SENSATIONAL SEQUEL TO CHINESE CASE

Allies State Their Neutrality Toward Greco-Turkish War

Will Not Interfere With Trade Being Carried On; Supreme Council Awaits Report of Its Experts on the New Silesian Boundary Line.

Paris, Aug. 10.—The Allied Supreme Council put the Silesian question, now apparently near a definite settlement, temporarily aside to-day while awaiting the report of the experts engaged in drawing the new boundary line between Poland and Germany in that area, agreed upon in principle between France and Great Britain yesterday.

The experts informed the Council that they expected to be ready to present their conclusions, embodying the complete frontier line, by seven o'clock this evening. Thereupon the Council decided that in the meantime it would discuss the Greek-Turkish situation and German disarmament questions. In taking up the former subject the Council decided unanimously to adopt an attitude of strict neutrality in the Greco-Turkish war, with trading by private firms with either of the countries.

Mr. Lloyd George, in a speech advocating neutrality on the part of the Allies toward the Greco-Turkish conflict, alluded to United States neutrality during the war, when the United States market was open to both the Allies and the Central Powers, adding that the latter were unable to take advantage of the purchase of war materials on account of the British blockade. He asked United States Ambassador Harvey if such was his understanding of the question and the latter replied that this was fully in accord with the United States viewpoint.

Situation Cleared. Paris, Aug. 10.—Tension over the Upper Silesian question, which was marked when the Allied Supreme Council began its sessions here on Monday, appeared to be materially decreased when the Council met to-day. Yesterday's frank exchange of ideas and the agreement of France, Great Britain and Italy in principle to the frontier to be drawn between Poland and Germany through the Upper Silesian plebiscite area appeared to have cleared the situation, and there seems every reason to believe that the remaining sessions of the Council will be featured by the rapid disposition of questions which will come before it.

Members of the Inter-Allied Financial Commission met yesterday and decided to form a committee to determine the total cost of maintaining the armies of occupation in Germany up to May 1, 1922. Another committee will examine the cost of maintaining these troops since that time.

$1,000,000 FIRE IN AYLMER, QUE.

Flames Were Fanned by Fresh Breeze

Ottawa, Aug. 10.—A disastrous fire is raging in the town of Aylmer, Que., about nine miles from here, according to a meagre report reaching here late this afternoon. The fire is said to have broken out in Hotel's Hotel, one of the largest buildings on the main street, and fanned by a rather stiff breeze, is reported to have spread rapidly to several frame buildings adjoining. A general store and two garages are reported to have been destroyed. Telephone communication with the town is cut off.

Later reports indicated that the fire incurred would total nearly $1,000,000.

The origin of the fire is not known.

DIED OF BURNS.

Spokane, Aug. 10.—Mrs. Sophia O. Broadwick, who was burned yesterday while tending a still in her home, it is said, died to-day from her injuries.

Heavy Fine For Sale of Beer In Veterans' Club

Holding that the Victoria Unit of the Army and Navy Veterans' Association of Canada was a corporation, Magistrate Jay to-day imposed the minimum fine under that section of the Government Liquor Act, the accused being fined $1,000. An appeal will follow.

The Army and Navy Veterans were charged with selling beer, contrary to section 46 of the Government Liquor Act. The maximum fine for this offence would have been $2,000, in the case of a corporation. Had the accused been treated as an unincorporated body they would have only been liable to a minimum fine of $50 and to imprisonment in the case of default from one to two months.

The evidence of the charge against the Veterans was concluded last Wednesday. A detective, with the president of the association, visited the club rooms in the Hamley Building and witnessed the purchase of a glass of beer. The evidence was taken and the charge laid by arrangement to test the validity of the Government Liquor Act where it applied to corporations.

The Judgment.

In his judgment to-day Magistrate Jay stated:

"The charge is brought under section 46 of the Government Liquor Act, and is that on July 4 the accused did unlawfully sell beer. There is no dispute as to the facts, and it is shown that the defendant association is a corporation."

IRON ORES FOUND IN ONTARIO

Promising Discovery North-east of Sault Ste. Marie

Said to Contain No Trace of Magnetite

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Aug. 10.—What is characterized as the most promising iron prospect in Canada has been located about a mile north of Sprague and six or seven miles south of the first reserve in the Blind River country by Colonel W. H. Purdy, of Toronto, M. P. for North Simcoe, and Archibald Campbell. It is a steel blue, spectable hematite ore, low in phosphorus and without a trace of magnetite in it. The float was located about a mile and a half from the site of the discovery and natives of the vicinity, who were familiar with the iron traces in the float, maintain that it had come down from the Hudson Bay district.

Trail Smelter. Nelson, B.C., Aug. 10.—The Trail smelter passed the quarter-million mark in ore tonnage for the current year on Saturday last, the actual receipts up to midnight, Saturday, August 6, being 350,980 tons. Of this total, 246,140 tons was supplied by the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company's own properties. Ten mines shipped custom ore to Trail the last week, the largest list of shippers this year.

C. HAPSBURG AND FAMILY TO LICHTENSTEIN

Geneva, Aug. 10.—Two representatives of Charles Hapsburg, former Emperor of Austria-Hungary, says a dispatch received here from Buchs, have arrived in Lichtenstein to purchase a villa for him and his family, so they can be near Hungary. Reports from Lucerne say Hapsburg is preparing to leave Switzerland to-day. It is added that it is not true that he has bought a villa in Italy.

STARTING OF RELIEF WORK IN RUSSIA

Bolsheviks Willing All Americans Leave Russia

Riga, Latvia, Aug. 10.—A guarantee that all Americans remaining in Russia will be given an opportunity to leave that country, if they desired, was offered to-day by Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet representative, at a conference held this afternoon with Walter L. Brown, European director of the American Relief Administration, over the question of American relief for famine-stricken Russia.

Washington, Aug. 10.—Plans for American famine relief in Soviet Russia were discussed with President Harding to-day by Secretary Hoover.

After the conference Secretary Hoover said relief work actually would begin when American prisoners confined in Petrograd and Moscow were to-day by Maxim Litvinoff, other prisoners confined in the interior had been released from custody.

Negotiations. Riga, Latvia, Aug. 10.—Preliminary negotiations between Director Brown and M. Litvinoff were opened this afternoon. The American representative asked M. Litvinoff what the Soviet Government's intentions were regarding the freeing of the other Americans in Russia. The conferees were introduced by the Latvian Premier.

Given Clothing. Riga, Latvia, Aug. 10.—A special Bolshevik automobile carrying the six Americans who had been released (Concluded on page 11.)

MURDER CHARGE LAID IN SEATTLE

J. Mahoney Said to Have Killed Wife

Seattle, Aug. 10.—An information which charges James E. Mahoney with the murder of his wife, Kate M. Mahoney, last April, was filed in Superior Court here to-day by Prosecuting Attorney Malcolm Douglas. The information alleges Mahoney killed his wife with "blows from a blunt instrument."

Seattle, Aug. 10.—The mutilated body found in a trunk in Lake Union here Monday is not that of Mrs. Kate M. Mahoney, wealthy Seattle woman who disappeared last April, Lee Johnston, attorney for James E. Mahoney, last April, was filed in Superior Court here to-day by Prosecuting Attorney Malcolm Douglas. The information alleges Mahoney killed his wife with "blows from a blunt instrument."

Previously a number of persons had positively identified the body as that of Mrs. Mahoney. Mahoney, who had been held in the county jail here on several charges of forgery, was transferred to a solitary cell in the jail after the body was found. Johnston declined to state his reasons for asserting the identification was erroneous. "The state can not prove the body to be Mrs. Mahoney's," was all he would say.

CARUSO'S WILL MAKES NO MENTION OF MRS. CARUSO

Naples, Aug. 10.—The will of the late Enrico Caruso was read in court yesterday before Mrs. Caruso, Giovanni Caruso, his brother, and one of the singer's sons. It was an instrument written in 1913, and although it was his last will it did not mention Caruso's wife and daughter. According to Italian law they must receive the greater part of the estate. Only the remainder after they have been provided for would be at the disposal of the testator. Attorneys are now proceeding to make an inventory of the estate.

Must Settle Silesian Trouble to Avert Chaos In Europe, Says Steed

Present Difficulties Threaten Anglo-French Entente and Progress of Europe, Editor of London Times Asserts on Arrival Here; Thinks Bolshevism "Breaking At Top."

France and Britain must get together and settle the Upper Silesian difficulties, which threaten the stability of the Anglo-French Entente and the progress of Europe. By settling this problem at the present conference in Paris Britain and France, with the co-operation of the United States, can save Europe from chaos; if they quarrel, chaos will prevail.

The Bolsheviki regime in Russia seems to be crumbling—"breaking at the top"—and it is "inherently probable" that the Bolsheviki leaders are quarrelling among themselves. But Bolshevism has ruined Russia and it will take her many many years to recover from her present collapse.

In spite of the mistakes made in its organization and the danger of its "bureaucratic organization," the League of Nations, founded on a sound ideal, has a great future, either in its present or in a remodelled form. An early settlement of the Irish problem is probable.

English industry feels now that it has "turned the corner" after its heavy losses of the last few years; France is putting forward every ounce of energy to recover from the war; but Germany's recovery is severely hampered by the inflation of her currency and the general artificiality of her economic situation.

These are a few of the views contained in an interview which Henry Wickham Steed, the editor of the London Times and outstanding authority on international affairs, dictated to a representative of this paper when he arrived in Victoria yesterday afternoon on his tour of Canada and the United States.

Tired of his long, eventful journey from London, and continually occupied by business connected with his newspaper, Mr. Steed is taking a rest at the Oak Bay golf links here. But, filled with the restless energy which has carried him to the peak of British journalism, he found time last night to discuss at length the problems of Europe with which he is probably as familiar as any Englishman.

Mr. Steed settled himself in a big easy chair in his Empress Hotel suite and talked freely of events and conditions across the Atlantic.

Striking Contrast With Northcliffe. Tall with snow-white hair and beard, but still remarkably youthful in appearance, Mr. Steed is the typical English aristocrat. In sharp and striking contrast to the short, thick-set figure and heavy clean-shaven countenance of Lord Northcliffe, the chief, is Mr. Steed's slender, slightly stooped form and finely cut, unlined features. Lord Northcliffe is the bull-dog type; Mr. Steed is the smooth, polished gentleman with a charm of manner which The Times owner could never attain.

Mr. Steed's conversation is swift and sparkling, and he speaks with a (Concluded on page 11.)

Float $1,000,000 B.C. Bonds; Close Bidding

For the purpose of pushing construction of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway line north of Quesnel, into which steel was laid two weeks ago, a loan of $1,000,000 has been negotiated by Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance, it was announced by the Finance Department at the Parliament Buildings this morning.

Twenty-year bonds to that amount, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent, have been sold to a Toronto syndicate composed of A. E. Ames & Co. and Wood, Gundy & Co., Ltd., at $93.59. This price is about one-half a point higher than the rate at which the last sale of Canadian-payment bonds was made by the Province.

A second bid on the present loan was received from a local syndicate composed of the British American

NEW CONSTITUTION FOR LABOR CONGRESS IS NOT PLANNED

Ottawa, Aug. 10.—(Canadian Press)—There has been no move toward having Mr. Kelly draft a new constitution for the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress, declared Tom Moore, president of that organization, this morning in reference to a report that G. D. Kelly, an Ottawa barrister, had been commissioned to prepare such a document for submission to the Congress delegates at Winnipeg. Mr. Moore stated further that he did not know where the information had been secured, but that certainly it was not correct.

CONFERENCE ON UNEMPLOYMENT

Premier and Attorney-General in Vancouver

Further Meetings in Victoria and Terminal City

Vancouver, Aug. 10.—Attorney-General Farris spoke in grave terms of the unemployment situation in opening this morning at the court-house a conference attended by Premier Oliver and representative of almost every public organization. He stressed the fact that the situation in the Fall may be worse than that existing to-day.

"The Government, in calling together the leading representatives of employers, does not expect that you will be able to do at this time a full solution of the question that I am sure on the other hand that you, as intelligent men, do not think that we shall be able to come to you with any ready-made scheme which will solve the difficulty," said the Attorney-General.

"It is our desire to place before you fairly and frankly the information we have as to conditions which exist and to ask you to share with us our responsibility in attempting to do so earnestly and diligently as possible as to all we can to meet the situation."

Measures. "In calling this meeting it was decided it would be better not to bring together both employers and employees. We believe the information which we require is the information which you have will be quite sufficient to bring home the gravity of the unemployment, and that with the knowledge and experience of the entire time of the gathering should be devoted by Government authorities and by responsible employers of labor in considering what can be done to meet the situation."

Mr. Farris explained that a further conference will be held in Victoria and another one in Vancouver.

National Measures. Ottawa, Aug. 10.—(Canadian Press)—The request of the Minister of Labor that provincial authorities call conferences of all interested to deal with the unemployment situation is being well received throughout Canada, judging by replies reaching the department here. It is expected that after the holding of the provincial meetings there will be some sort of co-ordination of efforts and ideas, together with a national conference at which the Minister of Labor probably will preside, and at which plans for handling the situation on a national basis can be drawn up.

