Threatened Strike Causes High Tension Trouble Inevitable

England Menaced By Industrial Strike For Political Ends, Statement of Sir Robert Horne; Measures to Restrict Food Consumption.

London, Sept. 13.—(Canadian Associated Press)—The week-end has brought no relaxation in the tension due to the threatened strike of the coal miners, and though the public show no fear of a strike, no hope is apparent of avoiding the trouble.

Premier Lloyd George supports firmly the official attitude, and after a consultation with him on Saturday Sir Robert Horne, the President of the Board of Trade, issued a statement pointing out that the miners refused to submit their wage demands to a competent court and declaring that the country was menaced by an industrial strike for political ends.

Strike notices were given out on Saturday.

The Miners' Executive meets on Tuesday. Meanwhile the Food Controller intimates that in the event of a strike prompt measures will be taken to restrict food consumption.

No Intervention. Portsmouth, Eng., Sept. 13.—The Trades Union Congress concluded its sessions here Saturday without any attempt at intervention in the coal crisis. Most of the labor leaders, including the miners' delegates, left by afternoon trains and the scene of operations again will be transferred to London, where the Miners' Executive will meet early this week.

The Triple Alliance composed of miners, railwaymen and transport workers, will also be called together again. It is stated, before the miners' notice expires on September 25. Whether the Parliamentary Committee of the Trades Union Congress will make a definite move is regarded as problematical.

The restraint exercised by the Congress delegates this week and their reluctance to propose mediation are considered due to the feeling that no useful purpose would be served at present by outside interference between the miners and the Government.

On Saturday night Sir Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance, and Hon. G. D. Robertson, Minister of Labor, another member of the Commission, left for Winnipeg, where the first meeting will be held on Tuesday.

FRAUD CHARGES AGAINST GREEKS

Four at New York Charged With Defrauding Grecian Banks

New York, Sept. 12.—Four Greek merchants indicted by a federal grand jury a week ago on a charge of forging and raising bills of lading, by which banks in Greece were defrauded of $225,000, were arrested Saturday night by Department of Justice agents. One prisoner, George E. Pteriotis, president of the American Company of Commerce, Inc., of New York, was arrested on arrival from London. The others, George Brouzos, A. J. Drigas and Thomas Tzannos, were captured shortly after Pteriotis was seized on the pier.

According to officials, Pteriotis and his associates last October incorporated the American Company of Commerce, and did business until March 31, when, it is claimed, the company was transferred to three "dummy" firms. The indictment charges that irrevocable letters of credit were established through several banks in Greece with financial institutions in New York.

After the New York banks were notified through the company that credits were established, the accused men, it is charged, made actual shipments of two bags of coffee or two bags of rice, obtaining bills of lading from the Cunard Steamship Company to be shipped on the steamship "River Araxes," and with the American Mediterranean Levant line to be shipped on the steamship "Manica," consigned to various firms in Greece.

Then, it is charged, when the bills of lading were received from the steamship lines duly signed and reading two bags of coffee or rice, the accused men raised them from two bags to 2,200 double bags of fine, granulated sugar, and insured their original shipments for $4,000 in each case. They then presented their bills of lading, it is alleged, together with insurance receipts and invoices covering 2,200 bags of sugar to the several banks and collected approximately $225,000.

COAL VERY SCARCE NOW IN PORTUGAL

Portuguese Anticipate With Alarm the Coming of Winter

GREAT FALL SALE $15,000

Liabon, Sept. 12.—A coal shortage is being keenly felt in Portugal owing to the prohibition of coal exportation from England and the absence of any good coal producing districts in this country.

All coal for industries was imported chiefly from Cardiff and Newcastle, and since that has ceased and orders placed in the United States have been cancelled, the situation threatens to become serious and people are looking forward with alarm to the coming winter. Abnormal conditions exist as a result, all restaurants, cafes and places of amusement must close promptly at midnight and external illuminations are prohibited.

There is but little coal produced in Portugal, which has been entirely dependent on imported coal. For domestic purposes charcoal is chiefly used all over the country in small earthenware stoves specially made for its use. Now, however, even that has disappeared as the price of fuel rose to such an extent that the Government was obliged to enforce fixed prices. In consequence, although there is plenty of charcoal farmers are not sending it to the market, hoping to obtain ever-increasing prices for wood.

In the meantime, Portugal is suffering from utter absence of coal and people are obliged to buy wood when it is obtainable. Middle-class and poor people burn sawdust in small iron stoves expressly invented during the war for that purpose and also use impervious boxes lined with straw, that finish cooking the food, after it is removed, boiling, from the stove. Many families unable to cook at home are having their meals at the restaurant.

SPIRIT OF UNREST AFFECTS SARDINIA

People of Mediterranean Isle Would Mould Own Destiny

Rome, Sept. 12.—The spirit of unrest has penetrated since the war given to such old world and out of the way spots as the island of Sardinia. Among these picturesque peasants, many of whom cannot read or write, though they are often people of dignified manners and strong character, public opinion is diffused by word of mouth and a strong party has arisen lately whose motto is "Sardinia alone," who think that the island, which is the second largest in the Mediterranean would be more prosperous if it governed itself and had little or nothing to do with Italy.

In ancient days Sardinia was one of the great granaries of the world, supplying first Carthage and later Rome with immense quantities of grain. Now a large proportion of the island is uncultivated and about one-fifth is covered with forests, chiefly consisting of hemlock, oak and cork trees. The most valuable exports, however, are from the mines of lead, zinc, antimony, copper, silver, lignite and anthracite, which if only thoroughly developed would be a source of great riches.

The Sardinians are a splendid fighting race, and not only during the Napoleonic wars and the Middle Ages provided some of the staunchest soldiers in Europe. The Sardinians have always considered their island the Cinderella of United Italy. They say that they have been alternately neglected and taken advantage of by the central government, education has been disregarded, the malarious state of the country has been ignored, few roads or railways have been provided in order to develop its resources, while Government money has never been forthcoming for its needs.

The peasants of Sardinia declare that this is the moment when Sardinia might start on the road to regeneration and reconstruction, moral, commercial and economic, but if it is, as of old, abandoned to apathy and want of initiative ruin is certain. A deep spirit of discontent and irritation is prevalent. The Sardinians call themselves "the Irish of the Mediterranean," and a large party is being formed of those who desire to work out their own salvation and at least for a certain time to be entirely independent of the mother country, which they accuse of having treated them more like the typical stepmother. They ask to be allowed to take their destiny in their own hands.

SHORTAGE OF FREIGHT CARS IN SOUTH AFRICA

Cape Town, Sept. 12.—(By Canadian Press)—A growing demand for railway truckage is reported from every part of South Africa. The railways find this demand difficult to meet, though new freight cars constantly are being placed in service.

The South African Journal of industries estimates that in the Union's annual requirements of iron are included 77,000 tons of rails for the railways and mines; 5,000 tons of angles and channels; 21,000 tons of bar, bolt and rod iron; 8,000 tons of girders, beams and columns; as well as large quantities of plate and sheet iron, bolts, fencing standards, drill steel, steel castings and pig iron. All of this constitutes a total of 175,000 tons. South Africa possesses immense resources of iron ore and coal and the question of establishing a large iron and steel industry in the Union is being seriously considered.

OBJECT OF EXHIBITION IS TO DEMONSTRATE EMPIRE'S RESOURCES

London, Sept. 12.—(By Canadian Press.)—The Government has offered to give 100,000 pounds sterling toward the guaranty fund of the British Empire Exhibition on condition that a further sum of 500,000 pounds is secured otherwise. It is planned to hold the exhibit in London sometime in 1922, the object being to demonstrate the natural resources, the inventive and manufacturing possibilities of the Empire, and to foster a spirit of commercial and political cooperation among the dominions. While the exhibition will be privately organized, the Government has stipulated, as a further condition of its offer of financial support, that the Board of Trade shall have the right to approve the appointment of the general manager of the exhibition, to supervise the selection of the executive council, and to approve all regulations concerning the participation of the various parts of the Empire and the entry of British exhibitors. PURE MILK SUPPLY.

To the Editor.—With reference to the action brought against E. Wooster in the Oak Bay Police Court yesterday.

In case the published report had had the effect of creating an erroneous impression in the minds of the consuming public, I beg to announce that while Mr. Wooster was fined for the alleged selling of milk from cows that have not been tested, he was really only guilty of a technical offence against the law, within the meaning of the Act, for, as a matter of fact, his cows were all tested, and they carry the certificate of inspection showing them to be free from disease.

THAT VANDERBILT REPORT

To the Editor.—During Mr. Vanderbilt's visit to Vancouver he, we give certain statistics that led him to make the statement that "Prohibition has started a very dangerous disease in Canada," etc., and that "prohibition is at the root of the appalling increase in the use of narcotics." If the statistics given by Mr. Vanderbilt are correct then we are faced with the fact that since prohibition has driven these unfortunate victims to narcotic drugs to satisfy their diseased appetites, the easily obtained alcoholic liquors that they consumed previous to the enactment of the prohibition law must have been the cause of the development of the abnormal appetite. Would Mr. Vanderbilt desire the continuance of a condition that would feed the fires of this appetite for narcotics? Do the children of our Province desire their children to be exposed to such influences? We can but say "No!" and the answer is the answer to another question: Do we want to make alcoholics more easily obtainable? And to this we must also say "No!"

But the figures given by Mr. Vanderbilt are far from the truth, and wholly misleading. These figures given were challenged by Moses Coatsworth, and the following facts: The statistics given for 1920 are not for this year, but are for 1918 and 1919. And the number of drug addicts is a very small percentage whatever to what he tried to represent, but was the number of analyses made by the Department of Health for the year 1919. We have seen these figures and can vouch for the accuracy of Mr. Coatsworth's statement when he says that Mr. Vanderbilt's report is a worthless jumble and his conclusions wholly erroneous.

Let me ask if the use of alcohol created an appetite for narcotics as the opponents of prohibition are so fond of telling us, is it not an argument of no little force against the use of alcohol? It is but another voice calling to us from the diseased, alcoholized victims to remove this curse from our land, another reason why we should endeavor to do away with the cause of this dope curse, and then with the cause removed deal with these unfortunates in properly equipped hospitals. They deserve our sympathy and our assistance. Society has produced these unfortunates—for a consideration—and society should now make an effort to restore them.

In conclusion, let me state what Dr. George H. Simmons, the Editor of the most influential medical journal in America, says regarding the association of prohibition and drug addiction. "It is possible that in this transition period a few people get off from the use of alcohol have resorted to drugs as a substitute, but if this is true, it is simply a temporary matter and due to the transition from the free use of alcohol to prohibition, and the number of these cases is very small compared to the number that was made drug addicts by the free use of alcohol in the past." Let us hear no more of prohibition being the cause of drug addiction. ERNEST A. HALL.

AGAINST PROHIBITION

To the Editor.—While waiting for Dr. Ernest Hall's next letter dealing with the errors and misconceptions of the Vanderbilt report, may I through your columns, deal with the errors and misconceptions from which Dr. Hall drew his conclusions in his letter which appeared in your columns of the 9th inst.

I have a high respect for Dr. Hall's surgical skill and it is with regret that I shall adopt his principles of writing without bias or partiality, my object being only to place the situation on the prohibition question clearly before the voters.

With the desire to develop a healthy, sturdy and intelligent people in Canada every anti-prohibitionist is in agreement; it is with the methods which are sought to be employed by prohibitionists that we are in disagreement.

