NEGRO'S DEATH. Was Tied to a Tree and Tortured by Mob. Wheeling, W. Va., July 11.—A special to the Register from Bluefields says: "The little town of Duran, Mingo county, was the scene yesterday of the assaulting of a little fourteen-year-old girl by a negro, followed by his subsequent lynching by an enraged mob numbering over 200 men. The negro was dragged to the village common and bound to a tree. The clothing of the negro was torn from his body and pins, tacks, penknives and every conceivable weapon of torture was stuck into the skin of the negro as he struggled, vainly pleading for his life. He was allowed to suffer a hundred deaths with his body bleeding in a thousand places. The almost lifeless form of his little victim was then placed before the glaring eyes of the brute, while willing hands cut the tongue from his swollen mouth. His cries became incoherent and before the enraged citizens could be checked his skin was literally cut from his body and distributed among the villagers. His left leg was then cut out with jackknives, his toes and fingers chopped off and carried away as mementos. His bloody and mangled form was then soaked with kerosene and burned."

MORE UNFAVORABLE BULLETINS TO-DAY

POPE'S CONDITION NOT SO SATISFACTORY Was Restless During Night—A Turn Slightly for the Worse This Morning.

(Associated Press.) Rome, July 13.—At 9:15 a. m. o'clock this morning the doctors issued the following bulletin regarding the condition of the Pope: "Up to midnight the Pontiff remained tranquil, but afterwards he experienced agitated intervals. A physical examination of the thorax shows no change since day before yesterday. The action of the kidneys continues slight, and the general condition of His Holiness is somewhat depressed. His pulse is 82, respiration 32 and temperature 38 centigrade." (Signed) Lappion, Mazzoni.

When Monsignor Anzani, one of the Pope's secretaries, described this morning to His Holiness the burst of enthusiasm which he had produced a revival favorable to the Catholic church unexampled in its history, the Pontiff exclaimed: "Blessed illness." At both the Vatican and the house of Dr. Lappion the arrival of patent medicines, surgical instruments and medical apparatus of all kinds continue, each being accompanied by assurances that His Holiness will recover if it is used according to directions. From Vienna have come highly perfected machines for producing artificial respiration and for making oxygen. The Pontiff, however, has not required the administration of oxygen for the last three days. "What I need," says Pope Leo, "is air, fresh air. Besides, I should be allowed to rise. An old man of 94 should not be kept in bed when without fever."

Pope Leo is credited with having said: "I am destined to die from this illness. I feel I shall expire on Thursday, the first day of the Carmelite Madonna, whom I specially worship." This sentiment is remarkable, because in a certain way it coincides with the prophecy made in the twelfth century by St. Malachi, the Bishop of Armagh, who predicted that Pope Leo would be succeeded by a Pope symbolizing the motto "Ignis ardens" (burning fire). The Carmelite Madonna is the patroness of the order, which attributes its origin to the prophet Elijah, who ascended to Heaven in a chariot of fire. Besides a member and protector of this order, Cardinal Gottl is looked upon as the most likely successor to the pontificate.

Attack of Dizziness. Rome, July 13.—12:30 p. m.—Some menialness was occasioned this morning owing to the Pope's being attacked by a feeling of dizziness. The dizziness was a kind of mental confusion, during which he believed he saw a vision. He explained afterwards that he thought he saw an undefined shadow moving about the room, and slowly approaching his bed whereupon the Pontiff became agitated, and called for his valet, Pio Centra, saying: "Pio, Pio, who is it, who is it?" Dr. Lappion and Centra rushed to the patient's bed, and soon succeeded in tranquillizing him. His Holiness was revived so satisfactorily by the administration of stimulants that Dr. Lappion was able to leave the Vatican and pay another visit to his daughter, who is suffering from an attack of fever.

Not Allowed Up. Rome, July 13.—12:40 p. m.—It developed during the morning as the result of a careful medical examination, that the condition of the Pope's kidneys is worse. The diminution of certain elements leads the doctors to fear that his system is gradually approaching a state of dissolution. The Pope has not been allowed to get up to-day. No change is apparent in his condition since morning.

Early Examination. Rome, July 13, 4 p. m.—It is understood that the Pope will hold an examination on the doctors tomorrow than usual this evening, owing to the somewhat more unfavorable condition of the patient.

NO MORE WALKING DELEGATES. New York Union With Fifty Thousand Members Accept Employers' Terms. (Associated Press.) New York, July 13.—Some twenty thousand skilled mechanics in the building trades returned to work to-day under the modified plans of the Employers' Association. This number will be increased to fifty thousand by Wednesday. Unions with that membership have voted to accept the terms of the employers. One of the terms abolishes walking delegates, and refers all disputes to a joint board of arbitration.

JUDGE WILCOX DEAD. Honolulu, July 13.—Judge Wilcox, the intimate friend and adviser of the late King Kalakaua, and other monarchs of the Hawaiian islands, is dead as the result of an operation, blood poisoning having set in. Judge Wilcox was a noted authority on the Hawaiian language, and was thoroughly versed in the history and law of the islands.

COMET MOVING SOUTH. Prof. Campbell Expects It to Be Brightest of Past Ten Years.

(Associated Press.) San Jose, Cal., July 13.—Prof. W. W. Campbell, of Lick Observatory, says: "The comet discovered by Borelli at Marselles three weeks ago had been under observation by various members of the Lick Observatory staff. It promises to be an unusually interesting object. Its brightness has increased very rapidly until it is now as easily visible as the fourth magnitude star. On Monday evening observers should experience no difficulty in detecting it about one or two degrees southwest of the bright star Alpha Cygni. Its motion is carrying it southwestward about five degrees daily. Our photographs have recorded two prominent tails, each several degrees in length. While it is always unsafe to make predictions as to how bright a comet will grow, yet there is little doubt that this one will be a fairly conspicuous object in the evening sky. In fact, I expect it to be the brightest comet of the past ten years."

VISITED FLEET. The Prince of Wales Received by Rear-Admiral Cotton of the Kearsarge.

(Associated Press.) Portsmouth, July 13.—The Prince of Wales visited the United States European squadron this morning and breakfasted with Rear-Admiral Cotton on the flagship Kearsarge. All the ships in the harbor and the channel fleet at Spithead dressed ship, manned sides and fired a royal salute as the Prince boarded the American flagship. The Prince was received on the quarter deck of the Kearsarge by Admiral Cotton and his officers and the party descended to the admiral's cabin for breakfast, at which President Roosevelt and King Edward were toasted. Admiral Cotton subsequently escorted the Prince of Wales around the ship, after which the Prince landed, the warships firing another royal salute, and took train for London.

JAPS WILL FISH. Decide to Accept the Caniers' Terms, and Are to Go Out To-Night.

