

PERMITS TO DATE

FIRST HALF OF MARCH SHOWS GAIN OVER SAME PERIOD LAST YEAR

There is evidence that things are improving as far as building in Glendale can be taken as a criterion of such a matter. That building is a criterion may be allowed when one compares conditions a year ago with those of the present period. Last March the outlook was dark and the darkness began to deepen over the whole of the coast. Glendale suffered in common with other places and its building record amounted only to $11,230.

This year things are looking up a little and we have a building record of $13,025. This amount too is gained from 12 buildings and last year required 15 buildings to make up the smaller amount. The large undertakings of 1916 are an indication of better conditions and a freer circulation of money.

Plumbing permits amount up to date to $872 with 15 permits granted. Electric light permits were granted up to March 16 for 13 dwelling houses and one store.

Following are the permits:
A. M. Brooks is having a dwelling house erected by Elmer Elliott at 215 South Jackson street at a cost of $1900.

W. J. Clendennin is building a dwelling house at 325 N. Maryland at a cost of $1600.

Warren W. Stevenson is building a dwelling house at 1460 W. Third St. at a cost of $1500.

L. E. Brockman is building a garage on West Broadway in the alley adjoining the Home Telephone company's office. This is a fine large building of brick which is being rapidly erected. It will cost $1800.

Otto Nelson is building a small family garage at 1564 Oak street at a cost of $30.

Mr. Reassen has employed the Henry M. Porter company to build for him a dwelling house at 844 Columbus avenue at a cost of $1500.

J. E. Osgood is having built by Baird & Ranger at 1294 Jackson St. a dwelling house at a cost of $2290.

Mr. Busch has employed George Daugherty to build for him a garage at 1441 Oak street at a cost of $55.

H. L. McConnell is building at 135 Orange a garage at a cost of $100.

L. N. Rudy is making alterations at 108 W. Broadway which will cost him $200.

S. Metzger is building a garage at 1456 W. Fifth street at a cost of $50.

Mrs. Allie A. Sawyer is building a dwelling house at 512 W. Ninth St. at a cost of $2000.

WANT ENDEAVOR CONVENTION

Representatives of the Christian Endeavor societies of Glendale, Tropic and Eagle Rock at a meeting held last evening voted to invite the 1917 convention of the Los Angeles county Christian Endeavor to meet in Glendale. A committee was selected to make every effort to secure the convention. Our city trustees and Chamber of Commerce have joined in the invitation and it is planned to have some of the representative men of Glendale go to Whittier where the convention began its annual session tonight and urge Glendale's claim. Long Beach is the only other strong applicant for the next convention. This meeting is attended by about 2000 delegates. Its coming to Glendale would mean much to all concerned.

ENTERTAIN TEACHERS

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fortune entertained the principal and teachers of the Pacific avenue school at their attractive home on West Ninth street Thursday evening. The principal speakers of the evening were Prof. White, superintendent of the Glendale schools, Mr. Midworth of the Zigler Church academy of Detroit and Miss Tracy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Tracy, a missionary from Turkey, who appeared in oriental costume.

DEATH OF EDWARD McSPADEN

The many friends of Mrs. Edward McSpadden of 1316 Arden avenue are expressing their profound sympathy for her in the loss of her husband who passed away March 14 at the Good Samaritan hospital in Los Angeles after a short illness, at the age of 36 years. Mr. McSpadden was a man who had many friends and was greatly beloved by many. He held a responsible position with the Security Trust and Savings Bank. Besides the bereaved wife, one little daughter mourns his death. Funeral services and interment were at Covina Thursday.

MISSION OF JEWS

DR. J. R. PRATT THINKS TIME NEAR FOR RETURN OF ISRAEL TO HOLY LAND

Dr. J. R. Pratt considered the "Abrahamic covenant" at the Presbyterian church Monday night. A covenant is an agreement between two or more persons, in this case an agreement between God and Abraham. Covenants fall into two classes, conditional and unconditional. This one is unconditional: "I will" on God's part. It is everlasting and is a land covenant referring to a particular, specific land.

This covenant in its three aspects unlocks chapters 9, 10 and 11 of Romans. The land, unsolved, Palestine, is called a good land twenty-one times. As God made all the land he must be a good judge of land. Twenty-five times it is recorded that God swore with Abraham to give his seed this land. He has not done so, but he must unless he be untrue to his word.

