same should be done without the Expence attending Advertisements and Meetings of Creditors as prescribed by the said first-mentioned Act in certain Cases;' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Court, at any Time after the Day gazetted for the Hearing of the Matters of the Petition of any Insolvent Debtor, if no Creditor shall have become Assignee of his or her Estate and Effects, and if it shall appear fit, upon such Notice given by Advertisement or otherwise to the Creditors or any of them as the said Court shall in any Case direct, to order the said Provisional Assignee to make or join in making any Conveyance or Assignment of any such Interest as to the said Court may appear just and reasonable, without observing the Provisions of the said first-mentioned Act as to the Sale of Real Property by the Provisional or other Assignees of the Estates of Insolvent Debtors.

VI. And it is further declared and enacted, That all Assignments and Conveyances heretofore made or to be made by such Provisional Assignee in any such Cases, by Order of the said Court, shall be and the same are hereby declared to be good and valid to all Intents and Purposes; any thing in the said first-mentioned Act or in any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

VII. ' And whereas it is expedient to prescribe a Form of Conveyance and Assignment from the Provisional Assignee to any other Assignee or Assignees when appointed by the said Court, and also to remove any Doubts as to the Validity or Effect of any Conveyances or Assignments at any Time heretofore made and executed by the said Provisional Assignee by virtue of any Order of the said Court;' Be it therefore declared and enacted, That every Conveyance and Assignment hereafter to be made and executed by the Provisional Assignee for the Time being to any other Court may direct Conveyance by Provisional Assignee where no Assignee is appointed.

Assignments made by Provisional Assignee declared valid.

Assignments by Provisional Assignee to be in the Form annexed to this Act.

other Assignee or Assignees, by virtue of any Order of the said Court, shall be in such Form as is to this Act annexed; and that every such Conveyance and Assignment, and also every Conveyance and Assignment at any Time heretofore made and executed by the Provisional Assignee for the Time being, in obedience to any Order of the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, shall be deemed and taken to be valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatever, and fully and effectually to vest and to have vested all and every Estate and Estates, Real and Personal, and all and every Right, Title, Interest, and Trust in and to the same, of what Nature or Kind soever, to which the Insolvent Debtor in each Case respectively shall or may be or shall or may have been entitled in any Manner or by any Means whatsoever, or which such Insolvent Debtor shall or may be or shall or may have been required by Law to convey and assign in Trust for his or her Creditors.

In case of Illness of a Commissioner, another Person may be appointed to execute the Duties.

VIII. ' And whereas it may happen that the Chief or other Commissioner for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors may, by Illness or other reasonable Cause, be for a Time disabled from performing his Duties, whereby the Business of the said Court would be delayed: And whereas if such Disability should occur to any such Commissioner proceeding on his Circuit, the Suitors of the said Court would be much prejudiced, unless some Person should be authorized forthwith to undertake the Duties of the said Chief or other Commissioner on his Circuit; Be it therefore further enacted, That if such Disability as aforesaid shall occur to such Chief or other Commissioner at any Time, not being the Time of his Circuit, it shall be lawful for any fit Person, being a Barrister at Law, and appointed by One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to execute the Duties of such Chief or other Commissioner during such Disability; and that if such Disability shall occur during the Time appointed for the Circuit of such Chief or other Commissioner, it shall be lawful for any fit Person, being a Barrister at Law, and nominated by such Chief or other Commissioner, to execute the Duties of such Chief or other Commissioner on such Circuit as aforesaid during such Disability; and that all Things done according to the Provisions of this Act and of the said Act hereby continued, by such Person so appointed or nominated as aforesaid, as the Case may be, during such Disability as aforesaid, shall be good and valid to all Intents and Purposes as if the same had been done by such Chief or other Commissioner: Provided always, that such Chief or other Commissioner, if such Disability as aforesaid shall occur during the Time appointed for his Circuit, shall forthwith state the same, together with the Cause thereof, and such Nomination as aforesaid, in Writing, and shall subscribe such Statement, and shall send the same forthwith by His Majesty's Post to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Act may be altered.

