

FROM FAR HAWAII

SON OF REV. W. J. MARSH ON HIS WAY FROM HONOLULU TO CAMP GORDON, GA.

Harold E. Marsh, son of W. J. Marsh, acting pastor of the Glendale Congregational Church, has been spending a ten-day furlough with his parents and will leave Sunday morning for Replacement Camp Gordon near Atlanta, Ga. He has just been graduated from an officer's training camp in Honolulu with the warrant of Sergeant, and will receive his commission after reaching Camp Gordon. To indicate their rank the graduates wear a small piece of tape or chevron on the left sleeve of their blouses which they discard when they receive their commissions.

Sergeant Marsh was a teacher in Honolulu and was also a member of the National Guard. He resigned his pedagogic work to enter the training camp with about forty other members of the National Guard, twenty of whom got through and were graduated. The balance of the 220 men in camp were drawn from the four regiments of infantry of the United States Army stationed there. There were a number of college men, six of them from the University of California. These had a considerable advantage over men of less education drawn from the ranks. Out of the 220 in camp, sixty were graduated. Because there was no chance to make use of these embryo officers there, they have been sent to the replacement camp and are hoping it means that they will go abroad from there, but of course they have no certain means of knowing what the government will do with them.

In answer to inquiries about the Hawaiians as material for soldiers, Sergeant Marsh said: "The native Hawaiians are a fine class of people. They naturally incline to the navy and are giving a good account of themselves there and also in the army. Some of them enlisted before the United States entered the war. They are very patriotic. They are natural 'scrappers' and anxious to get into the war."

He stated that no draft has yet been made in the islands for the reason that the enlistments from the National Guard were so great that they furnished more than the required quota. They will be subject to this coming draft, however, and will probably be called upon for 5000 to 6000 men drawn from Americans resident in Hawaii, from the native Philippine population, and from the native-born sons of Chinese, Korean and other nationalities who would be classified as natives.

It is his opinion that the four regiments of the regular army will continue to be maintained there and he says the soldiers were very envious of the graduates called away with the prospect of getting into the war sooner or later. Especially disappointed were the men of the 25th Regiment of Infantry, the colored men who saved the day at San Juan in the Spanish-American war, who are anxious to get in again and distinguish themselves.

EVENING SCHOOL

INTERESTING SESSIONS AT INTERMEDIATE ATTENDED BY PARENTS AND FRIENDS

Friday night Glendale parents had a chance to turn back the clock and renew their impressions of school days, for the Intermediate School, of which Richardson D. White, superintendent of Schools, is principal, again put on an exhibition of regular school life similar to the one given last year and it was even more successful than on that occasion. Not less than 250 adults were in attendance and all expressed enthusiastic interest in what they saw.

There were three periods, the first given to classes from 7 to 7:30 conducted in the usual way by the corps of teachers as follows:

- Mechanics and Manual Training, Mr. Harkness.
- Domestic Art, Miss Jones.
- History, Miss Midealf.
- English, Miss Frances Jackson and Miss Mallory.
- Geography, Mr. Blanford.
- Reading, Miss Elizabeth Jackson.
- Arithmetic, Miss Noble and Miss Sholes.
- Spelling, Miss Owen.
- Music, Miss Wetherby.
- Agriculture, Miss White.
- Cooking, Miss Wooldridge.

The second period was out of doors on the campus, where some very pretty gymnastic and marching drills and evolutions were witnessed, the girls being at the east end of the grounds under Miss Sholes, the boys at the west end under Messrs. Lehman and Blanford.

GLENDALE WINS

CLARENCE RALSTON CAPTURES SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA CHAMPIONSHIP

Glendale High is fairly puffed up with pride for its champion, Clarence Ralston, last night won the championship banner and gold medal for Southern California in the contest between the Los Angeles League and the Interurban League, which took place at old Los Angeles High building in Los Angeles. It was a decidedly hot contest, as the orators were the tried-out contestants from four strong high schools, viz., Los Angeles, Hollywood, Long Beach and Glendale. It is the first time in several years that Glendale has had the honor. Seven years ago its orator, Harold Stewart, captured this championship and gold medal.

