Bulbs for Fall Planting

These Flower Bulbs and Plants produce remarkably beautiful flowers; many of them are delightfully fragrant and flower equally well under garden or house culture. Among other merits of these bulbs are the certainty and perfection with which they bloom and their ease of culture.

HOW AND WHEN TO ORDER

The best time to order is just as soon as you receive this catalog. We can always give your orders more of our personal attention if they come in before the rush of the fall trade.

ERRORS.—We exercise the utmost care in filling orders, striving to do a little more than we offer; yet in the press of business errors sometimes occur, in which event we wish to be promptly notified of the fact and will make such corrections as will be satisfactory. Please keep copies of all your orders for comparison.

It will save confusion and delays if the name or initials of the same member of the family are used on the orders and correspondence.

Prices given in this catalog are for early orders and include postage if the order amounts to fifty cents or more. Later in the season, when our own importations are exhausted, we may not be able to always supply at these low prices, but will always send FULL VALUE for the money you send us.

OUTDOOR FALL BULB CULTURE

FOR OPEN-GROUND PLANTING.—Most of the suitable sorts should be planted in the fall, and they will flower the following season, commencing in March or earlier with Snowdrops, Crocus, etc., which are followed with Hyacinths, Tulips, Daffodils, and a host of other bulbous beauties. In April and May appear late Tulips, late Narcissus, Lily-of-the-Valley, Bleeding Heart, etc., being followed in succession until frost, with Peonies, Iris, Hemerocallis, Lilies, etc.

TIME TO PLANT.—Remember that the "fall" is the time to plant all spring flowering bulbs. They may be put in almost any time from October first until the ground freezes; in fact, we have succeeded with even later planting, but earlier planting brings best success

HOW TO PLANT.—The soil should be well spaded, and the surface of the beds slightly raised at the center, so that no water will stand, but soak the bed good with water when first put in and then later if it dries out. The soil will be better if enriched with well-rotted manure or bone dust.

AFTER TREATMENT.—All bulbs like a sunny exposure, and if protected from the north will bloom earlier. The bulbs do well for a number of years, without lifting or replanting. When through flowering the beds may be planted with shallow-rooted annuals, as nasturtiums, petunias, verbenas, etc. If necessary the bulbs may be taken up when the leaves begin to ripen, to be again replanted the coming fall.

OUR QUALITY BULBS

As the flowers are already formed in the bulbs, is it not reasonable to suppose that the larger and more perfect bulbs you plant, the larger and finer the flower will be?

When we placed our orders with the growers, our instructions were "Send us only the very largest and most perfect bulbs obtainable in Holland, France, and other countries."

You may be offered bulbs at a lower price, but they will be smaller. Our prices are as low as it is possible to furnish these TOP-SIZE BULBS.

Try them once—you will see the difference when they bloom.

Wyatt's Selected Hyacinths,

For Outdoor or Indoor Planting

The culture of Hyacinths is very easy. For early spring blooming out of doors the bulbs should be planted 5 inches deep. After planting give the beds a covering of well-rotted leaves or litter, or well-rotted manure.

FOR POT CULTURE

Hyacinths are excellent for indoor growing. See that the pots are well drained and use the best soil possible. Plant the bulbs about an inch below the surface. Water thoroughly and put away in a dark cellar, or stand them out of doors and cover pot and all with about 8 to 10 inches of sand. Let them stand this way about 6 or 7 weeks or longer if necessary. The tops should be 4 inches high before brought in the house to the light. If brought in sooner the Hyacinths will make short, inferior flowers. A 4-inch pot will hold a good sized single bulb, and a 6- to 8-inch pot will hold 3 to 5 bulbs. The sprouts are yellow by keeping them covered in this way, but this does not matter, as they turn green quickly as soon as exposed to light.

Wyatt's Superb Darwin Tulips

The late-flowering Darwin Tulip has out-classed all its predecessors in type, style and beauty, and is at the present the Queen of the Tulip family. It attains a height of 2 or 3 feet, with strong, heavy foliage, erect and robust stem, terminating in large and massive flowers. The colors of the Darwin embrace all the shades of white, pink, lilac, rose, scarlet, crimson and maroon, and most of the flowers show a particular satiny effect. Darwin Tulips are the finest among shrubby and perennials; they grow tall, bloom for a long time, and, if planted 6 to 8 inches deep and left undisturbed, will bloom for many seasons. A great many of the varieties will force to good advantage and may be had in bloom during March. They also thrive in semi-tropical climates, like those of California and the Southern States, better than the early Tulips.