(Special to the Times.) Vancouver, July 13.—The Japanese came to the caniers' terms this morning, and a committee signed contracts for 15 and 14 cents for July and August. All are starting to fish to-night. The canners have a big fleet of steamers and are down Puget Sound waiting for the first catch at the traps to be brought to the Fraser river. Mill managers decided this morning, in view of the hopelessness of a settlement with the carpenters and the hardship being worked on building contractors, to raise the embargo on the sale of lumber. The delivery of building material will therefore recommence to-morrow.

FATHER ANTOBUS DEAD. He Was Regarded as Probable Successor to Cardinal Vaughan.

(Associated Press.) London, July 13.—Father Antobus, the superior of Brompton Oratory, is dead. He was regarded as a possible successor to Cardinal Vaughan, as Archbishop of Westminster. His early career was in the diplomatic service, and for some time filled the post of second secretary of the British legation at Washington.

THREE FIRES. Two Alarms on Saturday Evening—Another in James Bay To-Day.

A couple of alarms within a short time of each other occupied the fire department's attention on Saturday evening. The first, a telephone alarm, called them to the residence of R. L. Drury on Fort street, where a spark from the chimney had set fire to the roof. Before the department arrived a volunteer salvage corps had got to work and removed most of the furniture from the second story. Fortunately, it was unnecessary to touch anything on the ground floor, as the fire was speedily put out. The damage amounted to about $200.

While the firemen were engaged with this blaze, a small fire in the wall of the Anglo hotel started somebody, who turned in an alarm. It was caused doubtless by a lighted cigarette or cigar thrown by a careless smoker, and was extinguished before the firemen arrived. Two mishaps occurred while the apparatus was en route to this blaze. The recreation wagon from headquarters and No. 2 chemical came together while both were going down Yates street just below Government, the chemical being crowded into the sidewalk. No serious damage was done. The other mishap, a second alarm, occurred at the James Bay apparatus was proceeding down Fort street from Government. In turning the corner and attempting to avoid a vehicle, the reel collided with the telephone pole just outside the Bank of Commerce, and the horses dashed out the sidewalk. The driver was thrown to the road, but was not seriously injured. The apparatus was taken to a repair shop.

This morning, a fire in the roof of Mrs. Englehardt's residence in James Bay was extinguished by the department. The damaged James Bay reel, motor and dash board, was on hand. Fireman Blain having driven it from the repair shop to the scene immediately the alarm was sounded.

Electricity, which is being gradually introduced into the clothing factories of the north, now drives 1,500 sewing machines at Leeds, England.

THE VACANCY IN SUPREME COURT. NEW JUDGE MAY BE FROM THE WEST. Chief Justice Hunter's Name is Mentioned in Connection With the Appointment.

(Special to the Times.) Ottawa, July 13.—It is understood that the Dominion government will invite the international congress of geologists to meet here in 1906. Question of Successor. There is some talk of appointing to the Supreme court, in the place of the late Justice Armour, a judge west of Lake Superior, the name of Chief Justice Hunter, of British Columbia, being mentioned in this regard. The name of Justice Nesbitt, of the Supreme court, is spoken of as a successor to Justice Armour on the Alaska boundary commission.

In Montreal. Messrs. Wilson and Green have been at Montreal for several days, presumably negotiating for campaign funds. They have not yet had an interview with the government. Senator Templeman will arrange for one this week. Bill Passed. In the committee of the House on the Nicola, Kamloops and Similkameen railway, R. L. Borden said that it was an invasion of provincial rights to declare it a work for the general advantage of Canada. Others of the opposition members took the same view. Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that the policy of the Dominion government, as far back as 1882, was to declare such roads as connected with leading trunk lines to be worked for the general advantage of Canada, and the present government, generally speaking, did not change that policy. The reason why this bill was declared to be for the general advantage of Canada was that it connected with the Canadian Pacific. The bill passed, and was read a third time. It was in charge of W. A. Galtier.

Another Appeal in the Will Case. MATTER IS NOW BEFORE FULL COURT. Action of Milne vs. Macdonald Dismissed—May Be Taken to Privy Council. At a special sittings of the Full court this morning a decision was delivered in the case of Milne vs. Macdonald. At the trial of this case before Mr. Justice Irving, judgment was given in favor of the plaintiff, and from this judgment Mr. Macdonald appealed at the last sittings. Written judgments were handed down this morning by their Lordships, Justices Walkem, Drake and Martin, allowing the appeal with costs and dismissing the action with costs. It is understood that the case will probably be taken to the Privy Council. Jos. Martin, K. C., and J. M. Bradburn represent the defendant, and H. M. Cleland and T. M. Miller, the plaintiff. The Full court is now hearing another appeal in Hopper vs. Dunsmyr. Some days ago counsel for the plaintiff applied to Mr. Justice Drake for an order striking out the statement of defence on the ground that defendant refused to answer questions put to him on examination concerning the value of the estate of the late Alex. Dunsmyr. Mr. Justice Drake declined to strike out the defence, but ordered the defendant to answer certain of the questions. The plaintiff is now appealing from this refusal to strike out the defence. L. P. Dr. K. C., and H. D. Helmecken, K. C., representing her, and E. P. Davis, K. C., and A. P. Luxton opposing.

CELEBRATIONS IN BELFAST. (Associated Press.) Belfast, July 13.—The Orangemen are to-day engaged in their annual celebration here. The entire police force was on duty and the troops were confined to barracks to be ready in case of emergency. At Rose-treor, County Down, there are 1,700 police and soldiers in the town and vicinity, which gives the place the appearance of being in a state of siege.

READY FOR RACING. (Associated Press.) New York, July 13.—Shamrock I, and Shamrock III, were fowed from Erie basin to Sandy Hook to-day to resume their racing trials, but the weather conditions early in the day were unfavorable.

One of the most complete electrical power plants recently installed is that of the Osaka military arsenal of Japan.

MEETING TO-NIGHT. Members of Central Committee Urged to Attend—Some Liberals Are in Line.

Chilwick—Chas. W. Murray (Liberal), Grand Forks—John Borden (Socialist), Islands—T. W. Paterson (Liberal), Nelson—S. S. Taylor (Liberal), Okanagan—T. W. Sterling (Liberal).