Never has Clarence been in such good form as he was last night, and his victory was outstanding with points to spare. The enthusiasm of the Glendale delegation which attended and shared his triumph no doubt spurred him to exert his powers to the utmost, for they were a very confident lot of young people, with supreme faith in Ralston, and they made more noise than any other bunch of rooters. Guy Bennett, brother of the former champion, led the yells with a big megaphone. Mr. Perry, the coach for Los Angeles High, who has attended the contests for years, pronounced it the best one within his knowledge, as the champions were all splendid representatives of which any school would have reason to be proud.

Ralston also captured for his school the silver cup which the University of California puts up in Southern California to encourage oratory. When won by a contestant it is kept by his school for one year and the school which wins it three times, keeps it. Last year it was carried off by Polytechnic High.

The representatives of three colleges, Pomona, Occidental and U. S. C., gave the marks on composition and the thought, while the rating for delivery was made by the three judges, viz.: Judge Paul McCormick of the Superior Court, Mrs. Hunniwell of the State Normal School, and Mrs. Clarence Mackey, Dean of Women at U. S. C. While Pomona's rating had not been received last night, Ralston had received enough points without it from the other two colleges to give him the championship. Messrs. Dennemarck and Fendler, who represented Long Beach and Hollywood High Schools respectively, were tied for second honor, and their rank will have to be determined when Pomona's report is received. The fourth award went to F. Shattuck, the representative of L. A. High.

Professor Root declares the speakers were all exceptionally good, that Mr. Fendler, the Hollywood man, had an oration of which the subject matter was very fine but his delivery was not as good as his competitors'. Dennemarck was more than good in all respects, and Shattuck, president of the student body of L. A. High impressed him by his fine, musical, deep voice under splendid control.

RED CROSS SHOP

Mrs. Jack Boettner reports that she has secured two bird cages to house the canaries donated to the Red Cross Shop as a result of her appeal in this paper. She is very appreciative of the generous donations in the way of articles for sale, which the Shop is constantly receiving, and also appreciative of the patriotism displayed by many citizens in buying from the Shop whenever possible. Two handsome bedquilts pieced for the Shop have recently been sold at an excellent figure; choice grape fruit donated last week went rapidly; a goodly sum has been realized from the scarlet carnations which have been furnished almost daily by another good friend; the many regular contributions to the Thursday luncheon have kept the receipts at a very satisfactory figure. A new department of ready-to-wear garments, of which a sample smock is now displayed in the window, is being inaugurated by Mrs. St. Clair Whytock, who is giving her services for the Red Cross. Eight orders have already been secured for the smocks.

REVENUE FROM DOLLS

The lady who manufactures the popular cloth dolls for the Red Cross Shop has furnished them with twenty to date which have brought 75 cents to $1.00 each. She has also sold twenty-three through other channels for the Red Cross, and is glad to have the chance to help in that way.

WAR PARAMOUNT ISSUE

REDUCE TAXES SO ALL MAY CONTRIBUTE MORE LIBERALLY TO COMMON CAUSE

Editor News:
Referring to the article in the News of Saturday in reference to the teachers' appeal to the supervisors for increased amount of taxes for school purposes, permit the writer, as a taxpayer in the county for thirty-seven years to say:

The constantly increasing burden of taxation has been one of the principal causes of the depreciated value of real estate in California, so that at the present time there is a large and constantly growing class of property owners who are regretting their investment in realty and looking with envy upon the person who rents his home and gets the benefits of government without directly paying for it. If the enthusiastic advocate of the single tax theory who stands upon the street corner and circulates his petition for the adoption of his pet hobby, had any real understanding of the situation as it exists, he would be disillusioned as to the desirability of title deeds and their accompanying responsibilities. For this increase in taxes the public schools must bear the responsibility for a large proportion. In Glendale we are paying more for schools than we pay for the government of the municipality. I have not the exact figures, but it is in the neighborhood of $90,000. Last year out of a total tax rate of $2.13, the school tax was $1.58 1/2. The last legislature adopted an apparently wise law for the curbing of extravagance in public affairs, limiting the increase in taxation for any public object to an increase of five cents per hundred over the previous year. The school authorities immediately got busy with a referendum petition and owing to their perfect organization succeeded in getting the application of the law deferred so that it will come before the voters next fall for approval or otherwise. If the people are wise to their own interests they will approve it.