After Pentecost Stephen speaks of this covenant as an everlasting covenant, the land to be forever the possession of the seed of Abraham. Paul, the evangel of the new covenant to the Gentiles, sets aside the seal of the former covenant, circumcision, but does not in the least diminish the force of the former, which is a land covenant. Prophecy is not to the church, but to Israel, and the land is promised to the seed of Abraham.

For 1900 years this land has lain desolate according to God's promise if Israel was disobedient. In one day and generation we see the return of the former and latter rains making it again a fertile land. All these years Israel has sought to make himself clean with his own washings. He has failed, but the time is coming when God will make him clean, give him a new heart and a holy spirit; then shall he set this world on fire for God as did Paul in his day.

God has already prepared the Jew for this work; he is in every land, speaks every tongue, and lives in every climate. The orthodox Jew of our day is studying the Scripture and praying too, as he sees the growth of the Zionist movement beginning since the dispersion now belting the world. The Jew has chosen his flag and looks forward to obtaining the land that is his and that he knows shall be in the possession of the seed of Abraham.

We may not like it and we may not acknowledge it, but the Jew is the leading man in the world today. In whatever line of achievement we take up, at the head we find the Jews. A certain city is said to be controlled by a church, but the Jew owns it; he is not yet ready to control it. The nations of the earth are now slaying each other to forward the Zionist movement. They have beaten, badgered, plundered and destroyed the Jews through all the ages, now the Rothschilds are furnishing the money, the sinews of war, to see them punish themselves for it all.

If the Jew has a sense of revenge in his heart, he now has his hour. With it all, he has not kept himself out of this conflict of death and destruction, for he fights in every army and war.

He, too, has been disobedient, but a remnant must remain. God must keep his covenant with the seed of the woman, with the seed of Abraham and with the seed of David. The fig tree surely is budding and they that be wise note this and know that they must be ready for the change that is imminent. The return of our Lord is at hand, his church which he bought with his blood should look for him.

The attendance at the three classes is steadily increasing, and the interest is intense. The demand for Schofield Bibles continues. All sessions are open to the public.

SWEET SIXTEEN

The home of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Jones, 1543 W. Seventh St., was the scene of a happy gathering recently when their daughter, Irene, entertained a number of young friends in honor of her sixteenth birthday. There were the usual games and good times including dainty refreshments, the special feature of which was a beautiful birthday cake. Decorations of pink and white were most appropriate for the occasion. The guests were Misses Elizabeth Cadd, Eula May, Ruth Spafford, Irene and Alta Garvais, Messrs. Raymond Cleland, Eugene Moore, Pierre Hartsell, Frank Churchill, Richard Ward, William Jones, all of Glendale, and Miss Margaret Carroll and Thomas Carroll of Los Angeles.

YOSEMITE PARK ROADS

DEPARTMENT OF INTERIOR COMPLETES PLANS FOR NATIONAL PLAYGROUNDS

Secretary Lane writes as follows to the proprietor of The Glendale Evening News:
Mr. A. T. Cowan,
The News,
Glendale, Calif.

Dear Sir: I am pleased to announce the completion of the department of the interior's plans for the fuller development of the Yosemite National Park and the larger comfort of its patrons during the coming summer.

These plans involve the hearty co-operation with the department of all the concessioners. Camp Curry, Camp Ahwahnee, Camp Lost Arrow and the Desmond Camp will all be in full and independent operation and the new hotel will be made ready at the earliest possible date. A larger number of visitors even than last year are expected and will be better cared for.

The automobile transportation companies are also alert and schedules are in preparation which will afford every convenience. Four companies will operate independently, but in complete co-operation. These are the Desmond company on the Big Oak Flat and Tioga Roads; the Davis company on the Triangle route from El Portal via the Tuolumne grove of big trees; the Yosemite Transportation company, operating from El Portal to the valley, and the Yosemite Stage and Turpike company from Wawona to the valley.

The tourist may go into the park from any entrance by his own machine or by any one of the four automobile companies and stop at the hotel or any one of the four camps.

Every criticism made last summer has been carefully considered and so far as possible met.

