Boston Sat. Morning
1842

Dear Deborah

Warren arrived this morning after a short passage of 12 days well & hearty - having got through his business successfully - Yesterday aftsome when in the vicinity of Sage Pond - they hailed a Salem pilot boat - & leaving the vessel to take her own time - he came up in her - got here at ^{this morning} 3 - & finding the house at Roxbury silent, - & ^{the} ~~strange~~ ^{trunks} ~~trunks~~ ten cups in the closet - he came ^{back to} ~~town~~ & at 5 this morning - beat up our quarters - I suppose he will be off in the next steamer - July 1st I will write again to-morrow & tell you what is in Josh's letters which have been awaiting him in town a fortnight No further news - I wrote you a long letter yesterday - Henry seems better to-day - Yours in love Caroline -

Miss Deborah Weston.