Extravagance has been the rule in the conduct of all public business in California ever since the day when we began to dig gold out of the ground and for the last few years the school people have been a conspicuous example of the abuse of power in levying taxes, the laws being now framed (thanks to the ability of Mr. Mark Keppel very largely) so that it is never necessary to ask the consent of the people to any expenditure except for a bond issue, and the latest kink looking toward dispensing with this restriction, is the law permitting a direct tax levy for "building purposes." This tax was levied on Glendale last year for the first time and will no doubt, if the taxpayers do not protest, be levied every year hereafter. The appeal alluded to above was made to the supervisors on behalf of the teachers who fear that they may be subject to a decrease in salary. Now it does not follow that economy can not be practiced in any way except by cutting down salaries, and I believe the people are willing to pay good teachers good wages; the good teacher who adds experience to his school-acquired knowledge and knows child human nature, is a valuable servant of the community, but I certainly agree with the opinion expressed in the News in the issue above referred to that some teachers are paid too much. Let the school authorities realize the fact that even the sacred cause of education is not superior to the issue that is now paramount with the people of the United States and its allies, the winning of the war, and it is the patriotic duty of the school authorities to do everything possible to aid this cause, and they can do it most effectually by reducing their expenses to a minimum in order that taxpayers may be able to contribute the more liberally to the great common cause. This reduction can be made by cutting out every unnecessary topic that it now costs money to teach, beginning with foreign languages of every kind and description. German has been kicked out at last (even though it is succeeded by teaching "German ideas," whatever that may mean, but let us hope not by suitable illustrations) and as a matter of economy no other language should at present have place in our elementary or high schools. There are a number of "good things" taught in our schools which the general public, that is the unfortunate property holder, should not be compelled to pay for. Cut them out and specialize on basic principles of good citizenship. A few teachers may lose their positions, but the community and the world in general will get along so much the better. A person whose property is on the delinquent tax list (and they are numerous) can not reasonably be ex-

ADVENTURES OF A LETTER

The adventures of a Glendale letter make an interesting tale which is told by Mrs. Yokel, a lady who adopted Glendale as her home a year or more ago, and who is a great booster for the town. She has two nephews in France who were among the first volunteers that went from Chicago, and she has a mother's heart for all soldiers. Last February she wrote a letter to a soldier in camp at Rockford, Ill., whom she had known for a good many years and enclosed her picture with the notation "From your oldest sweetheart." Before the letter reached there he had been transferred to another camp in Texas, and before it had arrived there, he had been honorably discharged from service on account of sickness. Not finding him there, the letter started on a tour of the camps and went up and down the country seeking the man to whom it was addressed. It finally went across the water to France and there fell under the observation of Hill McGillis of this city, who chanced to be detailed to service in the mail department. He sent it back to the Jewel City with the notation on the envelope: "Hello, Glendale! Call up 502-W and say 'Hello' to Mother. Thanks." Mrs. Yokel called upon Mrs. McGillis with the letter and personally delivered the message, finding in her errand a congenial new acquaintance.

LA CRESCENTA

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Pardee are receiving congratulations on the advent of a boy. Both mother and baby are progressing splendidly.

Irving Bissell, who is the guest of his brother, H. S. Bissell, at the Hi Up Ranch, caught the record fish of the season on the recent trip to Big Bear. A. C. Cobb and H. S. Bissell brought back the limit.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McKemy spent part of Sunday at their Crescenta place.

Leland Wise was the guest of Louis Scherb at Santa Monica for Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Mary Thomson has had a letter from her son Joe, who is in the Navy, saying: "We leave this afternoon for over there." The letter was not dated.