Reign of King George the Second, commonly called "The Lords Act," or of any other Statute since passed for extending or continuing the same.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the said recited Act and this Act shall be and the same are hereby continued for Two Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament. Continuance ‘ portation of Offenders from Great Britain, it is amongst other ‘ Things enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and ‘ make a Contract for their effectual Transportation to some of the ‘ Places so appointed, and shall direct Security to be given for ‘ belonging to His Majesty, it shall be lawful for One of the ‘ Principal Secretaries of State, by Warrant under his Hand, to ‘ nominate some Person or Persons who shall have the Custody of ‘ such Offender during the Voyage, and thereupon such Offender

‘ may be delivered to such Nominee or Nominees without any ‘ Contract or Security being required or given for the effectual

‘ enacted, that so soon as any such Offender shall be delivered to ‘ the Governor of the Colony, or other Person or Persons to whom

An Act to alter and amend the Law relating to Illusory Appointments.

[16th July 1830.]

‘ WHEREAS, by Deeds, Wills, and other Instruments, Powers are frequently given to appoint Real and Personal Property amongst several Objects, in such Manner that none of the Objects can be excluded by the Donee of the Power from a Share of such Property; And whereas Appointments in exercise of such Powers whereby an unsubstantial, illusory, or nominal Share of the Property affected thereby is appointed to or left unappointed to devolve upon any one or more of the Objects thereof, are invalid in Equity, although the like Appointments are good and binding at Law: And whereas considerable Inconvenience hath arisen from the Rule of Equity relative to such Appointments, and it is expedient that such Appointments

Illusory Appointments shall be valid in Equity as well as at Law.

‘ should be as valid in Equity as at Law;’ Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Appointment which from and after the passing of this Act shall be made in exercise of any Power or Authority to appoint any Property, Real or Personal, amongst several Objects, shall be invalid or impeached in Equity, on the Ground that an unsubstantial, illusory, or nominal Share only shall be thereby appointed to or left unappointed to devolve upon any one or more of the Objects of such Power; but that every such Appointment shall be valid and effectual in Equity as well as at Law, notwithstanding that any one or more of the Objects shall not thereunder, or in default of such Appointment, take more than an unsubstantial, illusory, or nominal Share of the Property subjected to such Power.

Not to affect any Deed which declares the Amount of the Share;

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall prejudice or affect any Provision in any Deed, Will, or other Instrument creating any such Power as aforesaid, which shall declare the Amount of the Share or Shares from which no Object of the Power shall be excluded.

nor to give any other Force to any Appointment than the same would have had.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted and declared, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed, deemed, or taken, at Law or in Equity, to give any other Validity, Force, or Effect, to any Appointment, than such Appointment would have had if a substantial Share of the Property affected by the Power had been thereby appointed to or left unappointed to devolve upon any Object of such Power.

Allowances, Drawbacks, and Bounties now payable on Beer or Ale brewed or made in Great Britain, (except the said Hereditary Duties of Excise on Cyder, Beer, and Ale granted to His said Majesty King Charles the Second, and hereinafter more particularly specified,) shall be repealed, cease and determine, and be no longer levied or collected, paid or payable.

During His Majesty's Life the Hereditary Duties on Cyder and Beer not to be collected;