START RAILWAY WAGE ARBITRATION

Canadian Labor Department Sets Up Board

Ottawa, Aug. 10.—(Canadian Press)—The appointment of a board of conciliation to deal with the question of wage reductions affecting certain classes of employees on the Canadian National Railways was announced by the Minister of Labor this morning. The board, as represented by the Canadian Brotherhood of Railroad Employees, have nominated Harold Fisher, formerly manager of Ottawa, as their member, while the management of the Canadian National Railways has chosen George D. Kelly, also of Ottawa, to represent the company. It is hoped that the first sitting of the board will be held early next week.

The appointment of the board came as a result of the application of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railroad Employees, who claimed that the reductions in wages recently made effective were to a great extent unwarranted and would cause particular hardship to the lower paid employees. It was stated that the board would be empowered to recommend that certain classes of unskilled and semi-skilled railroad labor were being forced to accept reductions as high as 30 per cent, while more highly paid men were only to lose four and five per cent.

While a request for a board of conciliation has been made by the "Big Four" group of railroad unions, it is quite likely that the decision of the board dealing with the dispute between the Canadian National Railway and the Canadian Brotherhood of Railroad Employees will influence further action on their part. The board has been granted under the (Concluded on page 12.)

BETTER METHODS FOR SETTLERS ON PRAIRIE FARMS

Regina, Aug. 10.—(Canadian Press)—Methods for improving farming conditions for the settlers now on prairie lands were discussed at a meeting of the directors of the Western Canada Colonization Association in Regina yesterday. The report of the investigating committee, which inquired into drought conditions of Southern Alberta and Southwestern Saskatchewan, and which urged the extensive growing of fall-rye as a partial solution to the problem, was reviewed, and the recommendation of the committee was strongly endorsed. M. A. Brown, vice-president of the association, was empowered to organize an extensive campaign for rye seeding in the areas covered by the report.

Majority of Police Board Charged With Omission of Duty

Commissioners Dr. Ernest Hall and Joseph North Subjects of Information Laid By Albert Tisdale; Chief of Police John Fry Is Charged With Failing to Carry Out Duties.

Sensational developments, arising out of the charge against Charlie Bo, prominent Chinese merchant tailor of this city, and now on bail, awaiting trial at the Fall assizes, occurred this afternoon in the police building, when information against Chief of Police John Fry and two city Police Commissioners, Dr. Ernest Hall and Joseph North, were laid by Albert Tisdale, a returned soldier of this city.

The summonses are returnable Friday. Chief of Police John Fry is to be charged with failing to suppress a contravention of the criminal code, in that he is alleged to have omitted to suppress certain lottery games which were known to be operating in contravention of the law. Commissioners Dr. Hall and Joseph North are to be jointly charged that they did pre-

RE-RATING TO GIVE LOWER RATES

Mercantile Risks to Benefit; Some Early Reductions

As the result of a conference held recently in the East between representatives of the British Columbia Fire Underwriters' Association and Head Office officials of the Fire Insurance Companies, certain reductions in insurance rates will be put in effect.

In this city a reduction in fire insurance rates for dwellings, apartment houses, churches, schools and other similar risks will become effective as from August 1, 1921, and these rates will be applied as soon as the revised tariffs are printed.

The mercantile risks in Victoria will be re-inspected and re-rated in the near future. This re-inspection and re-rating will entail a considerable amount of extra work which must be carried on in conjunction with the regular duties of the Association, but the Association desires to have the new rates promulgated without undue delay so that the benefit from reduced rates may accrue as soon as possible.

The reason given for this reduction by the local officials is partly the splendid record of the insurance companies have had during the past five years, for which the Victoria Fire Department must be given its full share of credit, and also that an adjustment has been made in the rates of commission payable to agents, which in the larger cities will be materially reduced. The Provincial Government have undoubtedly assisted materially in reducing the fire loss record of the Province by appointing a Provincial Inspector of Fire, and also that the last re-rating of the mercantile district took place in 1914.

BANDITS CAUSED THREE DEATHS IN TENNESSEE TO-DAY

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 10.—A telephone message from Collierville, a suburb of Memphis, shortly after noon stated that one Memphis policeman was killed and three wounded by a posse of sheriff's deputies which fired on them in mistake for bandits, who earlier in the day had shot and killed two officers and wounded another after an unsuccessful attempt to rob an employee of the Ford Motor Company here of a bag containing $8,500.

To Retire Loans. At the Finance Department this morning the opinion was expressed that the disposition of the indemnity would depend to a great extent on the condition of the exchequer of the Government of Canada when it is received. Retirement of war loans would seem to be the most logical and desirable use to which it could be put at present. The disposition seems to be to wait until the payment is assured and the date when it will be made is known before deciding what to do with it.

Japanese Will Speak Frankly At Conference

Tokio, Aug. 10.—(Associated Press)—"Japan will not go to the Washington assembly surrounding herself with the idea that dangers of war exist in the Far East," said a high official, discussing the proposed conference with the Associated Press correspondent here yesterday.

"Such would be a false and destructive frame of mind to adopt, especially as we Japanese see no danger of a conflict in the Pacific," he said. "On the contrary, we will approach the deliberations in a constructive and receptive frame of mind, welcoming a discussion by the nations of future policies and principles in the Far East in a spirit of co-operation."

"In this attitude we believe we are at harmony with the optimism with which Washington desires to surround the conference, and we will be ready to explain our position plainly and frankly."

The correspondent requested an interpretation of phrases in Japanese reply to President Harding's invitation.

CONFESS SHARE IN BANK ROBBERY

Two Men Held in Kansas City; Holdup in Seattle

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 10.—Local police to-day were holding two men who gave their names as Edward Patton, of Portland, Oregon, and Louis Gordon, of Seattle, and who late last night made written statements that they were implicated in a $25,000 bank messenger holdup in Seattle July 14 last. The police also were detaining two other men and three women, who were arrested at a downtown hotel with Patton and Gordon. The other members of the party, however, police said, were exonerated by the statements of Patton and Gordon.

There also was in possession of the authorities $4,400 in currency, said by private detectives who caused the arrests to bear serial numbers similar to those on money taken in the holdup.

TEACHERS RE-ELECT H. CHARLESWORTH

Victorian Heads Canadian Teachers' Federation

Toronto, Aug. 10.—Harry Charlesworth, of Victoria, B. C., is president of the Canadian Teachers' Federation for another year. He was re-elected at the closing session of the annual meeting of that body here last evening.

H. W. Huntley, of Manitoba, was re-elected vice-president and Miss H. B. Anderson, of Vancouver, was elected secretary-treasurer in succession to Miss Arbutnot.

After considerable discussion on the question of raising an emergency fund by the assessment of every member, the Federation unanimously adopted a resolution commending reimbursing the teachers of the Western Provinces who have suffered financial loss during the recent strike.

The question of what amounted to a strike fund was introduced by a resolution from the Alberta Teachers' Alliance, proposing that every member of the organization affiliated with the Canadian Teachers' Federation be assessed one dollar as a reserve fund for contingencies.

REDUCING TAXES IN UNITED STATES

Washington, Aug. 10.—Reductions of approximately $60,000,000 in taxes and $28,000,000 in Government expenditures this fiscal year were agreed upon at a conference yesterday afternoon between President Harding, Secretary Mellon and Republican leaders of the House.

Special tax reductions on which it was announced an agreement had been reached included:

- Repeal of the excess profits tax, retroactive to last January 1, 1920.
- Repeal of one-half of the transportation tax, effective next January 1, 1921.
- Repeal of the higher income surtaxes, retroactive to last January 1, 1920.
- Repeal of the so-called nuisance and clothing luxury taxes, $50,000,000.

As an offset against this total out of $129,000,000, it was agreed to increase the income tax on corporations by probably two and one-half per cent. instead of five per cent., as heretofore proposed, effective as of last January 1, 1921, additional, $125,000,000.

D. LOUGHNAN COMING TO B. C.

Ottawa, Aug. 9.—After three years' work in the interests of the ex-service men of Canada, David Loughnan, editor of "The Veteran," has resigned. Mr. Loughnan also asked to be relieved of his duties as president of the branch.

His decision to sever these connections was prompted by the continued ill-health of a member of his household, which will necessitate removal to British Columbia.

Mr. Loughnan's resignation was received with deep regret by President Maxwell and the officials of the G. W. V. A., who endeavored to have him reconsider his decision, but without avail. The Dominion executive of the Veterans will deal with the matter within the next week.

SAYS BANKS IN U. S. COMPETING

Washington, Aug. 10.—Industrial recovery has started now that Eastern banks are competing again with surplus funds, Benjamin Strong, governor of the New York Federal Reserve Bank, said yesterday before a Congressional commission investigating credit control. He blamed the past inflation on the war, and said it was necessary to finance the world conflict but denied there had been any discrimination against agricultural interests at any time.

TORONTO POLICE COURT INQUIRY

Witness Says Bootlegger's Money Paid Over

Toronto, Aug. 10.—On resumption of the investigation to-day into charges of misconduct on the part of officials of the police court, evidence was submitted concerning payments of money by bootleggers for protection from the police. Jacob Rothkopf, a witness, testified that Sam Nusbaum, now known as Nesbitt, had promised, on payment of $20 a week, to obtain immunity for him and others from searches for liquor. He had made the payment weekly for one month.

Certain court officials were accused of holding drinking parties, and Magistrate Cohen was named as a participant in one of these, but the Italian consul, Joseph Colonna, testified that there had been no "immoderate drinking," but only a little wine at a party at which he was a guest.

LESS THAN TWENTY BUSHELS AN ACRE IN SASKATCHEWAN

Regina, Aug. 10.—The average yield of Saskatchewan fields this season will be below twenty bushels to the acre, according to preliminary estimates made by field men of the Provincial Department of Agriculture.

Reports from the supervisors which came by telegraph to the statistics branch of the Department Monday and Tuesday, state that crops over the southern areas of the province will be average, and those in some districts of the north will be slightly above the yield of previous years.

Rust, scawly and hail are the agents responsible for the falling off in the expected heavy production. Red rust is in evidence in many districts, according to the statements, and black rust is also reported from some localities.

Cutting, it is said, has commenced in some districts, and will be general within a week.

UNEMPLOYMENT RELIEF SCHEME

Economic Council at Work in Vancouver

Vancouver, Aug. 10.—A concrete plan for the relief of unemployment in this city was adopted by the Economic Council when it met last night at the G. W. V. A. headquarters here. Major-General A. D. McRae presented the report of the Council, which proposed that all moneys to be expended in unemployment relief be handled by the Council to prevent overlapping. The Provincial Government will be asked to spend $500,000 during the coming winter on road work, university building or other necessary public work. The city would be asked to contribute $200,000, and the Economic Council would endeavor to have citizens of Vancouver underwrite the total.

Bankers, business men, labor and veterans' leaders and citizens' organizations were represented at the meeting. The plan was submitted forthwith to the City Council.

FOUR KILLED AT AUSTRIAN PRISON

Convicts Mutinied; Many of Them Wounded

Vienna, Aug. 10.—Four men were killed and many were wounded in disorders at the great Austrian penitentiary at Stain Monday night. The inmates of the penitentiary mutinied after sending an ultimatum to the Government demanding that their sentences be reduced. Mattresses stored in the prison yard were set on fire by lighted matches thrown through windows, and cell fittings were smashed by the prisoners.

The prison staff, unable to control the situation, summoned soldiers, and there was serious fighting before order was restored.

PRINCESS

"Because She Loved Him So" will be produced by the Mildred Page Players at the Princess to-night, and this will also be prize night for the "grown ups" contest for Captain Kidd's treasure chest.

"Because She Loved Him So" is an English comedy full of clever lines and natural situations, one that is bound to delight the patrons of the Princess. There will be some good musical numbers through the play and every one is well cast, therefore the offering promises to come up to the mark made by the clever company during their stay in Victoria.

Mr. Aldern plays the character lead, Mr. Coote the juvenile lead and Miss Page will be seen as the unhappy lady who "loved him so" after many stormy scenes and far voyaging on the sea of jealousy every one manages to steer safe in to port and all ends well.

Saturday matinee will be prize time for children in the bean guessing contest. Don't miss a chance, send a guess each week.

"Because She Loved Him So" will be presented Wednesday and the balance of the week.

PANTAGES

There is a strong moral lesson in the pictures of the Dempsey-Carpentier battle. It is a lesson that will appeal to all red-blooded people in every walk of life.

In fact, there are two lessons. Carpentier taught the lesson of gameness. Despite the overwhelming odds against him—odds that he did not realize until the fight had actually opened, he fought with all his strength, refusing to avoid his antagonist's blows, and taking his punishment in the hope of landing a winning blow. On the other hand Dempsey taught the lesson of dogged determination and perseverance. He entered the ring with a set expression on his face—an expression that indicated he was there for a purpose, and intended to accomplish that purpose. In the second round, Carpentier staggered him with a crashing blow to the jaw, but Dempsey merely lowered his chin again, and resumed the attack as though nothing had happened. He was like a man who had a load of wood to saw, and he intended to saw it without trills or hypocrisy. He wasted no time, but kept jabbing, jabbing, until he wore his opponent down to the point where he could put him away.

These pictures are at the Pantages this week, and are remarkably clear. Each round, is repeated inside the ropes.

ROYAL VICTORIA

A startling example of the change in facial expression which may be accomplished by make-up is shown this week at the Royal Victoria Theatre where Priscilla Dean is starring in her latest super-feature, "Reputation."

The star plays a dual role; that of mother and daughter. The mother is first seen as a beautiful woman, radiant with health and conscious of her power as the most famous actress in Europe. Then as the story is unfolded, the effect of unrestrained dissipation is shown to scar her countenance and the concluding scenes show her face as a hideous death-mask in which the eyes glow with maniacal passion.

