

Commencement Number only one Number of the therefore again v. 21 No 1 in

The Rollins Sandspur

PUBLISHED BY STUDENTS OF ROLLINS COLLEGE

VOL. 21.

WINTER PARK FLORIDA, JUNE 6, 1919

NUMBER 1.

BACCALAUREATE SER- MON BY DR. WARD

FORCEFUL SERMON COUPLED WITH BEAUTIFUL MUSIC MAKE BACCALAUREATE SUNDAY A MEMORABLE EVENT OF YEAR—LOCAL CLERGY ASSIST.

Without doubt the most impressive and memorable Baccalaureate Service in the history of the college was that of last Sunday, when President George Morgan Ward, assisted by the clergy of Winter Park, and the Glee Club of the Conservatory, delivered the annual address before the graduating classes in Knowles Hall. The auditorium was filled to its utmost capacity and after chairs had been placed in all available places, people stood along the walls eager to catch at least a few words of the sermon.

This Service heralded in the concluding exercises of the thirty-fourth year of college history in Winter Park. A number of the parents of those graduating had come from a distance and there were friends and alumni present from Orlando, Sanford, Winter Garden, Tavares, Ocoee, Maitland, and a number of other nearby communities. And everywhere was expressed the desire to hear another inspiring sermon by Dr. Ward, and if the rapt attention was an indication of appreciation, the sermon on this evening far exceeded all expectations.

Mrs. C. R. Harcourt at the organ opened with the Priest's March from Athalia (Mendelssohn) as processional for the academic procession of seniors and faculty. Rev. Dr. J. Goodrich Litch, rector of All Saints Church, read the Scripture lesson and was followed by Rev. A. P. Pugh, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church who offered an eloquent prayer. The Girls Glee Club, led by Miss Anna B. Waterman, rendered Mendelssohn's, "I Waited for the Lord," with Miss Eleanor Coffin as accompanist.

Dr. Ward's Sermon

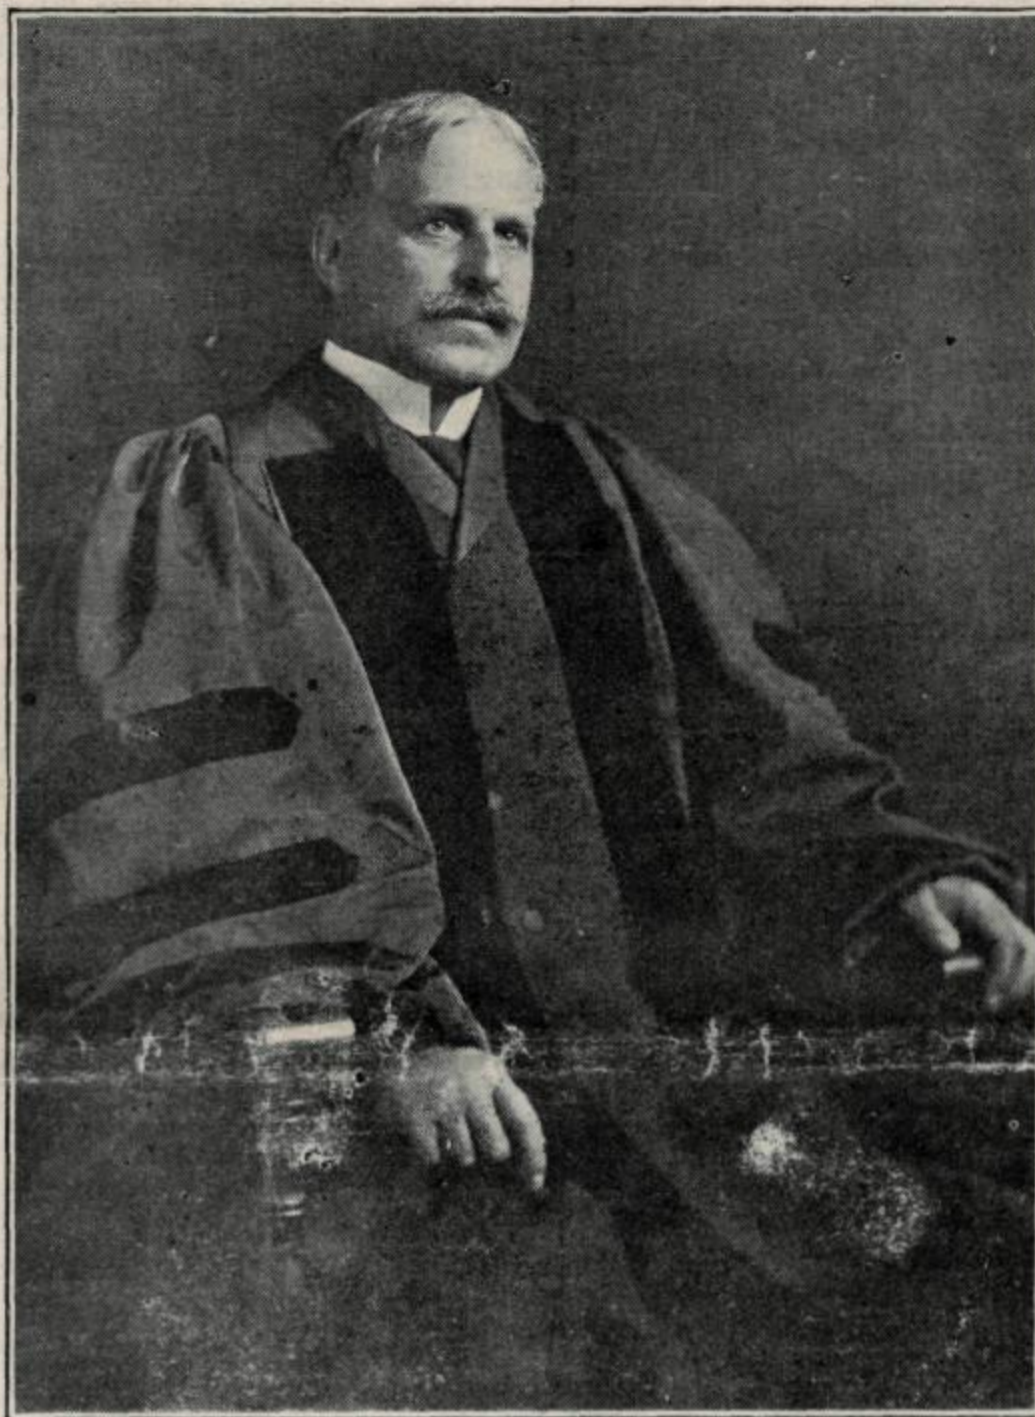

In opening his address Dr. Ward said: "Every time I come to such a commencement occasion as this, my mind goes back to the time two thousand years ago when John the Baptist performed the simple ceremony that was the introduction to the work of the Divine Son of God in this world. You young men and women are the persons upon whom the redemption of the world depends. You are the latest word in civilization and Americanism. The greatest accomplishment of America is its system of education and you are today its representatives.

"We are facing times of reformation of the world, greater than all others. The rule of kings is over; autocracy is dead, because it ignored the spiritual in life. The question before us is, what will democracy do? We must recognize the great truth that a republic is an imitation of God's plan to provide a self-respecting place for every one in the world; that the great foundations of civilization are the precepts of Jesus of Nazareth.

"America must be the model, and as it goes, so will go the world. And America's future rests in the hands of the type of men and women that you who are graduated represent. It is no trifling thing today to be an American. The greatest nation is the one that gives opportunity for growth, and inspires the loftiest character."

With this keynote on character, Dr. Ward then continued to enlarge on "Character Building," speaking of the different stages in the child's growth from foundation to full maturity, and warning against those pitfalls which no less in real life than in Bunyan's famous allegory are ever-present.

PRESIDENT GEORGE MORGAN WARD, D.D., L.L.D.

As he concluded his address with a few direct words of admonition and congratulation the graduating classes stood, after which Dr. Ward pronounced the benediction. The "Te Deum" (Wachs) as a recessional, closed one of the most uplifting services ever held on the college campus.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

Recently it has not been uncommon to hear Rollins students and others remark: "Oh, I wish I belonged to the cooking class." And well they might, for the course which has been given this year has been a most attractive one, as all will testify who have seen or tasted the products of the Domestic Science girls' industry.

All the girls in the present cooking class, except one, have had the course here only this semester; yet under the efficient guidance of Miss Watkins, head of the Domestic Science Department, this short course has been made

(Continued on page 12)

COMMENCEMENT DAY REPLETE WITH GAY EVENTS

INSPIRING ADDRESS BY DR. KERR
BOYCE TUPPER—DIPLOMAS
AWARDED TO GRADUATES.

At ten o'clock on the morning of May twenty-ninth, Commencement Day was ushered in with a "College Sing." Under the direction of Miss Dyer, the Rollins Orchestra, which was seated upon Pinehurst piazza, furnished the music for the familiar, loved songs, which were sung with loyal fervor by student and friend alike, assembled in festive array on the lawn in front of Pinehurst Conservatory. Following the last strains of Rollins "Alma Mater," the academic procession, marshalled by John F. R. Glassey '21, was formed and proceeded to the chapel in Knowles Hall.

As one entered the chapel, to the soft strains of a processional, Gounod's Marche Romaine, played by Mrs. Christine Reese Harcourt, a galaxy of green, of palm and fern, blending harmoniously with the white of oleander blooms, met the eye. Adding a bright, striking note of color here and there, were huge bouquets of black-eyed susans, in urns of beaten brass.

After the offering of a prayer by Rev. George B. Waldron, and the singing of the Senior Class song, "Osceola" which was led by Miss Dyer and the Girls Glee Club, an inspiring baccalaureate address was delivered by Dr. Kerr Boyce Tupper, of Philadelphia, whom Dr. Ward introduced as "clergyman, orator, scholar and gentleman." His subject was "Manliness," and the impression left with those fortunate enough to be present, cannot fail to be lasting.

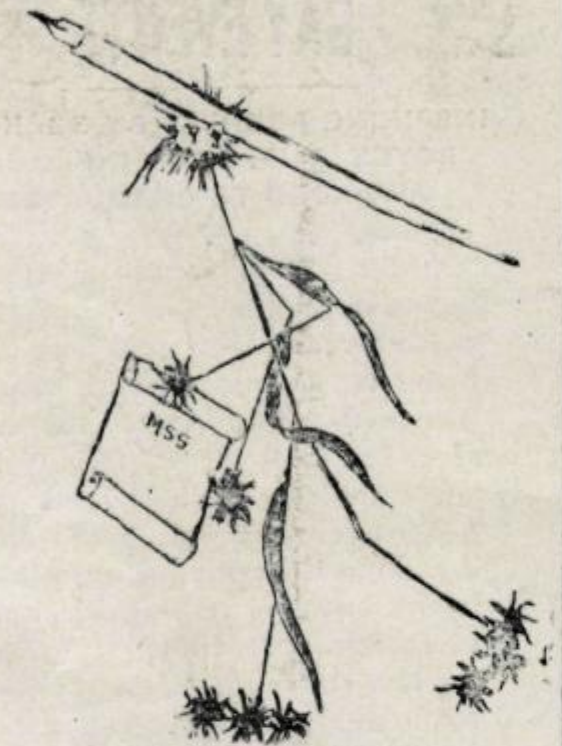

Following the address, Miss Waterman, in her most charming manner, sang Chaminade's, "Were I a Gardener." The presentation of diplomas and certificates to the graduates of the Music, Academy and Business Departments, having been made by Dr. Ward, the degree of Bachelor of Arts was then bestowed with a few appropriate remarks, upon the following candidates, Mrs. Marie Miller, Miss Florence Stone, Miss Ada McKnight, Miss Bessie Brown, and Mr. Benjamin Chandler Shaw. As the graduates passed from the platform, the hood, the symbol of the degree of Bachelor of Arts, was received by each from Mrs. Ada Bumby Yothers, '05, assisted by Mr. James Noxon, '18.

The Rollins Sandspur

"STICK TO IT"

Established in 1894 with the following editorial:

"Unassuming yet mighty, sharp and pointed, well-rounded yet many-sided, assiduously tenacious, yet as gritty and energetic as its name implies, victorious in single combat and therefore without a peer, wonderfully attractive and extensive in circulation; all these will be found upon investigation to be among the extraordinary qualities of The Sandspur."

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

- Editor-in-Chief:
FLORENCE M. STONE, '19.
- Associate Editors:
ADA E. MCKNIGHT, '19.
BESSIE L. BROWN, '19
MARIE U. MILLER, '19
- Business Manager:
J. IRVIN CHAFFEE, '19 A.
- Assistant Business Manager:
STANLEY P. FOSGATE, '19 A.
- Circulation Manager:
EPHRAIM D. CONWAY, '19 A.
- Assistant Circulation Manager:
CHARLES T. FOHL, '19 A.
- Literary Editor:
BENJAMIN C. SHAW, '19
- Assistant Literary Editors:
AGNES BOGGS, '19 A.
JEAN WAGNER, '19 A.
- Conservatory Editor:
FLORENCE SMITH, '19 M.
- Assistant Conservatory Editor:
ALICE CAMPBELL, '19 A.
- Society Editor:
DOROTHY HARRISON, '19 A.
- Assistant Society Editors:
HELEN HANNA, '19 A.
KATHERINE SIMS, '19 A.
- Art Editor:
FRANCES BELL, '20 A.
- Assistant Art Editors:
NINA MARSH, '22
MAE CLOCK, '19 A.
- Athletic Editors:
AVA TAYLOR, '19 A.
THELMA DEMPSEY, '19 A.
- Joke Editors:
MABEL G. TOWNSEND, '19 A.
CARLA J. DORAN, '19 A.
ROBERTA W. WADDELL, '19 A.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE:

Per Year$1.50
 Single Copy10
 Entered at Postoffice at Winter
 Entered at Postoffice at Winter
 June, 1919.

A SALUTE.

The return of George Morgan Ward, D. D., LL. D., as president of Rollins was received far and wide with a great degree of enthusiasm by trustees, alumni, former students, and friends of the institution, who recognized that Dr. Ward's return to Rollins foretold much for the welfare of the college.

The hearty applause that arose from the chapel, as the well-known and much loved figure of Dr. Ward appeared on the Knowles platform, the morning of April 15th, when he formally reassumed the presidency, expressed in some degree the love and esteem in which he is held.