II. And be it further enacted, That the Hereditary Duties on Beer and Ale and Cyder brewed or made for Sale in Great Britain, granted by the said first-recited Act to His said Majesty King Charles the Second, His Heirs and Successors, (that is to say,) For and upon every Barrel of Beer or Ale above Six Shillings the Barrel, brewed by the common Brewer or any other Person or Persons who doth or shall sell or tap out Beer or Ale publicly or privately, to be paid by the common Brewer or by such other Person or Persons respectively, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity, a Duty of One Shilling and Three-pence: For every Barrel of Six Shillings Beer or Ale, or under, brewed by the common Brewer or any other Person or Persons who doth or shall sell or tap out such Beer or Ale publicly or privately, to be paid by the said common Brewer or such other Person or Persons respectively as aforesaid, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity, Threepence: For all Cyder and Perry made and sold by Retail, upon every Hogshead, to be paid by the Retailer thereof, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser Measure, One Shilling and Three-pence: Shall from and after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty cease to be collected and paid, and shall not during the Life of His present Majesty, be levied, collected, or demanded, or be paid or payable; and the several Acts, Enactments, Clauses, Provisions, and Regulations in the said recited Act of the Reign of His said Majesty King Charles the Second, or in any other Act or Acts contained, for securing, levying, or collecting the Duties on Beer and Ale and Cyder, save and except the Acts hereinafter continued in force, shall not, from and after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty, and during the Life of His present Majesty, be enforced or executed, save and except for the Purpose of recovering any Duties incurred or charged before the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty, or any Arrears thereof, or any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture for the Breach of any of the said Clauses, Enactments, Provisions, or Regulations, committed previous to the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty; but all such Duties and Arrears, Penalties, Fines, and Forfeitures, shall and may be recovered, levied, enforced, and applied in the same Manner, and by the same Means, Powers, and Authorities, as if this Act had not been passed.

nor the Laws for collecting and securing the Duties enforced.

The Acts 56 G. 3. c. 58. and 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 22. continued in force, except so much as relates to Certificates and Increase in Stock.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That an Act passed in the Fifty-sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to repeal an Act made in the Fifty-first Year of His present Majesty, for allowing the Manufacture and Use of a Liquor prepared from Sugar for colouring Porter, and an Act passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for securing the Payment of the Duties on Ale and Beer brewed in Great

Great Britain, except so much thereof as relates to Certificates and Increases in Stock, shall be and remain in full Force and Effect; and all Brewers of Beer or Ale for Sale, and all and every Person who shall be licensed under any Act as a Brewer, Dealer in, or Retailer of Beer, shall continue subject to the Provisions, Enactments, and Regulations in the said last-mentioned Acts contained; and the said Provisions, Enactments, and Regulations shall continue to be respectively executed and put in force by the Commissioners and Officers of Excise in Great Britain, as fully and effectually as if this Act had not been passed.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That on and immediately after the Demise of His Majesty, whom God long preserve, the said Hereditary Duties of Excise on Beer and Ale and Cyder granted by the said first-recited Act to His said Majesty King Charles the Second, His Heirs and Successors, shall revive and be again payable, collected, and paid in Great Britain; and it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Excise for the Time being, and they are hereby required, on and immediately after the Demise of His present Majesty, to cause the said Hereditary Duties to be again charged, levied, collected, and paid in and throughout Great Britain, to and for the Use of His Majesty's Successors, and to cause all the Laws, Clauses, Enactments, Provisions, Powers, Authorities, and Regulations for raising, levying, securing, and collecting the Duties on Beer and Ale and Cyder to be again put in force and execution for levying and collecting the said Hereditary Duties in the same Manner as if this Act had not been passed; and the said Commissioners of Excise shall and they are hereby required to keep true and particular Accounts of all the said Duties so raised, levied, and collected by them for the Use of His Majesty's Successors.

V. ' And whereas the said Hereditary Duties of Excise on Beer, Ale, and Cyder granted by the said first-recited Act of the Reign of King Charles the Second are now vested in His present Majesty, and are subject to certain Charges thereon, and it is necessary to make Provision for supplying the Deficiency which will occur by the said Hereditary Duties on Beer and Ale and Cyder not being collected during His Majesty's Life: And whereas by a Medium of Ten Years, computed from the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty to the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty, the Sum of Three hundred and forty-eight thousand Pounds is taken to be the Medium of the annual Produce of the said Hereditary Duties on Beer and Ale and on Cyder in England, and the Sum of Six thousand five hundred Pounds the Medium of the annual Produce of the said Hereditary Duties of Excise on Beer and Ale and on Cyder in Scotland;' To the end therefore that neither His Majesty, nor any other Person or Persons may receive any Prejudice by the Nonpayment of the said Hereditary Duties, be it enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty, there shall be paid to His Majesty during his natural Life, which God long preserve, the clear yearly Sums of Three hundred and forty-eight thousand Pounds out of the Revenues of Excise arising in England, and Six thousand five hundred Pounds out of the Revenues of Excise arising in that

For allowing Beer, not intended to be sent into Consumption until after 10th Day of October 1830, to be brewed free of Duty.