Race Deterioration and National Decline

The impression left by Dr. Hall's article is that there is already a marked race deterioration and national decline which is traceable to drink, and that it is so serious that drastic measures have to be taken. It is a question of the maintenance of the proof of the pudding is in the eating thereof. The boys who went to the front from all parts of the world, whether with or without the British Empire have not shown that deterioration. The only real deterioration shown by the nation has been a number of men who stayed behind under the excuse of "conscientious objectors," many of whom flocked to join some society of a more or less so-called religious character in order to escape enlistment. Alcoholic beverages have been drunk since the beginning of history, by every race on earth, and no nation has failed as a result of moderate indulgence in alcoholic drinks. Let Dr. Hall bring his proofs, if any. On the contrary, the rise of British power is traced as beginning in the Elizabethan period and from that time right down to the early Victorian period (the period of greatest progress in science and in everything else), which is also the period of hard drinking. The British race has shown its vitality notwithstanding the consumption of alcoholic beverages. Japan has risen to power during the last fifty years, and she is a hard-drinking nation.

"What We Have We Will Hold"

Prohibition came in by a trick when the nation was worked up to win the war, and the principal argument advanced was that it would save wheat for the boys at the front. It was also claimed that it would increase the output of all products for war use, with a distinct promise that it was only for the duration of the war. Now the prohibitionists say "what we have we will hold." Comment is unnecessary.

Alberta and Saskatchewan

These Provinces are peopled largely by immigrants who came from across the border, and also by Germans and other aliens. The latter came to escape oppression, and having no liberty in their country they do not know what is meant by the term. As regards the American element, many of them are also originally from countries in Europe where liberty as we understand it is unknown. Not having been born in liberty, and not quite understanding what is meant by it, they may be willing to submit, but British Columbia claims to be a constitutional monarchy, and she seeks to impose on her people a condition which is alien to the fundamental principles of British constitutional government—the liberty of the subject.

In conclusion, I would call the attention of the voters to the most important point to remember and consider when voting. Does Dr. Hall know just what is the percentage of habitual drunkards to the whole population? If he does, let it be published. It surely cannot be Dr. Hall's idea that the greatest part of the people are on the road to decline. What is sought by humanitarians is to help the habitual drunkards, and to prevent the young from becoming such. This is the true interest of the population, and surely some other means can be found in a more direct way to assist them, without interfering with the liberty of the subject.

Moderation is the keynote of life. If the prohibitionists are more moderate in their demands they will attain greater success for the objects in view. All extremes are injurious. Study in moderation is good for one, but over-study sends men to the lunatic asylum. Meat and bread in moderate quantities are necessary to sustain life, but over-eating of either or both is injurious. Married life in itself is a study of compromises. If one member succeeds in imposing his or her will upon the other, the other becomes just a rubber stamp, without an opinion or the ability to decide for himself or herself what is left alone. Is this conducive to the building up of an healthy, sturdy and intelligent race? And yet that is what the prohibitionists seek.

A New Blood Food Called Ferrrozone Sure to Restore You Quickly

Every day comes the good news of wonderful cures with Ferrrozone.

In Peterborough it worked marvels for Louis Meehan—put him right on his feet—made him entirely well. "About three years ago," says Mr. Meehan, "I had the Grippe, which left me in a very run-down condition that finally developed into Dyspepsia. I was unable to eat but a few things and had a craving for acid. I gave up treating with the doctor because they did not help me and on the advice of a friend used Ferrrozone. It not only cured me of Dyspepsia and Billiousness, but has built up my strength to what it was before I had the Grippe. I can recommend Ferrrozone as an ideal restorative.

Ferrrozone gives you force, energy and vim. It strengthens the stomach, cures indigestion, prevents headaches—guarantees good health.

Thousands use Ferrrozone—they all feel better; try it yourself—sold in 50c boxes, six for $2.50, at all dealers or direct from The Catarrozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

AUSTRALIAN RAILWAYS.

Melbourne, Sept. 12.—(By Canadian Press.)—An offer to build a transcontinental railway in Central Australia linking Oodnadatta in South Australia, with Pine Creek, in the Northern Territory, has been made by an Australian capitalist and his partner. The railway, 1,900 miles in length, would complete the connection between Adelaide on the South Coast and Port Darwin on the North Coast. The work would be carried out in three years at a cost of 5,000,000 pounds, and would open up immense areas of land suitable for grazing and cattle raising.

BECOMING.

"Skirts are becoming shorter all the time," remarked Hazel Knutt, casually. "Yes," replied Old Man Doodle gallantly, "and the shorter, the more becoming."

SENATOR LODGE MAKES ATTACK ON PRESIDENT

Nahant, Mass., Sept. 12.—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, in an address Saturday, attacked what he said was the effort of President Wilson to make of the United States a one-man government. The President's conception of Government, he said, is that of the Third Napoleon. He charged that the President had established "such a reign of terror over many representatives and senators of his own party" that the legislative powers of the constitution granted to Congress alone were impaired and distorted.

Senator Lodge said President Wilson's autocratic administration attacked every development of the Government. The Navy and War Departments, he said, were marked by "a favoritism in appointment on the one hand and on the other a vindictive spirit toward officers and alike by the Secretaries."

A Word to Property Owners

WE see many houses—once attractive—which we would not care to occupy because of their condition. Could not most of the deterioration, inside and outside, have been averted by surface protection? Unquestionably it could. Owners of property should constantly remember that disintegration, decay, rust, corrosion, wear and tear—all begin at the surface. Surface protection, therefore, is complete protection.

As a matter of keeping up the value of your property—save the surface. Lack of proper surface protection causes more property loss than even fire itself. Surface protection inside and out means a saving in dollars to you. It is the best and cheapest way to insure your investments in buildings and equipment. Paint and Varnish will Save the Surface and so Save all.

Paint this Fall
Because
—of proper weather conditions.
—surfaces are now in their most receptive condition, practically every trace of moisture having been eliminated by the summer sun.
—the wood being dry it absorbs more readily and the paint holds better.
—a surface needing protection should never be allowed to go over the winter without it.
—property needs more protection during winter than at any other time.
"Save the surface and you save all."

THIS ANNOUNCEMENT is issued by the Canadian Save the Surface Campaign Committee, for the purpose of educating the public in the Preservation and Protection of Paint, Varnish and Allied Products for the Conservation of Property, and has received the approval of the Canadian Trade Commission in the following words:
"The realization of the above objects will lead to employment during the Reconstruction period and bears our entire approval."

FOR TRANS-PACIFIC BUSINESS.

Unusual interest lies in the announcement, printed in The Times on Saturday, that an arrangement had been concluded between the Canadian Government and the Canadian National Railways and Messrs. A. Holt and Company, of Liverpool, under which a joint steamship service is to be established between this coast and the Orient, each interest contributing the same number of vessels to the service.

From this it is evident that the Canadian National transcontinental railway system is to have important trans-Pacific connections. It reflects also a growing realization in eastern Canada of the tremendous importance to the Dominion of the development of trade with the Orient, the prospects of which for years have been regarded with little more than languid concern east of the Rockies. It always has been easy enough to interest eastern Canada in trade relations with the West Indies or Brazil, while the enormous possibilities of the Pacific were being exploited by Canada's trade rivals. The Canadian Pacific Railway alone was able to envisage the future of the Pacific and if it had not been for the foresight, initiative and enterprise of that great system Canada would have been little more than a geographical expression on the Pacific as far as Canadian interests were concerned.

The development of the new trans-Pacific steamship service will mean the utilization of the Government ocean docks at the Victoria and therefore the extension of our port facilities and our shipping activities. It should involve, too, a direct connection of some kind with the terminals of the Canadian National Railways on the former reserve, which thus would become an important factor in the economic life of this community.

OFF FOR MONTREAL.

Since the mountain, in the person of the C. P. R., will not come to Mahomet, in the person of the city, Mahomet is going to the mountain. City Engineer Preston leaves this week for Montreal to review the Johnson Street bridge plans with the railway engineering chiefs. It is anticipated that a satisfactory agreement will be reached on the points of discussion and no difficulty is expected in connection with the expedition to the Railway Commission. If these expectations be realized it should be possible to invite tenders for the construction of the bridge early next month and to award the contract by the beginning of November. In any case, construction should be commenced by the beginning of December. If work on the drydock be started by that time the two projects will provide employment during the winter months for a considerable number of men who are badly in need of it.

IS IT WORTH WHILE?

On the principle that every little bit helps the Council has put into force its ordinance imposing a tax on store signs and pumps. The original law provided for a charge on awnings, balconies and other overhead fixtures, but these were dropped from the fatal catalogue in the passage of the measure through the Council, and only the luckless sign and pump remain to bear the burden. The revenue to be derived from this source is estimated at $1,743. This is not a very large sum. Indeed, if the collection of the amount involved the appointment of a real live, extra man, there would be very little of it, if any, left for the city after his pay-day. We assume, however, that no additional assistance will be required at the City Hall in connection with the collection of this tax. In fact, if the merchants who protested against the impost made good their threat to remove their signs, particularly the illuminated devices, the revenue to be derived from this ordinance will be very much less than $1,743, while the city would suffer a great deal from the unfavorable impression the absence of these signs would make upon visitors. The sum of $1,743 reposing in the civic treasury is not enough compensation for being dubbed a cemetery or a corpse, and we might find it necessary to spend much more than that amount on repairs to our damaged reputation as a city.

USEFUL INNOVATION.

An arrangement entered into between the educational authorities of British Columbia, and New Zealand for the exchange of school teachers comes into effect with the arrival of a teacher from the southern Dominion, and the departure of one from the Terminal City to take the vacant post across the Pacific. The principle of an exchange of teachers is an excellent one, in both an educational and a patriotic sense. Travel and an interchange of view between those who direct the studies of the younger generation within the Empire must broaden the mind of the teacher, and give the student an opportunity to become acquainted with the customs and conditions which obtain in other lands in a manner such as is impossible to convey by the use of the ordinary text book.

BRAIN VERSUS HEART.

In a recent interview with Mr. Robert Williams, the general secretary of the British Transport Workers' Federation, The Paris Journal quotes the well-known Labor Leader as declaring that only by revolution will the British workman be able to improve his condition and obtain justice. Mr. Williams is careful to observe, however, that this belief is exclusively the dictum of his brain. He declares that his heart always would restrain him and control the brain because of the fearful suffering which a revolution would impose upon everybody. This is not a new role for the official who directs the destiny of the transport workers. During the strike of the railwaymen last September Mr. Williams did his level best to prevent the disaffection from spreading to his own membership. His refusal to support direct action, unless an "intolerable situation should arise," resulted in his forming one of the conciliatory committees which eventually brought the Government and the striking railwaymen into a harmonious frame of mind.

REGULATION NECESSARY.

Scarcely a day passes on which the sustained clanging of a street car bell on Fort Street, between Douglas and Government Streets, does not signify to all and sundry that an automobile has been parked too near the tracks to permit of further movement by the larger vehicle. In some cases the owner of the automobile is near at hand and promptly responds to the call of the motor man. But more often than not it is necessary for passers-by and street railwaymen to pool their efforts to change the position of the offending automobile. If the driver takes due precaution before bringing his car to a standstill no difficulty arises; but so many forget that unless the automobile is drawn close to the curb it is impossible for the street car to pass. This is particularly true on Fort Street, between Douglas and Government, and all that is required to prevent loss of time on the part of the street car and inconvenience to the automobile owner is the issue of some corrective regulation by the City Council.