Several new camps easily accessible by automobile or saddle horse trips will be established on the Tioga road and these, with the proposed new trails and improvements on the roads, will open up the splendid country north of the valley, a scenic wonderland which has never before been accessible.

The plans provide for accommodation for visitors of all tastes and degrees of income. Californians, the most numerous patrons of the park, have been specially considered, but not with less care than those expected from the east.

The automobiles this year will have a fuller use of the park than ever before. A small fee will give access to any and all roads, subject only to a few simple regulations to safeguard the traveler. There will be a free shelter or parking space at each camp so that the motorist will not have the inconvenience of going to and fro from the public shelter to get his car.

Automobile owners are to have the privilege of driving on the floor of the valley at a reasonable speed, but not until paths or walks have been provided along the edge of roads which have hitherto been used in common by vehicles and pedestrians. The work of building these paths will be undertaken as soon as weather conditions permit.

There will be no discrimination against any particular entrance to the park, and should the appropriations which are being asked from congress be obtained, an effort will be made to make all the entrances as attractive as possible to the tourist.

The department is co-operating closely with State Engineer McClure so that the state roads entering the park will be linked in over much easier grades with the park roads. All the roads in the park are now free except the Wawona toll road owned by private parties. However, an effort is now being made to make this a free road and thus abolish all tolls except the one fee which is exacted from motorists, and which is expended on the further improvement of the roads.

The transcontinental railroads are co-operating heartily with the plans of the department for bringing a larger number of eastern tourists to the Yosemite during the coming season. Among them is the expenditure of more than $40,000 in the preparation of a series of beautiful pictorial bulletins of which two of the most interesting will be those of Yosemite and Sequoia National parks.

I hope that all the communities in the state will co-operate in bringing this noble Sierra playground into its fuller use by the people of the whole country.

FRANKLIN K. LANE.

WEATHER FORECAST—Foggy or cloudy tonight; Saturday fair; westerly winds.

TO INDEX LINCOLN HIGHWAY

Oakland is to see that the Lincoln Highway is marked as far East as Salt Lake City, with signs pointing the way and indicating the number of miles to this city, the Western terminus of the great road.

The Lincoln Highway committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce is active in the work, and already a large portion of the necessary money has been raised. More will be forthcoming from the Motor Power Show that is to be held in Oakland's $1,000,000 municipal auditorium beginning April 24 when 20 per cent of the gross proceeds will be given to the Chamber of Commerce for the highway work.

The Oakland Rotary club and the Chamber of Commerce are also planning to make the highway through Alameda county to Oakland, one of the prettiest stretches along all its 3000 miles. Trees are to be planted 60 feet apart on both sides of the road, and between them are to be beds of red geraniums three feet wide for the entire distance. The geraniums are ever-blooming in this part of California, and the effect will be beautiful. Already more than enough trees have been given to plant the highway through the county and the work will be started April 1.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY CONVENTION

One of the most interesting meetings of the Women's Missionary society of the Congregational church that has been held recently took place in the home of Mrs. O. E. Von Oven, 830 Columbus. There was a large attendance. The business of the meeting was largely confined to two papers on missionary work. One of these papers was by Mrs. C. M. Van Dyke on "William Carey, the Missionary." The other was by Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson on "Adoniram Judson the Missionary."

BUSINESS WITHOUT PROFIT

It is worthy of every business man's consideration that there were more than twenty-two thousand business failures in the United States during the year 1915. Of these more than twenty-one thousand were small concerns.

That is the best that can be said of the most honest of all these business failures. Others are not so honest. Finding themselves in a difficult place many small business men resort to tricks of all kinds and end in what is practically fraudulent bankruptcy.

It has also been found that an amazing number of small manufacturers have no adequate cost-accounting system. Their goods are arbitrarily priced. Some of them doing quite a large business never think of charging anything for depreciation.

Many so-called business men sell goods at a loss or with a small margin of profit because they do not keep books in the right way. These men cannot tell whether or not they are making profit. In order to compete with their rivals in business are often forced to follow the descending scale of profits to their bitter loss.