XVIII. ' And whereas it may occur that between the passing of this Act and the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty, when the Duties on Beer are to cease and determine, Persons other than Brewers now licensed to brew Beer for Sale may brew Quantities of Beer without the Payment of any Duty thereon, and after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty may bring forward such Beer for Sale, and sell the same for Consumption; and Persons who are now entered and licensed as Brewers of Beer, and are thereby subject to the Payment of Duty on all Beer brewed by them prior to the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty, may be thereby greatly injured and damaged, unless Provision is made for allowing them to brew Beer, not to be sold or consumed until after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty, free of Duty; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Brewer of Beer, from time to time, Twenty-four Hours before commencing to brew any Guile of Beer, to give Notice in Writing to the proper Officer of Excise, that the particular Guile of Beer then about to be brewed is for Beer not intended to be sold or sent into Consumption until after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty, and that he is desirous to brew the same without Payment of Duty, in which said Notice shall be specified the particular Vats or Casks into which such Beer is intended to be tunned and kept; and all such Beer shall be brewed under all the same Laws and Regulations as are now in force, and an Account taken thereof in the same Manner as if the Duty thereon was to be paid, levied, and collected; and when and as soon as such Beer shall be brewed and made, the same shall be run into the particular Vats or Casks specified in the Notice, and the Officer of Excise shall forthwith take an Account of all such Beer, and of the Duty which would be payable thereon; and all the Beer so brewed under such Notice shall be stored and deposited in a separate Store-room or Cellar, to be approved of by the Commissioners of Excise, and under the Locks and Keys of the Officer of Excise, or otherwise secured in such Manner as the Commissioners of Excise shall direct, and to their Satisfaction; and when and as often as any other Brewing of Beer shall be made by any such Brewer, to be stored or secured Duty free, the Officer of Excise shall take an Account of all the Quantity which shall have been previously so stored or secured; and all Beer so brewed without Payment of Duty shall be kept so stored, and shall not be sold or sent into Consumption, or any Part thereof tapped or drawn off, until the Eleventh Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty; and on the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty the proper Officers of Excise shall take an Account of all the said Beer which shall have been so brewed Duty-free, and stored or secured as aforesaid, and if upon such Account the whole Quantity of such Beer shall be found in the Stock of the Brewer who shall have brewed the same, deposited or secured as aforesaid, and the Officers of Excise shall be satisfied that it is the same Beer which was so brewed, and that no Part thereof has been sent into Consumption, or any Addition made thereto, or any Alteration therein, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Excise, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to forego and remit the Charge of Duty thereon, and to allow the same to be sold without the Payment of such Duty.

XIX. Provided always, That if any Beer which shall be brewed under the Regulations aforesaid, as not to be sent into Consumption until after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty, shall not at any Time previous thereto be so stored in such separate Store or Cellar, or otherwise secured according to the Directions of the Commissioners of Excise, and to their Satisfaction, or if any Brewer shall tap any Vat or Cask in which the same shall be tunned or kept, or shall sell or send out any Part thereof, or shall make any Addition to or Alteration therein by putting any other Beer in any such Vat or Cask, or if on the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty, or at any Time previous thereto, the Officers of Excise shall not find all such Beer in the Stock of such Brewer so stored or secured and unaltered, or if any such Brewer shall use or practise any Art or Device to deceive the Officer of Excise in taking an Account of his Stock, or to remove any of the said Beer, or to evade any Part of the Duty on Beer with which previous to the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty he might or would be chargeable, then and in any such Case it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Excise, and they are hereby authorized and required, to demand and collect the Duties charged on all the Beer brewed by such Brewer previous to the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty; and the said Brewer shall be liable to the Payment of all such Duties, and the same shall and may be levied, collected, and enforced under the Laws, Provisions, and Regulations now in force for collecting and securing the Duties on Beer.