The above have been duly elected as candidates for the forthcoming elections. The Liberal central committee will meet this evening at the committee rooms, 30 Broad street, at 8 o'clock. Important business will be brought up and a full attendance of all members is urged. Another successful meeting in the Esquimalt electoral district was held on Saturday evening in Charlton hall, at Sooke. It was the largest Liberal meeting ever held in Sooke, which has in the past always been regarded as a Conservative stronghold. There is now every evidence that a change has come over it, and that at the next election it will give a majority for the Liberal candidate. Mr. Milne was selected as the delegate from Sooke to attend the convention to be held for nominating a candidate. A meeting will be held in a few days at Otter Point for the selection of a delegate from that section of the district. The Liberals of Sooke City are urging the interests of R. A. Bradshaw as the Liberal candidate for the riding. A resolution is being circulated asking Mr. Bradshaw to accept nomination. This is being very largely signed. He is also being very popular in Sandon, Three Forks, Sitkwa, Mass. Bannock, and Nakusp. There is a feeling in the riding that he will likely receive the unanimous nomination of the convention. J. H. Hawthornthwaite will probably contest both Nanaimo and Vancouver in the Socialist interests, so as to increase his chances of getting a seat in the House. He has gone to Fernie to organize for that party. In addition to J. Rowden, of Phoenix, and J. H. Hawthornthwaite, of Nanaimo, the following are spokesmen of the likely Socialist candidates: J. C. Watters, of Victoria; F. Ogle, of Vancouver; C. M. O'Brien, of Fernie; S. Shannon, of Trout Lake; Parker Williams, of Ladysmith; J. W. Bennett, of Revelstoke; and Mr. Halliday, of Cumberland.

ORANGEMEN ATTEND SERVICE YESTERDAY. The Twelfth Falling on Sunday, the Day Was Observed Quietly—Excursion to Mainland To-Day. Yesterday was the Glorious Twelfth, but being Sunday was observed quietly by Orangemen. The local order, the True Blues and members of the Sons and Daughters of England attended service in the Centennial Methodist church in the morning. The church was very prettily decorated for the occasion and a very large audience was in attendance. The pastor, Rev. J. P. Westman, chose as his text Gal. 5: 1: "Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ has made us free, and be not entangled again in the yoke of bondage." After a few introductory remarks, welcoming the visitors, the speaker proceeded to show the use of such celebrations as a means of teaching the rising generation what it all meant. The children of Israel were commanded to give to their children the meaning of the passover feast, and this divergence from bondage was as great as their deliverance from Egypt. Orangemen to-day, as an educative influence, are necessary. Their constitution is founded upon the living truth, and knows no feeling of persecution, but is based upon the broadest principles of national freedom. A little powder starts the ball, a small fire moves the engine, but it needs a continual action to keep these in motion. When once the animals find their way through the open gap it is not sufficient simply to drive them back, but a barrier must be placed, and we need such barriers in our day, and thus the need of Orangemen. In comparing Catholic countries with Protestant, the speaker showed that we had been delivered from a bondage; first, of ignorance. The Roman church did not aim at free individual educational research, as was shown by the standing of different countries, showing the prevalence of illiterate people. Second, liberation from a bondage of crime. Lack of education always increases crime. While England had four murders per million inhabitants, some Catholic countries had as many as 174 per million. These were in places where ignorance prevailed. England, the United States and Germany, the three greatest Protestant countries who believed in education, were the greatest civilizing forces of the last century. Third, liberation from idolatry and brought into a liberty of the truth. The speaker closed with an earnest appeal to all present to be true to the principles of the order, which were among the best, and if they could not live up to them to have the courage to take off their colors.

To-day there will be a big demonstration of the Orangemen of Victoria, Vancouver and Nanaimo at New Westminster, and in this the local order will be largely represented in the turn out. The excursion to the Royal City via the Victoria Terminal railway was largely patronized. Six cars were filled this morning, the company having obtained an extra coach or so from the Majiland to meet the demands on the service.

THIRTY PEOPLE BROWNED. (Associated Press.) Russian, Russia, July 13.—Thirty lives have been lost in a flood which has destroyed fifty houses at Graefenberg, a village of Austria, in the valley of Freiwaldau.

THIRTIETH MEET OPENS ON MONDAY. RIFLEMEN TO GATHER IN LARGE NUMBERS. At Clover Point Next Week—A Big Attendance Expected—Time Table and Events.

The thirtieth annual prize meeting of the British Columbia Rifle Association will be held at Clover Point next week commencing on Monday. A large attendance is expected, as many as at the meet two years ago, when there were about a hundred and fifteen present. This expectation is entertained because of the presence of the navy, whose riflemen will participate. Arrangements have been made by the kindness of Lieut.-Colonel Grant, R. E., commanding troops at Esquimalt, for the Garrison-40 again furnish register keepers and marksmen. The committee has also been fortunate in obtaining Lieut.-Colonel Gregory's consent to act as range officer, a difficult position on which depends to a great extent the success of the meeting. Tents, blankets and waterproof sheets will be provided free for those competitors who wish to sleep in camp, and meals will doubtless be obtainable as usual at the inn. Entries must be in by Thursday at 5 p. m., after which hour they are closed as post entries, and 20 per cent. added. Programs were sent out on Friday's mail to all rifle associations in the province, and the splendid prize list should attract a large number of entries. Types are specially fortunate in having 17 prizes in each match reserved for them only. A tyro is a competitor who has not won a prize of $4 or over in any provincial, Dominion or national match, exclusive of tyro prizes or extra series.

All local competitors should leave their entry money with Sergt. Lottice for transmission to Vancouver before Wednesday, and their applications for ammunition must be made to the secretary of the local association before Saturday night. The time table and prize list are as follows:

Monday, July 20th. 8.00 to 9.00 a. m.—Extra series; 500 yards, 6.00 to 6.30 a. m.—Tyro; 300 yards, 10.30 to 12.00 m.—Nanaimo match; 200 yards. 12.00 to 1.00 p. m.—Lanochon. 1.00 to 2.30 p. m.—Nanaimo match; 600 yards. 2.50 to 4.00 p. m.—Victoria Corporation match; 600 and 900 yards.

Tuesday, July 21st. 8.00 to 9.30 a. m.—Westminster match; 500 yards. 9.30 to 1.00 p. m.—Hornby match; 200, 300, 600 yards. 1.00 to 2.00 p. m.—Lanochon. 2.00 to 3.00 p. m.—Vancouver Corporation match; 600 yards.

Wednesday, July 22nd. 8.00 to 12.00 m.—Bakers match; 200, 300, 600 yards. 12.00 to 1.00 p. m.—Lanochon. 1.00 to 3.00 p. m.—Ottawa team match; 600, 800 yards. 3.00 to 5.00 p. m.—Service match; 500 yards.

Throughout the meeting, extra series will be fired continuously with the regular matches, or otherwise, as the tickets become available. The annual meeting will be held at 8 p. m. July 21st, at Victoria armory. Competitors must supply their own ammunition, as none will be for sale on the range.

No. 1.—Tyro Match—Prize value $10 presented by the Lieutenant-Governor of the province of British Columbia, Hon. Sir Henri Joy de Louvriere, K. C. M. G., for the encouragement of rifle shooting, and $40 added by the R. C. R. A. Restricted to efficient members of the Active Militia of No. 11 Military District, not to members of civil rifle association (maximum) who have not at any previous provincial, Dominion or national meeting won a prize of $4 or more, exclusive of extra series or tyro prizes; 500 yards; 7 shots. Entrance fee, 50 cents, including sighting shot, first prize, $6; 2nd prize, $5; 3rd prize, $4; 4th prize, $3; 5th prize, $2; 6th prize, $1; 7th prize, 50 cents.