The Junior Red Cross Entertainment on Saturday night was a huge financial and artistic success. The money turned into the treasury was $103.35. The program was varied and showed hard work and training on the part of both teachers and children. Of the primary class, "The Frog Who Would a Wooing Go," with Horace Dey Schultz as the Frog, Grace Clifford Pease as his bride, the Mouse, Henrietta and Mildred Beisear as the Cat and the Kitten, and Eugene Harrah as the Rat who as Priest was to perform the marriage ceremony of the Frog and the Mouse, but was captured and eaten by the Cat, was in pantomime, with several other little ones to sing the story. The "Ten Little Indians" featured the very smallest of the children, Mary Ella Haines being the youngest member of the Junior Red Cross. "Story Book Land" had a splendid folk dance by a number of "fairies," Margaret Leenhouts as Folly, Georgiana Kidd and Marie Caldwell, the two little girls who wanted a good time and to run away from study. Horace Dey Schultz as Prince Bluet of Golden Hair and lastly the two little imps, Eugene Harrah and Walter Coffey, portrayed their parts with all the skill of seasoned actors. In the upper grades Caroline Erhart sang a Japanese song beautifully and responded to an encore with "Just a Baby's Prayer at Twilight" to the delight of the audience. The Japanese drill, the song, "Keep the Home Fires Burning" and the little

SOLDIERS' RIGHTS

In response to the request of Governor Stephens, the local Exemption Board is preparing itself to advise the men of the coming draft of the provisions the Government is making for the care of soldiers who receive honorable discharge because they are incapacitated by reason of wounds or the hardships of war. This is in the form of insurance. According to the circular letter received by Chairman Lanterman:

"It is proposed to make the local Boards the seat of information and preliminary advice, and the Legal Advisory Boards and Government Appeal Agent the active advisers or attorneys for all discharged soldiers and their dependents as well as the dependents of soldiers in the service. How best this should be done is left to the sound judgment of the Legal Advisory Boards and the Government Appeal Agents, but one thing should be thoroughly understood, namely, no assistance from volunteer help should be accepted in pursuance of this plan unless there is good reason to believe that the laws to be interpreted and applied have been thoroughly and completely digested and studied before advice is attempted. It is suggested that classes of advisers be organized for the study of the laws so that complete uniformity may result and none of the registrant's rights be overlooked or lost through ignorance of some provisions of the law involved."

The Boards are instructed to see that each registrant when inducted into the service is made thoroughly acquainted with the general scheme for the protection of his interests as well as those of his dependents.

The Young People's branch will meet Saturday evening with Mrs. Vivian Engle, corner Fifth and Cedar. There will be work on comfort bags so the members are requested to bring thimbles, needles and thread. As many as possible of the members are expected.

At Occidental College recently a fitting program in memory of the men who have gone out from college into the service of our country was held. More than 50 new stars were added to the monster service flag, bringing the total of Occidental's contribution of men to about 160.

play, "The Brave Professor," with Florence Bruce, Caroline Erhart, Claxton Young and Francis Foy, were splendidly rendered. Of outside talent Erhardt and Erhardt gave a zither duet and Prof. White opened the evening with several splendid selections. Miss Armstrong, violinist, accompanied by Mrs. H. C. Lee, greatly delighted us all by her wonderful playing. And the two little Grunn girls, daughters of Homer Grunn, gave us a beautiful picture in their dancing of the minut. I almost forgot our "cullud pussons," Grant and John Leenhouts. Their local hits were quite amusing, their make-up very clever, the music weird and the recipe for corn bread well worth trying out. These boys will make a mark in the vaudeville world some day. Watch them. Dr. Louis Weber and Miss Clara Jones each donated a rooster which were raffled off at $10 each. Mr. Volmer, the head confection baker at the Y. M. C. A. in Los Angeles, donated a wonderful cake, which brought over $15. Candy and pop were sold and brought $18 to swell the total. The evening closed with a flag drill by eleven boys in sailor costume, carrying the allied flags, with Wm. Thompson as America. Everybody had a good time and enjoyed the evening, and the Junior Red Cross desires to thank all their many friends for their generous response to their appeals.

Next Sunday Miss Orilla Sams of Pasadena will sing at the La Crescenta church at the morning service and Miss Lida St. Clair of Tropic at the evening service, at which time Mr. Northrup will speak on "Slarkers."

Mrs. Forbes has her sister from Douglas, Arizona, as house guest.