Selected Single Early Tulips

October to December are the best months for planting, and to grow them to perfection the bulbs should be planted about 5 inches apart and 5 inches deep. Generally speaking, the single flowering varieties are by far the most brilliant and showy for outdoor planting. Tulips grow very well in pots with from 3 to 12 bulbs in each pot or bowl.

The letters A, B, C, etc., following the varieties indicate their earliness of bloom—the A's flower together and are the earliest; B's follow before the A's are out of bloom, etc. The height is indicated in inches to aid in arranging the flower beds.

Last Call for Narcissus

The Federal Horticultural Plant Board has prohibited the importation of many varieties of bulbs, among which are Narcissus. This act goes into effect December 31, 1925. Order early for the demand will be greater than the supply.

They are easy to grow, and bloom in the spring when flowers are scarce. After blooming the tops die down and the bulbs stay dormant all during the summer, and then the following spring they come up and bloom again, and continue to bloom from year to year. All that is necessary is to dig them up occasionally and divide the roots, so that after you once buy these bulbs they continue to bloom indefinitely. There has been a great improvement in Narcissus and Daffodils in the past few years, and some of the flowers now grow to enormous size. We call your attention to the Van Waveren's Giant, Emperor, and Empress Narcissus, which are the largest and most beautiful flowers we have ever seen, and should be included in every collection. Plant the bulbs about 5 inches deep and about the same distance apart.

Hardy Garden Lilies

For color, fragrance, beauty, and variety of form, nothing can equal these grand flowers; whether grown in pots or grouped in the hardy plant border, where their hardiness makes them so desirable, they are always an object of beauty.

Lily Bulbs, being of late maturity, are not ready before November and December (the best time to plant them).

LILIUM AURATUM (the Gold-Banded Lily of Japan). Flowers white, dotted crimson, with a clear golden band running through the center of each petal; very fragrant. A splendid lily for pots, or for planting out in the shrub or plant borders. Its large flowers and delicious perfume make it one of the most valuable. Blooms in July. Mammoth bulbs, 40c each, $4.00 per doz.

LILIUM SPECIOSUM RUBRUM. Large bulbs producing attractive white flowers shaded and spotted with rose and red. Blooms June-July. Mammoth bulbs, 50c each, $5.00 per doz.

SUPERBUM (Our Native Turk's Cap Lily). Rich orange red petals, tipped red and dark spotted. 4 to 6 feet high. Blooms July and August. Each 25c, $2.50 doz.

TIGRINUM SPLENDENS (Tiger Lily). The grandest of the Tiger Lilies. Black polished stems, sometimes 6 feet high. Very large pyramids of flowers, orange red spotted with black. 3 to 5 feet high. Blooms in July. Each 25c, dozen $2.50, $15.00 per 100.

CANDIDUM (Madonna Lily). One of the best hardy Lilies. Flowers pure white, large, delightful fragrance. Blooms in May-June. Each 35c, $3.00 per doz.

Calla Lilies.

CALLA LILIES

These like a stiff, clayey soil with a small quantity of shredded cow-manure. Bulbs should be set with the crown, or top, protruding just above the surface. When in growing condition, warm water given several times during the week will hasten the flowering period and increase the number of blooms. The Yellow Calla which is one of the grandest varieties in cultivating, and most valuable for house or conservatory decoration. Plant Calla indoors only in the fall of the year.

WHITE CALLA LILY. Selected Bulbs, 25c each, $2.50 per doz.

Old North State Sweet Peas'

These are almost hardy enough to live out over winter, and they make their best growth in the cool part of the season. The only way to have them last at all, once the hot weather comes, is to have them deeply rooted by that time, so plant as soon as you can stir the ground in the spring, when it is not muddy, covering 2 inches. Frost will not hurt them. Cultivate thoroughly, plant about 1 inch apart in rich ground; give plenty of water as soon as plants are up. Can be sown in the fall, November being a good time.