From his short but most impressive address, we quote the following: "That history repeats itself seems to be most positively proven in my life. My love for Rollins is too well known to call for any explanation in detail of my reason for assuming for the third time the presidency of the college. If it is true that 'three times is out,' apparently this is permanent.

"Nothing was further from my intentions three months ago than to bear any relation to the institution other than that of a helpful trustee. Conditions due to the war and other causes were such that Rollins especially needed all her friends at this critical moment in her history and the trustees were a unit in asking my return."

At the Alumni meeting on Commencement Day, Dr. Ward expressed his gratification for the resolutions of loyalty, that the Association had passed, and called upon every member of the organization to be true to his or her promise of faithful support, in his work for the Alma Mater.

ROLLINS IS ROLLING

Can you imagine Rollins without her stirring college songs and cheers? There is nothing that has given so much zest and spirit to our college year than the singing of these songs at our "Thursday Morning Sings," under the direction of Miss Susan Dyer. It is there we have displayed our "pep," the fighting spirit, characteristic of Rollins, which has emphasized our good fellowship and spirit of loyalty to class and to college and has instilled in all a deeper affection for our Alma Mater.

In these days of Commencement we feel proud of this splendid spirit that has prevailed on the campus, which has resulted in good grades, few absences from classes and a general friendliness and co-operation between the faculty and students.

The outlook and prospects for the coming year are most encouraging and it is hoped and expected that everyone will do his share in the summer months to make it a banner year.

Rollins is rolling! We all feel it and know it. Then let's keep her moving by singing.

1
Rollins Goes Rolling Along.
 (Tune: U. S. Artillery Song.)
 Year by year, day by day.

FOUNDER'S WEEK

FEBRUARY 24-27, 1919.

The most important event of the college year at Rollins is Founder's Week held in February. Owing to conditions peculiar to the climate and customs of Florida nearly all public functions usually identified with what is termed at other colleges "Commencement Week" are grouped into this week. The 1919 Founder's Week was most interesting despite the effects of the war.

ALUMNI DAY.

The first event of the week was Alumni Day in the afternoon of which the annual meeting of the Alumni Association took place. Following the annual meeting the annual dinner to the Senior Class was given by the Association, this enjoyable function taking place at the Hotel Seminole.

COLLEGE DAY.

On the morning of the second day, College Day, the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees was held in Carnegie Hall. The festivities, in which the undergraduates first figured began with the annual college picnic, that evening on Chase Hall Terrace overlooking Lake Virginia. Many friends and students were present to help make the evening a success.

The following morning in spite of fog and rain, every true lover of outdoor sports was present at Osceola Dock to cheer the winners of boat-racing, swimming, life-saving, water polo, canoeing, etc. Hearty cheers went up as each winner came forward to receive the much coveted "R."

In the afternoon of the same day the Mid-Winter Convocation took place.

In the same old lucky way
 Good old Rollins keeps rolling along.
 We will boost, we will shove,
 For the college that we love,
 So old Rollins keeps rolling along.

Chorus:

Then it's hip-hoo-ray
 For the blue and gold so gay
 Shout out the chorus loud and strong.

Where'er you go
 You will always know
 That old Rollins is rolling along
 (Shout) KEEP HER ROLLING!
 That old Rollins is rolling along.

2

Students come, students go,
 All the different kinds we know,
 But old Rollins keeps rolling along.
 Some may holler and spout
 Still they don't put themselves out
 To keep Rollins a-rolling along.
 Chorus.

3

There are schools large and small
 Yet old Rollins beats 'em all
 For she keeps right on rolling along!
 Let's be loyal and true
 And let's keep her still rolling along,
 To her flag of gold and blue.

Miss Jane Adams delivered an interesting and instructive address on the "League of Nations." The friends of the college showed their appreciation of an opportunity to hear this well-known speaker by filling the chapel to its utmost capacity.

That evening the College Orchestra and Glee Club gave a concert which in every way did credit to the Conservatory. Among the many beautiful selections rendered, "Joan of Arc" was sung effectively by the Glee Club, the soloist being Miss Magruder. The "Largo" of Handel for voice and orchestra was a fitting finale of the evening. The effect of having the voices in the gallery like a "heavenly choir" was very beautiful. The familiar but ever lovely melody of the "Largo" received a worthy presentation and one of which the college may be justly proud.

The delay in the publication of this issue of The Sandspur is due to the fact that the cuts, without which the paper would not be complete, were lost enroute.—Editor.

FOUNDER'S DAY.

On the last morning, Founder's Day, students with tennis rackets could be seen rushing across the campus to enter the final tennis tournament. The games were well played and more "R's" were won. The Powers band had been engaged for the first part of the afternoon and it was not long before the campus was literally covered with people. No one will be likely to forget this band and its thrilling music. After the concert the crowd was invited to Knowles Hall which was soon filled to overflowing. On the platform were seated ten of the fourteen founders of Winter Park who are still living. They were greeted with applause by the audience who then joined with more than a touch of tender feeling in singing "Auld Lang Syne." Mr. William C. Comstock who reached this part of Florida in 1876, then presented the early days of Winter Park. Everyone who heard his interesting talk realized in some measure how much they owed to these brave pioneers. Dr. French introduced the founders one by one, giving a brief history of each, after which the room was darkened, and stereopticon views of early town and college were shown in rapid succession.

HAMLIN GARLAND LECTURES

Promptly at 7:45 in the evening of Thursday, following the founders' exercises of the afternoon, an eager audience filled Knowles Hall to listen to Mr. Hamlin Garland's lecture on "Songs and Seasons of the Middle Border." In Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, and the Dakotas, the life, songs and institutions of the Middle Border developed. The unlimited optimism of the father seeking cheaper lands, the infinite patience of the mother, leaving the old home, ministering with loving care through the endless years, the trials of a boy on the farm, its limitations as well as its compensations, were depicted with vividness and poetical insight by Mr. Garland, whose books on this particular theme are the best in American literature.

Class of Nineteen Nineteen

MISS SUSAN H. DYER has been the class officer and faculty adviser of the class of nineteen hundred and nineteen since the Sophomore year. No officer could possibly do more for a class than she has done. The song, "Osceola," which is sung by all the students on the campus, was composed and dedicated by her to the class. Miss Dyer's contribution of ideas has made all the undertakings of the class successful. Besides the many picnics and parties which she has infused with life, her invaluable assistance in the Junior "Prom" of last year should be especially mentioned.

BESSIE LYNN BROWN came to Rollins from Huron College, South Dakota, where she had completed her first two years of college work. At this institution she held a prominent place in the college quartette and Glee Club, Young Women's Christian Association, and the Literary Society. At Rollins she has been chosen secretary-treasurer of the Glee-Club, is the social chairman of the Young Women's Christian Association, and won distinction in the regatta in February. Her activity in the War Work Fund this year has proved her executive ability and integrity.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE PICNIC FOR THE SENIORS.

On the morning of Tuesday, the 21st the girls of the Domestic Science class were gazing anxiously at the sky; they had planned a picnic for the Seniors and were eager to show them a good time. Clouds were gathering, but the weather man was kind after all, for the daily shower came early and a beautiful evening followed.

The jolly crowd, including the Seniors, Miss Watkins, Mr. Hochstetler, boys to keep things lively, left the boat house in canoes late in the afternoon. When the landing was made in the woods just beyond the Seminole Hotel, all were rejoiced to find the Commissary Department (Miss Bigelow's car) already there. It is difficult even for Seniors, to keep their dignity on empty stomachs, and indeed, everyone was glad when the usual picnic rites, such as building the fire, were attended to and all were comfortably seated and armed with paper cups and plates. And my-e! Didnot that chicken salad, and those baked beans, and that nut bread, and flakey rolls, justify all the delicious odors that ever rose from the depths

(Continued on Page 10)

OSCEOLA

(Composed and dedicated to the class of 1919, Rollins College, by Susan Dyer)

1.
Long years ago lived an Indian Chief
In the land of the palm and pine.
He was the proudest of the warrior braves
And he came of a fighting line.
And his was a soul that none could tame,
Osceola was his name.

CHORUS:

Osceola! Osceola!
Your dauntless spirit lingers still
Upon the prairies, besides the waters
Where once you wandered at your will Osceola! Osceola!
You died for freedom so the stories say.
All Rollins' loyal sons and daughters
Shall sing your praise today.
2.
Today our Alma Mater stands
Where the great Chief's wigwams stood,
And our bonfires blaze by the placid lakes
At the edge of his cypress wood.
But his noble mem'ry guides us yet,
And his name we'll not forget.

FLORENCE MERCEDES STONE has the unusual record of having been at Rollins for eight years, having taken both her academy and college work here. During this time she has taken an important part in almost every form of student activity on the campus, attaining distinction in so many lines that it leaves her without a rival. In the present year she won the racquet in the tennis tournament, is president of the Glee Club, was chosen May Queen, and is the Editor-in-Chief of the Sandspur.

BENJAMIN CHANDLER SHAW entered as a Freshman in 1914. He has been once Joke Editor and twice Literary Editor of the Sandspur, and also has put his literary abilities to good usage in the Delphic Society. This year he won an "R" in the tennis tournament and kept up the spirit of the old canoe club of which he was president in 1916. During the past summer and fall he was in Naval service in the Ensign Class at Key West. He was welcomed back soon after the signing of the armistice, and has taken part in most of the activities of the college since then.

MARIE UMBACH MILLER came to Rollins during the present year to specialize in English and History. At Kee Mar College, Maryland, she received an A. B. degree and also a diploma in Expression. She was there a member of the Omega Psi Delta Sorority and held a place on the basketball team during the four years. She is now doing work on a Master of Arts degree which she will continue this summer at Columbia University. Mrs. Miller has the honor of having maintained the highest average this year in college.

THE CONSERVATORY IN 1918-1919

The Conservatory looks back over the busiest year in its history, and, it is safe to say, the most successful year. In point of numbers, it has outstripped all past records, in spite of the small college enrollment, and war conditions generally, having passed the hundred mark before the catalogues went to press.

Our motto has become, like that of a small town not far from Winter Park,—

"Watch Us Grow!"

This year the Conservatory concerts have been an increasingly important part of the community life, and through these, and the concerts given by members of the faculty in different parts of the state, we are told that Winter Park and Rollins College are fast becoming known as the leaders of things musical in Florida. An account of these concerts may be of interest to our friends elsewhere, as follows:

In January, February and March, five Artist Recitals, given by members of the faculty and others at the Winter Park Country Club: (1) Joint Recital by Miss Greenup, Violinist, and Miss Rous, Pianist. (2) Joint Recital by Arthur Ranous, Baritone, of Chicago. 3. Costume Recital by Miss Jean Knowlton, Soprano, of Chicago. 4. Lecture Recital by Miss Marion Rous, on "Programme Music." 5. Violin Recital by Miss Greenup, Mrs. Harcourt, Accompanist.

These concerts proved exceedingly popular, and a similar course is planned for next winter.

Miss Greenup's debut in January, which was long delayed on account of the influenza epidemic, was one of the most brilliant affairs ever given in Knowles Hall, and established her immediately in the hearts of our local public. Miss Rous, always popular, also gave a very fine recital at the College,—the only one of the series of Sunday Twilight Recitals planned at the beginning of the year to take place. The others had to be cancelled on account of the epidemic, and the mid-season rush.

These two artists, assisted by Mrs. Harcourt as accompanist, have appeared during the past season, in Orlando, Daytona, Gainesville and Jacksonville,—in the latter city twice, having recently given a program at the May Music Festival there. They were soloists also at the Music Festival in Orlando, giving the first half of the opening program on February 28.

The Director, Miss Dyer, has been active in community and state work, during the past year, having been first appointed State Director of Liberty Choruses by Governor Catts, for the State Council of Defense, and later receiving the appointment of State Chairman of Music for the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs.

In September she went to Tallahassee for two weeks to direct the singing at the War College for Women, and in November conducted the singing at the Annual Convention of the Florida

Federation of Women's Clubs at Daytona. In December she also led the singing for the St. Lucie County Federation at Sebastian, and has conducted sings in many different places, delivered addresses on community music, notably at Gainesville in January, at the Biennial Meeting of the Florida Federation of Music Clubs.

At this convention, Miss Rous gave a lecture recital on "What Next in Music?" which won her and the college many friends. Miss Dyer invited the Federation of Music Clubs to hold an informal conference at Rollins next year, which they accepted, and December was set as the time of meeting. This promises to be an interesting event in next season's schedule of musical activities, as it will bring many of the leading musicians of Florida to Winter Park.

The other faculty members have been equally busy. The work of Miss Waterman and the Glee Club will be spoken of elsewhere, but it is difficult to imagine what Winter Park would have done without them this season. Beginning with their patriotic work at the first of the year, when they were organized as a regular Liberty Chorus, they have been the very "backbone of the nation" ever since. Nothing can be done properly without their active participation, and they are always ready and willing,—and what is more, they are always artistic in what they do. They have been one of our greatest assets this year.

In addition to her classes in Winter Park and Orlando, Miss Waterman has established a vocal class in Kissimmee, which it is hoped will eventually develop into a branch studio similar to that in Orlando, going over for one day every week during the second semester.