NOTE AND COMMENT

According to a dispatch from Washington there is every likelihood that the former German liner Vaterland may never again sail on the high seas. Its sale by the United States Shipping Board was blocked by an injunction issued by William Randolph Hearst last January, and it is now declared that eight million dollars would be required to make the vessel ready for service. Possibly Mr. Hearst would like to salvage the Lusitania and present her to the German Government as a tribute to Teuton marksmanship. The former Vaterland will be in almost as bad a condition unless something is done quickly.

As his reason for omitting the National Anthem from his concert programme at Adelaide the other day Mr. John McCormack, the noted tenor, says he had understood the Anthem was usually sung only when the Governor was present. This is rather a thin explanation from one who should know the usages of the concert platform throughout the empire. It also demonstrated to the singer that an Australian audience has a very definite opinion about all those who are believed to support Sinn Fain sentiment.

Three weeks ago The London Daily Herald, through its presiding genius, Mr. George Lansbury, said that the charge of Bolshevik financial aid to his paper rested "on the word of the British Government, which is a notorious liar." On his own confession John Bull may now say to George, "You're another."

WHERE IT STARTED

"RED TAPE." (Copyright, 1920, By The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.) The expression "Red Tape," meaning obstruction and circumlocution, comes from the red tape which used to bind official documents, those harbingers of complication and discord. The earliest use of the term as an expression of satire is credited to St. Gilbert Elliot, in a letter dated August 31, 1775.

WHY IS THE "AMERICAN BEAUTY" ROSE SO CALLED?

In the garden of Bancroft, the horticulturist, were planted several varieties of roses which had been recently imported from France. One of these, much admired by a florist named George Field, who happened to be looking over the place in company with Bancroft's gardener, had no label or name, his designation having been lost during the trip from abroad. Field requested a cutting of the beautiful flower, and after working quietly for several years, and his brother raised a large stock of the roses, and advertised their novelty as the "American Beauty," a name which they considered best suited to this new and exquisite variety. The fields are said to have made a small fortune out of the transaction, and the "American Beauty" has since become the most famous of all roses in the United States. Only experts can grow it to perfection; there is a recognized type of greenhouse especially adapted to its needs, it always brings the highest prices and in the market reports it is quoted in a class by itself.

IN THE DAY'S NEWS

Premier Giolitti, who faces the most difficult task of his public career in dealing with the present social and industrial unrest in Italy, has long been regarded as one of the strongest statesmen in that country. For ten years he has been the dominant figure in Italian politics. He was practically ruled as dictator in Italy. His influence was exerted in favor of an anti-war policy, and with the declaration of war and an accession of unpopularity, he went into retirement. Immediately peace was restored, however, he returned to Rome and once again called upon to take the helm once more. Since Giolitti has been prominent in public affairs in Italy for more than thirty years and has a large following of personal adherents. He first entered the cabinet in 1889 and has several times held the premiership.

WANT TO OBJECT TO ALLIANCE'S DESIRES

Local Body Will Interview Government If Action Contemplated

Premier Oliver has received a communication from the Liberty League asking for the privilege of an interview with the Government in order that its officials may be permitted to take definite exception to the recent report made to the Leader of the Opposition by the Hon. Mr. H. Huestis, of the Lords Day Alliance, that Sunday shooting in this Province be prohibited. In his reply to the officials of the League Mr. Oliver intimated that Mr. Huestis has promised to put his desires in writing, and that if the Government contemplated taking any action upon the issue involved as a result of its receipt in detailed form an opportunity would be given to the Liberty League to be heard. And to an inquiry as to whether such an interview might be of a public nature, Mr. Oliver replied that he had no objection to making it so. It is understood that local objection to outside interference in the question of Sunday shooting by a resident of another Province has crystallized into action by the Liberty League.

INTERNATIONAL QUESTIONS DISCUSSED BY PREMIERS

Close Entente. Aix les Bains, France, Sept. 12.—Premier Millerand of France, and Premier Giolitti of Italy resumed their conferences over international questions, begun yesterday. When the Premier met to-day, Count Bonin-Langare, the Italian Ambassador to France, and Camille Barrere, the French Ambassador to Italy, were present. Premiers Millerand and Giolitti at the conclusion of the morning session sent a telegram to Premier Lloyd George, saying that they "recognize the full extent of their general views and the primordial necessity of the close entente of Great Britain, Italy and France in order to insure a settlement of European problems and the re-establishment of peace and formal relations between the peoples."

GOVT. DECLINES TO GRANT STAY OF ORDER; RATES IN EFFECT TO-DAY

In 1903, Parliament decided that the control of railways was to be removed from direct departmental and political interference and transferred to the Board of Railway Commissioners. The Board was subsequently constituted and has since discharged its duties as a judicial functions assigned to it in a manner undoubtedly, on the whole, in the public interest and to the general acceptance of the people. It has not been interfered with by any other Government, instead of being a mere governmental department, the Board is by statute constituted a court and has the rights, privileges and independence of a court.

St. John, N. He shot himself at the Salvation Army workmen's quarters. The man in a letter he left said he emigrated from England and went to New Waterford, Cape Breton, to work in a coal mine but that he was unable to get ahead in a financial way because of the many charges he was called upon to pay. ODDFELLOWS MAKE GOOD PROGRESS IN ANTIPODES

Judge Borst, of New York Supreme Court, Returns From Official Tour

The Independent Order of Oddfellows is making substantial progress in Australia and New Zealand," said Henry V. Borst, Judge of the Fourth District, Supreme Court of New York, who arrived on the Niagara yesterday morning. His home is at Amsterdam, N. Y.

Mr. Justice Borst, after completing an extensive tour on behalf of the Oddfellows, of which he is Grand Sire, which took him through the Northwestern States down to California, left San Francisco last May, and has been touring New Zealand and Australia since that time.

"The membership of the I. O. O. F. in Australia is now about 50,000, and round about 8,000 in New Zealand and is growing rapidly. In addition to speaking at a number of points to fraternal organizations I addressed all classes of citizens. I am grateful for the admirable and enthusiastic audiences, and for the cordial way in which I was received." Judge Borst stated to The Times representative.

The drought caused a great loss of stock in the Eastern States of Australia, between 5,000,000 and 6,000,000 sheep, and a large number of cattle dying in the cities industrial unrest continues, but not more so than in other parts of the world.

"Throughout my tour I endeavored to preach the desirability of better relations between the Anglo-Saxon peoples, and a close intercourse between the United States and Australia. The Australians are greatly interested in what we are doing in the United States, and in our international relationships," stated the Judge.

Mr. Justice Borst said that if he was a young man, and had to make a start in the world again, he would recommend Auckland as the most promising city in Oceania, and one where more development might be expected to take place than in any other part of the world.

The Justice stated that he hoped to visit British Columbia while in office. He had spoken in the Western Provinces, but had not yet visited here. He proceeded to Seattle.

TO ISSUE WORK ON INDIAN BASKETRY

J. A. Teit Outlines Recent Ethnological Work For Authorities

A volume on basketry among the Indian tribes of the Interior will shortly be published through Dr. F. E. Evans, the well-known authority on the Indians of the Pacific Northwest. Dr. Evans, who is professor of anthropology at Columbia University, will use the material assembled by J. A. Teit, the well-known ethnologist, who is now at the Dominion Hotel.

Mr. Teit told The Times on Saturday that the volume had been delayed by him for some time, but owing to the desire to issue a thoroughly representative edition, its publication has so far been delayed.

Three papers upon which Mr. Teit is now working deal respectively with place names in the interior, with the ethno-botany of the North Thompson district, and with the Cassiar district Indians. Two are for American authorities, and one for the anthropological department of the Canadian Geological Survey, which has already issued a considerable amount of Mr. Teit's work.

The latter department is giving special attention to the Bella Coola Indians, an offshoot of the southern Indians who became isolated from their compatriots in early years. Mr. Harlan Smith has been working this summer in the district, and Dr. Sapir, of the department, will arrive on the Coast in November to conduct investigations.

ESQUIMALT HEALTH CENTRE MEETING

Col. E. C. Hart presided at the annual meeting of the Esquimalt Health Centre, held at Colwood Hall on Friday evening, when addresses were given by Mrs. Harold Fleming, chairman of the Victoria Red Cross Society, R. H. Pooley, M. F. P., and Dr. H. E. Young, secretary of the Provincial Board of Health. The Health Centre has been filling a long-felt need in the districts of Parson's Bridge, Goldstream, Sooke and Colwood, with the assistance of a grant of $25 per month from the Red Cross, which grant expires in December.

Mrs. Fleming addressed the meeting on the future "peace policy" of the Red Cross; Mr. Pooley dwelt at some length on the value of rural health centres to the communities served, and made some complimentary references to the work of Mrs. Fleming in connection with the Red Cross; Dr. Young gave a splendid address on health work in general and preventive medicine.

Before the meeting concluded two representatives from each of the districts included in the Esquimalt Rural Health Centre, Metochin, Happy Valley, Luxton, Colwood, etc., were elected to carry on the work and do what they could to stimulate interest among the residents.

FALL PROGRAMME AT THE Y. W. C. A.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Y.W.C.A. held last week, plans were discussed for the Fall activities at the institution. As the stock of linen is very low and sadly needs replenishment, a linen shower will be held at the Y in the Stobart-Pease Building on September 24, from three to six o'clock, when tea will be served and a social time arranged.

Arrangements are also in course of preparation for a series of evening classes to be held during the Fall and Winter months. The classes so far decided upon will include choral work, dramatic and elocution, French literature, dressmaking and others. A prospectus giving full details of the programme is now in the hands of the printer and will be ready for issuance in about two weeks.

LO.O.E. OVERSEAS POST-GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS

Provincial Chapter Issues Particulars of Endowments For Overseas Universities

Full details of the overseas post-graduate scholarships to be given by the I.O.D.E. under their War Memorial Educational Scheme have been issued by the Provincial Chapter in pamphlet form as follows: Overseas Post Graduate Scholarships. Nine post graduate scholarships, one in each province, will be offered annually as soon as the full amount required for the endowment fund is subscribed, to enable students to carry on studies at any university in the United Kingdom, in British and Imperial History, the Economics and Government of the Empire and Dominion, or any subject vital to the interest of the Empire. In 1920 four scholarships will be offered; in 1921 the nine provinces in two years instead of one.

A committee of selection will be appointed in each province consisting of the three representatives of that province on the national war memorial committee, and two or more educational representatives to be chosen by the I.O.D.E. members of the committee.

The selection of a candidate will take place in each province of the Dominion during the month of November. The candidate selected must be prepared to begin his or her course in Great Britain in the following Autumn.

In 1920, after the selection of a candidate by each of the nine provincial committees, the names will be forwarded, with a summary of their records and then voted upon by the different provincial committees. The four candidates receiving the highest number of votes will be awarded the scholarships in 1920, and in 1921 five scholarships will be awarded to candidates. A candidate who was not awarded a scholarship in 1920 is not debarred from applying in 1921.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Facts About Your Name: Its History, Its Meaning, Whence It Was Derived, Its Significance, Your Lucky Day and Lucky Year.
By Mildred Marshall.
(Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)
HILDA

Of splendid old-Norse lineage is Hilda, the chief of the Valkyrs was Hilda and the names of Hilda and Hilda were given to other war maidens. Hilda is said to signify "battle" by a literal translation, which probably means "war-like spirit" under a broader interpretation.