DEMAND FOR LABORERS IN EAST

According to recent labor statistics the course of employment is no longer toward the west but toward the east. Just at present conditions in the eastern states are such that the eastern railroads are making a canvass of western states for laborers to re-enforce their construction gangs.

In ordinary times there is usually an overplus of labor of all kinds in the east. Every big steamer from Italy, France, Germany and Britain used to bring hordes of cheap labor.

In the east the munitions factories are working full time and overtime to fill the orders of the European nations. This has drawn on the field of labor supply on which the railroads have hitherto depended.

However it would seem that there is really some danger that the movement toward the east may be overdone and that the west may find itself struggling against a shortage of labor that will not relax until peace restores things to their normal condition.

No one can tell what may happen in the United States itself before another year is over. Events move with great rapidity in these days and the United States itself may be at war or any one of a thousand other conditions may arise that may force this land to desire the encouragement of that very immigration which it has so long been deploring.

Personals

Mrs. Claude O. Pulliam will entertain the Auction Bridge Luncheon club at her home, 148 South Kenwood, Monday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bryant of 1461 Vine street, Glendale, on February 25, 1916, at the Burbank hospital, a daughter, Helen Louise.

Tomorrow will be presented the views of a few of our citizens on the subject of "buying at home." The practice of buying from home merchants so far as possible should be encouraged from the standpoint of its being good business to do so.

Mrs. Ella W. Richardson of South Central avenue is enjoying a most delightful visit in San Francisco, San Jose and Palo Alto. Mrs. Richardson while at Palo Alto was the guest of Miss Lillian Ellias at the inauguration banquet at Stanford university, where Miss Ellias is a student.

EAST SIDE NOTES

Mr. C. W. Young of Rock Glen avenue recently spent a day at Hermosa Beach looking after his business interests in that growing seaside community. He reports the season as one of great promise. There is a demand for houses and the summer population is likely to be considerably increased.

Mr. Ambrosini, who has considerable property out on the east side, in the neighborhood of Rock Glen avenue, has completed the building of his new bungalow and has rented it.

Mrs. W. R. Palmer and her daughter, Mrs. Robert Maus, of 916 Rock Glen avenue, entertained Wednesday at a St. Patrick's luncheon. The rooms were tastefully decorated with white Cherokee roses and ferns. The following guests were present: Mrs. E. Methdin, Mrs. Claudia Goodwin, Mrs. Harold Martindale, Mrs. Merriwether, Mrs. Gertrude Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Stone of Rock Glen avenue entertained a party of thirty guests Wednesday evening at a "Shadow party." Those present were from the neighborhood. A very merry night was spent. An old-fashioned spelling school afforded much amusement.

Mr. and Mrs. Bourne of Eagle Rock avenue have issued invitations to about 100 guests for a regular old Irish party. There will be a regular orchestra to discourse modern dance music for those who prefer that style of dance, but the real feature of the evening will be the Irish jigs and reels, which will be played by a genuine Irish piper. The guests will further have appropriate Hibernian amusements, Irish tales, Irish wit and humor and will enjoy a regular St. Patrick's day entertainment.

GLENDALE FOOTHILLS

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hewitt, 728 N. Louise street, were members of a large party that motored to Santa Barbara last Sunday. Four autos, including the Hewitts' car, laden with merry guests, went to Santa Barbara where they made the Hotel Potter their headquarters. After a pleasing stay and walk through the beautiful hotel grounds, the party went to the Montecito club, the millionaire club of the place. Some of the party played golf and all enjoyed the dance at the Hotel Potter in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wouters, 1519 N. Central avenue, entertained a party of twenty-five people Thursday night. Among them were the following: Mr. Foy, the poet, of Chicago and Pasadena, who recited a number of his own poems full of wit and humor; Mrs. Sherman, the famous club woman of Chicago, who gave an original and exceedingly clever appreciation of "California;" Mr. Matthews, a member of the choir of Christ church of Chicago, a famous singer, who sang several songs; Mr. Session, organist of the First Christian Science church of Los Angeles, who delighted the company with his piano selections. Senator La Fontaine of Belgium, who is a great worker for peace and who has been identified with Mr. Charles Wouters in the work of Belgian relief, gave a most interesting talk on present conditions in Europe and what might be expected after the war has come to an end.