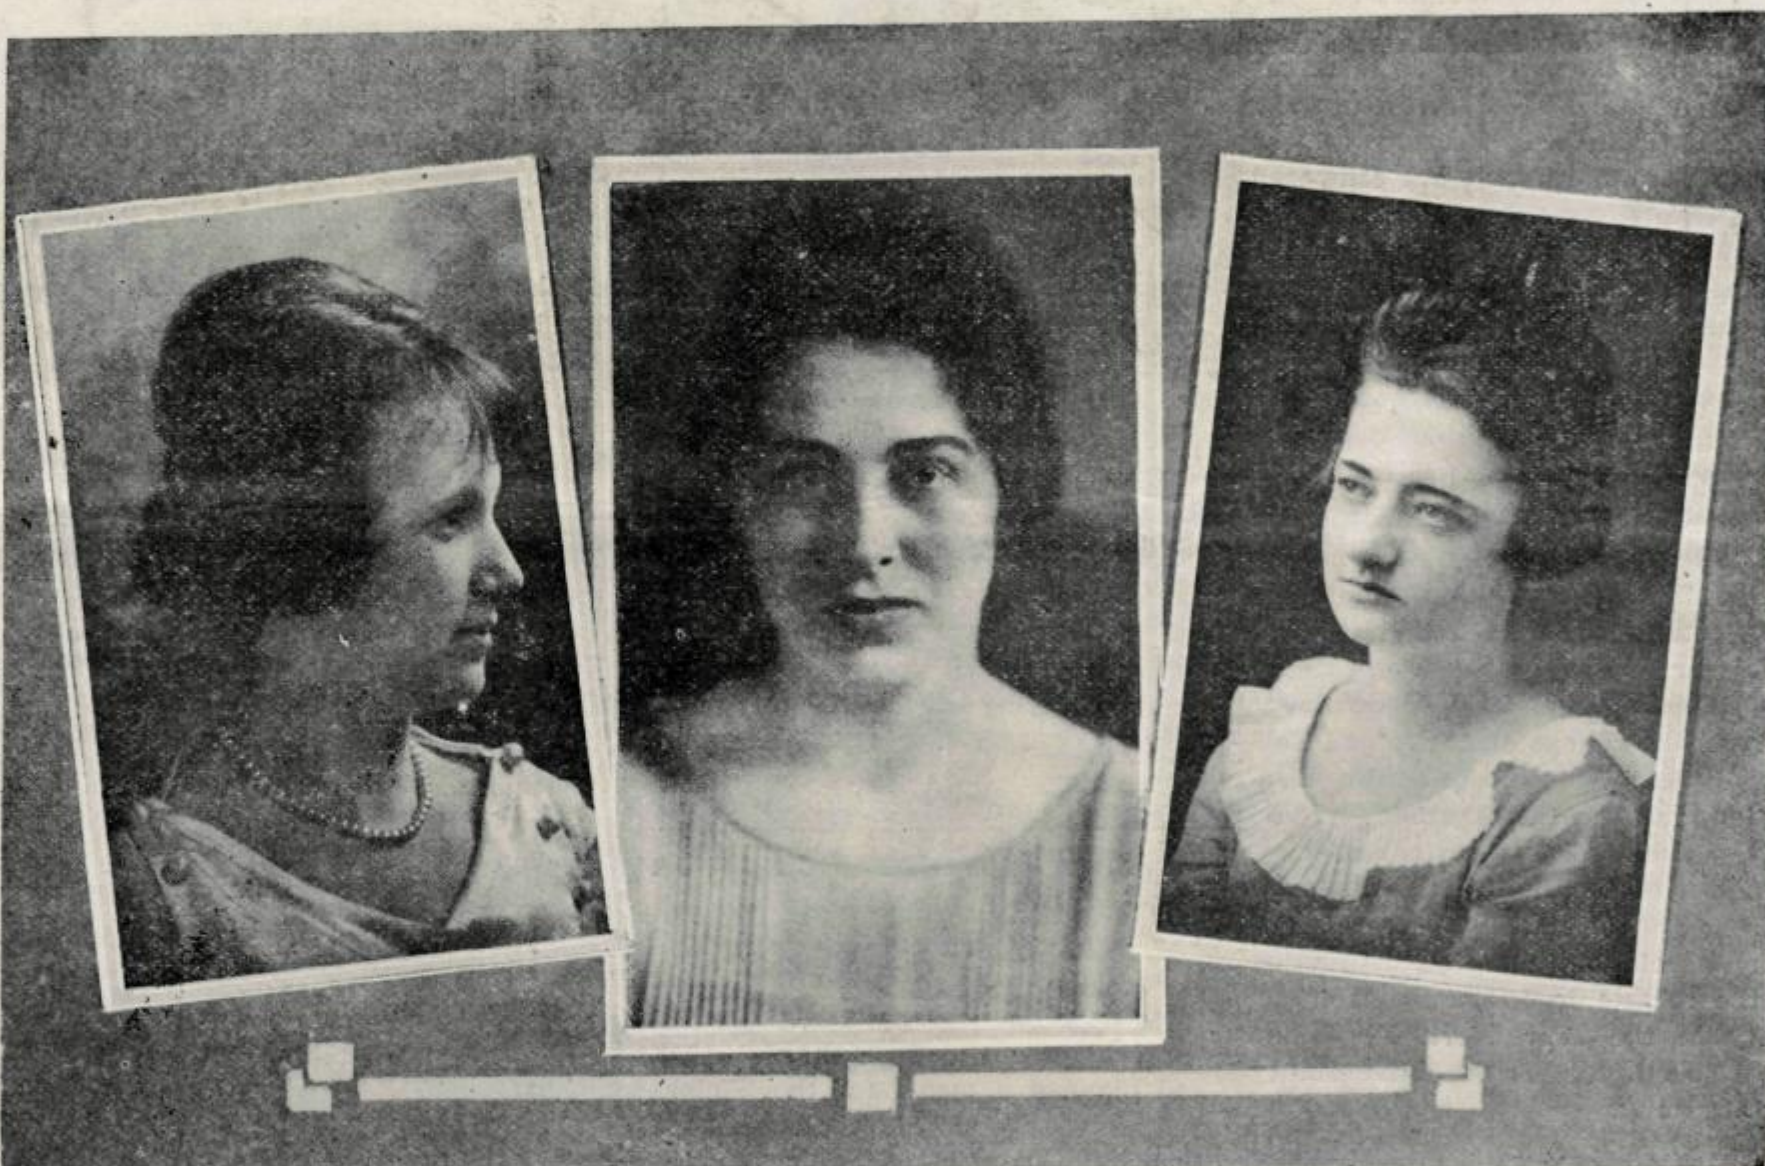

Mrs. Harcourt, in addition to her work as teacher of organ, piano and public school music, music supervisor in the Winter Park school, accompanist to Miss Greenup, and organist of the Congregational church and the college, has found time to sing in the Glee Club and do many other things which have added to the musical life of the community. Mrs. Krauss has conducted an After-School Violin Class at the public school, in addition to her other activities. Altogether the music faculty have enjoyed a busy winter.

During the latter part of the season, it was found that the monthly student concert programs were growing so long that it has been necessary to have two concerts instead of one. Next year they will take place every two weeks. The improvement in the work at the concerts has been marked during the year.

The orchestra, under Miss Dyer's direction, gave a joint program with the Glee Club in Founder's Week, in February, playing two movements from Mozart's Symphony in G minor. We are fortunate in having a pipe organ in Knowles Hall, for it is possible to supply what wind instruments are lacking in our orchestra by using the

(Continued on Page 10.)

MISS CELIA SALOMON

Graduate of the Conservatory.

MISS FLORENCE SMITH

Graduate of the Conservatory.

MISS JESSIE PEDRICK

Graduate of the Conservatory.

Celia Salomon, who graduates this year in piano from the Conservatory to Music, was born in New York City and came to Florida at three years of age. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Salomon, of Orlando, and a graduate of the Orlando High School, in the class of 1918. She has been studying at Rollins Conservatory for the past three years, under Miss Rous in piano, and Miss Dyer in theoretical subjects. Next winter she plans to continue her studies in the north, at the School of Musical Art in New York City.

Florence Smith, who receives the diploma in public school music this year, has studied for the past three years at Rollins, under the late Dr. Henry G. Hanchett, Miss Rous, Miss Dyer, Miss Waterman, and Mrs. Harcourt. She was born in Cambridge, Ohio, and is a graduate of the Steubenville, O., High school.

STARTLING

At an affair on the campus a short time ago Prof. Blair and Miss Eckerson were sitting together when Rev. Dr. Pugh came up. Prof. Blair rising, asked him cordially, "Won't you join us?"

Jesse Pedrick, graduate in piano from the Conservatory, 1919, was born in Orlando, and has received her entire education in that city. Her talent was early discovered and fostered by Miss Florida Howard and for the past two years she has been studying at the Conservatory under Miss Rous in piano, and Miss Dyer in the theoretical branches. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Maxwell Pedrick, and has been for some time past organist of the Methodist church in Orlando. She is a graduate of the Orlando High School, class of 1918.

GLEE CLUB OF 1918-19

From left to right: Vesta Higginbotham, Emilie Swigel, Florence Smith, Eleanor Coffin, Margery Waide, Bessie Brown, Miss Waterman, June Davis, Ruth Waldron, Florence Keezel, Elsa Siewert, Jean Wagner, Frieda Siewert, Florence Stone, Margaret Coalter, Winifred Stone.

THE GLEE CLUB

The Young Women's Glee Club has been one of the most active organizations of the college this past year.

In the fall, the club, registered as the "First Liberty Chorus of the State of Florida," looked forward to a year given over largely, if not entirely, to patriotic music. The girls worked with a will to be ready to respond to any and all calls for patriotic singing, and much of this kind of work was done, not only at home but for patriotic rallies in Apopka, Orlando, Altamonte, St. Cloud, and Kissimmee.

With practically all the young men called elsewhere, into other fields of service, the usual chorus of mixed voices, which has furnished music for the Congregational church, was out of the question. Here was another war time need to which the Glee Club responded, and with such willingness and faithfulness that it has certainly deserved all the expressions of appreciation that it has received.

Owing to these extra demands, though a concert program was planned as usual, the "Joan of Arc" a cantata by Bembois, which formed the second half of the program was a rather ambitious undertaking for a college club of twenty voices, yet it was so thoroughly in harmony with the times that it seemed worth while to attempt it. That the young women were able to give so effective an interpretation of it was a surprise even to those who knew what good work they were accustomed to do. Miss Sue Magruder did excellent work in the solo parts of the cantata, especially noteworthy was the obligato with the final chorus which showed her voice at its best.

The other soloists who assisted were Mrs. Kraus, Celia Solomon and Frieda Siewert, all of whom added much to the success of the concerts in which they took part.

The most interesting concert of the year was one given at Daytona Beach. This was one of the "Open Forum" series of entertainments. Here the club did some of its best work; their tone quality was not only unusually brilliant, but very sweet and clear; their shading well proportioned and their phrasing excellent.

At the reception given after the concert the girls received the warmest praise for the thoroughly delightful singing they had done. The club was royally entertained by their hosts and hostesses and many stayed over until the next day to enjoy a dip in the sea, to drive on the beach or watch Ralph De Palma preparing to break world records.

Two concerts at home and one at the Orlando Tourist Club are also worthy of note.

Again this year the club will send money to the little French orphan, Madeline Decret, whom last year's club adopted.

One of the most valuable assets of the club has been its accompanist, Eleanor Coffin. With a rare gift for accompanying, such as is given to few, she appreciates with unflinching artistry what part of the ensemble her pianistic singing should play, ready to support, to follow, or to lead, one can depend upon her for the effect that is most needed to make the performance a success.

Altogether the year has been a very happy as well as a successful one, for there has been a spirit of loyalty and good comradeship that has made all their work the best kind of good, wholesome fun.

Teacher (In Physics Class): Define density.

Student: The incapacity to appreciate humor.

GIFT OF STEINWAY PIANO BY MR. COMSTOCK

The pianists of the Conservatory from Miss Rous and Mrs. Harcourt down to the smallest infant prodigy, have felt thankful to Mr. W. C. Comstock, one of the college trustees, for the very beautiful instrument they have had to play on, in Knowles Hall this past season. It is a Steinway Concert Grand—than which there is nothing finer in the world.

A WISE OLD OWL

"A wise old owl lived in an oak
The more he heard the less he spoke
The less he spoke the more he heard
Why can't we be like that old bird?"

"Prexy's" summer home. Beautiful old Colonial mansion in Billerica Centre, Mass., where Dr. and Mrs. Ward spend their summers.

CLASS OF 1919, ACADEMY

Top row, left to right: Roberta Waddell, Stanley Fosgate, Jean Wagner, Mae Clock, Kathryn Sims, Ava Taylor, Ephriam Conway, Dorothy Harrison. Second row, left to right: Thelma Dempsey, Mabel Townsend, Helen Hanna, Alice Campbell, Carla Doran, Agnes Boggs. Bottom row, left to right: Charles Fohl, Irvin Chaffee.

SENIOR ACADEMY CLASS

I.
There is a fair maiden called Dot,
Whom everyone loves on the spot,
For her faults they are few,
And her charms they are true,
But it's dreadful the freckles she's got.

II.
Mabel is a damsel fair,
With eyes of blue and golden hair.
Ask her not about the "trash cans,"
Or her auto-riding, rash plans,
Ask her not lest ill you fare.

III.
Kitty is our senior dear,
And for her future never fear.
She's the best kind of sport,
And just the right sort,
And when you need a friend she's near.

IV.
There is a young lady named Mae,
Who talks of "up North" all the day.
If you're out for a walk
She will tell of "New York."
And the joys to be had on Broadway.

V.
"Fluffy" is a maiden fair
With laughing eyes, and short brown hair.
She has dimples galore,
And friends by the score,
But alas! for her lessons she gives not a care.

VI.
We have with us a senior named Stanly,
Whom the girls all consider quite manly.
His manners are gracious,
In fact quite flirtatious,
Such is our Boston lad Stanley.

VII.
Her name is Roberta Waddell,
And this to you all we will tell:
'Tis so by request,
At her special behest,—
Miss Roberta W. Waddell.

VIII.
Thelma is a little maid
Who's in classes much afraid.
In her tam and Highland paid
Thelma makes a Scotchman glad,
When he sees her thus arrayed.

IX.
Ephraim is our sailor lad,
And no one ever sees him sad.
Why does he go
Down to Bartow?
No explanation's to be had.

X.
"Ava, why so many sighs?"
Asks Miss Bellows in surprise.
"When at work, or when at play
All your mind is far away,
"There's Egypt in your dreamy eyes."

XI.
Carla is our senior gay,
Who never fails to have her way.
To Orlando she goes,
As everyone knows,
And dances until the next day.

XII.
There is a New Yorker named Chaffee
From whose wit nobody is safe. He
Is so bright in his classes
That he needs amber glasses.
May your future be fair, Irvin Chaffee.

XIII.
There's a pretty girl in her Sunday
togs,
Who carries an umbrella for sun and for fogs.

In her classes she's clever
And hesitates never,
So now you know its Miss Agnes Boggs.

XIV.
Sweet Alice whose hair is so brown
Gives no one occasion to frown.
She's gentle and quiet,
No one can deny it,
And dear to all folks in the town.

