

Ms. A. 9. 2. 24. 115

We are pleased to have articles in the A. S. Standard of (it is a book) non intelligible technology - they ask to take up the paper - some extracts from the Annals of 19 years - dear Miss Weston
 The whole
 The things will sell for three times the price paid
 in the book -
 We got some
 - piece of sea -
 and this year the 'we took very much -
 If I were to give an account of all the names which have presented contributions of the Cook Society being this year few, you would I think excuse the members - early and late in numbers united to it - but case will give you

Some idea of our difficulty - We had three friends staying with us and we hoped when they left we should have nice time for the Bay area things - one of them got scarlet fever and the other was nearly as ill - and when they were getting on I got ill - for some months we have not had one quiet day - Mrs Manning the active and anxious Secretary

- Had one of her daughters ill every now and then during the year. Had to go to a watering place & and the young lady herself was always actively engaged - then the cholera was in Cook and while that was the case, no society for foreign matters could be spoken of - even had the people been well enough to think as usual - but the air was not good any where - The Piper Jones who worked the "Departure of Rebecca" was supplied with materials by the Society, but they deserve great credit for their perseverance

- they have been parents of two years working it and as they have a great deal of their own affairs to occupy them we think they could not have been idle! they have both been married within the last few months - and are now Mrs. Haycraft and Mrs. Plant - they were first interested in the Anti-Slavery - They send the price of ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> ~~most~~ <sup>most</sup> ~~suitable~~ <sup>suitable</sup> ~~place~~ <sup>place</sup> as the most suitable place including ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> ~~most~~ <sup>most</sup> ~~suitable~~ <sup>suitable</sup> ~~place~~ <sup>place</sup> of Anti-Slavery - With regard to this Bazaar for which some contributions are sent, we are ~~pleased~~ <sup>pleased</sup> in ~~spending~~ <sup>spending</sup> well, think a Bazaar in which he is interested has as good a chance of succeeding as any other which c. he undertakes and they feel that his claims are great. He roused a feeling which no one else had done - partly from the fact that he had actually suffered and partly from his actual powers. His North Star is greatly liked. He has succeeded in making it a paper which even <sup>uninterested</sup> ~~any~~ people can take up and read some of and yet he is thoroughly and entirely Anti-Slavery - in these countries we must have something more than A. S. news or our gentleman friends show them by all are not interested as W. D.

Webb - indeed he could scarcely know all he does of American except he was so very fond of reading every thing <sup>the U. S. of</sup> - American, except as a place to send emigrants, and to get corn from, is, I am sorry to say, very little known in Cork - we are far behind England - We have heard from our agents in Paris of the arrival of your father and Mrs. Gollen, he takes and son - the latter - we shall hope to hear more of Mrs. Gollen - we all feel under obligations to her for her 'Sketches of Married Life' and selections from Pemberton - I hope to send a list of the Contributors to publish in the Bay View Gazette as it shows the goods have been received - Boston being, as I said, a far-away place to many who send - But you must not understand send to many Liberty Bells to come

- all think it most unreasonable but we like to get 60 or 80 B. G. with many, many excuses and their wishes for you.