No. 2.—Westminster Match—500 yards; 10 shots. Entrance fee, 60 cents, including sighting shot. First prize, Westminster cup and $10; 2nd prize, $5; 3rd prize, $4; 4th prize, $3; 5th prize, $2; 6th prize, $1; 7th prize, 50 cents; 8th prize, 25 cents; 9th prize, 10 cents; 10th prize, 5 cents. Restricted to tyros; ten prizes of $1; fifty-cash prizes, value $120. The cup presented by the corporation of New Westminster in 1903, to become the property of any competitor winning it twice.

No. 3.—Nanaimo Match—200 and 600 yards; 7 shots at each range. Entrance fee, 70 cents, including sighting shot. First prize, cup and $10; 2nd prize, $5; 3rd prize, $4; 4th prize, $3; 5th prize, $2; 6th prize, $1; 7th prize, 50 cents; 8th prize, 25 cents; 9th prize, 10 cents; 10th prize, 5 cents. Restricted to tyros; ten prizes of $1; fifty-cash prizes, value $120. The cup presented by the Mayor and council of Nanaimo, to become the property of any competitor winning it twice in succession. Winner in 1902, Lieut. G. A. Bond.

No. 4.—Victoria Corporation Match—200 and 600 yards; 7 shots at each range. Entrance fee, 70 cents, including sighting shot. First prize, cup and $10; 2nd prize, $5; 3rd prize, $4; 4th prize, $3; 5th prize, $2; 6th prize, $1; 7th prize, 50 cents; 8th prize, 25 cents; 9th prize, 10 cents; 10th prize, 5 cents. Restricted to tyros; ten prizes of $1; fifty-cash prizes, value $120. The cup presented by the corporation of New Westminster in 1903, to become the property of any competitor winning it twice in succession. Winner in 1902, Lieut. G. A. Bond.

BIG SCHOCK HAS LOTS OF EXCUSES

VICTORIA LEAVES BAD TASTE IN HIS MOUTH

His Nine Could Not Hit Emerson—Victoria Lost Lacrosse to Vancouver—Cricket Matches.

To beat Everett once is considered no mean exploit on the other side. To follow it up with another is to achieve a conquest. That is what Victoria did on Friday night and Saturday afternoon.

Big Fred Schock is as prolific of excuses as he is of forensic steam, but talk as he might he can't raise enough vapor to obscure from his vision a score card which must haunt him like a hideous specter.

There have been many better games at Oak Bay this year, and few more unsatisfactory in several respects. There was too much of what the urchins way up in the bleachers would call "beefing."

There have been many better games at Oak Bay this year, and few more unsatisfactory in several respects. There was too much of what the urchins way up in the bleachers would call "beefing."

As Victoria only scored one run in their first, the outlook was of a startling bill. Everett scored another in their second, giving them a lead which pessimists in the grandstand would not have been over-taken.

Under the circumstance of good play on the part of the visitors, their prediction would have been fulfilled. As it was, however, Victoria jumped into the lead by scoring seven runs. Errors by Schock, Kane and Lindberg filled the bases, with Whalen, Burnes and Haynes.

Emerson and Smith then went down on four legs, but Rithet forced Whalen home on getting first on balls. Chase rose to the occasion magnificently, by lining out a two-bagger to left, scoring Burnes and Haynes. McConnell kept the good work going by scoring Rithet and Chase, while the speedy little shortstop and Schwengers got home through rank errors by Kane. Seven is a word replete with mystic significance. It means "selfishness," and of course, Victoria could not overcome that. They went out, but with a lead which won them the game.

They tallied another run in the fifth, and Everett got two in the seventh due to errors by Emerson and Whalen. The game closed with the locals a couple of runs to the good. The score and summary follow:

Score by Innings. Table showing runs, hits, and errors for both teams across nine innings.

Summary—Earned runs, Everett 0, Victoria 2; struck out, by Schock 5, by Emerson 9; bases on balls, of Schock 2, of Emerson 1; hit by pitcher, Emerson 1; wild pitch, Emerson 1; passed balls, Emerson 1.

Whalen 4; two base hit, Chase; three base hit, Burnes. Time of game, 1 hour 40 minutes. Umpire, W. Wriglesworth.

NOTES.

The following is for the benefit of some of the so-called rooters in the grandstand. On Saturday they were worse than annoying—they were disgusting. True enthusiasm doesn't find expression in the terms they used with such deplorable disregard of the presence of ladies and gentlemen.

Chase played in magnificent form in left field. There was a disposition to criticize the management for not keeping him in the infield, until it was learned that his arm was not in the best condition. But it was all the same to Chase.

He roused the grandstand to a whirlwind of enthusiasm by three beautiful running catches, one of which, a one-handed reach, was phenomenal. At the bat he was in great form. He started the fireworks in the second inning, and got a couple of hits throughout the game.

Whalen is getting into first class form. He was much steadier on Saturday than on Friday night.

Chase has shown that he can play anywhere on the field. Mr. Wriglesworth, however, will tell him that it is no snap to play infield.

A DECEPTIVE GAME.

The match between the Capital and Esquimalt nines at Beacon Hill on Saturday afternoon was singularly deceptive. By scoring 7 runs in the second inning to their opponents, nothing, the Capitals put in an early and indisputable bid for victory.

LEGAL NINE VS. OAK BAY.

The Oak Bay and Law Students teams will try conclusion on the Oak Bay diamond this evening, commencing at 6:30 o'clock. The latter will be represented as follows: Lowe, pitcher; Allott, catcher; W. Blackburn, 1st base; A. Janion, 2nd base; L. Mills, short stop; S. J. Patton, 3rd base; H. A. Turner, left field; H. C. Keefer, center field; H. Hall, right field.

BUSINESS LEAGUE.

Nines representing Weiler Bros. and the Grocers will play at Beacon Hill this evening.

LACROSSE.

A dispatch from New Westminster says: "Some time ago one or two citizens who are enthusiastic admirers of our national game and who wish to encourage the boys will be the champions of the future, offered to furnish junior teams with jerseys upon the boys' organization properly. Needless to remark the idea was acted upon, and within the last few days two such clubs have been duly formed and representatives from each met and formed a junior league and drew up a schedule of matches. The junior league officers are: President, John Payne; vice-president, D. McMillan; secretary-treasurer, James Keary; Messrs. R. Bruchler and A. Gray were appointed official referees. It was decided that only those who have not played more than three games with the intermediates will be eligible to play on the junior teams. Otherwise the matches and the clubs will be governed by the same rules as the intermediates. The schedule agreed upon consists of seven matches, the first to be played on the 17th inst. at Queen's Park, and the others on subsequent Friday evenings. The Ticino juniors elected the following officers: Hon. president, Mr. A. W. Gray; president, John A. McLeod; vice-president, O. Latham; secretary-treasurer, Irving Whittemore; captain, T. Gifford."