The Teutonic word claims the name and it is one of their principal war maidens. The real origin seems to result in the name, but it generally conceded that Hilda and peace are not synonymous.

For Hilda was one of the commonest terminations to feminine names in the Teutonic world and it is said to have been used interchangeably. It was much used in the North of England and in the West of Ireland. Hilda, became the holy abbess, Hilda of Whitby, succeeding St. Begga and leaving a reputation for sanctity.

Though Clara de Clara could not see it, a vision of the holy abbess can be seen under certain conditions of light in the Whitby chapel to-day; the amonites which are believed to have been burned to stone at the prayer of the abbess are also there. Around Whitby, Hilda is still the most popular of feminine names. In honor of the mother of Rolf Gangar was the Norwegian Hilda. Indeed, the name has confined itself largely to the peoples of the North. It suggests the splendid strength of the land of the midnight sun; the haunting melancholy of the Gothic races. It is one of the few names without diminutives or derivatives.

Coral is the jewel assigned to those who bear the name of Hilda, if they would have health and prosperity. The deep pink stone, has therapeutic qualities, and the wearer is supposed to pale or grow more vivid, accordingly as his or her is possessed by weakness or good health. It is also used to stop the flow of blood from wounds. Safety for travelers is the promise of coral. Tuesday is the lucky day for its wearer and 3 the lucky number.

This year's shortage of flies is said to be due partly to motor garages replacing stables with their dangerous manure heaps.

Gas fires of central heating in our homes would result in a great economy of building, since practically no chimneys would be required.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTES AND HEALTH WORK

Conference at Creston Passed Important Resolution; Growth of Institutes

Mrs. V. S. MacLachlan, secretary of the Women's Institutes of B.C., has returned to the city after attending the annual conference of the Women's Institutes of the Kootenay and Boundary district, held at Creston on September 1 and 2. Dr. Waincock, Deputy Minister of Agriculture and Superintendent of the Institutes, also attended the conference, while one of the finest addresses on the agenda was that given by Mrs. John Keen, M.P., of Kaslo, who spoke of "Laws of Inheritance as They Affect Women in B.C."

Public health nursing, child welfare and other health matters were among the most important subjects considered and the following important resolutions were unanimously passed following a paper by Dr. Isabel Arthur:

"Whereas there exists a necessity for adequate protection against tuberculosis in Province of B.C. Therefore be it resolved that these Women's Institutes in convention assembled this first day of September urge upon its branches the establishing of health centres and engaging of properly qualified health nurses for the purpose of health inspection."

TO BE ORGANIZED Colonel Peck Outlines Plans to Create New Regiment Here

"The reorganization of the famous 16th Battalion as the First Battalion Canadian Scottish has been somewhat delayed over the matter of a permanent adjutant and non-commissioned officers," says Lt.-Col. Cyrus W. Peck, C. D. R. O., M. P., the officer commanding, in a statement issued to The Times to-day.

"Last year it was decided that each militia battalion should have a permanent adjutant, a permanent regimental sergeant-major and orderly room clerk. These were paid officers who were a skeleton staff for organization and training and upon them would largely depend the efficiency of the unit. It was to my mind the most forward step that could be taken to re-establish the militia on a successful basis. However, the apathy of the country just now on militia matters is such that the Militia Department despaired of providing the necessary funds and the above named establishment has been demobilized. It is still hoped, though, that something may be done towards having some permanent officials, so that the whole scheme of maintaining a regimental staff will not be thrown upon the patriotism of the officers and supporters of the regiment."

Strong Volunteer System. "Personally I do not believe in conscription in times of peace, and the only other alternative is a strong voluntary system, certainly not the militia system we had before the war," Col. Peck observed.

"Each regiment in the war is naturally very proud of its achievements, and we of the Sixteenth were no exception in that respect. The regiment at all times had an intense esprit-de-corps and all its members were passionately and unselfishly devoted to the good names of the battalion and its exploits on the famous battle fields of Europe. We therefore think it was a proud and fortunate day for Victoria when the Military Commission which was last Fall decided that the 16th would be perpetuated in Victoria as the First Battalion Canadian Scottish."

"There should be a very fine opening in Victoria for this battalion, as it is the only infantry militia regiment here. There is a splendid drill hall and if all co-operated there is no reason it should not be one of Canada's crack battalions and one which will always be a source of pride to the capital."

Major Martyr. "We are fortunate in securing for second in command Major Donald Martyr, D.S.O., M.C. and Bar, Croix de Guerre, who enlisted in the 10th Regiment and served in the front with the 47th and 44th Battalions, becoming second in command of the latter. He is commissioner of industries with the Provincial Government. It is hoped that all the officers of the old Victoria regiments will associate with the new regiment."

While there is not room for all to be officers on the active strength, all who wish can be on the reserve and enjoy the privilege of wearing the uniform. There will be vacancies for a number of overseas N.C.O.s, whose experience and knowledge will be of great value in the regiment.

Support Wanted. "The organization of a Highland regiment is a costly affair and we hope no doubt sufficient support will be forthcoming from the good people of Victoria," said Col. Peck.

"It is also hoped to have a body of cadets allied to the regiment. I am a very firm believer in the benefit of military training, quite aside from military objects, especially in boys and young men. It habituates the mind to obedience, teaches self-control, instils punctuality, cleanliness and good living habits in the minds of the young, and inspires them to loyalty and devotion to a cause."

"We expect to have an elaborate organization of everything that will be done to build up those who join in physical, moral and mental strength."

"I never knew a young man who was not a better man because of having good and rational military training. So the success of the new regiment will altogether depend upon the co-operation of the old officers and the support of the people of Victoria."

SMOKE ASPHYXIA THREATENS MAYOR

Soot Deluges His Office and Drives Him Out During High Wind

Unless something is done to remedy the present heating system of the City Hall, Victoria's chief executive may be asphyxiated at his desk some day. To-day Mayor Porter's office was deluged with smoke which poured in from upstairs offices, while clouds of soot descended from the chimney of his fireplace, carpeted the floor in blackness, smudged various city documents and letters lying on his Worship's desk and finally drove his Worship out of his office altogether.

NO CRITICISM OF ADMINISTRATION

So States Hon. T. D. Pattullo On Return From Tour in North

After an absence of three weeks in the Northern and Central sections of the Province in company with the Premier, Mr. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, returned to his office at the Parliament Buildings this morning.

In discussing his tour Mr. Pattullo expressed himself as gratified with the progress made by the various localities visited. The increasing number of settlers making their homes in what promises to be British Columbia's greatest agricultural community was particularly pleasing to the Minister who has lost no occasion on which he could attract attention to the possibilities of that section of the Province whose promise he understands so well.

"One hears no criticism of our policies," said Mr. Pattullo. "Last year the chief complaint of the Opposition members of the Legislature was that the Minister of Lands had a private washbasin. This year there are too many motor cars, although the fact is overlooked that three times the work is being done for less money than under the antiquated methods which were in vogue during the life of the old regime."

"The people who much appreciated the Premier's enunciation of the Government's policies," continued the Minister, "realize that the present administration has been trying to do three things. In the first place they appreciate the fact that we have had to put our financial houses in order, in the second place they know it has been our aim to make conditions as favorable as possible for the development of our natural resources, thirdly, our efforts to protect the home life and social condition of our people are valued at a high estimate."

WEALTHY DOCTOR PROVIDED IN WILL FOR NURSE-FRIEND

But Two Wills Conflicted; Court Orders His Intention Carried Out

Dr. Walter Balls-Headley, wealthy retired physician, who died on his Mira Michi estate at Procter, in the Kootenay district, in March, 1918, had property in Australia as well as in Canada and in London.

In 1917 he made a will disposing of his property in B. C. The Equity Trust Co. of Melbourne, his representatives there, suggested that he had better make a separate will for his Australian estate. He did this, but in doing so revoked his former will, so that he died practically intestate as regards his Canadian property.

Left Mira Michi Estate. In his will Dr. Balls-Headley left his house at Mira Michi to Miss Mary Murdoch, a trained nurse who was a friend, and with it he left her $1500 a year, derived chiefly from Indian investments.

To-day E. C. Mayers, representing Miss Murdoch; Lindley Crease, K. E. representing the Royal Trust Co., executors, and H. A. Maclean, K. C., appeared before Mr. Justice Gregory in the Supreme Court in an action to have the two wills read together and taken as supplementary.

It was explained to the court that the doctor had no relatives closer than first cousins. Their names are: Miss Murdoch; Lindley Crease; Ethel Tress, Rebecca Robbins, Caroline Grain, Constance Field, Annie Grain, Edward Herbert Grain. It was said that Mr. Maclean represented.

Gave Deathbed Promise. "The whole thing arises out of the difficulties of the testator having made his own will," said Mr. Crease. "Miss Murdoch is a professional nurse and was in the doctor's household before he died. Mrs. Balls-Headley, the doctor's wife, on her deathbed extracted a promise from Miss Murdoch that she would never leave Dr. Balls-Headley until the end of his days."

Mr. Crease explained that they had lived in other parts of the world and then came to British Columbia, which they found attractive, and decided to settle here. He said that it was the intention of the doctor to leave his Mira Michi property to her after his death he did in his Canadian will.

Mr. Maclean declared that all parties were absolutely satisfied with the arrangement proposed. The judge granted probate along those lines.

Mrs. Taylor is the convener of the musical programme in connection with the affair. The Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick has consented to open the function. An Early Photograph.—Considerable interest is being taken in a photograph now on exhibition in the window of Kent's Edison Store. The picture was made in 1837 by Alexander Swan of Hamilton, Scotland, and is built on similar lines to the first photograph invented by Thomas A. Edison and exhibited in the year 1837. The impression of sound was taken on sheets of tin foil, and these were afterwards faintly reproduced, a separate machine for ironing out the tin foil being also part of the exhibit. Compared with the present-day Edison photograph it is, of course, very crude, but shows what was being accomplished in the way of invention nearly forty years ago. Tail Light Troubles.—In the Saanich Police Court Magistrate Jay heard a number of cases of drivers driving automobiles without proper lights. G. H. E. Green had no tail light on his car while same was parked at the George on London. Day and paid a fine of $5; the Island Auto Livery paid $10 for lack of a light on one of their cars while in operation on the same street. The defendant paid two fines of $10 each for having driven two cars with defective lights.

SAT IN IGNORANCE ON WHISKY CASES. Men Charged Claim They Were Unaware of Nature of Liquor Shipment. Twelve cases of liquor, some bottles of whisky and a jug of rum appeared as evidence in the Saanich Police Court this morning, when Magistrate Jay heard the evidence supporting the charge of the Saanich police that E. C. Preston, G. B. Martin and Henry Holt were in possession of liquor in other than a private dwelling house. It developed that last Tuesday the Saanich police charged themselves at Telegraph Bay shortly after midday and waited through the whole afternoon in expectation. At six o'clock a motor truck arrived at high water, bringing a load of whisky cases, which were in course of transfer by dory to a seagoing launch, when the police intervened. Examination of the cases showed them to have been addressed to A. Bright, 724 Moss Street, and inquiry showed that there is an house in that block and such a name is unknown. Owing to lack of the warrant required by the Prohibition Act, it had been impossible for the Saanich police to arrest either the two men from the launch or the persons bringing the liquor to the beach, the appearance of the latter in court being consequent to summonses served later in the week. The Chief Magistrate stated that the two Americans from the launch had given the names of Charles and George Benson, while Preston stated in the witness box that one of them had been known to him as Bright and was the man claiming ownership of the liquor, he having given him orders to take the liquor to the waterside cove. Magistrate Jay was told that Martin was on the trip as a sort of joy-ride after work was done, that Holt was the owner of the truck used, having been paid $5 of the $11 received by Preston for the trip. While Preston admitted knowing the nature of the cargo, both the other men averred the fullest ignorance of what was being conveyed, the cases being covered by tarpaulin and closed. Magistrate Jay reserved judgment until Wednesday.

