A support group over Okinawa in the afternoon of 21 April composed of 4 SHAMROCK BAY FM-2's, 9 LUNGA POINT FM-2's, and 3 LUNGA POINT FM-3's, was assigned as targets 6 supply or fuel dumps in so. Okinawa camouflaged as hay stacks. 1 was destroyed by a direct bomb hit. Our VF failed to obtain rocket hits; they strafed with unobserved results.

During the same afternoon, Lt(jg) E.R. DATHE, VO-94 pilot of a FM-3, at the completion of an observer mission discovered and attacked with .50 cal. ammo and rockets 12 15-ft. boats along the southeast coast of Okinawa. He is believed to have inflicted some damage from strafing on all 12, but the extent of the damage is not known. He also sighted and attacked a 50 ft. lugger in the same area. The lugger was hit amidships with 2 rockets and appeared to be sinking when Lt(jg) DATHE left the scene.