REFEREE FOR SATURDAY'S MATCH.

"It was stated on the streets on Saturday that the New Westminster team had refused to accept Charles Cullin, of Victoria, as referee for next Saturday's match in the Royal City," says the News-Advertiser. "Why it should have done this is not known, but they cannot possibly have any excuse for not accepting the Victoria man. He has refused, nearly all the Vancouver-New Westminster games for the past five years, and also refereed the New Westminster-Shanrock matches. In all his experience as a referee Mr. Cullin has always acted in a most impartial manner, and the best of feeling has prevailed on every occasion. It is not for New Westminster to dictate who the referee shall be, and if they will not accept Mr. Cullin the local team should have the right to suggest another gentleman. The local bunch will hold regular practices all this week and will be in the best of condition for Saturday's match."

CENTRALS WERE DEFEATED.

On Saturday afternoon the Vancouver Argonauts defeated the Central Juniors of this city, in an excellent lacrosse match, by a score of one goal to nil. The Caledonia grounds were in good condition for playing, and both teams acquitted themselves well. The Argonauts, who perhaps inferior to the local players in the handling of the sticks, excelled their opponents in combination work, which won them the match. The visitors had a phenomenally strong defence, which materially assisted in winning the game. The local players deserved great credit for their clever work, and with a little more practice in team play will prove a very formidable combination. Geo. McDonald acted as field captain for the Centrales, and Mr. O'Callaghan for the Argonauts. T. H. Ousack acted in the capacity of referee and carefully ruled against all rough play.

DEFEATED THE NAVY.

The Victoria Cricket Club "A" team defeated the eleven from H. M. S. Amphion of the Canteen grounds on Saturday afternoon by 24 runs in the first inning. The following score adequately describes what was an exceptionally good game:

Cricket score table for the match between Victoria C.C. 'A' Team and H.M.S. Amphion. Lists runs, wickets, and extras for both teams.

VICTORIA ELEVEN WON.

The Victoria Cricket Club team won from the Garrison on Saturday by a score of 133 to 60. The score sheet is as follows:

THE FERNWOODS WON.

The game between the Fernwoods and Victoria second eleven resulted in a win for the Fernwoods by an inning and 37 runs. The following is the detailed score:

LAWN TENNIS.

New York, July 11.—The Harvard team, Holcomb Ward and Leonard B. Ware, today won the final match in the special doubles tournament at Westchester. They turned the tables on the Wrenn brothers, who beat them a week ago at Orange, N. J. The Harvard men devoted themselves to driving and outplayed the Wrenns. The Wrenns took their set by their splendid lobbing. The fourth set was a hot contest between the pair for the net, each endeavoring to drive the other back by deep lobs. The steady work of Ward and Ware was

YACHTING.

REDSKIN AGAIN WON. Fleet little Redskin won the fifth race in the one design class contest, which took place on Saturday afternoon. Conditions were ripe for a good race, a spanking breeze flogging the water with white caps. Redskin sped ahead at the start, closely pressed by Omida and Marjette. The former held her lead, the others falling out. Redskin completed one round in 35 minutes thus capturing the race.

MAN'S HEART SEWN UP.

A remarkable operation has just been performed at the London hospital, with such success that the patient, although stabbed in the heart, is still alive, and may recover.

The man, John Long, is the victim of a stabbing affray which took place near a public house in Hanbury street, Spitalfields. It is stated that as Long came out of the public house, accompanied by his wife, a knife was plunged into his breast. In a state of complete collapse he was once-taken to the London hospital, where it was found that the knife had passed through the heart.

C. P. R. AND G. T. P. Some of the more independent of Conservative newspapers frankly commend the terms of the bargain entered into between the Dominion government and the Grand Trunk Railway Company for the construction of a second transcontinental road through the Dominion of Canada.

placed under that control by the terms of its charter. 5. No attempt was made by parliament to grant running powers to other companies over the portions of the Canadian Pacific constructed by the Dominion government; running powers over the portion of the Grand Trunk Pacific constructed by the government may be obtained by any other company, subject to the operative control of the Grand Trunk Pacific Company so far as that is necessary to the safety of passengers and property.

6. Parliament granted to the Canadian Pacific Company the right to "use and hold" the land on the beach and under high water mark in navigable waters "to such an extent as shall be required by the company for its railway and other works" no such sweeping franchise will be conferred on the Grand Trunk Pacific Company, and, therefore, no such monopolistic-terminal control as the Canadian Pacific Company enjoys at the country's expense at Fort William.

7. Parliament granted to the Canadian Pacific Company a subsidy of $25,000,000; the only financial aid given to the Grand Trunk Pacific Company is a guarantee of interest to the capitalists who furnish the means of constructing the line. Under this arrangement the Grand Trunk Pacific will benefit by a lowered rate of interest, which will not cost the country anything.

8. Parliament gave the Canadian Pacific Company 25,000,000 acres of land, including the privilege of exploiting townships; not an acre of land, except for right of way and station facilities, will be donated to the Grand Trunk Pacific. To enhance this discrimination the Canadian Pacific lands were made free of all kinds of taxation for twenty years unless "sold or occupied." This has so far been held to mean twenty years from the actual specific conveyance of the lands to the corporation, not from the date of the agreement—a difference which means many additional millions of dollars to the Canadian Pacific Company.

STIR THEM UP.

The qualified electors of Victoria have still about a month in which to get their names registered. Possibly they intend to act in due time. Possibly about a third of them are so thoroughly disgusted with the manner in which they have been treated by politicians whose dominant idea was to secure election and had not the least intention of redeeming pledges, that they have decided to wash their hands of politics for a time. We must confess to a considerable amount of sympathy with the class who have apparently made up their minds to stand afar-off and observe from a strictly impersonal standpoint the political evolutions and machinations of the future.

1. The Canadian Pacific railway is from end to end the property of the company which was chartered and subsidized to build it; the Dominion will own one-half of the Grand Trunk Pacific, and will be part proprietor of the other half through a lien held as security for a guarantee of interest. The difference is too marked to need emphasizing.

2. The Dominion government constructed two long and costly sections of the Canadian Pacific—from Lake Superior to Winnipeg and from Kamloops to the Pacific Ocean—and made a present of these completed portions to the company; the Grand Trunk Pacific from Winnipeg to near the Atlantic Ocean will be built by the government, but will remain the property of the people of Canada in perpetuity.

3. As far as it was possible to do so the Dominion parliament gave the Canadian Pacific Company a monopoly of the traffic of the whole Dominion west of Lake Superior; by prohibiting the building of other lines, except such as would of necessity become feeders of the Canadian Pacific; the Grand Trunk Pacific Company must take its chances in competition with existing trunk lines and with any others that may hereafter be chartered and constructed.

