FRENCH, ENGLISH & SPANISH LANGUAGES.—The undersigned (a Frenchman by birth) recently arrived from the north, begs leave respectfully to inform the citizens of New-Orleans that he has opened in St. Pierre street, No. 146, between Dauphine & Bourgogne streets a DAY and EVENING SCHOOL, for the English, French and Spanish Languages. Every exertion on his part shall be used to merit the approbation of those who may intrust children to his care, and of those pupils who take private lessons from him.

His method of teaching the above languages is grounded both upon reason and experience; it is simple, perspicuous and impressive, and enables the learner in a short time to speak and write the said languages with ease and propriety.

This method has proved a valuable acquisition; for pupils, even not acquainted with the grammatical principles of any language, and only gifted with a certain knowledge, can become master of a foreign language without burthening their memory, and taking more time for their studies than that required for their usual lessons under the preceptor.

The course of each language is divided into three sections of thirty lessons each. At the end of the first section, the scholar will have learned the rules of pronunciation, orthography and the general principles of grammar, so as to continue his studies, if he pleases, without the further assistance of a master.

At the end of the second section, he will have acquired syntax, with all the exceptions to the general rules of the declinable parts of speech, understand well all that he reads, and be able to translate the language he studies into his own.

At the end of the third section, he will have studied correct phraseology, will write and speak well, and even understand those who speak with much rapidity, and translate elegantly his own language into the one he studies.

The scholar being at liberty to quit his class whenever he deems it proper.

The undersigned having a few hours to spare wishes to fill them up in teaching at any person's house and in any male or female schools or seminaries in this city. The most honorable references can be given if required. Terms moderate and made known on application.

The Advertiser can be seen at all times at his school room, or at his dwelling, No 111, St. Pierre street between Bourbon and Dauphine streets.