For the role of the daughter Miss Dean used only the customary screen make-up; but for the highly dramatic role of the mother she resorted to every device in the trick-box of make-up to distort her classic features, to mar her alabaster-like skin and to show plainly the effects of dissolute living upon the expression.

It will be difficult for playgoers who see "Reputation" to believe that Laura Figlan, the continental actress, and Pauline Stevens, the little country girl, are one and the same person. It will tax the credulity to admit that Priscilla Dean plays both roles and that in no scene is she "doubled" by another.

Stuart Paton, who directed the star in "Reputation," declares that the star's appearance in the dual role is the most remarkable application of make-up which he has ever seen in his long career as a player, director and critic.

"Reputation" was written by Edwina Levin as a noveltie entitled "False Colors" and was adapted to the screen by Lucien Hubbard scenario editor.

Miss Dean is supported by a notable cast.

The short subjects this week have also been well looked after, a special Christie comedy, "Mr. Fatina" and a Chester Outing "There Ain't No Santa Klaus" being the two selected. J. Petch will also be heard to good advantage in new songs. And the orchestra has arranged a special musical programme.

COLUMBIA

"Thousands of people who read 'Desperate Trails' in the Red Book Magazine will see the Courtney Ryley Coxe story at the Columbia Theatre to-day for the last time, as it is interpreted by Harry Carey, and a popular cast of Universal players. The noted western star does his best work."

DOMINION

Does "The Whistle" mean anything to you? If so you will realize that realism and symbolism are happily combined in the meaning of "The Whistle" which is now at the Dominion Theatre.

The whistle awakens untold thousands of workers each morning to their day of toil. To "jump to the sound of the whistle" is the creed of the men who labor with their hands. Mr. Hart provides an admirable portrayal of one of these toilers, and his son is another. But his mercenary employer, indirectly causes the death of the latter by refusing to protect the open shafting in the mill with safety devices. This turns Robert Evans (Mr. Hart) into a vengeful man, a man of iron, who thinks only of his great loss. Desolate, he strives to take the work of Providence into his own hands but in the end realizes the impotence of his course. The finale is a happy one, and the drama proceeds to a wonderfully effective conclusion.

great ambition is to travel round the world (preferably in an aeroplane) making his own pictures. Beaumont had great success as a motion picture director. He made Bryant Washburn famous in "The Skinner" series, and brought Tom Moore before the public in "Errol" and "Harvard." He likes virtue, outdoor plays, and the Rex Beach picture "Going Some" was a delight to him as it costumed much of his own life. Beaumont has had considerable stage experience, also. He played in "Under Southern Skies" with George and later followed Tommy Ross, the leading role in "Checkers." He has been a director for the Goldwyn Pictures Corporation for a year and a half.

Recent Visitor Writes Impressions of District and Local Hospitality

Victoria's beauty spots as seen through the eyes of a visitor to the city are vividly described in a recent issue of The Renfrew Mercury, published in Renfrew, Ontario. The article is from the pen of W. R. Davies, the editor, who was with the party of western editors visiting this city in June with the Canadian Weekly Press Association. In addition to describing the charms of the district, Mr. Davies pays a warm tribute to the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart. Some of the impressions of Victoria are reproduced below:

At 10 o'clock Saturday morning the newspaper party embarked on one of the C.P.R. boats for Vancouver Island, arriving at Victoria about 3 o'clock in the afternoon where they were immediately conducted to the Empress Hotel, another Canadian Pacific guestelry. The Empress is a beautiful hotel and overlooks the inner harbor of Victoria. It is of stately architecture, hospitable spirit, spacious atmosphere and social warmth, a feeling of homeliness pervading the whole place. It is luxuriously furnished and offers to the traveler the last word in comfort. Wide lawns surround it on every side and to its left are the magnificent Parliament Buildings of British Columbia which sit in spacious grounds most artistically laid out.

After the party had rested they were taken for a motor drive around the city and then over the beautiful marine drive which skirts the Pacific for miles.

The Strawberry Ranch.

The first stop was at the strawberry ranch of G. A. Vantreight. Mr. Vantreight is known as "The Strawberry King" and his strawberry farm is the largest farm of its kind on Vancouver Island. Every visitor was given a box of the large, luscious berries. And if that did not satisfy them they were at liberty to go out into the fields and help themselves. It was a most enjoyable experience and a hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Vantreight. He informed the Mercury editor that he was picking on 10 acres this year and will ship over 5,000 crates to the prairie besides what he sends to the jam factories. This is Mr. Vantreight's 25th season, and he is still a comparatively young man. The visit was also given handsome bouquets of flowers by Mrs. Stavely and her daughters who live just opposite Mr. Vantreight and have a lovely flower garden.

The Observatory.

After leaving Mr. Vantreight's the party was taken to the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory, the largest in the world and situated on the top of Little Saanich Mountain, eight or ten miles from Victoria. It is quite a steep climb around the mountain but when the summit is reached one is well rewarded by the magnificent view that is obtained. The party was greeted by Dr. P. S. Plym-Forsyth, director of the Observatory, and in turn were given a view of the moon through the great 72-inch reflecting telescope and some waited until it was later turned on Jupiter, that they might also have a view of this planet.

The equipping of this Observatory in such a splendid way places Canada in the front rank among the nations in astronomical research, as no other country has in its national observatory a telescope of half the size of this splendid instrument. The work accomplished with this installation in its splendid location will undoubtedly materially help towards the solution of the problems of the constitution of the universe, and will make Canada and Victoria well-known in the scientific world.

On the return to the hotel a dance was given to the party by the management in the beautiful ballroom.

The Butchart Gardens.

On Sunday morning motors were early waiting to take the party to the famous Butchart Gardens. The drive out there was a delightful one and even though the newspaper editors and their wives were getting quite used to the surprises presented by the west, they were not prepared for the wonderland which they entered at the end of their fifteen mile drive.

They were taken to the beautiful home and gardens of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart. Mr. Butchart, formerly lived at Owen Sound, but some years ago went to British Columbia and engaged in the lumber business. He has prospered but instead of hoarding his money he has laid out what are undoubtedly the most beautiful gardens in Canada. They are a thing of beauty and a joy forever—a great national asset. Few people in Eastern Canada have any idea of the great work which this quiet, unassuming lady and gentleman have done at their home at Vancouver Island in laying out and caring for a veritable fairy-land. We utterly failed to describe the beauties of the Butchart Gardens. They were such a delight that we went through them in sort of a daze, but we have vivid recollections of masses of flowers, shrubs of various hues there, masses upon masses of roses ready to burst into bloom, beautifully feathered walks, a lane through the shrubbery, three rustic steps leading down 50 or 60 feet to sunken gardens of wonderful extent and beauty. Again we stand around, up dowered walks to a rustic summer house to the topmost peak of the rock and all below was beauty. We have read of the glory that was Rome, but we have never yet seen anything that could compare with the Butchart Garden and its neighborhood was still in flower in Canada the King would be honoring not only the recipient but all Canada in singling out for distinction Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart.

Paradise Enow.

In referring to the Butchart Gardens it was told as a joke in Vancouver that people don't have to die in Victoria they are in paradise already. Mrs. Butchart, many of the newspaper party felt that the Butchart Gardens were "Paradise enow." Too much cannot be said of the great kindness and hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Butchart. The newspaper party found their tastefully and luxuriously furnished home breathing the same air of generous hospitality as did the gardens. To have such an artistic home situated in the midst of such beautiful surroundings must be a continuous source of inspiration. In addition to everything which one would expect to find in such a home including a marble swimming pool and a conservatory, there is situated right in the centre a large electric organ, so built that panels open from the pipes into various rooms, and as the party were enjoying their all too brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. Butchart the strains of Schumann's "Traumerei," Mendelssohn's "Spring Song" and other favorite melodies "came over the ear like the sweet south wind that breathes upon a bank of violets.

The party drove back to the hotel and after luncheon embarked again for Vancouver where dinner was served in the banquet hall of the Vancouver Hotel just before the party boarded the train and left again for the east.

Victoria.

Victoria, the largest city of Vancouver Island, is charmingly situated at the southern end of the island.

There is an enticing welcome to the traveller entering its harbor—the blue tinted Sooke Hills, the Little Saanich Mountain, the Olympic Mountains of the mainland and then entering the square Inner Harbor, a foreground of beautiful trees, shrubs and flower gardens, with the Parliament Buildings rising from lawns on the right, the ivy-covered Empress Hotel right ahead, the city at the left, and the old cathedral on the hill above.

Victoria is the Evergreen City of Canada—a city of flowers, hydrangeas, roses, hedges, oak trees, holly hedges, gardens, trim boulevards and delightful parks. Its mild climate makes it a haven of content, in Summer as in Winter, for while zero weather is unknown here, so also is excessive heat. The characteristic beauty of its residential district has made it distinctly a home city—a spot favored by many of the people who have acquired a sufficiency of this world's goods and wish to work no more. Nevertheless, Victoria's enterprising business district, tall office buildings, some of a rich commerce drawn from the vast resources of Vancouver Island.

Victoria has within its boundaries, or within easy reach, many beautiful parks. Chief of them is Beacon Hill Park, comprising some 300 acres laid out as recreation grounds and pleasure gardens, containing many interesting monuments and relics. Magnificent views of the sea and the Olympic Mountains can be obtained from here. Gorge Park is a popular pleasure resort, with boating, bathing, picnic grounds, and open-air entertainments.

The principal bathing resorts within easy reach of Victoria in addition to the Gorge, are Foul Bay, Cadboro Bay, Cordova Bay, Brentwood Beach, Wilsons, and Shoal Bay. These can be reached either by street car or automobile. Sight-seeing automobiles make frequent trips during the season. Cadboro Bay is near Uplands,

The Friend of Business

Seventy-nine per cent. of all business failures in Canada last year were due to personal causes. Life insurance would have saved many of these businesses from failure and the hardships thus imposed, for—

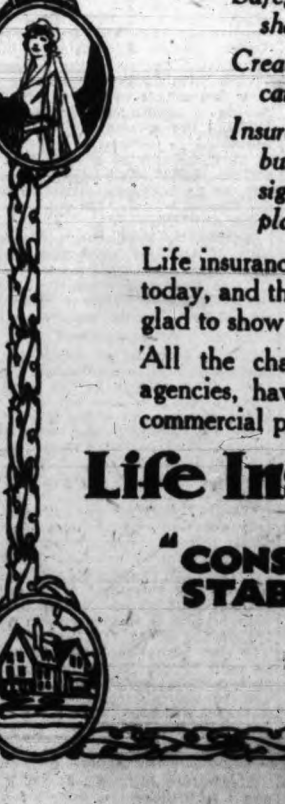

Life insurance establishes credit. Indemnifies capital for the loss of practical men. Furnishes ready cash to pay off indebtedness. Safeguards the deceased partner's share. Creates an asset of fixed value which cannot shrink. Insures the most valuable asset of any business—human life—brains, foresight, energy, personality, power to plan, build and execute.

Life insurance is safeguarding hundreds of businesses today, and the representative of any company will be glad to show you how it will benefit you.

All the chartered banks of Canada, and credit agencies, have strongly endorsed life insurance for commercial purposes. It is the friend of business.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Henry James Evennett, of Port-of-Spain, Trinidad, to Miss Bina Brynjolfsson, of Victoria. The marriage took place on August 2 in Trinity Church, St. John, New Brunswick, the Rev. J. Prescott officiating.

A very pretty "shower" was held at the home of Mr. Jaffray, 1318 Stanley Avenue, on Monday evening in honor of Miss Barbara Cameron Brown, when a number of friends gathered to extend her good wishes on her approaching wedding. A profusion of flowers in pink and mauve filled the rooms, and a floral basket containing the "shower" gifts was presented to the bride-elect. Those taking part in the shower were Mrs. H. A. Brown, Mrs. Davison, Mrs. Geo. S. Brown, Mrs. Victor N. Oxley, the Misses May Brown, Mabel, Grace and Jean Cameron, May Simpson,

Mary Mitchell, Diana Wootton, Jessie Chrosy, Margaret Gray, Kitty Jaffray and Frances Jaffray. Dainty refreshments were served, and a renewed showering of cordial good wishes to Miss Brown brought the evening to a close.

Lady Byng, wife of the new Governor-General of Canada, made a recent reference to Mrs. Alfred Watt, M. B. E., of Victoria, as the founder of the Institute in Great Britain. "One thing is especially linked with Canada and that is the Women's Institute I started in the village with the assistance of Mrs. A. T. Watt of Victoria, B. C., the founder of the movement in this country," said Lady Byng. "I am proud of the fact that ours was one of the first in this country."

A large congregation assembled in St. John's Church last night for the marriage of Thelma Ellen Jeeves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Jeeves, of Victoria, to Mr. D. M. Richards, son of Mrs. D. M. Richards, the Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick tied the nuptial knot. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and looked lovely in a gown with silver and orange blossoms. She also wore a wedding veil and carried a bouquet of roses, sweet peas and ferns. Miss Lilian Northam attended the bride as the only bridesmaid, and wore a pretty frock of pale blue crepe de Chine. The bride's nieces, little Miss Thelma Rolfe and Miss Mona Cowell were the charming flower girls, in dainty frocks of pink and blue organdy. They carried baskets of sweet peas. Mr. William McNeill supported the groom as best man. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, on Rose Street, following the service, when about one hundred and fifty guests gathered to offer their felicitations to the happy couple, who left on a wedding trip to Vancouver and the Sound cities, after which they will make their home in Victoria.