4. Parliament granted to the Canadian Pacific Railway Company virtually absolute control of transportation: charges west of Lake Superior; the absolute control of such charges on the Grand Trunk Pacific will be vested in the Dominion, not in the company. The difference is made clearly apparent by the fact that in this respect the Canadian Pacific cannot be brought under the control of the railway commission now being created by statute of the Dominion parliament, while the Grand Trunk Pacific will be office at Ottawa. It was compiled by Joseph Pope, C. M. G., Under Secretary of State. There is much that is very interesting in the work, and a great deal we would not relish being compelled to read. There are more than one hundred and fifty pages of addresses, in regard to which we shall exercise a privilege that was not open to their Royal Highnesses. We take them as read. Mr. Pope says of Victoria: "British Columbia's capital is beautiful at all times, but never did it appear to greater advantage than on this occasion. For never surely was the sky so blue, the waters so sparkling, the snow-capped mountains so dazzling in their whiteness, and never before did the city array itself in so glad attire, as on the eventful morning when the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York touched, in the harbor of Victoria, the most westerly limit of their world-wide tour."

The Nelson News says the following telegram was sent to W. A. Gallher, M. P., by Mayor Rose: "Nelson desires to express its appreciation of your efforts and those of the other provincial members in obtaining a measure of relief for the lead industry. (Signed) W. O. Rose, Mayor." This telegram was sent by the Mayor in his capacity of chairman of the mass meetings held some months ago to ask the government to take steps to relieve the lead industry, and also at the request of a large number of the mining men of the city and district.

Of 10,000 cases of suicide in the United States it is found that 1,781 were males, and 2,219 were females. Shooting was the favorite method chosen by men and poison by women. Of the men who killed themselves 2,980 used firearms, 1,831 poison, 750 the rope, 605 a cutting instrument; 490 drowned themselves, 469 used gas, and 350 jumped to their death from some altitude. Women as a rule chose the less violent methods. Poison was selected by 919, drowning by 320, gas by 300.

Sir Gilbert Parker, one of the Canadians in the British House of Commons, says he has decided entirely to endorse Mr. Chamberlain. "Firstly, because the binding of the colonies to the Mother Land would be of mutual advantage; secondly, because it is absolutely essential to prevent the inroads of foreign manufacturers and save the Home Land from industrial decline."

Next Saturday's issue of the Times will contain another of D. W. Higgins's interesting reminiscences of early days in Victoria. This particular sketch will have reference to the stage of that period and some of the men and women who trod the boards at that time.

BEACH FIRES. To the Editor:—I observe from your police court reports that a Chinaman is being prosecuted, and no doubt by this time is duly fined, for being concerned in a fire on the beach in the neighborhood of Dallas road. He may be pardoned for enquiring "waffor" in view of the very evident fact that eminent white people light scores of fires in the same locality with impunity. F. G. F., July 13th, 1903.

NON-PARTIZAN WANTS TO KNOW To the Editor:—There are at least some voters in British Columbia who do not consider themselves bound to either of the parties, who are not politicians; who do not care about office; who do not consider that their duty to the province begins and ends in voting to keep the law in or to put the onus in, but who desire conscientiously to vote for the party who will pledge itself beforehand in definite, not general, terms to work first, last and all the time for the progress and prosperity of the province. For that reason I for one would like to ask the executive of each party the following questions: Will you pledge that practical and progressive legislation shall be enacted to promote the building of railroads in the province? Will you pledge that class legislation, such as has been enacted during the past few years, shall be repealed and not countenanced in the future? Will you pledge that such a reorganization of the department of mines shall be effected as will ensure professional assistance being furnished the provincial geologist sufficient to enable field work to be carried on and expert examinations made during at least ten months of each year? For the road goes up, and the road goes down, The years go over and by, And soon will the longest day be past, Soon I must lay me down.

I am sick of roofs and floors, Nought will heat me but to roam; Open me the forest doors, Let the green world take me home. I am sick of streets and noise, Narrow ways and cramping streets; Give me back the stumper jays; Nothing else my spirit needs. Give me three days' solitude, Sea or hill or open plain, And with all the earth renewed, I grow strong and glad and sane.

The Chamber of Commerce will hold its regular meeting at Pioneer hall to-morrow evening. Action will be taken on the proposal to place a boat on the Victoria and Hardy Bay run. Other matters of importance will be considered. A full attendance is desired.

A predatory canine has been playing havoc with poultry roosts in the Work estate during the past few nights. Among the points in his itinerary was the chicken house of Capt. Harris, who lost about twentyweight fowl. The dog's depredations have been reported to the police, and although the animal's identity is known he can't be arrested. The case, therefore, belongs to the civil courts.

The Sidney & Nanaimo Transportation Company, of which James Anderson is manager, have received the most sincere thanks of the directors of the Quamehlan Orphanage for the kindness shown towards the children of the institution on taking them for an outing among the islands by the steamer Iroquois. The children are loud in their praises of the company and of Capt. Riley and the officers of the steamer for their uniform courtesy and kindness.

A dispatch to the San Francisco Examiner from San Jose says: "A man giving the name of J. S. Tennant and claiming to come from San Francisco was arrested by the police to-day on a felony charge, the five-year-old daughter of Eugene Couper, who resides at Third and San Antonio streets, being the complainant. The girl was stopped a block from her home and enticed into a stairway. The police state to-night that Tennant has made a confession, in which he claims that he is subject to mental derangement. Tennant is well dressed, apparently an Englishman, and has business letters from Victoria, B. C. The police do not credit his statement.

At the regular public meeting of the Socialist party held in Labor hall last evening, H. Dixon, a miner from Fernie, spoke at length on "The Coming Brotherhood of Man." The speaker traced the wonderful progress of invention since the beginning of the nineteenth century, and of the great strides made in labor-saving machinery. Such improvements, however, had not yet settled the unemployed problem, the drink problem and kindred social evils. The one fundamental wrong at the basis of this social injustice lay in the private ownership of that which is socially operated, and the remedy which the international Socialist party had to offer was that the means of production and distribution—the equipment for labor and laboring—must be made the social or common property of the whole people. In other words, what the people socially need, the people must socially own and operate for the good of all. Then an era of brotherhood and social justice will ensue.

Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites

A splendid nerve tonic and builder. Prepared by HALL & CO. Dispensing Chemists, Clarence Block, Cor. Yates and Douglas Streets. -Going to Vancouver or Westminister? Take the Terminal railway at 7.00 a. m. daily. -A large bundle of clothing done up in a patchwork quilt and a box of hats were left at the Friendly Help room on Saturday with no name of sender. Will the donor kindly send her name as it is against the rules to receive parcels from unknown sources. -On Wednesday evening next, starting at 8 p. m., there will be a billiard match at the Vernon hotel between A. Dicker, of H. M. S. Shearwater, and H. Orme, marker at the Union Club. The game will be 1,000 up, Dicker receiving 150. At these points the game should prove most interesting and well worth seeing.