DEATH OF J. P. NICHOLS

J. P. Nichols, the well-known contractor and builder of Glendale, who has been known to a large circle of friends in the city for many years, died Thursday, March 16, at his home, 217 Lomita avenue, at 4 a. m. Mr. Nichols had been ailing for some time, but was able to go about and was working in his garden a few hours before being called away. His death was quite sudden.

Mr. Nichols was an old soldier and had lived in his home on Lomita avenue for thirty years. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Emma Nichols. His brother and nephew have arrived from Seattle for the funeral, which will take place Monday, March 20, from the family home on Lomita avenue. Interment will be in Grand View cemetery. The funeral arrangements are in charge of the Jewel City Undertaking company.

Dr. Enoch, 310 Brand, S. S. 309.

TROPICO

Mrs. O. P. Jones has arranged a splendid musical program which will be presented Tuesday afternoon, March 23, at the regular monthly meeting of the Tropico Parent-Teacher association, which meets in the Cerritos street school. Mrs. Hester T. Griffith will give a talk on "What we owe the Child." The Park Avenue P. T. A. will be the guest of the Cerritos P. T. A. Thursday, March 23. Miss Ella Flagg has been secured as the speaker for the April P. T. A. The parliamentary drill will as usual precede the regular meeting Thursday afternoon.

The Tropico baseball team has arranged a game with the Ford Motor company ball team, which will be played on the municipal playground diamond Sunday afternoon. The diamond has but recently been placed in excellent condition, not even a weed being visible.

The Tropico Concert band will give another free concert Sunday afternoon preceding the ball game. The concert of last Sunday added so much enthusiasm and spice to the game that the Tropico team won 10 to 6.

Prof. and Mrs. Frank H. Emhke are rejoicing over the arrival of a handsome nine pound baby boy that came to their home in Silver Creek, New York, Tuesday, March 7. And unto them a son was born and his name will be Murray Howard Emhke. It will be remembered that during Prof. and Mrs. Emhke's residence in Tropico on Gardena avenue Mr. Emhke was instructor in mathematics and athletics in the Glendale Union High school.

The Tropico orchestra will render several selections at the Irish vaudeville and photo play this evening. Every one will be wearing green at the show. Those who will not appear in the favorite color of the 17th of Ireland will certainly be color blind.

White and green, suggestive of St. Patrick's day, and the restful green of the shamrock, were used most effectively in the pretty decorations of white Cherokee roses and ferns with which Mrs. Estace Benton Moore adorned her prettily appointed lunch table Thursday when this charming hostess entertained Mrs. B. F. Hilliker of Los Angeles at luncheon.

A most attentive as well as interested audience of members and friends of the Tropico Thursday club enjoyed the splendid talk given by Dr. Jessie A. Russell at the regular meeting of the club held yesterday afternoon in the city hall.

Dr. Russell is a most pleasing speaker, her personality is most charming and her bright, witty and clever arguments are convincing. Dr. Russell drove each argument with silvery oratory to the home mark and there clinched it with well rounded facts, so that when the subject of proposed legislation for women is mentioned those who enjoyed Dr. Russell's able discussion of yesterday on this subject will have some knowledge of what really is required and just how much each can do towards a reformation along those lines.

Another delightful feature of yesterday's program was the piano selections by Harvey Jonas, the boy prodigy. This lad, whose tiny feet cannot by 12 or 18 inches reach the floor while seated at the piano rendered compositions by Mozart and other well known composers. As a final number Master Harvey gave the "Evening Star" in a most acceptable manner. At the conclusion of the program the usual delightful social hour was enjoyed and dainty refreshments were served. The hostesses who thus rendered the afternoon so pleasant were Mrs. Andy Stephenson, Mrs. Clyde R. Carmack, Mrs. J. W. Dalrymple and Mrs. Anastasia Moore.

Mrs. Charles A. Barker, at the earnest solicitation of her many friends, has consented to become a candidate for re-election as member of the Tropico board of education. Mrs. Barker during her three years as member of the board has been a most efficient and conscientious officer and served in a most creditable manner. Having been a teacher for a number of years previous to coming to California, Mrs. Barker is well qualified to occupy the position, as her practical experience as teacher better enables her to serve the school and the patrons. Mrs. Barker is also a graduate of Wellesley college.

