DECLASSIFIED E.O. 12065 SECTION 3-402/NNDG NO. 715073

CONSTITUTION and BY-LAWS of the

CLUB OF
KYUSHU CIVIL AFFAIRS REGION

PREAMBLE

We, the personnel of the Kyushu Civil Affairs Region, in order to establish an organization for the common enjoyment of the usual social and cultural pursuits and pursuant to the provisions of AR 210-50 and AR 210-60, as amended, do hereby establish this Constitution and the By-Laws appended thereto.

Article I - Name

This association shall be known by the name of Kyushu Civil Affairs Club.

Article II - Officers

Section 1. The officers of this club shall consist of a president, a vice-president, a secretary and a committee of three(3). Such officers, together with the Club Custodian shall constitute a Club Council. The Club Custodian shall be appointed by the Commanding Officer of the Kyushu Civil Affairs Region from the active membership of the club in accordance with par. 42a of AR 210-60. All elected officers shall hold office for a term of six(6) months unless sooner relieved for good cause, transfer of station or other military necessity. The term of office of the Club Custodian shall be indefinite and subject to the pleasure of the appointing authority.

Section 2. All elected officers shall serve without salary or special compensation of any kind.

Article III - Officers' Duties

Section 1. The President shall preside at all regular and special meetings of the club and likewise at all meetings of the Club Council of which he shall be the chairman. He shall enforce a due observance of the constitution, by-laws, and rules of order and govern and control such meetings according to commonly accepted rules of parliamentary procedure. He shall have the power to appoint essential committees, apportion duties among them, fill all vacancies within such committees, and perform such other duties as his office may require.

Section 2. In the absence of the president, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the president.

Section 3. The Secretary shall record and keep the minutes of all regular and special meetings. Pursuant to the direction of the president, he shall give due and timely notice in writing of all special meetings and such regular meetings as may be prescribed from time to time. He shall also keep a true and adequate record of the membership of the club, past and present, if so directed by a proper resolution of the Club Council. He shall also perform such other duties as are proper to his office from time to time when such duties are not being regularly discharged by the Club Custodian as a part of his regular duties.

Incl 1 4

Article IV - Club Management

The building housing this club, together with any authorized facility thereto; and all other real, personal, or mixed property, fixtures, furnishings, foodstuffs, beverages, and other like appurtenances used in conjunction therewith which may be owned by the club, furnished to it by the United States Army, or otherwise set apart for the use and enjoyment of its members and their guests, shall be in charge of the Club Custodian, who shall manage the club pursuant to the directions of the Club Council. Unless otherwise directed, he shall keep a true and adequate record of the membership of the club, collect all dues, accounts, and assessments, pay all proper bills and charges against the club, and otherwise exercise all functions normally performed by a treasurer in like organizations. In such latter connection, he shall keep a true and adequate record of his acts and doings as a treasurer and submit written reports thereof at all regular meetings and upon demand at all special meetings of the club. Further, his books and records shall be subject to inspection at all reasonable times by any member of the Club Council.

Article V - Election of Officers

All elections for officers shall be held at the first meeting of the club on 16 January 1960 and semi-annually thereafter. The term of each shall commence immediately following his election. In case of a vacancy occurring in any office, the same shall be filled by an election for the unexpired term at the next regular meeting of the club or at any special meeting called for the purpose. All elections for officers shall be by secret, written ballot.

Article VI - Voting and Decision

Section 1. Each member of the club who is in good standing shall be entitled to one vote. A majority vote of members present at any meeting authorized to transact business shall be sufficient upon any issue, including the election of officers, except that of amendments to this Constitution or to the By-Laws.

Section 2. Except as may otherwise be provided specifically herein, 25 per cent of the members who are in good standing shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any regular or special meeting of the club.

Article VII - Membership

The membership of the club shall be limited in general, to the personnel of Kyushu Civil Affairs Region and their adult dependents. Military personnel assigned or attached, civilian personnel assigned or permanently attached to Kyushu Civil Affairs Region will be eligible for regular membership. Further eligibility for membership may be extended to others as provided for in the By-Laws of the club.

DECLASSIFIED E.O. 12065 SECTION 3-402/NNDG NO. 113073

Article VIII - Amendments

Every proposed alteration, amendment, or addition to this constitution, by-laws and rules or order annexed hereto, must be made in writing and handed to the president, who shall cause it to be published to the club for at least one week prior to the next regular meeting, at which time it may be adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members present; provided, however, that not less than 60 percent of the club membership is present.