LADY DOUGLAS CHAPTER COMPLETES PLANS FOR HEATHER DAY

Final plans for the sale of heather on Heather Day, August 28, to commemorate the departure of the first contingent from Victoria in 1914 were made at the meeting of the Lady Douglas Chapter, I. O. D. E. held in the headquarters yesterday afternoon. Mrs. A. E. McPhillips, the regent, presided. Mrs. Burton, general convener of Heather Day, announced that the majority of the stands had been taken up, but assistance is still required for several stores. Members willing to assist on this day are requested to communicate with Mrs. Burton.

PRINCESS AND THE MONSTER

Part I. Once upon a time there lived a little Princess who had a nurse that told her when she was naughty a big Monster would come and get her and carry her off to his cave, and there no one could tell what would happen to her. Of course, the nurse should not have told the little Princess any such bad story, but she did, and the Princess thought a great deal about this bad monster and wondered what he looked like. So much did she

POPULAR GIRL WAS WED LAST NIGHT

Nuptials of Miss Rietta Robertson and Stanley Vey, of Vancouver

St. Andrew's Church was beautifully decorated for the wedding last night of Rietta, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Arthur Vey, of Vancouver. The front of the lectern and the railing before the choir stalls were massed with the same flowers being arranged above the organ loft. The guest pews were marked with the daisies and carried a bouquet of orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of Cecile Brunner roses. She was attended by two bridesmaids and two small flower girls. The bridesmaids, the Misses Lilla and Mildred Robertson, were attired alike in eau de nil satin trimmed with iridescent sequins and a ruffled overdress of net, with tulle picture hats to match and each carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas. The Misses Virginia Tait and Maedith Robertson were winsome flower girls in dainty frocks of white net with ruffles edged in pale pink, and pink tulle bows in their hair. Arthur Evans was the best man, and Bert Smith and Alex. Holden acted as ushers.

The service was fully choral and during the signing of the register, Mrs. Jesse Longfield sang very beautifully "O Promise Me."

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Elford Street. The young couple received their guests under an archway of Shasta daisies and greenery erected on the lawn. The buffet supper was served at a table draped over which greenery and daisies were arranged in a canopy, while pink sweet peas in silver vases were arranged about the table. The bride was attended by two bridesmaids and two small flower girls. The bridesmaids, the Misses Lilla and Mildred Robertson, were attired alike in eau de nil satin trimmed with iridescent sequins and a ruffled overdress of net, with tulle picture hats to match and each carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas. The Misses Virginia Tait and Maedith Robertson were winsome flower girls in dainty frocks of white net with ruffles edged in pale pink, and pink tulle bows in their hair. Arthur Evans was the best man, and Bert Smith and Alex. Holden acted as ushers.

Mr. and Mrs. Vey left by the midnight boat for Vancouver, after which they will motor up Vancouver Island. They will make their future home in Vancouver, where the bride's parents are now residing. The bride was a popular member.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Facts About Your Name; Its History, Its Meaning, Whence It Was Derived, Its Significance, Your Lucky Day and Lucky Jewel.

ALISON.

found favor in this country in Alison. The flavor of romance still lingers about it as persistently as in the days when it was first introduced into Scottish nomenclature by the coming of the archers from France. Alison signifies famous war; it has its origin in the Karling romance. Three monarchs of the Karling line bore the name of Aloys and the fifth descendant of Hugh Capet brought it into vogue again, after which it came to special honor with the saintly Crusader, ninth King so-called, from whom it became continuously associated with French royalty. The most famous lady who bore it was the heroine of the romantic correspondence with Absalom.

Guard Your Baby Against Summer's Danger

We have no desire to magnify the dangers of hot weather, but past summers have proved, only too sadly, that they do exist.

Every summer Glaxo safeguards the health, nay, the lives of an ever-increasing multitude of babies, for Glaxo, the Super-Milk, germ-free, uncontaminated, unaffected by hot or thundery weather, protected against flies and dust, is Baby's best insurance against "summer complaint."

For example, in the last great epidemic of summer diarrhoea in England, a doctor, recounting his experiences with Glaxo, tells in "The Practitioner" how the Park Hospital for Children at Lewisham escaped the plague. He writes:—"With regard to how the 800 odd children under their care fared during the epidemic, 450 children under five years of age were put upon this food (Glaxo). By this means they succeeded to a great extent in dodging the epidemic which was surging around them."

Be warned and see that your child gets Glaxo—the milk that is safe, so safe that one doctor writes a report to the British Local Government Board, "We have never seen a case of severe diarrhoea in a Glaxo-fed baby." Insure Baby against summer diarrhoea by feeding him at the breast or upon Etymologists believe that this name, transcended direct into Scotland in this form, but it had too foreign a sound for the Scotch ears and the subsequent change to Alison represented an effort to preserve the romantic tradition of the name without sacrificing national tradition. The amethyst is Alison's talismanic gem. It is believed to give her a cool head, good judgment, and protection from contagion. Friday is her lucky day and 4 her lucky number.

New Golf Links.
Duncan, Aug. 29.—A special general meeting was called yesterday to consider the opening up of the new golf links at Duncan. C. H. Dickie was in the chair and about twenty-five were present. Mr. Dickie suggested the issue of eighty ten-year debentures at $50 each, bearing seven per cent interest, which would bring in $4,000. If these could be floated he saw no reason why the venture should not be successful. The proposition is that after two years the club should retire on debentures a year for eight years from revenue. It was finally moved and seconded that the club be incorporated as the "Cowichan Golf Club" and these debentures issued. The members present then subscribed $1,400 of the $4,000 necessary to start the club. Mr. Prevoist explained to the meeting that the present membership of forty-seven and forty ladies would bring in $7,500 per annum. It is proposed at the present time to increase the membership by twenty. New members joining now will pay $10 entrance fee and one dollar per month until the end of the club year, which is February 28.

The committee formerly appointed for "ways and means" and which still stands, consists of Messrs. C. H. Dickie, president; W. B. Fowl, secretary; Kenneth Duncan, M.P.P.; H. F. Prevoist, A. H. Peterson, J. S. Robinson, A. Day and W. L. B. Young.

Mrs. Pankhurst Speaks.
Port Alberni, Aug. 29.—A fair sized audience heard Mrs. Pankhurst, Rev. H. T. Archibald and H. T. Ravenhill on social hygiene, Saturday evening. R. F. Blandy, city clerk, was chairman.

The addresses were listened to with keen interest, and a resolution to support the Government in the movement was moved by Mr. Saunders, barrister, seconded by Walter White, and carried.

EXIT BETTY

By Grace Livingston Hill (Mrs. Leta)

Author of "The Search," "Marcel Schuyler," "The Enchanted Barn," etc.

After Warren Reayburn's visit the last barrier between Betty and Ma seemed to be broken down. As soon as she had closed the door she flew into the other room and flung her arms around Ma's neck, bursting into soft weeping on her motherly shoulder. Ma had done a rapid turning act when she heard her coming, for in truth she had been peeping behind the green window-shade to watch the handsome stranger go down the street, but she would have dropped the iron on her foot and pretended to be picking it up rather than let Betty suspect her interest in the visitor.

"Oh mother," she murmured in Mrs. Carson's willing ear, "I have been so frightened—"

"I know, dearie," soothed the mother, quite as if she had been her own. "I know!"

"But he was very kind," she said lifting her head with an April effect of tears. "He's going to try to do things for me so that I don't need ever to be afraid of any one making trouble for me any more. You see I sort of ran away. There was somebody I was afraid of who troubled me a great deal."

"Yes, dearie," I thought as much, said Ma. "Jane kind of gave me to understand there was something like that. I'm real glad there's somebody going to look into your affairs and fix things right for you. I knew you'd be restless all worried. Now it'll get all straightened out. He's got a nice face, I trusted him first off. He's a church member, an' that's something. They ain't all spiritual, but they're mostly clean an' just an' kindly, when they're anythin' at all but just plain hypocrites, which thank the Lord, there ain't so many as some would have us believe. Now wash your face, dearie, an' run back to your place so you can come home early, for we're goin' to have the old hen with dumplin's for supper to celebrate."

That was one charming thing about that household; they celebrated every blessed little trifle that came into their lives, so that living with them was like a procession of beautiful thanksgivings.

It was while Betty was eating the gala "hen," delicious in its festive gravy and dumplings, that she looked off across the little dining-room to the dark window with its twinkling village lights in the distance and thought of the stranger. A dark fear flashed across her sweet face and sparkled in the depths of her eyes for just an instant. "Was it perhaps the distant bay of the hounds on her trail, coming nearer every moment? Then she remembered the heavenly Father and her new-found faith, and turned back to the cheery little room and the children's pleasant clatter, resolved to forget the fear and to trust all to Him who cared for her. Perhaps he had sent the pleasant stranger, and the thought brought a quiet little smile to the about her lips. She laughed with Bob and Emily at how they had got wet with a sudden unexpected shower from the new bath while they were arranging the table for the rod, and Emily had turned the faucet on without knowing it. The patient-eyed mother watched them all and was satisfied.

How good it is that we cannot hear all the noises of the earth at the same time, nor know of every danger that lurks as we are passing by! We rumble a great deal that God does not send us as much as we think he might, but we give scarce a thought to escape from the many perils, lying close as our very breath, of which we never even dream.

At that moment, as they sat quietly eating their happy meal, a deadly particular peril was headed straight for Tinsdale.

Abijah Gage and Herbert Hutton boarded the evening train for Tinsdale together and entered the sleeper. Abijah shuffled behind, carrying the bags, a most extraordinary and humiliating position for him. He had never been known to carry anything, not even himself if he could help it, since the day his mother died and ceased to force him to carry in wood and water for her at the end of a hickory switch. He glanced uneasily round with a slight cackle of dismay as he arrived in the unaccustomed plain surroundings and tried to find some place to dump his load. But the well-groomed Herbert strode down the long aisle unnoticing and took possession of the section he had secured as if he owned the road.

"You can sit there!" he ordered Bi with a condescending motion dropping into his own seat and opening a newspaper.

Bi sat down on the edge of the seat, and held on to the arm in a gingerly way as if he were afraid to trust himself to anything so different. He looked furtively up and down the car, eyed the porter, who ignored him contemptuously, and finally came back and demanded his sleeper ticket with a lordliness that Bi did not feel he could take from a negro. But somehow the ticket got tangled in his pocket, and Bi had a hard time finding it, which deepened his indignation at the porter.

"Ain't that a queer way to run no one. My seat's paid for all right," he said distinctly for the enlightenment of the other passengers, and Herbert Hutton reached out and snatched the ticket and dropped something in the porter's hand which sent him on his way and left Bi snorting audibly after him.

"You'd better shut up," growled the dictator to Bi. "We don't want to be conspicuous, you know. If you can't hold your tongue and act as if you had ever traveled before, I'll get off this train at the next station and you can whistle for your reward. Do you understand?"

Bi dropped his footless lower jaw a trifle and his little eyes grew narrow. This was no way to manage affable Bi. He loved a good visit, and he had counted on one all the way to Tinsdale. He had no idea of sitting silent.

"I understand," he drawled, "an' I'll be gormed if I'll agree. I ain't told you yet where we're goin' off, an' I don't have to tell you. I ain't havin' to state it. If you can't treat me like a gent'man you know where you can get off an' I ain't havin' to state it."

Herbert Hutton drew his arrogant brows in a frown of annoyance, and while he was about to placate his guest:

"Now see here, you old poppin' what's got into you?"

"No, sir, I ain't nobody's papa," babbled Bi, seeing he had scored a point. "I have enough to do to support myself without any family."

"That's all right, have it your own way, only shut up or we'll have some body listening. Have a cigar. Take two. But you can't smoke 'em in here, you'll have to go to the smoking-room. Wait! I'll see if we can get the drawing-room."

The porter appeared and the change was effected, to the great disappointment of Bi, who kept continually poking his head out of a glimpse of the fine ladies. He would much have preferred staying in the drawing-room, and he had just quitted with people. His cunning had departed with the need. He had put things in the hands of this surly companion, and now he meant to have a good time and something to tell the gang about when he got home.

About midnight the train drew into a station and Herbert Hutton roused himself and looked out of the window. Bi, whose cunning had returned, followed his example. Suddenly he leaned forward excitedly and tapped the glass with a long finger.

"That's him! That's the guy," he whispered excitedly as another train drew in and passengers began to hurry down the platform and across to the waiting sleeper.

"Are you sure?"

"Sartin'!"

"You mean the one with the coat over his arm and the two men behind him? He stopped short with an exclamation.

Bi looked up cunningly. Now what was up? He saw a thunder-cloud on the face of his companion.

MYSTERIOUS LOSS OF WHISKY WILL GET COURT HEARING

Emert Now Commences Suit Against City

The mysterious and alleged substitution of ten gallons of impure water for ten gallons of what was claimed to be the best of whisky belonging to Henry Emert was recalled yesterday by the filing of a summons in the County Court by P. J. Sinnott, counsel for the owner, directed to the Corporation of the City of Victoria. The action is for $160 and costs of legal proceedings to cover the loss alleged to have been sustained.

In brief the Emert mystery began in the police court with a conviction and confiscation. This was followed by a reversal of the police court decision in the county court, and an order for the return of the whisky to the first owner. Just as Emert was about to effect this point of vantage the whisky was seized by the sheriff in execution of a judgment—and was only returned to Emert on the satisfying of that judgment claim.

