FIND THE GOOD
If there isn't some good in everyone, what are they here for? Anybody can point out anybody else's bad qualities. If you want to distinguish yourself, go around pointing out good qualities. Pick out the man whom everyone dislikes. Select the one you feel could best be spared from your office, from your circle of acquaintances, from the community in which you live. Ask yourself if there isn't something good about him. Put him on a mental dissecting table. Cut him to pieces and see what's in him. Remember—you are looking for the good. Throw away the bad in him and forget it. Make a list of his good qualities. It will surprise you how many you can find. The next time you hear him criticized, tell people the things you know about him—the good things. You'll at least be different and you'll find that it does you more good than it does him. How would you feel if you knew that people whenever they talked about you talked only about what was bad in you. You know it's there, plenty of it, but you'd rather not have it talked about. It's much nicer to have only your good points discussed. Give the other fellow the kind of deal you like yourself. If you can say nothing good about him, say nothing. There are mighty few people in the world we can't say something good about if we try. The trouble is, we don't try. And yet, the more good you find in other people, the more good other people will find in you.—Ex.

BATTLE ON FIELD OF WATERLOO
Reports from all available sources seem to indicate that the German army is moving on Brussels and that the Belgian capital has been moved to Antwerp and the royal family, ministers and diplomats have proceeded to that city. There seems to be little doubt that the forces are meeting on the historic battleground of Waterloo. The kaiser and three sons, including the crown prince, have arrived at Mayence. The French are reported to have suffered heavy losses at Dinant and Namur. The German force now advancing on Brussels is believed to consist of cavalry and artillery, including the motor quick-firers. These troops are in danger of being cut off from their base of supplies at Liege. The announcement comes from London that any action that Japan may take against Germany will not extend beyond the China sea. The Washington authorities have made it clear that the attitude of the United States will be one of non-interference in the controversy between Germany and Japan. The British war council has decided to exclude correspondents from the forces in the field, and it is announced that the French war department intends to take the same action and that probably war correspondents in Belgium will be ordered out of that state.

TIT FOR TAT
Justin McCarthy used to tell a story of Henry Ward Beecher. Mr. Beecher entered Plymouth church one Sunday and found several letters awaiting him. He opened one and found it contained the single word, "Fool." Quietly and with becoming seriousness he announced to the congregation the fact in these words: "I have known many an instance of a man writing a letter and forgetting to sign his name, but this is the only instance I have ever known of a man signing his name and forgetting to write the letter."

NATURE CREEPING UP
On one occasion a woman said to
Whistler, the artist:
"I just came up from the country
this morning along the Thames, and there was an exquisite haze in the atmosphere which reminded me so much of some of your little things.
It was really a perfect series of Whistlers."
"Yes, madam," responded Whist-ler gravely. "Nature is creeping up."

WHY JOHN C. CLINE SHOULD BE SHERIFF

He has lived in Los Angeles 45 years and everybody is familiar with his clean public record.

In 1894 as sheriff he handled the great American Railway Union strike without the aid of the militia, by appointing special deputies from the ranks of labor, to prevent disorder and the destruction of property.

ORDERED SOLD

The railway committee voted to sell the three lots on Broadway, corner of Everett street, owned by them. Sealed bids will be received up to noon August 20th, 1914, for one or all of the following three lots—4, 5 and 6, block 18, McIntyre-Miner tract in city of Glendale.

Committee reserves right to reject any or all bids. F. H. VESPER, Secy. Bank of Glendale. 307111

The table where a dainty luncheon was served was very lovely, pink rosebuds being arranged in a beautiful vase in the center and the place favors were also pink rosebuds, while the birthday cake, the most important of all, was just the prettiest, with ten pink candles peeping out of pink rosebud holders, which were lighted in due time, each little guest at that time wishing Master Frederick many happy returns of the day. Delicious ice cream was served with the cake and a general good time was enjoyed until late in the afternoon, when the happy guests parted for their various homes wishing birthday parties were every-day occurrences.

TROPICO

That the garden and card party to be given at Palm Villa, 310 West Park avenue, the home of Mrs. David H. Imler, Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, by the ladies of the Tropic Thursday Afternoon Club, promises to be one of the largest social events given by the club, is evidenced by the large number of invitations that have been accepted by prominent club and society ladies of Los Angeles, Glendale and Tropic. The club ladies are working most strenuously, untiringly and earnestly for the clubhouse they contemplate building shortly.

Among the many noted artists whom Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Weston have been entertaining recently, was Miss Margrethe Mather of Los Angeles. Miss Mather is a prominent member of the Camera Pictorialist club of Los Angeles, one of the most exclusive artists' clubs in Southern California, as the membership is limited to fifteen, each of whom is required to achieve some prominence in photography ere he is admitted to membership.  One of the double-in-brass actors turned toward the fowl and angrily exclaimed:
 "Don't be so dern quick to jump at conclusions. Wait till you see the show."

HOW MUCH DID HE LOSE?

A Fargo (N. D.) grocer who is not a mathematician, has asked the police to solve a little financial problem for him.

A well-dressed, smooth-talking young man entered his store and asked for a five-cent jar of mustard. He gave a $10 bill in payment and upon receiving his change remarked that he thought he had handed the grocer a $1 bill.

"You certainly are an honest man," he said. "You might have given me only 95 cents in change and I would not have discovered the mistake."

Then the customer produced a $1 bill, placed it with four of the $1 bills the grocer had given him in change and asked the grocer if he would mind letting him have a $5 bill for the five $1 bills. The grocer threw a $5 bill on the counter.

"Here, I'm robbing you of all your change," said the customer picking up the $5 bill and the five $1 bills. "I can do better than this. Just let me have my $10 bill back and I'll give you this $5 and the $1 bills."

The grocer made the change and the customer left the store. Later, the grocer in going over his cash discovered a shortage. He told the policeman he was not sure, but he thought he was out about $5.05. The policeman insisted that the grocer was shy $9, and the clerk at the police station to whom the report was made figured the shortage to be $6. How much did he lose?

Hearing that one of his back-sliding members had been cremated, an old colored preacher said: "Dat'll be a great disappointment for der debil."