Saturday night, May 25th, the Woman's Club will give a cabaret dance for the benefit of the Red Cross. Preparations are being made for the biggest and greatest aggregation of talent; all professional, that has ever been seen here. Nell Lockwood, the singer, of international reputation, is just off the Big Time. Homer Grunn and A. C. Alter, the cellist, are part of the program. Pauline Maron, the dancer, just released from the Orpheum Circuit, and who leaves for France to dance for "Our Boys" right up on the front in the trenches, will give four dances. Tables will be arranged where all can see. Refreshments will be served and dancing for all, and it's only 25 cents for all these good things, so don't fail to come out tonight and see and hear and dance and have a good time for the sake of "Our Boys over there."

Next Tuesday will be a Fairbanks night, "Reggie Mixes In." It's a Scream from the first flicker to the wind up. You will like it, I know. Come along.

The Red Cross drive is on. Keep your contribution for La Crescenta. We must more than raise our quota for this great cause.

Have you registered? If not, why not see Mr. Pinkus?

Children's Day will be observed in the Tropic Presbyterian church on Sunday, June 9th.

Mrs. Lawrence of Pomona has been the house guest this week of Mrs. G. M. Ely of 1417 West Second street.

Miss Ursell Montgomery of Los Angeles will speak in the West Glendale Methodist church next Sunday, May 26, at 11 o'clock.

Charles Woods of Pittsburgh, Pa., is here for an extended visit with his brother, St. Clair Woods, and family, of Valley View road.

Mrs. Richard Leonhardt and her children, Mildred and Everett, of 844 Columbus avenue, will spend Decoration Day and the week-end following in Long Beach.

Mrs. D. H. Johnson of 1428 West Colorado street is having the pleasure of entertaining her sister, Miss Ida G. Park, who arrived Wednesday from Nogales, Arizona, to spend the summer.

The young people of the Tropic Presbyterian Church had a social Friday night. It was an invitation affair and the guests were entertained with an original and delightfully social program.

A novelty will be introduced into the prayer meeting at the Glendale Presbyterian church next Wednesday evening, when stereopticon views will be shown of relief and sustentation work in the United States.

Emery G. Snow of 1426 West Second street, who was so badly injured in Jerome, Arizona, that he was forced to spend six weeks in a hospital, came home Monday. He is still on crutches, but is recovering.

Mrs. Pierson Hanning of 1551
 Hawthorne street will give a Ladies' Aid Society Tea next Tuesday afternoon at her home. An interesting program will be rendered. Come and get acquainted with your neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bartle of Monrovia will be dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Brown of 300 North Louise street this evening, and will afterwards accompany them to the Schumann-Heink concert in Los Angeles.

One of the most important recent events in Glendale was the birth at 11:30 this morning, May 25th, 1918, of an 8½-pound son to Mr. and Mrs.
 James B. Garson of 322 North Isabel street. He has been named Warfield Garson and is the first son and first grandson on either side of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Plate, who came from San Diego about four weeks ago, are so delighted with Glendale that Mr. Plate is looking for a business location with a view to settling here. Mrs. Plate says they think it the nicest little place they have ever seen and they like the characteristics of the people.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McGillis of 205
 Lomita avenue went to San Pedro Saturday for a farewell visit with their son, Howard McGillis, who enlisted in the Coast Artillery soon after the United States entered the war, but who is now in the anti-aircraft service. He expects to be sent forward any day. His brother, Hill McGillis, is now in France.

That they may wipe out a small balance due for choir vestments recently purchased, the choir of the First Methodist Church of this city will give a concert Sunday evening at 7:30 at the church, which will include solo numbers by Miss Margaret Lusby and Miss Eva Thede, three chorus numbers by the choir, one quartet number, and several by little Margaret McKee, the whistler.
 Miss McQuinn, the new organist, will precede these numbers with a fifteen-minute organ recital. The general public is invited to come and enjoy this program.

"DADDY"

"It's 2 in the morning and the house is cold. Out of the darkness comes a cry: 'Daddy!
 Daddy! Oh! Daddy!' And Daddy is up. He doesn't mind the cold if the little hand that pats him is warm."

That was ten years ago—happy, short years, working for baby and mother.

It's 2 in the morning again and out of the darkness comes the cry: 'Daddy! Oh! Daddy!' But Daddy will never jump up again—and he doesn't know that Betty's hands are warm over his cold ones.