LABOR CONVENTION. Hon. Arthur Meighen Outlines Government Attitude on Labor Questions. Windsor, Ont., Sept. 13.—(Canadian Press)—Most of the delegates representing trades and labor organizations from every important center in Canada were on hand this morning when the 36th annual convention of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada opened in the Armories, with Tom Moore, the President, in the chair. Routine business took up the early hours of to-day's session, but one of the chief events of the convention will be stated this afternoon when Hon. Arthur Meighen, Premier of Canada, is scheduled to deliver an address in which he is expected to state the attitude of the Government on certain questions in which organized labor is interested. The Premier is to arrive in the city at 2 o'clock and is expected to reach the convention hall and start speaking at 2.45. Included in the 85 resolutions to be submitted to the convention which have been forwarded by various trades and labor organizations are a number likely to precipitate heated controversy. These resolutions refer to practically every topic of public interest, ranging from the Irish question to profiteering, from the little affair between Soviet Russia and Poland to the amendment of the Lord's Day Act.

POSTPONE PEAGE ARCH. Proposed Opening Ceremonies at Blaine Clash With Prohibition Pleas. Because the people of British Columbia will be busy on October 20, the opening ceremonies of the Peace Arch over the international highway at Blaine, are postponed. Samuel Hill, who is one of the chiefs for the State of Washington in the construction of the arch, has drawn the attention of Premier Oliver to the clash in dates as it was proposed to open the arch on October 20. Because the season is late, it is likely that the ceremony will be put off until next year. The arch is to celebrate one hundred years of peace between Canada and the United States.

CITY COUNCIL IS BLAMED FOR FIRE. Investigating Officer Makes Report on Coquitlam Blaze. Vancouver, Sept. 13.—Responsibility for the disastrous fire which wiped out the greater portion of the business district of Port Coquitlam some weeks ago, is placed on the City Council, for this and the preceding six years, by Fire Investigating Officer J. A. Thomas, who held an investigation into the causes of the conflagration for the Government. He bases his charge against the civic government of Port Coquitlam on the failure of the Council to have a volunteer fire brigade organized, and to enforce the city by-laws respecting the use of stove-pipes through partitions and roofs. It was from a stovepipe which was serving in the city's own building, that the fire started. This building was the fire hall. If it was not for the seriousness of the loss occasioned to many citizens, declares the fire investigation officer, the story of the Port Coquitlam fire would read like a village comedy. When the fact that the fire hall was burning was discovered by several aldermen and citizens, they ran upstairs, and then downstairs, dodging about the fire engine, but made no attempt for some time to pull the equipment from the hall. There was a hydrant within a few feet of the door, but no one thought of making use of it by attaching a hose to it. The greater part of the city's hose was hanging in the tower of the hall, where it subsequently burned. Numerous Offices. The fire chief, who never had a day's experience in fire-fighting, Mr. Thomas says, admitted that in addition to that position he also filled the offices of chief of police, tax collector, poundkeeper, license collector and other positions so numerous that he had forgotten them. He praises the work done by Chief McKinley, despite his handicap in not having had experience in fighting fires. In his recommendation, Mr. Thomas suggests that a trained man be installed as fire chief, that a brigade be formed and regular practices be held in future.

Amateur Standing of Leading Athletes to Be Investigated Here

Amateur Union to Consider Position of Local Sports- men As Result of Recent Baseball-Cricket Match; Have Cricketers Become Ineligible?

The amateur standing of some of Victoria's leading athletes is in question, officials of the B. C. Amateur Athletic Union announced today. A meeting of the local board will be held Thursday to consider the matter.

While naturally reticent concerning the whole question, officials of the Amateur Union state that leading athletes' standing is questioned in connection with the recent cricket and baseball games between the professional Victoria baseball team and a team of local amateur cricketers. At this time, of course, amateur officials will make no statement regarding the effect that this game might have upon the amateur standing of some of the cricketers, who hold amateur cards on account of their participation in other sports.

The announcement that the amateur authorities are even considering the standing of prominent amateurs as a result of the cricket game is causing a tremendous amount of interest among local sportsmen, and it is expected that the matter will develop into something like a sensation.

Following is the formal statement which the local board of the Amateur Union gave out this morning: "An important meeting of the Local Board will be held on Thursday next, September 16, at 5:30 p.m. in the Sny-Ward Building at 5 p.m. All delegates are urged to attend as matters of vital importance will be dealt with at this meeting. The amateur standing of some of the leading athletes of this city will be dealt with in connection with the recent cricketers vs. baseball players game."

Only a limited number of the cricketers who played against the professional baseball players are involved in the investigation to be conducted by the amateur authorities. The Amateur Union will consider only the cases of cricketers who, on account of their participation in other branches of sport, hold amateur cards. Concerning those who do not hold cards the Union can do nothing. Several leading cricketers who played in the game with Bill Leard's Captains are understood to be holders of amateur cards.

At its meeting Thursday night the Amateur Union officials will consider also the charge that the Elks Baseball team, which went to Vancouver last week to play for the championship of British Columbia, included one "player who holds no amateur card."

The recent field day which the Eagles held here also will be considered. It is alleged that the Eagles held this field day without sanction, and that several amateur athletes participated in it, thus bringing their amateur standing into question.

SAYS VICTORIA HAS NO CLAIM TO TROPHY

A. P. Garvey, sporting editor of The Vancouver Province, has this to say about Victoria's claim to the Mann Cup: "Victoria has about as much claim to the Mann Cup as the Athletics have to the American League pennant, yet the Capital City officials, according to reports in circulation this week, insist that the trophy should remain in their possession, as they only dropped out of the league for this season. When Victoria stickhandlers retired from the amateur series they relinquished all claim to the cup and it should not be necessary to point out to them that in a court of law they would not have a leg to stand on. The cup should be turned back to the league without further discussion."

COAST LEAGUE TO GET THREE LOCAL BASEBALL STARS

Elliot, Dempsey and James Sold to Seattle Rainiers

Carter Elliot, Lee Dempsey and Russell James, three pillars of strength to Bill Leard's pennant-winning Captains, will not be seen in Pacific International baseball next year. They were sold on Saturday to the Seattle Coast League Club to strengthen the line-up of the Rainiers. The amount which Prexy Klepper paid for these first youngsters has not been disclosed, but it is known that he is not sparing money in his efforts to give the Sound City a winning team.

What Seattle intends to do with the former Victoria stars this season has not been decided yet. It is probable, however, that each will be given a chance to show his talent in the Seattle club's line-up before the close of the Coast League.

Bill Stumpf, regular shortstop of the Rainiers, was taken out of the game Thursday as a result of injury to his eyes and it is thought possible that Elliot may be given a regular berth at once in the Seattle infield. Dempsey's chances are not so good as far as this season is concerned. Though Bob Murphy, regular Seattle first baseman, has been out of the game of late, Seattle still has Carl Zimlock, a fast fielder and a fairly certain hand with the bat, to hold down the first sack. Lafayette, the big Yakima first baseman, also has come back to Seattle since the close of the Pacific International. Lafayette and Dempsey have been fighting all season for first place among the first sack guards in Class B circuit.

It is likely that James will be on the mound for Seattle almost right away, as Klepper's best hurlers have been overworked lately and need a rest. If the youngster can keep up the pace he is driving his best few weeks with Victoria he ought to be able to stand up against the best that the Coast League can produce. Whatever happens this year he is practically assured of a regular berth next season.

VICTORIA FORMALLY AWARDED PENNANT

Tacoma, Sept. 12.—Pacific International League directors, with President L. H. Burnett, of Tacoma, in charge, closed the affairs of the 1920 season here Saturday. The pennant was officially awarded the Victoria Club, and the League finances were reported to be in good shape. Tacoma led the league in paid admissions, Victoria was second, and Yakima third.

During the final six weeks of the season, the Seattle club was financed by the league. Notwithstanding this, the league was reported to have finished with money in the treasury and players and all franchises protected for the 1921 season.

RAIN POSTPONES MINTO CUP GAME

Vancouver, Sept. 12.—On Saturday afternoon the old weather man again frowned on Vancouver to such an extent that all sporting events had to be postponed. The big Minto Cup lacrosse-battle at New Westminster had to be called off. The British Columbia amateur championship ball game at Athletic Park likewise was put by the boards for a time at least. In fact everything, including soccer, a wet-weather game, was postponed, and Vancouver experienced one of the dullest Saturday afternoons as far as a sport was concerned, in a long time.

CARPENTIER ARRIVES TO FIGHT LEVINSKY

New York, Sept. 12.—Delegations from twenty-five French Societies greeted Georges Carpentier on his arrival in New York early today on the steamship La Lorraine. He was accompanied by Marcel Descombes, his manager, who is expected to start immediate preparations for the bout with Battling Levinsky on Columbus Day, October 12.

COLWOOD RECORD TIED BY BLACK

Colwood Professional Covers Course in Seventy- Two

To turn in a yard of seventy-two—the previous record for the course—has been the ambition of Willy Black, the popular professional of the Colwood Golf and Country Club, and yesterday he did it. His previous best score was seventy-four and although he has had the lower figure almost within his grasp a number of times, the missing of one or other of the multitude of golfing errors has denied him his object.

Even yesterday afternoon's performance, well nigh perfect as it was, included an "accident" at the fourth. His mashie-iron shot across the water basin landed him squarely on the green with long putt ahead of him. Although his first putt placed the ball within a fairly easy distance from the pin his partner suggested that he would miss his bogey by failing on a finishing putt. And he did. A certain number of strokes into a four; otherwise the card would have been the record for the course. Nevertheless Mr. Black's score was a remarkable achievement, especially on a day when the greens were slow and fast alternately, as the showers were followed by a fairly warm and drying sun. The card is made up as follows: Out—3, 4, 5, 4, 4, 4, 3; total, 32.

AMERICANS WIN THE DEVONSHIRE TROPHY

Ottawa, Sept. 12.—The Duke of Devonshire trophy, presented for annual competition between the teams of the senior golf associations of Canada and the United States, goes back to the American side for another year. In the match between Canada and the United States, played at the Royal Ottawa course Saturday, the American team won by a score of 20 to 15. The Canadians got away to a good start, and in the light of the first few games, it was thought they would retain the Governor-General's cup, which they lost at New York last year, but the visiting golfers made a very strong finish, and won the majority of games, a total of which took place under the Nassau system.