XV.
There is a young lady named Jean
As lovely and fair as a queen;
She wields her puff much more than enough,
'Till her nose thickly powdered is seen.

XVI.
In our class there's a fellow named
Fohl,
Whose hair is as black as a coal;
In Math he's a shark,
Always in for a lark,
For which he would sell e'en his soul.

IN CARNEGIE LIBRARY

Among Our Magazines
"Chatterbox," Jean Wagner.
"Smart Set," Sophomore Boys.
"Short Stories," Our Excuses.
"Popular," Carnegie Steps.
"Little Folks," Eddie Fohl, Eva Thompson.
"Review of Reviews," Irving Berk's career at Rollins.
"Youth's Companion," Mabel Townend.
"Popular Mechanics," Prof. Blair,
Bob French.
"Everybody's," Theron Clark.
"Life," Senior Academy Picnics.
"Vanity Fair," Vesta Higginbotham.
"Good Housewife," Dot. Harrison.
"Green Book," Freshies.
"Independent," Irvin Chaffee.
"Designer," Nina Marsh.
"Judge," Prof. Hochstetler.

Y. W. C. A. CABINET FOR 1918-19

Standing, left to right: Florence Smith, Frances Pell, Gladys Smith
Seated, left to right: Bessie Brown, Della McManus, Winifred Stone, Ruth Greene.

Y W C A

The Young Women's Christian Association has been a vital factor in the student life of Rollins College this year.

Interesting meetings of varied programs have been held each Tuesday evening in Cloverleaf parlors. The girls have especially enjoyed the helpful talks given by winter residents.

In connection with the Y. W. C. A. a Bible class was organized which was led by Prof. Dresch. Every Sunday morning the cabinet members held special prayer meetings which have been very helpful.

For several years the Y. W. C. A. has given liberal support to the West Tampa mission. Their pledge this year was $120. After paying all ex-

(Continued on page 9)

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Student government, which, the year before last was undertaken merely as an experiment, has been continued throughout this past year, and even its severest critics cannot but pronounce it a success. Under the effective leadership of Ruth E. Greene, who acted as Council President, the numerous difficulties that occurred throughout the year have always been settled most satisfactorily. Her acute sense of justice has enabled her to act both wisely and kindly in every emergency that has presented itself during the course of the year.

To the credit of the other very efficient members of this organization—Della Clifford McManus, Secretary; Nina Marsh, Freshman representative; Gladys Smith, Florence Smith, special

(Continued on page 9)

GIRLS' STUDENT COUNCIL FOR 1918-19

Standing, left to right: Gladys Smith, Ruth Greene, Nina Marsh. Seated, left to right: Della McManus, Florence Smith, Helen Hanna.

ORLANDO STEAM LAUNDRY

French Dry Cleaners

THE PARK GROCERY

Phone 482

Fancy and Staple Groceries

Best Candies

THE PIONEER STORE

A. Schultz, Proprietor

Phone No. 405 Winter Park, Fla.

A place to get good things to eat

If you want money,
We have it.
If you have money,
We want it.

BANK OF WINTER PARK

W. L. Bush, Cashier.

OLDSMOBILE---Sets the Pace

Oldsmobile Eight, 7-passenger $1,700

Oldsmobile-Six, $1,295

These Prices f. o. b. factory

Immediate Delivery

WINTER PARK AUTO COMPANY

A RECENT ALUMNI REUNION

Annual Meeting of Alumni Association.

The annual meeting of the Alumni Association of Rollins College, occurred on Alumni Day of Founder's Week, Monday, February 24, 1919, in Carnegie Hall on the campus. In the absence of the President, Mr. Alfred J. Hanna, '17, who was still in the Navy, and of the Vice-President, Mrs. Ada Bumby Yothers, '05, the Secretary, Miss Susan T. Gladwin, '99, called the meeting to order.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved and the reports of the officers were heard. In the President's Report attention was called to the fact that on account of the War no especial emphasis had been placed on the normal work of the Association other than to keep it in gear. The members of the Association had been asked to contribute only the yearly dues, and Liberty Bonds had been purchased with the money. In order to keep alive the work begun in the 1918 Alumni Record, Mr. Hanna recommended that corrections to the list of former students and alumni be printed in one of the college bulletins until such time as the Association was in a position to re-assume the publication of its organ.

In her report as Vice-President, Mrs. Yothers reviewed the work of compiling correct records of former students and alumni and emphasized the necessity for a continuance of this part of the alumni program.

The report of Miss Gladwin, as Secretary, dealt with the Service List of Rollins boys who were in service. This is the special work which the Secretary of the Association has undertaken for the year.

The report which perhaps showed the greatest individual activity was that of the Treasurer, Miss Mary L. Conaway. This office in any organization is not an easy one and in this Association where the interest is so divided and its members so scattered, the duties have been threefold. But Miss Conaway has made a great success of the work and has secured dues from almost every member as the following list will show:

	Year.	Am't
Florence M. Betts, '14	1918	.50
Elizabeth Russell, '18	1918-19	1.00
T. W. Lawton, '03	1918-19	1.00
Margaret Burleigh, '08	1918-19	1.50
James I. Noxon, '18	1918-19	1.00
Myra G. Williams, '98	1918-19	1.00
Agnes Clark Smith, '10	1918-19	1.00
Katherine Waldron Boynton, '18	1918-19	1.00
William Ronald, '06	1918-19	1.00
Mary S. Piper, '98	1918-19	1.00
Susan Longwell, '98	1918-19	1.00
Arthur L. Slater, '09	1918-19	1.00
W. B. Hathaway, '09	1918-19	1.00
Winifred Morse Wood, '10	1918-19	1.00
Carrie Ensminger Nickel, '06	1914-19	5.00
Emma Little Tallant, '13	1918-19	1.00
Eva McQuarters, '11	1918-19	1.00
Julia B. Reed, '05	1918-19	1.00
Ada Bumby Yothers, '05	1918-19	1.00
Annie C. Stone, '18	1918-19	1.00
Fred P. Ensminger, '97	1918	.50
Florence A. Duncan, '10	1918-19	1.00
Ida Lamson Volby, '08	1918-19	1.00

H. A. Nickerson, '13	1918-19	1.00
Mabelle O'Neal, '11	1918-19	1.00
Anne Bellows, '15	1918-19	1.00
Mary L. Branham, '11	1918-19	1.00
Marguerite Doggett, '10	1918-19	1.00
Sara W. Yancey, '18	1918-19	1.00
Sadie Pellerin, '18	1918-19	1.00
Sara E. Muriel, '18	1918-19	1.00
Mary L. Conway, '17	1918-26	8.00
Alfred J. Hanna, '17	1918-20	7.50

Total for year1918-19 $50.00

In order that a $50 Liberty Bond could be bought last fall during the Fourth Liberty Loan Miss Conaway and Mr. Hanna advanced their dues for several years and the Bond was purchased. This amount added to that of $429.50 brought forward from last year makes a present total of $479.50 which has so far been collected by the Alumni Association for the installation of the "BAKER CHIMES."

The twenty-first annual meeting of the Association closed with the election of the following officers for the year 1919-20.

President—Mr. James I. Noxon, '18.
Vice-President, Miss Mary L. Branham, '11.

Secretary—Miss Susan T. Gladwin, '99.

Treasurer—Miss Annie C. Stone, '18.
Executive Committee—Mr. Arthur L. Slater, '09, Chairman; Miss Anne Bellows, '15; Miss Mabelle O'Neal, '11.

Alumni Dinner at Hotel Seminole
The annual Alumni Dinner in honor of the Senior Class was given on the evening following the Association meeting at the Hotel Seminole. The tables were prettily decorated with the colors of 1919 and a most tempting menu was served.

The special guests besides the Seniors were, Dr. and Mrs. Calvin H. French, Miss Susan H. Dyer, Faculty Adviser for the Class of 1919, and former Dean Arthur D. Enyart, who had just returned from eighteen months service in France.

COMMENCEMENT DAY, THURSDAY, MAY 29

(Continued from page 1)

The morning's exercises were brought to a close by the pronouncing of the benediction by Dr. Tupper, following the announcements by Dr. Ward of certain plans, which predict a bright and prosperous coming year for Rollins.

Commencement Dinner

At one o'clock, a delicious college dinner, prepared under the supervision of "Mother Wheatley," as she is affectionately called, was enjoyed by seniors, faculty, trustees, alumni and undergraduates.

Tour of Baker Museum

At two-thirty in the afternoon, a number of visitors and students took advantage of the opportunity, to be conducted by Dr. Thomas R. Baker, through the Baker Museum, which occupies two large rooms adjoining the chapel in Knowles Hall.

The Museum is a place of especial interest to alumni and students, as it represents the loving work of Dr. Baker, who has supervised the arrangement and the cataloguing of all specimens, many of which he has collected with his own hands. This work is the

(Continued on page 12)

MAY DAY CELEBRATION

The Annual May Day Festival, observed on the campus, on the afternoon of May fifth, was one of the prettiest occasions of its kind ever witnessed at Rollins. To Miss Anne Bellows as manager of the affair is due much of the credit for the success of the entertainment, which was given under the auspices of the Young Woman's Christian Association.

Promptly at four-thirty, as the strains of Schubert's "Rosamunde," were wafted, from the instruments of the Conservatory Orchestra, ensconced upon Pinehurst piazza, toward Cloverleaf, which served as the background, the fairy charm of the Daisy Chain Procession proceeding in slow and dignified advance, to the martial strains of the War March from "Athalia," loomed into view. Having rounded the "Horseshoe," as far as Chase Hall, the double ranks of the procession drew gracefully apart, forming an aisle through which the lovely queen Florence Stone, attired in organdie and lace, with corsage bouquet of sweet peas, which in pastel-colored clusters, also adorned the crown of tulle, and train, wended her way with stately grace to a snowy throne, o'er-cast with golden chrysanthemum blooms. Accompanying the queen, on either side, were her maids of honor, Miss Ada McKnight, and Miss Bessie Brown, charming in white gowns and picture hats. Immediately preceding the queen, and strewing the way with rose petals, were two little flower girls, Mary Rodenbaugh and Harriet Mackie, following the crown bearer, Arthur Young, who, entrusted with bearing the dainty crown upon a cushion of pale pink, acquitted himself admirably. The delightful group of queen and attendants was completed by two twin train-bearers, John and William Mackie, and two other pretty flower girls, Dorothy Shepherd and Janet Mackie.

The charming naivité of the tiny flower girls, clad in white and carrying baskets of bright-hued flowers, and also the childish dignity of the manly little attendants, clad in suits of elfin green, won, for these petite participants, from the spectators, that same adoring homage bestowed by them on their queen.

The coronation of the queen, by Ada McKnight was impressive, accompanied as it was by the sweet notes of a violin solo, McDowell's "To a Wild Rose," played by Miss Della McManus. Following the coronation Miss Bessie Brown presented the sceptre to the queen.

Loyal obeisance having been made to the queen, the following interesting program was presented:

- May-Time Waltz Ricci
- Song at Sunrise Manney
- Osceola Susan Dyer
- Rollins Glee Club
- Indian Dance—Osceola.....
- John T. McGaughey
- May Pole Dance.
- A Wood Nymph.....Eva Thompson
- Silver Stars Frances Foley
- Butterfly Dance

Grecian DanceMae Catron
 Assembly of Nations.....

.....Senior Academy Class
 The May Pole Dance presented by sixteen girls was more enchanting than it has ever been. It was carried through in perfect rhythm and without any hesitancy on the part of the dancers. The ease with which the new steps were danced bespoke many hours, of patient drill, and of faithful instruction.

The other dances, which were executed with much skill, added greatly to the program.

The Annual Senior Academy affair brought the program to a close. The Senior Academy Class of 1919, lived up to the reputation, made by its predecessors on similar occasions. The pageant, "The Assembly of Nations," with its promise of international patriotism, was participated in by each member of the class.

Slow is his gait, his mien stately and grave.

Well will he guard his fair sovereign, if she,

Ever in danger should happen to be.

And now the fair minstrels with tones soft and sweet,

Up raise loyal voices their loved Queen to greet;

Of the sunshine, the flowers, the bird-songs they sing,

For she loves the manifold beauties of spring

Dear little Queen, may your life always be,

One bright joyous May-day—as happy and free,

As this one has been—each day be as sweet

And all fairest flowers ever bloom at your feet

—Emily Swigel.

Y. W. C. A.

(Continued from page 7)

penses, the profits from the bazaar were $115. All the girls worked together for the success of the bazaar, and all deserve credit for their loyal support of Miss Florence Smith, the president of the organization in her skillful direction of the work.

Much of the social life of the college has been in charge of the social committee. Especial mention must be made of the Hallowe'en party; where one became very well acquainted with ghosts and witches of every description. The stunt party given in Cloverleaf parlors was a great success. It deepened the friendly relations already existing between the dormitory and day students.

After their obligation was paid to the Mission, the girls have devoted their time to raising funds to send delegates to the annual students con-

MAY DAY SCENES

FOUNDERS' WEEK.

(Continued from page 2)

PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION FOR SENIORS.

The annual President's Reception in honor of the Senior Class followed Mr. Garland's delightful lecture. It was held in Carnegie Library and never before had the present students found the library so attractive in appearance. Huge ferns and beautiful plants were placed in each alcove and on the tables, ferns and flowers. In the receiving line with Dr. and Mrs. French were Mr. Garland, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Bacheller, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Morse, the seniors: Miss Florence Stone, Miss Bessie Brown, and Miss Ada McKnight. Miss Susan H. Dyer and Miss Marion Rous aided in the introductions. During the evening some of the college girls served the guests with delicious ice cream and cake.

ference.

This conference is held at Blue Ridge, N. C., in June and it is there that the leaders of the Association as well as many others gain inspiration and gather plans for building up their work in the home association. It is sometimes said that an association is measured by the benefits which its delegates receive at Blue Ridge. For many years Rollins has felt the influence of these conferences through her delegates. The delegates this year will be Misses Francis Bell and Ruth Hoyt.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

(Continued from page 7)

representatives; Helen Hanna, Academy representative, and Emilie Swigel, Academy representative—be it said that they have always given their president the support that she so greatly deserves. They have demonstrated their ability to maintain order and preserve peace very admirably, and we can only say in closing, "Ray for the Council of 1919!"

MAY DAY OF 1919.

