 1863. On the reverse, State Rights; One 1863 Cent.; C. S. A; Liberty. These words and letters are stamped on in an extremely irregular manner and struck on a piece of lead made from a bullet, and the party from whom I received this collection says he has reason to believe there were only three pieces struck

- 65 446 1869 United States of America. Rev. V, in a Wreath.
"In God we Trust." A little circulated
- 10.50 447 1869 Set of Standard Silver Pieces, 50, 25 and 10 Cents in three varieties, making nine pieces. Plain edge.

- 13.50 448 1870 Another in all respects, excepting date, precisely similar. 9 pieces
- 125.- 449 1872 Beautiful Proof Dollar. Ob. Thirteen Stars over the head of Liberty seated, holding a Liberty Cap with a small pole. On the globe on which the Goddess is seated is the word, Liberty; behind are two Flags, one of which has the peculiar number of Nineteen Stars, but for what reason I am unable to state. Rev.
"United States of America," under which in a wreath is the inscription, &c., "Commercial Dollar—420 Grs.
900 fine." Between Commercial and Dollar are two cornucopias crossed. "God our Trust" on a scroll which unites the ends of the wreath. There were only six of these dollars issued, as I learn from the Boston Numismatic Journal, which also infers that the dies were destroyed. There is so slight a crack in in the die that it can only be seen in a certain light, and this is doubtless one of the rarest patterns known.
