OITY INTFLLIGENCE. CITY INTFLLIGENCE.

The May Ferm.—The May feetival gottes up at Odd Fellow' Hall last evening passed of most brilliantly. The address of the May Queen, the presty and intellectual Miss Romora Beleva Tiflen, was singularly chaste and appropriate—beautiful in sentiment, and surpassingly charming in diction. It was abort, sweet and exquisite—just such an address as we should have been pleased to have published could we any way conveniently have obtained a copy. The lateness of the hour at which the interesting ceremonies of the coronation were concluded precludes our motioning the presentments of the coeration farther than to add that the story of the fair Honora's reign was kept up most flatteringly through the delightful masses of the dance, till all her subjects, the fond participants, acknowledged that ahe ruled as pants, acknowledged that she ruled su-preme.

Yesterday afternoon, about 3 o'clock, the water commenced running pretty freely over the levee opposite Ease street, in the neighborhood of the O'fleans Cotton Press.— No immediate danger is apprehended, but we are led to infer from the fact of this overflow that the river has risen within the last tweive hours from the effect of a reported rise above. Possibly it has only