(Dedicated to Florence Stone.)

Hail to the Queen, our fair Queen of the May!

All her true subjects assemble this day,

To give her their homage, each in his own way,

For all of them love their fair Queen of the May.

Here are the dancers so airy and light
 Winding the ribbons of blue, gold and white

Round the tall May-pole out there on the green—

Could you imagine a prettier scene?

See the bright butterflies dancing so gay,

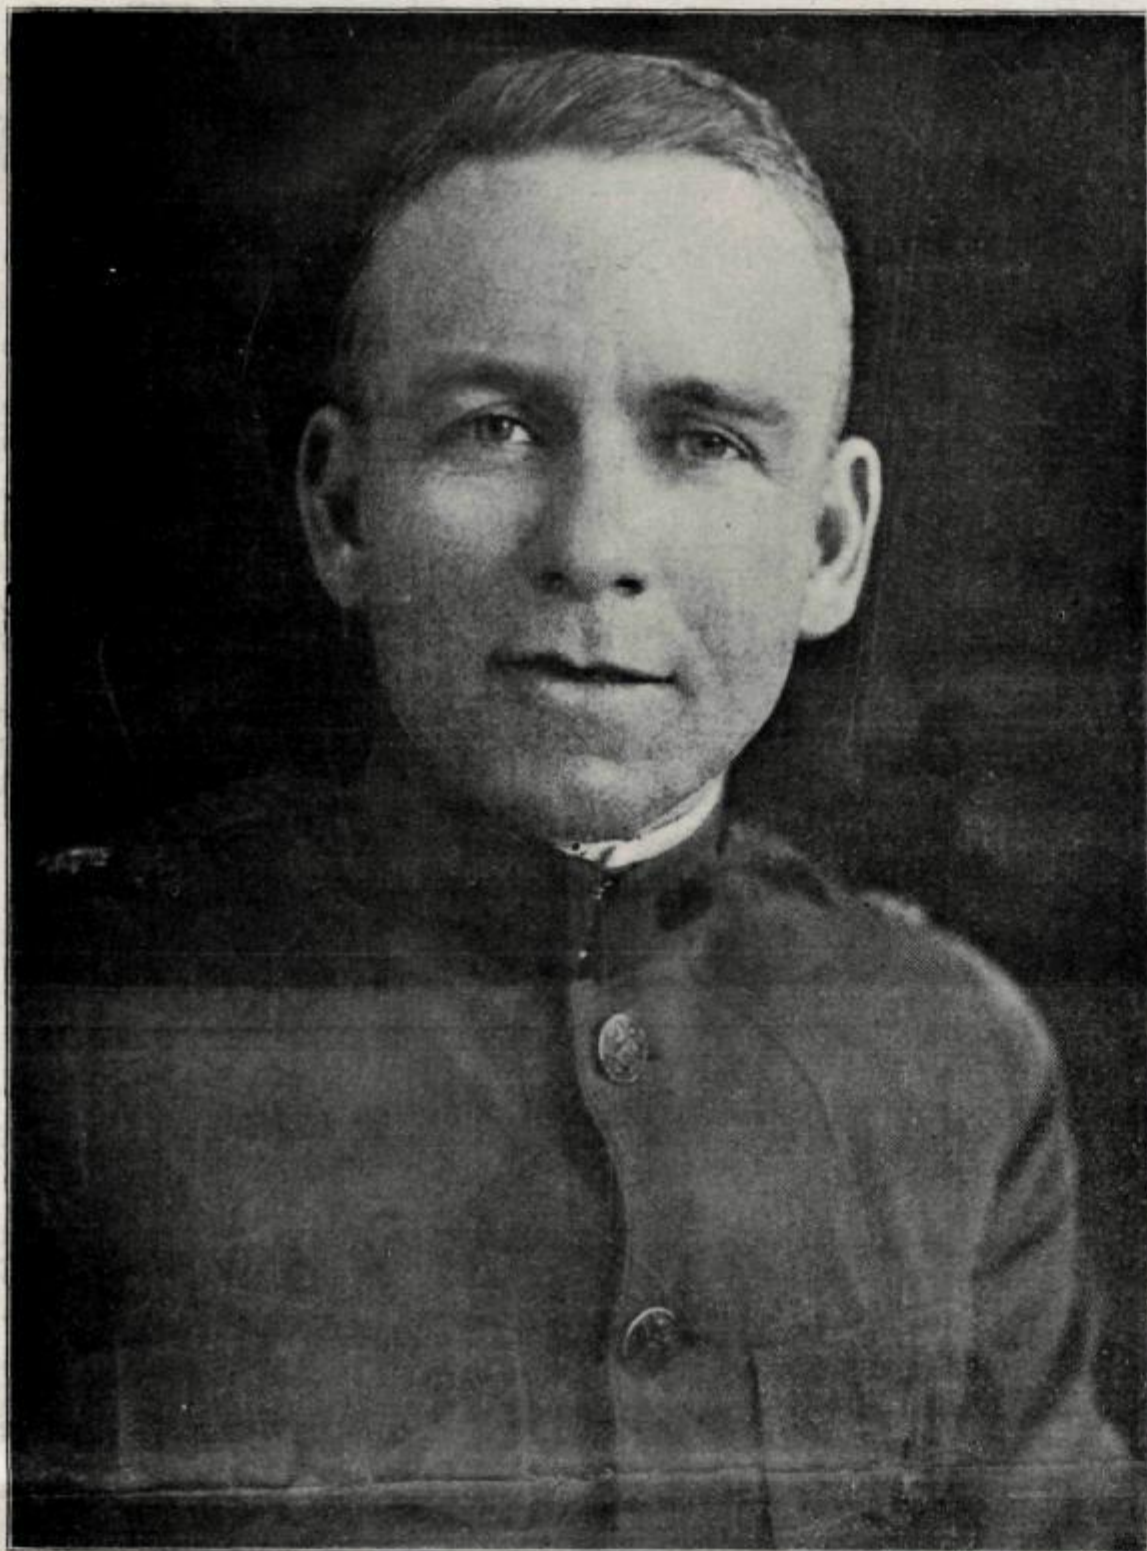

Striving to please their fair Queen of the May,

Flitting about with the birds and the bees,

Out on the grass 'neath the shade of the trees.

Here is the Indian, so stalwart and brave,

COLONEL MORGAN L. BRETT, U. S. A.

COLONEL MORGAN L. BRETT.

Colonel Brett is the highest ranking officer among the alumni of Rollins College and his alma mater is very proud to claim him and to have it known that one of her sons has accomplished such splendid work for world freedom as Colonel Brett has done.

Mr. Brett was a student in Rollins College from 1897 until 1900 during the first administration of Dr. George Morgan Ward. He was actively identified with student activities and for one year served as Assistant Business Manager of the Sandspur. In addition to this training in Rollins, Colonel Brett is a graduate of West Point.

Since his enlistment in the army shortly after completing his education, Mr. Brett has risen steadily in rank. During the present war Colonel Brett's time has been divided between Washington and the headquarters in France. His first trip "over" was made as aide to Secretary of War Baker, a high compliment to his military standing. In this mission he was associated with the most distinguished officers of the army. Shortly after the return of this mission to America Colonel Brett was given an opportunity to use his training of many years. He was sent to France on the staff of the Chief Ordnance Officer of the American Expeditionary Forces and "made good" to such an extent that he was rapidly promoted, and received his colonelency last fall. Some time after the Armistice was signed Colonel Brett returned to America and was given duty in the office of the Chief of Ordnance in Washington.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE PICNIC FOR THE SENIORS

(Continued from page 3)

of Knowles Hall, where the Domestic Science laboratory is located. And the snowy lemon ice, we might well have believed fell straight from heaven—if it hadn't been accompanied by Devil's food.

There was a blood-curdling shriek, and then came something like a queer rattling noise over by the ice-cream freezer. Then someone jumped up, shaking violently and going thru strange motions. Then another! And yet another.

"No! Guess again. It wasn't a rattler. It was a piece of ice, and we do not know who began it altho we suspect one of those frisky Seniors, but soon everyone had had a diminutive iceberg thrust down his or her neck, or was inflicting a like ghostly torture on someone else.

At last the ice-storm abated somewhat, and after indulging in a sing (led by "Buddy" and Bill), the picnickers worked off some of their excess good spirits in college yells; the Seniors winding up by patting everyone different stops, and get very good effects thereby. Thus we are enabled to attempt more ambitious things than we otherwise could.

(Continued on page 13)

ROLLINS CONSERVATORY IN 1918-1919

(Continued from page 1)

An interesting event of the conservatory year was the competition at the Sub-Tropical Fair in Orlando, in February, when Mr. W. R. O'Neal, Treasurer of the College offered prizes for our students in all branches. The competition was held in the auditorium tent at the Fair Grounds, before a large audience. The judges were Mrs. W. R. O'Neal, Mrs. T. Picton Warlow, Miss Elsie Ellis and Mr. William Branch, all of Orlando. The prize winners were as follows: Piano, Miss Celia Salomon. Voice, Miss Sue Magruder. Violin: Miss Laura Beggs.

The Orlando Branch opened September 25th in two delightful rooms on the fourth floor of the Yowell-Duckworth building, has proved very successful, in spite of the set-back given the work there by the epidemic early in the season, with its consequent closing up of all schools for weeks. All the members of the faculty have taught there twice a week during the year, and this will be continued as part of next year's work.

Special mention should also be made of the work of Miss Eleanor Coffin, one of the "star" pianists, whose accompaniments have been a feature of the student programs.

We can look back with satisfaction on the accomplishments of the past season and forward with the most sanguine hopes for continued growth in future. Our confidence is based not on the outward and visible signs of growth alone, but on the inward and audible signs of life within the conservatory itself. We are all here and very much alive, and if the volume of sound which rolls forth from Pinehurst and inundates the campus from 7:45 (old time) A. M., to 5 P. M. (Mondays included!) means vitality, we are here to stay and we have a great future before us.

TO THE SMITHEREENS, WITH APOLOGIES—"CHINKY"

The shades of night were falling fast,
When in front of Carnegie past
A snake, who bore with him the strange device
With which, of the Smithereens, to take a slice.

Backward ran the Smithereens,
(Although Chinky yelled "Push On") Grasping deadly weapons the Smithereens searched vainly,
But, behold! the enemy had gone!

Oh, when can his glory fade?
Oh, the wild scare he made!
All the girls wondered,
There's not to be too rash
There's but to do and dash
And of the snake to make a hash,
Oh, Misses Smithereen.

ENSIGN RAYMOND W. GREENE

Ensign Raymond W. Greene, more familiarly known to his many Rollins friends as "Ray," has been one of the college's finest representatives in the United States Navy.

Mr. Greene was one of the first Rollins boys to go into active service. For a number of years he was in charge of the student Y. M. C. A. activities and of college athletics on the campus. His ability was recognized at once by the National War Work Council and he was placed in charge of the "Y" at the Charleston, S. C., Navy Yard. It was there that Mr. Greene came in close contact with the thousands of boys stationed there, and developed a very popular program of activity among the sailors.

Mr. Greene had planned to go to France as Athletic Director but as the war became more intense he felt it his first duty to enter combatant service. He studied Naval subjects while at the Navy Yard and enlisted as a second-class seaman, stood the examination in January and was commissioned ensign on the 31st of that month, 1918. His first duty was at the Navy Rifle Range at Mt. Pleasant, S. C., where he qualified as a sharpshooter. He was then transferred to Jacksonville where he acted as watch officer and Assistant Section Commander. From there he was transferred to the Battleship Virginia and went to sea with the Atlantic Fleet as Junior Watch and Division Officer. Later, his duty was changed from the Virginia to the Naval Training Camp at Key West, Fla., where he acted as Assistant Drill Officer. It was about this time that the German submarines were sighted off Miami and Mr. Greene was reassigned to duty in the Naval Communication Department, whose duty it was to order battle craft anywhere in the South Atlantic and the Gulf of Mexico and handle all dispatch orders from Washington.

ENSIGN R. W. GREENE, U. S. N.

TO OUR BOYS.

Never shall our hearts cease to thrill at the remembrance of the glorious spirit with which our boys gave themselves to their country's service as defenders of righteousness, humanity and freedom. They marched away with heads up, spirits high, eyes fearless. And we know they have borne the hard work and privations of camp life, of intensive training; they have gone "over the top" and some have met death, in that same, splendid way, and it may be they were not always fearless (all the more praise to them if they were not), but we know they were dauntless. For they faced, they went singing to meet, every discomfort and danger with the challenge, "Anything that comes along; here goes. Put on your grins, Boys". And that's why the world is so proud of its fine manhood as revealed in the stress of war. And that is why we are proud—proud because our men weren't human machines forced into service; proud because they didn't go with lagging feet or lagging spirits; but went like fire horses to a fire, only intent on getting there before the blaze could spread farther, never sparing themselves for an instant.

And now, whether an alumnus or student has fallen on the "field of honor," we can hold our heads high, and our eyes will glow with the knowledge that he has given his best. Even at moments of deep feeling not all of us can attain to the heights of beautiful poetry, but as we gaze on our starred Service Flag, we can not but be proud that our boys were among those whom Van Dyke commemorates in the following lines from "Golden Stars:"

"Stand up, my heart, and strive
For the things most dear to thee!
Why should we care to be alive
Unless the world is free."

Among those of our boys who heard and responded to this cry, with the supreme sacrifice, were Claude Drannon, Paul Harrison, William Hunter, Robert Lewter, and Malcolm Saunders. Our loftiest tribute to our fallen men can best be expressed in the following stirring lines from an Ode written by Van Dyke, for the Memorial Service held at Princeton last December:

"Help us, dear God, our forward faith to hold!
We want a better world than that of old.
Lead us on paths of high endeavor,
Tolling upward, climbing ever,
Ready to suffer for the right,
Until at last we gain a loftier height,
More worthy to behold,
Our guiding stars, our hero stars of gold."

Mingled with our most reverent thoughts of our "happy warriors," is a heartfelt welcome to "our blue star boys."

"Whose manhood has made known
To all the world America
Unselfish, brave and free, the great Republic,
Who lives not to herself alone."