A very successful garden fete under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the Reformed Episcopal church was given on Senator Macdonald's grounds on Saturday afternoon. A sale of work, an afternoon tea, croquet and a bicycle gymkhana were included in the afternoon programme. A very pleasant afternoon and evening was spent.

It is very seldom a scientific person visits our city, but now we have one. Prof. Scott is not a professional fortune-teller, but a scientist pure and simple. Those that have been to the professor recommend him highly, for being correct and honest. Everyone is greatly benefited. No one should miss the opportunity, but visit the professor at his private place and parlour.

F. J. Bittencourt, who is on the Mainland in search of Indian curios, has sent back the information that there is not nearly as plentiful a supply of them as he expected to find. The Kamloops Indians by their baskets, he finds, from the Yale Indians. He reports—having secured some of the oldest Indian relics in the country, consisting of gorgets and other things. The hay crop in the Upper Country promises to be poor on account of the dry weather. It is now selling at $22 a ton at Kamloops.

The senior lacrosse team, who have been practicing faithfully for the past week, are going to do still better, and arrange a series of games with the intermediates to take place every night for the next two weeks. Some of the old veterans will be out to help the boys along for the coming match. As the boys are determined to win from Westminister on the 25th, four or five of last year's team who have not played yet will don the blue and white. Prof. Foster, the veteran trainer, will have the boys in the pink of condition, and the public are heartily invited to turn out and watch the boys practice.

To-morrow evening there will be a repetition of the performance given in Institute hall on the 29th ult. The Minstrel Ponderes and others participating on that occasion then created such a favorable impression that it is safe to predict that a large audience will take advantage of this second opportunity. The Minstrel Ponderes, with their brilliant and harmoniously blended costumes, present a quaint and picturesque ensemble, while the songs, which comprise such selections as "Ma Curly-headed Baby," "Mighty Lak a Rose," "O Dry Those Tears," and some of Scott Gatty's unrivalled plantation songs, arranged with choruses for female voices, form a programme of unusual attraction. The fan, flower dance and Miss D. Sehl's skirt dance won great applause, and "Tenelope" in the hands of the talented players presenting it more than pleased when previously given. Those who have not seen "Tenelope" should certainly do so, as it is seldom one finds such a droll humorous play. It is also full of familiar and melodious airs, and ends with a most effective finale.

An excellent programme has been arranged for this week at the Edison theatre. What Padreweki is to the piano, Olson Bros. are to the banjo. They make the instrument talk. They are perfectly at home in classic music as well as popular airs, and the act will give tone to the exceptionally strong bill of headliners. Those who are musically inclined will thoroughly appreciate this act, for as banjoists they cannot be excelled. Prof. Schoenweck, the renowned musician, with his card and coin manipulations, is without an equal. The professor is direct from the largest circuits in the East, and is here for one week only. None should miss this act. W. P. Richardson, the gifted baritone from Spokane, will render the beautiful illustrated song "Because He Loves His Mother." Mr. Richardson has a high baritone voice, which is very much in taking with illustrated songs. Mrs. Anderson, a lady who has been before the public for some time past in vaudeville houses; will render some very choice selections on the piano. A very interesting list of comical life-size moving pictures will close the performance.

This evening there will be introduced at the Douglas Gardens a complete change of programme for the entertainment of those who patronize the grounds. That provided for last week's entertainment gave every satisfaction, indeed, considering the price of admission, the bill-of-fare was unusually good. The selections from the Fifth-Regiment band were illustrated, and the fireworks supplied by Hitt Bros. added a fairly-like appearance to the grounds, and were the cause for many expressions of appreciation. "The Altar of Friendship," the illustrated song by Frank Lefoy, was one of the hits of the evening, and encores were insisted on.

A number of cheap excursions to the provincial Mainland are contemplated by the management of the Victoria & Terminal railway, which incidentally will enable Victorians to see the company's system, and at the same time enjoy the pleasure of a new route. The next excursion will be held on Saturday of this week. An exciting lacrosse match is to be played at New Westminster between the Vancouverites and the home team on that day, and for the accommodation of those wishing to see the game the company purpose running the Victorian direct to the Royal City from Sidney. The train connecting with the steamer will leave here at the usual hour in the morning, and excursionists will be back in the city at 10.30 o'clock.

MR. MOONEY AGAIN. Formal Visit to the Magistrate This Morning—Tim Kee Inflicts Health By-Law.

Lawrence Mooney again paid Magistrate Hall a formal visit this morning. He was not charged with drunkenness, according to time-honored custom, but with vagrancy. He was wandering around in an inexpressible daze on Saturday night, and it was quite to be expected that he would seek relief from the worries of the world in the haven over which Jailer Allen just now presides. This morning he called on the magistrate (accompanied by an officer or two), and the latter in return invited him to be the guest of the city for a month, as an alternative to a contribution of $7.50 to the city's strong box. Should Mr. Mooney decide to partake of the princely hospitality of the corporation, he will be cured of his ennui by the application of a little remedy which is so frequently successful in cases of this kind—labor hard.

Tim Kee is one of the most intelligent Chinese merchants in the city, but just the same he fractured the health by-law in an unmistakable way. He has been in the habit of depositing garbage in a heap on his premises which, while regularly removed, left a potent reminder in the shape of moisture which impregnated the soil. Constable Clayards, who, by the way, is a specialist on the health by-law, soon discovered what was wrong, and Tim Kee was summoned. He was fined $5 this morning and paid it.

A trio of drunks were fined in aggregate $17.50—two at $5 each or ten days and one an old offender at $7.50 or fifteen days. Two cyclists, brothers, who forgot to light their bicycle lamps, or forgot their lamps altogether, were fined $3 each. They paid their fines. All erring cyclists do.

The excursion by the steamer City of Nanaimo, which was under the auspices of the choir of the Metropolitan church, was fairly patronized on Saturday afternoon. The run was made to Fulford Harbor, the steamer returning about 10 o'clock in the evening. The trip was thoroughly enjoyed, being marred alone by some cases of sea sickness on the return trip.

DEATH IN EXILE OF AFRICAN NERO

EX-KING MWANGA ENDS HIS WRETCHED LIFE

Burned Christians Alive—When Ruler of Uganda He Killed Bishop Hannington.

Dispatches from the Seychelles recently told of the death of Mwanga, ex-king of Uganda, on the island to which he was exiled over five years ago. He was king of Uganda for about 13 years before he was expelled from his country. He ascended the throne before he was out of his teens, and at the time of his death was not over 37 years of age.

Mwanga while still a boy cursed his unhappy land with the most terrible atrocities that have ever been recorded in Africa. He was the son and successor of King Mtesa, who was made famous in the writings of Speke and Stanley and half a dozen other African explorers.

