

LATENT DATES:

| | |
|----------|----------|
| March 1 | March 1 |
| March 2 | March 2 |
| March 3 | March 3 |
| March 4 | March 4 |
| March 5 | March 5 |
| March 6 | March 6 |
| March 7 | March 7 |
| March 8 | March 8 |
| March 9 | March 9 |
| March 10 | March 10 |
| March 11 | March 11 |
| March 12 | March 12 |
| March 13 | March 13 |
| March 14 | March 14 |
| March 15 | March 15 |
| March 16 | March 16 |
| March 17 | March 17 |
| March 18 | March 18 |
| March 19 | March 19 |
| March 20 | March 20 |
| March 21 | March 21 |
| March 22 | March 22 |
| March 23 | March 23 |
| March 24 | March 24 |
| March 25 | March 25 |
| March 26 | March 26 |
| March 27 | March 27 |
| March 28 | March 28 |
| March 29 | March 29 |
| March 30 | March 30 |
| March 31 | March 31 |

THE BEE.

PRINTED BY J. RAYON.

Publisher of the "Commercial Bee," and of the "First and Third Municipalities."

NEW ORLEANS, THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 16, 1857.

SALES OF COTTON YESTERDAY.

200 bales, May 1st, 150; 45 do, 150; 100 do, N. America price not transacted.

700.

BALTIMORE, MARCH 15.

The cotton market is now in a state of transition.

The average price of cotton is 10c per pound.

1500 bales, Feb. 1st, 10c per pound, and 10c 1/2.

2500 do, 10c 1/2.

3000 do, 10c 1/2.

125 do, 10c.

125 do, 10c.