CALIFORNIA TENNIS

Berkeley, Cal., Sept. 12.—Wallace Bates struck his second big surprise of the California State championship tennis tournament when, in the semifinals, he defeated Howard Kinsey, present Northwest champion. 5-7, 6-4, 6-4. Last Thursday, Bates defeated Robert Kinsey, and in both matches he had been counted upon to lose by tennis experts. The 44-year-old Californian started the match while Kinsey played a chopping game from the base line. Bates won by his hard drives, accuracy and speed. In the men's singles, upper half, Phil Neel, of Festina, state star, lost to M. Griffin, of San Francisco, state champion two years ago, 6-1, 7-5, 6-4. Robert and Howard Kinsey, of the Olympic Club, defeated C. Jensen, of San Francisco, and E. Ecker, of Alameda, 6-1, 6-2, 6-2 in the doubles.

OLD COUNTRY SOCCER NOTES

In the First Division of the League on Saturday Aston Villa at Birmingham scored a win over Tottenham Hotspur by a goal to 2. There are not many teams who gain points on Aston Villa's ground, so the Spurs supporters have nothing to feel blue about. Each side drew nothing, United by two goals to nothing. Burnley gained their second win of the season when they defeated Middlesbrough at Burnley by the odd goal in three. Chelsea accomplished a creditable performance in drawing with Manchester United at Old Trafford. Each side scoring three times. Newcastle United made no mistake with Preston North End at St. James Park, the score being 4-2 in favor of the Newcastle side. Sheffield defeated Manchester City by a goal to 1. Blackburn Rovers, who have one of the most expensive teams in the league, gained a clear cut victory over Sunderland by 2 goals to nothing at Ewood Park. West Bromwich Albion met with first defeat of the season, Bolton trimming them at Burnden Park by 2 goals to 1. The Albions have yet to win a match. The champions have taken part in five games so far this season, four of which have been drawn and the other one lost. This is far from being championship form. Derby County met defeat on their own ground by the score of 4 goals to 2. Everton being the victors. Liverpool at An-

VANCOUVER'S RAIN SPOILS CHANCES OF LOCAL BALL PLAYERS

So Two Amateur Ball Games Will Be Pulled Off Here Saturday

Members of the Elks baseball team returned from Vancouver yesterday a very disgruntled and disappointed crowd of athletes. The team journeyed to the Terminal City on Friday night with the expectation of playing the Arnold and Quigley team in the first game of the B.C. Championship. The rain was so heavy that the game was not played. It was easier to stage a water polo game or swimming race on Hastings Street than to play ball at the Recreation Park. The players were very much disappointed at not being able to play the game as they felt sure of a victory.

Walter Lorimer, who manages the team looks at the question from a different angle and says it's tough luck laying out a bunch of money to take the team to Vancouver and then not get a crack at the opposing team. It puts both teams badly in a different angle and says it's tough luck laying out a bunch of money to take the team to Vancouver and then not get a crack at the opposing team. It puts both teams badly in a different angle and says it's tough luck laying out a bunch of money to take the team to Vancouver and then not get a crack at the opposing team.

EVANS' GOLF PROVED TO BE UNBEATABLE

Roseton, N.Y., Sept. 12.—Two up, playing eighteen holes, Charles Evans, in defeating Francis Outmet for the final round of the United States championship tournament Saturday, played unbeatable golf on the way out, but as he plays on every warm afternoon of the tournament. He went to the turn in thirty-four, equalling his best score in the past. He played the course, and making two birdies, one of which was a four at the longest hole on the course, 356 yards. Outmet did not win a hole on the way to the turn in the afternoon round and halved only four. Evans' winning shot was typical of his work with the irons throughout the match. His approach dropped dead about two feet from the pin and as Outmet could not do better than five at the pole, Evans took two putts and received the congratulations of his Boston rival.

"STEP-LIGHTLY" WINS.

New York, Sept. 11.—Step-Lightly won the classic Futurity for two-year-olds today at Belmont Park. Star Votter was second and Grey Leg, third, Times, 1:13 1-5.

CLEVELAND UNABLE TO SHAKE YANKEES

Brooklyn Increases Lead; New York Nationals and Chicago Americans Lose

New York, Sept. 12.—The Brooklyn Nationals increased their advantage over the Cincinnati-Nationals to three and a half games standing, while the Cleveland Americans, who are first by seven tenths of a point, were unable to shake the New York Yankees off their heels. The New York Nationals lost yesterday and have four and a half games to make up, with less than a score to play. The Chicago Americans also were defeated but are only about 10 points behind Cleveland.

The New York Yankees began their Western tour by taking two out of three games from Cleveland, outplaying the Indians in the field and at bat. With the exception of the game lost to Cleveland, the New York pitchers were effective in every contest during the week.

While Cleveland was disposing of the tail-end Philadelphia the Yankees by hard hitting defeated Detroit.

New York will go to Chicago on Thursday for a three-game series. The Chicago Americans succeeded in winning a series last week from Boston, which has been a troublemaker for the three pennant contenders, but yesterday the White Sox were unable to hit Courtenay of Washington.

The Brooklyn Nationals pounded out 14 base hits, a record surpassing their own weekly record of 112 this season. Their two defeats in Philadelphia were by close margins. St. Louis pitchers could not check the batting and Brooklyn won their eighth straight yesterday when Grimes shut out Chicago, Cincinnati, first baseman of the Cardinals with little effort, was tripped up in Boston at the start of its Eastern invasion, dropping three out of four games. The Reds rested yesterday and after the Philadelphia series opening today will go to Brooklyn on Thursday for the so-called "crucial series."

New York Nationals pitching staff allowed only seven runs in as many games last week. Yesterday, however, the Giants pitched a game in which they lost seven straight games last week, three to Cincinnati and four to Brooklyn—Pittsburgh, which took four games out of five from the Giants on their Western tour, try will come to New York Thursday. The Pirates are eight games behind the league leaders.

$75,000 ALREADY COLLECTED TO HELP BUILD CHALLENGER

New York, Sept. 12.—Commodore A. C. Ross, of the Royal Cape Breton Yacht Club, which is organizing a fund in Canada to challenge for the America's Cup, has left for Toronto. Mr. Ross said that the Dominion is greatly interested in his project. The campaign is already under way, he stated, and nearly $75,000 has been gathered to start the organization of the Provincial Associations in gathering the funds. The largest contribution from an individual is to be $100. Mr. Ross said a conference in regard to the campaign is to be held at the Old Colony Club in Toronto next week.

AMERICAN TEAM CLAIMS IT WAS BADLY TREATED

Gross Neglect of Olympic Athletes Is Charged By Team

New York, Sept. 12.—Gross neglect by the American Olympic committee of the welfare of the United States team, on its way home, was charged by athletes arriving here Saturday on the transport Sherman from Belgium. A dismissal of the committee will be demanded, they told newspapermen.

The athletes had a good word for one member of the committee, Robert Weaver of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, who they said, "got in bad" by fighting their battles for them.

Praise for the army and navy in efforts to make the trip over and back as comfortable and pleasant as possible was virtually unanimously expressed by the returning delegation.

The Olympic athletes blamed the committee for sending them by transport, declaring it was too slow and tended to let the men grow "stale" before they arrived in Belgium. They also said their quarters were unsatisfactory for athletes who needed to keep in training. They characterized their quarters in Antwerp as "very bad" and unsanitary and the food as "not fit for dogs."

OLD COUNTRY FOOTBALL

London, Sept. 12.—(Canadian Associated Press.) The Football League carried through a full programme on Saturday with very interesting results, one of the most remarkable being the fitness of the draws in contrast with the large proportion previously only four games ending even out of 33 played, three draws being in the Third Division and one in the second.

Last year's cup winners, Aston Villa, who have started the season in good form, very different from a year ago, beat Tottenham 4 to 2. The latter's performance so far in the First Division have disappointed many of their supporters.

Another London club, Clapton Orient, in the second division, were victims of the heaviest defeat of the day, going down before Stockport 6 to 0. Arsenal, defeated Manchester City 2 to 1, but Chelsea were beaten by Manchester United 3 to 1. Derby was one of the only five home clubs which suffered defeat, being beaten by Everton 4 to 2. Sheffield, who are continuing last season's undistinguished career, were among the other four home losses, scoring one goal only against Stokes.

West Bromwich last season's first division champions, made a poor showing at Bolton and lost 3 to 0. They had previously played four drawn matches in which only four goals were scored. Huddersfield, last year's cup finalists, have made a promising start in the first division and defeated Bradford City, but Notts County succumbed for the first time in five matches, their conquerors being their townsmen, whose victory was unexpected. Blackburn defeated Sunderland 4 to 0, the latter's neighbors, Newcastle, obtained four points from Preston.

SEATTLE GOLFERS BEAT VICTORIANS

Seattle, Sept. 12.—Seattle Golf Club won all but one of the six test-ball matches against Colwood Country and Golf Club of Victoria yesterday. It was just a friendly match, this the first meeting between teams of the two clubs.

Macan and R. Wilson, started low and had one point lead on Fleeger and Stein in the morning. But lost by three points in the afternoon. Hart and Thomas were down both rounds to Balminger and Campbell. Wood and Schwengers held Russell and Key to a tie in the morning eighteen, but lost by three holes in the afternoon.

MAN O'WAR HAS WON $156,565

New York, Sept. 12.—With the $15,040, which was the value of the Lawrence Reclamation, Man o'War has now won a total of $156,565 in his two seasons of racing. As a two-year-old he won $33,225 and so far this year he has earned $73,240. It is his third year of racing.

Man o'War has won 10 of his 12 races in the matter of his record among all American horses.

The money race, now held by Domingo, which earned $15,040. To equal it Man o'War must add $36,565 to his present total, and it is doubtful if he can accomplish it this year. He has few more stake engagements and none of any great value.

The Latonia Championship is the only stake which would send him over the top, it being worth nearly $20,000 to the winner. At present Man o'War is fourth on the list of money winners, Domingo, Colin and Svanby being the only ones to lead him.

It has been found a dangerous thing to do in football in the last few years until a few games have been played.

HORSES ARRIVE FOR MEET HERE

Animals in City in Preparation For Big Fall Fair Feature

Horses which will race in the meet to be held in connection with the B. C. Agricultural Association's Fall Fair, here have arrived in Victoria. Some of the animals came Friday while others reached here Saturday.

More will follow in the course of the week to be in readiness for the races, which will commence tomorrow week. Already some of the horses have been exercised on the Willows track and are stabled in barns in the Fair Grounds.

Final preparations for the big fair are now going forward under the direction of Alderman George Sangster, secretary of the Agricultural Association and exhibition manager. The big programme of improvement which was started in the Spring is just about complete now and plenty of accommodation is ready for all the animal exhibits.

George I. Warren, who has managed three previous fairs with such success, is busy now lining up the exhibits for the Made-in-Victoria exhibition, which is to be held in the big building to the left of the entrance gate. "From the number of exhibits already arranged and the preparations under way it is apparent that the fair this year will be the best that has been held in the city yet," Mr. Warren declared today.

A large number of local concerns have commenced to arrange their home product exhibits. Their plans forecast a most elaborate exhibition, in which practically all products manufactured here will be displayed. A novel feature will be a daily concert and the presence of an orchestra in the Home Products Building.

The Home Products Fair this year will be confined to exhibits of manufactured articles, as the agricultural exhibition will be held separately under the direction of Alderman Sangster.

7 MILLBANK LONDON ENGLAND

Why Have 'Millbanks' Become So Popular?

Because every introduction leads to lasting friendship. It is a case of "love at first smoking."

