PRESENTS

DEDICATION

We, the staff wish to dedicate this book to all those members of Class 43-13, who for any one of a hundred different reasons aren't with us now that the class has won its coveted wings and bars.

To those men, wherever they may be, our Thanks for their friendship and our good wishes for their future are symbolized by this book.

A black and white portrait of a man in a military uniform. He is wearing a garrison cap with a crest on top. The crest features an eagle with wings spread, perched on a shield with a cross, and a banner below. The man has short hair, a serious expression, and is looking directly at the camera. He is wearing a light-colored uniform jacket with a dark tie. On the collar of the jacket, there are two insignia: a pilot's wings on the left and a star on the right. The background is a plain, light color.

TO THE PILOTS

To the pilots who, by their untiring patience and understanding, helped us in so many ways to complete our training, we, the members of class 43-13, wish to express our gratitude and the desire that we might find pilots equally as expert when we reach "COMBAT."