It's two years later. The little cash balance is gone. The education Daddy and Mother had planned for Betty has to be given up. Both she and the mother must make their own living now. Daddy failed to provide income insurance for their protection."

A word to the wise is sufficient. Act the part. Avoid such a possibility.

THE DAY OF PRAYER, THURSDAY

Decoration Day, next Thursday, has been set apart by President Wilson as a day of fasting and prayer.
 People of every color and creed ought to heed this call. The president's message and proclamation exhorts all of his fellow-citizens to assemble on that day in places of worship, as well as in their homes, to pray Almighty God in behalf of ourselves and the cause to which we as a nation are giving ourselves.
 Preparation has been made for a union service for all who feel called to this duty at the First M. E. Church at 10:30 on the forenoon of Decoration Day. It will be a service of prayer and humiliation, "to beseech God for victory for our armies as they fight for freedom, for wisdom for those who take counsel on our behalf in these days of dark struggle and perplexity, for steadfastness for our people to make sacrifice to the utmost in support of what is just and true." This is as much every citizen's duty as any other support of the nation in its time of great need.

CANADIAN TEA

Do not forget the Canadian Tea, which takes place next Monday at the Jewel City Cafe at the corner of Broadway and Glendale avenue. A very fine program has been prepared which will include the following:

Fancy dancing and dramatic numbers by pupils of the Pearl Keller School of Dramatic Art and Dancing, assisted by Merna and Merle Kahler and by Miss Ora Dalton Lockhart, whistler, of Seattle.

Vocal solo, "The Maple Leaf Forever," by Miss Lulu Lanterman.

War lecture by Sergeant R. A.
 Rayner of the Canadian Highland Regiment, who has lost a son in service and has another son now at the front. His lecture is said to be of thrilling interest.

Mrs. W. S. Rattray and Mrs. F.
 L. Kinnear will be hostesses and will be assisted by Mesdames Alexander Mitchell, Lawrence Blakeney, Helen Campbell, John Wilde, George Bannock and Misses Ina Whitaker, Lorraine Mitchell, Barbara Mitchell and Gertrude Nash.

The proceeds of the tea and entertainment will go to the British Ambulance War Fund. Ladies are invited to bring their knitting. The program will begin at 3:30 p. m.

 For the third period, which came to an end about nine o'clock, the audience adjourned to the auditorium and witnessed a typical "Assembly" at which Mr. White expressed for himself and his assisting teachers their gratification in the attendance and the interest displayed. He announced that the school would answer the call of President Wilson to celebrate May 24th as Italian Day, the anniversary of the date three years ago when Italy after stubbornly refusing to join the oppressor, lined up with France and England and is now the ally of this country.
 He paid a tribute to the splendid patriotism and democracy of Italy and read the president's proclamation.

The president and secretary of the school athletic association were then called to the platform and took charge of the meeting, the minutes of the last session of the association were read and approved and letters won in games were awarded, four large letters to as many boys, two small letters to girls and seven small letters to boys. These were all summoned to the rostrum and the letters presented to an accompaniment of enthusiastic applause from the pupil audience.

A patriotic musical program was then rendered as follows: "Keep the Home Fires Burning," "Marsellaise," "Rule Britannia," The Japanese National Air (sung to both English and Japanese words), the Italian National Air and the "Star-Spangled Banner." Mr. McRae introduced an entirely unexpected extra by ascending the platform and voicing the appreciation of the parents of the excellent work which is being done by Superintendent White and the teachers under him.

After the assembly was dismissed quite a reception was held in the main hall, where parents lingered to congratulate each other and the teachers on the school work and the interesting demonstrations they had witnessed.

EXPERT NEWS PHOTOGRAPHERS NEEDED

A number of high-grade news photographers are urgently needed by the Signal Corps. These men must have expert experience in handling of speed cameras, such as Graflex, Graphic, and also understand speeds of lenses and various makes of cameras and operation of same.

Only those men who can furnish references as to their actual experience as news photographers will receive consideration.

The men selected for this branch of the service will be sent to a school for military training. Upon completion of the training they will be promoted to grades of sergeant, first class, and will be ordered overseas in a short time.

Applicants must be citizens of the United States between the ages of 21 and 31.