FOR MRS. LOGAN

In recognition of St. Patrick's day and the brilliant color that is always so suggestive of this patron saint, the home of Mrs. Claud D. Pulliam, 148 South Kenwood, was gaily festooned in green—potted palms, ferns, and just green—Thursday afternoon, when this gracious hostess entertained with 500 complimentary to Mrs. Ben F. Logan, a charming matron from Kentucky, who is the house guest of her cousin, Mrs. W. E. Evans. Upon the arrival of each guest, she was presented a small favor, something suggestive of St. Patrick, for was this not a St. Patrick party? Then when the twenty or more guests had each received a souvenir of the occasion, each was given a dainty hand painted score card, that corresponded with her souvenir and thus each selected her partner and table at cards.

An interesting game was enjoyed, each striving for the first prize, but this trophy was won by Mrs. Albert D. Pearce, while Mrs. John Allen Legge was awarded the consolation prize. Mrs. Ben F. Logan received the honor guest prize.

The same color scheme was very pronounced in the dainty refreshments that were served at the close of the delightful afternoon's entertainment.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY SOCIAL

The Ladies' Aid of the First Presbyterian church has arranged a St. Patrick's day social for tonight at the home of the pastor, the Rev. R. M. Mottern, 340 Central avenue. A splendid and appropriate program has been prepared, consisting of songs, Irish and otherwise, recitations of all kinds, a talk on St. Patrick and his influence and music of a first-class description. All are invited to attend.

FLAG LADY MARRIED

Interesting indeed will be the announcement of the marriage of Miss Frances Richardson, which happy event was solemnized recently. Miss Richardson, who is so well known in Glendale, known in social, club and school circles, not only as a most charming lecturer, but as the Flag Lady, was married to Mr. Lee Chamberlain of Los Angeles and in the future will occupy one of the palatial residences that render the heights on Vermont avenue so desirable.

Mrs. Chamberlain received the title of "Flag Lady" owing to the fact that she carefully prepared and wrote the history of the American flag. Her lecture upon this interesting subject has been heard throughout the entire United States, from the Chautauqua platform, from

C. F. Greenman of this city received a letter the other day from his son, Wallace Greenman, who resides at Malta, Montana, which stated the writer was doing fine on his ranch of 320 acres and that prices were good and the farmers prosperous. The part of the letter, however, that is most interesting to Burbank people, was the fact that the warmest day at Malta for 30 days was 14 degrees below zero and the coldest day 59 degrees below. The writer ended up by saying that he contemplated making a trip to Southern California in the near future to enjoy a little real warm weather.

The Presbyterian Church is now nearly completed, the painters putting the finishing touches on the building this week.

H. S. Vaudeville Pleases

Perhaps the most successful benefit along the entertainment line ever held in Burbank was the High School Carnival and Vaudeville show, given at the High School auditorium Saturday evening. The concessions started at 7:30 p. m. All were very good and included a trip to Hades, where there were pitfalls and terrible scenes galore, including sliding stairs, false steps, a fiery furnace, devils, Fijis, etc.; the Zoo; Sweet Sixteen and Never Been Kissed; Stella, etc. Another decided attraction was the Japanese Garden in the art room, which had been beautifully decorated with peach blossoms in cream and white. Pretty High School girls in Japanese kimonos served the patrons with ice cream and cold drinks. The vaudeville program started at 9:30 and was crowded with good acts until 11:30.

One of the most popular hits was the Mississippi Minstrels, who were recalled again and again. The members of this headline number were L. B. Davidson, Walter Story, Lee Shelton, Frank Trapani, John Rand, Donald Barager, Glenfield and Stouffer Barcome and Hugh Pomeroy. Other good acts included: Alva Palmer, Marjorie Chapman, Ida Ludlow, Constance Walker and Stouffer Barcome in the "Spookie Man Dance;" a whistling number by Harold Stack; "Old Maids Made New"—the old maids which were turned into most bewitching damsels included, Ethel and Ida Pettit, Elizabeth Koher, Marjory Little, Lucille Nickerson, Eloise Horton, Mary Koher, Catherine Crawford, Lena Doremus and the wonder worker, Prof. Hermand; Black Magic was cleverly dis-