Emert now is in possession of the keg, but claims that the whisky has been removed and that a very impure solution of water and other foreign substances remains in the $160 keg—after trying several times to interest the board of police commissioners the complainant has now commenced direct action against the city.

The plaintiff is a carpenter and resides at Store Street in the City and County of Victoria and Province of British Columbia, and the defendant is a municipal corporation.

On or about June 3, 1920, the plaintiff was arrested by certain police officers of the defendant corporation and charged with having in his possession in a place other than a private dwelling house a quantity of liquor, contrary to the Prohibition Act, B. C., 1915, Chapter 49, and a certain barrel containing ten gallons of whisky valued at $160 was seized by the said police officers at the premises occupied by the plaintiff and removed to the custody of the police department of the defendant corporation.

On hearing of the said charge before the police magistrate of the City of Victoria the plaintiff was convicted. The said ten gallons of whisky was sold to the plaintiff and the said ten gallons of whisky was ordered to be confiscated.

Subsequently, upon an appeal being taken by the plaintiff to the County Court Judge for the County of Victoria from the conviction of the said police magistrate, an order was made quashing the said conviction, and for the return of the said whisky to the plaintiff.

The said ten gallons of whisky was on or about November 19, 1920, returned to the plaintiff, but upon examining the contents thereof the plaintiff found that the said barrel had been tampered with while in the possession of the defendants; that the said barrel did not then contain ten gallons of whisky, but that the original contents thereof had been wholly or partially abstracted and in lieu thereof a quantity of water had been substituted.

Wherefore the plaintiff claims the sum of $160, being the value of the said barrel of whisky, and the costs of this action.

News Notes of the Mines

PLAN SMELTING OF REFRACTORY ORE

Important Discovery in Magnetite Reported From Japan

MAN CLAIMS DAMAGES.

The City Police Board last night dealt with a letter from a man whose store had been robbed, and who held a working arrangement with the parents of the boys committing the deed to have the loss refunded to him. It was explained the boys were allowed suspended sentence on this understanding.

The man complained that the parents had not made good the agreement—and asked action. The Board decided to ask the city prosecutor what action could be taken to induce the parents to make good their promises.

An announcement of very much more than ordinary importance was made on Wednesday in The Japan Times and Mail, this being the claim of Mr. Goro Matsukata and Dr. Asobu Naito that they had worked out and perfected a process whereby the heretofore refractory "magnetic sand" a form of magnetite, may be smelted at a very low cost. Their process, it is claimed, has been thoroughly tested on a practical scale and has demonstrated itself to be the salient discovery of some of the leading metallurgists of the country, including government officials.

The figure quoted by the Japanese in respect to iron, the most necessary of all raw materials, and from being an importing nation of pig and steel, may become one of the great exporters of this process, namely twenty-five yen a ton for iron through their furnaces, will permit Japan to undersell in every kind of iron and steel market in the world.

The discovery, if it turns out to be all that is now claimed for it, will completely change the economic condition of Japan. It will remove at once any necessity that now exists for Japan to turn to China as a source of iron and remove whatever temptation there may have been here to acquire the iron works and the iron deposits there.

Lesser Utica Mines.

Rev. Charles F. Caldwell, general overseer Christian Catholic Apostolic Church, Zion City, was a visitor to Nelson, in company with O. C. Thompson of the North Star mine, Kimberly. During their stay in the city the papers concerning the leasing of the Utica Mines, Limited, properties were signed. Mr. Caldwell was a visitor to Victoria last year when an interview with him appeared in The Times.

Mr. Thompson will take charge of the property at once and the first work to be done is the driving of the lower tunnel, which is known as No. 7. Already a distance of 2,000 feet has been driven and it is the intention to drive another 1,500 feet, which it is estimated will be necessary to strike the ore shoot. Besides the driving of the tunnel stopping will be carried on in the upper portions of the old workings. The mine is equipped with a good compressor plant, which will be used in the development of the property. When things are in shape for carrying out the development it is expected that thirty men, at least, will be employed.

Mr. Caldwell will return immediately to Zion City to continue his work, he having come over specially to close the deal on the Utica.

Alaska's Minerals.

The United States Geological Survey shows that the value of the mineral output of Alaska in 1920 was $23,977,751, an increase of 25 per cent over 1919. The gain in 1920 was due entirely to the increase in the output of copper, which was 47,227,771 pounds in 1919 and 63,223 pounds in 1920. The value of the total mineral output of the territory during forty years of mining was $461,474,789.

Trail Smelter Shipments.

Receipts at the Trail smelter for the last ten days of July amounted to 12,761 tons of ore, of which 12,495 tons was from properties of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company of Canada, 211 was from the Surprise mine of the Republic camp, and 14 was from the Sally mine at Beaver-dell. With these figures, the total receipts at Trail for the current year rise to 243,145 tons.

Visit Cranbrook.

Dr. Collins, Director of Geological Survey Work of Ottawa, spent some time in Cranbrook last week in company with Dr. Schofield who is engaged in this work for the Dominion Government in the East Kootenay. He also visited some spots of geological interest with Col. Follen. Dr. Collins left on Wednesday's train for the west.

MAKES MIDNIGHT JOURNEY.

Eddie Hubbard, of the Seattle-Victoria aerial mail service of the U. S. authorities, cleared from Victoria for his terminal air port at 11 o'clock last night, and arrived in Seattle close on midnight, making the flight in a dark night with mail.

Barry Shannon Wins Big Race By Length

Louis Lachmond, Favorite for Union Club Purse, Off to Bad Start, Finished Third, With Bassano Boy Second; Favorites Made Practically Clean Sweep of Boards Yesterday; Neal Still Riding Winners.

Barry Shannon, a fine chestnut gelding from the Drumheller stables, romped home with a length to spare in yesterday's feature race at the Willows, the Union Club Purse. Barry took second place in the betting to the old favorite, Louis Lachmond but he was given a beautiful ride by Crump and had no trouble reaching the wire a winner.

This race drew a very heavy amount of betting. The field was one of the best that has raced at the Willows this week and the ponies ran well. Louis Lachmond was the public choice due to the fact that Joey Neal was up on him as much as to the big bay's previous running record. Bassano Boy, a reliable stepper, was expected to run Lachmond a close race for the betting honors, but Barry Shannon was the second choice when the bell rang.

A Bad Start.
The horses got away to a poor start and the favorite was left in last position. The fleet little mare, Lobelia, opened up with a tremendous burst of speed, and during the first two furlongs held a length lead. Lobelia was unable to hold it, and Barry Shannon moved up on the back stretch and set the pace. Bassano Boy showed speed at this stage and overtook Lobelia.

Neal forced Louis Lachmond on the last furlong. He made the big favorite give everything, and gradually overhauled the field. Swinging into the home stretch Neal continued to drive Lachmond, and in a thrilling finish managed to overtake the tiring Lobelia and took third place by a nose.

Harry Shannon ran a fine race and won as he pleased, although Bassano Boy came up strongly at the finish. If Louis Lachmond had got away with the break, one of the hottest finishes of the meet would have been staged, as the big fellow was in great running form, but his handicap at the start was too great for him to overcome.

Favorites All the Way.

Favorites had the running to themselves yesterday, and the returns were small. The day also featured some more fine riding by Joey Neal, who had six mounts during the afternoon, and got in the money five times. Neal rode two winners, finished second once and third twice.

Alice Carr was the highest winner. With Neal up this Drumheller mare won the second race easily. Madam Hurry was the public fancy, but she only managed to show. Rockbridge got the early pace, but Alice Carr came up on the first turn and went into the lead. Madam Hurry made an effort on the back stretch and went up to second place, but Rockbridge cut inside on the last turn and nosed the favorite out of the place money.

An Easy Win.

Stanley H., another favorite, had the running to himself in the third race, and his mere slip of a rider, Hurn, kept him well in hand. Hurn did not waste any time but took the lead when the gate went up. Sad Sam made a fast race for the first three furlongs but died quickly and allowed Yorkshire Relish to move up to second place. Neal's mount, Sharp Squirrel, finished strongly and out-gained Madam Hurry.

Neil's Second Win.

Neal rode Bee's Wing to a popular win in the sixth race. Hugh Angleton made the going hot for the favorite in the first two furlongs, but Bee's Wing had the ability to hold her lead. Judge David came with a burst in the last eighth and worked his way into the money.

Wilson brought Miss Hermann, the favorite, down in front in the last race. She took the lead on the back stretch and won easily with Daisy Greca in second place. Shenadoah, the second choice, fell away badly and finished fifth.

Listal, a local horse, won the opening race of the day, stalling off a fast finish by Royal Irish. Gretna Greca was in third place.

The results were as follows:
First race, $400 purse, for Western olds and up that have never won in three races. About five furlongs: 1. Listal, mutuels paid $5.20, $3.15, $2.50; 2. Royal Irish, $3.30, $1.75; 3. Gretna Greca, $2.75. Time, 1:00 1-5.
Second race, claiming purse $350, for three-year-olds and up. About five furlongs: 1. Alice Carr, $9.55, $4.70, $2.65; 2. Rockbridge, $3.50, $2.20; 3. Madam Hurry, $2.50. Time, 59 4-5.
Third race, claiming purse $350, for three-year-olds and up. About five furlongs: 1. Stanley H., $13.30, $6.65, $3.50; 2. Yorkshire Relish, $4.65,

REGINA BALL TEAM THROWS UP SPONGE

Lack of Support and Bad Weather Caused Club to Disband

Regina, Aug. 10.—The Regina baseball team in the Western Canada League, were disbanded last night following a meeting of the directors of the club. Bad weather and non-support on the part of the public were given as the reasons for the move.

BABE ADAMS PITCHES NINTH STRAIGHT WIN

Pittsburg, Aug. 10.—Babe Adams, veteran Pittsburg pitcher, in winning from the Brooklyn team yesterday, accomplished his ninth straight victory for the season and set a major league record so far this year. Cooper and Grimes have won eight straight in the National League, while Harris, of the Athletics, has done as well in the American League.

Amateur Ball Title Is Won By Yarrows

Cookley's Sacrifice Fly In Eighth Inning Sent In McIlvride With Run Which Nosed Elks Out of Championship; Big Crowd Treated to Splendid Game; Jackson Hit Homer.

Yarrows, 7; Elks, 6.
Cookley's long fly to left field in the eighth inning sent in McIlvride with the run that won the city amateur baseball championship for Yarrows at the Stadium last evening. The Elks tried gamely to drag the game out of the fire in the ninth and hit with a vengeance, but were snuffed out when one run to the bad.

The game was one of the closest and most exciting of the season and attracted the biggest crowd that has glimpsed an amateur tussle for several years. The fighting spirit of both teams was admirable. Yarrows were three runs behind in the third but they fought their way into the lead and then the antlered squad responded with a rally, which, however, was not strong enough to bring it victory.

Yarrows Were Tinkled.

Yarrows were particularly pleased over their win. They provided a thrilling finish for the league. Six days ago they were confronted with the job of playing three games in five days and the loss of one would have put them out of the running. The team, favored with good pitching, performed in splendid style and won the title and thereby the championship.

Games in Aid of Charity.

Several charity games will be played before the boys lay away their uniforms, and it is hoped that the fans will be as generous in their support of these games as they have been in the past.

Two Hurlers Apiece.

Both teams had to call upon two pitchers. McGreggor, who started for Yarrows, developed a wild stretch and was forced to retire due to a sore arm. Cookley, who pitched for the Elks, got crummy and he had to quit. Ross, who relieved McGreggor, pitched a nice game, his fast, quick break being the Elks' only hope.

To Start Invasion.

Calgary, Aug. 10.—An invasion of Eastern Canada will be made by club scouts of the new Alberta professional hockey league for players this season, appears certain. Many of the players used in the Alberta Big Four last season will not be available next winter, and in order to establish a standard equal to that in other parts of the Dominion, it will be necessary to import players from the United States.

California welterweight, and Joe Simonich, Butte, staged a slaying four-round draw here to-night. What Simonich gained in hard-hitting aggressiveness, Shade made up in clever boxing, and the referee's decision was applauded.

CONGOS WILL HOLD PRACTICE TO-MORROW

In view of their important league fixture with the Five C's on Saturday next at the Jubilee Hospital ground and to ensure that the club puts up its usual sporting fight, which all cricket enthusiasts of Victoria delight to watch, the executive of the Congos C. C. particularly request its players to attend a special cricket practice at the Jubilee Hospital grounds on Thursday evening as soon after 5.45 o'clock as possible. After the practice the team to represent the Congos against the Five C's will be selected.

Combined batting and fielding practice will be indulged in, and as the Wanderers' tournament team will also be practicing there at that time the practice should be of great benefit to all players taking part. The following players are requested to be on hand: J. Collett, G. Wells, J. Davies, H. Lock, E. R. Lock, G. Strimpton, P. C. Payne, W. A. Tucker, H. Gardiner, Gordon Leeming, S. Weeks, D. ## YOUNG WOMAN FIRST TO SWIM ACROSS THE ST. LAWRENCE RIVER

Quebec, Aug. 10.—Miss Frances Calsley, swimming instructor at the Y. W. C. A. here, accomplished the feat of swimming across the St. Lawrence River yesterday between Lewis and Quebec. The young lady has the honor of being the first to attempt the cross-river swim, which was about one mile, but which has to be fought all the way owing to a powerful current.