One smoker offers "MILLBANKS" to a friend. The friend is delighted with these mild, fragrant Virginia Cigarettes and buys a package for himself. This is happening many times a day in every section of Canada. The reason is easy to find.

MILLBANK VIRGINIA CIGARETTES

have the delightful, distinctive flavour of ripe, mellow, sun-cured Virginia tobacco—coupled with the richness and satisfying qualities found only in the highest grade leaf at its best.

The fact that the price is 15c for 10 is simply an additional reason for preferring "MILLBANKS."

CLAIMS GOVERNMENT SALE IS STEP BACK

Key, Ernest Thomas on Plebiscite Issue Shortly to Be Submitted

The Metropolitan Church was filled with a large audience last night in which men were in a great majority, to hear a presentation of the prohibition issue by the Rev. Ernest Thomas, of the Methodist Board of Social Service, who is aiding the educational work in the Province.

Saskatchewan's Experiences.
Mr. Thomas referred to the fact that he had been one of the original group which had advocated and secured the adoption of government dispensaries in Saskatchewan. But the problem then was to eliminate the trade as a corrupting influence in political life. Once this had been accomplished the rest of the job was easy enough. Two measures were adopted which did not commend themselves to the British Columbian Government. On the one hand no advertisement of liquor was allowed in any form, and on the other the profits from the sale were not allowed to pass into the common fund to relieve taxation. They were set aside for constructive social ends. Thus there was no inducement, as in this Province to carry on the trade to enable wealthy persons to escape taxation and the speaker.

Mr. Thomas proceeded to state that the setting up of the government dispensaries had serious results. Members of the Legislature found themselves stern critics in the effort to set up bootlegging as they were called. The members of the government feared every day some outbreak of socialists and were at last led to shorten the period of trial and to hasten a popular vote which swept the whole infamy away. The people voted overwhelmingly for the removal of the few dispensaries which had been able to exist. And this was done in a Province which was forty-two per cent non-English.

B.C.'s Case.
Mr. Thomas continued: "It is one thing to advocate government control as a step towards prohibition. It is another thing, as in British Columbia to advocate government sale as a step away from

WHY STAY FAT?

The answer of most fat people is that they are eating too much, too thick and too dangerous a method to force the weight down. However, in Marmol's Prescription Tablets, all these difficulties are overcome. They are absolutely harmless, entail no dieting or violent exercise, and have the added advantage of cheapness. One little tablet after each meal and at bedtime—no pills to eat as candy—will reduce your weight two, three or four pounds a week, and leave no bad results such as weakness or flabby skin. A good size box is sold at drug stores at the reasonable price of one dollar, or if preferable they may be obtained by sending the amount to the Marmol Co., 24 Gerrard Building, Detroit, Mich. The box will reach you by mail, prepaid, in plain, sealed cover.

Now that you know this you have no excuse for being too fat. But can reduce two, three or four pounds a week without fear of bad after-effects.

ARMY AND NAVY VETERANS CONCERT

A most successful, smoking concert was held by the Army and Navy Veterans in their club rooms last Saturday night, and in spite of the inclement weather in the afternoon the big hall was well filled.

While the concert throughout was first-class, two performers were conspicuous for the excellence of their entertainment, Tom Obee, who was responsible for the programme, and Comrade Horace Potts. The former who is always a favorite with his cozier songs, fairly brought the house down when he rendered a great famous Chevalier composition, "My Old Dutch." Most of the audience knew the famous cozier singer of bygone days well, and evinced their appreciation of a revival of his works in Victoria. Comrade Potts led off with "The Trumpeter," and during the evening rendered no less than four similar classics, which suited his fine tenor voice admirably.

Another favorite on Saturday night was Comrade J. Dobbin, Jr., in a Scotch role; so also was Comrade Tait, whose baritone was heard to great advantage in the three songs in which he obliged. Comrade Brunell's deep bass was in great demand and the other singers, who all delighted the members present, included Comrades J. Ramsey, Jackson and J. Dobbin. Throughout the concert Comrade G. Donne presided at the piano.

So much for the musical part, which comprised the whole programme, except for the story-telling by Comrade F. Bowley Turner. As a raconteur Comrade Turner is excellent and his repertoire of humorous stories is such as to rock the house with laughter.

THE DREAD PYORRHEA BEGINS WITH BLEEDING GUMS

Pyorrhea's infecting germs cause many ills. Medical science has proven this. Deseased conditions, which not long ago doctors were unable to trace to a cause, are now known often to be the result of Pyorrhea germs that breed in pockets about the teeth. Rheumatism, anaemia, nervous disorders and other diseases have been traced in many cases to this Pyorrhea infection.

Don't let Pyorrhea work its wicked will on your body. Visit your dentist frequently for tooth and gum inspection.

And watch your gums yourself. Pyorrhea, which affects four out of five people over forty, begins with tender and bleeding gums; then the gums recede; the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of poisons generated at their base.

Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan keeps the gums hard and healthy—the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has set in, use Forhan's according to directions and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

"ROBIN HOOD" AND ITS HERO AUTHOR

Opera to Be Played at Royal
Was Masterpiece of Reginald De Koven

The announcement that the opera "Robin Hood" is to be presented at the Royal Victoria to-night and Tuesday brings to mind that when, one day last January, there flashed the news to every paper in the country that Reginald De Koven, its famous composer had died suddenly in Chicago, that news was marking the passing from the busy world of American journalism and American business life and the American theatre and American good fellowship of a splendid, unique figure—and one whose memory will always live along with his immortal Robin and Friar Tuck, and "O Promise Me" and all the other things that go to make up the most popular opera ever given to our stage.

It would seem enough to be the composer of "Robin Hood"! Reginald De Koven, however, was journalist as well as musician, theatre builder and owner as well as author, manager and producer as well as composer, and above all, beloved associate and comrade of the biggest men of his day. Like his friend Theodore Roosevelt, who passed on just a little while before, De Koven could have made his mark in any one of many lines. He did, indeed, leave his name as founder of the Washington Symphony Orchestra as builder and manager of the Lyric Theatre in New York, as dramatic and musical critic on several of the great metropolitan dailies, and as author of numerous magazine articles and stories—all this in addition to being the first American great popular composer. For this man, born very humbly in Middletown, Connecticut, was the first native musician fired with the ambition to write his melodies into play form for that huge, eager public that had loved Gilbert and Sullivan, and was only waiting to hail the genius that should place America on a par with Europe as an artistic as well as a commercially creative nation.

The boy who was to write "Robin Hood" managed to get to England to attend Oxford University, and after he had studied music in Stuttgart, in Florence, in Paris and Vienna. He wanted to know the best that the old world could offer, and then he settled down to compose an opera from the wealth of American ideals and courage and pluck and spirit that had been pulsing through his creative brain. While at Oxford he had spent his holidays tramping through the quaint and beautiful Nottinghamshire country, every village, every brook, every tree of which has its legend of the great Anglo-Saxon ballad here, "Robin Hood." It is perhaps not strange then that outlaw became the subject of his first big composition, and with another young American, Harry D. Smith, he set to work.

The result is history. After being slighted by a number of managers, the piece was produced by an organization known as the Bostonians. It leapt into instant success. The news of this new operatic sensation spread like wildfire—other companies were organized—there were often six or seven organizations presenting "Robin Hood" in different cities at the same time. Fame and fortune had come in an avalanche to the young composer at his very first effort, but it only acted as a spur to a larger and more varied career.

The success of "Robin Hood" has been so great that one is likely to forget his other operas, all of which met with an enviable popularity. There was "Maid Marion," "The Red Feather," "Her Little Highness," "The Wedding Trip," and a dozen more. But De Koven's great ambition was to write a score of purely American theme and origin, and his death occurred at the very midst of the rehearsals of what was to be this goal achieved. He had written the music for Washington Irving's "Rip Van Winkle" and its first performance was about to be given by the Chicago Grand Opera Company.

CONRAD NAGEL, HERO HAD UNIQUE DEBUT

Popular Young Leading Man
at Dominion in "The Fighting Chance"

When Conrad Nagel, who plays a leading role in "The Fighting Chance" at the Dominion Theatre this week, was even more youthful than he is now, he attended a stage performance of "Everywoman." He was well-acquainted with the producer of the show and occupied a good seat among the audience at the producer's invitation. But just before the curtain rose, the latter rushed out to Mr. Nagel's side.

"You'll have to come back and play the part of 'Yuth,'" he whispered frantically. "Our regular match has been taken sick. You won't have to speak many lines. You can get by, please!"

So Conrad Nagel, who up to this time had been playing only small roles in stock companies, had his first chance in a real production. Making good he signed a contract to continue in "Everywoman." This led to other engagements, among them the leading role opposite Alice Brady in "Forever After."

Now Mr. Nagel has deserted the footlights for the screen and in "The Fighting Chance" lends a youthfulness and sincerity to the part of the hero that has much to do with the success of the picture. Anna Q. Nilsson has the chief feminine role. It is a Paramount Artcraft Picture.

Mr. O'Brien appears as John Belamy Smart, an American author who buys a castle and finds one of its towers inhabited by a ghost. After an investigation and developments which include a fight with a villainous count and a chase over a range of hills, Smart takes the ghost back to the United States as his wife.

Director Robert Ellis pictured many enchanting bits of scenery for the production. The "beautiful blue Danube" is represented with castles, hiding places, winding highways, shrubbery and snow-covered craggy eminences.

In presenting the castle interiors scrupulous attention to historical detail was observed, and they make a setting both accurate and glamorous.

Ruby DeRemer, Eugene O'Brien's leading lady, is a typical princess in distress—tall, stately, blue-eyed, with pink and white skin and golden hair.

STORY OF WAR TORN BELGIUM UNFOLDED

At Columbia in "Heart of Humanity" Is Portrayed Woman's Splendid Work

"The Heart of Humanity" which is to be presented at the Columbia Theatre to-day with Dorothy Phillips in the featured role, is an eight-reel Allen Holubar production which brings to the screen the inspiring story of a woman's efforts to alleviate the sufferings of the wounded and orphaned and homeless during the days when France and Belgium were scarred and seared by sword and torch, and pained and rocked by great German guns. It depicts the tenderness of the mother-heart in its conflict with the horrors of war. It pays a deserved tribute to womanhood as expressed in the Red Cross nurse. It presents a side of the war which we have been prone to overlook.

The story of "The Heart of Humanity" was written by Olga Scholl and Allen Holubar, adapted for the screen by Mr. Holubar, and produced by him. It deals with the romance of Nanette, the little ward of Father Michael parish priest of a community in the Canadian Northwest. While the parishioners are celebrating the marriage of Nanette and John, the oldest and bravest of the Widow Patricia's five sons, news comes of the declaration of war by Germany. John answers the call to the colors, and, with three of his brothers, enlists in the Canadian Expeditionary Forces. Eventually the fifth boy goes. John's letters to Nanette describe the sufferings endured by French and Belgian children so vividly that the mother-heart in Nanette is awakened and she determines to go abroad as a Red Cross nurse.

On the war-torn fields of Flanders the little wife meets her husband but once, after which she is captured by the Germans. They are reunited, however, after a series of thrilling scenes, which vividly portray the final halting of the great German drive and then the counter-attack which sent the Prussian hordes fleeing for refuge to their own border.