All communications should be addressed to Aid Division, Training Section, Photographic Branch, Washington, D. C.

THRIFT SPORTS

From Professor Harry Howe information has been received that next Tuesday a very interesting and exciting event will take place at Glendale Union High School. It will be a new departure, a sort of Beau Brummel and Sis Hopkins day, when all the students will be permitted to "dress up" in unusual costumes and at the close of the afternoon session a challenge game of ball will be played between the seniors and members of the faculty. Students will attend in the aforementioned unusual costumes and it will be an open game to which the public is urgently invited. The requirement for admission will be the purchase of one thrift stamp at the grand stand, the stamp to be kept and placed in the stamp book of the purchaser. It will be a spectacular and highly entertaining affair, both as a social and sporting event, and fans will be welcome.

HOME MISSIONS

One of the most delightful afternoons of the year was enjoyed Thursday by the members and friends of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the First Methodist Church.
 It was the occasion of the annual mite box opening of the society and a most enjoyable and entertaining as well as instructive program was

A SOLDIER'S LETTER
 The following interesting letter from Corporal Con Clanin of Company 71st, M. M. Regt. S. C., American Expeditionary Force, has been received by Clifford Clanin of 300 Boynton street, this city.
 4-8-1918,
 Somewhere in France.
 Dear Brother and All:
 It is Thursday evening, 8:30, and I have about thirty minutes so thought I had better write you a letter as I have not heard from you since I have been in France. I am sure I have written you two letters since arriving, but maybe they have been a little slow in coming as there is so much mail.
 I am feeling fine and having a good time. I have been to town once and will go again Saturday. It is amusing to be in these towns and see the funny buildings. Most of the stores are small and low, most of them one or two stories and most of the French people wear wooden shoes except when they are dressed up.
 I was down to a lake fishing last Sunday from about ten o'clock until five.
 It is now Friday evening. I had to quit last evening because the light went out. It was real warm here yesterday but turned cool last night.
 I am going to town again tomorrow evening and go to a show if I can find one. They say there are two, but I have never run across them.
 I am going to try to get some pictures taken and will send you some if I do.
 I can't think of much to write so will close hoping this will find you all well and getting along fine in your business. I sure would like to see the boys. If you have any camera pictures, send me some. Love to all.
 Your brother
 CON.

Fred Jacklitsch, former catcher for the Boston Nationals, Fred Quinby, old Yale crack star, Jack Magee, former Bowdoin coach, and "Sparrow" Robertson, sporting authority, are Y. M. C. A. physical directors on their way to France.

Harry Lauder, famous Scotch comedian, who toured the country for the Y. M. C. A., spoke to more than one million persons in seven months.

News comes from Y. M. C. A. secretaries in France that French soldiers like simple games. They catch a baseball rather awkwardly with both hands while Americans just pick them out of the air with either hand. The poilus enjoy playing "Puss-in-the-Corner."

TUJUNGA

The Red Cross sewing bee of the 17th was the largest one yet, about 40 ladies in attendance, and the work was rushed rapidly along. Mrs. Hoffman brought some cookies that were auctioned off and the proceeds put in the "Penny Box" for current expenses. The list of members is still growing, until nearly every one in the village has a button to show for membership. It is hoped the next meeting will prove just as successful as the last one. Any one who will contribute towards the Red Cross drive now on throughout the United States, in this section, is requested to leave their donations with Mrs. Ludke, the treasurer, at the store, or any other of the officers of the Red Cross Auxiliary. Let your home town have the benefit of your donations.

W. H. Wieman and Dr. Kearney were in Pomona last week to attend an Endeavor Convention, returning on Saturday.

Charles W. Dean came up from Brawley for a few days' visit with his wife and parents, returning on Wednesday. He is very enthusiastic in regard to the Imperial Valley and its resources and delighted with its business facilities. He says there is no excuse for any man not having work at good wages. The cantaloupe season is now on and for the next six or seven weeks will be a rush. Barley and wheat are immense crops there this year, the barley harvest just beginning and wheat to follow.

"Tad" Wieman left for San Francisco the first of the week. A surprise party of the Endeavor circle invaded his home and during the evening, after serving a light lunch, Miss Virginia Leckie, in behalf of the society, presented him with a fine wrist watch. We are sorry to see the boys leaving one by one, but glad to know they all feel it a duty to their country and go willingly.