"ONE-EYE" CONNELLY IS SELLING "TIMES"

King of Newsboys and Rabid Fight Fan Here for Short Time; Picks Winners

"One-Eye" Connelly, who announces himself as the King of Newsboys, joined the staff of The Times paper-sellers this afternoon, and rustled the four o'clock edition at the Willows racetrack.

Connelly comes from Irish stock, and although now running close to his fortieth milestone, he is still active and keen. His greatest occupation is selling papers, while his great hobby is following prize-fights.

Connelly started life as a boxer. He was a bantamweight and was on his road to fame when he lost an eye in a peculiar fashion. While engaged in a bout the lace of his glove crossed his eye and destroyed the sight. Since then Connelly has been known as "one-eye." He is known wherever boxing is known.

Connelly takes in all the fights, yet he never pays his admission fee. He either gets in selling programmes, peanuts or hot-dogs, secures a complimentary or climbs the fence when the guards' backs are turned.

YESTERDAY'S GAMES

American League.

Washington, Aug. 10.—St. Louis defeated Washington yesterday, 8 to 6, in nineteen innings, a new record for the league this year. An error by O'Rourke in the ninth prevented the locals from winning in the regulation period. Both clubs tallied once in the tenth and there was no scoring thereafter until the nineteenth inning, when the visitors registered twice on a single by Slater, a pass to Williams, Jacobson's safety, an intentional pass to Severeid and Gerber's infield out. Davis pitched the entire route for St. Louis and held the locals hitless in the last nine innings.

National League.

Pittsburg, Aug. 10.—Pittsburg defeated Brooklyn yesterday, 4 to 3, scoring all their runs in the seventh inning, when they knocked Mitchell out of the box. Cutshaw batted for Adams and drove in the tying run, and Higbee sent two more over as Rutherford had entered the box. Timoney's error paved the way for Brooklyn's runs in the sixth.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Band Concert.—The Salvation Army Band will give a concert at Beacon Hill Park to-morrow at 8 o'clock.

Victoria High School Registrations.—Registrations should be made to the School Board office between August 15 and 19, for the High School classes next term.

Y. M. C. A. Meeting.—A special meeting of the physical department of the Young Men's Christian Association will take place to-morrow evening at 8.30 o'clock. Business affecting the welfare of the department will be discussed.

St. Saviour's Garden Party.—The Young People's Association, Women's Auxiliary and men's organization of St. Saviour's Anglican Church, Victoria West, are holding a garden party this afternoon and evening at the residence of Captain P. Ross, 422 Barnard Road, in aid of the general church funds.

Mails to Orient.—Information has been received that the sailing of the Pacific Steamship Company from Victoria on August 27, Yokohama to Hong Kong, will be taken by the "Hawkeye State," instead of the "Wenatchee," as shown in recent list of Trans-Pacific mails.

Esquimalt Methodist Sunday School.—A garden party and social evening will be held in the grounds of Mrs. McAdam, Esquimalt Road, near Fraser Street this evening, commencing at 7 o'clock. A good programme has been provided, which includes music, instrumental and vocal, various side shows, candy and refreshment stalls.

St. Columba Tennis Club.—A silver tea and concert will be given this evening, commencing at 7.30 o'clock, at the St. Columba Tennis Club, corner Mitchell and Granite Streets, Oak Bay. The entertainment will be given for the purpose of liquidating the debt incurred in the erection of the new courts this season. A high-class musical programme will be rendered during the evening.

Constable Givan Rating.—P. C. Jarvis, on six months' probation, was admitted to full rating in the police force on request of Chief Fry to the Board of City Police Commissioners last night. Constable Givan was asking for one month's salary in lieu of notice, did not succeed in his request—it being stated he was dismissed for cause, and had no legal standing in the application.

Canadian Highway.—The recently formed Canadian Highway Association will meet in the Chamber of Commerce rooms at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon for the purpose of discussing a number of matters respecting the programme of the organization. A great deal of interest has been displayed in this association and indications are that it will have a very strong membership.

"Trip Round the World."—A novel entertainment will be held to-night, in the interest of Missions, when cars will leave Centennial Sunday School, George Road, at 7.30 and every 15 minutes after, touring many lands. The return trip can be made in two hours, and promises to be both instructive and entertaining. The national dish will be served in each country, and visitors will be entertained by the natives.

L. A. to G. A. U. V.—The regular fortnightly meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Grand Army of the United Veterans was held last night at the residence of Mrs. McVie, 402 Michigan Street. Mrs. McVie, vice-president of the organization, presided in the unavoidable absence of the president. The gathering approved the change of club-rooms to the present quarters on Langley Street. A programme of endeavor for the Fall and Winter months was considered.

Sunday's Band Concert.—The concert given last Sunday afternoon by the Great War Veterans' Band, was appreciated by a large and attentive audience. The least conspicuous number on the programme, value "Thoughts," pleased the audience, and was repeated. The band has gained a valuable member in the person of John Leech, late of Winnipeg. Mr. Leech is a fine bassoonist and bass violinist. Bandmaster Miller has secured many future engagements for the band, including one for the full band at the forthcoming garden party at Government House.

Ward Three Liberals.—The keen interest and activity of the members that made Ward Three the backbone of the Victoria Liberals is evident at their regular monthly meeting. Since the election each monthly meeting has seen some important resolution framed and passed on to the other wards and the central executive for action or endorsement. At the meeting held Monday twenty-one members were present and the meeting unanimously endorsed the action of the president and secretary in joining the Progressive Club, also approved the minutes of the club as read, and expressed complete confidence in any action the president and secretary may see requisite to take on behalf of Liberal principles.

R. C. M. P. Inspection.—Colonel Wroughton, Assistant Commissioner, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Vancouver, was in the city yesterday inspecting the local division.

In Police Court.—A large number of summons cases faced the police magistrate to-day. Phillip Beck, George Calder and R. Lambert, each paid $5 for parking cars in front of a theatre. It was explained that no parking is allowed in front of any part of such a building. S. H. Knott and George McCann paid $5 each for parking cars in such a manner so as to prevent free access to a fire hydrant. Harry Woolley and Warren Carlisle were jointly charged on remand with keeping liquor for sale, and further remanded at the request of Frank Higgins, K. C., for one week. Frank Saunders, charged with seduction, was remanded until Monday with bail fixed at $250, one-half of which is personal security. J. A. Alkman appeared for the accused and reserved election.

PROFESSIONAL BOXING PERMITTED.

At the meeting of the City Police Commissioners last night permission was granted to the Veterans of France to hold a professional boxing tournament for one day in the fair week, on the understanding that such permission was exceptional, and that all further boxing tournaments under professional auspices would have to be managed by a board of commissioners especially selected for that purpose. The permission was granted for this time upon the direct understanding that no infraction of the law took place at such a tournament. The commissioners were in some doubt as to the distinction, if any, between professional boxing and a prize fight, it being finally explained that "a prize fight is a prize fight," and allowed to rest at that point.

St. Andrew's Whist Drive.—The Ladies' Auxiliary of the St. Andrew's and Caledonia Society will hold a whist drive in the Caledonia Hall on Thursday evening at 8.30. There will be eight good scrip prizes for the fortunate winners. The card game will be followed by a dance. Mrs. Ridgard supplying the music. Members of the Ladies' Auxiliary will meet at 7.30 for the regular meeting.

BIG MOVEMENT TO PRAIRIES NOW IN SWING

First Order for 240 Harvest Helpers Received; Party to Leave Saturday

The big movement of labor to the prairies will start from Victoria Saturday when the first party of 240 farm helpers will leave on the first of the harvesting excursions.

It is anticipated that probably one thousand unemployed of Victoria will be absorbed by the prairie farmers, and that work will be furnished them for a period of about two months. This will greatly relieve the local situation, and it is felt that many of the men who go to the prairies may be fortunate enough to secure permanent employment, which will at least serve to keep them during the hard winter that is anticipated.

There was a big rush at the Government Employment Bureau this morning and the staff has been kept busy allocating the applicants to the various vacancies. The orders received this morning for 240 men were received from Alberta 100 men to be sent to Sharnavon, 100 to Kerrobert and 40 to Gull Lake.

When this party is made up, arrangements will be made for their departure Saturday. No less than fourteen hundred men have signified their intention of going to the harvest fields if openings are found for them.

As applicants for this work call at the employment office, their names are listed, and as the orders come through for farm hands the names of those first appearing on the list are chosen. This system is considered fair to all.

The names of the two hundred and forty men selected to fill this morning's orders have been posted in the Employment Bureau and applicants are asked to see if they are on the list and to once signify their willingness to leave. Those who have secured employment or who for any reason cannot go, should, in fairness to others wanting work, notify the Employment Bureau.

DARING NIGHT RIDE WITH MAIL

Eddie Hubbard Met Arabia Maru and Crossed Straits Around Midnight Hour

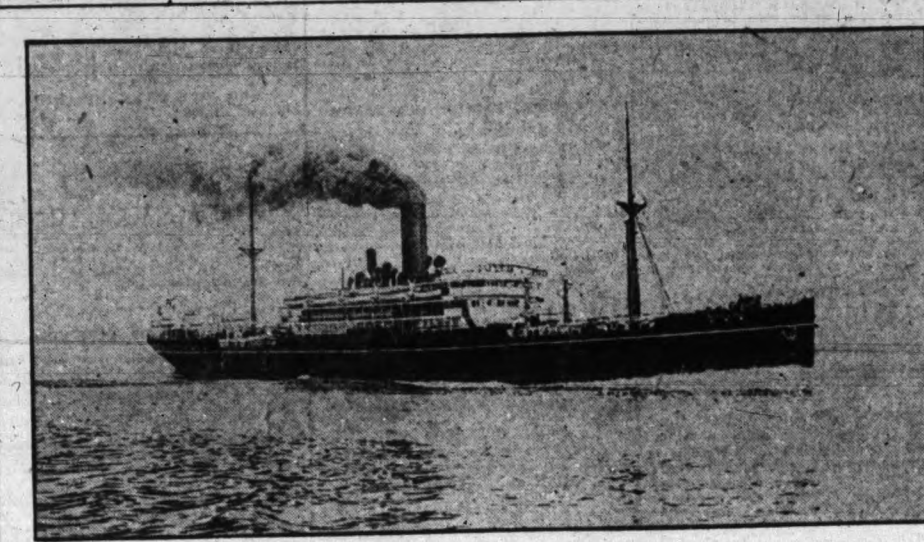

A daring night ride by air was undertaken by Eddie Hubbard, the aerial mail carrier, in connection with the arrival of the Osaka Shosen Kaisha liner Arabia Maru from the Orient. Reaching quarantine shortly before sundown, the Arabia Maru secured pratique at William Head, and docked about 10 o'clock last night. It was getting dark when the mail aviator arrived over the city from Seattle, and, circling like a bird, he made a most spectacular landing in the harbor, and was alongside the aerial landing stage on schedule to accept the air mail transferred from the inbound Oriental liner. Eddie Hubbard has negotiated several night trips since the air service was inaugurated, and on one occasion he was forced to descend and make a landing on the other side of the Straits in search of fuel, but it is doubtful whether he has made a more spectacular descent than was the case last night.

Returned at Late Hour. The return trip to Seattle was made about 11 o'clock, and the roar of the aerial engine was the only intimation that the intrepid aviator was faithful to the terms of his contract. Eddie is possessed of an almost uncanny sense of direction, for without compass and with nothing but the blinking coast lights to guide him, he crossed the Straits around the midnight hour, and the Arabia's mail was delivered early this morning by the postmen of Seattle. The Arabia Maru, which had an uneventful voyage, cleared, after discharging passengers and freight here, for Seattle and Tacoma.

Ship Built Here to Load for Australia; S. F. Tolmie Ready for Sea

A charter of interest to local shipping men is that of the auxiliary schooner Malahat, which has been fixed to load lumber at Grays Harbor for Australia. The vessel has been chartered by the Australian Dispatch Company. The Malahat was built at Point Ellice, by the Cameron Genoa Mills Shipbuilders, Ltd., here for the H. W. Brown interests in 1915. Tolmie Ready. No charter has yet been arranged for the Simon F. Tolmie, the first of three wooden barquentines laid down here by the Victoria Shipowners, Ltd. The S. F. Tolmie is now ready for sea, having been completed by the Victoria Machinery Depot, Ltd., and could be put on berth at any time. Various inquiries have been made by prospective charterers and it is expected that a charter will be closed very shortly. The American barquentine Esquak is still swinging at anchor in Esquimalt harbor without a charter. Iquitos Fixed. The steel freighter Iquitos, which discharged a cargo at Vancouver early in July, and which has been since lying at anchor in Burnard Inlet, has been chartered by the Canadian Trading Company to load lumber at Grays Harbor for Australia. The Iquitos is a Peruvian vessel of 3,267 tons. There is considerable activity in grain charters, a number of which have been fixed at various coast

ANCHOR LINER WILL MAKE FIRST TRIP FROM NEW YORK AUGUST 20

C. A. Whitlock, British Columbia manager for the Cunard Line, who, accompanied by Arthur Sweezy, San Francisco manager, returned from a trip up the West Coast of Vancouver Island by the S.S. Princess Maquinna, announces that the Anchor Line steamship Algeria will sail from New York for Glasgow, via Londonderry, August 20. The Algeria is one of the newest additions to the Cunard and Anchor Line vessels and is making her maiden voyage. She is popularly known as the "Marble Ship," and is a twin-screw vessel of the one-cabin type, with accommodations for 400 class passengers. The Algeria is called the "Marble Ship" because of the golden marble of her dining saloon, lounge, smoking and music rooms, etc. She was built for the Anchor Line, and her home ports are of exceptional size, while the customary portholes have ceded their place to rooms and artistic windows.