XX. 'And whereas it is expedient to provide for continuing the Drawback now payable on Beer or Ale exported, until the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, on such Beer as shall have been brewed in Great Britain, and charged with Duty, and on which Duty has been paid, and which may be exported before the said Day; Be it therefore enacted, That until the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, the Drawback of Fourteen Shillings and Two-pence, now payable on the Exportation of every Barrel of Beer, shall be paid and payable on the Exportation of all Beer and Ale which shall have been brewed and charged with Duty before the Fourteenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirty, and which any Brewer of Beer shall have declared to be intended for Exportation, and of which an Account shall have been taken under any Orders or Directions of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or of the Commissioners of Excise, issued for that Purpose, and which shall have been kept stored in Vats or Casks of not less than Eighteen hundred Gallons Imperial Standard Gallon Measure Content, and according to the Rules and Regulations contained in such Orders or Directions: Provided always, that such Drawback shall not be allowed on any Beer which shall not have been kept and stored in Casks of the full Size of Eighteen hundred Gallons, nor in any Case where the Rules and Regulations contained in any such Orders or Directions shall not have been in every respect observed and fulfilled.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That all such Beer shall be exported, and the Drawbacks thereon paid, under the Laws, Enactments, and Regulations relating to the Exportation of Beer in force before the passing of this Act: Provided always, that every Exporter of such Beer intending to claim the said Drawback of Fourteen Shillings and Two-pence shall, on every Exportation thereof after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty, in addition to the other Oaths now required to be taken by the Exporter or Shipper of Beer, make Oath that the Beer about to be exported is Beer brewed before the Fourteenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirty, and which was declared for Exportation as allowed under the Orders or Directions of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury or Commissioners of Excise.

‘ V. And whereas by the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His said Majesty it is recited, that by an Act passed in the Fifty-second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for improving the Public Roads in and through the City of Coventry, the Trustees acting in execution of that Act were authorized to erect Toll Gates across or on the Sides of the Streets and Lanes therein particularly mentioned, and across or on the Sides of any Roads to be made, widened, or straightened, under the Powers of that Act, and across the End of any Lane or Way leading into the same, and to collect at such Toll Gates the Tolls in the said Act mentioned; and reciting that as soon as so much of the new Piece of Road therein-before directed to be made as lay between the Site of the late Walls of the City of Coventry and Hertford Street in the said City, and so much of the said new Piece of Road as lay between Saint John’s Church in the said City and the Village of Allesley, should be respectively completed and opened to the Public, it would be expedient that the Toll Gates therein-after mentioned should be erected, and the Tolls therein-after mentioned should be collected; it was, by the now reciting Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, enacted, that it should be lawful for the Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty to erect a Toll Gate in the said City of Coventry across the new Line of Road near Little Park Street, and another Toll Gate across the said new Line of Road from Coventry to the Village of Allesley, near Saint John’s Church aforesaid, together with any Side Gates on any Part of the said new Line of Road, with Toll Houses thereto: And whereas by the said recited Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, (after reciting the said Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His said Majesty, as herein-before recited,) it is recited, that the said new Piece of Road between Saint John’s Church, in the said City of Coventry, and the Village of Allesley, was then forming, and ‘ would