Rollins Blue Star Boys

- Adams, Ellison.
- Ahik, Joe.
- Arrants, George.
- Atkinson, Harold.
- Ayers, Preston.
- Backus, Oscar.
- Banks, Love.
- Beeman, Edwin.
- Betts, Richard.
- Blackman, Worthington.
- Blackman, Berkeley.
- Borden, W. J.
- Boyer, C. A.
- Boyer, Lawrence.
- Brett, Morgan L.
- Bryant, Erroll W.
- Brewer, Lee.
- Burrell, Wm. E.
- Campbell, Herbert.
- Carter, G. H.
- Carpenter, Merrick.
- Chapman, Chas. E.
- Chubb, Greer B.
- Cheney, Jos.
- Chomat, Francisco.
- Cobb, Randolph.
- Conway, Charles.
- Conway, Ephriam.
- Cutler, George J.
- Dale, Percy.
- Dancy, Marshall.
- Darrow, Richard.
- Douglas, Edward.
- Drennen, Earle.
- Drennen, Marguerite.
- Dunn, Irvin.
- Dunston, Alfred.
- Edes, Samuel H.
- Edwards, Judson.
- Edwards, Philip P.
- Edwards, S.
- Enyart, A. D.
- Faulkner, Alva.
- Flye, Donald.
- Foley, Sherwood.
- Fordham, Henry.
- Frank, Robert.
- Froemke, Fayette.
- Froemke, Gerald.
- Froemke, Maynard.
- Fuentes, Francisco V.
- Fuller, Herbert H.
- Gault, Robert.
- Giddings, William.
- Greene, Raymond W.
- Hanna, Alfred J.
- Harris, John.
- Herrera, Nicholas.
- Herrick, W. W.
- Hill, Everitte.
- Hill, James H.
- Holmes, Erwin.
- Huntsman, Lee.

(Continued on page 12)

A complete line of
LUGGAGE OF QUALITY
At the Jos. L. Guernsey Hdw. Co.
ORLANDO

GENUINE PANAMAS IN ROUGH
Ladies' Assorted Sport and Novelty Hats. Also a full line of Men's Panamas. Hat Cleaning Department.
PANAMA HAT SHOP
Phillips Theater Bldg. Orlando, Fla.

ESTES PHARMACY
The Rexall Store
Orlando, Florida.

W. M. SLEMONS
Dry Goods, Notions, Shoes
Hate Clothing, Gents' Furnishings
Millinery and Butterick Patterns

T. P. ROBINSON
Photographer
Portraits, Views and Amateur Finishing
Watkins Block ORLANDO, FLORIDA

STANDARD AUTO COMPANY
Chandler Garage Dodge
Supplies, Storing, Renting
Expert Repairing
Five Minutes from College
Phone 478 WINTER PARK, FLA.

THE PALACE
"A Cozy Place to Eat and Drink."
ICE CREAM, CANDY, CIGARS
The Link Boys, Props.
113 So. Orange ORLANDO, FLA.

O. K. BAKERY
Quality First
Orlando and Winter Park
Home of Celebrated Butter Crust Bread

EVANS
JEWELER
Watch Repairing
Orlando, Fla.

Hutchinson, Robert.
 Ingram, Warren.
 Irvin, Vance.
 Ivey, Arthur G.
 Kilgore, Hazel.
 King, George M.
 Klemm, Arthur.
 Knighton, Guy V.
 Lake, Randolph.
 Lawton, J. C.
 Layton, C. Rodney.
 Lee, Blish.
 Litch, John.
 LaMontagne, Henri G.
 LaMontagne, John M.
 LoBean, Lester.
 LoBean, Orlie.
 MacKeil, F. A. B.
 Mallory, F. Bolton.
 Martin, Herbert.
 Marvin, Donald.
 McClintock, J. B.
 McIntosh, J. B.
 McQuaters, Edwini.
 McGowan, Malcolm.
 Meadors, Oscar.
 Mitchell, Robert D.
 Moreman, Augustus.
 Moreman, Watson.
 Newell, Leigh.
 Noxon, James I.
 Odiorne, Bell.
 Parramore, James.
 Paul, Anderson.
 Pearsons, Edward H.
 Pike, Dean S.
 Phillips, Raymond.
 Porter, Henry.
 Powers, Hiram.
 Prange, Earl.
 Prentiss, Alanson.
 Punnett, Thomas R.
 Punnett, Helen R.
 Reed, Frank H.
 Rencher, W. O.
 Rodenbaugh, Carl.
 Rose, Edgar W.
 Roberts, Joseph S.
 Roberts, Lawrence S.
 Roberts, George.
 Royal, Everette.
 Sands, Ralph.
 Sauls, Ralph J. B.
 Sawyer, Howell.
 Shaw, Benjamin C.
 Sherman, Charles

Smith, Margaret.
 Smith, Donald S.
 Spink, Glenn H.
 Steil, Frederic H.
 Stewart, Rev. Wood.
 Stone, Alvord.
 Stone, William E.
 Stubbs, Ellis.
 Stubbs, Wyman.
 Summerlin, Lawrence.
 Taylor, Aaron.
 Taylor, DeWitt.
 Thompson, Ralph.
 Thompson, Samuel J.
 Thoren, Paul L.
 Trovillion, Ray.
 Tucker, Robert.
 Twitchell, Ralph.
 VanBuskirk, Robert.
 Vanderpool, Charles.
 Ward, Raymond O.
 Ward, Frederick.
 Weaver, Howard.
 Wetherell, Dyke.
 Wheldon, Maurice.
 Wilson, Dudley.
 Wright, Gordon A.

Editor's Note—We are sorry that a complete and accurate service list cannot be secured at present, but during the summer an attempt will be made to compile an accurate list which will be published early in the fall.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

(Continued from page 1)

so comprehensive that the girls have not only learned to make many delicious and wholesome dishes, but have also had practical experience in "assembling" and serving an elaborate meal. One formal breakfast, one informal dinner, and one formal luncheon, have been served since work was begun last February.

All the members of this class are highly enthusiastic over the fine course which Miss Watkins has given them this semester, and can heartily recommend the Domestic Science work at Rollins to anyone (girl or boy) who aspires to become a cook that can turn out dishes truly worthy of being "set before a king."

COMMENCEMENT DAY THURSDAY
MAY 29th.

(Continued from page 8)
 more to be admired, when one considers that this has been the work of a comparatively few years, as the disastrous fire of December 9, 1909, destroyed the old Knowles Hall, which contained all the specimens, which had been collected up to that time.

BASE BALL GAME

Winter Park vs. Carlstrom Field

The game, which was played, in the afternoon, between Winter Park fans and the aviators from Carlstrom field, and which gave promise of a very exciting contest, was unfortunately cut short by rain. During the first four innings, neither side scored, and the playing was free from error. In the last of the fifth inning Winter Park scored one, and then the rain interfered. After the shower, the boys again began to play, in spite of the muddy diamond. In the sixth inning, Winter Park scored two more runs leaving the score three to nothing in favor of Winter Park. Another rain interfered, and this time the game was stopped for good.

It is to be hoped that the next time the Carlstrom Aviators are prevailed upon to visit Winter Park, such a damp reception will not await them.

COMMENCEMENT CONCERT

Miss Lotta Greenup, Violinist.

In spite of the rain, and resulting disagreeable roads, a large audience was present to greet Miss Lotta Greenup, appearing in her last recital of the year. Combined with her wonderful musical faculty, Miss Greenup displays a marvelous technique and a charming personality, a combination of talents, which has made for her a warm spot in the hearts of the music loving residents of Winter Park, and neighboring vicinity.

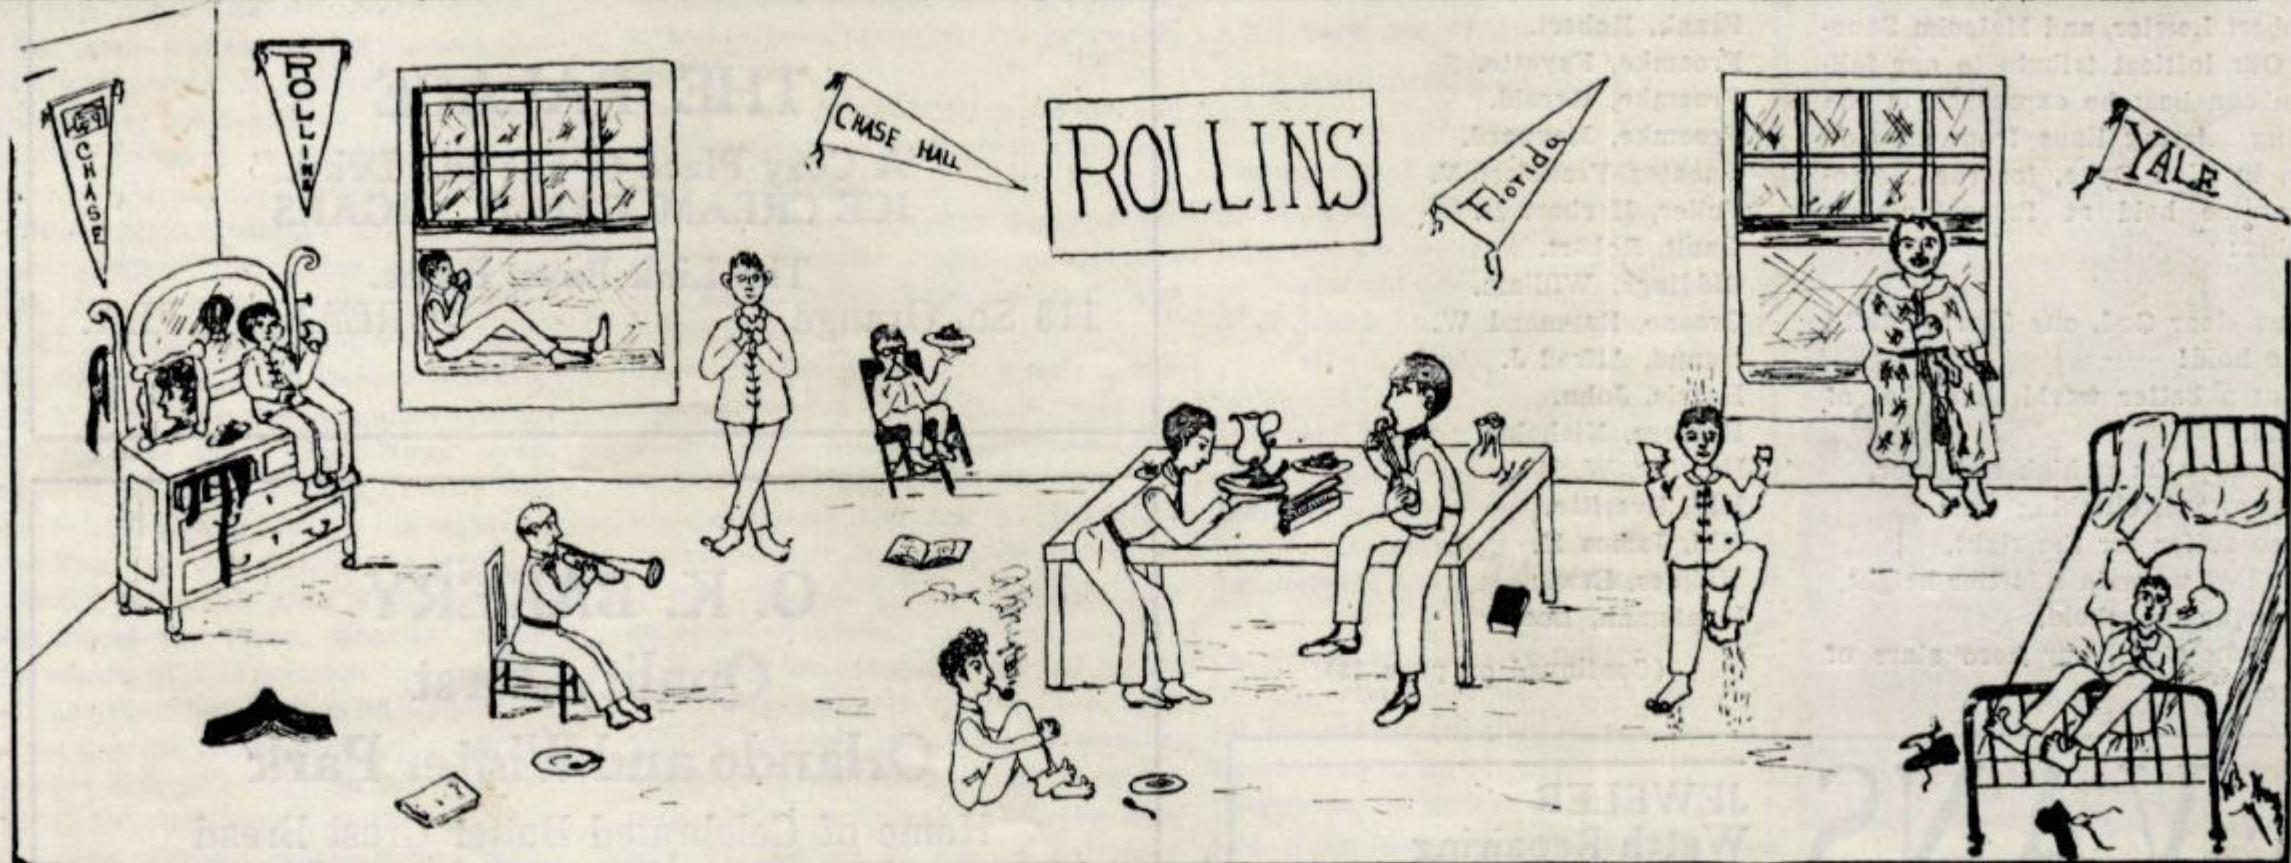

Rollins is proud and glad of the
 (Continued on page 15)

J. B. LAWTON
 Orlando, Fla.
 Doer of thing in ink on paper.

A. P. CURRY
 Electrical Supplies
 Phone 146
 19 So. Orange ave.

Robert L. Betts
 Has been dealing in Real Estate seven years at Winter Park, Fla. Call on him for anything in that line.

Trovillion Pharmacy
 The Rexall Store
 Soda Water, Kodaks and Supplies
 Stationery

FRIDAY NIGHT "BANQUET" IN CHASE HALL

DOMESTIC SCIENCE CLASS GAVE DELIGHTFUL LUNCHEON

On Wednesday afternoon, May 14, Miss Watkins' class, as a part of the regular course in Cookery, served a delightful luncheon in Lyman Gymnasium. It was a splendid demonstration of the work being done in the department of Domestic Science.