CANADIAN ROUTE TO WEST INDIES

C.G.M.M. Vessels Ultimately to Replace Royal Mail Service

Washington, Aug. 10.—(By Canadian Press)—A report received from the United States Consul at Georgetown, British Guiana, says: "Since the arrival of the first vessel of the Canadian Government Mail Service, the C.G.M.M. (Ltd.) in British Guiana, in September, 1920, a regular freight service has been maintained by the Government between the port of Georgetown and Canadian ports via Trinidad and Barbados. During the first quarter of 1921 five Government vessels and four vessels of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Co. called at Georgetown. At present these lines carry practically all of the commerce between the two countries, but it is understood that as soon as the Canadian Government mercantile marine inaugurates the subsidized passenger service contemplated by the Canada-West Indies agreement, the present service of the Royal Mail will be discontinued."

HULL PUNCTURED IN TWO PLACES

Attempt Will Be Made to Float San Jose After Bulkheads Strengthened

San Diego, Cal., Aug. 10.—Passengers aboard the Pacific Mail steamship San Jose, who were landed yesterday after the liner struck San Pablo Reef, off Asuncion Island, were still ashore this morning, although their baggage is being taken off the ship, according to a radio message received at the navy station here from the United States destroyer Farquhar. Another message from the Farquhar said plans made to pull the San Jose off the reef had been temporarily abandoned, as it was feared the bulkheads might fall to hold the water that would come through the two holes in the bow of the ship. As soon as all mail and baggage were removed, it was said, the strengthening of the bulkheads would be started, and an effort to pull the ship into deep water would be made with the arrival of the freighter Grifidu, expected to reach the scene about noon to-day.

MARINE INQUIRY ABOUT TO BEGIN

Wreck Commissioner in Vancouver to Investigate Exporter Wreck

The inquiry into the causes of the wreck of the Canadian Government freighter Canadian Exporter will be begun at Vancouver to-morrow, and will continue until the Marine Court has secured sufficient evidence to enable it to bring in its findings on the marine casualty. Capt. J. D. Macpherson, wreck commissioner for British Columbia, is now in Vancouver making final arrangements for the conducting of the investigation. Commander Evans and Capt. Le Page, who is understood, will act as nautical assessors to assist Capt. Macpherson in the case. Capt. William Bradley and his officers are in Vancouver, and will be available to give testimony concerning the loss of the Government freighter, which on July 31 went ashore on Whillans Spit, and subsequently became a total loss.

SS. SAN JOSE NOW TAKING WATER FAST

San Francisco, Aug. 10.—The steamship San Jose, grounded off the coast of Lower California, is "taking water fast," but is in no danger at present, according to a wireless message this morning to the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce. The steamer Grifidu has arrived to assist the San Jose off the rocks.

The Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Kashima Maru, due in port early to-morrow morning from Oriental ports, has aboard 50 first class, 22 second class and 130 steerage passengers. Her cargo amounts to about 7,000 tons. The Kashima loaded 800 bales of raw silk at Yokohama and 200 tons of tea at Shimoda.

LARGE AERODROMES ARE CONVERTED TO HOUSE EMIGRANTS

Southampton, Eng., Aug. 10.—Atlantic Park, an estate near here which was formerly used by the American army for flying purposes, has been acquired by the North Atlantic Conference, the chief members of which are the Cunard, the White Star and the Canadian Pacific Railroad Companies, as a permanent camp for emigrants sailing by their steamers to America. Two of the aerodromes in the camp have already been converted to accommodate 2,500 people. With other buildings, it is estimated that nearly 6,000 continental emigrants will be lodged there during their short stay before sailing.

HE COULDN'T SPEAK ABOVE A WHISPER

Edmonton Citizen Was on Verge of Nervous Prostration; Like a New Man Now

"Tanlac has made a new man out of me, and I am strong for it," said Fred J. Brown, 79th Avenue, Edmonton, Alberta. "When I began taking it I was so weak and run down I actually couldn't speak above a whisper, and was on the verge of nervous prostration. I couldn't sleep at night, and would twist and toss for hours, and what little sleep I did get was troubled and broken. I suffered terribly from indigestion too, and actually dreaded to go to the table, as I knew it meant hours of misery afterwards. "When it comes to whetting a man's appetite, building him up and making him feel fine I can testify that Tanlac has them all best. I am my old self again, and as sound as a than I have in years, and feel better than I did. I certainly will recommend it to every man who suffers as I did. Tanlac is sold in Victoria by Duncan E. Campbell and leading druggists everywhere. (Advt.)"

SIXTEEN BODIES STILL MISSING

Steamship Alaska Tragedy is Being Investigated

San Francisco, Aug. 10.—The tank steamship Alaska arrived in-day with the bodies of Dr. J. R. Morse, Spokane, Wash., and Miss Ruth Hart, Pendleton, Ore., victims of the wreck of the steamship Alaska off Blunt's Reef, south of Eureka, Saturday night. The recovery of these two bodies and the two additional bodies washed up last night on the beach near Eureka, bring the known dead to twenty, and the known missing to sixteen, according to the records of the San Francisco-Portland S.S. Company, owners of the Alaska. The official Government investigation of the Alaska's sinking is scheduled to begin to-day before John K. Bulger, Supervising Inspector of Huls and Boilers.

INDIAN LIBERALS EXPRESSED VIEWS

British Columbia Mentioned at Lucknow Meeting London, Aug. 10.—(Canadian Press) Reuter's correspondent at Lucknow cables an account of the recently concluded conference there of the native Liberal Party of the United Provinces, at which a resolution was passed urging that equal status with Europeans be granted to East Indians throughout the Empire. Special reference was made to the exclusion policy adopted by Australia and British Columbia.

Resolutions were adopted welcoming the coming visit of the Prince of Wales, disapproving the repressive policy of the Government of India in dealing with nationalist agitators, demanding that the harsh terms of the treaty with Turkey be revised with a view to restoring the Ottoman hegemony in Asia Minor, asking that the higher grades of the Indian army be thrown open to Indians and not to be held as a preserve for English officers as at present, and demanding equality in the courts in trials of Europeans and Indians.

Large Population. The United Provinces of Agra and Oudh, with which are included the native states of Rampur, Benares and Tehri, occupy the upper basins of the Ganges and Jumna, with a total population not far from 50,000,000, in which the Hindus are related to the Mohamedans in the ratio of five to one. The provinces contain the richest wheat growing country in India and the natural fertility has been increased by a magnificent series of irrigation works.

DIVIDENDS. New York, Aug. 10.—The American Sugar Refining Company to-day passed its dividend of $1.75 on common stock, but declared its regular quarterly dividend of $1.75 on preferred.

Board Postpones Session.—Because it has been found impossible at this time to get a decision from the legal advisers, the British School Board has postponed until Monday evening the special session to have been held to-morrow night, finally to decide what action shall be taken upon the proposal of Chairman Holloway that the Board shall amend somewhat its position as to salary contracts for the coming year. The question which the Board desires to submit to its legal advisers is, does any contract bind the Board in its dealings with the teachers? Until this is settled the Trustees find themselves unable to agree upon any course regarding the continuance of the principle of yearly increases of salary, which has been in vogue for some years past.

In Spanish Court.—Twelve cases faced Magistrate Jay in the Spanish Police Court this afternoon. Offences against the Motor Act, Street and Building By-laws, and one case where cattle were not driven at a minimum speed of two and a half miles an hour comprised the docket. W. B. Monteth acted for the municipality.

Among the buildings now under construction in Penticton are eight business blocks, being constructed at a total estimated cost of $30,000, which will be started on the 15th and others within a short time.

CHINESE PROTEST AGAINST TREATY

Oriental Organizations Oppose Anglo-Japanese Pact Shanghai, Aug. 10.—The Shanghai Chinese Chamber of Commerce heads a group of twenty Chinese bodies in Shanghai in a vigorous protest against any renewal of the Anglo-Japanese treaty. Messages setting forth the grounds of the protest have been forwarded to the American Congress at Washington, the Assembly in Paris, the British Cabinet and to the Parliaments in London, Ottawa, Melbourne, Rome and Calcutta.

Influence on Trade. The protest directed to the British Parliament in part says: "The Anglo-Japanese Alliance heretofore has weakened Chinese esteem for the British people owing to aggression of Japan attributed by all in the East as having arisen from the treaty. If renewed, the feeling of Chinese citizens will certainly be aggravated, having a direct influence on trade."

GOVERNOR OF ILLINOIS ARRESTED

Gave Bond and Is Going About Duties Springfield, Ill., Aug. 10.—A legal battle over a charge of violating the Governor's office in the fight of Governor Len Small against charges of embezzlement during his term as State Treasurer of Illinois in 1917 and 1918. His arrest yesterday by Sheriff Henry Mester had besieged the Governor's office in the State House, lessened the tension at the Capitol, which has been at high pitch since the indictments were returned July 29.

$50,000 Bond. The Governor to-day went about his executive duties as usual, having given bond for $50,000, and which he believed in many quarters that no further action would be taken until the Governor and his indicted associates, Lieutenant-Governor Curtis and Vernon Curtis, the latter a banker of Grant Park, Illinois, appear in court on the first Monday in September to answer to the indictments.

EMPIRE TEACHERS MEET IN TORONTO

Delegates Present from Countries Far Apart Toronto, Aug. 10.—(Canadian Press) With welcoming addresses by the Hon. E. C. Drury, Premier of Ontario, and by Mayor Church of Toronto, the conference of the Teachers' Association of the British Empire was formally opened at Toronto University this morning. Sir Geoffrey Butler, of Cambridge University, replied on behalf of the visiting delegates, who include distinguished educationalists from all parts of the British Empire and the Dominions. The provinces of Canada are well represented.

War Postponement. A similar conference was held in England in 1912 and it was arranged at that time that there should be another in Canada in 1914, but the war prevented the plan being carried out. The purpose of the conference is generally to increase the efficiency of the educational opportunities for the youth of the Empire and in doing to stimulate the sentiment of British unity. The conferences were projected by the League of Empire, which aims at promoting an understanding between the different peoples of the Empire by this means.

Mr. National president of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railroad Employees, forwarded to the Labor Department some days ago, objected to a board under the Lemieux Act on the grounds that the act did not affect railways under Government ownership and operation. The board was therefore granted under the other act.

Reply. In the case of the application of the "Big Four" brotherhoods, it is understood that the reply of the railway companies to the application is expected to be in the hands of the Labor Department to-day or to-morrow. This was a separate application from that of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railroad Employees, which dealt with the dispute between the Canadian National and Grand Trunk systems and their employees.

NO STRIKE. Philadelphia, Aug. 10.—Shoppers on the Pennsylvania Railroad will not strike to force the company to comply with the order of the United States Railroad Labor Board to meet with their union employees and draw up a new schedule.

The last threat of a strike disappeared when H. D. Jeffrey, chairman of the advisory board of the shopcraft unions of the Philadelphia-Camden district, announced the unions would rely on American patriotism and public sentiment to force the business district of Camden to obey the Transportation Act.

FRESH ARRIVALS FILLING UP SPACE

Numerous changes marked the revision of quotations at the wholesale houses to-day. The changes are centered around fruit and vegetable products, with some new arrivals on the fruit market. An incline marked cucumbers to-day, number one and two lumping in price, now being picked up by the retailer at $1.75 and $1.50.

Tomatoes afforded the most encouraging change to-day, dropping a dollar and a half, the result of a drop in number one's selling at $1.50 a crate. Cantaloupes and plums showed a downward change, $1 drop in price with 25c reduction on plums. New arrivals are filling the empty spaces in the fruit section. Blueberries are now on the market. Apples in also have arrived, while some new brands of apples are increasing the quantity of this fruit. The wholesale quotations for to-day are as follows:

START OF RELIEF WORK IN RUSSIA

(Continued from page 1.) from Russian prisons arrived here at 6 o'clock this morning. The American Red Cross will supply them with comfortable clothing to replace their discarded coats, uniforms and other queer habiliments.

In Good Health. Paris, Aug. 10.—The Paris headquarters of the American Red Cross to-day received a telegram from Dr. Edward W. Ryan, Red Cross commissioner to the Baltic States, saying that the six Americans who arrived at Narva last night reached the city in good health. All of them were in fair health, Dr. Ryan's telegram stated.

His message gave the address of Dr. Henry La Mar as 241 Market Street, San Francisco, and that of Dr. Weston B. Estes as 298 West 12th Street, San Jose, Cal. The four others released were Captain Emmett Kilpatrick, John Flick, X. B. Kalmajian, and Russell Pittinger.

Lenina's Appeal. Paris, Aug. 10.—Nikolai Lenine, Russian Soviet Premier, has telegraphed a relief appeal to the Socialist newspaper Humanite here in which he predicts that the famine bids fair to approach that of 1891 in severity. He asks the workers and agriculturalists of other countries to come to the aid of Russia as a ready means of adding to the Soviet republic.

U. S. Socialists. Chicago, Aug. 10.—The Socialist national executive committee to-day issued an appeal to Socialists to send clothing and food for the relief of Russian famine sufferers. The statement pointed out that "capitalist governments, including our own, have already started relief work, but asked the Socialists to send their donations independently through the party."