D. C. Dean and Joe Carr were in Burbank on Tuesday.

The Board of Trade held its monthly meeting on Monday eve. A billboard for the use of the people was ordered and the road situation reviewed. As soon as the crusher is moved from its present place, the county will repair all roads that have been so badly cut by the teams hauling crushed rock. Two lemon pies were auctioned off for a dollar a piece and the money turned over to the Red Cross. Mr. Parcher and Mr. Slusher each had a pie.

The consolidation of the Sunset and Home Telephone companies now makes it possible for us to telephone from Tujunga on either line. This has been quite inconvenient for us during the past four years, for if we wished to call on the Home phone it was necessary to go to La Crescenta, a distance of four miles.

Mr. Mills and wife, of Los Angeles, spent Monday in the village looking after their interests here.

Mr. Johnson's brother and wife, as well as Robert Copeland, Sundayed here and in the afternoon went up in the Big Tujunga for lunch before returning to their home in Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown, with Mr. and Mrs. Parcher, motored to Pasadena on Saturday. From there Mr. and Mrs. Parcher went to Montebello and Mr. and Mrs. Brown to Rialto, returning on Sunday.

Miss Alice Knight, who has been a teacher in Glendora the past four years, is spending the spring and summer with Mrs. Colburn.

Mr. Teitsworth of Van Nuys is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Wright, on Michigan avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Madaris, who have occupied the house of Jack Catt, went into Los Angeles on Wednesday. Mr. Madaris drove the cement truck for the highway contractors, but has a better position offered him in the city.

The Bee Club will meet at the home of Ensign Woodruff on Monday eve, May 27th. A mistake was made in the date last week. Let every member attend. Those in need of foundation had better lay in a supply as prices are to advance within a week or two and the prospect of none at all in three months' time is predicted by dealers.

The "Senior Social Club" will give one of their enjoyable dances on Saturday eve, June 1st. Everybody welcome. Come and have a good time.

SUNLAND

Miss Virginia Rowley of Glendale was a week-end guest of Ethel Adams.

Mrs. A. Blumfield and Mrs. A. Richardson are soliciting donations for the Red Cross drive. Everybody do your bit.

David Corey is visiting his mother at the Monte Vista Tavern.

Mrs. C. Beck Meyer is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer, this week.

The Monte Vista school closes for the summer vacation May 29th. There are three graduates from the eighth grade. The children are practicing for a play to be given the 29th of May at the school house.

C. B. Morgan moved this week from Dr. Hansen's house to his tent under the oaks in Mr. Rowley's grove.

Jess Johnson and wife, of Los Angeles, were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Johnson.

A man from Los Angeles was in Sunland looking over the place with the view of putting in a stock of general merchandise.

Messrs. Herron and Cumstock have treated their corner stand to a coat of paint. They have a very neat stand under the oak, where one can enjoy a dish of ice cream or a cool drink of lemonade or soda pop.

Spencer Corey was bitten by a rattlesnake Monday. With brave presence of mind he bound a cord tightly around his leg and with his knife cut out the bite. By prompt action he was saved until Dr. Thompson could get to him and he is now able to be out again. A close call for Spencer.

Last Sunday was visitors' day at the First Baptist church. In the morning Mr. Lymes brought the Men's Bible class of seventeen to visit Sunday School and morning services. In the evening the Christian Endeavor entertained members of the Los Angeles City Union.

LOYALTY TO THE BOYS

AT THE FRONT

IT IS WITH PLEASURE we learn of the diligent work that has been accomplished by the authorized workers in the Red Cross WAR FUND DRIVE that is coming to such a successful close.

When busy men and women give up their usual callings and without recompense devote all their time for a week to the interests of this noble cause, their patriotism may be justly rated at 100 per cent loyalty to their country and love for humanity.

The boys who have gone from Glendale to engage in real war activities number more than 300. They have gone not to seek pleasure and riches, but they have gone to do and die for their country. We are fully aware that it is for the support of these boys and their comrades from elsewhere that you feel the urgent call to do your full duty to the RED CROSS.