Two members of the class, Mrs. Marie Miller and Mrs. Hockstetler had been chosen to act as host and hostess, and the rest of the class, Nina Marsh, Irena Bigelow, Thelma Dempsey, Ruth Hoyt, Florence Smith and Vesta Higginbotham, did the serving.

The guests were, Mrs. W. R. O'Neal, Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. Wheatley, Miss Gladwin, Miss O'Neal, Mrs. Roberts, Miss Watkins and Miss Bellows.

The table was attractively decorated with pink oleanders. Dainty place cards had been made by Nina Marsh. The luncheon, in five courses, had been prepared entirely by the members of the class and was served in perfect and most delightful style.

Congratulations were many and very cordial. And at the close of the luncheon, Mrs. O'Neal presented two boxes of candy—one to Miss Watkins and one to the class.

Prof. Blair, in Physics Class: We take this plate of zinc and smear it with—Miss Waddell?

HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT AT HOME IN CLOVERLEAF

Miss Watkins and the girls of the Home Economics Department were at home May 24, from five to seven o'clock.

There were on exhibition some very interesting charts and dietaries which had been made by the nutrition class, also some one hundred calorie portions of different food.

The girls in the sewing class exhibited the garments they had made this term, showing the splendid and careful training they have had in this work.

Dainty refreshments were prepared and served by the cookery class.

MISS LEONARD ENTERTAINS CON-GREGATIONAL CHOIR

A most delightful evening was spent Thursday, May 22nd, when Miss Mary Leonard entertained the club members of the Congregational Church choir and their friends at her studio. The early part of the evening was enlivened by "Charades," in which the talent of the guests, aided by the artistic arrangements furnished by the hostess was displayed. The evening passed all too quickly, ending with music beautifully rendered by Miss Leonard and a "grand sing" by all. Those present were Misses Bessie Brown, Winifred Stone, Florence Keezel, Jean Wagner, Vesta Higginbotham, Ruth Waldron, Mary Noe, Margaret Coulter, Emily Sweigel, Anna Waterman, Mrs. Harcourt, Miss Ireland, Messrs. Robert French, Robert Galt, William Sherman, Hawley Gardner, Ray Greene, William Stone, William Mulholland, Alfred J. Hanna, Robert Tucker, Warren Ingram, John Glassey, Irvin Chaffee.

LOCAL TALENT.

Cloverleaf has been fortunate in having among her number several artists, some painters, some cartoonists, some musicians, and now behold! a poetess.

To have a thought is natural; to give it expression requires genius. Most of us are lovers of all that is beautiful but we "in our simple ignorance," pass a thing of beauty with only a smile or a sigh; but it's refreshing loveliness is made real to us in the outpouring of a poet's soul. So our poet has lived among us seeing what we have seen, feeling as only one of her artistic temperament can, and giving to us what she, and she only, could give.

Our poetess; yes, OUR poetess, with her charming personality and deep, fine sensitive nature, possesses a name which we feel sure is destined to rank among the truly great—that of Emily Sweigel.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO ROLLINS COL-LEGE MUSEUM DURING THE COLLEGE YEAR

A mounted specimen of Glossy Ibis.—Mrs. Judge Cheney.

A specimen of water-worn limestone resembling a woman's foot, from the Hoosier Springs, Fla.—J. T. McGaughey.

Indian arrowheads, some unfinished ones, chip fragments resulting from the making of the heads, pieces of pottery, and other articles, from a shell mound near Ocoee, Fla.—Joseph Clark.

Head bones of a squirrel showing the upper jaw, especially the teeth, the jaws of rodents containing only incisors and molars.

Skin of Southern Milk Snake from Frostproof, Fla.

Specimen of smallest epiphytic orchid in Florida, Harrisella amesiana, from Alva, Fla.

Seedpods of Cats' claw, Pithecolobium Unguis-Cati, from Punta Rassa, Fla.—Mrs. T. R. Baker.

The sword of the late Captain S. R. Hudson, and various medals given him as Past Post Commander of the G. A. R. by the states in which its meetings were held.—Mrs. S. R. Hudson.

Collection of baby shells, with numerous larger ones, and other specimens from Daytona Beach.—Mrs. William Hoffman.

A collection of variegated quartz—smoky, rose and other varieties, including quartz crystals, other mineral specimens, quartz pebbles, and a geological map of Connecticut, with annotations and special description card.—O. P. Newton.

Cross section of Wild Tamarind from Ross Hammock, Dade County.—Mrs. Hiram Byrd.

Porcupine Fish, flattened form, from a Florida Key.—Miss S. T. Gladwin.

Piece of Petrified Tule. Tule is a Bulrush which grows in marshy places in California.

A specimen of cinnabar, the ore from which mercury or quicksilver is obtained, from the mine at Sulphur Bank, Lower Lake, Calif., which, among the mines of the world, ranks third in its output of the liquid metal.—Richard White, through Miss Gladwin.

A large Red Abalone shell, and various other valuable shells from California, China, Puget Sound and other places.—Mrs. Emily Pelton Schutts.

Roman sword, cone from the Wagona, Calif. grove of Big Trees; cone from a California Redwood tree, a bullet from the battlefield of Gettysburg, and a gypsum cup; also a copy of the Ulster County (N. Y.) Gazette, January 4th, 1800. This is a four page paper. Two pages of this number have their columns separated by heavy, black lines, expressive of the mourning on account of the death of George Washington, an account of which is given in this number.—Mrs. Mary Bell Wright.

Samples of high explosive powder for guns of various calibers, from U. S. Technological School, New Jersey.—Prof. W. H. Herrick.

Section of ocean cable recently laid between Fort Taylor Sand Key Lights Station, Key West. Also a piece of water-worn coral in the form of a cross.—Ray Greene.

Specimens of Mica and Granite.—Mrs. Musselwhite.

Shell phosphate fossils from a lime pit on Manly farm near Ocala.—Anna Stone.

Mounted head of a Tiang, from Henry Banks' collection of big game shot on the White Nile during his trip to Egypt with the writer in 1911 and 1912.—Mrs. S. D. Banks.

A German officer's helmet—relic of the Great War.—W. H. Barnum.

A museum glass case of excellent construction and beautiful finish.—Mrs. W. A. Coursen.

A collection of War Posters.—Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Gibbs.

Squirrel's nest of Palmetto fibre, blown from top of Palm tree.—T. R. Baker.

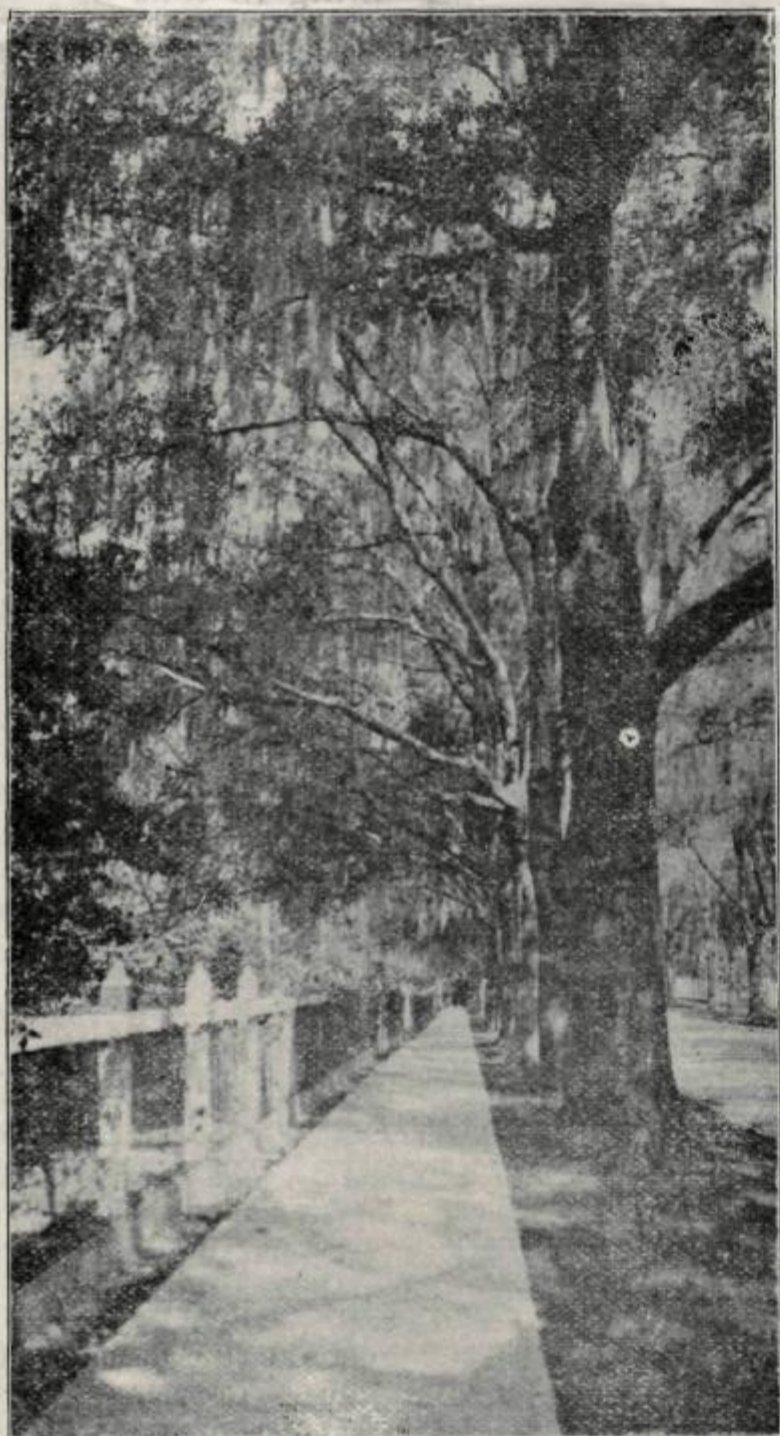

IS THAT SO?

Young ladies' faults are many,
Young men have only two
Everything they say
And everything they do.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE PICNIC FOR THE SENIORS

(Continued from page 10)

on the back (figuratively) with a hearty and pleasantly-inclusive yell for "Folks." It is safe to report that all left for home in a good humor, each "bunch" voting the others "royal good picnickers."

Interlachen Avenue leading from the Rollins Campus to the Hotel Seminole AERONAUTIC BASEBALL.

Carlstrom vs. Winter Park.

On Thursday, April 24th, all Winter Park, as well as Rollins, eagerly awaited the moment, when Lieutenant Johnston would fly over the town in his LeRhone Morse Scout Plane. He came into sight about 9:30, and after performing one or two fancy stunts, landed on the golf links. Later a humming noise indicated the approach of two Curtis planes, which were manned by Lieutenant Austin and Sergeant Sutton, and Lieutenants Coleman and Greenwalt. It was but a short time before these machines became visible through the clouds.

When news came that all the uniforms, and all the aviators with the exception of two, were delayed near Wauchula, momentary disappointment spread over the entire community. This gloom, however, lasted but a short time, as the expectant ones caught the undaunted spirit of the aviators, who offered to play in a mixed team with Lieutenant Johnson as catcher. After the game Lieutenant Johnson thrilled two thousand spectators by his exhibition flying in which he did the barrel roll several times, looped the loop, and made the figure eight, until the crowd was spell bound with admiration.

On the following morning a most interesting game was played, as the remainder of the team had been fortunate enough to arrive in time not only for the game but also to enjoy the dance, the night before. The score of the game is indicated below:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	HR	E
Carlstrom	4	0	1	0	1	0	0	0	0	6	6
Win. Park	0	0	1	1	0	0	0	0	0	5	2

OSCEOLA LAKE FRONT SCENE OF UNIQUE AQUATIC EVENTS.

On Thursday morning of Founders' Week, February 20th, a very successful regatta was held on Lake Osceola, at the end of the Boulevard. The splendid slope of ground offered a natural seating arrangement, while the lake formed the stage for the water events.

The contestants showed unexpected skill, and made the morning indeed interesting. A canoe tilt and a game of water polo made the meet quite spectacular. The following contestants were awarded R's.

Miss Eckerson-Miss Brown in canoe doubles for women.

Miss Brown-Mr. French in canoe doubles for men and women.

Mr. Glassey-Mr. Hughes in canoe doubles for men.

Mr. Hughes in men's singles on gun-wales.

Messrs. Byrd, Noguiera, Foley, Sherman, Ward, Tucker, in water polo.

Miss Vivian Wheatley in swimming for women.

Mr. Donald Vincent in swimming for men.

Mr. Roberts, Mr. Hale, in rowing doubles for men.

Mr. Charles Fohl in swimming under water.