Article IX - Suspension of By-Laws

A by-law may be suspended in case of an emergency by a two-thirds vote of the members present, but only for that particular meeting.

Article X - Adoption

This Constitution and the By-Laws appended thereto shall become effective upon acceptance by a majority of the per sons eligible for membership and present at the organizational meeting to be held pursuant to written and adequately published notice thereof.

BY - LAWS

Article I - Meetings

Section 1. Regular meetings shall be held quarterly on the first Monday of the month at such place and hour as may be fixed by the Club Council.

Section 2. Special meetings may be called at any time by a proper resolution of the Club Council and must be called upon written demand of 25% of the members of the club and served upon the president. Upon receipt of such written demand for a special meeting, the president shall fix the time therefore but not later than 10 days thereafter.

Section 3. The Club Council shall meet at least once a month, as required by par. 11f of AR 210-60.

Section 4. Written notice shall be given of any meeting of the club, regular and special, at least 10 days prior thereto, and such notice shall be conspicuously posted in one or more places frequented by the members of the club.

Article II - Members (Special)

Section 1. All personnel temporarily attached to Kyushu Civil Affairs Region shall be eligible for membership as Associate Members. As such they shall be subject to the regular monthly dues and assessments but shall not be subject to the payment of any initial fee. An Associate Member shall be entitled to all the privileges of an active member except holding office and voting upon any motion or question.

Section 2. Any person may be elected an honorary member of the club by a unanimous vote at any regular meeting. He shall be entitled to all the privileges of an active member, except holding office or voting upon any motion or question. He shall not be subject to dues or fees nor liable for any fines. An honorary membership shall be subject to the continued pleasure of a majority of the club.

DECLASSIFIED E.O. 12065 SECTION 3-402/NNDG NO. 715073

Section 3. Subject to House Rules, guests of members may be introduced and enjoy the facilities and privileges of the club.

Article III - Dues, Fees, etc.

Section 1. An initial, active membership fee to the club in the sum of five(5) dollars shall accompany each application for regular membership. Such money will be placed in a revolving fund for use as a part of the net working capital and will be refunded to any member upon demand whenever it shall happen that he is transferred or otherwise severed from the Kyushu Civil Affairs Region.

Section 2. Club dues and other charges will be paid monthly pursuant to a proper assessment against each active and associate member on a pro-rata basis. Such assessments shall be sufficient to maintain the net working capital. The amount thereof shall be determined by the Club Council from time to time and duly brought to the attention of the membership at the next regular meeting of the club.

Section 3. All dues, assessments and charges will be paid by the several affected members on or before the 10th day of the month for which the same may be levied.

Article IV - Finance

Section 1. All funds of the club shall be deposited in the name of the club in such banks or depositories as are approved by the Club Council.

Section 2. All disbursements from deposited funds shall be by check signed by the Club Custodian and countersigned by the President.

Section 3. No financial commitments shall be made on behalf of the club in excess of fifty(50) dollars without the prior formal approval of the Club Council.

Section 4. A proper financial statement of the club shall be duly and regularly posted upon the bulletin board or other conspicuous place. One such time shall be immediately prior to each annual meeting of the club.

Section 5. All disbursements shall be evidenced by proper receipts and vouchers.

Section 6. The system of accounts will embody a double entry bookkeeping system as prescribed in inclosure 5 to letter, Headquarters Eighth Army, 12 August 1949, file AGU 140, subject: Property and Fund Responsibility, and in addition, TM 20-220, AR 210-50, AR 210-60 and FEC Circular 1 of 1 January 1949 will apply.

Section 7. Upon dissolution of the club, all cash, securities and proceeds from the sale of property shall be disposed of pursuant to the provisions of AR 210-50 and FEC Circular 1 of 1 January 1949.

Article V - General

Section 1. Reasonable House Rules shall be promulgated from time to time by the Club Council and conspicuously posted in the clubhouse. Such rules shall be enforced and violators thereof shall be subject to proper penalties which may include total and permanent loss of membership in the club.

DECLASSIFIED E.O. 12065 SECTION 3-402/NNDG NO. 715073

Section 2. Membership cards will be furnished in all appropriate cases and such cards will be presented upon demand.

Section 3. No member who is unreasonably in arrears upon his proper dues and charges shall be entitled to any of the privileges of the club.

Section 4. Members will be responsible for the proper conduct of their several guests.

Section 5. No liability shall accrue against the club in favor of any member, associate member, honorary member, or guest of such by reason of any injury or the loss or dusage of any property sustained in or about the club premises.

Section 6. All standing committees shall make their reports in writing whenever required by the president.