It was Mwanga who cut off the retreat of Emin Pasha southward and made it necessary to send Stanley to the rescue with the expedition that ever entered Africa on a mission of peace. It was he who murdered Bishop Hannington, in October, 1885. It was Mwanga who burned scores of native Christians at the stake, while thousands who escaped him hid in the depths of the forests far from human habitation.

Mwanga was one of the three or four powerful native kings of Africa. He ruled over at least 1,000,000 Uganda living along the beautiful north and northwestern coast of Victoria Nyanza. He was the son of a race of rulers.

A Barbarous Monarch, he could trace his ancestry back to the time of Queen Elizabeth, through a line of 18 Kings of Uganda.

In his most powerful days he had an army of 25,000 men, over 2,000 muskets and plenty of ammunition bought from Zanzibar traders. Before his father died the missionaries of England and France obtained a firm footing in Uganda, and the young King at first was largely under the influence of these white men. But when the idea suddenly seized him that the whites might become more powerful than the King his attitude toward them changed, and he resolved to leave no stone unturned to ruin the missionaries.

One day he heard that Bishop Hannington, a gentle and lovable man, was approaching Uganda from the Indian Ocean. The King at once resolved to make war on all whites.

As soon as the unsuspecting bishop reached the borders of Uganda, he was shot, and the fifty helpless porters with him were spared to death. Mwanga then declared his intention of killing all the native Christians in the country and destroying all the work that the missionaries had done in six years.

Most of the King's atrocities were crowded into the first six months of 1886. One day he called one of his pages to him. He knew the lad was a Christian.

"Can you read?" he asked.

"Yes," the boy boldly replied.

"I will teach you to read," cried the King, and seizing a spear, he gashed and lacerated the head of his faithful servant until he was freed, and then had the boy led away for execution.

"I will have no readers in my court," shouted the King. Thereupon he ordered fifty of his pages to be brought before him. He suspected that they were Christians, and over forty of them boldly avowed their new faith. Not one of them would he of renounce Christianity to save his life. All these boys were shockingly mutilated.

and then were tied to trees, fuel was piled high around them and they were burned alive.

They seventy of the leading native Christians were seized at their homes, led in chains to the King, and met their fate at the stake. The young monarch remarked that God did not seem able to rescue the Christians from his power.

The executioners appeared before the King, and were ordered to arrest him, but were afraid to enter.

"Do not be afraid that I will shoot you," cried the man, "Come in and take me."

He was led bound before the King, who asked him:

"Can you read?"

"Yes," was the answer.

"Take him and roast him," was the grim sentence. Another man, when ordered to death, said, "Be it so, I am a Christian and I am not afraid to die."

One of the King's doorkeepers was told that his life would be spared if he would renounce his religion. He said he would not, and one of his hands was hacked off and thrown into the flames before his eyes. He was again asked if he would renounce, and again he refused. One of his legs was then cut off and thrown into the fire.

Freshly the poor sufferer spoke the words: "I will die a Christian," and the flames soon ended his agony.

The annals of martyrdom show no

present. Hundreds of the natives were killed because they could not understand that those who were still uneducated knew that they must flee or take their turn at the stake. Thousands of them stole away from their homes in the dead of night and scattered through the great woods to hide from their cruel ruler and live as best they could on the same they might kill and the fruits of the forests.

The missionaries were prisoners in Rubaga, the King's town. When the massacres ceased, because there were no more victims within reach, the King decided to let several missionaries leave his country.

He kept two of them, however, the famous Alexander Mackay and Father Livinhac, because they were skilful mechanics and Mwanga could utilize them to build his houses. They dugred away for many months around the King's grounds before a British military force brought their day of release.

It was long before the troubles in Uganda were settled. There was a terrible civil war between the native party that wished to depose the monster from the throne and those who espoused his cause. The final result was that Mwanga was retained as King and supported by the British.

This may seem very strange, but the fact is that the name of the King of Uganda was something to conjure with in a land which for centuries had regarded the occupant of the throne as almost a god. If the British issued their edicts through the mouth of Mwanga, they would have the force of law without question.

So policy dictated the retention of Mwanga, and if he had been sensible he might have remained on his throne until his death, but he thought he could destroy the British, and secretly plotted an attack upon them. When his Treachery Was Discovered he took refuge among the Germans at the north end of Victoria Nyanza, and was finally delivered by them to the British, who then decided to send him into exile.

With a few attendants and two or three of his wives, the fallen monarch, who had about 1,000 women in his harem, and many hundreds of servants, was sent to the Seychelles, where a small allowance was given to him, and he had nothing to do but to reflect upon the folly that had cost him his throne.

The present King of Uganda is Daudi Chui, a son of Mwanga. The little King is only 7 or 8 years old. He has never known life except under the new regime, and so he will probably always be content to be a puppet in the hands of the white masters, enjoying much attention and consideration if he behaves himself and retaining some semblance of power.

He has been taught to read and write, he being introduced to the amenities of civilized life, and is surrounded only by those who, it is thought, may benefit and improve him. The British still think it pays to maintain a semblance of royalty in Uganda. But the native sovereignty, not without futile struggle and much suffering, has retired far into the background.

MARLBOROUGH HOUSE.

Now that the Prince and Princess of Wales are in full possession of Marlborough House as their London residence, it is interesting to recall some of the earlier scenes and events associated with the house during the time that the present King and Queen were in residence there.

In the seventies and eighties the yearly garden parties and the delightful July balls were features among the entertainments. One of the most memorable of the many garden parties was that given on the occasion of the marriage of the Duke of York (now Prince of Wales) to Princess Mary.

Among other interesting garden parties were those honored by the late Queen, in the days when Her Majesty was able to walk with just the barest suspicion of dependence on her stick. She always drove in by the St. James's Palace gate, and, after leaving her carriage, invariably took a turn round the garden, followed always by the Prince of Wales, and stopping to speak to those whom she knew personally.

But while the garden parties were always charming, the balls were the functions to which society people keenly desired to be invited. These began early, and were kept up later than other London balls. As early as 10 or 10:30 the guests were assembled in the great tapestry-lined hall, out of which they passed through the beautiful ante-room into the great drawing-room, where, dancing always took place, and where the Princess of Wales, nearly always in white, occasionally sat with a few intimate friends when not dancing. But the Princess rarely missed a dance, and never a waltz. The great charm was the lovely gardens always brightly illuminated, while great narrows communicated with the drawing-room and dining-room along the south garden front of the house.

Perhaps the greatest function ever held at Marlborough House was the fancy ball at which the Princess of Wales wore her famous Marie Stuart costume. Occasionally, in the early days, their Royal Highnesses gave a ball in the spring, on or near the anniversary of their marriage; and all through the season there were passed private dinner parties of about forty or fifty personal friends, besides the yearly Derby Day dinner.

At St. James's Palace the present Prince and Princess of Wales have been inconveniently cramped, and beyond a few small dinner parties they have been unable to do any entertaining. Now that Marlborough House is again open, there will be a revival of many of the former glories.—London Express.