MELODRAMA WAS ON DRURY LANE STAGE

"The Sporting Duchess" Was First Produced at Famous Playhouse

"The Sporting Duchess," which will be shown at the Variety Theatre to-day, was first written as a spectacular melodrama to be produced in the Drury Lane Theatre in London. This theatre is world renowned for the stupendous productions that have been staged there. The theatre is to London what the Hippodrome is to New York. Only plays of such mammoth proportions that few ordinary playhouses could produce them are seen there.

Drury Lane is also noted for its famous Christmas pantomimes, a form of entertainment seldom seen in this country. Until the advent of motion pictures pantomime was sadly neglected in America. It was found in the Russian ballet, the Italian ballet, the Austrian ballet, and the pantomime at Drury Lane.

Some of the most famous of the Drury Lane melodramas have been brought to America and staged in the largest playhouses here. Great quantities of special mechanical and scenic effects were necessary to produce the rare scenes and tallies filled with people driven onto the stage.

"The Sporting Duchess" created a furore in New York a score of years ago when Rose Coghlan appeared in the title role. It was so stupendous and such a costly production to transport that it was only seen in a few cities outside of New York.

It was not until the advent of motion pictures that this famous melodrama could be staged in a form suitable to show in every city and town through the country. The film version, in which Alice Joyce is starred, is even greater than the play.

BETTY UNRAVELS DOMESTIC SKEIN

Billie Burke at Romano in Paramount Artcraft Picture

Billie Burke, who is the star in the latest Paramount-Artcraft picture "The Misleading Widow," which is coming to the Romano Theatre to-day, likes motion pictures, and intends to continue to make them, even after her return to the spoken stage this fall.

"I am frank to say that I enjoy my screen career immensely," says Miss Burke. "I shall never give up pictures."

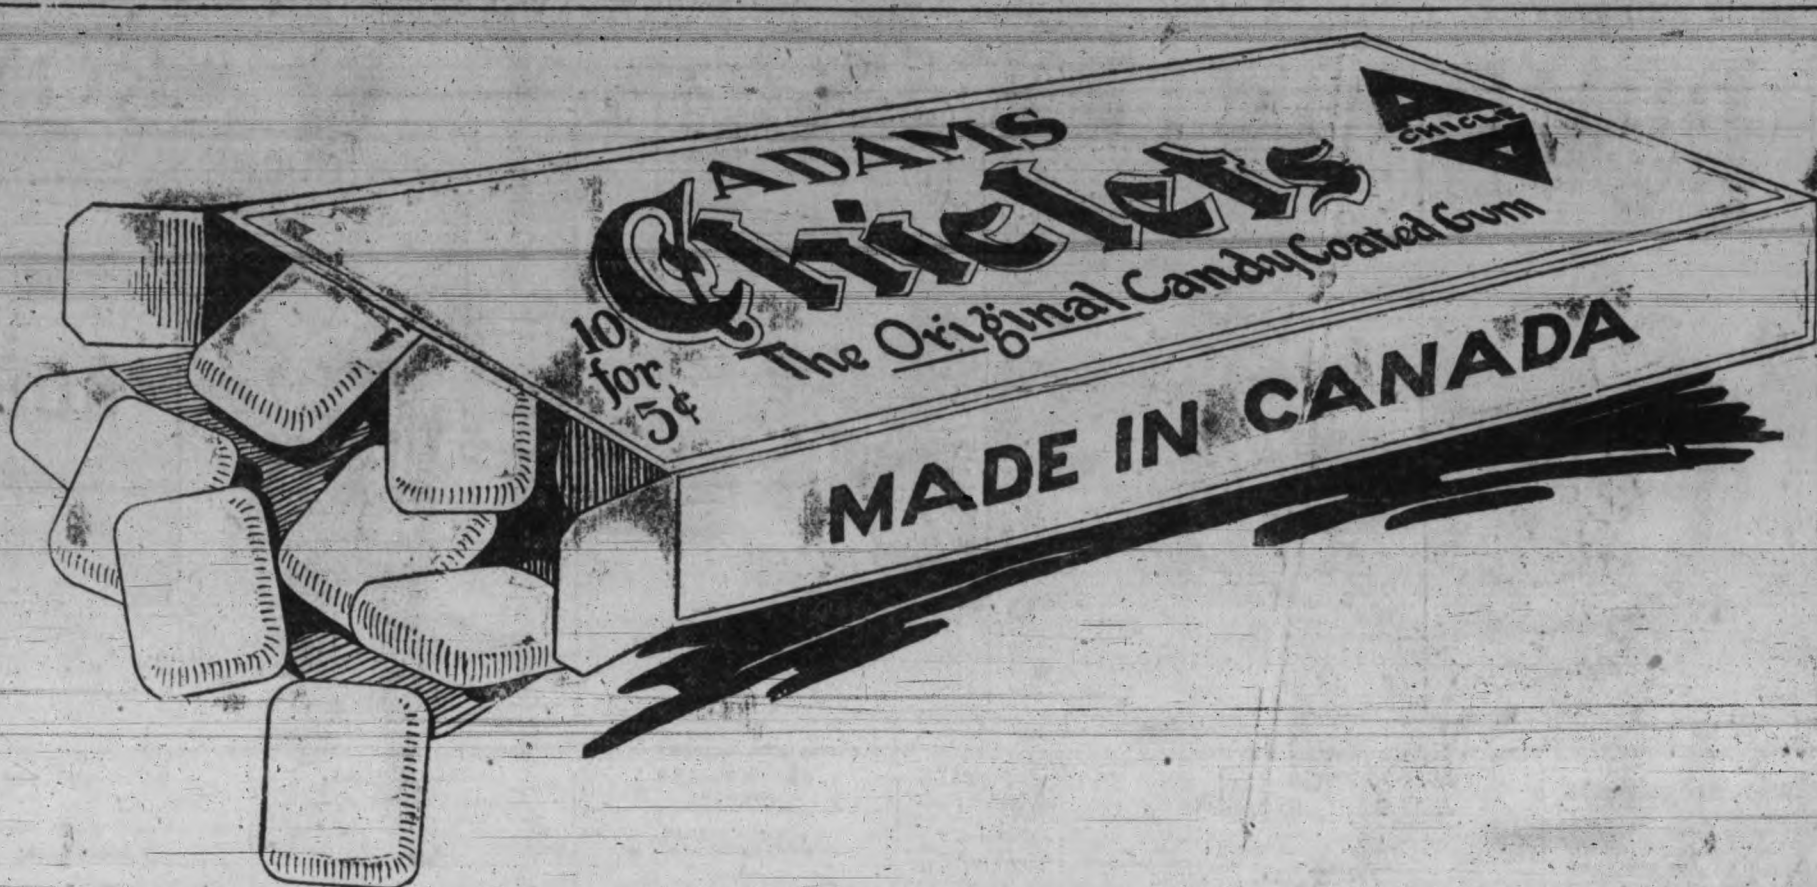

This will be good news to screen lovers, who cannot help but be delighted with Miss Burke's latest photoplay, telling the amusing story of Mrs. Betty Taradine. Betty's husband, according to the plot, deserted her several years ago on account of her extravagance. Whereupon Betty undertook to run her household and open all the money. Then the idea came into her pretty head to announce her husband's "death," collect his insurance, and pay her pressing creditors. Of course, she couldn't foresee that the army colonel she was entertaining would invite her missing spouse to come and see him. Matters got into an awful jam, and the way the charming Betty untangles them is worth going miles to see.

This production is the second undertaken by the society, the first being "Dandy Dick," staged some two months ago in aid of the Kiwanis Club fund for the Jubilee Hospital, when a handsome balance was the result. The Victoria Dramatic and Operatic Society is the new name of the dramatic society founded several years ago by R. N. Hincks, who has recently left Victoria to take up professional work in Eastern Canada, and the many Victorians who patronized and enjoyed the productions of the Red Cross Dramatic Society and the Princess Dramatic Society will find in the entertainments produced by the Victoria Dramatic and Operatic Society the same high degree of talent as they have been accustomed to find in the past. It is the intention of the society to produce plays (both musical and otherwise) at frequent intervals during the winter season.

"Frivolities" concerns itself with pointing a satiric finger at the social and amusement episodes and institutions now in the public eye, in blending together rapid succession of singing, dancing and comedy specialties and novelties to combine in a parade of their superlatives.

SCOTTI HERE WITH METROPOLITAN STARS

Ever since the organization of the Scotti Grand Opera Company two years ago, speculation has been rife as to how Mr. Scotti could take out a company composed entirely of Metropolitan Opera Company Artists. The question is easily answered when it is known that these tours are pre-season and post-season tours of limited duration. The artists have to report at the Metropolitan Opera House on November 1 each year and their season closes the first of May. Mr. Scotti engages them for the first few weeks of the Fall and the early Spring after they have finished their duties in New York.

The Fall tour this year will open early in September. It has always been thought that September was too early for concerts and opera. While this may be true of the Eastern and Middle Western States, Mr. Scotti's tour will practically open in Winnipeg and the month of September will be spent in Canada and the Northwest, which month is considered the best in all the year, in that section of the country.

The tour will embrace eight weeks, and starting at St. Paul will go west to the coast via Canada. All of the principal cities on the coast will be visited from Victoria to Los Angeles. Returning the company will visit Denver, Omaha and Chicago, ending the last week of October at Montreal. The entire trip will be made in a special private train of Pullmans, the company living in private cars during the whole tour. The Scotti Grand Opera Company, artists, orchestra, and chorus from Metropolitan Opera Company will appear at the Royal Victoria Theatre one night, only Saturday, Sept. 25.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH AND HUMANE WORK
 A remarkable announcement has just been made by the Presbyterian Church of the United States regarding an undertaking which will "awaken and cultivate in the hearts of its youth those noble and diviner impulses of fair play, compassion and kindness which make so surely for character worthy the name."

An extract from a letter sent by the General Secretary of this body to the Boston Humane Society reads as follows:
 "The Presbyterian denomination has recently established a department of humane education to apply to all animal life throughout the United States and in foreign countries where this church is represented. It is not our desire to duplicate what is being done by other agencies, but, on the contrary, to supplement and strengthen every worthy effort in this line."
 "You will notice that we use the term 'humane education' in contrast to 'humane work'. We do not expect to undertake to do the actual work but hope to give information and inspiration in a way that will manifestly the importance of mercy and kindness to that part of creation over which man has been given dominion."
 "The following is a request for suggestions, specimens of literature and copies of such books at the American Humane Education Society publishes:
 "Nothing more extraordinary or fraught with such promise for the future of humane education has come to us for many a day." This, so far as we know, is the first time in the history of the Christian Church that a religious body has officially recognized the need of systematic, careful teaching relative to the claims upon its people of that vast world of animal life below for just, humane and kind regard. It is to be the beginning of a great forward movement in humane education work to be followed by other Christian denominations until the entire church shall become the avowed champion of the weak and oppressed, among animals, as among men." says "Our Dumb Animal," the official organ of the R.S.P.C.A.

CHICAGO GRAINS MOVE UPWARD
 (By Burdick Brothers, Ltd.)
 Chicago, Sept. 12.—The strength in Winnipeg was clearly a reflection of an active export demand and this had a strong influence on the grain markets here to-day. Heavy buying by prominent bulls was the feature of the day and also heavy short-covering. Wheat was very responsive to foreign buying. Corn also advanced on further rains over Sunday, which were detrimental to the progress of the crop and the uncertain outcome made the buying side look exceptionally attractive.