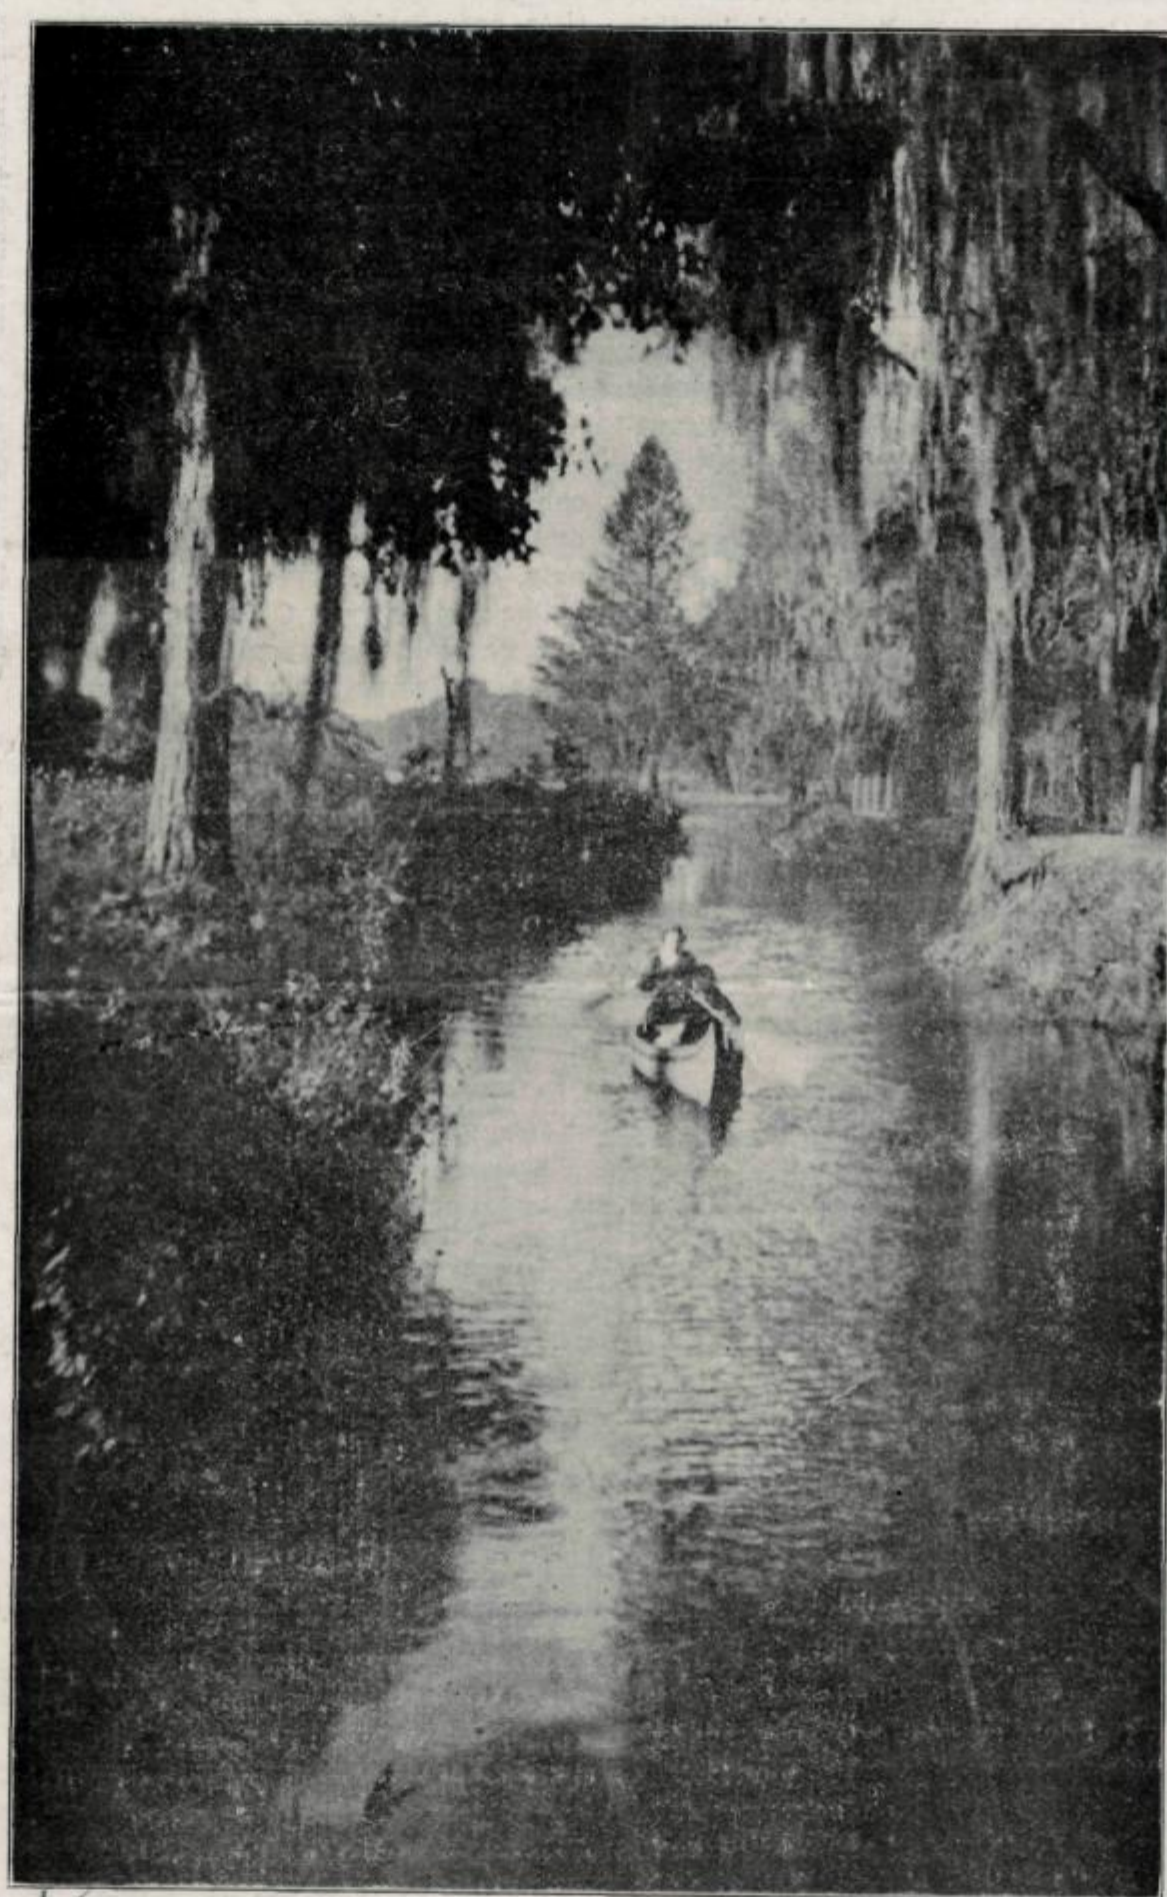

Mr. Hale in life saving.

Mr. Conway, Mr. French in canoe tilting.

SENIORS ENTERTAINED BY MRS. G. DYER AND MISS S. DYER

The spring showers failed to dampen the spirits of the gay throng of young men and prettily gowned girls who attended the afternoon tea given by Mrs. and Miss Dyer, in honor of the graduation class of 1919. The guests were received by Mrs. Dyer.

Many very interesting toasts were given; and a good time was enjoyed by all. Throughout the afternoon fruit punch was served, Miss Dyer presiding very gracefully at the punch bowl.

Many of the college songs, which are so dear to the students of Rollins, were sung, at the end of which the guests were invited into the dining room where a delicious ice course was served. The dining table was laid with a Madeira cloth and centered with a cut glass bowl of pink roses.

It was an affair which will long be remembered by the students of Rollins College, as both Mrs. and Miss Dyer are well known for their lovely parties and this affair was no exception to the rule.

SENIOR CADS FROLIC AT OLIVIA AVIATOR'S DANCE LARGEST OF THE COLLEGE YEAR.

One of the jolliest events given by the Senior Class of the Academy was a picnic Saturday evening, May 3.

The students drove out to Olivia Park late in the afternoon where they enjoyed a delicious picnic supper under the tall trees. Later, a jazz orchestra supplied music for dancing in the cozy pavilion.

This affair was by far the gayest event of the year for the Academy Senior. On the evening of April 24th, occurred one of the most beautiful and enjoyable events of the year. The dance was in honor of the Winter Park baseball team and the team from Carlstrom Field which crossed bats on the college diamond in the afternoon.

The gymnasium was most artistically decorated with magnolias, palmettos, and college pennants. The Winter Park Orchestra furnished the music of the evening. During the intermission delicious refreshments were served.

The Rollins students who were among the invited guests, are indebted to the following patronesses: Mrs. C. H. Morse, Mrs. E. W. Packard, Mrs. F. E. Spooner, Mrs. Irving Basheller, Mrs. G. M. Ward, Mrs. S. Goss, Mrs. G. Dyer, Mrs. H. B. Gibbs, Mrs. W. C. Temple, Miss S. Dyer, Miss M. Leonard, and Miss E. Nicoll.

BOOKS ADDED TO ROLLINS COLLEGE LIBRARY DURING YEAR.

- Burgess, I. B.—Life of Christ.
- Van Dyke, Henry—Gospel for a World of Sin.
- Colvin, S. S.—Introduction to High School Teaching.
- McMurray, C. A.—Special Method in Reading.
- Graves, F. P.—History of Education in Modern Times.
- Monroe, Paul—History of Education.
- Plehn, Carl C.—Government Finance in the United States.
- Blackmar and Gillin—Outlines of Sociology.
- Ritchie, J. W.—Primer of Hygiene.
- Sill, Edward—Poems.
- Matthews, Brander—Short-Story.
- Jameson, Anna—Shakespeare's Heroines.
- Carpenter and Brewster—Modern English Prose.
- Musset, Alfred—Premieres Poesies.
- Musset, Alfred—Poesies Nouvelles.
- Saint-Saens—Ecole Buissonnier.
- Larrouy—Les Vagabonds de la Glorie.
- Barbusse, Henri—Le Feu.
- Michaut—Anatole France.
- Hugo, Victor—Marie Tudor.
- Adams, Henry—Education of Henry Adams.
- Wheeler, Benj.—Alexander the Great.
- Bachelor, Irving—Light in the Clearing.
- Porter, E.—Just David.
- Hodge, F. W.—Handbook of American Indians.

iors and everyone was loath to leave.

Those present were: Dorothy Harrison, Mae Clock, Jean Wagner, Thelma Carter, Mabel Townsend, Kathryn Sims, Helen Hanna, Roberta Waddell, William Sherman, Robert Tucker, Pratt Foley, Charles Fohl, Donald Vincent, Gadsden Sullivan, Walter Hunter and Stanley Fosgate.

Prof. and Mrs. Hochstetler chaperoned.

Among Our Books

- "Comedy of Errors," Exam. Papers.
- "Innocents Abroad," The Freshmen.
- "The Spillers," The Faculty.

- "Long Roll," "Call Back," List of Failures.
- "A Day of Fate," "The Climax," May 29, 1919.
- "The Unattainable," 100 per cent.
- "Turning Point," 70 per cent.
- "The Fighting Chance," 69 per cent.
- "By Right of Conquest," Graduation.
- "Battle Ground," Senior Academy Class Meetings.
- "Sherlock Holmes," Prof. Hochstetler.
- "The Seat of the Mighty," Editorial Office.

Commencement Concert
Miss Lotta Greenup, Violinist

(Continued from page 12)

opportunity to welcome Miss Greenup back to its Conservatory Faculty next year. Following the rendition of a number of solos by Miss Greenup, the Glee Club, with its usual excellence gave a pleasing selection, the solo parts of which were beautifully sung by Miss Freida Stewert, and Miss Florence Keezel. An unexpected number on the program, a solo by a visiting alumnus, Mr. James Noxon, '18, was much enjoyed. The other numbers on the program were as follows:

1. a. The Old Refrain Kreisler
 - b. A Memory Susan Dyer
 - c. Pierrot Serenade Randegger
 - d. Berceuse Townsend
 - e. Dance Dittersdorf
 - f. Valse serenade de Grassi
- Miss Greenup.
2. Springtime Mabel Daniels
- Song cycle for women's voices
Glee Club.

Senior Reception and Dance.

Immediately after the concert, friends, faculty and students attended the president's reception to the seniors in Lyman Gymnasium, where they were received by President Ward and the seniors, Miss Florence Stone, Miss Ada McKnight, Miss Bessie Brown,

(Continued on page 16)

DR. L. H. RAMSDELL
Optometrist

... Orlando, Florida ...

We fit glasses, grind lenses, and do all kinds of Optical Repairing.

Room 48 Watkins Blk.

Lucius Barber Shop

All Work First Class

R. P. Lucius, Proprietor

W. S. BRANCH

Books, Stationery,
Music, Office Supplies
Orlando, Fla.

THE WINTER PARK LAND CO.

Real Estate and Renting

"Harley" Ward, a Rollins graduate,

Treasurer

SCHULTZ SHOE STORE

Shoes and Clothing

Walk Over Shoes

For Men and Women

Everything in Men's Wear

UNION STATE BANK

Winter Park, Florida

Member Federal Reserve System

Began Business Nov. 19, 1917.

Accounts of Rollins College Faculty and Students Welcomed

R. D. Macdonald, President.
Arthur Schultz, V.P. W. H. Emery, V.P.
Ed. F. Keezel, Cashier A. C. Peter, Asst. Cashier
F. M. Keezel, Bookkeeper.

F. W. SHEPHERD

Staple and Fancy Groceries

Quality and Service

Phones 407-463

WINTER PARK PHARMACY

Poinsettia Ice Cream

Nunnally's and Whitman's Candies

We cater to wants of Students

Phone 416

(Continued from page 15)

Mrs. Marie Miller and Mr. Benjamin Shaw.

The inspiring gaiety of the affair brought to mind recollections of pre-war festivities. Surely, it has been a long time since Lyman Gymnasium has held so many happy guests as it did that night. Dancing was the main feature of the evening, and we may safely say that everyone, both young and old, thoroughly enjoyed the occasion.

Miss Bellows and Miss Leonard presided at the punch bowl, throughout the evening. During the intermission, delicious ice cream was served. At 11:30 the home waltz ended a very full, but happy day.

H. SIEWERT

Photographer

Winter Park, Fla.

H. KANNER'S
Dry Goods, Clothing and Shoes.
14 Orange Ave.
Orlando, Fla.

Finley's Pioneer
Paints and Wall Papers
Orlando, Fla.

McCulloch Department Store

G. E. McCulloch, Prop.
Every day a Bargain day
128 So. Orange Av.

RELIABLE PRESSING CLUB

Cleaning, Pressing and Repair Work
Phone 504 Wm. Price.

VICK'S STORE

Dry Goods and Notions
Winter Park, Florida

Evans-Rex Drug Co.

Pure Drugs
Orlando, Fla.

G. S. Deming

Dr. C. E. Coffin

DEMING & COFFIN

Real Estate Town Property

Farms For Sale or Rent

The three links in the success of a great Store. "Quality Did It," the motto that has stood at the top at the inception of this great organization and still stands there today, stronger than ever, demands that Style and Service be equally as perfect. You will find all three at their best with Orlando's largest Store.

THE YOWELL-DUCKWORTH CO.

Orlando, Florida.

ROCK'S BAKING COMPANY

Orlando and Winter Park, Fla.

Fancy Cakes and Candies
Lunches, Ice Cream and Cool Drinks

White Lily Bread.

DICKSON-IVES COMPANY

Department Store

Orlando, Florida

"Outfitters for Young Men and Young Women"