Arrangements are being made, the statement held in jail at that place. The message says the missing Chicago banker is near Chihuahua City, but has not been apprehended.

W. C. SPURGIN IN MEXICO. El Paso, Texas, Aug. 10.—In a telegram received here to-day signed by the chief of police of Chihuahua City, denial is made that Warren C. Spurgin is held in jail at that place. The message says the missing Chicago banker is near Chihuahua City, but has not been apprehended.

FINANCIAL

TO-DAY'S EXCHANGE (Burdick Bros., Limited.) New York sterling, $2.66. Canadian dollar, $1.06. New York funds, 11-2 per cent.

CHICAGO GRAINS SHOW WEAKNESS (By Burdick Brothers, Ltd.) Chicago, Aug. 10.—The grain market made a strong opening to-day as the Government report which came out late yesterday. However, the strength could not be maintained, and a consequence of that some sharp selling by commission houses and the professional elements carried prices down four to five cents in wheat, closing figures being five for the No. 1.

REPEALING TAXES IN UNITED STATES

Corporation Tax Is One Marked for Increase Washington, Aug. 10.—Repeal of the excess profits tax and income surtaxes above 32 per cent, effective as of last January 1, and all of the freight and passenger transportation taxes as of next January 1, was agreed upon to-day by Republicans of the House Ways and Means Committee, Chairman Fordney announced.

The committee majority also agreed to increase the normal income tax on corporations from five per cent, making a total of fifteen per cent, instead of 12 1/2 per cent, as suggested at the White House tax conference last night. A $2,000 exemption on corporation income was understood to have been retained.

ASK YOUR BANKER. Foreign long-term securities, many of which offer attractive interest rates, are not looked upon as exclusively wild-cat speculations by Henry A. Stimson, of New York, who suggests in the Journal of the Canadian Bankers' Association, that it is the duty of the local bank to be able to advise its clients which are sound securities and which are not; and the duty of those clients to assist to whatever extent they can, by investment, the rehabilitation of the war-stricken nations of the world. This, he holds, the investor may do with profit to himself, if he is wisely advised by the banks where to place his surplus savings.

CHINAMAN WAS KILLED IN SEATTLE

Seattle, Aug. 10.—Slaying of Liew Noon, a member of the Suey Sing Tong, and wounding of three other Chinese by alleged-Chinese gunmen here last night may have been the culmination of a private quarrel and not an outbreak between the Suey Sing and Hop Sing tong, as was believed by police said to-day.

OIL WELLS IN BATUM AREA BURN

Enormous Loss in South Russia Reported London, Aug. 10.—Fires are raging in eighteen oil wells in the suburbs of Batum, the great oil centre in Asiatic Russia, according to advices to-day from Reval, Estonia, by the Central News Agency here. The fires there appear to be no means of extinguishing the conflagration, the message added.

The disaster will be more keenly felt on account of the famine and cholera in that district and the consequent scarcity of coal, resulting in scanty supplies of coal and firewood for the winter, the message said.

W. C. SPURGIN IN MEXICO. El Paso, Texas, Aug. 10.—In a telegram received here to-day signed by the chief of police of Chihuahua City, denial is made that Warren C. Spurgin is held in jail at that place. The message says the missing Chicago banker is near Chihuahua City, but has not been apprehended.

PRESSURE IN OILS

New York, Aug. 10.—The stock market to-day, after prodding for the greater part of the session without any special news attached thereto, was subjected in the late afternoon to selling pressure, which seemed to emanate from the elements committed to the down-side of prices, and under the leadership of the Mexican Oil points were registered in many of the active issues an interesting development. The day's news was the extremely favorable earnings exhibit published by the American Loco. Company for the period ending June 30 of the current year, and while the statement was apparently helpful in many quarters, it was not sufficient to counteract the selling pressure which was being absorbed for the account of substantial interests and the accumulation will show its helpful influence in the not far distant future when suggestions of a movement become a little more tangible.

City Police Board Tables Increase Issue

The salary question, now in dispute between the city police commission and the City Council, and the subject of much controversy in both bodies, was tabled at the meeting of the police commission last night by mutual consent of Mayor Porter and the other two commissioners. The latter hold the raise to be justified.

The Police Commission through Dr. Hall and Mr. North are standing out for a general advance all round. Dr. Hall secured an admission from Mayor Porter last night to the effect, that while no general raise had taken place at the City Hall, nevertheless several individual raises had taken effect in many different departments.

Without pursuing the matter further Dr. Hall moved that the salary question be tabled, which action was taken.

MORALITY WING OF POLICE DEPARTMENT NOW ADVOCATED

Mayor Stands Firm Against Proposal, Which Is Adopted

The Board of City Police Commissioners last night passed a series of resolutions that secure for Victoria the creation of a new department of the city police, to be named as the Morality Department. The proposal was introduced by Dr. Hall, the resolutions necessary for its passage, was opposed by Mayor Porter in the chair, who asked to be recorded in the negative on every motion on this subject.

Dr. Hall opened the subject soon after the Board had disposed of the question of the duties of Miss Wark by stating that he believed that the work of the police should be first preventive, rather than punitive.

"We have been considering for some time past the establishment of a new department, which for want of a better name I will call the Morality Department," stated Dr. Hall. "This department should be under a constable with the rating of inspector and comprise a number of constables, the exact size of the force not yet being determined. Miss Wark will come under that department."

"There has been altogether too much air given to this in the local press more than I intended at any rate. I move now that we consider the advisability of developing a Morality Department," stated Mr. North and carried, as before, with the Mayor in dissent.

"I now move that we call the Morality Department into action not later than October 1," continued Dr. Hall, a motion that went the way of its predecessor, with the Mayor still in disagreement with his fellow-commissioners.

Having secured the carriage of his points Dr. Hall continued in a statement of the projected work of installing the Morality Department as a third wing of the police of Victoria:

"This may mean a very considerable re-arrangement of personnel," stated Dr. Hall, "but I want it to be clearly understood that it does not mean the dismissal of any member of the present force. I believe the Morality Department is in the best interests of the city of Victoria and of its welfare, and I will present a fuller explanation of its workings and of the growing daughters," replied the Mayor, "I am quite interested in their welfare, the only objection I take is the method by which it is proposed to be done."

There being no further business before the meeting a motion to adjourn was accepted. The Police Commissioners transacted their business last night in one hour and five minutes.

Support to Plan.

"I think we have the sympathy and support of the representative ladies of Victoria in this development in the last two months have convinced me of the absolute necessity of making this change."

"We have to accomplish this change without any friction with you Mr. Mayor, or others, and I am sure there will be no objection to it, as this is one of the forward movements."

"As the father of five growing daughters," replied the Mayor, "I am quite interested in their welfare, the only objection I take is the method by which it is proposed to be done."

There being no further business before the meeting a motion to adjourn was accepted. The Police Commissioners transacted their business last night in one hour and five minutes.

DEFINE DUTIES OF POLICEWOMAN FOR LOCAL DEPARTMENT

Miss Wark's Work Settled by Board After Some Discussion

At the session of the Board of City Police Commissioners, held last night, the duties of Miss Wark, police woman of the force, were determined. The point has been in dispute for some time past, Chief Fry contending that her duties were firmly established with that of an ordinary constable, and Commissioner Dr. Hall holding that Miss Wark was engaged for social service work alone.

A report of the duties of women police officers as laid down by the regulations of the municipal police force was introduced by Chief Fry, and accepted by the full board as binding in the case of Miss Wark.

The duties to be performed and observed by Miss Wark in this connection are:

- 1-To investigate certain matters for the police department, where juveniles and women are concerned;
- 2-To patrol the streets, parks, playgrounds and other public places within the city;
- 3-To visit cabarets, dance halls, departmental stores, and other places where young persons congregate or are employed;
- 4-To be watchful at railway stations and boat landings, and all places of amusement and to make herself generally useful by giving a helping hand, or kindly admonition, and to see that law and order is observed;
- 5-All matters of importance must be reported to police headquarters and all correspondence, whether by letter or wire, must only be transacted through the Chief of Police.

The report concluded with "perhaps it is unnecessary to add that the police woman must be courteous and obliging at all times."

This statement of duties was passed by the Board as the correct work for Miss Wark. Miss Wark, in answer to Dr. Hall stated that she had established herself in a new office closer to town, and was now operating from there. She had not yet obtained her furniture. Mayor Porter stated that the letter from the Police Board to the City Council requesting an additional raise of $15 a month and $75 grant for furniture

MEETING ADJOURNED

Inter-Municipal Cemetery Committee Awaits Esquimalt's Decision.

Pending Esquimalt's decision as to whether or not that municipality is prepared to enter into the inter-municipal cemetery scheme, the Inter-Municipal Committee yesterday afternoon adjourned for two weeks. Oak Bay was not represented at the meeting, as it has definitely decided not to enter into the scheme.

The committee learns that Esquimalt Council had considered the proposed agreement for the first time at its meeting Monday night. Councillor Pomeroy was present, and reported Esquimalt's position.

Victoria and Saanich are at present the only two municipalities definitely committed to the inter-municipal scheme and if Esquimalt joins forces it will be possible to go ahead. Nothing whatever was done at yesterday's meeting, when an immediate adjournment was taken.

Why Does She Look So Old?

This question has been asked about many a woman under thirty, who has married and taken upon herself the care of a house and young children. When a woman is suffering from female weakness, bearing down pains, head and back ache and nervous irritation, it is well nigh impossible to attend to her duties and retain the charm and freshness of youth. Must she then struggle on toward the inevitable nervous breakdown or premature old age?

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved many women from such a fate. Thousands of grateful letters from such women testify to the merits of this wonderful root and herb medicine for female ills. Adv.

AGE OF LADIES WHO MAY VISIT CABARETS

One Man May Have Many Lady Friends

The Board of City Police Commissioners, in session last night, with Mayor Porter in the chair, considered the revised Cabaret by-law which was referred to them by the City Council.

With some radical changes the Police Commissioners passed upon the new cabaret proposals for the by-law.

In section four, in connection with the closing time to be observed, the commission discovered that no Sunday closing had been required, and inserted a note that all cabarets should remain closed on the Sabbath.

On a motion from Commissioner North the Board carried a resolution that the closing hour for week days be fixed at one in the morning, standing the time, with the exception of Saturday nights, when the Lord's Day Observance Act made midnight closing obligatory. Section five was passed with suitable amendments to comply with the foregoing.

Section seven, dealing with the age of patrons, much discussion took place. Commissioner North wished to have every lady under 18 accompanied by an escort, and to have the age limit for ladies reduced to 18 years of age. Commissioner Hall thought that any married lady, irrespective of age, should be allowed admission.

Mayor Porter pointed out that there was plenty of machinery to control cabarets, and that if they were more run in accordance with the dictates of moral rectitude they could be easily suppressed. It was decided at this stage that the age limit for ladies be reduced to eighteen years, and that none might gain admittance without a male escort.

This developed the point of how many ladies might be "chaperoned" by the one male escort, it being finally held that the man might take as many ladies as he could get to attend such places of amusement, provided they were accompanied by a male escort or over. With these few changes the Cabaret by-law was passed upon as pleasing the present Police Commission.

ATLIN PLACER MINING ACTIVE

District Mining Engineer Returns From Tour

Many engineers are scouting for properties in the north of the province and prospecting is more active than it has been for several years, says George A. Clothier, provincial district mining engineer, who returned to Prince Rupert last week from a six weeks' trip of inspection into the country in the vicinity of Atlin.

When Mr. Clothier was north the main excitement was a stampedie to the east of Little Atlin Lake. A find of placer gold had been reported, and quite a number went from Atlin, Capcross and Whitehorse. It turned out, however, that there was nothing to cause excitement and the rush subsided.

The placer mining in the Atlin country is improving generally, said Mr. Clothier. Several of the smaller creeks are beginning to show up well and on the old creeks there are more men working than there have been for two or three years. The prospectors are making, at least, good wages and there have been some pretty fair cleanups.

Quartz Mining.

As far as quartz or lode mining is concerned, the prolonged litigation of the Engineer Mine has been holding the country back. Trial is now set for September this year and, which ever side wins, it is almost certain that operations will again be started. It is hoped that with this trial the long series of law suits will be finally ended. Mr. Clothier states that the operation of the Engineer Mine will have the same good effect on the Atlin district as the Premier has at Stewart. The Engineer is a gold mine.

J. N. Futner's property on Fourth of July Creek, fourteen miles from Atlin, is now under option to a large mining company who already have a crew of men there. There are very encouraging surface showings of silver lead. Considerable prospecting for quartz is also going on in the hills about Atlin.

Rainy Hollow.

In the Rainy Hollow country, about 55 miles from Hazelton, Alaska, and just across the panhandle in B. C. there are several good looking prospects besides the Maid of Erin borate and chalcite mine. H. W. Wiley of Portland, Oregon, is developing this property which looks very promising. There is a good equipment of tractors and trailers and it is expected that 500 tons of ore will be shipped this winter. The Alaska government has spent a great deal of money on roads leading into this country through Alaska. There are other good looking prospects in the vicinity of the Maid of Erin and the country for 40 miles beyond to the Yukon boundary line is well mineralized.

While on his trip north, Mr. Clothier also paid an unofficial visit to the Wheaton River country in Yukon Territory near Carcross. There are some very good looking gold and copper prospects in that vicinity.