' would be shortly completed and finished, and that it would be ' expedient that the Toll Gate by the said recited Act of the ' Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His said Majesty
 ' authorized to be erected across the new Road near Saint John's
 ' Church aforesaid should be erected, as soon as such last-men' tioned Piece of Road should be completed and opened to the ' Public, it was, by the now reciting Act of the Ninth Year of the ' Reign of His said Majesty, enacted, that it should be lawful for
 ' the said Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said re-
 ' cited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty
 ' as aforesaid, as soon as the said new Line of Road then forming
 ' between Saint John's Church, in the City of Coventry, and the ' Village of Allesley aforesaid, should be completed, to erect such ' Toll Gate across the said new Line of Road at any Place within
 ' Half a Mile of Saint John's Church aforesaid, together with Side
 ' Gates on any Part of the said new Line of Road, with Toll Houses
 ' thereto : And whereas the said new Line of Road between Saint
 ' John's Church, in the City of Coventry, and the Village of Al-
 ' lesley, hath been some time since completed and opened to the ' Public, and the Toll Gate authorized and directed by the said
 ' recited Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty
 ' to be erected across the last-mentioned new Line of Road, with
 ' Side Gates thereto, hath been erected and finished, and the sever' al Tolls authorized and directed by the said recited Acts of the ' Seventh and Eighth and the Ninth Years of the Reign of His
 ' said Majesty to be levied and collected at the said Toll Gate and
 ' Side Gates have been, since the said new Line of Road was com' pleted and finished, and are now, collected and taken by the said
 ' Trustees acting in the Execution of the said Act of the Fifty-
 ' second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the ' Third : And whereas that Portion of the said new Line of Road
 ' authorized and directed to be made by the said Act of the ' Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty
 ' King George the Fourth, which lies between the Site of the East
 ' Walls of the City of Coventry and Hertford Street in the said
 ' City, is not yet made or formed, and Doubts have arisen whe' ther the said last-mentioned Trustees are authorized and em' powered, previously to the said last-mentioned Portion of the ' said Line of Road being completed and opened to the Public,
 ' to take Tolls at the said Gates so erected across and on the Side
 ' of the said new Line of Road between Saint John's Church, in ' the City of Coventry, and the Village of Allesley aforesaid ; and ' it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed ;' Be it therefore declared and enacted, That the said Trustees acting in the Execution of the said Act of the Fifty-second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third were and are by the said recited Acts of the Seventh and Eighth Years and of the Ninth Year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth empowered and required, and the said Trustees during the Time mentioned for that Purpose by the said Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years aforesaid, and after that Time the Trustees of the Dunchurch and Stonebridge Trust, are by this Act further empowered and required, to collect, demand, and receive at the said Toll Gate and Side Gates so erected on the said new Line of Road between Saint John's

John's Church, in the City of Coventry, and the Village of Allesley, as herein-before mentioned, the said several Tolls authorized and directed to be demanded and taken and received at such Toll Gate and Side Gates by the said recited Acts of the Seventh and Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of His said Majesty as aforesaid, before as well as after the Completion and opening to the Public of the said new Line of Road between the Site of the late Walls of the City of Coventry and Hertford Street in the said City, and between Saint John's Church in the said City and the Village of Allesley.

So much of the recited Act of 9 G. 4. as requires the Road within the Highgate Archway Trust to be made over to that Company within Two Years, repealed.

VI. ' And whereas by the said recited Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth the said Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty were authorized to apply the Sum of Fourteen thousand Pounds in altering and improving the Road within the Limits and District of the Highgate Archway Company's Trust; and it was thereby enacted, that every new Piece of Road which should be made, altered, or improved under the Provisions therein contained, should be open to the Public as soon as the same should be completed, and should, for the Period of Two Years after the same should have been completed and opened to the Public, be repaired, maintained, and supported by and under the Care and Superintendence of the said Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, and after the Expiration of the said Period of Two Years every such new Piece of Road should be deemed and taken to be and should become, to all Intents and Purposes, a Part of that Road to which the old Road or Part of a Road in lieu of or for the Improvement of which such new Piece of Road should have been made did belong before the making of such new Piece of Road, and should be vested in the Trustees or Commissioners in whom such old Road or Part of a Road should have been vested, and should be maintained and repaired by them: And whereas it is desirable, in consequence of the Difficulty of rendering the Road within the Limits and District of the Highgate Archway Company's Trust, so authorized to be altered and improved as aforesaid, as perfect as it ought to be for the great Traffic that passes over the same, that the said Road, instead of being maintained and repaired for the Period of Two Years only after the Completion and opening thereof by and under the Care and Superintendence of the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, should be repaired and maintained by the said Commissioners, and under their Care and Superintendence, until they shall think proper to give up the same to the said Highgate Archway Company, or until the said Highgate Archway Company shall require the said Commissioners to make over the said Road to them under the Proviso for that Purpose hereinafter contained; Be it therefore enacted, That so much and such Part of the said recited Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty as requires the said Road thereby authorized to be altered and improved, within the Highgate Archway Company's Trust, to be made over
