

Myanmar and Bangladesh | Rohingya Crisis (2018 figures)

~900 000
 Refugees from Northern Rakhine (Myanmar) to camps in Cox's Bazar District (Bangladesh)
 Of which > 600 000 in the Kutupalong – Balukhali expansion site ("Mega Camp")
> 16 000
 New arrivals Jan-Dec 2018

2018 JOINT RESPONSE PLAN (JRP) for Rohingya Humanitarian Crisis in Cox's Bazar (Jan-Dec 2018)
for 1 242 000 affected refugees and host communities
Overall needs	72% received
USD 950.8 Million	USD 683.2 Million

> 600 000
 Rohingya confined to camps or living in villages with highly restricted movement or in need of humanitarian assistance in Central and Northern Rakhine (Myanmar)
+ 5 000
 newly displaced people since the end of 2018 due to violence in Northern Rakhine

- Northern and Central Rakhine (Myanmar)
- Cox's Bazar District (Bangladesh)
- Refugees from Myanmar
- Internal Displaced Persons (IDPs)
- Main Refugees site
- Main IDPs site
- Main city
- Internal boundary*
- State boundary
- International border

* District for Bangladesh
 Sub-division for Rakhine State (Myanmar)
 Source: GoB/UNHCR, DG ECHO, JRC