wigh to arouse our people to a sense of the danger to to is allowed to progress. We are all aware that meeting was on the eve of taking place in New York, for the purpose of devision measures for the immediate enont of the servile caste among us, and that it was only prevented by the timely interposition of our gionds. The special object, which those false philantropists, have in view, perhaps, is not so generally known here as it ough; to be. Their avowed purpose is to enfranshice, under specious pleas of humanity, our hefots upo a principle similar to that adopted by England towards the West India Islands, and to place them on a perfect equality with ourselves! As revolting as such a measure ould be, and as manifest an infringement as it is upon th rights secured to us by the national constitution, a diaboliad alacrity has been shown to carry it into immediate ope To show the spirit by which our adversaries are it is but necessary to revent, that where one of m, by the bye, the most prominent, WILLIAM L. GARison, was expostulated with upon the impractibility of his acheme, (not to mention its evident injustice and diaregard of right.) manifested by the fact, that if the enslaved were placed upon an equality with their masters, enjoying with them the elective franchise, they would in their turn, o the enslavers, he replied "that if they did strict justice only would be dune." No doubt, can be entertained, i such as he got the ascendancy what would be the fate Mr citisons would have to undergo. Their rights turnpled upon, their fields deluged in blood, the most herrid soesses and barbarities committed, would be the unhappy portion that would full to their cruel destiny. It behaves wir citizens therefore to co-operate heartily with their riends throughout the union, in crushing at once the depigns of such men and to strain every nerve to put a stol immediately to any attempt made to intermeddle with he perfect and quiet possession of property, guaranteed to Parson, having no doubt received orders, has deemed it fit to notice at last our article calling for light as to the family of which, it is asserted, Mr. Priour is the head. With the wavaf appropriate and decent style which he is in the habit of indulging in, we are informed that our curiosity is not gretified on our account, but to convince the public how fallen must be that cause whose champions prefer to plead ignerence rather than the more becoming [mark that genthe reader] confession of error. For our part, as our readers all probably well know, we did not demand information upon the delicate matter in question, so much for our men nake as far theory, as our repugnance to Mr. Prieur for governer is based more immediately upon considerations that have come under our personal view dehers of the one un-Mercentile Aberliser.

A solid improvement in aign-making has been put into operation in this act parceiving such a disposition as the above quotation evidences in the hireling, anticipating that he would come cut with an honest avowal of the truth, and attempt discreditable proof of his skill, and the value of his plan. Gentlemen.—I have had the honor to receive your communication under siste of the 28th ultimo, inviting me, on behalf of Merchanta and ethers, to a public dinner.

I cannot but be aware that the view you have taken of my conduct arises from the partiality of friendship; and I feel that instead of being the object of the proposed compliment, it would be more proper for me to unite with my fellow citizens in paying respect to those who have really given glevation and dignity to the mercantile character of New York.

I must therefore most respectfully decline your invita-
